Construction In 1977 Begins At Slower Pace; Boom Continues

January Total Reported

The building boom for the Hereford vicinity is continuing right into 1977 only on a smaller scale as reflected in the building permit total for January. The picture isn't as rosy as the previous year, but it's nothing to get grumpy about.

HEREFORD HAS several banquets each year that only the Bull Barn will hold. One such event is scheduled Friday night when the Camp Fire Girls hold their annual Father Daughter Banquet. It's the highlight of the year for the girls, and Hereford has one of the most active Camp Fire organizations in the country.

HELEN HIGGINS is observing her fifth anniversary at Helen's Youth Shop. The birthday date was Feb. 1 and Helen plans to hold an anniversary event sometime this month. Several merchants have gone to market recently to view spring and summer fashions.

ANOTHER RURAL correspondent joins the Brand lineup this week. "Stalene News" is scheduled to start Friday with Mrs. C.L. Hutchins of Broadview, N.M. as the corresponding reporter. Her area of interest will be around the Bootleg Corner, Walcott and Broadview communities.

Our other rural correspondents include Betty Hayes of Summerfield, Mrs. John Spinhrine of Vega, and Mrs. Owen Andrews from "Along the Frio." We'd like to have a reporter in the Dawn area, too.

WEDNESDAY WAS Groundhog Day and tradition has it that there will be six more weeks of winter if the little animal sees his shadow on that day. There's a big ceremony with the tradition in Pennsylvania, and even in West Texas folks check to see if the prairie dog sees his shadow.

We're more inclined to look at the National Weather Service prediction, which says it is unlikely there will be an early spring!

TOWNS ARE judged by their "leading citizens."

When an industry looks at a town as a prospective site for a plant, many factors besides labor, raw material supply and location are considered. Industry is more than ever aware that a good town is one where there is a progressive attitude with alert and considerate retailers, salespeople and service personnel.

They judge a town not only by its leaders, but also by its "leading citizens." And some of those leading citizens are those who meet industrial representatives first—service station attendants, waitresses in restaurants, motel clerks, and salespeople in stores.

If these people are courteous, attentive, hospitable and "sold" on their community, they will attract customers and may well help land a new industry!

office recorded $594,040 in building permits for the month ended Monday. A total of 23 permits were issued, mostly for residential structures, city records show.

It was a high amount by comparison to most months, but smaller by about $200,000 than the figure of $790,230 experienced in January of 1976. Last year's annual total was a record amount of $7,473,850. It set a new yearly record over the previous $5 million mark in 1965.

Attributing mostly to the January total was the building of 10 residences for single family occupancy. The largest of these was taken out by Mederacraft Inc. for a $54,000 house.

The others are as follows: $45,000- Lee Umsted of Family Homes; $37,500- Richard Burch; $30,000- Richard Burch; $35,000- Riley Holmes; $44,000- Mike Williams Construction Co.; $43,000- Mike Williams Construction; $21,000- John Craig; $22,000- John Craig; and $21,000- John Craig.

The total in residential construction minus additions and improvements was $352,000.

THE SINGLE LARGEST permit of the month and the largest commercial structure was for the renovation and expansion of the Deaf Smith County jail, located on the north side of the county courthouse. It amounted to $186,000.

As indicated by the residential building, a large demand has been expressed for new homes. More new houses are being built in the small price range to satisfy a void in such housing in the area.

Other permits issued during the month are as follows:

- $2,000- John C. Powers, residential addition.
- $3,750- Emerald Oil and Gas Co., storage tanks.
- $1,000- Antonio Mata, moving in addition to residence.
- $2,260- R.L. Pool, storage tanks.
- $700- Frank Barrett, storage tanks.
- $700- Robert Boyd, construct garage.
- $500- Harold Dean Fox, storage building.
- $12,000- Burl Fish, residence addition.
- $1,860- Joe A. Valdez, moving in residence.
- $28,000- Arvel Williams et al., store.
- $2,800- Rank Villegas Jr., basement.

West Texas, Panhandle Winter Storm Leaves Snow In Its Wake

By The Associated Press

A winter storm centered over West Texas began to weaken overnight after dumping up to eight inches of snow over the mountains of New Mexico. But snow still was falling this morning across the east and north parts of New Mexico, the Texas Panhandle and Northwest Oklahoma.

A winter storm warning was extended into today across eastern New Mexico, and travel advisories were up for North Texas and Northwest Oklahoma, where one to three inches of snow was predicted.

The upper air disturbance that set off the storm in the Rockies also spread scattered snow and thundershowers across much of East Texas and Louisiana.

Snow was falling today from North Missouri to the Great Lakes. Travel advisories covered northeastern Missouri, north and central Illinois, northern Indiana, and Michigan. Gale warnings covered Lake Superior and Lake Huron.

Dense fog covered parts of eastern Kansas and western Missouri, as well as parts of the Pacific coast. Elsewhere, clear of partly cloudy skies prevailed.

Montana had mild temperatures overnight, with readings in the 20s and 30s and predictions for unseasonable warm weather today.

Elsewhere around the nation, temperatures were generally seasonable. Readings were close to zero across Vermont and New Hampshire and in the teens across the rest of the north Atlantic coast states and the upper Mississippi valley.

Readings in the 20s and the 30s were common across the remainder of the nation except for 40s and 50s in the Pacific states, the southern plains and the Gulf coast. Temperatures were in the 60s across southern Florida.

Nationwide, the overnight temperatures ranged from 3 below zero at Lebanon, N.H., to 71 at Key West, Fla.

Hill Checks Prospects To Run For Governorship

PALESTINE, Tex. (AP) - Texas Atty. Gen. John Hill says he is seriously considering running for governor and already has someone on his political payroll to check his prospects.

Hill told reporters in Palestine Wednesday, "If I run for governor it will be next time. I now have a person on my political payroll probing deeply the prospects."

In a speech to a Palestine Rotary Club, Hill said Texas should win the Howard Hughes will case. "I believe Mr. Hughes meant for Texas to be his domicile and it is my opinion that none of the existing wills are valid," he said.

