'I Feel Better,' He Says

Pope Out of Intensive Care

ROME (AP) - Pope John Paul II sipped tea with milk for breakfast today, the first time he swallowed liquids since he was shot last week, and doctors said the pontiff had almost no fever when he woke after a tranquil night.

"I feel better than in the previous days," John Paul was quoted as saying by urologist Eugenio Alcini, one of the pontiff's doctors at Gemelli Policlinico Hospital.

"The pope has slept seven hours without the use of sedatives," Alcini told reporters. He said the pope's temperature at 8 a.m. (2 a.m. EDT) was 98.6 degrees Fahrenheit. The pope had been running a fever of around 100.4 for the past five Alcini said the pope "has resumed oral feeding" six days after a bullet ripped through his abdomen and another wounded his arm. "He had the breakfast of tea with milk," the doctor said.

The daily medical bulletin issued by the hospital also reported that the pope's temperature had largely disappeared and that he had taken his first liquids. He has been fed intravenously since the shooting. The pope celebrated his 61st birthday Monday by moving out of the intensive care ward to an 11th-floor hospital suite with a view of the dome of St. Peter's Basilica in Vatican City "From here I can see my beautiful Saint Peter's. It's certainly the nicest present that you could have given me," the Rome daily Il Tempo quoted the pontiff as saying when he arrived in his new room.

Committees Begin Work On Budget Compromises

WASHINGTON (AP) -With Congress set to approve a compromise $695.4 billion budget blueprint accommodating President Reagan's proposed deep spending and tax reductions, individual committees are beginning to translate savings outlined in the plan into actual program cuts.

The House was expected to vote today on the compromise, with approval almost certain. The Senate is due to act by Thursday.

Reagan originally called for spending $695.3 billion in 1982 with a $45 billion deficit.

week on House and Senate versions of budget blueprints that the president had embraced predicts a deficit of $37.6 billion next year.

The compromise is the initial step in the lengthy congressional budget process and generally sets guidelines for House and Senate committees to follow later in the

But included in the guidelines are binding instructions to committees to achieve a total of about $36 billion in savings in existing programs under their jurisdictions. The individual committees must decide the details of the cuts and report back these reductions in current programs to the House and Senate budget committees by June 12.

Consumer Spending Cut; Economy Slows

WASHINGTON (AP) -American consumers are finally cuiting back their spending, and the national economy is slowing down with them, a new government report indicates.

Personal consumption spending increased 0.2 percent in April, the Commerce Department reported Monday. But that plus undoubtedly would have been a minus had not inflation driven up the prices of goods.

Such spending, which makes up more than 60 percent of the gross national product, had risen 1.4 percent as recently as January. But then it leveled off at about the rate of inflation before dropping in April.

The Commerce Department was releasing revised first-quarter GNP figures today, and analysts said in advance that the revision could show even more strength than the robust 6.5 percent growth reported last month.

But they also said that the growth was concentrated in January and that the economy has slowed considerably since then. Two Commerce reports released Monday seemed to back that up, indicating that: -Personal income rose only 0.6 percent in April, the smallest increase since last June, while spending climbed 0.2 percent, the smallest rise since last May.

-Housing starts rose 4.2 percent last month, making up only a little of the 27 percent decline recorded in February. And the department's acting chief economist, William Cox, said that "the housing sector is without a doubt going to be a negative influence on the next couple of quarters" of overall economic growth.

A separate Federal Reserve Board report showed manufacturers operating at 80.3 percent of capacity in April. That 0.3 percentage point increase to the highest level in a year was considered an indication that producers are not about to shut down entirely in the face of reduced consumer Taken together, the reports appeared to show the sluggish, basically flat economy that most economists - including those in the Reagan administration - have been talking about for some time.

Personal consumption spending, one of the most important fuels the economy runs on, "seems to have come

Granger Trial Goes to Jury Today

VICTORIA, Texas (AP) - Attorneys in the retrial of Feryl John Granger, accused in the executionstyle slayings of a Sugar Land cou say they expect to present final arguments in the case today.

