At TSTA-CTA Fete Teachers Honor Shirley Instructor

Shirley Elementary School instructor Alta Mae Higgins was named "teacher of the year" during the annual Texas State Teachers Association-Classroom Teachers Association installation dinner Monday night in the high school cafeteria.

Mrs. Higgins, who has 31 years of teaching experience, has held positions in the Bippus, Walcott and Hereford school systems. She was presented a plaque for the honor by Shirley Principal Howard Birdwell after she was selected by her peers over eight other nominees.

The other candidates included Cherie Zinck, Hereford High School; Joe Spann, La Plata Junior High; Virginia Phillips, Stanton Junior High; Bera Boyd, West Central Elementary; Sue Brown, Bluebonnet Elementary; Nola Jobe, Tierra Blanca Elementary; Joan Latham, Aikman Elementary; and Willie Osborn, Northwest Elementary.

Mrs. Higgins has served as an officer in TSTA, CTA and National Education Association (NEA) during her lengthy teaching tenure.

Approximately 150 teachers, school administrators and their spouses honored Mrs. Higgins with a standing ovation after the announcement concerning her selection.

Assistant Superintendent Bill Phillips, who was not at the dinner due to a lengthy illness, was honored as "administrator of the year."

Margaret Formby was honored as "friend of education," a new honor created by the state TSTA and CTA organizations. Mrs. Formby, who was out-of-town Monday night, was one of three finalists for the statewide "friend of education" award.

Mrs. Formby was recognized by the local organization chapters for her volunteer work with the school system.

Several teachers and cafeteria personnel were presented pins by Superintendent Harrell Holder for 10 years service in the school district. Twenty and 25-year-pins also were awarded, with Cuby Kitchens of Stanton receiving the only

Woman, 69, Killed In Residence Fire

A 68-year-old Hereford woman who lived by herself Saturday night became the city's first fire fatality since 1971. Mrs. Maria Valdez Gamez of 116 Higgins was pronounced dead at Deaf Smith General Hospital shortly before midnight Saturday. Death was caused by smoke inhalation, according to a physician.

Hereford volunteer firemen received a call around 10 p.m. Saturday concerning a fire at 116 Higgins. The caller, who reportedly was Mrs. Gamez' daughter-in-law, said that a woman was trapped inside the residence.

"We had answered a call at that place before when she set her couch on fire with a cigarette," Fire Marshal Jay Spain told The Brand. "We knew who she was and that she lived there by herself. When we saw her car at the house, it prompted us to start an immediate search."

Firemen found Mrs. Gamez lying in the smoke-filled bathroom near two bedrooms which were already consumed by flames. According to fire department reports, she was unconscious, taken outside and administered cardio-pulmonary resuscitation.

"We got her heart beating and she was taken to the hospital," Spain said.

The fire marshal reported that the fire started in the north bedroom of the house and spread to an adjacent bedroom. Firemen found a candle in the room where the fire began but

On Aggravated Assault Charge

Grand Jury Indicts Postmaster

Hereford Postmaster Jack Nolan Grady was indicted Monday for aggravated assault in connection with last week's attack on the former director of bilingual education for Hereford schools.

Grand jurors met for approximately eight hours Monday, hearing testimony and deliberating, before indicting Grady for aggravated assault. The jury also indicted Robert Zepeda for theft of livestock.

Most of the jurors' day was consumed by their investigation into Grady's alleged assault on Louis Monrano, 30, who recently resigned as bilingual-education director for the Hereford school district.

The grand jury also returned five at-large indictments, passed on another and no-billed one person. Grady, a longtime employee of the post office, had been originally charged with attempted murder, aggravated assault and criminal mischief and was released on $2,500 bond. According to police reports, officers received a call on the evening of April 7 concerning a disturbance at 204 W. 7th, where Grady's 25-year-old daughter, Donna Grady, reportedly lived.

Investigating officers said they found Grady, 52, of 116 Ave. J; Grady's wife, Donna Grady, and Montano, of 210 Ironwood, in the front yard. Police alleged that Grady entered the residence carry-

"All the candidate are talking about the same issue, but only one—Ronald Reagan, as governor of California—has done what others are talking about," stated Mike Reagan this morning at a "Dutch breakfast" in the Caison House which drew about 100 interested citizens.

Lashing out at President Carter's domestic and foreign-policy records, Reagan called on "citizens who are concerned with the freedoms we're losing" to put Ronald Reagan in the White House for "leadership and respect—man who will protect the rights of U.S. citizens."

Mike, son of the Republican presidential contender, made brief remarks at the breakfast here today and then answered questions from the audience. Accompanying Reagan with his wife, Colleen, and Jim Brandon, an Amarillo lawyer who is state vice chairman for Reagan in Texas.

Reagan was introduced by Wes Fisher, who heads up Reagan's campaign in Deaf Smith County. Mike noted that he and his wife spend 2½ days each week campaigning for his father, and the rest of the week "earning a living." County GOP Chairman Garth Thomas was also introduced at the meeting.

"Ronald Reagan believes in the free enterprise system...and he believes that he is working for the people—not the other way around," said his son. Just recently, according to Mike, Gov. Reagan said: "If our government had control of the Sahara Desert, there'd be shortage of sand."

Referring to the Iranian situation, Reagan was critical of Carter's "non-action." The sanctions against Iran should have been "imposed 1.5 minutes after the hostages were taken, not 150 days later when we could not

A Washington D.C. attorney-lobbyist Monday lashed out at the Hereford office of Texas Rural Legal Aid during a special meeting of city and county officials and three representatives of Castro County.

