St. Patrick's Lore Abounds

'Tis a Bit 'o' Irish Magic for All Today

By ALLISON "O'RYAN"
Women's Editor

"Top o' the mornin' to you and a fine mornin' tis, being' St. Patrick's Day and all."

It has been said that all the Irish love a hero and when Patrick brought Christianity to Ireland, founded churches and schools and taught the art of writing, the people of the small island named him their patron saint.

Although few historians can agree on when St. Patrick was born, when he began his work in Ireland or when he died, today is celebrated by Irishmen or descendants of Irishmen wherever they may happen to be.

So many conflicting legends have been woven into St. Patrick's story that no one knows for sure when and where the March 17 holiday was started.

What is agreed upon is Patrick was captured in England by Gaels and sold as a slave in Ireland. He tended flocks for several years at which time he experienced a spiritual awakening he considered divinely inspired. Escaping from captivity, he soon returned to Ireland where he spent the rest of his life laboring to convert thousands of people to Christianity.

The two stories most closely connected to St. Patrick are the shamrock and the Trinity and driving the snakes out of Ireland.

The shamrock and the Trinity is often said to be authentic because of its simplicity and basis in human ingenuity. The doctrine of three Gods in one, each separate and distinct, yet each totally God, is claimed by Christians to be a mystery and is accepted on faith.

In trying to teach his converts about the Trinity, St. Patrick held up a shamrock explaining that the three leaves represented the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, while the stem was the Godhead itself from which they proceeded. This is said to be the origin of the use of the shamrock which is customarily worn on St. Patrick's Day.

Probably the most popular story of St. Patrick is that of driving all the snakes from the island. The story has maintained its vitality and has been strengthened by generations of great storytellers.

The story is best told through one of the most popular Irish songs.

"The Wicklow Hills are very high and so's the Hill of Howth, sir: But there's a hill much bigger still, much higher nor them both, sir: 'Twas on the top of this high hill St. Patrick preached the sarmin, that drove the frogs into the bogs, and banished all the varmint."

"There's not a mile in Ireland's isle where dirty varmin musters; But there he put his dear fore-foot and murdered them in clusters. The toads went pop, the frogs went hop, slap-dash into the water. And the snakes committed suicide to save themselves from slaughter."

"Nine hundred thousand reptiles blue he charmed with sweet discourses, and dined on them at Killaloe in soups and second courses. Where blind worms crawling in the grass disgusted all the nation, he gave them a rise and opened their eyes to a sense of their situation."

Whatever the facts may be, St. Patrick's Day has been celebrated for more than 15 centuries in Ireland and for three centuries abroad.

St. Patrick's Day in Ireland is not the celebration it has grown to be in the United States such as the annual parade in New York. It is a religious observance that starts a three-day period of devotion.

At one time in the local inn, a "Patrick's pot" of beer or whiskey and some bread and fish were provided by the owners. At breakfast tables a plateful of shamrocks was placed before the master of the house who "drowned the shamrock" in whiskey and sent the remainder of the newly opened bottle to the servants. However, many families have kept the tradition.

In the evening there is a ball at St. Patrick's Hall in Dublin Castle. Shamrocks are worn everywhere in honor of the saint.

In America the first secular celebration seems to have been in 1737 by the Charitable Irish Society of Boston which was founded that year for the "relief of the poor and indigent Irishmen reduced by sickness, shipwreck, old age or other infirmities."

The Friendly Sons of St. Patrick in Philadelphia celebrated the holiday in 1780 and in 1784 the New York branch of that society was organized composed of both Catholics and Presbyterians.

An Irish author, Brendan Behan said the New York St. Patrick's Day parades were organized "as a piece of defiance against the Ku Klux Klan and other kinds of nutty people of that sort who didn't like the Irish very much at the time. The Irish got together and paraded in the streets to show how many there were of them."

Today in the United States the holiday is observed almost everywhere. Irish societies hold their annual affairs. Businesses and schools appear to take on a green hue as employees and students wear their shamrocks and green clothing. The bars and pubs are filled and the beer flows green.

St. Patrick's Day celebration is not limited to the Irish and their descendants as evidenced by a contemporary American slogan which states: "Everybody's a little bit Irish on St. Patrick's Day."

President Heads For Hill Allies

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Reagan, after fending off blunt criticism from some members of Congress in a pointed exchange at the White House, is going to Capitol Hill to meet with Republican allies more sympathetic to his economic program.

Today's trip, Reagan's second to the Capitol since the inauguration two months ago, was expected to focus on legislative strategy for his proposed budget and tax cuts.

White House press secretary James S. Brady said the two-hour trip was just one of a host of activities the White House plans this week in its continuing effort to woo members of Congress who control the fate of the economic package.

At a luncheon Monday for women in Congress, Reagan got a taste of the opposition some of his proposed budget cuts already face.

Rep. Patricia Schroeder, D-Colo., stood at the start of a question-and-answer session after lunch in the Family Dining Room and sharply challenged the president's proposal to eliminate money earmarked to help women return to the work force after raising their families.

Ms. Schroeder said the displaced homemaker program benefits women who "did what we told them to do" by staying home to care for their families when their children were very young.

Reagan replied that while he wasn't sure, he thought the money for that program would be given in block grants to state and local governments, which could continue it if they wished.

But Rep. Schroeder was openly skeptical of that idea.

She said that often when it comes time to cut the budget, "it's women and children first." And she expressed doubt that state and local governments would be very concerned with people who don't have much "political clout."

Several GOP lawmakers leaped to Reagan's defense, saying their constituents overwhelmingly favor his budget-cutting plan.

But Rep. Cardiss Collins, D-Ill., told Reagan her district includes many poor people, and "we're not that pleased with your budget cuts. Quite the contrary."

Reagan insisted that the "truly needy" will be protected by the seven "social safety net" programs the administration has promised not to cut. They include a variety of other benefit programs, most of which — like Social Security and Medicare — are not directed specifically at the poor.

Reagan suggested some of the people running federal programs for the poor "are more worried about losing their position than they are about the people that they represent, and they're trying to create an image that we are picking on the poor because they don't want to lose their clientele and possibly their position."

"Mr. President, if you give me your promise you won't hurt the poor, I'll sit down right now," the congresswoman said. Reagan's response was drowned in laughter. Rep. Collins sat down.

City Fathers Formally Approve Tax Increase

By JIM STEIERT
Managing Editor

City commissioners gave final formal approval to an 11 percent increase in city taxes during a regular meeting last night at city hall.

The increase will bring the city's tax rate to 65 cents per $100 valuation.

Commissioners also gave their approval to the new city budget, which has been in the works for the last several weeks.

The budget, also up 11 percent, totals $3,130,627 and projected expenditures for the city are the same, according to City Manager Dudley Bayne.

Commissioners were also informed that the general Revenue Sharing budget is projected at $158,020 for one year, although actual funds could be less.

City fathers also voted to take bids on two new pickups for the water department, a new pickup for the street department and a one-ton four wheel drive truck motor, cab and chassis for use as an emergency vehicle for the fire department.

A low bid of 54.5 cents per square yard submitted by Jake Diel Paving was accepted by the commission for seal coating work in the city amounting to 62,000 square yards.

Following a period of discussion concerning the merits of a graveled roof, commissioners then agreed to advertise for bids for roof repairs at the Community Center on both a graveled and non-graveled basis.

Bids on aerial application of insecticide over the city this summer were also authorized.

Trustees heard a report that some 90 blocks of paving are now projected for the summer's paving project in the city and that a notice of intent to conduct a paving project will be on the agenda for the next commission meeting.

A request for a rate increase was presented to commissioners by representatives of Hereford Cablevision.

Spokesmen for that firm proposed an increase in the basic rate from the present $6.20 per month to $7.95 per month.

Cliff Gardner of Gardner Communications of Hereford made the presentation to the commission, outlining future plans for the TV cable system here.

According to Gardner, Hereford Cablevision has plans for expansion of programming and also plans to go through its electronic system this year to gear up for additional channels.

While the firm's present franchise does not expire until February of 1982, Gardner presented a request that a new franchise be granted at this time to allow the firm to move ahead with plans.

According to Gardner, Hereford Cablevision is proposing to add station WGN of Chicago, which features movies and some sports 24 hours per day, ESPN, a 24-hour sports network, the Cable News Network and possibly the Spanish International Network to its present offerings in Hereford.

Gardner explained that the additional programming could be put on the air in as little as two weeks and that the move would represent an upgrading of services to present customers.

According to spokesmen for the firm, Hereford Cablevision now serves 63 percent of the market in Hereford.

Commissioners took the presentation and the request for higher base rates and a franchise renewal under consideration last night for action at a future commission meeting.

City's Sales Tax Rebate For Month is $24,932

Rebates of the optional one-percent city sales tax to Hereford this month amount to $24,932.65, according to State Comptroller Bob Bullock.

The rebates reflect sales here during the month of February and are down compared to the same period last year when rebates amounted to $64,396.35.

Total rebates for the year thus far surpass the 1980 figures, however, as $125,719.11 has been returned to the city this year, compared to $116,229.88 last year, for an eight percent difference.

In Parmer County, Friona received a rebate of $3,762.65 this month compared to $10,030.30 at the same time last year.

Total payments for 1981 in Friona amount to $21,219.20 compared to $19,603.42 for 1980, or an eight percent difference.

Neighboring Dimmitt, in Castro County noted a ten percent difference in rebates between this year and 1980.

Rebates for this month amounted to $8,546.38, compared to $19,682.07 at the same time last year, while total payments for 1981 are $36,986.61, compared to $33,576.93 at the same time last year.

Rebates state-wide amounted to $37.9 million this month.

The March payments will raise 1981 payments to date to more than $162.5 million, up $23.8 million over the first quarter totals last year.

Houston's check this month is $8 million for a yearly total through March of $32.9 million, a 20 percent increase over the 1980 first quarter.

Dallas will receive a check for $4 million, bringing that city's 1981 payments to date to $18.3 million, an 11 percent increase over the first three months of 1980.

Fort Worth will receive $1.3 million for March. Fort Worth's payments for 1981 total $6 million, compared to $5.6 million during the same period in 1980, or a 7 percent increase.

San Antonio's rebate for March is $2 million bringing that city's payments this year to $8.7 million, a 14 percent increase over the 1980 first quarter payments.

Bullock said most cities received smaller payments this month compared to March of last year because of a change in the agency's accounting period and processing timetable but that generally 1981 payments to cities are running well ahead of the 1980 rebates for the first three months.

The city sales tax is collected along with the state tax by merchants and business and rebated monthly to the cities in which the tax is collected by the Comptroller.

Numerous Thefts Reported to Police

Several thefts were reported to Hereford police Monday including a .25 automatic pistol taken from a pickup belonging to E.W. Cawthon, 803 Knight.

Cawthon told police the pistol, two CB radios, and an undetermined amount of cash was taken from the vehicle Monday night when it was parked in the driveway of his home.

The Service Company, south Highway 385, reported the theft of approximately five gallons of gasoline taken from a truck sometime Saturday or Sunday while it was parked at the business.

Howard Gore, 148 Centre, told police someone shot a hole through the patio door at the house. Gore was not sure when the incident took place.

David Donley, 133 Star, reported to police that a new Mongoose bicycle valued at $197 was taken from the home Monday.

Pat Hamlon, 506 Sly, reported to police that someone had put rocks and gravel in the water tank of a 1973 Dodge Motor home.

Police answered one non-offense report, issued six traffic citations and investigated one minor accident in the 300 block of Ave. I Monday.

Hereford Man, 35, Charged in Shooting

A 33-year-old Hereford man was in satisfactory condition at St. Anthony's Hospital in Amarillo today following a shooting incident early Monday at the La Fuente lounge in Umberger.

A second Hereford man, 35, was to be arraigned in Randall County today on attempted murder charges in connection with the incident.

Juan Garza reportedly suffered a gunshot wound to the thigh in the disturbance which occurred about 2:30 a.m. yesterday. He was reportedly struck by a bullet from a .357 magnum pistol.

Fidencia Cantu is charged with attempted murder in the incident. Cantu was arrested by Deaf Smith County sheriff's officers about six miles east of Hereford Monday shortly after the shooting.

Cantu later posted $10,000 bond, set by Deaf Smith County Justice of the Peace O.K. Neal.

The Randall County criminal district attorney's office has filed an attempted murder complaint against Cantu because the offense occurred in Randall County.

