

THREE MEET DEATH IN DALLAS FIRE

SEVERAL OTHERS WERE INJURED IN ROOMING HOUSE WHEN DESTROYED.

ATTEMPTED TO SAVE GIRL

Mrs. McCauley Met Her Death When She Started to Upper Floor to Rescue Child Who Escaped.

Dallas, Texas.—Two women lost their lives and several other persons were more or less seriously injured when the two-story rooming house at 510 South Akard street was destroyed by fire shortly after 3 o'clock Wednesday morning. The bodies of the two women were burned beyond recognition, but later the victims were identified as Mrs. Mary E. McCauley, who conducted the rooming house, and Miss Dora Roberts, who roomed there.

The known injured: Miss Betty Thurmond, back sprained and otherwise injured by jumping from second-story window, burns about arms and hands. Her sister escaped without injury. Cecil Branham, left thigh broken, severely burned.

Adelaide McCauley, aged 12, and her little brother, escaped injury.

The body of Mrs. McCauley was found on the back porch. It was said that when the fire was discovered she went upstairs to endeavor to save one of the children sleeping there. She was not seen alive afterward.

Third Victim Dies.

Miss Ethel McCauley, 13, died Wednesday night from the burns received in the fire early that morning in which her mother and another woman met death.

The police detained a white man in connection with the theory of incendiarism.

Baby Wounded in Mother's Arms.

Dallas, Texas.—Nursing at its mother's breast as she sat on the front porch, its little head cuddled in the curve of her arm and apparently secure in her protection, Carol King, 1 1/2-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Jake King, Oak Cliff, received a bullet wound in the head which may cost the little one its life. The bullet which struck the baby was fired from a .22-caliber rifle, and had been fired by P. O. Cornell at a cat on the fence of his back yard. The cat had been eating Cornell's shrimps.

A. M. Kennedy Dies at Kerrville.

Kerrville, Texas.—A. M. Kennedy, 68 years of age, of this city, representative from this district, former speaker of the Texas house of representatives, and a picturesque figure in Texas state politics for a quarter of a century, is dead. Mr. Kennedy died here at 8 o'clock Sunday morning after an illness of long duration, the end of which had been foreseen for many weeks. The body was sent to Marfa for the funeral and interment Monday.

Tax Rate Lowered by Board to 37 1/2.

Austin, Tex.—The state automatic tax board met with Gov. Colquhoun and fixed the tax rates for the current year. The school tax was fixed at 50c on each $100 of assessed valuation, an increase of 5c over last year; state ad valorem rate at 12 1/2c, a reduction of 10c, while the pension tax remains the same, at 5c. It means total state taxes of 37 1/2c, a net reduction under last year of 1 1/2c.

Temperature 108 at Gainesville.

Gainesville, Texas.—The thermometer stood at 108 at 3 o'clock Tuesday afternoon and the citizens really suffered from the heat. At 5 o'clock the mercury had fallen only three degrees. The corn in this section is suffering from the drought and another hot day like this will burn it up. Good rains, however, have fallen recently in different parts of the county.

Four Killed in Car Accident.

Norfolk, Va.—Four persons were killed and about 40 injured when a trolley car pulling two trailers collided with a Virginia railway freight train at a crossing about three miles from Norfolk.

Smuggling Ammunition Daily.

El Paso, Texas.—Twenty thousand cartridges are being smuggled daily over the international line at this point, according to military officials here. The ammunition has been destined to Gen. Villa's troops and federal irregulars. The army patrol has not been allowed to arrest or detain smugglers, though the army has orders to prevent the actual smuggling of war munitions. The war department regulations forbid the use of firearms against the smugglers.

Atty. Sam Bratton of Farwell was in the city yesterday on business.

More Rain.

A good shower, measuring 0.70 inches, fell at Hereford Sunday afternoon.

Foot Badly Crushed.

A man by the name of Smith, who works at the coal chute at Black, had the misfortune of getting his foot badly bruised the other day, when attempting to start the gasoline engine. In some way, the engine back-fired and his foot was caught between the wheel at base. He was brought to Hereford for treatment and he is able to walk about on crutches.

C. A. Skelton Has Narrow Escape.

While driving a Ford car the other day near Umbarger, C. A. Skelton, manager for the Kemp Company, and D. C. Galbreath of Amarillo, a silo man, a blow out on one of the front wheels caused the car to lurch to one side and in his effort to right it, Mr. Skelton put too much strength into the wheel and threw the car to the other side, resulting in a turtle turn, a little smash up and some bad bruises. Both men, however, escaped without any serious injury.

