According to an investigating officer at the scene, the station wagon occupied by the injured motorist was westbound on Grand when it was struck broadside by a pickup driven by a 17 year old Hereford youth. The officer reported that the pickup made a left turn into the station wagon. Two traffic citations were issued following the accident. (Brand photo by Jim Steiert)

Iran Eyes Appeal

By The Associated Press
Mohammad Ali Rejai, Iran's new prime minister, is studying an appeal from Secretary of State Edmund S. Muskie for the early, safe release of the 52 American hostages spending their 304th day in captivity today.

Pars, the official Iranian news agency, said Rejai would discuss his response to Muskie's letter at his "next public interview." It gave no indication when the interview would be or what Rejai's answer might be.

State Department spokeswoman Sondra McCarthy said Muskie sent a letter to Rejai "on the occasion of the new prime minister's appointment...calling his attention to the hostage issue and urging the hostages' early and safe release."

Muskie's note was delivered Sunday afternoon by the Swiss Embassy in Tehran, which has represented the U.S. government in Iran since President Carter broke diplomatic relations with Iran on April 7.

The message appeared to be one of the opening moves in a series of new diplomatic initiatives seeking the release of the American captives. Muskie promised the new campaign in an interview three weeks ago.

A Kuwaiti newspaper reported last week that diplomats from an unnamed Arab country were trying to mediate the hostage dispute.

The Majlis, Iran's new Parliament, received a letter in July from about 200 U.S. congressmen appealing for a speedy end to the hostage crisis, and Tehran Radio said the draft of a reply was read to the Majlis Monday by a spokesman for the foreign relations committee.

The broadcast report said some of the legislators expressed their opinions, and the draft was returned to the committee for revision. The reports gave no inkling of what the draft said.

Tehran Radio also reported that President Abolhassan Bani-Sadr, Rejai, Majlis Speaker Hashem Rafsanjani and other leaders of the revolutionary regime met Monday night at Bani-Sadr's home to "discuss matters connected with the ministerial appointments and other major domestic issues."

Rajai on Sunday named a Cabinet of hard-liners, and Bani-Sadr was reported opposed to many of his choices. But the Majlis was expected to approve the lineup after a debate expected to start later this week.

Approval of the cabinet will be another step toward the Majlis debate on the fate of the hostages. But there is no indication when that might begin.

Meanwhile, in London, magistrates sentenced three Iranians convicted of offenses stemming from a violent anti-American demonstration outside the U.S. Embassy in the British capital last month.

One man convicted of assaulting a police officer was sentenced to three months in jail and the court recommended that he be deported.

Police Find Holiday Long On Thefts, Domestic Disturbances, Assaults

It was a long weekend for crime and domestic disturbance in Hereford over the Labor Day holiday as city police investigated no fewer than three vehicle thefts and a cluster of domestic disturbances, a number of which were accompanied by assaults.

Officers found a car this morning which had been stolen from the parking lot of Gebos Monday night.

The vehicle, owned by Kelly Baetty of 304 Ave. B, was taken sometime after 10 p.m. Monday.

Police have a suspect in that theft case.

Trucks were the targets of vehicle thieves here in a period from Saturday night into the wee hours of Sunday.

A 1965 two ton truck was taken from the Howard Gault produce shed on New York Avenue about 6 a.m. Sunday.

The vehicle has not yet been found and police are continuing their investigation in that theft.

A 1955 International grain truck loaded with grain was taken from Scott Seed Co. of Rt. 4 sometime after 10:30 Saturday night according to Richard Kuper.

The truck was found Sunday morning. The theft proved an expensive one for the truck's owners as the rear axle of the vehicle had been broken.

Hal Briggs of 433 Ave. I reported an incident of criminal mischief to police concerning damage to his Honda C-70.

The bike was moved from Briggs' residence and the headlight, blinkers and other equipment was vandalized, with damage estimated at $300.

Police have a suspect in the incident.

Numerous assault reports, most of them stemming from domestic disturbances, kept police busy over the weekend.

Assaults were reported at 210 Boston in the labor camp area, 319 West Second and at the KC Hall parking lot.

Assault incidents also involved juveniles in two cases. One disturbance Sunday involved three juveniles with one suffering a possible concussion and the other injuries during a disturbance. All three youths were turned over to juvenile authorities in that incident.

A juvenile was also hit by rocks thrown by other juveniles in a disturbance at the Grand Ave. Grocery.

Police are expected to file charges of aggravated assault in connection with an incident at 720 Ave. G in which Sylvia Chavez suffered cuts to her face and body.

Police arrested a Friona man yesterday on charges of criminal mischief connected with riding a motorcycle on the city golf course.

Officers also made an arrest in the 600 block of Whittier for unlawful carrying of a weapon. The suspect in that case reportedly had two pistols and a rifle in the vehicle with him.

Also investigated over the weekend was a report of criminal mischief at 113 Ave. F where someone damaged a chain link fence with their vehicle.

Bicycle thefts were reported from 223 Cherokee, 701 Stanton, and 123 Ave. A, while alert residents at 315 Ave. K, thwarted an attempted bicycle theft at that location.

Officers also investigated the theft of $100 from the Phillips 66 Station at Park and 385, the theft of a calculator from 110 Ave. K and the theft of a number of pool balls from 228 Aspen.

Police also checked into a threatening phone call and a threat to do bodily harm which occurred at a local convenience store.

In traffic-related matters police arrested a suspect at the intersection of Main and Highway 60 for reckless driving and worked two minor traffic accidents.

A total of 22 incident reports were filed with police from Saturday through Monday, and the long Labor Day weekend resulted in the issuing of 40 traffic citations.

Polish Strike Lingers

WARSAW, Poland (AP) — Remnants of Poland's strike wave lingered on today as miners at 10 coal mines in the southwest part of the country stayed off the job despite a tentative agreement reported between strike leaders and government negotiators.

Government sources told Western reporters the miners were balking on local issues, including safety regulations.

Warsaw Radio, which announced that the strike in the mines in Upper Silesia was still on, reported that a special government commission had returned to continue negotiations with the miners' leaders.

PAP, the official Polish news agency, announced late Monday that a tentative settlement had been reached giving the miners improved safety standards, their chief goal.

The announcement was made a few hours after the news agency reported eight miners killed and 18 injured in an accident at a mine near the Upper Silesian city of Katowice. The agency said a string of loaded coal wagons ran out of control in an underground shaft, "devastating the place where the miners were working." The mine was not among those that had been struck.

Mining accidents in the pits of Upper Silesia took 62 lives in the last three months of 1979.

Elsewhere in Poland, hundreds of thousands of workers throughout the nation returned to their jobs Monday following the signing of an agreement granting them concessions unprecedented for a Soviet Bloc nation.

To end the 18-day-old strike that idled some 600,000 workers in more than 20 cities, Communist Party chief Edward Giersek's regime agreed to write a new labor law giving the workers the right to strike and the right to form free and independent trade unions separate from the official unions controlled by the party.

The agreement also promised there would be no reprisals against strike leaders, a relaxation of censorship and increase access of the Roman Catholic Church to the media and the release of dissident intellectuals jailed for their support of the strikers.

For their part, the strikers accepted the supremacy of the Communist Party and declared their allegiance to the socialist system.

The agreement was signed Sunday in Gdansk, the prewar Baltic port of Danzig where the strike began Aug. 14 at the giant Lenin Shipyards. Strike leader Lech Walesa set up temporary headquarters for a new union Monday in a rundown building provided by the government in a Gdansk suburb. And in Warsaw, the government freed 31 political dissidents arrested because of their open support of the strikers. Jacek Kuron, a leading dissident who was among those freed Monday, predicted the Gdansk agreement would lead to "a step-by-step democratization of Polish society" without undermining the Communist Party or the nation's socialist system.