Vietnam Vets Suffer from Scandal

AUSTIN, Texas (AP) — Vietnam veterans afflicted with diseases allegedly caused by the defoliant Agent Orange are the victims of a "national scandal," a state representative says. Rep. Larry Don Shaw, D-Big Spring, has introduced two bills to help veterans who want to sue for money or for more information about the use of the controversial chemical during the U.S. involvement in the war in Vietnam. Shaw evidence is "overwhelming" that many veterans' physical, emotional and mental problems result from exposure to Agent Orange contaminated with dioxin, which he called "the most toxic substance known to man."

"This whole Agent Orange situation is a national scandal," he said. "The 55,000 Americans who died in Vietnam were only the beginning of our Vietnam casualties. Thousands more are dying every year from cancer or liver diseases, and thousands more are disabled by everything from respiratory problems to internal bleeding." Shaw chastised the federal government, saying it has "been trying to pretend like there's no problem, like the thousands of veterans aren't dying or fathering children with birth defects."

Auto Inspection Law Controversy

AUSTIN, Texas (AP) — A legislator says auto inspections don't prevent accidents, but the director of the Department of Public Safety contends traffic deaths would increase if the annual check-ups are abolished. Rep. Jim Horn, R-Denton, said Monday that lawmakers should pass his bill repealing the inspection law because there is no evidence inspections catch defects that cause accidents.

"A light can go out or the brakes fail on the way home from the inspection station," Horn said. Col. Jim Adams, DPS director, later issued a statement saying eliminating required inspections would be "taking a backward step at a time when traffic deaths are running at an all-time high."

He said only 3 percent of the state's traffic deaths last year were attributable to vehicle defects, compared with 12 percent when the inspection program began in 1963.

"Without an adequate inspection program, the number of fatalities attributable to vehicle defects would rise again," Adams said.

Horn said he became interested in the subject because his hobby is working on cars.

Since 1977, federal law has permitted states to repeal inspection laws without forfeiting any highway aid, and six states already have cancelled their requirements, he said.

1¢ from Cigarette

Tax May Aid Parks

AUSTIN, Texas (AP) — The Reagan Administration's plan to end federal aid for parks makes assistance from the state all the more urgent, Rep. Carlyle Smith has told the House Ways and Means Committee.

Smith is sponsor of a bill that would extend indefinitely the deduction of a penny of the 18 cents-a-pack cigarette tax to creation and improvement of parks in urban areas.

If the Legislature does not continue the deduction, it will expire on Aug. 31, 1983. The money would still be available for parks, but without specific earmarking for those in or near cities.

"I think this is the only way we can recover from the shock of losing the federal money," Smith said of the deduction, which means about $15 million a year to recreation-seeking city dwellers.

The committee routinely sent Smith's bill to a subcommittee for more study Monday.

Ed Baca of San Antonio's parks department testified in favor of the bill, on behalf of the Texas Recreation and Parks Society.

Arraignment Complete

In Big Drug Raid

CORPUS CHRISTI, Texas (AP) — Fourteen men spent the night in the Nueces County Jail under $1 million bonds apiece, after arraignment on charges they tried to smuggle ashore 16 tons of high-grade marijuana.

The man, ranging in age from 22 to 53, were arrested Sunday when federal, state and local agents collaborated on a big drug raid at an old, ramshackle pier at Seadrift, a fishing community about 70 miles north of here.

Officers said the men had just finished loading the marijuana from a 76-foot boat to a tractor-trailer truck rig.

They were arraigned Monday before a U.S. magistrate and charged with possession of marijuana with intent to distribute it and with conspiracy to possess marijuana.

Sunday's raid climaxed a three-month undercover investigation and an all-night stakeout at the pier, coordinated by the Drug Enforcement Administration.

The marijuana had a street value of $20 million, said Corpus Christi DEA agent-in-charge James Anderson.

"It was fine leaf, no stems or seeds. It is in federal custody and will be destroyed, except for those samples saved for use as evidence," he said.

Two of those arrested were Cubans and one was Colombian, Anderson added.

Also seized in the raid were a 76-foot, steel-bottomed shrimp boat, a tractor-trailer rig, two large recreational vehicles, six weapons and two late-model automobiles, Anderson said.

The suspects were identified as Talton Lee James, 40; Thomas Joseph Burke, 22; and David Anthony Pfeiffer Jr., 24, all of Rockport; Dallas Alton Grantham, 53, of Fulton; Paul Olivari Jr., 40, of Brownsville; Elias Ricardo DelLuque-Ibarra, 36, of Miami Beach, Fla.; Felipe Francisco Llaudy, 40, of Miami, Fla.

Also, Robert L. Stanley, 24, and Johnny Johnson Jr., 34, both of Ash, N.C.; Arvon Carrell Jackson, 45, of Dewitt, Ark.; Gerardo Lazaro Gonzalez, 28, of Miami; Juan Alberto Gonzalez, 31, of Austin; Valdemar Guerra, 37, of San Antonio; and Philip Sterjing Robin, 50, of Port Bolivar.

Members of El Salvador's Junta Being Questioned

SAN SALVADOR, El Salvador (AP) — The chairman of a House subcommittee that votes next week on the military aid President Reagan wants to send El Salvador is questioning members of the ruling junta today. He said he is not convinced American military advisers are needed in the war-torn Central American country.

Rep. Clarence Long, D-Md., opened a two-day inspection of the situation in El Salvador Monday with a meeting with President Jose Napoleon Duarte, the head of the civilian-military junta. After his talk with Duarte, Long said he was concerned about Reagan's decision to send military advisers to teach the Salvadoran troops fighting left-wing rebels. He said he wondered why Salvadorans trained in the United States couldn't do the same job.

Long, chairman of the foreign operations subcommittee of the House Appropriations Committee, said of Duarte, "I think he leveled with me."

Long was to meet today with junta members Jose Antonio Morales Ehrlich and Dr. Ramon Avalos Navarrete to discuss the government's public health and agrarian reform program.

He also planned to visit a ranch that has been expropriated and turned into a peasant cooperative and to meet with military commanders, business leaders and officials of the Roman Catholic Church.

Long's subcommittee is to vote next week on the appropriation of $5 million additional which the administration asked to send to the junta for patrol boats, helicopters, radar, vehicles and other equipment to be used against the leftist guerrillas fighting to install a Marxist government. The Senate foreign relations appropriations subcommittee voted 6-2 Monday to approve the expenditures.

The funds are subject to veto by either Long's subcommittee or its Senate counterpart because they are being redirected from other appropriations. Reagan has used his own authority to send 20 additional military advisers and $20 million in military aid to El Salvador. Army and police sources reported scattered battles Monday between leftists and government soldiers and said 20 victims of political terrorists were found, including three headless corpses in the capital, three victims in the suburb of Soyapango and the bodies of five women in Apopa, about 20 miles to the north.

Army sources reported two soldiers and at least 20 guerrillas killed in fighting in the towns of Villa Victoria, 55 miles northeast of San Salvador, and Palo Alto, 30 miles north of the capital. One source said the guerrillas occupied Villa Victoria. Heavy fighting also was reported for the fifth day in the province of Morazan, a guerrilla stronghold 100 miles east of San Salvador, and in villages in the northern department of Chalatenango. An estimated 16,000 people have died in fighting or terrorist violence in El Salvador, a country the size of Massachusetts with about 4.5 million people, since the rightist government of Gen. Carlos Humberto Romero was ousted in October 1979.

IRS Padlocks

Pornography Shop

ROME, Ga. (AP) — The Internal Revenue Service says the merchandise, real estate and assets it seized from Mike Thevis' once-powerful pornography business won't come close to paying off an $11 million tax bill. Federal tax agents began locking up pornography stores in seven states — Georgia, Alabama, Louisiana, Texas, Missouri, Oklahoma and Tennessee — on Friday, following the issuance of a federal court order.

The order by U.S. District Judge Harold Murphy lifted an injunction prohibiting the IRS from seizing property owned by Fidelity Equipment Leasing Corp., which had been the flagship of Thevis' pornography empire.

Thevis, who is currently behind bars in a federal facility, has continued to communicate with Fidelity about its business operations, Murphy said.

The IRS district director in Atlanta, Mike Murphy, said Monday that Fidelity's assets would not come close to equaling the $11 million in federal taxes being sought from the firm.

He said the IRS believed many of Fidelity's assets have been sold to other companies to avoid taxes.

Paul Harvey News The Pen is Mightier

There is no scalpel ever honed as sharp as a ballpoint pen.

With that lethal instrument you can destroy a man, subvert a government.

Vancouver's professional writer, Jerry Buchanan, once advised I would be professional writers: "In the end it will be written words which save the world or destroy it."

Probably. The pen is mightier than the sword—for better or worse.

As the writings of Dickens exposed and abolished the sweatshops of England — Mein Kampf mobilized Teutonic hate and hurled the world into war. Presently, social issues of immense proportions are being influenced by the writers who put pertinent words on the lips of actors and actresses.

Sally Struthers on gun control... Susan Clark on abortion... Valarie Harper on divorce... Dana Hill on child pornography...

So manipulatable are human emotions that the gifted writer can move you take sides with the Godfather against the FBI.

With one presentation of "Deerhunter" on TV with its scenes describing the grim game of Russian roulette a writer can motivate sixteen youngsters to kill themselves. And if an enlightened generation is led to a realization of the futility of dead-end wars it may well have been because of the genius of the writers of the TV series "Mash."

Newsletters, especially, have an awesome responsibility. The power to make us laugh at what we should blush at; the weapons and skills to make us so white-hot angry we will mobilize ourselves, arm ourselves — with ballpoint pens of our own — and spend an angry evening writing to editors, congressmen, humane officials, whenever...

If only for fleeting moments we direct and control human emotions... On sex, love, marriage, politics, religion, philosophy, morality, we can teach children constructively or scar them permanently.

None of us would volunteer to drop a weapon of annihilation on an innocent civilian population — yet potentially the power of the wordsmith is infinitely more devastating.

And with modern media we hurl them — flower-seed-and words — or poison-weed-words-at human targets we may never see.

Bizarre Hijacking Story Not Over for Syria Yet

DAMASCUS, Syria (AP) — The hijacking is over for most of the hostages but not for Syria. It's left with a bunch of Pakistanis who didn't want to leave home, three hijackers it doesn't know what to do with, an American wanted on drug charges in the United States and a Canadian believed to be an escaped convict.

The hijackers of the Pakistani airliner and the 54 political prisoners released by Pakistan in response to the hijackers' demand are being held under heavy guard at the Damascus Airport Hotel while the Syrian government decides what to do with them.

Libya agreed to give them and the hijackers' asylum, then reneged. So far, they have been granted only temporary asylum by Syria.

A member of the hotel staff reported many of the freed prisoners said they want to return to Pakistan "to continue the struggle against the government of President Zia ul-Haq."

He quoted a spokesman for the prisoners as saying, "None of us wanted to leave Pakistan," and that Zia's government forced them to go.

They were exchanged Saturday for the 101 passengers and crew members who were held hostage aboard a Boeing 720 jetliner for 13 days in Kabul, Afghanistan, and Damascus by three heavily armed young opponents of Pakistan's military regime.

President Zia said Pakistan got rid of "some bad eggs."

One of the freed hostages, Craig Clymore, 24, of Laguna Hills, Calif., has been indicted in New York on charges that he was a member of a ring smuggling heroin and hashish oil into the United States. The State Department revoked his passport and said he would be issued documents for travel only to the United States. But for the time being he was held up in a Damascus hotel.

Another freed hostage who passed himself off as Lawrence Clifton Mangum of New York City was arrested by Syrian police at the request of the Canadian government. It tentatively identified him as an escaped convict named Lawrence Lome, who escaped from Canada in 1976 while serving a seven-year prison sentence for importing drugs.

Neither the United States nor Canada have an extradition treaty with Syria, but officials in Washington and Ottawa expected the Syrian government to cooperate in sending the men home.

The 86 Pakistani passengers and the crew of the airliner Pakistan jetliner flew to Saudi Arabia Monday for a pilgrimage to Mecca, Islam's holiest shrine, as guests of the Saudi government. They are to be flown home Wednesday.

The other freed American hostage, Frederick Hubbell, a 30-year-old lawyer from Des Moines, Iowa, flew to Frankfurt, West Germany, for a reunion with his wife Charlotte, and his parents.

Hubbell and his wife were on a round-the-world trip when the jetliner was hijacked over Pakistan. She was freed with other women and children in Kabul on March 7, one day after the hijackers shot and killed a Pakistani diplomat who was among the passengers.

