PUBLIC SCHOOL OPENED MONDAY

Patrons Attend Opening of School; Large Number of Pupils Enroll For First Week; Teachers All Present.

The opening day of any session of the public school is always looked upon with glad hearts by a liberty loving people. Thru the training given by the public free schools, the right of free speech, the principles of a free government, permitting religious and political liberty, the protection of the home, are all maintained. An educated people always means the overthrow of despots and divinely (?) appointed rulers. In a free government the people rule.

So last Monday morning when the five hundred boys and girls of Hereford with a large number of their fathers and mothers answered to bell call for assembling, it was like the call of arms for the protection of their liberties.

Promptly at the appointed hour, the newly elected superintendent, Prof. J. H. Bright, called the assembly to order and a short program of music and addresses was had. Miss Coffa, at the piano, played a medley which was greatly enjoyed. After this the school sang "America" and while standing prayer was offered by Rev. Farmer of the Baptist church.

The superintendent then called for short addresses by the patrons and a number responded. The tone of their remarks was for the hope for a good school, the encouragement of the pupils to grasp the opportunities before them and an appeal for a hearty co-operation between teacher, pupil and patron. These talks were followed by a splendid talk by Mr. Bright.

While making no effort at oratory, he talked simply and plainly about the teachers' duties, the pupils' obligations and the parents' co-operation in the work of the school. He placed the responsibility for a successful school upon the influence of the home surroundings. He said that all efforts of the teacher were easily counteracted by adverse forces in the home, but that he and the teachers were willing to accept the responsibility for success if that co-operation was given the school, which he felt should be. He touched upon the athletic features which had added so much for the benefit of the public schools, not that the making of champion athletes was the object, but that a sound and vigorous body was as much a part of an education as to be able to read latin or solve problems in geometry. He knew, he said, that noble games tended to nobility of character. In speaking of school discipline, he deplored the fact that, in cases, it was necessary to apply bodily punishment and hoped to see the day when the rod would be a relic of the past and looked upon only as a curiosity. His remarks were met with evident approval by all present.

The superintendent then made a number of announcements regarding the school. One thing was the opening hour of the school. This will be at 9 o'clock.

The complete list of the members of the faculty was given last week and all of the teachers were found at their places of duty Monday morning.

Large School Enrollment.
The opening of school last Monday witnessed a large enrollment in all of the grades, the total being 436 pupils. The third grade has the largest number, 53, the 10th grade the smallest number, 18. Strange to say the 11th grade has more than the 10th, there being 21 in the senior class. The teachers in charge and the number enrolled are as follows:

First Grade—Miss Sue Garrettson, 42 pupils; Second Grade—Mrs. Lin Fertsch, 40 pupils; Third Grade—Mrs. Delphia Cox, 53 pupils; Fourth Grade—Miss Hortense Russell, 51 pupils; Fifth Grade—Miss Meda Woodburn, 47 pupils; Sixth Grade—Miss Frances Dameron, 37 pupils; Seventh Grade—Mrs. Geo. Garrison, 44 pupils.

In the high school, the 8th grade has 50 pupils; the 9th, 33 pupils; the 10th, 18 pupils; and the 11th, 21 pupils. The teachers in the high school are: W. S. McClung, principal; Lin Fertsch, mathematics and science; Miss Maud McLean, history; Miss Erma Wilson, English. The domestic science department is in charge of Miss Maggie Avent and the manual training under Barney Casteel.

"Wilson Man of Sanity."
Owatonic, Kas.—Victor Murdock, Progressive nominee for United States Senator, addressing an audience of more than one thousand persons here at a labor day picnic, said:

"With a storm of human passion raging in Europe, it is time for Americans to be strong and to be patient and to be reasonable. The storm that is raging is one of reaction, a battle of cruel carnage which is dragging European industry European culture, European civilization, backward. Presidents do not declare war; Congress does not declare war, neither can they prevent it. Public opinion can make or prevent war, and there are those forces in America which would welcome a conflict similar to that being waged in Europe, but, thank God, we have a man of sanity, reason and peace in the White House."

Filling The Silos.
For a week, the work of filling the silos has been in progress. The nearest one to town is the Gallagher farm south of town. Saturday afternoon a force of men were busy cutting and hauling. The cutter was at work cutting and blowing; men were in the silo tramping down the silage. The entire scene presented an active farm view worth the while of any one to visit. Mr. Gallagher bought his silo last fall and he feels that it pays well. Other cutters on other farms are busy also and saving the feed crop is well under way.

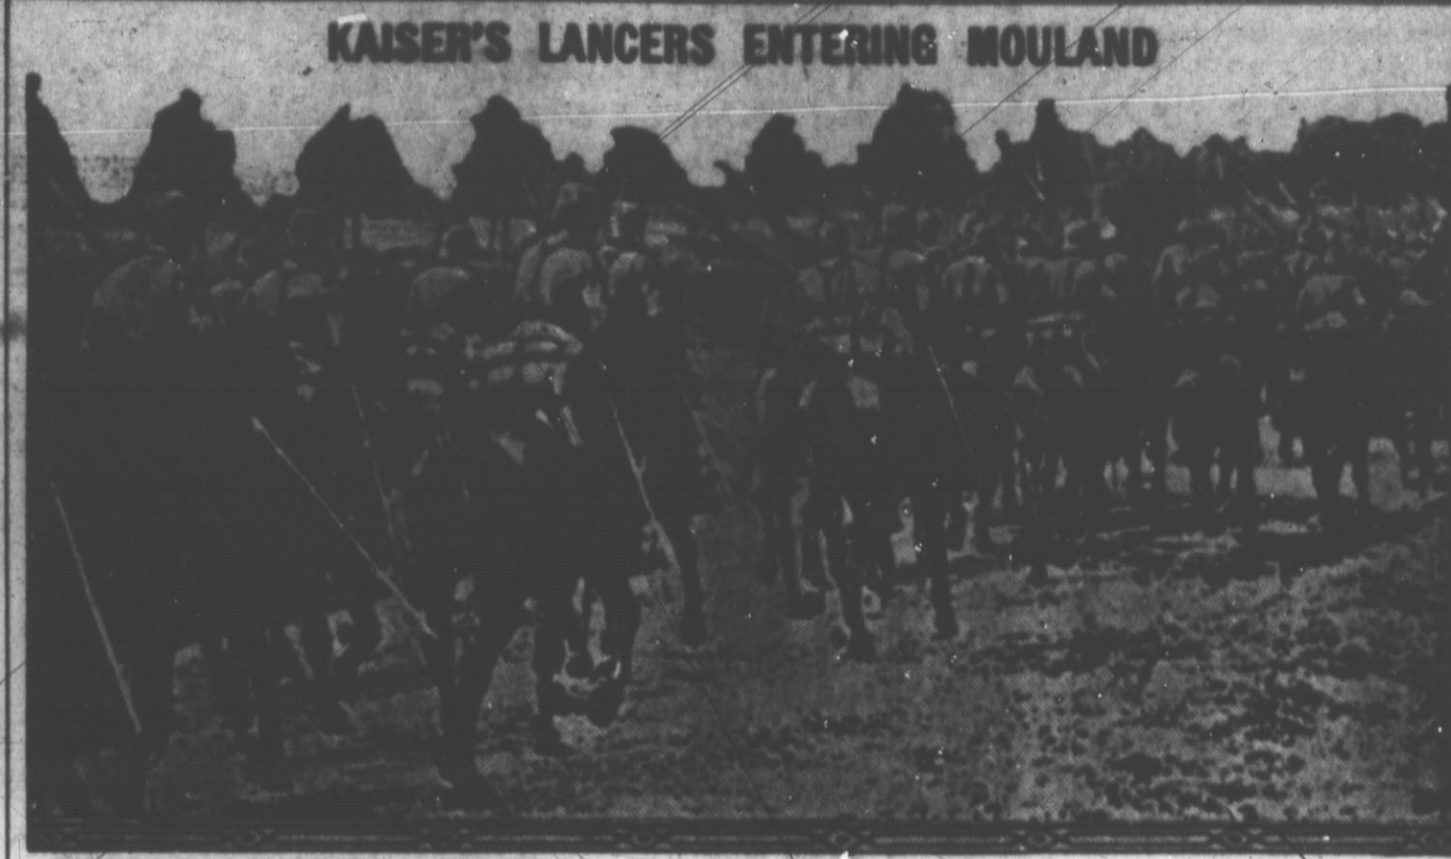

Mr. and Mrs. Theo Cochell and son, Clell, made an auto trip recently to the El Capitan Mountains of New Mexico, going by way of Roswell where they were joined by others. They report a most pleasant outing and that that place is delightfully located.

