HEREFORD, TEXAS, FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 4, 1914

NUMBER 36

SCHOOL OPENS NEXT MONDAY

Teachers Assigned; Arrangements Completed; New Superintendent Outlines Policy for Growth of School.

Prof. J. H. Bright, superintendent of the Hereford Public Schools, and his family are now in the city and located in the house formerly occupied by S. B. Edwards. In conversation with Mr. Bright, he stated that school would open for the session on Monday, September 7th, and that prospects for a successful year's work are very bright. The board has ordered much additional apparatus for the laboratories and are taking steps to add quite a deal of machinery and equipment to the manual training and domestic science departments.

It is not the purpose of the superintendent nor the school board to make any radical changes in the administration of the school and only such changes will be made as the growth and development of the school will demand.

It is the earnest desire of the superintendent and the faculty that all students enroll promptly for the year's work and that every one make promptness, regularity and diligence his motto, remembering that with these virtues success is almost sure and that without them failure is courted. It is well known among school people that the army of failures is recruited from the tardy and the absentee ones and school men are ever insisting upon regular attendance. The present faculty of the Hereford schools is willing to accept responsibility for the work and advancement of every pupil who gives his time and attention to the work assigned.

The superintendent desires the most hearty cooperation between the school and the home and requests that every cause of dissatisfaction be reported to him. There should be the most hearty cooperation between the teacher and the parent as each is seeking the good of the pupil and the success of the pupil means the success of the teacher and the happiness of the parent while the failure of the pupil means the failure of the teacher and sorrow to the parent. It is well to note in this dual labor that the home must bear its proportion of the responsibility of the child's welfare and not seek to lay the whole burden upon the school.

All healthful and beneficial school enterprises will be fostered and aided in every way possible. School athletics will be made a feature of the work and it is desired that all boys and girls desiring to take part in this work report at the beginning of the term. An active, clean mind and a healthy, clean body will be the ambition of every one.

Visitors will be welcome in the schools at any time and it is the hope of teachers and superintendent that parents and patrons will take an active interest in school affairs and not wait till they have some complaint to make, but come to the school house with a glad hand and a cheery smile.

Mr. Bright insists that it would be unfair to close an interview without saying something of the climate and water and the excellent hospitality of the people of Hereford. His greatest surprise comes in the wonderfully delightful evenings and nights and he wonders why people do not come to the plains for the summer instead of going to the coast.

Following is the assignment made for the next session:

W. S. McClung, principal; Lin Fertsch, mathematics and science; Miss Maude McLean, history; Miss Erma Wilson of Vernon, English. In the grades, these will be in charge:

Mrs. Geo. Garrison, 7th; Miss Frances Dameron, 6th; Miss Meda Woodburn, 5th; Miss Hortense Russell, 4th; Mrs. Delphia Cox, 3rd; Mrs. Lin Fertsch, 2nd; Miss Sue Garrettson, 1st.

The domestic science will be taught again by Miss Maggie Avent. The manual training department will be taught by Prof. Barney Casteel. A large building to be used exclusively by this department has been moved near the high school.

The prospects for the Hereford schools are optimistic. And why not? With good equipment in buildings and apparatus, and with faculty selected from the best material in the state, each one in the high school and the grades as well as in the domestic science and manual training departments being a specialist in his or her line, there is no reason why the pupils cannot obtain those advantages so much desired by all who are interested in the success of our boys and girls. But the teachers cannot do it all; the hearty cooperation of every patron and citizen will be needed.

The Panhandle State Fair.

Elsewhere in this issue appears an announcement of the Second Annual Exhibition of the Panhandle State Fair. Every resident of Northwest Texas should take an interest in this great enterprise. It is a movement on the part of all of us to bring to the notice of the outside world the unexcelled agricultural possibilities of our section of the Southwest. Our own county and every other Panhandle and South Plains county should be represented at this Fair. Our people should arrange to attend the Fair in large numbers. The Fair management has left nothing undone which might contribute to our entertainment, instruction and comfort. Let us respond to the hearty invitation and contribute our full share toward the success of this laudable enterprise.

Hereford Furnishes Many School Mares.

Few imagine the large number of teachers which Hereford is furnishing the schools of the county and state. An attempt has been made to get the name of every Hereford young lady who will teach for the coming year. So far the number exceeds 25 and the following is the list so far obtained: Bessie Sisk will teach at Wildorado, Jessie Sisk at Stamford, Helen Sisk at Pampa, Cotta Sisk at Frio, Mary Gallagher near Kelsey, Clara Lambert at Fulkerson's, Jennie Carter near Kelsey, Anna Garrison at Meek's, Annie Price at Tolia, Ethel Fuqua at Black, Edna Fuqua at Amarillo, Waldine Wilson at Big Square, Hazel Wilson at Lindsey's, Glennis Coulson at Friona, Frances Dameron and Meda Woodburn at Hereford. Other Hereford young ladies who will teach are: Mary and Irene Williams, Edith Rayzor, Bertha Dameron, Harriett Shirley, Clara and Letha Edwards.

QUICK RESPONSE TO KITCHENER'S CALL

When Earl Kitchener called for 500,000 volunteers the response of the English was swift. In one day there were nearly 100,000 enlistments. The photograph shows the recruiting station at Whitehall, London, besieged by men eager to serve their country.

SUDAN GRASS AS FORAGE

Said to be Best For Feed; Texas Only Producer; Seed Sell From One to Four Dollars Per Pound.

Since the Sudan Grass seed sellers were in Hereford a few days ago, some investigation has been made of the grass as a possible crop for the Plains with special reference to Hereford. The two men were boasting Sudan Grass to the sky and easily reminded one of the boom days of a few years past. They told some wonderful tales and the size and length of those "tails" were equal to the foxes tails as told about in the Bible. It is to be hoped that the tales will hold out long enough to be tied together.

These men from Lubbock stated that a few acres of Sudan Grass would make a man rich. They told about one man who had cut 7,300 pounds of hay from one acre and another who planted two seed and got all he could carry off. They assured us that an acre would grow from 300 to 800 pounds of seed and at the same time yield from 6,000 to 10,000 pounds of hay. In talking further about Lubbock, they stated that Lubbock would have for sale this year about $2,000,000 worth of seed.

