

Police Report Shows Higher Crime Rate

By DAN WELTY
Brand Staff Writer

Hard times, crime and corruption in high places, and less authority in the home were reasons for more crime in Hereford as well as the rest of the nation according to Caydon Brush, Hereford chief of police. Brush was commenting on the annual report outlining activities of the Hereford Police Department.

Statistically, the report showed that more offenses were committed this year than last, more persons were charged with crimes than last year, more juveniles were arrested but there was only a slight increase in traffic violations in the city.

BRUSH AGREES that major crimes are increasing in Hereford. "Two or three years ago we had never even heard of armed robbery in Hereford." Hereford had two in 1974. But Brush also points out that the reason the report looks worse is that the police department is doing better.

"We have a better quality of officers now than we've ever had before. The officers are more conscientious in their duties, they are better educated, they are hustling more. The officers we have now are the best we've had since I moved to Hereford," he said.

Brush feels that although proportionately, crime has increased, his officers are discovering more crimes and those who commit the crimes.

That would account for the rise in persons held and charged from 514 in 1973 to 654 in 1974. Except when you look at the increase in juveniles referred to juvenile court jurisdiction. The total for 1973 indicated 90 juveniles were referred, but that number jumped to 159 in 1974.

Brush says the sharp increase in juveniles involved with the police stems from home life. "In some cases the parents are separating and the kids are not being supervised. They're being turned loose to do as they please, and you'd be surprised as to what they're doing.

The breakdown begins in the home. The parents aren't strict enough and neither are the courts." The number of juveniles arrested in 1974 arose to 186, up from 108 arrests in 1973 and 94 arrests in 1972.

Offense known to police totaled 382 in 1974, up from 334 in 1973. Most of the cases were burglaries of one form or another, larceny thefts and assaults. There were no criminal homicides in Hereford in 1974, only one forcible rape, and two robberies.

Turning to traffic violations, 2,520 were charged with violations of one sort or another during 1974, up only 13 charged in 1973 (2,507). One area that showed a decrease was speeding violations. In 1973, 843 citations were issued compared with 659 in 1974. Trouble with radar units may have kept that number down. "We had a lot of trouble with maintenance on our radar sets," said Brush. "Decatur, Ill. is where we have to send them to be repaired, and it takes a while to ship them off and get them back." Officers had trouble with a new radar unit that was eventually replaced by the manufacturer, and then the replacement went on the blink.

"Our officers paced speeders with the patrol cars during this time. It is not as effective as radar. People have their eyes out for the police, and it's sometimes hard to get turned around in traffic to catch a speeder."

Stop sign violations showed a marked increase, up from 119 citations in 1973 to 171 in 1974. Brush attributed the increase to better enforcement.

"We have a map that we pin when an

School Board Extends Hartman's Contract

Finance Bills To Help Schools

By BOBBY TEMPLETON

Which ever way the current Texas Legislature goes in solving the financial woes of public education, the Hereford Independent School District could benefit by at least $600,000 in additional revenue from any of the plans presently pending. This is the conclusion drawn by Superintendent Roy Hartman in an address to the School Board of Trustees at their regular monthly meeting Tuesday. The statement was based on information gathered by school officials at a recent meeting in Springlake.

Board members, meeting in both open and closed session, extended Hartman's contract for one year, set election dates, selected election workers, approved a school personnel policy dealing with promotions, and accepted a program for out-of-school youth.

THE SPRINGLAKE meeting was designed principally for School district tax assessor-collectors in response to requests by the Texas Education Agency for information on property evaluations.

At the meeting a resolution was proposed to do away with property tax as a method for financing public education and institute state wide income taxes and sales taxes as a more equitable form of taxation. It stated that a combination of the two would be more "equitable and feasible" as opposed to most plans which rely on 100 per cent market value of taxable property.

Bobby Veigel, board member, said the state sales tax in some form would be fairer combined with some form of property tax at the local level. However, the board agreed the income tax was unfair and decided to take no action.

"We could benefit by $600,000 under one of the proposed plans (legislative) and by over a $1 million under another depending on which one is passed by the legislature," Hartman said. "But no one knows what will happen at this point."

Orpha Click, school tax assessor-collector, said he was about the only tax official at Springlake who knew how to prepare a ration study of taxes as wanted by the state.

"SOME SCHOOL districts will be embarrassed when they submit their information if they report lower evaluations as they presently use," Click said. "We now have a tax roll of $260 million and a $381 million evaluation based on a 1973 ratio study. I am preparing another one."

"Hopefully, though, the legislature will act fast so I will have enough time to reassess all the property."

He said that tax collections were good so far and that the cattle market price drop will result in about a $160,000 revenue drop for the schools.

The contract extension for Hartman was decided after about a one hour closed meeting. It extends the superintendent's employment contract another five years. The vote was five in favor with Jim Arney and Ron Zimmerman abstaining.

Elections are scheduled for April 5 with the final date for filing being Mar. 5. Absentee voting is March 17 - April 1 at the school district tax office. Voting will take place at the community center.

Jim Holmes, administrative assistant, said the out-of-school student and adult program will involve those seeking a high school diploma as opposed to getting a G.E.D. The Hereford schools will conduct testing in connection with area institutions of higher learning.

The school personnel policy, which had already been discussed was finally approved after no better wording could be derived for criteria on which demotions and promotions would be based.

THE QUARTER SYSTEM, which the schools move to as of the 1975-76 school year was explained at length by high school principal Jerry Don George and Stanton principal Ray Todd.

Basically it will move the school to a "tri-semester" course of study with summer school providing an additional semester. Although the transition is expected to move smoothly, a few

THAT FELLER on Tierra Blanca Creek says with prices going up, the dime will be useful only for what it was originally designed—as a small screw-driver.

THERE'S MORE to being a "gentleman" than a lot of people think. I always thought of myself as a pretty handy man in helping my wife put on her coat, but I got a crash course in charm Monday night and learned I've been doing the coat trick wrong all these years. Of course, Lavon has to accept part of the blame, too. After all, she hasn't been using the basic foot position, bending her left elbow correctly, or—most importantly—giving me a sexy smile after the coat is in place.

ALL OF this came to light when Mickey McDonald of Amarillo appeared as guest speaker when the Women's Division, Chamber of Commerce, held its installation dinner Monday night. Noting that a number of men were present, Mickey decided to give the men a little dose of this charm-business. It was an entertaining program, with this writer, Roy Faubion and Dan Welty called to the front to help demonstrate the right way to put on a lady's coat, seat her at a table, and get her out of a car.

LOCAL ATTORNEYS are studying the possibility of asking the Legislature to create a separate judicial district for Deaf Smith and Oldham counties. The proposal came up last year but did not gain enough support for presentation to the lawmakers. Prime reason for such a proposal would be the area and case load carried by District Judge Archie McDonald.

HEREFORD HAD about a dozen representatives in Austin Tuesday when Rep. Bill Clayton of Springlake was sworn in as Speaker of the House. Bill Albright, Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce executive, reported a good reception for folks from Clayton's district. It's an important position for our representative, and West Texas should have a strong voice in the Legislature this session.

PRESIDENT FORD'S outline of economic and energy plans to "turn America in a new direction" have drawn good and bad responses. Most people seem to like the proposal of a quick tax cut to fight recession, but the energy program is viewed by many as a costly remedy. The plan aims to cut U.S. fuel consumption by raising consumer prices for petroleum products.

Suitcase Reveals Stolen Drugs

Two Hereford men were arraigned before county judge Sam Morgan Monday morning in a case involving a suitcase full of drugs believed to have been stolen from an Amarillo pharmacy.

Randolph Warner Cawthon, 21, and Randall Scott Jorde, 21, were charged with possession of a controlled substance in that court Monday morning. Bond was set on each at $1,500. Cawthon was lodged in the county jail at presstime. Jorde was released in lieu of the $1,500 bond.

A third man was arrested in the case, but charges of possession of a controlled substance had not been filed against him in the county court at presstime.

The case began with a disturbance call at 3:25 a.m. Sunday morning. Officers were called to a residence on the east side of the city.

According to the police report, officers found a man standing on the front porch when they arrived. As officers approached the porch, the man invited officers in, then told officers that one of the men in the living room was on dope and that he would show officers where the dope was. The police report indicated the man was not able to stand still without weaving and having something to lean on.

The men in the room, the report continued, were Cawthon and Jorde. The man told officers that Cawthon was the one on dope. Both were in the same condition as the man, the report points out.

Jorde, the report says, was noticed by the officers heading for the back door. Jorde had trouble opening the door and

Local Officials Allot Revenue Sharing Funds

Appropriation and allotment of city and county revenue sharing funds for the last quarter was announced by local governing bodies this week.

County Commissioners opted Monday to expend $53,870 in Certificates of Deposit. Eighteen thousand dollars will be stipulated for one month CD with the remainder being earmarked for a three month deposit. This was included in a financial report read by county treasurer Vesta Mae Nunley.

These amounts will be used eventually for road improvement projects and salaries for highway employees.

CITY MANAGER Dudley Bayne announced that Hereford's revenue sharing funds, amounting to $46,001 the last quarter, have already been spent for traffic signals at the intersection of Park Ave. and 25 Mile Ave. Part of this amount was forwarded to state offices for the purchase of right of way at this site.

kept his back to the officers. An officer followed Jorde and noticed him make a motion as if he were emptying his hands of something. The officer stepped out on the porch and found Jorde stomping something. The officer noticed broken glass and, the report said, a lot of red capsules and some yellow pills.

All three subjects were placed under arrest for possession of a controlled substance. A search by officers turned up several bottles of various kinds of pills and capsules outside in the snow, and another bottle of capsules and some marijuana seeds were found inside the residence.

At 5:47 a.m., officers took the man from the drunk tank of the county jail and transported him to the Deaf Smith County Hospital. The report said that the man was seemingly having some kind of a fit in the drunk tank. He was acting like he was trying to butt his head on the walls, but his friends were holding him back.

The report indicated that a bottle containing 87 Seconal, a bottle of 82 Tuinal, and a bottle of 88 Thorazine had been found. One bottle was labeled by the Prescription Center, 7th and Lamar, in Amarillo. That drug store was burglarized of a quantity of drugs on the night of Jan. 8.

As investigation in the case continued Sunday, officers of the Deaf Smith County Sheriff's Office and the Hereford Police Department were able to locate a cache of drugs. A suitcase containing huge quantities of barbiturates and hypodermic needles was found in an abandoned barn north and west of the city.