Hill also read a telegram he sent to President Jimmy Carter about the gas crisis.

He said it is essential that consumers in other states pay as much as Texans for

Congress Moves On Economy Bill

Casual Carter Calls For Sacrifice In Talk

WASHINGTON (AP) - Congress is moving ahead on Carter administration proposals to create jobs and cut taxes after hearing the President appeal for sacrifices by the people and promise that the government will join in giving up comforts once taken for granted.

Treasury Secretary W. Michael Blumenthal, Labor Secretary F. Ray Marshall and other top officials of the new administration were before congressional committees today. They were to provide details of the economic measures President Carter has proposed to stimulate the economy and reduce unemployment. In his first nationwide address since his inauguration two weeks ago, Carter, clad in beige cardigan sweater and seated before a fireplace in the White House library, evoked memories of Franklin D. Roosevelt, who made fireside chats over radio during the Depression and World War II.

Carter's low-key address mixed promises of action on the nation's most pressing problems with calls for sacrifice as the only path to long-range solutions.

He appealed to Congress for cooperation and made clear his intention to cultivate direct communication with the American people.

And even as Congress labored over this economic proposal, Carter promised to send it by the end of the week his request for authority to reorganize executive departments and agencies of the department.

Carter outlines his initial proposals aimed at solving immediate problems, from the natural gas shortage brought on by extreme winter weather to the problems of unemployment and a stagnant economy.

But the strongest message Carter had for the American people was the need for personal sacrifice to solve national problems: sacrifice on the part of government officials as well as the people.

Sen. Alan Cranston of California, assistant Senate Majority leader, described Carter's speech as "a recognition that the real power in the country lies in the hands of the people."

House Majority Leader James Wright, D-Tex., said the most important facet of the Carter speech "was his call for cooperation of the American people. He obviously trusts the American people, and this I'm convinced will inspire their reciprocal trust."

House Speaker Thomas P. O'Neill Jr., D-Mass., said Carter's speech "inspired trust. What America needs is confidence in its government and he is giving it to us."

Just before addressing the nation, Carter signed an emergency measure passed by Congress that gives him authority to shift natural gas supplies to the areas of the nation hardest hit by extreme winter weather.

And even as he spoke natural gas began moving eastward from California

Clearing The Way

Hereford was barely a "white playground" again today after a light snowfall Wednesday night from a passing winter storm. It was enough for Mrs. Virginia Hammett, manager of the Sears Store downtown, to shovel off snow and ice from the sidewalk in front of the establishment. and the Pacific Northwest.

While congratulating Congress for quick action on the natural gas bill, he emphasized that a long-range solution still must be sought. He has promised to send Congress a comprehensive plan by April 20.

"We must face the fact that our energy shortage is permanent. There is no way we can solve it quickly," he said.

"Our program will emphasize conservation," the President said. Later, he stressed the point, saying: "In my brief time in office, I have learned that there are many things that a President cannot do.

"There is no energy policy we can develop that would do more good than voluntary conservation."

Carter said all the sacrifices would not come from private citizens:

"We have eliminated expensive and unnecessary luxuries, such as door-to-door limousine service for many top officials, including all members of the White House staff. Government officials can't be sensitive to your problems if we are living like royalty here in Washington."

In addition to setting a tone for his administration that emphasized the need for sacrifice, Carter announced these specific moves:

"He will reduce the number of government regulations and 'make sure that those that are written are in plain English. Whenever a regulation is issued, it will carry the author's name.'"

"Changes in the tax laws to provide a 'fairer, simpler system,' are being worked out with the appropriate members of Congress. 'We will outline the study procedures soon, and, after consultation with many American citizens and with the Congress, we will present a program of comprehensive tax reform before the end of this year.'"

"The secretaries of labor and health, education and welfare are reviewing the welfare system, planning a 'complete overhaul...which will minimize abuse, strengthen the family, and emphasize adequate support for those who cannot work, and training and jobs for those who can.' An initial report is due in 90 days.

He also pledged to "support the Congress in its efforts to deal with the widespread fraud and abuse of our

Cold Reception Given Rebates

WASHINGTON (AP) - President Carter's $50-per-person tax rebate plan is getting a cold reception in Congress as a government report indicates the severe winter weather will cost each household $139 in added fuel costs.

"Heating bills will consume all of the tax rebate," Sen. Hubert Humphrey warned Charles Schultz, chairman of the President's Council of Economic Advisers, at a hearing of the Joint Economic Committee on Wednesday.

Library of Congress study estimated extra fuel costs will total $8.4 billion.

Most Punished Get Gas

WASHINGTON (AP) - The Carter administration is acting immediately to keep homes and hospitals warm by shifting natural gas into states punished hardest by the extreme winter.

The transfers are permitted under an emergency law signed by President Carter - the first piece of legislation he has approved since his inauguration.

Carter's chief energy assistant, James R. Schlesinger, said the administration is issuing orders today "to get the gas moving...to tell us where the gas is.

Black Rule: 'long, Tedious'

LONDON (AP) - Andrew Young, President Carter's black envoy to black Africa, says after meeting with British diplomats that negotiations to end white rule in Rhodesia will be "long and tedious."

Young, the new 44-year-old American ambassador to the United Nations, met Wednesday with Ivor Richard, the British chairman of the suspended Geneva talks on Rhodesia's future, and Foreign Secretary Anthony Crossland. He said his hopes for a quick settlement had "waned."

Nuclear Slowdown Backed

WASHINGTON (AP) - U.S. allies in Europe and Japan are promising to back President Carter's efforts to slow world trade in nuclear power and weapons, but they're mystified by how it's all going to be done.

This emerged from a survey of opinion among diplomats of key nations among the six visited by Vice President Walter F. Mondale during his whirlwind round-the-world swing.

Mondale's mission to Brussels, Rome, London, Paris and Tokyo was to emphasize a fundamental continuity,

Newcomers to Deaf Smith County may get an accurate picture of its past, and longtime residents may recall events they have lived, when they view the collection of photographs which make a popular display in the County Historical Museum.