Cattle Deals Made.

Hardly a day or a week passes but that some Hereford stockman closes a trade in selling or buying cattle. The other day C. R. Smith sold a 100 head of yearling steers to Wirt Phillips, and they were a fine bunch of white faces. L. L. Jones has sold some 25 head of thoroughbred bull calves to J. H. Jewell. Will O'Brien and G. G. Hill recently bought 1,000 head from a Lubbock stockman. This was a bunch of young heifers and the herd will be driven thru to pastures near Hereford.

Sheep Men Sell Wool Clip.

The sheep men in this section of the state have sold most of their clips, and the total will run at about 500,000 pounds. The price ranged from 13 to 17 1/2 cents per pound. The clip would average, in the estimation of Allan Bell, at from 6 to 12 pounds per head. Mr. Bell bought some 100,000 pounds of the wool market at Hereford. He is now and has been at work for some time to get the quarantine raised against sheep in the Panhandle. As is known the national government has placed a quarantine against the entire state, but as there is no scab in the Panhandle Mr. Bell feels that it should be raised for this part of the state.

Garrison For County Judge.

To the voters of Deaf Smith county: It has been my purpose to speak personally to every man of you in the interest of my race for the office of county judge; but, while I have been over most of the county, I realize that there are many of you whom I have not seen. I am therefore taking this means of assuring you that, whether I have spoken to you privately, or merely handed you my card, or have failed to do either, I will appreciate your support just as much as if I had talked to you half a day.

I believe that I am as well qualified to fill the office as any of my opponents, with this additional point in my favor: my long experience as a teacher in country schools, and as city superintendent will enable me to render a service for the rural schools that no man could do without such experience; and I find that at least half of the work of the county judge, if properly done, will fall under his duties as county superintendent. If elected, the rural schools shall be one of my chief interests.

Again assuring you of my appreciation of your support I am,

Yours very truly,

J. E. Garrison.

"ELLIOTT BOUGHT ELECTION" CRY OF LOSING CANDIDATES

Holmes Charge that Elliott Had Bought the Palmer County Election Proves False and Becomes Boomerang to Hale Co. Candidates.

"Whom the gods would destroy they first make mad." An old but true adage. In modern politics, when a candidate finds himself in a losing fight, he resorts to charges of fraud and calumny. This very thing has come into the race for representative. For a month, the three candidates have campaigned the district, and for the last two weeks have made speaking tours. Until they came to Hereford, the campaign had been conducted in a fair and open way. Evidently, Holmes had become aware that he was in a fast losing game and becoming mad, as the eternal gods expected to destroy him, he charges Elliott with having bought the Palmer county election, the price being the enormous sum of $30 00. Capt. T. J. Tilson assented to the charge and at Canyon attempted to defend Holmes in his speech. At Hereford, Holmes charged that Elliott had bought the Palmer county election; at Canyon he made the same charge and added that Elliott had paid $1.00 each for the Palmer county votes. Capt. Tilson in his speech at Canyon attempted to defend Holmes and stated that there was something crooked about the deal.

The charges are wholly false, untrue and malicious, told for the purpose of injuring me in my home county and neighbor counties. No proof is necessary to show that Holmes' statement and the Captain's insinuation are false and without foundation. They admitted at Canyon that they were mistaken. When confronted with the facts including a statement from Sam Bratton, Secy.

of the Committee at Farwell, Holmes in the court house publicly acknowledged that he did not mean to make the charge that the election had been bought. This should end the matter, but I shall state the facts. First, the charges are impossible and improbable. The Democratic Committee of Farmer county, composed of prominent citizens and well known to be men of the highest integrity, know that these charges are without foundation and that such declarations are slanderous upon the Committee and an insult to the voters of Farmer county. On Monday, July 13, I was informed that the Committee would meet at Farwell on Tuesday and was invited to come down. With instructions from Russell and Sellars and a promise from Capt. Tilson made at Goodnight for me to let him know as soon as the Committee decided whether an election would be held, I went to Farwell. The Committee found that there were insufficient funds to pay for holding the election, so they saw fit to assess each district candidate $15.00. I gave my check for the amount and confidently expected each candidate to come across with his part. Holmes and Tilson have refused to pay their assessment and thus reimburse me.

