VOLUME 12

HEREFORD, TEXAS, FRIDAY, MAY 24, 1912

NUMBER 16

LARGEST VOTE CAST IN CONTEST

Over Half Million Votes Deposited In Week Ending Saturday, May 18.

While the Contest for the previous week was equally as warm as the weather, it does not come up to the temperature of the one shown on the indicator for the week ending Saturday, May 18. During that week over a half million votes were cast, exactly stated—538,290 votes, making a grand total of 2,554,305 votes cast since the beginning of the Contest.

One noticeable thing about the vote for this week as compared with the previous is that, though the voting was the largest yet cast, still a few of the candidates changes places in the list. All of them worked hard and hence kept abreast in the race. This is the seventh week of the Contest and the race has developed some good runners. There are now six candidates who have run above the two hundred thousand mark. One of these candidates lives 40 miles in the country and in a very sparsely settled community.

The Brand wants to encourage the candidates at Summerfield, Dimmitt and Spring Lake to hustle among their friends to help them get the Trade Coupon Votes from the merchants and the subscriptions from their friends. It's easy.

NEW SUBSCRIPTIONS.

In order to secure as many new readers to the Brand as possible, it was arranged in this Contest to give more votes for new subscriptions than for old ones renewing. It appears that some do not understand the conditions for a new subscriber. A new subscription will be counted when it is shown that the Brand is not now being received by any member of the same family or household. To change from one member to another of the same family is not a new subscription. Even if one person in a family is paid as far as one year in advance, and another member of the same family wishes to subscribe, this would not be counted in the Contest as a "new" subscription. The Brand does not want a padded subscription list by having two or more papers in the same family, but new names and new families are desired. There has been some confusion on this point; so please be sure when offering a subscription as a "new" subscription that it complies with the requirements. This will prevent any misunderstanding and save ill feeling in the Contest.

Another Well Brought In.

The eighth big irrigation well of the McDonald type was brought in Wednesday morning. This well is located on the Hillcrest farm owned by L. Gough. The 26-inch hole was sunk to a total depth of 190 feet; water was found at 71 feet, the location of the well being on the highest point on the section. The crew had everything in readiness and started the pump at 9 o'clock and ran until noon without a stop, throwing out from 800 to 1,200 gallons of water per minute, depending upon the speed of the engine. The well is up to the standard in every way and is as good as any yet brought in.

Invents Automatic Brake.

A Hood county boy, J. S. Baxter, Lipan, Texas, has invented a device for automatically stopping trains when one of the wheels jumps from the rail. The device is connected with the system of air-brakes already on all trains and when the wheel leaves the rail, it "turns on the air," so to speak, thus stopping the train. The invention is very simple and would cost but a trifle to attach it to each set of trucks.

City Assessment.

City Clerk P. W. Price has nearly completed the assessment for the town and in a few days the lists will be ready to turn over to an equalization board.

Warren Hardware Co., carries a full line of garden tools of the best make. 12tf

Moved To Hereford.

Dr. J. Q. Burton, who owns property in Slaton and who has been contemplating moving to this place from Texico, writes to the Slatonite that since his last visit to this place circumstances have shaped themselves so that he has located in Hereford instead. He says that he believes that Slaton has a great future, and developments here soon will be enough to wake up the sleepest native (if one—a sleepy one—could be found in the city) and place Slaton even more prominently before the world. The doctor was physician for many of the families which moved from Texico and Farwell to Slaton, and they were encouraging him to come here just as soon as the opening presented itself. He is a well read, progressive and successful practitioner, and a man who is a credit to any town as a citizen and a business man. His many friends here wish him the best of success at Hereford.—The Slatonite.

District Court.

The following cases were disposed of in District Court this week:

The State of Texas vs. Dr. H. H. Taylor. Trial by jury and verdict of not guilty under instructions of the court.

Western Union Land Co., vs. L. Baskin and J. F. Joss, suit on note and foreclosure. Plaintiff dismissed as to J. F. Joss and was given judgment by default against L. Baskin for the amount of the note and foreclosure of the vendor's lien.

Con Schrimsher et al vs. G. A. F. Parker et al, trespass to try title and damages. On trial.

The Grand Jury adjourned for the term on Tuesday after returning two bills of indictment, one for a felony and the other for a misdemeanor.

Among the out-of-town attorneys in Hereford this week at court were Judge R. W. McConnell of Farwell, A. S. Rollins of Canyon City and Judge W. H. Kimbrough of Amarillo.

Presbyterian Revival.

