HEREFORD, TEXAS, FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 13 1914

NUMBER 41

SECOND WEEK OF DISTRICT COURT

Judge Hill Vacates on Account of Sickness and Judge Jackson of Amarillo, Chosen Special Judge.

Judge Hill was unable to continue holding court here on account of his health and returned to Dainart Tuesday morning. A meeting of the bar was held when court convened Tuesday morning and Judge M. J. R. Jackson was elected as special judge to preside over the court in Judge Hill's absence.

The new judge immediately called the case of G. H. Porter et al, vs The P. & N. T. Ry. Co., which is the oldest case on the docket at this time, and after hearing a motion to require a new cost bond of plaintiffs, the court ruled that a new bond would have to be given and the case was postponed until Monday of the fourth week, Nov. 23, in order to give the plaintiffs an opportunity to comply with the ruling of the court.

The next case called was that of L. P. Landrum et al, vs the City of Hereford, a suit for damages for personal injury to Mrs. Landrum, which is now on trial.

There are two more jury weeks after this week and there are also a number of non-jury cases which are expected to be taken up after the jury business has been disposed of, so that court will probably last thru this month.

The grand jury took a recess last Saturday to reconvene November 16. No bills of indictment have been returned yet.

Among the out of town attorneys in attendance upon court this week are, S. G. Bratton of Farwell, S. H. Madden of Amarillo, and M. J. R. Jackson and Otis Trulove of Amarillo.

Moves Back After Seven Years Absence

R. O. Sears and family, after seven years absence from this county, making their home in Missouri, have moved back to Hereford. He is a stockman and farmer and will likely engage in that business.

Result of Election in Parmer Co.

A report of the recent election in Parmer county shows that the largest vote ever registered in that county was had on Nov. 3, there being 387 votes polled. The contest for the different county offices was keen, and the vote as shown by the returns is as follows:

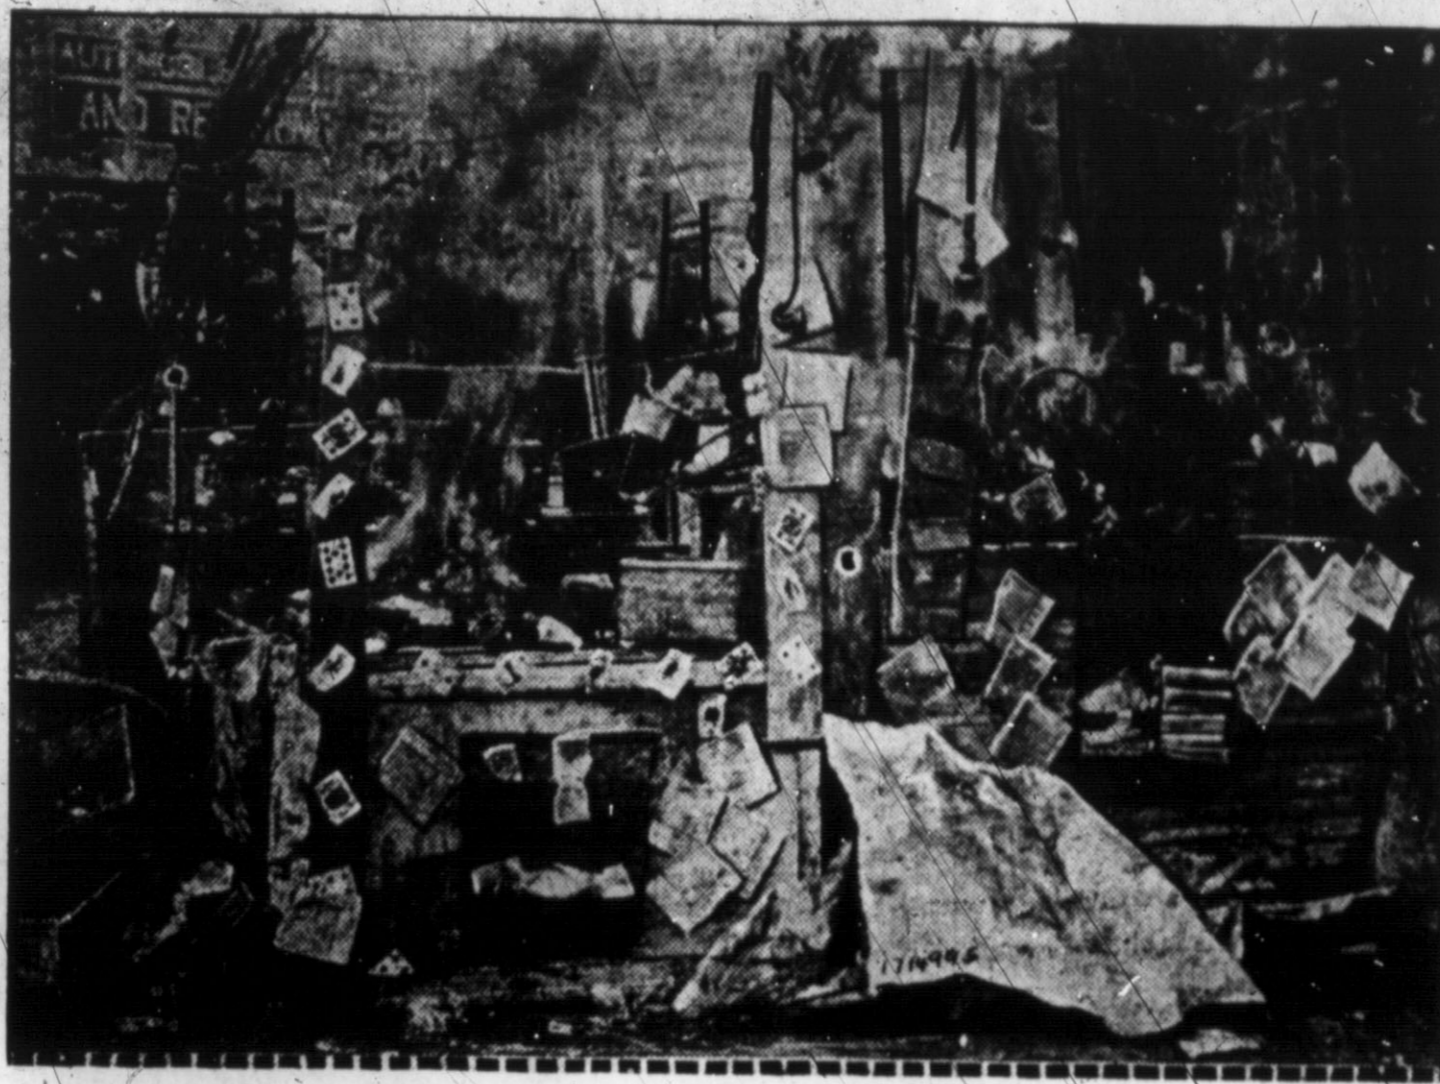

|                       | Black | Prison | Bovina | Farwell | Star | Total |

Will Swear in November 30

The Commissioners' Court has decided to "swear in" the new county officers on Monday November 30, and has so notified the recently elected men. In naming the officers who were elected in the recent election, the name of Tom Bassett was omitted for the reason that the returns from his precinct were not complete when the paper was made up. The new commissioners will be composed of W. W. Bennett, R. J. Kibbe, John Gregory, T. J. Bassett, with County Judge Jas. A. Hughes as presiding officer.

Book Return Day is the day before Thanksgiving.

BURNING UP LOS ANGELES OPIUM DEN OUTFIT

In Los Angeles recently $35,000 worth of the stuff that dreams are made of was heaped up in the old plaza pipes and other opium den articles were added and the torch was applied. Included in the layouts was the gold encrusted pipe of the centenarian, Lim Too, who offered $1,000 for its return.

Basket Ball.

On last Saturday evening the girls' basket ball team of Hereford played and defeated the Canyon High School team 27 to 22. The game was a good one notwithstanding the great number of fouls made by both teams. The Canyon team plays fast and good ball.

On Monday November 16, at 4 P. M. the teams will play another game on the High School campus here and those enjoying the game are promised a well matched and interesting game on that day.

Next Saturday the High School football team goes to Vega for a game with the team there. The Basket Ball girls will also go over, the same dates for a game. Both teams here are in good condition and are looking forward to a couple of good games.

The Faults of Others.

