

Begin, Sadat Meet; Discuss Missiles

How Does Your Garden Grow?

A good amount of rainfall here within the past few days has gone a long way to help local lawns and gardens green up and grow. By the looks of it, this local family will have a good crop of corn to enjoy later this summer. Hereford enjoyed another shower Wednesday night, bringing the June total to .65 inches in just four days. (Brand Photo)

OFIRA, Israeli-Occupied Sinai (AP) — Egyptian President Anwar Sadat and Israeli Prime Minister Menachem Begin met for two hours today, and Israeli Radio quoted Egyptian sources as saying Sadat wanted Begin to promise not to escalate the tension over Syria's deployment of missiles in Lebanon.

Begin made no substantive comment when he emerged from the morning session of the one-day summit, and Sadat met alone with a group of Ofirans who presented him with a request to be allowed to stay in the area on the Sinai Peninsula after Israel's withdrawal next April.

Egypt has refused similar requests, pointing to the Camp David peace treaty's requirement for all Israelis to leave the Sinai Peninsula.

Israeli newspapers said the leaders would discuss Egyptian requests for a quicker Israeli withdrawal from Sinai. The Jerusalem Post predicted a declaration concerning the multinational peacekeeping force for the peninsula, to which the United States is expected to supply more than 1,000 troops.

Begin mentioned the strange situation resulting from Israeli election laws that forbid showing him on television during the four weeks before Israel's June 30 national voting for Parliament.

Sadat has condemned Syria for causing the current crisis in Lebanon. But Butros Ghali, Sadat's minister of state for foreign affairs, has said Egypt's commitment to the other Arab countries could supersede the Camp David peace treaty with Israel. Begin's aides said he wanted to clear up any possible misunderstandings on that point.

Begin's spokesman, Uri Porat, told reporters the crisis in Lebanon was the "single urgent reason" for the meeting, which Begin requested. Porat said talks were "to protect the peace treaty from any shock that may arise from developments on the Lebanese front."

Since late April, Israel and Syria have been on the brink of war over several batteries of anti-aircraft missiles moved by Syria into eastern Lebanon after Israeli fighters shot down two Syrian helicopters operating against Christian militiamen in the region.

Begin has vowed to knock out the missiles if they are not withdrawn. Syrian President Hafez Assad insists the "single urgent reason" for

Rain Continues; June Total Now .65 Inches

The city of Hereford officially recorded .18 inches of rainfall last night bringing the total for the month of June to .65 inches.

Other areas received considerably more precipitation as flash flood warnings were in effect early today for areas northwest of Abilene and a small area around the Bosque River at Stephenville, southeast of the Dallas - Fort Worth area.

The heaviest recorded rainfall was at the town of Fluviana, located about 10 miles northwest of Snyder, where nearly five and a half inches of rain fell.

The forecast for West Texas calls for a flash flood watch in the southern portion of the area today. Scattered showers and

'Jubilee Trail' Set For August Event

Food and amusement booths, as well as an open entertainment area with a stage, are being planned in conjunction with the "Hereford Town and Country Jubilee" scheduled for late August.

Food booths will be located along the parade route the morning of Aug. 22 with soft drink, ice tea, watermelon, snowcone and popcorn vendors. The Hereford Noon Lions Club is sponsoring the parade. Immediately following the parade a barbeque lunch will be served at the Community Center.

In the afternoon, "Jubilee Trail" will meander through Dameron Park with amusement booths and a "carnival-like" atmosphere for all to enjoy. Included along "Jubilee Trail" will be bingo and a "small tots" area with face painting and other activities appealing to the eight and under set.

The Space Management Committee for the Jubilee, chaired by Dick Montgomery, met Tuesday to begin assigning space for the various booths and activities. Their purpose is to "identify, assign, coordinate, and manage the spaces that

Sticks to Three-Year Plan

Reagan Axes Alternative

By JIM LUTHER
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Pledging a fight for its three-year tax-cut plan and claiming the votes to win, the Reagan administration is rejecting a two-year, 15 percent Democratic alternative that would target extra relief toward lower- and middle-income families.

President Reagan "is committed to a three-year tax cut and will make a fight for it," says Treasury Secretary Donald T. Regan, signaling an apparent end to efforts to negotiate a compromise with congressional Democrats. "We think we have the votes."

Whether the administration has victory in its grasp could be determined by the end of the day. The 47-member Conservative Democratic Forum was meeting today to discuss whether to side with the president or the Democratic leadership. On a crucial budget vote earlier in the year, most of the group went with Reagan.

The alternative proposed Wednesday by Democrats on the House Ways and Means Committee is not acceptable to Reagan "because it is a two-year program and he wants a three-year bill," Regan said. "And it's only a 15 percent cut," compared with the 30 percent reduction recommended by the administration.

The Democrats' substitute would cut taxes by $41 billion during the budget year that starts Oct. 1, compared with $54 billion in the president's program. The smaller tax cut would reduce the federal deficit by an estimated $10 billion.

The new Democratic plan is a broad outline that Ways

In Atlanta Murders

Released Man Says He's Still The Prime Suspect

ATLANTA (AP) — A black man who was questioned for nearly 12 hours about some of the slayings of 28 young blacks and then was released today denied any connection with the case but said, "I still think I am a prime suspect."

The 23-year-old man said he was given a polygraph test when he was questioned by Atlanta police Wednesday night and early today and officers had searched his home and car.

"I have nothing to hide," he said at a news conference in his northwest Atlanta home, but he added he believes police still consider him "a prime suspect."

He invited to reporters to the conference on the condition they not use his name.

Officers armed with a search warrant went through his home late Wednesday, confiscating a yellow blanket, purple robe, green carpet fibers, fibers from a bedspread, carpet sweepings and dog hairs, he said.

They also used another search warrant to seize a tape recorder and brief case from his car, he said.

Published reports have said crime lab investigators found fiber evidence in several of the 28 slayings.

Public Safety Commissioner Lee Brown said a man questioned in connection with some of the 28 slayings was released early today because the interview produced no information "that would result in an arrest."

The man said, "They did call me a suspect. They said, 'You killed Nathaniel Cater. And you know it and you're lying to us.'" Cater is the 28th victim on the list of slayings being investigated by a special police task force.

The man told reporters he had been under surveillance since May 22, and "considered it harassment."

Whenever he left his home, he was followed by six to eight cars, he said. "We timed them going up and down the street 15 to 20 times in one hour," he said.

Technicians who have analyzed trace evidence in the cases worked through the night at the Georgia Crime Laboratory examining materials retrieved at the man's home, authorities said.

After FBI agents and members of a special police task force investigating the slayings had questioned the man at FBI headquarters, a haggard-looking Brown held a news conference at 3:15 a.m. EDT and, announced, "Tonight we have made no arrest." He said the man was "free to leave."

Denver, Suburbs Hit By Dozen Tornadoes

DENVER (AP) — National Guardsmen were posted by the governor to watch for looters today after violent storms and at least a dozen tornadoes tore roofs off buildings, cut houses in two and scattered trees, killing one person and injuring at least 42 others.

The twisters sliced through a 30-mile arc Wednesday, leaving the most damage in the Denver suburb of Thornton, where the 42 were injured. Another fatality was a woman in another part of the state who was hit by lightning.

Gov. Richard Lamm declared a "disaster emergency" and assigned National Guard troops to Thornton after some looting was reported, said Lamm's press secretary, Sue O'Brien. Lamm planned to fly over the area today, she said.

Extra police officers were stationed in southwest neighborhoods of Denver to discourage looting.

"It started way up in the air and then all kinds of clouds gathered and it came down fast," said Peter Baker, who was standing in his Thornton yard when the tornado hit. "We could see it moving straight at us across the roofs of the houses."

"Then we ran into the neighbor's house and huddled in a corner. When the roof starting coming off, I prayed to God for my life."

Baker's house was cut in two by the twister. Across the street, a camper was thrown 10 feet by the wind and flipped onto its roof. A light aluminum boat next to where the camper had been parked was untouched.