Kitchen Fire Extinguished

Hereford volunteer firemen were called out early Monday morning to extinguish a grease fire at 2002 Plains.

According to reports, the fire caused a substantial amount of damage to the kitchen area, and some smoke damage was reported. The fire was reported at 7:28 a.m.

Sunday, firemen were called out on a false alarm. Someone reported a fence fire supposedly at 809 Irving.

A truck parked inside Winget Pump Company, east Highway 60, caught fire March 13. Firemen were called to the fire at 2:20 p.m. Minor damage was reported.

Letter to the Editor

On Behalf of the Golden Spread Chapter March of Dimes, I would like to express my thanks and gratitude to the city of Hereford and the many volunteers who, through their time and effort, made the 1981 Mothers March such a tremendous success.

My deep appreciation goes to Mrs. Marjorie Daniels, who was the campaign chairman for Hereford. Mrs. Daniels, who is the director of the Senior Citizens Center, did an excellent job in coordinating the March. I would like to recognize the many Senior Citizens who helped with the March. The students of Hereford also helped by coming out in large numbers to march. Members of the Key Club, the Hereford High School F.H.A., the La Plata

Jr. High F.H.A. did an outstanding job.

Members of Kappa Iota of Beta Sigma Phi also helped march. The combined efforts of these groups earned 2,534 to help make it possible to expand research programs aimed at finding the causes of birth defects. This is an $1,617 increase from 1980.

The Hereford community has every right to be proud of this figure and of their young people.

I would also like to thank Chip Forby of KPAN for his coverage and also the Hereford Brand for its excellent coverage.

Thanks again, Elaine Basham Community Service Representative March of Dimes

LYNN FERTSCH

Services were held recently in Austin for former Hereford resident, Lynn Fertsch, 95, of Austin after a short illness.

Born Feb. 6, 1886 in Kinkler, La Vaca County, he graduated from Sam Houston College at Huntsville in 1906. Mr. Fertsch came to the Plains and taught school at Texaco Farwell in 1909-1911, prior to teaching in Hereford. Later Mr. Fertsch was married to Roxie Witherspoon who preceded him in death in 1949. Mr. Fertsch was known for his attendance at the Mid-Plains Pioneer Day

Senator Bill Sarpalius Reports

AUSTIN — One of the more controversial issues facing Texas this legislative session is products liability. Manufacturers and businesses have lined up against consumer groups, with the Legislature and the ordinary person caught in the middle. The reaction to what many consider a serious problem—the growing number of products liability lawsuits—is S. B. 511. This bill has the support of nearly every business group in the state. When it went through the Senate Economic Development Committee, every Senator except one voted for it. That lone dissenter was your Senator.

The bill would have made it nearly impossible for an injured consumer to sue the manufacturer, seller, or distributor of a defective and dangerous product in many cases. If the product were six years old, the suit would be barred completely. That means if your 1975 automobile blew up and burned you, you could not sue. If you worked in a factory and were exposed for a long period of time to a cancer-causing agent or to asbestos poisoning, you could not

sue. The fact that you suffered horrible injuries or illness would not help your case.

We presented amendments to the bill to lengthen the six-year period to ten years. Our amendments also would give a right to recovery to someone who suffered from a disease like asbestos poisoning. We feel this is very important because in many cases the injured person would not know there was something wrong with him until six years had passed. Many of these diseases take a long time to show themselves.

One of the favorite catch words we hear around the Capitol is "free enterprise." We believe in real free enterprise, and for good reason. But free enterprise does not mean a free ride for business or for consumers.

S. B. 511, in its original form, was a reaction in one direction. It went too far in that direction. The probable result of that overreaction, a few years down the road, is an overreaction in the other direction. This backlash could take the form of a products liability pool, standards for products set by the government, or even a government agency to oversee manufacture.

Responsible government stays away from a wild swing in one direction followed by a wild swing in the other direction. That is disruptive to business and to the economy in general. That is why the original bill was unacceptable, and why we proposed to amend it.

We want to hear your thoughts and ideas on products liability or on any other subject. Please write to Senator Bill Sarpalius, Post Office Box 12068, Austin, Texas 78711.

Drawing the line

The Mason-Dixon Line, traditionally dividing the North and South, was in no way connected with the Civil War. The line was drawn much earlier to end a colonial land dispute between the Calvert's of Maryland and the Penna. Plotted in a 1750 compromise in the English Court of Chancery, the line was fixed by two surveyors, Charles Mason and Jeremiah Dixon, between 1763 and 1767.

Ann Landers
A Man's Viewpoint

DEAR ANN LANDERS: Of late you have been printing letters from a number of sexually frustrated wives. As a man who admires and respects women (I have been married for 25 years), may I offer a point of view that will probably be resented by the majority of your female readers?

We men, for all our vaunted masculinity and self-reliance, can be extremely sensitive to a woman's conduct. What a woman perceives as a man's sexual inadequacy may be caused by her behavior.

Does she nag or complain? Does she talk too much? Is she critical? Demanding? Extravagant? When he is tired and worried does she insist he go places of her choosing? If all or any of the above is true, he can be turned off so completely that sexual activity is physically impossible.

So, ladies, with all due respect, if the man in your life can't deliver satisfaction, consider the possibility that you may not be the victim but the cause.—Know Whereof I

Speak in Modesto

DEAR MOD: Any woman with half a working brain cell would have to agree that you have made an excellent point.

Usually I hear from women complaining about inconsiderate, unaffectionate (not to mention unshaven and un-bathed) husbands who expect instant lovemaking at the drop of a verb. Thanks for reminding us that men need to be "conditioned," too.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: My husband is friendly with two guys at work. Their wives are OK, but not the kind I would pick as chums on my own.

Buddy likes to go out every Friday and Saturday night. We have a standing arrangement with these two men and their wives. Usually we go to a combination restaurant-tavern that serves good food at a reasonable price. There's a three-piece combo in the cocktail lounge. After dinner the men talk business and the two women dance with each other. I sit there like a dummy because I don't like to dance with another woman. Men cut in and they will dance with anybody who asks. I told Buddy I think it's cheap. He says it is perfectly OK because their husbands are there.

DEAR OPEN: Don't you people have homes? Why must you spend all those hours in a tavern? Break the pattern by inviting them over a meal next week. Include another couple, somebody YOU like for a change. The routine you describe sounds deadly.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: We named our son after my grandfather, who was a distinguished judge. When the boy was about six months old my husband started to call him "Stinky." The name stuck. He's now four, too old for a name like that. How can I put a stop to it? — Lone Voice In O. City

DEAR VOICE: When the boy starts school the teachers will call him by his given name. So will his classmates. If his given name is stiff and formal, make up another nickname, and I'll bet "Stinky" bites the dust.

What's prudish? What's O.K.? If you aren't sure, you need some help. It's available in the booklet: "Necking and Petting — What Are The Limits?" Mail your request to Ann Landers, P.O. Box 11995, Chicago, Illinois 60611, enclosing 50 cents and a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope.

At Wits End
By ERMA BOMBECK

I don't expect anyone to get too choked up about this, but I just completed my "15x20 STAMPED FOR BEGINNERS-ON PURE IRISH LINEN-TOMORROW'S HEIRLOOM-COLONIAL LADY AT WHITE HOUSE."

It has a $35 frame on it and if I do say so myself, it has qualities I've seen only in tapestries on museum walls.

I started to embroider "Colonial Lady at White House" in 1967...the very night I bought it. It had been one of those days where the most creative thing I had done was to witness-assist at-applaud a b.m. from a child who thought a bathroom was God's playground.

As soon as I started it, I knew in my heart that I wanted to dedicate my entire life to embroidery. I didn't go to bed that night until I had finished stitching the Colonial Lady's face, skirt, parasol and dog.

The next morning at breakfast, I was at it again, driven by some strange creative curse. Someone bled toward the end of the week and I stopped working on it temporarily...and then I was on a phone committee...and went to the store a few times...and made a few beds...and the next thing you know, it was 1973.

Every time I discovered it among the sewing supplies, I would do a few more stitches and renew my vows to finish it in my lifetime. After awhile, it got to be quite depressing. It was like a conscience that shouted, "You never finish anything!" As I saw it tucked away among an unfinished needlepoint glass case, a couple of squares of a granny afghan, a half-done crewel pillow top, and an unfinished Christmas wreath, I knew it was right.

In 1976, I was sick for a couple of weeks and dragged out "Colonial Lady at White House." A friend of mine was visiting and observed, "If handiworks and crafts could only talk...what a story they could tell."

I looked at the crumpled, gray piece of pure Irish linen, tomorrow's heirloom, in my hand and knew there was only one way to silence her. But I couldn't help but wonder what would happen on the day I finished it. Would the clocks stop? Would my heart stop beating? Would this end an era?

Last Monday, I brought "Colonial Lady at White House" home...framed and ready to hang...exactly 14 years in the making. "What do you think?" I asked my husband.

"What's the matter with the tree? I think you forgot to stitch it!"

I leaned in closer for a better look. I had missed it. "Are you crazy? It's March," I said. "Trees don't have leaves in March."

What's such a big deal about finishing something?

Mrs. Walker Talks To Cultural Club

Louise Walker, Deaf Smith County Extension Agent, spoke to members of the Cultural Extension Club when they met recently.

Mrs. Walker talked about cooking with mixers. She explained the process is helpful in saving time and is especially useful for working parents.

The club met with Ruth Gandy and Vernis Parsons.

Local Club Will Host Former Garden Editor

Vera Deason, well known gardener and former Globe Times Garden Editor, will speak at the April 10 meeting of the Hereford Garden Club.

Plans for the meeting were made when the club met recently at the home of Mrs. D.N. Garner with Mrs. C.M. Tucker as cohostess.

Mrs. Deason will talk about "New Trends in Gardening." The public is invited to attend the meeting which will be held at the Hereford Community Center.

Following the business meeting, Mrs. O.G. Hill gave a report on the District Garden Club meeting held in Lubbock. Mrs. John Jacobson

Other members present were Ella Stehr, Winnie Wiseman, Carrie Mae Doak, Tillie Scott, Edith Hunter, Bertha Dettmann, Jewell Hargrave and Finnie Townsend. Elizabeth Conway and her son, Jeremy, were guests at the meeting.

The club will meet again March 23 at 1 p.m. at the home of Vernis Parsons for election of officers.

was a delegate with Mrs. Hill serving as alternate.

Mrs. Hill said programs about Texas State Parks and one about flowers which grew during the time of Shakespeare were presented.

Rocky Lee from Summerfield Fertilizer presented gardening tips for the club program. The program included how and when to combat bugs and disease in growing plants.

Members present at the meeting were Mmes. Ben Childers, D.N. Garner, O.G. Hill, W.C. Hromas, Ray Johnson, Edgar Lemons, Burnice Riley, Art Stoy, C.M. Tucker and R.L. Wilson.

Organization Provides Skills in Basic Areas

By PENNY CRIBBS
County Extension Agent

"I pledge—My Head To Clearer Thinking."
"Where did that come from?"
"The 'head' is what the first 'H' of 4-H represents. It is the first area in the 4-square development program that we incorporate into our programs and activities.

"For what is the head trained?"

In each of our programs and activities we strive to help youth learn new and better ways of doing things. We try to help them develop skills in three basic areas: thinking, planning and reasoning. All a part of the "decision making process."

Challenging minds, especially the minds of our 4-H youth is a difficult task. They are faced each day with new ideas, new problems and new concerns. We must help equip them to think these changes through, objectively and rationally in order to help them cope with their world.

Not everyone can plan! I am sure each of us can remember a personal experience to support this statement. Planning is a definite skill that is learned and developed. Living in the "fast-pace" world of today—planning is essential! Planning of time, activities, diet, finances and the list could go on forever. Developing this skill helps them experience a successful and happy life.

Webster defines reasoning as: "the power of comprehending, inferring, or thinking in orderly rational ways to arrive at conclusions." One is not merely born with this ability. Experiences of all kinds play a role in learning this reasoning process. By being involved in different activities the youth broaden their horizons and increase their abilities to reason.

"The brain is the control center of the human body and life." It is where the decision making process occurs. By training 4-H'ers to think, plan and reason, we are strengthening their decision making abilities so essential in our world today.

Educational programs conducted by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service serves people of all ages regardless of socio-economic levels, race, color, sex, religion or national origin.

'The Greatest Miracle' Annual Seminar Slated

The Fourth Annual Seminar "The Greatest Miracle," sponsored by High Plains Perinatal Association, Texas Tech Regional Academic Health Center, Departments of OB-GYN and Pediatrics, and Amarillo College, will be held March 27-28 at Texas Tech Regional Academic Health Center, 1400 Wallace Boulevard in Amarillo.

