

Office Locations Pondered by Dist. Tax Board

By JIM STEIERT
Managing Editor

Members of the Deaf Smith County district tax appraisal board began eyeing the varied considerations for consolidating assessment and collection activities of the various county taxing entities during a session at city hall Thursday night, and quickly discovered there are numerous details that must be worked out before moving ahead with the program.

Board members were to consider aspects such as combining the tax offices, contracts with local tax offices, and possible tax office locations at last night's meeting, but whichever topic arose, members found there are still many questions to be answered and that progress on a central tax office will be slow.

Chief Appraiser Fred Fox reported to the board on various considerations of combining the tax offices, and members took up a considerable deal of time in discussing the merits of using existing tax office facilities and having two offices, or locating in one central office.

try emphasized that the central appraisal and collection procedure under one roof would vacate tax office space at both city hall and the school administration building—an occurrence he pointed out would leave empty space at those locations because the offices were needed only for tax purposes.

"Can we utilize the existing office space at the school and city hall and make this thing work somehow," Gentry quizzed.

Gentry pointed out that appraisals could be done at the school administration building with collection for all entities at city hall.

Tax consultant Jim McMorries and Fox pointed out that a central location would have merits for collection purposes due to the fact that many individuals desire to see how their taxes are figured at the time they come in to pay.

Gentry argued that only a minimal number of individuals would desire this explanation and could be sent to an appraisal office to receive it.

"Is it worth $8,000 to $10,000 of the taxpayers' money to have appraisal and collection all in one location," stated Gentry.

"It would be money well spent to consolidate," McMorries remarked.

"I'm not as concerned about a $10,000 expense as I am about a flub in setting up," he added.

Board Chairman Bruce Coleman then asked representatives of the various entities represented by the tax board to prepare facts on the merits of central or separate assessing and collecting locations, with reports due at the board's next meeting Oct. 24.

In his report Thursday Fox explained that property descriptions might be condensed after the tax offices are combined.

"City collections probably should be handled just like they are now. The school district and county are very similar in their collections too, and I see no reason not to let each entity take care of its own auditing with an independent audit of the district," stated Fox.

Board members also discussed the possibility of the city and county entities continuing to pay their own employees and contracting them out to the appraisal district, in order to maintain retirement benefits and insurance.

Gentry commented that such an arrangement would have to be with a contract stipulation that the appraisal district will set salaries, and added that there is a possibility that the legislature will establish some form of retirement program and insurance benefits for appraisal district workers.

Fox also reported that computer firm representatives will be in Hereford Oct. 22 and will help answer questions on combining tax data in a computer program at that time.

Discussion also centered on description of property among the entities involved in the central taxing office, and the need for computer services for the office.

Coleman commented late in the meeting that the district could "very easily save $10,000 in the way we use personnel once we get this thing going."

Board members will also discuss contract possibilities between the various entities at their next meeting.

Discussing Campaign

Supporters of Democratic state senate candidate Bill Sarpalius of Hereford gathered last night for a bean and cornbread supper and fundraiser at the Hereford Community Center. Among those shown here as they discuss the campaign are, from left, Lynton Allred, Kent Hance, 19th Congressional District representative from Lubbock, James Witherspoon and Sarpalius. A good turnout was noted for last night's fundraiser and Chinese auction.

Sarpalius Campaign Gets Boost from Hance

Approximately 150 persons attended a cornbread and bean supper for state senatorial candidate Bill Sarpalius here Thursday night, and heard U.S. Rep. Kent Hance appeal for the election of the Hereford Democrat.

The supper, held at the high school cafeteria, also featured a fund-raising auction and entertainment by the Hereford Chamber Singers.

Congressman Hance stressed that Sarpalius needed funds for television time and other advertising in the closing weeks of the campaign. "Sarpalius has laid the proper groundwork, traveling around the district and securing grassroots support. This is the most important support, but his opponent is out-spending him and Sarpalius needs more financial help," Hance explained.

"No matter where you live, you have on state representative, one state senator and one Congressman from your district. They have just one vote, so they must have influence. Hereford and the district need effective representation, and Sarpalius is the man who can provide it," Hance added.

Bullock Tells Brilab Jury His Actions Wouldn't Differ

HOUSTON (AP) — State Comptroller Bob Bullock told jurors hearing the Texas Brilab trial he would have acted no differently than Texas House Speaker Billy Clayton if offered $5,000 from an influential labor leader.

Asked under cross-examination Thursday what he would have done if he had been offered $5,000 as Clayton was, Bullock replied, "I would have done the same thing that House Speaker Billy Clayton did. I'd take it, put it away and return it later."

Clayton and Austin attorneys Randall Wood and Donald Ray are accused of extortion, racketeering, bribery and conspiracy in an alleged insurance kickback scheme.

The three, along with Deer Park labor leader L.G. Moore, were indicted June 12 by a federal grand jury on evidence gathered in the 10-month FBI Brilab investigation. Moore, regional director of the International Operating Engineers Union, is to be tried later.

Clayton acknowledged he received $5,000 from Moore, but said he thought the money was a campaign contribution and planned to return it at a later date.

Prosecutors contend Clayton, who has spent 20 years in the State Legislature and is seeking an unprecedented fourth term as speaker, accepted the $5,000 as a bribe to reopen bidding on a $76 million-a-year state employees insurance contract.

The government, using secret tape recordings, is trying to prove the lawmaker accepted the money from Moore with hopes of receiving an additional $500,000 a year if another company got the state's business.

But Bullock, who described himself as a liberal and distant from Clayton politically, insisted he found nothing wrong with the speaker's actions.

"If Speaker Clayton had taken that money and intended to use it for political purposes, he would have reported it," Bullock said.

U.S. Attorney A.J. "Tony" Canales chipped away at the high-ranking state official's testimony.

"How long would it have taken you to return a hypothetical $5,000?" Canales asked.

"Not until I sat down with him again. I wouldn't have sent it through the mail... I'd want to look him in the eye," Bullock replied.

It's been another busy week in Hereford for a lot of folks. The HHS Homecoming parade should liven up the community this afternoon, and another big football game is on tap tonight.

The Rotary Club started sponsoring a car show several years ago and it seems to get more popular each time. The show starts at noon Saturday and continues through Sunday afternoon. The community Clean-Up Campaign is underway and anyone needing help can call the C of C office Saturday morning and get the services of some Key Club members. The chamber office also has big trash bags available, contributed by McDonald's Restaurant.

As most readers know, this is National Fire Prevention Week, and the Hereford Kiwanis Club helped observe the event by inviting members of the Hereford Volunteer Fire Department to the club's weekly luncheon meeting Thursday. Twenty-two firemen attended the meeting and were recognized by club president Terry Langehenning.

Supporters of Bill Sarpalius held a supper here Thursday night to promote their candidate for the state senate. The incumbent, Bob Price, will be in town Monday to campaign and speak to the Deaf Smith Republican Women's Organization.