Sabbath morning at the Presbyterian church the Revival will begin. At the evening hour Rev. S. T. Shore will preach. Rev. R. Thomsen, pastor of the Presbyterian church of Amarillo, will assist in the meeting and do the preaching. Mr. Thomsen is acknowledged to be an able minister and I consider the church fortunate in securing his help. Miss Pattie Estes, well and favorable known both as to her excellence as a lady and her ability as a soloist and singer, has consented to conduct the music. The meeting will likely continue eight days and may continue longer. If you are to get the most good from it, you should begin with the beginning. Whether you are a member of this church or not, we will be glad to have your help by your attendance and in the music and personal work and in everything possible.

W. M. BAKER, pastor.

Sheep Shearing Begins.

The Lambert shearing machine was started up this week on the flock of 5,000 on the Trow ranch north of town. Twelve sheep are sheared at the same time, and the same number of men are required to handle the clippers. Some of the men can shear 12 head an hour. A number of Hereford people went out to see the shearing process. Geo. W. Irwin and family and H. C. Myrick and family were out Tuesday morning to see the machine and men at work.

HIGH SCHOOL COMMENCEMENT

Session of 1911-12 Closes With Brilliant Exercises—Fourteen Graduates.

With ideal weather favoring, the Hereford High School held its commencement exercises this week when fourteen bright young people received the attentions of the entire town in a series of entertainments, the last of which was held Tuesday evening at the court house when the five boys and nine girls received their diplomas.

SUNDAY SERMON.

The court house auditorium was filled to overflowing Sunday morning to greet the High School Class of '12 and to hear the commencement sermon by Rev. S. T. Shore.

The members of the class, the teachers, the choir and the parents of the boys and girls were all seated within the railing. At the appointed hour the class, followed by the faculty, filed in and took their places, Miss Lambert playing the march. The audience, lead by the choir, then sang "All Hail the Power of Jesus Name." Rev. W. M. Baker read the scripture lesson and the devotional exercises closed with a prayer by T. G. Nance. The national hymn, "America," was sung. Rev. Shore took for his subject, "Discerning Jewels," from which he brought out many telling points. The leading thought was that the ability to see things rested the power of the individual; that the school days were to train, to enable one to distinguish between good and evil; that men who tear down and never build does no good for the human race. He closed his remarks with a strong appeal for a higher life closing by saying the great motto of life should be "More Light." One of the special features of the program was a beautiful song given by the Young Ladies' Glee Club. When the audience was dismissed, many crowded up to congratulate the members of the class.

THE CLASS PLAY.

The class play Monday night, which was given at the college chapel on account of the stage facilities, drew a packed house. All the characters sustained their parts well throughout the evening. The name of the play, "All a Mistake," did not indicate what was expected, but the situations kept the audience laughing from start to finish and all concluded at the end that the play was really not a mistake at all. The cast follows:

THE GRADUATION.

Tuesday night was the all important event of the occasion. The large auditorium was filled. The class and the Young Ladies' Glee Club occupied the seats of honor. Supt. Ben Short and Pres. R. B. Cousins of the Canyon Normal were seated on the center platform, while the four ministers of the town occupied as many places in the jury box, not as jurors to decide the case at court, but as interested spectators. The program was creditably rendered. There being so many members of the class only four appeared on the program and these were given duties to represent the class. The music was especially enjoyed. The Glee Club was heartily applauded and gave an encore number. The vocal duet by the Lambert sisters, Misses Calla and Clara, was sweetly sung, the solo by Miss Calla, one of the class members, showed a marked degree of musical talent and voice control. The papers by the two young ladies, Misses Inez Dunlap and Helen Sisk, were read with an understanding far beyond their years might indicate. The oration by Roy Feemster showed that he had carefully studied and prepared his paper. It too was delivered in a pleasing style. The two piano selections, one by Miss Ethel Fuqua, the other by Miss Mary Dunlap, was well executed and heartily received. The entire program was carried out as published.

The address by President Cousins took a line of thought bearing upon the future life of the graduates, dealing especially with the ideal, making the pre-eminent duty of each one to interpret self to the world. He encouraged the members of the class to select an ideal and to bend everything to accomplish the desired purposes. In the beginning of his address, Mr. Cousins laid down a proposition that the educational and cultural possibilities of a community does not depend upon its material wealth nor its general business success. This he well sustained by a few well chosen illustrations and argumentations. The address was filled with splendid thought and wholesome advice, not only to the ambitious young people, but the successful older people. While Mr. Cousins is not what is usually may be called an orator, his remarks indicate that he is a thoughtful student and that his life has been filled with rich experiences as an educator.

At the close of the address, he delivered the diplomas to the members of the class in a few well chosen remarks. Supt. Short assisted.

The members of the class are: Ciell Cochell, Wayne Estes, Roy Feemster, Clyde Gregg, Ohio Price, Mary Dunlap, Inez Dunlap, Ethel Fuqua, Mary Gallagher, Floy Jenkins, Calla Lambert, Clyde Wilson, Mary Gallagher and Hazel Wilson.

