Bevy of Balloters

Voters queued up early this morning as the polls for election 1980 opened. Lines were forming at some balloting points in the county as the polls opened at 7 a.m. and long waiting lines were reported at the courthouse by mid-morning as balloters waited to make their mark. County Clerk B.F. Cain estimated this morning that the voter turnout in Deaf Smith County could be 65 percent or better, with 534 absentee ballots setting a new mark in that category here last week.

Additional counting teams were being added in some precincts here this morning as election workers sought to keep up with the heavy voter flow being recorded. Much of the voter interest was focused on the crucial presidential race between incumbent Jimmy Carter and challenger Ronald Reagan. Hour waiting lines were reported at some Texas polling points early today as the state recorded a heavy voter turnout.

City Approves Plan Saving on Sewage Costs

By JIM STEIERT
Managing Editor

Hereford's city commissioners approved a plan at their regular Monday night session which could result in a savings of almost $30,000 annually in operations at the city sewer plant.

City fathers approved a change in operating procedures at the plant and in other matters gave the nod to abandoning the west 10 feet of a right of way easement in the DeAtley Addition to allow for construction of a building there.

Commissioners also further discussed a tornado warning system for the city.

City Manager Dudley Bayne informed commissioners that a new EPA ruling indicates that ponding of sewage effluent will no longer be required of the city since the effluent is pumped to a farm and used for irrigation rather than being discharged into Tierra Blanca Creek.

"We've had pumping and treatment cost at the plant of about $29,000 annually, but due to the EPA ruling we can now eliminate that cost by doing away with all but ponds seven and eight, which can serve as standby facilities in the event of an emergency," Bayne explained.

"We could save about $30,000, rid ourselves of an eyesore and possible odor problem, and also eliminate the need for a part-time employee we've had to use just to keep the weeds down around the ponds," Bayne continued.

The city manager pointed out that the discontinued ponds could be levelled by pulling down their surrounding dikes, and the area then planted to native grass.

Commissioners then gave their approval to the plan to revamp the system of handling effluent and doing away with the majority of the holding ponds.

City fathers considered a request from Ralph Owens asking the city to relinquish the west 10 feet of a city right of way easement in the DeAtley addition to allow for the construction of a building needed by Owens for his business.

After reviewing the location of the area on a city map, commissioners approved abandoning the area of right of way on a motion by Commissioner Wes Fisher and a second by Ed Coplen.

City fathers also discussed the possibility of relinquishing an additional 20 feet in that area once a check is made with the Highway Department concerning drainage in the area.

Bayne, who was requested to check into the possibility of obtaining federal funds to help finance purchase of a tornado warning system during the last regular commission meeting, informed commissioners Monday night that no such funds are currently available.

Commissioners had opted to pursue purchasing some additional rotary-type warning sirens during their last commission meeting pending the outcome of a lawsuit filed by the city against the Motorola Corporation over the city's present tornado warning system, which does not function properly.

Bayne informed commissioners last night that adding five more rotary-type sirens to those the city already has on hand could cost as much as $60,000.

Commissioners are looking to have a substitute warning system in place by early spring in order to be prepared for a new tornado season.

City fathers agreed that the city will probably need to have any system considered for use here approved by Civil Defense before proceeding with purchasing and installation.

Burglars Net $6,000

Burglars made off with a large quantity of cash from a local service station in another major theft in the city early Saturday morning.

Big Daddy's Service Station on east Highway 60 reported that burglars made off with $6,000 in cash after entering that business through the west shop area and subsequently cutting off a lock, entering the lounge, going through the ceiling and kicking out a wall to eventually gain access to an interior office and prying open a safe door.

The theft occurred sometime between 1:15 and 5:45 a.m. Saturday and remains under investigation by city police.

Officers are expected to make an arrest on possession of marijuana charges following an incident Saturday night in which officer Joe Scott stopped a vehicle after observing it run a stop sign, only to have the driver raise the hood of his vehicle when the officer approached and then flee on foot.

Three passengers in the vehicle were released by police, who impounded the vehicle after discovering a small bag of marijuana inside.

A police spokesman reported officers have the name of the suspect who was driving the vehicle and are in the process of locating him.

The Whiteface Drive-In at 1107 East 1st reported that sometime between noon and 3 p.m. Saturday a money bag containing $488 in cash was taken from a shelf at that business.

Det. Vernon Hope reported that he arrested an 11-year-old suspect in the theft Monday and also recovered a portion of the money.

Jimmy Moore of 308 Ave. H reported that someone broke the glass out of the back door of his residence yesterday to gain entry and made off with 15 stereo tapes, guitars, and amplifier and a digital clock, with total value of the stolen items estimated at $250.

Elzie Sealy of 612 Irving and Brit Clark of 612 Irving, Apt. 35, reported that tires on their vehicles were cut sometime Saturday evening and Viola Moore of 117 Juniper reported that her car was apparently scratched with a knife while it was parked at Bowling's Bowl during the weekend.

Police were summoned to the emergency room of Deaf Smith General Hospital Saturday night where they found that 21 year old Armando Castillo of 206 Lake was suffering from a stab wound to the right shoulder. Castillo refused to give officers any information concerning how he was stabbed.

Police have suspects in a case involving damage to a yard fence. The damage was reported by Dorothy Stringer of 213 Greenwood.

Officers recovered a missing vehicle at the Sue Ann parking lot Friday night after receiving a complaint concerning unauthorized use of a motor vehicle Friday night from Rafael Galindo of 336 Lake.

Officers also investigated prowler reports from the 700 block of Irving and the 900 block of Third over the weekend.

Q: I'd like to know if any of the judges on the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals who reversed the Hawkins' rape case are on the ballot this time?

A: According to a check at the D.A.'s office, only Judge Tom Watson is on the ballot, but he cast a dissenting opinion in that case and is unopposed for re-election.

Carter, Reagan Reduced To Awaiting Results

WASHINGTON (AP) — Their long, sometimes bitter campaign over, President Carter and Ronald Reagan are reduced to the role of the average citizen. Today, on the first anniversary of the takeover of the U.S. Embassy in Iran, they could only vote and wait.

Carter was returning to his Plains, Ga., home to cast his ballot, and Reagan was at his oceanfront house in Los Angeles.

After months of Reagan's harping on Carter's handling of the economy and the president's hints that Reagan could start a war, the final days of their campaign were dominated by swiftly moving events in Tehran that encouraged speculation that the ordeal of the 52 American hostages soon may end.

No one could say how those events would affect the outcome of the presidential race, and the candidates reacted cautiously.

"Don't know yet," was the president's response on Monday when asked if he was encouraged by the news that the Iranian militants holding the hostages had agreed to relinquish custody to the Iranian government.

Referring to the hostages in an election-eve address for which his campaign purchased time on the three television networks, Reagan said, "Like you, there is nothing I want more than their safe return — that they be returned with their families after this long year of imprisonment."

Another unpredictable factor in the presidential race was independent candidate John B. Anderson, who insisted on Monday, despite polls showing him far behind the others, that there could be "dramatic shifts" to his candidacy on Election Day.

Carter, concerned that Anderson is more likely to draw support from him than from Reagan, appealed Monday to dissident Democrats to reconsider any plans to vote for Anderson. The president said he and the Illinois congressman have goals "very close" on such issues as energy conservation and controlling the spread of nuclear weapons.

Then he added, "I ask you to consider the consequences to your lives if you should wake up Wednesday morning and find a new administration ready to take over the Oval Office, not committed to these goals."

paigning in Ohio, Illinois, Michigan, Missouri, Washington and Oregon, Carter coupled his appeals to potential Anderson voters with sharp attacks on Reagan.

"You can rewrite the lines in the movie industry and you can rewrite the lines in the history of some businesses, but there's no way to wipe out 20 years of right-wing Republicanism exemplified by Governor Reagan," he said.

In a last-minute schedule change, Carter dropped plans for a closing-day campaign stop in California and added an appearance in Detroit. Aides denied the change meant the president was writing off Reagan's home state and its 45 electoral votes.

More than 80 million Americans were expected to vote, their ballots deciding contests for thousands of offices from the local level to the White House.

While that sounds like a massive number, it would be only around half the more than 160 million Americans of voting age.

A low voter turnout was more likely to hurt Carter than Reagan. Some of the president's strongest support is among blacks and Hispanics, groups with traditionally low turnouts.

While the hostages dominated the headlines in the closing campaign days, (See CANDIDATES, Page 2)

Building Starts Up

Construction starts on single family housing units in Hereford climbed somewhat in October after a paltry performance in September. A massive commercial construction project here helped to bolster the building permit total for October.

Building permits for October totaled $560,020, with that figure helped considerably by a single construction project involving $330,000 in the building of new facilities for Hereford Tortilla Factory.

October's $560,020 figure compared to the September mark of only $171,750.