Officers inventoried the find Sunday evening. A police report said that exact value of the drugs was not known, but that it was expected to be in the thousands.

Investigation in the case continues and Hereford officials are working with Amarillo officials to determine if the drugs are those taken in the Amarillo pharmacy burglary.

★★ Mrs. Robinson Named '74 Woman of the Year ★★

A city-wide Summer Youth Program she headed, as well as work on the 1974 and 1975 Miss Hereford Pageants, won for Mrs. J.W. Robinson Jr. the current Woman Of The Year award in the Women's Division, Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce.

Presentation climaxed the winter membership dinner of the Women's Division Monday evening at Dickie's Restaurant. Mrs. Robinson received a silver trophy from Mrs. Lynn Kester, a past president and former Woman Of The Year, and a sheaf of red roses from Mrs. O.G. Nieman, president.

HER ACTIVITIES in the Women's Division included service as chairman of the youth committee during 1974. In that position she directed a Summer Youth Program which involved scores of Hereford youngsters in events supervised by volunteers.

Even before she was a member of the division she assisted with a Miss Hereford Pageant, and for last year's pageant she was chairman of entries.

When planning began for the 1975 pageant she was named general chairman of the steering committee and in that capacity she is leading committee work in preparation for the Feb. 15 event.

A Hereford resident four and a half years, Mrs. Robinson has been a Woman's Division member the past two years. She came here from Dallas, where she was active in the Junior League.

Another community service she gives is driving for the Meals-On-Wheels program. She is a member of First Christian Church and lives at 213 Cherokee.

ATTENDANCE AT the dinner neared the 150 person mark. A number of guests were introduced, including Chamber of Commerce officers and directors and their wives, Miss Hereford, Susie Hickman, and Miss Teenage Hereford, Monica Herring.

Officers for the coming year were installed by a past president, Mrs. Rex Lee. Mrs. Nieman is president for a second term. Other officers include Mrs. Waldo Baxter and Mrs. Joe Bailey, vice presidents; Mrs. Bill Johnson, secretary; Mrs. Melvin Hoover, director of public affairs; and Mrs. Joe Henry, director of fine arts.

Chairmen of committees under the two directorships were introduced, and gifts were presented to Mrs. W.E. Sparks and Mrs. Joel Newman, retiring directors. A plaque of appreciation for assistance with publicity since the Women's Division was organized in 1968 was presented to Sue Coleman, Brand women's editor.

THE PROGRAM was given by Mickey McDonald, director of the American Beauty Charm School at Amarillo, who was introduced by Mrs. Hoover. Her subject was Come Alive In '75, and she spoke of the value of self-improvement goals for women of any age, to aid them in family, community or business relationships.

Kandy Newman, a Hereford pupil of Mrs. McDonald, assisted by modeling two costumes from the Pants Cage Plus. The speaker also was assisted by Miss Hickman, O.G. Nieman, Dan Welty and Roy Faubion, whom she summoned from the audience to take part in amusing skits illustrating her definitions of charm.

As a door prize a flower piece from the head table was given to Elizabeth Sperlund, one of half-a-dozen new members introduced with the announcement that membership now totals 170.

Accomplishments of the Women's Division in 1974 were listed in a concise report, with a copy at each place, in lieu of annual reports made orally by chairmen.

New Members Eyeball County Business Commissioners Begin New Year

By BOBBY TEMPLETON
Brand News Editor

The three new members of the Deaf Smith County Commissioner's Court had questions and a few opinions on just about every corner of county business at their first regularly scheduled meeting Monday.

The curious members included County Judge Sam Morgan and Commissioners James Voyles and Austin Rose Jr. They met with holdover Commissioners Earl Holt and Bruce Coleman. The court met Jan. 7 in a special session to consider investigations into the local Food Stamp Program.

During the 5 1/2 hour meeting, commissioners approved a new overtime policy for the sheriff's department, recommended the county for crop disaster loans through the Farmer's Home Administration, appointed the Historical Survey Committee and approved a contract for the collection of delinquent taxes.

THE COURT APPROVED Bruce Coleman for another year term on the area Juvenile Board and accepted

Coleman and Rose as representatives to the Panhandle Regional Planning Commission (PRPC). Dues of $759.96 to the PRPC also were approved.

Even though, other area counties aren't members of the PRPC, Coleman said Deaf Smith benefits by membership in receiving federal funds the county might not otherwise properly apply for and in getting advice on such matters as jail improvements.

The new Commissioners were concerned with subjects ranging from the county's insurance coverage to the collections of taxes. Although no action was taken in all these areas, requests were made for more information to be presented at the next meeting set for Jan. 27.

Under two separate agenda items, discussion arose on a possible tax percentage change and personal property evaluations and collections.

Vance Crume of the county tax office told the court that they had until April 30 to decide whether a tax rate or percentage increase was needed.

However, Vesta Mae Nunley, county treasurer, said, "We have more on hand at this time than we did during the same time last year. Our present tax rate should handle our present expenses."

MORGAN NOTED that it is no time to be thinking about a tax increase and that the county has fared well with the revenues it has received especially with the help of income from federal sources such as Revenue Sharing.

Commissioners Holt and Voyles were concerned about personal property tax reductions including what property is specifically recorded.

"Of course, all property should be reported but not all persons do. By law, all property is to be rendered at 100 percent evaluation," Crume explained.

He said, when asked, that some property is rendered two or three times (by renters, owners and caretakers) but that "no problem exists since we have all the records so that it is taxed only once."

The county's insurance program and the court's relationship with Criminal District Attorney Andy Shuval also were discussed. Written information on two subjects was requested by the next meeting.

SHUVAL LISTED his responsibilities to the court, but noted that his main function is to represent the State of Texas in legal cases. Besides offering advice to the commissioners, he noted that he can represent any county official in legal suits when asked and if the alleged offense is in connection with county business.

Shuval told the commissioners of a plan by the area bar association to sponsor a bill in the Texas Legislature to create a new judicial district court out of Deaf Smith and Oldham Counties. Presently, this county is in the 69th judicial district made up of six counties. Its presiding judge is Archie McDonald of Dumas.

Gwen London, county librarian, reported that complaints had been received on the unclean carpets and windows of the library. The Commissioners met with Jack Nunley, county maintenance engineer, and decided that he was responsible for the library.

Nunley and Fred Mulkey, parttime library worker, will meet later with the commissioners to finally settle the problem.

THE OVERTIME policy for the sheriff's department was established to avoid any extra pay.

It states that no overtime will be paid for "240 hours in a work period of 28 days (60 days in a work period of seven days), or in the case of any work period between seven and 28 days, in the same ratio of 240 hours to 28 days."

Appointed to the Historical Survey committee were Mrs. Lee Newman, Mrs. Henry Sears, A.J. Schroeter, Clint Formby, Mrs. Walter Johnson, Sam Morgan, Mrs. Austin Rose Jr., Mrs. Ruth McBride and Mrs. Johnnie Turrentine. They compose the same committee as before with the exception of Mrs. A.B. Higgins, who asked to be replaced.

The court approved the county for crop disaster loans through the FmHA due to the wet and cool weather occurring in September and October. Once the County Judge signs the recommendation, it is forwarded to the governor for approval, which usually occurs.

The county again contracted with Perdue, Brandon and Blair to collect the county's delinquent taxes. This was acted on earlier but never recorded officially in the minutes.

Also approved were two water lines in precinct 2 for E.L. Young and Paul Drerup.

March of Dimes

Smiling with the 1975 Poster Girl for Hereford's March Of Dimes, Elizabeth Perez, are Mrs. Bill Johnson, seated, chairman for the annual Mothers' March on Birth Defects to be staged Jan. 26-31, and Mrs. Dan Warrick, chairman from the Jaycee-Ettes club which is organizing the local campaign again this year. Five-year-old Elizabeth and her mother, Mrs. Enevela Perez, reside with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Garcia, 419 Ave. G.

Police Beat

Fire Fighters Battle City Residence Blaze

A fire that destroyed a portion of a home in the city and a drug case involving three Hereford men highlight the police beat for the beginning of the week.

Three Hereford men were arrested for possession of a controlled substance Sunday morning. For further details see the front page story.

Fire fighters were called to a residence in the south part of the city twice Saturday night. The first alarm at 10:56 p.m. sent fire fighters to 206 Raymond, but proved to be a false alarm. At 11:21 p.m., only minutes later, firemen were called out to the same address. A fire was blazing and firemen fought low temperatures and high winds until the blaze was extinguished. The Juan Sustaita home received heavy damage in one bedroom and smoke and water damage to the rest of the structure.

Two juveniles were arrested for arson in the case and referred to the custody of the juvenile authorities.

A bucket brigade may have saved a pickup Monday. The truck, belonging to Joe H. Cooper, was carrying a load of wood in the rear when it caught on fire close to Pitman Feedyards. A line was formed from a nearby pond and the flames were kept in control until fire trucks were able to drive the 17 miles west of town and finish off the blaze. Cooper was able to drive the truck into town.

Other alarms included a motor heater fire at 426 Ave. J, a grease fire in the kitchen of the First Baptist Church and a small fire at 706 Ave. G caused by a flame used to thaw frozen pipes. None of these were serious and were quickly contained by fire fighters.

A window was broken at the Askew Laundry about 5:10 p.m. Saturday afternoon. The manager of the laundry, which is located at 611 East Park Ave., said he saw four boys go into the rest room and then heard breaking glass. The boys ran from the room and drove away in a sports car with New Mexico license plates.

Two windows were broken at the old pro shop at the John Douglas Pitman Municipal Golf Course and vandals damaged playing greens by driving their heels into the turf. Total damage of the Saturday night vandalism was placed at $106.

A car driven by Rexton Lynn Prather of P.O. Box 1128 collided with the rear of a car driven by Cathy Ann Carrothers of 119 North Texas Monday at about 1:07 p.m. Both vehicles were northbound on Highway 385 at the time of the accident. The Carrothers vehicle had slowed to make a turn.

A 10:36 a.m. accident that same day was similar. A car driven by Sam Lee Pruitt of 334 Ave. J was struck in the rear by a car driven by Lonnie Carrol Swimmer. Pruitt was stopped at the northbound intersection of Fifth and Park Avenue at the time of the accident.

A school bus turned off Grand Avenue onto Highway 385 Tuesday morning about 8:15 a.m., hit a slick spot in the road and skidded into a welding truck. Homero DeLeon Guerra of 710 Knight was the driver of the school bus, Kenneth Ray Ruland of South Main was driving the welding truck.

