Francis Barrett, RN director of nursing from Oklahoma City, Okla. along with Bob Berge, RN consultant from Dallas are presently teaching home and family nursing instructions at Deaf Smith General Hospital LVN room. The couple will be teaching the classes through this

'The Universe Of Dr. Einstein' To Be Featured At Museum of TTU

Dr. Albert Einstein's concept of "what the world would be like if I rode on a beam of light" comes alive in a Moody Planetarium presentation at The Museum of Texas Tech University in July and August.

Man has continued during the quarter of a century since his death to reap benefits from Einstein's formulas to answer intriguing questions. The presentation emphasizes that fact and deals in detail with his fascination with the universe and its contribution to scientific knowledge.

It is such a simple, innocent-looking equation, yet it unlocks for us fundamental secrets of the universe, especially how stars shine, the narrator explains.

assured him of an eventual Nobel Prize," the narrator continues.

The presentation, which will combine the use of slides and actual photographs illustrating Einstein's life and accomplishments, opens July 5 and runs through Aug. 31. The 50-minute program will be shown at 2:30 p.m. weekdays and at 2 and 3:30 p.m. Saturdays and Sundays.

"Albert Einstein Photographed by Lotte Jacobi" will also be presented in the gallery of The Museum July 5 through Aug. 31. The exhibit will feature 25 photographs displaying an intimate view of the life of Einstein. Admission to The Museum is free.

Tickets for "The Universe of Dr. Einstein" are $1 for adults and 50 cents for students. Members of the West Texas Museum Association and the Ranching Heritage Association will be admitted free.

Planetarium shows are considered too advanced for preschool children.

4-H Energy Program

Latest 4-H Project

The latest 4-H program added to our list of possible projects is the 4-H energy program. There is no better time than the present to begin thinking and working in the area of energy. The Extension Office can supply you with ideas and instructions to determine how fertilizers can save energy in horticulture projects. You can also contact us for information on energy efficient production of forage for beef cattle projects. Youths involved in horse or pony projects can learn how to control growth of a show horse's hair with an energy efficient lighting technique.

4-H members need to become aware of the importance of energy in their lives; the 4-H Energy Project will give them a start. Energy activity sheets supplement these 4-H projects: beef cattle, horse and pony, swine, sheep and goats, horticulture, foods and nutrition, clothing, safety, electricity, and family.

Local Resident Receives Degree

Texas Tech University's School of Law conferred Doctor of Jurisprudence degrees upon 124 graduates at 1980 spring commencement exercises.

Among them was local resident Joselle Albracht of 125 Sunset Drive. Albracht received her undergraduate degree from Texas Tech in May 1977.

Houston attorney Leon Jaworski was featured speaker at the ceremony.

OFFICE HOURS
Mon.-Fri., 8:30 to 5 p.m.

Currently, Deaf Smith County 4-H'ers are involved in two 4-H events--the 4-H Clothing Project and the 4-H Record Book Contest.

The 1980 Fashion Review will be held July 14th with a Public Fashion Show at 1:30 p.m. in the County Library. The theme this year is "Rainbow of Fashion." We hope to have about 30 Deaf Smith County 4-H'ers enter. Come join us!

The other project, 4-H Record Books, is a contest which recognizes 4-H'ers for their achievements in 4-H projects throughout the past year. Records will be judged on County and District level; 4-H'ers over 14 years of age may be judged on a State and National Basis. For more information contact Agnes Taylor or Robby Vann at 364-3573. Remember, 4-H is for everyone!

Educational programs conducted by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service serve people of all ages and regardless of socio-economic levels, race, color, sex, religion, or national origin.

JULY 4th Challenge of the Neighborhoods FLAG FLYING

Your neighborhood is hereby challenged to see if you can have more flags flying on your street on July 4th than any other street in Hereford.

If you want special recognition for your street, call the Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce at 364-3333 and we'll see to it that your street receives special attention.

Ann Landers

Sexual Problems

DEAR ANN LANDERS: Nine loud cheers for you--actually, three cheers for you; three cheers for that wonderful man whose wife was dying of cancer and who didn't want to impose on her--nor could he feel right about seeing another woman--and three cheers for that angelic doctor who recommended masturbation. That man's love for his wife came through in every line he wrote.