Keynote speaker for the seminar will be "National Trends and Philosophies in Maternal-Child Care" Dr. Herman Rhu, President of ACOG.

Visiting speakers will include Dr. Neil Kochenour and Dr. Tom Harris, both of Salt Lake City, Utah; and Dr. John R. Bobbitt of Denver, Colo. Topics to be discussed will include (1) Results of NICU One-Year Analysis, (2) High Risk-Low Risk Birthing Centers, (3) Maternal-Child Health: pregnancy induced hypertension, perinatal infections, meconium stained pregnancy, (4) Rapid Chromosomal Analysis and Correctable Surgery, (5) Consumer Topics: changing family roles, consumer rights and responsibilities, nourishment in pregnancy, (6) Parent Support During Neonatal Crisis, (7) Prematurity-Dysmaturity-Postmaturity, and (8) The Values of Perinatal Excellence.

Fee for the seminar is $15 per person and $5 per student. The annual seminar will begin at 12 noon on March 27 and at 8 a.m. March 28.

As an organization accredited for continuing medical education, Texas Tech University School of Medicine certifies that this continuing education offering meets the criteria for eight credit hours of the Physician's Recognition Award of the American Medical Association, Category I, provided the program is used and completed as designed. Amarillo College Continuing Education Program will award 1.1 C.E.U.'s to participants completing this seminar. This seminar has been approved for eight CEARP points with the Texas Nurses Association.

Participants interested may pre-register through H.P.P.A., P.O. Box 7984, Amarillo, Tx. 79109.

Adams giving a report on the legislative affairs; John Stagner with the sports weekend results; and Gary Phipps giving a Highway 60 update.

The Women's Division with Betty Gilbert presiding, will report on the Miss Hereford

Pageant and membership drive.

Items of business will include (1) Legislative affairs recommendation, (2) City-County celebration, and (3) Community publicity and promotion plans.

Specialist Suggests How To Prevent Wood Decay

COLLEGE STATION - Home construction technology has increased tremendously during the past few years. Yet, many homes are being built without proper attention to preventing future costly repairs, points out Chuck Stayton, area wood products specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System.

Lumber, plywood and other wood products used in construction are all subject to wood decay. This decay, caused by numerous fungi that break down the wood and feed on it, can lead to structural failure and expensive repairs.

"The best control of wood decay is keeping wood products dry in manufacturing, shipment and use," Stayton contends. "When the moisture content of wood is kept below 20 percent, most decay fungi are not able to decompose the wood."

Basic construction faults cause most decay problems in homes and other buildings. These mistakes allow excessive moisture to enter from the ground level or from rainfall.

Stayton notes six specific precautions to take to prevent soil moisture from entering a house.

First of all, install wood siding at least 6 inches above finish grade. Make sure all other wood material is a minimum of 8 inches above the ground unless it is pressure preservative treated.

Secondly, provide an 18-inch or higher clearance between floor joists and the soil in crawl space areas. Greater distance is even more desirable.

Third, slope the outside grade away from the house to allow proper drainage. Ditching or drainage tiles may be necessary for some locations.

A fourth step is to install one square foot of vent for each 150 square feet of enclosed crawl space. Place vents opposite each other and as near corners as possible.

"Next, use four to six mil polyethylene soil covers directly on the soil in enclosed crawl space areas and under all slab construction.

Finally, take special precautions with earth filled porches, patios and flower planters, keeping the soil 8 inches below the level of all house structural wood members. Slope patios and porches away from the house to prevent standing water," adds specialist.

Stayton also recommends six precautions in roof construction to prevent wood decay.

To begin, use wood shingles of a highly decay resistant species or some that are pressure treated when in high decay hazard regions. Also a minimum slope of 4 feet in 12 feet is needed to prevent water backing up under the shingles.

Secondly, provide enough roof overhang to sweep runoff away from the house. A 30-inch overhang is needed in regions of high temperature and rainfall such as the Gulf Coast of Texas.

Next, extend shingles at least three-fourths of an inch beyond wood members at the eave and rake of the roof to prevent rain water from flowing down the roof and curling under the shingle edge. Fascia and rake boards should be pressure treated or of a high decay resistant species.

The fourth precaution is to make sure gutters are sloped toward downspouts to insure proper drainage. Keep gutters and downspouts free of leaves or other debris and allow them to empty onto splash blocks or into drainpipes.

Next, raise the siding 2 inches above the shingles at the intersection of two stories or between dormers and roof surfaces. Insert metal flashing which extends under the shingles and siding.

Finally, provide ventilation in attic areas. Vents, located at or near the roof ridge and at the eaves, should provide one square foot of vent for each 150 square feet of attic.

Hereford Among Seven Sites To Participate in Project

The Amarillo Public Library has been named as one of nine libraries nationwide to participate in a programming project on "The Great Plains Experience," according to announcement by the University of Mid-America at Lincoln, Nebraska.

In the Texas project, a series of six programs will be presented at seven sites: Amarillo Public Library, Central Building; Senior Citizens Center, Amarillo; Panhandle-Plains Museum, Canyon; Dalhart, Shamrock, Spearman and Hereford.

UMA has been awarded $486,148 by the National Endowment for the Humanities to carry out the project in the nine areas from Georgia to Montana. The Amarillo project is the only one in Texas.

The Panhandle-Plains Museum at Canyon will be in charge of planning and/or providing exhibits at each program. Also cooperating as discussion leaders for the six films in the program series will be Dr. Fred W. Rathjen, Dr. Garry Nall, and Dr. C.L. Petersen of the history department of West Texas State University; Bobby Weaver, PPHS Museum curator of ethnology, and William C. Griggs, museum director; and Bobbie Speer of Amarillo, anthropologist.

Byron Price, PPHS Museum curator of history, will be assisted by Carol Daffern in exhibit preparation. Mary Louise Loyd of the Amarillo library is project director. Dr. Joe Taylor, retired, Amarillo College history department, is evaluator for the project.

The one-year project is a "library community outreach program for adults to promote study and appreciation of Great Plains history," according to the University of Mid-America announcement.

Nine libraries nationwide, museums, historical societies and humanities scholars will carry out the programs, which will center on six films from UMA's television course, "The Great Plains Experience," produced in 1978. The localized programs will also use the libraries' humanities resources, relevant art, artifact and other special collections. UMA received a $40,137 grant from NEH in early 1980 to plan the project.

"A major thrust of the programs is to reach residents in rural areas, the elderly, minorities, the hard-to-reach, and the less educated," said Sarah Rosenberg, project director and head of UMA's division of program development. "The project will encourage studies in the humanities and the 'Great Plains' films provide an excellent vehicle for study of regional and local history."

Participating libraries are Tucson Public Library, Tucson, Ariz.; Mesa County Library, Grand Junction, Colo.; Tri-County Regional Library, Rome, Ga.; Wichita Public Library, Wichita, Kan.; Great Falls Public Library, Great Falls, Mont.; Durham County Library, Durham, N.C.; AMARILLO PUBLIC LIBRARY, AMARILLO, Tex.; Racine Public Library, Racine, Wis.; Sheridan County Fulmer Public Library, Sheridan, Wyo.

UMA is a consortium of 11 universities in seven midwestern states created in 1974 to develop and experiment with nontraditional programs for adults.

Woodrow Wilson. Ragtime. The Great Houdini. The year is 1913 and a new Bell telephone begins ringing throughout the land. Ah, those were the days...

Now you can relive those days with Southwestern Bell's new Country Junction* telephone — a happy blend of yesterday's spirit with today's technology.

Lovingly handcrafted in natural oak and antiqued nickel trim, the Country Junction phone is a classic that blends with period settings and makes an attractive statement with the crisp, cool lines of contemporary taste.

HHS Track Teams Capture Third

In Deaf Smith C of C Meet

After prevailing rainy weather conditions eventually forced the Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce Invitational Track Meet to a hurried close Saturday, only the finals of the two-mile run and 1600-meter relay events were concluded before rain showers interrupted the meet's progress, the Hereford boys' and varsity girls' cinder squad finished third in their respective divisions of competition.

As a result of the inclement weather, all events were decided by the fastest preliminary times with the exception of the mile relays and two-mile runs. Spurred by five first place finishes, Amarillo Tascosa won the boys' division of the meet 148 1/2 while Lubbock Coronado concluded with 124 1/2 for 2nd place, Hereford finished with 79, Clovis netted 53, Lubbock Dunbar had 50, Plainview accumulated 32, Dumas had 28, Caprock added up 8 and Pampa trailed with only four points.

Hereford's 400-meter relay team, under the direction of sprinters Jeff Coupe, Harold Terry, Hernandez and Norman Brown, clipped off gold medal honors following its preliminary showing of 43.6. That first place qualification, in addition to Felix Soliz' 2:01.18 1st place preliminary time in the 800-meter run, were added to Saturday evening as HHS's 1600-meter relay team posted a 1st place effort of 3:27.7.

Hereford thinclad Norman Brown took respective 2nd place finishes in the 200 and 400-meter dashes while Harold Terry netted a 2nd place berth in the 100-meter dash after clocking a time of 11.0.

In the girls' portion of the meet, Plainview ruled the field for a 1st place finish after accumulating 120 points. Amarillo High capped 2nd with 90 points, Hereford concluded the two-day competition with 83 3rd place points. Lubbock Estacado had 71, Amarillo Palo Duro finished with 56, Dumas had 47, Lubbock Monterey netted

44, Snyder completed the affair with 27 and Lubbock High and Clovis trailed the lineup with 18 and two points. The HHS cinder crew managed to clip off two 1st place finishes, one arriving with sprinter Louise Mays' fastest qualifying time of 2:21.5 in the 800-meter dash, and the other in Picken's 5-1 leap in the high jump.

Lori Albracht capped a 2nd place finish in the 200-meter dash behind Dumas' Ramsey with a time of 27.0 and high jumper Angela White netted 2nd behind teammate Picken's with a mark of 5-0.

Hereford's 1600-meter relay squad claimed 2nd in that competition after pacing its way to a 4:13.0, and Maria Carreon grasped 3rd place in the discus field after hurling the weight for a distance of 101-10.

Grand Slam Gives Herd 11-10 Win

AMARILLO - Mark Collier's grand slam home run in the seventh inning lifted Hereford to an 11-10 win over Palo Duro yesterday in Amarillo.

Collier's blast came off a 3-2 offering by losing pitcher Jerry Elizardo with one out in the top of the inning.

The Dons put runners on second and third in their half of the inning, but failed to score.

Sean Lusk and Juan Lopez had two RBI apiece in the six-run Don outburst in the opening frame. Hereford came back with three in the third and four in the fifth to tie the score a 7-7.

Palo Duro countered with three more runs in the fifth to take a 10-7 advantage before Collier supplied the last inning heroics.

THROWING -- Maria Carreon hurles the shot put to its mark in the Deaf Smith C of C Track Meet....

La Plata Girls First at Olton

OLTON - The La Plata girls' 7th and 8th grade track teams overcame their respective track fields in addition to Mother Nature here Saturday as they battered their way past six opposing teams and bad weather conditions to post respective victories in each of their divisions. The 8th grade Maverick team, led by 1st place ventures provided by the mile relay team (Carla Alford, Troyce Shuder, Yevette Gamba and Sandra Valdez) plus Sandra Valdez' 1st in the 400-yard dash, and Dianna Devers 1st place attempt in the shot put, won that division race with 126 points.

Tulia followed in 2nd place with 115 team points while Stanton Junior High netted a 4th place finish in the affair with 97 points. Molly Keating paced off a time of 4:00.36 for a 1st in the 1320-run competition and Elma Cruz and Jennifer Estep trailed in the 3rd and 5th place positions with times of 4:47.0 and 4:55.0 to accumulate 18 solidifying points in one event for the Maverick cinder squad.

In other highlighting performances for the squad, the 440-yard relay team (composed of Ruth Compazano, Cindy Morgan, Mary Zeldia Soliz and Sandra Valdez) took a 4th place finish with a time of 57.14, and Troyce Shuder, Mary Zeldia Soliz, Cindy Morgan, and Yevette Gamba combined to post a 4th place clocking of 2:05.45 in the 880-yard relay competition.

Shuder and Gamba doubled in the 440-dash and trailed Valdez' 1st in that event with respective 3rd and 4th place finishes. Lisa Dirks capped 3rd place in the discus segment of the meet after she hurled the weight for a distance of 74-6 1/2 feet.

