Wheat Weight Record Made By Homer Strohmeier; His Entire Crop Near 65 Test

Homer Strohmeier, who lives northeast of Hereford in Deaf Smith county, has broken the wheat weight record, according to information from the office of the federal grain inspector, John F. Tom, at Amarillo, who made the test on a sample sent in by the Farmers Elevator Company at Hereford. The official test was 65 pounds to the bushel.

Mr. Strohmeier had 100 acres of wheat which produced 2,530 bushels. He marketed all of it with the Farmers Elevator here, receiving an average of 65 cents a bushel. According to Parr Moran, local manager, the entire crop was just as good as the sample carried to Amarillo by J. L. Brooks, owner of the elevator, and attention been given to the weight at the beginning, it would have been possible to segregate and load out two full cars that would have carried a test equally as high. This would have been a world's record indeed, said Mr. Merriman.

Some of Mr. Strohmeier's grain was cut and marketed before the test and it weighed out full 65 on the bulk scales and the elevator men are of the opinion had a sample been sent to the grain inspector at that time he would have found the same weight. Samples will also be shown at the Deaf Smith County Fair.

A bushel of this wheat will be sent to the grain inspector by Mr. Brooks to be cleaned up. It will be forwarded to Chicago for exhibit at the International Live-stock Show in the grain division. The record was made with pure bred Blackhall seed. His average yield on the quarter section is 15.14 bushels to the acre.

One of the big wheat growers the county this year is Guy Dupp, who marketed 25,352 bushels on 1800 acres, according to figures compiled at the Farmers Elevator Company, handlers of the crop. His acre yield was 14.15 bushels, and none of it tested under Mr. Dupp's farm is northeast town.

About the best yield reported so far this season on a large amount of acreage is the turnout T. E. Baker obtained from 250 acres, 14 miles northeast of Hereford. He averaged 22 bushels; his crop totaled 5,500 bushels.

Fair Feature Amusement Is Undetermined

A meeting of the fair association was held Monday in the chamber commerce rooms at the city hall which business matters were considered. The problem of supplying amusement features during the fair was discussed but nothing decided. Advertising matter, such as window stickers and tire covers, has been ordered. The one hundred tire covers will be sold for 25 cents each those wishing them, and the stickers are free. Orders for ribbons will be placed later.

Copy for the fair catalog is almost ready to be placed in the hands of the contracting printer, the Whiteface Printing Company. It is estimated that the catalog will contain 60 pages and will be ready for distribution before August 1.

HEREFORD BREEDERS ARE COMING HERE JULY 21

Members of the Panhandle Hereford Breeders' Association will be here next Monday week, July 21, on a get-acquainted tour and inspection of what the other fellow is doing. All the fine Hereford cattle in the county will be visited, it is announced.

OUTSIDE COMMENTS ON SPECIAL ARE FAVORABLE

Many favorable comments are being received by the Brand in response to the special pictorial which issued last week. In order to estimate the value to this territory of the kind of publicity disseminated, the Brand will publish a selection of these voiced

Deposits and Resources of Banks Grow

An increase of about $90,000 in deposits over this time last year is shown in the combined official statements of the three Hereford banks, the First National, Western National and First State, which have released for publication a statement of their financial condition as of June 30, under call of the comptroller of currency and the state banking commissioner.

At the beginning of July, 1929, the deposits were slightly above $1,000,000, and now they are $1,092,000.25. The increase in resources is about the same as deposits, being $88,323.53. Capital, as applied to surplus and undivided profits, shows a gain of $18,958.73 over the past year.

Resources of the three banks are approaching the one and a half million mark with $1,474,962.70. All three banks have a capital stock of $50,000 each.

4,000 Pounds Butter In One Day's Receipts

Under the first week of cooperative agreement with the Curry County Creamery association but-terfat shipments to the Farmers Creamery here have been intermittent, due to irregular truck service, but 2,900 pounds of Cream O' Plains butter were turned out from the New Mexico receipts Saturday, stated Herman Schulz, manager.

Over 4,000 pounds of butter were the output at the Farmers Creamery from Saturday's combined receipts, which were heavier than usual from both territories concerned.

The package or container and the body of the butter processed here are up to the best standards, according to the pure foods department's score report, but the flavor is short. The flavor grade is only 34 while it should be 45 to be the highest class.

A low score in flavor is brought about by your cream receipts, Mr. Schulz said, and he has furnished this information to show the milk producers that if a better graded product is put on the market from this point they will have to do the improving by more prompt handling of their cream and better care of it.

No Autos On Dairy Swimming Ground Allowed

Some thoughtless members of the public are endangering a privilege that has been theirs for a long time, and one that would be sorely missed by every citizen here. What would picnickers, sanders and swimmers do if they found themselves excluded from what has become known as the dairy swimming hole and its immediate territory, including a lengthy stretch of deep water of the Tierra Blanca?

The owner of the property, H. H. Boardman, a most patient and genial man, thus presents this matter to the public, adding that he likes for people to come out and enjoy themselves, glad that he has the opportunity to own an outing ground where people love to assemble, but certain small conditions must be observed.