Elks Raise $13,871.06 During MD Tel-A-Thon

Local Elks were successful in raising a total of $13,871.06 during the Labor Day Muscular Dystrophy Tele-A-Thon announced Mort McCullough, general chairman for the event.

A total of $3,138 was raised through the Elks carnival and auction held at Dameron Park Sunday evening; special events raised $9,151.81; $2,993 was raised through pledges; and the fish bowl raised $1,549.83. Fund-raising events for the MD association included a Skate-a-thon, softball tournament, tele-a-thon, walk-a-thon, and swim-a-thon.

Approximately 20 MD workers were busy from 8 a.m. Sunday until 6:45 p.m. Monday answering telephones at the Hereford State Bank. Among those going the complete 22 hours were Mae West, Travis West, Bill Smith, Janis and Robert Holmes, and Mort McCullough.

More than $31 million was raised nationally for the Muscular Dystrophy Association, which was shown on KFDA-TV, Channel 10.

MDA maintains a clinic at Medi-Park, operates a summer camp for children with muscular dystrophy and related neuromuscular diseases at the Episcopal Church Conference Center in Amarillo, and supports research throughout the world, including research being done at Texas Tech University, right here in the Panhandle.

The Telethon supports MDA's research and patient care programs for children and adults afflicted by any of 40 neuromuscular diseases. MDA sponsors a nationwide network of more than 220 free diagnostic and treatment clinics.

Its worldwide research effort currently includes more than 750 individual projects and 10 major research-

Border Patrol Intercepts Van

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — Forty-one undocumented Salvadorans and Mexicans found packed "like cattle" in the back of a 24-foot rental van were being held here today after police and firefighters shared food with them and turned them over to border agents.

Meanwhile, the U.S. Border Patrol moved to arraign the van's two drivers. The 41 aliens — 34 Salvadorans, a Mexican woman and her six children aged three months to 11 years — could be returned to their native countries within two or three days, agents said.

It was believed to be the largest group of aliens intercepted since the July Fourth holiday weekend, when about 40 Salvadorans tried to enter the United States by crossing the desert on foot near Ajo, according to the Arizona Republic.

That attempt resulted in 13 deaths, including those of two men said to have been among the smugglers.

The aliens seized Monday were all reported to be in good condition.

The aliens were brought here from Globe, where the van had stopped at a convenience store before city police discovered its cargo of 11 men and 30 women and children. Many said they had been without sufficient food or sanitary facilities for more than two days.

"They were just packed in there like cattle," Globe Police dispatcher Della Peterson said. "It was a mess."

"They were all upset and crying about having to go back to El Salvador because of all the violence there," Ms. Peterson said. "One woman said all four of her brothers had been killed there. She said she and her son were the only ones left in the family."

Police and firefighters shared their own food with the aliens before handing them and the drivers over to the U.S. Border Patrol.

"I told the dispatcher that if they needed any help with

Reagan Rebukes Carter Campaign

By LEE BYRD
Associated Press Writer

Ronald Reagan has rebuked Jimmy Carter for opening his re-election campaign in the South and "the city that gave birth...to the Ku Klux Klan," even as the president used the occasion to denounce the racist organization.

Reagan's complaint came just one day after his national campaign chairman, Sen. Paul Laxalt of Nevada, had declared the Republican nominee "incapable" of using any tactic designed to link the president, either directly or indirectly, to the Klan.

Reagan was speaking to a gathering at the Michigan

State Fair, near Detroit, Monday night when he spotted one man wearing a Jimmy Carter mask.

"I thought you were in Alabama today," Reagan said.

Then he added: "You know, I kind of like the contrast, though. I'm happy to be here, where you're dealing at first hand with the economic problems that have been committed, and he's opening his campaign down in the city that gave birth to and is the parent body of the Ku Klux Klan."

Reagan, who opened his own post-convention cam-

Football Contest Begins Today

The Brand's annual Football Contest page, sponsored weekly by local merchants and firms, starts in today's newspaper with weekly cash prizes offered to the three top entrants.

Weekly prizes of $25, $15 and $10 in Deaf Smith County Bucks will go to the top three selectors. Three grand prizes will be offered at the end of the season, with each weekly winner being eligible for that contest.

The three grand prize will be $100, $35 and $15 in Hereford Bucks, which can be spent at any Deaf Smith County store.

It's easy to enter. Watch for the contest pages in each Tuesday's issue of The Brand. Pick the teams you think will win, mark them on the entry form and take the entry to The Brand office before 5 p.m. Friday.

Only one entry per person is eligible, and participants must be at least 8 years of age. If the entry form in The Brand is not used, a reasonable facsimile must be submitted in order that judges can grade the entries with a master card.

Don't forget to guess the total score of the tie-breaker game...it could make the difference on winning!

26 Texans Perish On Holiday Roads

AUSTIN, Texas (AP) — At least 26 people died on Texas highways during the long Labor Day holiday weekend and state troopers were "cautiously optimistic" the final count would fall below original predictions.

The Department of Public Safety had expected 45 people would die in traffic accidents between 6 p.m. Friday and midnight Monday.

But by late Monday, 26 highway deaths had been reported to the DPS.

"It does look good at this time, the count is lower than expected," DPS spokesman Bill Carter said. "We are cautiously optimistic that we might not reach 45."

Two young Fort Worth girls were killed Monday evening in a two-car collision in Fort Worth.

Police said Kimberly Bird, 9, and Leigh Bird, 5, died when a car driven by their mother collided with a car driven by Timothy Mitchell, 27. Pamela Bird, 30 was listed in guarded condition at a Fort Worth hospital and Mitchell was hospitalized in undetermined condition.

Emory Hill Hudson, 78, of Jefferson, died after being hit by a train at 11:12 a.m. Monday, inside the Jefferson city limits, Carter said. The accident took place on FM 49.

Another pedestrian, Gabriel DeLeon, 57, Waco, was a hit-run victim at 12:30 p.m. Monday when struck by an unknown vehicle on FM 1365 near Mexia, troopers reported.

Early Monday, a man died in a head-on collision north of San Angelo between a pickup and a semi-trailer rig.

The driver of the smaller truck, James Herman Knight, 49, of Bronte, died about 1:40 a.m. in the wreck on U.S. 277, near the town of Orient, Carter reported.

The driver of the big rig was hospitalized with a broken kneecap.

William Randolph Lane, 34, of Arlington, died in a one-vehicle rollover accident Monday afternoon north of Dublin in Erath County.

Republicans

Wield Toy Ducks

WASHINGTON (AP) — With Congress now almost certain to reconvene for a post-election session, Republicans wielding toy ducks and Democrats slinging indignation are battering each other regularly.

Each day for the past several weeks, the House has opened with criticism by GOP members at the Democrats for planning a "lame-duck" session in November.

Democrats are retaliating in kind. Speaker Thomas P. "Tip" O'Neill Jr. even ejected from the House the toy, bandaged plastic duck that Rep. Bud Shuster, R-Pa., had carried into the chamber to symbolize the lame-duck session.

Shuster later said: "Donald Democrat is suing the speaker. He doesn't understand why he's not allowed on the floor of the House when there are so many turkeys allowed."

Primary Being

Being Checked

LEONARD, Texas (AP) — Fannin County grand jurors are investigating a disputed Democratic primary runoff election where a recount showed the apparent winner lost 110 votes and the election.

"I've been ripped off," said Ray Grisham of Howe, whose apparently commanding lead in state representative race vanished in a recount.