These two men, Wilson and Yarbrough, were certainly enthusiastic in their speeches about Lubbock that made Sudan Grass famous and were taking orders for the seed at $1.00 per pound. They stated that one pound would plant an acre in drills.

Upon investigation, from various sources, the following information may be of interest to Hereford farmers.

At Robstown, Texas, the farmers have been raising Sudan Grass. One man says that he plants his rows 34 inches apart and puts from two to four pounds to the acre. He uses an ordinary cotton planter, buying the blank plates and has them bored to suit for the quantity. He says that, unlike other grasses, when the seed are mature the stems are still green and juicy, and therefore, makes fine hay. This man has made this year an average of 438 pounds of seed and about 9 tons of hay per acre.

A Bulletin dated January, 1913, from the Department says:

"Sudan is probably the wild original form of the cultivated Sorghums. It is a tall annual grass, growing under favorable conditions to a height of 6 to 10 ft., but when broadcasted thickly, it grows only 3 to 5 ft. high. The stems are fine, the largest stalks seldom larger than a lead pencil. In general appearance, Sudan Grass is very much like Johnson Grass, but they are entirely distinct, for Sudan Grass lacks root stocks and, therefore, never becomes troublesome as a weed. The stems are leafy, erect, and seldom lodging. The grass cures easily, making hay of excellent quality, which is readily eaten by all kinds of live stock.

"GROWING THE CROP. It may be grown either drilled, in cultivated rows, or broadcasted. If planted in cultivated rows, the rows should be as close as possible, and yet permit of easy cultivation. In thirty-inch rows, two to three pounds of seed per acre is ample; and, under conditions of very low rainfall, this method is recommended. Under humid conditions, 18 inch rows are preferable, and 5 pounds of seed per acre are sufficient. For drilling or broadcasting, 15 to 25 pounds of seed per acre, depending on rainfall, should be used. The seed should not be sown until the ground is warm, that is, about the time for planting corn. The young plants will withstand slight frosts without injury."

"HARVESTING THE CROP. The hay should be cut as soon as the grass is fully headed, and early cutting is especially advisable where two or more cuttings per season are expected. The grass can be cut with a mower, but more conveniently with a binder, especially in dry regions, as the hay cures very readily in bundles."

"SAVING THE SEED. The grass yields a heavy crop of seed, especially in cultivated rows. If the seed is grown for commercial purposes, it is highly important that it be grown on land not infested with Johnson Grass, as the seeds of the two are distinguishable only with difficulty. It is recommended that, in growing for seed only, it be cultivated in rows, taking great care to hoe out and eliminate any Johnson Grass or other weeds, etc., that may show in the Sudan Grass. It crosses very readily with all the cultivated varieties of Sorghum; and when it is grown near any such variety, more or less numerous hybrid plants will appear in the progeny. These hybrids do no harm in fields intended for hay, but where a crop is to be harvested for seed, the hybrid plant should be rogued out. This should be done preferably as the hybrids appear in bloom, so as to prevent further crossing in the field, but in any event, it should be done before the Sudan Grass is harvested. The Sudan Seed weighs about 32 pounds to the bushel."

Some Big Tomatoes.

A. H. Owen who lives in north Hereford brought in a sample of some very fine tomatoes this week, one the lot weighing 1 1/2 in the full.

EUROPE'S WAR NEWS SUMMARY

Germany Still Making Advances Into French Territory—Turks Getting Ready For Scrap. Big Battle Soon.

From all indications Europe is on the eve of one of the greatest battles in the history of mankind. The Germans have driven the Allies close to their fortified positions, and the combined forces of France and England are expected to make a final stand somewhere between the French border and Paris. It is likely the fortifications around Paris will be the place of the great battle. The French national officials are said to be preparing to move the government to Bordeaux and The Temps, the leading newspaper, will follow.

Another line of battle along the Austrian border in which the forces of Germany and Austria will meet the advance of Russia is said to be actually formed, and fighting is in progress. It is reported that three million men are engaged.

It appears from newspaper reports all of which have been censored that the Germans are making greater progress than was at first expected and that the German mode of war tactics is more than a match for the French-English formation.

Will Finish Basement of Church.

The members of the First Christian church have decided to raise funds and finish the basement of the church. This work is to be done at once. This will add considerable to the looks as well as the comfort of the congregation. The main auditorium will not be finished this year.

ALFALFA WINNING FIRST PLACE

Hereford District Making Available Record With Irrigated Alfalfa; Sure and Profitable.

The McDonald irrigated farm in South Hereford, operated by J. E. Webster, is making a remarkable showing on alfalfa. Nine acres of this land seeded one year ago in May, has produced four crops of excellent hay this season. Another crop will be harvested in about four weeks and the yield for the season can be safely estimated at six tons to the acre. During the first week of May, this year, twenty acres were seeded and a good stand obtained. Six acres were irrigated early in the season and three tons of hay cut some six weeks ago. The entire field was watered and last week a good crop of fine hay was harvested. Another crop will be cut in five weeks and it is safe to predict three tons of hay from this land for the first season. When compared to other countries this is a remarkable showing as nothing is ever expected from first year seeding.

On another McDonald farm north of town, Henry Scheutte last week cut a twenty eight days' growth of alfalfa and got a ton per acre. The hay will grade choice pea green. Mr. Scheutte is working out a profitable hog-alfalfa combination. He has grazed ninety head of hogs on six acres since early spring and had plenty of pasture all summer. The hogs have made a good growth and in a few days will be fattened for the market. All the alfalfa fields in the Hereford district prove that this is one of the very best alfalfa propositions to be found anywhere.

Geo. Bipes Killed By Row Binder.

While Geo. Bipes and his small son were at work last Friday afternoon, each with a row binder, the team driven by the boy became frightened and ran away. They headed towards the father's machine which was in front. This caused the second team to scare and lunge and as the two machines collided, threw Mr. Bipes from his seat and under one of the binders, the main wheel striking him in the back as it passed over his body. He was picked up in an unconscious condition and carried to the house, a short distance away, where first aid was rendered. Physicians were called, but before they could go out to his ranch, a distance of some 40 miles, he died. At times, he would be conscious, but could never tell just how the accident happened. The undertaker, Mr. Thomas, found no bruises on his body and no signs of a violent impact from the machine, except a few small scratches on the skin in the middle of his back. His remains were prepared for burial and were placed in a grave on the farm near his home on Saturday, Rev. R. E. L. Farmer officiating. This sudden death of this good man is a severe blow to the entire community. He leaves a wife and nine children. The family moved to this county from Nebraska a few years back and bought a large ranch in the northwest part of the county. He and his family have worked hard to establish themselves and had well succeeded. The entire citizenship of the county extends its heartfelt sympathy to the members of the bereaved family.