A Proclamation

Washington, Sept. 8.—President Wilson today signed a proclamation calling on the people of the United States to pray for peace in Europe.

The President's proclamation sets aside Sunday October 4, as a day of prayer. His proclamation is as follows:

"Whereas, great nations of the world have taken up arms against one another and war now draws millions of men into battle whom the counsel of statesmen have not been able to save the terrible sacrifice, and

Whereas, in this as in all things, it is our privilege and duty to seek counsel and succor of Almighty God, humbling ourselves before Him, confessing our weakness and our lack of any wisdom equal to these things, and

"Whereas, it is the especial wish and longing of the people of the United States in prayer and counsel, and all friendliness to serve the cause of peace, therefore,

"I, Woodrow Wilson, President of the United States of America, do designate Sunday, the fourth day of October next, a day of prayer and supplication, and do request all God-fearing persons to repair on that day to their places of worship, there to unite their petitions to Almighty God, that overruling the counsel of men, setting straight the things they cannot govern or alter, taking pity on the nations now in the throes of conflict, in His mercy and goodness showing a way where men can see none, He vouchsafe His children healing peace and again restore once more that concord among men and nations, without which there can be neither happiness nor true friendship, nor any wholesome fruit of toil or thought in the world; preparing also to this end that He forgive us our sins, our ignorance of His holy will, our wilfulness and many errors, and lead us in the paths of obedience to places of vision and to thoughts and counsel that purge and make wise.

"In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

"Done at the city of Washington, this eighth day of September in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and fourteen, and of the independence of the United States of America the one hundredth and thirty-ninth.

WOODROW WILSON,
"By the President:
WILLIAM JENNINGS BRYAN,
"Secretary of State."

Cutting Weeds.
It seems to the casual observer that there are a lot of weeds on the main streets of Hereford that should be cut by the city commission. If not in person it is by their authority. But laying aside the joke. Why should the crop of weeds be allowed to stand after they have grown their limit? In many places the paths are almost obstructed. If it is the duty of the citizens to cut the weeds in the streets, then let them be at it.

Engine House Burns.
Last Monday evening the engine and well house on the Hillcrest Farm, owned by S. B. Edwards, took fire and was soon consumed. It is thought that a lot of gasoline spilled on the floor took fire and the blaze was soon communicated to the oil saturated ground and walls. The house being of light material, it is not likely that any serious damage will result to the engine, the some of the light brass parts will have to be renewed.

Hereford Folks Buy More Autos.
Hereford folks have certainly contracted a very bad case of automobilitis. At first only the real estate men seemed to be catching the disease. Later a few of the stockmen became infected and they have taken down, one or two at a time, until practically every one of them now punch cows from the steering wheel of an auto instead of from the back of a bronc. The farmers appeared to be almost immune from the disease likely because they ate kafir corn, or carried a dried potato as a charm in their pockets, but they, too, have fallen victim to the invading germs and it is not uncommon to see a farmer coming to town with a can of cream and a box of eggs tucked away between the seats of a Ford wagon. Perhaps they argued that if the real-estate men and other loafers, the stockmen and the farmers, could afford an auto, they certainly could sell enough butter and eggs, cream and chickens to afford an easy way of rapid transportation. But the last and least expected of the Hereford city to fall victim are the retired capitalists and lawyers. Only a few weeks ago, one of them had a sporadic case and he took down but the doctors thought they might confine the disease to him, but there seems to be no chance to stop it, for only the other day a young lawyer had a very sudden attack and now he may be seen spooming over the level roads at a speed never dreamed of even by the high flyers. About the same time that Elmer was breaking out, his friend, Farmer, with a halt in his foot, preventing him keeping up with his fast moving friends, had the automobile doctor inoculate him, Farmer, with the virus of wantanautomobilitis. Elmer took the Forditis while W. B. took the Buickitis, the one catching his from Brandt, the other taking his from Mitchell.

They are now studying the difference between a cardorater and a differential and the young lawyer friend is trying to find out why gasoline is so much like a pretty girl. This automobilitis is a strange disease, attacking all alike, not passing over the lean nor the fat, the rich nor the poor, all have fallen victim to its awful inroads. The Hereford people have given up nearly everything for the intoxicating smell of gasoline. A census of the number who now prefer to take their atmosphere in streaks instead of full breaths would show a remarkable condition.

Hughes Sells Grain Business.
Jim Hughes has sold his grain business to Ernest Hanson, who has taken charge. The new firm will be known as the Hanson Grain Co. Mr. Hughes will wind up his affairs preparatory to entering upon the duties as county judge, he being the nominee of the Democratic party and this fact insures his election to that office this Fall.

Failing to Get Papers.
There is still some complaint that subscribers do not get the Brand regularly. We try hard to put every paper in the post office; we are under contract with each subscriber to do so; if we fail, we do not intend to. If you do not get your paper, please call at this office and we will gladly give you a copy. In taking out your mail, if you get a paper, any paper, with another's name on it, it is your duty to drop it back into the mail receptacles. Please observe this as it is a violation of the postal laws to hold another's mail or to open it.

WAR CLOUDS HANG HEAVY

Fate of Nations Still Pending Result of Great Decisive Battle; Germans Checked.

The news from the war zone of Europe is still unsatisfactory as all dispatches coming to America are inclined to cover up or leave out the most unfavorable details of the great conflict.

Thursday dispatches seem to indicate that the Germans were being held in check; in fact, being driven back from their advance positions between Paris and the border. The report says that the line of battle extends for more than one hundred and twenty miles in France alone and that over three million men are actually engaged in the titanic struggle.

Friday news does not add any information to the condition of affairs except that it is thought that the great battle of the war was in progress and had been for four days. In this the Allies were gradually forcing the Germans into new positions, forcing the whole German line to the south east of Paris.

Soldiers in Opposing Sides Meet as Friends.

A most pleasant social meeting was had at a mutual friend's home last Sunday when Dr. E. A. Hanniford of Granbury, Texas, and Col. E. T. Woodburn of Hereford met in the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Elliott. Both were soldiers in the Great War between the States, the one in the Northern army, the other in the Southern ranks. They have been friends for over forty years, both having been citizens of Hood county where they formed strong ties of friendship. Dr. and Mrs. Hanniford had been on a visit to their daughter, Mrs. Douglas Shirley, of Canyon, and they came over to Hereford to spend a few days before their return to Granbury, their home. Mrs. Elliott, knowing that the two men were warm friends, they were asked to take dinner together at the time stated. On Tuesday morning, they went out to the country home of Col. Woodburn and were there entertained by him and his daughters until Wednesday afternoon, when they returned to Canyon. Dr. Hanniford was a member of Company B, 6th Ohio Infantry. Mr. Woodburn was in Company F, 7th Arkansas. They were both in the battle of Chickasaw, which was fought on Sept. 19-20, 1863, and remember much of the details of that great conflict of arms. They talked freely of the long past war and told many interesting little things that happened in the life of a soldier. Both have passed the seventieth mile stone in their journey thru life, but they remember the events of half a century ago as vividly as but yesterday. Dr. and Mrs. Hanniford's visit to Hereford afforded their friends much pleasure and they look to the time next summer when they will return for a second stay.