A spokeswoman for Valley View Hospital, Sonia Weiss, said Kin Franck, 18, of Thornton, was in critical condition with multiple fractures. Ms. Weiss said the hospital treated 33 tornado victims for minor injuries.

Several others were treated by other hospitals.

Mary McCarthy, 21, of Wharton, N.J., was killed after being hit by lightning near Brainard Lake about 50 miles northwest of Denver, and two other women with her were injured, officials said. Although no tornadoes were reported in the area, it was hit by heavy rain.

The first twisters touched down in the Lakewood suburb and at a busy southwest Denver intersection, scattering trees and broken glass and destroying the roof of an apartment complex. Some cases of looting were reported there, prompting local police to tighten security.

Minor injuries were reported from several car accidents.

No damage estimates were available.

The worst damage was reported at the D&B Shopping Center in northeast Thornton. Roofs were torn off the center and a nearby bank, and windows were blown out of an apartment building.

Meanwhile, a tornado

Pope John Paul Back at Vatican

VATICAN CITY (AP) — "You thought you had changed me, but I'm still the same old rascal," Pope John Paul II told his doctors and nurses as he returned to the Vatican three weeks after the attempt on his life.

The 81-year-old pontiff looked pale and thinner, but he walked unassisted out of the Gemelli Polyclinic Hospital on Wednesday and blessed hundreds of patients waving to him from balconies.

Wearing white robes, a white skullcap and a gold cross, he climbed into a black convertible Mercedes limousine. A small group applauded as he arrived at the Vatican, and minutes later he came to the window of his apartment overlooking St.

Peter's Square and raised his arms to greet a cheering, applauding crowd of about 300, many of them pilgrims from his native Poland.

The pope is scheduled to return to the hospital in about three weeks for a second operation to reverse the intestinal bypass performed after he was shot in the abdomen on May 13. In the interim, a member of the six-man medical team treating him will check him each morning in his apartment on the third floor of the apostolic palace.

The doctors said in a medical bulletin they discharged him from the hospital because his vital signs were normal and his

Motorists Receive More Good News

NEW YORK (AP) — American motorists heartened by recent reports of a glut on the oil market have some more good news — several oil producers reportedly have decided to slash prices, likely meaning lower costs at the gasoline pump.

Wednesday's reported reductions by two members of the Organization of Petroleum Exporting Countries and one American producer came on the heels of a $4 per barrel cut on Mexican heavy oil the day before and were expected to signal more crude-oil price cuts.

Among those that reportedly decided to cut prices Wednesday in the face of falling consumption and a growing oil glut was Libya, a militant OPEC member previously opposed to any price reductions. Libya has charged $41 a barrel, the world's highest price, for its best oil.

But Platt's Oilgram Price Reporter, a trade publication, said Wednesday a contract was being offered for Libyan oil at $36.

Iraq, whose oil exports are growing as its war with Iran slows, shaved 57 cents off its price by reducing pipeline fees, bringing per-barrel prices to $36.93. The reduction was disclosed by a government official in Japan, a major Iraqi customer.

And Standard Oil Co. (Ohio), the largest producer of oil on Alaska's North Slope cut its price by $2, reducing

Southwestern Bell To Issue Rebates

Ma Bell will be sending Hereford phone-owners a refund this summer, but don't expect a heavy check because David Ortiz, manager of the Amarillo office of Southwestern Bell Telephone Co., said the refund will amount to approximately $3.50.

The amount of the refund equals the overcharge made to Bell customers between November 11, 1980 and May 18, 1981, plus 10 cents interest.

Bell implemented their requested rates November 11 under bond with the permission of the Public Utilities Commission. That is, Bell was able to implement the rate they requested before final approval by the PUC was given. Eventually, the PUC did not grant the full amount Bell had asked for under bond, and Bell is now obliged to give back to its customers the money it over-billed.

Ortiz said that Bell requested the rate increase to cover the inflationary costs of maintaining its present services and providing new cable services.

The bill that Hereford residents will receive around June 9 will reflect the correct rate. The refund will be shown as a credit to Bell customer's August bill.

Tornado Sirens To Be Tested

The new tornado siren system recently installed here will undergo its first full-scale testing at 10 a.m. Friday, weather permitting, according to civil defense coordinator and Fire Marshall Jay Spain.

Spain said that all nine of the sirens, two of which are located just outside the city limits, will be used in the tests. He added that the test would involve the up-and-down alarm, which signals a warning, and the long wail, which signals take cover.

Spain said that local officials will be stationed near the nine sirens to make sure that they are all functioning correctly during the test. The controls for the system are located in the Hereford Police Department office.

Installation of the sirens was completed about two weeks ago. Workmen checking the siren near the county museum briefly tested the unit Wednesday afternoon. Spain said the police department had a number of calls concerning the test.

City Ordered To Improve Neighborhood

TYLER, Texas (AP) — A U.S. District Judge has ordered the East Texas town of Center to spend all remaining federal revenue sharing funds on improvements in an area where 95 percent of the city's black residents live.

Judge William Wayne Justice also forbade the city from spending any revenue sharing funds it receives in the future until improvements are made in the black neighborhood known as the "Quarter."

The judge ruled Wednesday that the city engaged in "intentional discrimination" by not providing equal services in white areas and the black district.

However, Justice said the order could be modified if the city develops and implements a comprehensive plan to change city service policies. Center Mayor George Ihlo said Wednesday night that the city did not intend to appeal the order and would begin work immediately on a comprehensive plan.

"I think it is a fair ruling," said Ihlo. "We just want to get this thing (a plan) in motion."

The order resulted from a lawsuit filed by resident Oma Lee Kyles.

Frazier Lawyers Call Final Witness

DENTON, Texas (AP) — Final defense witnesses have told a state district court jury that murder defendant Patricia Ann Frazier was not responsible for her actions at the time she cut the heart out of her four-year-old daughter.

The 25-year-old Wichita Falls woman has pleaded innocent by reason of insanity to the gruesome slaying of her daughter last year.

Dr. Sethurama Srinivasan, Director of the Maximum Security Psychiatric Hospital in which Ms. Frazier was incarcerated while awaiting trial last year, told the court Wednesday that the impact of the movie "The Exorcist" on Ms. Frazier's unstable personality contributed to her actions.

The two-week-long trial is the second for Ms. Frazier, whose first trial in Wichita Falls in November, 1980 resulted in a hung jury.

The case was moved to Denton when District Judge Keith Nelson ruled defense attorneys could not find an impartial jury in Wichita County because of publicity surrounding the first trial.

Jurors viewed "The Exorcist" earlier in the trial as defense attorneys argued that the movie caused Frazier to believe her daughter was possessed. "I believe the movie contributed to the tragic killing," Srinivasan said.

Clinical psychologist and lawyer Robert Gordon, the defense's last witness, said after an evaluation of Ms. Frazier a week before the trial began, he concluded that she was unable to understand the legal consequences of her behavior at the time of the killing.

USS Nimitz Victims Still Critical

SAN ANTONIO, Texas (AP) — Four Navy men severely burned in the USS Nimitz crash are reported "stable and responding to treatment" at Brooke Army Medical Center.

All four are still listed in critical condition, Brooke spokesman Jerry Du Bois said Wednesday.

Airman Recruit Richard Simpson, 22, Gray, Me.; Petty Officer Second Class Richard M. Hokanson, 21, Hauppauge, N.Y.; Airman Apprentice George W. Butz, 23, Hockens, Del., and SV.O. AN Apprentice Stephen Pass, 21, Calhoun, Ga., were airlifted here on May 20 from Jacksonville, Fla.

The four received burns ranging from over 32 to 73 percent of their bodies, according to Col. Basil A. Pruitt Jr., commander of Brooke's famed burn ward.

Weather

West Texas — Flash flood watch southeast today. Scattered showers, and thunderstorms today and tonight, diminishing Friday. Locally heavy rain possible mainly southeast today causing flash flooding. A few severe thunderstorms possible south and east of mountains through tonight. Not so warm south today. Highs upper 70s north to 90s along Rio Grande. Lows mid 50s Panhandle and mountains to mid 60s southeast.