Remember the "World's Longest Horseback Ride"?

Thomas L. Gaddie, who came through Hereford in March, called us yesterday from Dodge City, Kan., to report on his quest for a new horseback-ride record. He's covered 8,700 miles and plans to re-enter Texas and ride around the north and east part of the state before terminating the ride in Dallas.

Gaddie remembers his stop in Hereford. The wind and sand was blowing and he had shoes put on a couple of horses here. After leaving Hereford, he went to Vega, Dalhart and on up into Colorado—where he was snow-bound for two weeks.

The record Gaddie is attempting to break—10,000 miles by horseback—was set in 1926. The ride started in Dallas and Gaddie hopes to cover about 11,000 miles by the time he returns.

This week is being observed nationally as Consumer Protection week. The U.S. Postal Service is doing its part by cracking down on work-at-home promotions that are found to be misleading or fraudulent.

One promotion that has drawn investigation of postal inspectors is the envelope stuffing offer. While the postal service does not label all work-at-home promotions as fraudulent, postal inspectors say they have yet to find an envelope stuffing offer that is legitimate.

The Brand, some months ago, started refusing all ads of this type because some of our readers had complained about their dealings with such promotions.

Citizens who think they might be the victim of a fraudulent work-at-home offer should contact the postmaster. The postal inspectors also are looking for such offers in any publication.

Oil Port Fight Grows Stiffer

BAGHDAD, Iraq (AP) — Iraqi forces were reported running into stiff resistance in Iran's oil port of Khorramshahr and falling back along a broad front near Ahwaz as both sides poured reinforcements into the battle zone at the head of the Persian Gulf.

Libya declared support for Iran in the war, becoming the first Arab nation to do so, and demanded Saudi Arabia return four U.S. planes used to sion the fighting. The Libyans also were reported supplying Iran with large quantities of arms and ammunition.

Iraq issued little information on its 19-day-old offensive aimed at Khorramshahr on the disputed Shatt al-Arab waterway and at the nearby Iranian refinery of Abadan, some 70 miles south of Ahwaz, capital of Iran's oil-rich Khuzestan Province.

Iranian news agency reported an Iraqi MiG jet raided the railroad station in Ahwaz and artillery shelled the station, killing 14 people. Iran said Iraqi warplanes also bombed two hospitals in Ahwaz, killing "a number of people," and shelled Abadan, demolishing part of the Red Crescent building.

Iranian President Abolhassan Bani-Sadr, in a statement on Tehran Radio, urged the Iranian people not to be alarmed by the explosions in Ahwaz, saying "this is a daily occurrence, our own forces are causing similar explosions in Iraqi territory."

He said Iranian ground forces advanced six miles against the Iraqi invaders along a 24-mile front in the sector near Ahwaz and declared, "We are entering the final phase of the war."

An Iraqi commander said the Iranians continued to hold the key bridge with an emplacement of five or six tanks. He said the Iranians were able to lob shells on the port but could not advance on the ground.

An Iraqi military communique reported two Iranian helicopters shot down over the southern sector Thursday and said 16 Iranians were killed. It said Iraqi ground forces destroyed power stations and set fuel depots afire in Ahwaz.

Price to Visit Here Monday

State Senator Bob Price is scheduled to speak at the noon meeting of Deaf Smith Republican Women's Organization Monday at the Hereford State Bank community room.

Jane White, president, has invited the public to attend the open meeting. She stressed that men as well as women are welcome.

Prior to the Monday meeting, Price will visit with Hereford residents concerning his re-election to the Texas Senate on the Republican ticket. He is completing his first term in that seat.

Members and visitors may bring a sandwich lunch to the meeting. Coffee and cold drinks are available in the community room.

French Women

Tour U.S. Backroads

TEXARKANA, Texas (AP) — Airplanes and interstate highways mean little to two young French women who have opted for a more leisurely tour of the United States.

Since June 1978, they have ridden the backroads of the nation by horse and buggy.

Chantal Herbe, 25, and Isabelle Briand, 22, entered the northeast corner of Texas this week on the last leg of their trip through six other states.

When they arrive in Dallas, they plan to sell their horse and small, red covered wagon, the "Viaje II," and buy a car for the return to Montreal. Then they plan to write a book about their adventure.

"We carry some canned food, sleeping bags and oats for the horse" on the tiny wagon, Miss Briand said.

School Explosion

Kills Teenager

INDEPENDENCE, Ky. (AP) — A dozen art students were painting Halloween goblins on Simon Kenton High School windows when a fiery blast from the boiler room next door slammed them across the room, killing one teen-ager.

"We heard a sudden hissing, like steam, coming from the wall ... five seconds, and the whole wall blew up," said art teacher Linda Whittenburg.

A half-hour later, after some 1,000 students had fled the school, a second explosion rocked the building, triggering a fire and gutting three floors in the north wing.

The cause of the noontime blast, which injured 33 people, had not yet been determined, Kentucky fire investigators said.

The tremor from the second explosion rattle homes a half-mile from the school, residents said.

Bank Takes Over Service

AMARILLO, Texas (AP) — An Amarillo bank called in all collateral on loans to an ambulance service franchise Thursday after the Oregon-based company announced plans to discontinue service in the Panhandle city.

Medical Services Inc. of Eugene, Ore., cited financial troubles in announcing its plan to shut down its year-long Amarillo operations as of Wednesday.

Amarillo National Bank, however, which is owed $170,000 by the company, called in the loans so that service could continue until the problem is solved.

The company also owes $215,000 to a variety of suppliers and other creditors. Ambulance company officials said continued operation in the city would lead them farther into the red.

Although the bank has taken control of the company's accounts receivable, it agreed to allow the payroll to be met today, and to turn over ambulances, equipment and keys to MSI's Amarillo manager so that service could continue.

Vicious Killer Being Sought

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP) — A vicious killer who cut out the hearts of two black taxi drivers may have been "touched off" by the murders of four black men who were shot in the head with a .22-caliber pistol, the county prosecutor says.

But District Attorney Edward C. Cosgrove said Thursday he didn't believe the two sets of slayings were committed by the same person.

A manhunt by some 100 policemen — the biggest effort in Erie County history, he said — has been launched to find the killers.

"I can't imagine a more serious, traumatic situation occurring in a U.S. community," Cosgrove said.

Hours after the discovery Thursday of the mutilated body of cabbie Ernest Jones, 40, the sixth murder victim in three weeks, a 10-foot cross was set ablaze in a black residential neighborhood.

Baghdad Radio said Thursday that Iraqi forces were "destroying vital military and economic installations" at Dezful and that the city, 150 miles north of Khorramshahr "is at the mercy of our ground fire."