Sisk Sells Elite Confectionery. R. G. Sisk closed a deal the first of the week by which Frank Richards and Elswick Cloyd become the owners and proprietors of the Elite Confectionery. These two young men are an industrious pair and we speak for them a successful career in this line of business. They have been busy this week putting the place in order and will receive in a short time a new stock of confections.

Q.—Does not history prove that the Bible is unreliable? (L. E.)

Answer.—The fact that profane historians do not at times agree with the writers of the Bible should not lead us to regard the Bible as untrue. Those who do thus conclude should assign and prove some motive on the part of its writers for making false statements. The poverty of Jesus' friends, and the unpopularity of their hero with the religionists of Judaea, contradict the thought that they were seeking fame, fortune or power. Reason declares that the testimony of such men, acted upon only by pure and good motives, is of far greater weight than ordinary writings. This is equally true of the writers of the Christian and Jewish dispensations. The latter were, in the main, men notable for their fidelity to the Lord; and the divine history as impartially records and reproves their weaknesses and shortcomings as it commends their virtues and faithfulnes. This must astonish those who presume the Bible to be a manufactured history, designed to awe men into reverence of a religious system. There is a straightforwardness about the Bible that stamps it as truth. Knave, detestful of representing a man as great, and especially if detestful of presenting some of his writings as inspired of God, would undoubtedly paint such an one's character blameless and noble to the last degree. Each year is lessening the differences between the Bible and history, for as the records of the past are unearthed the Bible record is corroborated and history is revised.

Q.—Please explain St. John 20:22—"Whosoever sins ye remit, they are remitted." (G. W. K.)

Answer.—This investment of the apostles with special authority to bind and to loose, to remit and to hold, we understand to signify that God would specially control their utterances, so that their decisions and writings might properly be considered authoritative. Not that God bound Himself to do and to decide according to the imperfect judgments of the apostles. For instance, it is at the mouth of the apostles that we learn that we are justified from all sin through faith in the redemption; they did not make it so, but under divine direction they were guided in the stating of it so; and we may implicitly rely upon their statements, which, moreover, we find to be in full accord with the principles of righteousness and the various declarations of the divine Word. They inform us that certain sins can be remitted or forgiven—sins of weakness and of ignorance, traceable to our fallen nature, which we have received by heredity, and the penalty for which our Lord has already borne. They inform us that other sins, viz., willful sins, are not forgivable, and may be indeed sins unto death, the Second Death. This is reasonable; for we perceive that Christ did not die for any except Adamic transgression, and those sins which directly or indirectly may be traceable to it; and that willful, deliberate transgressions cannot therefore be forgiven, but must be expiated. If committed with considerable light, but not full light, the expiating penalty may be "stripes," but if committed with full willfulness and against full light the penalty could be nothing short of the Second Death (1 John 5:16; Luke 12:47, 48; Hebrews 6:4-6; 10:26, 27).

Q.—The newspaper testimonies and the court records show a vast increase in the criminal tendencies of mankind in general. Why should the world be giving such evidence of criminal depravity, whereas many have hoped that the spread of general intelligence and the multiplication of Bibles and churches would by this time have converted the world? (L. I. G.)

Answer.—It is just about a century since most of the large Bible societies were formed, and missionary work by Protestants was undertaken with fresh zeal and hope. The century past is notable in the world's history for its religious zeal and missionary effort and general dissemination of the Scriptures, far in excess of any other. Yet today we find from statistics that, with the largest possible allowance for heathen professions and counting as Christians all who make any pretension toward civilization, regardless of their faith in Christ—still where there were 600,000,000 heathen a century ago there are now 1,200,000,000! Where a century ago the colleges and theological seminaries of the world were almost without exception loyal to God, to the Bible and to Christ, the theories of human evolution and higher criticism seem to have invaded all of them today. The explanation of the situation is found in the apostle's words, "By one man's disobedience sin entered into the world and death as a result of sin, and thus death passed upon all men because all are sinners" (Romans 5:12). For 6,000 years this sinful downward course has prevailed, carrying mankind in some parts of the world into very deep degradation, and as a result, "darkness covers the earth, and gross darkness the people" (Isaiah 60:2). It is well that we have Bibles, but more is needed. An understanding of our Bibles is necessary to clear away the darkness. Individual progress is being made, but only the establishment of the Kingdom of God, the hands of His Son can bring the far coast to the blessing of all.

Q.—What should we understand "the times of the Gentiles" mentioned in Luke 21:24 to refer to? (Chromas.)

Answer.—The Throne of Israel was overturned in Zedekiah's day, when the Jews were finally taken into captivity. It has not yet been re-established, and will not be set up "until he come whose right it is" (Ezekiel 21:27). The throne will then be occupied by the antitypical David, our Lord Jesus Christ, who will reign as King of Kings over all the earth for 1,000 years. The object of that reign is stated in Acts 15:16, 17, and other Scriptures show that all the dead will be raised to participate in the opportunities of that great Day. The period from the overthrow of Israel's kingdom until it is set up again as Messiah's throne is "the times of the Gentiles," during which God has permitted the nations to try every human device for uplifting the race, before bringing in His kingdom which shall prove itself to be the "desire of all nations."

Q.—What grounds have we for believing the Bible? (E. E.)

Answer.—As we look all around us in the heavens, and on the earth, we are compelled to admit, as reasoning and intelligent beings, the existence of a Supreme Being, as a FIRST cause; and that He is wise and powerful. Moreover, as we reason further, and ask ourselves why such a God should make us with intelligence and understanding, the answer comes, "that we might appreciate and adore Him." But how could we know and fully understand our God unless He revealed Himself to us? This He has done in our Bible. We know this by the fact of its being the oldest book in existence; and that in spite of the many enemies it has had, who have sought to destroy it, it is now more widely circulated than any other book, and published in every language. It also has a uniformly moral and good influence. It is the only book which gives a reason for the pain, sickness, sin, and death amongst the human race; provides an antidote, and promises on a reasonable basis the blessing of all the families of the earth.

