HIGH SCHOOL COMMENCEMENT

Closing Exercises Largely Attended—Twelve Seniors Receive Certificates of Graduation.

Class of 1913.

Mary Blacet	Bess Nance
Jewell Boster	Alma Norton
Lois Garrison	Cotta Sisk
Clara Lambert	George E. Webb
James Lipscomb	Nell Wilson
Earl Lust	Virginia Wyche

With a perfect day of sunshine and an all-pervading spirit present in keeping with the occasion, the first day of the High School commencement was duly observed last Sunday. Long before the hour set for the program, the court house auditorium was filled, and at 11 o'clock no more room was to be had and many were turned away. The processional march was led by Supt. Ben Short followed first by the young men of the '13 class, then the young lady members, and last the teachers. All were seated to the left of speaker's stand, the jury platform being occupied by the teachers, and the class, 12 in number, immediately in front. The young ladies of the class wore simply made white dresses. A special choir furnished the music, and the program as published was carried out. Elder Nance pronounced the invocation, after which Rev. R. H. Purser delivered the sermon.

The speaker took for a text: "Take heed unto thyself," and as a subject: "Character Building." His address was received with evident approval by the audience. The seed thoughts may be put down and kept by the members of the class to be planted in their hearts and cultivated to harvest. The preacher said in part: "Character is the elements in you that distinguish you from every one else. There are two main elements that go to make up character—Intellectuality or brain power and heart power. Some men are brainy, all brains but little else. Alexander and Napoleon are notable examples; Lincoln had both; Robert E. Lee is another man that possessed both brain power and heart power. The schools of our nation touch and train each of these two elements; the State cultivates for the most part the intellectual side of the man, while the church cultivates the other side, but not to the neglect of the first. I believe in our denominational schools. The State and the Church take hold of the two elements that make up character."

The speaker then discussed the "New Heart" as described in the Bible, giving a number of examples of the "change" that comes to human character when influenced by the "word of truth." "In building character," he said, "we must have a model just as any builder must have plans and specifications, and I point you to that matchless model found only in Jesus of Nazareth. We need purity of character among our church membership; we need the power of Christians; if we have that purity of character, we will have power with God and with men. We must grow to make the right kind of Christians; Christians are not cast like a piece of statuary and remain fixed, but are like the vegetation around us; it must have the proper conditions, the proper associates, moisture, light, heat and a fertile soil; so must professed Christians. We grow only by conforming to the laws of growth. Lee and Jackson were men of strong Christian characters, because they placed themselves in harmony with the conditions of growth."

The speaker then changed the figure while addressing the class directly and personally and told them that they were as clay in the hands of the potter. "Don't hinder the potter," he said, "let his work go on and your characters will be shaped into a lovely and beautiful vessel. The world wants men and women, the world needs only men and women of character." In concluding, Mr. Purser congratulated the class upon their success and told them that this success should be only a beginning and not the end of their efforts. The doxology was sung and the audience dismissed.

THE CLASS PLAY.

Though the weather was somewhat threatening, the High School class play drew a full house Monday night. The exercises were given in the High School Auditorium. The play, "Just Like Percy," was a laugh producing farce from beginning to end and many situations were handled successfully by the amateur players. The specialties were well received by the audience. Each year that the class play is put on, we think the last the best, but truthfully, it is said, that this one excelled in presentation all others. The door receipts were entirely satisfactory.

GRADUATION EXERCISES.

With another ideal evening, the graduation exercises of the High School at the district court room Tuesday night, was attended by as many as could be well seated in the large auditorium. The decorations were simple. Over the speakers' stand the letters, H. H. S., in the colors of the '13 class, black and gold, were suspended. A few pot plants completed the arrangements.

At 8:45, the class, unattended, marched in and took their places in seats reserved for them. Their fathers and mothers were also seated within the rail. The trustees occupied the jury chairs behind the class. The 1913 Class, twelve in number, three boys and nine girls were the center of attention. The young men wore neat business suits; the young ladies wore home-made or self-made white dresses, simple in design, but elegant in style and taste. None of the dresses, not including any of the accessories, cost more than $3.65, while the one that was given the prize cost just one dollar and twenty five cents. The prize of $5.00 in gold was for neatness fit and cost, and the successful winner was Miss Bess Nance. When Supt. Short announced the low average cost of the dresses and then the winner, a hearty applause was given. Each of the members wore a small button-hole bouquet, but the usual elaborate and expensive basket bouquets were conspicuous for their very absence.