"Leonard's a vicious town when it comes to politics," said David London, a Bailey horse rancher who demanded the recount and won the turbulent runoff.

That second tabulation angered many Leonard voters who have asked for a federal investigation while insisting that their ballots were changed.

"Why should we (bother to vote)?" asked one Leonard resident, who refused to give his name. "When the ballots get to Bonham (the county seat) somebody will just change them."

Fire Blackens

Texas Range Land

LUFKIN, Texas (AP) — Weary firefighters in East Texas got a break when fewer tourists than expected showed up for Labor Day weekend camping, but a large range fire scorched 8,000 acres of North Central Texas, authorities said.

On Monday, firemen battled five or six blazes in East Texas, bringing the weekend total to about 30 fires over 260 acres, Texas Forest spokesman Lou Sloat said.

Sloat said only about a third of the campers expected visited the piney woods over the weekend and cooperated very well with outdoor burning restrictions.

Most of the fires were blamed on lightning or arson, so "the public cooperated pretty well with our debris burning request," Sloat said.

Well Workers

Holding Off

PORT O'CONNOR, Texas (AP) — Workers held off boarding the twisted wreckage of an offshore runaway gas well for fear the natural plug that choked the flow of gas could fail and trigger another fiery eruption.

Three workers are still missing following the early Saturday morning explosion that killed two, injured seven and turned the rig, located 18 miles out in the Gulf of Mexico, into an inferno.

For more than 24 hours flames spouted as high as 100 feet into the air, hindering search efforts with the intense heat. The blaze was extinguished Sunday when the well bore collapsed — "bridged over" — shutting off the flow of natural gas.

Kent Young, a spokesman for Tulsa-based Cities Service Co., said Sunday that the "bridging" was holding.

"Every once in a while there's a little burp of bubbling water, every two hours or so. But there's no gas coming from the well," said Young.

However, he said efforts to inspect the burned rig "Ocean King" and search for the missing crewmen would be delayed by the threat of another blowout.

Accidents

Claim 453

By The Associated Press
Traffic accidents across the nation during the three-day holiday weekend claimed at least 453 lives, according to an unofficial tally by The Associated Press.

The National Safety Council estimated before the three-day holiday began that between 450 and 550 people could die on streets and highways between 6 p.m. Friday and midnight Monday.

Last year, 502 people were killed during the Labor Day weekend. The highest traffic toll for the holiday was 688 in 1968.

Mostly clear skies covered Texas Tuesday as scattered showers and thundershowers dissipated over the South Plains and southwestern portions of the state.

Texas Briefs

POTTSBORO, Texas (AP)

Two Dallas high school students died when their boat was struck broadside by another craft on Lake Texoma, according to a Grayson County Sheriff's Department spokesman.

Stacy Donovan and Sheila Starmer, both 15, died instantly Saturday after a small boat driven by Jerry Donovan, Stacy Donovan's twin brother, swerved to miss a sailboat and ran into the path of the larger craft.

Donovan, 15, and Shannon Sherrard, 15, of Denison, Texas, were both treated for injuries at Texoma Medical Center and released.

The spokesman said the accident occurred about dusk and that both boats had their running lights on. The driver of the second boat was not injured.

FORT WORTH, Texas (AP) — Arson is suspected as the cause of a $200,000 fire that destroyed the home of a man who died last week, firefighters said.

The fire, reported about 4:30 a.m. Monday, gutted the two-story home of Arthur Cal Elsholtz, who died last week in Michigan. Family members were away when the fire started.

Investigators said at least two separate fires were started in the house, apparently by burglars.

FORT WORTH, Texas (AP) — A "very suspicious" four-alarm fire gutted a brick warehouse owned by a wholesale musical instruments company, a fire investigator said.

The blaze was reported about 6:20 p.m. Monday by a passing motorist who told firefighters he had heard a burglar alarm inside the building about an hour before, said Capt. W.E. Durkin.

"He (the motorist) looked over the building and left," Durkin said. "He returned later and saw smoke coming from the second floor."

Fire destroyed another warehouse owned by the company last year, said Durkin, who added that the firm was scheduled to move into a new building next week.

Last year's fire, which caused more than $2 million in damages, was considered suspicious and arson was suspected, the investigator said. Durkin said the cause of Monday's fire will be listed as undetermined until investigators sift through debris and take samples.

Estes Mansion Goes on Auction

PECOS, Texas (AP) — The three-level mansion Billie Sol Estes built here during the early 1950s while the convicted swindler was amassing a personal fortune goes on the auction block today.

The proceeds will go to pay off back taxes, but officials said they feared the once-magnificent homestead — now occupied by a home for women in trouble — would not bring enough money to pay all the taxes owed.

Both federal and local taxing authorities claimed first privilege at the money. The Internal Revenue Service claims $185,000 in back income taxes against the house. The city and county say $30,000 is due in back property taxes.

The eight-bedroom, six-bathroom estate — not counting a bathroom by the former pool — sits on an acre and a half of land and is appraised by local officials at $82,115.

Estes, 55, is now a prisoner in the federal prison in Big Spring, where he was transferred last month from La Tuna Correctional Institute north of El Paso. Prison officials said the move was made to allow Estes to be closer to his family in Abilene.

Estes and his family moved to Abilene in 1963 after a bullet was fired through a window in the Pecos home and a cross was burned on his front yard. The incidents came two years after the scandal erupted that led to indictments and convictions against Estes for fraud.

The Pecos homestead was built on the site of a former swimming pool after Estes, a farm implement salesman, moved here in 1951. It was small at first, but as Estes' wealth grew, he added on until the cottage became one of the finest and biggest mansions in Pecos at the time.

Today it is occupied by a group called "The Way In," a locally sponsored home for battered or deserted wives, unwed mothers, and other women who need a place to stay temporarily.

The backyard swimming pool where the Estes family once frolicked in high style is now a vegetable garden. It developed a crack and the women had it filled with dirt, where the cultivation of tomatoes and peas offsets their grocery bill.

Letter to the Editor

A couple of weekends ago, my husband played in a softball tournament in Hereford sponsored by the Elks Lodge and to benefit Muscular Dystrophy. He broke his ankle requiring surgery while playing.

I just want to thank the Elks and those who gave for a collection for him. As he will be off work for several weeks, this certainly is appreciated. Also, we want to thank the Elks who sent him cards and stopped by to see him in the hospital. It is nice to know that there are still people around who will do something like this. Thanks again.

John & Cindy Casey
Amarillo, Tx.

By The Mr.; something which I could not abide since I do not believe that women are property owned by their husbands. At least that is how Mrs. looks. Actually Mrs. is an abbreviation for Mistress and 300 years ago this address was used for unmarried women while Madame was used for married women. This latter piece of information shows that the language can change.

Your paper reported that I am hesitant to give lectures on this subject until I learn some patness and grace in answering often-asked questions. Wrong! I am well-versed and ready to lecture at any time. However, I did admit to a lack of aggressiveness about my position that allows awkward situations to creep up still.

The Brand quotes me as saying that Democrats are disappearing here. Never would I make such a statement seriously! I did comment that Young Democrat Clubs are scarce in the Panhandle because the need is not as acute here as in the urban areas.

It is also incorrect for you to quote me as saying that "It's a requirement that you live on the campus for the first two years" since it is required by Tech only that one take 24 hours in two consecutive semesters, or eight months.

I am a doctoral (not doctorate) student and I am the youngest of six (not five as reported in the article). Most importantly, the article missed the whole point of my principles of nomenclature. I DO NOT USE A MAIDEN NAME. To say that is to imply that I recognize and condone a maiden-married name system which I most emphatically do not do. I USE MY OWN NAME. There is a vast difference. When has anyone walked up to a married man going by the name on his birth certificate and said, "Oh, I see you use your maiden name." Never, because it is preposterous to approach him in that manner. It should be equally ridiculous to talk to any married woman that way.