Iran accused Iraq of using giant ground-to-ground missiles for the first time in the war Wednesday night. It said the missiles hit Dezful and neighboring Andimeshk, killing 110 civilians and wounding 300 in Dezful and killing 60 to 70 people in Andimeshk.

An Iranian military communique said each missile weighed 4,400 pounds and had a range of about 40 miles — about the distance from the Iraqi border to Dezful, a vital road and rail center that connects western Iran to Tehran, the capital.

Ayatollah Ruhollah Khomeini, Iran's revolutionary leader and Shiite Moslem patriarch, called Iraqi President Saddam Hussein "the dirty agent of colonialism" and said he "will be driven out of his country and an Islamic government will replace him in Iraq."

Since he ousted the shah 20 months ago, Khomeini has preached Islamic revolution and stressed the leading role of the Shiites as opposed to the Sunni Moslems who rule Iraq. Although both countries are Moslem, the Iranians are predominantly Persian and the Iraqis Arab. The ethnic minority in Khuzistan is also Arab, has been battling Khomeini for autonomy ever since the revolution, and has been urged by Iraq to join in the war against the Tehran regime.

Iran said it planned to send a delegation to friendly countries to explain Iran's stand in the war and that Iran also hoped to put its case before the U.N. Security Council. Iraq sent envoys to Turkey, Greece, India, Saudi Arabia, Kuwait and Italy. Western diplomats in Ankara said they believed Hussein's envoy asked for Turkish mediation to end the conflict.

Secretary-General Habib Chatti of the Islamic Conference also planned to go to Tehran and Baghdad in a new effort to promote settlement of the war. President Mohammed Zia ul-Haq of Pakistan said. The 40-nation Islamic Conference asked Zia to try to arrange a mediation effort. Chatti was in Belgrade, Yugoslavia, for a conference on Islam sponsored by the United Nations.

Meanwhile, Iranian Prime Minister Mohammad Ali Rajai told a Japanese TV correspondent in Tehran that "America is in no way concerned" with the 52 American hostages, who today began their 342nd day in captivity. Rajai was quoted by Tehran Radio as saying in the interview that "even if all (hostages) were killed America would not consider it important, for it uses them as a pretext for any action to advance its interests."

Names in the News

NEW YORK (AP) — High over Central Park, the clouds spelled out, "Happy Birthday John and Sean. Love, Yoko...Happy Birthday John and Sean. Love, Yoko..." Ten times, in fact.

The messages were birthday greetings from Yoko Ono to her husband John Lennon and son Sean.

The former Beatle turned 40 on Thursday. Sean is 5.

Mort Arken, owner of the Queens-based Skytypers East, said Miss Ono had called him the day before asking for skywritten messages between 3:30 and 4:30 p.m. over Central Park near The Dakota, a stately, exclusive apartment house overlooking the park where the family lives.

The message, written at 10,000 feet with each character 1,000 feet tall, cost $3,000.

CHICAGO (AP) — Politicians got no votes from the Custom Tailors Guild of America this season.

Instead, entertainer Bob Hope topped the Ten Best Dressed Men in America list, the Chicago-based organization said Thursday.

"President Carter, who got just enough votes to be on our list last year, has slipped badly in his selection and cut of clothing, while Ronald Reagan never did know how to be stylish," said Guild president Alfonso Caprio.

It was the first time in 33 years, that the poll excluded pols.

MONTE CARLO, Monaco (AP) — Princess Caroline of Monaco has been granted a divorce from her husband of two years, Philippe Junot, the wealthy French playboy whom she married against her parents' wishes.

The Judiciary Revision Court of this tiny Mediterranean principality granted the divorce without stipulating grounds only six days after the request was filed.

The 23-year-old princess is the daughter of Prince Rainier and Princess Grace, the former American movie star Grace Kelly.

The couple's separation had been announced in August after months of rumors about the marriage being in trouble.

The palace announcement came shortly after a West German magazine published a photograph of Junot, 40, emerging from a Paris apartment with a girl who had her arm around his neck.

DALLAS (AP) — Police said Thursday they suspect foul play in the disappearance of a 10-year-old mentally retarded boy from an Oak Cliff park.

Miguel Esparza last was seen about 4 p.m. Tuesday at Weiss Park, said his grandfather, Pedro Esparza. Officers fruitlessly searched a nearby creekbed Thursday.

A playmate of the boy told police two men in a blue pickup forced the boy inside, but Youth Division investigator R. Garza said "that story has been discounted because he's changed it so many times."

"We do suspect foul play, but we don't know who or why," Garza said Thursday night.

The boy, who has the mind of a 5-year-old, has lived with his grandparents since he was a baby. His parents, who live in McAllen, were en route to Dallas Thursday, relatives said.

Esparza said his grandson never wandered from home before.

The boy, 3-feet-6-inches and 70 pounds, was wearing a blue football jersey with the number 12 and gray pants when last seen.

SAN ANGELO, Texas (AP) — The City of San Angelo and a construction company were named as defendants in a $1 million lawsuit filed Thursday by the widow of a worker killed in a sewer trench cave-in almost two years ago.

David Zapata, 27, and Earl Cook, 64, were crushed to death Nov. 2, 1978, after a 40-foot section of caliche weighing several tons broke off one side of the 12-foot trench they were digging.

Teresa Guzman Zapata, acting in behalf of herself and her two daughters, named the city and Reece Albert Inc. in the suit, filed in district court. She seeks $500,000 in

Brown Says U.S. Ready for War

EL PASO, Texas (AP) — Secretary of Defense Harold Brown sees at least one encouraging aspect of the Iraq-Iran war, despite his insistence that the United States is strictly neutral and only wants to see the fighting stop.

"Even after almost two years of lack of supply and running down of an Iranian military, which was supplied and trained by the U.S., Iran has nevertheless stood up pretty well," the defense secretary told reporters Thursday during a trip here to visit troops at Fort Bliss.

During the visit, he knocked reports of a weakened, ineffective U.S. military.

In Washington, The Associated Press Thursday obtained a copy of a memo that reflects new orders from Brown to military officers telling them to stress what he calls "the positive factors of our readiness" rather than shortcomings.

The memo from Maj. Gen. James H. Johnson, a senior operations officer on the Pentagon's top military staff, also said Brown has decided not to send Congress a periodic report on the services' combat readiness. Although the memo did not say so, it is presumed the report will be held up until it is revised to meet Brown's wishes.

"The Iraqi forces have been supplied and trained by the Soviets, and here's an example of a conflict between those two," Brown said in El Paso. "Many people have been surprised that the Iranians have been able to stand up as well as they have. It

Grizzly Bears Being Trapped and Relocated

WEST GLACIER, Mont. (AP) — The hair found in the intestinal tract of a slain grizzly was bear hair and not human hair, a Glacier National Park official said Thursday.

Meanwhile, park officials said problems with grizzly bears also have occurred in the residential region around the park headquarters here and three bears had been trapped and will be relocated "outside the park."

