SUGAR BEETS HIGH RECORD

Hereford Makes Good Showing at Garden City—Sugar Factory—Percentages High.

A sample of sugar beets sent recently from the McDonald Irrigated Farms to the factory of the United States Sugar and Land Company at Garden City, Kansas, brings a most satisfactory report from the manager of that concern, as the following letter will indicate:

THE UNITED STATES SUGAR AND LAND COMPANY, GARDEN CITY, KANSAS.

D. L. McDonald, Hereford, Tex.

Dear Sir: The sample of sugar beets were duly received and the following report from our chemist shows the analysis:

Number of Beets 3
Average weight, ounces 39
Sugar Contents 17.8
Purity 86.5

These are excellent beets in size, sugar contents and purity. We would like to have a 100,000 tons of such beets. With best wishes, I remain,
Yours very truly,
F. A. Gillespie, Gen. Manager.

Thanksgiving Praise Service.

The praise service by the Ladies' Mission Society at the Presbyterian church last night was well attended. The program was good from beginning to end.

3,120 SALOONS IN TEXAS

Seventy Per Cent of Texas Counties Are Dry—Only 78 Counties Have Saloons.

Austin, Texas, Nov. 26.—There are exactly 3,120 saloons in Texas according to a statement issued today by the comptroller's department. The record shows there are 1,797 plain liquor licenses and 1323 licenses issued by the department. It is shown that out of the 249 counties in Texas there are only 78 in which liquor is permitted to be legally sold.—Daily News.

Thanksgiving Services.

Hereford closed up all business yesterday to observe the National Holiday, Thanksgiving. A special program was given at the Baptist church, all denominations participating. Rev. Jno. R. Henson, Methodist pastor, delivered an able address. The special music by the choir was select. At the noon hour the ladies of the Methodist church served a most bounteous dinner down town, and all those who did not have a turkey ready at home, enjoyed the meal with them. In the afternoon, everybody turned to their inclinations—some of the men went gunning, young folks joy riding, other grown-ups visiting. The day was fine as to climatic conditions, a special order being filled especially for the Panhandle.

Atty. S. G. Bratton and family of Farwell spent Thanksgiving with friends in Hereford.

Kafir Corn for Stock Raising.

While in many states Indian corn may justly be considered the premier farm crop for the stockman, kafir corn must as surely claim that honor in Oklahoma. Though generally supposed to be somewhat inferior in feeding value to the Indian corn, the yield of grain and forage per acre is so much greater and surer that its pre-eminence must be undisputed. Experimental tests have usually shown kafir to be 7 to 10 per cent less valuable per pound than corn, but occasionally has proven equal if not superior to it. Burns, at the Oklahoma experiment station claimed, that a bushel of kafir produced but three-fourths of a pound less beef than a bushel of corn, and feeding trials at the Kansas station have given approximately the same results. At the Texas station, Burns found that kafir chop when fed with cotton seed meal and hulls, gave larger and more economical gains than Indian corn chop or milo maize.

When fed alone, kafir does not give as good results as when fed with some more lucrative feed rich in protein, such as cotton seed or soy beans. At the Kansas station, kafir meal fed alone, proved from 17 to 29 per cent less valuable than corn for hog feeding, but when each grain was fed with a small amount of ground soy beans, the gains were much greater in both cases, but the kafir produced almost as much pork as the corn.

