Economy Grows Fastest Since '78

WASHINGTON (AP) — The nation's economy grew more rapidly than reported earlier during the first three months of this year, expanding at an 8.6 percent annual rate, the most for any quarter since early 1978, the government reported today.

The Commerce Department also said that before-tax corporate profits rose 3.8 percent in the January-March quarter rather than 3.7 percent as originally reported. The revisions came one day after separate reports on Americans' personal income and on U.S. factory use inquartermly gain since the 9 percent growth in the second quarter of 1978. Real GNP rose 3.8 percent in the final quarter of 1980. Meanwhile, the report also revised a GNP-connected inflation measure downward — setting the broadly based GNP implicit price deflator at 9.8 percent. The deflator had been first reported at 7.8 percent, then was revised to 10 percent one month ago. The report also said that before-tax corporate profits rose at a seasonally adjusted annual rate of $259.1 billion in the first quarter. (See ECONOMY, Page 2)

House Group Rejects Business Tax-Cut Plan

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Ways and Means Committee, rejecting President Reagan's formula for business tax cuts, is endorsing a plan that would lower the maximum corporate tax and allow businesses to write off equipment investments all at once.

toward those earning less than $50,000 a year. The Senate Finance Committee, meanwhile, was meeting today to start writing its own tax bill, which is expected to include most of Reagan's recommendations. The House committee's business tax plan would provide about the same half-trillion dollars in tax relief over the next 10 years that Reagan sought, but in a far different way. As a stimulus to business investment, Reagan proposed that companies be allowed a quicker tax write-off — of money spent for buildings and machinery. Most expenditures could be recovered through tax deductions over 15, five or three years. The House committee, by a 20-14 vote Wednesday, recommended instead that businesses be allowed to write off the price of most machinery in the year it is bought. ### On Budget Cuts

Reagan Asks House GOP Members to be 'Hardnosed'

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Reagan administration is telling House Republicans to be more "hardnosed" in battling for budget changes, even after Democrats rearranged some spending cuts more to the president's liking.

alter the Democratic package of cuts on the House floor. He said Republicans are ready to battle Democrats over their rejection of Reagan's call to transfer control of nearly 100 specific federal programs to the states. Under the administration's block grant plan, states generally would parcel out the money as they see fit. The $37.8 billion package of cuts recommended by House committees was accepted Wednesday by the House Budget Committee and sent to the floor.

The House Education and Labor Committee voted Wednesday to restore millions of dollars for student loans, impact school aid and programs for the elderly and handicapped which it had cut last week.

The House committee cuts total $2.7 billion more than required by the budget outline Congress approved last month. But they still fall short of the $39.6 billion in cuts that Republican-controlled Senate committees have recommended.

Budget director David A. Stockman met privately Wednesday with House Republican Leader Robert H. Michel of Illinois and other key House Republicans and told them he was not satisfied.

Debate by the full House is not expected until next week at the earliest, giving the Republicans a few days to decide whether to submit their full substitute or simply press for minor amendments in the Democratic-backed plan.

Michel indicated he was not completely comfortable with the administration's stubborn position. "I'm not all that hung up on saying we've got to have everything we want," he said.

Michel said the administration estimates that, even with the Education and Labor Committee changes, the overall cuts recommended by Democratic-controlled committees for 1982 would fall $2.2 billion short of the permanent changes needed to put federal spending on a track toward the president's goal of a balanced budget in 1984.

Bull Chip Presentation

Gladys Cavness came forward in her "flapper" costume to receive the Bull Chip award at today's Fun Breakfast. Emcee Doug Manning and presenter Speedy Nieman are pictured at left. Mrs. Cavness, president of the Hereford Hustlers, was cited for her work with the chamber's goodwill ambassadors and other community involvement.

'Crazy' Fun Breakfast Held, Bull Chip to Gladys Cavness

The best-dressed people, rather individuals, in Hereford today are: a pregnant gorilla, a tree-complete with a nest and egg, a little old man from Pasadena, a hospital patient dragging an IV bottle, and a transsexual dressed in purple. These were the top award winners in the "Craziest-Dressed Contest" conducted at the bi-monthly Fun Breakfast this morning at the Community Center. The Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce used the Fun Breakfast to help Hereford merchants launch their annual Crazy Days Sales, which are to be held Thursday through Saturday.

Doug Manning and Lynton Allred were the usual emcees for the hiliary, prize presentations, and fun and games. Plains Insurance Agency co-sponsored the breakfast this month, with Bud Eades giving the welcome and recognizing his staff from the agency. The Bull Chip Award was presented to Gladys Cavness, president of the Hereford Hustlers. She was cited for her leadership with the goodwill ambassador group and for membership work in the chamber. Speedy Nieman presented the award, singing a song composed in her honor. Cash award winners included Aurora Hernandez, who got $75 in Hereford Bucks,

The chamber member's name drawn was Elmer Fry, but he was not present and missed the $100 award. Awards for the businesses with the most craziest-dressed employees were presented to Hereford State Bank and Hi-Plains Savings & Loan. The bank had 35 employees dressed crazy for the breakfast. The "pregnant gorilla" turned out to be Steve Hodges of HSB, and he won a weekend trip for two to Dallas. The "little old man from Pasadena" took second place, and she was revealed to be Pat Lawson, owner of Et Cetera. Mike Carr, executive vice president of the chamber, introduced two new members at the breakfast. They were the Thompson House Restaurant and Farm Bureau Insurance. Various representatives of clubs and organizations made announcements on upcoming community events. These included the July 4th Parade, the Miss Hereford Pageant, the Town and Country Jubilee, the beard-growing contest, the tug-of-war between business teams at Dameron Park Friday at 2 p.m., and the annual King's Manor barbecue.

Farm-Belt Solons Worry About Young Farmers' Fate

WASHINGTON (AP) — Farm Belt congressmen, worried about the economic problems facing young farmers just starting out, are pushing a new government-backed credit program they hope will keep the family farm in business. "The fact is there's no financing mechanism available that really gives that person a chance to go out and get involved," says Rep. Byron Dorgan, D-N.D. "It's in our interest to see that they do." Rep. Thomas Petri, R-Wis., said American farms disappeared at the rate of nearly 1,000 a week last year, and Rep. Berkeley Bedell, D-Iowa, said his new credit plan (See FARMERS, Page 2)

Report Says Bani-Sadr May Flee to Paris

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP) — President Abolhasan Bani-Sadr was rumored on the run in western Iran today as Iran's parliament prepared to begin debating his fate on Saturday.

Sources in Tehran said there were unconfirmed reports that the now-powerless president had taken refuge in the western city of Hamadan. There was speculation that he was planning to flee to Paris, where he spent 16 years in exile during the reign of the late Shah Mohammad Reza Pahlavi. Bani-Sadr, 47, has not been seen in public since Ayatollah Ruhollah Khomeini, the leader of the revolutionary regime, stripped him last week of his last position of power, commander-in-chief of the armed forces. His office stopped answering telephone calls from abroad Wednesday. Meanwhile, Bani-Sadr's foes controlling the Majlis, Iran's parliament, agreed Wednesday on ground rules for the debate on his performance as president. It is expected to end in a vote recommending that Khomeini remove him from office and possibly that he be put on trial. Sources in Tehran, reached by telephone from Beirut, said the procedures approved for the debate were a modification of those recommended by the 120 deputies who proposed the arraignment of the president. A two-thirds majority of those present will be required to approve a motion recommending Bani-Sadr's dismissal.

Hereford's Best Dressed?

The top two winners in the "craziest-dressed contest" at the C of C Fun Breakfast this morning were a pregnant gorilla (accompanied by Danny Boyer) and a "little old man from Pasadena." When unfrocked, the gorilla turned out to be Steve Hodges, and the little man was Pat Lawson. In the background are emcees Doug Manning and Lynton Allred. The breakfast, sponsored by Plains Insurance Agency, kicked off the Crazy Days' Sales being held by local firms today through Saturday.

Two Men Injured

By JULIE SMILEY
Staff Writer
A tragic accident this morning at Frious Industries, Inc., left two men dead and two men hospitalized. The accident happened at the feedlot one mile south of Black, about 14 miles southwest of Hereford. David J. Goddard, senior vice president for Frious Industries, refused to allow pictures at the scene or to comment on the incident. "I really don't know what happened," said Goddard. At 11:15 a.m. Goddard made this statement. "At approximately 8:15 a.m. on June 18, 1981, an industrial accident occurred at Frious Feedyard, Friona, Tx., in which four men were overcome by fumes in a molasses tank. As of 11 a.m., June 18, 1981, two of the four men are still alive and improving. The remaining two men died in the accident and names are being withheld pending notice to next of kin." An unidentified onlooker at the scene said at least one man, and maybe two, went down into a molasses pit to clean. Fumes overtook the cleaner(s), and two men followed after to pull them out. They were also overtaken by the fumes. The unidentified source said one man lay dead in the bottom of the pit. One man in serious condition and two men, not so seriously injured, were on the way to the hospital. The last ambulance left the feed yard at 9:20 a.m. Hereford Fire Department spokesman, Jay Spain, said the Hereford Fire Department assisted the Frious Volunteer Fire Department. "They (Frious) did 99 percent of the work," said Spain. Friona had three men out when Hereford fire trucks arrived. He said one man went down in the liquid feed pit and was overcome by a gas produced by the fermented feed. The (See MISHAP, page 2)

China, U.S.