Stock and Fences.

The matter of keeping cattle and other stock out of the fields of the farmers is becoming a question. The advent of the farmer into a cattle country always brings up the matter of fences. Most of the farms and pastures have 3 and 4 wire fences, but unless these are kept in good repair, the stock often, without the knowledge and consent of the owners, break through and do much damage to the crops. Many stock men employ "fence riders" whose duty it is to keep the fences in good repair. An instance of this has been reported on the Williams Bros. ranch in the western part of the county. They inspect the fences at least twice each week and in case of a break anywhere, if reported to them, proceed at once to repair it. They have from 800 to 1,000 head of cattle on their ranch at all times and the farmers in their neighborhood tell that perfect harmony as to the fences, each one doing his part to keep the cattle on the range and out of the crops. This is certainly commendable and an ideal condition. The farmers as well as the stock men are helped by such an arrangement.

This is the time of the year when you need to feed your horse or cow some Stock Food. Buy a 75c package from Hughes Grain Co., and get a good buggy whip free. 9tf

E. P. RIPLEY

Ft. Worth, Tex.—E. P. Ripley, president of the Santa Fe Railway system, appeared before the Welfare Commission in this city Tuesday and gave his views on the railroad situation of Texas from a practical standpoint.

In a plain, straightforward manner and with a frankness peculiarly his own, the noted railroad man pointed out the difficulties that confront the growth and progress of the railroad industry in Texas.

Mr. Ripley contended that railroads should be permitted to issue securities to the full value of their property and should be allowed to issue bonds for improvement purposes; that railroad investments were not bringing a fair return; that the tax value was greater than the earning value; that personal injury and damage payments in Texas were far in excess of those of other states and suggested that the railroad commission should be removed as far from political influence as possible.

The next session of the Welfare Commission will be held at San Antonio on Monday, June 10th, and those who desire to defend the present laws as relates to railroads are urgently invited to be present, as the commission is anxious to hear all sides of the subject.

Judge Hendricks Answers Proposition of "Justice" and "Fair Treatment"

Between Judge Pressler and Himself—Thinks Election Should Be Pitched on Different Lines—Believes That They Stand on an Equal Footing and That the People Will Be Just and Impartial.

To the Voters and Citizens of the Seventh Judicial District:

There is a disposition on the part of a few to argue, with reference to this race for the Court of Civil Appeals, that it is unfair for any other man to enter the race against a present incumbent, which, as an argument, with the slightest analysis in so far as my particular race is concerned, I believe the people of this district will regard as ridiculous.

For instance, the Daily Panhandle upon the very day of my announcement, argues as follows:

"The writer has had the pleasure of the personal acquaintance of Judge Hendricks for several years and no one who has enjoyed that privilege can question in any way his being a thorough gentleman in every sense of the word. His ability as a jurist is beyond question.

"Notwithstanding, however, our highest personal regards for Judge Hendricks, we can but deplore the fact that he has been persuaded by friends to announce his candidacy.

"We base our protest on the plea of justice as we see it, and as many will surely see the matter when the proposition is analyzed.

"From a standpoint of justice and common Democratic courtesy to the members of the present court, who have severed connections with their business in order to serve the public which any man knows they must in reason expected would not be only for a few months. It is unjust, indeed, that they be now compelled to make any campaign for election to their respective seats.

"There is no politics and should be no politics in the question. It is a simple question of 'justice.'"

The Roby Banner of Fisher county, in the same strain, among other things, says in speaking of Judge Pressler, whom I regard as my particular opponent in this matter:

"We know of no reason why he should be put off the bench and replaced by a lawyer of some other portion of the district, and we give notice now that the voters of this county and of the South Plains counties will stand by him in this fight, which we regard as unnecessary and uncalled for, especially in view of the fact that the governor was permitted to appoint him without objection or protest from anyone.

"The Banner predicts that the district will show that they are in favor of justice and fair treatment, etc."

The tone of the statements, and the underlying logic of the argument indicated above, breathes a spirit of intolerance against another man, who has the nerve to tackle the governor's appointee, as to brand him as presumptuous, as an interloper in the race.

To say to the people, "I am an appointee of the governor, give me another term on that account," is a cry, which, as against the other man which would have stood no show for appointment, does not sound like "fair play," if the other man is as competent and just as deserving.

The man who stands closest to the governor, could capitalize his pull and influence against another man, which, if pushed to a conclusion is a 'one-man' election instead of Democracy. No man has a wand to put the people to sleep because he has a governor's certificate.