Louis Ingram, president of the Foundation of Law and Society, a non-profit organization which takes stands opposite of the American Civil Liberties Union, was invited to Hereford by longtime Panhandle author J. Evetts Haley.

Haley, of Midland, who has authored several books on the Texas Panhandle, said he became concerned about TRLA lawsuits when he read an article on the legal-aid office in a Dallas news magazine.

"I suggested to the sheriff that Lou Ingram be invited down here to look into three issues—to see what might be worked out and help with your defense," Haley said.

Haley said that the Foundation of Law and Society "has attempted to do for constitutional issues what the ACLU has done on the other side."

"I have supported this foundation since its inception. It protects the average taxpayer."

Ingram told the group that the United States is "under seige from the people in it." He added that the federal

High-Speed Chase Results in Arrest

A 19-year-old Bovina man was charged with evading arrest and four other crimes Monday morning following a high-speed chase through Deaf Smith County.

Justice of the Peace O.K. Neal set bond on Adam Reyna at $2,700 after the Bovina man was arrested for felony driving while intoxicated, evading arrest, fleeing from a police officer, driving while his license was suspended and speeding.

Reyna was chased through the city limits of Hereford at speeds well in excess of 100 miles per hour early Monday morning before he lost control of his car around four miles west of Hereford on U.S. Highway 60 and wound up in a ditch.

According to police reports, a Randall County deputy sheriff stopped a 1975 Mercury occupied by Reyna and another Bovina man around 2 a.m. Monday in Umbarger.

Reyna's companion reportedly was placed in the "HUD won't recognize the water district, only the county," she added.

Originally, the county agreed to apply for the funds and make disbursements to the water district for construction of the system. "Any checks drawn from the county to the water district will be illegal expenditures," Ms. Jacobs said.

After brief discussion on the matter, commissioners resolved to accept and be responsible for the $60,000 grant, an additional $50,000 from HUD for the construction of tap lines to individual residences and $240,000 from the federal Economic Development Administration.

The $350,000 sewage system, scheduled to be constructed this year, will be coupled with a recently

San Jose To Meet On Action

An emergency meeting of the San Jose Water District will be held at 7:30 tonight in the district offices at the church building in the San Jose community.

According to Ralph Quinones with the Texas Department of Health Resources in Canyon, the meeting is being held in order to pass a resolution allowing Deaf Smith County to administer Economic Development Administration and Department of Housing and Urban Development grants for a sewer system in the San Jose community.

The HUD portion of the sewer system grant is for $110,000 and the EDA portion of the grant is for $240,000.

An additional resolution concerning the administration of the grants will also be considered.

According to Quinones, a grant funded water system at San Jose is already operational and serving 110 residences in the community.

"Bids could be taken on construction of the sewer system in about ten days," said Quinones.

"Sewer lines may be in place in a month and a half," he added.

Political Battleground

Mores to Pennsylvania

By The Associated Press
The battleground for presidential politics switches in earnest to Pennsylvania today, with backers of both President Carter and Sen. Edward M. Kennedy saying the Massachusetts senator could upset Carter in the fight for the state's 185 Democratic national convention delegates.

With the Pennsylvania primary just a week away, Kennedy is returning to Philadelphia today with his wife, Joan, and even Vice President Walter F. Mondale says the challenger could defeat Carter in the state with the third-largest convention delegation.

On the Republican side, George Bush is in Pennsylvania already, pursuing a last-ditch effort to stop Ronald Reagan from gaining the party's nomination. Reagan will be in the state Wednesday.

Half Billion Spent

For Wheat Purchase

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government has spent well over half a billion dollars to buy wheat originally destined for the Soviet Union.

In what officials said was the last round of buying for the time being, the Agriculture Department said Monday it had bought about 94.4 million bushels of wheat directly from farmers.

Although no prices paid for the wheat or the total spent were announced, officials said $3.75 a bushel was a rough estimate. That would mean the grain cost the government around $354 million.

Added to earlier purchases of about 60.5 million bushels from grain elevators, the department has now bought about 154.9 million bushels of wheat - 4.2 million metric tons - as part of the administration's plan to isolate from the market the grain embargoed from delivery to the Soviets.

Those wheat purchases were reported at the time to cost about $66.1 million and $160.5 million, respectively. Thus, based on rough estimates, the entire wheat package has cost the government around $580.6 million.

Red Cross Delivers Hostages' Messages

By The Associated Press
A representative of the International Red Cross is flying from Tehran to Europe today with messages from all of the hostages in the U.S. Embassy to their families. Two Swiss Red Cross men interviewed all the captives in the embassy "one by one" by Monday and brought out a list of the hostages and messages for their families, the Red Cross reported.

"To me they appeared in rather good shape," said Harold Schmid de Grunck, the permanent Red Cross representative in Tehran, who with Dr. Bernard Liebeskind and three Iranian officials spent seven hours in the occupied embassy.

It was the most extensive visit by any foreigners to the captive Americans since militant young Iranians seized the embassy and its staff last Nov. 4. It was also the first time any foreigners were reported to have seen all the prisoners.

The Red Cross, apparently by agreement with the militants, would not confirm that the American total 50 in number, as the State Department says. But Schmid de Grunck said they made a list of all the hostages and their home addresses and this along with their messages would be forwarded to the United States.

postmarked April 15. That's just one of the services we do," the spokesman said.