Also boosting the October total were four single family housing starts, with three homes placed under construction in the Denton Park area with a total value of $119,100 and an additional one family brick home in northwest Hereford placed under construction and valued at $65,000. Only two housing starts were recorded in September.

Two mobile home permits accounted for $15,500 of the overall total and housekeeping facilities added to residences accounted for another $15,100.

Garage and carport facilities accounted for $2,570, non-residential facilities totaled $4,350 and relocation of a building accounted for $2,000.

The October building pushed total building permits for 1980 over the $2 million mark in what has proven an extremely sluggish construction year here.

Total building permits for the year now stand at $2,056,570, well off the pace of 1978 when Hereford had logged over $4 million in construction by this time.

Inflationary costs of building materials and high interest rates are largely to blame for the reduction in construction here and throughout the Panhandle area.

Pancake

Supper

Tonight

An election day Pancake Supper is being sponsored by the Hereford Kiwanis Club this evening at the high school cafeteria.

The event is scheduled from 5 to 8 p.m., giving voters who go to the polls this evening an opportunity to eat out and help a worthy cause.

Tickets for the supper are $2 each. Kiwanis will use the proceeds for community service projects. Whether you vote early or late, however, everyone is invited to attend the supper.

Flags

Remind

The Hereford Key Club, in recognition of the American hostages and the privileges of American citizens, are displaying the flag today in order that citizens driving the streets of Hereford will remember to vote.

Also, Friday of this week, the Key Club will solicit any new businesses for the flag service. Anyone who is not contacted and would like the service can call Gene Brock at 364-6591. Flag services will begin Jan. 1 at a cost of $13.50 a year.

In conjunction with the American Legion, the funds made from this service go to promote local charities, scholarships, and service projects.

Tax Board Slates Nov. 17 Hearing

The Deaf Smith County tax appraisal board will conduct a budget hearing with the various entities to be served by a central assessing and collecting office Nov. 17 at 2 p.m. at city hall.

All local taxing bodies have been invited to send representatives to the session and those representatives are invited to offer comments or propose alterations on a budget tentatively drawn up by tax board members during a session last week.

Following the Nov. 17 tax board budget hearing the budget will then be officially adopted by members of the board and figures will be placed in the contracts for the various county entities and returned to them for their signatures.

Stud Service Auction Planned

The National Cowgirl Hall of Fame and Western Heritage Center is sponsoring a registered stud service auction Saturday.

The auction is scheduled to get underway at 7 p.m. at the American Legion Hall a block south of the Bull Barn at Veteran's Park.

Auctioneer for the event will be Bedford Forrest, farm and ranch director for KVII TV in Amarillo.

The stud service auction will feature quarterhorses, thoroughbreds, Appaloosas, and Paints. Genealogy data on all studs will be available.

In conjunction with the event, the art committee for the Cowgirl Hall of Fame will host a Christmas "Halliday Art Show" and sale Friday, Nov. 7 from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m. at the American Legion Hall.

Artwork appropriate for holiday giving will be featured during the show.

Proceeds from the events will benefit the Hall of Fame.

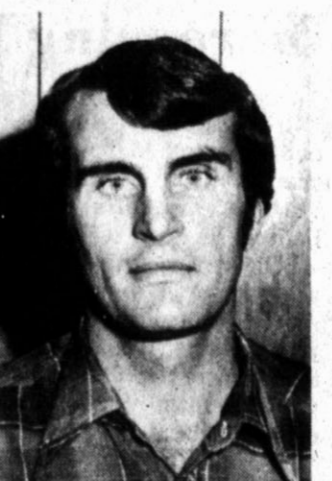

Chamber Directors Elected

BOB SIMS

In the largest voter participation ever recorded, Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce members have elected four new directors to assume office in January, 1981.

The new board members will be Cal Jones, ag manager at the Holly Sugar plant; Buddy Peeler, KPAN station manager; Bob Sims, owner and manager of Tri-State Cattle Feeders, and Don Tardy, owner of a real estate and insurance company.

Eight men had been nominated as board candidates by the C of C Past Presidents' Committee. O.G. Nieman, chairman of the committee, reported after the vote tabulations Monday that a total of 1,118 ballots were returned.

"We believe it represents the largest participation in the mail balloting that has ever been recorded," he said. Nieman also reported that the voting was very close.

"The fourth position to be filled was decided by one vote. Two of the candidates were tied and just one vote behind the fourth-place winner," he stated.

The other four candidates were Tony Cortez, George DeBoer, Virgil Slentz and Warner Lawson. Mike Carr, executive vice president, announced that ballots were mailed to all C of C members several weeks ago. "We were very pleased at the number of ballots returned," he said.

Directors whose terms expire include those of Ken Rogers, Dave Hopper, Butch White and Milton Adams. Rogers will remain on the board as immediate past president, while Nieman leaves the board after serving as past president.

Fire Forces

Evacuation of Patients

SAN ANTONIO, Texas (AP) — Firemen climbed ladders and broke out windows to evacuate patients from a San Antonio hospital late Monday after fire erupted in a conference room, sending smoke throughout the three-story building.

No patients were injured in the fire at Southwest General Hospital, located about five miles south of downtown San Antonio, although some were treated for smoke inhalation, fire officials said.

There were 110 patients in the 166-bed hospital, according to hospital administrator Ralph Aleman. They were evacuated from their rooms and sent to eight other San Antonio hospitals.

Fire officials said firemen used ladders and had to break out windows on the second floor where the fire erupted. Patients from the third floor were taken out through stairwells and those on the first floor were able to leave the building through regular exits, officials said.

Aleman said the hospital will be closed 2-3 days. Damage was estimated at $600,000, a fire department spokesman said. Fire damage was confined to the conference room and some adjacent rooms, but smoke spread throughout the building, Aleman said.

Santa Rosa Hospital, located near downtown San Antonio, sent a team of doctors and nurses and oxygen equipment to the fire scene to aid in the evacuation and to provide oxygen for persons treated for smoke inhalation.

Republicans Win
In Mock Election

VIDOR, Texas (AP) — The Democratic vice-presidential nominee told network newsmen he wanted to bomb Iran and his running mate started to cry. The independents forced the Republicans into a runoff and the victors celebrated on a school playground.

Newly elected GOP President Chip Seymour and Vice President Capri Croft said interviews would be granted after recess.

The candidates were only eight years old in this mock election, but Vidor Elementary School teacher Bob Sanford said the campaigns were as fraught with emotion as their national counterparts.

"This is not for class president," he said after the ballots were tallied last week. "We tried to stress that this was for the presidency of the United States."

The children hammered out platforms at party conventions guided by Sanford so policy statements dealt with the same issues the grown-ups discussed.

13-Ounce
Baby Dies

AMARILLO, Texas (AP) — A 13-ounce baby girl born in this Panhandle city Friday morning died about midnight Monday, a Northwest Texas Hospital spokesman said.

The health of the 10¼-inch child — named Guadalupe by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jesus Flores of Amarillo — had steadily declined and some doctors had rated her chances of survival as zero.

She was breathing on her own initially, but later had to be hooked up to a respirator, said Gwen Hailey, the hospital's nursing supervisor.

Doctors said the child was normal physically and mentally, even though she was born 28 weeks after conception.

Dr. Mubariz Naqvi, head of the intensive care unit, said the baby is the smallest he had ever seen survive 24 hours.

Her parents have two other daughters, ages 6 and 4.

Reward Offered For Infant's Return

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — A $5,000 reward is being offered for the safe return of a newborn infant abducted from his mother's hospital room, officials say.

Trustees at St. Vincent Hospital approved the reward Monday, said Doris Firestone, a spokeswoman for the hospital.

The baby, Joe Juan Kyle, was less than a day old when he was taken from his mother's room Saturday night.

Authorities said the baby's mother, 22-year-old Katherine Kyle, and his father, Joseph Lightner, both of Toledo, were watching television in a room when a woman wearing a white coat entered. The woman said she needed to take the baby to a laboratory for blood tests.

Ms. Kyle, who was cradling her son in her arms, gave him to the woman, Ms. Firestone said. Another patient's infant, lying in a bassinet next to its mother's bed, was not disturbed.

The woman said she would return the infant in about five minutes, according to authorities. She never came back.

the economy was a critical issue in industrial states hit hard by layoffs in the automobile and steel industries.

Both candidates campaigned hard in New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Michigan, Illinois, Texas, Florida and California, the big electoral prizes. Reagan fought with mixed success throughout the campaign to keep attention focused on the rates of inflation and unemployment and on interest rates.

Carter attacked Reagan's opposition to the SALT II treaty, argued that the Republican nominee was advocating a nuclear arms race with the Soviet Union and even hinted the Republican could drag the nation into war.

Most pre-election surveys gave Reagan a tenuous edge in the state-by-state race for the 270 electoral votes needed for victory. Polls attempting to forecast the popular vote generally found the race too close to call.