Mary Zeldia Soliz netted 3rd in the 220-dash and Elma Cruz placed 2nd in the 880-dash.

The 7th grade Maverick crew, following 1st place performances by the 440 relay team and Selma Moreno's 1st in 1320, took a domineering stance in their division of the meet as they eventually capped 142 points for a winning effort.

Tulia trailed for 2nd place with 136 points while the Stanton Dogie finished with 62 points in the affair.

Becky Curtis, Penny Tubb, Kim Williams and Judy Sanders raced for a time of 59.51 in the 440-relay competition in order to claim a 1st place finish and the mile-relay squad (made up of La Plata runners Stana Slagle, Angie Delo Santos, Adelia Rodriguez and Judy Sanders) capped 1st place in that portion of the meet with a clocking of 5:02.39.

The La Plata 880-relay team finished 2nd with a 2:07.49; Adelia Rodriguez and Becky Curtis posted respective 2nd place finishes in the 440 and 220-yard dashes with times of 71.82 and 31.50 while Veronica Estrada and Terry Valdez netted 3rd and 4th place berths in the 1320 run after hitting marks of 4:45.0 and 4:56.22.

In the 100-yard dash, Judy Sanders paced-off a 12.75 2nd place showing and Penny Tubb followed her effort with a 12.92 3rd place performance.

Terry Valdez placed 3rd in the 880-yard dash with a time of 3:05.0 and Nadalie Sims capped 5th in that event with a 3:07.0.

Kuhn Doubts Strike

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) - Baseball Commissioner Bowie Kuhn said he does not think there will be a player strike this year.

Kuhn, in Arizona to visit spring-training camps, said Monday while watching the San Francisco-Seattle game at Phoenix Municipal Stadium that he doesn't consider the current impasse over free-agent compensation to be a serious threat to the sport.

Q. Are there any checks I can make on my car's power steering without tearing out the whole unit or paying a service charge?
A. Certainly and the first and most basic is to regularly check the power steering fluid level. Check on level surface, wheels straight ahead, with the fluid at operating temperature, but with the engine stopped. Be careful not to allow any dirt or foreign substance into the fluid access when taking the cover off. If the fluid is extremely low, check for leaks in the system. You can do a very easy check of oil flow and relief valves in the system by turning the steering wheel fully right or left with the engine idling. If everything is in order, you'll hear a slight buzzing noise. Do not hold the wheel in either extreme position for more than a second or two. If you do not hear a buzzing, suspect a striking or malfunctioning valve.

Big 10 Teams Loom Large in NIT

By The Associated Press
The Big Ten is looming bigger every day in the National Invitation Tournament.
On the verge of the quarter-finals, Minnesota, Purdue and Michigan are all still standing tall — and looking pretty healthy at that, according to their latest victims.
"That team was 9-9 in the Big Ten — and it gives you an idea of how they play basketball in the Big Ten," said Connecticut Coach Dom Perno after suffering an 84-66 humiliation at home to the Gophers Monday night.

"They got inside people, they got outside people, they have seven quality players and will be tough to beat in the NIT."
So will Purdue, which beat Dayton 50-46 in another second-round game Monday night.
"They just manhandled us on the boards," said Dayton Coach Don Donoher. "It was a case of finesse."

Those games were two of seven played Monday night as the NIT field dwindled to eight teams. Elsewhere, Syracuse whipped Holy Cross 77-57; Duke stopped Alabama 75-70; South Alabama nipped Georgia 73-72; West Virginia edged Temple 77-76 in overtime and Tulsa downed Texas-El Paso 72-67.

Michigan scored a runaway 80-68 victory over Toledo in the only NIT game played Sunday night.
The results set up the following quarter-final pairings: Michigan at Syracuse and West Virginia at Minnesota on Thursday night and Duke at Purdue and South Alabama at Tulsa Friday night.
Trent Tucker, hitting 14 of 17 shots from the field, scored a career-high 35 points as Minnesota rolled past Connecticut. Seven-foot-two sophomore center Randy Breuer added 19 points for the Gophers, 16 in the second half when the Big Ten team pulled away from a tight 37-33 lead at intermission.

"I felt I couldn't miss," said Tucker. "Our team is oriented to the big guy (Breuer), but I had the rhythm, and the coach told me to put it up."
Tucker entered the game with a 14.1 average.
"Tucker has been a real good shooter," said Minnesota Coach Jim Dutcher. "But he just proved himself a little more tonight."
Forward Mike Scearce had three baskets and two assists in the final seven minutes to help Purdue beat Dayton. Dayton was forced to play most of the game without Mike Kaniecki, its leading scorer and rebounder for the season. The 6-10 junior center sprained his right ankle taking a jump shot at the 17:02 mark of the first half.

He was sent to the hospital for X-rays, which were negative, at halftime after soaking the ankle in ice. Later, he returned to the Flyers' bench on crutches.
Leo Rautins and Erich Santifer combined for 41 points to power Syracuse over Holy Cross.
Rautins, a 6-foot-8 sophomore transfer from Minnesota, scored 21 points and pulled down 10 rebounds. Santifer finished with 20 points to help the Orangemen improve their record to 20-11.
The victory was the fifth straight in postseason play for Syracuse. The Orangemen had finished with their worst regular season record in a decade and were excluded from the NCAA tournament, despite winning their own Big East playoffs, for the first time in nine years.
"He's one of the finest big-man passers in the country," said Holy Cross Coach George Blaney of Rautins. "He's an exceptional player."

Kenny Dennard scored 25 points and Vince Taylor added 17 as Duke beat Alabama. Duke held a 61-58 lead late in the second half when Taylor hit a free throw to extend the lead to four. Taylor hit two more free throws with 2:55 remaining to give Duke a six-point advantage, 64-58.
Later, Alabama pulled to within two points on a basket by Eddie Phillips, but that was as close as the Crimson Tide got the rest of the way.
Ed Rains hit two pressure free throws with four seconds remaining to give South Alabama its tight victory over Georgia. Rains, who finished with a game-high 25 points, hit the free throws after Georgia had called three consecutive timeouts before he went to the line.
South Alabama had trailed 70-65 with less than three minutes remaining before staging a comeback.
"We never lost our composure," said South Alabama Coach Cliff Ellis, noting that the lead had changed 21 times in what he called "a great game."

"It was just a game that went down to the final minute and I'm glad it didn't go further," he added. "We played a very good game against a very good basketball team."
Dennis Hosey and Donnie Gipson sank crucial free throws in the final minutes of overtime to lift West Virginia over Temple. Neither West Virginia nor Temple was able to open a lead of more than six points in the tense, tightly played game.
It was the second straight NIT victory over a Philadelphia opponent for the Mountaineers. They beat Penn in a first-round game last Friday night.
Mike Anderson hit two free throws with 12 seconds left as Tulsa survived a furious Texas-El Paso rally to beat the Miners. The rugged game contained 58 fouls, 34 on UTEP, and Tulsa took advantage of it by scoring 32 of 49 from the line. The Miners, meanwhile, made 17 of 27 attempts.

Half of Top-Ranked NCAA Teams Beaten in First Round

By The Associated Press
"It would seem," Ron Abernathy observed, "that this year, the word 'bye' is short for 'goodbye.'"
Louisiana State's assistant coach knows whereof he speaks. Eight of the 16 teams which received first-round byes waved bye-bye to the rest of the field in the National Collegiate Athletic Association tournament by the end of last weekend's second round.
That included the nation's three top-ranked teams — DePaul, Oregon State and Arizona State — leaving

LSU's Tigers, No. 4 in the final regular-season poll, the highest-ranked team still alive heading into the regional semifinals.
The other teams to receive first-round byes, then leave sooner than expected, were UCLA, Wake Forest, Kentucky, Louisville and Iowa. Along with LSU, the "bye" teams still alive are Notre Dame, Virginia, Tennessee, Illinois, Utah, North Carolina and Indiana.
"Considering all the other upsets," Notre Dame Coach Digger Phelps said Monday, "we are awfully happy to be where we are right now."

Thursday night it's Brigham Young, 24-6, vs. Notre Dame, 23-5, and Virginia, 26-3, vs. Tennessee, 21-7, in the East Regionals at Atlanta; and Kansas State, 23-8, vs. Illinois, 21-7, and Utah, 25-4, vs. North Carolina, 26-7, in the West at Salt Lake City, Utah.
Friday night it's LSU, 29-3, vs. Arkansas, 24-7 and Wichita State, 25-6, vs. Kansas, 24-7, in the Midwest in New Orleans; and St. Joseph's, 24-7, vs. Boston College, 23-6, and Alabama-

Birmingham, 23-7, vs. Indiana, 22-9, in the Midwest at Bloomington, Ind.
Notre Dame has been a giant killer of sorts dating back to the 1940s. More recently, the Fighting Irish have halted winning streaks of 28 games by Virginia (this year), 26 games by DePaul (last year), 29 games by San Francisco (1977), 34 games by South Carolina (1974), and 88 games by UCLA (also 1974).
Now Notre Dame faces the unenviable task of trying to put the clamps on Danny Ainge, BYU's scoring machine whose 37 points last Saturday helped demolish UCLA's once-awesome Bruins 78-55.
In the schools' only previous meeting, in New York's Madison Square Garden Dec. 28, 1956, the Irish routed the Cougars 91-66.
"We couldn't have been more impressed with Brigham Young after watching them beat UCLA," Phelps said. "Danny Ainge is a true All-American and the rest of their players complement him so well."
"They've got tremendous size up front, yet they run the fast break as well as anyone. They look like a lot of the Olympic teams you see because they are big and physical. They beat UCLA at their own game, and I didn't think anyone could out-quick UCLA."
"We'll have to come out and try to take charge right away and just hope that Orlando Woolridge can help us at least to some extent."
Woolridge, a 6-foot-9 senior forward, is their main man under the boards, but he's suffering from a recurring thigh injury. If he can't perform, 6-6 Bill Varner will take his place. "I don't know whether we'll be able to count on Orlando or not," Phelps said. "We'll keep him out this week and see how things look Thursday night." Physicians have indicated that only rest — perhaps six weeks' worth or more — is the only medicine for Woolridge.

Parental Concern Took Attention Away from Navratilova's Game

By WILL GRIMSLEY
AP Special Correspondent

Parental concern is nice if you're a little girl in pigtails and ribbons but, if you're over 21 and an independent-minded multimillionaire, it can be a drag.

Martina Navratilova found it so when her parents and little sister moved in on her last year and took much of her attention away from tennis, which is her livelihood.
"I love them dearly," said the gifted Czechoslovakian defector Monday when she came to New York to promote the $300,000 Avon Championships March 25-29 in Madison Square Garden, "but they were miserable over here."
"I am not one to cry 'wolf.' I don't complain when my shoulder hurts. But it was a troublesome year for me. I had to take care of them financially as well as emotionally."

Martina's father, Mirek, mother Jana and little sister Jana returned to Prague at the end of last year after eight months in this country. America wasn't for them. With fewer responsibilities, Martina's tennis game, which had been in the doldrums, suddenly came to life again.

The 24-year-old left-hander, twice winner at Wimbledon and No. 1 in world women's rankings in 1978 and 1979, has won four of the six tournaments on the Avon winter tour, losing only two matches, and is the top-seeded favorite in the climactic Avon Championships.
Although three of her strongest rivals — Chris Evert Lloyd, enjoying a sabbatical with her family; Tracy Austin, sidelined by a sciatic nerve, and young Andrea Jaeger, with a foot ailment — haven't been fit to challenge, Martina refuses to concede that her winter's success would have been different if everybody had been well and active.

"When I am healthy and able to apply myself, I can beat any or all of them," she says with finality. Most tennis critics agree — this young Czechoslovakian has all the tools for greatness.
She has been overpowering in winning at Cincinnati, Chicago, Los Angeles and Dallas. She crushed Jaeger 6-4, 6-0 in Los Angeles and Pam Shriver 6-2, 6-4 in Dallas.
Martina first came to America as a 16-year-old in 1973 and fell in love with the country. During the U.S. Championships at Forest Hills in 1975, she announced that she planned to leave her home and family in Czechoslovakia and seek asylum in the United States. Martina Americanized herself immediately. She learned English until now she speaks fluently. She went through the jeans and rock craze.

Hurricanes Clip Miners

TULSA, Okla. (AP) — Tulsa Coach Nolan Richardson says his Hurricane played its "best 35 minutes of defense of the year" in putting together an 18-point lead over Texas-El Paso.
Mike Anderson hit two pressure free throws with 12 seconds left to allow Tulsa to survive a UTEP rally, 72-67. Tulsa, 23-7, hosts South Alabama in the third round of the NIT Friday night.