Of late the fence has been torn down and automobiles driven into the pasture. Mr. Boardman will not permit this any longer. The stream is near the road, and the walk to any part of it is short. Hereafter, cars will have to be parked on the roadside, reiterates the owner, who further emphasizes that he means business by saying: "Anyone caught with his auto within the pasture will be prosecuted vigorously as a trespasser. I will pay $25 reward for information about any person tearing down my fence and driving a car across. If this condition is respected, I welcome all to continue their pleasure trips, to fish, swim or eat their lunches."

That his opposition will thin to one man, and then the best element in Texas will elect him governor in the second primary.

385 Carloads Wheat Have Been Shipped

The movement of grain is again slow, passing the peak over the past week-end. The average for the last seven days has been 17 carloads daily. All the loading points in the county had moved out 385 cars up to Thursday morning:

Hereford	261
Summerfield	30
Dawn	81
Joel	17

Wheat was bringing around 99 cents at Wednesday closing. In many parts of the county the combine is practically over, but correspondents earlier in the week reported harvest still on at Progressive and Arney. In the Sims-Adrian district "harvest in full blast" was reported.

The building of a few barns for grain storage is noted. Most of the wheatmen are breaking up the stubble immediately following the combine.

Beneficial rains have visited most of the sections, say the correspondents, putting row crops in good shape. Around Arney, however, some bad stands are reported. Half last week did severe damage in the Progressive community.

WYCHE CORRESPONDENT TO REPORT COMMUNITY NEWS

Mrs. L. P. Perkins joins the Brand's staff this week as correspondent for the Wyche community. A club has been organized there and its activities will appear regularly in the Wyche column.

Geo. C. Major Died Friday In Hereford Home

Funeral services for George C. Major, age 77 years, were conducted by Rev. J. M. Fuller at the Methodist church Saturday morning. Burial was made in West Park cemetery.

Mr. Major, who was engaged in farming, principally truck and plant growing, was a long-time resident of this section, coming here in 1901. He was born in Chapultepec, Alabama, and came to Texas about 1870, settling in Ellis county.

Community Fair Chairmen Will Be Here Friday

Local community chairmen of the Deaf Smith County Fair association are urged by the superintendent of the women's department, Mrs. Bob Wilson, to be at the meeting Friday, July 11. Monthly sessions have been agreed upon until the date of the fair, and the July meeting comes tomorrow.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Richardson motored to Gage, Oklahoma, Tuesday of this week.

WANT ADS WORK AT NIGHT TO FIND THE LOST

Two facts have been demonstrated to the satisfaction of Alex O. Thompson, local abstractor: the honesty of people and the efficiency of the Brand Want Ads.

Last Thursday he advertised for a lost auto tire, and the following morning he was notified over the telephone that the article had been found. The finder refused to accept the reward offered.

Switch Service Provided for Grain Handling

Eight hour switching service for moving out loaded cars and spotting empties has been maintained by the Santa Fe railroad during the harvest season. This has been made possible, according to J. E. Beyer, agent, by having a local from the east lay over for a station period and the following day constitute the crew of a west-bound freight.

The construction of yard tracks has been completed and the new unloading dock is now in operation. Removed from opposite the passenger depot as a one-car unloading dock, it was rebuilt just north of McLean-Pitman elevator company to accommodate three cars at the same time.

Receivers of carlot shipments, especially automobiles and heavy farm machinery, are particularly pleased with the commodious dock which permits end unloading as well as side.

Certain Class Of Votes May Be Cast Now

Qualified voters of Deaf Smith county who will not be within their home districts on the date of the primary, July 26, have the privilege of voting by mail. Those who are absent now may get a ballot from L. H. Foster, county clerk, by writing for it. The marking of the ballot must be done in the presence of a notary public and then mailed back to the clerk for deposit in the proper voting box.

Other people who will not be at home between three and ten days before the primary may vote after July 16 by calling personally at the county clerk's office, receiving a ballot and marking it out there, just as in the regular polling place on election day.

Citizens from other states who have never voted in Texas should familiarize themselves with the mechanics of marking a ballot. Cross marks or X's beside the name preferred will have no meaning to the counters. Such a ballot will be thrown out as void. All names on the ticket with the exceptions of the persons voted for, must have a black line or lines run through them. The voter literally blacks all names he is opposed to.

School House At Ford Will Be Ready Soon

The new school building for the Ford community, 16 miles north of Hereford on 25-Mile Avenue, will be ready for occupancy about August 10, according to the contractors, Buckner, Lambert and Hicks.

The concrete foundation was completed and the laying of brick began Friday on the $8,000 structure. It will have two class rooms, a hall and a large auditorium, 30 by 60 feet. It is so planned that other units may be easily added.

It will be a fire-proof house when finished; the walls will be of red-faced brick, and the door and window frames of steel. The building will be used for church services as well as for education.

A large part of the funds to make the brick structure possible was made up by public subscription, supplementing the general school treasury.

The new school will have four acres of ground. John and G. G. Rempel have decided to the trustees a two-acre plot, and Henry Rempel added another two acres.

Ford has always been considered one of the most progressive communities in the county and its people are taking much pride in its new home for instruction in scholastic and spiritual matters.

FUNERAL FOR INFANT IS HELD HERE THIS MORNING

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oden Weems, who live west of town, which was born last night at the county hospital was unable to survive, and funeral services were held this morning at the E. B. Black funeral parlors, with Rev. J. W. Boalinghouse officiating.