Sexual problems are an area few medical people are comfortable with--even in this age of supposed enlightenment. How good it is to know there are professionals willing to give common-sense, practical advice to patients and partners caught in such a cruel bind.

As for you, Ann, you will probably receive many letters from Bible-thumping, outraged readers. Just toss them into the circular file. Rest assured that many of us applaud your courage for printing a letter dealing with such a sensitive issue. It touched thousands of lives in a most helpful and compassionate way.--A Nurse in Schenectady.

DEAR NURSE: How about another three cheers for my readers? I confess I was surprised and overwhelmed by the outpouring of support. Hundreds of men and women wrote to thank me for printing that letter and my response. They said they felt relieved, less alone and less guilty. I guess I underestimated my audience. You folks out there are truly terrific.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: Please stop telling people who are sick of junk mail to write to Direct Mail Marketing Association for a preference application and their worries will be over. I did it and received more junk mail than before!

Once a junk mailer gets your name, you are a victim of the computers. You will get mail not only from the first jerk but from all his fellow junk mailers. I mean six or seven duplications per day. One each to "Mr. and Mrs.," "Mr.," "Ms.," one with your name spelled with an "i," another with your name spelled with an "e," one to your box number and one to your street number.

The zip code can be right or wrong. Doesn't matter. Junk mail has no trouble getting through. Only first-class mail is held up for days--sometimes weeks.

Who gets hit the minute the post office department needs more money? We do. They are talking about charging 20 cents for a letter and stopping Saturday delivery.

Did our country initiate the mail service to provide us with junk? How about it, fellow Americans? If every single person who is fed up will write "Refused" on all junk mail and drop it in the postal box, the sender will have to pay for it and they will take you off their list.--Fed Up In Macon

DEAR FED: From your mouth to God's ears. The problem is that unless an envelope reads "Return Postage Guaranteed," the post office will not return it--it will be destroyed and the senders will never get the message.

CONFIDENTIAL to Made a Mess of Things and Need a Way Out: There was enough material in your letter to keep a soap opera going for four months. You need the help of a professional counselor, a veterinarian, a plumber, an electrician, an auto mechanic, a tax accountant, a doctor and a lawyer. I read every word of your 32 pages. In the future, if you feel the need to cry over spilled milk, please condense it.

It's not always easy to recognize love, especially the first time around. Acquaint yourself with the guidelines. Read Ann Landers' booklet, "Love or Sex and How to Tell the Difference." For a copy, mail 50 cents and a long, self-addressed envelope with your request to Ann Landers, P.O. Box 11995, Chicago, Illinois 60611.

Women's Division To Meet Tonight

The Chamber of Commerce Women's Division will be meeting tonight at the Country Club for their quarterly meeting. Salads will be served by the Country Club at a cost of $6.50 per person.

Special entertainment for the evening will be a style show provided by Little Miss, Miss Teen and Miss Teen Hereford contestants beginning at 7:30 p.m.

In addition to the style show, Miss Patti Frisbie and Martin Duckett who also entertained at the Miss Hereford Pageant, will provide musical entertainment.

Everyone is urged to attend and bring a guest to show support for the local pageant winners.

Square Dance Club Nominates Officers

Nominations for the 1980-81 Merry Mixers officers were announced recently during the club's salad supper and dance held at the Community Center with approximately six squares dancing to the calling of Herrick Allen, Amarillo.

Those nominated were James and Sandy Burrus, and Jerry and Lillie Shipman, president; Delbert and Verlee Bainum, and Gid and Juanita Brown, vice-president; Carlyle and Dorothy Sargent and Andy and Donita Rule, secretary; Earl and Nadine Lance and Arthur and Florence Robinson, treasurer and Cliff and Reba Allmon, Ed and Joyce Geiger, Bob and Mary Jo Hammam, and Trow and Margie Mims, social chairmen.

Elections will be held at the next business meeting on July 18. They will resume their duties in August. These officers are held for six months and in any square dance club the office is held jointly by a couple.

The State of Texas was represented at the National Square Dance Convention in Memphis, Tenn. by the local club's state officer Ed and Angie McCreary.

They carried the club's state banner in the grand march and were responsible for the state of Texas booth in the showcase of ideas.

The Newspaper Bible

IT'S TRUE, BROTHER, IT'S TRUE!

After breakfast Jesus said to Simon Peter, "Simon, son of John, do you love Me more than these others?"