54th National Spelling Bee Underway In Washington

WASHINGTON (AP) — Forty-six youngsters toed the mark again today, the survivors of 120 who began the 54th National Spelling Bee.

The first day of competition Wednesday started slowly with only 30 youngsters eliminated in the first three rounds.

But then things got tough in the crowded ballroom of the Capital Hilton Hotel, and 44 fell by the wayside in the fourth round.

Youngsters scurried through hallways, eyes buried in spelling books. They studied them at breakfast and lunch, and still they found they just didn't know every word. Proceeding with deliberation was Paige Pipkin, 13, of El Paso, Texas, who was second last year. She spelled "avocation," "vilipend," "esurient" and "numen" to get through the day.

Meanwhile, Jill Hurley, 13, of Denver, Colo., sought to maintain a brief tradition, as the last two winners have been from the Mile High City.

She, too, made it through the first day, spelling "tamale," "abusively," "quaternion," and "hawthorn."

Sometimes, scientific pronunciation, offering "docea" when asked to spell "dossier."

terms were the undoing, as in "pelagic," which means living in the ocean. Scott Allen McDermott, 12, of Mayfield, Ky., spelled it "pillagic," to become the eighth youth eliminated.

Words that sound like something else also caused problems. Tiny Claudia Mueller, 10, a West German native now from LaPorte, Ind., thought the word was spelled "toxin." But it should have been "tocsin."

And there were the foreign words to trip the unwary, such as "campanile," meaning a bell tower. Jeff Tomlin, 14, of Rochester, Ind., spelled it "campenili."

Bridgit Clarke, 13, of Grand Rapids, Mich., also was caught off guard by foreign Religious terms also felled contestants, with Andrew Hamel, 12, of Houston offering "novina" for "novena," and Richard Schultz, 14, of Grafton, N.D., misspelling "synod" as "sinedd."

Another of Wednesday's casualties was Steven Corey, who was eliminated on his 12th birthday.

The youngsters who made it to the finals here are the top spellers from an estimated 8 million entrants in local bees sponsored by 118 newspapers across the country and in Mexico, Guam, Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands.

The winner receives a trophy, $1,000 and other prizes and there are prizes for the other contestants.

that would indicate that anyone we were interested in was responsible for any of the homicides and we had sufficient information to present that before the courts and obtain a conviction, we will make an arrest," Brown said.

A spokesman for Mayor Maynard Jackson said the questioning began Wednesday afternoon, before the search warrant for the man's home was issued at about 4:30 p.m.

Police became interested in the man in late May while conducting surveillance of the Chattahoochee River, where the bodies of six victims have been found, the first investigative source said.

Officers who were staked out near the Bankhead Highway bridge in northwest Atlanta heard a splash on the night of May 21 or the morning of May 22, moved toward the sound and found a man who told them he had dumped some garbage in the river, the source said.

The body of 27-year-old Nathaniel Cater was discovered May 24 near the river site where the man was questioned. A medical examiner ruled Cater had been asphyxiated like 16 other victims.

The man questioned in late May was the same man interviewed by authorities early today, the source said. The man had been under surveillance since the river incident he added.

Earlier Wednesday, police issued a general alarm for a 15-year-old black youth who had been missing since Tuesday evening.

The youth, identified as David Litmon, was last seen in downtown Atlanta along Central Avenue between 7 p.m. and 8 p.m. Tuesday, said police spokesman Benjamin Sims. He was last seen wearing a red shirt, blue pants and blue tennis shoes. Further details on his disappearance were unavailable.

Litmo, described as 5 feet tall and weighing 100 pounds, was reported missing by his mother, Barbara Litmon, Wednesday evening, Sims said.

A general alarm means that police have stepped up patrols and would set up roadblocks in Litmon's neighborhood, Sims said.

Litmon's disappearance had not been assigned specifically to the special task force, although task force members were aware of his case, Sims said.

John Paul has canceled all major appearances for June, including a bishops' conference Sunday on ecumenism that he termed one of the most important Vatican gatherings in recent years.

Vatican officials said he may be able to resume official duties soon, perhaps starting with Sunday appearances at his apartment window to bless the crowd that gathers each week in St. Peter's Square.

One of the two Americans injured in the attack on the pope, Ann Odre, 50, of Buffalo, N.Y., is to be discharged from Santo Spirito hospital this weekend. The other victim, Rose Hall, 21, of Shirley, Mass., returned to her residence in West Germany on May 24.

Italian authorities have charged a Turk, Mehmet Ali Agca, 23, with shooting the pope and the two Americans. No date has been set for his trial.

thunderstorms are in store today and tonight but they are expected to diminish Friday. Locally heavy rain is possible today in the southeast with possible flash flooding.

A few severe thunderstorms are possible south and east of the mountains through tonight. Highs are expected to be in the upper 70's in the northern section of the area and up to the 90's along the Rio Grande. Lows are expected to be in the mid 50's in the Panhandle and mountain areas and the mid 60's in the southeastern section of the area.

missiles will stay as part of the arsenal of the 22,000 Syrian troops in Lebanon.

The Syrians and Lebanese Christians were fighting again Wednesday near Zahle, a Christian city 30 miles east of Beirut. The Christian Phalange Party reported three people killed and 27 wounded.

There was also artillery Wednesday night in Christian east Beirut, and shelling was heard along the Green Line separating the capital's Moslem and Christian sectors, but there were no casualty reports.

In southern Lebanon, Israeli commandos penetrated into Kfar Hamam village today and blew up the house of a suspected collaborator with Palestinian guerrillas, Lebanese provincial authorities reported.

They said there were no casualties in Kfar Hamam, which is controlled by the Norwegian contingent of the U.N. peacekeeping forces five miles north of the Israeli border.

The Oklahoma Highway Department closed a 2-mile stretch of Oklahoma 58 when rising waters threatened to wash out bridges.

Rejection

The president's tax plan is in two simple parts: a 10 percent cut in personal tax rates in each of three straight years with the same reduction going to rich and poor alike; and for business, faster write-offs of expenditures for plant and machinery.

The Democratic proposal contains more than a dozen parts, but there is no assurance the committee will include them all in its bill.

and Means Chairman Dan Rostenkowski, D-Ill., wants to use as the basis for writing a tax-cut bill. The committee, already assured the support of most Democrats in the House, will begin filling in the blanks next week.

All 21 committee Democrats who attended the meeting Wednesday favored Rostenkowski's proposal. Absent were Rep. William Cotter, D-Conn., who is ill, and Rep. Kent Hance, D-Texas.

Oil

the price to about $33 a barrel. There are 42 gallons in a barrel.

The Platt's report surprised some companies that buy oil from Libya, and a senior trader at one company said he doubted it was accurate. Several companies said the reported deal, providing 50,000 barrels a day of oil for the rest of 1981, had not been offered to them.

Libya and other high-priced oil exporters have come under increasing pressure to cut prices — by oil companies and from Saudi Arabia, which charges the least for oil among OPEC members at $32 a barrel. Saudi Arabia, which has helped to cause the worldwide oil glut by keeping production high, tried to persuade OPEC members at a meeting last month in Geneva to set a common price for oil. But Libya and other high-price producers balked.

Gasoline prices in the United States have been slipping since March as drivers cut back on consumption and supplies mount. The new cuts in crude oil prices "will continue the competitive pressures that have been building up," said Kenneth Haley, an economist with Standard Oil Co. of California. "I think reductions are likely to continue."

Organizations which plan to have a booth, display, or exhibit should contact Montgomery or another member of the committee to identify their needs in terms of space and utilities. The other members of the committee are Ted Higgins, Pet Ott, and Wayne Keeter.

In addition to the activities at Dameron Park, there will be other displays and activities at Veterans Memorial Park; particularly at the Hereford Rider's Club Arena, where a girl's rodeo will be held.

Race Horses Held Hostage

CIUDAD JUAREZ, Mexico (AP) — A Dallas woman who owns four horses being held at the Juarez Race Track said owners of some of the animals being held hostage there had discussed trying to remove them today.

Another owner and the son of the former operator of the track, which is now closed, predicted there would be trouble if the owners made the attempt.

