CHURCHES OF CITY MAKING DRIVE FOR BIG ATTENDANCE ON LAST DAY OF REVIVAL

TOTAL OF 850 REACHED LAST SUNDAY. EVERY-BODY JOINING HANDS TO PUT OVER THE MAXIMUM FOR THE COMING SUNDAY

SPIRITUALITY STEADILY GROWING

Prayer Meetings of Ladies, Men and Youngsters Show Gratifying Growth in Attendance and Enthusiasm. Missionary School All Next Week After Revival

A determined drive for an attendance of one thousand Sunday school scholars in the various Sunday schools of Hereford on next Sunday, the last day of the big revival now in progress at the Christian church, is one feature of the work of the Methodist, Christian and Presbyterian congregations for this week end. Last Sunday the movement was initiated and 850 enrollment for the day was reported. It is hoped to wind up the great meeting with the goal of one thousand reached the coming Sunday. The three pastors earnestly request every member of their respective churches to "stand by the Sunday school and each one bring one" for the last rally of the revival.

The visible results of the big meeting to date have been 16 conversions, who desire church membership and about 45 recommitments and reconsecrations. The average attendance has been remarkably good. The unusually wet weather has hindered the work of the meeting to some extent, but the enthusiasm attained has carried above all obstacles and as the end grows nearer the power of the meeting spreads correspondingly. The daily prayer meetings being held are distinct features. The average attendance at the ladies' meetings crowds 150 closely, and much spirituality is evidenced. A movement is evidenced. A movement is on foot to make these prayer meetings a weekly or monthly affair hereafter.

The young people are having great prayer services each evening at the Presbyterian church, and the men are holding services at the Methodist church at the same hour. Perhaps the most outstanding thing throughout the week the federated missionary societies will hold a missionary school. During the week these meetings will be held at the Methodist church but on Sunday night, July 1, the Christian church will be utilized. The detailed program for the week is given in another column of this paper. Children will be taught to make scrap books, to be used in children's hospitals everywhere, and they are asked to begin now the collection of suitable pictures to be used for their books. Every effort will be made to make the children's part of the school interesting. Children from all of the churches above five years of age are invited. The young girls will find the regular sessions interesting.

Mrs. D. L. McDonald Now Improves After Operation
D. L. McDonald received a letter Friday morning from the special nurse in charge of Mrs. McDonald at a sanitarium at Temple stating that the patient was resting well and doing as nicely as could be expected. Mrs. McDonald underwent a rather serious operation last week and her friends will be delighted to hear of her favorable condition. Mr. McDonald returned from Temple the middle of the week after the crisis had been passed.

Chamber Commerce Will Hold Weekly Luncheon at Stockmen's Cafe Monday
Through error of the secretary it was stated in Tuesday's Brand that the luncheon of the Chamber of Commerce would be held at the City Cafe. Instead it will be held at the Stockmen's Cafe, at 12:00 o'clock sharp. A special program is being prepared for the occasion.

Miss Kathleen Hawkins Off on Splendid Trip
Miss Kathleen Hawkins left Hereford Tuesday for a western trip to Colorado, Wyoming, Yellowstone Park and various points in California. The trip will be made under Miss Mac Smith of Houston, a lady who has had considerable experience in traveling. Miss Hawkins will be accompanied by a party of young ladies on the trip and be gone about three weeks.

Guards' Property Room is a Model For Orderliness

Neatness and orderliness go hand in hand with efficiency and if the supply room of Company E, Texas National Guards, at Hereford is judged accordingly then the company must be growing wonderfully efficient.

Second Lieutenant Buford Farmer unlocked the door and showed the store room to a representative of The Brand Friday. It was a revelation. Racks have been built along the walls in which are stored the pants, and shirts, and leggings, and socks, and overcoats, and shoes, and bedding, and everything else under the sun that enters into the soldier's life, even including a camp stove that is said to be especially efficient. The stuff is all piled neatly, according to sizes, and instantly available.

The officers of the company are offering a dollar on each drill night to the man with the cleanest gun, and you ought to see those fellows working to earn that dollar. Last Wednesday night a guard drill was tried out. Sentries were posted about town at various places and the officers of the guard visited each man and put him through the catechism. One man knew all the general regulations perfectly, while several others were close behind. The guard company is growing steadily and becoming more popular and efficient every week. There seems little doubt now that it will be saved for Hereford and that a sufficient number of recruits will be enrolled for the boys to attend the summer camp.

Cloyd Bros. Install Last Word in Sanitary Counter And Ice Box for Market

Cloyd Bros. this week installed the most modern and sanitary counter ice box ever brought to Hereford and now presents a sanitary and up-to-date market service for their patrons that the town should appreciate and patronize. The new combination counter and ice box cost a barrel of money and is the last word in market efficiency. The center is plate-glass enclosed, with trays for cuts of all kinds of meat in plain view. At each end an ice box is placed in which are compartments for cracked ice and salt that lowers the temperature in the entire counter to a degree where a cup of water anywhere in it will freeze at once. The ice boxes and foot board are encased in white marble and this, taken with the plate glass and beautifully finished wood work, makes the most attractive and modern outfit of the kind ever installed here.