Looking through the photographs recently, the daughter and son of a sheriff who served several terms in the 1930's, were reminded of their teen years spent in an unusual home, the county jail.

Virginia Newell Winger and Gaylord Newell and their two sisters, children of Sheriff J.O. Newell, were members of a family which, like families of most sheriffs in small West Texas cities at that time, had living quarters in the jail, a building separate from the courthouse at that time. Two older Newell sons were already married and away from home.

A picture of that jail is among these of public buildings, pioneer homes, street scenes, activities like parades and picnics, farms, school groups, business houses made and out and early residents in the museum's collection.

It includes numerous prints made from negatives given to the museum by the family of the late Alex Thompson, an enthusiastic photographer who captures in film a cross-section of life in Hereford over a span of years. Other pictures have been given by other early residents.

Others they have been placed in a new display unit, mounted under glass and hung in a sturdy metal frame where they are at eye level and the page like cases can be turned the pages in a book for easy viewing.

The unit was bought and bear with a special fund made up of extra cash gifts sent when dues were paid in 1975 to members of the Deaf Smith County Historical Society, sponsor of the museum.

Some of tales from the past, too, those the Newell family members can tell are sparked as old-timers look through the pictures.

The Newell family thought nothing about living in the jail, since sheriffs were normally alert, then and lived in an apartment in the jail. It was a home apartment, Virginia Winger says, and very comfortable if not elegant.

She was a schoolgirl when they began residence there. She, one of her sisters and Gaylord were married while their father was sheriff. After her marriage to Richard Winger and his departure for military service in World War II, she came back to stay with her parents and was the north of her son Craig.

"That was when I lived in the jail," she laughs. The painting had been removed from the wall but it still had iron bars on the windows and a steel door. It was home for her and her small son several years, until the boy was big enough to go proudly with his grandfather on rounds of the jail, and carry his keys.

The main inconvenience she remembers about the quarters was the lack of closets, which was common in homes at that time. The only closet had been built out into a corner of the living room, and in bedrooms there were one rods across a corner to hold hangers, with a curtain in front.

Her mother cooked meals for the prisoners when she cooked for the family and found it no problem.

Serving meals the prisoners through on the incident Gaylord remembers most vividly about his years in the jail home. He usually had that chore when his father was absent, and heeded the sheriff's instructions to call the men to the door to get their food, rather than walk into the "big cell" where several were housed.

"One evening, though, there were only two or three in the cell and they were lying around, so I walked in and set the tray of food on a bunk. One man had been lying near the door, hunched and seemed asleep, but suddenly I heard his feet patter and turned just in time to see him run out the door and to the stairs," he relates.

"By the time I could get out, lock the door and get downstairs, he had disappeared and nobody knew which way he went. I was very unhappy and so was Dad when he came back, but the man was gone."

Next morning, Gaylord started to Friona on his regular job of driving an oil truck for Oscar Easley. A short distance out on the highway he noticed a hitchhiker, and was surprised to recognize his escaped prisoner.

"He recognized me about the same time, and took off across the railroad," Newell says. "So I just drove on to Black and phoned back to Dad who started a hunt for him. Workmen in a railroad crew told which way the man went and he was soon found, hiding under a culvert."

An enlightening glimpse of a small town lawman in a simpler day is given in a remark by Virginia about her father.

"Papa knew everyone in town, literally, and sometimes he would park downtown and watch people go by. If he saw a stranger he would speak, then inquire who he was and whether he had any business in Hereford. If the answer or the stranger's manner was suspicious, Papa would suggest that he just move on -- and they did."

Winger and Gaylord Newell, here looking at a picture of the old county jail where their family lived when they were teenagers and their father was the local sheriff.

'Gift Of Life' Program Promoted By Rebekahs

A program to be publicized by the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs of Texas in cooperation with the Kidney Foundation of Texas was discussed by Rebekah Lodge #228 Tuesday evening in 100F Hill.

A communication from P.W. McClendon, grand secretary of the Grand Lodge, 100F of Texas, described the purpose of a film concerning kidney diseases. This audio-visual presentation aims to educate the viewers about the seven danger signs of kidney disease. Also stressed is the fact that individuals may donate their kidneys at the time of their death, regardless of age, through their Texas driver's license or a donor card, which will be made available.

The film will relate the staggering number of Texans who are waiting for kidney transplants, how a dialysis machine operates and other details concerning the kidneys. The 25-minute film records interviews with recipients of kidney transplants.

This film is available to any civic club or organization and according to Susie Curtisinger, Rebekah Lodge secretary, the film "would be well worth the time for anyone to see it." In order to reserve the film, contact Mrs. Curtisinger at 208 Higgins.

In other Lodge proceedings Tuesday, Peggy Lemons, noble grand, presided. Members agreed to prepare supper for the 100F circle meeting in Hereford on Feb. 14. Also, Pat Fallwell, district deputy president, of Friona, will be present at the next meeting of the Rebekahs on Feb. 8. All members are encouraged to attend and to bring a Valentine for a party after the scheduled business meeting.

Mrs. Lemons was hostess for 20 members present.

Miss Bradley Cited At State Assembly

Ann Bradley, Little Sister for the local chapter of Young Homemakers of Texas, was chosen to serve in that same capacity for the entire state of Texas. The announcement was made at a meeting at La Plata Junior High School Tuesday evening.

A delegation of four Hereford women learned of Miss Bradley's citation during the YHT State Convention held at Ft. Worth, Jan. 28-29. Attending from Hereford were Chapter advisor, Mrs. M.T. Burelsmith, Janice Kelly, Marilyn Culpepper and Miss Bradley.

At Tuesday's meeting Cara Dearing and Anna Solomon were hostesses.

A representative from Stretch and Sew Fabric Shop of Amarillo demonstrated how to make garments with stretch knits.