European War MEANS HIGH PRICED MERCHANDISE

But our prices will continue just as they are and not advance until we are forced to pay higher prices. We are lucky in having most all our Winter Merchandise bought before the advances came. The price on imported goods is sure to go higher. We received recently a letter from the Hamilton Brown Shoe Company, in which they say leather is advancing daily, and there will be a big advance on the wholesale prices of shoes by January 1, and that 60 per cent. of all the leather comes from the warring countries. Kid Gloves, Shoes, Fine Dress Goods, Embroidery, Laces, Linens, Novelty Goods, Dress Trimmings and many articles in the Notion Line, and thousands of other articles, are imported and come from the warring country. ¶ We have in the winter line of Dress Goods, Hosiery, Blankets, Outing Flannels, Ladies' Suits, Ladies' and Childrens' Coats, Munsing Underwear for women and children, Cooper Underwear for men; men's and boys' suits, men's, boys' and girls' Shoes, the Ladies' Queen Quality Shoes will be in in a few days, wait for them, the styles will be right. ¶ All these goods were bought before any advance, and will be sold without any advance. Come in and let us show you our winter goods.

Q.—If I have committed a sin, and at the time realized that I was doing wrong, would that mean that when I die there will be no hope of my ever being resurrected because I have committed an unforgivable sin? (S. S.)

Answer.—Not necessarily so. There are what we would call "partly willful sins," which are therefore partly unpardonable. In such the temptations within and without, all of which are directly or indirectly the results of Adam's fall, have a share. The individual will consent under the pressure of the temptation or because of its weakness. The Lord alone knows how to properly estimate our responsibility and guilt in such cases. But to the true child of God there is but one proper course to take; repentance and an appeal for mercy in the name and merit of Christ, the great sacrifice for sin. The Lord will forgive such a penitent in the sense of restoring him to his favor; but he will be made to suffer stripes for the sin in proportion as God sees it to have been willfully committed (Luke 12:47). God's punishments are all corrective. He punishes, not for His own pleasure, but for the good of the sinner, or, if incorrigible, he is destroyed for the good of the rest of God's creatures.

Q.—What is the explanation of John 8:52 where it is said, "If a man keep my sayings he shall never taste of death"? (W. W. G.)

Answer.—Every intelligent creature made in God's image may have everlasting life, if he will abide in God's favor by keeping God's law. Adam failed to keep the divine law and came under condemnation of death. God has made an arrangement through Jesus whereby this became sleep. Opportunity for everlasting life came to believers through Jesus in this Gospel Age. Whoever comes under these conditions is said to pass from death to life. He does not die. He becomes a new creature and does not die, but merely sleeps awhile. The rest of mankind will remain in the death condition except as they "hear the voice of the Son of man." But this Gospel age will not be the only time when the voice of the Son of man can be heard, but all shall hear Him calling them to come forth from the grave and all who, after being thus awakened, hearken to the instructions of that prophet shall live, shall never die. (John 5:25, 28, 29.)

Q.—Where are we commanded by the Bible to keep holy the first day of the week—Sunday? (C. J. K.)

Answer.—There is no such command in fact God does not find it necessary to command His children. The only ones who can become His children are those who love His will and are eager to do it without being forced. The Jews were forced (Hebrews 3:5, 6) and under the law of carnal commandments, but the house of sons has been under the love-law only. We serve not because we must, but because it pleases us to serve Him. One day in the week devoted to the Lord would satisfy the servant-house but the son is pleased to give every day to his Father. "We are not under the law but under grace" (Romans 6:14). As soon as we begin to believe we begin to enter into our Sabbath rest of faith, and therefore, if we are faithful to the Lord, and abide in His love, our Sabbath never ends. "We who believe do enter into rest" (Hebrews 4:3). Our faith continues throughout all the days of the week and thus spiritual Israel keeps Sabbath every day—resting in the finished work of Christ, resting from all works, from all endeavor to justify ourselves through the law. We work the works of Him who sends us out as His ambassadors. Thus all the labor of life is sanctified to us. Whether we eat or drink, scrub or dig, we are to do all to the glory of God.

Q.—Please explain the following texts: Revelation 13:18—"Here is wisdom. Let him that hath understanding count the number of the beast: for it is the number of a man; and his number is Six hundred thirty-six and six"; and Revelation 14:9, 10—"And the third angel followed them, saying with a loud voice, If any man worship the beast and his image, and receive his mark in his forehead, or in his hand, the same shall drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is poured out without mixture and he shall be tormented with fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels, and in the presence of the Lamb." (Reader.)

Answer.—The passages are very pictorial. Many different interpretations have been suggested. It is safe to assume that earthly institutions having beastly characteristics are represented by the "beast" and that when we shall learn the meaning of the number attached we will find that it so clearly marks the institutions that none can doubt their identity. The names given those who give allegiance to the beast and the imitation of it are in the hand and in the forehead, indicating belief and service. One who would co-operate with the beastly in any line is worthy of the "just recompense of reward" that God will give them. We are glad to note that the punishment is not of the kind we once supposed. Instead of being given in the presence of Satan and his angels, it is Jesus and His angels that witness the punishment symbolized here by torment.

Q.—Explain Ecclesiastes 9:5, "The dead know not anything, neither shall they any more a reward, for the memory of them is forgotten." (W. W.)

Answer.—There is no explanation to be given of this verse in harmony with the teachings of the Middle Ages. It is only as we are getting away from the errors of the darker past that we can understand such passages as this, especially when we remember that "it is the soul that sleepeth" that dies (Ezekiel 18:4). This text is uniform with the rest of the Bible in its teaching that death is a "sleep." Those who go into death are unconscious—"know not anything"—and would never return to consciousness were it not that a ransom for the sinner has been provided and the penalty that came upon the race because of sin is to be removed. "Forasmuch by one man's disobedience many were made sinners, so by the obedience of one shall many be made righteous" (Romans 5:12, 18, 19).

Q.—Does Romans 9:18 mean that some are purposely hardened, or are we guilty of our own hardening? (A. E.)

Answer.—The apostle is referring to the hardening of Pharaoh's heart. God does not interfere with the freedom of will of any individual. The narrative shows that the hardening was accomplished through God's mercy, and hence no charge could be laid against divine justice on this account. It was because of Pharaoh's repenting that the Lord stayed one and another of the plagues. But this goodness and mercy of God, which should have led him to complete repentance, led him in an opposite direction, to greater hardness of heart. Today, when the judgments of the Lord fall severely upon the world there is a tendency toward contrition, humility and repentance; but when the Lord's blessings abound there is the greater likelihood that those who are rebellious of heart will become hardened and unappreciative, forgetting God and His favors.

Q.—What was it that was lost in the Garden of Eden and redeemed on Calvary by Jesus? (F. S. R.)

Answer.—There is a wonderful contrast between man as we now see him, degraded by sin, and the perfect man that God made in His own image. Sin has gradually changed his features as well as his character. Multiplied generations, by ignorance, licentiousness and general depravity, have so blurred and marred humanity that in the large majority of the race the likeness of God is almost obliterated. The moral and intellectual qualities are dwarfed; and the animal instincts, unduly developed, are no longer balanced by the higher. Man has lost physical strength to such an extent that, with all the aid of medical science, his average length of life is now about thirty years, whereas at first he survived nine hundred and thirty years under the same penalty. But though thus debilitated and degraded by sin and its penalty, death, working in him, man is to be restored to his original perfection of mind and body, and to glory, honor and dominion, during and by the kingdom-reign of Christ. The things to be restored by and through Christ are those things which were lost through Adam's transgression (Romans 5:15, 19; Acts 3:19-21). Man did not lose a heavenly home; he lost an earthly paradise, and all its comforts. He did not lose spiritual life, but human existence. All that was lost was purchased back by the Redeemer who declared that He came to seek and to save that which was lost (Luke 19:10). He will not fail in His purpose.