Q.—Matthew 16:24, "Then said Jesus unto his disciples, if any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me." Please explain this verse, more particularly how a man can deny himself, and what the cross means. (Disciple.)

Answer.—Jesus was a perfect man; yet He denied Himself the legitimate exercise of His pure, fleshly ambitions because He had, at Jordan when thirty years of age, presented Himself as Adam's substitute—a ransom for all condemned in Adam. On this account He was begotten of the holy Spirit with a view to His being brought forth from the dead, a spirit being Who would be highly exalted to God's right hand of power, and should become, in due time, the King of kings and ruler of the human race. God graciously purposed to call out a people during this Gospel age who should follow in His steps—suffering with Him now, in order that they should, if faithful, be His joint-heirs in His kingdom (Romans 8:17). What a prospect for the consecrated followers of Jesus! Surely we would gladly deny our fleshly ambitions their legitimate indulgence and count all things loss and dross if we might be found in Him! If the crown we would wear, Then the cross we must bear.

Q.—Should religion be a matter of reason or of emotion? (E. R.)

Answer.—God gave us His word of truth that it might be a basis for reasoning. His invitation to us is, "Come let us reason together." It will do us good to reason on religious matters, to inquire for instance, "why the God of love has permitted the reign of sin and death which we see all about us today and which we know has been in progress for six thousand years." Leaving out of the question entirely the matter of eternal torment after death, we should begin first of all to inquire, "Why does our loving Father in heaven permit burning fevers, consumption, etc., to afflict our race?" As a matter of fact, He could as easily stop the pain and suffering brought on by disease and plagues as He could have stopped the slaughter of surrounding nations by the Israelites. To acknowledge God at all is to acknowledge His power, His wisdom, His justice, His love, and who ever has not thus far been able to harmonize these divine characteristics with the reign of sin and death has failed to properly use his reason in connection with the enlightenment of God's word, earnestly and devoutly studied. There must be a reason why everything is in harmony in heaven and discord on earth, why the heavenly hosts are perfect in mind and morals, while the earthly creatures of God are all so imperfect "that there is none righteous, no not one" (Romans 3:10). There must be some reason why they have no insane asylums in heaven, while on earth their inmates number in civilized lands about one out of every one hundred and fifty of the adults. There must be a reason why humanity sickens and dies while the angels maintain their vitality and perfection. The Bible reveals the cause.

Sacred Concert at Christian Church
Next Sunday night at the First Christian Church, the choir will render a sacred cantata, entitled, "A Story of the Orient." In connection with the many beautiful choruses, the story will be read by Mrs. C. H. Pratt. This cantata will be given instead of the regular services. At the morning hour the regular church services and sermon will be given. The public is invited to attend both services.

Capt. Tilson For Representative.

The convention for the 123rd representative district met at Tulia on Saturday, August 22, and after canvassing the votes declared Capt. T. J. Tilson of Hale county the nominee. Following is the vote as cast, but no returns were made from Parmer county:

	Tilson	Elliott	Holmes
Armstrong	134	164	89
Randall	136	154	101
Deaf Smith	75	338	55
Parmer	10	107	18
Hale	586	165	356
Castro	102	97	61
Swisher	247	142	99
Totals	1290	1167	779

The total vote cast was 3236; Capt. Tilson received 1290 votes lacking 329 being a majority. He lead Elliott by 123 votes and Holmes by 311. This election being a plurality affair, Capt. Tilson was entitled to the nomination. Tilson carried Hale, Swisher and Castro counties; Elliott carried Deaf Smith, Randall, Armstrong and Parmer.

TO PEOPLE OF NORTHWEST TEXAS

We take pleasure in announcing the SECOND ANNUAL EXHIBITION of the

Panhandle State FAIR

Amarillo, Friday, September 25 to Thursday, October 1

The exhibition facilities of the fair have been greatly enlarged this year, owing to the increased demand for space from every section of the Panhandle.

With the marvelous agricultural showing throughout our country this season, visitors may rest assured that the exhibition of products of the farm at the Fair will compare most favorably with that of any similar exhibition in the entire country.

In the Live Stock Divisions there will be nothing wanting, the entries promising a showing which would do credit to a live stock show of national pretensions.

In the Poultry, Milling, Manufacturing, Garden, Kitchen, and other departments the exhibits promise a revelation to all.

The Racing Program

Will include several fast events each day, many of the famed harness horses of the country having secured entry in the various races.

Allman Bros. Carnival Co.

The classiest carnival attraction in the United States, carrying 18 carloads of equipment and a Band of thirty pieces, has been engaged for the entire Fair, thus assuring the visitors the best of entertainment.

All Panhandle people, all Texas people, all the people of all the states, are invited to the Fair. Come and enjoy a week's holiday. We promise you an enjoyable and profitable time at the Fair. Special Rates on all Railroads. For any information, write

Will You Join the Rest?

Many of our town and country folks have already signified their intention to attend the Panhandle State Fair at Amarillo Sept. 25th to Oct. 1st. Dr. Smith's cure will be represented by a creditable exhibition of farm and other products. Considering the general situation throughout other sections of Texas, and of most of the States, the Panhandle stands forth as a country particularly blessed with abundance this season. We are entitled to a short vacation and a few days amusement and entertainment. No better opportunity could be offered us for this purpose than the Panhandle State Fair. Make arrangements to join the rest and meet all your friends at the Fair.

PLENTY OF PROOF

From People You Know—From Hereford Citizens.

The greatest skeptic can hardly fail to be convinced in the face of evidence like this. It is impossible to produce better proof of merit than the testimony of residents of Hereford, of people who can be seen at any time. Read the following case of it:

B. W. Miller, E. Eleventh & F Sts., Hereford, Tex., says: "I got a supply of Doan's Kidney Pills from Woodburn & Son's Drug Store, when I was suffering from pain in my back and they quickly relieved me. Now when I stoop or lift, I don't have that pain in my loins and the trouble with my kidneys has also been corrected."

S. J. Rice has gone to Colorado a few days on business.

Our Sunday school was small in number Sunday on account of so many being away camping. We expect a large crowd the coming Sunday, Sept. 6, as the Wyche Sunday school is coming in a body to study the lesson with us and Bro. Baker of Hereford will preach for us at 4 p. m.