Operating Post

NEW YORK (AP) — The United States and China are jointly operating a listening post in China to monitor Soviet missile tests, according to published reports.

The eavesdropping facility, which has been in operation for the past year, is in a western region close to the Soviet border and has filled a critical vacuum created when similar stations in Iran were lost during the Iranian revolution two years ago. The New York Times quotes senior American officials as saying.

The American officials had sought to keep the existence of the intelligence-gathering station a secret, fearing that disclosure could adversely affect both countries' relations with the Soviet Union, reports by the Times and NBC news said.

The monitoring equipment was furnished by the American government and is manned by Chinese technicians, according to NBC News.

The Times said it learned that the idea of setting up the listening post was first mentioned to the Chinese in 1978 before formal diplomatic relations had been established. A second effort was made in 1979 by a group of U.S. senators, two months after the closing of the Iranian post.

American officials were quoted as saying the posts are essential for checking whether the Soviets comply with strategic arms agreements.

Bank Sniper Kills 2 People

ROCHESTER, N.Y. (AP) — A gunman firing at random killed two people, wounded eight, and held several employees hostage in a bank for two hours Wednesday before police shot him to death, authorities said.

Police Chief Delmar Leach said a package carried by the unidentified man might contain a bomb and called the bomb squad soon after the man was shot outside the Security Trust Co.

Leach said the gunman was killed by a single shot from a special-operations officer as the man ran after a bank teller who was trying to escape.

The teller, whose identity was not immediately known, was wounded by the gunman.

Fire Erupts In Highrise

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A fire erupted this morning in a highrise building in San Francisco's busy financial district, sending scores of people to the roof, officials said.

The blaze was contained to the 14th floor of the 38-story Tishman Building, and no one was reported injured.

Occupants from the four floors above and below the fire were "relocated" by firefighters. But within two hours, they and people on the roof were allowed to return to their offices.

New Bill Could Jail Uninsured

AUSTIN, Texas (AP) — Texans who drive without insurance could go to jail and have their licenses suspended under a bill signed into law Wednesday by Gov. Bill Clements.

The law requires automobiles and trucks — with a few exceptions — to be covered by liability insurance. Mandatory coverage would pay medical expenses of $10,000 per person, up to $20,000 for all victims of an accident, and auto repair costs up to $5,000.

A motorist could be required at any time to show a police officer or highway patrolman proof of insurance.

A driver convicted of not having insurance could be fined up to $200 on first offense, with a minimum fine of $75. If convicted again, the driver could go to jail for six months and pay a $1,000 fine, and the minimum fine would be $200.

Conviction for driving without insurance also would result in automatic suspension of one's driver's license and vehicle registration. A driver could avoid the penalty, however, by buying insurance and maintaining coverage for five years.

Lifelong Friend of Harrelson Called Before Grand Jury

SAN ANTONIO, Texas (AP) — A man described as a lifelong friend of convicted killer Charles V. Harrelson has been called to testify before a grand jury investigating the assassination of a federal judge.

George Edward "Pete" Kay, a Huntsville nightclub operator, was subpoenaed Wednesday but waited all day without being called. He is expected to take the stand today in the panel's investigation of the 1979 shooting death of U.S. District Judge John H. Wood Jr.

Kay was asked to testify as the grand jury looked for evidence of any link between Harrelson and convicted narcotics trafficker Jimmy Chagra.

Government attorneys have listed Harrelson and Chagra as "targets" of the two-year-old investigation.

Kay's attorney, Jim Moore of Houston, said he expected Kay to be offered immunity and compelled to testify. Two others who have refused to answer questions under similar circumstances have been jailed for civil contempt of court.

The bearded Kay would not comment on whether he would testify under immunity and Moore said, "we'd better wait and see what the government is going to do."

The grand jury interrogated eight witnesses on Wednesday, including a casino dice dealer who once received a $6,000 tip from Chagra and two Florida pilots who flew Chagra to Las Vegas.

The panel, meeting for the first time in a month, also pursued an alleged "payoff" for Wood's assassination in 1979.

Robert Mike Springer, who said he was a dice dealer at Binion's Horseshoe Casino in Las Vegas, said he was questioned about whether he remembered Chagra and Harrelson gambling together in 1979.

"They (jurors) thought I could connect Chagra and that other guy (Harrelson), and I couldn't," Springer told reporters after his appearance.

Springer said, however, he remembered Chagra because the high-stakes gambler "toked" (tipped) him $6,000 one time, but that by house rules the tip had to be divided with all other casino employees on that shift.

He said he did not know Harrelson or Harrelson's wife, Joan Starr Harrelson, who reportedly gambled at the same casino.

Fort Lauderdale charter pilots Dan Pavelka and Bill Dimauro said they were questioned about the all-night flight of Chagra and two Mexican maids from Florida to Las Vegas.

Pavelka said Chagra used the alias "Jimmy Alexander" on the Lear Jet flight and he remembered nothing special about it.

Pavelka said he was shown "a bunch of pictures" and he recognized Chagra and Earl McLennan, a Coral Springs, Fla., man held in contempt on May 8 for refusing to testify in the Wood investigation.

McLennan was sentenced to one-year in prison in Boston on May 12 for aiding and abetting Chagra during a six-month period that Chagra was a fugitive.

The prosecutor also "must have reeled off 30 names, but I never recognized any of them" except one name that sounded like a Florida automobile dealer, Pavelka said.

Pavelka said he also was asked whether he flew Chagra's wife, Elizabeth, to Corpus Christi on June 30, 1979. That is the date investigators have questioned other witnesses about in regard to an alleged payoff to Harrelson's step-daughter on Padre Island.

He said he told the jurors he had never been to South Texas before.

Also appearing Wednesday were the father, brother and an acquaintance of Houston policeman Carl Nellis, who testified earlier this year about some .243-caliber rifles he purchased years ago.

Land Board To Stop Accepting Loan Requests

AUSTIN, Texas (AP) — With a waiting list of more than 14,000, the Texas Veterans' Land Board has voted to stop accepting requests for loans from veterans because the program is short on money.

The board, however, asked Gov. Bill Clements on Wednesday to allow the July 13 special legislative session to consider two proposals to keep the popular program alive.

Land Commissioner Bob Armstrong told Clements the program "is almost unbelievably sound."

Armstrong, chairman of the three-member board, wrote the governor that the Senate had approved the proposals during this year's regular session, but they were "bottled up in (House) subcommittee, reportedly at the instruction" of Speaker Bill Clayton.

With the long waiting list, "Obviously there is no lack of interest in the program. For that matter, no opposition, except perhaps that of the speaker, surfaced during the regular session."

Clayton responded that the special session would act on his proposal to set aside part of any state surplus for water projects "and to increase the interest on state bonds authorized but unissued. Should the governor include in the call the issuance of additional bonds, that would be considered in the ordinary way all legislation is considered."

"I do not in any way oppose the veterans' land program, but I believe there are alternatives which might provide better benefits," Clayton said.

The state retains title to the land until the loans are paid in full.

The board said 165,000 Vietnam veterans, 316,000 Korean veterans and 740,000 World War II veterans, plus reservists and national guardsmen who had four to six months active duty training are eligible for loans.

nor to include two proposed constitutional amendments in the special session. One would permit the board to sell its last $74 million in bonds at higher than the 6 percent interest ceiling, and the other would authorize an additional $250 million in bonds.

The program offers loans of up to $20,000 to purchase 10 or more acres. The current interest rate is 7 percent on a 40-year loan.

U.S. and Iraq Negotiating Resolution

UNITED NATIONS (AP) — The United States and Iraq are trying to negotiate a veto-proof U.N. Security Council resolution that would censure Israel for its destruction of an Iraqi nuclear reactor.

The Reagan administration said, meanwhile, it could not support Israel's claim that Iraq was planning to build an atomic bomb at the Baghdad reactor. That assessment drew a sharp rebuke from Israel's friends in Congress.

"There's been some movement, there's been some hope" of negotiating a resolution acceptable to all sides, U.S. Ambassador Jeane J. Kirkpatrick told reporters

Wednesday night after working for two hours on a draft resolution with Iraqi Foreign Minister Saadoun Hammadi, Secretary-General Kurt Waldheim and the ambassadors of Britain and Mexico.

She said she would confer with officials in Washington on the new draft.

Hammadi said there "could be a consensus or there could be a breakdown."

Mrs. Kirkpatrick would not say whether the draft called for sanctions against Israel. U.S. officials have said privately that Washington might support a resolution condemning Israel's June 7 raid and calling for compensation to Iraq, but certainly would veto sanctions or "reparations."

The 15-member council has spent five days debating Iraq's demand that Israel be punished for destroying the Baghdad reactor. Israel claims it bombed the reactor to stall Iraqi plans to build atomic bombs for use against the Jewish state.

It takes nine affirmative council votes to adopt a resolution, but any of the five permanent members — the United States, the Soviet Union, China, France or Britain — can veto it.

In Washington,

Undersecretary of State Walter J. Stoessel told a House hearing Wednesday the administration does not agree with Israel's claim that Iraq had decided to develop nuclear weapons.