Granger won a new trial last year when the Texas Court of Criminal Apeals reversed his death sentence on a capital murder charge. The appear court ruled evidence was insuf to prove he accepted money to slay the couple and ordered him tried on a lesser charge of murder.

Steve and Marjorie Anderson were bound, forced to kneel and then shot, officers testified.

Mary Lou Anderson, Anderson's daughter by a previous marriage, also was sentenced to death for her part in the Jan. 3, 1978, slayings. Until the appeals court reduced her sentence to 50 years, she was the first woman on Texas' Death Row in 17 years.

Prosecutors said they would present Ms. Anderson's testimony from Granger's first trial before closing

Ms. Anderson invoked the Fifth Amendment when she was called to the stand last week, but the trial judge ruled Monday that her testimony from the capital murder trial could be read into the court record.

Crippen told reporters the space shuttle Columbia did its job well.

Houston Has $4.9

Million In Unspent Funds

HOUSTON (AP) - A councilwoman has suggested the $4.9 million in unspent federal revenue sharing funds uncovered by a research study should be used to resurface Houston heavily-traveled streets.

Councilwoman Eleanor Tinsley said Monday the research study found the city had unused funds bdating back to 1973.

Mrs. Tinsley said a study of 26 city accounts revealed $487,000 in unspent funds originally earmarked for the purchase of vehicles, more than $2 million for transit facilities, and $149,000 million for storm sewers.

Don Jones, a spokesman for the Public Works Department, said $4 million would resurface about 50 miles of the city's roads and thoroughfares.

Commissioners Plead

Innocent to Bribes

TYLER, Texas (AP) - Five men entrusted with public office in East Texas entered innocent pleas to charges they took kickbacks and trated mail fraud while they held their county positions.

Federal prosecutors said the charges arose from a road material purchasing scheme that spann three states and took a year of undercover work to unveil.

Titus County Commissioners Billy Wayne Reynolds, Bert Paar and Alvin Parrish Jr., Cass County Commissioner Talmaddge Jordan and former Titus County Commissioner Carthell Reese entered their pleas Monday before U.S. District Judge William Steger.

The judge ordered Jordan and Reynolds to trial June 8 in Marshall and said the rest will be tried in Texarkana in October.

Investigators said they found evidence of possible road materials kickback schemes in Texas, Oklahoma and Arkansas.

The Associated Press last month learned investigators had examined records in 16 northeastern Texas counties over the past year.

Third Round of Talks Planned

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP) -U.S. envoy Philip C. Habib scheduled a third round of talks in Damascus today with Syrian President Hafez Assad in his mission to calm the Arab nation's tense and dangerous standoff with Israel over Syrian missiles in Lebanon.

Even before the meeting, however, the official Syrian newspaper Al-Baath said Syria is not ready to accept what the mediator considers a suitable solution."

In Washington, there were reports Monday that President Reagan started to take a personal role in the diplomatic effort to solve the Syrian-Israeli crisis.

ABC News said the president met over the weekend with Saudi Arabian prince Turki el Faisal and discussed the use of the Saudis' discontinued subsidy to Syria as one way to persuade the Syrians to withdraw their Sovietmade anti-aircraft missiles from Lebanon.

White House spokesman David Prosperi said he had no information on the reported meeting.

Habib, the retired career diplomat Reagan sent to the Middle East as his special envoy to defuse the standoff, returned to Damascus on Monday after a weekend visit to Saudi Arabia where he reportedly sought Saudi help in solving the crisis. No details of the Rivadh meetings were made public, but Saudi officials said King Khaled exchanged private messages with Assad. Saudi Arabia also publicly pledged full support for Syria if war breaks out with Israel.

Saudi Arabia and Kuwait earlier discontinued their subsidy that had helped pay consideration of the Lebanese Syria's bills for keeping troops in Lebanon to police that nation's fragile armistice from its 1975-76 civil war between Christians and Moslems.