Spokesmen also said the air and ground search in an area of the park where three separate incidents involving grizzlies, one in which a Texas man died, was "winding down" and ranger teams had found no other bears in the region.

Al Trulock, an acting management assistant, said the autopsy results on a slain grizzly bear weighing nearly 400 pounds have provided "no conclusive proof" that the animal actually was the one that mauled and then ate most of the remains of Laurence Gordon, 33, of Dallas, Texas. Gordon's campsite and his remains were found last Friday in the rugged Belly River drainage in the northeast portion of the park just south of the Canadian border.

says to me that American military equipment and training are pretty good."

At a Chamber of Commerce luncheon later, Brown insisted that U.S. military forces are "ready to go to war if necessary." He denied that his declaration was prompted by Republican presidential challenger Ronald Reagan's charges that the Carter administration has allowed the nation's defenses to sag.

"The important question is, are we able to go to war if necessary and to fight effectively? Let me assure you, the answer to that question is yes," Brown told civic leaders of this West Texas city.

Earlier, reporters repeatedly questioned Brown about possible political motivations of his trip and his remarks

Three days later, during an intensive search for grizzly bears exhibiting "aggressive tendencies," the male bear was shot and killed by rangers in a helicopter. Its body was taken to a laboratory at Bozeman for analysis.

It could not be determined when Gordon was attacked and any evidence of human remains may have passed through the bear's body before it was shot. Initially, rangers said they found bear feces containing "what looked like human tissue and boot samples" matching the hiking boots worn by Gordon, who was the park's third grizzly fatality this year.

"We may never know if that was that bear" that killed Gordon but there was circumstantial evidence that it was the animal involved in a previous, non-fatal attack on three other hikers in the same general area, said Trulock.

The additional grizzly sightings in the southwestern portion of the park and nearby residential areas prompted officials to initiate a bear trapping program, Trulock said.

He said the traps were set in the area where McDonald Creek empties into the Middle Fork of the Flathead River. Trulock said the bears were seen in a heavily used fishing area, near a golf course, at a Flathead County dump site and elsewhere in the populous region.

One bear, a 2½-year-old sow, was trapped Wednesday morning and two others — also females, aged 5½ and between 8-10 years — were trapped in the pre-dawn hours Thursday, he said.

Station Reports Missing Cash

Hereford police investigated a report of some missing cash at a local service station and also answered prowler and vandalism complaints Thursday.

West Park 66 reported that $178 was missing from a cash register at that station Thursday afternoon. Police are investigating.

Manuella Valdez of 324 Lake told officers a prowler was observed looking in a window at that location but officers were unable to find a suspect.

Marion Boydston of 406 McKinley reported that someone shot holes in the windshield of a car and that several dents were made in the hood of the vehicle with a blunt instrument while the car was parked at Gebos on North Highway 385.

The theft of a brass goose valued at $16 was reported from McGee Furniture at 511 North Main.

Officers checked out eight non-offense reports and one minor traffic accident, and issued 12 citations.

Letter to the Editor

Dear Editor,

Congratulations to McDonalds Hamburgers and to Hereford High School Key Club for helping pick up other people's litter! This is a good example to other students and to the community. Since litter also bears the name, "McDonald's," it's good they're helping.

Maybe a Mr., Mrs. or Miss Clean of the month could be announced in the newspaper and on radio, and be given a small prize, such as a hamburger, malt, etc. for bringing in the most litter found on the streets?

Payday seems to be when more people litter Holly Road and elsewhere.

Maybe pay envelopes could include a note in English and in Spanish asking that cans, sacks, and wrappers be placed in trash car at home or at work or school. Maybe a litter bag could be given once a month with the pay envelope. Could litter barrels or cans be placed, with signs in English and in Spanish, such as: Pitch in, Basura aqui?

Maybe the schools also could have Mr. and Miss Clean contests. Spanish and English radio and TV programs could ask people to carry wrappers, cans, and sacks home or to the nearest litter can.

Hereford and Deaf Smith County can challenge other communities in a cleanup contest! We can also challenge other communities in a recycling contest! We help ourselves! How about a contest of which high school stadium is cleanest after the football game? We can do it, Hereford!

Victory Bell Found in Pit

The Hereford High School Victory Bell disappeared mysteriously Thursday, triggering a massive search by students after an anonymous tipster notified the Hereford police department that the bell could be found in a water reclaim pit somewhere north of Hereford.

Shortly before 5 p.m. the bell was located, with the tip of its whiteface decoration just showing above water.

The bell, covered with silt, was hauled from the pit and given a thorough washing, setting it in good shape for tonight's Homecoming festivities.

Schools Observe National Lunch Week; Parents Invited To Attend Noon Meal

Local schools will observe National School Lunch Week Oct. 12-18 according to Trudie Gray, food service director. The week, proclaimed by President Jimmy Carter, will emphasize the importance of school food service programs in the community. "A universal menu will be served in the Hereford schools and other schools across the country Oct. 15. Parent may use this time to visit the school and have lunch with their children. Reservations are required," Mrs. Gray said.

"The Hereford Schools are proud of the role which the school food service programs play in providing good nutrition for children," she said. The schools are developing a nutrition education program which uses the food service program as a "learning laboratory to illustrate nutrition principles taught in the classroom. "National School Lunch Week provides us with a reminder of the many good things happening in school food service during the entire year," Mrs. Gray said.

Country Club Celebrates Anniversary

Due to the sound and solid management of Kenneth and Ouida Halbert, the Hereford Country Club will celebrate its 20 year anniversary Saturday. The Halberts have been managing the country club 16 years and have made the establishment a place the city of Hereford can be proud of. "I think the success of the club is due to the great members and a great board of directors. They are the ones that have made this a good club," Mrs. Halbert said. However, the recent election of Mrs. Halbert to the Texas Lone Star Chapter of Club Managers says something for the management behind the scenes at the club. The chapter directors are elected to serve a three year term. The purpose of the chapter is to set policy for managers. "Usually managers from small towns are not elected to serve mainly because small town managers cannot leave their business to attend the meetings so they are not known. I'm lucky in that I have a great staff so it is easier for me to get away," Mrs. Halbert said. "At one of the club management meetings I attend a speaker said most visitors to a city will see the airport and the country club. Those two places say a great deal for the city. I think we have a good airport and good club," she said. Mrs. Halbert is in charge of publishing a monthly newsletter that informs members of activities at the club. The newsletter is usually full of activities planned throughout the month. Mr. Halbert shares the manage-

Church Slates After Game Film

Flicks 'N Things, a program sponsored by the Hereford Church of the Nazarene, will present a Homecoming special, "The Other Side of the Mountain," after the Hereford football game tonight at the Community Center. The film is scheduled to begin at 10:10 p.m. and is open to the public. "The Other Side of the Mountain," is a tragic love story about Jill Kinmont, a famous American Olympic Ski contender. During training she experiences a devastating fall that crushes five back vertebrae and severs her spinal cord. Crossroads Youth Ministries of the Hereford Church of the Nazarene invite the public to attend the film tonight.

ment duties enabling the activities to be successful. "We both work together. I just do all the talking, but I couldn't manage the club without Kenneth. We work well together," Mrs. Halbert said. At one time, Mrs. Halbert taught school in Abilene but stated the job did not really suit her. From teaching she managed a country club in Lubbock where she met people from Hereford. "I was approached by some people from Hereford who offered the management of this club to me. I accepted, and we have been here 16 years," she continued. Saturday's celebration will include dancing to music provided by two bands, Paul Neighbors and Caisens.