Congressional hearings are being held to determine whether Israel's use of American jet planes in the raid violated a U.S. stipulation that they could be used for defensive purposes only. Israel claims the attack was an act of self-defense, but a congressional determination that it was offensive rather than defensive could result in a cutoff of U.S. military aid to Israel.

Bill Posed on Corporate Donations

WASHINGTON (AP) — A bill to increase the donations that corporations can make to charity was introduced Wednesday by Rep. Bill Archer, R-Houston.

"The role that efficient and effective charitable organizations play in the American society cannot be over-emphasized," Archer said.

His bill would amend the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 by allowing all corporations to increase the amount of deductible contributions from 5 percent of their annual taxable income to 10 percent, or 5 percent plus $100,000, whichever is less.

"This proposal will encourage business to assume a greater role in the support of non-profit institutions," Archer said.

He said his legislation addresses the problem that charitable institutions face in light of pending federal budget cuts.

Farmers

recognizes "how important it is that we continue to have the family farm as the basis for American agriculture."

The House Agriculture subcommittees on family farms and credit are considering the proposal, which would provide millions of dollars of federal loan guarantees through states with lending programs especially targeted to young farmers trying making to make their first land purchases.

Those farmers would have to show that they can't get the credit anywhere else, including the government's farm lending arm, the Farmers Home Administration. About 20 states have either enacted such lending programs or have them under consideration.

But Frank Naylor, the undersecretary of agriculture overseeing that lending agency, told the subcommittees Wednesday that the FmHA is redirecting its efforts toward first-time farmers with emphasis on supervision by farm experts in the borrower's local area to help ensure their success and enable them to qualify for commercial credit within 10 years.

Al Haslebacher, deputy governor of the Farm Credit Administration, said the plan could help some farmers get started. But he cautioned that others could wind up worse off after getting the credit because they won't be able to earn enough from farming to make the payments on a mortgage for most of the value of the land.

"Current earnings have averaged only around 4 percent nationwide, far less than is required to pay the interest loan...when the purchase is highly leveraged," Haslebacher told the subcommittees.

"This leaves nothing for operating expenses or family living. In fact, it requires that other sources of earnings be available to make part of the mortgage payments," he said. "There could be more problems by lending people into trouble than by some not being able to get into the field."

Naylor said risk of default under the plan could be higher than in other government credit programs because those eligible for the new credit first would have to be rejected for a loan from the FmHA, which serves those who can't qualify for commercial credit.

Both Haslebacher and Naylor emphasized that their two agencies are making significant amounts of credit available to young farmers just starting out.

The Farm Credit Administration, financed by its borrowers, made 23 percent of its loans last year to farmers younger than 35 and more than 70 percent of FmHA loans went to new family farmers, they said.

Tax-Cut

Corporate profits from current production, adjusting for depreciation and inventory replacement costs, rose 10.7 percent rather than 10.5 percent as first reported.

As reported earlier, Commerce Department officials said rising personal consumption spending and exports helped push the rapid growth in the first-quarter GNP.

That gain, the most in about three years, surprised many economists. They later said the first quarter, boosted by auto rebates and retail sales promotions, apparently had borrowed economic growth from the following three months.

Private analysts said there was no cause for concern in Wednesday's Commerce report that personal income rose a jackluster 0.6 percent for the second month in a row in May, a gain which probably was eaten up immediately by inflation.

The Reagan administration, meanwhile, is predicting little or no overall economic growth in the second and third quarters. If Congress passes the president's economic package, that could mean some recovery by the end of the year, administration officials say.

Mishap

fumes, produced by the fermentation, displace oxygen and smell like rotten molasses, according to Spain.

Two more men went down to help the first man, and they were also overcome by fumes before they could get off the ladder. Spain said he thought the feed yard manager followed to help all three.

Two of the men were taken to Friona Hospital and one man to Deaf Smith General Hospital. One man was pronounced dead at the scene by the Justice of the Peace, said Spain.

Economy

also would reduce the maximum corporate tax rate from the current 46 percent to 34 percent by 1986 and aim other cuts at helping small business. But the Democratic plan would eliminate the investment tax credit, which now can wipe out up to 10 percent of the taxes a business owes.

The committee has not decided how most buildings should be treated in its plan. But members agreed to a Reagan-backed proposal, designed to help deteriorating inner cities, that would liberalize the investment tax credit for rehabilitating buildings.

Rep. Barber B. Conable of New York, the House committee's senior Republican, assailed the substitute as "a pig in a poke" that is geared to large corporations and does nothing to ensure added investment.

A faster reduction in the "marriage tax" than would be allowed under Reagan's plan was put forward Wednesday by a five-member task force of Democrats on the committee.

NEW YORK (AP) — Abbie Hoffman — ex-Yippie, counter-culture hero and all-around activist — says he's planning to use his "celebrity status" to fight heroin addiction.

Hoffman, serving a jail sentence on a drug charge, said at a news conference Wednesday that addiction is a serious social problem — second only to "society's greed for money."

Hoffman, 44, called on others who have a "cultural impact" to join him in an anti-heroin advertising campaign.

Hoffman is serving a three-year sentence for selling $36,000 worth of cocaine to undercover police officers in 1973. He turned himself in earlier this year after spending seven years as a fugitive. On June 10, he began working at the Veritas Therapeutic Community drug clinic under a prison work-release program.

CONCORD, N.H. (AP) — President Reagan turned from acting to politics, but New Hampshire Gov. Hugh Gallen is headed the other way.

The state film bureau says Gallen has gotten a bit part in a movie about the 1905 Japanese-Russian peace treaty, which was signed in Portsmouth, N.H. The five-hour film is a project of the Japanese Public Broadcasting System.

Gallen shouldn't have much trouble with his part, according to film bureau head Martha Leighton. The governor plays a governor — Gov. John McLane, who played host to the foreign diplomats 76 years ago.

NEW YORK (AP) — The class of 1982 at Georgetown University includes quite a few talented students. But few are as talented — or as outspoken — as 63-year-old Pearl Bailey.

Miss Bailey, a high school dropout some years back, says college "makes you feel younger because it makes you stretch again."

In an interview in Good Housekeeping magazine, the celebrated entertainer, world traveler and conversationalist crowded about her 4.0 grade-point average, the equivalent of straight A's.

"Those gals fussing and fighting to be a '10' have nothing on ole Pearlie Mae," she said, adding that, with her grades, she considers herself a "red-hot four."

MASERU, Lesotho (AP) — Actress-activist Jane Fonda, spurned by officials in South Africa, has received a warmer welcome in this small mountainous kingdom surrounded by South African territory.

Miss Fonda, along with husband Tom Hayden and their two children, were denied visas Tuesday when they arrived in Johannesburg from New York City. They had been invited by students to speak at a university in Johannesburg, but officials of the white-ruled nation denied them entry without explanation.

"If they are making the progress that they say they are, and if they want to be understood, then it is in their interest to let people like us in to see all sides," Miss Fonda said after arrival to a VIP welcome in Lesotho Wednesday.

Israel Was Wrong, But...

What a way to have to live. Men and women board work-bound buses tear gas in hand, walk unsafe streets looking neither to the right nor left—daring to smile at nobody—arrive at guarded buildings with keys for a multiplicity of security doors, keep purses in locked drawers.

At day's end the city dweller retreats behind locks and bolts and chains and peepholes and sealed windows with concealed alarms and big dogs.

And yet for all or precautions, headlines cream of three-of-ten households invaded by criminals—10 percent more than the year before.

One-in-four American Presidents targeted by assassins.

And revolving-door courts rooms keep killers and rapists and robbers recirculating.

So that's you who must be locked in, behind barricaded doors and barred windows. The animals have taken over the zoo.

The one under house arrest—is you!

What you just read may sound unrelated to what you are about to read.

I don't think so.

Israel was wrong...but...

Again, for the record, Israel's latest act of war was a diplomatic no-no.

You know it. I know it. Israel knows it.

But...

Rooted deep and indelible in the genes of my generation is a yearning that Menachem Begin's impetuosity satisfies.

Cowbelles Announce Beef For Father's Day Campaign

This year, summer officially begins on Father's Day, June 21. An appropriate way to celebrate these two events is by having a sizzling beef barbecue for the family.

Beef barbecues have become tradition for many families across the country, and having one for Father's Day is a natural, according to Nancy Jossierand, Hereford CowBelles, and chairman of the Beef for Father's Day promotion.

"The great taste of beef has made it one of Dad's favorite foods," Mrs. Jossierand said. "And there's something about cooking it outdoors that seems to bring out more flavor, juiciness and tenderness."

Mrs. Jossierand said that while beef is great tasting when cooked on the grill, it is also one of nature's most complete foods. "Beef supplies many of the body's essential nutrients, such as iron, protein, zinc, B-vitamins and others," she said.

"Because it supplies so many of these vitamins and minerals in comparison to the calories it contains, nutritionists call it a high nutrient density food."

The CowBelles first started promoting beef for Father's Day in 1983. This year, the Hereford CowBelles, along with the Beef Industry Council of the National Live Stock and Meat Board, are cooperating in the annual Beef for Father's Day campaign.

Locally, the CowBelles will provide information, literature and recipes at Ideal Food Store from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Friday, June 19. Also, free samples of barbecued brisket will be available.

