DRILLS WELL IN THREE DAYS

McDonald Company Sinks Irrigation Well In Record Time—Brings in Big Gusher Near Town.

In record breaking time, the McDonald Company has completed another big irrigation well on a tract of land in South Hereford. After the drilling machinery was set and everything ready to "go," the well was drilled and a test run made in just three days, the entire time for all the work requiring but eight days. The depth of the well is 160 feet, water was found at only 54 feet; the hole is 20 inches in which was placed an 18 inch casing. At the proper depth in the water to take care of the draw-down, a three stage, 16 inch pump was placed. The power used will be a 30 H-P oil engine and the well afforded 900 gallons per minute during the test run.

This well is on the south of section 110 and in what is known as the Ricketts addition, the distance from the depot to the well being only about 8,000 feet, the nearest well to the center of population. While the well is on a 40-acre tract, the property of the McDonald Company, there is sufficient water for 100 acres and more, if rightly used.

J. R. Webster, who had charge of one of the McDonald farms last year, will be in charge of this 40-acre tract, and if what he did last year is any guarantee as to results, we shall see something worth while during the harvest time on this farm this year. Mr. Webster thinks so much of the water that, even during the test run, he did not waste a gallon, but arranged to irrigate the orchard at the house, which he did properly. This well will demonstrate what can be done with a smaller outfit, installed at much less cost than the big gushers on other farms in this section. We are "banking" in you, Mr. Webster, and if you do not keep the reputation of the Websters up to its former good standard, your friends will be sorely disappointed.

Thoroughbred Buff Orpingtons.

I breed the Buff Orpingtons because I consider them the best all purpose bird for eggs, table or the show room. My strain is line bred from best Eastern Farms and are splendid layers and show true type and color. I will be pleased to send my Mating List telling how I started 3 years ago with 2 small pens. The secret of my success, tho' is, my first stock was good. I will make liberal reduction on List prices for eggs for balance of season to Brand readers to introduce stock. Miss M. E. Save Your Fruit.
Careful examination by H. P. Holt, fruit expert formerly of Grand Junction, Colo., brings out the fact that Hereford orchards are well filled with fruit buds and a fine crop of peaches, plums, pears, apples, etc., are in sight if a little precaution is made to save the fruit from frost and damaging insects. Mr. Holt advises a generous spraying at once using the lime-sulphur emulsion. For peaches, plums, cherries, the spraying must be done before the blooms open. For apples after the bloom is open and after it drops. He warns us not to spray peaches, plums and cherries after blooming. He further advocates smudging from about the 25th of April to the 10th of May or whenever the thermometer approaches the frost line—from 28 to 30 degrees. Mr. Holt says an acre of fruit trees is worth from $2,000 to $5,000 when properly planted and cared for, but it further says it is a waste of time and money to grow trees and then allow freezes and frost to kill the fruit buds. "Orchard heating," he says, "is just as practical as cold storage of fruit after it is raised. Why let to one hundred dollars worth of fruit get killed, when for a few cents per tree the entire crop can be saved." As a result of Mr. Holt's visit here a number of Hereford orchard owners have ordered heaters and will smudge this season. They will arrange for some to raise the alarm when the thermometer lowers to the frost line and then the heaters will be lighted. Already some 1,500 heaters have been ordered. Among those who will smudge are: J. T. Jowell, W. B. Dameron, W. H. Ray, A. J. Lipscomb, J. W. Barnett, A. C. Elliott, O. E. Thomas.

Juniors Entertain Seniors.

Last Friday evening at the High School auditorium the members of the Junior class entertained in a pleasant way the Seniors. The hall was decorated with pennants and the class colors—white and gold. The reception committee: Misses Louise Oberthier and Mary Bourne, Messrs. John Caylor and Walter Johnson, proved themselves equal to the demands of the occasion. Games of "forty-two," checkers and dominoes kept all busy for awhile, when every one present engaged in singing songs appropriate. At the close of the evening refreshments of bisque cream and angel food cake were served. The faculty of the school and all members of both classes were present. A pleasant time is reported.

DID JESUS WRITE A LETTER?