Lester Boardman Improves Slowly Tho Hard Battle

The condition of Lester Boardman, badly injured in an automobile accident last Sunday evening, was reported Friday to be more reassuring. Grave fears have been entertained for the young man and he has been hovering between life and death for several days but at this writing physicians give hope for his ultimate recovery. Mrs. Ben Olsen of Minneapolis, Kansas, a sister of the boy's mother, Mrs. H. H. Boardman, arrived Friday morning to watch by his bedside.

It Still Rains Almost Daily on This Part Plains

Yep, Yucatan hasn't a thing on the Plains of Texas when it comes to rainfall. At least in the month of June, 1923. The daily portion is expected and accepted as a matter of course. This country is more thoroughly soaked than ever before in its history. The lakes are overflowing and the grass and weeds are simply shooting upwards. The rain gauge at the First National Bank for the month of June reads as follows:

June 4	-----	3
June 7	-----	2.2
June 8	-----	1.9
June 9	-----	1.1
June 12	-----	5
June 18	-----	1.7
June 20	-----	8
Total	-----	6.5

And it showered at intervals Friday and at time of going to press there was a threat of another downpour. Many crops will have to be replanted and owing to the wet ground farmers will hardly be able to get in the fields before Monday, without any more rain. Beautiful crops are assured, provided the weeds can be conquered. And from all accounts there is a real weed battle brewing for the coming ten days or so.

Did Uncle Sam Ever Issue Any 20 Cent Coins?

Did Uncle Sam ever issue a twenty cent silver coin? That's the question before the jury in the Old Timers' court this week. Having exhaustively examined into the 1923 weather chart and finally agreed that this particular summer weather is the freakiest of all time the court turned to the matter of the twenty cent coin. W. B. Farmer says he has seen some of them in the past. Col. E. T. Woodburn says there must be some mistake—he has never seen one, to his recollection. T. M. Palmer takes the stand that the Mexican government issued a whole flock of 'em but that Uncle Sam skipped that particular denomination in his issues of silver coin. The battle rages. It may be necessary to ask the Treasury Department to look up its records before the jury agrees. However, the Treasury Department will appear only as a witness. The Court itself will finally determine the matter, with no appeal from its findings.

District Court's Docket is Ended Rather Abruptly

District court adjourned again after a session of two days this week and Judge Tatum and court stenographer Cooper returned to their homes. The case on trial J. H. Meekesky vs. E. L. Dunlap et al. was declared a non-suit, without prejudice, and dismissed. The case has been re-filed by the plaintiff for hearing at the next term of court.

Nephew of W. S. Williams Here Enroute to Coast

P. E. Vaughn of Kansas City reached Hereford overland Sunday and spent the day in the home of his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Sherm Williams. Mr. Vaughn is enroute to Los Angeles, and left Monday morning.

Dollar Wednesday's Prize Day Offers New Wrinkle

Auctioneer Williams Will Offer Merchandise On the Block
W. S. Williams, auctioneer, has a new wrinkle as an addition to the prize drawings and bargains offered by the merchants on Dollar Wednesday, June 27, the last Wednesday in the month. Mr. Williams states that he has arranged with the dry goods merchants of Hereford to auction off about $300 worth of assorted goods next Wednesday afternoon, beginning promptly at 1:00 o'clock, in the building on Main street formerly occupied by the Texas Meat Market. There will be a wide variety of everything needed by men, women or children in the wearing apparel line, and everything to be put up will be sold at the best bid offered. A feature of the auction will be a prize of a $12.00 pair of shoes. Coupons will be issued for each purchase as the auction proceeds and the holder of the lucky coupon will receive the shoes. The regular Dollar Wednesday drawing for prizes will be at four o'clock on the vacant lot across from the First National bank and Mr. Williams will conduct this drawing as he has always done. If his own sale is not completed he will finish it after the drawing for the merchants' prizes.

5 SUBJECTS ALL PUPILS TO ATTEMPT

SCHOOL BOARD TAKES STAND ON IMPORTANT POINT IS BEST POLICY

To Keep Standing Within Eyes of Other Schools And Institutions

The board of trustees of the Hereford Independent School District, through President E. S. Ireland, has issued the following public statement regarding the future policy for school credits that will be of considerable interest to pupils of the local schools as well as to their parents:
"Mr. C. H. Dillehay, who will be Superintendent of the Hereford Schools for the 1923-1924 term, has requested the Board to call the attention of the High School students to the following statement appearing in Bulletin No. 50, Page 38, issued by the State Department of Education, to-wit:
"As a rule, pupils should carry only four subjects at a time, and should be required to do intensive work in each of them. Only well advanced or exceptionally strong pupils should be permitted to take more than this amount of work."
"The Hereford School cannot long retain its affiliation if the above rule is violated, and very few, if any, accredited High Schools in Texas permit students to take more than five subjects at one time, and only when they have made an average of 85 or 90 on each subject the preceding year are they permitted to take as many as five subjects.