"Yes," Peter replied, "You know I am Your friend."

"Then feed My lambs," Jesus told him.

Jesus repeated the question: "Simon, son of John, do you really love Me?"

"Yes, Lord," Peter said, "You know I am Your friend."

"Then take care of My sheep," Jesus said.

Once more He asked him, "Simon, son of John, are you even My friend?"

Peter was grieved at the way Jesus asked the question this third time. "Lord, You know my heart; You know I am," he said.

Jesus said, "Then feed My little sheep.

When you were young, you were able to do as you liked and go wherever you wanted to; but when you are old, you will stretch out your hands and others will direct you and take you where you don't want to go."

Jesus said this to let him know what kind of death he would die to glorify God. Then Jesus told him, "Follow Me."

Peter turned around and saw the disciple Jesus loved following, the one who had leaned around at supper that time to ask Jesus, "Master, which of us will betray You?"

Peter asked Jesus, "What about him, Lord? What sort of death will he die?"

Jesus replied, "If I want him to live until I return, what is that to you? You follow Me."

So the rumor spread among the brotherhood that that disciple wouldn't die! But that isn't what Jesus said at all! He only said, "If I want him to live until I come, what is that to you?"

I am that disciple! I saw these events and have recorded them here. And we all know that my account of these things is accurate.

And I suppose that if all the other events in Jesus' life were written, the whole world could hardly contain the books!

John 21:15-25

Secretary Of Kiwanis Attends Convention

Jim Simon of 329 Cherokee, and secretary of the Kiwanis Club of Hereford, recently attended the 65th Annual Kiwanis International Convention in Anaheim, Calif. as a delegate.

Other individuals attending the convention from Hereford were Bartley Dwell, board of director.

Kiwanis International is a worldwide service organization for men desiring personal involvement in the leadership and improvement of their communities. The organization has more than 300,000 members in approximately 7,500 clubs in 69 countries.

Delegates to the convention elected international officers and trustees who will serve the organization during the 1980-81 administrative year. Delegates also discussed and voted on proposed amendments as well as international resolutions that will provide inspiration and guidance to Kiwanians during the upcoming service year.

Convention speakers included: Theodore Bikel, Georgetown, Conn., actor, lecturer, folk singer, author, and photographer; Dr. George W. Cunningham, Washington, D.C., assistant secretary for Nuclear Energy in the U.S. Department of Energy; Art Linkletter, Beverly Hills, Calif., renowned entertainer and humanitarian; Mark Musso, Wichita, Kansas, president, Circle K International; Dean Rush, Athens, Georgia, former U.S. secretary of state; Wayen P. Sharp, Metairie, Louisiana, president Key Club International; Mark A. Smith, Jr., Atlanta, Georgia, president, Kiwanis International; Dr. Richard I. Tanaka, Tustin, Calif., president, international technology resources; and Grant Teaff, head football coach, Baylor University, Waco.

Holiday Plans

Scheduled For

Senior Citizens

A luncheon will be served at the Hereford Senior Citizens Center July Fourth for any senior citizens who do not have other holiday plans.

Lunch will feature barbecue, either chicken or beef, with pinto beans, potato salad, coleslaw, garlic bread, and fresh fruit dessert.

Serving will begin at 11:30 a.m. in the cafeteria, but reservations need to be made early, according to Marjory Daniels, center director.

The center will remain open the rest of the day with card and domino games available for those who like them. Table tennis equipment will be set up in the patio area. There will be horseshoe pitching, croquet, and any other outdoor games members want to arrange on the grounds.

Music and other entertainment will make up the program being arranged under the direction of Sadie Leasure.

At Wits End

By ERMA BOMBECK

An actor whose name I've forgotten once said on a talk show, "Husbands and wives see one another at the worst possible part of the day--a few minutes in the mornings when they're pressured and trying to get on with their day, and in the evenings when they have no more to give and are irritable and exhausted."

It's true. How many of you have said, "I know I'm late and I didn't call, but you're my wife (husband) and I expect you to understand!"

We all play havoc with the most precious, fragile, important relationship we have--our family.

What would happen if a husband used the same guidelines at home that he used in other relationships?

Do you give your wife the attention you give Abdul-Jabbar?

Do you give her the praise you give your secretary when she moistens the sponge for stamps on your desk?

Do you listen to her with the intensity you devote to your auto mechanic?