Early in the campaign, the Republicans set their sights on capturing control of the Senate, where 24 of the 34 seats being filled now are held by Democrats. A gain of 10 seats would assure the GOP of a majority. The Democrats now hold 58 Senate seats to 41 for the Republicans and one independent, Harry F. Byrd of Virginia, who votes with the Democrats on organizational matters. Republicans have scaled down their Senate aspirations and talked about picking up five or six seats.

The entire House of Representatives was being elected and Republicans were given no chance of reversing the current Democratic majority of 273 seats to 159 for the GOP, with three vacancies in seats once held by Democrats.

Governors also were being elected in 13 states, 10 of which are now headed by Democrats and three by Republicans.

In his television speech, Reagan described the American people as "frustrated, even angry at what has been done to this blessed land, but more than anything they are sturdy and robust as they have always been."

The former California governor also repeated an appeal he used in last week's debate with Carter when he told his audience that if they were satisfied with Carter's record in office, they should re-elect him.

The Carter campaign also purchased television time for an election eve speech in which the president mentioned neither his Republican opponent nor the hostages.

Instead, Carter stressed the experience he has gained in the White House and said, "I have grown and I have learned, for the presidency is a great teacher. Because I've learned, I am going to be an even better president in my second term."

Families of Hostages Display Yellow Ribbons

By DAVID GREEN
Associated Press Writer

Families and friends of the American hostages in Iran displayed yellow ribbons and lit candles today to mark the first anniversary of the U.S. Embassy's capture, but some said wearily that Day 367 seemed no different than the previous 366.

"It's just another day to be endured," said Patricia Boggs of Elyria, Ohio, mother-in-law of hostage Joseph Hall. "We'll be watching television for the latest news out of Iran and voting to make sure our country doesn't turn into one like Iran."

"It probably will be just another routine day, except for the voting," said Margaret Lauterbach of Dayton, Ohio, mother of hostage Steven Lauterbach. "We've always had hopes, but whatever happens, we try not to get too enthusiastic."

In Los Angeles, candles were being lit every hour in the Civic Center and giant yellow ribbons were tied around trees lining Hollywood Boulevard.

A 24-hour candle-lighting vigil began at noon Monday. County Supervisor Kenneth Hahn urged the crowd of 200 "to rejoice" when the hostages are released, "whether it is an hour from now, or a day from now or a week from now."

In Hermitage, Pa., relatives of some of the hostages marked the anniversary Monday with a flag raising at a cemetery. One flag has been raised for each day since the embassy at Tehran was captured by militants seeking the return of Shah Mohammad Reza Pahlavi, now dead, from the United States.

"It strikes me hard to see all these flags waving in the land of the free," said Richard Hermening of Cudahy, Wis., father of hostage Kevin Hermening. "I hope they will be home soon to be free, too."

Hermening was joined by Eleanor Kupke of Francisville, Ind., mother of hostage Frederick Lee Kupke, and Gary Cooke of Pittsburgh, brother of hostage Donald Cooke. All three wore yellow ribbons in their lapels, a gesture of support for the hostages that derives from a popular song of a few years ago.

"I've had to mask my emotions throughout the crisis," Mrs. Kupke said.

"All of the ups and downs are really hurting me," she said, adding she had to fight back tears when a high school chorus sang the "Star-Spangled Banner" as the 366th flag was raised.

In New York, a class of schoolchildren and 200 tenants of an apartment complex also wore yellow ribbons in a simple ceremony near Times Square commemorating the anniversary. They prayed that the hostages will be "returned unharmed in body and mind." Behind them, yellow ribbons fluttered from the balconies of apartments in

Gross Sales Continue Increasing in Texas

Gross sales in Texas continued to climb in the second quarter of 1980 according to State Comptroller Bob Bullock.

Bullock said a sales tax analysis of gross sales for April May and June of this year shows that gross sales totaled more than $4.7 billion, up $3.8 billion over the first quarter of 1980.

Deaf Smith County, with 343 reporting outlets, reported gross sales of $60,909,196 according to Bullock.

Following deductions and use tax purchases that amounted to $10,369,692 subject to tax.

Bullock said second quarter gross sales this year surpassed sales during the same period in 1979 by more than $1.1 billion.

The figures were gathered from 245,047 reporting outlets across the state. Bullock said second quarter gross sales this year surpassed sales during the same period in 1979 by more than $1.1 billion.

The figures were gathered from 245,047 reporting outlets across the state.

Bullock also released a computer analysis showing reported sales during the second quarter for each of the state's 254 counties and a sales tax analysis broken down by the state's Standard Metropolitan Statistical Areas.

Second quarter gross sales for Harris County were $17 billion, up $1.1 billion over the first quarter.

Gross sales reported in the state's other major urban areas included:

--Dallas County, $9.1 billion, $200 million more than the first quarter.

--Bexar County, $3.2 billion, up $300 million from the first quarter.

--Tarrant County, $4.3 billion, an increase of $90 million over the first quarter.

Militants Stage Demonstrations

By The Associated Press

The Islamic militants who seized the U.S. Embassy in Tehran a year ago today celebrated the anniversary with an anti-American demonstration outside the embassy as the U.S. government studied Iran's terms for the release of the 52 American hostages.

Radio Tehran said the rally opened with an address by Hojatolislam Mousavi Khomeini, the spiritual adviser to the militants and the head of the parliamentary committee that drew up the conditions for the freeing of the captive Americans.

The militants said in addition to the demonstration there would be a special program inside the embassy. But details were not announced in advance.

Forty-nine of the hostages are believed still inside the 27-acre compound, despite claims by their captors that they were transferred to other cities after the unsuccessful U.S. attempt to rescue them on April 25. The other three have been prisoners of the Iranian Foreign Ministry since the embassy was occupied last Nov. 4.

The official English-language text of the Iranian Parliament's conditions for releasing the hostages was delivered to the State Department late Monday by Algeria, which represents Iran's interests in Washington and has been designated to act as its intermediary in the negotiations for the release of the Americans.

State Department officials said the negotiations were not likely to start soon.

Spokesman John Trattner said the American response would not be drafted until the government has time to "think about it and study it."

Secretary of State Edmund S. Muskie said the developments in Tehran and Washington "should be viewed as initial steps in a process which will require time, patience and diplomacy."

"There has been progress," he said. "However, much remains to be done. We will continue to pursue our goals with patience, diligence and determination."

The militants announced Monday that they had "delegated responsibility for the safeguarding" of the 49 hostages they were holding to the Iranian government. A spokesman for Prime Minister Mohammad Ali Rajai said the government had already assumed that responsibility, but the captives would remain in the custody of the militants until the United States met the conditions set by the Majlis, the Iranian parliament.

"The government trusts them as committed Moslems who can do their duty sincerely and for this reason we do not think it is necessary to send government staff to replace the militant students," the spokesman said.

The conditions adopted by the Majlis Sunday were the same four laid down by Ayatollah Ruhollah Khomeini, the leader of the revolutionary regime, in September: a U.S. pledge not to interfere in Iran's affairs, the release of the billions of dollars in Iranian assets in U.S. banks frozen by President Carter, cancellation of American lawsuits against Iran and the return to Iran of the wealth of the late Shah Mohammad Reza Pahlavi and his closest relatives.

The Dutch newspaper NRC Handelsblad reported Monday that U.S. lawyers worked out an "ingenious solution" to the financial demands in secret meetings in the last few weeks with Ali Reza Nobari, governor of Iran's National Bank, and a top aide of President Abolhassan Bani-Sadr.

The report, for which no confirmation could be obtained in Washington, said President Carter would freeze the Shah's assets just as he froze the Iranian government's assets after the hostages were taken. Then the Iranian government would claim them "with the help of the U.S. government," contending that the royal fortune had been nationalized by the revolutionary government.

Letter to the Editor

Dear Editor:

Would you please put this in your paper? We do appreciate so much all the things the people in the community have done for us.

Thanksgiving is coming soon, and Goodwill Industries of Amarillo wishes you a special THANKS-FOR-GIVING this past year. When you gather with family and friends this holiday, know that many disadvantaged and handicapped persons around the country are doing the same...and giving thanks for your support.

Your contribution of clothing and furniture is making "living with respect" a reality; your donation of repairable household items provides the reason to learn a skill that will lead to gainful and secure employment. We at Goodwill Industries say

THANKS-FOR-GIVING to all our volunteer workers, who give generously of their time.

During the month of November, you give thanks for what you have - we at Goodwill Industries give thanks for WHO YOU ARE! We're in our new home now at 17th and Taylor, so please come to see us.

Sincerely,
Marilyn C. Williams

(EDITOR'S NOTE-The following letter was submitted in reference to a political advertisement which appeared in the Sunday, Nov. 2 edition of The Brand.)

Dear Editor:
Mother Nature has nothing to do about the weather or anything, to be exact. It is God.

Read in Genesis who created your Heaven and Earth and the things therein. It was God.

All these happenings of nature: It is of God. No one man can be accused of these things, with nature's happenings.