Kafir is more or less constipating in its nature, which is the reason that the supplementary oily feeds mentioned above add so much to its value. Kafir should always be ground for stock and for hogs may also be soaked to advantage. If fed whole, many of the small hard grains are likely to pass through the digestive system unbroken. Kafir is lacking in muscle and bone-building materials and should always be fed with such feeds as alfalfa, cowpeas or soy bean hay, or cotton seed, cotton seed meal, linseed meal, soy beans, cow peas, wheat, shorts or similar protein rich feeds. Kafir stover is practically equal to corn stover for feeding cattle. The best way to get full value from the kafir is by the use of the silo. Dairy cows, beef cattle and sheep at the Oklahoma A. & M. college all have kafir silage as a large part of their daily rations, and while no tests have been conducted comparing kafir silage with corn silage, the cattle appear to show as great a liking for the kafir as for any other kind, and thrive as well on it. The whole plant is used—grain, leaves and stalks. The ewes with young lambs milk heavily and raise fine lambs and some of the Jerseys milks as heavily as on grass in summer. With plenty of kafir and a good silo or two, the Oklahoma stockman need not be alarmed about high prices for feed stuffs.

Protracted Services at Methodist Church.

The protracted services, which have been held from last Sunday, will continue through the week. The new minister, Rev. Jno. R. Henson, invites the public to attend. His sermons have been along the line of practical religion and he has scored a number of times in his remarks. His discourse Sunday night from the character of Ruth was well delivered and the application was well taken.

The first thing in the morning at the last thing at night Kemp's prices are right. 1t

Will Feed Cattle.

"There will be a good many cattle wintered in my section of the state," J. W. Bradley of Hereford, Texas, said. "The bulk of the stock carried over will be cows and breeding stock. Cattle shipments have been fairly heavy, although there was no scare about wintering them, as feed is plentiful, but good prices tempted many to clean up pretty close."—K. C. Drivers Telegram.

Jury in Coffman Case Brings In Verdict For Large Sum In Damage Suit Against Railway

The jury in the Coffman case, which occupied the entire time of the District Court here last week, returned a verdict Sunday morning, awarding the plaintiff damages in the sum of $14,000.

This is a suit brought by J. J. Coffman, of San Antonio, Texas, against the Pecos & Northern Texas Ry. Co., asking $50,000 damages for injuries alleged to have been received by him on August 7th, 1904, when the train on which he was a passenger going from Amarillo to Roswell, N. M., ran into an open switch in the yards at Hereford, colliding with a car, or cars, on the sidetrack and throwing Mr. Coffman against, or over the seat, in front of him and into the aisle, from which he claims that there has resulted a disease of the spinal cord, known as meningomyelitis or sclerosis of the spinal cord. This case tried four years ago at Hereford before Judge Browning and at that time the jury awarded the plaintiff $17,500 damages but the case was appealed by the railroad but reversed and remaded for errors in the trial. The case will again be appealed.

The plaintiff was represented by Capps, Cantey, Hanger & Short, of Fort Worth, and Knight & Slaton, of Hereford, while the attorneys for the defendant were Madden, True-love & Kimbrough, of Amarillo and Carl Gilliland, of Hereford.

Among the cut-of-town witnesses in attendance on the trial of this case were: Dr. Wm. R. Howard, of Fort Worth, who has the chair of Histology, Pathology and Bacteriology in the Medical College; Dr. J. P. Kaster, of Topeka, Kans., Chief Surgeon of the Santa Fe Employees Hospital Association; Dr. C. A. Maguire, of Topeka, who has the chair of Clinical Medicine in the Kansas College and Medical Department of Washburn College; L. W. Ernest, General Claim Agent of the S. A. & A. P. Ry. Co., of San Antonio, Texas; W. A. Stewart, of Amarillo, Special Agent of the Santa Fe Ry. Co.; J. T. Inmon, Lubbock; W. H. Laswell, formerly of Hereford but now living in San Antonio, and Dr. Walter B. Hirzel, of San Antonio.

A Square Deal.
Now, in the interests of the square deal, that thing of which we hear so much and see so little; if you tell of my faults and lapses, you should also tell of the good I have done. If my tank wagon bumps into a wheelbarrow, you ought to give me the benefit of letting me tell where I was going and how the accident happened. Perhaps I was on the right side of the road going carefully and the wheelbarrow may have been exceeding the speed limit—Who knows?—Elbert Hubbard.