DEAR ANN: I have been married for 29 years and have four children. I thought our marriage was a good one. Two years ago my husband had an affair which lasted six months. When my husband left, he moved to another state but continued to send support checks for the kids and me. After six months he said the affair was over, and he wanted to return home and start over. I agreed. All went well for two weeks. Then he changed his mind again. Now he says he doesn't want to be married but will live with me as long as there are no restrictions or questions about where or how he spends his time. He says I am free to go and do as I please. I cannot live this way. It is painful and humiliating. It is not my nature to seek companionship outside of marriage. If I were to divorce him, I know from the six months he was gone that I would be very lonely. I do not have the skills to support myself. My standard of living would be at the poverty level. He refuses to try counseling. What can a woman of 45 years do in these circumstances?—Bewildered In Texas own life" under your roof, maybe you'll meet someone interesting and decent. If you feel depressed, get counseling to help you over the rough spots. Maybe, just maybe, when you abandon your pessimism and develop some self-esteem, your husband's attitude might change.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: You have spoken out for so many people through your column. Now will you please speak out for over two million people who are suffering because of ignorance and prejudice? I refer to the epileptics of America.

For hundreds of years, epileptics were believed to be possessed by demons. Anyone who had epilepsy was not permitted to marry. It was considered a "disgrace" and never mentioned outside the family. Today, thanks to modern medicine, over 50 percent of those of us who have epilepsy are seizure-free. We can hold down virtually any kind of job. But because of myths that refuse to die, we must lie to get a job, a driver's license or a decent insurance policy. It's high time we epileptics were invited out of the closet by a compassionate and enlightened public. If you agree, please publish this letter.—One In Chattanooga

DEAR ONE: I do — and here it is. The solution: education. It's the most effective antidote to ignorance and prejudice I know of.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: I have been reading your column for years, and the best advice you ever gave appeared in a Confidential a few days ago. You advised "On the Fence" to "Drop him." The rest of the Confidential went like this: "Suspicious lovers make terrible husbands. You'd be defending yourself against his accusations night and day. Also the man might be mentally ill."

I'm glad you mentioned that he might be mentally ill. I'm sure my husband was. I couldn't prove it because he seemed rational in the presence of doctors and lawyers. But I'm certain he was nutty as a fruitcake and made my life hell.—Ben There In Hutchinson, Kans.
DEAR HUTCH: Thanks for the kind words, plus the fill-in. I hope somebody out there listens.

Small Talk

By SUE COLEMAN

There'll be quite a bit going on in Hereford this weekend, with the high school homecoming no doubt making the most noise.

You don't have to be an HHS ex-student to get in on the pep rally, ball game and parade, but for the exes' get-together Saturday afternoon you may have to be a former student or married to one in order to get in.

If you're not a gate-crasher, maybe you will be interested in Hereford Garden Club's fall flower show this afternoon in Community Center (no admission charge) or the antique and special cars at the Rotary Club's show Saturday and Sunday in the Bull Barn.

Or you can still celebrate Fire Prevention Week, 4-H Week and Cleanup Week, if you hurry. There's time to help prevent fires and other unpleasant things by giving the place a good cleanup this weekend.

Maybe our county 4-H Clubs have joined the equal-rights-for-women movement and decided that women are twice as equal as men. That's my own explanation of why there are two Gold Star Girls this year instead of the usual one—and there may be a better reason.

Anyway, congratulations to Shelley Gerk and Becky Hughes for winning the award, or awards (do they split it?) and incidentally to Randy Vogel, the Gold Star 4-H Boy. It takes some work to qualify for one of those pins.

Argen and Tom Draper went to Buffalo Gap last weekend for a reunion of the Draper family, and found perfect weather and pleasant surroundings at that state park area in the Abilene vicinity.

Facilities there include two nearby restaurants, Argen said, "but the Drapers furnished their own restaurant" and good food was another thing that made a good time for all the Drapers. Along with good company, of course.

Guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Pitts the past few days were their daughters and families. Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Camp of Fort Worth, Mrs. Bobby Finley and daughters, Regina and Mrs. Don Pruitt of Hobbs, N.M., and Mrs. John Rowland and daughters, Sheri and Shelley of Amarillo and a niece, Mrs. Cynthia Francis and children Joe and Melanie of Hereford. The time was spent visiting and some were at the Hereford football game.

Holiday Dance Oct. 30

The Hereford Merry Mixers met recently with caller Freddie McKee and five squares in attendance.

The business meeting consisted of discussion about the club's anniversary and Halloween Dance scheduled for Oct. 30. All old and present members are invited to attend as well as anyone interested in taking the refresher course to begin Nov. 6. It was announced that a special business meeting will be held Oct. 30 at 7:30 p.m. to vote on new by-laws.

Ex-Mayor Claims Incident Isolated

HOUSTON (AP) — Former Houston mayor Fred Hofheinz told a federal jury that the police slaying of an unarmed teen-ager was "a very isolated incident" and not a "condemnation of the whole chain of command."

Hofheinz testified Thursday in a $2 million federal court suit filed against the city of Houston, the police department and six former officers by the parents of a Louisiana teen-ager shot to death by police in 1977.

However, U.S. District Judge George E. Cire dismissed the suit against two of the former officers after attorneys for John and Billie Webster of Shreveport, La., rested their case Thursday.

The judge dropped the suit against Paul D. Dillon, who testified he didn't know the gun found next to the body was placed there by officers, and J.A. Estes, who said he overheard discussion of the throw-down gun.

Randall Webster, 17, was killed following a high-speed chase by police. Two officers were convicted last spring of perjury and conspiring to plant a throw-down gun next to the teen-ager's body to justify the shooting.

Hofheinz, who was mayor from 1974 to 1978, had asked Cire to quash his subpoena and had told Webster family attorney K. Michael Meyers that he would be a hostile witness.

In combative responses, the former mayor admitted he once criticized the police department for a "pattern of excess and coverup," but he defended his administration's efforts to increase supervision of the department to prevent incidents of excessive force.

"In this case one officer acted wrong but that is not a condemnation of the whole chain of command. I think we did a marvelous job during my administration of increasing supervision. One slip up does not condemn four whole years," he said.