Do you give her the same trust you give your banker?

Do you pamper her as you do your golf clubs?

Do you love and protect her as you do your charge card?

Do you share with her the joy you reserve for the comic page or the office Christmas party?

Do you have the compassion for her pain that you do for the kid who parks your car and is going to have a root canal?

Do you have the patience with her that you have with your biggest client who puts you on "hold"?

Wives...do you have the honesty with your husband that you do with your gynecologist?

Are you as enthusiastic for his return as you are when your washer repairman arrives?

Are you as interested in his day as you are with the menu at Baskin-Robbins?

Do you make his children seem as wonderful to him as you did when you explained them to their teachers?

Do you feel his disappointments as deeply as you did with the cast of "Ryan's Hope"?

Do you have the same pride in his achievements as when you got the mold off the grouting in the hall shower?

Do you feel the same glow for him that you did when they validated your parking ticket at the dentist's office?

Do you fuss with your appearance with him as much as when you visit your safety deposit box?

It's something to think about.

Youth, Experience Lock Horns At Wimbledon

Jaeger, Austin Win

WIMBLEDON, England (AP) — Youth and experience locked horns at Wimbledon Monday. Honors ended up about even.

Andrea Jaeger, just 26 days beyond her 15th birthday, carried the flag for youth, trouncing Virginia Wade, the experienced 1977 champion, 6-2, 7-6.

Tracy Austin, something of a veteran at 17-years-old, joined Jaeger in the last eight of the women's singles by defeating 24-year-old Terry Holladay 6-2, 6-3.

British player.

"Andrea is fast, hits the ball early, has good timing and changes pace well. But she plays quite a few 'nothing balls' and if I had played well I would have beaten her," Wade added.

"I don't think Andrea could possibly beat Chris Evert Lloyd."

Jaeger meets the two-time Wimbledon champion in the quarterfinals.

King, as gutsy as ever, saw Shriver throw away five points for a 5-2 lead in the final of their taut, sometimes ill-tempered match.

"Pam was serving so well that for a time she was dominating me," King said. "She is resilient and kept control of her emotions."

Martina Navratilova overcame a poor start to down fellow American Kathy Jordan, the No. 10 seed, 6-4, 6-2.

The women's quarterfinal lineup (seeding positions in brackets):

Martina Navratilova (1) vs. Billie Jean King (5)

Tracy Austin (2) vs. Greer Stevens (11)

Chris Evert Lloyd (3) vs. Andrea Jaeger (14)

Evonne Goolagong (4) vs. Wendy Turnbull (6)

Only three fourth round men's matches escaped the rain that fell in late afternoon, and has been a problem throughout the tournament, ending play for the day.

Roscoe Tanner, beaten finalist last year, ousted fellow American Nick Saviano 7-6, 3-6, 6-3, 6-4, while sixth-seeded Gene Mayer beat unseeded Australian Colin Dibley 3-6, 7-5, 4-6, 6-1, 6-2.

Brian Gottfried, unseeded here for the first time in four years, continued his fine run by winning through to the quarters with a 6-1, 6-2, 6-2 victory over Phil Dent of Australia.

But you can't keep a good oldie down — as Billie Jean King and Evonne Goolagong proved just before Jaeger started to frustrate Wade and the partisan center court crowd.

King, 36, winner of a record 20 Wimbledon titles, clawed her way back from the brink of defeat to oust 17-year-old Pam Shriver 5-7, 7-6, 10-8 in a 2 hours 40 minutes thriller on the bumpy court number two.

Goolagong, the 1971 champion, lost the first set to the impressive 18-year-old Hana Mandlikova but recovered to win 6-7, 6-3, 6-1.

Jaeger, the youngest Wimbledon seed ever, displayed a maturity far beyond her years in matching Wade, then overpowering her.

"She was probably more nervous than me," the chirpy schoolgirl said afterward.

Wade, however, felt that it is too early to talk of Jaeger as a possible Wimbledon champion.

"Not this year, I don't think she is ready yet," said the

Turning A Double Play

First Presbyterian hurler George Belford does a quick turnaround on the mound in an attempt to turn a double play in the Y.M.C.A. Church League Semifinal softball tilt with St. Anthony's Monday night. The play was successful, but the Presbyterian squad's efforts fell short in the long run as St. Anthony's clipped the team 8-7. St. Anthony's is scheduled to play San Jose [the San Jose team won it's semifinal clash over Community Church 10-6] for the League Championship tonight at 6:30.