In other words, there are two sides to every question. Our customers always get the square deal—and many of them would be in better financial condition now, if they would only let us advise them concerning business conditions.

We understand the conditions that now exist in this country, and are prepared to help our customers get the Square Deal. Our thorough knowledge of business affairs and our conservative methods makes us especially desirable for those who would profit by our long experience and use it to their advantage. Baptist Revised Bible.

First copies of the revised edition of the Bible published by the American Baptist Publication Society reached the society's headquarters yesterday. The new edition is a radical departure in its construction from the language used in the King James version.

In the new Bible the names "Adam and Eve" do not appear. Their place is taken by the words "man and woman," which is a direct translation of the old Hebrew names. The word "hell" is eliminated, "underworld" being inserted in its place.

Other great changes are made. The story of Jonah and the whale is changed so that the words "great fish"—as being a nearer interpretation of the ancient Hebrew take the place of "whale." "Jehovah, thy God," takes the place of "Lord thy God." "Carved" replaced "graven," and the word "immersed," in parenthesis, follows the word baptize in every instance. In the new edition the Lord's prayer becomes:

"Our father who art in heaven, hallowed by thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, as in heaven, so on earth. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we also have forgiven our debtors. And bring us not into temptation, but deliver us from the evil one. Amen."—Ex.

Avoid Sedative Cough Medicines.

If you want to contribute directly to the occurrence of capillary bronchitis and pneumonia use cough medicines that contain codeine, morphine, heroin and other sedatives when you have a cough or cold. An expectorant like Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is what is needed. That cleans out the culture beds or breeding places for the germs of pneumonia and other germ diseases. That is why pneumonia never results from a cold when Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is used. It has a world wide reputation for its cures. It contains no morphine or other sedative. Five Are Injured When Auto Turtles.

Amarillo, Nov. 26.—As a result of the overturning of their car Sunday afternoon, Paul Skillman, Miss Annalee Rix, Miss Fannie Mae Rucker, C. C. Mayes and Miss Iweta Pittman, members of an auto party, were more or less seriously injured.

The accident occurred at a point on Famous Heights. Miss Rucker was driving when one of the rear tires burst. She lost control, the car ran into a rut, a front tire exploded and the car turned over twice, pinning Mr. Skillman, owner of the car, and Miss Rucker beneath the machine.

When the car was lifted Miss Rucker was found in an unconscious condition. She was carried to the residence, where a physician was summoned to ascertain the extent of her injuries. It was discovered that both lips of Miss Rucker were seriously cut and that her face and forehead were badly lacerated. Her injuries were perhaps more serious than those sustained by any other member of the party.

Mr. Skillman was severely cut on one leg, and was badly bruised about the head and face. Miss Rix sustained a sprained ankle and numerous bruises. The left thumb of Mr. Mayes was dislocated, but the fact was not noted until he had rendered aid to the more seriously injured. Miss Pittman was only slightly hurt.

Miss Rucker, Miss Rix and Mr. Skillman were brought into town, and it was reported last night that they were resting comfortably, but might be confined to their rooms for several days.

The car was badly damaged in the crash.

Grades Have Thanksgiving Exercises.

Wednesday afternoon the grades of the public school rendered Thanksgiving programs. A number of the fathers and mothers were in attendance and enjoyed the exercises. The program in the third grade was similar to those given the others, but as it is impossible for one reporter to be in more than one place at the same time, this mention will cover only the features of the exercises of the third grade. The room was decorated with harvest field products. Two large pumpkins rested on the table, a string of corn, maize and kaffir with green cedar along the front and sprays over the windows added a real tone of harvest time and thanksgiving. The exercises, consisting of songs and recitations, all touching the subject and cause of the celebration was the order. All who appeared did well and spoke their "parts" with childlike interest. Miss Edwards, the teacher, had previously explained the object and meaning of the approaching day and right well did everyone in the room enter into the spirit of the occasion, to the credit of the teacher as well as themselves. After the program, the visitors looked over the Thanksgiving art books, which the children had made and passed a social word with Miss Edwards, thanking her for the kind interest she has shown in the children. The children sang their farewell song, were dismissed until Monday, and all filed out.