Paving of Twenty More City Blocks Is Indicated by the Filing of Notice; Two Loops

The paving of the equivalent of 20 city blocks is in prospect, as indicated by the filing of a notice with the county clerk that the government body of the city of Hereford has ordered and directed that certain streets and avenues be improved.

It is stated that a portion of the cost of each such improvement is to be specially assessed as a lien upon property abutting thereon. The notice is signed by the City of Hereford, through Miss Eva Skelton, city clerk, and was filed July 3.

A paved loop is proposed from North Main Street along B street, thence east on 11th to F, and south along F to 10th street, where a tie-in is made with Lawton, already paved at the high school building. Another loop will be made as Seventh street is improved to the west from Main, giving access to paved Lee street.

The streets and avenues the designated parts to be improved are as follows:

Schley, between Third and Fourth.

Fourth, between Schley and Witherspoon.

Witherspoon, between Fourth and Third.

Miles, between Fourth and Fifth.

Seventh, between Main and Jackson, excepting part already paved at intersection with Lee; and between Jackson and 25-Mile avenue.

B street, between Main and Eleventh.

Eleventh, east between B and F to the east side of the street.

F street, between Eleventh to the south curb of Tenth.

THREE NEW RESIDENCES UNDER CONSTRUCTION

A five-room modern stucco residence is under construction in West Hereford by W. C. Hromas, who bought several lots in block 5, Womble addition, from Troy Womble.

Alvin Thompson is building a five-room stucco home, modern in every way, on the east lot next to his home place on East Fifth street. This residence will be ready for occupancy by August 1.

A four-room modern stucco residence is being built by Mrs. Ralph Rutherford on West Fourth street near the E. B. Black home.

Chas. Donald is putting up a two-car garage in West Hereford on a lot adjoining the home place.

Big Rally for Clint Small at Amarillo Friday

Amarillo, July 9.—An all-Panhandle rally for Clint Small will be held here Friday night of this week, planned as a testimonial to the candidate for governor of the support which this section is giving him.

A crowd of several thousand people is expected to be here, as the greatest political gathering in the history of this section. Speakers of state-wide prominence will address the crowd and two minute talks will be made by prominent citizens from the various Panhandle cities represented.

The rally will be held on the court house lawn, a special speaker's platform having been erected this week for the occasion. The meeting is timed to come at the close of the general gathering of farmers for the program in which Secretary Hyde and Chairman Legge appear.

Senator Small cannot be present in person, he having speaking engagements in other parts of the state, where he claims he is getting more encouragement every day.

"Prospects are brighter every day, and there isn't any question but what I will be in the run-off," he said in a message to the News-Globe editor.

BIG CROWD AT AIR FIELD FOR 4th DISPLAY

When Ovid Pinckert cranked up his airplane in preparation to turn loose a Fourth of July fireworks flourish Friday night, apparently half of Deaf Smith county had parked around the Transcontinental Air Transport field to see the patriotic display. A blazing streamer was turned loose as the plane moved across the field, and later when higher altitude had been gained a number of bombs were dropped.

Practically all business houses in Hereford observed the holiday by closing and displaying flags. Hundreds of citizens enjoyed the day with outings and motor trips to visit relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Robison of Claude, Texas, spent the latter part of last week here visiting in the home of their son, Dr. and Mrs. D. E. Robison.

Wouldn't it be nice to be rich enough to take a doctor's advice when he tells us we need a six month's vacation? And that reminds us of a Hereford woman who, when advised a diet was necessary, told the doctor that she could not start then as she had a Fourth of July dinner engagement to fill. She had to be assisted down the stairs from the doctor's office, at that.

The traffic officer says he knows women motorists who drive with a hand out each window so they can turn any way they want to.

With city churches doing away with church bells, how are we going to tell it's Sunday? The Baptist pastor at Quitaque received a half column write-up from his local newspaper last week when he mounted an old bell on the church lawn and waked up his congregation in time for Sunday school.

The Lions club is young and active and anxious to be up and doing something of service to home folks. The Santa Fe railroad is a good and noble institution but it is the creator of a fearful lot of noise. If the Lions will find a way to put rubber wheels on the trains or remove the flat ones; re-line all the brakes to take out the unearthly squeaks; install mufflers or cut-outs on the engine exhausts, and transform the raucous whistles into melodious chimes, then all the other people in Hereford will rise up and call them blessed.

That may be asking a shade too much of a young organization even though it be ambitious to a fault. However, it might ask the Santa Fe to try the soft pedal, pianissimo, a while. The law requires all trains to blow whistles for every crossing, but the engineer should feel called upon to wake the dead when coming in and leaving Hereford.

J. E. Beyer has in charge a section of a first class common carrier, but his engine crews take entirely too much delight in pulling the whistle cords. They must have got the practice early in life trying to guide a cantankerous mule down a row and have to revert to the good old days when they see a network of spur tracks in front, mistaking them for byways.

Up in Idaho one might snag his toe on a potato-hiller at most any place, but in Deaf Smith county they are rare. They are so rare that B. H. Hopkins, vocational agriculture teacher, was willing to go through fire and water to see one. While at the Green Valley Farm to view a big patch of Irish potatoes, a hiller was mentioned and B. H. just had to see it. When a flooding irrigation ditch was reached, the rest of the party proved good navigators but Hopkins, like Caesar at the Rubicon, just tumbled in and swam across.