Judge Doesn't Take Broken Foot Sitting Down
LANSING, Mich. (AP) — Lansing District Court Judge William Collette isn't taking his broken foot sitting down because this is the time of the year for running.

Collette is running — hobbling may be a better word — for election Nov. 4.

"This is terrible," says Collette, who has a cast on his left foot and is on crutches.

"I'm being laughed at by every court employee and all my friends. If it wasn't right in the middle of the campaign, it would be funny," Collette said Thursday.

What isn't so funny is how he broke the foot.

"I was just getting started (campaigning) and as I was leaving the third house I'd been to, I turned to say good-bye and started down the steps," he explained.

Instead of landing on the step, his foot hit the edge and his body weight shifted back on it.

Now, he says he'll just have to convince voters "that I have been walking up and down stairs very successfully for almost 35 years."

Up to Their Necks in Knowledge

BEAUFORT, S.C. (AP) — Three eighth graders on a field trip to a marsh got a little too immersed in their studies.

They were stuck up to their necks in mud Wednesday and were pulled, unharmed, to safety.

The three, whose names were not released, were members of an earth science class at Beaufort Junior High School, officials said. They became impatient during a trip to a Beaufort Bay marsh to gather marine samples and decided not to wait for the tide to rise. They began walking over the mud to the water.

The class was equipped with boards and poles, but "the students were whooping it up, didn't do what the teacher told them, and some people got hysterical," said Principal Riddick Trowell.

"I'm distressed...but the students really were in no danger," he said, adding future trips are still on for the marine biology program.

Beaufort policemen used life preservers and ropes to pull the students back to solid ground, Trowell said. Several other pupils also got stuck, though not as deeply, he said.

All of the muddy students were cleaned off at school. The three won't be going on any more outings, the principal said.

University Admitting Unqualified Students

AUSTIN, Texas (AP) — The chairman of the Texas College Coordinating Board says she suspects a major educational institution is admitting everyone who applies — qualified or not — to inflate enrollment and get more state money.

Beryl Milburn said her suspicions came from other published reports. And although she did not name the school in her memorandum, a statement from the Coordinating Board said the memo stemmed from reports that the University of Houston Central Campus was admitting students without the necessary credentials.

The Coordinating Board said the memo — dated Wednesday — had been sent to chairmen of the 15 public senior college governing boards.

"I was disappointed to read last week that one of our major research universities introduced a new policy to admit all applying students regardless whether their records, transfer materials or SAT (Scholastic Aptitude Test) scores have been completed and submitted to the school," said Mrs. Milburn.

"I understand that admitting students with incomplete records is a practice among a number of our other colleges and universities," she said. "However, I am concerned that one of our major institutions aspiring to greatness and on record as committed to high quality has lowered its standards in this way."

"The introduction of such policy at this time causes one to suspect that this is being done in order to increase enrollment figures during the base period for calculating formula income for the next biennium," she said.

"In fact, a statement that this was a major reason for the policy change was included in the press. The institution will apparently admit anyone who applies in order to increase its enrollment for appropriations increase," she said.

The board said enrollments for the summer and fall 1980 and spring 1981 constitute the "base period" for calculating funding requests for Texas colleges and universities.

"Certainly this kind of action undermines the whole formula system for financing higher education and can damage the credibility of all our institutions at a time when appropriations are going to be extremely difficult to justify," said Mrs. Milburn.

"During this coming decade of enrollment declines, it is actions such as this to lower standards to attract students that will most seriously damage support for higher education," she said.

Mrs. Milburn asked the chairmen and their boards to question administrators about admission procedures so high standards can be maintained. She said she wanted to hear their views.

The Newspaper Bible

GOD WILL NEVER LET YOU DOWN

We are saved by trusting. And trusting means looking forward to getting something we don't yet have - for a man who already has something doesn't need to hope and trust that he will get it.

But if we must keep trusting God for something that hasn't happened yet, it teaches us to wait patiently and confidently.

And in the same way - by our faith - the Holy Spirit helps us with our daily problems and in our praying. For we don't even know what we should pray for, nor how to pray as we should; but the Holy Spirit prays for us with such feeling that it cannot be expressed in words.

And the Father who knows all hearts knows, of course, what the Spirit is saying as He pleads for us in harmony with God's own will.

And we know that all that happens to us is working for our good if we love God and are fitting into His plans.

For from the very beginning God decided that those who came to Him - and all along He knew who would - should become like His Son, so that His Son would be the First, with many brothers.

And having chosen us, He called us to come to Him; and when we came, He declared us "not guilty," filled us with Christ's goodness, gave us right standing with Himself, and promised us His glory.

What can we ever say to such wonderful things as these? If God is on our side, who can ever be against us? Since He did not spare even His own Son for us but gave Him up for us all, won't He also surely give us everything else?

Undefeated Longhorns Cap 6th Straight Win

The Hereford junior varsity football team established itself as a full fledged bully on the block here Thursday as it capped its sixth straight victory in as many weeks with a 35-20 drumming over the Amarillo High junior varsity.

The HHS team, led by the scoring sprints of runningback Alfred Ball (who netted two TD's over the length of the contest), and three more provided by signal-caller Charles McDowell, Arnold Villegas and Raymond Martinez, took a 21-7 advantage at halftime and never relinquished the lead to maintain its unblemished mark in season play.

Ball, taking a McDowell option pitch early in the first quarter, outran Amarillo defenders for a 24 yard TD scamper to cap an 80 yard Whiteface scoring drive, and first lead of the affair.

The Amarillo crew followed that drive with one of their own on the following possession to even the ballgame at 7-7.

But the Herd, broke out of the gates in the second period to take firm control of the battle as McDowell punched a score in from one-yard out and Arnold Villegas knocked another scoring drive before the conclusion of that quarter on a 34-yard run. Rod Simon added his third successful PAT shot on the evening to bring the Whitefaces to a one-sided 21-7 margin over Amarillo.

The Sandie squad managed to line-up another score in the opening rounds of the third quarter before Alfred Ball tallied his second TD jaunt on the night off a 63 yard option play. Simon kicked the PAT and the Herd held a 28-14 advantage.

Both squads finished out the grudge match with one score apiece in the fourth stanza.

Hereford runningback Raymond Martinez broke a 34-yard scoring run early in the fourth stanza and Simon made the PAT good for the Whiteface's final score of contest before AHS scored its last points in the close of the game from five yards out. The Amarillo team failed on a two-point conversion play and the HHS junior varsity team had just extended their unbeaten mark for yet another week.

