THE NEWSPAPERS AND JOHNSTON

an Epitome of Editorial Comment Upon the Appointment of Houston Man to Succeed Junior Senator.

That many Texas editors are not pleased with the action of Governor Colquitt in appointing Col. R. M. Johnston as the successor of the Junior Senator is in strong evidence from the following extracts clipped from the newspapers. The general opinion is that as Mr. Sheppard was the choice of the Democrats of the state by an overwhelming majority, the Governor has ignored the party and has run rough shod over the results of the Primary to please a few political friends and to award Col. Johnston for his attack upon the standard bearers of National and State Democracy :

Hall Co. Herald (Senator Johnson editor.) -The naming of R. M. Johnson of Houston for U.S. senator by Gov, Colquitt in place of Morris Sheppard, who was entitled to the place, was nothing more nor tess than a slap in the face of the people of Texas. It was done for the purpose of putting Johnston in the race six years from now against Sheppard. It is now believed by all well posted men that Colquitt is to contest for Culberson's seat four years hence and Johnson will make the race for Sheppard's place.

Memphis Democrat-Senatar Joseph W. Bailey tendered his resignation Friday, and it seems that R. M. Johnston is stated to fill wishes of all Texas, whose choice ras Morris Sheppard. We hardly think Colquitt will appoint Johnston was the celebration of the fortyunder the present conditions, but if second wedding anniversary of Mr. he does, he had just as well "sew and Mrs. J. Hall Co. Herald-Some of the partizan friends of R. M. Johnston lay much stress upon the fact that for a quarter of a century he has stood by the democratic party and assisted to fight its battles. Surely that is by no means strange, and we cannot see how he could have even expected to do otherwise. He was placed in charge of a democratic selves for a few minutes, a feast newspaper, and as such, with a democratic patronage exclusively he could not well have done otherwise. The next day and the next the pumping was kept up, and the test was entirely satisfactory."

RETIREMENT OF SENATOR BAILEY.

In the retirement of Hon. Joseph W. Bailey, the U. S. Senate loses one of its most famous men and brilliant orators. However dull the prosaic sessions of the Congress may grow, whenever Mr. Bailey rose to speak, the members would return to their seats and the galleries would be filled by the populace. speeches have been models of English, showing careful preparation, only 35 per cent of the voters took but that spontaneity of effort that characterized Webster and Calhoun. His presence will be missed from the political circles of the Capitol, his silver tongue will no longer be heard in the halls of Congress? During his twenty-one years in the public service, he has made many warm friends and has proscribed as many bitter enemies. It is to be deeply regretted that a man so talented should quit the arena of public life on account of political and even personal embitterment, brought on by his own extreme sensitive and ambitious nature. If Mr. Bailey had aligned himself with the progressive thought of the people and the Democratic party, if he could have exercised that noble virtue of tollerance that should be with all great men. and could have bent himself to pour his bitterest enemies admit that few oil upon the troubled political waters, where he would lash them with the tongues of scorpions, this lalented son of Texas might have been the towering Collosus of strength and power pro bono republico. But unhappily and certainly unfortunately, mercury will surely destroy the sense smell and completely derange the as mercury will surely destroy the sense of swell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting lirectly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and made in Toledo, Ohlo, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free.

Mr. Bailey failed in that one virtueto grow forbearing as he grew older. He nursed that self-devouring grouch against any one who dared oppose him as persistently as he awarded his friends for their favors. He never forgave his enemies; he never gave quarters to a foe. He loved Rome, but he loved Caesar more; he plotted his own political assassination and unsheathed the dagger that made the "most unkindest cut of all;" and a great Caesar fell at the foot of a Pompey's statue.

ENDORSES AND CRITICIES BAI-LEY'S POSITION.

Randall County News. While the News is no great admirer of Senator Bailey we are glad that before retiring he took such a keen rap at the doctrine of initiative, referendum and recall. Senator Bailey showed conclusively that wherever this doctrine has been tried any part in the election. In the election of men delegated to do the work for the people, more than 90 per cent of the qualified voters usually participate in the elections. The initiative, referendum and recall is therefore not a government by popular vote, but by just about one-third of the qualified voters. Senator Bailey was right in saying that this doctrine was fathered by politicans who were anxious to turn over to the people questions which they themselves are afraid to handle.