For a man to go to the people with the cry—"Give me a show because I have been appointed," is easily answered with the question, "what show would the governor have given the other man?" Hence the people have the right to say, "Let us eliminate your certificate of appointment for the constitution of this state specifically provides that an appointee of the governor to this judicial office holds his office only until the next general election, at which time the office is filled by one of the people's selection; the policy of which is unmistakable, to give the people the opportunity to say whom they want for their judges. When a new court is created, the governor of this state is the sole arbiter of appointments, as Gov. Colquitt was in this instance—until the voters have the opportunity to decide for themselves. And I don't believe this so-called plea of "justice" and "fair play" will go down until both sides are heard, and when the Banner gives "notice" that the people of the South Plains are going to do so and so, with reference to this matter, I return the notice that the people of that section, and even of Fisher county, are just like any other fair-minded, impartial people—they will do their own thinking in their own way, whenever the time comes, without the matter being prejudged for them, and no man, this early in the race, can be the self-constituted trumpet of their verdict.

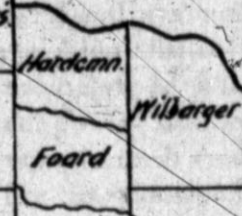

I have come in contact with these people as they have been settling this country for a number of years, as a small stock farmer, as a judge on the bench, and as a lawyer, and it has always seemed to me that one of their predominant traits is "fair play." There is something about these prairies which cultivates stronger the strength of the men who are planting the foundations of a commonwealth, and breeding is still stronger into their children, which makes it the last country on earth to cry "fair play" unless it can be made to "stand up." This is a most uninviting field to sow an error.

Suppose we make just a slight analysis of this so-called plea for "justice and fair play," as applied to a man who has been in the district three years, and some of them rather long ones, as against another man who never moved into the district until the agitation for the Court of Civil Appeals for this district began. In May, 1910, the Chamber of Commerce of Amarillo, desiring a realization for a Panhandle Court of Appeals, called a meeting and invited the lawyers to participate, for that purpose. This meeting resulted in a bar meeting and convention of lawyers from nearly the whole Panhandle. A steering committee was selected to go to Austin to present a bill for this district to the legislature convening in January, 1911. Of course, the whole country took notice of what we were after. Judge Pressler moved to Fisher county late in the summer or early in the fall of 1910, and when Fisher county was placed in this district all the lawyers knew that it was a foregone conclusion that Governor Colquitt would appoint Judge Pressler, and there was absolutely no chance for the place already slated for that gentleman—the most certain thing in connection with that matter was his appointment by Governor Colquitt, and under the constitution of this state, he takes his chance before the voters, as no governor's fiat should be a seal upon this judicial office.

Let's see again, in regard to the "fairness" of this proposition: "The Single Bill," or what was called the "Amarillo Bill," which Governor Colquitt vetoed, or attempted to veto, did not include Fisher county, and took the tier of counties to the west to the New Mexico line, and what was called the "Double Bill," creating two new courts, one at Amarillo and one at El Paso, which he approved, or attempted to approve, took this district with Fisher county hanging on to it like an appendix, in the following shape:

Dallam	Sherman	Hansford	Schillroe	Lipscomb
Hartley	Moore	Hutchinson	Roberts	Hempill
Oldham	Potter	Carson	Gray	Wheeler
Deaf Smith	Randall	Armstrong	Donley	Collingsworth
Parmer	Castro	Swisher	Briscoe	Hall
Bailey	Lamb	Hale	Floyd	Molloy
Cochran	Hockley	Lubbock	Crosby	Dickens
Yoakum	Terry	Lynn	Garza	Hent

Fisher

Judge Pressler was in Austin during a great deal of the time that these bills were pending; and when he moved from Stamford, a town of about 4,000 in Jones county, to Rotan, a town of about 1,100 in Fisher county, and was appointed from that county—it is a hard rule to antagonize another man's candidacy who has been in the country for thirteen years, if he is competent and eligible as a man and as a lawyer, and to argue that the people would be unjust to Judge Pressler not to elect him. I am not criticising the gentleman personally, or denying his right to move to Fisher county—especially when he knew how he stood with the governor, nor am I criticising his right to assist Fisher county into the district, if he could—knowing how he stood with Governor Colquitt as his personal friend, but I do say the champions of an appointee of just a few months residence before the appointment, who comes in on route, should not state that it is "unfair" and "unjust," and try to cut off another man with an equal ambition.

It is true, the Supreme Court let both bills stand on account of the futile effort of Governor Colquitt vetoing "The Single Bill," and approving "The Double Bill" too late and the district under both bills as construed by that court harmonized it geographically, but Fisher county, nevertheless got into the district with the "Double Bill," approved by the governor which intended to fashion it in the shape presented.

Judge Pressler was appointed from Comanche county by another governor in April, 1908, as one of the judges of the Court of Civil Appeals at Fort Worth while he was then re-

Opposes Graduate Dance.
Austin, May 11.—Because she is opposed to dancing, Mrs. George A. Brush, president of the Austin High School Mothers' Club, resigned when the club voted to give a dance for this year's graduating class. Eight other members voted with her against the dance. The club is composed of leading Austin society women.