On my return to Hereford Tuesday afternoon I wrote to both Holmes and Tilson what had been done and notified them what their part of the expenses were. I hold a register return receipt from the post office at Plainview showing that they received my letters. Why should not an election for state and district offices be held in Farmer county? Not to do so would be to disfranchise the voters and deprive them of a voice in the affairs of the state and district. They will hold their county election this fall. The law provides that the bulk of the election expenses shall be paid by the county candidates, but being none in Farmer county, it was the duty of the district candidates and should have been their privilege to pay the expenses. But I do not want my friends to be compelled to apologize for my action in this matter. I will let County Attorney Sam Bratton, who is also Secy. of the Committee, state the case. In a wire to me on Tuesday morning of this week, he says:

"Democratic Executive Committee of Farmer county levied assessment of fifteen dollars against each candidate for representative, this district, on account of not having county candidates name appear on ticket and this amount was necessary. The Primary was ordered and the assessment made without any assistance or connection with you (Elliott) and any statement from any one to the contrary is absolutely untrue and unfounded and any one making such statement is unfit to hold office or to be honored by the people. (Signed) Sam Bratton, Secy. Dem. Ex. Com. Farmer county, Tex. This is sufficient. Judge Holmes owes an apology to the people of Farmer county for trying to slander their good name. Capt. Tilson should withdraw from the race in even attempting to defend Holmes at Canyon. But their bringing this matter into the campaign just at the close will not bring them any good; it will prove a boomerang to their hopes of riding into office.

Mrs. H. F. Mitchell entertained for her niece, Miss Gayle Peters, and Miss Maurine Hughes, their little friends, Thursday evening, the occasion being to celebrate their birthdays. One was ten on Friday, the other was nine on Wednesday, so the party was given on Thursday between. Refreshments of cream and cake were served.

CARRANZA IS READY TO END HOSTILITIES

WILLING TO RECEIVE COMMISSIONERS SENT BY PRESIDENT CARBAJAL.

SAFETY IS GUARANTEED

Only Ringleaders in Plot by Which Madero Was Overthrown Will Be Prosecuted.

Washington—Gen. Carranza Monday informed the United States government he was ready to declare a suspension of hostilities against the government of Provisional President Carbajal, Huerta's successor, pending negotiations with his representatives for the transfer of authority at the City of Mexico to the constitutionalists.

The constitutionalist chief cordially expressed his views to John R. Sullivan, personal representative of President Wilson and Consul Robertson, who interviewed him at Monterey. He voted a willingness to receive the commission of three appointed by President Carbajal to discuss peace. Secretary Bryan announced the receipt of the message from the American representatives with the comment that prospects for an agreement between the two factions now were very favorable. Inasmuch as the three men chosen by Mr. Carbajal are constitutionalists who have been in the City of Mexico and in accordance with Gen. Carranza's wishes as well as personal negotiations for the government.

Gen. Carranza declared that the suspension of hostilities should be unconditional. He is willing, it is declared by his representatives to grant a limited amnesty as a voluntary act of generosity on the part of the constitutionalists after they obtain the reins of government. It is the intention of the constitutionalists to give guarantee of safety to the people generally, but to prosecute the ring leaders in the plot which overthrew Madero.

Mrs. Callison Gives Testimony.

Paris, France.—Madame Callison, wife of Joseph Callison, once premier of France and formerly minister of finance, occupied the prisoner's enclosure in the Assize court at the palace of justice Monday and testified in a dramatic manner the circumstances leading up to the shooting on March 16 of Gaston Calmette, editor of the Figsre, with whose murder she is charged. Mrs. Callison held the attention of the crowded court room for three hours. She told her story in short disconnected sentences, but showed remarkable skill in marshaling her facts so as to represent them in the best light for her cause.

Borax Will Prevent Fly Breeding.

Washington, D. C.—As a result of experiments, the specialists of the department of agriculture have discovered that a small amount of ordinary borax, scattered daily in measure, will effectively prevent the breeding of the typhoid or house fly. Similarly, the same substance applied to garbage, refuse, open soil, damp floors and crevices in stables, cellars or marshes, will prevent fly eggs from hatching. Borax will not kill the adult fly, but it will prevent it from laying eggs, but its thorough use will prevent any further breeding.

Will File Suit Against N.Y. Co.