Sophomore runningback Albert Ball (20) slides around the corner and down the sidelines past two stumbling Amarillo High defenders in the Hereford junior varsity's 35-20 victory over the Sandie team. Ball scored two of the five HHS touchdowns (one of them coming on a 63-yard sprint in the third quarter) to lead the Whitefaces in their sixth straight victory without a loss on the year. (Brand photo by Mauri Montgomery)

Shorthorns Drop Contest to Lubbock

The HHS sophomore grid team let a previously bounding 4-1 mark slide to 4-2 on the season Thursday as the squad dropped a narrow 13-12 decision to Lubbock Coronado in Lubbock.

And for all practical purposes the game should have been recorded as the Whiteface's after the team capped two extensive touchdown drives in the opening and third quarters of play - for a 12-0 advantage going into the final stanza of the affair.

But the fourth quarter, and two missed field goals on the Herd's previous scoring attempts kept the squad from nailing down the win.

The Whiteface crew concluded a first quarter 65-yard drive for their first lead of the contest after quarterback Glenn Phibbs connected on a 35-yard TD pass to Brian Taylor. Phibbs then placekicking for the PAT, received his first of two blocked shots on the night for a 6-0 HHS lead.

Issac Gamboa pulled down a 65-yard McDowell TD pass in the third period to cap an 80-yard drive, but much as before, a blocked field goal kept the Herd from recording the full 7-point tally.

Richard May Play

HOUSTON (AP) — J.R. Richard, the Houston Astros' intimidating fireballer weakened by a stroke, undergoes a shoulder operation next week that doctors hope will signal the pitcher's return to the mound.

Dr. William S. Fields, a physician at the University of Texas Medical School, said the operation is being performed "because if it is successful he'll be able to recover and go to spring training."

"Whitey Ford had the same operation 15 years ago ...," he said, noting the New York Yankees pitcher later returned to action.

Fields, who supervised a series of tests on Richard last week at Hermann Hospital here, declined to say when or where the surgery would be performed.

However, Richard's business agent, Tom Reich, said earlier this week the operation would be performed in California.

Fields said it was unnecessary for Richard to go

Then, in a fourth quarter surge with five minutes remaining on the clock, the CHS squad began to close the gap on Hereford's cominance in the affair. The Mustangs put their first points on the board off a TD pass, and after a successful PAT shot, trailed the Whitefaces by a margin of 12-7. The HHS crew then yielded to the Mustangs once more as the Lubbock team drove in a winning score with a meager 59 seconds left in the contest.

"We moved the ball between the 30 and 30 yard lines all night against them, but we didn't capitalize on about half the opportunities we had to score," said head coach David Ashby. "We fumbled twice to stop drives right near the endzone and that hurt us over the long run."

American League Roundup Double Play Saves Royals Win

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — Frank White is batting .714 against the New York Yankees in the first two games of the American League playoffs, exactly 286 percentage points below Kansas City's level of confidence.

"I shouldn't say this," grinned the Royals' second baseman moments after he nervously helped turn a double play to save a 3-2 victory and give Kansas City a commanding two-game lead in the best-of-five American League playoff series.

"But I will. We're going to get 'em this time."

"This was the hump we needed to get over," said catcher Darrell Porter, the third man involved in a dramatic eighth-inning play that infuriated Yankees owner George Steinbrenner and turned Mike Ferraro from an obscure third-base coach into the center of controversy.

"We finally beat them in a close game," Porter said. "We stopped them from doing what they always did to us before."

The Royals nicked Yankees starter Rudy May for all three runs in the third inning, on Willie Wilson's two-run triple and an RBI-double by U.L. Washington. The Yankees scored their two in the fifth on an inside-the-park home run by Graig Nettles and Willie Randolph's RBI-double.

But the Royals won it in the eighth and ninth when the Yankees failed to score despite four base hits.

"We can win three under any circumstances," said

Yankees Manager Dick Howser, reminded that no team has ever rebounded from an 0-2 start to win a playoff series. "But this just makes it a little tougher. We'll do the same things that got us here."

Tonight in Yankee Stadium, Tommy John, New York's 22-game winner, will oppose Kansas City left-hander Paul Splitteroff, who cautiously admitted the lion's share of the pressure will rest on John.

"When you're two games up, you feel like you have less to lose," said Splitteroff, a veteran of Kansas City's bitter playoff losses to New York in 1976, '77 and '78. "My job is still the same. But we've been through this before and hopefully we've gained from our experiences."

Right-hander Dennis Leonard, Kansas City's only 20-game winner during the regular season, nursed his one-run lead into the eighth and struck out leadoff hitter Bobby Brown. Then Willie Randolph singled and Bobby Murcer fanned. Up came Bob Watson, who drilled a fastball into left field.

Randolph rounded third base and dug for home on a signal from Ferraro.

But left fielder Wilson, in perfect position to catch the hard bounce off the wall, turned and fired to third baseman George Brett, who turned and fired to Porter at the plate.

Porter caught the ball, braced, and held on as Randolph slid into his tag. Dangerous Reggie Jackson, the on-deck hitter, watched helplessly as Randolph was tagged out.

"We got taken out of the eighth inning with Jackson next at bat," fumed Steinbrenner. "The players didn't lose it."

The outspoken Yankee owner dispelled any doubt that he was implying Ferraro lost the game with a statement he made later.

"There's no way you can send the runner," he said.

"He's been doing that to us all year."

Howser defended his coach. "When I saw Wilson's throw go a little high, I thought we had a chance," he said. "But with two outs, you've got to take a chance and Randolph runs well. It took a perfect play by three guys."

Wilson admitted he actually was throwing to shortstop Washington, but overthrew him.

"It's something we work on every day in spring training," said Brett. "There's always got to be a trailer, if they throw the ball over the head of the shortstop."

"That's as hard as George Brett ever threw a ball in his life," said Porter.

"By far," said Brett. "By far."

But the drama was not finished. Jackson opened the ninth with a single to left and Kansas City Manager Jim Frey summoned from the bullpen sinkerball specialist Dan Quisenberry, the American League's most effective reliever this season. Oscar Gamble popped up. Then Rick Cerone singled Jackson to second and Nettles marched to the plate.

"George Brett told me, 'Here's a good guy to double up, he hits a lot of ground balls,'" said Quisenberry. On the first pitch, Nettles hit a sharp grounder to White at second, who fumbled the ball

FAITH Mapped the Continent for our Early Explorers

The bold, intrepid explorers who braved the perils of uncharted seas and set sail to what later became known as America, and then followed its rivers and waterways inland to explore an unknown continent, left us a heritage consisting of far more than just the names by which we still call the places along their routes. Their legacy was their magnificent display of courage, determination and unity of purpose; as well as their unanswering faith in God, which was their only guidepost in an otherwise hostile wilderness. Their daring exploits pioneered the vast land areas which we inhabit today, so let us honor these brave men by attending the church of our choice the best starting point for our own journey through the uncharted course of life.

3 Nobel Prizes Awarded Today

STOCKHOLM, Sweden (AP) - Two Americans and a Frenchman today won the 1980 Nobel Prize in physiology or medicine for their discoveries on how genetic makeup determines whether a person successfully combats cancer and other diseases.