"In keeping with the above rule of the State Department and with the practices of first class high schools over the State, announcement is hereby made that in order to keep its affiliation and its standing with other high schools the Hereford High School will have to limit the number of subjects taken by a pupil at one time to a maximum of five and this number cannot be permitted unless previous work will justify it.

"This rule is for the purpose of taking care of the best interests of the students as individuals and for the best interests of the school as a whole. Few, if any, high school students can do justice to themselves while taking more than five subjects at one time.
"This announcement is made at this time in order that some may possibly avail themselves of the opportunity to attend summer school if they can graduate next year by taking one or two units of work during the summer.
"Yours for better schools.

The Rev. Paul J. Merrill of the Christian church claims the garden championship of Hereford on producing the earliest Irish potatoes. Rev. Merrill states that he and Mrs. Merrill enjoyed their first meal of spuds out of their own garden ten days ago. If there were any earlier garden potatoes in Hereford this year The Brand has not heard of them.

The New Hot Point Iron

We have just received a shipment of them. There are several improvements—larger handle—ball and socket attachment, plug-body of iron a little more gracefully shaped. There could not be a great improvement as the Hot Point was so nearly perfect already. No increase in our selling price—still lower than other dealers, $6.00, fully guaranteed.

BUCK-PASSING

There are plenty who want to stand around and tell you how to do a thing but few are willing to get under the lead and lift it.—Bryan Eagle.

Therein lies the trouble with town building and community advancement. Too many men want to ride the wagon of progress while others do the pushing. We don't suppose there ever was a town or city where the whole citizenship took part in community efforts. It always remains for a few to do community work. We find here in Snyder a very progressive citizenship, and a large per cent taking part in the affairs of the town, but not enough join hands in putting things over. We would like to see the time come when all men everywhere would wake up to the responsibilities of life, and realize fully that man was put here on this earth to serve others, instead of serving self. It is alright for a man to look after his own affairs and make a success of his individual business, but he should realize that he owes something to his town and fellowman.—Scurry, Co. Times.

FRUIT GROWING ON THE PLAINS OF TEXAS

(Copy of article furnished a horticultural paper.)

The Plains of Texas is no longer a hunting ground for the Red Man, but is now the greatest agricultural and horticultural field in America. It is noted especially for its vast area of fertile soil, mild healthful climate, an abundance of pure water just under the surface, and its natural adaptation for growing fruits, shades, vegetables, etc. The Plains of Texas is also noted for its fields of waving grain, green meadows, and great herds of cattle. Space will prohibit telling of all its wonderful resources, but many of the things that make life worth while, may be realized here.

Realizing then, that our own home country has such possibilities we should avail ourselves of the opportunity that is before us. Since it falls my lot to be interested in tree growing, I shall give a few suggestions along this line, which may be of some use to you. The late blooming varieties of peaches, plums, pears, apples, cherries, grapes, berries, etc., do best here. It is well to prepare your soil early. Prepare your ground like you would for a garden. Plow and harrow it twice; shallow the first time, and deeper the second time. If it is dry, the holes should be dug a month or two before planting time. Fill them nearly full of good rich soil and then flood them with water. This will make the soil in a live and active condition, which is necessary to good rooting and fast growing. Do not neglect to give the trees good watering several times when fresh transplants. Also keep them cultivated. This will induce them to grow faster, and produce fruit of a larger and better quality.

After having specialized in promiscuous and landscape gardening for thirty-two years, and having tried out more than three hundred varieties of fruits, shades, etc., here, I find we are just beginning to unfold this line of development in this great productive field.

PROGRESSIVE

We too are in the rain belt. For a few days the sun appears on the scene, farmers smiling make ready to go to the field, when—behold, the sky blackens the majestic clouds break asunder and again it rains.

A very enjoyable affair was the surprise social on Mrs. Bob Higgins' Saturday evening. Since her face betrayed but little surprise we surmised that she had an inkling of the coming party. The fact that the honoree partly anticipated such an event added zest to the occasion. The rooms fairly swarmed with guests; tables were arranged for the ever popular game of 42. At the close of the evening, cake, coffee and cocoa were served.

The young folks of this community were most highly entertained at the schoolhouse Tuesday evening by O. L. Massee, their teacher. They felt honored to have a few from Askren join in with them, about forty were present. Cream and cake were served.

Mr. and Mrs. O. O. Curtis and son, Vernon, of Hereford were dinner guests at C. C. Bowman's Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Caldwell motored to Amarillo to meet Mrs. Caldwell's sister from Wichita Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Hodges visited with their daughter, Mrs. Dick Norton, south and east of town Sunday.

The Progressive-Askren ball team enjoyed a splendid game on the Askren field last week, the score ending 10-9 in favor of Progressive. The return, a tight game, on Wednesday at Progressive was unfinished owing to the rain.

The Junior Winners are planning a social afternoon at the schoolhouse Saturday. Cream and cake will be served.

Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Park of Gold-waite, who have been visiting in the home of their son, J. L. Park, left last Monday for Hereford, where they will make a short visit.