In Jerusalem, Israeli Prime Minister Menachem Begin told reporters Monday: "In my opinion, Saudi Arabia is not capable of playing any useful role whatsoever. It is > in the world." Israel has demanded that Syria remove the antiaircraft missiles it deployed in eastern Lebanon's Bekaa Valley on April 29, one day after Israel shot down two Syrian helicopter gunships. Syria refuses, claiming the anti-aircraft batteries are for

No More Farm Land

There is no more farm Every year there is less.

We're paving it, flooding it, mining it, blacktopping it, leeching it and building buildings on it.

In 10 years we have destroyed 30 million acres of farm land. And we are now losing ground at an accelerated rate - about 3 million acres a year.

One million of those acres are our best farm land - fertile, well-drained, easily worked, comparatively inexpensive to cultivate.

But flat land is attractive to developers also, easier to clear, pave over and build on. The farmland we have lost in the last decade is equal to an area the size of Vermont and New Hampshire and Massachusetts and Rhode Island and Connecticut and

Around the Town

At the final concert Thursday night in the high school auditorium, members applauded through three encores. The chorus, longtime popular American musical aggregation, gave a varied program that pleased those who had heard it before on recordings, but like it even better in person.

In two parts, the program displayed the Chorale's musicianship in the first half and its entertainment ability after intermission. It began with a Gregorian chant and proceeded through some of Bach's religious music and a group of delightful love songs in waltz and time by Brahms.

Music of modern times filled the second half of the concert, with solos by several choir members. The encores included more folk songs and Negro spirituals.

Red Cross Celebrates Birthday

DEAR ANN LANDERS: Ago Since this is the 100th anniversary of the American Red Cross, I hope you will rerun the column clearing the name of this splendid organization. It was wonderful of you to set the record straight. Will you do it again as a birthday gift?-From Tennessee :

DEAR TENNESSEE: The

American Red Cross deserves all the help it can get. Their rescue efforts in behalf of the Boat People in Cambodia and Thailand will never be forgotten. The same goes for their heroic presence at Three Mile Island, the assistance to the hurricane victims in Florida and the folks who lived around Mount St. Helens. The American Red Cross rushed to the scene to provide food and shelter and medical care for the victims of the brush fires in California and the floods in Texas. Their blood donor program has saved countless lives.

This highly respected organization is recognized all over the world as nonsectarian and nonpolitical, serving humanity and alleviating. misery wherever there is need.

Here's the column you asked for, with my very best wishes.-Ann Landers.

DEAR ANN: I was irritated by your kind words for the American Red Cross. As a veteran of World War II who served overseas for three years, I'd like to know that the organization you praised was no favorite of the men and women in uniform.

We had to pay the Red Cross for coffee, doughnuts, meals and overnight lodging while the Salvation Army supplied coffee, doughnuts and meals free. So please, Ann, don't be so generous with your bouquets, Toss them only to the worthy and preserve credibility.-G.I. Joe Of Long

DEAR JOE: A blizzard of letters similar to yours hit my desk after that column appeared. I wrote to the top officials of the American Red Cross for an explanation and received an eye-popping response. It was documented by a copy of a letter dated March 20, 1942, from Secretary of War Henry L. Stimson to Norman H. Davis, Chairman of the American Red Cross. Here is the inside story-and pretty it isn't. All English and Australian men in uniform had to pay for off-base food and lodging because voluntary giving (which is characteristic of the United States) is not the pattern in other countries. The Red Cross, which has the U.S. government (and to this day relies totally on voluntary contributions), was cents and a self-addressed asked to establish club envelope to Ann Landers, facilities for U.S. servicemen overseas where troops for all Allied forces would be welcome. The Salvation Army did not have this responsibility.

The British high command then made an official request that U.S. servicemen be required to pay for whatever they received, just as the British had to pay. The Red Cross was adamantly opposed to this concept and protested vehemently. They lost the fight, however, when a "request" came from Secretary Stimson. His letter was tantamount to a command.

since World War II that the Red Cross made a profit overseas. Nothing could be further from the truth. The clubs operated at a loss and represented a heavy financial burden. Moreover, the public image of the Red Cross was badly tarnished when it was forced by Stimson to go along with the British high command.