A one-vehicle accident occurred Sunday morning about 6:52 a.m. A small foreign car driven by Richard Jeffrey Hampton of 808 Union pulled into 605 Ave. G to throw out a newspaper and collided with the center pole of a double garage.

Rules Outlined For Stock Show

Rules and regulations for the annual Hereford Young Farmers Junior Livestock Show have been announced by Joe Shultz, HYF president.

The show will be held Jan. 23-25 in the Bull Barn with judging of steers, barrows and lambs. Entry is open to residents of Deaf Smith, Parmer, Oldham and Castro counties who are between the ages 9-20.

General superintendents are Shultz, Layton Sawyer and George Muse. Division superintendents are: steers - Tommy Sparkman, Jack Andrews and Roy Carlson; barrows - Jimmy Christie, Joe West and Connie Urbanczyk; lambs - Robert Higgins, Jim Bob Perrin, Ronnie and Rocky Andrews.

SHULTZ SAID entry cards were mailed to exhibitors before Jan. 1. These cards and entry fees must be returned to the Hereford Young Farmers, Box 1091, Hereford, prior to Jan. 18. Shultz stressed that no animals will be accepted in the show unless entry forms and fees are received before the 18th.

Entry rates are $7 per calf and $3 per hog or lamb. Bedding expenses are included with this fee, Shultz stated.

Floor price will be set on all animals before sale on Saturday, Jan. 25. Animals which are not eligible for auction (to be sold at floor price) will be moved to pens outside of the barn.

Before an entry can be pulled from the sale floor, the superintendent of that division must be presented with a release obtained from the show office within one hour after judging. All animals not pulled from sale will be sold and delivered to the buyer.

EACH EXHIBITOR entering livestock in the show gives permission for the animals to be used in the 4-H and FFA judging contest. This does not include the Grand Champion and Reserve Grand Champion.

Ribbons will be awarded to individuals ranking in the top 10 places in each category. Recognition will be given to the best entries from Deaf Smith County and to the best in a four-county region (Deaf Smith, Oldham, Parmer and Castro).

All animals will be classified according to breed characteristics. Any infraction of show rules will be subject to a $25 fine per animal.

According to Shultz, all barrows and lambs must be in place by 10 p.m. Wednesday, Jan. 22. All calves must be in place by 10 a.m. Thursday, Jan. 23. Market hogs will be judged at 2 p.m. Thursday by Bob Robinson, assistant county agent for Parmer County. Lambs will be shown at 8 a.m. Jan. 24 for judge Ed Garnett, district supervisor from Vernon. Steer winners will be determined on the 24th by Larry Schickendanz, head of the ag department at Frank Phillips Junior College.

The FFA and 4-H judging teams will classify animals at 9 a.m. Saturday. Sale will begin at 1 p.m. that afternoon.

All animals will be tagged when weighed. Only two calves, two lambs and two pigs may be shown by an individual. All show livestock must have been raised under the supervision of the County Agent or vocational ag teacher for the following terms: calves—more than six months, lambs—more than two months, pigs—more than two months.

Eligible steers must weigh a minimum of 850 pounds. Show hogs should exceed 190 pounds but not surpass 240 pounds. Lambs must weigh over 80 pounds and under 120 pounds. This is 10 pounds lower on Southdown lambs.

Exhibitors must be enrolled in elementary or secondary schools.

CALF ENTRIES
All animals will be classified according to weight.

First and second place winners in each class will compete for Breed Champion and Reserve Breed Champion Calf.

No steer showing wear on permanent incisors will be allowed to enter.

Health papers must be presented at time of weigh-in.

LAMB ENTRIES
There will be four classes—(1) Finewool (2) Finewool-Crossbreed (3) Southdown and Shropshire (4) medium wool and all prominent crosses and all remaining breeds.

Classification of sheep will be determined by department superintendent. Exhibitors will be responsible for bringing animals to class officials at the specified time.

There will be a Champion in each of the four classes.

All lambs must be carrying their milk teeth.

Champion and Reserve Champion of each breed will be eligible for Champion and Reserve Champion of the show.

Two lambs can be shown.

Class may be sub-divided into light, medium and heavy weight.

Lambs must be shorn within 30 days of the show.

Health papers must be presented at weigh-in.

Lambs will be classified at 8 a.m. Thursday, Jan. 23.

MARKET HOG ENTRIES

There will be the following classes—Chester, Durocs, Hampshires, Poland Chinas and Spots, other pure breeds, and Crosses. Gilts can be shown.

First and second place hogs in each class will compete for Champion and Reserve Champion of the show.

Health papers must be presented, with temperature, at weigh-in.

SALE RULES

The number of animals sold will be determined on a percentage basis from each class. An exhibitor from Castro or Parmer County can sell only one animal per division. Deaf Smith and Oldham County exhibitors can sell two animals in each division.

Slated for sale are the Champion lambs in each class and Grand and Reserve Champion barrows. Sold from the four-county competition will be 30 top steers, 60 top lambs and 60 top hogs.

accident occurs at an intersection. We can locate a troublesome intersection and our officers will spot these areas more. By catching more violators, we hope to cut down the number who run the stop signs," Brush said. "And the more violators we catch, the fewer accidents there seems to be. That's what we're here for, to try and prevent accidents."

Increased driver license checks accounted for a large number of citations issued for no drivers license. "We do write a large number of these citations. Upon advice of the Texas Department of Public Safety we have had more drivers license checks where the officers stop vehicles for the express purpose of checking for drivers license." The Hereford Police Department issued 416 citations for this violation in 1974, compared with 394 in 1973 and 307 in 1972.

Another large number of violators involved motor vehicle inspection sticker violations. Officers have cited 223 in both 1974 and 1973.

Brush said that the police department was better equipped and trained than it has ever been. The force includes 18 officers. Using three shifts a day, three officers are on duty each shift with added patrolmen on weekends.

WE'VE NEVER understood the economic policies and, from reading about the state of affairs, we doubt that anyone else does. Maybe we have too many college professors giving advice on how to run the country. All that theory is great until it had to be implemented into meeting a payroll.

possible problems were pointed out such as scheduling, athletic participation of students not attending in the fall and early graduations.

Hereford schools will continue on a 180-day schedule only it will be divided into three 60-day semesters. The exact curriculum form has not yet been decided as officials are still visiting other schools to gain ideas.

HFD Elects Officers

Officers for 1975 were elected by members of the Hereford Volunteer Fire Department Tuesday evening. Fire chief Max Stipe, left, hands a fire helmet to Bill Craig, who will assume the duties as new fire chief. Stipe has served six years as chief. Center, Ron Osborn, new assistant chief, receives a fire helmet from Keith Munnerlyn who has served three years in that post. Reuben McGilvary, 1975 secretary, stands at the right.

Beet Growers To Fill Vacant Director Posts

An election will be held tomorrow at 2 p.m. in Community Center to fill three director posts in the Texas-New Mexico Sugar Beet Growers Association.

Three-year terms are ending for Jay Boston, Virgil Marsh and Don Shipley. The TNSMGA board incorporates nine directors.

A program will be delivered by Whitney Newton, U.S. vice president of research for Holly Sugar Corporation, Colorado Springs, Colo. His presentation will be followed by a segment featuring Dr. Steve Winter, agriculture scientist from the experiment station at Bushland.

THE TOP SUGAR BEET growers of 1974 will be recognized Saturday night during the traditional TNSMGA banquet at 7 p.m. in the Bull Barn. This award is determined by Holly Shoup Plant and is based on the most pounds per acre and the highest sugar content. The recipient will receive a plaque for the winning crop.

PLATFORM ENTERTAINER will be Newt Hielscher, who has traveled the banquet circuit for more than 20 years. He is a charter member of the National Speakers Association and has devoted full time to speaking engagements throughout the United States and Canada. Hielscher holds national memberships in Knife and Fork Clubs and Executive Dinner Clubs of America.

Tickets for Saturday's banquet, which will be catered by Dickie's, are on sale for $5 each at the Chamber of Commerce, First National Bank and Hereford State Bank.

Religion Day Observed

As interfaith worship service will be held at 7:30 p.m. tonight at St. Anthony's Catholic Church in observance of the annual Week of Prayer for Christian Unity.

The Hereford Ministerial Association recently passed a resolution urging area Christians to attend this service.

Brother DiGiralamo, representative of the Graymorn Ecumenical Institute, said, "The Week of Prayer for Christian Unity is a development of the Church Unity Octave, originated in January 1908 by the Rev. Paul Watson, then a minister of the Episcopalian Church."

"TODAY THE observance is held all through the Christian world. The custom of Christians of all persuasions gathering together during this eight-day period has been adopted and supported by the World and National Council of Churches as well as the National Council of Bishops in the Catholic religion."

Attendance this year is expected to surpass that of previous observances.

Veterans Receive Bonus

Nearly 23 million veterans and survivors will receive 12 per cent increases in their monthly Veterans Administration checks and 6,537 severely disabled Cold War veterans will be eligible for $3,300 automobile grants as a result of two bills signed recently by the President.

These increases are in addition to the increased G.I. Bill education allowances that became law December 3, VA Administrator Richard L. Roudebush pointed out.

The 12 per cent increase applies to pensions for veterans who have become disabled from non-service-connected causes and to their widows and children. Increased also were payments to dependent parents of veterans who died or were totally and permanently disabled from service-connected causes. The payments, called pension and dependency and indemnity compensation, were last increased on January 1, 1974 by 10 per cent.

This year's 12 per cent increase is effective Jan. 1, 1975, and it will be reflected for the first time in checks received Feb. 1.

The other measure, signed by the President Dec. 22, broadens eligibility for automobile grants to include veterans who suffered loss or loss of use of one or both hands or one or both feet or blindness due to military service between World War II and the Korean Conflict.

The amount of the grant was raised from $2,800 to $3,300 for veterans who have suffered such injuries since the beginning of World War II. Necessary adaptive equipment if furnished also.

Gold Buyers Warned Of Possible Fleecers

EDITOR'S NOTE: Men have lusted after gold for ages, but in the U.S. it has been illegal to buy or sell it. Now it is again legal for open marketing with a few persons possibly taking advantage of the situation. The following is furnished by the Deaf Smith County Criminal District Attorney's office to help unsuspecting gold speculators watch out for bogus deals.