Washington.—Civil suit to stop the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad company from its subsidiary rail, trolley and steamship lines will be brought by Attorney General McKeen in the United States district court at New York within the next few days. A final effort to settle the problem without litigation ended in failure although the attorney general, T. W. Gregory, special assistant in charge of the case, and a committee of New Haven directors were in conference many hours.

Huerta Party Off on German Cruiser.

Puerto Mexico.—The German cruiser Dresden, with former President Huerta and his family and former War Minister Blanquet, Senora Blanquet and their daughter aboard, sailed at 7:30 Monday evening for Jamaica. The departure of the former chief executive was without incident, there not being even any shouts of "good-bye" to him from the dock.

Kansas City suffered from excessive heat Sunday. The air also was so charged with electricity that transmitting messages by telegraph was greatly hampered.

A Royal Party to Visit Us.

Particulars regarding the personnel of his Royal Highness' retinue, date of arrival, purpose of visit, etc., forthcoming.

Even the least of potentates creates a flurry by announcing his intention of visiting our shores. But now comes word that a king accompanied by thousands of courtiers will bring the glory of his court into our midst. Just why he comes, who will attend him, how his powers and riches will be used while in our midst is set forth in a 65 page volume regarding The King's Return. Some have told us he comes "as a thief," others say with shout and trumpet. Some declare he comes to burn the earth, and others that he is to make it all a Paradise. Send five cents to Mrs. E. C. Mr. Terrell is a native Texan, having been born on a farm near Alto, Cherokee County, in 1869. In 1890 he settled on a farm in McLennan County, where he was engaged in actual farm life until 1900, when he was elected to the 27th Legislature. He was returned to the 28th, 29th and 30th Legislatures. At the close of the 30th Legislature he was elected to the State Senate from the Eleventh District, composed of McLennan, Falls and Milam Counties, and re-elected to that office in 1912. Senator Terrell has been one of the recognized leaders of the Senate for a number of years, having served the people of his district continuously for the past fourteen years. As a candidate for Comptroller of Public Accounts Mr. Terrell promises the people a business administration of the Comptroller's Department, for he declares in his announcement that "if honored by the Democracy of Texas at the coming election, I here and now pledge myself to use every means at my command and all the power with which the office is vested by the Legislature, in the strict enforcement of every law over which members of his office have jurisdiction, and to see that the Comptroller's Department two positions still to be filled by the Senate are given to the best qualified persons to be named by the framers of the constitution and the law making bodies of the State."

Reception For Mrs. Bally.

An elegant reception was given at the beautiful Broadwell home July 22 by the ladies of the Presbyterian church in an honored farewell to Mrs. Bally who has made for herself a host of appreciative friends during her short stay in Hereford. Mrs. Broadwell was assisted by the following committee: Mesdames Donald Ferguson, Laird, Cornell. The guests consisted of Mrs. Bally, Mrs. Donald and Miss Bell Woodburn, the ball and parlor being most beautifully decorated with sweet peas and fern. A special program was well rendered; vocal solos by Misses Wilks and Hunt and Mrs. Norton. Miss Percy Callahan gave several piano solos. The program was assisted in part by Mrs. Bally, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Green. Readings by Mrs. Wright and Mrs. Potter were greatly enjoyed by all. of the friendliness and generosity of the most excellent people of Hereford. The guests were then invited to the dining room which was elaborately decorated with shades, daisies and were served with ice cream and angel cake with yellow icing. Refreshments were given as follows. All were then invited to the library where all registered in the guest book for Mrs. Bally, the book being a pretty work of art done by Mrs. Wright. There were about seventy five guests including a number of visitors who greatly enjoyed this most delightful occasion at the elegant Broadwell home.

The Ford is my auto; I shall not want. It maketh me to lie under it in the green pastures, it leadeth me into much trouble. It draweth on my purse; I go into the paths of debt for its sake. Mrs. English's Lecture Attracts Large Audience.

Mrs. J. W. English gave a most interesting lecture at the court house last Friday night, the large district auditorium being filled to its capacity. Mrs. English has had wide experience as a lecturer on religious and temperance subjects and her lecture Friday night showed her to be a woman of marked ability both as an entertainer and as a platform speaker. During the course of her remarks, she touched the related subject of woman suffrage; and incidentally narrated the romance of her own eventful life. Mrs. English will give other dates soon and her friends anticipate another treat.

Q.—Was the "iron of the knowledge of good and evil" referred to in Genesis 3:17 a literal tree? (W. S.)