His companions stayed at a safe distance from him for the next half hour lest he do a canine shaking stunt. The trip lasted much longer than planned as Hopkins

Continuous Wheat Contributes To Insects, Diseases, Weeds and Yield Grows Less and Less

Under a continuous cropping of wheat following wheat, many years in succession, the soil is sure to become diseased and run-down in the course of time," says H. M. Bainer, director of the Western Wheat Improvement Association. Continuing, he says, "Any kind of a 'one crop' system will lower the yield and increase the damages from insects, diseases and weeds. Thousands of wheat farmers are committing this year of poor yields and poor quality of poor yields to poor quality of soil, root-rot and other ailments, all of which are getting worse.

The only sure cure for soil diseases of this kind is rotation of crops with other crops or with summer fallow. To grow other crops in rotation with wheat or to include it with fallow, will bring a change in soil handling and crop requirements and will restore the soil to a healthy and prosperous state. One of the safest and most satisfactory ways of growing wheat is to combine it with feed crops and livestock. A system of this kind will give steady employment, bring in constant revenue and help keep up the soil fertility.

In view of the fact that the available soil nitrates control the yield as well as its protein content, rotation systems, as far as possible, should include legume. At the Kansas Experiment Station, wheat in a 16-year rotation with alfalfa and corn produced an average yield of 19.5 bushels per acre, while continuous wheat for the same period produced 14.9 bushels. In sections further west or southwest, where rainfall is limited, better results are secured by replacing legumes in the rotation with summer fallow.

"To summer fallow once in three or four years has been found most profitable. In a recent 10-year test at the Fort Hays Experiment Station continuous wheat made an average yield of 20 bushels per acre as compared to 27 bushels per acre from the first crop after summer fallow, 22.5 from the second and 23 from the third crop after the fallow."

WIDE TERRACE ADDED $5 TO VALUE OF LAND

Jefferson.—Well constructed terraces in Marion county were during recent heavy floods shown to have been worth $5 per acre in actual saving of soil and plant food, according to John H. Erickson, county agent. Farms not terraced are in many cases almost ruined, he reports, and at least 600 to 700 acres of gullies have been formed. Many narrow and poorly built terraces washed badly, but wide, well-built ones held up splendidly considering that the rain fall was the greatest on record. Mr. Erickson states:

The Brand wants rags—good clean cotton rags, with old knit underwear, stockings, linen collars, etc., absolutely barred. Good price paid.

CANYON BRINGS TEAM TO HEREFORD SUNDAY

Canyon baseball team will be here next Sunday afternoon to meet the Hereford Regulars. Comparative strength of the Randall county boys is unknown. Umberger was given another defeat Sunday on their home grounds by Hereford. The score was 9 to 5. The count was tied up to the eighth when the Steer sluggers moved into action to put the game safely away.

8 New Books Just Received For Library

The county library has just received eight new books that have an unusually high rating. There is a diversity of topics to suit every taste, and each one has been selected as contributing much to one's store of knowledge.

The title of the books, their authors and a brief explanation of the subject matter are given below: The Log of the Sun, by Beebe; a chronicle of nature's year. 'Twice Thirty, Bok; some short and simple annals of the road. Science Remaking the World, Caldwell & Slosson; interesting information about the achievements of modern science. Men and Machines, Chase; a study of the modern trend in business life. Labor Speaks for Itself on Religion, Davis; a symposium of labor leaders throughout the world. Humanity Uprooted, Hindus; an account of Russia's attempt to build a civilization on an entirely new pattern.

The Christ of Every Road, by Jones; a study in Pentecost. The author says: "The world-ground is being prepared. I am persuaded, for a spiritual awakening on a very extensive scale. I do not say this lightly; it is a growing conviction, forced upon me by the facts."

Death Valley, Lee. This story of Death Valley includes the geological history of the valley and a survey of its plant and animal life, but the bulk of the tale is about men—Indians, emigrants and miners who have known the Death Valley trails.

Highway Building Will Employ Many Workmen, Circulate Cash and Speed Up Home Business pay the price.

In an eight-year period the state of Illinois had more than 30,000 cases of smallpox, representing an estimated community loss of $3,000,000. In ten years Massachusetts had only 263 cases, representing a loss of $25,000. What made the difference? One state requires all children to be vaccinated. The other trusts to luck. Smallpox is one of the most easily caught diseases. Very often the victims do not remember having seen a person who had the disease. Many cases of smallpox are caught on trains or in crowded cars.

Vaccination is your protection against smallpox. Every child should be vaccinated before he is one year old, and again in early school days. The protection given by a successful vaccination lasts about seven years. Even if you have been vaccinated once, if it was more than seven years ago, you should always go to a doctor or clinic for re-vaccination to be sure that you are safe.

The vaccination scar is your mark of safety, let it protect you. Be vaccinated yourself and have the other members of your family vaccinated. Why endanger your health and happiness by putting off so simple a treatment?

When there is a safe, sure prevention, why take the risk of contracting smallpox, which, even if the patient should escape death, may result in eye disease causing blindness, middle ear infection, gangrene, arthritic bronchitis, heart complications and glandular involvement, not to mention the disfigurement which follows a case of smallpox?

The responsibility lies upon the parents of every unvaccinated child, whether or not smallpox will continue to take its toll of lives in the future. It is their privilege to make the decision.