"This Father's Day, why not honor Dad with a sizzling beef barbecue," says Mrs. Jossierand. "For so many good reasons, it's the food he's right to like."

Rebekah Lodge Installation

Hereford Rebekah Lodge No. 228 met in regular session Tuesday evening at IOOF Temple with nineteen members present. It was announced that the chapter would conduct its installation ceremony Tuesday, July 14. The new officers will serve a six month term.

Noble Grand Faye Brownlow presided at the Tuesday meeting as several members and friends were reported on the sick list and greeting cards were signed.

Lavita Fitzgerald served as hostess to Edna Mathes, Lydia Hopson, Bessie Saulcy, Faye Brownlow, Verna Sowell, Mary Belle Clanton, Ada Hollabaugh, Beth Hall, Nellie Beauford, Peggy Lemons, Anna Conklin, Glessie Lawrence, Bessie Lawrence, E.E. Bishop, Karrol Rettman and Susie Curtinger.

On Saturday, July 18, an Odd Fellow-Rebekah night at the drama "Texas," has been scheduled. Tickets may be reserved any time before July 16.

Check Presentation

The Hospital Auxiliary contributed to the purchase of an apnea monitor for Deaf Smith General Hospital Tuesday afternoon. Lupe Cerda, auxiliary treasurer, presented Jim Bullard, hospital administration, with a check in the amount of $400. The money was raised through the gift shop located in the hospital lobby. The apnea is a blanket on which baby's having trouble breathing are placed. When the baby quits breathing a monitor sounds, alerting hospital staff.

Local Hereford Boy Receives Scholarship

Robin Ray Ruland of Hereford has been named to receive a Band Scholarship at McMurry College for the coming school year, according to Dr. Thomas Kim, McMurry President.

McMurry is a fully accredited four-year liberal arts college in Abilene. Established in 1923, McMurry is owned and operated by the Northwest Texas and New Mexico Conferences of the United Methodist Church. Band Scholarships at McMurry are awarded after a personal audition with Tommy Fry, Director of the McMurry College Band. Ruland is a 1981 graduate of Hereford High School. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ruland of 119 Sunset.

At Wits End

By ERMA BOMBECK

Does anyone else suffer from "latent genius?" My brain is just not geared for conversational combat. Put it in a situation that requires speed, cunning and excessive cuteness and it'll stall every time.

It doesn't wake up until a door slams; the phone is hung up, the party is over, or Johnny Carson is saying good night.

I fantasize about being approached by a tall, dark stranger and having him say, "Have you ever thought of leaving your husband?" and I'd yawn, "Why should I settle for polyester when I have ultra-suede at home, if you get my drift."

Then he says, "I admire your flippancy."

And I reply, "Then you'll love the movie."

"Please," he begs, as I turn to leave. "I love to talk to liberated women who know who they are."

I sigh, "When I can't stand the heat...I'll go back to the kitchen."

He says, "Would you mind if I sent that in to Reader's Digest?" and I shrug, "Whatever makes your wheels spin."

It never happens that way. The only time a man asked me if I had ever thought of leaving my husband I answered, "Where?" and dropped a smoked oyster in his drink.

A lot of people are brilliant when they're angry. Not me. I usually end up with a colorful, "Well, we'll see about that" or "Sticks and stones will break my bones but words will never harm me."

I suspect a lot of it stems from a basic shyness or insecurity. All I know is I am dynamite in the car by myself behind the steering wheel. There is no one who can top me in quick retorts, asides, innuendoes, plays on words and insights. I could convulse a convention of nuclear protesters.

That is where I rehearsed a comment I was going to deliver at a dinner honoring Arthur Hailey a few years ago. The speech was devastatingly hilarious and I began to feel sorry for poor Mr. Hailey, who would fade into oblivion as the guests crowded around my silver tongue.

At the dinner, I cleared my throat and said, "Mr. Hailey, I've written everything you've ever read."

Luckily, I mumbled and no one heard me.

Working-up a sweat is just a part of what the new trend of exercise, Jazzercise, does for those active women participants. A total body conditioning program of exercise, Jazzercise is the "most popular of all exercise programs," in the Hereford area. Reaching women of all ages, various classes of this form are now being offered in this area.

Miss Naomi Fuhrmann Honored With Recipe-Kitchen Shower

Naomi Fuhrmann, bride-elect of Glenn Devers, was honored with a recipe-kitchen shower recently at 704 Plains. The bride's chosen colors of blue, yellow and apricot were carried out in the floral arrangement of silk flowers that adorned the serving table. A pink silk organza cloth with milk glass appointments were used. Punch and an assortment of cookies were served.

Nedra Fuhrmann, sister of the bride-elect, presided at the punch bowl. Mrs. Ronald Fuhrmann, mother of the honoree and the honoree greeted the guests along with the hostesses. Approximately 50 guests called during the tea hour.

Hostesses for the shower included Byrdie D. Fellers, Quintna Waits, Kathryn Chapman, Jane Dameron, Margaret Ann Durham and Mary Jo Hamman.

Camp Fire Council Sets Camp Date

Hereford Council of Camp Fire is conducting its summer resident camping program this year during the week of July 19 through July 25 at Camp Summer Life, Vadito, N.M. All persons interested in attending camp, which includes youth who have completed the second grade through seniors in High School, are asked to register immediately as plans are in progress for this year's fun-filled week. Fee for the summer camp is $105.50. Special programs will be planned for each age group and this will be determined by the number that register. Registration forms may be obtained from Karroll Rettman, 706 Irving and need to be returned to Mrs. Rettman or sent to P.O. Box 1621. Registrations must be in by June 20. For further information one can contact Mrs. Rettman at 364-4084.

Hereford Keeps Abreast of New, Varied Trends of Physical Fitness

By DENISE SMITH Staff Writer

In the current wave of fitness awareness that is sweeping the nation even a community the size of Hereford is keeping abreast of the new and varied trends in physical fitness.

"People are realizing the importance of exercise in a daily routine and it is now "an accepted part of one's life," said Lewis Larrymore, owner of Larrymore's Dance Studio.

A great many of the fitness programs being utilized by citizens of Hereford include walking, jogging, swimming, biking, tennis and a large variety of other sports.

There is, however, concern by some that even with the present variety of opportunities available there are those who have been unable to find a fitness program to suit their needs or physical condition.

A new trend of exercise, called Jazzercise, has hit its peak with the nation. Invented by Judi Sheppard Missett, the recently developed program of exercise has been franchised, and is selling rapidly.

A total body conditioning program of exercise, Jazzercise is the "most popular of all exercise programs," according to Larrymore, who has been involved in exercise classes since 1930.

"The history of exercise classes hasn't changed since its beginning," Larrymore said, adding "we have the same bodily equipment now as we did in 1930...or for that matter, since the beginning of time. That part of exercising has not changed. We all have arms, legs, a head, and so on with which to work. I really feel that those ladies 50 years ago in my classes exercising to the old tune "Annie Doesn't Live Here Anymore" enjoyed that experience every bit as much as the present classes here jazzercising to "Tequila" or "Shake Your Bootee!"

In 1930 time was marked by counting, snapping fingers, or tapping out the rhythmic patterns.

It was while Larrymore was in Lubbock teaching his first exercise class for ladies that he began using a pianist to add variety to the classes and keep the ladies in the proper rhythms.

A daily radio exercise program in Carlsbad, N.M. in 1941 was, according to Larrymore, tuned in by virtually everyone in Carlsbad who listened to the radio.

"Exercise is certainly not a new thing. In 1930 when I first became involved in holding exercise classes we had no recorded routines or classes, and in fact were thrilled to even have a half-heated pianist with a cut finger to accompany the ladies as they exercised," Larrymore said.

There seems to be almost as many methods of exercise as there are people exercising.

A new trend coming to this area is aerobic dancing, which is dancing to the time of music.

Since 1930 the American public has embraced an almost limitless number of exercise styles and programs. These programs on occasion involved part as much imagination as they did physical exertion. Some of the "phases" exercise has gone through are Plastic Ballet Conditioning Classes, Debby Drake's Dancercise, The Canadian Air Force regime, isometrics, and of course, the father of televised exercise, Jack LaLanne.

"LaLanne's exercises were not all that outstanding," explained Larrymore, "but his idea of entertaining America as he performed them on television did more for popularizing the whole idea of exercise and sparking the public's interest than anything else at the time."

Out of this growing awareness of the importance of physical fitness have come such innovations as Aerobics, Jazzercise, health clubs, and the present day version of Debby Drake's Dancercise, all of which are available here.

"Each individual must find the fitness program best suited to his or her personal tastes and lifestyles," states Larrymore. For this reason an entire field of exercise has been opened in hopes of devising several different programs that will serve the needs and preferences of a wider range of people.

Among these will be classes primarily geared toward those ladies who due to pregnancy, weight, age, or physical disability must limit the degree of their physical activities.

It is important to use common sense when beginning a fitness regime. Exercising at a level too advanced can do more physical damage than good. And, while some soreness is to be expected when beginning any new exercise program, extreme soreness or fatigue is likely to mean too much vigor was used in the classes.

"It's easy to overdo at first, and often ladies who are unable to keep up going away feeling very defeated," stressed Larrymore.