Consumers are now able to purchase gold on the market for the first time legally since 1933. If they are not careful, they can get burned badly by unscrupulous operators who see their own fortunes being made by fleecing unsuspecting investors.

A somewhat parallel situation occurred last year involving the sale of silver. A Colorado corporation made representations that investing in silver was one of the safest methods of fighting inflation. Claims were made that investors had doubled their investment within a month's time.

The truth is that this company is now in bankruptcy and its top three officials have been charged with fraud. At last report, the president of the company and a substantial sum of money had left the country and has not yet been found. The consumers, some of whom had invested their entire life savings, were left holding the bag.

If you are interested in gold or silver, we strongly suggest that you first get all the facts and look for the following warning signs:

Promises or representations of spectacular profits.

Telephone calls from strangers encouraging investments.

Claims that you have been selected to get in on the ground floor of a new investment.

Failure to receive full information upon request from the company about its operations and its prior business records.

Remember, don't be misled by thoughts of getting rich quick, it just does not happen that way. If you have questions, call us before you invest.

Death Rate Plummets During '74

Though final figures won't be available until late March, it appears that 1974 was the safest year on Texas streets and highways in a decade. And if the traffic death rate per 100-million miles is compared with prior years, 1974 was the safest year on record.

Colonel Wilson E. Speir, director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, said he believes the 1974 traffic toll will reach 3,042 when all reports are received. If so, this will be a saving of 650 lives from the record 3,692 lives lost in 1973. The latest comparable death toll was 1964 when 3,006 persons were killed in Texas traffic.

Of the 3,042 deaths, it is estimated that the final rural total will be 1,817 with 1,225 traffic fatalities estimated to have occurred in incorporated cities. Rural deaths decreased about 19.2 per cent from 1973 totals, while those in cities are down approximately 15.1 per cent.

Speir said the death rate per 100-million vehicle miles, which is the nationally accepted criteria of traffic safety effectiveness, is forecast to be 3.9. Last year it was 4.6, with these numbers comparing to 14.6 when the DPS first began tabulating traffic statistics in 1937.

The DPS director said total vehicle traffic accidents during 1974 were down more than six per cent from 1973. The latter year saw 464,226 collisions compared to an estimated 432,100 in 1974.

"In normal times, we might have expected increases in both accidents and deaths during 1974," Speir said. He noted that both licensed drivers and registered vehicles rose last year—the drivers reaching almost 7.5 million and vehicles about 8.3 million.

The question, then, is what actually happened to cause the dramatic reduction and Speir believes the answer lies in factors associated with the energy crisis.

"It appears that vehicle miles driven declined from 80.6 billion in 1973 to just over 78 billion in 1974. This reduction in driving, coupled with the reduced speed limit, especially on rural highways, seems to have made most of the difference," Speir said.

But he also attributed credit to improvements in vehicles and highways, beefed-up enforcement, and increased public awareness generated by both governmental and private efforts.

On the subject of enforcement, the DPS chief pointed out that Highway Patrol troopers last year issued a record 678,664 speeding citations—an increase of 121 per cent from the 306,668 in 1973. Moreover, the 1974 speeding arrests alone exceeded total Highway Patrol arrests for all violations in 1973.

Total arrests for all violations in 1974 exceeded 950,000.

Speir cautioned that an increasing disregard for the 55 mile speed limit, as evidenced by the arrest figures, may cause deaths to rise once more in 1975. He pointed out that the largest reductions in total fatal accidents during 1974 came early in the year when there was better voluntary compliance with the speed law.

He noted that Department of Public Safety statisticians are conducting an in-depth study of the 1974 traffic accident reports and said this information would be used to "fine tune" enforcement activities.

Lobos Lick Herd 61-54

Using Hereford turnovers and the hometown advantage, Levelland pulled away in the final quarter to score a 61-54 victory over the Whitefaces in a non-district basketball game at Levelland Tuesday night.

The aggressive Lobos, unable to stop Hereford with a man-to-man press in the first half, put on a zone press in the second half and caused some bad passing that led to the Herd's downfall. Levelland tallied 24 points in the final stanza to grab the triumph.

The defeat left Hereford with a 7-13 won-lost record for the season. Hereford travels to Amarillo for a non-district clash with Tascosa Friday night. The Herd is then off for a week and closes out non-conference play by hosting Clovis here on Jan. 25.

Coach Barry Arnwine, though not happy with Tuesday's loss, said he was "pleased" with the way his crew has performed the last three games. "We played well most of the way, but a spurt of turnovers in the last quarter hurt us," he said of the Levelland game.

Lynn Tarr led the scoring attack Tuesday night with 16 points, while forwards Craig Nieman and Archie Crim also hit in double figures with 14 and 10 points, respectively. Mike Hull added 8 points and James Arney 6 to account for all the Whiteface scoring. Levelland had balanced scoring with four in double figures, led by Gary Bridges with 12.

The Herd has played adequate defense most of the time this season, but Tarr has been the only consistent scorer on offense. In the past few games, Coach Arnwine has moved the talented Tarr out front and brought in Crim at a forward position. The Whitefaces have also used a 1-3-1 zone to good advantage in recent contests.

Hereford trailed by 14-10 after the first period but came back to capture a 27-23 halftime advantage. The teams swapped leads in the third period, and Hereford appeared headed for a 37-34 lead going into the final stanza. Levelland converted a three-point play just before the buzzer, however, and it was 37-37 starting the fourth period.

The Lobos started pulling away late in the final period. Hereford stayed within four points until the closing minute or two. Levelland had a 54-50 lead with two minutes left and Hereford couldn't overcome the deficit. The win left Levelland with a 15-4 record on the season.

Levelland also won the junior varsity contest in a close battle, winning over Hereford by 44-42. James Mays and Jim Lawson led the Hereford attack with 16 and 10 points, respectively.

Under The Hoop

Lynn Tarr scores two of his 16 points for the evening as the Herd takes another disappointing loss, this time to the Levelland Lobos. Craig Nieman, 23, works for the rebound flanked by several Lobos.

Junior Hi Results

The stage is set for the two Hereford junior highs to square off once again, this time going into action against one another in basketball. Gametime this afternoon is 5 p.m. in the Stanton gymnasium.

Monday afternoon games proved good and bad for the Hereford junior highs as La Plata dropped three games to Plainview Estacado, but Stanton won three games from the Canyon Purple.

In seventh grade contests, Stanton took a 19-11 halftime lead and held on to edge the Canyon Purple 35-30. Belen Ramirez scored 14 points for the Stanton Dogies. La Plata played Plainview Estacado a close contest, trailing 22-20 at the half. Estacado outscored the Mavericks 9-4 in the final period to take a 45-36 victory. Joe Walker scored 18 points for La Plata, Doug Brady had 10.

Eighth grade games were not as close in scoring as the earlier games. Stanton took a 19-15 advantage at intermission and sparked in the second half to beat the Canyon Purple 50-31. Buzzy Abalos scored 18 points for Stanton, while Jackie Mercer hit 12 points. The La Plata eighth graders were behind 24-14 at the half and fell to a 46-27 defeat at the hands of Plainview Estacado. Paul Bell contributed 6 points to the effort, Reed Herring and Richard Olson scored 5 points each.

The La Plata freshmen lost a heartbreaking two points decision to Plainview Estacado. La Plata jumped to a 16-12 edge at the end of the first quarter, and maintained a 25-24 lead at the half. Estacado pulled in front by one point, 38-37, at the end of the third quarter and won the contest 52-50. Kent Ellis scored 12 points for the Mavericks, with Ricky Boyd and Danny Olson scoring 7 points each.

Stanton's freshmen grabbed an early 19-10 lead, led 39-20 at the half, and stretched that for a 76-56 win over the Canyon Purple. Kelly Kitchens scored 31 points for the winners, with Randy Marrs contributing 17 and James McDowell and Albert Del Toro 10 points each.

Boxers Place In Muleshoe

Hereford boxers swept through the Muleshoe Golden Gloves Tournament in that city over the weekend, with the Hereford Boxing Club bringing home eight first place and three second place trophies.

The boxers will travel to Lubbock Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week for another three night tournament. Coach and sponsor Harold Wheeler is strengthening his fighters for the District Junior Olympics competition to be held in Amarillo Jan. 30, 31 and Feb. 1. The Amarillo bouts will determine which boxers will travel to the Three State Meet of the Junior Olympics that will be held in Houston in June.

Friday night, in the semifinals of the Muleshoe tourney, Hereford boxers won nine fights and lost five, placing 12 of the 17 entered in finals competition Saturday night.

Hector Guerrero, in a semifinal match fought Saturday night, scored a first round TKO on Joe Day of Tulia. Guerrero was moved up one weight division to 105 pounds for the fight. Before the evening was over, Hector fought again, downing Roddy Blake of Levelland, also in the 105-pound division. Hector is undefeated for the 74-75 season.

In the 125-pound class, Juan Ruiz was called upon to box twice Saturday night. In a semifinals match he won a decision over Robert Rocha of Tulia. In finals competition he won over Robert Buentello of Tulia on a decision.

Eddie De Leon extended his undefeated season as he fought Charlie Martinez of Plainview in the 147-pound class and won by a decision.

Other Hereford boxers who won in the finals competition were: Jaime Herrera by a decision over Rick Martinez of Plainview, 40-pound division; Javier Herrera over Manuel Martinez by a decision, 45-pound class; Jaime Ruiz by a decision over Ruben Anguino of Muleshoe, 50-pound division; Jesse Gillian, bye in the 119-pound class; and Ron Pena, a bye in the 119-pound class.

Hereford boxers who lost by decisions Saturday night were Martin Lucero, Robert Martinez, Joe Tijerina, and Fabian Ruiz.

One thing is guaranteed... many readers will find something new every week... and to keep things even more interesting you will find an occasional hint about the easy way to solve a problem you may be having around the house or on the farm or ranch. Comments on the column will be appreciated. Anybody's... anytime.

Guatamala Highlight Of Missionary Trip

Returning from Guatemala, a few local residents showed faces of great pleasure. These people were completing a missionary trip for Temple Baptist Church of Hereford. With the group was Mrs. Sue Painter. She is a teacher in the math department and co-sponsor of Pep Squad at HHS. Mrs. Painter made the trip because she thought it "an exciting and wonderful opportunity."

The group spent one night in Guatemala City then on to Parramos and other little villages in the vicinity where their missionary work was done. On Jan. 1 they took a sight-seeing trip through Antigua, which is the former capital, twice destroyed by earthquake. Many of the ruins however are still standing.