Pat Limage of Dallas said Wednesday that a loss of electricity and an endangered water supply at the track may lead the owners to take action.

About 150 horses and about 600 greyhounds have been held at the track for a month because of a strike by track employees.

The 325 employees of the track went on strike May 4 after the government announced it would award the track franchise to another operator. The strikers, fearing for their jobs, set up picket lines at the gates of the track.

Under Mexican law, no traffic can cross such a picket line so the owners of the animals have been unable to remove them. Most of the owners are United States citizens, which has led to frantic attempts to negotiate the release of the valuable animals.

Talks were under way late

Wednesday in Mexico City, where Oscar Flores Jr. of El Paso apparently was attempting to intervene with the government. Flores, son of the former governor of the state of Chihuahua, has been reported to be in line to get the track franchise.

Demetrio Sotomayor Jr., son of the man who formerly held the track franchise, said his father also was in Mexico

City on Wednesday night, attending the negotiations at the Mexican equivalent of the Interior Department.

Ms. Limage said the owners were "discussing the possibility of bringing out their animals en masse" to prevent the possible death of the horses and dogs that could occur because the electricity was cut off Wednesday.

Police Receive Obscene Phone Call Reports

Hereford Police have a suspect, but have made no arrest, in an incident last night in which Kenneth Hearn, 404 Ave. I, was reportedly backed into by a car. Hearn went to the police station at about 11:15 last night and told police that a man had knocked on his door and that when Hearn answered the door the man asked him a question.

The suspect then got in his car and began driving away. When Hearn yelled at him, the suspect attempted to back into Hearn. Hearn followed the man into the street, where the suspect backed into Hearn twice, knocking him down both times. The report has been taken to the District Attorney's office for further investigation.

The night manager of Big Daddy's Truck Service told police someone came in while he was fixing a flat and picked up a pair of pliers and drove off with them.

Kevin Fox, 615 Stanton, reported the theft of a 15-year-old registered Irish Setter from the back of his pick-up parked in Gibson's parking lot.

Jimmy Kee, 325 Ave. K, reported the theft of a bicycle.

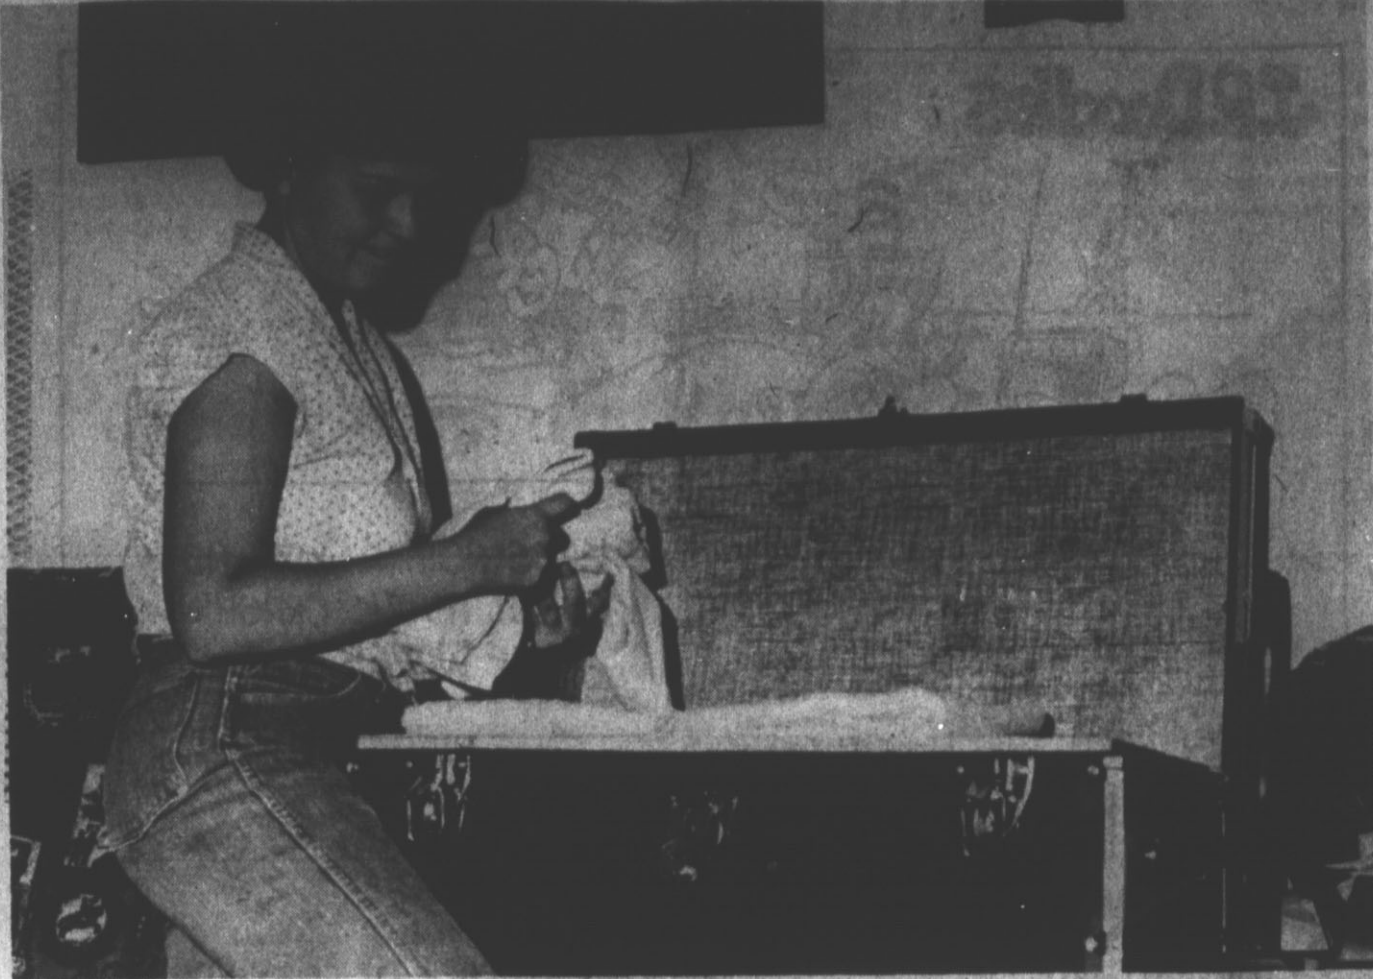

Police also received reports of one obscene phone call and one harassment by phone call.

No Suspects Yet In The Case Of Two Stolen Vehicles

The Deaf Smith County Sheriff's Department has no suspects in the theft last weekend of both a city-owned vehicle, and a vehicle belonging to the airport. The Sheriff's Office reports that someone stole a city vehicle, got it stuck near the airport, and then broke into the airport and stole one of their vehicles. That vehicle was wrecked in Veteran's Park.

Charles Dillon, of Nebraska, is in the County jail awaiting Nebraska authorities. The Sheriff's Office had received reports that Dillon was exposing himself to passing motorists seven miles west on Harrison Highway. Upon investigation, it was found Dillon had in his possession stolen property from Nebraska.

REECIE WILLSON

Miss Willson Travels To El Tesoro Camp For Second Year In A Row

By DENISE SMITH
Staff Writer

Seventeen year old Reecie Willson will embark on a journey back to nature this Friday when she will be traveling to Grandbury, Tex. to attend El Tesoro camp for her second year of counsel-in-training. Miss Willson will return July 3.

At El Tesoro, the teenager will "rough-it" in extensive training, working with young girls, and experiencing camping to the "nitty-gritty."

The camp which is owned by First Texas Council in Fort Worth, is a large, vast spread of land for Camp Fire girls interested in being certified as an adult counselor. Being a volunteer program, Miss Willson's reason for attending is "...camp fire has done a lot for me and I want to give them something in return. It is also a personal satisfaction for me."

Miss Willson said that the camp is provided with no electricity but a lot of hard work.

"Putting-up with the heat, sleeping on army cots and in screened-in porches with wooden floors is the most difficult back to nature necessity," she said.