The Internal Revenue Service expects to receive 6.6 million tax returns today alone, with equally large amounts during the next two days. It estimates it will receive 93 million tax returns for 1979, up from 91 million for 1978.

The government expects a major influx of cash from the tax returns filed on deadline because taxpayers who owe the government money usually wait until the last minute to file.

Many, if not most, taxpayers will have higher total tax bills for 1979, a condition that's likely to continue this year unless President Carter changes his current opposition to a tax cut.

The panel also elected to investigate the possibility of getting the flood gate at the Buffalo Lake dam closed at this time, to retain water still remaining there.

In another matter, panel members reviewed a petition addressed to the Texas Parks & Wildlife Commission reviewing the status of Buffalo Lake and requesting that the commission consider acquiring the Buffalo Lake area as a state park after the question of the safety of the spillway on the refuge is resolved.

The petition, signed by Land, Wilcox, Randall County Commissioner Bob Henry, Goucher, Marie Griffin of Hereford, who represented the Deaf Smith Chamber of Commerce, and Steiert, will be carried to Austin Thursday by Deaf Smith County Commissioner Austin Rose for presentation at a regular public session of the Texas Parks & Wildlife Commission on Friday.

Panel members agreed that seeking conversion of Buffalo Lake to a state park is the most logical avenue of pursuit to ensure that the area is properly maintained in line with area interests.

County

completed water system, which also was federally-funded.

Commissioners, in the morning portion of their regular semi-monthly meeting, approved a plan submitted by Kenny Gearm of Tagco Inc. to further renovate the county jail.

The plan, which calls for the construction of an air-exchange system and other renovations, will be sent to the Texas Commission on Jail Standards for approval, then bids will be authorized.

The Tagco plan was drawn up with the help of Sheriff Travis McPherson, who had been notified by TCJS that the jail had certain areas not in compliance with state standards. The renovations, according to Gearm, will cost the county $18,383.

The air-exchange system will be used in case of a fire or smoke in the jail.

Other items included in Gearm's plan are the installation of a partition in the holding cell, construction of a desk top in the booking office, the removal of 14 bunks to create more space in cells, modification of a shelf in the booking office, installation of 10 tables and chairs, construction of five doors in the laundry room and the lowering of two benches in the drunk tank.

McPherson told commissioners that the renovations "will hopefully put us in full compliance."

The commission cannot finally approve Gearm's plan until it receives the go-ahead from TCJS and lets bids.

Commissioners voted to propose to the Panhandle Regional Planning Commission (PRPC) that the county remain as its own delivery agent for Comprehensive Employment and Training Act (CETA) funds to be used for jobs for lower-income persons.

County CETA administrator Loretta Kindsfater told the court that submitting a proposal does not bind the county to oversee the local CETA program because a contract between the county and PRPC still must be signed before Oct. 1.

Mrs. Kindsfater said the local CETA program is in jeopardy because of reduced funding from the Labor Department and the fact that the federal government has been sporadic in sending money when it is needed.

"Before you make a final decision, you need to take a good, close look at the level and funding and whether the county really wants to continue to assume this responsibility," Mrs. Kindsfater said.

In other business, the court:

—approved the monthly fire report which showed that Hereford firemen responded to 17 calls in the city and 18 in the county during March.

—tabled action on a proposed plat and dedication deed submitted by Sam Nunnally for four blocks which adjoin the northeast portion of the city. —authorized the purchase of for sanitary easements at the San Jose Labor Camp for the newly-constructed water system at the community.

—voted to request the continuation of a $4,500 federal grant for services provided by the county juvenile probation office.

—appointed Howard Dillehay as public weight in Precinct 1.

—authorized the payment of county bills, with the exception of $15 to Valdez Welding for work done on the damaged boxing ring owned by the Hereford Boxing Club.

The ring was damaged at the Bull Barn, and the boxing club reportedly instructed the welding firm to submit the bill to the county.

Commissioners said the county was not responsible for damage to the ring, although County Judge Glen Nelson and Commissioner Bruce Coleman contributed $10 apiece toward the bill.

Among bills paid Monday was $616 to the law firm of Tubb and Easterwood for attorney's fees incurred during the county's reapportionment lawsuit.

Jehovah's Witnesses To Resume Meetings

Jehovah's Witnesses are resuming their weekly meetings and ministerial activities after having attended their circuit assembly in Carlsbad, New Mexico over the weekend.

Saturday's portion of the program was well attended by over 1600 persons. The underlying theme of the convention on "Obedience" was very well conveyed by all the speakers slated on the program.

In response to one of Jehovah's requirements on obedience, 16 individuals underwent water baptism, after previously having studied the Bible diligently for at least six months.

On Sunday afternoon, the climax of the convention reached its peak with the question, "To Whom Does the Obedience of the People Belong?" District Overseer, Francisco Aleman, enthusiastically answered the thought provoking question to the 1,692 persons in attendance. Parents were counseled to instill in their offspring more respect and obedience to those in authority. This in return, will produce more law-abiding citizens and will contribute to the happiness and welfare of others in the community.

Local presiding overseer, Elias Presas cordially invites those in the community to attend their weekly meetings at the Kingdom Hall. The sessions are open to the public and no collections are taken.

Ann Landers Marrying for Money

DEAR ANN LANDERS: My husband was much older than I. Frankly, I married him for his money, but I never felt guilty because he married me for my youth. We both got what we wanted and had a good life together.

After two years of widow's weeds, I've fallen in love -- for the very first time.

The man is 34 years younger than I am. This sounds like a lot, but I don't look my age and I surely don't feel it. He has a so-so job but is smart about investments and has made some good suggestions about what I should do with my income.