Through all of the towns and villages, dances and parades were a common sight. The parades are traditional and beautiful. The people were celebrating the birth of Christ. A group from Chiapas, Mexico on a similar trip joined the Texas band. Sponsoring the trip was the Calvary Baptist Church of Lubbock.

There were 175 people coming from over 20 churches throughout the upper half of Texas for this trip. Also attending the mission project from Hereford were Kay and Elmer White, their daughter Ruth, a student at HHS, Laura Thompson and Mark Inman both HHS students, Donna Grimsly, Mrs. Sue Painter, the Rev. Jim Bozeman and wife, and the interpreter, Joe Gonzales.

Club Hits Ski Slopes

The Leo Club took a chartered bus to Red River N.M. on an annual 3-day skiing trip Friday at 4 a.m. and returned Sunday. Each student and sponsor financed their own way. No funds were received by the Leo Club for this trip.

The sponsors of this skiing trip were Messrs. and Mmes. Alan Hodge, Tommy Bowling, Archie Dwyer, David Ruland, Jennifer and Mrs. Jeff Smart and Mrs. Ralph Owens. About fifty students, including sponsors, went on the skiing trip.

Hereford Stock Show To Be Jan. 23-25

The Hereford Young Farmers Junior Livestock Show has been slated for Jan. 23-25 at the Hereford Bull Barn. 4-H and FFA students from Deaf Smith, Oldham, Parmer and Castro Counties will attend.

Barrows will be judged Thursday, Jan. 23 at 2 p.m., lambs at 8 a.m., Friday Jan. 24 and steers at 2 p.m. Friday. Sale for all placing livestock will be Saturday, Jan. 25 at 1 p.m. Judging events for 4-H and FFA members will be Jan. 25 at 9 a.m.

Judges for the different divisions are barrows, Bob Robinson, Assistant County Agent from Parmer County; lambs, Ed Garnett, District

County Agent from Vernon, and steers, Larry Schickendanz, from the Agricultural Department at Frank Phillips College in Borger.

Division superintendents for this year are steers, Tommy Sparkman and Jack Andrews; barrows, Jimmy Christie, Joe West, and Bill Cheek; Lambs, Robert Higgins, Jim Bob Perrin, Ronnie Andrews and Rocky Andrews. General superintendents will be Layton Sawyer, George Muse and Joe Shultz.

About 90 barrows, 36 lambs and seven steers will be coming from the Hereford FFA chapter. There is some concern this year as to what price the exhibitors will receive for their livestock due to the economic situation in the community. Local merchants and businessmen have always supported the efforts of local youth and will continue to do so this year. FFA members will be participating in the Amarillo Fat Stock show which began yesterday, the San Antonio Livestock Exposition beginning Feb. 11, and the Houston Stock Show starting Feb. 24.

Coach Keys Leaves

"I am leaving with mixed emotions," said Coach Bob Keys, during a recent interview, "I have enjoyed working in Hereford very much. It is a good community with an excellent school."

Keys, an assistant coach at Hereford High School during the football season, has resigned to assist Coach Larry Dippel at Amarillo High School. At Amarillo High, Keys will assume responsibilities as head track coach and offensive coordinator in football.

A high school graduate from Seminole, Keys attended Abilene Christian College, where he also coached for a year before moving on to Graham, and Round Rock.

Keys, who feels Hereford will be a dominant factor in football next season, explains his move to Amarillo High. "I have enjoyed Hereford so much, but I came here because of Coach Dippel, and I wanted to continue to work with him. I just felt this was an opportunity in my career I couldn't pass up." Keys, who cannot leave until a replacement has been found for him, expects to leave during the latter part of January.

Scholarship Given

Laurie Lyn Young, a Hereford High School senior, was selected by the Scholarship Committee to represent the local chapter as a candidate for the National Association of Legal Secretaries (NALS).

Her application will be forwarded to NALS in early January. It is planned to present her with a cash award in May and is hoped to give her an amount equal to at least $5 per member.

Laurie ended her letter to the committee with, "My goal in high school is to graduate in the top ten of my class; my goal in life is to become a prominent business woman." It is "with great pleasure and pride that the committee honors Laurie as NALS student of the year."

She is the daughter of Mrs. Bob Brooks, who teaches in the Dimmitt public school system.

Laurie has taken all of the business courses offered at Hereford High and excellent in each course. She is a serious contender for Outstanding Business Student of the Year.

Laurie's average grade is 5.2 based on a 5.0 scale plus honors.

Piano Concert Plans Complete

A concert by Stanley Potter, piano instructor in West Texas State University music department to be sponsored by Music Study Club at 3 p.m. Feb. 23, was planned at the club meeting Monday afternoon when duties of arranging for the artist's appearance were assigned.

Officers for the next two-year term were elected in another phase of the business session, the Mrs. J.R. Allison's home, with Mrs. Paul Lyons named president to succeed Mrs. Joe Hacker. Mrs. Lyons is club secretary this year.

Mrs. Ken Walser and Mrs. Tom Burdett were elected vice presidents, Mrs. Lynton Allred secretary, Mrs. Bill Bradley correspondent, Mrs. Jack Rogers treasurer and Mrs. Wesley Fisher was reelected reporter-historian. They will begin their term at an installation program in May.

The Sunday afternoon concert by the pianist next month will be open to the public, in the fellowship hall of First Christian Church. With it the club will follow a custom of bringing outstanding musicians of the area to perform for Hereford audiences.

Members voted club membership in Friends of Deaf Smith County Library, also in the WTSU Friends of Fine Arts.

Mrs. Thomas Betzen was leader of the program on America's Musical Comedy and members sang selections from popular stage musicals of the past and today. An organ-piano rendition of Thine Alone from a Victor Herbert operetta, Eileen, opened the program, by Mrs. Hacker and Mrs. Walser.

Mrs. W.T. Carmichael sang one of the hits from Show Boat, by Jerome Kern, titled Why Do I Love You? with Mrs. A.J. Schroeter as accompanist. Other solos were My Cup Runneth Over, from I Do! I Do! by Tom Jones, sung by Mrs. C.J. Mountz, and Try To Remember from The Fantasticks (Jones) by Mrs. Lynton Allred, both accompanied by Mrs. Buddy Peeler.

A sextet, Mmes. Mountz, Carmichael, Betzen, Peeler, Fisher and Joe Schultz, sang Wunderbar from Cole Porter's musical, Kiss Me Kate, and I Ain't Down Yet from Meredith Willson's Unsinkable Molly Brown. Mrs. Bradley accompanied. Mrs. Peeler and Mrs. Betzen presented a duet, Begin the Beguine, from Night And Day (Porter).

Mrs. Steve Clements was co-hostess with Mrs. Allison to serve refreshments to 24 members during a social period when recorded music from The King And I was played.

Fish Collection Makes Hobby For All Family

By SUE COLEMAN
Women's Editor

TROPICAL fish are fascinating little animals, Mrs. Charles Boyd says as she studied and collects them in a hobby which proves interesting also to her husband and seven-year-old son Stephen.

In the Boyd home, 211 Centre, aquariums are focal points in decoration of the living room and there is another in Stephen's room. What Mrs. Boyd really wants is an 85-gallon glass tank to fill an entire corner and hold the dozens of varieties of colorful fish she would like to own.

At present she enjoys taking care of two lighted tanks and adding to the interesting collection that swims about in flashes of silver, gold, scarlet, pure white, pastel pink and blue, among green plastic plants on natural gravel bases.

MRS. BOYD says she first owned fish when she was in grade school, finally tired of the hobby and became interested again only after moving to Hereford a year ago. She takes it seriously, learning about the many kinds of tiny swimmers from study of reference books.

The attractive teacher of sixth grade at Central School pursues other hobbies, too. A relatively new one is cooking and collecting recipes.

"Unfortunately I didn't learn much about cooking when I was growing up," she says. "My mother was an employed woman and prepared meals in the quickest way, and that's the way I learned to do it. Now I can see the fun in more complicated cooking and am spending more time in the kitchen and feeling proud of the results."

Since her work doesn't leave a great deal of time for home duties, she still appreciates recipes for easily-prepared dishes that are substantial as well as appetizing. Here is one she likes:

SPANISH CHICKEN

- 1 large onion, diced
- 1 stick margarine
- 1 large fryer or a baking hen, cooked and boned
- 1 pkg. corn tortillas
- 1 can whole tomatoes
- 2 cans cream of chicken soup, or 1 can cream of chicken and 1 can cream of mushroom
- Shredded Cheddar cheese
- Break tortillas into bite-size pieces and spread over the bottom of a large casserole, then put the chicken in the casserole.

Melt margarine in a skillet and saute the onion in it. Add soup and tomatoes, mix and pour over the chicken. Top with shredded cheese. Bake in 350 degree oven until cheese is melted and bubbly.

FOR SPARE-TIME occupation, Mrs. Boyd chooses handcrafts, "any kind I can finish in a comparatively short time, such as needlepoint and ceramics," she says.

She is a native of the Panhandle, born at Amarillo, graduated from Tascosa High School there and from West Texas State University. Boyd also belongs to this region with Petersburg as his original home. He is manager of the Firestone Store here.