Rev. Hulbert and wife of Friona have been camping at Sulphur Park. They attended Sunday school and then Mr. Hulbert gave us a helpful sermon. We are always glad of such help and hope they will come again.

Monday, August 24th, a jolly party of ten left Mr. Rice's home for the Palo Duro Canyon. They were: Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Galley and baby, Edgar, Norman, Eva and Esther Rice, Mary Galley, Laura Frye and Dixon Turner. Going through Canyon they were entertained at noon in the Vore home, after which the Misses Etta, Myrtle, Beatrice and Mable Vore joined them and the party camped on the edge of the canyon for the night. Tuesday a precipitous descent was made to the creek, a camp was pitched, and all were ready for the pleasures of outdoor life as offered in the canyons. Rambling over the rocks and picture taking were the usual pastimes, tho of an evening songs and recitations were indulged in. Dixon Turner was accorded lasting fame in his singing of such popular songs as, "Call me up some rainy afternoon," and "Little Johnnie Rankin," etc., etc. Hollis Galley was the orator, delivering such thrilling orations as, "Lincoln's Gettysburg Speech," and "Spartacus to the Gladiator." The Rice Brothers gained the good will of the company by their craft with stone and mortar in building a nice place for the ladies to prepare the meals. Bathing, not sea coast bathing, was enjoyed by all. Edgar Rice made a high dive of twelve feet, after an hour of deliberation. Beatrice and Myrtle Vore had to return to Canyon Friday. Mrs. Vore sent some "grub" back by the carriers, for which the party were very thankful, as they were almost in need. Sunday was spent in-camp playing a bible game. Sunday afternoon a small Sunday school was enjoyed. The party returned to Canyon Monday, and thence to their homes Tuesday.

COULD SCARCELY WALK ABOUT

And For Three Summers Mrs. Vincent Was Unable to Attend to Any of Her Housework.

Pleasant Hill, N. C.—"I suffered for three summers," writes Mrs. Walter Vincent, of this town, "and the third and last time, was my worst."

I had dreadful nervous headaches and prostration, and was scarcely able to walk about. Could not do any of my housework.

I also had dreadful pains in my back and sides and when one of those weak, sinking spells would come on me, I would have to give up and lie down, until it wore off.

I was certainly in a dreadful state of health, when I finally decided to try Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I firmly believe I would have died if I hadn't taken it.

After I began taking Cardui, I was greatly helped, and all three bottles relieved me entirely.

I fattened up, and grew so much stronger in three months, I felt like another person altogether."

Cardui is purely vegetable and gentle-acting. Its ingredients have a mild, tonic effect, on the womanly constitution.

Cardui makes for increased strength, improves the appetite, tones up the nervous system, and helps to make pale, sallow cheeks, fresh and rosy.

Cardui has helped more than a million weak women, during the past 50 years. It will surely do for you, what it has done for them. Try Cardui today.

Going Off to School.

At this time of the year, there is that general rush of preparation getting ready to "Go off to school." There is a seemingly strong attraction in the idea and it has seized many a head both among the old as well as the young. Often the father and sometimes the mother takes a notion that the local school is not suitable for their children as the advantages are lacking and will strain a point to send them to some other town where the conditions are similar and the advantages just about the same. Sometimes a fond father will send his daughter off to keep her out of a matrimonial trap. Sometimes the mother will insist on her daughter going to a certain school for "finish," and more often the young thing is finished by the time she graduates which requires only that she make the proper bow in society and that her father furnish some cash. The redeeming feature about this "going off to school" is, that the intermingling with new people improves the ideas, prevents classiness and destroys localisms. It sometimes relieves the local conditions, making them more tolerable for those who remain.

But there are other things to consider when selecting a school. Should we send out of the state when Texas can offer to some degree proficient schools? While there may be advantages in a distant state, there is a loss to the student never to be regained. In a Texas school, the pupil forms acquaintances among those who will afterwards make their homes in the state, and these ties of friendship are often of great advantage in after life, both in a social and business way. In the schools of other states, there is no Texas pride inculcated by example or precept; in fact, the student is often weaned away from that patriotic love for the state. This is a severe loss. A graduate from any of the denominational schools of Texas, or one from any of the state schools, will meet in every town and community, old pupils from all these schools, and it is a source of great pleasure. The student learns to know Texas better by attending the Texas schools. As for the mental, moral and physical training is concerned, it is doubtful, if all the facts and conditions are known, whether the other states excel Texas or not. But as distance lends enchantment even to a bad school it is not at all alarming to see, each year, hundreds, yes thousands of Texas boys and girls crossing the line to fill up the halls of college buildings in other states. If you will send off to school, select the place after careful consideration for there is as many fakes in schools as there is any other lines of business.

REASSURANCE

The advertising columns of a daily newspaper form one of the best barometers of business. August has been a critical month throughout the world. The business interests of America, with keen eyes, ears alert and senses acute, have watched the changing minutes for positive or negative signs. They have planned and proceeded with caution, for the welfare of this country is at stake. The closing of August brings indications of real prosperity. America must manufacture, now, not only for itself but for the world.

Business enterprises will count in a great big way. War has locked the gates of the factories of the commercial nations of Europe—Germany, England and France. The same war makes it not only possible but necessary that America's factories open wide their gates and keep them open.

This country is blessed with a bumper crop of grain. To us is now given not only our own great market but the market here that hitherto has been supplied from Europe and market in Europe that Europe has hitherto had.

That the Fort Worth Record has a very gratifying gain of display advertising in August over the peaceful August of 1913—a gain that comes from the regular advertising of Fort Worth's stores and shops and manufacturers and not from the combings of special editions—is real life reassuring evidence of the steadiness of trade.—Courtesy Chicago Examiner.

A Silo For $100.00.

We have just erected at our yard a full sized model Tulsa silo. This silo sells for $100.00 to $185.00, made and painted complete. It is made in sections and can be taken down easily and moved from one place to another. We want every man in Hereford to come to our yard and see this silo and give us your opinion of it. We sincerely believe that we have the best silo that has ever been shown in the Panhandle and we know that the price is less than half what has been asked for other silos. We can furnish silos on short notice as they are made from material that we always have on hand. R. H. Kemp Lumber Co. 31-2t

Wink Talks in K. C.

W. I. Valentine of Hereford, Tex., who landed on today's market with two carloads of cows, reported grass very plentiful, and cattle fat. Speaking about the fall run of cattle from that section, Mr. Valentine said that it all depended on the market.