God said, "If My people will turn from their wicked ways, I will heal their land." The morals of men and nature itself cannot be laid on one man.

We as citizens of the United States have the God-given right to vote as we see fit. My advice would be to be ever so much in prayer as you vote. Even then, the morals of man and nature itself will not change until this nation comes back to Christ.

One man and his administration cannot be accused of these things. I'm not writing this for political reasons but to uphold this nation and the God I love that created it all.

Vacation Offers May Be Phony

Las Vegas vacation offers that promise much more than they deliver are now being sold by mail across the nation, Postal Inspector in Charge W.R. Newsome warned today.

Newsome said at least 12 separate companies now contacting prospective buyers by mail and telephone are under investigation by the Postal Inspection Service. Complaints have been received from Texas consumers in Fort Worth, Dallas and Houston.

In response to inquiries about vacation "certificates," the companies ask for a "service charge" of from $25 to $50, sometimes requesting personal credit card numbers, supposedly to confirm identity but actually to bill prospective buyers through credit card companies. The firms claim the "certificates" are good for three days and two nights lodging for two in Las Vegas, and include meals and a gambling package valued at $250.

Typically, those who take the bait have to pay additional fees and reservation deposits, and the so-called "service charge" is not refunded as represented in an initial offer. Newsome said when certificate holders send hotel reservation requests they are met with "regret" letters advising that no rooms are available on the days requested, and when refunds are requested they get letters asking them to be patient.

Anyone victimized through the mails should report it to Postal Inspector D.C. Swindle, Consumer Protection Specialist for the Fort Worth Division of the Postal Inspection Service, P.O. Box 1230, Fort Worth, Texas 76101, or telephone (817) 334-2001.

Saunders designed World War II planes for Howard Hughes. Everybody in related industries has known Dick Saunders as a "top-sergeant type."

Leathery-faced Saunders, in the image of a frontier lawman, would tell suppliers, "Give me your best price first because there will be no haggling."

He was never a man for haggling nor for compromise. Remember that.

Dick Saunders' foundry in Wichita employed 60 people making parts for Boeing and Learjet planes.

Last February some men from the Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA) showed up at his plant. He showed them around. They appeared impressed with his modern all-electric foundry.

Foundries are notoriously dirty, dangerous places to work but this one was immaculate, efficient.

In 1975 OSHA inspectors had complimented Mr. Saunders on his foundry; he expected another routine approval.

But while touring the plant-one of the OSHA inspectors told one of the workmen how he could hurt himself should he stick his arm into a certain machine-and Dick Saunders exploded.

On the spot he called the inspector a stupid so-and-so. The very idea showing a worker how to get hurt on the job by sticking his hand into something was stupid. He chewed out the OSHA inspector on the spot: "Stupid! Dam stupid!"

Within days, four OSHA inspectors were in the foundry, went over every square inch of the 42,000 square feet-and wrote citations for 23 alleged serious violations of federal job-safety laws.

Uncle Sam gets mean when he gets mad.

Let me say that OSHA is accustomed to negotiating differences in a situation like this-but as I mentioned Mr. Saunders is not a negotiator. He wasn't about to send industrial engineers and lawyers to deal in the usual way with OSHA.

He closed the foundry. Saunders reasoned that the changes OSHA was demanding would cost $500,000. Fighting the changes would cost a similar sum. So, though he had orders for business through the middle of next year, Dick Saunders closed his foundry-terminating jobs for 60 people-auctioned off his equipment and sold the building.

Last I heard, Dick Saunders was moving to Texas to go into "some other business" where hopefully he will not have to deal with the bureaucracy.

If he can find such a business.

County, City Will Get Share of Drink Taxes

Mixed drink taxes collected during July, August and September in Deaf Smith County amounted to $10,982.31 according to State Comptroller Bob Bullock.

The county's 15 percent remittance on the mixed drink tax amounted to $1,647.35 while total tax revenue for the city of Hereford amounted to $7,610.32 with a 15 percent remittance for the city of $1,141.55.

According to Bullock, sales of mixed drinks in Texas during the third quarter of 1980 pushed the yearly total during the first nine months to more than $700 million.

Bullock said mixed drink taxes collected during July, August and September total $24.2 million. There were $22.1 million and $23.6 million collected during the first and second quarters.

He said his office is mailing checks totaling $7 million to 212 Texas counties and 366 cities as their share of the 10 percent gross receipts tax on mixed drinks for the third quarter.

Bullock said continued growth in the sales of mixed drinks for the remainder of the year could push total sales in Texas this year to nearly a billion dollars.

The state's General Revenue Fund will receive $17.2 million of the tax money collected during the third quarter. Texas cities and counties receive a 15 percent rebate of the tax collected on mixed drinks sold within their boundaries under the law that legalized mixed drink sales.

Slaton in Lubbock County received the smallest rebate check, $5.53 on the sale of $368.90 in mixed drinks during the third quarter.

Houston's check was for $931,050 on sales of more than $62 million during the quarter.

The tax is collected by the Alcoholic Beverage Commission and the city-county rebates are sent out quarterly by the Comptroller's office.

Manor To Cite Founders Day

The annual King's Manor Founders Day Banquet has been scheduled for this Thursday, Nov. 6, in the Lamar Memorial Garden Room of the Manor, announced Rev. Wallace Kirby, Manor chaplain.

The Founders Association is a supportive group of private individuals who act as friends of the Manor. The association holds fundraising events each year, one being a barbecue in July and the other, an annual Founders Dinner.

Last year the association was successful in raising $38000, which was used by the home to help residents who could not afford to pay for their full care while at the Manor.

The dinner, which begins at 7 p.m. in the Garden Room, is being catered by K-Bob's Steak House. Dinner reservations can be made in advance by contacting the administrative office at Westgate.

Membership fee for the informal event is $25 per person, which entitles a person to one dinner ticket.

Guest speaker for the event will be Dr. Louis W. Schowengerdt. Born in the Methodist parsonage at Warrensburg, Mo., April 7, 1926, his father was a member of the former Southwest Missouri Conference. Schowengerdt is married to the former Ina E. Edmondson. They have two sons, Allan Louis, an Air National Guard technician in St. Louis and Glenn Lee, working on a master's degree in clinical psychology at Central Missouri State University, Warrensburg.

Schowengerdt was unanimously nominated for the Episcopacy by the Missouri West Annual Conference and endorsed by the Missouri East and West delegations.

He has held a position on the Mt. Sequoyah Board of Trustees, and in 1979 on the Jurisdictional Council on Ministries.

Also in 1979, he was appointed as Council Director of Missouri West Conference. Schowengerdt will be introduced by Dr. Walter Browers, District Superintendent of the Amarillo District of United Methodist churches.

Master of ceremonies for this year's event will be the Rev. Doug Manning, pastor of First Baptist Church here.

The invocation will be given by Dr. Leo Gee with St. Paul United Methodist Church in Amarillo, while Dr. Clifford Trotter with Polk Street United Methodist Church in Amarillo giving the benediction.

Awards and founder's certificates will be presented by Mrs. Joyce Lyons. President of this year's Founder's Association is Bill Walden.

The Manor Auxiliary recently raised enough money to provide King's Manor with new carpet which has already been laid. Other general maintenance work has been taken care of through this money. President of the Manor Auxiliary is Mrs. George Olson.

Special recognition is given to the local key Club, which has helped clean up the grounds around the Manor, and have volunteered their time to serve and clean up afterwards Thursday evening.

The public is encouraged to attend the dinner this Thursday.

Preparing for Founders Day

Residents of King's Manor Nursing Home are presently in preparation for the upcoming annual Founders Day Banquet, set for this Thursday, Nov. 6, in the Lamar Memorial Garden Room at the Manor. Various projects have been underway in conjunction with the annual event such as general maintenance. Above from left Kenneth DeHart, Joyce Lyons, David Hill, and Mark Walling, are busy cleaning and fixing the manor by painting, and general clean up.

DS Hospital Auxiliary Sets Date of Bake Sale

The Deaf Smith Hospital Auxiliary have scheduled a bake sale to be held the Tuesday before Thanksgiving in the hospital lobby from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Plans for this event were discussed recently during their regular monthly meeting in the hospital boardroom.

Ann Kershen presided over the business. Merle Boozer was given recognition for the making of the Christmas stockings and it was announced that auxiliary members were still selling tickets for a clock radio to be given away Dec. 15.

The December meeting will be held at the residence of Marge Mehlberg with a Christmas luncheon Dec. 1 at noon.

Additional members present for this meeting were Juanita Bennett, Irene Reinart, Lupe Cerda, Jane White, Bea Hutson, Mary Johnson, Baxter London, Gwen London, Grace Covington, Helen Brown, Marge Mehlberg, Mary Williamson, Dorothy Betzen and Marilyn Larson.