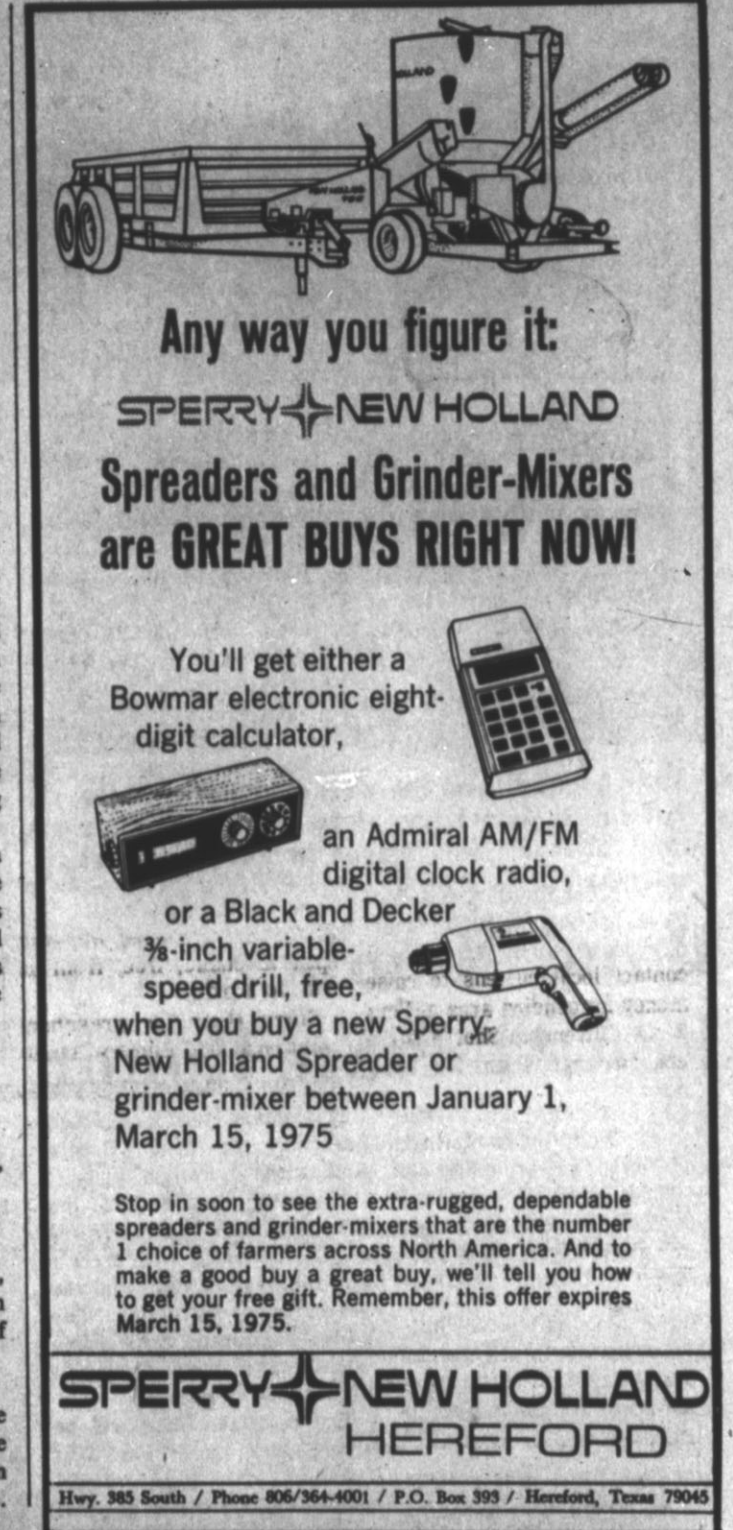

Swimming, bicycle riding and learning to play tennis are outdoor summer fun for the Boyds, who enjoy snow skiing when they have time for a trip to the mountains.

Attending from Hereford will be the chapter's little sister, Isabel Pena, and members Barbara Weatherford and Mmes. Ronald Rayburn, Gary Kelley, Jim Culpepper and Connie Urbanczyk.

You . . . Me and YHT is the theme for the meeting in which over 600 Young Homemakers from 287 chapters across the state will attend. Highlighting the event will be speakers Amy Freeman Lee, painter and art critic, and Dr. Julia Van Burkleo, gynecologist from Longview.

The 1974 Outstanding Chapter, Outstanding new chapter and state little sister will be presented awards at a luncheon Friday. The awards are sponsored by Texas Electric Cooperatives, Young Farmers of Texas and Young Homemakers. On Saturday's agenda, the

The Outstanding chapter and outstanding new chapter awards are presented each year to chapters judged to have contributed most toward the growth of individual members and the betterment of the community through planned education programs, projects and service activities.

The state little sister award is given to a future Homemaker of America who has been outstanding as a member of her family, school, church and community and who plans to become a home economics teacher.

Regional Named At Red Cross Meeting

John Poindexter, chairman of the Deaf Smith County Chapter of the American Red Cross, announced that a new manager has been appointed for the Tarrant County Chapter and West Texas Division.

Poindexter made this announcement when the local chapter met Tuesday for a board meeting in the Community Center lounge.

B.V. "Pete" Upton, National Director of Public Relations of the ARC, will be manager for the West Texas Division, headquartered in Fort Worth. Upton began his new duties Jan. 1. In addition to management of the Tarrant County Chapter, he will direct Red Cross services to 97 other chapters throughout the West Texas region. Deaf Smith County's Division is included in this territory.

Also, during the meeting here, it was decided that administrative salaries will be restricted due to the current economic situation. Mrs. Dale Henson, ARC youth chairman, reported on an enrollment program which was conducted in local elementary schools during November. Mrs. Henson also recounted that Red Cross youth council has been established at La Plata Junior High School.

Oldham Club Take Posts

Installed by Mrs. N.E. Tyler, president of Hereford CowBelles, officers of Oldham County CowBelles for the coming year assumed their duties at a covered dish lunch in Vega Community Center Monday.

The Oldham County group was organized under sponsorship of Hereford CowBelles, who have been interested in their progress. Mrs. Tyler cited accomplishments of the newer group as she reminded each officer of her duties.

To Mrs. Sherman Tanner, who became president for a second term, she presented a souvenir cowbell as a gift from Hereford friends.

Other officers are Mrs. Howard Engle and Mrs. George Dosier, vice presidents, Mrs. Robert Jacobsen secretary, Mrs. Bob Walton treasurer, Mrs. Jim Lookingbill parliamentarian and Mrs. H.D. Fowler historian.

minutes from the last meeting were read and a treasurer's report was given. An announcement was made about the National ARC convention which will be held in Boston this spring.

Other local ARC activities this week included an exhibit which was displayed at Bluebonnet Elementary school. The presentation depicts the Good Neighbor policy of the Red Cross in water safety, first aid and disaster-relief programs.

Others present at the meeting included rural representatives Mmes. Curtis Roach, Robert Lloyd, Joyce Blasingame and Don Douglas. Also there were Poindexter, vice president Lee Umsted, disaster-relief chairman Don Daugherty, Robert Mercer and executive secretary Mrs. H.H. Miller.

At The Library

Hidden History Of U.S. Listed

With a surge of interest in early American history caused by the approaching Bicentennial Year, an almanac of Revolutionary War events and people offers a handy reference for those preparing programs on the subject.

A new book in Deaf Smith County Library, compiled by Trevor Dupuy, gives little-known facts in a form that makes research simpler.

Another recent addition to library shelves, Not In Front Of The Servants, is an amusing and interesting look at English society of the past, from "below-stairs."

These and hundreds of other books are available to the public, free, in the library, which is open at 9 a.m. weekdays, until 9 p.m. Mondays and Thursdays, 12 noon Saturdays and 6 p.m. other days.

PEOPLE AND EVENTS OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION

By Trevor Dupuy

The heroes you never heard of

The traitors whose names have been buried—The battles we no longer celebrate—

The facts we don't know about the Revolutionary War! Here is an almanac that documents and chronicles the hidden history of the American Revolution: the important but forgotten battles such as Phipp's Farm and Crooked Billet; the printers whose presses were the fodder for armed revolt; the spies and traitors who acted for profit and more noble allegiances; the engineers who labored with perpetually scarce materials; the now-lost folk heroes and legends that kept the hopes of an almost beaten army alive. People and Events of the American Revolution is a complete sourcebook of the who, what, where and when of the founding of the United States of America.

Initially developed at the request of the American Revolution Bicentennial Commission (now the American Revolution Bicentennial Administration), it combines the spontaneity of a calendar with the scholarship of an encyclopedia and the excitement of a court docket for high treason.

NOT IN FRONT OF THE SERVANTS

By Frank Dawes

Many people will find interesting Frank Dawes' fascinating evocation of life in English domestic service during the years 1850 to 1939.

The Hereford Brand, Hereford, Texas, Thursday January 16, 1975

memoirs and conversations to produce what the London Times called "an excellent book...not only an interesting record, but a reminder that the good old days were not so good."

Illustrated with numerous period photographs, what emerges is a richly detailed account of British society and those who served within a hierarchy that was as snobbish and elaborate as their masters'. This book delves into the daily responsibilities of the domestic staff and examines the complex minutiae of servant life — During that time well over a million people slaved from dawn until late at night for a few shillings a month and one half-day off a week — if they were lucky!

Many of these domestics are still alive and the author has drawn extensively on their uniforms, wages, etiquette, social life and precious leisure-hour pursuits.

While the author recognizes those conditions of low status and even lower pay which finally caused a marked decline in the willingness of workers to become servants, he notes that domestic service once formed one of the largest occupational classes since it frequently offered better housing and living conditions than were available to the many left homeless and unemployed in England at the time.

Arts-Crafts

Show Slated

Arts And Crafts Extravaganza is the title chosen for Hereford Art Guild's annual spring exhibit, scheduled for March 15 and 16. Artists from neighboring towns are being invited to participate with those in the local area.

Each one will rent a booth to display his work. There will be no restriction as to whether the exhibitor is an amateur or professional, or to be the kind of work exhibited, Mrs. Dale Furr, Guild president, said.

Anyone wishing more information is invited to contact Mrs. Furr.

Small Talk

By SUE COLEMAN

"IT'S Monday the 13th, and that's a whole lot worse than Friday the 13th," Kerrie remarked gloomily the first day this week, and since most of us are Monday-dreaders nobody disagreed with her.

Every year about this time I am thankful that we have got past the weeks with two Mondays each; I mean the successive Christmas and New Year holidays with days-after that always seem like Mondays because you have to start out again after a day off.

They keep me confused about which day of the week it actually is, especially when they come smack-dab in the middle of the week like they did this year. Beg pardon, last year. Holidays are dandy, if they weren't inevitably followed by days-after.

KATHY Johnson has been one of the more energetic members of the Jaycee-Ettes, helping with this and that community cause, and she isn't quitting just because she has a three-week-old son whom she might use as an excuse to stay at home.

Not that she is neglecting Chad; when she came for a picture-taking session for the Mothers March this week, she just brought him along and naturally everybody wanted to hold him while she was photographed as the march chairman. John Aikin, county chairman for the March of Dimes, won the honor and picked him up with the aplomb of the experienced father.

In fact, when the baby began fussing a good deal, he diagnosed the matter quickly. "When did you feed this boy?" he asked Kathy, and when she said, "On the way down here," he commented, "What he needs is burping," and held Chad up over his shoulder expertly.

TWO great-granddaughters of Edith Sheppard are her guests this week. They are Tiffany and Jennifer, daughters of the Charles Wells of Amarillo.