Statements, Letter Heads, Envelopes, all Job Work, at The Brand.

By E. E. DUFFY

Because there is urgent need for more smooth pavements, and because pavement construction provides a considerable volume of work, communities throughout the country are discovering that accelerated highway programs are greatly relieving unemployment.

Representative of what a pavement program can do for a state is the present situation in Iowa, a state with a penchant for determining the whys and wherefores of its road expenditures. Thirty thousand workmen on Iowa roads are engaged this year in earning for themselves no less than $18,000,000. This means that more than half of the $33,000,000 Iowa is spending in 1930 on roads will go directly into the pockets of the workmen. Further, all this road money will represent backed up purchasing power that will stimulate businesses and industries not even remotely connected with highways.

Incidentally, Iowa's roads were nine-tenths mud in 1920; at the end of 1930 they will be 80 per cent surfaced through the wise use of bond issue money. Iowa is keeping her money in circulation.

Superior, Wisconsin, has, like many other cities, been engrossed in solving the unemployment problem. And Superior, similar to countless other cities, has a real need for additional smooth hard surfaced streets. Accordingly, advantage is being taken of the present bargain prices of pavement construction, with 50 blocks of concrete pavements doubtless to be installed before the year is ended. This construction program is not only providing considerable employment but the example is inducing private businesses to broaden their activities and employment.

Stimulation of construction by governmental units might seem at first glance an artificial means of bringing back natural prosperity. However, in regarding public construction on the basis of enough, well-paved highways. One need alone it becomes obvious that the requirements for public structures is not imaginary. For example, no community as yet can say that it has enough, or almost enough, well-paved highways. Consequently those communities that are doing nothing to speed up the building of needed improvements are really contributing to a continued lull in business.

Rural Schools Of Castro Are Near State Top

Dimmitt, July 8.—Castro county rural schools are fourth in the state in standardization for the biennium of 1928-30, according to a release from the department of education. Swisher county has second place, and it is noted that the first four are all in West Texas.

Telephone rates between here and Hereford have been reduced about 37 per cent, effective July 1, states T. A. Singer, local man, who owns the toll lines. The Bell system at Hereford cooperated with Mr. Singer in bringing about the reduction. The line to Hereford has been rebuilt.

Appropriation of supplementary county funds by the commissioners' court for securing a home demonstration agent will be asked by the federated clubs at the July 14 meeting. The chamber of commerce has sponsored such a move for some time.

The wheat harvest is practically over in this territory. It is estimated that only about 20 per cent of the grain has been sold by the growers.

Konjola Ended Two Years of Stomach Misery

gain This New and Different Medicine Shows Why It Has Become Famous

Strange, but absolutely true—Konjola, the new and different medicine seems at the very peak of its powers when pitted against the stubborn cases that have held on with bulldog-tenacity. Take for example, the experience of Mrs. Bertie Cowan, 614 West Second St., Ft. Worth, Texas, who says: "For two years the lightest of foods caused misery. At times I had to gasp for breath, and I belched up bits of undigested food. I took soda constantly. My kidneys gave me trouble, too. I had backache and had to rise many times at night. But Konjola ended all this, and today my back is free from pain, my nerves are steady. I sleep soundly and wake up every morning rested and refreshed."

Thus Konjola works, swiftly yet surely. It is strongly recommended however, that a complete treatment of from six to eight bottles be used if best results are to be obtained.

Konjola is sold in Hereford at the Corner Drug Store, and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.

The ration consisted of 12 pounds of ground maize heads and two lbs. cottonseed meal for the first 70 days, and during the last 25 days 8 pounds of maize heads, 8 pounds barley and 1 pound cottonseed meal. The calves weighed 400 pounds at the beginning and 700 when sold.