Q.—I am much interested in your QUESTION BOX and would like information concerning the Great Pyramid; also about your doctrines which I consider the best I have ever heard preached. If you will tell me where I can obtain literature on the subject I shall be very grateful. (W. S. E.)

Answer.—The scientific features of the Great Pyramid are interestingly set forth in a book entitled "Our Inheritance in the Great Pyramid" by Prof. Plaza Smythe. The only American publication of which we are aware in which you can find the religious teachings of this marvelous structure explained is called "The Pyramid and the Divine Plan" and is handled by C. W. Hek, 82 Beekman Street, New York City. The only proper basis for a religious belief is the Bible. It has been our aim to confine the answers of this column strictly to those things which are found in the inspired record. We trust we have succeeded and that this is the reason the QUESTION BOX has appealed to you. Many books of reference have been found of assistance in learning what is contained in the Bible. Most Commentaries are sectarian and are therefore of little use in gaining an unbiased understanding of the Bible. Young's and Strong's Concordances will be found to be impartial in stating such information as Concordances are supposed to give regarding the meanings of the original Greek and Hebrew words. The above mentioned book on the religious teachings of the Pyramid will be found quite Biblical. A comparison of the several modern translations of the Bible will be found to clarify many difficult passages. The Emphatic Diaglott of Wilson's may be depended on in the majority of cases.

Dr. Prealey of the firm of Drs. Prealey and Swearingin, specialists, Roswell, N. M., will be in Hartford at Dr. W. A. Price's office on the 12, 13 and 14 of each month to do eye, ear, nose and throat practice and to fit glasses. 11tf

Rare Animals.

Howe's Great London Shows exhibit the only great blue-faced, ribboned baboon in captivity. He is a giant in size, and is possessed of the strength of a hundred men. Decked with rare tints, with gorgeous colors and with indescribable hues, he grins at the startled thousands, a degenerate man or a redeemed brute—which is he? Scientists have not answered the question. He has passed through training school for animals, and has thrown aside many antics and notions of the brute creation, and taken on many antics idiosyncrasies of finite man. He is at once a wonder and a mystery, and his queer grimaces and wise expressions provoke smiles and serious reflections from the simple-minded and the philosophical. To see this rare freak of nature is never to forget it. Howe's Great London Shows Consolidated, according to the general verdict is the greatest Alliance the world has ever known, and will be here Thursday, Sept. 24.

Findlay Findings.

A large smoke was seen about eleven o'clock Friday in the north end of Geo. Guinn's pasture. Robert Billingsly made immediately for the blaze. Upon reaching the scene he found no one there, but went to work by himself with a will. He had worked some time when other help came. Some one living east of the fire saw the smoke and telephoned to Hereford for help, which soon came in five or six autos. A road stopped the head fire and with this additional help the side and back fires were soon extinguished. An area of some two sections were burnt over.

Will Hicks, who owns the Findlay tract, received a telegram from his wife in Minnesota to come immediately there as she is to undergo an operation.

Carl, have gone to Bovina where they will put their smaller son, Arthur, in school.

Geo. H. Guinn and C. R. Smith shipped some cattle to Kansas City Friday. Geo. had just gone when the fire broke out in his pasture.

J. N. Messenger attended the farmers' short course in Amarillo. Mrs. Hultman and daughter, Beulah, have moved in and settled on their place northwest of Findlay.

Have Miracles Ceased?

The Pentacostal Mission people, who are conducting a revival here under the preaching of Rev. Homer Faulkner, returned missionary from China, claim to have cured a deaf and dumb person through prayer.

Parker Ledingham of Tulsa, age twenty-two years, has, so we are told, been deaf and dumb since childhood. He was sent here this week by his father for the purpose of having the Pentacostal people to pray over him. Tuesday night they held a very fervent service, in which they prayed that he might be cured, and they say that he at once received in a measure his speech and hearing, and though in a crude form at first is now growing on him and he is learning fast to hear and talk. The editor of the News has heard him say a few words, and indicate that he could hear sounds. He has a wife, who is also deaf and dumb, and they have a child which is not at all afflicted.

The Pentacostal people are a peculiar religious body, after the holiness faith, who have had a church here for years, and hold exciting religious revivals. They claim among other things to speak in "unknown tongues," heal all manner of diseases by prayer, the laying on of hands, and by blessing handkerchiefs. In their revivals they often hold meetings until long after midnight.—Plainview News.

Citation By Publication.

THE STATE OF TEXAS.

To the Sheriff or any Constable of Deaf Smith county—GREETING:

You are hereby commanded, that you summon, by making Publication of this Citation in some newspaper published in the county of Deaf Smith, if there be a newspaper published therein, but if not, then in any newspaper published in the 69th judicial district; but if there be no newspaper published in said judicial district, then in a newspaper published in the nearest district to said 69th judicial district, for four weeks previous to the return day hereof, J. W. Crudgington, F. M. Trugbber and J. P. Norvell, if living, if not, the unknown heirs of said J. W. Crudgington, F. M. Trugbber and J. P. Norvell, whose residence is unknown, to be and appear before the Hon. District Court, at the next regular term thereof, to be holden in the county of Deaf Smith at the Court House thereof, in Hereford on the second day of November, A. D., 1914, then and there to answer a Petition filed in said Court, on the 29th day of June, A. D., 1914, in a suit numbered on the docket of said Court No. 823, wherein Lettie E. Dollinger is plaintiff and J. W. Crudgington, F. M. Trugbber and J. P. Norvell are defendants. The nature of the plaintiff's demand being as follows, to-wit:

Plaintiff states for his cause of action that plaintiff is the owner in fee simple of the following described real estate, to-wit: All of Section No. 39, Block No. 8, Certificate 39, Abstract 267, containing 640 acres of land, all situated in the county of Deaf Smith in the State of Texas. Plaintiff further states that the defendants and each of them claim and assert title to said real estate and that the claims of the said defendants in and to said real estate are adverse and prejudicial to the title and interest of plaintiff in and to said real estate. Wherefore plaintiff prays the Court to try, ascertain and determine the estate, title and interest of plaintiff and the defendants in and to the real estate hereinbefore described, and by its judgment to adjudge, determine, settle, quiet and define the respective right, title, interest and estate of plaintiff and defendants in and to said real estate hereinbefore described.

And plaintiff further prays that if the Court finds that the plaintiff is the sole owner of said real estate, that an order and decree be entered of record forever barring and precluding the defendants and each of them, as well as all persons claiming by or through, or under said defendants or each of them from hereafter setting up any title or claim to said property, and for all other proper order or orders and relief in to and about the title to said premises hereinbefore described. Plaintiff further says that personal service cannot be made of the defendants herein.

J. H. BOWRON,
Plaintiff's Attorney.

HEREIN FAIL NOT, and have you before said Court, on the said first day of the next term thereof, this Writ, with your endorsement thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Given under my hand and seal of said Court, at office in Hereford, this, the first day of September, A. D. 1914.

Wheat Seeding.