My friends and family think I am nuts because I want to marry him. They have pointed out that he dates young girls after he takes the home, which I know is true. Yet, he says he worships the ground I walk on. I need your advice. -- Palm Beach, Fla.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: If this fellow worships the ground you walk on it's probably because he thinks there's oil under it.

As evidence of his sincerity, ask him to sign a premarital agreement that excludes him from receiving any money from your estate if you die before he does.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: Before I begin, let me say I am a dead ringer for you, except for the dimples. I don't have any. My sister says I'm as smart as you, which I consider a compliment.

I married my husband when I was 20. I was a virgin. Our marriage lasted 44 years. I have always been a happy person, even though we lost our only child. He was premature. They didn't have incubators in those days. We adopted a boy a few years later and raised 15 foster children. My husband and I were both firm and fair parents, and none of our kids ever got into trouble.

I am 4 feet 8 1/2 inches and weigh 106 pounds. I play baseball, volleyball, ping pong, touch football, pitch horseshoes and can dance up a storm. I keep an immaculate house and can cook in any language except Hawaiian.

Although I eat like a truck driver, I never gain a pound. No problems, Ann. Just thanks for listening. -- M.W.

DEAR M.W.: Hey nice to receive a letter from someone who just wants to chat. I enjoyed our visit and am sure my readers did, too. Thank you for writing.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: I'm a 26-year-old career woman and lately I've been experiencing severe anxiety attacks -- shortness of breath, pounding heart, sweaty palms, feelings of weakness and dizziness. Sometimes my hands shake so I can't hold anything.

I can't understand what is causing these symptoms. I'm doing well in my career and enjoy my work. My social life isn't great, but this doesn't bother me. I'd rather stay home than go with some of the creeps I see around town. Can you help me find some answers? -- Wassau, Wis.

DEAR WASSAU: I'm glad you recognized the symptoms for what they are. Too often people mistake anxiety attacks for heart attacks and become terrified.

You feel threatened and insecure about something in your life. Since you have no idea what it is, you need to explore the possibilities with a good therapist. Please make an appointment soon. It is unlikely that these symptoms will disappear on their own. They must be rooted out and disposed of.

Got those wedding bell blues over cost ... guest list ... what to wear ... and other details? Ann Landers' completely new "The Bride's Guide" will help. For a copy, send a dollar, plus a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope (15 cents postage) to Ann Landers, P.O. Box 11995, Chicago, Illinois 60611.

Garden Convention Reported to Club

A report of the recent Texas Garden Club state convention was given for members of Hereford Garden Club Friday afternoon during a meeting in the home of Mrs. John N. Jacobsen Jr.

Mrs. O.G. Hill Sr., a delegate to the TGC meeting, announced that the local club won second place on its yearbook and was cited for having 100 percent participation in names for the president's book. Lois Ethridge, who attended the National Judge's meeting in conjunction with the convention, described a display of floral arrangements using madonna figures.

In other business, it was announced that the club will hold a workday on Thursday, April 17 at the Garden Center, beginning at 9 a.m. Also, the club will sponsor a plant and runnifume sale April 26 at the Garden Center.

Members were reminded of the flower show to be held on May 9 in the E.B. Black Historical House.

Mrs. R.L. Wilson presented a program on the growth and care of rosebushes, stating that bushes should be examined closely when first received, watching for insect infestations. Mrs. G.W. Newsom discussed pruning and feeding of roses. She recommended the use of Thimet at the base of the bush in early spring as an insect preventative.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Jacobsen and her cohostess Mrs. Burnie Riley. Other members present were Meses, D.N. Garner, W.C. Hromas, Clinton Jackson, Edgar Lemons, R.W. Mitchell, Alfred Smith, S.S. Williams and Jack Wilcox.

At Wits End

By ERMA BOMBECK

Confessions of an 8 a.m. Mon., Wed., Fri., Beginning Aerobic Dancer.

"Oh, God, this was a mistake. I knew it. I'm the only person in this room who remembers Guy Lombardo and has backs of knees that look like a map of New England. Tens. They're all tens going on 15.

"Please, God, I have never asked you for a big one. If you remember the time I let my mother-in-law feed my husband hot soup a spoonful at a time when he had a cold and said nothing ... let me have a spot in the back row.

Now listen to me, feet. I'm going to tell you this just once. When that music starts I want you to move. I don't care what the rest of my body tells you ... just move!

"Why me, God? Why do I always get next to the girl whose hair is long enough on top to pull back? Who doesn't wear underwear under her leotard? Who takes the chiffon scarf off her neck and ties it around her WAIST? Whose tights bag at the knees?

"The music is starting. Step, close, twirl, kick. Step, close, twirl, kick. Dummy! You just apologized to a wall for bumping into it. Wish I could take off these warm-up pants, but I don't know anyone in this room well enough to let them see my thighs.

"All this is my husband's fault. I used to dance until I married him. Now I've lost it. That's not the only excuse. I'm a mother. None of these girls in here has ever given birth. None of them knows what it is to dance when your entire body is arranged around your knees.

"How long is this record? What is she saying now? Don't forget to breathe. If I breathed any harder, I'd fog up the entire mirror.

"My leg! I have a cramp in my leg! Oh, that's cute. They're playing, 'Staying Alive.' Is it my imagination or is everyone looking at me? What's the matter with these people? Don't they ever get tired? I got it. This is the road company of 'Chorus Line.'