A 10-year member of Camp Fire, the HHS senior will undertake counseling techniques, philosophy and history of camp, first aid, nature skills, fire building, cooking, knots, knives, lashing, tents, compass, sanitation, arts and crafts and music and games.

Her goal is to return to El Tesoro next year as a paid adult counselor.

Being a member of Camp Fire, Miss Willson has had the opportunity to travel. As a freshman in 1978 she traveled to Albuquerque, N.M. where she was elected as an advisor to Portland, Oregon. In 1979 at Portland, she was elected as a National Advisor to Youth Congress, being one of 10 girls chosen from Zone 12 which has 33 counselors. The United States itself has only 13 zones.

She was elected president of Zone 12 Horizon Cabinet in November of 1980 at a zone meeting in Amarillo. Her term will expire in the fall of 1982.

She has also traveled to Oklahoma City to attend yet another zone meeting.

Upcoming trips for the teenager include a National Horizon Club conference at the Air Force Academy in Colorado Springs, Colo. The Hereford Council was selected from across the United States to attend this conference, which is the first to be held in 10 years.

Twenty-six Hereford girls will attend this meeting to review new Horizon material. A total of 810 girls from across the U.S. will also attend. Scheduled to travel with the girls are Cindy Norvell and Phillis Dawson, sponsors.

In the fall of 1982, Miss Willson will be attending a zone meeting in Tulsa, Okla.

Currently, Miss Willson is working at Day Camp here. She previously served as an aide at Camp Summer Life in Taos, N.M.

All of these activities lead Miss Willson closer to achieving the highest rank a camp fire girl can obtain, Wo-He-Lo.

A three-year member of the Camp Fire board of directors, Miss Willson has been active in several community service projects. She is a member of honors band and marching band, and a two-year member of National Honor Society.

Following graduation, she plans to attend Texas Women's University at Denton.

"Camp Fire has taught me a lot and I really feel I owe it a lot ... and as long as there are little children, there's a need for adults to lead them," said the young energetic camp fire girl.

Miss Willson is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Willson of 234 Hickory.

Ann Landers

Solution For Sleepwalking

DEAR ANN LANDERS: In regard to sleepwalking: I, too, don't know what causes it. But I sure can tell you how to stop it.

I put up with it for years with my wife. Most of the time she had nightmares along with the sleepwalking. Sometimes she'd go out in the yard and scream her head off and wake up the neighbors. She also did her share of hiding things while she was asleep. The next day she would drive everybody crazy trying to find them.

About eight months ago she launched into one of her middle-of-the-night screaming fits. I belted her in the mouth. From that day on she never had another nightmare.

Now she is trying to make me feel guilty - claims I am a wife-beater. Actually it's the only time I ever laid a hand on her. I feel as if I've helped both of us. She isn't walking in her sleep anymore, and I'm getting some rest. What do you say? Am I a good guy or a bad guy? - Hero Called A Bum

DEAR READER: I am not calling you either a hero or a bum. But I'm not about to hand you a good conduct medal either.

If you really hit your wife for "medical" purposes and it put an end to her nightmares, she should not hold it against you. Just make sure that therapeutic approach doesn't slop over into other areas, Bub.

DEAR ANN: Here is one for the books. I have been married for almost five years and am still a virgin. I enjoy hugging and kissing but the thought of intercourse, getting a pelvic examination or even inserting a tampon is a traumatic experience for me. I have been examined by two gynecologists. They both said there is nothing physically wrong. I also discussed my fears with them. The first doctor said he was baffled. The second one sent me home with a prescription for Valium and suggested I return in two weeks if it didn't work. Needless to say, it didn't work but I never made another appointment.

This is such an embarrassing problem and so difficult to discuss with anyone. Fortunately, my husband is a very loving and understanding man. He claims being married to a virgin doesn't bother him but I'm sure it must be very frustrating at times. After all, he's only human.

My question is this: Am I the only woman in the world with this fear? Can it be overcome? I would love to have a normal relationship with my husband and we do want to start a family soon. Any advice you can give will be greatly appreciated. - Searching For A Solution

DEAR SEARCHING: You need psychiatric help to get over your phobia, which is uncommon but not unheard of. Those two gynecologists should have recommended a competent therapist for you at once. The fact that they didn't raises some serious questions in my mind about their competence.

If your husband has been putting up with this for five years, he is my personal candidate for sainthood. The man deserves more out of the marriage than you are giving him. See that he gets it. Soon.

At Wits End

By ERMA BOMBECK

I'm not sure, but I think I've stumbled onto something that may revolutionize air travel with children in this country.

How about carrying your luggage on the plane and checking the children through baggage?

Now wait a minute! It's not as bad as you think. There's nothing children love any more than running around and falling down in a big area where they cannot hurt themselves, and when they get to their destination ... the piece de resistance ... there's an exciting ride on a conveyor belt that takes them up a chute and slides them down onto a revolving carousel. I wouldn't be surprised if Disney's Land and World adapted it as a ride.

The problem is that adults don't really understand what entertains children: I saw a woman board a plane one day who looked like a floating garage sale. She carried a huge bag stuffed with a blanket, three furry animals, an inflatable pillow and a diseased-looking doll with one eye.

Her handbag bulged with storybooks, cookies, a game with a bell and a Marie Osmond thermos.

The kid spent the entire trip kicking the back of the seat and snapping the ashtray open and shut.

The idea of transporting the home with the child is a carry-over from the days when families weren't as mobile as we are today and our trips were limited to cars.

I can remember loading up the playpen, the portable feeding table, the plastic inflatable pool, the potty seat, the blankets, change of clothes, diapers, the plate that held heat, an assortment of food, small saucepan, a spinning top, extra towels, bottles of formula and a mobile. And that was just to tide me over for a Sunday dinner at Grandma's.

(That was when the child was three weeks old. Within six months, I had reduced the cargo to one diaper and a pacifier.)

You don't need a lot to keep a child occupied. Their own noses will keep them occupied for hours. So will taking apart a seat or removing other parts of the airplane. Last week, I saw a toddler with an airline meal in front of him. He flattened out one pea at a time and pressed them onto his teeth and then looked into a mirror and smiled.

The kid was obviously a genius. For years, I had been eating the food.

Like a good neighbor, State Farm is there.

Resident's Granddaughter Chosen As 1981 Dimmitt Salutatorian

Judith Leigh Smith, daughter of Robert W. and Norma Smith of Dimmitt, and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Gray, 344 Centre, Hereford was named Salutatorian for the 1981 Dimmitt High School graduating class. Miss Smith was involved in many high school activities. She was a member of National Honor Society, Future Homemakers of America, Interact Club, Lyre Club and the Fellowship of Christian Athletes. She served as Secretary of National Honor Society, and vice-president of the Bobcat Band.

Miss Smith was also a twirler in the Band. She was selected for Who's Who among American High School students. She was sweetheart of Future Homemakers of America and Sweetheart of the Dimmitt Rotary Club for two years.

She won the Citizenship Award, the Chemistry Award, and has won academic awards three years. She served as president of the Interact Club and reporter of the Lyre Club. She was named to International Youth in Achievement and was Secretary of her junior class. She won the Band Award and was named to All-Regional Band. She also competed in golf.

Miss Smith's hobbies include playing the piano and water skiing. She attends First Baptist Church. She will continue her education at the University of Texas at Austin.

Former Hereford Sailor Participates In Rescue

Donald Edward Jackson II, son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Jackson of Amarillo, formerly of Hereford, was assigned to the USS Wabash in February of 1981, leaving San Francisco in April for a tour of Hawaii, the Philippines, Guam and Singapore.

While in the China Sea refueling, the USS Kittyhawk and the USS Wabash rescued 140 boat people whose boat had sunk. The refugees were then taken to Singapore.

The Wabash took 40 refugees aboard, and the Kittyhawk 100. They were suffering from dehydration and hunger, according to Jackson. "It was a somber experience, especially for the new recruits," he said.

A more humorous experience for the recruits was when the ship dumped its garbage on "Monkey Island," an island inhabited by monkeys, which threw rocks at the sailors as they were dumping their garbage.