Fake "Christ Letter" Again Going Rounds of Newspapers—Superstition Still Rules.

In this good year of 'Our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and thirteen, superstition rules and holds sway over the minds of many subjects with greater power than potentate or monarch. This charge is made because of the often requests to publish a certain letter supposed to have been written by Jesus just after his resurrection. It appears that every paper in Texas and even in the United States has had many such requests, for we often see this fake letter. It is again bobbing up. We say "superstition," because we believe that many any persons of religious trend of mind reading the letter, it creates a fear which cannot be dismissed from their mind. Those so effected are prone to insomnia, the waking hours being spent thinking over how they may get the letter published. Some people think it will cost something and hesitate; others do not think at all and imagine it does not cost anything to put a long piece in the paper; hence some offer to pay for having this letter printed and others do not. Some hesitate to ask a newspaper to print the letter because they dislike to acknowledge their superstition. Not one person in a thousand will acknowledge such a relic of the dark ages and graveyards of past religious fanaticism. The Brand has published this letter twice and recently we have had another request from a most intelligent woman to print it again. This good woman had carried the letter around with her for some time and its contents had so troubled her that she, too, at last, made the request for the publication of the supposed Christ letter. We cannot at this time give space to the entire letter, but only such parts as we may select.

To begin with, the writer thinks that this missive is the cunning composition of some newspaper reporter, who had run short on news and wanted something to "fill up space" in his paper. As a letter written by the hand of Jesus, we believe that it is the poorest sort of a fake, as the letter itself offers no evidences of genuineness or authenticity. To all thinking people, we offer the following as our reasons for the position taken:

In the first place, there was no occasion for such a letter, as Christ told his apostles in John 14:25-26—"These things, (Jesus' consolatory discourse to his apostles), have I spoken unto you, but the Comforter, the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you." And on the day of Pentecost this promise was fulfilled, Peter being the first to proclaim the wonderful gospel of salvation, he being endued with power from heaven, and having obeyed the command of Jesus "that they should not depart from Jerusalem, but wait for the promise of the Father." Hence, the conclusion is that a letter giving only scraps of his plan of spiritual government would be contrary to his own instructions and promise to his apostles. The letter itself reveals a lack of

Bible information. In the first paragraph it reads: "Whoever works on the Sabbath day shall be cursed. I command you to go to church and keep holy the Lord's day;" and again, it relates: "Remember to keep the Sabbath day, for the seventh I have taken as a resting day to myself." Every Bible student knows that the Sabbath (the seventh day) is not the same day as the "Lord's Day," (our Sunday), but the writer of the letter pronounces a curse upon you if you work on the Sabbath (our Saturday) and also commands you to keep the Lord's day holy. Therefore, if you believe this letter to be genuine, you must "keep" both Saturday and Sunday. The writer further reveals his dense ignorance of the Bible when he says in the letter—"You shall finish your work every Saturday at 6 o'clock in the afternoon at which hour the preparation for the Sabbath begins." Bible students all agree that the preparation for the Sabbath was on our Friday. It could not be on Saturday, the Sabbath itself. Again, the entire letter betrays its modern composition. In the use of such phrases as "6 o'clock in the afternoon" one would think that the writer was about to tell about some dinner function. In the days of the Christ and the apostles, time was reckoned quite differently. Jesus would have used the current phrases of his time such as "the 9th hour," "the first watch." Even the grammatical construction of the letter shows the work of a careless writer. In the sentence—"You will not break any commandments, etc, etc." In the use of "will" where "shall" should be used shows an inconsistency at least. In this same paragraph, there are two other errors. After the letter, there is the usual recitation of the story in which the man to whom the little girl gave the letter. Of this it tells that "he passed it down to different generations of his family for more than a thousand years." It relates that this family was visited with repeated misfortune for not publishing the letter. According to the letter itself, this man and his children, goods and cattle would have long ago been "consumed," but it seems that he lived until the modern printing press was invented so he could "publish" to the world and give a thousand or more people a genuine case of insomnia. There were no newspapers in the days of Christ and no one need have any fears of the curses and promised calamities, if they should destroy the letter and never ask a newspaper to publish it. The last paper on the Plains to print this fake letter is the Lubbock Avalanche, and we hope it will be the last one. We suggest that all country newspapers publish the letter as "paid matter 5 cents per line," and the Brand will guarantee that this will take a lot of the superstition out of the whole matter. SWEET CLOVER TALK AGAIN

Illinois Dairyman Says It's Good—Wants the Brand to Quit Knocking the Blooms Off.