How unfair that this splendid organization has had to take the rap for a decision made by the U.S. Army. Today, 35 years later, the truth is known by only a few. -

Even if drinking is the "in" thing in your crowd, it needn't crowd you out. Learn never accepted a dime from the facts from Ann Landers' booklet, "Booze and You-For Teen-Agers Only." Send 50 P.O. Box 11995, Chicago, Illinois 60611.

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) -Indy-style auto racing may have found some of the new blood it needs in Josele Garza, the fastest of 10 rookies in the field for Sunday's Indianapolis 500.

Rangers Romp

DETROIT (AP) - The Texas Rangers were due. Manager Don Zimmer was sure of it.

No baseball team with a 289 batting average and starters the likes of Al Oliver, Micky Rivers, Bump Wills, Pat Putnam and Bobby Bell all of whom hit .290 or better - can be denied runs forever.

So Zimmer wasn't surprised when his team, which had scored only one run the entire weekend in two games against the Chicago White Sox, bounced back Monday night with a vengeance, connecting for 19 hits and a 13-5 American League victory over the Detroit Tigers.

Mike Schmidt said it was a little like playing in the World Series, but to Fernando Valenzuela, it was nothing special, just a loss.

For the first time this season - on a Monday night before a full house of 52,439 at Dodger Stadium - Valenzuela did not go nine innings. The 20-year-old Los Angeles pitcher left after seven innings with his team trailing 4-0 to the Philadelphia Phillies. He left without a chance to win, and he eventually absorbed his first loss as a major leaguer.

After winning eight straight games as a rookie a feat believed to have been accomplished only once before - Valenzuela became imperfect. The defending World Series champion Phillies wound up winning 4-0 on a first-inning home run by Schmidt, his 12th this year, and three more runs in the fourth inning. Marty Right-hander Bystrom, also a rookie, scattered five hits over seven innings for the victory.

"I was as nervous as I was in several of the World Series games last year," Schmidt said. "He (Valenzuela) is not unhittable, but he was unbeatable - until tonight."

Valenzuela, a screwball specialist, left in the seventh for a pinch hitter, having given up as many runs as he had in his previous eight starts, five of which were shutouts. His earned run average jumped to 0.91.

"I knew sooner or later I would lose a game," Valenzuela said through an inter-eter. "I'm not sad. I don't think it will affect my type of game. You win games, you Later, after further questioning, he said, simply: Tonight, I lost."

In the only two other National League games played Monday night, Montreal edged San Diego 3-2 in 10 innings and San Francisco defeated the New York Mets 3-1.

The loss ended Los Angeles' winning streak at seven games and left Valenzuela tied with Dave "Boo" Ferris for what is believed to be the most season-opening wins in a row ever for a rookie. Ferris won his first eight for the Boston Red Sox in 1945.

Valenzuela gave up just three hits before leaving, but two walks in the fourth inning hurt him. Schmidt's homer came with two out in the first, and Valenzuela . retired the next seven batters before walking Pete Rose and Schmidt to start the fourth in-

Keith Moreland bunted one pitch foul before he singled Rose home, and Valenzuela et the count go full on Gary Matthews before Matthews grounded a single through the eft side for another run. Moreland, who wound up on third after Matthews' hit, scored on a sacrifice fly by Garry Maddox.

Expos 3, Padres 2

Jerry White, a late-inning defensive replacement, drove in the winning run in the 10th inning with a sacrifice fly as Montreal won only its third game in the past 11.

Giants 3, Mets 1 Jack Clark hit two home runs, and Allen Ripley pitch-ed eight strong innings as San Francisco dealt New York its eighth straight loss.

Ripley yielded only a solo homer to Joel Youngblood in the eighth and left in favor of Greg Minton after walking Mike Jorgenson to lead off the ninth.

Darrell Evans also homered for the Giants.