After leaving Singapore the Wabash will head for the Indian Ocean, Australia and Thailand.

"The work is hard, but interesting. There is good fellowship and times," stated Jackson.

The grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Jackson of Hereford, the sailor entered the Navy April 23, 1980. He received his basic training in San Diego, Calif., and went to Huldralic School at the Great Lakes Naval Station.

Boys Atop Standings

Rodeo Team Eyes Finals

The Hereford High School Boys' Rodeo team will try to keep its lofty position atop the team standings in the Tri-State High School Rodeo Association this weekend when they participate in the TSHSRA Finals at Amarillo.

Heading into the finals this weekend, Hereford owns the team lead with 349 1/2 points. The team is led by seniors Lee Washington and Brett Cunningham, who have 130 and 105 points respectively through the year. Washington goes into the finals in second place in the All-Around competition, while Cunningham is ranked fifth.

The HHS girls enter the final event in fifth place overall with a total of 93 points.

The Finals will be held beginning tonight at the Fairpark Coliseum in Amarillo. The top 15 contestants in each of six boys' and four girls' events will be competing for titles. The rodeo will conclude Saturday when the top 10 in each event will square off at 8 p.m.

Washington is second in steer wrestling heading into the finals with 59 points. He also stands fifth in calf roping with 27 points, seventh in ribbon roping with 20 points, and 12th in team roping with 24 points.

Cunningham enters the finals with a third place ranking in calf roping (49 points), fourth in ribbon roping (27 points), and 10th in team roping (29 points).

In addition, seniors Tony Wilcox, second in bull riding with 36 points, and Brent Self, 10th in bull riding with 14 points, are also in the finals for Hereford.

Joining the four seniors for HHS are juniors Steve McConnell, Robert Esqueda, Scott Wilcox, and Mike Butcher. McConnell stands fourth in steer wrestling with 44 points, while Esqueda is sixth in bull riding with 19 1/2 points. Scott Wilcox heads into the finals in eighth place in bull riding with 17 1/2 points, while Butcher is 11th in bareback riding with 10 1/2 points.

Rita Ward heads up the HHS girls' contingent in the finals. She is fourth in both barrel racing and pole bending with 33 and 28 points respectively, and is seventh in breakaway roping with 29 points.

James Self rounds out the Hereford team with a 14th place position in goat tying with three points.

Performances of the rodeo are scheduled for 8 p.m. nightly beginning tonight.

Inks Track Scholarship

Norman Brown, standout Hereford High School athlete, has signed a scholarship agreement with Wayland Baptist University. Brown, shown with his mother, Alice Brown, will be a member of the Wayland track team. He was signed by WBU coach Gary Goodin, a former track star at Hereford. Brown was a three-year track letterman at HHS and went to the regionals three times in the 400 meters, sprint relay and mile relay. He also has one football letter.

Cowboys' Dorsett Changes Attitude on Practice Routine

By JIM DENT
Dallas Times Herald

DALLAS (AP) — "My philosophy is that you can burn yourself out. I'm a young man. I don't feel that I have to work that hard to stay in top condition." Tony Dorsett, June, 1978.

"I've learned a lot through the years and I think I'm a lot more mellow. I've sat down and figured out that the best years I've had are after I've worked out hard." Tony Dorsett, June, 1981.

With summer training camp approaching in 1978, the charts at the Dallas Cowboys practice field showed six workouts for Dorsett. Some players were working out six times a week.

There was a special concern because Dorsett had injured a calf muscle during the previous season. Everyone was worried — except Dorsett.

"I really don't know why it's such a big issue," he said at the time.

The last three years have brought changes. If he continues at his present rate, Dorsett will have one of the best attendance records when off-season workouts close late this month. He is no longer conspicuous by his absence at the club's practice facility.

"If I was a betting man, I would bet on him having a lot better season next year," said Bob Ward, the Cowboys' conditioning coach, said.

Ward's program is one of the most progressive in the National Football League. At contract time, Cowboy players often discover that off-season workouts can be measured in dollar and cents. Only three players do not live in Dallas year round.

Despite a conditioning fanaticism displayed by players like Charlie Waters, Randy Hughes and Dennis Thurman, Dorsett was only a part-timer in 1977.

For the last four years, Dorsett's career has been a series of philosophical changes. By the end of his rookie season in 1977, the million-dollar running back from Pitt had so many endorsements and money-making opportunities that football was sometimes a secondary interest.

By the end of his second season, Dorsett was talking seriously about an acting career.

No one has complained about the results. Last season, he became the first NFL running back to gain 1,000 yards in each of his first four years. At times, Dorsett has made it look easy.

This, however, is supposed to be the new Dorsett, one who has been changed by his marriage to Julie Simon April 7. After meeting at training camp last summer, the couple decided to get married in Hawaii on Dorsett's birthday. She is from Oxnard, Calif., about 15 miles from the Cowboys training camp at Thousand Oaks.

"Marriage has added a lot of stability to my life," Dorsett said. "Life is a little more settled. I'm going to be a little more serious about my job, about my life."

Dorsett now spends more time at the practice field than at Dallas discos. Instead of trips to Hollywood for sessions with his acting coach, he drives about 12 miles from his country home in Wylie to pump weights.

"He's finally giving the program a fair shake," Ward said. "Tony had his own ideas about getting and staying in shape. I think you're going to see a running back who can gain 2,000 yards. I think you're going to see a guy who will make more long runs. And he's going to be able to take a lot more punishment."

Since Dorsett was drafted in 1977, Ward has made a fast sales pitch, showing him computerized printouts and endless charts. Ward, who has a doctorate in physical education, is a computer within himself. He spews factors and equations as if he were dealing with physicists, not players.

The recruitment of Dorsett as a weightroom regular has led to other enlistments. Attendance by running backs this season has been much higher.

"Just from seeing Tony over the last few weeks, I know that he's more serious," said Head Coach Tom Landry. "His off-season is the best I've seen him have. Tony is so gifted in so many ways, I think I might be seeing a different player because of attitude."

Dorsett has a motive.

"I'm fixing to get myself a few brownie points with the coaches," he said. "When see all these workouts, they'll think that I can take a pounding over the 16-game schedule, that I can carry the ball as many times as I want to."

The critical issue with Dorsett has been the number of carries. Despite a coaching pledge that would get the football 20 times a game last year, Dorsett averaged 17 carries, compared to Chicago's Walter Payton with 20.

Payton led the NFC in rushing with 1,460 yards, compared to Dorsett's 1,185.

Landry is not ready to commit himself to promising more carries in 1981. His argument for limiting Dorsett is the risk of injury. His evidence is with Eagles running back Wilbert Montgomery, who was overworked and missed six games with injuries.

"Wilbert was crippled up and limping a lot last season," Landry said. "That is the price you have to pay if you want a runner to gain a lot of yards. We don't want that. I want somebody that I can depend on week in and week out instead of somebody who gains 1,600 or 1,800 yards."

Dorsett, it seems, still has something to prove.

Hereford Partnership Slated This Weekend

The Hereford Partnership Golf Tourney is scheduled this weekend with about 100 teams expected to compete in the two-day tournament.

Defending champs James Salinas and Butch Turner will be back, but they won't be defending their title. Each has signed up with a different partner this year.

Entry fee is $80 per team and the action begins with a shotgun start at 9 a.m. Saturday. Tee-off times will be 9 a.m. and 2:30 p.m. on Sunday. The teams will be scoring the low ball of the partner on each hole.

Golf pro Mike Horton reports that the next tourney to be played here will be the Pan-Tex Golf Tournament June 13.

Canada's 128-foot-high Kakabeka Falls flows only on Sundays. On weekdays, water from the "Niagara of the North" in western Ontario is diverted through a flume to generate hydroelectric power.

Oklahoma State Shows Power in College Series

OMAHA, Neb. (AP) — Oklahoma State is on a roll. In two College World Series baseball games, the No. 3 Cowboys have belted 32 hits and scored 20 runs.