Larrymore concluded that "all present fitness programs in Hereford, whether they be sports or floor exercises, are worthwhile and beneficial to those who participate. I do not wish to suggest otherwise," he said. "My concern at present is focused on that portion of the population whose needs are not presently being met for one reason or another."

Ornamental, Garden Clinic Scheduled

An ornamental and Garden Clinic will be held Wednesday, June 24 in the Ballroom, Hereford Community Center, beginning at 9:25 a.m. This program is sponsored by the Deaf Smith County Extension Service, Deaf Smith Community Development Committee, Bud to Blossom Garden Club, Garden Beautiful Club and Hereford Garden Club.

The program is designed to bring the latest information and to assist with landscape and garden problems. At the morning session, a short program will be presented by six Texas Agriculture Extension Service specialists. Following an individual conference and diagnostic clinic will be held to assist in solving various problems. Specimens of insects, diseased plants, etc. need to be brought to the clinic.

The afternoon program will be a tour of home lawns and landscapes. One will be able to see problems in lawns as well as how some have overcome problems. The tour will begin at 1:30 p.m. at the Jack Wilcox residence on 205 Ranger followed at 2 p.m. at the Charlie Noland home at 204 N. Texas Street. The tour will conclude at Betty Danley's home on 133 Star with a 2:30 p.m. stop planned.

Melvin Jayroe, chairman of the Community Development Committee invites everyone to attend. The clinic is free of charge. Any questions concerning the clinic can be directed to the Deaf Smith County Extension Agents, Justin McBride and Louise Walker at 354-3873.

The ornamental and Garden Clinic schedule is as follows:

9:25-9:30 a.m. - Welcome by Louise Walker, county extension agent.

9:30-9:45 a.m. - "Keys to Productive Summer Garden," Dr. Roland Roberts, Area Vegetable Specialist, TAES.

10-10:15 a.m. - "Ornamental and Lawn Insect Identification and Control," Dr. Carl Patrick, Area Entomologist, TAES.

10:15-10:30 a.m. - "Fertilizing Garden, Flowers, and Ornamentals," Dr. Dale Pennington, Area Soil Chemist, TAES.

10:30-10:45 a.m. - "Lawn Care and Adapted Grasses," Dr. Richard L. Duhle, Turfgrass Specialist, TAES.

10:45-11 a.m. - "Landscaping Tips," Everett E. Jans, Landscape Horticulturist, TAES.

11 a.m. - 12 noon - "Diagnosing Ornamental, Lawn & Garden Problems," Diagnostic Clinic.

12-1:30 p.m. - Lunch break. Tour of local home lawns and landscapes:

1:30-2 p.m. Mrs. Jack Wilcox, 205 Ranger.

2-2:30 p.m. - Mrs. Charlie Noland, 204 N. Texas Street.

2:30-3 p.m. Mrs. Betty Danley, 133 Star Street.

Ann Landers

DEAR ANN LANDERS: My problem is the result of a divorce. I was unaware that my ex-wife was slipping around with an attorney who was our mutual friend. He advised us on the separation agreement. I didn't want a divorce, but life was unbearable. After hours of counseling I decided it would be best for us both.

a junior in high school at the time. I also agreed to pay all expenses for our daughter who attends college. I did not want to disrupt the life of the children, so I left my fine antiques in the home and gave my ex-wife the new car. It was decided that I would make the house payments and in the spring the house would go up for sale. I did all the yard work and had the house repainted.

My ex-wife married the attorney, our mutual friend, last summer. He promptly moved into my house, sleeps in my bed, drives my car and attends my church. He moved his son into the house, also. Two weeks ago I received a letter from one of his lawyer friends asking me to pay all the utilities.

I am at the brink of putting up a sign in the front yard saying, "I Support (name of attorney) and His Wife. Courtesy of—," and put my name on it. I have already paid such a high price financially and emotionally that I am at the breaking point. Please advise. -Scorned in Greensboro, N.C.

DEAR SCORNED: You sound like a man who has been through the wringer. The last thing you need is another lawsuit. Consult with your attorney before you put up the sign. It could be an expensive way to get even.

Around the Town

Mrs. Alice Christman, member of Delta Xi Chapter of Hereford, and her daughter, Mrs. Lois Ketham, member of Delta Phi Chapter in Andrews, participated in the 52nd Annual Alpha State convention of the international society for key women educators held recently at Fort Worth.

The couple participated in the special tribute to mothers and daughters, presented by Mrs. Ruth Johnson, Alpha State first Vice President. The birthday luncheon was held in the Grand Crystal Ballroom. Mrs. Donna Van Hoove of Austin, State Scholarships Chairman recognized honor chapters and introduced state and international scholarship recipients at the birthday luncheon.

Mrs. Mary Rowlette, state president, selected as the convention theme a quotation from Dolly Parton: "Tomorrow's waiting, let's journey there together. Take my hand and run with me out of the past of yesterday and walk with me into the future." Miss Jessie Sim, international treasurer and acting executive secretary, and a past state president of Alpha State served as the international representative.

While the convention took the form of a traditional old fashioned celebration, the site was the newly decorated and modern Hyatt Regency (formerly the Texas) Hotel. Hostesses dressed in long calico skirts and bonnets and this motif was followed throughout the convention.

Participants attended leadership seminars, state executive board meetings, general session, memorial service, a critical concerns seminar and a formal banquet at the close of the convention.

Founders and Presidents were honored at the banquet. President Mary Rowlette presided and Miss Sim was the featured speaker. Guest speaker was Dr. Aleene Van de Grift, Delta Tau President.

Mrs. Doris Bryant of 312 Star is currently president of the local chapter. There are about 60 members in this chapter of which Mrs. Christman belongs.

Two Sunday School Departments of First Baptist Church had a backyard party at the home of Speedy Nieman Sunday night following church services.

Homemade ice cream and cake were enjoyed by the 40 who attended.

Tour of Home Lawns

An Ornamental and Garden Clinic will be held Wednesday, June 24 at the Ballroom, Hereford Community Center, beginning at 9:25 a.m. The afternoon program will consist of a tour of home lawns and landscapes. Problems in lawns as well as how some have overcome problems will be discussed. The tour will begin at 1:30 p.m. at the home of Jack Wilcox, 205 Ranger. Above Mrs. Wilcox, right, and Mrs. Jim Cavin are shown in the Wilcox's backyard preparing the lawn for the tour.

Brother Billy Duke to Speak

The Hereford Texas Chapter of Full Gospel Business Men's Fellowship International invite the public to hear Bro. Billy Duke of Liberty Saturday, June 20 in the high school cafeteria.

A buffet supper, costing $3.65 will begin at 7 p.m. The meeting will start at 7:45 p.m.

Over the past 20 years Bro. Duke has pastored a number of Baptist Churches, as well as, having preached the Gospel of Jesus Christ in six countries. Junene, his wife, received a miracle healing from an incurable disease and through this miracle they both received the Baptism in the Holy Spirit.

Since June, 1980 the Dukes have traveled in 15 states and Canada, preaching Jesus and His love and care for the individual person.

Special music will be provided by New Harvest. The Full Gospel Business Men's will hold a prayer breakfast once a month. This will be at 7 a.m. at Dickie's Restaurant the Sunday before the chapter meeting on the third Saturday.

Now You're Cookin'

By DEBBE GRAVES
Staff Writer

As a feature for our new "Now You're Cookin'" column, we'd like to introduce you to one of the greatest cooks in Hereford—a man who ranks among the gourmet chefs of Texas, a man who has refined the artistic skills of the kitchen.

We would like to do that...but we couldn't find such a man in Hereford. Instead, we will introduce you to Ted Taylor.

Now, Taylor is not much of a cook, but he is a great person. He is noteworthy for this type article, too, because he may hold a record for going the longest without a "balanced meal."

The truth is, he is a "fast food junkie." Those who know him will testify he eats almost all of his meals at local fast food restaurants.

Taylor is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Taylor of Little Rock, Ark. His parents are organic gardeners and greatly interested in health food. Where did they go wrong? Actually they didn't, as Taylor loves health food; he just doesn't have the time to indulge.

Taylor moved to Hereford in September 1978 to work as youth minister at the Church of the Nazarene.

A graduate of Oral Roberts University with a double major in social work and religious education, he is well qualified for his job. When asked about his eating out so much he responded, "I spend almost every meal, at least two a day, one-on-one with kids and that leads to a weird lifestyle."

His involvement with his work not only extends itself into mealtimes, but almost all of his hobbies become useful in projects with the youth. His interest in journalism has been put to use writing drama skits; photography has become a big plus, and even a recent interest in videotaping has been used to tape "dinner theaters" put on by the youth group.

Taylor says he was called to the ministry when in high school. "Most youth ministers are in it temporarily, on their way up to a full-time pastorate or their own church. I never plan on being a full-time pastor." He explains that he plans on remaining an associate pastor so that he can continue his "special ministry" with young people.