A skating party is planned for members' children on Feb. 15. Members present are Gail Blain, Deana Beams, Sue Urbanczyk, Shirley Carlson, Marilyn Culpepper, Mrs. M.T. Burelsmith, Ann Bradley, Brenda Hardisty, Janis Kelly, Connie Urbanczyk, Barbara Weatherford, Cathy Abbott and Dana Hardin.

For safety, avoid using hands to mix food when clean utensils can be used, advises Frances Reasonover, foods and nutrition specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

Mrs. R.A. Frye To Be Honored

Residents of Dawn will be honoring that community's former postmaster, Mary Alice Frye, at a reception from 3-5 p.m. Sunday in Dawn Community Center. All interested persons are invited.

Mrs. Frye, who came to Dawn from Canyon in 1928 to teach, served as postmaster there for more than 20 years. She retired from that position in December, relinquishing her job to Genevieve Miller. Mrs. Frye holds professional standing through the organization, National Association of Postmasters.

Born Mary Alice Griffiths at Fort Worth, the honoree taught at Dawn School for three years before marrying R.A. Frye in 1932. She has been a widow since 1972. Mrs. Frye has two sons, including Fred of Louisiana and Richard of Port Aransas. She has seven grandchildren.

A favorite pastime of the Dawn resident is handweaving on a loom.

Dancers, Spectators Invited To Benefit

Coffee, soft drinks and cakes to be sold in the stands are also being donated by Dimmitt firms. Homemade cakes and pies will be auctioned in a dance intermission by Eston Breittling of Tullia, one of the dance callers.

Other callers will include Otis Shoffner, Dub Stuart and Don Wright, all of Amarillo. Also, Johnny Gillenwater of Tullia and Les and Alberta Grunke of Amarillo will cue the rounds.

Deacons Ignore Poll; Lead ACC Basketball

By HANK LOWENKRON
AP Sports Writer

Wake Forest Coach Carl Tacy is thankful that his team does not take basketball polls too seriously.

"We haven't talked about them polls all year," said Tacy Wednesday night after his fifth-rated Deacons defeated Duke 69-60 in an Atlantic Coast Conference basketball game.

"We notice the polls, though," he added. "And I think we're looking better than the sixth-place ACC finish predicted for us at the beginning of the season."

Indeed, they are. The Deacons now are 17-2 over-all and lead the tough ACC with a 6-1 record.

Forward Rod Griffin sparked Wake Forest to its latest victory with 28 points.

In other games involving rated teams, Pittsburgh upset No. 12 Cincinnati 65-64 on a 22-foot jump shot by junior Larry Harris at the final buzzer; Arkansas, No. 14, routed Southern Methodist 81-58 in a Southwest Conference game, and 20th-rated Detroit beat Eastern Michigan 87-82.

"The bench told me to take the shot, even if I was double-teamed," said Harris, whose winning basket gave Pitt's leading scorer 31 points for the game.

"We've got to start to believe in ourselves," added Harris after the 4-14 Panthers upended Cincinnati, now 15-3.

SMU left Marvin Deiph open for outside shots and he scored a career-high 30 points in the Razorbacks' 10th straight victory.

Ron Brewer added 21 points for the 18-1 Razorbacks.

John Long scored 32 points and Terry Tyler 25 for the 17-1 Detroit, which has won 16 straight games.

In other Wednesday night action, John Gerdy scored 28 points as Davidson nipped the Citadel 62-60 in a Southern Conference game; freshman Jo Hunter scored a career-high 20 points, leading Maryland over Virginia 82-67 in the ACC; freshman Darryl Gladden hit two free throws with three seconds left, giving La Salle a 71-70 upset over Villanova in the second half of a doubleheader at the Palestra in Philadelphia after St. Joseph's, Pa. downed American 77-70.

Nine consecutive points by Glenn Williams and a 28-point performance by George Johnson sparked St. John's over Georgetown 82-66, while Fordham snapped its 10-game losing streak with a 68-53 victory over CCNY.

Miami of Ohio snapped Northern Illinois' five-game winning streak and took over first place in the Mid-American Conference with a 99-91 triumph as Archie Aldredge scored 28 points for the winners. Central Michigan outscored Toledo 88-81 in another MAC game.

Other results involving major schools included: Middle Tennessee State over Marshall 94-87; Kansas edging Oklahoma State 60-58 and Oklahoma taking over first place in the Big Eight Conference with a 66-63 victory over Missouri; Memphis State, 18-3, over Western Kentucky 97-74, and South Carolina routing Richmond 94-63.

HARLINGEN (AP) - The 25th annual Life Begins at 40 golf tournament took today off in hope the weather will improve enough to play in final round Friday.

Fred Rohde and Jack Silliams overcame a steady drizzle and chilly weather to shoot identical 2-over-par 74s on the waterlogged Harlingen Country Club course Wednesday and shared the first round lead.

There have been three postponements for the tournament this week.

Larry Doby is back with his 1948 Cleveland teammate, Bob Lemon, as a Chicago White Sox coach. Former pitcher Lemon is the manager.

Willard Marshall, former New York Giant, Chicago White Sox, Cincinnati, and Boston Brave outfielder, is in the insurance business with his father-in-law in Fort Lee, N.J.

Y Cage Results

The Renegades, Red Rubber Baby Buggy Bumpers #1 (RRBBB), and the Starz all came away winners in the YMCA high school boys basketball league Tuesday night.

Greg Hennington cruised to 18 points in leading the Renegades to a 41-36 win over Bravo. James McDowell added 10 points to the winning effort, while Roy Martinez's 12 points topped the losers.

The RRBBB #1 outscored the Thunder-Chickens 45-16 in the second half of their contest to roar to a 76-30 win after taking a 31-14 lead at the half.

Mike Oglesby led the winners with 19 points, while Greg Hacker and Kent Herring each added 18. Jeff O'Rand topped the Thunder-Chickens with 12 points.

In the finale Tuesday night the Starz used a 10-2 first period to coast to a 39-27 win over the RRBBB #2.

Bill Fraser emerged the top scorer in the contest with 23 points, including nine of his team's 15 points in the third period.

Greg Albracht led the losers with a total of eight points.