Two Million Dollar Lien On Gas Filed

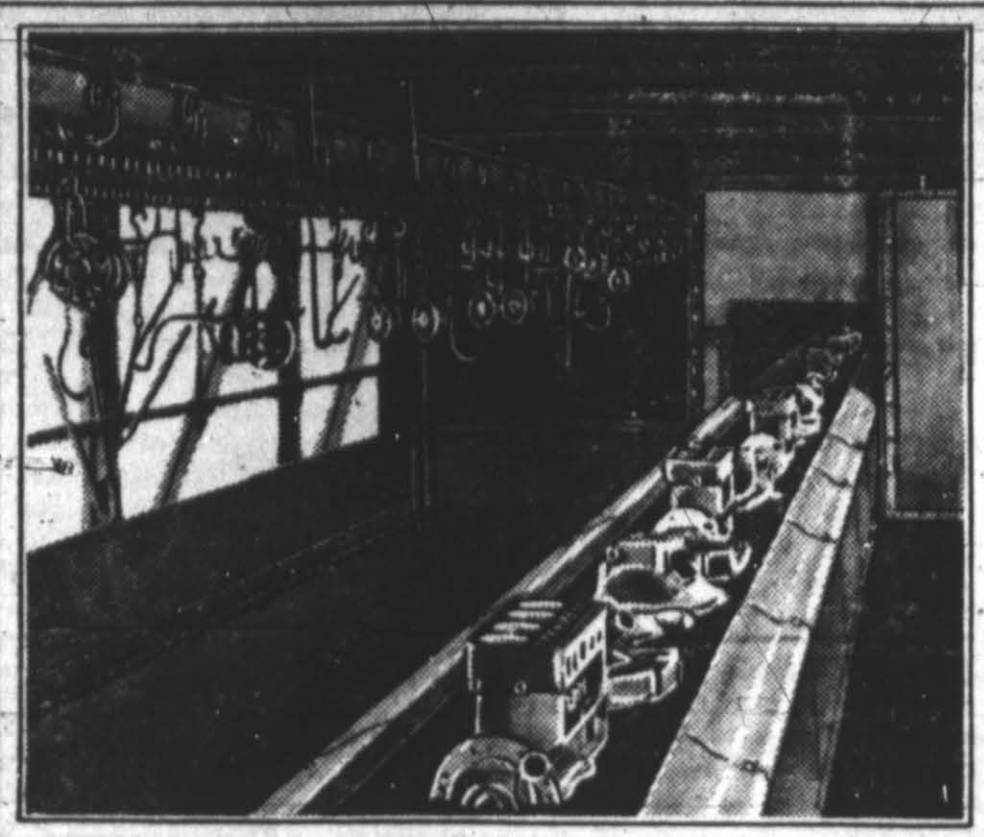

The filing clerk for the county has been dealing the past week in big figures, as evidenced by the filing of a transfer of lien by the South Plains Pipe Line Company, involving $2,000,000.

The West Texas Gas Company had borrowed $2,000,000 for extension and construction work in a score or more towns of the Panhandle. The pipe line company then bought the mortgage from the Southwestern Developing Company.

The last filing entry on the Deaf Smith county records is where the pipe line company borrowed $5,000 from the Guaranty Trust Company of New York and put up this mortgage and lien on all the property and business of the subsidiary, West Texas Gas Company, as collateral security.

Miles of Conveyors in Ford Plant

This picture shows two types of conveyors in use in the Rouge Plant of the Ford Motor Company.

AN ENDLESS chain conveyor, three and a half to four miles long, said to be the longest in the world, has just been completed at the Rouge Plant of the Ford Motor Company at Dearborn, Michigan. On it parts of Ford cars in the process of manufacture are transported from one building to another and completed parts are carried direct to railroad cars for shipment to branch assembly plants.

The conveyor, which carries its cargo on suspended hooks, has a daily capacity for 300,000 parts weighing over 2,000,000 pounds. It supplants freight cars and trucks which have been used for the transfer of many parts from one point to another in the Ford plant.

This longest conveyor of them all is a development of the Ford policy that nothing should be done by manual labor that could better be done by machine.

In the early days of his manufacturing career, Mr. Ford devised the assembly line—a moving track on which cars in the process of assembly went to the workmen instead of the workmen carrying parts to the car. The assembly line, perfected in many ways, is now used by automobile manufacturers generally.

The value of the conveyor in reducing physical labor, in saving time, in preserving system and in cutting costs soon became apparent and its use was extended to other purposes about the plant. Now there are literally miles of conveyors of various types in the Ford plant. Some of them carry parts from one building to another and are carefully synchronized so that the parts arrive at precisely the right moment and in the exact spot where they are needed. Others transport red hot ingots of steel weighing nearly a ton each. Still others move outgoing shipments.

If it were not for the conveyors, according to officials of the Ford Company, mass production would not be possible on its present scale.

Mrs. Corine Kelly of San Pedro, California, arrived Wednesday morning to visit in the home of her mother, Mrs. W. T. Smith and family. Mrs. Kelley will remain here for about two weeks.

J. H. Wagner of Amarillo was here first of the week renewing old acquaintances. He formerly lived here and he and his family contemplate returning to the Hereford country. His daughter, Mary H. Wagner, is in Amarillo attending a business college. The Wagners came from Indianapolis to Amarillo.

GAS DROPS TWO CENTS; POSTED PRICE 18 CENTS

A two cent drop in price of gasoline was noted Wednesday at local retail filling stations. The posted price, including four-cent state tax, is now 18 cents.

Mrs. Gaston Baer and little daughter, Hertha, left for Wichita, Kansas, to visit in the home of her sister, Mrs. Lewin. Later Mrs. Baer and daughter expect to visit in Colorado.

A party of Hereford businessmen and truck owners, consisting of Frank Gyles, Wes Anthony, Paul Foster and Ray Hawkins, went to Lubbock Wednesday to attend the Interstate Commerce Commission session held there all that day. The commission was presided over by Chairman Pat Neff. The object of the meeting was to adjust the truck line owners' hauling rate for this part of Texas.

Albert Ross went to Canyon Tuesday morning to meet his wife from Abilene. They motored to Amarillo before returning, where Mr. Ross transacted business.

"Brick" City

Philadelphia early became the first brick home city in the United States. It is still perhaps the most nearly 100 per cent brick city of them all. One reason for this doubtless is the excellent quality and variety of brick manufactured in that district. And Philadelphia has never had a really big fire.

JACOB, A SELFISH MAN TRANSFORMED

Gen. 25:29-34, 28:18-27, 29:18-20, 33:1-4, 18.

Golden Text—For what shall a man be profited, if he shall gain the whole world, and forfeit his life? or what shall a man give in exchange for his life?—Matt. 16:26.

Introduction.