Thanksgiving Day.

Thanksgiving Day as an institution is strictly American. It was the spirit of a liberty loving and thankful people who first set apart a special day of the year in which all labor was suspended and all the people assembled at their place of worship to render unto the Supreme Father of All an acknowledgement of their dependence upon his bountiful mercies. It was Governor Bradford of the Plymouth Colony in 1621, who ordered the first real thanksgiving day in America. The previous winter had been hard, many of the colonists dying, leaving but few men, but the summer that followed gave them abundant crops, and health was restored. But the feast and thanksgiving continued for a week, the friendly Indians visiting the Colony, bringing a quantity of venison. This added to the large number of wild turkey which four of the white colonists had killed made the week long remembered and cherished.

So from time to time, the governors of the different states have issued proclamations of thanksgiving. In the early history of the national government, an effort was made to make the day a national institution, but it met with strong opposition from those who feared the assumption would lead to the old and hard rules of a monarch. Not until after the Great War between the States has the day been observed as a national institution. Now, the president issues a general proclamation and each governor follows with a similar one. Yesterday, of the hundred million people in the United States, many millions assembled at their different places of worship and sang praises to the Almighty. In many communities it has become the custom to make offerings for the poor and needy. No people should be more thankful this good year than the Americans. Texas as a state has every reason for suspending all business for one day as at no time in its history has such general prosperity visited the land.

Thanksgiving Proclamation.

President Taft has issued the following proclamation, setting apart Thursday, Nov. 28, as a national day of thanksgiving:

"A God-fearing nation like ours owes it to its inborn and sincere sense of moral duty to testify its devout gratitude to the All-Giver for the countless benefits it has enjoyed. For many years it has been customary at the close of the year for the national executive to call upon his fellow-countrymen to offer praise and thanks to God for the manifold blessings vouchsafed to them in the past, and to unite in earnest supplication for their continuance.

"The year now drawing to a close has been notably favorable to our fortunate land. At peace within and without, free from the perturbations and calamities that have afflicted other peoples; rich in harvests so abundant and in industries so productive that the overflow of our prosperity has advantaged the whole world; strong in the steadfast conservation of the heritage of self-government bequeathed to us by the wisdom of our fathers and firm in the resolve to transmit that heritage unimpaired, but rather improved by good use, to our children and our children's children for all time to come, the people of this country have abounding cause for contented gratitude.

"Wherefore, I, William Howard Taft, president of the United States of America, in pursuance of long established usage and in response to the wish of the American people, invite my countrymen, wheresoever they may sojourn, to join, on Thursday, the twenty-eighth day of November, in appropriate ascription of praise and thanks to God for the good gifts that have been our portion and in humble prayer that his great mercies toward us may endure.

"In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

"Done at the city of Washington, this seventh day of November, in the year of our Lord 1912, and of the independence of the United States of America the 137th.

WILLIAM H. TAFT."

Texas Sand For Glass Making.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 28.—A report issued recently by the United States Geological Survey, shows that Pennsylvania produced 30 per cent of the sand used in glass making in the United States in 1911, which amounted to about 400,000 tons, the average value per ton being $1.40. Glass sand has recently been discovered in Texas near Wichita Falls and Comanche and it is expected that that state will contribute largely to the output in the next few years.

SUGAR BEETS.

The report on Hereford raised sugar beets should encourage the irrigation farmers of this district. It will be remembered that the McDonald Farms shipped a car load of beets to this same factory last year, but on account of the long haul, only a small patch was planted this year. The analysis, however, is a revelation. It compares favorably with the beets of Colorado. The one thing lacking here is a factory to convert the product. Not less than 5,000 acres must be planted in beets to secure a factory contract.