Only three of the class appeared on the program and instead of reading their papers, as a long custom would have warranted, the young ladies as well as the young man, spoke without the use of manuscripts. The long, beribboned essay was not with the class of '13. The first honor pupil, Miss Mary Blacet, had for her subject: "Science as the Builder of the Panama Canal." The second honor pupil was Miss Nell Wilson. She, however, did not appear on the program. Miss Cotta Sisk, whose record was close to that of Miss Wilson for second honors, spoke her paper and had for a subject; "Architecture Showing the Character of Nations." Earl Lust represented the young men of the class in a fine address upon the subject of compulsory school attendance.

It is to be mentioned that in the distribution of the honors, the Superintendent explained that the final results were obtained by an average of the entire four years' work of each member of the class.

In addition to the speeches by the members of the class and the commencement address, a program of music was enjoyed. Miss Clara Lambert gave a piano number. Mrs. Mountz, a member of the class of 1912, by request sang "Crossing the Bar;" Mrs. Stephens gave a beautiful vocal solo.

Supt. Ben Short delivered the certificates of graduation, making to each member of the class a short congratulatory and advisory talk.

The principal address of the evening was that by Hon. W. R. Hall, Associate Member of the Court of Civil Appeals at Amarillo. He congratulated the class upon this eventful day in their lives and complimented the town upon its commendable pride in maintaining a good school. He then launched into his subject, dealing largely with the kind of boys and girls the world wanted and the kind it did not want.

He gave the idle boy and the cigarette fiend no chance for escape; he plied his witty sarcasm to the extreme fashions of the girls and women and deplored the fact that American women allowed a few Parisian sycophants to dictate the styles of dresses and hats. He held up as an example the industrious boy who went to work the next day after his graduation to carve out his own fortune and who did not wait for his old daddy to die to leave him his wealth which he would not be able to keep very long. Mr. Hall's address was full of witticisms, but at times he would carry his audience to applause with flights of his oratorical efforts. He gave the woman suffrage movement several severe raps and said that he feared the "coming man" would be a woman and that as for himself he did not care to go home at night and be compelled to kiss a county judge or to sleep with a constable. His speech was a little out of the ordinary of commencement addresses, in as much as he did not adhere to sober reflections altogether, taking an occasional dip into the lighter current thoughts. As a whole his address was enjoyed by every one present.

Thus closed another successful year for the Hereford public school. The trustees are planning to increase the efficiency of the school from time to time and steps are now under way to add something for next year.

In Country Home.

Thursday evening, May 22nd, Mr. and Mrs. Karl Shirley were at home in honor of Miss Harriette Shirley. The old fashioned games of "Dropping the Handkerchief," "Splitting the Tape" and "Blowing Soap Bubbles" were enjoyed on the lawn. Dainty refreshments of ice cream and cake were served and frank appreciation was shown of such charming hospitality.

Billion Dollars Waisted Annually.

Prof. H. M. Cottrell, agricultural commissioner of the Rock Island lines, points out where the farmers of this country waste nearly $1,000,000,000 a year in their corn crop. In the East most farmers dry their cornstalks for winter forage, (the leaves alone being eaten by the animals), but in the corn belt even this is not done, the whole being allowed to go to waste. Less than 10 per cent of the cornstalks in the country are saved. Prof. Cottrell shows that when put into silos the feed value of cornstalks is equal to 60 per cent of the corn itself; and as the farm value of the corn crop averages $1,500,000,000.00, the feed value of the stalks is $1,000,000,000.00 nearly all of which is wasted.

Should the farmers silo the stalks and market them in the form of beef and mutton, the net results would be even much greater than Prof. Cottrell's estimate. Meat prices are ever rising, and the census shows less beef and mutton animals per capita than were in the country at the previous census. Such a large addition to the meat output as this extra feed would warrant would be of incalculable benefit to the whole population. The farmer, too, would not only be receiving approximately an extra billion dollars a year, but the fertilizing value to the land of this extra live stock would be worth at least half as much as the feed, resulting in increased crops and increased returns to the farmers. Then, too, the country would suffer less effects of the farmers rushing their live stock (even to the breeding stock) to market when drought dries up the pastures, because in this silage they would have a supply of green forage, both winter and summer.