The letter below from Fred W. Keller of Kane, Ill., to Dr. S. L. Ingham of Canyon, was published last week in the Randall Co. News. Read it. If Sweet Clover is good, let's have it; if not, let's don't.

"I have been watching with interest the discussion of the noxious weed as some of the Texas farmers call sweet clover, but I only wish that I could grow more of it. For then I am sure that I would not have to be worrying about the land running out. It seems to me that if it were only used to enoculate the soil so that you could get a stand of alfalfa that it would more than pay for the trouble. I am glad to see that we have such men as Minter and Coburn on our side for I know that we are in the right. I have 23 acres of worn out land that I am going to sow to sweet clover to use as pasture, and I expect to have a good pasture as well as build up the land and my cattle won't be starved either.

"When at Jerseyville I had 10 acres of alfalfa that I cut from 3 to 5 tons to the acre and I had 7 cows on a 7 day official test one summer and as grass was short I thought I would turn them on the alfalfa for two or three hours a day thinking that each would give a tub of milk, but to my surprise I found that they would not eat it, but left going around the field eating dry grass. I do not mean by that that cattle will not eat green alfalfa, but that they have to be educated to it.

"I think you stirred up quite a mess when you put that article in the paper, but good for you. They will all come your way when they see the effects of sweet clover. You know of us are slow in taking hold of new things and can't get out of the old rut until someone comes along and drags us out and then we see that we are 'old fogies.'

"I also got the Hereford Brand and notice that the editor said he was from Missouri. Tell him to get into the band wagon and boost, not knock, for he will have to come across some day, and it may embarrass him when he comes."—Fred W. Keller.

Not unlike other people, Mr. Keller along with the News publishes only one side of this Sweet Clover controversy. He is also a little mistaken as to Mr. Coburn's position. While this Kansas man thinks S. C. a good feed, he says: "I am not disposed to suggest a general planting of sweet clover, except where it has been positively determined that alfalfa will not prosper." He means by this that if a farm will grow alfalfa, don't plant sweet clover.

Hon. J. C. Hunt Improving.
Canyon, March 15.—A letter was received yesterday from Mrs. J. C. Hunt stating that Judge Hunt is slowly improving. He has recovered from the meningitis, but still has fever which greatly puzzles the doctors. He is still in very bad condition, but it looks favorable for his recovery. His hearing is still affected, not being able to hear at all in the right ear. His sight will not be affected. He is still unconscious for a greater part of the time and the doctors say that he may continue this way for several weeks, but they believe his mind will gradually clear up. The news is very good for Mrs. Hunt and the Judge's friends all over the Plains hope for a most speedy recovery. See Kemp about paints. 6-2t

Union Meeting at Baptist Church.

The ladies of the different churches in town held a union meeting in memory of David Livingstone, Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock, that being his 100th birthday. Notwithstanding the fact that the day dawned with one of her accustomed balmy breezes which continued in speed and volume till well after the noon hour, there were quite a number present. The public school was dismissed and the remaining seats were well filled with school children, who, at the request of the committee in charge, readily assisted with the program. Each number was fully appreciated. The sketch of his life was an inspiration. The helps from his life we can apply today for the same God that directed Livingstone one hundred years ago still reigns to direct the children of men, even though they may have adventures with the Lion, or perhaps a still greater adventure with Cupid, as was the case with our great and noble Livingstone after Mary Moffat had nursed him to health.

BROOKLYN TABERNACLE
BIBLE STUDY, CH.

A PECULIAR MARRIAGE.
Genesis 24:58-67—March 23.
"In all thy ways acknowledge Him, and He shall direct thy paths."—Proverbs 3:6.