"I do not believe dancing is proper for girls and boys, and could not remain at the head of an organization under whose auspices a dance is to be given," said Mrs. Brush in explaining her resignation.

The Warren Hardware Co. carries a full line of P & O implements, they are the most satisfactory line for the Panhandle. 121f

A New Town Not On The Map.
Janes City, May 16.—The newest town on the Plains, but not on the map, is Janes City, now being plotted by a corps of surveyors. The new town is on the Lubbock-Texico cut-off survey. It is expected that actual construction work on the road will begin by July 1st and that trains will be running in 90 days. The new line will run through Lubbock, Hockley, Lamb and Bailey counties, a distance of about 100 miles. This will make a shorter route via the Santa Fe from the Gulf to California.

I desire to announce to the people of Hereford that I have opened a meat market the first door north of the Palace Barber Shop. The building has been thoroughly renovated and special attention given to sanitation. I will at all times carry a complete line of Fresh and Cured Meats, Lard, Butter, Eggs, Chickens and Vegetables. SALARIES AND FEES.

The constitution of the new state of New Mexico provides that all county officials shall be paid salaries,
same to be fixed by the legislature,
in lieu of the fees paid in several states. The fees of several of the county officers in past years amounted to large amounts, and the object of the provision is to guard against too large emoluments.

GIVE CREDIT WHERE DUE.

The Brand appreciates and has used the special news service of the Texas Commercial Secretaries, but it believes that all papers should give credit where editorial matter is appropriated. It is not an uncommon occurrence, in scanning the papers,
to run across a bright, snappy editorial paragraph in a good paper
and then in the very next exchange and several following to find the same paragraph heading the editorial column. No one wants boiler plate editorials and while the C. S. are doing a lot of good boosting they should ask that all comments should be duly accredited.

CONGRESSMAN AT LARGE.

It is now conceded by the newspapers all over the state that the Panhandle is sure to carry off the honors in the election of at least one Congressman-at-Large. They do not care to give the Panhandle two men and will not if they can help it.
In many sections of north Texas the weekly papers are favoring Judge Lancaster's race as he was the first in the field. The Bowie Blade takes a slash at the situation and cuts off a large chunk for the Plainview candidate. It says, "The Panhandle is deserving of recognition and as this appears to be the general idea prevailing in all sections of the state, Judge Lancaster would not likely fail in winning the race except for the unfortunate fact that another candidate from Amarillo is also coveting the honors."

PRIMARIES VS CONVENTIONS.

It appears that the energetic Star-
Telegram of Fort Worth has dis-

The readers of this paper will be dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity, Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors

ers that they offer One Hundred Dollars covered that the preference primary as recently tried in New York and Massachusetts is a "failure and a burlesque on orderly election methods." It deploras the mix up that resulted in the Taft-T. R. election and thinks "the peepul" got it in the neck because Clark carried the state against Wilson while "the peepul" elected delegates pledged to Foss. It further charges that "the vote was pulled and hauled and swayed and badgered" and brow-beaten out of his rights. But in a column of equal editorial width and depth, the shining Star sheds its light upon the political situation in Texas under the old convention plan.

It shoots a ray of ironical Star dust into the dark alleys where the benighted but instructed delegate was caught napping while the political suns where in total eclipse. It says,
"We (The Star) think such sweeping and exclusive instructions are unjust to the delegates and the future of the barber business in those sections where they (the delegates) reside should "take the Wilson veil."
To give the delegations instructions
"to vote for Wilson first, last and all the time or until he is elected"
seems to have given the twinkling Star such a hard jolt that it almost jumped out of its orbit, forgetting that the overwhelming victory in Texas for Wilson was the result of that very kind of primary convention which the Star claims in the next to column to be the "time-honored" system. In one paragraph,
the daily at the Panther City calls
those who would instruct their delegates in conventions bewhiskered Populistic Democrats and Democratic Populistic whiskers; in the next, it calls the preference primary a "new political will-o-the-wisp" and accuses those who favor such methods of obtaining the will of people as desiring to destroy representative government. The trouble about the whole matter is this: In those states
where the preference primary results
did not "gee" with the politicians,
it is all buncombe; but in Texas
where the convention results did not
"jibe" with the rattling, rusty political machine, it was rotten and absurd.

THE Texas pension rolls for Confederate soldiers now contain about 13,000 names.

THE Harmon men have "sicked"
Clark's "houn' dawg" on the Wilson crowd and from several reports
it seems that the aforesaid "dawg"
has "treed" some of Wilson's
"coons."

THE "Dollar-a-Day" pension measure has been signed by President Taft. This will add something like $30,000,000 to the already heavy pension list.