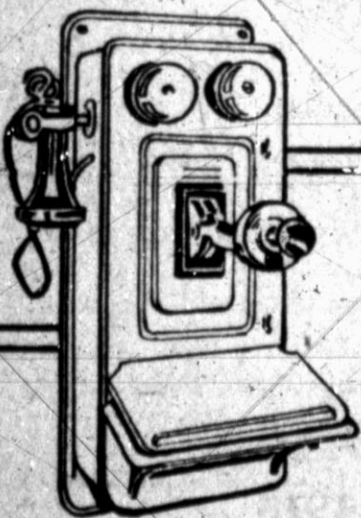

W. B. Beach and family left last Saturday for Odell, Texas, where they will reside in the future. Mr. Beach is an old-timer on the Plains and his friends hope for his early return.

Good Blood Means Good Health.

A clear healthy skin, full of life and color, reflecting perfect health and energy has long been known to be a business and social asset. If you are not the fortunate possessor of all the above—if you are suffering from skin eruptions of any description, it means that the blood is weak.

Pure blood, rich red in color and circulating freely, is the essential factor in the possession of perfect health.

When it becomes impoverished—thin and watery—it cannot supply proper nourishment and the body tissues become diseased.

This condition is ever ready to manifest itself and should be checked and treatment started with the first appearance of blood disorder.

In our estimation Nyal's Hot Springs Blood Remedy is the one best treatment. It gets at the root of the trouble, cleanses the blood of impurities, increases the circulation, produces blood that is rich in nourishment, blood that builds up broken-down tissues.

It will not be long before you notice a decided improvement—you will feel the blood coursing through your veins, your appetite increases, the food will be absorbed in the proper manner and the skin will become clear and healthy.

You will never regret having used Nyal's Hot Springs Blood Remedy—it will put you on your feet.

We expect to be here in business a good many years. The only way we can do it is by treating everybody right. That's our policy.

Red Cross Seals.

The sale of Red Cross Christmas Seals has been again undertaken this year. The object of the sale is to raise funds for the Texas Anti-Tuberculosis Society. Mrs. O. B. Colquit is the State Chairman and Mrs. F. T. Roloson local chairman for Hereford. The other members of the local committee are: Mesdames Homer Wilkinson, P. W. Price and W. R. Evants. They have on hand now a shipment of the Red Seals. The price is One Cent each. The seals are intended to be used in sealing gift and Xmas packages, but they do not take the place of regular postage. Many also place a Red Seal on the back of letter envelopes. The seals are sold throught the United States. Last year Texas sold 1,800,000 seals and hope to sell 3,000,000 this season. A part of the receipts will be used for the Walter Colquit Memorial Children's Hospital at Galveston. If you are interested in the fight against the devouring white plague, buy a supply of the Red Seals, use them and thus encourage others to follow your example.

Houston, Tex., Nov. 29.—Mr. R. C. Duff, Chairman of the Texas Welfare Commission and Chairman of sub-committee on railroad securities, has rendered a report which everyone who desires to qualify for citizenship should carefully read and study.

Mr. Duff is one of the very few Texas citizens who is endeavoring to build railroads and his experience in financing independent lines is reflected in the able report he presents. The Welfare Commission memorializes the Legislature to enact changes in our railroad stock and bond law to the following effect.

- 1st. That all outstanding bonds lawfully issued may be refunded regardless of any valuation fixed on the property by the Railroad Commission of Texas.
- 2nd. That bonds may be issued for improvement, betterment or extension regardless of valuation before fixed upon its properties.
- 3rd. That bonds may be issued before, during or after construction providing a strict accounting made to the Railroad Commission.
- 4th. That the sale of bonds for new railroads be authorized in advance of construction, providing safeguards insuring the proper application of the proceeds.