Charity does not require of us that we should not see the faults of others, but that we should avoid all needless and voluntary observing of them; and that we should not be blind to their good qualities when we are so sharp-sighted to their bad ones. What if others are weak, is that a reason for your no longer keeping any measure with them? You, that complain of their troubling you, do you give nobody any trouble? You that are so shocked at the faults you see—if all to whom you have been troublesome should return the trouble they have had with you, you would be oppressed with the weight. And, besides, even supposing that men had nothing to reproach you with, yet consider, further, what obligations you are under from God to show forbearance toward others for which you know you have such abundant occasion at his hands. Fenelon.

Hunters Return

Brown, tired and blistered, the Hereford hunters who hiked to the canyons of the Canadian returned Wednesday afternoon, loaded with all sorts of game and other tales which they have been telling since. They speak of panther and bear and other strange sights. In the crowd were Skelton, Lovelace, Stanberry Clark and Cockrell.

Shoulder Broken by Fall

Mrs. C. F. Gallagher, while riding on the running board of their car yesterday was thrown violently from the machine and fell, breaking her shoulder at the joint. She had opened the gate and in making a turn, lost her balance and the accident occurred. She is resting at this time.

TRIED TO SAVE ANTWERP

One of the many valiant men of the British marine corps who was wounded before Antwerp, in the defense of which they distinguished themselves, accompanied by one of his comrades.

Must Raise Our Own Livestock

There is the opportunity of a lifetime awaiting the American raiser of livestock who can now show the world that it is within the power of American breeders to produce live stock which will measure up to the standard of the fancy importations which have carried off our blue ribbons and won our sweepstakes in contests where foreign and domestic livestock were entered in competition. For several months there have been no importations; Europe's cattle must remain in Europe to feed a hungry and warring nation and after the war has exacted its toll, the cream of Europe's prize winners will have been sacrificed to the God of War and a new era will be forced on the American breeder.

We have always looked across the Atlantic for ultimate perfection in our fancy livestock, but the time has come when the raiser of fine stock must stand upon his own feet and develop his own champions.

At the Presbyterian Church.

Rev. Baker announces that he will preach Sunday morning and night upon the subject: "The Observance of the Sabbath." Matters of special interest to the members will be made from the meeting of the session of Tuesday night. Every one urged to be present.

For Sale at once at a bargain. One Standard make Piano, Beautiful Walnut Case, only used few months. Small payment down and Ten Dollars per month. Phone 252 or write Box 355 Hereford Texas. 2tp

Tom Gray Invites You To Look.

T. E. Gray who left here some two years ago for Toppenesh, Washington, and has been on one of the big apple ranches in that state since, sends evidence of his prosperity in the shape of a box of sample apples. They were expressed to his brother, Tom Gray, and may be seen in the show windows at this office. If that country can produce such as these samples every year, it must be a great apple country. Tom invites his friends to call and take a look at the apples but he does not say anywhere in his letter for us to try our tooth on them but he's a long ways off and our appetite for apples may overcome us and the samples will disappear.

What Ma's Pocketbook Held.

One morning father missed some money out of his clothes, says the Concordia Kansan, and thought mother had frisked him during the night. So, while mother was busy in another room, father went thru her handbag in search of his coin. He found a receipted milk bill, an unpaid ice bill, a big hunk of prepared chalk, a powder puff, two coupons, six months old, representing the last time he had taken her to the theater; a button hook, six samples of dress goods, a tinny containing Gene Fields' "Little Boy Blue," two safety pins, a sample of talcum powder, one of baby's mittens, an old tinsy of himself taken before marriage and seven cents in coin. And father felt so mean that he kicked himself all day.

Mr. Cook Improving Slowly

The attending physician reports that R. E. Cook, who has been quite ill since September 28, is getting along reasonably well. He has been able to sit up for a short time but still suffers from pain in his head. Mr. Cook's many friends in Hereford will be glad to know that his chances for permanent recovery are better now than at any time during his sickness.

Will Organize Ladies' Hereford Club.

On December 2, at 2 o'clock, P. M., the ladies of Hereford will meet at the Presbyterian Church for the purpose of organizing themselves into a club. The object of the Club is to create an interest in the beautification of the city and to take up such work as will make the town attractive, a place of beautiful homes and a desirable place in which to live. Every woman in Hereford and the entire county is invited to be present and to participate in the organization.