WHEN Abraham was one hundred and forty years old, Sarah had been dead three years, and Isaac was forty. Then Abraham directed Eliezer, his steward, to go with ten camels to the neighborhood where Abraham was born and where Nabor still lived. There Eliezer was to find a suitable bride for Isaac.

The story is told with beautiful simplicity. The characters described are neither savages, nor cousins of monkeys, as evolutionists would have us think. The setting is peculiar enough to assure us of its truth. Only recently have Bible Students learned that this unique procedure was evidently arranged to illustrate a great spiritual design, in process of accomplishment for more than eighteen centuries.

The type fits well to its antitype. Abraham typified the Heavenly Father; Isaac, the Lord Jesus; and Eliezer, the Holy Spirit. In due time, the Father sent the Holy Spirit to gather the elect Company which will constitute the Bride, the Lamb's Wife. As Abraham did not take a wife for his son from amongst the heathen, so God did not select the Bride of Christ from among the heathen. As Eliezer went to Abraham's relatives, believers in God, so the Holy Spirit was sent only to believers, to select from these the Church. The Bride class originally was Jewish. The Jews were in fellowship with God under their Law Covenant, and to them alone the Holy Spirit went. Later, the Gentiles were permitted to hear the Gospel, in order that such as responded might join the Bride class when they fully consecrated themselves to God.

Rebecca at the well.

Eliezer, loyal to his commission, sought earnestly the proper person that Isaac might have a suitable helpmate. When he came to the city of Nabor, he found Nabor's granddaughter Rebecca at the well, caring for the sheep. Those called to joint-heirship with Christ are usually found giving God's people refreshment from the Bible and its "water of life."

First Rebecca was tested as to willingness to give the water. Here she manifested a spirit of service, indicative of the meekness and humility necessary for the Bride of Christ. Then Eliezer gave her jewels, symbolic of spiritual blessings. Eliezer was received into the house. Rebecca's friends, representing the Household of Faith, rejoiced with her.

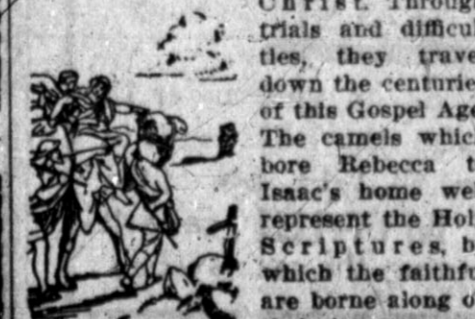

Eliezer then explained that Abraham was very rich, that Isaac was his heir, and that he himself had come to find a bride for his master's son. He believed Rebecca to be the Lord's choice for Isaac. Rebecca was then asked whether she would go with Eliezer. Her prompt answer was, "I will go."

It meant something for Rebecca to leave her father's house and all with which she was familiar; and so it means considerable for those who accept the call to become the Bride of Christ. Only whole-hearted love for the Lord and well-grounded faith in the "great and precious promises" will carry them through to the journey's end. Rebecca types only those who will finally make their calling and election sure, and become members of "the Bride, the Lamb's Wife."—Revelation 21:9, 10.

More Jewels For Rebecca.
Then Eliezer gave Rebecca more jewels. So the Bride class receive an early and a later blessing. The graces of the Holy Spirit—faith, fortitude, knowledge, hope, joy, love—enhance their beauty of character.

Finally the camels brought Rebecca to her journey's end. The Bride class leave their father Adam's house after they accept the invitation to go to Christ. Through trials and difficulties, they travel down the centuries of this Gospel Age. The camels which bore Rebecca to Isaac's home well represent the Holy Scriptures, by which the faithful are borne along on their journey.

As Eliezer brought Rebecca safe to the end of their journey to Isaac at Lahai-roi, so the Holy Spirit will guide the Church to the presence, parousia, of Christ. Following the custom of the time, Rebecca put on her veil and alighted from the camel to meet Isaac. So the Scriptures tell us that the Church must pass beyond the Veil before she will be fully received by the antitypical Isaac.