The Alfalfa Lumber Company is delivering to F. H. Oberthier's farm this week his first 170-Ton Common Sense Silo. We will be pleased to show this while under construction or after completion to any one interested.

Mr. Carter is the proprietor of the Emma Hardware Company already and this gives him the largest stock of hardware on the South Plains. The consideration in this deal is approximately $11,000.—Crosbyton Review.

May Festival.

Final arrangements are being made for the May Festival in Mothers' Park tonight and those who attend are promised the happiest time of their lives.

FOURTH WEEK DISTRICT COURT

Large Amount of Business Transacted—Grand Jury Returns Five Indictments for Felonies, One for Misdemeanor.

The Civil Non-Jury Docket has been receiving attention in the District Court this week and several cases have been disposed of on that docket. One more jury case is set for trial at this term, it being the case of Frank Yance vs H. Trow. It will be called up for disposition Friday morning of this week.

The Grand Jury returned six indictments into court last Friday, May 23rd, five of which were for felonies and one for a misdemeanor, after which they adjourned to reconvene Friday, May 30. The following cases have been disposed of this week:

First National Bank of Hereford vs E. Van Metre et als—Suit on notes and foreclosure. Judgment by default for plaintiff.

First National Bank of Amarillo vs E. Van Metre et als—Suit on notes and foreclosure. Dismissed at cost of plaintiff.

D. N. Arnett et al vs P & N T Ry Co. et al—Damages to shipment of cattle. Dismissed at plaintiffs' cost.

Wyeth Hardware Mfg. Co. vs Hopping-Robinson Mfg. Co.—Suit on notes. Judgment for plaintiff.

(This case was transferred from Farmer county here.)

B. T. Bell, Jr. vs H. Trow—Trial by jury and verdict returned Monday afternoon in favor of plaintiff for $647.00.

First State Bank & Trust Co. of Hereford, and Western National Bank of Hereford vs Geo. W. Irwin, Jr., S. S. Evans, First National Bank of Amarillo, L. Gough, Mrs. Joe Collins, Herman Sies and The Axtell Co.—Suit on notes and foreclosure. Adjusted. (This suit involves the property known as Sulphur Park near Hereford).

Up to Thursday, May 29, forty cases have been disposed of, seven of which were jury cases. This is unusually good work for twenty-one days when it is taken into consideration that there have been five jury trials all of which were stubbornly contested. One jury case occupied the attention of the court for about two days which is not counted in the above summary at all as it was continued for the term after considerable evidence had been introduced.

Among the out-of-town attorneys in attendance on court this week are Messrs. Harry Mason and Shirley Cooke of Vernon, C. B. Reeder and W. H. Kimbrough of Amarillo and S. G. Bratton of Farwell.

"Yes, I've cut out the slang stuff," Nell was telling her latest "gentleman friend."

In Juvenile Court.

Judge Wright held the first juvenile court for this county under the new law last Saturday afternoon. The case was that of the State vs Mrs. Highsmith, the charge being the neglect of her three children and a civil action to determine whether the guardianship of the children should not be given to some other person. The case attracted interesting attention, the county court room being filled with both women and men, who had either come as witnesses, jurors or spectators. The result of the trial was that the mother, Mrs. Highsmith, should keep her children.

This case has brought on a lot of comment by the people of the town. When first attention was called to the fact that charges of neglect had been made against this woman, a number of other good women found themselves busy providing for the welfare of the children and their mother, and when they appeared in court, well dressed and of neat appearance, to be tried by the rougher side of the house, there was no little stir. The testimony showed that this mother had been battling alone with the problem of life, that she had done the best she could under the adverse circumstances, that sickness and need had been hard with her. At the close of the trial, County Judge Wright gave a splendid talk on the situation and the case, the result of which is that the woman will be given plenty of work to provide for her necessities. He advised the good women present "To help her so that she may help herself."

The hospitable home of Dr. and Mrs. W. A. Price on Twenty-five Mile Ave., was opened last Friday evening, May 23, when an invitation brought the teachers of the public school and a number of friends to enjoy an hour socially. Mrs. Price was assisted by Miss Anna Price in the receiving and entertaining. After the arrival of the guests, the ever popular game of Forty-two was played, being interspersed with pleasant conversation on the topics of the day. Miss Zollie Garrison at the piano gave a number of selections. Home made candy was placed at each table during the progress of the games, at the close of which cherry sherbet and white cake were daintily served. All of the teachers could not be present on account of the press of school closing. The number present were: Supt. and Mrs. Ben Short, Prin. and Mrs. D. A. Shirley, Misses Schott, Williams, Montgomery, Brown, Clara Edwards, Francis Dameron. Others who enjoyed this hour were: Misses Black, Betts, Henson, Hattie Edwards, Zollie Garrison, Bertha Dameron.