We know that early deep preparation for wheat is advisable. Ground that has been well plowed or listed in July or early August, and properly cared for after that time, will show a better yield than land prepared later than the dates mentioned. August plowing or listing is better than plowing or listing done in September for wheat. Ground prepared after September first must be worked shallower, and it will likely not make as large a yield as that plowed early and deeply and well packed. The land that is prepared late should be well packed with a sub-surface packer. If the sub-surface packer cannot be obtained, the common smoothing harrow used two or three times over the field, immediately after the plowing, will do much good. The harrowing, together with tramping of the horses used in drawing the harrow, will aid in firming the ground. We must remember that wheat requires a firm seed bed.

Time for seeding: The time for seeding wheat must necessarily vary according to the season and location.

For Kansas and Oklahoma conditions, the best wheat crop usually come from sowing from September to October 15, provided that the seasons are favorable.

For northwestern Texas conditions, later sowing has proven more successful, the time being from October 1 to November 1, depending on the season. Sowing as late as Dec. 1 often produces good results.

Good seed: Too much cannot be said in favor of good, pure seed. Much of the wheat used for seed this fall will doubtless be badly mixed and of an inferior quality. It pays to sow good seed, even if it has to be secured at prices above the average market. Turkey Red and Karkof wheats will be found as good varieties as may be obtained for our conditions. These are both hardy winter varieties of excellent milling and good yielding qualities. Quantity of seed to sow: Wheat raisers continue to make the mistake of sowing too much seed. For Kansas and Oklahoma conditions 45 pounds of seed per acre is usually sufficient, provided that the wheat is sown in season in well prepared ground. Under no conditions should we sow more than one bushel to the acre. For northwestern Texas conditions, 30 pounds of seed per acre is sufficient, if sown in well prepared ground, and 25 pounds per acre is usually enough. We must give the wheat a chance to stool, which it cannot do if sown too thickly.

Treatment for Smut: It is a good plan to treat all seed wheat for smut, whether the seed appears to be free from it or not. The "Formalin Treatment" as set out in the following, is considered most reliable:

Secure a 40 per cent solution of formalin at a reliable drug store. One pound of this 40 per cent formalin solution, carefully mixed with 40 gallons of water, is sufficient to treat from 2,000 to 2,500 pounds of wheat.

The seed may be treated by dipping or sprinkling: To dip the seed may be placed in a gunny sack and submerged or covered in the solution, the liquid being in a barrel or tank. The bag or sack of wheat should be allowed to remain in this solution for at least ten minutes, after which it is taken up, allowing the liquid to drain back into the tank or barrel for a short time. The wheat should then be emptied onto a clean place and covered with sacks or blankets for two hours, after which it should be thoroughly dried before sowing.

To sprinkle, prepare a clean place on a smooth canvas or floor, and thoroughly sprinkle the space to be occupied by the wheat, with the solution, before the seed is emptied upon it. Now spread the wheat upon the space thus prepared for it, and sprinkle the solution all over it, shoveling the grain in such a way over and over, so as to insure that all the seed will be uniformly moistened with the liquid. Having thoroughly dampened the wheat with the solution, shovel the grain into a pile and cover with sacks or blankets for two hours, after which it should be thoroughly dried before sowing. Do not allow the wheat to remain wet too long after treating, as the germinating qualities may be injured.

Place the dried wheat into sacks that have been dipped in the solution, and it will be found a good plan to sprinkle the grain drill with the liquid before putting the seed into it. Exercise every precaution not to bring the treated seed into contact with grain that has not been treated, avoiding the use of bins that have contained smut infested grain. The wheat should be treated but a short time before sowing.

Sowing: Sow all wheat with some good, reliable grain drill and cover with a press wheel attachment if possible. This press wheel attachment "firms" the ground above and immediately around the seed, and insures a better stand. If a press attachment cannot be had, a roller will do a great deal of good, if used immediately after the drill. The roller must be followed at once with a common harrow. The seed should be sowed deep enough to come in contact with the moist soil, but this should not be over two to four inches deep. Wheat can be sowed slightly deeper in sandy soils than in heavy or tight soils.

Wheat Acreage: It is far better to sow a smaller acreage, and do the work rightly, than to sow twice as many acres on ground that has been but half prepared. We cannot afford to "Hog-In" our wheat.

It is impossible to discuss a question properly unless both sides are considered. If you would discuss the tariff, both sides should be studied. If you would discuss vaccination for the prevention of smallpox and other diseases, the arguments on both sides must be studied. If you would preach against the doctrine of curing diseases by prayer or by the laying on of hands, the reasons and methods of the affirmative will of necessity come up. You cannot combat error without pointing out the error. Then to name the arguments of the affirmative is to advertise them. To make a speech in favor of prohibition will bring to notice the arguments of the anti side. In fact, often an entire address is devoted to combatting the negative side rather than advancing the arguments of the affirmative side. Then such a speech is simple to publish the arguments of that side. Is it right for a pro to thus advertise the anti side?

THE opening of the public school last Monday closes the vacation for a half thousand youngsters in Hereford. All attraction is centered in the school. The trustees have in their deliberations selected the best available teachers to do the work of instructing. If they have elected teachers for other motives than fitness and competency for the places, then they have failed in their first duty. The teachers, if they have come for other reasons than to give the very best service to the school, then they have mistaken their call. The school is for the children and not for the trustees and certainly not for the teachers. The teachers might obtain a livelihood at other vocations. Taking for granted then that all of these things have been correctly adjudicated, there is no reason that Hereford should not have, in the words of the new superintendent, "the best school we have ever had and the poorest school we will ever have." The faculty selected compares favorably with the best school corps in the state. They come from experienced years of work and with a zeal commendable. They should succeed. But the teacher is not all of the school, no more than the general is the army. The ranks are filled with pupils from the different homes just as the army is composed of the different men. Without that loyalty, fidelity and confidence on the part of the pupils, which is becoming to good soldiers, success is uncertain. And a failure means more to the pupil than to the teacher. The loss of one year in the life of a pupil

The Best Editorial from Our Exchanges

LOGKEY BEACON

We trust there is not a parent in Lockney that under estimates the importance of the school term that began Tuesday. It is the period of character building and preparation for your child. Children soon grow up to be men and women and unless they are fully equipped to meet the issuer of life, they will become bearers of burdens, and followers instead of leaders of men. The Be-editor has heard parents offer excuses for their children's absence from school. They tell you that their child does not like to go to school and it is no use to make it go against its will. Who is responsible for this dislike for school work? The parents themselves. They invariably start to humor the child, and allow him to stay out for this or that reason, until they instill in the child a dislike for school work. Instead of starting the child right they rather assist in starting it wrong. Parents should demand a legal excuse for the child staying out of school, and not spare the rod if it becomes necessary to assist him in liking school work. The time the habit of school-going is formed is when the child first starts to school, the time when parents should be careful not to form in the little fellows mind a dislike for the school room. It is hardly necessary in this connection to point out to the parents of Lockney the importance of the school and its bearing upon the future of their children. God, man nor society makes no greater demand on men and women than that of the education of their children. You owe them an education as a matter of justice to them; you owe society a debt in preparing your child that he may become a help rather than a hindrance to human progress. God requires at the hands of men and women that they educate the mind and hearts of their children, and unless you discharge this obligation you will fall far short of the sacred trust given into your keeping. These words are written with the hopes that they may become as bread cast upon the waters, and may return as a blessing to some parent.

may mean the loss of a well-rounded education. Therefore, it behooves the pupil to make sure of his way in the success of the school. It should not be his conduct that curtails his opportunity... It has been said "As the teacher so is the school," but with equal force it may be said that "As the pupil so is the school."