Rebecca's maidens typify the consecrated class now following the Bride class, but not fully living up to their privileges. The blessing pronounced upon Rebecca, "Be thou the mother of thousands of millions," represents the future of the Church. For as the Redeemer will, during His Millennial reign, become the Father, or Life-giver, to thousands of millions of Adam's race, bought with His own precious blood, so the Church will become the mother, or caretaker, to assist them to perfection.

The Rexall Store TEXAS

HEREFORD

There is a Rexall Store in nearly every town and city in the United States, Canada and Great Britain. There is a different Rexall Remedy for nearly every ordinary human ailment especially designed for the particular ill for which it is recommended.
The Rexall Stores are America's Greatest Drug Stores

Trappers Busy.

Local trappers have been busy this winter and spring catching all sorts of wild animals. Coyote and skunk have been the greatest losers. Geo. Karr and Geo. Dext are the chief trappers. Mr. Karr caught two large catamounts in the breaks, besides a large number of other animals. The hides are bringing good prices. J. W. Barnett, while not posing as a trapper, has to his credit 36 coyote pelts. He does not use a trap, but instead an auto. His 40-horse car when he sights a "lone wolf" takes up slack and soon overtakes Mr. Wolf with all of his turning and dodging, he can't "out wind" the auto. In this way, Mr. Barnett has caught many. He runs the car up to the coyote as he loopes along, throws a rope over his head and drags him in. If he gets brisk a 30-30 finishes the job. There are several other "sports" at Hereford, who occasionally enjoy the fun.

Found a Cure for Rheumatism.

"I suffered with rheumatism for two years and could not get my right hand to my mouth for that length of time," writes Lee L. Chapman, Mapleton, Iowa. "I suffered terrible pain so I could not sleep or lie still at night. Five years ago I began using Chamberlain's Liniment and in two months I was well and have not suffered with rheumatism since." For sale by all dealers.—Advertisement.

We particularly recommend Rexall Orderlies for children, delicate and aged persons. Rexall Orderlies come in convenient vest-pocket size tin boxes. 12 tablets, 10c; 26 tablets, 25c; 80 tablets, 50c.

Sells Grocery Stock.

Oscar Cliett sold his grocery stock last week to the firms of Cardwell Bros., and J. A. Johnson, the first named buying the bulk of the stock. Mr. Cliett had a well selected stock of fancy and staple goods and these added to the stocks of the two purchasing stores, gives them a big line.

FRAIL, SICKLY CHILD

Restored to Health by Vinol—Letter to Mothers.

Anxious mothers often wonder why their children are so pale, thin and nervous and have so little appetite. For the benefit of such mothers in this vicinity we publish the following letter.

J. Edmund Miller, New Haven, Conn., says: "My little daughter, ever since her birth, had been frail and sickly, and was a constant source of worry. Several months ago we commenced to give her Vinol. I immediately noted an improvement in her health and appearance. I gave her three bottles of Vinol, and from the good it has done her I can truly say it will do all you claim."

This child's recovery was due to the combined action of the medicinal elements extracted from cods' livers, combined with the blood-making and strength-creating properties of tonic iron, which are contained in Vinol.

Vinol will build up and strengthen delicate children, old people and the weak, run-down and debilitated. We return the money in every case where it fails.

Is It Any of Their Business?

"Four members of the Congress are now on the scene." This is a dispatch from Austin to the daily papers of Wednesday. The "scene" referred to is the free conference of the Legislature in trying to re-district the state. Why should four members of the Congress leave their posts of duty at Washington to go to Austin and there interfere with legislation? Is it any of their business as to how the districts shall be formed, except so far as they are citizens of the state? If these men are about to be left out in the cold by the proposed districts and the districts are well formed, why should they object? It appears that every present congressman wants a district all by "hissself" with no opposition. Does the state of Texas owe these four men a "job"? When did the commonwealth give them a patent to certain territory to be their very own? Some of these seat warmers have been at the pie counter for years and act just like they had a title to their high stools. The Leg-

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh of the Bladder. Cure of the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity, Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. isolation should divide the state in convenient districts without regard to any one congressman. Four members of the Congress have injected themselves in the scene at Austin—and why? Personal pie privileges and that only. Go back to your posts of duty, men, or the voters will call you back to the private avocations of life.