"This is one time when we will sell cattle provided the price suits us," he said. "Cattle owners are in very good shape financially, and besides that what is still more important, we have all kinds of feed to carry us through the winter. Under these circumstances, therefore, we will be governed by the market. Aged steers are scarce, which leaves our present supply made up largely of young cattle and cows."—Drovers Telegram.

Thank You.

We wish to thank our patrons for increased business and assure them that we will continue to do our best to please them. For the benefit of new customers we wish to state that we are still taking family wash at 6 cents per pound, and at this rate we iron all handkerchiefs, napkins, towels, pillow cases, sheets, table clothes, counterpanes and rags. We wish it distinctly understood that we "wash because we like to, and not because we have to." However, we do not say this without "equivocation, mental reservation and secret evasion of mind."

Ten Wagons Bring in Wheat Crop From Across the Line.

C. T. Gann of Cameron, N. M., was in Hereford this week marketing his wheat crop. It required the services of ten wagons to bring the crop in and the line rolled into Hereford Wednesday afternoon after a trip of some 50 miles, his home being over the line in New Mexico. His crop averaged 22 bushels per acre. He says that there were several thousand acres in wheat and that the average will run 20 bushels, one man making over 40 bushels to the acre. Other crops are reported to be good in that community.

Dependable Irrigation

When you drive up to a McDonald Irrigating Plant, anywhere in the Hereford Country, it is very seldom you find anyone near the plant. The operator is in the field with the water where he belongs. He starts the plant in the morning and goes down the ditch with the water.

This saving of an extra man pays interest on a great deal more than the difference between the price of a McDonald Plant and the cheap kind. If a regular engineer is needed that's a sure sign of trouble. You can't afford to irrigate with troublesome machinery if you get it for nothing.

Everything depends on the water—the farmer's bread and butter, the security of the land, the ability to borrow, the sale of the land at a good price all depend on a dependable water supply. No one can afford to have anything but the best that money can buy. We could install cheaper plants but we won't—it wouldn't pay us—it won't pay you. We will continue to put up the very best installations for the prices charged, which we know are consistent. McDonald Irrigating Plants cost more to install—cost very much less to operate. Figure operating cost and you'll buy a McDonald.

It's cheap water you want, not a cheap pumping plant. GET FIGURES.

WE DON'T SPEAK!

She's fair and beautiful and gay,
The rarest, sweetest flower;
Her tragic mien, O, what a sight to see!
A model whom men crave to view
Fresh from her perfumed bower;
And she's clever,
But she never,
Speaks to me!

Men quit their stores to see her pass,
She shows her class, she'll win;
Her Cle-o-pa-trac pose, hauteur, O, gee!
She has one fault—I hate to tell—
Her skirt's too long, too thin;
And I'd never,
If she'd ever,
Speak to me.

Dame Nature holds no prize sublime
Like her, she grips my heart!
O, what a fair, proud queen she'd ever be!
If she, from me, would take some hints
On clothes, I could impart;
And would ever,
Falling never,
Speak to me.
I gave a girl points, once, on clothes,
Next week she married swell;
She scooped ten thousand plunks Al-ee-mo-nee!
I might put some of you girls next,
But her, you must not tell,
For she'd never,
O, no never,
Speak to me! (Allenhurst.)

Surprise Dinner.

As high noon last Sunday, when Mrs. R. J. Kibbe and daughter, Lora, returned home from church, they found, to their great surprise, that some fifty of their neighbors had gathered in with well-filled baskets, containing various things in the line of eatables. These were immediately brought forth and a spread made in honor of Miss Lora's 14th birthday. It is useless to add that every one present enjoyed the dinner and the day. Those who participated in this surprise were: Mr. and Mrs. Walt Bradley and children, Mr. and Mrs. Sherm Williams and children, Mr. and Mrs. Green and children, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Elliston and children, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Elliston and children, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Elliston, Mrs. S. E. Askren, Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Kellow and daughter, Edna, Mr. and Mrs. Al Vaughn and children, Ira Wilkinson, Misses Dorothy Barnett, Doyle and Jessie Womble.

Young People Marry.

On Sunday, August 23, at the home of the bride's parents, Miss Mary Utesch was united in marriage to Mr. J. Festus Harris, the members of the two families and a few friends being present. Rev. R. E. L. Farmer, pastor of the Baptist church, performed the ceremony. The Brand joins with their many friends in wishing these young peo-

In Honor of Miss Carlock.

The first social event of the fall was given by Mrs. A. J. Lipscomb Tuesday, Sept. 1st, at her beautiful residence on 10th street in honor of her sister, Miss Carlock, who lately came from Missouri for a visit in Hereford. In the afternoon the guests were composed of the young ladies of the city, who were delightfully entertained with numerous games, contests, etc. Many of them taking their fancy work along for entertainment at odd moments. The refreshments consisted of punch, ice cream and cake. The afternoon passed so pleasantly and the proverbial "meal and oil" still lasting, the hostess decided to continue her hospitality, and in the evening she entertained with a "theatre party," allowing the young gentlemen as well as the young ladies to partake of the hospitality that so freely abounds at the Lipscomb home. The evening program consisted of sight-seeing "the Million Dollar Mystery" together with a Biblical contest and a contest in forestry, both of which proved very entertaining. As the guests came they were met by the hostess who lead the way to an adjoining room where each registered and were presented with refreshing punch by Mr. Lipscomb, who presided over the punch bowl dispensary. Later the guests were invited to the dining room, which is one of the most beautiful in the city, and served with delicious ice cream and cake. The parting was at a late hour, and the host and hostess were doubly assured by each guest of the appreciation of their charming hospitality.

Mrs. Luther Hough entertained informally at her home on Friday afternoon. The receiving rooms and porch were elaborate with clematis and sunflowers. Assisting in receiving the guests were Mesdames Roloson, Evans and Mason. They were directed into the dining room where dainty refreshments were served by Misses NAnna Elliott and Inez Dunlap. Later "42" was the diversion, punch being served during the games. In the house party were: Mesdames Collins, Evans, Mason, Witherspoon, Roloson, Misses NAnna Elliott, Mary and Inez Dunlap.

Married After Midnight.