TWO SIDES TO EVERY QUESTION

You have often heard this saying. Is it true? If the answer is, yes, then are many things which will take on a different aspect. For example, Are there two sides to the prohibition question? If so, then there is argument for both sides. Is local option right and state-wide wrong? Is state-wide right and nation-wide wrong? There are good and great men on both sides. Then there are two sides to this question. Is it right and consistent for a newspaper to publish the arguments of both sides of any and all questions? Is it right for a newspaper editor to allow the arguments of one side to appear in his paper when his own views are favorable to the other side? This is a question that every newspaper man must answer. It makes little difference how he answers it, he will not find that all will agree with him. If he excludes from his columns the arguments of one side, he will be accused of being afraid to publish them; he will be called narrow, he will be called cowardly. If he is a pro and puts in anti stuff, even as paid advertisements, he will be accused of being an anti at heart, but trying to play pro. If he is an anti and puts in pro stuff, his anti friends will accuse him of playing into the hands of the wild-eyed pros for political purposes. If he takes money from the antics for advertising, his friends will charge him of selling out. And so on. Are there two sides to every question?

And I know how to ride.
Jo's got a big red 40 boss,
I think she's number eight,
You ought to see her spin and whirl,
And hear her carburate;
I've been Jo's girl now several weeks,
Ev'r sense "old red" was bought,
And Jo's no mind for nothin now,
'Cept me and his big aut.

When we get out of town a bit,
Jo pulls the throttle ope,
We leave the earth, I hang to Jo,
He is my "last white hope";
We run down everything alive,
Deer, wolves, and such light dope,
Last week we smashed six buffalo,
And fourteen cantelope.

Way out close Jo's big pasture, there's
A piece of road that's straight
And level for a hundred mile,
Without a fence or gate;
And when we get away out there,
Jo speeds her down to slow,
And makes me hold the steerin wheel,
And he puts on the show.

He starts the orchestra to go,
He puts on a new reel,
He starts the movies up, you know,
And says: "Just let'er spiel;"
And then O me, O my, O gee,
The movies—yum, yum, yum;
I plays with his—plays with his spurs,
An lets him—chew my gum!

Poisoned Melons.

O. N. Robison's watermelon patch was visited by some of the boys of our town a few evenings ago, and he was very uneasy about it, because he had put poison in a great many of his melons to kill jack rabbits, and was afraid that the boys might get hold of the wrong melon. Many of the farmers are poisoning the jack rabbits that are eating their melons, and it is not a good idea for boys to visit a melon patch unless the owner is along to show them the unpoisoned melons.—State Line Tribune.

Dependable Irrigation

When you drive up to a McDonald Irrigating Plant, anywhere in the Hereford Country, it is very seldom you find anyone near the plant. The operator is in the field with the water where he belongs. He starts the plant in the morning and goes down the ditch with the water.

This saving of an extra man pays interest on a great deal more than the difference between the price of a McDonald Plant and the cheap kind. If a regular engineer is needed that's a sure sign of trouble. You can't afford to irrigate with troublesome machinery if you get it for nothing.

Everything depends on the water—the farmer's bread and butter, the security of the land, the ability to borrow, the sale of the land at a good price all depend on a dependable water supply. No one can afford to have anything but the best that money can buy. We could install cheaper plants but we won't—it wouldn't pay us—it won't pay you. We will continue to put up the very best installations for the prices charged, which we know are consistent. McDonald Irrigating Plants cost more to install—cost very much less to operate. Figure operating cost and you'll buy a McDonald.

It's cheap water you want, not a cheap pumping plant. GET FIGURES.

Rev. Baker was at Presbytery this week which met at Chillicothe. After the session, he will go to McGregor, Texas, to visit his old home and will also go to other places and finally to Waxahachie, where he will meet his son, Sloan, to make the arrangements for him to enter Trinity University. Fred Fuqua will go with Sloan and the boys will leave today or tomorrow for that school.

Miss Millicent Griffith leaves today for Dimmitt where she will begin her fifth year as principal of the Dimmitt school. She has spent the summer in Hereford at study and has had but a week's vacation, taking this, however, on the sheep ranch of Mr. and Mrs. Payne Gilliland. Mrs. Gilliland was Miss Dora Shepard and was a pupil under Miss Griffith. The latter enjoyed a trip of inspection over the large ranch, which is located some 40 miles northwest from Hereford.

Keeps Marriage Secret For Three Months.

The many friends of Mr. Brack Williams and Miss Verne Pratt were surprised when last Friday they announced their marriage, which event was celebrated on June 7, nearly three months ago. Not even their most intimate friends had the least thought of the affair. They were quietly making preparations to begin housekeeping and had everything well planned, when they told about how they had kept the secret. About the time so many fishing parties were going out and the weather was fine in the first days of June, Mr. Brack and Miss Verne, on a beautiful Sunday morning, told the home-folks that they were going out to take dinner with friends in the country. With a fine car at his command, the trip was undertaken at an early hour in the morning, but no one thought of any romance about to be enacted. Taking the road towards Amarillo, they were soon beyond the eyes of friends. Passing that city about Sunday school time, they turned towards the North Plains across the Canadian, arriving at Dalhart in the early afternoon, where the accommodating clerk had awaited their arrival. With the necessary document, they repaired to the Methodist parsonage, where in the presence of the preacher's family, the two were united in bonds that made them one. To make their secret good, they pledged the minister and his family to secrecy. The trip from Hereford to Dalhart, a distance of 150 miles, was made without incident or accident to the car; no tire punctures, nor blow-outs, the engine never missed a time. The return trip was made in equally as good time, and the two returned home at the hour expected and no one was wiser. Since June 7, they have gone about with their friends as if nothing of unusual interest had happened. Miss Verne Pratt is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Pratt, who moved to this county from Kansas. She has many admiring friends in Hereford. Mr. Williams is the son of Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Williams, and they have made their home in Hereford for a number of years. He is a rising young business man. The Brand joins with their many friends in extending congratulations. The young couple have set up to housekeeping in the house next to the new home of Mr. and Mrs. John Sherman.

My Hercules "20" demonstrator will be slightly delayed owing to the change to the 1915 model, but if you are thinking of buying a car, it will pay you to wait and inspect it. Whenever You Need a General Tonic Take Grove's
The Old Standard Grove's Tasteless chill Tonic is equally valuable as a General Tonic because it contains the well known tonic properties of QUININE and IRON. It acts on the Liver, Drives out Malaria, Enriches the Blood and Builds up the Whole System. 50 cents.

The Randall County News says that there has been a "Bust" discovered in two of the proposed amendments to the state constitution. It says:

General elections are held the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November. The election this year comes on Nov. 3. In two of the amendments the legislature states that the people will vote on the second Tuesday in November which is November 10. If the state holds this special election it will be at a cost of many thousands of dollars. Truly the amendment proposed to raise the salary of legislators to $1200 ought to be carried in order to get efficient men for this job. But the News is of the opinion that this amendment will not carry until a provision is made to decrease membership of the house so as to offset the extra expense connected with the raise in salary.

From All Over the Panhandle

A bunch of Panhandle yearlings topped the Oklahoma cattle market last week, selling for $7.50.

F. A. Farmer of Fort Worth is in Plainview, making arrangements to start a business college in that city.

Cecil Wilson, a son of Will Wilson and formerly a resident of Plainview, was killed in a railroad machine shop at LeGrand, Ore., one day recently.

According to the news, there were four revivals in Plainview last week, each reporting good crowds and considerable interest.

L. H. Mathis, a practicing attorney in Wichita Falls for the last twenty years, died one day last week as the result of a stroke of paralysis. He was stricken just after closing an argument in the district court.

Jim Armstrong has been bound over to the grand jury, in Potter county. He is charged with burglary in taking some clothes from the room of a fellow boarder.

M. W. Dennis, postmaster at Dunlap, Cottle county, has been arrested and jailed at Amarillo on a charge of theft. He is said to be $60 short in his accounts.