Stanton Group Elects Officers

The eighth grade chapter of FHA-HERO at Stanton Junior High School convened Friday to elect the 1980-81 officers and formulate programs for the coming school year.

Chosen to serve in office were Lisa Gonzales, president; Amalia Ontiveros, program chairman; Angie Garcia, Encounter chairman; Rosa Lucio, secretary; Tracy Hargrove, treasurer; Bonnie Kindrick, projects; Mildred Collins, parliamentarian; Lenora Hill, recreation; Elisa Martinez, publicity chairman; and Tina Riojas, historian.

Lisa Gonzales, who presided during the meeting, called the members to order for the business session. Program ideas were formulated with Amalia Ontiveros presenting an outline of suggested programs.

Following adjournment, Tracy Hargrove presented special entertainment.

Refreshments were served by Delma Cano, chairman, and her assistants, Elisa Castillo and Angie Davila.

Backyard Bluebirds Group Attends Halloween Party

Members of the Backyard Bluebirds Camp Fire Group attended a Halloween party recently at the Camp Fire lodge.

The girls dressed accordingly and bobbed for apples. A cat toss, lollipop walk, and race to the haunted house games were also played. The girls decorated oranges as miniature jacklanterns. Marshmallow spooks were numbered and hidden under the chairs for door prizes.

Chelli Cummings, Brooke Seiver, and Terri DeBord won a prize of lip gloss.

The next meeting date was set for Nov. 13 and the meeting adjourned with a large friendship circle and a Bluebird wish.

"DON'T FLAUNT YOUR FAITH"

20 Don't undo the work of God for a chunk of meat. Remember, there is nothing wrong with the meat, but it is wrong to eat it if it makes another stumble.

21 The right thing to do is to quit eating meat or drinking wine or doing anything else that offends your brother or makes him sin.

22 You may know that there is nothing wrong with what you do, even from God's point of view, but keep it to yourself; don't flaunt your faith in front of others who might be hurt by it. In this situation, happy is the man who does not sin by doing what he knows is right.

23 But anyone who believes that something he wants to do is wrong shouldn't do it. He sins if he does, for he thinks it is wrong, and so for him it is wrong. Anything that is done apart from what he feels is right is sin.

Even if we believe that it makes no difference to the Lord whether we do these things, still we cannot just go ahead and do them to please ourselves; for we must bear the "burden" of being considerate of the doubts and fears of others - of those who feel these things are wrong. Let's please the other fellow, not ourselves, and do what is for his good and thus build him up in the Lord.

3 Christ didn't please Himself. As the Psalmist said, "He came for the very purpose of suffering under the insults of those who were against the Lord."

4 These things that were written in the scriptures so long ago are to teach us patience and to encourage us, so that we will look forward expectantly to the time when God will conquer sin and death.

MARMADUKE

At Wits End

By ERMA BOMBECK

They laughed a few years ago when I wrote that napping would soon replace jogging. But hang on, little potbellied food junkies with two-inch tendons. We're getting there.

A banner headline recently in the L.A. Times proclaimed, "Fitness Craze Slows to a Walk."
They're talking now about 50 million people who are taking to the streets walking for their health. They're saying that jogging a mile in 8½ minutes burns only 25 more calories than walking a mile in 12 minutes. They're saying this fall an avalanche of books will hit the bookshelves telling you where to walk, how much to walk, what to wear, the psychological benefits of walking and what it does for your body.

I'll survive the new craze. I always do. I'll watch my husband come in each morning from walking ten miles and when I ask, "Could you get the paper at the end of the drive?" he'll snap, "Without stretching first? Are you crazy?"
I'll sit around at cocktail parties while people quote Henry David Thoreau who wrote, "Two or three hours of walking will carry me to as strange a country as I ever expect to see." (Could you trust a man who talks to trees?)

I'll endure the amusing little stories about how a prostitute won the Boston Walkathon but was disqualified when it was discovered she was a professional streetwalker.

When I am cornered by a walking nut who walks 200 miles a week and tells me he's going to walk a big one in San Diego, I'll resist asking, "You flying to San Diego? Or walking?"

I read somewhere you cannot uncook a new trend until its time. And our time is coming. I don't know when it will come...maybe as we nod on the sofa during the 6 o'clock news...or maybe as our heads jerk up during a dull speech...but the physical decadents of this land will have their day. Trust me.

And then we can recline in a Big Boy Lounger as we quote Lincoln: "All I am or ever hope to be, I owe to my mother who napped a lot."

We can counsel the people who wear the wrong clothes to nap in, don't nap regularly, or get discouraged when they can't fall asleep right away.

When we can work it in, we'll go on talk shows and tell how much more energy we have since we began napping.

But mostly, the thing I'll enjoy the most is seeing a physically fit walker try to join our cult. By the time he gets out of shape, we'll be into another trend.

Boyd to Compete For Scholarship

Brent Boyd, 17-year-old Hereford High School senior, has won the Century III Leaders Scholarship competition at HHS, according to Ron Geyer, principal.

Boyd is now eligible to compete with other high school seniors throughout Texas for two $1,500 scholarships, two $500 scholarships and a $10,000 national scholarship to be awarded in a conference of state winners in historic Colonial Williamsburg, Va.

Runners-up in the local high school competition were Elizabeth Rudd, 17, and Willa Bess Lawson, 17.

Boyd triumphed in the local phase of the Century III Leaders program, a scholarship competition which emphasizes the future concerns of America. Students were judged on the basis of their leadership abilities, community involvement and their scores on a current events examination. To compete at the state level, Boyd must now write a brief projection outlining what he thinks is one of America's future challenges and how it should be met.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Boyd, who reside at 118 Centre St., the local winner is scheduled to compete with other high school seniors from throughout the state for four scholarships as well as the opportunity to claim the $10,000 national scholarship.

The two Texas winners will receive all-expense-paid trips to the fifth annual Century III National Leadership Seminar at Williamsburg March 13-16, 1981, to participate in seminars on current issues.

In previous years, speakers at these seminars have included such notables as news commentators Harry Reasoner and Howard K. Smith, architect-futurist Buckminster Fuller and the Librarian of Congress Daniel Boorstin.

The program is administered by the National Association of Secondary School Principals and funded by Shell Oil Company.

EH Club Repeats Slate of Officers

Members of West Hereford Extension Homemakers Club voted to return the current slate of officers to another term of service during a business meeting recently in the home of Nettie Boyd.

Wilma Nell Pierce, club president, called the meeting to order and read the poem, "Why I Live." Mrs. Pierce also delivered the County EH Council report. Estell Burrell presented a report of the recent EH meeting in Amarillo, which she attended as a representative of the club.

The treasurer's report was given by Eldora Boyd. Roll call was answered with members listing "Things that Make Me Happy."
Artie Frost won the hostess

"If you're looking for a good buy on homeowners insurance... and great service too... see me."

Diel, Bozeman Elected At Baptist Convention

HOUSTON - Two Hereford residents were elected to major positions on Texas Baptist boards during the annual meeting of the 2.1-million-member Baptist General Convention of Texas (BGCT) here Oct. 28-30.

Elected to serve as a trustee of Wayland Baptist College, was Jacob C. Diel, president, Jake Diel Dirt & Paving, Inc.

The Rev. James L. Bozeman, pastor, Temple Baptist Church, was elected a trustee of High Plains Hospital.

The BGCT owns and operates eight colleges and universities, an academy, eight hospitals and four children's homes.

This work is supported by the Convention's 4,400 churches and missions, which will give more than $37.4 million this year through the Cooperative Program to help share Christ's love throughout the world.

Besides the institutions, the Convention helps support the work of more than 5,000 missionaries in the United States and 94 foreign countries.

Texas Baptists in their annual convention skirted the waves of controversy over biblical interpretation and institutional control to affirm their Bold Mission Thrust to share the gospel with everyone on earth by the year 2000.

The anticipated biblical inerrancy battles that have strained not only Texas Baptists but the Southern Baptist Convention the past two years never got off the ground.

A record number of 4,200 concerned messengers listened to a series of speakers calling for unifying Baptist purpose in a "passion for missions."

The mood of most messengers seemed to "amen" the words of Richard Jackson, pastor of North Phoenix Baptist Church when he said emotionally, "It's time to shut up and listen to what Jesus has to say...While we squabble about the inspiration of the Word, the world is desperate for our witness."

Messengers underscored their Bold Mission goals by adopting a $37.4 million Cooperative Program budget for 1981.

The new budget is about $3½ million greater than the 1980 version. It includes more than $13 million for support of Southern Baptist missionaries in 94 countries and for other mission causes outside Texas. More than $24 million of the budget will help support 23 children's homes, hospitals, colleges and other mission causes within Texas.

Carlos McLeod, pastor of First Baptist, Plainview, was re-elected to a second one-year term as president of the 2.2-million-member convention.

Darrell Robinson, pastor of First Baptist Church, Pasadena, was elected first vice-president, and Donald Dilday, pastor of First Baptist Church, Navasota, second vice-president.