Answer.—There seems to be no reason for doubting that this was a real tree, but it is not to be supposed that it possessed magical powers by which the eating of its fruit would suddenly acquire great knowledge. God for some reason thought best to forbid the use of the fruit from this one tree. The disobedient act led to a knowledge of evil, and, by comparison, to an appreciation of the good now lost.

Q.—Do any Bible scholars believe in the Jonah and the whale story? (K.)

Answer.—It would not be impossible with God to provide a whale that could swallow a man; however, no such occurrence is recorded in the Bible. It was a "great fish" that swallowed Jonah. The public utterances of many very prominent teachers indicate that they do not believe the account as given in the Bible. The faith of some may have been assisted by the recent finding and capturing of a "great fish" off the coast of Florida. The Smithsonian savants who prepared it for exhibition in the Chicago Institute are not able to classify the fish and think it a deep sea monster thrown up by a subterranean volcanic disturbance which injured its diving apparatus so that it could not return. A full grown man can stand in its stomach, and an octopus, which had apparently been there more than three days, was found alive. It had a ton and a half of material in its stomach. One fish it had swallowed weighed 1,500 pounds. It is 45 feet long, but the scientists say it is only a baby, for the cartilaginous formations are far from developed.

Q.—Were not the writers of the New Testament simply trying to make a reputation for themselves? (O. W.)

Answer.—The existence of any book implies motive on the part of the writer. You therefore quite properly inquire, What motive could have inspired these men to espouse the cause of Jesus of Nazareth? He was condemned to death and crucified as a malefactor by the Jews, the most religious among them assenting to and demanding His death, as one unfit to live. And in espousing His cause, and promulgating His doctrines, these men braved contempt, deprivation and bitter persecution, risked life itself, and in some cases even suffered martyrdom. What motive could have inspired these men to do this? Was He a mere man? If He were a mere man, how absurd it would be to suppose that same men, after claiming that He was the Son of God, that He had been begotten in a supernatural way, had supernatural powers by which He had healed lepers, restored sight to those born blind, caused the deaf to hear, and even raised the dead—how very absurd to suppose that they would wind up the story of such a character by stating that a little band of His enemies executed Him as a felon, while all His friends and disciples, and among them the writers themselves, forsook Him and fled in the trying moment? A love of truth stamps the narrative.

Q.—I have several good, religious books which I do not read now. Should I follow the example of the early church and burn them? See Acts 19:19. (H. W. B.)

Answer.—The books burned were books in "black art," black art. As we look upon the world today, we see clearly the terrible and degrading work of the occult, and how they have riveted their chains upon the people by the exercise of their occult powers through the occult.

Q.—I have several good, religious books which I do not read now. Should I follow the example of the early church and burn them? See Acts 19:19. (H. W. B.)

CARNEGIE'S BIRTHPLACE HONORS HIM

Scotland, the birthplace of Andrew Carnegie, celebrated the centennial of his birth with great festivity, the chief event being the opening of the Carnegie Birthplace in the park. All the public officials and dignitaries were present in the festivities.

There are 17,000 Confederate pensioners at this time drawing $1.00 per quarter. Even if they do not increase in number, the 5 per cent increase in the increased value of the pension should insure a quarter of a million dollars for the pensioners.

Tulia Celebration a Success.

The largest crowd ever assembled in Swisher county was there on Thursday and Friday of last week. The first day was devoted to a general picnic and to visiting the irrigations at that place. The second day was given over to politics. Judge Hall of Amarillo and Judge Cunningham of Abilene debated on the issues of the governorship. The debate was very sharp and at times bitter. The best thing about the day was the big dinner served to the general public by the ladies of the county. The tables were loaded with the best of everything good to eat. The crowd was variously estimated at from 1,500 to 2,000 people. One very noticeable feature about the streets was the presence of so many autos. The streets were literally crowded with the gas wagons and at one time in the whole lot of vehicles only one buggy was present on Main street, yet there were at least 250 autos in sight.

Many Hereford Citizens Knows How Sure They Are.

Nothing uncertain about the work of Doan's Kidney Pills in Hereford. There is plenty of positive proof of this in the testimony of citizens. Such evidence should convince the most skeptical doubter. Read the following statement:

Mrs. J. J. Ward, 111 E. Second St., Hereford, Texas, says: "I am having no more kidney trouble. I got Doan's Kidney Pills from Woodburn & Son's Drug Store and they removed the pain and lameness that had caused my back to be so sensitive. I no longer suffer from dizzy spells nor do I have any further trouble from my kidneys."