Despite the mistakes, the article sounded good and was well-intentioned. I certainly appreciate your interest and attention.

Cordially yours, Lois

(Editor's Note: In defense of our reporter, it is apparent that there are not as many "mistakes" as you claim. It's simply that the article wasn't written as you would have liked, nor did it fully expound on your opinions. Perhaps your letter will serve that purpose.)

Campaign

paing a month ago in a southern city which is no stranger to racial violence, referred to Carter's Labor Day visit to a picnic in Tusculumbia, Ala.

The president's appearance there was preceded by a peaceful march through the downtown area by about 40 Klansmen. Carter denounced them in his remarks, saying that "as a southerner, it makes me angry to see them with a Confederate battle flag."

The president called the Klansmen people "who practice cowardice and who counsel fear and hatred... Sometimes I see the raising of a cross and I remember that the one who was crucified taught us to have faith, to hope and not to hate, but to love one another."

Asked to explain Reagan's reference to the Klan, press secretary Lyn Nofziger said Reagan had seen a newspaper and a television report about a Klan headquarters in Tusculumbia. But early today, another Reagan aide, who asked not to be identified, said it was Nofziger's idea to raise the Klan issue and that Reagan, in fact, later regretted doing so.

According to the Encyclopedia Americana, the Klan originated in Pulaski, Tenn., about 50 miles from Tusculumbia. But one of several modern-day Klan groups, the Knights of the KKK, moved its headquarters to Tusculumbia from Metairie, La., just last month.

Nofziger said Reagan was "trying to contrast the fact that he's up here talking to workers and Carter's down there in a safe part of the country."

But Reagan, in fact, had chosen Philadelphia, Miss., as the site of his own first post-convention speech on Aug. 4, where he affirmed his belief in states' rights. Three civil rights workers were killed near Philadelphia in 1964, and Reagan's appearance — and remarks — there were viewed with distaste by many black leaders.

While Reagan was in New Jersey and Michigan on Monday, his running mate, George Bush, was campaigning in Darlington, S.C., with Sen. Strom Thurmond, a onetime segregationist candidate for president who since has declared a belief in shared opportunity.

On Sunday, Laxalt sent an open letter to editorial writers around the country in which he complained that a Carter cabinet member, Health Secretary Patricia Harris, had said early this summer that when she hears the name Reagan she "sees a specter of white sheets." Mrs. Harris is black.

Laxalt said her veiled reference to the Klan typified the "fear tactics and personal innuendo" which marked Carter campaigns of the past. But Reagan, Laxalt said, is "incapable of similar tactics." Carter, in his remarks to a crowd estimated at 25,000 to 40,000 persons, declared "It's good to be home" in the South. At one point he said that "after years of decline under Republicans before I took office, we have steadily rebuilt our military capabilities. I wouldn't be a true Southerner if I hadn't done that in the White House."

While the president later played host to 1,000 labor leaders on the White House lawn, Reagan munched a hot dog in a backyard in suburban Detroit and told a group of jobless men and women that Carter's economic plan won't work and is merely "a crazy quilt of obvious election-year promises."

In Park Forest, Ill., independent challenger John B. Anderson said that as president he would call labor and industry leaders together and "We're going to talk — I don't care how long it takes — until we agree on what would be fair and reasonable guidelines for both wage and price increases... so we can restrain inflation."

Anderson headed for Detroit today, while Reagan remained there for talks with auto industry executives and workers before returning to the Washington area. President Carter was off on a traditional trip to Harry S. Truman's hometown of Independence, Mo., where he was to speak at a "Town Meeting" and visit Truman's widow, Bess.

grub, we had a big pot of beans if they wanted it," said Fire Department engineer Steve Arthur.

Ms. Peterson said at least one of the drivers was a Californian who officers recognized from a previous smuggling arrest in Globe.

Assistant Chief Ronald Johnson of the Border Patrol

Federal officials said the two would be charged with alien smuggling.

The drivers and the 11 adult Salvadoran males were being held at the Glendale city jail, but the women and children were being housed at an undisclosed site "more compatible with family care," officials said.

Johnson said none of the aliens had requested political asylum, and those not needed as witnesses could be home "in two to three days."

Increasing numbers of

'Tension Quotient' Developed

HOUSTON (AP) — A Houston psychologist says he has developed a test that helps a worker measure his ability to manage aggression, anxiety, endurance and other stress factors that lead to hardship on the job and trouble at home.

Michael S. Haro, an associate professor in the School of Education at the University of Houston at Clear Lake City, calls his test the "Tension Quotient."

He has given the 33-question quiz to 500 oil company workers who volunteered to take the TQ test during the last year.

"I think the TQ could be of help to just about anybody holding a job," Haro said. "It points out areas where someone might be particularly vulnerable to problems and yet might not be aware of them."

He said the scores belong to individual employees and will never be used for or against employees.

"They can discuss the tests with others if they wish but no one but the employee and I know the scores," he said.

Haro said most people have no major tension-related problems until something extraordinary is added, such as divorce, death of a loved one, a too-demanding boss or a serious disease.

"Just because someone has a high-stress job, though, doesn't mean he or she cannot handle the tensions," he said. "In fact, lots of people seem to thrive on their stresses."

The TQ test is divided into six categories and includes an assessment by the employee of his personality type.

Many individuals are "completely unaware of just how stressful their jobs may be," Haro said.

"And then if they have serious stresses in their families or even on the freeways they can get into trouble," he said.

Haro added that many companies lose considerable money when workers are absent due to stressful situations.

"I think employers could intervene to help those who are excessively absent,"

Haro said. "Then they should watch for accidents caused by carelessness or inattention, followed sometimes by employees' increasing dependence on alcohol."

Taxi Fleet

The first fleet of motorized taxis in the United States made its debut in 1907. New Yorkers blinked in amazement as the shiny red, high-seated taximeter cabs imported from Paris drove up in front of the Plaza Hotel to give guests free rides as publicity. The word "taxicab" was coined in New York. "Taxi" came from a French company that made taximeters for horse carriages; cab abbreviated the French word for cabriolet, a light one-horse carriage.

At Wits End

By ERMA BOMBECK

There's at least one in every crowd - the woman who does not want to "bring a child into this lousy, mixed-up world."

I met one the other night who said children were just "ego trips" for parents who liked to see their own image staring back at them over the breakfast table. She added, "I can't come up with one reason for having them."

What a pity. According to my children, there were a lot of reasons for my having them.

I needed a personal slave...someone to answer the phone, get my sweater, find my glasses, get my keys out of the door, unload the groceries, go to the store, let the dog out, and move the hose.

I needed someone around the house to eat the leftovers the dog wouldn't touch.

I needed someone to shove out of the car to throw their body over the last picnic table while we found a place to park.

I needed a live-in who would assist in raising a younger brother or sister by taking them to the bathroom every five minutes and sitting with them for free on New Year's Eve.

I needed an excuse for my saddlebag hips and flabby upper arms.

I needed "material" for the Christmas newsletter and a three-times-a-week column.

I needed someone to mail letters for me when it rained.

I needed someone to practice medicine on. ("Turn down that record or you'll go deaf!")

I needed someone to spy on and make me feel important.

That's their story. Mine is even more biased.

I brought children into this lousy, mixed-up world because when you love someone and they love you back, the world doesn't look that lousy or seem that mixed-up.

I gave them life because they have the same right I was given to make up their own minds as to what makes a good or a bad world.