Play continues next Tuesday, February 8 in the Old Central gym with the Starz against the Renegades, RRBBB #2 playing the Thunder-Chickens, and RRBBB #1 meeting Bravo.

La Plata Girls

La Plata Junior High fielded six fem basketball squads this season, the first for girls' basketball in Hereford. Martha Emerson and Kathy McMannis each coached three teams at the school. Shown

Lions Grab Spot In Cage Finals

The Hereford Lions and Dimmitt Kiwanians raced to a 23-14 lead at the half, and coasted to a 39-27 win over the Simms Lions in the finale.

M. Cleavenger's 13 points led the winners, while J.B. Perrin topped Simms with eight points.

The Olympics continues tonight with semi-final action in volleyball.

The volleyball and basketball finals will wrap up the activities Saturday night.

SAN MARCOS (AP) - Southwest Texas State basketball Coach Vernon McDonald says he will resign at the end of this season.

McDonald, head coach of the Lone Star Conference team since 1961, said he is retiring for health reasons.

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) - Ask Southern Methodist Coach Sonny Allen. He'll tell you execution is more important than strategy.

Allen's strategy was to make Arkansas shoot from the outside.

"We kept them outside but they shot too well," Allen said after the 14th-ranked Razorbacks pounded his Mustangs 81-58 in a Southwest Conference basketball game Wednesday night.

SAN MARCOS (AP) - East Texas State forward Nate Granger has been named Lone Star Conference player of the week after breaking the LSC scoring and field goal records.

NO MORE WASTED LAND NOW IRRIGATE THE CORNERS WITH VALLEY.

It's a revolutionary new concept in center pivot irrigation. The new Valley Corner System is the first center pivot that hits the corners. It allows you to irrigate up to 150 acres per quarter and to adapt your system to any shape field. Expensive corner land can be converted into profitable new acreage with a Corner System Pivot. The amazing versatility of this unique system extends all the obvious advantages of center pivot irrigation — dramatic water savings, automatic irrigation the moment you need it, and precise fertilizer application to every farmer. Unusually high yields from land that was previously unproductive will enhance your whole farming enterprise. By irrigating nonproductive farmland, you are upping the overall value of your land as much as $500 per acre. You'll find, as many progressive farmers have already, that the corner catcher will actually pay for itself, and then some.

Hill also spoke about the narcotics problem on the Texas border and said he

He added that poppy fields in Mexico must be eradicated and hoped the meeting soon between President Carter and Mexican President Jose Lopez Portillo would result in action on this.

Medicaid Hearing Set In Amarillo, Lubbock

Public hearings on the Medicaid program will be held from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Feb. 8 in Lubbock and Amarillo to gather information that could result in recommendations reshaping the Medicaid program now serving 680,000 eligible Texans.

Potter County Judge Branch T. Archer of Amarillo and Dr. H. Eugene Brown of Lubbock both members of a statewide citizens task force to evaluate the Medicaid program, will preside at hearings in their respective cities.

Southwestern Public Service Reddy Room, 1110 Main Street, Lubbock.

The 47-member citizens task force was created at the request of the State Board of Public Welfare which administers the medical services that go primarily to the aged, blind, and disabled, and to those persons in the Aid to Families with Dependent Children (AFDC) program.

Nearly two-thirds of Medicaid is funded by federal appropriation; however, the federal government has notified Texas that it is decreasing its percentage of contribution to the program, thus increasing costs to the state. This, and the rapid increase in the cost of health services, resulted in creation of the Medicaid evaluation group which will recommend in late March to the Welfare Board its plan for the scope of Medicaid services and its suggestions for cost containments.

Chairman of the task force is W. Marvin Watson of Daingerfield, former special assistant to President Lyndon B. Johnson and Postmaster General of the U.S. in 1968-69. Medicaid recipients, providers, other interested citizens wishing to testify at either of the Feb. 8 public hearing are asked to contact their local State Department of Public Welfare office for assistance with registration.

Thompson Shift Lifts Nuggets Over Bullets

By HANK LOWENKRON
AP Sports Writer

Coach Larry Brown was not afraid to change a formula which had given his Denver Nuggets the best record in the National Basketball Association this season.

The Nuggets, Midwest Division leaders, took a 32-15 record into Wednesday night's battle against the Washington Bullets, pacesetters in the Central Division. That record had been compiled with David Thompson playing at guard most of the time.

But Thompson was at forward against the Bullets. The position was hardly a new one for the 6-foot-4½ Thompson, who earned All-American honors at that spot for North Carolina State.

"I think he Thompson was more comfortable playing forward," said Brown after Thompson scored 37 points, helping Denver shatter Washington's eight-game winning streak with a 119-105 victory.

"He looked more relaxed," said Brown. "I loved our guard play. I think Jimmy Price and Ted McClain took a lot of pressure off David."

Price, who had not been starting, took over Thompson's spot in the backcourt and came through with 14 points, 10 rebounds and 11 assists. McClain contributed 17 points, seven rebounds and six assists.

In other NBA action, the Philadelphia 76ers built their Atlantic Division lead to 7½ games over the idle New York Knicks by defeating Detroit 138-116, while the New York Nets topped the slumping Boston Celtics 99-89. The Phoenix Suns outscored Milwaukee 130-113, Kansas City downed Portland 119-107 and Seattle routed New Orleans 120-95. The Houston game at Buffalo was postponed due to bad weather.

Adams scored 15 points in the first quarter and finished with 27 while picking up 10 assists.

Seattle centers Mike Green and Tommy Burleson combined for 33 points as the Sonics handed New Orleans its 11th consecutive road loss. Burleson, scoreless as a starter, returned to action and score 17 points in the game's final 18 minutes after Green had replaced him and scored 16.

Griffith Winner In Ring Reunion

By ED SCHUYLER JR.
AP Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) - He stood there in the center of the ring, and the grin on his face beamed his feelings as the Madison Square Garden crowd cheers poured over him.

There could not have been a better birthday present for Emile Griffith, who was 30 today, the day after opening his 20th season as a pro fighter with a victory in a 10-round middleweight fight.