Ryan, of Jackson County, Missouri, Trustee, and to his successors in trust, as security for the payment of five promissory notes aggregating Eight Hundred Forty-eight ($1848.00) Dollars, of even date therewith, executed by said Domenico Comperini and due, one on Nov. 1st, 1911, for Three Hundred Sixty-nine and 60-100 ($369.60) Dollars, one due on Nov. 1st, 1912 and one due on Nov. 1st, 1913, and one due on Nov. 1st, 1914, and one due on Nov. 1st, 1915, each for the like sum of Three Hundred Sixty-nine and 60-100 ($369.60) Dollars, respectively all bearing interest at the rate of 6 per cent. per annum from date until maturity, and 7 per cent. per annum thereafter, interest payable annually, each of said notes being payable to the order of Arthur L. Brunner, of Kansas City, Missouri, (who is the present legal holder thereof), said notes being more particularly described in said deed of trust, which deed of trust provides in case of default in payment of any of the notes secured thereby, or any installment of interest, or in case of default in the payment of any taxes levied against said land when the same shall become due and payable under the laws of the State of Texas, or default by the said Comperini in the performance of any other term, condition or agreement therein contained, for the period of 30 days after the same shall become due, that the then legal holder of said notes, or any one of them at the time, shall have the right, at his option, immediately and at any time while such default continues, to declare the entire debt secured thereby, to be at once due and payable; and

Constipation, if Neglected, Causes Serious Illness

Constipation, if neglected, leads to almost innumerable complications affecting the general health. Many cases of typhoid fever, appendicitis and other severe diseases are traceable to prolonged clogging of the bowels. Regarding the effects of constipation, C. E. Ayers, 6 Sabin St., Montpelier, Vt., says: "I was afflicted with constipation and biliousness for years, and at times became so bad I would become unconscious. I have been found in that condition many times. Physicians did not seem to be able to do me any good. I would become weak and for days at a time could do no work. Not long ago I got a box of Dr. Miles' Laxative Tablets, and after using them found I had never tried anything that acted in such a mild and effective manner. I believe I have at last found the remedy that suits my case."

Thousands of people are sufferers from habitual constipation and while possibly realizing something of the danger of this condition, yet neglect too long to employ proper curative measures until serious illness often results. The advice of all physicians is, "keep your bowels clean," and it's good advice. Dr. Miles' Laxative Tablets are sold by all druggists, at 25 cents a box containing 25 doses. If not found satisfactory, your money is returned.

The Water Supply at Hereford.

When Jno. L. Wortham, new appointee of the governor as Secretary of State and for some years one of the Texas Railroad Commissioners, was in Hereford recently, he was shown some of the irrigation wells. The first one he saw was the Baskin-Heater well, situated near town. The gentlemen in the party arrived at the well and in a few minutes the big engine began to "talk" and in less than 20 seconds a big stream of water, 8 inches in diameter, commenced to make music in the concrete spill box. Mr. Wortham stood for fully a minute viewing the stream of water and just thinking; not a word was spoken by any one, when he asked: "How long will that stream of water keep on coming out;" and before anyone could answer, he added in a sort of informational style, "Of course, that big stream is hollow; it certainly is not a solid stream." When assured that this well and others had been pumped continuously for several weeks without any sign of failure or even decrease of the supply, he was astonished saying: "I never saw anything like that." His remark about the stream being hollow amused his friends at the well and he was easily convinced of his error, when told to "thrust his hand into the stream," and he would be cured of his doubt.

A WELL WATERED DESERT.

Mr. Wortham's questions are only the outspoken opinion of many men who have not been on the ground and have not seen the wonder of the Hereford water supply. They have heard of the irrigation wells at different places in the Panhandle and the story is so far out of joint with the old idea that the Plains of Texas is a desert and that travelers in the early days often died of thirst while attempting to cross the great waste of land, they do not believe it. They think that it is the wild fabrication of unreliable land agents. Water on the Plains? Wells that furnish a thousand gallons per minute? Irrigating a quarter section of land with only one well? Impossible, they say; don't believe a word of it. But when they come, all stand in wonder amazement.