More than an image over the breakfast table, they are special to this universe now and will be long after I am gone.

Some parents must take the risks...if we don't, who will be left to listen to the young people who lament, "I don't want to bring children into this lousy, mixed-up world"?

Family Night Set for Sept. 11

By AGNES TAYLOR
Ass't County Extension Agent

September is the month set aside for recruiting potential 4-H members into the Extension 4-H program. A "Family Fun Night" will be held September 11th at 6:30 p.m. in the Hereford Community Center to serve as a recruitment night. 4-H families will provide a covered dish supper. 4-H teen leaders and County Extension Agents will be available to discuss the 4-H program and organize new clubs for potential members.

If you are interested in placing your family in 4-H, please make plans to attend this fun-filled evening and meet 4-H families.

4-H is an exciting youth program that helps young people learn how to do new and interesting things through learn-by-doing projects. Boys and girls ages 9-19 take part in 4-H by joining a 4-H club.

A 4-H club is made up of boys and girls who participate in 4-H projects, run their own club, elect officers, and develop their own program with the help of adult volunteer leaders. Improving leadership and citizenship are two of the greatest benefits of 4-H club membership. Above all, 4-H is educational. 4-H explores everything from rabbits to rockets, from canning to camping, from square dancing to veterinary science.

Attend the 4-H recruitment meeting September 11th at 6:30 p.m. in the Community Center and find out what 4-H has to offer your family. If you are interested and unable to attend, contact Agnes Taylor or Robby Van at the County Extension Service, 364-3573.

The Newspaper Bible

YOU HAVE GREAT FAITH? PROVE IT!

Dear brothers, what's the use of saying that you have faith and are Christians if you aren't proving it by helping others? Will that kind of faith save anyone?

If you have a friend who is in need of food and clothing, and you say to him, "Well, good-bye and God bless you; stay warm and eat hearty," and then don't give him clothes or food, what good does that do?

So you see, it isn't enough just to have faith. You must also do good to prove that you have it. Faith that doesn't show itself by good works is no faith at all - it is dead and useless.

But someone may well argue, "You say the way to God is by faith alone, plus nothing; well, I say that good works are important too, for without good works you can't prove whether you have faith or not; but anyone can see that I have faith by the way I act."

Are there still some among you who hold that "only believing" is enough? Believing in one God? Well, remember that the devils believe this too - so strongly that they tremble in terror!

Legal Secretaries Offer Law Course

The Deaf Smith - Castro Counties Legal Secretaries Association will offer a course covering the Texas Law Office Handbook Monday, Sept. 8 in the Hereford State Bank Community Room beginning at 8 p.m.

A fee of $55 for members of the Legal Secretaries Assoc., and $75 for non-members will be charged for the course.

Examinations and certification will be given by the Legal Education committee of the Texas Association of Legal Secretaries.

Instructors for the course will be local attorneys and accountants.

For further information on the course, one may contact Mildred Sheffy at 364-0276.

Weekend Workshop Available For Local 4-H Horse Leaders

4-H Horse project leaders from Deaf Smith County are encouraged to attend a September 12-14 weekend workshop at the Texas 4-H Center near Brownwood.

Assistant - County Extension Agent, Robby Vann, notes that the workshop will include a wide variety of 4-H horse project helps for teens and adult volunteers.

Topics to be covered include many methods to strengthen the 4-H club or county horse program. Special features on horse project related activities will also be a part of this workshop.

Featured instructors for the workshop are Dr. Doug Householder and B.F. Yeates, Extension Horse specialists and Dr. Bill Jackson, area 4-H and Youth Specialist.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: For too long emphasis in America has been on youth. So many people dread old age as if it were a disease. Will you please print my prayer? I speak for millions of people who cannot speak for themselves. Thank you. - Unbowed In The Middle East

Tribute to Senior Citizens

DEAR UNBOWED: With pleasure. I'm sure the Gray Panthers will love it. Here it is:

Dear Lord, thank you for making me aware that I am important though I am old, that I have potential and can be a loving, caring person and make a contribution to society as long as I live. Keep me involved in activities that can help change this sick world and make it more just and human for everyone.

Help me use my leisure time in constructive ways.

Help me deal with my infirmities and have the courage to be active and involved in spite of them.

Help me to dispel the myths society now has of older people, changing the negative image of the old into a positive one.

Help me to be effective as a role model to help young people realize that old can be a

Teen Dance Scheduled This Friday

This Friday, following Hereford High Schools first football game of the season, a Teen Dance will be held at the Community Center from 9-12 p.m. This will be sponsored by the Community Center.

"Super Disco," a Canyon disc jockey, will provide the music and refreshments will be provided.

Tickets will be available at the door for $3 per person or $5 a couple.

good time of life. Amen.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: The man I have been living with for a few years has asked me to marry him, and I am very excited. The problem is his daughter. "Mary" is planning her own wedding for September and is in the process of milking her father for everything she can get her hands on.

The little chiseler never calls her dad unless she needs money or something is wrong with her car. I am tired of this girl treating him like he was her personal mechanic or a printing press that turns out money.

"Mary" has a good job, and so does her future husband. Aren't THEY responsible for some of the wedding expenses, or does Daddy have to pay for everything? I'd like to have a few bucks left over for our wedding. What do you say, Ann Landers? I am ready to slap her silly. - TNT Situation In Ottawa

DEAR TNT: I say YOU are the one who is going to get blown out of the picture if you don't cool it. Daddy's girl invariably manages to win these three-way tug o' wars. If you want to have a decent relationship with your gentleman friend, you'd better learn to get along with "Mary." She's going to be part of the picture forever, so get accustomed to the scenery or opt for another view.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: I am a 15-year-old girl who is petrified of anything that crawls. Ants, spiders, roaches, bugs of all kinds scare me stiff. The sight of an earthworm or a caterpillar is enough to make me nearly faint.

A girlfriend of mine has a cousin who is into snakes. He wants to be a herpetologist. She has handled his snakes and says it doesn't bother her a bit.

Please tell me how to get over my phobia. I know it's not normal, and I'm ashamed to appear so childish. - St. Thomas Reader

DEAR READER: Read up on bugs and snakes and become informed. They are fascinating creatures. Then start by holding an ant in your hand - or a firefly. Once you begin to learn about this wonderful world, your fears will decrease. When you can enjoy them, it will be a great victory.

There is a big difference between cold and cool. Ann Landers shows you how to play it cool without freezing people out in her booklet, "Teen-Age Sex - Teri Ways to Cool it." Send 50 cents and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope to Ann Landers, P.O. Box 11995, Chicago, Illinois 60611.

Local Witnesses To Travel To Amarillo for Convention

Members of the Hereford congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses will travel to Amarillo Sept. 13 and 14 for their semi-annual convention with the theme, "Set Apart From The World" as the main thought of the convention.

Jerry Johnson, presiding overseer of the local congregation, said the principle speaker of the assembly, Angelo C. Manera Jr., a widely traveled minister of the watchtower society, will deliver the main bible discourse Sunday, Sept. 14 at 2 p.m. on the subject, "Our Refuge and Increasing Dangers."

Manera will speak on the subject of increasing dangers for today's Christians. "The danger of spiritual calamity is more serious than that of physical because it could lead to eternal destruction with no hope of resurrection," is one of the thoughts given by the speaker.

The district overseer will speak on the bible topics throughout the convention. One other public address is entitled "Christians set apart from the world" and will be given as the welcoming address of the convention.

Manera will give the opening address which is designed to encourage Christians to follow in the footsteps of Christ and be clean in their conduct in the world.