Nowhere in all the Bible, that marvelous portrait gallery, is a picture more wonderfully painted than that of Jacob. It is manifestly honest, the work of a true historian, and the glaring faults of the great ancestor of the Jews are set forth as graphically as his splendid virtues.

VIOLA CARPENTER, (SEAL) Notary Public. Deaf Smith County, Texas.

Jacob's New Name, Israel. When Jacob started back home, after many years, he was very anxious to conciliate his brother, Esau. To do this he sent him large gifts from his flocks.

Jacob's Twin Brother, Esau. Jacob had a twin brother, Esau. As the boys grew up, their diverse characters developed. Esau, with his mother's bold and impetuous temper, became an outdoor man, a brave and skillful hunter.

Esau Sold His Birthright. "And Esau came in from the field, and he was faint." He had had a long and perhaps unsuccessful hunt, probably in the hot sun, and he was thoroughly exhausted.

Esau Despised His Birthright. He had no appreciation of his ancestral connection, nor of the promises of God, nor of the possibilities of the future, which were involved in the birthright.

Jacob's Vow at Bethel. On the long journey to Haran Jacob had plenty of opportunity to think. One night as he slept on a stony hillside, he dreamed of a ladder reaching to heaven and of Jehovah speaking to him.

This vision of God was the first step in the transformation of Jacob. The next morning he named the place Bethel, the house of God, and made a vow that he would give to God a tenth of all that he should receive.

Better the House of God. "And he called the name of that place Bethel." That is, "the house of God," meaning house, is found in Bethlehem, Bethany, Bethpage, and many other Hebrew place names.

But Jacob did not rely on his presents alone; before sending these he had appealed to God for help. On the night after, he wrestled long with God, pleading for his blessings.

MISS EMMA GUNTER, C.H.D.A.

The Westway club organized into a home demonstration club with the following officers elected and a meeting each second and fourth Friday: Mrs. G. O. Hartman, president; Mrs. P. H. Gilliland, vice president; Mrs. Joe Landers, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. J. M. Hendrix, reporter; Mrs. Bess Turrentine, parliamentarian; Mrs. J. P. Slaton, council delegate.

Women of the Wyche community organized a home demonstration club Tuesday afternoon, meeting at the home of Mrs. R. W. Elliston, with 12 ladies present. The following officers were elected: Mrs. C. C. Cook, president; Mrs. Noley Elliston, vice president; Mrs. Raymond Elliston, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Lou Perkins, reporter; Miss Anna Hoffman, parliamentarian and council delegate. Meeting each second and fourth Tuesday. After election of officers two non-acid vegetables were canned in a demonstration showing the standard utility canning method used today.

As the fair chairmen have been asked to come in Friday, July 11, at 3:00 p. m., Miss Gunter has requested presidents of each home demonstration club and elected council delegate to come in for that meeting and after this meeting the county council will be organized in the county court room.

Miss Minnie Mae Grubbs, district home demonstration agent, will meet with us.

Mrs. R. W. Elliston has a good demonstration garden showing what water and labor together can produce. Her canning was started last week with the canning of 22 quarts of English peas. She specializes in tomatoes and cabbage, two of our best friends in the diet. Last year she made up 25 gallons of kraut and sold cabbage besides. She has beside the above named, two kinds of beans, blackeyed peas, okra, carrots, corn, peanuts and squash, pumpkins and cucumbers and melons. Mrs. Elliston does her own gardening and cans in a pressure cooker the surplus. This is the type garden that we would like for every farm to have so the pantry will not be bare when fall comes.

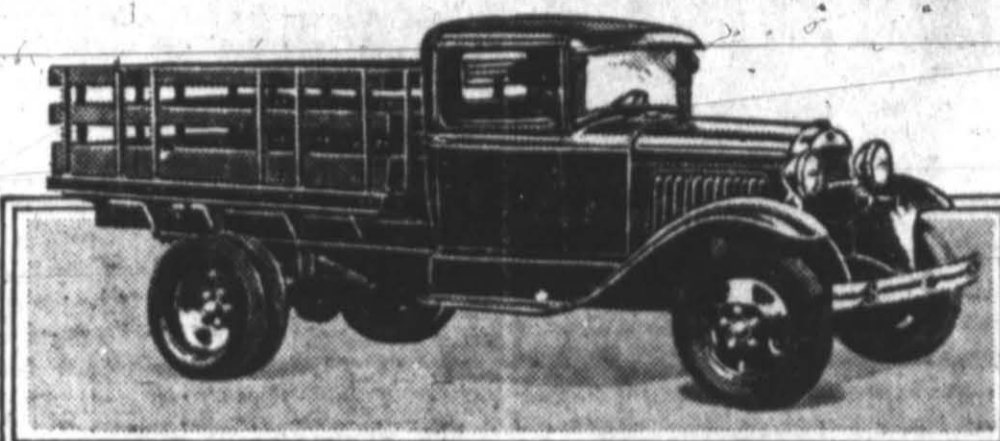

Miss Gunter has this standard recipe for canning cucumber pickles for club work: 1 cup sugar, 1 cup salt, 1 cup mustard (if desired) 1 gallon vinegar, spices if desired. Wash and dry cucumbers. Mix above ingredients. Place cucumbers in jars and pour liquid over, them, cold. Screw lid down. Be careful not to crush any of cucumbers. Put in cold water bath and bring to boiling point. As soon as this has been done, seal tight and set aside for future use in a cool place. If large quantities are used put in earthen crock and keep cucumbers weighted down under the vinegar mixture until well seasoned—two or three days will do this.