The award went to genetic researchers and immunologists Baruf Benacerraf, a Venezuelan-born American citizen working at Harvard University; George Snell, of the Jackson Laboratory in Bar Harbor, Maine and Frenchman Jean Dausset of the immunological laboratory of Paris University Hospital St. Louis.

The three share the coveted prize, this year carrying a sum of $211,000, for their work on "genetically determined structures on the cell surface that regulate immunologic reactions."

Snell, who was born in Haverhill, Mass. in 1903, is the oldest recipient at 77.

Benacerraf, who was born in the Venezuelan capital of Caracas and will be 60 on Oct. 29, has been an American citizen since 1943 and a professor of pathology at Harvard Medical School since 1970.

Dausset, who will be 64 on Oct. 19, is from Toulouse and has worked at the hospital

'Three-in-One' Church a Success

MANKATO, Minn. (AP) - Four years after their three churches started living together, sans marriage but with full benefits of clergy, the ministers sat back and said it was good.

In their block-long Multi-Church Center, the congregations of Centenary United Methodist, First Baptist and First Congregational maintain separate identities.

But they share Sunday schools and youth groups, two sanctuaries and a library, office workers and equipment, choir rehearsal rooms and singers, audiovisual gear, ideas and strengths.

The shared facility has been called many things. Some people call it the "three-in-one" church.

Retired businessman Elmer A. Fritts, 79, a prime mover in the project, calls it a "people church."

Pastors see the facility as a unique experiment that may well become a model of efficiency for other churches.

First Baptist, of the American Baptist Churches, and First Congregational, United Church of Christ, already have paid their share of construction costs. Each pays only about $5,000 yearly for maintenance, insurance and utility services.

There's one Sunday school, with classes of 10 to 15. Separately, the smaller churches might have had three children in a class. Similarly, youth groups might have numbered three or four each but, by joining with the Methodists, there are about 40.

There are energy savings and the three churches share a secretary and a salaried Christian education director.

About the only detectable shortcoming, if it is one, is softened denominational feelings. Some folks speak of attending the "multi-church" instead of relating to their particular denominational congregation.

The Rev. Bill Kvale, Centenary's senior pastor, says, "We have to keep working to remind people of their

The Romans gave the name Caledonia to present-day Scotland. The Scots, a Celtic race that spoke Gaelic, came from Ireland, then called Scotia.

HEALTH

Lawrence E. Lamb, M.D.
Treating a cough best

DEAR DR. LAMB - Would you please explain the difference in cough medicines? What kind do you use when you have a dry, choking cough and what kind do you use when you have a loose cough that's liquid?

DEAR READER - The first rule is to know what's causing the cough. If it's caused by accumulation of fluid in the lungs from heart failure, you should be taking heart medicine to strengthen the heart, not cough medicine. I use that as an illustration to point out that coughing is a symptom, not a diagnosis. Chronic coughs can be associated with a variety of disorders. Among these is unrecognized cancer. That's why anyone whose cough persists beyond two weeks should see his doctor for an examination.

Now it's not always wise to get rid of a cough. If you have a lot of loose material in the lungs that needs to be coughed up, then it may be important to encourage it.

Some of the dry hacking coughs are related to decreased humidity in the living quarters. And anyone who has a respiratory infection and is in an extremely dry environment may have more difficulties.

I'm sending you The Health Letter number 8-10, Cough: How and When to Treat It. It will give you further information that you need. Other readers who want this issue can send 75 cents with a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope for it. Send your request to me in care of this newspaper, P.O. Box 1551, Radio City Station, New York, NY 10019.

To answer your question directly, if you just want to suppress the cough there's probably no medicine that's better than codeine and that's why it's often included in a number of effective cough medicines. The amount of codeine that's used for this purpose is less than the amount that's used to relieve pain.

Two non-narcotic drugs are nospamine and dextromethorphan. These ingredients may be listed in a cough preparation that you can buy without a prescription. If you want to loosen up thick mucus, you want to stimulate those glands that are in the respiratory tree to pour out secretions. Two medicines that are useful for this purpose are Syrup of Ipecac and glyceryl sialate.

DEAR DR. LAMB - You suggest that after the menopause women should consume a quart of fortified milk a day in order to receive the amount of calcium needed to prevent osteoporosis in later years. Would a calcium supplement be as effective and, if so, how much would be equivalent to one quart of milk?

DEAR READER - Yes. The object is to obtain sufficient calcium one way or another. A normal adult woman needs about 800 mg of calcium a day. In the post-menopause period she should receive at least 1 gm a day which is about the amount in a quart of milk. There is more in fortified skim milk. It follows that you need about 1 gm or 1.5 gm of calcium a day as a supplement if you are getting no calcium at all in your diet.

Remember that the calcium tablets you get are usually only part calcium and part something else so a one-gram calcium tablet will not contain one gram of calcium. Different preparations contain different percentages of elemental calcium. If you need calcium supplements because of your diet, ask your doctor to select a preparation and an amount that fits your particular needs in relation to your particular diet.

POLLY'S POINTERS

Polly Cramer
- Stripes got bleach spots -

DEAR POLLY - I splashed some bleach on a red and white striped polyester blouse and there are white spots on the red in some places. This is a new blouse so I would appreciate any ideas as to what I can do to save it. - A.G.

DEAR A.G. - You do have a problem. The only thing I could suggest would be to try touching up the white spots with a red permanent marking pen such as one buys at a needlework shop. Take the blouse along so you will get the nearest shade of red. Best wishes. - POLLY

DEAR POLLY - There is a good use for an old Christmas tree. Next year remember that it can be a bean tree in the spring. I stand mine up firmly in a deep hole in the ground and then I plant pole bean seeds around it. The vines will cover the tree and the bean pods will hang down like apples and can be easily picked with no bending over.

One tree holds enough for canning and eating all summer. Any type of tall dead shrub could be substituted. - LYN-ETTE

DEAR POLLY - To get rid of ants, especially outside, I use household cleaning powder. It works just great. I also place a few moth balls in my garbage cans during the summer months and find this kills insect larvae and also cuts down on the odor.

The best solution I have found for washing windows, including those on the car, is one-half cup ammonia and one-eighth cup vinegar in a quart of water. I have used this for years and think it is fantastic. - MRS.M.C.

DEAR POLLY - I use undiluted rubbing alcohol to get a streakless shine on my enamel stove and any other such surface. It is also good for cleaning fingerprints off painted surfaces. - TONIA

DEAR POLLY - While we were camping our dog got tar all over his paws. I bought a little kerosene at a store, poured some in a shallow pan, put his paws in and rubbed them a little with a sponge. The tar came off. Of course, I immediately gave his paws a good bath to wash off the kerosene. - GERTRUDE