EXHAUSTION OF THE WATER.

But really how long will this water last? Will the wells become exhausted? When a hundred wells are in operation in the Hereford district will not the stream run dry? Mr. Wortham's question should be answered. Well, let's figure a little. It is assured by experienced Colorado irrigators that 18 inches of water in addition to the rainfall will raise any kind of crop in the dry years; in average years, less will be required. For alfalfa, they figure that six irrigations for five cuttings will be sufficient; this is 36 inches of water. Then an average of about 24 inches will be needed for the usual amount of irrigation. Will 24 inches of water removed from the underground reservoir exhaust the supply?

AN INTERESTING PROBLEM

If there could be built a reservoir

one mile wide, one mile long and one mile high, and it full of water, how long would it take to draw all the water out at a rate sufficient to irrigate four quarter sections, putting 24 inches of water on the land annually? The answer is easy, but you will be surprised when you get to the figures for it will require just two thousand six hundred and forty years. My, is that true? Scratch your head and figure that again. Yes, 2,640 years; that's right. Oh, but Hereford has no such reservoir as that for each section of land. No, that is also true, but Hereford has something under the surface that is far better than even that. It has a supply of water that comes down in the secret ways from the eternal hills of the Rockies. No man has heard, nor hath eye seen, the mysteries of God in the everlasting economy of Nature.

THE WATER AREA AT HEREFORD.

It must not be understood that all of this part of the state is underlain with shallow water; the shallow districts cover a wide scope of territory, but between these are territories of deep water. It is only in the shallow water districts that pumping for irrigation has been undertaken. (The shallow water district is here meant to include only such locations where the water can be found at 100 feet deep and less.) In time, no doubt, some means of lifting the deeper water will be devised. In the immediate vicinity of Hereford, the shallow water district covers territory some 15 miles in width by 25 miles in length, a field containing 375 square miles. Test wells in the Hereford district has shown that the water bearing strata will exceed 300 feet in thickness. The water formations as well as the water itself, show that this large volume of water is moving slowly in a southeasterly direction, simply a river 15 miles wide and 300 feet deep, hidden in the secret recesses of the earth, moving from the mountains of the far north towards the eternal seas. A well on every 80 acres, pumping 3 feet annually would not exhaust such a river of water. If one half of the entire irrigable area should be put under irrigation and as much as 2 feet of water was drawn from the underground reservoir each year, it would require thousands of years to make an impression on the supply. The shallow water area of 375 square miles has an area of nearly 4,000 square miles from which to draw its supply, if there is nothing more than an immense lake of underground water. To put it another way: each quarter section of land in the shallow water district has ten quarters from which to draw its supply. Then 24 inches taken from the lake under one quarter would be equivalent to the removal of 2.4 inches from 10 quarters. This would require 120 years of pumping to lower the level of the water just 24 feet, if there should never be another gallon supplied by rainfall, or otherwise.

CONCLUSION.

The conclusion is that irrigation will not effect the water supply for hundreds of years. As long as the mountain tops of the Rockies from New Mexico to Canada are covered each winter with snow, as long as the many thousands of streams run down their rugged sides and lose themselves in the levels below, just so long will the supply be held to its present condition. The Great Father of Waters, the Mississippi, drains the surface of an empire and empties its burden into the lap of the Gulf. So the great underground stream that has hidden its path drains the under strata of the plains from Canada to the Gulf.

A dispatch from Washington, D. C., gives the information that Pennsylvania furnishes 30 per cent of the glass sand used in the United States, and adds that glass sand has been discovered near Wichita Falls and Comanche. It has been known here for three years that a fine quality of glass sand could be obtained in Deaf Smith county. This sand is almost pure white silicate and would need but little treatment to make it ready for the glass factory. It was discovered by a surveying party, but on account of the distance from the railroad, no work has been done. With a north and south road thru Hereford this sand could be made a valuable resource.