Sox Clobber Midland Cubs

By The Associated Press

Jim Wojcik doubled home the winning run in the eighth inning Monday night as the Shreveport Captains beat the Tulsa Drillers, 7-6, in a Texas League baseball game.

In other Texas League action, Jackson edged Arkansas 6-5 in 11 innings, Amarillo clobbered Midland, 17-8, and El Paso slipped past San Antonio, 3-2.

Wojcik's double scored Dan Gladden, who had tripled home two other unearned runs for the Captains in their eighth inning rally.

Charles Davis had a solo homer for Shreveport.

Mike Glinatsis, 2-5, was the winning pitcher. The loser was Jack Lazorko, 6-3.

Keno Perry's single drove home the winning run in the bottom of the 11th as the Jackson Mets edged the Arkansas Travelers, 3-2.

The Mets had to come from behind by scoring four runs in the bottom of the ninth inning to move the game into extra innings.

Ray Scavage, 1-0, was the winning pitcher. Louis DeLeon, 6-4, was the loser.

The Amarillo Gold Sox had five home runs, including two by Frankie George, in an easy 17-8 victory over the Midland Cubs.

American Legion Splits Contests

The Hereford American Legion Redbirds came out of competition this past weekend bolstering a .500 mark, after they drilled Amarillo Palo Duro 13-3 Saturday and then dropped a 17-8 contest to Amarillo High Sunday.

The win over Palo Duro offset an earlier three game losing streak, with the most recent loss of that streak coming at the hands of Amarillo Tascosa 15-4 Thursday.

Hereford hurler Ronald Hummer fanned six unlearned Palo Duro hitters and walked four while giving up only three meager hits to notch his first win of the season.

But that defensive play was only compounded by an awesome batting barrage that never ended until 10 runs had been levied against the Palo Duro Squad in three frames of play.

Redbird hitter Randy Kerr (racking up five RBI's for the night) devastated the Amarillo pitching staff as he went three for four and creased a three-run homer in the third to begin Hereford's 10 run scoring thrust. The final six runs, five in the fourth and one in the fifth frame came with help from double-hitters Jeff Hazelrigg, Mike Mason, Plummer and Mark Tucker.

The tune of winning play was reversed in the Amarillo to six Amarillo doubles and five triples (three of those landing back-to-back in the seventh stanza) in route to a High clash however, after the Hereford squad succumbed 17-8 blight.

The Redbird crew, now wielding a 4-11 mark in season play, is scheduled to pair off against host Canyon at 6:30 p.m. Tuesday.

Padres Win

Juan Eichelberger and Bob Shirley combined to scatter seven Los Angeles hits and Aurelio Rodriguez singled home Dave Winfield with the winning run for San Diego in the seventh inning.

YMCA Slates 'Anything Goes'

The Hereford and Vicinity YMCA is making plans for the annual "Anything Goes" competition. The YMCA has scheduled the competition for Saturday, July 19, 1980, and is urging all community clubs to participate. Preliminary rounds will start at 9:00, 10:30, 1:00 p.m., and 2:30 p.m. Finals at 5:00 p.m.

The entry fee is $25 per team, with each club allowed to field as many teams as it wants, with each team required to pay the $25 entry fee. All teams planning to participate must notify the YMCA by July 12, 1980. Each team competing is allowed five members and one alternate, with the names of the team members to be furnished to the YMCA along with the entry fee by July 15, 1980.

The events for anything goes are currently being planned, but will include such infamous events as the golf cart obstacle course and the water balloon throw.

Please discuss this event with your club members and then let the YMCA know that you would like your club to be represented in the competition.

For more information contact the YMCA at 364-6990.

Seaver Has Trouble, Giants Beat Reds

By ALEX SACHARE
AP Sports Writer

To. Seaver's problems continue to mount. The seven-time all-star was rocked for seven hits and five runs in four innings Monday night and tagged with the loss as the San Francisco Giants beat the Cincinnati Reds 8-4. Seaver's record is now 3-5, his earned run average a dismal 4.76. "I can't keep pitching this way," Seaver said. "I have a sore shoulder and it's not getting any better and it's not going to if I keep pitching. "It's not frustrating. It's depressing. I love what I do." In other National League games, the Atlanta Braves beat the Houston Astros 5-4 in 11 innings, the Philadelphia Phillies defeated the Montreal Expos 7-5, the Pittsburgh Pirates edged the St. Louis Cardinals 5-4 and the San Diego Padres trimmed the Los Angeles Dodgers 4-3.