HOW AN INDIANA GIRL

Got Strong and Well Again at Small Cost.

Miss Alta Abel, of West Baden, Ind., says: "I was a complete wreck, always tired, wornout and nervous. I had to spend about one-third of my time in bed and my life was not worth living. Vinol, your delicious cod liver and iron tonic, was recommended, and it has done me more good than all the medicine I ever took in my life. That nervous and tired feeling is all gone. I have gained in health, flesh and strength, until I feel like another person."

Vinol is the most efficient strength-creator for such women. It is the medicinal elements of the cods' livers contained in Vinol, aided by the blood-making and strengthening properties of tonic iron, which makes it so far superior to all other tonics to build up health and strength for weak, tired, ailing women. It contains no oil and has a delicious taste.

We give back your money if Vinol does not do all that we claim. The Corner Drug Store, Stocking & McLean, Props., Hereford, Tex. (Adv.)

BIBLE STUDY ON LESSONS LEARNED BY JOSEPH'S BRETHREN.

Genesis 44—June 1.

"Confess therefore your sins one to another, and pray one for another, that ye may be healed."—James 5:16. R. V.

TODAY'S lesson shows that Joseph's experiences, mixed with faith, worked out for him a grand character, wholly obedient to God. But by a different process, Joseph's brethren were exercised by remorse, and became more sympathetic, more brotherly-kind, more loyal to their father Jacob. Life's experiences are intended, under Divine supervision, to be corrective and helpful. Confidence in God, however, is necessary as a basis for any such blessing.

After the feast in which Joseph had given Benjamin five portions, the brethren departed for home, well pleased with their experiences. Joseph, however, desired to test their sympathy for their father and their loving interest in Benjamin. Therefore he caused his silver cup to be placed in Benjamin's sack of wheat. After the brethren had gotten fairly started homeward, Joseph sent servants to demand his cup.

"The cup was found in Benjamin's sack."

The brethren protested their innocence, and declared that if the cup were found in their possession, they would willingly become slaves. The search was made, and the cup found. In great distress the company wended its way back to the palace.

Again Joseph was austere and reproved them, that they might have opportunity to abandon Benjamin. Protesting innocence, they declared their willingness to become Joseph's slaves. But he answered that only the guilty one—Benjamin—should become his slave, and that the rest should return home, and continue to enjoy the favors of Egypt. This proposition he knew would test them. Had they the same heartlessness that they had exhibited when they sold him into slavery?

Then Judah, who had pledged himself that Benjamin should return in safety, made an eloquent appeal, and entreated that he be accepted as a slave in Benjamin's stead. He ended with the question, "How shall I go up to my father, and the lad be not with me? lest I see the evil that shall befall my father."

The evidence of a change of heart was satisfactory to Joseph, and is to us all. Those who love righteousness rejoice in righteousness, as those who love sin rejoice in it. When we perceive so marked a change in those men, we rejoice, not only for their sakes, but also at the general lesson furnished. The conviction is borne in upon us that much of the sin, the meanness, the cruelty of today may be attributed to inherited weaknesses and immature experience. We say, "How great a change would probably be effected by a broader, deeper knowledge of ourselves and others!"

And do not life's daily experiences tend to give us the broadening of sympathies, and thus character-development? Doubtless there are exceptions to every rule, but it is our conviction that a sufficiency of the likeness of God remains in every member of our race to permit him at times to appreciate the good, the noble, the pure. It is because he is surrounded by sin and selfishness that these godlike sentiments are so rarely brought into exercise.

When Will Men Profit?

Some will say, "Admitting that life's trials teach men the sinfulness of sin and the wisdom of righteousness, where would be the profit of such instruction if only the saintly, who walk in Jesus' footsteps under a covenant of self-sacrifice, are to share in the Kingdom? How will the remainder of the race profit by their experiences, if death ends all hope?"