Edmonton Wins NHL Duel

EDMONTON, Alberta (AP) — The Edmonton Oilers and the Pittsburgh Penguins staged a National Hockey League artillery duel Monday night, with Edmonton coming out on the winning end of the 7-6 barrage.
Mark Messier scored three goals for the Oilers, his first three-goal game in the NHL. Gregg Sheppard had three goals for the Penguins as both goaltenders sagged.
Risto Siltanen, Brett

Callighen, Paul Coffey and Doug Hicks scored the other Edmonton goals, with Rick Kehoe, Paul Gardner and Gregg Malone scoring for the Penguins.
The 13-goal output in the only NHL game of the night came on a combined total of 57 shots and both goaltenders conceded they were not quite up to snuff.
Ed Mio, Edmonton's net-minder, said the teams played a wide-open offensive game.

"Both teams had some fantastic shots tonight," he said. "We let guys come in from 20 and 30 feet and blast away."
"There weren't that many shots, but they were good shots."
He conceded some bad luck.
"It was just one of those games where everything goes in and the shooters had their eyes out."
The Oilers goalie could take solace, however, in the fact that Edmonton came out on top.
"It's two points," he said. "I'm not going to win the Vezina. I'll take them. What's the difference?"
Greg Millen, who was beaten seven times in the Pittsburgh net, had few excuses, although he gave a lot of credit to the Edmonton snipers.
"It was just one of those nights," he said. "I wasn't too happy with my performance."
"They were putting them there and I wasn't reacting."
Millen said the game was his 17th in a row and he might have been tired.
"It was a shootout and we came up on the short end of the stick," Millen said. "I thought I was a little bit behind on some of them and they went in."

Brown Lured to NBA Post

LOS ANGELES (AP) — After two winning seasons at UCLA, Larry Brown has been lured back to the National Basketball Association as coach of the New Jersey Nets.
He disclosed his decision to the Bruins at a closed-door meeting with them Monday, and although he would not confirm he was leaving, two players who asked to remain anonymous said that was what Brown told them.
They also said Larry Farmer, a Bruin assistant basketball coach for six years and a player under former coach John Wooden, would be the new UCLA head coach.
Nets General Manager Charlie Theokas confirmed late Monday night that Brown, a former coach of the Denver Nuggets, had signed to coach the team starting next season.
Theokas, in an interview with ABC Radio Sports, said: "We're really excited about Larry and about next year. We feel we have half turned around our program and with the addition of Larry Brown we feel next year-basketball in New Jersey will be exciting."
Several players were near tears as they filed out, one-by-one, from Monday's meeting in Pauley Pavilion.

Freshman center Kenny Fields, who had been dropped from the team and then reinstated by Brown, said: "We hate to see him go. Coach has a tendency to get real close to his players. Wherever he goes, I hope he keeps in touch."
Brown had been rumored to be leaving UCLA for the past month, but said he would wait until after the Bruins finished the season to make a decision. Monday's talk with the team came two days after the club lost its opening game of the NCAA tournament.
He becomes the third UCLA head basketball coach to leave in the past six years. Following the end of Wooden's 27-year reign at the school, Gene Bartow, Gary Cunningham and Brown each guided the team for two years.
This season Brown's 10th-ranked Bruins, who suffered an embarrassing 78-55 NCAA playoff loss to BYU Saturday, finished with a 20-7 record. In 1979-80, Brown coached the team to a second-place finish in the NCAA tournament and a 22-10 overall record.

NFL Playing Rules To Be Proffered

MAUI, Hawaii (AP) — Changes in National Football League playing rules will be proposed today amid continued conjecture on the suit the Oakland Raiders and Los Angeles Coliseum have brought against the league.
The Competitions Committee makes the rules report, including one to lessen the penalty for pass interference, while the owners are expected to stand fast in their determination not to let the Raiders move from Oakland.
Commissioner Pete Rozelle was asked if he expected a vote on the Oakland situation after the ballot went 22-0 a year ago. He answered, "Not unless the Raiders ask for one."

Rozelle said the league expects the antitrust case will go to trial and eventually could reach the United States Supreme Court.
Asked if he would step down if the Raiders should win the litigation, the commissioner answered:
"As long as I enjoy being part of the league, I will want to stay. If any circumstances occur, including personal, that I don't enjoy it, I will step down."

HHS Track Teams Capture Third

In Deaf Smith C of C Meet

After prevailing rainy weather conditions eventually forced the Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce Invitational Track Meet to a hurried close Saturday, only the finals of the two-mile run and 1600-meter relay events were concluded before rain showers interrupted the meet's progress, the Hereford boys' and varsity girls' cinder squad finished third in their respective divisions of competition.

As a result of the inclement weather, all events were decided by the fastest preliminary times with the exception of the mile relays and two-mile runs. Spurred by five first place finishes, Amarillo Tascosa won the boys' division of the meet 148½ while Lubbock Coronado concluded with 124½ for 2nd place, Hereford finished with 79, Clovis netted 53, Lubbock Dunbar had 50, Plainview accumulated 32, Dumas had 28, Caprock added up 8 and Pampa trailed with only four points.

Hereford's 400-meter relay team, under the direction of sprinters Jeff Coupe, Harold Terry, Hernandez and Norman Brown, clipped off gold medal honors following its preliminary showing of 43.6. That first place qualification, in addition to Felix Soliz' 2:01.18 1st place preliminary time in the 800-meter run, were added to Saturday evening as HHS's 1600-meter relay team posted a 1st place effort of 3:27.7.

Hereford thinclad Norman Brown took repective 2nd place finishes in the 200 and 400-meter dashes while Harold Terry netted a 2nd place berth in the 100-meter dash after clocking a time of 11.0.

In the girls' portion of the meet, Plainview ruled the field for a 1st place finish after accumulating 120 points. Amarillo High capped 2nd with 90 points, Hereford concluded the two-day competition with 83 3rd place points, Lubbock Estacado had 71, Amarillo Palo Duro finished with 56, Dumas had 47, Lubbock Monterey netted

44, Snyder completed the affair with 27 and Lubbock High and Clovis trailed the lineup with 18 and two points.

The HHS cinder crew managed to clip off two 1st place finishes, one arriving with sprinter Louise Mays' fastest qualifying time of 2:21.5 in the 800-meter dash, and the other in Picken's 5-1 leap in the high jump.

Lori Albracht capped a 2nd place finish in the 200-meter dash behind Dumas' Ramsey with a time of 27.0 and high jumper Angela White netted 2nd behind teammate Picken's with a mark of 5-0.

Hereford's 1600-meter relay squad claimed 2nd in that competition after pacing its way to a 4:13.0, and Maria Carreon grasped 3rd place in the discus field after hurling the weight for a distance of 101-10.

Grand Slam Gives Herd 11-10 Win

AMARILLO - Mark Collier's grand slam home run in the seventh inning lifted Hereford to an 11-10 win over Palo Duro yesterday in Amarillo.

Collier's blast came off a 2-2 offering by losing pitcher Jerry Elizardo with one out in the top of the inning.

The Dons put runners on second and third in their half of the inning, but failed to score. Sean Lusk and Juan Lopez had two RBI apiece in the six-run Don outburst in the opening frame. Hereford came back with three in the third and four in the fifth to tie the score a 7-7.

Palo Duro countered with three more runs in the fifth to take a 10-7 advantage before Collier supplied the last inning heroics.

THROWING -- Maria Carreon hurles the shot put to its mark in the Deaf Smith C of C Track Meet....

La Plata Girls First at Olton

OLTON - The La Plata girls' 7th and 8th grade track teams overcame their respective track fields in addition to Mother Nature here Saturday as they battered their way past six opposing teams and bad weather conditions to post respective victories in each of their divisions. The 8th grade Maverick team, led by 1st place ventures provided by the mile relay team (Carla Alford, Troyce Shuder, Yvette Gamboa and Sandra Valdez) plus Sandra Valdez' 1st in the 440-yard dash, and Dianna Devers 1st place attempt in the shot put, won that division race with 126 points.

Tulia followed in 2nd place with 115 team points while Stanton Junior High netted a 4th place finish in the affair with 97 points. Molly Keating paced off a time of 4:00.36 for a 1st in the 1320-run competition and Elma Cruz and Jennifer Estep trailed in the 3rd and 5th place positions with times of 4:47.0 and 4:55.0 to accumulate 18 solidifying points in one event for the Maverick cinder squad.

In other, highlighting performances for the squad, the 440-yard relay team (composed of Ruth Compazano, Cindy Morgan, Mary Zelda Soliz and Sandra Valdez) took a 4th place finish with a time of 57.14, and Troyce Shuder, Mary Zelda Soliz, Cindy Morgan, and Yvette Gamboa combined to post a 4th place clocking of 2:05.45 in the 880-yard relay competition.

Shuder and Gamboa doubled in the 440-dash and trailed Valdez' 1st in that event with respective 3rd and 4th place finishes. Lisa Dirks capped 3rd place in the discus segment of the meet after she hurled the weight for a distance of 74-6½ feet.

Mary Zelda Soliz netted 3rd in the 220-dash and Elma Cruz placed 2nd in the 880-dash.

The 7th grade Maverick crew, following 1st place performances by the 440 relay team and Selma Moreno's 1st in 1320, took a domineering stance in their division of the meet as they eventually capped 142 points for a winning effort.

Tulia trailed for 2nd place with 136 points while the Stanton Dogie finished with 62 points in the affair.

Becky Curtis, Penny Tubb, Kim Williams and Judy Sanders raced for a time of 59.51 in the 440-relay competition in order to claim a 1st place finish and the mile-relay squad (made up of La Plata runners Stana Slagle, Angie Delo Santos, Adelia Rodriguez and Judy Sanders) capped 1st place in that portion of the meet with a clocking of 5:02.39.

The La Plata 880-relay team finished 2nd with a 2:07.49; Adelia Rodriguez and Becky Curtis posted respective 2nd place finishes in the 440 and 220-yard dashes with times of 71.82 and 31.50 while Veronica Estrada and Terry Valdez netted 3rd and 4th place berths in the 1320 run after hitting marks of 4:45.0 and 4:56.22.

In the 100-yard dash, Judy Sanders placed 3rd and Penny Tubb followed her effort with a 12.92, 3rd place performance.

Terry Valdez placed 3rd in the 880-yard dash with a time of 3:05.0 and Nadalie Sims capped 5th in that event with a 3:07.0.

Kuhn Doubts Strike

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) - Baseball Commissioner Bowie Kuhn said he does not think there will be a player strike this year.

Kuhn, in Arizona to visit spring-training camps, said Monday while watching the San Francisco-Seattle game at Phoenix Municipal Stadium that he doesn't consider the current impasse over free-agent compensation to be a serious threat to the sport.

Q. Are there any checks I can make on my car's power steering without tearing out the whole unit or paying a service charge?

A. Certainly and the first and most basic is to regularly check the power steering fluid level. Check on level surface, wheels straight ahead, with the fluid at operating temperature, but with the engine stopped. Be careful not to allow any dirt or foreign substance into the fluid access when taking the cover off. If the fluid is extremely low, check for leaks in the system. You can do a very easy check of oil flow and relief valves in the system by turning the steering wheel fully right or left with the engine idling. If everything is in order, you'll hear a slight buzzing noise. Do not hold the wheel in either extreme position for more than a second or two. If you do not hear a buzzing, suspect a striking or malfunctioning valve.

Big 10 Teams Loom Large in NIT

By The Associated Press
The Big Ten is looming bigger every day in the National Invitation Tournament.
On the verge of the quarter-finals, Minnesota, Purdue and Michigan are all still standing tall — and looking pretty healthy at that, according to their latest victims.
"That team was 9-9 in the Big Ten — and it gives you an idea of how they play basketball in the Big Ten," said Connecticut Coach Dom Perno after suffering an 84-66 humiliation at home to the Gophers Monday night.

"They got inside people, they got outside people, they have seven quality players and will be tough to beat in the NIT."
So will Purdue, which beat Dayton 50-46 in another second-round game Monday night.
"They just manhandled us

on the boards," said Dayton Coach Don Donoher. "It was a case of finesse."
Those games were two of seven played Monday night as the NIT field dwindled to eight teams. Elsewhere, Syracuse whipped Holy Cross 77-57; Duke stopped Alabama 75-70; South Alabama nipped Georgia 73-72; West Virginia edged Temple 77-76 in overtime and Tulsa downed Texas-El Paso 72-67.