The new owners of the Altus, Roswell & El Paso railroad are still in this section conferring with parties interested in the early building of that line. It is said now that the only consideration is whether or not people of the Silverton country will offer proper inducements. Since Silverton will probably derive a bigger benefit than any other one town on the route, it is hardly likely that they will turn-down any proposition within the bounds of reason.

J. E. Southwood of Panhandle, purchased 66 white face yearlings from a neighbor stockman a few days ago paying $45 around.

A new era of development is said to be in progress in the Post city country, since the Post farms have been placed on the market. More than a dozen farms were sold last week, more than a hundred having been sold since the adoption of the plan to sell the land in small tracts to actual settlers on small payments and easy terms.

Charles B. Metcalf of San Angelo sold a bunch of his yearling bulls recently, getting $125 a head. Texas A. & M. College bought some of them.

Hall county farmers, bankers and merchants are said to have gotten together at a meeting last week and closed up arrangements whereby their present big crops may be gathered and financed so that there will be no need to rush products on the market until prices again become normal.

According to the news, 84,000 bushels of wheat were sold in Claude one day last week, at $1 per bushel.

Up to the latter part of last week two buyers had shipped 350 cars of wheat from Quanah this season.

Luthea Dick, whose neck was broken some weeks ago while diving in Groesbeck creek, seems to be slowly improving. He can move his arms, and his feet are sensitive to touch.—Quanah Observer.

C. T. Word of Canyon has sold 1600 head of calves to Kansas parties, October deliveries, at $32.50.

Childress has lost two of her old time citizens the past week, death having taken away Percy S. Roberts and Frank A. Gallagher. Mr. Roberts had been ill only a few days, while Mr. Gallagher had been confined to his room for many months. Mr. Roberts was sheriff of Childress county five years, and Mr. Gallagher had been a peace officer for some time. Both were good and esteemed citizens with lots of friends.

W. W. Flake and Otto Pixler have leased the compress at Childress, and will conduct same the coming season. They expect to press 30,000 bales of cotton.

A hotel, recently moved from Happy to Canyon, burned to the ground one evening last week. It belonged to G. W. Willingham of Amarillo, who says he will put up a new building.

N. A. Armstrong of Floydada shipped another bunch of cattle to the Kansas City Market the other day, and also shipped some Hereford breeding cattle to S. F. McGuire of Douglas, Ariz.

A special term of the Federal Court will convene in Amarillo on Sept. 21 and run a week before the regular term starts. This action is taken in order to clean up the docket of that court.

District court adjourned at Chaning, Wednesday of last week. No jury cases were tried. Three or four judgments allowed by default. The grand jury found four bills of indictment, only one for felony.

John J. Stuart and Barney Mackley, accused of killing R. E. Brownlee, at Texline, two weeks ago, were given a preliminary trial at Dalhart one day last week and bound over for the grand jury. They failed to make bond and are in jail. The evidence against them is circumstantial, but is said to be quite strong.

J. R. Jenkins has bought a large ranch near Corona, N. M. has dug a deep well, and will stock it with cattle. He will retain headquarters at Dalhart, having large ranch in Dalhart county. The New Mexico ranch is 30 miles wide by 75 miles long.

R. E. Brooks shipped two cars of fat cattle to Kansas City Market, from Tulsa, the other day.

Bob Ely, a cowboy of the Jenkins ranch near Dalhart, was seriously and perhaps fatally injured a few days ago when his horse fell, throwing him to the ground. Ely had roped a steer when the horse stepped in a hole and went to the ground and rolled over on his rider. Ely's shoulder was dislocated and his skull fractured. His parents were summoned from Oklahoma, this being the first time they had seen or heard of their son in nine years, he having left home at the age of fifteen to become a cowboy.

The Lirkland Mercantile Co. store was burglarized a few nights ago. Jim Gaston, 22 years old, who claims his home is in Illinois, was arrested in Childress the next day and charged with the burglary. Most of the stolen goods were found and identified by owners.

A contract has been let by the Hall county for a new jail at Memphis. The building will cost about 7,000.00.

Chas. Saigland of Plainview was seriously injured last week when a silage cutter "exploded." A part of the machine broke and the flying pieces cut his face causing a very ugly wound. The next day G. N. Crow lost a finger in the same machine.

Editor B. O. Brown of the Plainview Herald and Miss Mattie Workman of the same city were married recently. They left at once for Austin where Mr. Brown will take a place in the new school of journalism at the Texas State University.

The Methodist ladies of Floydada have established what they please to call "chicken day." On the day set, each member of the society donates a chicken or two to the cause of missions. They also have established an "Egg Sunday." On the Sunday designated, they gather all eggs laid on that Sunday and give them to the Orphans Home Fund.

Glazier Baptists have about completed arrangements for the building of a new church there.

Jim Shurbet, son of J. H. Shurbet of Floyd county, had both bones of his right leg broken the other day while playing with some other boys.

C. L. Seabright, formerly a citizen of Dalhart, died, on the 19th of August at their home in Noel, Mo.

Zanfretta Family With Howe's Great London Shows.

There are many novel acts with the Great London Shows which are certain to be well received in every city lucky enough to secure a visit from these shows. There are acts that were never seen in America until this show opened its season of 1914, for the reason that there was no amusement enterprise great enough to afford the large salaries which the artists demand, and no institution with sufficient prestige to attract the attention of celebrated performers. The Zanfretta Family for instance, perform feats which have never been seen in other shows. The Great London Shows will exhibit in Hereford Thursday, Sept. 24.

TO PEOPLE OF NORTHWEST TEXAS

We take pleasure in announcing the SECOND ANNUAL EXHIBITION of the Panhandle State FAIR

Amarillo, Friday, September 25 to Thursday, October 1

The exhibition facilities of the fair have been greatly enlarged this year, owing to the increased demand for space from every section of the Panhandle.

With the marvelous agricultural showing throughout our country this season, visitors may rest assured that the exhibition of products of the farm at the Fair will compare most favorably with that of any similar exhibition in the entire country.

In the Live Stock Divisions there will be nothing wanting, the entries promising a showing which would do credit to a live stock show of national pretensions.

In the Poultry, Milling, Manufacturing, Garden, Kitchen, and other departments the exhibits promise a revelation to all.

The Racing Program

Will include several fast events each day, many of the famed harness horses of the country having secured entry in the various races.

Allman Bros. Carnival Co.

The classiest carnival attraction in the United States, carrying 18 carloads of equipment and a Band of thirty pieces, has been engaged for the entire Fair, thus assuring the visitors the best of entertainment.

All Panhandle people, all Texas people, all the people of all the states, are invited to the Fair. Come and enjoy a week's holiday. We promise you an enjoyable and profitable time at the Fair. Special Rates on all Railroads. For any information, write

REMEMBER YOUR LAST DOSE OF CALOMEL?

You probably recall the bad after-effects of the calomel more than the sickness you took it for. You need never again go through with being "all knocked out for a day or two by calomel."

Next time your liver gets sluggish and inactive, we urge that you go to Betts & Clark for a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone, a splendid vegetable liquid medicine that will start your liver as surely as calomel ever did and with none of the after-effects of calomel. It is absolutely harmless both to children and adults and demands no restriction of habits or diet.

A large bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone costs only fifty cents and the druggists who sell it guarantee it to take the place of calomel, and will refund your money if it fails in your case or if you are not satisfied. 1t

A Royal Party to Visit Us. Particulars regarding the personnel of his Royal Highness' retinue, date of arrival, purpose of visit, etc., forthcoming.

Even the least of potentates creates a flurry by announcing his intention of visiting our shores. But now comes word that a king accompanied by thousands of courtiers will bring the glory of his court into our midst. Just why he comes, who will attend him, how his powers and riches will be used while in our midst is set forth in a 65 page volume regarding The King's Return. Some have told us he comes "as a thief," others say with shout and trumpet. Some declare he comes to burn the earth, and others that he is to make it all a Paradise. Send five cents to Mrs. H. C. STOMACH TROUBLE FOR FIVE YEARS

Majority of Friends Thought Mr. Hughes Would Die, But One Helped Him to Recovery.