Local ministers will speak on various subjects of the Bible. Among them will be Bernie Boice, Pampa, who will give a talk entitled "Cultivating the Pioneer Spirit."

Encouragement for those in the field of ministry full time will be the main point of the talk.

Highlight of the convention will be baptism services held at 10:45 a.m. Saturday. Following that will be noon meal served on location.

The public is cordially invited to attend the entire convention. A special invitation is extended for the public talk Sunday at the Civic Center Auditorium in Amarillo at 3rd and Buchanan at 2 p.m.

Sheriff's Department Slates Benefit Show

The Deaf Smith County Sheriff's Department has scheduled their annual benefit show for Sept. 27 at the High School auditorium beginning at 8 p.m.

Highlight of the show will be the performance of Buck Trent, feature performer on "Hew Haw," and world's most proficient banjoist.

Tickets for the benefit show are on sale at the Sheriff's Department and K-Bob's Steak House for $5 a person. Reserved tickets, made in advance, are available for $6.

Proceeds from this show will go to Kids Incorp., and the high school rodeo team.

The public is invited to attend this benefit show.

PARADISE MANGO CAKE

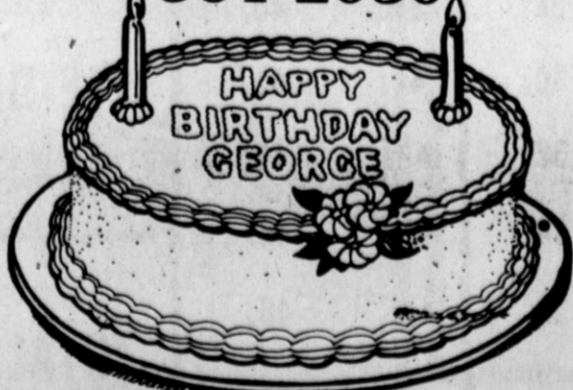

- 3-1/2 cups flour
- 3 teaspoons baking powder
- 1-1/2 teaspoon soda
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 2 teaspoons cinnamon
- 2 cups sugar
- 1/4 cup oil
- 4 eggs
- 3 cups Calavo mango, mashed (approximately 3-4 mangos)
- 2 teaspoons grated orange rind
- 1/2 cup shelled walnuts, chopped

Sift dry ingredients together into a large bowl. Add remaining ingredients, and mix thoroughly. Pour into a greased and floured 10-inch bundt pan. Bake at 350° for 50-60 minutes, or until toothpick comes out clean.

For as little as $7.84 you can let everyone know you're sending special greetings to that certain loved one or friend.

The Hereford Brand Display Advertising Department will be very happy to help you, whether it be a Birthday, Anniversary, Graduation, Birth Announcement, Promotion, or other greeting.

GET READY FOR FALL!
MARY ANNE PASCHAL
LOST 22 LBS. & 45 IN.!

The radiant beauty of a slender figure, dramatically illustrated here by Mary Anne Paschal, undoubtedly is the most obvious advantage you'll derive from losing unwanted weight at Pat Walker's. Improved appearance, however, is only part of the story; Ms. Paschal cites other benefits:

"There are absolutely no gimmicks, no calorie counting, no carbohydrate counting, no special foods - thus enabling the patron to continue on her own to manage her weight forever. Two important additional benefits are the renewed energy for zestful living and the uplifted spirit as the 'new you' emerges...In my opinion there is no better way to lose excess pounds and inches."

Reduce with dignity
Pat Walker's is not a gym, spa or health club. Rather it is an elegantly decorated salon in which you can shape your figure pleasantly and privately - without stringent diets or strenuous exercises. And you'll enjoy:

- a proven program of weight reduction
- safe passive exercise
- a personalized program to meet your needs
- guidance from trained professional counselors

Higheasterjet Wins American Futurity

RUIDOSO DOWNS (AP) — Sometimes unruly but always ready to run, Higheasterjet outdueled previously undefeated Mighty Deck Three to capture the 22nd running of the $1.2 million All-American Quarter Horse Futurity Monday.

Higheasterjet, owned by Gerald Highsmith of La Grange, Texas collected the first-place purse of $440,000 with a nose victory over the highly favored Mighty Deck Three.

Running next to the rail, Higheasterjet covered the 440-yard distance in 22.15 seconds. The big gelding went of at 13 to 1 and returned $28.60, $6.40 and $3.40.

Mighty Deck Three, who came into the Futurity with nine straight victories and the reputation of being unbeatable, paid $2.80 and $2.20.

Third place went to another colt, Mystic Eye, who paid $4. Mighty Deck Three, owned by Dan and Jolene Urschel of Canadian, Texas, picked up the second place purse of $178,000. Mystic Eye, the property of the McDermott Ranch of Madisonville, Texas earned $83,000.

The most prestigious quarter horse racing event turned into a two-horse match right out of the gates. Higheasterjet, as has been his trademark throughout his brief racing career, ducked in shortly after the break but jockey W.R. Hunt quickly straightened the speedster out.

Midway down the track, Higheasterjet opened up a length lead on the field. Mighty Deck Three, at this point, got rolling and began to close ground on the leader.

Higheasterjet refused to fold, and as the two colts neared the wire, Mighty 2-year-olds this season.

Mystic Eye, who broke from the No. 10 post position, also was closing much ground at the end and finished third, a quarter of a length behind Higheasterjet and boosted his earnings to $450,255. He went into the race with earnings of just over $6,200.

Mighty Deck Three, who saw his bid to become only the fourth winner of both the $587,500 Rainbow Futurity and the All-American broken by Higheasterjet, hiked his impressive money line to $424,840.

The victory culminated a rags-to-riches drama for Highsmith, the one-time La Grange service station attendant and construction worker who had to borrow the money to purchase Higheasterjet's dam two years ago.

In fact, Higheasterjet would never have been in the futurity field had not three of Highsmith's friends — L.E. Willis, Allen Taylor, and Myron Palermo, all of San Antonio, Texas — not put up a $10,000 late fee just to get the horse in the trials.

Highsmith had decided not to try to pay the expensive late fee by himself after the colt veered sharply in the trials for the Rainbow Futurity and was disqualified.

Six Fols, who went out as the second favorite, was never in the race. The colt broke directly left and, despite the urging of jockey Gary Sumpter, was never a factor.

Quarterbacks Get Trimmed

By BOB GREENE
AP Sports Writer

A scrambling quarterback puts a lot of pressure on the defense in the National Football League. Today, though, the pressure is on the quarterbacks who are scrambling for jobs.

NFL teams had to get down to their 45-player limit by Monday night, and a lot of quarterbacks found themselves looking for another team rather than a wide-open pass receiver.

Bob Lee, who came out of retirement late last year and directed the Super Bowl-bound Los Angeles Rams to victories over San Francisco and Minnesota, was cut by the Rams. An 11-year NFL veteran, Lee played two years with the Atlanta Falcons and eight years with Minnesota, twice going to Super Bowls with the Vikings.

The St. Louis Cardinals dropped quarterback Steve Pisarkiewicz, who cost Bud Wilkinson his job as St. Louis' head coach last year. Wilkinson was fired by Cards owner Bill Bidwill after he refused to play the former No.1 draft pick from Missouri.

Other veteran signal-callers who were waived Monday include Gary Huff by the San Francisco 49ers, Jerry Golsteyn by the Baltimore Colts, Norris Weese by the Denver Broncos, Kim McQuilken by the Washington Redskins, Mike Kirkland by the San Diego Chargers and Ed Burns by the New Orleans Saints.

Rookie quarterbacks cut were Steve Ensminger of Louisiana State by the Saints, Jimmy Jordan of Florida State by the New England Patriots and Jeff Knapple of Colorado by the Broncos.