There is a variety of opinions expressed as to the merits of Senator Bailey's speech in the senate last Thursday. Be the speech good or poor, the fact remains that the loss of Senator Bailey in the senate is a distinct loss to the nation. Even men have been so well acquainted with the fundamental principals of government as Senator Bailey and few men in this age have rendered so great service to their country.

Quanah Tribune-Chief-Joe Bailey delivered his farewell address the other day, and his friends are now wondering how the United States and the world will be able to rock along without this sonorous gentleman. That the ex-senator shares this opinion is not to be doubted, but the great majority of Texans, we believe, will not greatly worrry over the future on account of his departure from public life. During his long political career, Bailey has never given proof of a single act of constructive statesmanship. The best law sand statutes we have were passed over his opposition, and the men who mostly grieve over Bailey's retirement are the men the American people have a right to look upon as their worst enemies; wholesale poisoners, whiskey barons and other spawns of the trusts. May the Lord deliver Texas from such brilliant servants whose talents can be exploited by the worst elements in the county !

Hale Co. Herald-Senator Bailey has sung his swan song. The setting was well arranged-perhaps over-arranged. The publicity given to the fact that he would retire-if not before the end of his term, in March-and the uncertainty as to when that time might be, the skillful intimation that "something was to expected," all effectively set the stage for him. One might have conceived that so brilliant a mind would have chosen something other than the initiative and referendum for the occasion. At best, the initiative and referendum is an expedient. It is a step toward direct popular government, and may not be a machine that can be used. The records will show that much of Senator Bailey's time has been spent in other ways than grappling with great constructive questions. He has noticed them only to oppose. That he was brilliant none can deny. The bitter controversy occasioned by the Legislative inquiry into his record has passed. The fact remains that many of Senator Bailey's friends feel that he sold his birthright for a mess of pottage.

CEROKLYN ABERINACLE ADAMS SIN PUNISHED THE DEATH-CURSE.

Genesie 3-Jan. 19. Every one that committeth sin is the bond-servant of sin.—John 8:34.

DAM'S first sin brought the penalty specified in this lesson. The Bible proposition is that God, having made Adam perfect, required perfect obedience as the condition of everlasting life. One act of disobedience broke the covenant between God and Adam. (Hosea 6:7. Margin.) Immediately he dropped from favor, under the sentence, "Dying. thou shalt die." Nothing that Adam or, his children could do subsequently could recover covenant relationship with God. The death penalty was the limit.

By the law of heredity, Adam transmitted to his race a share of what he possessed, good and bad. As Adam could not increase his penalty, neither can his children. But as Adam could, by obedience to the Divine Law, prolong the process of his dying, so may his children. But the impairment wrought by ain has so progressed that many of Adam's children die in infancy; and few maintain the struggle for existence for a hundred years.

Death the Curse-Not Terture. Our forefathers during the Dark Ages misunderstood the Heavenly Father's character and Plan. Misunderstanding the Bible to teach that God arranged for the eternal torture of all except the Church, they sought to copy their misconception of Jehovah by torturing their fellow-creatures. Because God's people have been gradually getting back to the teaching of His Word, the horrible practises of the past are no longer approved. But many have respecting the much yet to learn The serpent true teaching of the Bible

The curse which God pronounced against our race is not eternal torment at the hands of devils; but as the Apostle says, "The wages of sin is death." The remedy is a resurrection, secured through the Redeemer's death at Calvary. "The gift of God is eternal life, through Jesus Christ our Lord." All experience the death penalty. All will have opportunity sometime of regaining everlasting life through Messiah's redemptive work and His Kingdom.

For a Little Flock, who in this Age have obeyed the Master's Voice, God has provided glorious things, far superior to anything that Adam lost. To those who walk in Jesus' footsteps, God promises a share with the Master in His glorious Kingdom, The Lesson of This Study.