The bill provides that a soldier,
66 years of age, with a service record of two and a half years in the Civil or Mexican wars, shall receive a pension of $18 per month, with three years' service $19 per month.

At 70 years of age and one and one-half years' service the veteran is to be paid $21.50 per month; with two years, $23 per month; two and a half years, $24; three year, $25 per month.

At 75 years of age, having served
one and one-half years he will receive $27 per month; two years and over, $30 per month.

First Nomination For President.

The first candidate to be nominated for president of the United States was put out at Indianapolis last week
when Eugene V. Debs of Terre Houte, Ind., was placed at the head of the Socialist ticket. Emil Seidel, former mayor of Milwaukee, was nominated for vice-president.

A. C. Elliott, editor of the Hereford Brand, has announced himself as a candidate for Representative for the 123rd district, composed of Hale, Swisher, Armstrong, Lamb,
Randall, Deaf Smith, Castro and Bailey counties. Editor Elliott is represented as being a man of high ability and training, such as to fit him for the position to which he aspires. Aside from any other consideration, Mr. Elliott possesses that preeminent qualification that is absolutely essential to the best service on the part of a servant of the people, and that is a close and appreciating knowledge of the state and her needs.—Hale Center Live-Wire.

Morris Sheppard.

Another candidate has visited the Panhandle. Up to this year campaigners for national and state offices failed to recognize the Panhandle as a factor in the Texas political equation; but now, all who even think they have a shadow of a show for election, have climbed out of the Pan and up to the Handle as far as the hole for hanging up the skillet.
The last to honor this great section of the greatest state was the Hon.
Morris Sheppard, candidate for the Junior Senatorship. He was given an ovation at Amarillo and Canyon last Monday. While his most formidable opponent was given an enthusiastic reception throughout the Plains and Panhandle, Mr. Sheppard has been greeted with an outburst
of public applause and approval.

"My little son had a very severe cold. I was recommended to try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and before a small bottle
was finished he was as well as ever," writes
Mrs. H. Silks, 29 Dowling Street, Sydney,
Australia. This remedy is sold by all dealers.

Old Citizen Passes Away.

S. R. Ford, age 74, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. J. N.
Askren, last Saturday, May 18.
His remains were laid to rest in the Hereford cemetery on Sunday, May 19, at 4 p. m., Rev. S. T. Shore officiating. Mr. Ford was born in Louisville, Kentucky. His son,
Wm. Ford, of Coffeerville, Kansas, was at his bedside during his last illness. He was a member of the Christian church, having united with that body at an early age.

DE LAVAL CREAM SEPARATOR

More Than 1,375,000 Are In Use

The Best Investment Any Cow Owner Can Make

That's what nearly a million and a half of cow owners the world over have found the De Laval cream separator to be.

A De Laval farm separator costs from $35 to $160—according to capacity. It saves butter fat and produces a cream of superior quality over any setting system or any other separator every time it is used—twice a day—730 times a year.

It involves far less labor than any setting system, and runs easier, has greater capacity and lasts from two to ten times longer than any other separator.

That's how a De Laval separator saves at least its cost the first year, and frequently in a few months, and then goes right along saving your money year after year.

We have an arrangement whereby you can make a partial payment at time of purchase, and pay the balance on such liberal terms that your machine will more than save its cost while you are paying for it.

Post, Rainmaker, Tells of Success.

There will be rain every two weeks at Post City this summer, according to the calculations of C. W. Post, wealthy manufacturer and founder of Post City, and demonstrator of the possibility of rainfall to order by dynamite Concussion.

The principle, he pointed out, had been known for a long time, citing the rains after battle in the Civil war.

"The fact was known," he said, "and it only lacked someone to put it into practice."

First, he is absolutely satisfied with the result of the tests. He doesn't ask the interviewer to take his judgment for it, but states the facts. The first attempt at using 150-pound charges failed. The next with 250 was successful, as have been the others though the charges have been considerably reduced.

The cost is approximately $1,000. This brings a rain covering a territory of about twenty-five miles. The cost is figured at a quarter of a cent an acre. Fourteen-hundredths of an inch is an average artificial rainfall. Mr. Post contrasts this cost with that of irrigation at from $12 to $25 an acre, with the added advantage of water for the pastures, trees and all, as well as merely the land under cultivation.

There is no mystery about the battle for rain, as Mr. Post describes it, it is not even spectacular. There is no ear-splitting detonation, but a succession of charges.

"Just like a battle with a cannon going off here and there," he explains.