Milt May hit a three-run homer off Seaver in the first inning and Jack Clark tagged him for a two-run shot in the third as the Giants staked rookie Bill Bordley to an early 5-0 lead. Bordley was making his first appearance since being called up from Phoenix.

Bordley, like Seaver a former college pitching star at Southern Cal, went on to post his first major league victory with relief help from Gary Lavelle, who worked the last three innings to post his third save.

"I didn't know what we'd get out of Bill," Giants Manager Dave Bristol said of Bordley. "He hadn't pitched since June 17. I have to be very pleased with getting six innings out of him tonight."

Braves 5, Astros 4
Jose Cruz tied the game for Houston with a ninth-inning home run and put the Astros ahead with another homer in the 11th, but Glenn Hubbard's two-run homer in the bottom of the 11th gave the victory to Atlanta.

Hubbard credited his homer to a tip from a teammate about the way Astros reliever Joe Sambito was pitching.

"Bob Horner told me before I went to the plate that Sambito's fastball runs away and to look up the middle," Hubbard said. "I looked up the middle and there it was."

And there it went, landing well up in the blue seats behind the left field fence. Houston Manager Bill Virdon took the loss in stride, as befits the manager of a first-place team. Despite the loss, the Astros still lead second-place Los Angeles by 2½ games in the National League West.

Phillies 7, Expos 5

Philadelphia scored all its runs in the fourth inning, which was highlighted by a grand slam by Keith Moreland and a two-run homer by Pete Rose. Both came against Montreal starter Bill Gullickson, 0-2, who had difficulty keeping the ball low.

Ready To Hit

Presbyterian hitter Richard Pivett prepares to unwind on a St. Anthony's pitch in the semifinal Y.M.C.A. Church League softball contest Monday night. St. Anthony's slipped past the Presbyterian diamond crew by an 8-7 margin and is slated to pair off against San Jose in the championship round of league play Tuesday.

Grasp 3rd Victory In A Row

Brewers Top Oakland

By HERSCHEL NISSENSON
AP Sports Writer

The Milwaukee Brewers keep looking up at the New York Yankees ... both in the American League standings and on the scoreboard.

The Brewers kept winning Monday night, downing the Oakland A's 5-2 for their third victory in a row and ninth in the last 12 games. But the Yankees also kept winning, beating the Boston Red Sox 6-3 for their third in a row and 13th in the last 17. They lead Milwaukee by 5½ games.

"I'll be honest with you, I watch all American League clubs, especially the New York Yankees," said Milwaukee Manager George Bamberger.

The Detroit Tigers are also worth watching these days. They made it 10 of 11 and 15 of 18 by defeating the Cleveland Indians 9-4. Elsewhere, the Minnesota Twins pounded the Kansas City Royals 12-3, the Baltimore Orioles outlasted the Toronto Blue Jays 9-7, the California Angels turned back the Chicago White Sox 10-6 and the Texas Rangers trounced the Seattle Mariners 11-5.

Ben Oglivie knocked in two runs for Milwaukee with his 21st homer and a single and Bill Travers hurled a four-hitter for his seventh victory in 10 decisions. Oglivie tied Philadelphia's Mike Schmidt for the major league home run lead when he connected leading off the second inning.

Oglivie also pleaded guilty to a little scoreboard-watching, but said: "Sometimes I don't think we should be watching the board. I think we should be giving 100 percent in our games."

The Brewers added another run in the second on singles by Mark Brouhard, Jim Gantner and Charlie Moore and scored three times in the third on doubles by Don Money and Cecil Cooper, singles by Gorman Thomas and Oglivie and a sacrifice fly by Sixto Lezcano. Yankees 6, Red Sox 3

Q. I've just put a new carburetor on my 1977 Pontiac Catalina. Now it starts fine and runs great until it warms up. Then it begins to cut out or miss. The electrical system is fine. What do I check next?
A. Clean the throttle linkage and check it for binding. Look next at the valve in the air cleaner snorkel. The valve is controlled by a temperature sensor to provide a leaner fuel mixture and lessen emissions. While the engine is cold, look into the snorkel. The valve should be closed. Start the engine. The valve should start opening and be fully open when the engine temperature reaches 100 degrees F. If the valve stays closed too long or does not close at all, see that the hose to the snorkel is tightly attached and not torn. Then replace the temperature sensor.