Reserve quarterbacks Cliff Olander, who has thrown just 24 passes in three years with San Diego, and Mark Miller were luckier. Olander was traded to the New York Giants for an undisclosed future draft choice while Miller was dealt by the Cleveland Browns to Green Bay.

Besides Pisarkiewicz, the Cardinals asked waivers on veteran place-kicker Roy Gerela and three other players, including 11-year veteran defensive end Ron Yankowski. Veteran wide receiver Dwight Scales was among four players cut by the New York Giants.

The Tampa Bay Buc-

by Los Angeles; offensive lineman Bob Van Dyne, Baltimore; cornerback Gerard Williams, San Francisco; center Jim Pietrzak, tackle Cleveland Elam and punter Larry Swider, Detroit; and fullback Jimmy DuBoise, Miami.

The Dallas Cowboys placed veterans Preston Pearson and Aaron Kyle on the injured reserve list, meaning they will not be eligible to play for the team this season unless they first clear no-recall waivers.

Guard Wade Key, a 10-year veteran, was waived by Philadelphia while the Seattle Seahawks cut veteran guard Ron Coder.

In another trade, Cleveland obtained Joe DeLamielleure, the long-time Buffalo Bills guard who teamed with Reggie McKenzie to anchor the "Electric Company" line which blocked for O.J. Simpson.

caners waived wide receiver Danny Buggs and running back Tony Davis, bringing their roster to only 44 players, one under the regular-season minimum. That spot will be filled by a place-kicker since the Bucs cut their only one, Neil O'Donoghue, over the weekend.

Among other veterans placed on waivers were: linebacker Greg Westbrook

New Orleans; center Ted Fritsch and running back Bobby Hammond, Washington; safety Doug Beaudoin and linebacker Sam Hunt, New England; running back Haskel Stanback, Atlanta; wide receiver Larry Brunson, Oakland; safety Marvin Cobb and wide receiver Billy Brooks, Cincinnati; tight end Conrad Rucker, Houston; offensive

Pooley, Trevino, Johnson Do Well In B.C. Open

ENDICOTT, N.Y. (AP) — Conventional wisdom says there's only one winner in a golf tournament. But Don Pooley, Lee Trevino and Doug Johnson all got what they wanted out of the B.C. Open.

For Pooley, his victory Sunday in the $275,000 Professional Golfers' Association event meant an invitation to play the Masters Tournament next April.

Trevino won an edge in his duel with Tom Watson for the Vardon Trophy, which is awarded for lowest scoring average. And Johnson won a tour card and an escape from special Monday qualifying.

After completing his rags-to-riches story with a 3-under-par 68 in the final round on the 6,941-yard En-Joie Golf Club course, Pooley said the triumph — his first in five years on the tour — exceeded his dreams.

"I wasn't obsessed with winning — but I sure wanted it bad. The only goal I had this year was to finish in the top 30 money winners so I could qualify for the U.S. Open. Now I'm really looking forward to the Masters," he said.

His 72-hole total of 271 was one stroke ahead of 26-year-old Peter Jacobsen, another of the young lions on the tour, and two strokes ahead of Trevino, defending champion Howard Twitty and Bob Murphy.

Nancy Lopez-Melton Earns LPGA Win

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP) — Nancy Lopez-Melton says it was good putting under pressure that earned her victory in the $125,000 LPGA Rail Charity Classic.

Lopez-Melton sank a 10-foot birdie putt on the 18th hole in rallying to a 1-stroke win Monday over JoAnne Carner.

Carner sank a 12-foot putt for par on the 18th before Lopez-Melton rolled in her birdie. Carner had led Melton by two strokes at the start of the fourth round.

The first-place finish was worth $18,750 for Lopez-Melton, who had a 68 for the day and 13-under-par 275 for the tourney. Carner had 71 for the fourth round and 276 for the tourney.

"JoAnne got a tough break with her divot at 18," Lopez-Melton said. "I was glad to see she made the par putt and I won with a birdie. I feel now like I won the tournament."

Carner, 41, of Lake Worth, Fla., lost her two-stroke advantage with bogeys on the fourth and 12th holes. She had three birdies and missed a 4-foot birdie try on the 17th green.

Lopez-Melton rolled in four birdies. The greens were a bit soggy after mid-morning rains.

Jane Blalock finished third with a 7-under-par 281 for the 18-hole, 6,278-yard, par-72 course. Blalock, 34, of Highland Beach, Fla., turned in a final-round card with a 2-under-par 70.

Lopez-Melton, who vied throughout the four-day tournament with Carner for the lead, shot a course record-tying 65 on Friday during the opening round.

On Saturday, Carner broke the course record with a 9-under-par 63, the best round of her 11-year career.

The tournament's defending champion, JoAnn Washam finished nine strokes back.

Reggie Jackson Clips Centerfield Homer

Yankees Rout Oakland

By KEN RAPPOPORT
AP Sports Writer

Reggie Jackson is back. No, he hasn't been away — he just hasn't been hitting home runs.

"I'm glad I finally hit one...that was a long time for me," said the New York Yankee slugger after breaking a dry spell with a tape-measure shot that helped the American League East leaders beat the Oakland A's 5-0 Monday.

The Jackson blast, a moon shot deep into the right-center field seats at Yankee Stadium, was his 35th of the season, but only his first since Aug. 19. The power-hitting outfielder had gone through 11 games and 37 at-bats before connecting.

Over his career, he has averaged a home run every 13 times up.

The victory kept the Yankees 1 1/2 games ahead of the Baltimore Orioles, who defeated the Seattle Mariners 5-4 Monday night.

In other AL action, Boston beat California 4-3; Milwaukee defeated Kansas City 6-1; Texas routed Toronto 9-1; Chicago whipped Detroit 11-3 and Cleveland stopped Minnesota 5-2.

Jackson's homer followed one by Oscar Gamble, his 10th, in the sixth inning to provide the Yankees with their final margin.

Orioles 5, Mariners 4
Ken Singleton drove in three runs with two homers and Gary Roenicke added a solo shot, as Baltimore defeated Seattle. Singleton connected in the first inning after Mike Parrott, 1-12, retired the first two batters.

In the fifth, Singleton's 20th homer followed a single by Al Bumby.

Roenicke's eighth homer came in the sixth. The Baltimore left fielder also threw out Mario Mendoza at the plate in the fifth when he tried to score on a line drive out by Larry Milbourne with the Orioles ahead 2-1.

Winner Dennis Martinez, 4-3, allowed 10 hits before getting relief help in the eighth.

Red Sox 4, Angels 3
Dick Drago, making his first start in more than a year, allowed five hits in 62-3 innings and Boston used a four-run third inning and three relief pitchers to beat California.

Drago, 5-5, whose last start was Aug. 5, 1979 in Milwaukee, blanked the Angels on three hits for six innings before needing help from Bob Stanley in the seventh. Bill Campbell gained his 20th save after entering the game in the eighth.

Brewers 6, Royals 1
Bob McClure, making the first start of his major league career, pitched a six-hitter to lead Milwaukee over Kansas City.

Cecil Cooper drove in two runs with a pair of singles to lift his AL-leading RBI total to 103. Kansas City's George Brett, meanwhile, was held to one single in four at-bats as his average slipped to .401.

McClure, 2-6, had made 212 consecutive relief appearances before getting the start in place of injured Paul Mitchell. The left-hander struck out one and walked four, retiring 13 of 14 batters during one stretch.

Rangers 9, Blue Jays 1
John Grubb drove in five runs with a three-run homer and a double as Texas defeated Toronto behind the seven-hit pitching of Doc Medich.