When the rain is to be tried for, the dynamite is hauled out in wagons. Four sticks are placed together and connected with a fuse and cap. Groups of four sticks are scattered around about 150 feet apart, without any regularity, but so that they are not on eminences. Cowboys touch the fuses and scoot to a safe distance. Then the explosions begin. The dynamite is laid right out on the ground and as it explodes there can be seen a rush of air upward. This is followed by a second less marked rush upward, believed to be due to the reaction. Eminences are avoided so that the pressure so far as possible may be exerted upward. Tests show that following the explosion the humidity on the ground decreases. As the clouds begin to form they move about irregularly, dark portions known as "nigger heads" forming and then melting into the general cloud until they become permanent and the rainfall commences. The wait for rain varies in time, five hours being the longest wait on record so far.—Fort Worth Record.

BRONCHITIS

To Whom It May Concern
Bluevale, Ont., May 4, 1910—"I was sick for two years with chronic bronchitis and a consequent run-down condition. I received no benefit from doctors or from a trip which I took for my health, and I had to give up work. Vinol was recommended, and from the second bottle I commenced to improve. I gained in weight and strength, my bronchial trouble disappeared, and I am at work again.

It is the combined action of the curative elements of the cods' livers, aided by the blood-making and strength-creating properties of tonic iron contained in Vinol which makes it so successful in curing bronchitis. Vinol is a constitutional remedy for chronic coughs, colds, bronchitis and pulmonary troubles—not a palliative like cough syrups.

Try Vinol. If you don't think it helps you, we will return your money. Corner Drug Store.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. West, superintendent of the Rucker ranch, paid this office a visit Monday afternoon. Mr. West states that he has 130 acres of extra fine winter wheat and 20 acres of good spring wheat. Of 25 acres of oats, he says that the 12 acres of deep fall plowing are good, but the remaining 13 of shallow plowing are very poor and he intends to plant that part in row stuff. Altogether, there will be 300 acres in crop on the ranch. Mr. and Mrs. West are from the good old state of Tennessee, but are here to help do the pioneering.

Hurley Items.

Fine weather, crops coming up nicely, the grass is excellent and people are beginning to wear that smile that don't come off.

The report of gasoline engines in every direction from Hurley and the daily honk of automobiles reminds us that Hurley is very much alive.

Our genial merchant, J. F. Metsker, says that business is doubling up in his store and in the post office.

The Friona-Hurley telephone line will be constructed this week. Connection will also be made with Texico by way of the Mule Shoe Ranch this week. When this line is completed, telephone service from Friona will be regularly established and service may be had from Texico or Farwell by phoning Hurley.

The Hurley Commercial Club will meet this week and take up the question of advertising.

Frank A. Miller of Lincoln, Neb., has just completed a series of meetings at the west end school house, a very spiritual time was had and many conversions reported.

L. R. Cox, the real estate dealer, changed a few more pieces of land this week.

Mr. Owens, a photographer from Clovis, spent a few days in and around Hurley taking pictures to be used in an advertising booklet for Hurley. Among the beautiful scenes which will be produced in our booklet is the picture of the fine home of Mr. Keyser, who lives northeast of Hurley about twelve miles. We do not believe that a more beautiful surrounding of flowers and trees could be had in any country and it illustrates the fact that the beauties of nature may be had here as well as elsewhere with a little care and labor. Other beautiful pictures have been taken and will be submitted to the Hurley Commercial Club at its meeting on Wednesday night.

Again we would emphasize our slogan: "Not to boom nor boost, but to develop." It is not our purpose to mislead or to boom, but to develop the resources of the truly and great Hurley country.
Hurley Hustler.

Something To Know.

Deaf Smith county is located in the Panhandle of Texas and on the "Staked Plains." It is one of the border counties next to New Mexico. The county seat is at Hereford on the Santa Fe line from Kansas to California. The altitude of the county ranges from 3,750 feet to 4,000 feet. Hereford is 3,810 feet above sea, climate superb. The surface is level, but slightly rolling, no mountains and few streams, but has an abundant supply of pure water. The shallow water around Hereford is being used for supplemental irrigation purposes.

"Nails."

"Nails are a mighty good thing—particularly finger nails—but I don't believe they were intended solely for scratching, though I used mine largely for that purpose for several years. I was sorely afflicted, and had it to do. One application of Hunt's Cure, however, relieved my itch, and less than one box cured me entirely." J. M. WARD, Ladex, Texas. 13-5t

My Doctor Said

"Try Cardui," writes Mrs. Z. V. Spell, of Hayne, N. C. "I was in a very low state of health, and was not able to be up and tend to my duties. I did try Cardui, and soon began to feel better. I got able to be up and help do my housework. I continued to take the medicine, and now I am able to do my housework and to care for my children, and I feel as though I could never praise Cardui enough for the benefits I have received."

TAKE CARDUI The Woman's Tonic

Cardui is successful, because it is made especially for women, and acts specifically on the womanly constitution. Cardui does one thing, and does it well. That explains the great success which it has had, during the past 50 years, in helping thousands of weak and ailing women back to health and happiness.