A young couple from Farmer county left their home near Friona last Friday afternoon in their auto with the intention of securing the necessary papers in a matrimonial affair. As luck would have it, the engine would miss and they were delayed, but fortune sent a Hereford car that way and they were brought in, but late. The minister was aroused after midnight and Mr. Cecil Turner and Miss May Stephens were joined in marriage, Rev. W. M. Baker performing the ceremony. The young couple left the next morning for their home.

First Lyceum Entertainment.

The great interest shown in the Lyceum Course at the High School last year has justified the local management to engage even better talent this season. The course will open next Friday night, Sept. 11, at the auditorium with a very bright and snappy entertainment by The Lyric Glee Club. This Club comes to Hereford with the very best endorsements. It is an organization of well-known artists who have appeared on the most exacting platforms in America. The entertainment will consist of singing in quartette and solo work, costume productions and instrumental specialties. Extends Call to Rev. Faris.

The board of officers of the First Christian church have extended an indefinite call to Dr. G. A. Faris, whose year as pastor for that church closed last Sunday. This announcement was received with great pleasure not only among his own membership, but by many others of the other churches of town. The announcement was made Wednesday night at prayer meeting.

"OCEANS of WATER"

Actual photographic reproduction of one of Hereford's wonder-flow wells is shown here, pouring forth a big stream of crystal pure water at the rate of 1500 gallons per minute, absolutely guaranteeing a bountiful crop on 160 acres of rich soil at a very moderate price

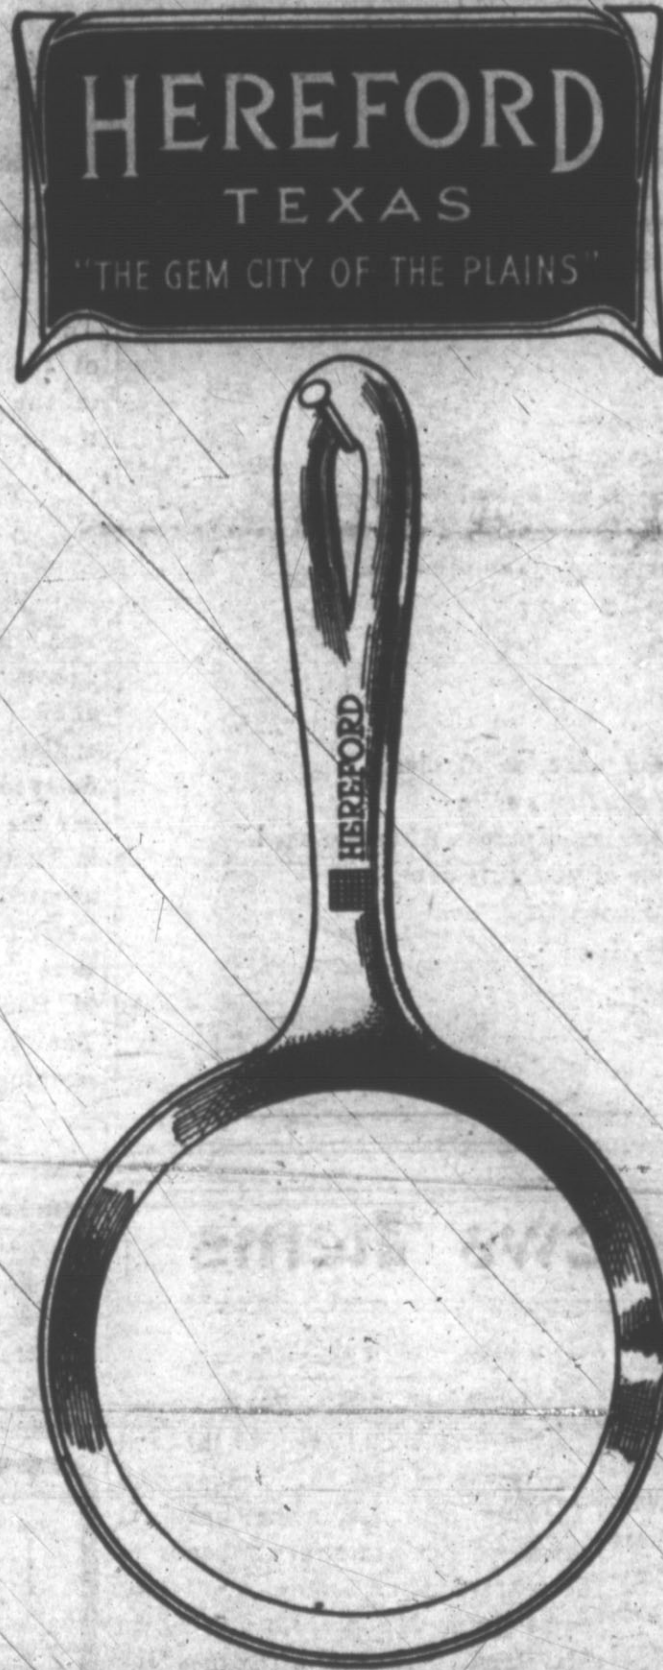

These wells in the "Hereford country" are delivering 1000 to 2000 gallons per minute. The quantity of water is controlled entirely by the power applied to the pump, not by the water supply.

5000 gallons per minute can be developed from one of these big wells.

Hereford

Is the county seat of Deaf Smith county. The court house, costing $125,000.00, is constructed of steel, concrete and marble and is the finest and best equipped in Texas. The town is located in the Southeastern part of the county on the main line of the Santa Fe Railroad from Kansas City to California. Four daily passenger trains are maintained. The business is represented by all lines usually found in a city of 2,500 people. The three banks furnish ample facilities for the merchants, farmers and stockmen and farmers. The Municipal Water Works and Sewer System are modern in every respect. A private corporation furnishes Electric Light and Power. The school district has a well equipped building costing $25,000 and an enrollment of 500 pupils. The High School is affiliated with the State University. Seven church organizations are represented and six of these have good buildings. The streets are graded, the main thoroughfares are macadamized and a large portion of the sidewalks are concrete. The town prides itself on the thousands of shade and fruit trees and many beautiful yards and lawns.

Actual Farmers are needed to help develop the irrigation by raising Grain, Cattle and Hogs.