"It made him feel terrific," said Howie Albert, who got Griffith into the fight game and still is with the former five-time world welterweight and middleweight champion.

The opponent was 25-year-old Christy Elliott, the decision was as close as it could be, but this time the boos most certainly would have come if Griffith had lost what was his 28th Garden appearance and his first fight in the United States since Nov. 22, 1974.

It was not always that way. As a champion and challenger, Griffith often was booed as a winner in his hometown.

"That was beautiful," said Griffith, "Maybe I oughta say away more often. That way, when I come back, they'll love me more. I'm very glad to be back home. I like traveling, but not that much."

The decision was a majority one - one judge voting for Griffith, one calling it a draw and referee Arthur Mercante scoring it even but awarding the fight to Griffith on his strong finish, which can be done under New York rules.

"I could have knocked him out," said Griffith, who relied on a left hand, which he applied like an artist's brush, and the ringmanship he has picked up from fighting the best welterweight and middleweights in the world over the last 16 years.

One of the few right hands Griffith threw was to the body in the eighth round, and it hurt Elliott, an Irishman living in Clifton, N.J., who faded in the last three rounds as Emile came on in what he said "seemed like a good workout in the gym."

The victory was the 86th against 21 losses and two draws for Griffith and it was made sweeter by the affectionate ovation offered by the crowd of 10,930 that paid $103,457.

Bulldogs Nip Buffs; Pampa Pastes Canyon

The West Texas State University Buffs failed to score in the final eight minutes of action Wednesday night in the Amarillo Civic Center, and fell to Samford 57-56 in non-conference basketball play.

The Buffs-Bulldogs encounter capped an interesting night of cage action for the fans, who also watched District 3-4A power Pampa demolish the Canyon Eagles, 77-62.

The loss to the Bulldogs dropped the Buffs, leaders of the Valley Conference, to 11-9 on the year and marked WT's fourth loss in the last five outings.

Samford upped its record to 7-11 with the win, and gave the 'Dogs some revenge for last season's 64-49 romp by the Buffs over them.

Samford held a slim 33-31 margin at the half, but the Buffs rallied to lead by as many as six points twice in the second half, 49-43 and 51-45 with just over 11 minutes left.

After the Buffs' Eugene Smith hit a pair of free throws to put WT ahead 56-51 with 8:07 left, the Bulldogs staged their rally.

Samford used ball control, holding the ball most of the last 5½ minutes, to escape with the victory.

William Williams gave Samford the lead 57-56 with two minutes remaining as he connected on a 12-foot jumper.

A 20-foot attempt by Buffs guard Maurice Cheeks bounced off the rim with but five seconds left and the Bulldogs gathered in the carom to secure the win.

In the high school warmup the Harvesters held Canyon sharpshooter James Walling to but 10 points along the way as they roared to the win.

Pampa improved its season mark to 20-5 with the win, while the Eagles fell to 22-6. Four of the Eagles' six losses have come at the hands of 4A teams.

The Harvesters shot a hot 64 per cent from the field (32-53), while the losers canned but 22 of 62 tries for 35 per cent.

Walling was true on only four of 17 attempts from the field, by far his worst performance of the year.

Pampa took control of the contest from the beginning racing to a 24-14 advantage after one period. They led 30-28 at the half, and were ahead 55-41 after three stanzas.

Rusty Ward and Rayford Young hit 18 and 17 points respectively for the winners, while Mike Flynn led the Eagles with 23 points.

ODESSA (AP) - Defending Class 3A state basketball champion Odessa Ector will not be able to return to the playoffs this year because of a University Interscholastic League rules violation, a Dist. 2-3A spokesman says.

Farmers Union Unveils Plan For Major Reform Of Property Taxes

AUSTIN—The Texas Farmers Union has unveiled recommendations for major property tax reform and announced that Representative Andrew Baker of Galveston will soon introduce legislation changing the cost shares between the state and local districts.

"It is time that the state of Texas finds superior sources of revenue," said Texas Farmers Union President Jay Naman of Waco. "This plan is not based on increasing the costs. It is rather a way to equalize the burden of public education and equalize the benefits."

The Farmers Union recommendations made by an internal committee studying the problem for over a year encompass a three part plan.

(1) The state of Texas should pick up 100 per cent of the Minimum Foundation Program

(It is currently 80 per cent state and 20 per cent local district)

(2) The state of Texas should also assume the cost of any mandated salary increases or program expenses such as operations and maintenance costs, mandated salary increases, and the costs of vocational, technical and special education.

(3) Local school districts should continue to be allowed to finance capital improvements through local bonding as well as local salary adjustments, bands, athletics and other special programs.

Naman said about the proposed changes. "We believe that if the state were to assume a greater portion of education in Texas, that we would no longer need to use the word 'minimum'. We believe that the state could create a Basic Education Program that would provide a realistic foundation for all school districts."

The bill to be introduced by Rep. Baker would call for the change in state/district cost shares, but as far as additional income to the state, Naman said, "We think that the legislators, administrators and budget advisors can work out the details. Bills have or will be introduced to take care of these matters."

"However, the Texas Farmers Union panel did make these recommendations:

(1) That the state first look at its great budget surplus for initial relief, and in the event of no such surplus now or in the future...

(2) Impose a one cent (1c) per gallon tax on all refinery products produced in the state's refineries.

(3) Increase the severance tax on oil and gas to a level comparable to other states.

(4) Levy a tax on pipelines both intrastate and interstate.

(5) Tax those minerals not currently taxed, such as coal and uranium.

"Our figures show that if these steps were followed, the state would have more than enough to expand its share of education," Naman continued.

"In fact, some statistics reveal that even one or two proposals by themselves could cover the costs."

The Farmers Union group emphasized that the proposals focus on resources lost daily in great quantities to other states which do not compensate Texas in return.