Raising Fruit.

H. P. Holt of Topeka, Kan., was here this week showing Hereford orchard owners how to prune their trees and how to make a fruit crop each year. Mr. Holt is an expert fruit grower. He arrived at 2:40 Tuesday and was taken immediately to the orchards of J. W. Barnett, W. H. Ray and A. C. Elliott, where, in the presence of a number of interested persons, he pruned a few trees—peach, pear and apple. He also showed how to increase the size and quality of the fruit on each individual tree. His pruning methods were a revelation to all. His one remark, "Tie a handkerchief over your eyes and keep cutting off the limbs until you can walk thru the tree," was almost literally carried out. He also showed, at Barnett's orchard, how to make a new tree out of an old one. Mr. Holt says the Hereford orchards should be sprayed at once. Borers were found in some trees and these will soon kill the tree and then spread to others. He tells how to care for the trees, how to prune, and then says why have an orchard and only get a crop of fruit every 3 or 5 years. "Save your fruit after you make," he says. This is done by orchard heating. He had two or three demonstrations of his methods of heating the orchards and many will try the plan this spring. The time we lose our fruit, he says, is in May, if the fruit is not winter killed and should not happen if the trees have had plenty of moisture during the summer and fall.

Hereford Benevolent Association.

This local organization, started 4 years ago, has extended its good purposes without brag or ostentation. It is a mutual benefit society and not, in the ordinary sense, a life insurance concern. The membership is composed of the local citizens, men and women; they are not subjected to a medical examination; the usual insurance "features" are absent from the certificate of membership. The purpose is to bring quick and immediate relief to the beneficiary named in the certificate. When a member dies it requires but a few minutes for the check to issue from the secretary. Little formality is used in securing full payment. The money to be paid to the next beneficiary is always ready, no collections are made. But after a certificate has been paid, then a payment of $1.00 is required of each member, and the number of paid-in members, at the time of a death, fixes the amount of the policy. Four members have died since the association was started: Bob Oden was the first and his beneficiary received

WHY NOT GET A GUARANTEE?

Every Article of Mer't that is Sold These Days is Guaranteed—No Guarantee Often Means Poor Quality.

There is very little excuse for any person to claim that he had been "stung" on a purchase. Fifty years ago the buyer had to look out, but today it is unusual to find a merchant who will not return the money for any article that has proved unsatisfactory.

An excellent example of this kind of fair dealing is shown by the clean-cut guarantee that Betts-Clark give on Dodson's Liver Tonic.

These people tell us that any person who pays 50c for a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tonic and does not find it a gentle and most pleasant liver tonic, harmless, but a sure reliever of constipation and a perfect substitute for calomel, can get his money back just as quick as they can get it out of the money drawer.

Dodson's Liver Tonic has practically taken the place of calomel. It is absolutely harmless, sure in its action and causes no restriction of habit or diet. No wonder the drug people are glad to guarantee it, while other remedies that imitate the claims of Dodson's Liver Tonic are not guaranteed at all.

PAY CASH--IT'S CHEAPER

Any bank in the country can loan you money cheaper than a merchant can afford to ask you as a difference between a Cash and Credit Price on merchandise.

Besides you know how to figure the percent on a silver dollar, but you can't tell just how much EXTRA you are paying on merchandise. Therefore you are very often misled by being told you are not charged any more.

Now listen! You know, good and well; that any man who uses another man's money pays for the use of it, don't you? Well, when you buy on credit you force the merchant to use somebody's money, don't you? And don't you know humanity well enough to know who pays for that favor, you do, of course! The trouble is you never know how much difference you are paying until you "cut it out" and start on a cash basis.

Don't take our word for it, try it for a while and see for yourself.

In paying cash you don't buy near so much and buy so much cheaper that the saving will surprise you. Having adopted the "Spot Cash to All" System we are now making you prices that clearly show the difference.