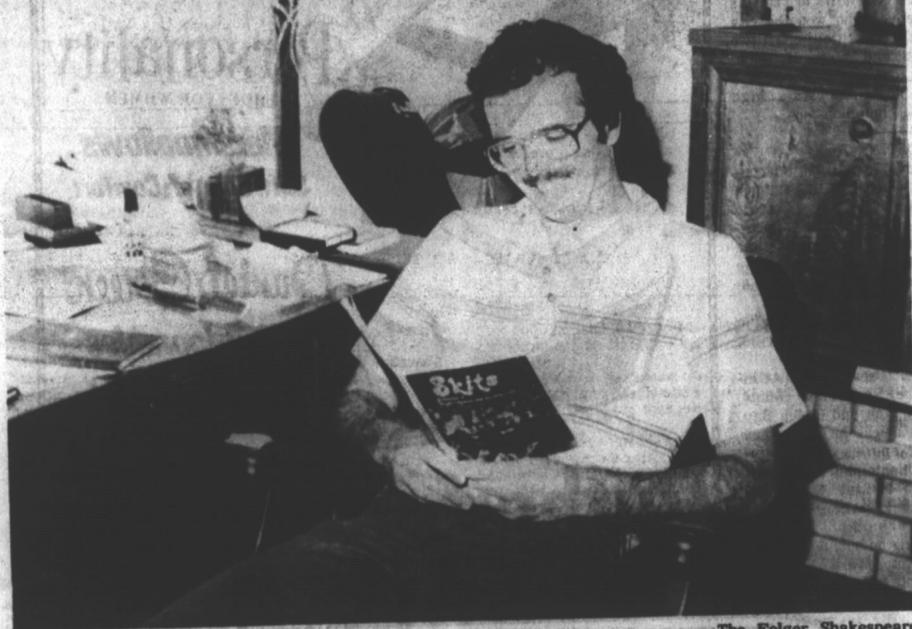

"I work with such a variety of kids and I really just try to be a friend," Taylor adds that the philosophy of his ministry is: "Don't ask him to get involved in your life or program until you are involved in his." He feels if he develops his interests around what interests young people, he can "earn the right to be heard."

Having taken a group of 32 to Calgary, Alberta, Canada the first year he was here and a second group of 35 to Niagra Falls, N.Y., his second year, Taylor is now preparing to take a group of 35 to Eugene, Ore.

The trips are part of a mission team ministry and are completely self-supporting. You can bet that by their return, Taylor and his "kids" will know every fast food chain between here and Oregon!

When able to eat at home Taylor does enjoy "health foods." Here is his recipe for Sprout Salad.

Salad

SPROUT SALAD

- 1 cup Alfalfa sprouts
- 1/2 cup Radish sprouts
- 1/2 cup Ferragreek sprouts
- 1 Tomato diced
- 1 Avocado, diced
- 1 Cucumber, diced

To make sprouts place one tablespoon seed, be sure they are not chemically treated for planting, in a wide mouth jar. Cover with a hose or other filtering material. Rinse with water three times a day and keep out of direct sunlight for five days, then set the jar in the sun for a couple of days to turn the sprouts green. Store in the refrigerator. Will keep for about a week.

Toss all ingredients together and sprinkle with 2 tablespoons of dry roasted peanuts. If you place the avocado seed in the middle the salad won't wait.

North Dakota is named from the Indian word dakotas, which means "allies."

Hereford Has 5 Honorable Mentions

Monterey Dominates 4-5A Baseball Team

State champion Monterey dominated the 4-5A All District baseball team as selected in a vote of the coaches, it was revealed this week.

The record-breaking Plainsmen defeated Pearland for the state championship in Austin this week after a rain-delayed tournament.

Monterey claimed 8 of the 13 positions for the team, as well as having Steve Coleman named as Player of the Year and Bobby Moegle as Coach of the Year. Lubbock Coronado had three players on the team, and Lubbock High had two.

Hereford had five players voted to honorable mention on the all-district baseball squad. These honors went to shortstop Ken Coper, pitcher Matt Collier, outfielder Mike Mason, designated hitter Norman Hill, while Raymond Martinez won mention for the Sophomore of the Year voting.

A total of 37 players were named to the team, including the player of the year and the top soph. Plainview's Ronnie Ortegón took the latter award. There were two unanimous choices on the first team. These were pitcher Nathan Swindle and player-of-the-year Steve Coleman, both of Monterey. Moegle was also the unanimous pick as the Coach of the Year.

Monterey's all-district group included pitchers Nathan Swindle, Travis Walden and Matt Dillman; outfielders David Faulkner, Scott Reid; first baseman Travis Walden; second baseman Darrell Kitten, third baseman Steve Coleman.

Coronado placed catcher Alan Harp and outfielders Jay Lindstrom and Donald Ewing. Lubbock High was represented by shortstop Lupe Vasquez and designated hitter Thomas Romero.

Lubbock High had seven players listed on the honorable mention team, while Coronado and Hereford had five each. Plainview has three honorable mentions, and Monterey had two.

Sugar Ray Confident of Kayo In Bid for Kalule's Fight Title

HOUSTON (AP) — Sugar Ray Leonard, between talk of his voodoo punch and a confrontation with Ayub Kalule's medicine man, has a serious prediction concerning his upcoming bid for Kalule's World Boxing Association junior middleweight crown.

"I don't think the fight will go beyond 12 rounds but I hope he'll cooperate and go down in two," Leonard said following Wednesday's training session for the June 25 bout. "I think you'll see a Sugar Ray that is more devastating. I feel very comfortable at this weight."

Leonard said he was not worried about using 10-ounce gloves required in the junior-middleweight class. Eight ounce gloves are used in the welterweight division.

In fact, nothing could shake Leonard's confident mood, not even a visit by Ben Mugimba, a 37-year-old Catholic father of six from Uganda, who attempted to disturb Leonard's workout with a skull carved from wax.

"The skull is to show that there is bad fortune in Leonard's future and to make him think he is likely to lose," said Mugimba, escorted to ringside by a fight publicist.

Leonard was unimpressed. "I'll be throwing a lot of left hooks and a lot of voodoo righthands," he said.

While Mugimba's presence filled a lull in training with pre-fight silliness, promoter Bob Arum said he was completely serious in saying he was forced to promote the fight and that Leonard could lose to the Ugandan junior middleweight champion.

Arum said it was only at the insistence of Leonard's attorney Mike Trainer, that he sought to bring the two fighters together in the Astrodome.

Negotiators Rest, Try Again Friday

By FRED ROTHENBERG AP Sports Writer

And on the seventh day, the negotiators rested. "I made the suggestion to both sides that they should leave here, rethink their positions, come back here Friday (at 3 p.m., EDT) prepared to go forward, address the issue and come to an agreement and conclusion," said Ken Moffett, who played shuttle diplomacy Wednesday, attempting to make peace between the striking players and the baseball owners.

No new proposals were offered during a two-hour session Wednesday, in which the two sides shot the breeze in separate rooms, never talking face-to-face. "If we did get together, an already deadlocked situation would get into a worse situation," Moffett said.

"I don't want to take the blame when Leonard loses this fight," Arum said. "The match wasn't my idea, believe me. They made me do it. (Leonard's attorney Mike) Trainer came to me and said get us Kalule. Ray wants another title."

By The Associated Press

AUSTIN, Texas (AP) — Jeff Wagner, Round Rock's all-state outfielder, has become the first Texas Longhorn baseball recruit to choose pro ball. Wagner, a 36th-round draft choice, signed with the Atlanta Braves and left Tuesday for Bradenton of the Florida Rookie League.

Texas Coach Cliff Gustafson said Wagner's "potential is unlimited. He runs well and has good potential as a switch hitter."

AUSTIN, Texas (AP) — New Texas Longhorn golf coach Jimmy Clayton has announced the signing of four recruits, including William Tanner, a two-time All-America in junior college who is following Clayton from McLennan Community College.

The other recruits are Ronnie McDougal, who led Stafford-Dulles to two Class 5A state titles and was named the outstanding high school golfer in the Houston area; Steve Gleboff of Dallas Hillcrest, who won the city high school title the last two years; and Marcus Howell of New Orleans, runner-up in the Louisiana state high school championships.

AUSTIN, Texas (AP) — Randy Johnson, a quarterback veteran of the National Football League, plans to play as well as coach the remainder of the season for the Austin Texans of the American Football Association.

Johnson, 37, is expected to start against Jacksonville, Fla., here Saturday.

After 11 seasons with Atlanta, the New York Giants, Washington and Green Bay, Johnson was hired to coach the Texans this year.

He had to play against San Antonio last Saturday, however, when starting quarterback Mike Washington hurt his ribs and substitute Ward Kirk was sick with the pneumonia.

Final Witness Expected In Suit Against NFL

LOS ANGELES — The Oakland Raiders and Los Angeles Coliseum Commission were expected to call one final witness today in the antitrust suit against the National Football League, with the league then taking some two months to present its witnesses.

Raiders managing general partner Al Davis was scheduled to undergo redirect questioning by Joseph L. Alloto, who is representing the team in its bid to move to Los Angeles. The Raiders were then expected to call one final witness before resting their case.

A remark contained in a profile of Davis in the magazine "Inside Sports" provided a source of controversy during Wednesday's testimony.

Alloto protested a move by a defense lawyer to show jurors a statement implying that Davis admired Adolf Hitler.

The comment, contained in an "Inside Sports" profile of Davis, was shown to the jury briefly without an explanation of its context in the story. Davis admitted on the stand he had said, as reported: "I didn't hate Hitler. He captivated me. I knew he had to be stopped."