Price 50c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Ward had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

AMERICAN ELIMINATION BALLOON RACE

The seven balloons which started from St. Louis in the national elimination race the other day did not get very far because of light winds followed by a storm. The Goodyear won, having traveled about three hundred miles. The San Francisco, though longest in the air, made only 132 miles. That balloon, and a view of the field as the contestants were being inflated, are here shown.

Auto Taras Over in Oil Creek.

W. T. Willis and family of Burnett are visiting in Hereford this week with the family of his half brother, Mr. Hurst. Mr. Willis and J. G. Hardin left "Burk" last Saturday on an overland, outing trip to Colorado with their families. When they had gotten half a mile this side of Electra, and were running at a 25 mile rate, a speed previously agreed on for all good roads, one wheel of Mr. Hardin's car missed a little bridge and the car turned over and fell off the bridge, which was some six feet high, into the little stream which contained more mud and Electra oil than water. The young ladies, Misses Iva and Cora Willis, were riding at the time with Mr. and Mrs. Hardin in that car, and they were pinned down and held under the wreckage of the demolished car in the creek until a passing freight train could be stopped and its crew could jack up and clear away the debris and rescue the prisoners from the "oily grave" in which they had been buried so suddenly and unexpectedly. After the wreck had been cleared away and the "victims" were all found to be perfectly safe, sane and sound, and Mr. Hardin had found, for sure, that he was still really alive and uninjured, he said he had not missed a trip to Colorado for several summers, but he thought this thorough oil soaking would be as good for his health as a trip, so he turned back and went home in a borrowed car, leaving the pieces of the old one to be sent by freight.

This was the same wreck spoken of in Monday's Ft. Worth Record, but the name was given as Barnett instead of Hardin in that paper.

Prohibition Lecture.

Rev. Atticus Webb of Fort Worth, who has been introduced over the state as one of the most notorious booze fighters in Texas, delivered two speeches in Hereford Sunday; one at the Brotherhood meeting, the other at the court house at night. A large crowd was present at each hearing. Mr. Webb is a forceful speaker and handles the subject of temperance and prohibition as one familiar with the subject. He admits being a "booze fighter" and says he is full of his subject.

New Telephone Line in Deaf Smith.

For their own convenience, three of Deaf Smith county ranches are building a telephone line. The line will run from Hereford to the J. D. Thompson ranch, then to Chas. Donald's, and then on to the McIntosh ranch. This will be of great value to these three big ranches. The Thompson ranch, since Gov. Stubbs of Kansas has bought an interest, will be known as the Hereford Cattle Company.

The Panhandle Grain Co. has bought the Elevator here formerly owned by the Star Mill & Elevator Co., and will pay the market prices for any thing in the grain line. Get our prices before you sell. Fire 300 Shots a Minute.

A new weapon has been provided for the United States army which is far more efficient than any heretofore adopted. It was invented and is used by the French military authorities and already nearly one hundred have been purchased by the United States. The new gun, which is described in the June Popular Mechanics magazine, weighs but 35 pounds and can easily be carried by a soldier. Two men are required to operate it, both of whom lie flat on the ground, presenting a small mark to the enemy. One man feeds the cartridges into the breech of the gun in clips of 35 each, while the other aims the weapon and directs the firing mechanism. The gun will fire separate shots or will operate automatically, in which case 300 shots may be fired per minute. At long range a third soldier ascertains the range by the use of binoculars and reports the effect of the bullets.

GO WHERE YOU PLEASE EAT WHAT YOU PLEASE

That is what you can do if you take Dodson's Liver Tonic. Many people know the danger of calomel, yet they take it because they know of nothing better. Other people are not afraid of calomel, because they do not understand what a dangerous drug it is. Because it has never hurt them, they believe it never will. No one needs to take dangerous calomel (which is just another form of mercury).

Betts & Clark sell Dodson's Liver Tonic for fifty cents a bottle and guarantee that it takes the place of calomel.

Dodson's Liver Tonic is a pleasant-tasting vegetable remedy that lives up to the name, causing any real or imaginary calomel diet. It has some of the best effects of calomel and is safe for children as well as grown-up people.

You don't run away when you try Dodson's Liver Tonic because if you aren't entirely satisfied all you need to do is go back to where you bought it and Jim Card your money cheerfully refund it with you with a smile. Isn't that fair?