Grubb's fourth homer keyed a six-hit, five-run third inning off Toronto's Joe McLaughlin, 4-8. The Rangers scored four more runs in the fourth on Grubb's double and Pat Putnam's 10th homer.

Medich improved his record 11-9.

White Sox 11, Tigers 3
Jim Morrison and Glenn Borgmann each belted home runs to back the combined seven-hit pitching of Britt Burns and Dewey Robinson as Chicago routed Detroit.

The 21-year-old Burns, a 6-foot-5 rookie left-hander, gave up seven hits and struck out four in seven innings while improving his record to 12-12.

Indians 5, Twins 2
Ron Hassey hit a two-run homer and Jorge Orta added a solo blast to propel Cleveland past Minnesota behind Len Barker's seven-hitter.

Len Barker, 10-1 since the All-Star break and 17-8 overall, pitched his eighth complete game.

Phillies Grab Division Lead

By JOHN NELSON
AP Sports Writer

Pete Rose might have been the man with the least to gain from a pep talk, but the words of Philadelphia Phillies general manager Paul Owens were not lost on "Charlie Hustle."

"That pennant is there for all of us. It's going to go to the team that goes out and gets it," Rose said.

For the first time since July 12, the Phillies grabbed hold of first place in the National League East by rallying to beat San Francisco 6-4 Monday. The Phillies (.5348) led Montreal (.5343) by one-half percentage point, with Pittsburgh (.5338) one point back. Pittsburgh split a pair with Houston, losing the opener 10-4 and winning the nightcap 7-5. The Expos defeated San Diego 5-3.

The Phils won the game in the eighth inning, snapping a 4-4 tie. Larry Bowa, who had four hits in the game, singled and went to second on a wild pitch by Greg Minton, 3-5. Boone brought him home with a single. An unearned run scored later in the inning on a fielding error by Giants second baseman Rennie Stennett.

Phils lefty Steve Carlton tossed a seven-hitter for his 21st victory against only seven losses.

In the other pennant race, Los Angeles defeated the New York Mets 5-2 and moved within a half game of Houston in the NL West while Cincinnati whipped St. Louis 8-1 to move within 2 1/2 games of the lead. Atlanta downed the Chicago Cubs 5-2 in the other NL Labor Day game.

Astros 10-5, Pirates 4-7
Terry Puhl and Rafael Landestoy each drove in a pair of runs for Houston in the first game as the Pirates lost their eighth straight. It was Pittsburgh's longest losing streak since 1968 when the Pirates lost 10 in a row and wound up sixth.

Bill Madlock hit a pair of homers in Pittsburgh's losing effort, and Ed Ott homered once.

The Pirates finally snapped the losing streak in the second game. Pitcher Rick Rhoden smacked a two-run homer and two doubles, driving in three runs, and Mike Easler also homered for Pittsburgh.

Expos 5, Padres 3
Rowland Office drove in two runs with a homer and a sacrifice fly to help Montreal break a five-game losing streak. Scott Sanderson, 13-8, went seven innings for the victory, getting relief help from Elias Sosa and Woody Fryman. Office's homer, his sixth of the year, came with none aboard in the fourth off Rick Wise, 5-6.

Reds 8, Cardinals 1
George Foster, who has hit .583 and driven in 12 runs over the past five games, continued his hot streak with two singles, a double and a triple for the Reds. Foster, Dave Concepcion and Johnny Bench each drove in two runs to back starter Joe Price, who tossed a five-hitter to beat St. Louis.

Navratilova Falls In Tennis Open

NEW YORK (AP) — During the first week of the U.S. Open, Martina Navratilova said she would "avoid this tournament at all costs if I could."

Since the Open is one of the world's two most prestigious tennis events, Navratilova has been unable to skip it. Instead, she finds ways to miss out on the Open finals.

This year, it was a fourth-round 7-6, 6-4 loss to 18-year-old Hana Mandlikova of Czechoslovakia. Navratilova's native land. Once more, Martina couldn't find happiness at the National Tennis Center.

"I finally felt I played better than I had been," said the second seed, who was the biggest name of the four women's seeds to fall Monday. No. 8 Dianne Fromholtz of Australia was eliminated by No. 13 Pam Shriver 3-6, 6-1, 6-1; Tracy Austin, the top seed, booted No. 10 Virginia Ruzici of Romania 6-4, 6-0, and No. 11 Kathy Jordan was beaten by Mima Jausovec of Yugoslavia 7-5, 6-3. No. 3 Chris Evert Lloyd blasted JoAnne Russell 6-2, 6-1.

"But I still was out of it on some volleys.

"I feel good about my game for the rest of the year. I still don't think I've reached my potential." The men also got into the upset act as Wojtek Fibak of Poland, seeded 14th, ousted No. 4 Guillermo Vilas of Argentina 3-6, 6-3, 6-4, 6-3.

Top seed Bjorn Borg of Sweden blew out No. 15 Yannick Noah of France 6-3, 6-3, 6-0 and Roscoe Tanner; No. 11, outlasted Brian Teacher 6-3, 6-4, 5-7, 6-2.

Hoping to stave off the upset bug today were No. 2

John McEnroe, who played Pascal Portes of France; No. 3 Jimmy Connors, who will face Bernie Mitton of South Africa at night; No. 7 Harold Solomon, who figured to have a tough match with No. 10 Ivan Lendl of Czechoslovakia, and No. 13 Brian Gottfried battled Eliot Teltscher.

Among the women, No. 8 Andrea Jaeger faced Renata Tomanova of Czechoslovakia; No. 14 Ivanna Madruga of Argentina played Candy Reynolds, and the unseeded Barbara Hallquist and Lucia Romanov of Romania squared off.

Mandlikova's victory was her second over her idol in two weeks. She beat Navratilova at Mahwah, N.J. prior to the Open, then topped Jaeger in the finals.

"I beat her last week and thought this would be harder," said the No. 9 seed.

"Sometimes Martina gives you the ball, misses shots. She's not like Tracy or Chris, where you must win every point."

"I was nervous the other time but not this."

Navratilova lost to Shriver in the 1978 semifinals here, then to Austin in the semis last year.

Shriver, 18, was slow getting started before assuming command against Fromholtz, who has been sidelined much of this year with assorted injuries. A finalist here in 1978, Shriver next faces Austin, whom she hasn't played in 21 months.

"I look forward to playing Tracy," said Shriver. "The only pressure on me is the situation, the quarterfinals of the Open. But she's the defending champion and top seed and she must be feeling some of that. She should."

She didn't against Ruzici, winning the last 10 games of the match and dropping only eight points in the second set.

Lloyd has breezed through all her matches thus far — indeed, she's breezed through every tournament but Wimbledon since returning to the tour in April. She lost in the finals at Wimbledon to Evonne Goolagong — ripped Russell even though her opponent felt "I played good tennis."

"JoAnne pushed me a little," admitted Lloyd. "But it wasn't that tough a match."

Q. Whenever I apply the brakes on my 1976 Ford Elite I hear a strange noise coming from the front end and feel a vibration in the steering wheel. It must be a brake problem, but what?

A. Your problem sounds like a warped rotor. A warped rotor won't have the flat places needed for the brake pads to grip. To check the rotor you will need a dial indicator which can tell you if the rotor is even and smooth or not. Place the indicator so the tip of the gauge is against the braking surface of the rotor. When the rotor is turned, the gauge will indicate any variations in the surface. Also check to see if the rotor has high and low spots in its thickness. This can cause the same problems as a warped rotor. If the rotor is okay, check the front wheel bearings, if they are unusually worn, they can cause the rotor to wobble.