New Ford Truck With Closed Cab

NEW Ford Model AA trucks and Model A light delivery cars were announced this week by the Ford Motor Company and are on display in the show rooms of Ford dealers.

Changes in the trucks are principally in the front end, which has been completely redesigned, and in the cab. The radiator is higher with more cooling surface, fenders are wide and flowing, and a black cowl strip adds a note of distinction.

The new Model AA trucks with the four-speed transmission introduced several months ago may be had with enclosed or open cab. The enclosed cab, shown above, is all steel, it is low in appearance yet with ample head room. The open cab is of black rubber top material and is easily removed. Both cabs are equipped with windshields of Triplex shatterproof glass and vacuum type windshield wipers.

Model AA trucks may be had with a platform body, which can be equipped with stakes or a panel body. The chassis has many improvements, including the four-speed transmission, larger front brakes, stronger springs, power take-off opening and optional dual rear wheels.

The Model A line of new commercial cars comprises a light delivery truck with pick-up body, a deluxe delivery truck, a small panel truck and a station wagon. These cars have the smaller wheels and larger tires of the new Ford passenger cars.

The prize catch of the lot was one ancient marine reptile that weighed 55 pounds. Nearly all the turtles caught, said Mr. Turner, are females. When one was dissected it was found to contain 100 eggs. He is of the opinion that the Palo Duro lake is a hibernation for reptiles from all the feeder streams in this section. Apparently when winter comes they use this lake as a common gathering point.

The entire 4,000 were caught within an area of only 500 feet across. When asked how such a pile of "tough customers" was disposed of, the warden remarked that nearly all of them were edible, that he had shipped several hundred up North, others were on exhibition, and that he had had several hundred dumped into the municipal incinerator at Amarillo.

Castro County Farmer Killed By Lightning

John Huseman, farmer, three miles southeast of Nazareth, was killed by lightning Saturday afternoon about six o'clock while he was operating a binder cutting oats in his field. Shortly after six o'clock his daughter noted that the binder was not running and that one of the four horses hitched to the machine was lying down.

Dope Upset by Game Warden In Turtle Hauls

The trapping of over 4,000 fish-eating turtles from the Palo Duro club lake by Sam Turner, district game warden, is an astonishing record. Mr. Turner was in Hereford Monday, and said he had been informed that no such catch had ever been made anywhere at any time.

Though advised officially that turtles could not be successfully trapped and waters freed of the pest, Mr. Turner has worked out

Here's the surest way to get more eggs

Start this month to feed Gold Medal Egg Mash. They are guaranteed. Poultrymen who are using them say no feeds bring such wonderful results at such low costs. For example, George D. Voss of Brillion, Wis., says that since feeding Gold Medal Egg Mash, "my egg production has increased and my whole flock seems brighter. There appears to be considerable body to your mash, for although my hens eat freely, it seems to go farther than other mashes." Gold Medal Vitamin Egg Mash and Gold Medal Egg Mash (with Dried Buttermilk) increase egg production because they are scientifically made of the finest ingredients; because they contain exactly the right food elements the layers must have for high egg production; because they are so extremely palatable that the hens eat large quantities of them. Try Gold Medal Egg Mash at our risk. If any sack does not prove satisfactory in every way, return the unused portion and we will refund your full purchase price. The guarantee of the world's largest millers is back of these feeds. Order today and check results carefully.

Palo Duro Open for Free Tour Next Sunday

Canyon, July 8.—An all day tour of the Palo Duro canyons will be conducted for the public by the chamber of commerce here next Sunday, when visitors from the Panhandle may see some interesting scenes during the day without any admission charge. It will be a motorcade, visitors bringing their own cars.

Permission has been secured for entrance into the Lighthouse, Marshall and Elkins ranches, and regulations required in the national parks will be enforced. Gates to the Lighthouse canyons will open at ten o'clock. Incoming cars will be stopped at noon, and departure must be taken at one o'clock. All roads will be clearly marked, and the route must be adhered to.

Marshall and Elkins ranches will open at noon and remain open until six o'clock. The Elkins and Lighthouse are not open at any time to the public, but it is thru the efforts of the chamber of commerce that the owners have agreed to allow visitors next Sunday.

These canyons are located 14 miles southeast of Canyon. Owing to the danger of becoming lost, no one will be permitted to go down into the canyons of the Lighthouse, but the canyons in the other two ranches will be open to exploration by members of the party.

Wolf Rodeo Is Violation of Federal Laws

Attention of the public is called to the game law by Sam Turner, game warden, which makes it unlawful to transport alive or turn loose any wolf, or to be the cause of such. The violation is a felony, and punishment upon conviction is from six months to five years in the penitentiary.

The holding of Wolf Rodeos in different parts of the country is the occasion for the warning, said Mr. Turner. Whoever has contributed to catching wolves, transporting them to the scene of the rodeo and turning them loose has committed a felonious act. And it is probable that all spectators who have paid admission prices would be held liable as accessories.

Only officials in line of duty, and zoo or menagerie keepers are exempted from the restrictive provisions. The only safe thing to do when a wolf is caught, according to Mr. Turner, is to kill it immediately.