The answer is that we have made a mistake respecting the teachings of the Bible. The Scriptures nowhere say that all hope of salvation ends when we fall asleep in death. So far as the Church is concerned, it is true that death ends their probation. But this is not true concerning the world. The Church alone is now on trial. The world's trial time will be in the next Age.

Christ's Reign will be the great thousand-year Day, in which will be determined the worthiness or unworthiness of everlasting life of all humanity. Those found worthy will eventually be perfected, and granted the Divine blessing of everlasting life. All then found unworthy will be condemned as unfit for life, sentenced to the Second Death.

The experiences of the present life, good or bad, will have their bearing upon the future trial, but will not decide the case for any one. Because of misuse of present opportunities and knowledge, some will enter upon the future life disadvantaged proportionately. These disadvantages will be their stripes, their chastisement, for present failures. Others, rightly exercised by the trials and difficulties of life, will be made more just, more loving, as were Joseph's brethren. Thus they will be the better prepared for a good entrance into the Messianic Kingdom, now, we believe, near at hand.

Lecture at the Methodist Church.

Hon. F. P. Works, a prominent attorney of Amarillo, Lay Leader of the Northwest Texas Conference, made an address last Sunday night at the local Methodist church, taking for his subject: "Business Man's Benefit from Church Work." Mr. Works is a fine talker and he kept his audience which filled the house in full interest to the end of his remarks. His point was that if a man carried his religion into his office that he would make a better success and would be able to enjoy his prosperity to a much greater degree. He counted that a good moral character was an asset in business as well as in the church. His address was practical and much enjoyed by all present.

TRADES DAY.

Hereford needs several things, but one of the first things that it really needs is a Trades Day. You can name it what you please. "Down in sticks," they call the day First-Monday and in some other places, the First Saturday, just because the people have formed the good habit of coming together at least one time during each month to trade among themselves and to make purchases of their necessary supplies. But the best reason why the people of any community should meet often is a social one. The acquaintance of neighbors, the friendly spirit formed, the hospitality extended is worth more than the mere fact of swapping horses and buying something at the stores.

To this end, the Chamber of Commerce in connection with the merchants have decided to name the Second Monday of each month as the Trades Day. The first time this day will be observed will be June 9, that day being the Second Monday of the month. Everybody who hears of the Hereford Trades Day is invited to come. Bring your entire family, and invite your neighbors to come along with you. Some form of entertainment will be furnished, the hotels and restaurants will have a special dinner on that day and they will charge a reasonable price for the meal. If you do not care to patronize the plate houses, bring your own baskets and spread dinner with your neighbors. Read the big advertisement of last page of this issue.

Mass Meeting Called.

The Board of Trustees of the Hereford Independent School District has called a mass meeting of citizens for Tuesday, June 10, at which time some questions of importance to the public schools will be discussed. Some of the things that will be considered will be the question of adding a mechanical and a domestic science department, to make some changes in the course of study, perhaps to add Spanish. Another thing that should be discussed is the question of more room for the school. It is only a question of a short time when the present buildings will not accommodate the pupils now attending, and the purchase of grounds at this time is paramount. Let every one who is interested in the success of the Hereford school attend this meeting and if they have anything to call up for discussion, this would be an opportune time to present the matter.

"Best" Paint

The map shows the United States divided into the four climatic

A Fair Warning

One That Should be Heeded by Hereford Residents.

Frequently the first sign of kidney trouble is a slight ache or pain in the loins. Neglect of this warning makes the way easy for more serious troubles—dropsy, gravel, Bright's disease. 'Tis well to pay attention to the first sign. Weak kidneys generally grow weaker and delay is often dangerous. Residents of this locality place reliance in Doan's Kidney Pills. This tested remedy has been used in kidney trouble over 50 years—is recommended all over the civilized world. Read the following.

J. D. Bailey, carpenter, Canyon, Tex., says: "I had pains across my back and sides. Seeing Doan's Kidney Pills so highly recommended by people whom I knew, I got a box and used them as directed. They did me so much good that I didn't need any more."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Thanks to the People in and Out of Hereford.