But Alloto said outside the court the quote referred to Davis' views as a 10-year-old boy watching the outbreak of World War II. Jurors were not informed of this.

Alloto accused attorney Joseph Cotchett, who is representing the co-defendant Rams in the case, of sneaking the comment before the jury and said, "If he did sneak it in, he should have put it in to context."

Alloto did not protest Cotchett's move in open court, instead making his complaints in the chambers of U.S. District Judge Harry Pregerson.

Cotchett apparently was trying to show that money and power were Davis' two chief motives for wanting to shift the Raiders.

Mets Shut Out Travelers 2-0

By The Associated Press
First baseman Rick Poe drove in both runs as the Jackson Mets shut out the Arkansas Travelers, 2-0, Wednesday night and moved to within one game of clinching the first half title in the Texas League Eastern Division.

The race for the first half title in the Western Division tightened up as the San Antonio Dodgers moved to within three percentage points of the front running El Paso Diablos.

In other Texas League action, Shreveport beat Tulsa, 10-6, Midland defeated El Paso, 8-2, and Amarillo and San Antonio split a doubleheader. Amarillo won the opener, 9-5 and San Antonio took the nightcap, 7-4.

The 2-0 victory sparked by Poe's two RBI singles was the third straight shutout for Jackson over Arkansas and at the end of the game, the Mets had held their opponents at Smith Wills Stadium in Jackson scoreless for 40 consecutive innings.

Terry Leach, 3-1, picked up the pitching victory. Kevin Hagen, 3-5, was the loser.

Jim Rothford had a three-run homer in the first inning to help power the Shreveport Captains to a 10-6 victory over the Tulsa Drillers.

Rothford had four hits in five trips to the plate, including the homer and a double. Catcher John Rabb also had a three-run homer for the Captains.

Pete O'Brien had a three-run homer for Tulsa and Tracy Cowger had a solo homer for the Drillers.

The winning pitcher was Ron Pisel, 2-1. The loser was Greg Hughes, 4-3.

Fritz Connally had three hits in four plate appearances and Javier Fierro had two hits in five trips to the plate as the Midland Cubs beat the El Paso Diablos, 8-2.

Mike Thompson, 3-0, was the winning pitcher. The loser was Doug Jones, 5-5.

Joe Lansford had a three-run home run as the Amarillo Gold Sox beat the San Antonio Dodgers, 9-5, in the first game of a doubleheader.

The Dodgers, playing with Los Angeles Dodgers manager Tommy Lasorda looking on, got a two-run homer from Mark Bradley and a bases-clearing double by Dale Holman.

Ross Jones drove in two runs with a double to power the Dodgers to a 7-4 victory in the second game of the doubleheader.

San Antonio bunched their runs together in two innings to take the victory, scoring four in the fourth and three in the fifth.

Saints Sign On George Rogers

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — "I'm glad to be a Saint," said Heisman Trophy winner George Rogers after signing a contract Wednesday with the New Orleans Saints that gave him the most money ever paid a rookie on the club.

Rogers, a running back from South Carolina, was the first player taken in the National Football League draft this spring.

"It's a long-term contract — three years — with an option," said Saints' owner John Mecom Jr., adding the club never paid a rookie more. "That's the cost of doing business in this day and time."

Neither Rogers nor Rogers' agent, Jack Mills, would discuss contract terms. But it was apparently more than the $250,000 a year offered Rogers by the Montreal Alouettes of the Canadian Football League.

Coach Bum Phillips, entering his first season with the Saints after building Houston into a regular playoff entry, said he never seriously doubted that the Saints would sign Rogers.

"He wanted us, and we wanted him," Phillips said. "He got a good contract, and we got a good contract. It's something we can live with."

Rogers said he was glad the negotiating was over and glad that he wound up with the Saints, although he said he would have signed with Montreal, if Mills had thought that was best.

"I'd just like to thank the people in Montreal for the hospitality they showed me. I'm sorry things didn't work out for them, but I really wanted to play in the NFL."

Mecom said he never thought Rogers would wind up at Montreal.

"I know a bit about what goes on there, and a bit about the man making the offer," Mecom said. "It would be something like a dog chasing a car. If he caught it, he couldn't drive it."

Rogers said he had few solid plans for using his big new salary.

"Invest it, probably," he said.

"I already bought my Mama a house, and I'm going to buy my aunt a house."

Other than that, he said, his immediate plans included a fishing trip in the Gulf of Mexico and working out in preparation for the start of preseason camp at Vero Beach, Fla., on July 13.

Mills said negotiations with the Saints were harmonious.

"We're just very pleased to have it taken care of now, so we won't have it drag out into the training camp," he said.

Mecom said he doesn't expect any Saints veterans to be jealous of the salary Rogers gets.

"It would be a very disappointing thing if that were to happen," he said. "The New Orleans Saints ball players are paid as well as any in the league."

He said there was enough pressure on the team to improve on last season's 1-15 record without a problem of jealousy over salaries.

Watson Says About 20 Golfers Could Win U.S. Open Tourney

ARDMORE, Pa. (AP) — Johnny Miller picks Bruce Lietzke. Lietzke picks Tom Watson. Watson picks Watson. If he drives well, Jack Nicklaus? He chooses not to choose.

"I can't pick anybody, including myself," Nicklaus said.

It's not difficult to come up with a list of golfers whose game would seem to fit the snug, elegant Merion Golf Club, where 158 qualifiers tee off today in the 81st United States Open championship.

"About 20 people could win it," said Watson, naming Tom Kite, Lee Trevino, Raymond Floyd, Severiano Ballesteros, Tom Kite, John Mahaffey and Lanny Wadkins among them.

Lietzke, a three-time winner this year, is Miller's choice.

"He has the game to win the Open," Miller said. "He's been sort of overlooked, but he hits the greens in regulation, he's been playing well. I like his chances."

Miller isn't as high on Miller. His right shoulder has been hurting, the residue of a friendly arm-wrestling tussle 2½ years ago.

"If I do well it will be a surprise. I'm just going to go out and have some fun and smell the roses."

Lietzke says he's not putting well and dismisses his chances. Instead he picks Watson, "not because he's the best player, but because they've eliminated the driver in this tournament. That's Tom's biggest enemy."

The first three Purple Hearts awarded by George Washington for service during the American Revolution were presented to Connecticut men.

Watson basically agrees. "Short hitters have the advantage," said Watson, whose victories this year include the Masters, the Atlanta Classic and the New Orleans Open. "You have to play it like Hogan did, below the hole." Ben Hogan won here in 1950.

"My chances are good if I put the ball in the fairway," Watson said.

The driver is almost superfluous at Merion. It's needed on only three or four holes.

The Open is one of two majors that has eluded Watson, and a win over the 6,544-yard L-shaped course would satisfy his passion.

And then there is Nicklaus, like Watson and Trevino always a force to consider.

He's played well recently. He finished second to Watson at the Masters. He's the defending champion. And, well, he's Nicklaus.

He's won four Opens. No one has ever won five. He likes Merion and over the years he's played it well.

Trevino said his ailing back is feeling better, that he played five straight days last week and that he's ready.

Floyd and Kite have the more impressive credentials of the other major contenders. At 38, Floyd is enjoying the best season of his 19-year Tour career. He's won three times, including last week, and is second only to Watson on the money-winning list.

Kite, one of golf's more accurate strikers of the ball, has an amazing record of consistency. He's been seventh or better in his last seven starts.

Drysdale, Rozelle Strike Beneficiaries

By FRED ROTHENBERG AP Sports Writer

It wasn't easy to find, but there are at least two people who can be considered indirect beneficiaries from the baseball strike — Don Drysdale and Pete Rozelle.

Drysdale is the new analyst on ABC-TV's "Monday Night Baseball" series, replacing the same Drysdale who was let go late last year.

Last Monday night's traveling road show with Howard Cosell and Keith Jackson was canceled by the strike, so Drysdale didn't have to face nosy reporters asking questions about his broadcasting deficiencies.

This is a subject that Drysdale and ABC are sensitive about. The ABC public relations department has tread more softly around Drysdale during the first two Monday night games in June. ABC was still pushing baseball, but it was soft-selling interviews with Drysdale.

Some at ABC felt that Drysdale should not be rehired — even though an extensive talent search came up with nobody better — because it would be an embarrassment for the network. If ABC believed Drysdale was the best available man for the job, the network deserves credit for swallowing its enormous pride and taking Drysdale back.

Late last year, Drysdale pressed ABC for a decision on his status. Dennis Lewin, one of ABC's top producers, told him his services were no longer required.

ABC considered some 20 baseball analysts and auditioned four of them — former players Wes Parker, Jim Lonborg and Tim McCarver and former manager Frank Quilici. They decided Drysdale was the best, notifying him in late May just before he was scheduled to do a game for NBC.

Rozelle, the National Football League commissioner, is involved in a messy court case in Los Angeles, which was brought by longtime nemesis Al Davis, owner of the Oakland Raiders.

The NFL, which has a gag rule preventing any club or management personnel from publicly criticizing game officials, other clubs or the league, tries to avoid airing its dirty linen in public. The name-calling in Los Angeles is not good for the league's image, but the big strike story is taking attention away from the courtroom.

No news is good news, as far as the NFL is concerned. And if the strike continues into July, coverage of NFL training camps and then the preseason games will be front-page stuff for ravenous sports fans hungry for major league action.