Amid the apparent gathering storm at the beginning of the session, McLeod set the stage for the convention when he said, "There is a broad difference between this convention and many political gatherings throughout the nation."

McLeod urged messengers to "conduct ourselves in love, remembering that Bold Mission can never reach beyond our own doors until our response comes from love for each other..."

"If we lose our missionary passion, we will dissolve like a rope of sand," he said.

Messengers moved quickly over the biblical interpretation issue by adopting a motion by Longview Pastor Charles Holland embracing the Baptist Faith and Message statement of the 1963 Southern Baptist Convention as "their sole and adequate position."

Pre-convention rumors that trustee nominees for Boards of Baylor University and the Baptist Standard might be challenged never developed.

Messengers adopted 12 resolutions, but only three drew debate. They involved abortion, support of the Baptist Standard and the reaffirmation of Texas Baptists' basic beliefs and support "for each other."

The convention went on record opposing the use of tax-supported medical

4-H Firsthand

By Robby Vann
County Extension Agent

If volunteer programs are your "thing," then the Texas 4-H and youth program offers unlimited opportunities to help young people learn and develop.

4-H is the youth development program of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System, and focuses on the needs, interests and concerns of boys and girls 9 to 19 years of age. Its aim is to help young people develop through practical learning experiences such as preparing a nutritious meal, building bookshelves or growing a vegetable garden, says Robby Vann, county Extension agent.

Since young people do not develop their skills and attitudes overnight, they need and seek guidance from the 4-H volunteer who helps them probe the "why" behind the "how to do it."

Helping youth develop however, requires different kinds of leadership. For those who prefer to work primarily with youth, 4-H offers leadership roles and related to the organization, project or activity aspects of a 4-H group. While the "organization leader" guides the overall operation of a 4-H group, the "project and activity leaders" help boys and girls learn by involving them in a specific project, such as clothing, auto repair and bicycle safety, and related activities, such as safety clinics, exhibits and local tours. These leaders may, in turn, be assisted by Junior and Teen Leaders who work closely with an adult or teen advisor.

Volunteers who prefer to work primarily with adults also have a wide range of choices, says Vann. A 4-H project or activity chairman helps other leaders in the area and by the 4-H resource facilities for abortion after voting down an amendment by Charles Holland of Longview who cited cases of poor children who are victims of rape or incest.

Chuck Lowe of First Baptist Church, Houston, sought to delete two paragraphs from a resolution commending the Baptist Standard for "attempting to interpret events and movements that effect the welfare of the people."

Lowe said he supports the publication but doesn't think they've reported some events fairly.

Messengers declined to insert in the beliefs and support resolution backing for Southern Baptist President Bailey Smith who came under fire recently when he said God doesn't jear the prayers of Jews.

The convention went on record opposing legalization of pari-mutuel betting and voted down a resolution by Don Workman of First Baptist Church, Lubbock, to instruct the Christian Life Commission "to always speak to us but be very cautious when speaking for us."

Opportunities Await 4-H Volunteers person who secures special materials or people from the community.

If you are interested in young people, want to share your talents and hobbies, and enjoy meeting other adults with your same interests, consider being a 4-H volunteer, suggests Vann. Contact the county Extension office for personal assistance to help you find a volunteer role that's right for you.

Educational programs conducted by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service serve people of all ages regardless of socio-economic levels, race, color, sex, religion or national origin.

To substitute fresh yeast for active dry yeast in a recipe, use one yeast cake for each envelope of dry yeast.

Do not sweeten the lukewarm water - just crumble yeast cake into the specific amount of water and let stand 10 minutes, advises Rose Tindall Postel, a foods and nutrition specialist.

Dr. Postel is on the home economics staff of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

YOU AUTO KNOW

By Don Henslee
Q. About two months ago I bought a 1976 Monte Carlo. Now I notice that every time the car is washed I have some water coming into the rear floorboard. What's the best procedure for checking for leaks and how do I repair them?

A. Have someone inside the car as you pour a steady stream of water from a hose on all door perimeters and window edges. Open the hood and give all seams and holes in the firewall the same treatment, holding the hose about three inches from the area you're dousing. Start at the bottom of a section and work up. When your partner sees water, the leak has been found. Inspect the weatherstripping for wear and damage at the spot of the leak. If torn, replace it. If just worn, get ree-type auto-caulking compound and place under the worn area to shim up weatherstripping to seal the leak.

Venerable Warts

DEAR ANN LANDERS: I am a 24-year-old female with a baffling intimate problem. I began having sex when I was 18. Two years ago I managed to get a severe case of venereal warts. I had never heard of them before. Apparently they are highly contagious and difficult to get rid of. I have been applying chemicals and have had electro-cauterization, but the warts keep coming back.

Please perform a valuable service to your readers and write something in the column about venereal warts. I need to know how to get rid of mine--permanently.--Too Green In Greenville

DEAR GREEN: The two procedures you have described, applying chemicals and electro-cauterization, are the best techniques for getting rid of venereal warts. Obviously you had the good sense to see a doctor.

I consulted with a knowledgeable dermatologist, and he said electro-cauterization, if properly done, should solve the problem permanently. He pointed out that warts are caused by viruses, and a woman whose venereal warts keep coming back is probably getting them from the same partner who has not gotten rid of his.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: I'm 40, divorced, better-than-average-looking and I still get whistles. I have a very good job and am able to support myself. My ex-husband also insists on paying alimony (guilt) because he left me to marry another woman. I tell you this so you will know I do not need a meal ticket.

I have been dating an interesting widower for nearly a year. I don't see anyone else, and we have talked seriously about getting married. Several months ago it became apparent that he was never available on Friday evenings. Finally, I asked why. He said, "Fridays are reserved for my secretary. We always have dinner and finish up the week's work." He asked me to be patient because "next year" her husband retires and they will be moving to Nevada.

Shall I go along with this, or tell him to take his choice? (P.S. The secretary is 50-plus, nothing to look at, but--as you know--that doesn't mean anything.)--Anonymous In Charlottesville

DEAR CHAR: If you really care for the man, relax. Tell him those Friday night dinners are OK with you and now that you know why he's not available, you will accept invitations from other men on Friday. Then do it. If he is sincere about wanting to marry you, he'll knock off those Friday dinners and quit fooling around.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: This could hardly be considered a problem, but my girl and I would like your opinion on a matter that we've been arguing about for a long time.

When olives are served, Freddie puts the whole olive in his mouth and then spits it out on the plate. Sometimes it goes "ping." This is embarrassing.

I say it is improper to touch either the olive or the pit with one's fingers. The olive should be pierced with a fork (or speared, if you will). Then the pit should be removed from the mouth with a spoon and put on the plate.

Please tell us who is right and who is wrong.--Mt. Holyoke Argument

DEAR HOLYOKE: Neither of you is 100 percent right. If there's an olive fork on the tray, it should be used for "spearing." If not, fingers are OK. The meat should be nibbled off the olive and the pit can be removed from the mouth with a spoon, if it's handy, or by hand. (Pinging is definitely a no-no!)

Asst. Manager

Earns Diploma

Kari Ratzlaff, assistant manager of the Allsup's store at 529 Avenue N in Hereford, recently received her diploma from Ray Stewart instructor, for fulfilling the requirements of the Allsup's Assistant Store Manager Training Course.

The class, held at the company's home offices in Clovis, New Mexico, is a requirement for all Allsup's Assistant Managers. According to Stewart, "The training covers proper food handling, cooked food procedures, store cleanliness and maintenance as well as public relations. Ultimately, we provide customers with a professional who can better serve them, while at the same time preparing the employee for future advancement."

Legal Notices
NOTICE TO ALL PERSONS HAVING CLAIMS AGAINST THE ESTATE OF THOMAS WILLIAM HITT, DECEASED

Notice is hereby given that original Letters Testamentary upon the Estate of Thomas William Hitt, Deceased, were issued to me, the undersigned, on the 3rd day of November, 1980, in the proceeding indicated below my signature hereto, which is still pending, and that I now hold such Letters. All persons having claims against said estate, which is being administered in the County of Deaf Smith, are hereby required to present the same to me, at the address below given, before suit upon same are barred by the general statutes of limitation, before such estate is closed, and within the time prescribed by law. The address of Dixie Fortenberry is 148 Northwest Drive, Hereford, Texas 79045. DATED This 3rd day of November, 1980.

On Nov. 4, 1979, Iranian militants seized the United States embassy in Tehran along with its occupants, and demanded the ousted Shah of Iran as ransom.

On this date: In 1825, the first boat to reach New York City by using the Erie Canal arrived nine days after leaving the Great Lakes port of Buffalo.

In 1922, the entrance to King Tutankhamen's tomb was discovered in Egypt.

In 1944, the World War II allies announced that Greece had been completely liberated from the Nazis.

In 1952, Dwight Eisenhower was elected the 34th president of the United States - becoming the first republican to win that office in 20 years.