Come, let us show you. We have all the New Spring Styles in Men's and Boys' Clothing Hats, Shirts, Shoes, Oxfords, Caps and Furnishings, priced at a saving that will surely pay you to investigate.

A look will convince! Give us the look!

ALPINE MAN DISAPPEARS

Solution of Mystery Involves Elmer Lowe Who Is Charged With Murder of W. W. Britain.

Alpine, Texas, March 17.—The mystery surrounding the disappearance of Attorney N. Q. Tanquary of Fort Stockton on March 4, still is unsolved. On Saturday afternoon after the discovery of his ditched auto five miles east of Alpine, a posse, headed by Sheriff J. A. Walton, set out to search for his body, on the general assumption that he had been murdered and robbed. The posse returned without having found the object of its search and Sheriff Walton gave out his official opinion that there was no evidence in the neighborhood of the car to warrant the theory of murder or violence. The lapse of ten days, during which there were severe dust storms and a twelve-hour rain, would not, in his opinion, have obliterated traces of bloodshed. Theorizing immediately veered to the conviction that Tanquary had left the country, the favorite supposition being that his life perhaps had been threatened by friends of Elmer Lowe, now on trial in Fort Stockton, charged with the murder of W. W. Britain. It was commonly reported in Pecos county that Tanquary had collected damaging evidence against Lowe. Another alleged reason for his disappearance is a recent decision of the Colorado court of appeals, which gave judgment against Tanquary for about $35,000 due an estate.

Society

About a dozen young people spent a delightful time with Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Collins last Saturday evening. The young people were refreshed with fruit punch during the number of pleasant games played during the evening.

Mrs. Oscar Cliett entertained in honor of her guest, Miss Barry, on Saturday afternoon. American Beauty roses were placed artistically in the rooms. Four tables of "Bridge" afforded the ladies much enjoyment. Late in the afternoon the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Joe Collins, served the party a most appetizing luncheon, consisting of meat sandwiches and a dainty salad, cheese straws and coffee. Everyone present felt grateful to Mrs. Cliett for a happy afternoon.

At the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. Gibson on Tuesday afternoon, two tables of "Bridge" were enjoyed by a few of Mrs. Gibson's young lady friends, who were glad for another opportunity of being with her guest, Mrs. J. E. Kelly. Before departing, the guests were served a delicious, light repast by the hostess.

Last Tuesday morning Mrs. Alice Lea was hostess to a small breakfast party complimenting Mrs. James E. Kelly. Mrs. Lea thoughtfully sent a shining new livery car to the different homes in time to bring her guests to her residence promptly at 9:30 o'clock, where they were immediately ushered into the dining-room. The table was dressed in embroidered linen pieces, sparkling glass and silver. In the center of the table a large cut glass vase, filled with pink and white carnations and fern, rested upon a reflector. Dainty gold-bordered place cards, tied with bows of soft, pink ribbon, marked plates for Mrs. Kelly, Mrs. F. T. Roloson, Mrs. A. L. Gibson, Miss Ina Gregg, Mrs. C. C. Ferguson and the hostess. In her usual gracious manner, the hostess in a pleasant way entertained the company, keeping all conversing merrily during the elegantly served courses. The menu was: Assorted fresh fruits, berries and cream, fried chicken, browned sauce, hot biscuit and butter, brain omelet, Boston toast, coffee, apple snow with whipt cream.

A few cans of Paint and Varnish, and an inexpensive brush, an enthusiastic Home Maker will surely help keep "hubby" at home this summer to spend the evenings on the porch. We have the material. Hereford Lumber Co. 6-31

Don't Suffer!

"I had been troubled, a little, for nearly 7 years," writes Mrs. L. Fincher, in a letter from Peavy, Ala., "but I was not taken down, until March, when I went to bed and had to have a doctor. He did all he could for me, but I got no better. I hurt all over, and I could not rest. At last, I tried Cardui, and soon I began to improve. Now I am in very good health, and able to do all my housework."

TAKE CARDUI The Woman's Tonic

You may wonder why Cardui is so successful, after other remedies have failed. The answer is that Cardui is successful, because it is composed of scientific ingredients, that act curatively on the womanly system. It is a medicine for women, and for women only. It builds, strengthens, and restores weak and ailing women, to health and happiness.