If our Christian forefathers could properly have appreciated today's lesson, they would have known what the Bible teaches respecting the "wages of sin," and have seen how seriously pub-He thought had drifted away from the mons." God drove them out of Eden. that the penalty pronounced against them might be accomplished. Had they continued in Eden, eating of its life-sustaining fruits, they would have lived indefinitely. Why Evil Was Permitted.

God foreknew the fall of man, before the foundation of the world, and provided the Lamb of God to take away the sin of the world. God had a glorious purpose interwoven with His permission of sin, which the majority but faintly discerned until lately. Jesus intimated that shortly before the estaolishment of His Kingdom His Church will understand features of the Divine Plan previously kept secretthey will have an appreciation of God's purposes, and His reasons for having permitted sin and death for six thou-

Could it be that God wished to keep them in ignorance, and for that reason had forbidden their eating of the fruit? Such disloyal thoughts should have been promptly spurned. But the insidious poison worked. She was not deceived as respects the wrongdoing, but regarding the result. Seeing that the serpent was not poisoned by the fruit. she did not realize that the poison to her was that of disobedience, bringing the death sentence. Adam's eating of the fruit was with full knowledge of the result. In love with his wife, he ate knowingly, preferring to die with her rather than to live without her.

Don't wait, until you are taken down sick, before taking care of yourself. The small aches and pains, and other symptoms of womanly weakness and disease, always mean worse to follow, unless given quick treatment.

You would always keep Cardui handy, if you knew what quick and permanent relief it gives, where weakness and disease of the womanly system makes life seem hard to bear. Cardui has helped over a million women. Try it.

Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills

Used by thousands for a generation

Those who have suffered from neuralgic pains need not be told how necessary it is to secure relief. The easiest way out of neuralgia is to use Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills. They have relieved sufferers for so many years that they have become a household necessity.

'I have taken Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills for five years and they are the only thing that does me any good. They have relieved neuralgia in my head in fifteen minutes. I have also taken them for rheumatism, headache, pains in the breast, toothache earache and pains in the bowels and limbs. I have found nothing to equal them and they are all that is claimed for them."

Aaronsohn. He delivered an address at a luncheon given in his honor by the main item of his bill of farecoverer of "wild" wheat. As head rates, but in Palestine and Mesopoenducting a work which is not only there man's migrations started." of value practically but is regarded by scientists as of immense importance biologically and historically. DISCOVER WHEAT'S "WILD" AN CESTOR.

The discovery that American domesticated wheat had an existing "wild" ancestor was announced through scientific journals some time ago and created a sensation. It had been supposed the prototype of the cereal had long since been exterminated in the course of natural selection. The most interesting part of Mr. Aaronsohn's talk had to do with experiments that have been made in Palestine with this "wild" ancestor. In this connection Mr. Aaronsohn ventured the prediction that species may be developed which can be grown profitably in places where no vegetation exists at all now. In the experiments at Haifa eighteen varieties of wild wheat have already been developed. These are adapted to varying soil conditions and climates. Eventually, he hopes, a plant may be evolved which, possessing all the food values of domesticated wheat, may still preserve the ancestor's hardihood.

GROWS IN ROCKY SOIL.

"I found my first wild wheat plant," said Mr. Aaronsohn, "growing in a crevice of a rock in a vinevard in Palestine. It was in four inches of soil. Later I discovered it is not far in the distance when we incorporate in a message to the that it was indigenous to all of the subhumid regions from the water's edge to the borders of the mountain snow fields. It grows naturally in a rocky or alkaline soil. It is immune to practically all of the diseases of neatly and oft times better. One engaged in promoting the public domesticated wheat, particularly rust and other fungus diseases."

Mr. Aaronsohn's belief that the plant can be developed until it has a tremendous commercial value is based on what his investigations be accused of not doing its best for have led him to believe is its history.