"For the past seven or eight games we've been on a roll," said John Cardinali, OSU third baseman who drove in the eventual winning runs in a 12-6 whipping of second-ranked Miami, Fla., in the Wednesday night winner's bracket semifinal.

The loss sends 61-9 Miami against No. 4 ranked Texas in Thursday night's elimination game to feature the nation's two first team All-American pitchers. The Hurricanes will go with 16-0 lefty Neal Heaton against 17-1 right-hander Tony Arnold for the 59-10-1 Longhorns. That game will follow the 45-14 South Carolina matchup with 46-16 Mississippi State.

Oklahoma State's win puts the Cowboys against No. 1 Arizona State with its 52-12 mark in the Friday winner's bracket final.

After three solid performances to roll out of the Midwest Regionals, 51-15 Oklahoma State had 15 hits in its 8-5 10-inning win over South Carolina in Sunday night's CWS first round. OSU pounded four Miami pitchers for 17 hits Wednesday.

"We have a good offensive ball club," said Cowboy catcher Mark Poole. "We're patient hitters. Lately, we've really been swinging the bats. It's more relaxing for our pitcher."

By the time Cowboy starter Mitch Coplon ran into rough going in the bottom of the third, he had a 7-0 cushion.

Rangers Rap Twins Again; Astros Beat Padres

Grote Sparks Royal Triumph

By WILLIAM R. BARNARD
AP Sports Writer

Jerry Grote, who was playing softball in a bank league a year ago, made his reputation as a defensive stalwart as starting catcher for the pennant-winning New York Mets in 1969 and 1973.

On Wednesday night, he made his mark on the Kansas City record book as an offensive star with seven runs batted in, including a grand slam homer, as the Royals outlasted the Seattle Mariners 12-9.

"The older the violin, the sweeter the music," said the 38-year-old Grote, who is back in the majors this year after a two-year retirement. "It just happened to be there tonight."

Ironically, a personal disappointment that dates back to exactly a year ago was in part responsible for getting Grote out of retirement. The Royals, in need of catching help after losing Darrell Porter to free agency, were able to sign Grote only after he lost his wife to divorce.

In other American League games, California bombed Toronto 17-6, Cleveland topped Boston 4-1, New York blanked Baltimore 2-0 in 11 innings, Oakland swamped Chicago 6-3, Texas beat Minnesota 6-3 and Detroit defeated Milwaukee 4-1.

Rangers 6, Twins 3
Bump Wills knocked in three runs with a triple and a single, Buddy Bell homered and Rick Honeycutt won his fifth game in six decisions to lead Texas over Minnesota.

It was Honeycutt's second victory of the season over the Twins and improved his

El Monterey Has 10-0 Mark In League

El Monterey sports a perfect 10-0 record to lead the standings in the Hereford Amateur Athletic Association Men's Softball League. Beacon is close behind with a 10-1 mark, while the Hereford A's are third at 8-2.

Bradford Trucking is in fourth place with a 7-3 record, while Missouri Beef is next at 6-4. Rounding out the league standings are Merchants (6-5), the Broncos (5-6), La Raza (4-6), Arrowhead Mills (3-7), Farr Better Feeds and Tagco (2-9), and La Fuente Floors (0-11).

Gym to Open For Girls' Play

Hereford High School girls' Athletic Coordinator Larry Sowers has announced that, beginning Monday, the La Plata Junior High School gym will be open to local girls and women for basketball play.

Sowers said the gym will be open every Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, and Friday through July with supervision provided. The gym will be open from 5-9 p.m. each night.

lifetime record against them to 8-2.

Angels 17, Blue Jays 6
Rick Burleson, Dan Ford and Brian Downing were the big guns in California's 19-hit attack against Toronto.

Burleson was 3-for-5 with three RBI, Ford knocked in four runs and Downing blasted a three-run homer, while Rod Carew and Butch Hobson pitched in with three hits apiece. Geoff Zahn, although he allowed 12 hits and six runs, including two homers by Otto Velez and one by George Bell, snapped a personal three-game losing streak.

Yankees 2, Orioles 0
Graig Nettles gave New York its second straight extra-inning victory over Baltimore, both coming on two-run homers in the 11th inning.

Dave Righetti and Ron Davis shut out the Orioles — who got their leadoff man on base seven times — on nine hits, with Davis allowing one in the final three innings for his second victory in four decisions. The lanky right-hander now has 57 strikeouts, most in the league, in 402-3 innings.

Indians 4, Red Sox 1
Toby Harrah doubled his home run production for the season with his third and fourth to pace Cleveland over Boston.

Harrah hit a two-run homer in the second inning, scored a run on Tom Verzer's single in the fourth and homered again in the sixth.

Tigers 4, Brewers 1
Steve Kemp homered, Richie Hebner doubled in a run and Kirk Gibson and Lynn Jones hit sacrifice flies to pace Detroit over Milwaukee.

Dan Schatzeder, 3-3, who retired 13 Brewers in a row after yielding two first-inning hits, had a shutout until the ninth, when Gorman Thomas doubled and scored on Don Money's single.

Jones also made a brilliant fielding play in the first inning when he made a sliding catch of Cecil Cooper's sinking liner to right field and retired Charlie Moore at the plate with a perfect throw to catcher Bill Fahey.

A's 8, White Sox 3
Wayne Gross slammed a three-run homer and Brian Kingman scattered seven hits to give first-place Oakland its second straight victory over Chicago, which fell to third in the West.

Rickey Henderson singled and Dwayne Murphy walked to start the game, and Gross hit his fifth homer to give the A's a 3-0 lead before Francisco Barrios had retired a batter.

Chet Lemon and Harold Baines hit homers for the White Sox.

Cooney Files Suit Against Martin

TORONTO (AP) — Baseball umpire Terry Cooney, citing a concern for the welfare of his fellow sports officials on the field, filed common assault charges against Oakland A's Manager Billy Martin Wednesday in a Canadian court.

Bill Kunkel, the chief of the umpiring crew which includes Cooney, said that Cooney had suffered physical injury from the alleged bumping incident in a game here Friday night.

"Right now, he's not mentioning it but since the incident he is receiving muscle spasms in his back and in his chest," Kunkel said of Cooney. "He's receiving medication right now and he has been consulting a doctor."

Cooney, who was sitting beside Kunkel when the latter made his comments, was asked if he had suffered such injuries.

Cooney nodded in affirmation and said, "I'd rather not discuss it now."

Cooney, who worked the Angels-Blue Jays game here Wednesday night, said he filed charges in hopes of protecting umpires and referees in the future.

"I feel that I may not realize any benefit from my actions," said Cooney, "but somewhere down the line, some official — whether it be in hockey or whether it be in basketball or football or baseball — is going to realize my efforts were not in vain."

Justice Donald Begley said Wednesday that Martin would be served with a summons the next time the A's play the Blue Jays here Sept. 21.

In Philadelphia, Richie Phillips, counsel to the Major League Umpires Association, said his group planned to seek an unspecified amount of civil damages against Martin in the United States.

Martin, who was in Chicago to manage the A's against the White Sox, said that he could not comment on the charges, on the advice of his attorney, Ed Sapir.

Martin, who sat out three days of a seven-day suspension imposed by American League President Lee MacPhail, was allowed to return to managing the A's Tuesday pending a hearing on an appeal he has filed. No date has been set for that hearing.

Assistant Crown Attorney Paul Culver said Cooney met in Toronto Wednesday with him and the police detective who investigated the run-in during the fourth inning of last Friday night's game at Exhibition Stadium.

Grand Canyon Wins; Host LCC Defeated

LUBBOCK, Texas (AP) — Defending champion Grand Canyon College rallied for three runs in the fifth inning, with Pete Bethea driving in the winning tally, and the Antelopes beat top-ranked Southeastern Oklahoma 8-5 in Wednesday's third game of the NAIA World Series.

The last game of the day, Liberty Baptist against Azusa Pacific, was suspended after four innings because of rain. The score was tied 3-3 and the game will be resumed Thursday.

Dewayne Rosenbaum hurled a five-hitter as David Lipscomb College eliminated John Brown University in the first game, 6-3, and Clayton Kincaid slammed a three-run homer as Spring Arbor College eliminated host Lubbock Christian College, 6-1.