We want to tender our thanks and gratitude to the people in and out of Hereford for their kindness in supplying us with things that were needed while I was afflicted with the typhoid fever. They have shown their kindness in many ways, some by furnishing buttermilk, others by supplying us with nice, young chickens, still others with grape juice, and yet others with chewing gum, and one big hearted man furnished us with all the cold water we could use in the form of ice. The water was mighty cold, but the man has a warm heart. While some brought in beautiful bouquets of flowers, which are always so highly appreciated in the sick room. Then there is the Baptist Ladies' Aid Society showed their generosity by furnishing a woman to help do the work. The women's hearts are always in the right place and they always know how to do just the right things. And there is our good pastor, who has visited us most every day and gave us words of encouragement. Our faithful and skilled physician, who has rendered such valuable service in diagnosing the case. Still there is the big Christian hearted men, who are good citizens with neighborly blood coursing their veins, that watched over me in the dead hours of midnight, and administered unto me the things that were needful. Now all of these are spots of oasis in my life. "When I was sick, ye visited me." May God's blessings rest upon all of these that have had a part in this work. Now I am convalescent and hope to be up and out at my work in a few days and masticate many a yellow legged chicken during the summer.

G. T. Bailey.

Eyes Sunken With Pain.

Three years ago I had a very bad spell of neuralgia which caused my eyes to become sunken and bloodshot with pain. This wonderful medicine is sold by all druggists everywhere. 14-4t

C. O. Lee and family are now occupying the Beach property recently owned and sold by C. H. Wright. Mr. Lee says that he is a full fledged farmer, and as Mr. Wright has done all of the spring work, Mr. Lee will certainly have an easy time "farming it."

C. H. Wright and family left Sunday for their new location at Golden City, Mo. Mr. Wright was not very well pleased with this country until after he had traded out and was ready to move; he then "wished he hadn't." He owned one of the finest farms and best improved places at Hereford, it being adjoining the town on the south side. He and his esteemed family will be missed by the people of Hereford, but the Brand wishes for them all happiness and contentment in their new home.

Couldn't Walk!

"I used to be troubled with a weakness peculiar to women," writes Mrs. Anna Jones, of Kenny, Ill. "For nearly a year, I could not walk, without holding my sides. I tried several different doctors, but I grew worse. Finally, our druggist advised Cardui for my complaint. I was so thin, my weight was 115. Now, I weigh 163, and I am never sick. I ride horseback as good as ever. I am in fine health at 52 years."

TAKE CARDUI The Woman's Tonic

We have thousands of such letters, and more are arriving daily. Such earnest testimony from those who have tried it, surely proves the great value of this vegetable, tonic medicine, for women.

Cardui relieves women's sufferings, and builds weak women up to health and strength. If you are a woman, give it a trial. It should help you, for it has helped a million others. It is made from pure, harmless, herb ingredients, which act promptly and surely on the womanly organs. It is a good tonic. Try it! Your druggist sells it.

WHETHER YOU USE CALOMEL OR NOT

You Will Realize How Much Better for You This Safe Vegetable Remedy Will Be.

The liver is such a delicate organ that most people have learned from experience the danger of flogging it into action with the dangerous drug—calomel. Betts-Clark drug store sells and recommends Dodson's Liver Tone, a pleasant-tasting, harmless vegetable liquid that encourages the liver, relieves constipation and biliousness without restriction of habit or diet.

There are no bad after-effects from taking Dodson's Liver Tone. It does just what it is intended to do and no more. Dodson's Liver Tone cannot harm either children or grown-ups and is an excellent preventive of chronic liver troubles.

Betts-Clark drug store sells Dodson's Liver Tone for 50 cents per bottle and every bottle sold is guaranteed to give satisfaction, and you get your money back without a question if it fails you. Some remedies are sold in imitation of Dodson's Liver Tone—look out for them. Remember the guarantee.

Not Fit For Ladies.

Public sentiment should be against it, and we believe it is, there can be no reason why ladies should have to suffer with headaches and neuralgia, especially when Hunt's Lightning Oil gives such prompt relief. It is simply a question of getting the ladies to try it. All druggists sell Hunt's Lightning Oil in 25c and 50c bottles. 14-4t

Will Build Silos.

At least five silos will be built in Deaf Smith county this summer, two of which were mentioned last week. Now comes, as a lawyer would write, F. H. Oberthier and S. B. Edwards, both large land holders and agriculturists in this section, and announce that they have let contracts, the first for a 170-ton and the last for two 170-ton. All three are to be built of wood, 2 by 4s, and lined with water proofing. After a careful study of a number of different silos, wood, steel, concrete and tile, they selected the common wood silo.