"Before the discovery of the prototype," he said, "it was the scientific theory that the plant from which wheat had its beginnings had become extinct centuries ago. It was supposed to have been an inconspicuous weed which prehistoric man gradually had developed into its present high efficiency as a food producer. I could not agree with this takes another newspaper to make it theory because I could not conceive how our uncivilized ancestors should had the shrewdness to select this one the fewer the better-the subject of particular, inconspicuous plant for this article is proof. This forced upon me the conclusion that the prototype of wheat must be a plant not only conspicuous in its appearance, but of a utility so obvious that even aborigines could not have overlooked it. This was what led to the discovery.

"My idea of the history of the plant is that these ancestors of ours, being nomads, carried the seed of this wheat about with them, sowing ed and died before it had published a in the spring in one spot, going on, dozen weeks. Newspaper Obituary.

The Lubbock Avalanche writes a tearful (?) dead piece about its namesake, the Tulia Avalanche. No doubt, Editor Dow has long since learned that "it takes money and brains to run a newspaper," but has seen that any man who had a little money but few brains could start a second newspaper in any sort of a town, but that he would soon lose the money as well as his mind if he continued long. Read what the Lubbock Avalanche slides over the Tulia Avalanche:

"The Tulia Avalanche is dead. Tulia people certainly have been burdened with newspaper funerals for the past three years. have been called upon to donate to the burial expenses of several during that period of time. This goes to show very conclusively that there is no sense or ordinary business judgment in having two newspapers in a small town, and when we say a small town, we do not mean that class of towps with a thousand population and under alone, but we mean towns of less than seven or eight thousand population. Less people than that cannot support more than one paper, without unnecessary drain on their finances. There is no use to add to aspects.) your advertising expenses by encouraging a second newspaper into a one newspaper town. Our town, too, has a small graveyard, wherein lies the remains of several newspaper venture, and sometimes we feel like too, will be numbered among the Legislature such views as meet with headstones that dot that lonely field, his approval. especially when we see the numbers and numbers of orders for stationery betterment of the social welfare of going to the foreign houses, when all the people, an we could do the very same work as seeking the counsel of organizations well supported newspaper, alive and welfare. active in the work of up-building the town and helping the community in which it is published, is as far better than two half-starved and dead papers. The Avalanche can never the advancement of the best interests of the city and county surrounding Lubbock. True, we have made mis-takes. The editor has that much human in his anatomy. We cannot please everybody, we would be absolutely worthless to any community, and not fit to move in decent society if we did, but we al all times try to be fair and consistent in our business relations. The Avalanche is for a bigger and better Lubbock and if a bigger and better town, we would be in favor of its starting tomorrow, but unlike other lines of business.

The Randall Co. News also comments thusly:

Avalanche is dead. Why? Because in the first place it was not needed.

In the second place the town is not big enough to justify it."

Tulia is again with only one paper, the Avalanche having thrown up its hands in despair last week and quit the job. Tulia has been the fighting ground for several years of two newspapers. A half dozen or more times a second paper has been startworld many fools who think that a town of less than 5,000 will support two newspapers, but they always go broke bucking the game.

Good Blood Means Good Health

A clear healthy skin, full of life and color, reflecting perfect health and energy has long been known to be a business and social asset.

If you are not the fortunate possessor of all the above—if you are suffering from skin eruptions of any description, it means that

Pure blood, rich red in color and circulating freely, is the essential factor in the possession of perfect health.

When it becomes impoverished—thin and watery—it cannot supply proper nourishment and the body tissues become diseased.

This condition is ever ready to manifest itself and should be checked and freatment started with the first appearance of blood

In our estimation Nyal's Hot Springs Blood Remedy is the one best treatment. It gets at the root of the trouble, cleanses the blood of impurities, increases the circulation, produces blood that is rich in nourishment, blood that builds up broken-down tissues.

It will not be long before you notice a decided improvement-you will feel the blood coursing through your veins, your appetite increases, the food will be absorbed in the proper manner and the skin will become clear and healthy.

You will never regret having used Nyal's Hot Springs Blood Remedy-it will put you on your feet.

We expect to be here in business a good many years. The only way we can do it is by treating everybody right. That's our policy.