Michigan scored a runaway 80-68 victory over Toledo in the only NIT game played Sunday night.
The results set up the following quarter-final pairings: Michigan at Syracuse and West Virginia at Minnesota on Thursday night and Duke at Purdue and South Alabama at Tulsa Friday night.
Trent Tucker, hitting 14 of 17 shots from the field, scored a career-high 35 points as Minnesota rolled past Connecticut. Seven-foot-two sophomore center Randy Breuer added 19 points for the Gophers, 16 in the second half when the Big Ten team pulled away from a tight 37-33 lead at intermission.

"I felt I couldn't miss," said Tucker. "Our team is oriented to the big guy (Breuer), but I had the rhythm, and the coach told me to put it up."
Tucker entered the game with a 14.1 average.
"Tucker has been a real good shooter," said Minnesota Coach Jim Dutcher. "But he just proved himself a little more tonight."
Forward Mike Seacree had three baskets and two assists in the final seven minutes to help Purdue beat Dayton. Dayton was forced to play most of the game without Mike Kaniecki, its leading scorer and rebounder for the season. The 6-10 junior center sprained his right ankle taking a jump shot at the 17:02

mark of the first half.
He was sent to the hospital for X-rays, which were negative, at halftime after soaking the ankle in ice. Later, he returned to the Flyers' bench on crutches.
Leo Rautins and Erich Santifer combined for 41 points to power Syracuse over Holy Cross.
Rautins, a 6-foot-8 sophomore transfer from Minnesota, scored 21 points and pulled down 10 rebounds. Santifer finished with 20 points to help the Orangemen improve their record to 20-11.
The victory was the fifth straight in postseason play for Syracuse. The Orangemen had finished with their worst regular season record in a decade and were excluded from the NCAA tournament, despite winning their own Big East playoffs, for the first time in nine years.
"He's one of the finest big-man passers in the country," said Holy Cross Coach George Blaney of Rautins. "He's an exceptional player."

Kenny Dennard scored 25 points and Vince Taylor added 17 as Duke beat Alabama. Duke held a 61-58 lead late in the second half when Taylor hit a free throw to extend the lead to four. Taylor hit two more free throws with 2:55 remaining to give Duke a six-point advantage, 64-58.
Later, Alabama pulled to within two points on a basket by Eddie Phillips, but that was as close as the Crimson Tide got the rest of the way.
Ed Rains hit two pressure free throws with four seconds remaining to give South Alabama its tight victory over Georgia. Rains, who finished with a game-high 25 points, hit the free throws after Georgia had called three consecutive timeouts before he went to the line.
South Alabama had trailed 70-65 with less than three minutes remaining before staging a comeback.
"We never lost our composure," said South Alabama Coach Cliff Ellis, noting that the lead had changed 21 times in what he called "a great game."

"It was just a game that went down to the final minute and I'm glad it didn't go further," he added. "We played a very good game against a very good basketball team."
Dennis Hosey and Donnie Gipson sank crucial free throws in the final minutes of overtime to lift West Virginia over Temple. Neither West Virginia nor Temple was able to open a lead of more than six points in the tense, tightly played game.
It was the second straight NIT victory over a Philadelphia opponent for the Mountaineers. They beat Penn in a first-round game last Friday night.
Mike Anderson hit two free throws with 12 seconds left as Tulsa survived a furious Texas-El Paso rally to beat the Miners. The rugged game contained 58 fouls, 34 on UTEP, and Tulsa took advantage of it by scoring 32 of 49 from the line. The Miners, meanwhile, made 17 of 27 attempts.

Half of Top-Ranked NCAA Teams Beaten in First Round

By The Associated Press
"It would seem," Ron Abernathy observed, "that this year, the word 'bye' is short for 'goodbye.'"
Louisiana State's assistant coach knows whereof he speaks. Eight of the 16 teams which received first-round byes waved bye-bye to the rest of the field in the National Collegiate Athletic Association tournament by the end of last weekend's second round.
That included the nation's three top-ranked teams — DePaul, Oregon State and Arizona State — leaving

LSU's Tigers, No. 4 in the final regular-season poll, the highest-ranked team still alive heading into the regional semifinals.
The other teams to receive first-round byes, then leave sooner than expected, were UCLA, Wake Forest, Kentucky, Louisville and Iowa. Along with LSU, the "bye" teams still alive are Notre Dame, Virginia, Tennessee, Illinois, Utah, North Carolina and Indiana.
"Considering all the other upsets," Notre Dame Coach Digger Phelps said Monday, "we are awfully happy to be where we are right now."

Thursday night it's Brigham Young, 24-6, vs. Notre Dame, 23-5, and Virginia, 26-3, vs. Tennessee, 21-7, in the East Regionals at Atlanta; and Kansas State, 23-8, vs. Illinois, 21-7; and Utah, 25-4, vs. North Carolina, 26-7, in the West at Salt Lake City, Utah.
Friday night it's LSU, 29-3, vs. Arkansas, 24-7 and Wichita State, 25-6, vs. Kansas, 24-7, in the Midwest in New Orleans; and St. Joseph's, 24-7, vs. Boston College, 23-6, and Alabama-

Birmingham, 23-7, vs. Indiana, 22-9, in the Midwest at Bloomington, Ind.
Notre Dame has been a giant killer of sorts dating back to the 1940s. More recently, the Fighting Irish have halted winning streaks of 28 games by Virginia (this year), 26 games by DePaul (last year), 29 games by San Francisco (1977), 34 games by South Carolina (1974), and 88 games by UCLA (also 1974).
Now Notre Dame faces the unenviable task of trying to put the clamps on Danny Ainge, BYU's scoring machine whose 37 points last Saturday helped demolish UCLA's once-awesome Bruins 78-55.
In the schools' only previous meeting, in New York's Madison Square Garden Dec. 28, 1956, the Irish routed the Cougars 91-66.
"We couldn't have been more impressed with Brigham Young after watching them beat UCLA," Phelps said. "Danny Ainge is a true All-American and the rest of their players complement him so well."
"They've got tremendous size up front, yet they run the fast break as well as anyone. They look like a lot of the Olympic teams you see because they are big and physical. They beat UCLA at their own game, and I didn't think anyone could out-quick UCLA."
"We'll have to come out and try to take charge right away and just hope that Orlando Woolridge can help us at least to some extent."

Woolridge, a 6-foot-9 senior forward, is their main man under the boards, but he's suffering from a recurring thigh injury. If he can't perform, 6-6 Bill Varner will take his place. "I don't know whether we'll be able to count on Orlando or not," Phelps said. "We'll keep him out this week and see how things look Thursday night." Physicians have indicated that only rest — perhaps six weeks' worth or more — is the only medicine for Woolridge.

Edmonton Wins NHL Duel

EDMONTON, Alberta (AP) — The Edmonton Oilers and the Pittsburgh Penguins staged a National Hockey League artillery duel Monday night, with Edmonton coming out on the winning end of the 7-6 barrage.
Mark Messier scored three goals for the Oilers, his first three-goal game in the NHL. Gregg Sheppard had three goals for the Penguins as both goaltenders sagged.
Risto Siitonen, Brett

Callighen, Paul Coffey and Doug Hicks scored the other Edmonton goals, with Rick Kehoe, Paul Gardner and Gregg Malone scoring for the Penguins.
The 13-goal output in the only NHL game of the night came on a combined total of 57 shots and both goaltenders conceded they were not quite up to snuff.
Ed Mio, Edmonton's net-minder, said the teams played a wide-open offensive game.

"Both teams had some fantastic shots tonight," he said. "We let guys come in from 20 and 30 feet and blast away."
"There weren't that many shots, but they were good shots."
He conceded some bad luck.
"It was just one of those games where everything goes in and the shooters had their eyes out."
The Oilers goalie could take solace, however, in the fact that Edmonton came out on top.
"It's two points," he said. "I'm not going to win the Vezina. I'll take them. What's the difference?"
Greg Millen, who was beaten seven times in the Pittsburgh net, had few excuses, although he gave a lot of credit to the Edmonton snipers.
"It was just one of those nights," he said. "I wasn't too happy with my performance."
"They were putting them there and I wasn't reacting."
Millen said the game was his 17th in a row and he might have been tired.
"It was a shootout and we came up on the short end of the stick," Millen said. "I thought I was a little bit behind on some of them and they went in."

Parental Concern Took Attention Away from Navratilova's Game

By WILL GRIMSLEY
AP Special Correspondent

Parental concern is nice if you're a little girl in pigtails and ribbons but, if you're over 21 and an independent-minded multimillionaire, it can be a drag.
Martina Navratilova found it so when her parents and little sister moved in on her last year and took much of her attention away from tennis, which is her livelihood.
"I love them dearly," said the gifted Czechoslovakian defector Monday when she came to New York to promote the $300,000 Avon Championships March 25-29 in Madison Square Garden, "but they were miserable over here."
"I am not one to cry 'wolf.' I don't complain when my shoulder hurts. But it was a troublesome year for me. I had to take care of them challenge, Martina refuses to concede that her winter's success would have been different if everybody had been well and active.

"When I am healthy and able to apply myself, I can beat any or all of them," she says with finality. Most tennis critics agree — this young Czechoslovakian has all the tools for greatness.
She has been overpowering in winning at Cincinnati, Chicago, Los Angeles and Dallas. She crushed Jaeger 6-4, 6-0 in Los Angeles and Pam Shriver 6-2, 6-4 in Dallas.
Martina first came to America as a 16-year-old in 1973 and fell in love with the country. During the U.S. Championships at Forest Hills in 1975, she announced that she planned to leave her home and family in Czechoslovakia and seek asylum in the United States. Martina Americanized herself immediately. She learned English until now she speaks fluently. She went through the jeans and rock craze.

Hurricanes Clip Miners
TULSA, Okla. (AP) — Tulsa Coach Nolan Richardson says his Hurricane played its "best 35 minutes of defense of the year" in putting together an 18-point lead over Texas-El Paso.
Mike Anderson hit two pressure free throws with 12 seconds left to allow Tulsa to survive a UTEP rally, 72-67. Tulsa, 23-7, hosts South Alabama in the third round of the NIT Friday night.

Brown Lured to NBA Post

LOS ANGELES (AP) — After two winning seasons at UCLA, Larry Brown has been lured back to the National Basketball Association as coach of the New Jersey Nets.
He disclosed his decision to the Bruins at a closed-door meeting with them Monday, and although he would not confirm he was leaving, two players who asked to remain anonymous said that was what Brown told them.
They also said Larry Farmer, a Bruin assistant basketball coach for six years and a player under former coach John Wooden, would be the new UCLA head coach.
Nets General Manager Charlie Theokas confirmed late Monday night that Brown, a former coach of the Denver Nuggets, had signed to coach the team starting next season.
Theokas, in an interview with ABC Radio Sports, said: "We're really excited about Larry and about next year. We feel we have half turned around our program and with the addition of Larry Brown we feel next year-basketball in New Jersey will be exciting."
Several players were near tears as they filed out, one-by-one, from Monday's meeting in Pauley Pavilion.

Freshman center Kenny Fields, who had been dropped from the team and then reinstated by Brown, said: "We hate to see him go. Coach has a tendency to get real close to his players. Wherever he goes, I hope he keeps in touch."
Brown had been rumored to be leaving UCLA for the past month, but said he would wait until after the Bruins finished the season to make a decision. Monday's talk with the team came two days after the club lost its opening game of the NCAA tournament.
He becomes the third UCLA head basketball coach to leave in the past six years. Following the end of Wooden's 27-year reign at the school, Gene Bartow, Gary Cunningham and Brown each guided the team for two years.
This season Brown's 10th-ranked Bruins, who suffered an embarrassing 78-55 NCAA playoff loss to BYU Saturday, finished with a 20-7 record. In 1979-80, Brown coached the team to a second-place finish in the NCAA tournament and a 22-10 overall record.

NFL Playing Rules To Be Proffered

MAUI, Hawaii (AP) — Changes in National Football League playing rules will be proposed today amid continued conjecture on the suit the Oakland Raiders and Los Angeles Coliseum have brought against the league.
The Competitions Committee makes the rules report, including one to lessen the penalty for pass interference, while the owners are expected to stand fast in their determination not to let the Raiders move from Oakland.
Commissioner Pete Rozelle was asked if he expected a vote on the Oakland situation

after the ballot went 22-0 a year ago. He answered, "Not unless the Raiders ask for one."
Rozelle said the league expects the antitrust case will go to trial and eventually could reach the United States Supreme Court.
Asked if he would step down if the Raiders should win the litigation, the commissioner answered: "As long as I am enjoying being part of the league, I will want to stay. If any circumstances occur, including personal, that I don't enjoy it, I will step down."