FALL semester honor rolls from colleges are beginning to show up, with names of Hereford students. On the dean's list at Texas A&I University at Kingsville, the top honor roll there, Ernestina Romo Garza of this city is named.

A perfect grade point average was achieved by Loretta Kindsfather as a student in the school of biomedical arts and sciences at Amarillo College. Only 35 of the 138 honor students compiled this 4.0 GPA.

Two students at the Hereford School of Hairdressing were named to the president's honor roll of the Mid-Continent Campus of Texas State Technical Institute, Amarillo. They are Anita Castillo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Euterio Mariscal, 419 Ave. C, and Margie Diaz. Both had 4.0 grade averages.

Teen Association Plan Events

The 4-H Teen Leaders Association discussed several events at their meeting Monday evening in Community Center including a work week which began Tuesday.

The group is selling a liquid cleaner concentrate in the selling campaign to help raise money to send 4-H'ers to the Citizenship Short Course and Heritage Tour this summer in Washington D.C.

Committees were appointed to invite local merchants to the Deaf Smith County Stock Show scheduled Jan. 21-23 and final plans for the 4-H Food Show to be held Feb. 8 were made.

Nelson A. Rockefeller, Vice President:

"I want to be quiet and helpful and only do that which is appropriate and useful to the President and to the people of this country."

Lone Star Club Elects Officers

With a program on Home Decoration by a guest, Lone Star Study Club also had a business session featured by election of 1975-76 officers, at its meeting Tuesday afternoon in Mrs. Gaston Baer's home.

Mrs. Carl Williams was elected president to succeed Mrs. Dale Tinnin when the officers are installed next spring, and Mrs. Tinnin will become parliamentarian.

Mrs. W.O. McCutcheon was named vice president, Mrs. Baker Womble secretary and Mrs. M.H. Wiseman treasurer.

Mrs. J.J. Durham was program director for the afternoon and introduced Ann Orr, home decorator for Sherwin-Williams Co. here. Mrs. Orr spoke of good design in form, texture and color to create ordered beauty in the home and give the homemaker an opportunity for self-expression.

She also discussed how color preferences reveal personality, and showed samples of carpet and drapery material to illustrate her talk.

Mrs. Baer and the co-hostess, Mrs. J.E. Shirkey, served refreshments to the officers-elect and Mmes. R.G. Blue, Robert Thompson, V.E. Dodson, W.S. Fluit, John Moore, S.S. Williams, Ed Warren, Henry Vaughn, G.W. Newsom, John Jacobsen, Jim Higgins, H.E. Hensle, Jim Bookout and Hardy Benson.

Mrs. Fisher Chosen As Delegate

Mrs. Lynn Fisher was chosen as a delegate to the district home demonstration council meeting by members of Palo Duro Extension Club Monday evening in the home of Mrs. Mickey Brisendine.

Also during the brief business meeting, it was announced that a Stretch and Sew program will be held beginning April 4 in Deaf Smith County Courthouse.

You Can Do It was the program topic discussed by members. Before the close of the program pamphlets on the subject of household repairs were distributed.

Mrs. Lowrie Nominated HD Woman

Mrs. Huey Lowrie was nominated as home demonstration club woman of the year by members of Young Homemakers Extension Club Tuesday morning in the home of Mrs. Don Daugherty.

A program on Special Organizational Services was presented.

Members present were Mmes. Richard Patzig, John Scogin, Charles Senle, Sam Mazurek, Allen Evers and Marvin Welty.

Save Liquid From Vegetables

Consumers who don't use the liquid from canned vegetables miss about one-third of the nutrition from that canned food, according to Mrs. Gwendolyn Clyatt.

She's consumer marketing information specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, the Texas A&M University System.

"To get the full value of the minerals and vitamins in the vegetable liquid, use it in gravy, soup, or in a cream sauce or stew," she suggested.

The drained solids, which usually make up about two-thirds of the can's total contents, also contain about two-thirds of the soluble nutrients, Mrs. Clyatt noted.

She reminded consumers that canned vegetables are already cooked. To serve them with the most flavor and food value, drain off the liquid and boil it down to one-third of its original volume. Add the vegetable to this concentrated liquid and heat, she advised.

New Officers Installed In Ceremonies

A new term for officers in Hereford Rebekah Lodge began Tuesday evening with installation ceremonies at the IOOF Hall. Faye Brownlow became noble grand to succeed Edna Mathes, heading other elected and appointed officers.

Mrs. P.B. Sowell, district deputy president, conducted the installation and acted as right support to the noble grand with Mrs. A.N. Hopson as left support. Mrs. Jim Shaw is the new vice grand, Mrs. C.A. Saucy and Nola Ralston her supporting officers.

Also installed were Ola Hacker as warden, Ann Freeman conductor, Mrs. Henry Murrell color bearer, Beatrice Cox banner bearer, Mrs. Meri Bridges chaplain with Doris Coffin and Mrs. Walter Lemons as right and left supports.

Mrs. John N. Jacobsen took office as musician, Mrs. J.W. Cawthon inside guardian, Mrs. C.E. Beauford outside guardian, Mrs. R.E. Curtsinger reporter, Mrs. O.L. Williams is recording secretary, Mrs. Jim Loving financial secretary and Ada Hollabaugh treasurer.

In the 1860's the Princess of Wales suffered a slight accident which for a time caused her to walk with an almost imperceptible limp. In a spirit of servile imitation many of the women about the court also adopted this method of walking!

VOE Student Of The Week

Sina Sims, 18-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Sims of 112 Avenue I, works at the Deaf Smith County Library under the VOE program at Hereford High School. Standing with Sina, who plans to become a social studies teacher after graduation, is head librarian Gwen London.

Club Hears Program On Family Spending

At its first meeting of the new year, Veleda Study Club had a program appropriate to current emphasis on economic problems and the need for families to practice thrift. Mrs. Lloyd Crume was hostess in her home. Mrs. Gwynne Owen gave the program based on suggestions in articles by Sylvia Porter, financial writer. They included notes that a homemaker may save substantially by making the family's clothes herself, and that needed repairs to house and car should be made promptly to save money in the long run.

An amusing conclusion to the program was a brief review of a book titled Smashed Potatoes, which prints recipes as given by small children, illustrated by their drawings.

Mrs. Bill Walden, vice president, conducted business in the absence of Mrs. Armon Lauderback. Members voted that the club submit a name for the new elementary school which is under construction here. Announcement was made of a club publicity workshop to be held in Amarillo Jan. 25 by Panhandle Press Women.

Other members present included Mmes. Laurence Ruther, John Poindexter, Bill Brady, Gid Brown and J.D. Gilbert Jr.

Since the first of the three GI Bills became effective in 1944, some 15 million veterans have taken training under some Veterans Administration program. Six million persons have trained at the college level.

Guest Gives Club Talk

Financial responsibilities of homemakers were discussed in West Hereford Extension Club Tuesday afternoon by a guest, Irene McKinster of First State Bank. She explained the SOS services, planned especially for women in times of family crisis and offered by the bank.

Mrs. U.V. Pierce was hostess in her home. Evelyn Bell was winner of the hostess gift, and others present were Mmes. D.W. Ailmon, E.M. Cox and W.B. Phillips.

Cute Kids Contest To Be Held Again

A Cute Kids Contest with awards in several age divisions, will be sponsored by Hereford Newcomers Club again in the spring, members decided at a luncheon in Community Center Tuesday noon.

Date for the contest was set at April 5, and definite plans will be announced soon.

This annual event is a club benefit to supply funds for community projects which include aid to the Mental Health Mental Retardation Center.

Joyce Shipp, county extension agent, was guest speaker at the luncheon. She gave a general picture of Home Demonstration and 4-H Club work in Deaf Smith County, and told the newcomers that these clubs are open for membership to interested persons in the respective age groups.

Sixteen members were present, and Mmes. Calvin Jones, Wayne Elleston, Val Clawson and Wanda Hall were introduced as guests.

Since the first of the three GI Bills became effective in 1944, it is said to have had more impact on the American way of life than any law since passage of the Homestead Act more than a century ago.

Rights Of Nonsmokers Stressed

"Your right to smoke stops at my nose."

That's part of the message nonsmokers want to help smokers understand during National Education Week on Smoking January 11-17.

The week is sponsored by the National Interagency Council on Health and commemorates the first report 10 years ago by the Surgeon General on the health consequences of smoking. The State Health Department, which carries on an active educational campaign on smoking and health, is a member of the Texas Interagency Council.

Support to NEWS is being given by Gov. Dolph Briscoe, who has proclaimed the week "Education Week on Smoking and Health" in Texas to dramatize the need for greater awareness of the discomfort smokers may cause both to themselves and to others.

A full two-thirds of the people in the United States don't smoke. And, nearly a third of those nonsmokers have genuine medical allergies to tobacco smoke or conditions aggravated by smoke.

What is in question in the smoking issue is not the right to smoke. Nonsmokers concede anyone's right to indulge. What is objected to, say nonsmokers is that they must breathe smoke-filled air without being given access to clean air. They feel that no one should have to breathe smoky air in places where people go to do business, handle legal matters or pursue one's routine affairs.

Many areas are off limits to smoking in some cities, businesses and governmental agencies. These may include elevators, public meetings, conference rooms and even hospitals, supermarkets and theaters in some cases. Some nonsmoking sections are designated in establishments used by the public, such as restaurants.

Nonsmokers, says the Texas Interagency Council, do not feel vindictive or arbitrary in asking smokers to refrain temporarily, and most smokers are very considerate. Many fail to realize the discomfort smoking causes. Recent tests show that smoking increases the carbon monoxide content in air and that the nonsmoker inhales this poisonous gas just like the smoker. Merry-makers at a tightly closed Dallas nightclub were made sick recently by accumulated smoke in the building, which recycled existing air without bringing in a fresh supply.

Smoking 10 cigarettes in an enclosed car caused the carbon monoxide level in a nonsmokers blood to double, just as it did in the smokers' blood. Cigarette smoke also contains nitrogen dioxide, hydrogen cyanide and acrolein (used to produce tear gas).

Nor is the home immune from the effects of smoking. Children of smoking parents have twice the respiratory illnesses as children of nonsmoking parents. And, the rate is much worse for asthmatic children. Smoking and matches, say safety experts, are the leading cause of residential fires, accounting for more than $55 million in losses annually.

The Texas Interagency Council

on Smoking and Health, like the State Health Department, wants all Texans to enjoy good health. State Health Department programs in many areas are geared to this purpose. It is working to inform Texans of the risks involved in smoking—whether they are a smoker or nonsmoker. Many of its programs are directed to young students to influence them against ever taking up the habit.