These are just more examples of how Rozelle and his league always seem to land on their feet. Rozelle's golden touch seemingly has no bounds.

Trap Shoot Scheduled

A Friday-night trap shoot is being scheduled at Hereford Gun Club, it was announced this week.

The trap shoot will be conducted from 8 to 10 p.m. on Friday nights. For reservations, shooters may call 364-7081.

The first three Purple Hearts awarded by George Washington for service during the American Revolution were presented to Connecticut men.

DEAR DR. LAMB - My son has hay fever in the spring and early summer. His eyes itch and swell. His nose is clogged and runny. He receives some help from Benedryl sometimes. Do you have a Health Letter covering this problem and what to do to help him? He is only 10 and it ruins the better part of his vacation time.
DEAR READER - Hay fever that starts in the spring is usually caused by the pollen from trees. That which occurs in the summer is caused by grass. It is pretty hard for a 10-year-old boy to avoid trees and grass, but avoiding the substance that you are allergic to is one of the best forms of treatment available. Antihistamines do help. A person may become tolerant to one and it may lose its effectiveness. At that time it is wise to switch to another one. They work because the symptoms your boy has are caused by cells in the nose and eyes reacting to the pollen and producing histamine. The histamine irritation causes the symptoms. For the best results from antihistamines, they should be taken regularly before the symptoms start. It is easier to prevent the symptoms than

Young hay fever victim

DEAR DR. LAMB - My son has hay fever in the spring and early summer. His eyes itch and swell. His nose is clogged and runny. He receives some help from Benedryl sometimes. Do you have a Health Letter covering this problem and what to do to help him? He is only 10 and it ruins the better part of his vacation time.
DEAR READER - Hay fever that starts in the spring is usually caused by the pollen from trees. That which occurs in the summer is caused by grass. It is pretty hard for a 10-year-old boy to avoid trees and grass, but avoiding the substance that you are allergic to is one of the best forms of treatment available. Antihistamines do help. A person may become tolerant to one and it may lose its effectiveness. At that time it is wise to switch to another one. They work because the symptoms your boy has are caused by cells in the nose and eyes reacting to the pollen and producing histamine. The histamine irritation causes the symptoms. For the best results from antihistamines, they should be taken regularly before the symptoms start. It is easier to prevent the symptoms than

Federal Judge Says Houston School District Properly Integrated

HOUSTON (AP) — In a stinging indictment of forced busing, a federal judge says Houston's public schools have done the best they can to achieve racial balance and should be required to do nothing more.

"Court-imposed busing is extremely disruptive to public education," U.S. District Judge Robert O'Connor wrote in a 30-page memorandum and order issued Wednesday.

"It tends to divert attention from the foremost goal of the schools to provide the highest quality education for all students and to exacerbate racial conflicts and biases," the ruling said.

The decision by O'Connor was the latest chapter in a desegregation suit filed against the Houston Independent School District nearly a quarter of a century ago.

The original suit was filed in September 1956 on behalf of a 9-year-old black girl who was denied admittance at an all-white elementary school two blocks from her home. The Justice Department intervened on her behalf in the 1960s, and Hispanics entered the case in the 1970s.

Since then, O'Connor said, "The HISD has taken legally required affirmative action to achieve the greatest possible degree of school desegregation, having taken into account the practicalities of the situation."

O'Connor's ruling declaring the Houston district "unitary" requires school officials to report student enrollments by race every six months for the next three years.

Former school board president Tarrant Fendley said the ruling was a salute to the Houston school district. "The fact the judge has declared the system unitary is a congratulatory comment to all the people over many years who have worked so very diligently to see this come about," he said.

A spokesman for the Justice Department here said it was "too early" to decide if the ruling would be appealed.

The plaintiffs, including Delores Ross Phlegm who is now 34 years old, could not be reached for comment immediately.

In his order, O'Connor expressed a distaste for busing, noting Houston's streets were congested with traffic and the school district spans about 313 miles.

"Widespread compulsory busing of HISD students would exceed the remedy necessary," he said.

O'Connor noted that 97 of the district's 238 schools were one-race schools, with at least 90 percent of the student body in one racial group. But he said that simply could not be helped.

"The diminishing white population makes it impossible to integrate the one-race minority school in the inner city of Houston," O'Connor said. "There are simply not enough white students in the HISD."

The judge said the proportion of white students in Houston's school has decreased from about half in 1970 to 27.3 percent today.

O'Connor, the fourth federal judge to preside over the long and complicated case, also said the school district has successfully integrated its faculty and staff.

"This Court approves of the HISD's demonstrated efforts and success in completely desegregating its teachers, administrators and other personnel," the judge declared. He denied a motion by the plaintiffs to order a change in the racial ratio of the faculty.

The ruling ends the 24-year-old litigation at the district court level, although it could be appealed.

Last June, O'Connor denied a Justice Department request to seek a desegregation plan that would have lumped the Houston district in with 22 suburban districts.

In his ruling Wednesday, O'Connor frequently praised Houston's integration efforts.

"The HISD has acted in good faith in carrying out its plan for dismantling the state-imposed dual system and there are no feasible alternative plans that are more promising in providing effective relief," the judge said.

O'Connor said he opposed busing because it "puts the full burden of remedial action ... on the children and parents."

Busing did not work here in the past and would not work today, he said.

"The limited busing imposed ... in 1970 was woefully ineffective over its five-year history," O'Connor wrote. One reason, he said, was the "white flight" from public schools.

"The majority of the white non-Hispanic students involved in the pairings had either moved or enrolled in private school and were not present in September as had been projected by the Court," O'Connor said.

He said he was aware "of the Supreme Court's holding that fear of white flight 'cannot ... be accepted as a reason for achieving anything less than complete uprooting of the dual public school system.'"

"However, in considering various permissible plans, one calculated to minimize white boycotts may be preferred," O'Connor said.

Public Notice

Southwestern Bell, in accordance with the rules of the Public Utility Commission of Texas, hereby gives notice of the company's intent to implement a new schedule of telephone rates in Texas effective July 21, 1981, unless otherwise determined by the Commission.

It is expected that the requested rate schedule will furnish a 15.8 percent increase in the company's intrastate revenues.

A complete copy of the new rate schedule is on file with the Public Utility Commission at Austin, Texas, and with each affected municipality served by Southwestern Bell, and is available for inspection in each of the company's public business offices in Texas.

Notice to Customers of Other Telephone Companies

The filing includes, but is not limited to, proposals to increase rates for interexchange private line and foreign exchange (FX) service. Changes in such rates would also affect customers of other telephone companies because such companies provide interexchange private line and foreign exchange service in accordance with rates specified in Southwestern Bell's tariffs.

Aviso Público

Southwestern Bell, en conformidad a las reglas del Public Utility Commission (Comisión de Servicios Públicos) de Texas, por la presente hace saber su intención de establecer un nuevo arancel para servicio de teléfono en Texas con vigencia a partir del 21 de Julio de 1981, a menos que la Comisión haga otra determinación.

Se espera que el nuevo arancel que se ha solicitado rendirá un aumento de 15.8 por ciento en los ingresos intraestatales de la compañía.

Una copia completa del nuevo arancel se ha archivado en las oficinas del Public Utility Commission en Austin, Texas, al igual que en cada municipalidad afectada y servida por Southwestern Bell, y cada una de las oficinas de la compañía para negocios con el público en Texas tiene una copia para lectura pública.

Aviso a los Clientes de Otras Compañías de Teléfono

El registro incluye, pero no se limita a, propuestas para aumentar las tarifas para servicio de línea privada entre centrales telefónicas (interexchange private line) y servicio de central telefónica extranjera (foreign exchange FX). Cambios en dichas tarifas de servicio también afectarían a clientes de otras compañías de teléfono porque dichas compañías proveen los servicios ya mencionados en conformidad a tarifas especificadas por Southwestern Bell.

Sen. Tower Warns Republicans

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. John Tower, R-Texas, has warned fellow Republicans that Democratic Sen. Lloyd Bentsen is to portray him as a wealthy Texan out of touch with the voters.

"I think Lloyd is in very good position politically in the state and will be a very formidable candidate," said Tower.

Rep. Jim Collins of Dallas and State Sen. Walter Mengden are contemplating a challenge of Bentsen, but neither has asked his advice, Tower said.

His advice, he said, "would depend on who the person was and what the political situation was at the time. But I would think it would be fairly confidential advice, and I would not tell the press."

In a news conference, Tower refused to be drawn into any remarks that might be taken as critical of Bentsen, who three years ago took a virtually neutral position and gave little support to the race that then-Rep. Bob Krueger made against Tower.

A reporter asked Tower's opinion of a pollster's view that the best way for Republicans to beat Bentsen is to portray him as a wealthy Texan out of touch with the voters.

"I think I'd have no comment on that," Tower said. "Shouldn't the GOP concentrate its resources toward reselecting Gov. Bill Clements and getting more Republicans elected to the House, somebody else asked?"

"I think obviously the major Republican effort should be on winnable races. Period," Tower said.

But he went along with the move about to try to persuade several conservative Democrats to switch to the Republican Party.

On May 16, 1980 a five cent coin first appeared in America. It was known as a "nickel."