The Country

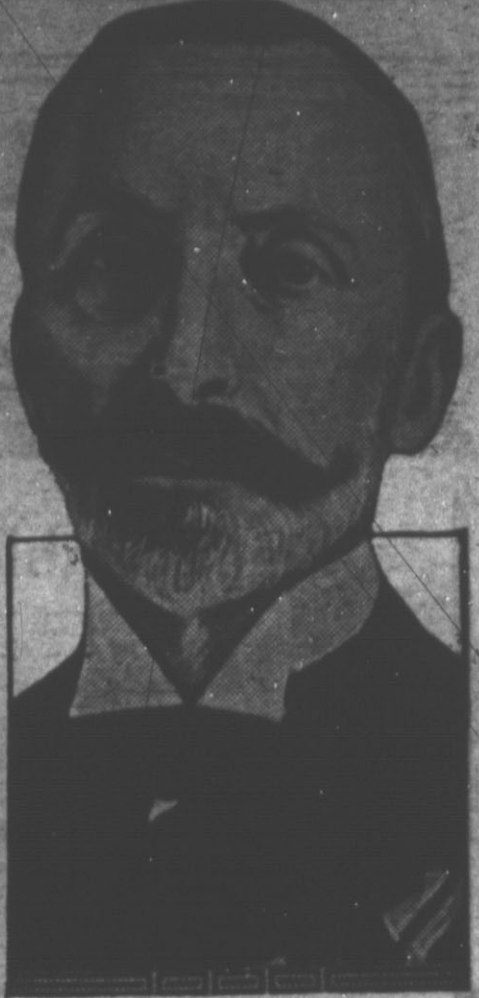

Hereford is located in the center of a large territory devoted to farming and stock raising. Cattle, Sheep, Hogs, Horses and Mules make up the list as to stock and are named in the order of the magnitude of each line. The farming interests are large but most of the efforts are devoted to the combination of farming and stock raising. The principal crops are kaffir, milo maize, millet, oats, wheat, sorghum on upland and alfalfa in the valleys, but since the advent of irrigation a large acreage of alfalfa is being set on the up-lands.

THE SOIL No better, no richer, none easier to till can be found anywhere. The level surface makes the preparation of a farm easy, whether wanted for Dry Farming or Wet Farming. The irrigation ditches are as straight as the proverbial "bee line" and the land needs but little leveling.

Irrigation—the Water

Is as pure and clear as a crystal—The Perfect Irrigation Water. "Oceans of Water for Every Acre" and when you want it. The water is found at a depth of from 30 to 100 feet and is brought up by means of turbine pumps operated by high power oil engines. These pumps deliver, under ordinary conditions, from 1000 to 2000 gallons per minute. This amount of water will irrigate from eight to fifteen acres per day.

HEREFORD, TEXAS

Cupid Outwits Officers and Father.
Memphis, Texas.—Sunday evening the local officers received a message from Wellington to be on the lookout for a runaway couple and late Sunday evening the couple was located and taken into custody. The boy was placed in jail and the girl was taken to the Stepoons hotel and locked in a room over night. The boy, Ernest Phillips, and the girl, Lillie Brown, were 17 and 15 years old respectively, and are of highly respectable families living near Wellington. They decided to get married but could not get the consent of their parents, which resulted in the elopement with the above results. Monday morning the girl's father came over and took her to the home of a friend for dinner while Mr. Brown had gone to the wagon yard to hitch up his team the boy who had been released from custody, again stole the girl. In company with sheriff King, Mr. Brown drove in different directions from Memphis but could get no trace of them. When they returned to town, Chief of Police, Frank Trap, having in the meantime got track of the couple suggested to Mr. Brown that he give his consent to the marriage and that if he would do so he thought perhaps he could find them. Mr. Brown finally said all right and inside of thirty minutes the couple was found. The boys parents were not here to give their consent and as a result no license could be secured. Mr. Brown accompanied by his daughter left for home, with the understanding that when the boy got his licence he had permission to come and get the girl. We understand Frank Trapp is going to throw up his job as Chief of Police and start a matrimonial

TAKING CALOMEL

IS A BAD HABIT

So Powerful It Shocks Liver and Leaves It Weaker Than Before. Dodson's Liver Tone is Better to Take.

Nearly everybody who has ever tried calomel has found that it gives only a temporary relief. For calomel is such a powerful drug that it shocks and weakens the liver and makes it less able afterward to do its duty than in the first place.

This is one of the reasons why Betts & Clark guarantee Dodson's Liver Tone to take the place of calomel. Dodson's Liver Tone is a pure vegetable liver tonic that will cure constipation quickly and gently, without any danger of bad after-effects. It is guaranteed to do this with a guarantee that is simple and fair. If you buy a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone for yourself or your children, and do not find that it perfectly takes the place of calomel, then return to the store where you bought it and get your money back with a smile. 11

We may not be the nearest to you, but we will come the nearest pleasing you. Betts & Clark. 14tf

A Thing to Fear

Senator Ollie James smiled the other night when the talk in a Washington club turned to Partisans. He said he was reminded of the Green family, who lived in a western city.

The Greens, according to the senator, were republicans of the dyed-in-the-wool order, and to them there was no more beautiful thing on earth than the grand old party.

One evening the Green family was augmented by other Greens. Cousin Bill Green, Uncle Jim Green and more Greens came from an adjacent town for dinner. After dinner they talked politics in the presence of the whole outfit and needless to say there wasn't a dissenting voice.

"Come, Johnny," said Mrs. Green to her little 8-year-old son about 9 o'clock, "it is time for you to go to bed."

"I don't want to go to bed mamma!" responded the youngster, with a terrified look. "I'm afraid!"

"Afraid!" laughed his mother. "What in the world is there to be afraid of?"

"I'm afraid," was the almost tearful rejoinder, that there might be a democrat under the bed!"—Philadelphia Telegram.

Prohibition Doomed!

After 64 years of activity by the friends of prohibition the average American today consumes almost six times as much liquors as did the average American of 1850. In spite of this there is less drunkenness. With this wonderful change for the better, prohibition has had nothing whatever to do. The real reason is found in the fact that today there is a vastly greater amount of beer consumed. And beer is not conducive to drunkenness.

Prohibition is a failure and has had but one effect wherever tried: to put a ban upon the open and above-board drinking of beer and other light beverages and to drive men to secret, immoderate drinking of the strongest stimulants. This is notably true of Maine, a prohibition state. There is ten times as much drunkenness per capita as there is in France.