Pomeroyton, Ky.—In interesting advices from this place, Mr. A. J. Hughes writes as follows: "I was down with stomach trouble for five (5) years, and would have sick headache so bad, at times, that I thought surely I would die. I tried different treatments, but they did not seem to do me any good. I got so bad, I could not eat or sleep, and all my friends, except one, thought I would die. He advised me to try Theford's Black-Draught, and quit taking other medicines. I decided to take his advice, although I did not have any confidence in it. I have now been taking Black-Draught for three months, and it has cured me—haven't had those awful sick headaches since I began using it. I am so thankful for what Black-Draught has done for me." Theford's Black-Draught has been found a very valuable medicine for derangements of the stomach and liver. It is composed of pure, vegetable herbs, contains no dangerous ingredients, and acts gently, yet surely. It can be freely used by young and old, and should be kept in every family chest. Get a package today. Only a quarter. 1-4t

To Help Raise Funds For Girls' Training School

To Mothers and Women of Hereford and Vicinity:

Do you think that Texas should have an institution where a girl who has made a mistake in life may have a chance to correct her mistake?

We want all who think such an institution should be established, to join hands with the Board of Control and Finance Committee of the "State Girls Training School" and help us raise the necessary funds for its establishment.

The week of Nov. 8-14, 1914, has been set aside for the campaign to be waged to secure these funds and there will be a woman appointed in your community to take charge of this campaign.

We expect to raise at least $15,000.00 in this Campaign School of Texas. The entire amount raised in this special raised in this Campaign by the women of Texas will be used in the erection of a Main or Educational Building.

If you haven't a dollar that you can lay aside now, you can surely lay aside 10 cents a week so that by Nov. 8th, you can have the much needed dollar.

As Mothers and Women, you should certainly feel very much interested and join us in showing the men of Texas that the Women of Texas believe in lending a helping hand to a fallen sister.

Any information you may desire will be gladly furnished.

Sincerely, QUINTIN D. CORLEY, Chairman, Finance Committee, State Girls Training School.

The Great War.

The greatest war of history is now taking place in Europe. More than half the earth's population is directly concerned, and the other half is under the shadow cast by this world's conflict.

No other war approaches it in numbers of men involved, in the tremendous sacrifice of life and property that the Nations are making, in results that will carry to the remotest corners of the earth.

It is an epoch in history that for suddenness and for stirring events stands alone. Those who are alive today will remember the great war always as the most remarkable spectacle of their lives. They will recall what they read of battles fought on a front miles and miles and miles in extent.

For the story of this war as it is being written Texans must turn to their newspapers. The Dallas Morning News, The Dallas Evening Journal and The Dallas Semi-Weekly Farm News have the sources of the world news at their command.

Every Texan can keep thoroughly informed on the progress of the war by reading the newspapers named above.

The Anomalies of War.

Armchair strategists have decided the European conflict, each to his own satisfaction. That their conclusions are divergent is but another illustration of how prone men are to disagree. Those sympathizing with Germany have already taken Paris, beaten Russia, and put England in a position where she is ready to sue for peace, while those with leaning toward the allies have crushed the Kaiser, established republican government all over Europe and carved up the Teutonic nations to suit the taste and convenience of their opponents.

In the meantime, it is interesting to recall some of the anomalies of war, as for instance, the campaigns of Alexander the Great, the battle of Marathon, in which 10,000 Greeks hurled back a Persian army a dozen times superior to their own, or how Charles XII, the madman of Sweden, chased Peter across Russia with but a handful of followers.

Ten years ago military experts were almost unanimous in the opinion that Japan had no show against the Czar, but they were wrong. Fourteen years ago English authorities calculated with what ease Great Britain could overrun the Transvaal, yet she was obliged to put forth as great efforts against 30,000 or 40,000 Dutch farmers as she had once exerted against Napoleon.

When the Declaration of Independence was up for consideration in the continental congress, the opposition argued that the colonies could never hope to throw off King George's authority, and therefore that a war for this purpose would be but a foolhardy undertaking.

At the beginning of the civil war, paper tacticians of the North had no doubt that the Federal armies would be in Richmond within three months, while a group at the South was equally optimistic as to the Confederacy's prospects of immediate success.

When the coalition was formed against Frederick of Prussia, all the participants were sure that it would result in his overthrow—and why not? Twenty against one is sufficient odds to make almost anybody feel hopeful, and that was about the proportion. Yet Frederick came out of it with flying colors.

In 1793, when France was torn and shredded with revolution, when her king was a prisoner, her nobility either slaughtered or in chains, and the worst elements of her population apparently in supreme control—she not only succeeded in weathering the storm of civil strife, but, what is absolutely marvelous, drove back the whole of Europe.

There is an element in war, that may be well described as psychological, which experts seldom take into account, and which they probably could not calculate at its true value if they wanted to. It is not the annihilation of armies which decides battles. It is merely a question as to which army will endure the most punishment. Generally speaking the victors lose more than the vanquished.—Houston Chronicle.

No. 1.—A fine 378 acres in Castro county to engage for property of any kind in Ohio.

No. 2.—A fine 524 acre farm, well improved, all smooth land, 300 acres under cultivation, has 1,100 gallon per minute artesian well, and an 8 million gallon reservoir; located only 22 miles from San Antonio. This is a snap at $35.00 per acre either in cash or trade for property priced right. Terms suitable.

No. 3.—A section of fine valley land in shallow water belt, raw land, worth $25.00 per acre right now, but a quick sale can get it for $10.00 per acre bonus. $2.00 due the state in 35 years. Will consider trade if property offered is worth the price asked.

No. 4.—A good 8-section ranch, half good valley land, fine location for sheep or cattle. Price $5.00 per acre bonus; 97 1/2 cents due state. Would consider some trade or cash will talk louder.

No. 5.—A fine section of shallow water land near the new town of Dawn, the place where irrigation farming is making great headway. The price will attract any man who wants a snap; terms part cash, balance on long time. No trade.

No. 6.—Another fine farm near Panhandle, Texas, has fine crop on it this year to show for itself. The price and terms will look good to any one who wants a fine wheat farm. No trade.

No. 7.—A fine quarter near Hereford, part under cultivation, suitable for irrigation as the water is shallow. It's a snap at $32.50. Several good irrigation wells in neighborhood.

No. 8.—A three section ranch in Deaf Smith goes at a bargain counter price to the party with some cash and brains enough to handle stock. If you want a good proposition, you can't afford to let this pass, but the price is too ridiculous to put in print. Pick this up. No agents need apply.

A Grave Injustice

Do those who advocate the absolute prohibition of the manufacture and sale of all alcoholic liquors realize the seriousness of the social and economic crisis that would be precipitated by such legislation? Are they aware of the fact that the heads of families aggregating probably not less than three million people would suddenly be deprived of their sole means of livelihood?

It is doubtful if they do fully realize this, yet these are figures given by no less a writer than Dr. Henry Smith Williams in an article in the "Ladies Home Journal," reviewing the prohibition movement. And he adds: "Personally I am at a loss to understand how anyone who has the slightest grasp of economic questions can contemplate with equanimity the anarchistic possibilities—nay, certainties—which reveal themselves through the slightest use of the imagination in connection with these figures. To me, at least, it seems obvious that the only thing which has kept the prohibition movement before the people of the United States is the simple fact that prohibition does not prohibit."

Thinking men and women who seek the truth and are unswayed by prejudice, and who give the foregoing facts the consideration they deserve cannot escape a like conclusion. —Paid Advertisement.