Speaking for the almost 10,000 family units comprising the Texas Farmers Union, Naman said, "The man who deals in agriculture does not want to evade his equal share as a taxpaying citizen. But the wealth (of the state since current tax law recorded) has shifted and it is time that the State of Texas find superior sources of revenue. We believe that the state's total assumption of the Minimum Foundation Program and other mandated costs, leaving local enrichment in the districts, is the only way to life the burden of property taxes... taxes which are extremely unjust to the family farmer who relies on his land to make his living."

Members of the Texas Farmers Union School Tax Alternative Study Panel include Joe Rankin of Falls (chairman), Henry Harnly of Pampa, Charles Jacobs and Billy Bob Toombs of Merkel, Jerry Solomon of DeLeon, Barry Krause of Sugarland, Jack Norman of Howe, Gilbert Kretzschmar of Bartlett, Newell Tate of Tarrant, David Samuelson of Comland, Taylor Gaines of Austin, and James Gentry of Hereford.

Bill Seeks Crop Insurance

WASHINGTON (AP)—Support continues to grow for an overhaul of the government's present method of giving farmers direct payments when crops are reduced because of drought and other natural causes.

Sen. Bob Dole, R-Kan., introduced a bill last week which seeks the repeal of the present system and replacement of it with a government-subsidized insurance program to cover losses of wheat, cotton, corn, rice, sorghum and barley.

Further, Dole's plan calls for the insurance to be available to all farmers regardless of their geographical location. It also is designed to replace the limited insurance currently offered by the Federal Crop Insurance Corp., an agency of the Agriculture Department.

Agriculture Secretary Bob Bergland also wants the disaster payments and insurance programs overhauled and made more uniform.

Under Dole's bill, the FCIC will offer the expanded insurance to all farmers. It provides that a 25 per cent federal subsidy be paid into the corporation to help reduce costs to farmers.

Dole estimated that if the present disaster subsidies and insurance were continued those will cost $424.7 million in 1978. He said that his bill will reduce federal costs to about $114 million.

Dole also is a co-sponsor with Senate Agriculture Committee Chairman Herman Talmadge, D-Ga., of a general farm bill to extend current acreage and price support programs on major crops.

The Talmadge-Dole bill, however, includes an extension of the present disaster payments for another five years, a provision Dole said at the time he wanted excluded. His bill of last week would do that.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The nation's inventory of sheep and lambs has declined again, but in Texas the goat herd has jumped 16 per cent, according to the Agriculture Department.

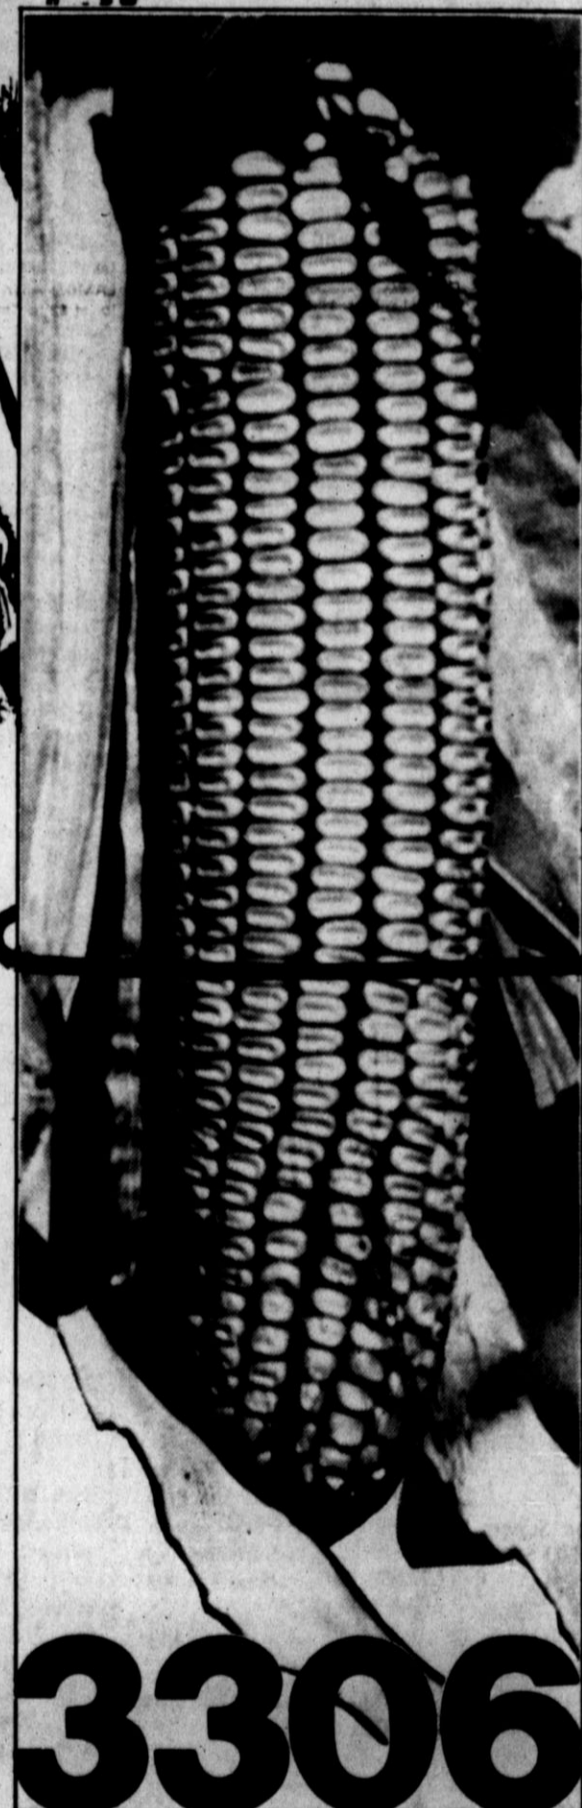

Officials said that there were an estimated 12.7 million sheep and lambs on farms, a five per cent decline from a year ago. Last year's lamb crop was 8.9 million, a nine per cent decline from 1975.

In Texas, however, the inventory of goats and kids, a source of angora, was put at 1.3 million, up 16 per cent from a year ago.