If you suffer like Mrs. Fincher did, take Cardui. It will surely do for you, what it did for her. At all druggists.

THINGS ALL OUGHT TO KNOW

As Christian Bible Students—The Satisfactory Proof of "Why God Permits Evil."

One of the questions which comes to nearly every thinking mind today is "Why does God permit evil?" As we look about us in the world we observe that it is filled with sorrow and trouble, sickness and pain and every trial we could enumerate, and we cannot help wondering WHY GOD ALLOWS IT. We realize that He is almighty and that He could prevent it if He wished. We read in His Word that He is more willing to do for His children than are earthly parents for theirs, and we know how much that means; yet oftentimes it seems that those who try to do and live right have the most trouble. This question is made very clear in a book entitled, "The Divine Plan of the Ages." Every statement is backed by Scripture, and shows that while God does not sanction evil HE HAS HAD A PURPOSE IN ALLOWING SIN AND DEATH TO REIGN THESE SIX THOUSAND YEARS. This and many other subjects of deep interest to all of God's people are discussed fully and in language easy of comprehension.

In English, German, Swedish, Danish, Norwegian, Italian, French, Greek, Hungarian, Spanish, Polish, Hollandish, Finnish. [Syriac and Turko-Armenian in preparation.] 865 pages, cloth bound, 85 cents post-paid. Address Bible and Tract Society, 17 Hicks Street, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Rural Carrier Examination.

At Hereford, Texas, for Deaf Smith county, Saturday, April 12, 1913.

The United States Civil Service Commission announces an examination on the date and at the places named above, as a result of which it is expected to make certification to fill a vacancy in the position of rural carrier at Hereford, Texas, and other vacancies as they may occur on rural routes at post offices in the above-named county, unless it is found to be in the interest of the service to fill the vacancy by reinstatement, transfer or promotion. The usual entrance salary for rural carriers is from $600 to $1,000 per annum.

Age limit, 18 to 55, on the date of the examination. The maximum age limit is waived in cases of persons honorably discharged from the United States military or naval service.

An applicant must have his actual domicile in the territory supplied by a post office in the county for which the examination is announced.

The examination is open to all male citizens of the United States who can comply with the requirements.

Application Form 1341, and full information concerning the requirements of the examination, can be secured from the secretary of the local examining board or the postmaster at any of the places named above, or from the U. S. Civil Service Commission, Washington, D. C.

Eligibles on registers established prior to March 1, 1912, can be considered for appointment only at the office for which they were examined. Such eligibles may be examined within one year from the date of their former examinations upon filing applications showing that they meet the requirements of the new examination, their old eligibility for their home offices not being canceled.

Applications should be properly executed and filed with the Commission at Washington. As examination papers are shipped direct from the Commission to the places of examination, it is necessary that applications be received in ample time to arrange for the examination desired at the place indicated by the applicant. The Commission will therefore arrange to examine any applicant whose application is received in time to permit the shipment of the necessary papers.

An eligible register for the position of rural letter carrier for each county will be maintained. A person must be examined in the county in which the post office that supplies his home is situated. As a result of such examination he may become eligible to appointment as rural carrier at any post office in such county. A rural letter carrier after one year's satisfactory service may be transferred to the position of clerk or carrier in a first or second class post office, to the position of railway mail clerk, or to other positions in the classified service, subject to such examination as may be required by the civil service rules.

John C. Black, President.

Look to Your Plumbing.

You know what happens in a house in which the plumbing is in poor condition—everybody in the house is liable to contract typhoid or some other fever. The digestive organs perform the same functions in the human body as the plumbing does for the house, and they should be kept in first class condition all the time. If you have any trouble with your digestion take Chamberlain's Tablets and you are certain to get quick relief. For sale by all dealers.—Advertisement

Prof. Henderson of the University of Texas visited the Hereford High School to examine into the affiliation matters. All the high schools of the state are visited by an inspector each year. Supt. Ben Short says that Mr. Henderson seemed to be well pleased with the progress of the work.