If you are a woman, feel tired, dull, and are nervous, cross and irritable, it's because you need a tonic. Why not try Cardui? Cardui builds, strengthens, restores, and acts in every way as a special, tonic remedy for women. Test it for yourself. Your druggist sells Cardui. Ask him.

ANSWER IT HONESTLY

Are the Statements of Hereford Citizens Not More Reliable Than Those of Utter Strangers?

This is a vital question. It is fraught with interest to Hereford. It permits of only one answer.

It cannot be evaded or ignored. A Hereford citizen speaks here. Speaks for the welfare of Hereford.

A citizen's statement is reliable. An utter stranger's doubtful. Home proof is the best proof.

W. S. Higgins, 610 E. Fourth St., Hereford, Texas, says: "My back was lame and painful and I had dizzy spells and pains in the top of my head. Some time ago I got a supply of Doan's Kidney Pills from Woodburn & Son's Drug Store and the contents of one box brought me such great relief that I can heartily recommend them. This preparation can be relied upon to act promptly and effectively."

Winnipeg-Salina-Belton and Gulf Railway to Start Actual Construction.

Paris, France.—Representatives of the Midland Continental Railway, with headquarters at Salina, Kansas, U. S. A., have been in this city several days and have succeeded in selling $13,000,000 worth of stocks and bonds, the proceeds to be used in the construction of a steam line from Winnipeg, Canada, to Belton, Texas, where connection will be made with the Texas Midland Railway. This will give Canada a direct line to the Gulf of Mexico. President Miller of the road states that actual construction will start by July 12th.

Why He Was Late.

"What made you so late?" "I met Smithson." "Well, that is no reason why you should be an hour late getting home to supper." "I know, but I asked him how he was feeling, and he insisted on telling me about his stomach trouble." "Did you tell him to take Chamberlain's Tablets?" "Sure, that is what he needs." Sold by all dealers.

Porter Garnett Hurt.

While working a door on top of a train which was running in from the other side of the Canadian, Porter Garnett lost his balance and fell to the ground, hurting him severely. The other trainmen did not know anything of the accident until the next station was reached, when he was missed. Word was sent back by wire and a special engine crew sent out to hunt him. When found, he was in an unconscious condition. He was cared for and brought to Hereford Tuesday morning and is now at the home of his parents. He is resting well at this time.

Guard Your Children Against Bowel Trouble

Many children at an early age become constipated, and frequently serious consequences result. Not being able to realize his own condition, a child's bowels should be constantly watched, and a gentle laxative given when necessary. Dr. Miles' Laxative Tablets are especially well adapted to women and children. The Sisters of Christian Charity, 531 Charles St., Luzerne, Pa., who attend many cases of sickness say of them:

"Some time ago we began using Dr. Miles' Laxative Tablets and find that we like them very much. Their action is excellent and we are grateful for having been made acquainted with them. We have had good results in every case and the Sisters are very much pleased."

The form and flavor of any medicine is very important, no matter who is to take it. The taste and appearance are especially important when children are concerned. All parents know how hard it is to give the average child "medicine," even though the taste is partially disguised. In using Dr. Miles' Laxative Tablets, however, this difficulty is overcome. The shape of the tablets, their appearance and candy-like taste at once appeal to any child, with the result that they are taken without objection.

The rich chocolate flavor and absence of other taste, make Dr. Miles' Laxative Tablets the ideal remedy for children.

If the first box fails to benefit, the price is returned. Ask your druggist. A box of 25 doses costs only 25 cents. Never sold in bulk. MILES MEDICAL CO., Elkhart, Ind.

Not "Newspaper Talk."

That the Texico-Lubbock line is to be built this summer is not all talk much less "newspaper talk" as some would designate a printed falsehood. The Crosbyton-Seymour line is also on the list for early construction. It may come to Hereford if the people here want it. If not, the road would not run over the town.

Tom Bassett, one of Deaf Smith counties' commissioners, in company with Chas. Woodburn, left Wednesday for Fort Worth where Mr. Bassett will enter a sanitarium for the benefit of his health.

Wells Running.

For the first time in the history of irrigation at Hereford, nearly all the wells, big ones as well as little ones, are running. The two wells on the McDonald farm, the Morgan well, the well on "Wonderflow Farm," owned by Baskin & Hester, the Gregg well and the Renfro big flower, are all running today and the water is being applied to the crops, wheat, oats, alfalfa are receiving an artificial of 3 to 6 inches. This irrigation business is not only waking up the natives of Hereford, but is drawing the attention of wiser men elsewhere. From New York to Denver, from El Paso to the Gulf, they are learning about the great water of the Plains. And they are coming. The town has been visited this week by a dozen men whose aggregate capital would stagger an Astor. It's coming. Get ready. Get in or get out of the way or you'll be run over.