"Wonder how old Scarf Waist is making out? It figures. She doesn't even sweat. Not one bead. Come to think of it I've never seen anyone over 5'7" who sweats. How do they do that?

"It's over. I think I hurt myself. Wait a minute. There's someone who looks like she's passing out. Her hair is wild as an unmade bed, her arms are dragging on the floor and her pants are bagging.

"What kind of a creep would put a mirror in a room this small?"

The Newspaper Bible

CAN THIS BE THE MESSIAH?

Then the woman left her waterpot beside the well and went back to the village and told everyone, "Come and meet a man who told me everything I ever did! Can this be the Messiah?"

So the people came streaming from the village to see Him.

Meanwhile, the disciples were urging Jesus to eat. "No," He said. "I have some food you don't know about."

"Who brought it to Him?" the disciples asked each other.

The Jesus explained: "My nourishment comes from doing the will of God who sent Me, and from finishing His work."

Do you think the work of harvesting will not begin until the summer ends four months from now? Look around you! Vast fields of human souls are ripening all around us, and are ready now for reaping.

The reapers will be paid good wages and will be gathering eternal souls into the granaries of heaven! What joys await the sower and the reaper, both together!

For it is true that one sows and someone else reaps. I sent you to reap where you didn't sow; others did the work, and you received the harvest."

Many from the Samaritan village believed He was the Messiah because of the woman's report: "He told me everything I ever did!"

When they came out to see Him at the well, they begged Him to stay at their village; and He did, for two days, long enough for many of them to believe in Him after hearing Him.

Then they said to the woman, "Now we believe because we have heard Him ourselves, not just because of what you told us. He is indeed the Savior of the world."

Helping Hints For Buying Hosiery

COLLEGE STATION -- Learn how to buy hosiery to create that "total look" in fashion, says Nancy Brown, a clothing specialist.

There are two types of hosiery to choose from -- conventional and stretch, she points out.

Miss Brown is with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

CONVENTIONAL

The conventional, non-stretch stockings are made from regular, non-stretch yarn.

"Because there is no extra stretch potential built into the yarns, the stockings are sized according to foot and leg length," Miss Brown explains.

"They are available in a wide range of sizes."

STRETCH

Stretch hosiery is made from several types of yarns which have built-in "give."

This stretch lets the hose conform to the leg and fit without bagging at areas of strain such as the knee.

"This type is available in fewer sizes because each size stretches to fit several foot and leg sizes," the specialist says.

TYPES OF KNIT

Also consider types of knit when buying hosiery.

Whiteface Fems Win District Crown

By MAURI MONTGOMERY
Brand Sports Editor

LUBBOCK — Very few critics were dismayed following the conclusion of the 6th Annual District 4-4A Track Academy-Awards here Saturday. The meet panned out much as they had expected it to.

Nominees for 'Best Cinder Squad' were at best, a toss up between Hereford and Lubbock Monterey, while Plainview was heralded as a slight favorite to win in the category.

But at the end of the pomp occasion, it was the Hereford crew that got to do all the thanking, crying and the final acceptance, speech recitation for the presentation.

The HHS team had just won the district 4-4A award (its second such achievement in as many years), after edging out the Lubbock team by a margin of six meager total team points, 129-123.

And some critics said the overall key to the Herd's eventual success (following a season composed of little more than second and mostly third place finishes) lay in the fact that head mentor Martha Emerson was a sure write-in for the 'Best Director Award' while Monterey could do little better than grasp the 'Best Adapted Screenplay' for its rendition of "The Big Train Who Thought It Could and Couldn't!"

Yet, in all actuality, the forerunner in Hereford's success story came in lieu of bristling performances provided by the show's many renowned actresses.

Nominees in the 'Best Performance by a Sprinter' category included trio Lindy Walterscheid, Louise Mays and Darlene Sanders, and the race was so close all three took awards.

Sanders landed the honor after her 26.0 first-place performance in the 220-yard dash followed by Walterscheid's second place finish of 26.1 in the event. Then, the combo strung another winning presentation to their list in the 100-meter dash after Walterscheid set a new meet record in the event with a time of 12.5, and was trailed by Sanders who clocked a 12.9 in the race.

Louise Mays grasped her honor in the category after displaying an impressive first-berth performance with an ET of 1:01.2 in the competition.

All three performers will contend in the Regional Meet to be held in Lubbock Friday and Saturday, as all first and second place finishes receive bids to that affair.

Deborah Rogers—also a nominee for the award—will make an appearance at the regional meet along with her teammates, for her part in HHS's highly touted mile relay team which garnered a first in the meet with a 4:13.1. Others making the regional trip encompass Jennifer Griffin as part of the 880 relay squad which took second with 1:55.9 and Sandy Brownlow for her leg in the 440 after Hereford took second in that event after clocking a time of 53.9.

But even with those displays, the list in the achievement category went on for the Whitefaces as the cast-of-thousands continued to amass needed points in the field event competition as well as other distance events.

In fact it was the 17 points accumulated in field event competition and three places in the mile run (both areas had lacked point support from the Herd previously) that eventually pushed the HHS squad into the top niche of the meet.

Amy Schumacher netted a 93-7 1/2 throw in the discus competition which was good and triple jump.

Colleen Keating clinched a third in the 880 dash with a 2:37.2 time in the run to open the gate for more HHS points in distance competition, while Lori Albracht took sixth in the 440 dash and last but not least the 4th, 5th and 6th finishes in the mile run from Linda Sermino, Beatrice Moreno and Patricia Salazar.