Grand Canyon took an early 3-0 lead in the first inning, but Southeastern Oklahoma scored twice in the bottom of the first, a single run in the third and two more in the fourth for a 5-3 lead before Grand Canyon's rally.

Greg Handrahan was the winner in relief while Ron Gilbreath suffered his first loss of the year after 14 wins. The game was marred by nine errors.

LCC finished its season with a 38-40 mark.

The Cincinnati Reds have been complaining of late about the brutal winds at San Francisco's Candlestick Park. But when Frank Pastore pitches, the wind always seems to blow Cincinnati's way.

"I sure do well here," said the Cincinnati pitcher after Wednesday night's 6-2 victory over the Giants. "Can anyone tell me why? I just don't know. All I know is I've got a 4-0 record with four complete games in this park."

Leading the Cincinnati offense, as he has been most of the season, was Dave Concepcion, who had three hits and drove in two runs to boost his RBI total to 40 for the season.

"It looks like a good lineup so far," said Concepcion, who was moved to the No. 5 spot Wednesday night after batting third in every other game this season.

Reds Manager John McNamara asked both Concepcion and cleanup hitter George Foster what they thought of the proposed change and neither had any objection.

In other National League action, it was Atlanta 4, Los Angeles 2; New York 6, Philadelphia 2; St. Louis 3, Montreal 2 in 11 innings; Pittsburgh 3, Chicago 2, and Houston 6, San Diego 1.

Braves 4, Dodgers 2
Brian Asseltine homered, doubled and singled to back the four-hit pitching of Phil Niekro and Rick Camp as Atlanta defeated Los Angeles.

Asseltine hit his first homer of the season, a two-run shot, in the first inning when the Braves knocked out loser Burt Hooton, 7-2.

Niekro, 4-3, allowed only a two-run homer to Pedro Guerrero in the fourth inning before needing Camp's relief help in the eighth.

Mets 6, Phillies 2
Rookie right-hander Greg Harris allowed just two hits over seven innings and New York took advantage of some loose Philadelphia fielding to beat the Phillies.

The Mets scored their first run in the fourth on Lee Mazzilli's RBI single, then broke the game open with four runs in the eighth. Dave Kingman doubled home one run, another scored on a wild pitch by Dick Ruthven and two more scored on an error by Philadelphia third baseman Mike Schmidt.

Philadelphia's Pete Rose had two singles and now needs only eight more hits to break Stan Musial's National League record for career hits of 3,630.

Astros 6, Padres 1
Terry Puhl snapped a seventh-inning tie with a run-scoring double and Cesar Cedeno had three hits and scored three runs to lead Houston over San Diego.

Loser Rick Wise, 2-5, left with two out in the seventh after Alan Ashby singled and advanced to second on a sacrifice bunt by pitcher Don Sutton. Puhl greeted reliever Danny Boone with a double to break a 1-1 tie.

Sutton, 4-6, allowed seven hits. The 36-year-old former Los Angeles Dodger right-hander did not allow a walk while striking out six.

Cardinals 3, Expos 2
Orlando Sanchez tripled to open the 11th inning and scored one out later on Tommy Herr's single, leading St. Louis over Montreal. Sanchez's wallop and Herr's game-winning hit came off Elias Sosa, 1-1, the fourth Montreal pitcher.

Bruce Sutter, 2-3, picked up the victory by pitching the final three innings for St. Louis.

The Expos had taken a 2-1 lead in the top of the 10th on Tim Raines' third hit of the game, an RBI single with two outs. But the Cardinals tied it in the bottom of the 10th on George Hendrick's leadoff homer.

Pirates 3, Cubs 2
Jason Thompson smacked a two-run pinch homer in the eighth inning off Randy Martz to lift Pittsburgh over Chicago.

The Cubs had taken a 2-1 lead in the top of the eighth when Hector Cruz had blasted a two-run homer off Pirate starter Jim Bibby. But Thompson, hitting just .157, batted for Bibby in the eighth and drove his game-winning homer over the right field fence at Three Rivers Stadium.

Bibby, 4-3, allowed four hits in eight innings.

POLLY'S POINTERS
Polly Fisher
- Clogged steam iron -

POLLY'S PROBLEM

DEAR POLLY - I have a steam iron that has not been used for years. Starch is caked on the bottom and clogging the steam holes. Can anyone tell me how to clean this iron so it can be used? - MARY

DEAR MARY - Vinegar should dissolve the starch and mineral deposits on your iron. Fill the water chamber with full-strength white vinegar, heat the iron and allow it to steam for several minutes to unclog the steam holes and loosen the deposits. To clean the caked-on starch on the faceplate, scour with a solution of hot vinegar and salt. - POLLY hate to throw away spools of thread with only a few yards left on them. It's not enough to use for a regular sewing job, but too much to toss out. When I have several spools like this, I wind all the thread on one bobbin, one color after the other. I use all light colors on one bobbin and dark colors on another. This bobbin is then perfect to use when exact thread color is unimportant - for sewing pants, children's playclothes, or for sewing carpet rags for rugs. - GLADYS

DEAR POLLY - Instead of trying to fit a paper pattern onto your body when you're sewing a dress, lay a dress you already know fits you onto the pattern. You can mark the exact seam lines on the pattern. When you're ready to hem the garment, measure the correct length using the same dress you used on the pattern. Sure saves a lot of wear and tear on your nerves, and your home-sewn clothes will fit perfectly. - MRS. M.E.M.

DEAR POLLY - When I can pick up a few pounds of ground beef at a good price, I take it home and brown it in a frying pan, then package it in meal-size portions in the freezer. This saves a lot of time when I want to prepare a quick casserole on a busy day. - KATHY

DEAR POLLY - One-half teaspoon of water in the bottom of a candle cup will keep the cup from breaking from the flame's heat. This also makes the candle stub easier to remove. - C.C.

DEAR POLLY - I would like to tell the reader who has mice in her vacation cabin that the answer to her problem is plain old moth balls. If she can throw them under the house, the smell will not be as bad.

I keep mice out of a closet that opens into my garage by using moth balls. I find they repel most animals and I learned about them from our county agent when I had a skunk under a house I once lived in. I also once had a marvelous pecan tree that drew rats but the moth balls drove them away. Frankly, I think they work better on animals than on moths. I suggest that the reader scatter them under her cabin and near all the openings where she thinks mice might get in. The weather seems to have a lot to do with the evaporation of mothballs, but I find they usually last about six months, sometimes even nine months or longer. - LUCILLE

Feast & famine won't work

DEAR DR. LAMB - Can you send me a sensible diet, perhaps one I can use for life? I'm a 23-year-old female, 5-foot-5 and my weight fluctuates between 135 and 145. I fluctuate because I'm always dieting. I just can't seem to lose any more.

Although I have an office job, I'm very active. I bowl, play tennis and softball. Last spring I dropped 25 pounds in three months with a diet of under 1,000 calories a day but I was literally starving. When I started eating three sensible meals a day I gained back about 10 pounds. I have cut out bread and potatoes and on occasion have eaten hardly anything, so why can't I drop 15 or 20 pounds without having to starve for life? Just once I'd like to be able to go out to dinner with my boyfriend and order a juicy steak, fries or pizza without worrying about getting into my designer jeans the next day.

DEAR READER - What makes you think you should weigh less than 120? You are not a short woman, and women naturally have more fat tissue than men. If they are too skinny it affects their hormone balance and may even cause them to stop menstruating. That fat tissue has a role in forming hormones - maybe be nature is trying to protect you from yourself.

Your feast or famine approach is one problem. I am glad you recognize you need a lifetime program. You need to find the right balance of calories for your level of activity to maintain a healthy weight level. A lot of your sudden weight shifts are from losing normal body water and regaining it - water in, water out - but it doesn't do a thing for fat deposits.

While bread and potatoes, with added fat in preparation can be a problem, fats and concentrated sweets are the major sources of calories. Fat is hidden everywhere in food and learning to eliminate it is often what you need to do for a lifetime of good eating without getting fat.