The department said that the value of both sheep and goats was up sharply from last year, with sheep and lambs averaging $42.40 each, a $5.20 hike from last year. Goats and kids averaged $25 a head, up $5.10.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The nation's butter production last December totaled 91.8 million pounds, a 19 per cent increase from November and 9 per cent above December 1975, according to the Agriculture Department.

Cheese production was 275 million pounds, up 9 per cent from November and up 14 per cent from the same month a year earlier, the department's Crop Reporting Board said.

One Horse of a Hybrid for Deaf Smith County

If you ever cowboied for a living, you had one horse you liked best. It may not have been the prettiest or fastest but it rode easy and got the work done no matter what.

Pioneer brand 3306 is that kind of corn hybrid for a lot of farmers in this area. It's the hybrid that brought corn back to this country ten years ago and there is nothing to beat it yet for good steady production no matter the weather, insects, or disease.

NO HEAD SMUT.

In the big Texas Ag Extension Service Head Smut Test west of Dimmitt last year, they compared everything that would sprout to 3306. This included the new glamour girls that look so good... until it gets a little dry or a little wet or the wind blows. 3306 showed no head smut. It was still standing straight up with ears firmly attached when the big judge — the combine — got there.

TAKES STRESS IN ITS STRIDE.

3306 is the most dependable corn hybrid ever grown on the High Plains. It can adjust to almost any kind of stress... over planting, drought, extreme heat, early freeze, high winds, bugs, disease... you name it and 3306 has been there and produced a good corn crop.

If you're not farming in a greenhouse, tell your Pioneer dealer to save you some 3306.

At Wit's End
By Erma Bombeck

The loudest snore, according to the Guinness Book of World Records, was measured at 69 decibels at St. Mary's Hospital in London.

Until last night.

The record was broken in the bed next to mine by my husband, who sustained life at a rousing 72 decibels. (Seventy-two decibels is the equivalent of having a cannon go off in the seat next to you in the Astrodome.)

You would expect the snorer to have some compassion for the snoree, but this is never the case. Angry retorts of, "How do YOU know I'm snoring?" have to be documented by lamphades blown off the base, pictures blasted off their hooks and restless farm animals as far as 50 miles away.

Frankly, I'm sick of all the therapist remedies that never seem to work, like self-hypnosis, earplugs and rolling the snorer off his back.

The following are the only methods of relief that have worked for me:

Change beds: Get the snorer out of his own bed and into a strange one...preferably in another state.

The pillow technique: Get a large fluffy pillow. When the breathing becomes defeaning, put it squarely over every opening in his face and hold it there until some demands are met.

Prolonging sleep: This one works as well as any I've tried. Just as you are both climbing into bed, get every nerve in his body on alert by offhandedly mentioning, "The IRS called you today, but will call you back tomorrow." or "You seemed so tired today. I hope you don't have the same thing the late Fred Witherall had."

Humiliation route: Place a tape recorder by his bed and the next night when he is watching TV, play it and tell him someone is stealing his car.

Other experts believe you have to get to the root of the husband's reason for snoring. It has been suggested a person snores because he is troubled, his dentures don't fit properly, he indulges in excessive smoking or drinking, has swollen tonsils or suffers from old age.

My husband doesn't snore for any of those reasons. He snores for one thing alone...to annoy me. As I yelled to him the other morning at 3 a.m., "You'd do anything to keep from talking to me."

I thought I saw him smile.

Ann Landers Exchange Photos First

DEAR ANN LANDERS: Please advise your older readers, if they plan to visit a relative after many long years of separation, to exchange photos before they come.

My sister and I lost track of each other when we were separated in an orphanage. After 40 years, we made contact through a mutual friend and a happenstance of sheer luck.

My sister Grace (not her real name) turned out to be a woman of means. She offered to fly to see me the moment we rediscovered one another.

The 3,000-mile trip was hard on her. Grace is 73. I nearly passed out when I saw that she was grossly overweight, on crutches, and wearing a hearing aid that didn't work. She couldn't hear one word I said.

We just stared at one another. Her first words were, "Your hair is gray-- and you are much heavier than I thought you'd be!" Both of us sat down and cried our eyes out. It took three days before we became adjusted to one another's looks. I had remembered her as a beautiful, slim blonde with dancing eyes. She remembered me as a lovely, apple-cheeked redhead with a wasp waist. The shock was too much for both of us.

A few photos and a frank description by letter or phone would have saved a lot of grief. How could we have been so stupid? Please, Ann, spare others the anguish by printing this. -- Time Marches On

DEAR TIME: It sure does. And some people take the march better than others. Thank you for writing.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: After reading the letter signed "Friends Of The Kooks" and your answer, I had to write to you.

So you never heard of a hospital that allows children to watch the birth of a baby sister or brother? Well -- get with it, Madam. Here are just a few: The Childbearing Center in York City, Southwestern Maternity Center in Albuquerque, N.M., Lavinia Maternity Home in Eugene, Ore., the Maternity Center at Fort Bragg, Calif., and Booth Maternity Center in Philadelphia.

Many couples opt for home deliveries because they want the birth of their children to be a family affair. If childbirth is presented as a normal and natural occurrence a great deal of psychological trauma will be avoided. Siblings welcome the new arrival (instead of harboring feelings of rivalry and jealousy) because they were permitted to participate in the baby's arrival.

There's a whole new world out there, Ann. I know because I'm a -- Student Midwife

DEAR STUDENT: I know all about that whole new world. I hope those youngsters are properly prepared for what they see (and hear) in the labor and delivery rooms. If not, they could be permanently traumatized and terrified of childbirth for the rest of their lives.

DEAR ANN: I'm 14 and ape over a boy, 16. I know it's true love because I can't eat a thing and I dream about him every night.

The trouble is he treats me swell when we are alone but when any of our friends are around he treats me rotten. Maybe I'm to blame because I don't understand him. Please help me. -- Hazle Eyes

DEAR EYES: When a boy treats a girl "swell" privately and rotten publicly, he shows his immaturity and inability to handle a close relationship. Wake up and smell the caramel corn, kiddo.