"I was extremely pleased with the girls in the mile run because in reality they pulled us out into the lead and gave us the meet there at the last

"I don't think we could have stole the meet away from Monterey when it came right down to the wire if the girls hadn't wanted it (the meet) as bad as they did," she said. "They gave a team performance—depth in every segment which we had been lacking at times—and as a result it added up to a win for us. It was a slim one, but it still went down in the books as a win."

If Emerson would have summed all her thoughts up about her team's unprecedented success since the team's beginning it would most likely be "There's no business like track business—especially when you win the biggy!"

Rodeo Team Wins Trophy

By JIM STEIERT
Brand Farm Editor

Members of the Hereford High School rodeo team corralled a herd of points in the Spearman High School Rodeo over the weekend and the boys' team continued to add to its lead in overall Tri-State high school rodeo competition as it brought home the team trophy with a total of 20 points.

Pacing the top performance by the HHS boys' team was Sid Howard, who copped 12 points and won the All-Around Cowboy title of the rodeo. Howard was also awarded the Sportsmanship Trophy.

He placed first in steer wrestling with a time of 5:47.6, was fourth in calf roping with a time of 15:18.4 and was fourth in team roping as a header with a time of 13:03.8.

Robert Esqueda placed third in bull riding with a score of 57, good for four points and Harold Murray for fifth place. Jill Pickens tied for fourth in the high jump after leaping 4-8, and Theresa Schilling rounded out the Herd's field action as she capped third place finishes in both the long jump and triple jump.

Colleen Keating clinched a third in the 880 dash with a 2:37.2 time in the run to open the gate for more HHS points in distance competition, while Lori Albracht took sixth in the 440 dash and last but not least the 4th, 5th and 6th finishes in the mile run from Linda Sermino, Beatrice Moreno and Patricia Salazar.

"I was extremely pleased with the girls in the mile run because in reality they pulled us out into the lead and gave us the meet there at the last

"I don't think we could have stole the meet away from Monterey when it came right down to the wire if the girls hadn't wanted it (the meet) as bad as they did," she said. "They gave a team performance—depth in every segment which we had been lacking at times—and as a result it added up to a win for us. It was a slim one, but it still went down in the books as a win."

If Emerson would have summed all her thoughts up about her team's unprecedented success since the team's beginning it would most likely be "There's no business like track business—especially when you win the biggy!"

Three Herd Cindermen Score Points in Relays

AMARILLO — The Hereford Whiteface boys track team learned a valuable lesson here in the Amarillo Relays Friday and Saturday and it was a lesson no team should have to learn twice—that being that three men just don't quite add up to a full track squad.

The Whiteface team landed a distant eighth place berth in the meet with a tally of 25 total team points behind the likes of meet winner Canyon with 95, El Paso Irvin's 84, Vernon 54, Tascosa 53, Amarillo High and Wichita Falls tie for fifth with 44 and Pampas seventh place berth at 28.

And those three Hereford islands garnering the 25 team points, came in the form of Felix Soliz who continues to wage battles and win them in the 800-meter run and mile runs, while HHS harriers Norman Brown and Scott Gentry placed in the 400-meter and 880-meter runs completed the trio.

Soliz grabbed a second place spot in the 800 meter run with a time of 2:03.3 behind Irvin's Dagiel Rojas who netted first in the event with a 2:00.6. Scott Gentry followed Soliz in the race with a third place 2:04.6, and Soliz also added up a place in the 1600-meter as he capped a fourth place finish in that event after running a 4:57.2 in the event.

Brown rounded out the only other finish for the Herd's efforts of the day as he followed the event's winner, Joe Long of Irvin and second place finisher Jon Osborn of AHS in for a third place 52.8 niche.

Celtics Rout Houston, 138-121

HOUSTON (AP) — The plodding Houston Rockets decided to fight fire with fire with the running Boston Celtics in the fourth game of their National Basketball Association Eastern Conference semifinal playoff series Monday night.

The Rockets decided to run, too, and all they did was get burned for the 10th straight time as the Celtics flexed their muscle with another third-quarter surge and rolled to a 138-121 victory.

The win gave Boston a 4-0 sweep in the lopsided series and propelled them into the NBA Eastern Conference finals against the Philadelphia-Atlanta winner.

In nine previous losses to the Celtics, six straight in the regular season, the Rockets seldom dafted get in a foot race with the greyhound-quick Celtics.

And when they opened up Monday night, the Celtics were neither surprised nor dismayed by the change in tactics.

"We're happy when people run with us," said Celtic forward Cedric Maxwell, who scored 27 points. "We think we have a good transition game and can get down the court with the best of them."

With the Celtics loping along with a 49-35 lead in the second quarter, the Rockets suddenly erupted with 12 straight points that cut the lead to 49-47 and the slumbering 13,106 Rocket fans came to life.

It was a fight the remainder of the first half with Boston being forced into a floor-length pass by Nate Archibald and a last-second basket by Maxwell for a 66-64 halftime lead.

But then the fun was over for the Rockets, who watched for the fourth time in the series as the Celtics put together a breakaway third-quarter spurt that put an end to their season with a 14-4 spurt to start to start the third quarter.

Both Philadelphia and Los Angeles can wrap up their second-round series tonight at home, but they are coming into their games from different directions.

After three close contests, each won by the home team, the Philadelphia 76ers stunned the Atlanta Hawks 107-83 Sunday night in Atlanta to take a 3-1 lead in their series.