And in 1973, Sen. Edward Brooke of Massachusetts became the first Republican senator to publicly urge President Richard Nixon to resign.

Ten years ago, the United Nations General Assembly called for a 90-day cease-fire in the Middle East.

Five years ago, Federal Reserve Board chief Arthur Burns said he still was not convinced that the need was clear for federal financial aid to New York City, which was on the brink of default.

Today's birthdays: CBS News anchorman Walter Cronkite is 64 years old. Actor Art Carney is 62.

Thought for today: Political elections are a good deal like marriages: there's no accounting for anyone's taste. - Will Rogers, American humorist, 1879-1935.

Unbeaten Georgia 2nd in Poll

Top Spot to Notre Dame

By JAMES LITKE
AP Sports Writer

Notre Dame's Fighting Irish, climbing slowly but steadily through the ranks, finally reached the penthouse, moving into the No. 1 spot in the Associated Press college football poll.

"It's a great achievement for the players. They've overcome a lot of adversity and we've had a lot of injuries," Coach Dan Devine said Monday. "But this team has great character. They've worked hard and they deserve the honor."

Notre Dame, unbeaten in seven outings after manhandling Navy 33-0 last Saturday, entered last weekend in the No. 3 spot behind Alabama and UCLA.

But Mississippi State halted the Crimson Tide, 6-3, for the first time this season -- a feat which vaulted Mississippi State into the 19th ranking -- and just hours later, Arizona overcame the unbeaten Bruins 23-17.

Notre Dame, the 1977 national champion, polled 47 first-place votes and a total of 1,281 points while Georgia, undefeated in eight starts after a 13-10 win over South Carolina, received 15 first place votes and moved into second place. The loss dropped the Gamecocks to No. 15.

Florida State took the third spot by demolishing Tulsa 45-2; Southern California jumped from seventh to No. 4 by wrecking California, 60-7, and Nebraska climbed to fifth with a 38-16 win over Missouri. Once-beaten Ohio State, moved up to No. 7 after a 48-16 win over Michigan State, while Alabama fell to sixth and UCLA to No. 8.

Pittsburgh, a 43-6 victor over Syracuse, jumped from No. 11 to ninth, and Penn State climbed into tenth place in from No. 13 after a 27-12 win over Miami.

"It's great, but we still have to play Georgia Tech this week," said Devine. "However, I don't think we'll suffer a letdown. We've been through too much already."

Notre Dame began this season in the No. 11 spot and rolled to a 31-10 victory over Purdue in the opener to make it up seventh. But the Irish were idle the following week, slipping to eighth, and a chaotic, last-second win over Michigan -- on a 51-yard field goal by Harry Oliver -- merely moved them back to No. 7.

When Michigan State succumbed, Notre Dame remained entrenched in seventh, but the win cost it the services of Phil Carter, then second among the nation's ground-gainers, for the next four games.

After beating Miami, Notre Dame clambered into fifth, and snuck into fourth the next week by whipping Army.

When Arizona fell in a road game, the Irish were ranked third, poised and ready to strike.

"It's nice to be No. 1," concluded Devine, "but when it comes right down to it, it doesn't count until after the season."

Elsewhere, Oklahoma moved up five spots to No. 11 with a 41-7 pounding of North Carolina, which slipped to No. 14; Michigan climbed six spots to No. 12 by whitewashing Indiana 35-0; Brigham Young advanced to No. 13 by destroying Texas-El Paso 83-7; Baylor, dropped to No. 16 by losing its first, 30-22 to San Jose State; Purdue climbed to No. 17 by whipping Northwestern 52-31; Southern Methodist inched up one to 18 with a 27-0 blanking of Texas A&M, and Florida cracked the Top 20 by topping Auburn 21-10.

Hill Picked Again As Player of Week

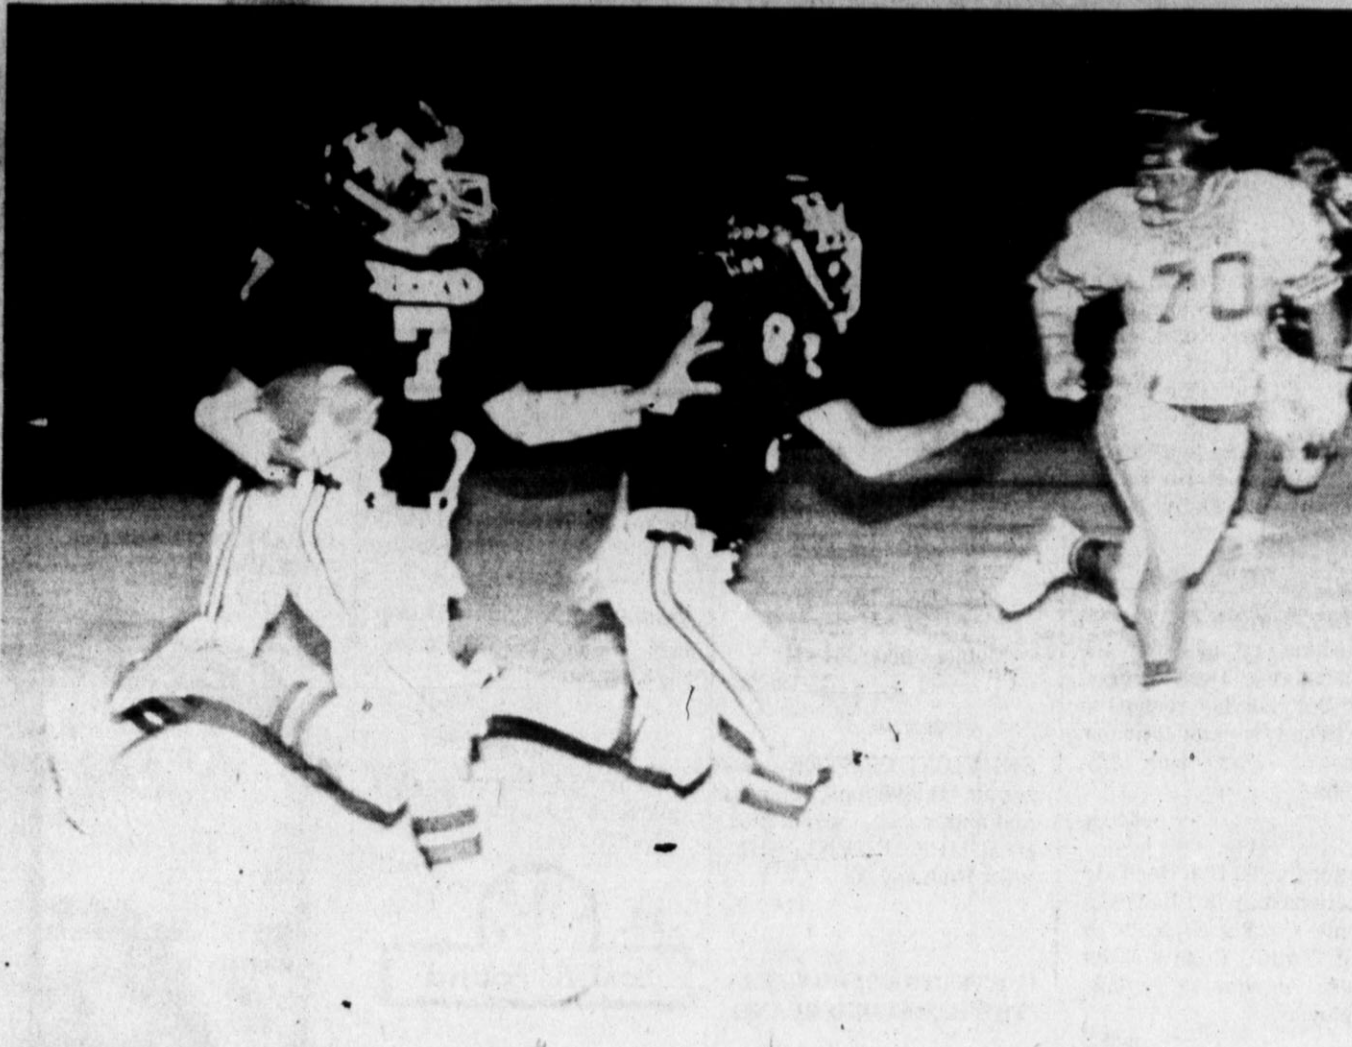

Norman Hill, senior Hereford football player, has been named Class 5A defensive player of the week by the Amarillo Globe-News.

Hill was picked for his role in the Herd's 24-11 upset of previously undefeated Lubbock Coronado last Friday. Hill intercepted three passes in the game and two of them led to Whiteface scores. He returned one interception to the Coronado one-yard line, after a 34-yard runback.

Hill also knocked down a couple of other passes and logged a number of important tackles in the big game. It marked the second time this season that Hill has been selected for the week's defensive honor by an area newspaper.