When I insured my house, I was Mr. Mayes. When I had a claim, I was Mr. 107-91243.

Not when you deal with an Independent Insurance Agent.

When you buy insurance from an agent who works directly for one insurance company, he's probably not the person you talk to when you have a claim. Most one-company agents have nothing to do with the claims process. So if you have a claim, it's between you and the adjuster.
Your Independent Insurance Agent doesn't do business that way. He's right there ready to serve you when you have a claim... help you reach a fair settlement as quickly as possible.
And since your Independent Insurance Agent can offer you policies from several different companies, he can choose the policy that's just right for you. At the right price. Whether you need homeowners, auto, life or business insurance.

Jan Howard's Roses, Thorns

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — She lost a son in Vietnam 13 years ago. Another son, unable to cope with that, took his own life at the end of a gun after destroying himself with drugs.

She has been divorced twice and had another marriage annulled. Two of her babies died.

One of 11 children, she was a poor and occasionally abused child and died at age 12 ("I said I was 16") to get a job working all night in a bus station coffee shop. At age 13, she worked for the food she could take home.

In a business in which personal setback is common, country music singer Jan Howard, 49, has overcome more difficulties than her famous counterparts, Tammy Wynette and Loretta Lynn.

And there's more.

Two years ago, she had an unhappy parting with the Johnny Cash road show amid ugly rumors. As a result of anxiety from that, she spent five days in the hospital.

"One night I didn't know where I was," she recalls.

Her life, she says, "would be a good book but a great soap opera." She's writing an outline for a possible book, which may be titled "Roses and Thorns," or "How High the Cost."

She soon will celebrate her 10th anniversary as a regular performer on the Grand Ole Opry, the revered 55-year-old country music show. And she has been chosen honorary chairwoman of the "9,000,052 campaign" sponsored by local veterans' groups to honor Vietnam veterans and the 52 returned hostages.

"I try to concentrate on the good times," she says of her life. "When I talk about my sons, I don't concentrate on their deaths, but their lives—the goofy, happy things they did.

"I'm a positive person. I like to laugh and I love to be happy. God gave me a great sense of humor and a very strong backbone. I've been able to bounce back, although sometimes not too quickly."

There have been roses, too. Son Corky, 30, is a successful real estate broker. And there are granddaughters, ages 3 and 5.

"I had three beautiful sons and there were great times, mostly around my sons. I remember when we went to a dude ranch and when we rode Hondas on the Florida beach. I remember our big collie dog and the time my oldest son was captain of the basketball team. I don't think any mother could be closer to her sons."

Irish Eyes are Smiling Today

FORT WORTH, Texas (AP) — Sure as a shillelagh stings, Irish eyes are smiling today.

After all, St. Patrick's Day is the day the Irish remind the rest of the world that, despite its size, the Emerald Isle has given the world a lot more than just an appreciation of the color green.

Take Irish coffee, for example.

Laced with whiskey and topped with a glob of cream, it was invented either by a bartender at Dublin's airport in 1946 or by an Irish bartender in a San Francisco tavern, both of whom supposedly were looking for a cure for an Irish hangover.

At least, that's the way the two legends go, and Irish legends are not to be challenged, unless of course, you want to learn firsthand about the infamous Irish temper.

St. Patrick has even been accused of being a fictitious character, conceived from the musty memories of a boastful Irishman. But don't you believe it.

History records that he was a very real person who brought Christianity to Ireland in the 5th century, and that the reason the shamrock is worn on St. Patrick's Day is that he wore one as the symbol of the Holy Trinity.

Legend, on the other hand, would have you believe his most important contribution to the world came when he chased all the snakes, toads, frogs, and other vermin from Ireland's 27,136 square miles.

(This legend is thought to have been handed down from an Irishman who forgot to put the coffee and glob of cream in his Irish coffee).

But what have the Irish done for the rest of the world lately?

Faith and begorra, did you have to ask?

Irish potatoes, Irish lullabies, Irish sweepstakes, Irish blessings and Irish setters.

What the Irish have given the rest of the world the most of, however, are Irish descendants.

Today in particular, it will be difficult to find anyone not participating in the wearin' o' the green.

Irish names are everywhere — from the Houlihans of Hoboken to the Finnegans of Fresno. And each name has a literal meaning, which, if you know it, may help you understand the Irish a little better. For starters, the Gaelic prefix "Mac" means "son of," as does "O."

But find your name, your boss' or your bartender's in the following list of well-known Irish names and their literal meanings, and it may help you understand why the Irish always have a story to tell:

Brady — spirited.

Brody — one who came from a muddy place.

Byrnes — grandson of Bran (the raven) or of Biorn (the bear).

Cassidy — curly-haired.

Clancy — ruddy warrior.

Cochrane — confident.

Dempsey — proud.

Dillon — spoiler.

Donovan — grandson of the little brown poet.

Dora — the alien.

Doyle — grandson of the black foreigner.

Durkin — the gloomy one.

Egan — son of fire.

Fanning — little blond man.

Flanagan — little ruddy man.

Gleason — little green man.

Gary — hound dog.

Kelleher — spouse-loving.

'Berlin Tunnel 21' Depicts Rescue Try

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Richard Thomas found that filming a Berlin Wall escape movie in Berlin sometimes seemed very real.

Thomas stars in "Berlin Tunnel 21," a made-for-TV film on CBS Wednesday night about five men who attempt to rescue loved ones from East Berlin. He plays a former U.S. Army lieutenant who spearheads a plan to tunnel under the wall.

The tunnel itself was constructed in a Berlin studio, but every other scene was filmed on location in the divided German city.

"You have to be careful where you dig tunnels in Berlin," said Thomas. "I also discovered that the wall is not the actual dividing line. The wall is six feet into East Germany. A photographer and I went out one Sunday to take some publicity pictures. I was standing by the wall when the West German police suddenly appeared and ordered us away."

Thomas said he made several excursions into East Berlin, where he was readily recognized because his long-running series, "The Waltons," is shown there. He had no trouble there, but one of the producers did.

"The driver of the producer's car had been into East Berlin several times that week and the guards were suspicious," said Thomas. "They searched the car and found a script prominently labeled 'Berlin Tunnel 21.' They detained the driver for six hours."

One of his co-stars, Horst Bucholz, was filming "One, Two, Three" in Berlin in 1961 when the wall was constructed.

Ute Christensen, who plays the girl Thomas digs the tunnel to reach, was smuggled out of East Berlin under the backseat of her boyfriend's car six years ago.

"Basically, ours is a suspense film," said Thomas. "It's an escape film. But it takes as much time to develop the characters as it does to move the plot. I thought three hours was very long for a suspense film. Fortunately, it also becomes a film of human relations."

Thomas said he has no upcoming roles, an unusual situation after a very busy 1980. He started last year doing the theatrical sci-fi thriller "Battle Beyond the Stars." Then he did the TV movie "To Find My Son."

Next came an East Coast tour in the stage play "Whose Life Is It Anyway?" Then in October he went to Germany for "Berlin Tunnel 21."

Business Depends On Apocalypse Soon

DALLAS (AP) — Vesper McDonald has built her business on the premise of an apocalypse soon.

And if sales are any indication, she has lots of company. Business at Frontier Food Association, Inc., has quadrupled in the last two years as a wave of survivalism has overtaken the country.

"You can't drink oil. You can't chew gold," says Ms. McDonald, vice president of the company, which distributes dehydrated food all over the world. "Food is the best hedge against what is happening in the world today."

While she doesn't like for people to interpret her predictions as doomsaying, "people should be prepared," she said. "Not everyone can buy guns, build bomb shelters and move to the country. What we're doing is giving people a chance to have their own insurance plan at home."

Ms. McDonald says the public is growing increasingly aware of the "deteriorating world condition."

"We're shipping all our wheat to other countries and not leaving enough reserves in our own country," she said. "There is a worldwide drought, and food production is down. We're buying up our farmland and building over it at an alarming rate, to the point where there isn't going to be enough to grow our food."

"People are reading this in the papers and seeing it on the news and saying, 'We don't know what's going to happen, but we aren't going to go hungry when it does.' Frontier's food stays edible up to 25 years. The peanut butter is a powder. Bananas are dried and sliced. What is labeled as beef or chicken actually is powdered soybean protein that tastes like meat. Water is added to make the food "bloom."

Customers can buy the food by the can or the case, but Frontier encourages the sale of "one-year units" with enough nutritionally balanced food for a year. A unit for two people costs $1,099, but it's a bargain when you consider rising food prices, Ms. McDonald says.

Her customers range "from doctors and lawyers to housewives and truck drivers," she said. "We're getting a lot of church groups who think they're living in the 'end times' predicted in the Bible."

"Food is the basic ingredient that everyone needs. It's the reason people are making all those other investments."

Business gets even better during a crisis, Ms. McDonald said.

"When Russia invaded Afghanistan (in December 1979), there were a lot of people who came in to buy," she said. "After the big ice storm here (in January 1979), the same thing happened. People realized they just didn't have that much food on their shelves."

American awareness of how close mankind is to the precipice is a recent development, Ms. McDonald said.

"Americans are the last to understand the value of food. We've been spoiled in this country by being able to go to the store anytime we want," she said.

Mortgage Savings, Interest Exempt

Washington, D.C. — Senator Lloyd Bentsen has introduced legislation to exempt from federal taxes all interest and dividends from savings used for home mortgages.

"This legislation, by providing a substantial incentive to millions of Americans to save, will do more to restore the fading dream of home ownership for American families than any other proposal that has been offered to this point," Bentsen said in remarks accompanying his Home Mortgage Incentive Act of 1981.

"It will do more to create badly needed jobs in the sagging homebuilding industry and associated industries — a million jobs and more once it gets rolling — than any other proposal that has been offered to this point."

"It will help bring mortgage rates down to the 8 percent range affordable by the average American family."

"With today's soaring mortgage rates fewer than 5 percent of all U.S. families can afford an average priced $65,000 home," Bentsen said.

The Senator noted that payments on principal and interest for a 30 year mortgage on a $65,000 home would be over $275 a month higher at the current 15 percent interest rate than at an 8 percent rate.

Bentsen also said that, due in large part to high mortgage interest rates, employment in homebuilding and associated industries stands today at only 1.87 million compared with 3 million jobs in 1979. Because of the expected increase in the number of jobs that would result, the Bentsen mortgage savers bill would actually increase revenue to the U.S. Treasury by as much as $5 billion a year, according to estimates by the Congressional Budget Office.

The Bentsen bill would exempt from gross income the interest and dividends earned on savings deposits used by the deposit institution for residential mortgage lending purposes.

"According to the best estimates available some 23 million new homes must be built during this decade to maintain an equilibrium between supply and demand.

That's 2.3 million new homes a year. We got off to a sorry start in 1980, with only 1.3 million homes built in this country," Bentsen said.

"If we don't speed up that rate, and do it quickly, Americans will be increasingly bidding against each other for a dwindling housing supply, driving up prices and compounding our difficulties in the fight against inflation," Bentsen said.

"If you want to reduce interest rates on mortgages, if you want to provide an adequate supply of money for new housing at reasonable rates, if you want to reduce inflation by lowering cost of housing, if you want to see a significant increase in the number of jobs in America, this bill I am introducing is the best way to go about it," Senator Bentsen said.

Meals-on-Wheels

Compensation To Be Increased

Mrs. Johnnie Davis, coordinator and registered dietician for the Meals-on-Wheels program, will receive $1.75 per meal retroactive to Jan. 1 of this year.

The advisory board voted on the issue when they met recently.

According to Mrs. O.C. Curtsinger, director of the program, Mrs. Davis has lost money on the meals at $1.50 and has had to compensate with her own money.

The Meals-on-Wheels program consists of a group of volunteers who have delivered hot meals to elderly or disabled people in Hereford as a service with no profit involved.

"Naturally the recipients of the meals can not pay any more than they are paying now. Our monthly contributions just aren't enough to meet our needs," Mrs. Curtsinger said.

The advisory board includes Dr. Clyde Rush, president; Re. Bill Frazier, vice president; Mrs. Flosie McDougal, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. LaRue Fowler, Mrs. Lucille Guinn, Schalan Atkinson, legal advisor; Mrs. Curtsinger and Mrs. Davis.