"The attitude of Atlanta fans was one of shock and disbelief," reported Sixers General Manager Pat Williams. But he's not counting his chickens just yet.

"My concern is that we might be inclined to take it a little easy and we can't do that," said Williams.

Los Angeles, on the other hand, is coming off a 127-101 thrashing at Phoenix after having beaten the Suns in the first three games of its series. The Lakers came out flat, fell behind 10-0 and never caught up.

In Seattle, the defending champion SuperSonics play host to the Milwaukee Bucks with their series tied 2-2. Seattle pulled even with a 112-107 victory at Milwaukee Sunday.

Sundberg Hits Grand Slam

Rangers Halt Tribe

ARLINGTON, Texas (AP) — Doc Medich was already in trouble when he tossed what he called a "mediocre fastball" down the plate at Jorge Orta.

The bases were loaded and Orta pounced on the pitch, drilling it into the fourth row of the centerfield bleachers for a grand slam homer that gave the Cleveland Indians a 4-0 lead over the Texas Rangers in the first inning Monday night.

"Yes, it was a good pitch, if you're a hitter. I wanted it back as soon as I threw it. It looked like it was going to be a long evening," the 6-foot-5 righthander said.

But Medich's teammates had their own uprising in the bottom of the inning. Jim Sundberg blasted his own grand slam homer and Texas went on to a 7-4 victory.

Mickey Rivers and Al Oliver doubled against Cleveland's Rick Waits, cutting the lead to 4-1. But the real damage came when the 6-3 southpaw proceeded to walk Buddy Bell, Richie Zisk and Billy Sample, forcing in another run and loading the bases for Sundberg.

"I just plain couldn't find the plate. I threw every pitch and couldn't get any of them over. Anytime you walk three in one inning, you're asking for trouble and I got it," Waits said.

Sundberg then lashed his second career grand slam, powering his drive over the 370-foot mark in left center to catapult the Rangers to a 6-4 lead.

After the wild first inning, Cleveland Manager Dave Garcia said, "They both settled down and pitched good ball. That's the way it goes. That's why this is such a great game. We're going to win a game exactly like this before the year's over."

Over the next six innings, Medich, 1-0, allowed only three walks and Duane Kuipers doubled before back-to-back singles by Rick Manning and Toby Harrah drove him from the game with two out in the seventh.

Sparky Lyle, who came on in relief, wasn't even close to the plate in walking Mike Hargrove on four pitches to load the bases. He then threw two more balls to Cliff Johnson before he gave up on his breaking stuff and threw nothing but fastballs for a strikeout that ended the inning.

Lyle then retired the Indians in order the final two innings to pick up for his first save.

Waits, 0-1, picked up another double to Rivers in the second and a pair of singles in the third before he got his curve ball working and began setting the Rangers down.

Sid Monge relieved him in the seventh but control problems also hurt him. He issued walks to Sample and Sundberg, both moved up on Nelson Norman's fly to center and Monge's wild pitch let another run home.

Orta went 1-4 for the night but was victimized twice by good fielding plays.

In Win Over Atlanta

Cabell Sparks Astros

HOUSTON (AP) — Cesar Cedeno may have returned to his "old" self, but the Atlanta Braves know the every-day Enos Cabell is no slouch.

Cedeno hammered the Atlanta Braves pitching staff for four hits and Cabell drove in three runs, including the winning run in the bottom of the ninth, as the Astros nipped the Atlanta Braves 5-4 Monday night.

"We have proved every day so far this season we can hit," said Cabell, "and we can run successfully on anybody in the league."

J.R. Richard, who said Cedeno had returned to his "old self," was relieved after five innings by Vern Ruhle because of a sore shoulder and the Astros appeared to be headed for a 4-1 win until the top of the eighth.

After Atlanta's Bob Horner singled to open the inning and Dale Murphy flied to right, Houston manager Bill Virdon pulled Ruhle for Joe Sambito.

Brian Asselstine greeted Sambito with a booming double that scored Horner, then Astros rightfielder Jeff Leonard dropped a deep fly by Larvell Banks that sent Asselstine to third and left Banks on second.

Pinch-hitter Jeff Burroughs ripped another double that emptied the bases and left the score tied 4-4.

"I felt like I wanted to stay with Sambito," said Virdon after the game. "If he'd gotten a break and Jeff had held the ball, he'd have gotten out of the inning."

Cedeno singled to lead off the ninth inning for Houston, then stole second and went to third on a bad throw by Atlanta catcher Biff Pocoroba.

Joe Morgan also singled, then Atlanta reliever Gene Garber, who absorbed the loss, walked Jose Cruz to load the bases and Cabell sacrificed to end the game.

Houston scored two runs in the third, then added solo runs in the fourth and seventh. The Astros collected 12 hits off Atlanta pitching.

Atlanta scored their first run in the second inning Doyle Alexander was the starting pitcher for Atlan-

By Don Henslee

Q. Several weeks ago I noticed that my car bounced enough to hit bottom when I crossed a bump or dip. I replaced all four shock absorbers. And I used heavy-duty shocks. It helped, but it didn't eliminate the problem. Also, the rear end of the car sags, even on a level surface. What more can I do?

A. From your description it sounds as if your rear springs are weak. The problem can be solved in one of three ways. Obviously, replacing the springs will eliminate your worries. If you don't want to do that, air shocks will restore your car to its original height, but it still will bottom out on bed bumps. If you don't want that "sinking feeling" on bumps and dips, you can avoid replacing the rear springs by strengthening them with some spacer shims.