Health authorities believe that everyone should have the right to good health and should take care of their bodies. The Council provides information on smoking, as well as plans for smoking cessation clinics for those who want to kick the habit.

If you would like a "Thank You For Not Smoking" sign or printed materials on smoking, you may write to the: Texas Interagency Council on Smoking and Health, State Health Department, 1100 West 49th St., Austin, Texas 78756.

Forms for private pension plan to pay a full year's insurance premiums under the Federal plan termination insurance program are being mailed to over 100,000 plans, the Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation (PBGC) announced. Under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA), the premium payment is mandatory for covered plans, which include most private defined benefit pension plans.

An initial premium covering the balance of the plan year which was in progress on the date of enactment of ERISA, Sept. 2, was due before Dec. 2, to avoid interest and late payment charges. ERISA further requires a full year's premium to be paid within thirty days of the beginning of the first full plan year subsequent to enactment.

The form, PBGC-1, and accompanying instructions are identical for both the fractional and the full-year payment, but the current mailing contains a new message from the Acting Executive Director, Steven E. Schanes, with pointers for saving interest and late payment charges (copy attached). These pointers include suggestions for plan administrators to review their initial premium payment filing. Failure to have filed, or erroneous claims of non-coverage, will not excuse interest and late payment charges if the plan is eventually determined to be covered.

Additionally, some errors of computation have been detected in initial premium payment returns. Accordingly, plan administrators are advised to review their computations and, in the event of underpayments, submit an amended return to minimize any possible interest and late payment charges on the underpayment. The mailing of the form PBGC-1 is being made at this time to accommodate the large number of plans whose plan year begins on January 1, 1975 and whose payments will be due on or before January 30, to avoid interest.

"Yankee Doodle Cricket," an imaginative, animated program dealing with the birth of American independence, will be presented as an ABC Television Network special, Thursday, Jan. 16 (7:00-7:30 p.m.) It was announced by Edwin T. Vane, Senior Vice President and National Program Director, ABC Entertainment.

"Yankee Doodle Cricket," produced, directed, and written by three-time Oscar-winner Chuck Jones, is a sequel to the popular and award-winning "The Cricket in Times Square," which aired on ABC in April of 1972. "The Cricket in Times Square" was awarded a Golden Eagle Certificate by the Council on International Nontheatrical Events, Inc. (CINE) and a Silver Medal.

The sequel reintroduces the audience to those three enduring characters—Chester C. Cricket, Harry the cat, and Tucker the mouse. In this show, they recall their ancestors' contributions to America's struggle for independence. Inspired by Patrick Henry's famous cry of "Give me liberty or give me death," Tucker, Randolph Mouse, Esquire, writes the Original "Declaration of Interdependence" for cats and mice. When he takes it to Harry the cat, who happens to be Thomas Jefferson's pet, it is freely adapted into the "Declaration of Independence" for people. Then Harry and Tucker go off to stir up the rest of the creatures in the colonies. They run into Chester C. Cricket and ask him to come up with a rousing national anthem. He offers them a little tune he learned from a doodle bug in one of the other colonies, "Yankee Doodle."

"The Abduction of Saint Anne"

A cynical detective and a Roman Catholic Bishop from the Vatican team up to investigate the reported miraculous powers of a beautiful 17-year-old girl held captive in the home of her father, an ailing gangland chieftain, whose "friends" will stop at nothing to keep the girl imprisoned. In "The Abduction of Saint Anne" on the ABC Television Network's "Tuesday Movie of the Week," Jan. 21 (7:30-9:30 p.m.).

Robert Wagner stars as Dave Hatcher, a one-time U.S. intelligence agent working as an investigator in a small town. To his astonishment, Hatcher is retained by Bishop Francis Paul Logan (E. G. Marshall) to help verify reports he possesses of spiritual powers that enable her to perform miracles. If the girl, Anne Benedict (Kathleen Quinlan), is indeed a modern day saint, Hatcher and Logan are to take her to Rome. In Arizona, the detective and the Bishop find the home of her father, an ailing gangland chieftain, whose "friends" will stop at nothing to keep the girl imprisoned. In "The Abduction of Saint Anne" on the ABC Television Network's "Tuesday Movie of the Week," Jan. 21 (7:30-9:30 p.m.).

"Night Train to L.A."

An eight-hour train trip to Los Angeles for a police convention turns sour when all the policemen aboard become suspects in the slaying of a controversial anti-police author. In "Night Train to L.A.," a "McMillan and Witte" drama starring Rock Hudson and Susan Saint James, to be broadcast on "NBC Sunday Mystery Movie" Jan. 19 (7:30-9:30 p.m.) on the NBC Television Network.

Paul Burke, James MacEachron, Linda Evans, Murray Matheson and Michael Callan guest-star in the drama, which also stars serial regulars John Schuck, as Sgt. Ferrell, and Nancy Walker as Mildred (Matheson's Railroad board chairman Aaron Hildreth).

Inside "Little House on the Prairie"

When Charles Ingalls (played by Michael Landon), moved his family in "Little House on the Prairie" from Kansas to Minnesota, they lost 160 acres of land, but they also gained something, neighbors.

In Minnesota, as depicted in this fact-based Wednesday night series on the NBC Television Network (7:00-8:00 p.m.), the Ingalls settled on the banks of Plum Creek. Nearby is the town of Walnut Grove, with its sawmill, mercantile store, school, church, post-office and the people in them—the Ingalls' new neighbors.

There's Hanson, the mill owner; Mr. and Mrs. Oleson, proprietors of the general store; Doc Brady; the Rev. Alden and others. Each of these characters is as different from one another as are the actors who portray them.

Karl Swenson (Mr. Hanson) was born in Brooklyn, N.Y. He won a pre-med scholarship to Marquette College in Ohio, but when he had to direct a troop, and switched to drama, moving into radio, he had an 18-year run as "Cornelius Jones" and later, in "Our Gal Sunday," played Lord Henry Brith-tron. "England's richest and handsomest lord." On stage his leading ladies have included Ingrid Bergman and Loretta Young.

Richard Bull (Mr. Oleson) is a native of Zion, Ill., and claims descent from William Bull, who came to the New World from England in 1720. Richard is a product of Chicago schools, including the Goodman Theatre, where he began a stage career that took him to New York before he journeyed to Hollywood for TV and movies.

Kathleen MacGregor (Mrs. Leason) was born in Glen-dale, Calif., and grew up in Wyoming and Colorado. Her mother, a former vaudeville star, started her in dance classes.

"Mr. Rooney Goes To Washington"

CBS News writer-producer Andrew A. Rooney, whose humorous inquisitiveness accompanied by a camera has studied doors, chairs, women, bridges and even the English language, stars in "Mr. Rooney Goes to Washington," a CBS News Special to be presented Monday, Jan. 20 (9:00-10:00 p.m.), on the CBS Television Network.

Several months ago, CBS News sent Rooney to Washington to see what a non-political reporter with no previous knowledge of the place would find out about it. The assignment led him into the labyrinth of Government bureaucracy. What he found out—and what he was able to find out—makes up the majority of the hour-long broadcast.

Rooney's study is filled with questions, like how many buildings does the Government own in the Washington, D.C. area. The General Services Administration, whose job it is to keep track of such things, said it didn't have a complete list. But it could get one for Rooney if he came up with $150.

With the end of the military draft, which was run by the Selective Service System, Rooney thought, "Maybe that was an agency we could do without." However, he talked with the agency's director, who explains that it costs $27 million not to draft anyone—and why.

"All the time we were in Washington, we didn't find one single person who didn't think the Government was spending too much money," Rooney says. But he also didn't find anyone who thought the Government was spending too much on the individual's particular area.

Everyone also agrees that there's too much paper being written on and distributed throughout the Government. Rooney found there was a Government-anti-sponsored contest for ideas to cut down on paper—and came across a request for six copies of paper relating to the contest rather than the usual four.

Oscar joins ABC's NFL Broadcast Team

Helped by Felix, Oscar gets to join Howard Cosell as third man on the network's team telecasting ABC's "NFL Monday Night Football" on the ABC Television Network's "The Odd Couple," Thursday, Jan. 16 (7:30-8:00 p.m.).

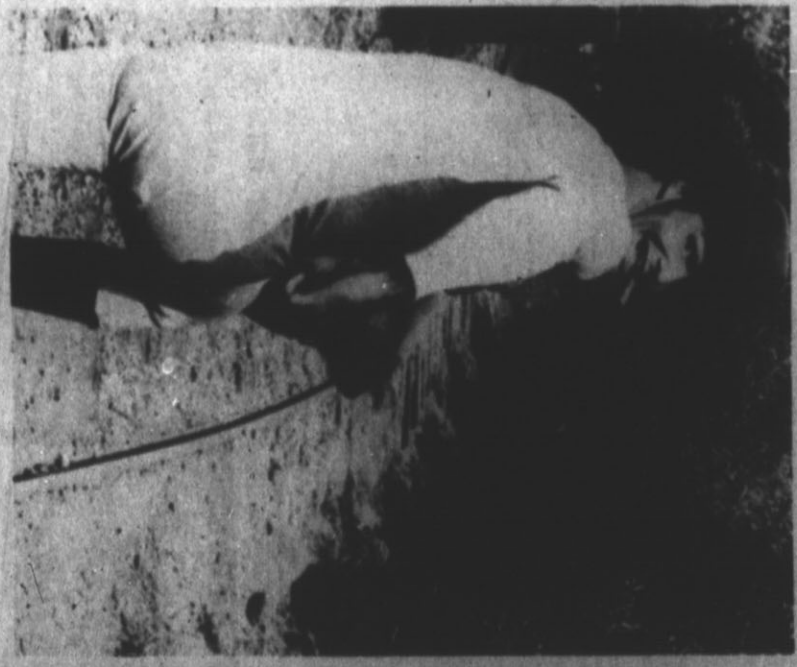

In "Your Mother Wears Army Boots," Oscar says he'll never get the assignment because Cosell dislikes him. Felix, however, is sure he can swing it because Cosell has always wanted to meet opera star Martina Arroyo, and the can arrange it. Beholden to Felix, Cosell reluctantly accepts Oscar, and agrees with his producer, Rooney, not to harass him. But Oscar has prepared himself by getting a coned friend to arm him with a written assortment of anti-Cosell barbs.