The triumph over Coronado kept Hereford in the midst of the district 4-5A race.

The Globe-News' offensive honor of the week went to Amarillo Caprock's Juan Diaz. Caprock also recorded an upset, knocking off Tascosa by a 20-13 score. Diaz, a 5-7, 140-pounder, carried 24 times for 99 yards.

Pickoff Return

Norman Hill (7) picked off a Coronado pass and returned it 34 yards to set up a 1-yard touchdown play in the 24-11 upset over Coronado Friday night. Hill picked up a couple of blockers on the runback, including Felix Soliz (81), as seen in the above photo. Hill had two other interceptions and

Cleveland Clips Battling Bears

CLEVELAND (AP) — Brian Sipe, becoming the greatest passer in the Cleveland Browns' storied National Football League history, threw one touchdown pass and set up three other scores in a 27-21 Monday night victory over the Chicago Bears.

Sipe, who completed 23-of-39 passes for 298 yards to drive the 6-3 Browns back into a first-place tie with Houston in the American Conference Central Division, hit Reggie Rucker with a 4-yard pass 57 seconds before halftime for a 10-0 lead. He also guided Cleveland to Don Cockroft field goals of 23 and 42 yards and Mike Pruitt's 1-yard touchdown dive.

Pruitt, who gained 129 yards on 27 carries, put the game away with a 56-yard touchdown sprint with 3:35 to play after Chicago had narrowed the margin to 20-14.

Sipe finished the nationally televised contest with 13,534 career yards, surpassing Hall of Famer Otto Graham, who threw for 13,499 yards when he quarterbacked the Browns for their first six years in the NFL, starting in 1950. Graham also was their QB for their four years in the All-America Football Conference.

In his seventh full season with Cleveland and his fifth as a regular, Sipe came into the game as the Browns' No. 3 career passer — but it took him less than five minutes to pass Frank Ryan's 13,361 yards.

For the first half, it was all

Cleveland as the Browns' defense limited Chicago to 62 total yards while the Browns were rolling up 241 — 201 of them by Sipe.

But Vince Evans, who managed just 26 passing yards for the Bears in the opening half, brought them alive in the second half, bootlegging the ball 7 yards for a third-quarter TD, whipping it 17 yards to Brian Baschnagel with 4:45 to play, then passing to Robjn Earl for 6 yards with 37 seconds on the clock.

Evans finished with completions on 18 of 33 attempts for 201 yards.

Walter Payton, the Bears' premier runner, was strangely inactive carrying the ball just 11 times for 30 yards. All but two of those carries and two of those yards came in the first half.

Watts Named As Player of Week

DALLAS (AP) - Ted Watts would rather make a big hit than return an interception for a touchdown. He got to enjoy both Saturday.

He made a 34-yard interception return for a touchdown and made a tackle that led to another interception.

Such timely heroics earned the senior from Tarpon Springs, Fla., the satisfaction of helping the Texas Tech Red Raiders to a 24-20 upset victory over the Longhorns and The Associated Press Southwest Conference Defensive Player of the Week Award.

"Ted has just been a great leader for this team," said Tech Coach Rex Dockery. "I don't guess I've ever had a player with the knack of being around the ball like Ted. He's up there at the top of the chart on making tackles and reads the passing plays well enough to be on hand to breakup the passes."

Watts received the "big hit" award for the game against the Longhorns.

A Red Raider receives the "big hit" award on a tackle where everybody in the stadium knows about it, said Tech sports information director Joe Hornaday.

Watts made the tackle at the Tech 10 yard line late in the game and as a pass caromed off the receiver's shoulder pads into Randle's arms.

The All-SWC Watts knocked down two passes, once sky-high to bat a ball away from Texas' giant tight end Lawrence Sampleton, and was credited with three unassisted tackles and five assists.

For the year, Watts has made a total of 50 tackles — tops on the Red Raider team — and has broken up eight passes.

Watts said of his interception, "I wasn't sure I could go all the way but I decided to give it a run for the money. It kind of surprised me I scored but I got some great blocking."

He started up the right sideline then cut across the field for the score that gave Tech a 14-0 lead.

Watts was part of a Tech defense that allowed Texas zero yards in the final quarter. Texas passed eight times in the final period for one yard and rushed seven times for a minus yard.

"You know I think I'd rather make a big hit than intercept a pass and return it for a touchdown," said Watts. "There's just something about stopping a running back or a receiver in his tracks."

Last Saturday, Watts did it all.

Hereford Win Knocks Coronado from Poll

By The Associated Press Newcomers Harlingen in Class 5A, Huntsville in 4A and Mart in 2A have joined the ranks of The Associated Press Schoolboy Football Poll.

Temple in 5A, Bay City in 4A, Childress in 3A and Pilot Point in 2A continued to hold onto their No. 1 rankings however in the weekly balloting by sport writers and sportscasters throughout the state.

Lubbock Coronado's 24-11 loss to Hereford dropped Coronado from its No. 7 rating last week out of the poll and Harlingen, 8-0, moved in as No. 10. Stafford Dulles, which clinched a district title last week, moved up from 10th to eighth.

Ennis, ranked ninth in 4A last week, dropped off the list this week after a 21-6 loss to No. 6 Corsicana and Beaumont Hebert, rated fourth last week, fell to seventh after a 10-10 tie with Jasper.

Huntsville, 6-1-1, also with a tie against Jasper, moved in as the No. 10 ranked team.

There were no upsets or major changes in Class 3A although Allen exchanged positions with Slaton, moving from sixth to fifth.

Previously unbeaten Baird was the lone loser in 2A and dropped from its No. 9 ranking out of the poll. Mart, 7-1, which appeared in the poll for one week earlier this season, returned to the No. 10 position.

Arkansas Dominates Cross-Country Meet

DALLAS (AP) — Mark Andersen paced Arkansas to five of seven first places and the widest point margin in Southwest Conference records Monday in the school's seventh consecutive cross-country championship.

Arkansas runners totaled 23 points to Texas' 71 and Baylor's 79 at Los Rios Country Club to gain a 48-point cushion, the largest since the SWC began keeping team results in 1957.

Arkansas' score also was the lowest with all schools competing, although Texas scored 20 points in 1964 when only three schools entered enough runners to compete and when scoring rules were different. Under the new rules, Texas would have had 27 points in 1964.

Texas did fashion an upset of sorts by claiming second and third places, with Arkansas sweeping the next four. The first five finishers on each team count toward the team title, but each school can enter as many as seven runners.

Houston came in fourth with 123, Texas A&M fifth with 144, Rice sixth with 146, Texas Tech seventh with 156, SMU eighth with 204, TCU ninth with 252.

Andersen won the 10,000-meter course with a time of 30:28. Trailing him were a pair of newcomers from Texas, Geoffrey Koeh in 30:42 and Petro Rivero Flores in 30:46. The next four finishers, all from Arkansas, were David Barney in 30:48, Tony Conroy in 30:53, David Taylor in 31:05, and Pat Vaughn in 31:10. Rounding out the top ten were Mike Bonem of Rice in 31:40, James Scott of Baylor in 31:47 and Rob Topping of SMU in 31:53.

Bob "Curly" Nigh would have taken over the leadership of the Fearless Forecaster panel this week, but temporary sports editor Mauri Montgomery hit a lucky streak and guessed all of the pro games correctly.

James Stout went along with Montgomery on most of his picks and he compiled a 20-6 won-lost record with the sports editor. That feat moved Stout ahead of publisher Speedy Nieman.

Nigh and guest panelist Tracy Shepherd each hit 19 of

Kickoff Time Changed For Bear-Hog Tilt

WACO, Texas (AP) — Kickoff here for Saturday's Southwest Conference game between Baylor and Arkansas has been moved up from 2 p.m., to 11:35 a.m., so the contest may be televised regionally, Conference officials announced Monday.

The match is the homecoming game for the unbeaten Bears, on top of the SWC with their 5-0 record.

the 26 games last week. Montgomery has a 67.9 percentage for the season, still short of the guest spot on the panel — now showing a composite mean of 69.7. Nigh is next at 66.7 percent, while Stout moved up to 64.5 and Nieman trails at 63.7.

The Brand's weekly contest, as usual, came up with some better forecasters. Ancil McDowell and K. Phommvong missed only four games each, and teh two tied for first place when both hit the tie-breaker total of 35 points on the nose. The Hereford-Coronado game served as the tie-breaker.

There was also a tie for third place as Sharon Mitts and Ricky Yosten missed five games and each missed the tie-breaker total by seven points. Jason Bullard also missed five games, but his tie-breaker total was not as close.

This was the ninth week of the contest. First-place winners who have become eligible for the grand prizes at the end of the season include Murlene Streun, Jerry Morgan, David Caldwell, Scott Debord, Lela Duggan, Karen Marsh, Armando Alaniz, Tracy Shephard, Ansel McDowell and K. Phommvong.