The Unfunny Politicians

Every political year voters are likely to be sidetracked and some candidates derailed — by peripheral issues.

Frequently, recently, by candidates telling jokes which were construed as ethnic slurs.

We have become so hypersensitive about ethnics that there is no way an Abraham Lincoln could be elected today. He loved to tell stories about Irish and others.

Other Presidents since have enjoyed ribald humor, often at the expense of some religion or nationality. Nowadays, however, candidates are subjected to closer media scrutiny than ever before. Now the stories, heretofore told in private, are on tomorrow's front page.

Every election for the last half dozen some candidate of prominence has had to apologize for or try to explain away some remark he made which somebody considered offensive.

Mostly, they are stories one hears about Aggies in Texas, about the Polish in Chicago, about South Dakotans in North Dakota — the same stories with only the target creed or clan substituted to suit the geographical situation.

Ron Reagan's recent story about the Pole, the Italian and the Mafia was just plain dumb. Certainly it was unworthy of a professional entertainer and inappropriate for a professional politician. Archie Bunker can get away with overt bigotry — if he keeps it funny.

On the other hand, a member of the federal government's Equal Employment Opportunity Commission — in a recent Denver speech — laced his remarks with inexcusably bad taste.

Armando Rodriguez thought he could get away with Mexican-American jokes because he is Mexican-American — but his stories were as crude as relating to the relative cleanliness of female sex organs.

Or take the new yearbook of the United States Department of Agriculture. Somebody had the bright idea that this document

Aliens, Agents Tangle

SAN YSIDRO, Calif. (AP) — Fifty additional Border Patrol agents will be added to the regular forces here after agents wearing riot gear used tear gas to disperse an estimated 500 illegal aliens over the weekend, authorities said.

Donald Cameron, Chula Vista Border Patrol sector chief, said Monday that a group of Mexicans gathered late Saturday along a half-mile stretch on the south levee of the Tia Juana River.

Early Sunday morning, about 500 aliens crossed the river and came within a half mile of the border, Cameron said. The aliens reportedly pelted waiting agents with rocks. The incident recurred an hour later, Cameron said, when about 35 officers were hit.

Agents used seven canisters of tear gas to drive the aliens back to the south levee. About 200 returned to Mexico.

There were no reported injuries in the fracas.

Cameron said Border Patrol agents have allowed Mexicans to gather on the south levee because, without a completed border fence, the area can't be defended.

Cameron said smugglers are creating the disturbances in order to distract the agents from other areas.

"When they (the smugglers) want to get a group across, they create a diversion because they know we'll send reinforcements to help our men in trouble," he said. "Meanwhile, they're free to run people across at other points."

should be enlivened with some jokes about farmers and farming:

"Ever wonder why farmers use cows to keep the grass cut?"

"Because they are good lawn moo-ers."

Ouch!

Another: "When might those same cows wear bells?"

"When their horns don't work."

End quote.

That editor underestimates

the farm audience which is now obviously more sophisticated than is he. But even quality humor would be inappropriate in that informational publication.

Bureaucrats, like politicians, rarely have a real talent for humor. This is partly because we are accustomed to taking seriously what they say. We "want" to be able to take seriously what they say. From their lips fiction, for whatever purpose, is disturbing.

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — On a tranquil night for Oscar, Dustin Hoffman and his bitter child custody battle "Kramer vs. Kramer" earned the best of the 52nd annual Academy awards, while Sally Field's portrayal of a union militant in "Norma Rae" brought her best actress honors.

"Kramer" won five major awards Monday night, including best picture, best screenplay and directing (Robert Benton), best supporting actress (Meryl Streep) and best actor — the often-nominated but never-before chosen Hoffman.

Bob Fosse's "All That Jazz," a self-inspired musical about a stage producer's frenetic and eventually fatal drive, won four Oscars — film editing, art direction, adapted score and costume design.

"Apocalypse Now," Francis Ford Coppola's Vietnam War epic, collected for sound and cinematography. "Norma Rae" was the other multiple winner of the night, garnering Oscars for best song — "It Goes Like It Goes" — and for Miss Field's performance.

Hoffman's ambivalent acceptance and a verbal sparring match with reporters backstage provided the evening's only hints of spontaneous drama, commodities of which Oscar is usually in ample supply. Monday night was an exception.

Hoffman joked a bit as he accepted his Oscar, then turned serious, making reference to his being "critical of the Academy, and for reason."

Backstage, he expanded: "I guess what I'm trying to say is that I do think that art is competitive ... but it is for the artist to do the competing. There's just no way to arbitrarily draw the line on good work."

Not at all ambivalent was Sally Field, who struggled for years with her cutesy

"Gidget" image before getting roles worthy of Oscar performances. Her portrayal of the diminutive, tough-minded union organizer, Norma Rae, earned her a best actress Oscar in a difficult field that included such heavyweights as Jane Fonda and Marsha Mason.

Miss Field wept openly on stage, and said afterward, "I'm absolutely shocked. ... I know I'll go home and cry some more. I've wanted to be an actress since I was three. This is incredible."

Melvyn Douglas, who at 79 was competing in the supporting actor category against 8-year-old Justin

Henry, was a predicted and popular winner for his role as the craggy capitalist in "Being There."

Douglas, who has continued working despite weakened health, was the only winning actor not in attendance at Monday's ceremony.

The other supporting role award — to Meryl Streep for "Kramer" — was not unexpected, either. The only surprise came weeks ago, when Miss Streep, who played Hoffman's estranged wife in the movie, was nominated in the supporting, rather than lead category.