STATE CAPITAL HIGHLIGHTS

By Lyndell Williams

TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN—Seeking 40,000 signatures needed by July 4 to put his name on the Texas presidential ballot, Illinois Congressman John Anderson brought his independent presidential campaign to Austin last week.

Anderson supporters in this state say he is going to make the deadline and is gaining support. Following the gathering of the signatures, Anderson is sure to face a tough fight validating them. Attorney General Mark White and Texas Secretary of State George Strake have issued conflicting rulings regarding who is eligible to sign the petition.

During his speech Thursday, Anderson blasted both opponents, President Jimmy Carter and Ronald Reagan, and outlined his energy solutions—under blue skies and 100 degrees heat.

—He would levy a 50 cent per gallon tax on gasoline, and give half the revenues to cut Social Security taxes.

—He would delay building nuclear power plants until their operation and waste disposal systems are proven safe.

—He would stress conservation and development of alternate energies, especially solar power.

Governors Confer

Governor Bill Clements addressed the opening session of the ten-member Governors Border Conference in El Paso, and told statehouse heads from Mexico and New Mexico, Arizona and California that illegal aliens should be registered and, in effect, legalized.

Emphasizing he is opposed to the harsh bracero program of the 1940s, Clements said he nevertheless supports a program to allow Mexican nationals to enter and work in the U.S.

Clements said he had the backing of the three other U.S. governors involved, but former radical Tom Hayden, representing California's Gov. Jerry Brown, said the others were opposed to Clements' proposals and had been for a year. The Arizona governor was unavailable for comment; the New Mexico governor was uncommittal on Clements plan.

Lewis, Bryant

The race for speaker of the Texas House of Representatives took a few turns around the track during the recent Republican and Democratic party conventions.

Fort Worth Rep. Gib Lewis, a Democrat, visited the Republican convention, apparently seeking pledges, and took some mild raps from movers and shakers in his own party.

Dallas Rep. John Bryant, Lewis' main opponent, failed to rally the Democrats behind his candidacy, but aired a half-hour television advertisement in some parts of the state to take his bid "to the people."

Higher College Tuition?

As January the next legislative session approach, more and more issues are floated out like weather balloons to see which way the wind is blowing.

Last week a special committee on higher education finance recommended that tuitions be doubled for undergraduate and graduate students, with even larger increases for medical and dental school students.

Galveston State Sen. A. R. Schwartz responded the next day that backers of the tuition hike can count on a stiff fight from him.

Schwartz said the hike reflects the prevailing Texas philosophy: "tax anybody who doesn't have a lobby representing them in the Legislature."

The Governor

Clements' impatience with the slowness in reducing the number of state employees, one of his key campaign promises two years ago, was manifested last week. Agency heads were notified to increase their efforts to reduce their staffs.

ON THE LIGHTER SIDE
MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — Michael Brown had just gotten out of his horse-drawn carriage to stretch his legs. Before his break was over, he had to chase his panicked horse almost a mile through afternoon traffic. Brown, operator of River City Carriage Tours, said it all began Monday while he was awaiting some dignitaries who were attending a riverboat race on the Mississippi River. When he climbed out of his carriage, a freight train passed with its horn blaring and spooked the horse. Before Brown could grab the reins, the horse was gone and the chase down Riverside Drive was on. A man in a passing pickup truck saw what happened and yelled for Brown to jump into the back. They took off in pursuit, accompanied by a police car that happened to be cruising the area. The horse galloped past several cars in the south-bound lanes, then crossed the center line and began running toward a cluster of horrified northbound motorists. As cars screamed to a halt, the horse tried to run between two vehicles and the carriage crashed into a car driven by Kenneth Brown of Greenville, Miss., and shook loose. The horse ran another half mile before it was corraled. Kenneth Brown, his wife and their three children, meanwhile, were surveying damage to the family car—a dented hood and left fender. "It could have been a lot worse," Brown said. "I was afraid he was gonna try to jump up on the car."