Eagle Henderson takes a Wife.

The many friends of J. Eagle Henderson will be pleased to learn that he has scorned the single life and has taken unto himself a "better half." Eagle was for many years attached to the Brand office in various responsible places, and while here made a host of friends among the elder folks as well as those of his age. After leaving Hereford, he entered the newspaper business at Portales, his home town, and has since been conducting a successful enterprise. The Portales Valley News has this to say about the wedding:

HENDERSON-SCOTT.

J. E. Henderson and Miss Grace Scott were married at the home of M. and Mrs. J. May, Sunday evening, Rev. Hugh M. Smith, the Presbyterian minister, officiating. Earl Landers was best man and Miss Ethel May was the bridesmaid. After the ceremony the sumptuous wedding supper, which the hostess had prepared, was served.

Mr. Henderson is a young man of ability, and comes from one of our most highly respected families, being the son of Judge and Mrs. J. P. Henderson. He was practically raised in Portales and has many friends here.

Miss Scott is a young lady of many accomplishments and has a lovely disposition which makes her popular with all her acquaintances. She has made her home here, most of the time, for several years.

Mr. and Mrs. Henderson are residing in the north part of town. The Herald-Times extends congratulations.—Portales Herald-Times.

Big Crowd to Canyon.

Last Saturday afternoon some thirty Hereford people went over to Canyon to witness the basket ball game between the Normal and the Hereford team. Four autos carried part of the number, the rest went over on the "covered kears." Nine of the Hereford teachers were in the company. Hereford must have played a good game for the score stood 27 to 22 in favor of the White Faces.

Boy Hurt at School.

Monday morning when the children were marching out for recess, some one in the line pushed, causing all of the pupils in front to lose their balance and the whole lot were precipitated to the bottom of the steps falling on the cement landing. Several of the boys were hurt. Lester Boardman was, perhaps, the most seriously hurt, his head having struck the hard pavement. His older brother carried him home, some two miles out in the country, and the lad did not regain full consciousness until 3 o'clock in the afternoon. This might have been an even more serious matter and the boys in the lines should consider the welfare of others when they would push, just for fun.

Arthur Turns Half Over

The being repeatedly warned by a dozen of his friends that, if he did not quit skidding the corners with his bronc car, would turn turtle some day and hurt somebody, and yet paid no heed to their admonitions, C. P. Arthur had the thrilling experience of turning half over the other night in returning from Canyon. They were just approaching that reverse curve to the road near Umbarger, when in an effort to engage the curve, the bronc car turned one side up and had it not been for a friendly post against which the car landed, it would have stood with its feet in the air. As it was there was only a spill and a quick scramble to recover. No one was hurt. The white spot in the bronc's face was broken and that's all. Lucky man.

Don't forget that the Old Woman that Lives in the Shoe will be here Dec. 11-12. U. D. C. Bazaar. 11

LAURENCE JOHNSON HAS HAND CUT OFF

Wau Feeding Ensilage Cutter And Knives Caught Fingers—Nearly Loses Whole Arm.

Lawrence Johnson of Summerfield, had the misfortune to get his left hand caught in a silage cutter yesterday morning and that member was cut off. He was feeding the cutter and was pushing the bundles toward the roller intakes, when his hand was caught by them and forced into the rapidly turning knives, cutting up the fingers into small pieces, and before the machine could be stopped, the knives had cut most of the hand off. The machine had to be turned backward in order to remove his arm had been taken in by the rollers. Physicians were called and the hand amputated at the wrist joint. The accident is regretted by everyone in the entire community. Mr. Johnson is the merchant at Summerfield and operates a large farm besides.

Who Wants to Know?

"If it takes a 4-months-old woodpecker with a rubber bill, 9 months and 13 days to peck a hole through a cypress log that is big enough to make 117 shingles, and it takes 165 shingles to make a bundle worth 93 cents, how long will it take a cross-eyed grasshopper, with a cork leg to kick all the seed out of a dill pickle?"—Ex.

When you get the answer, just lay the paper on our desk and pass out quietly.

Motorcycle Turns Turtle

While Matt Johnson was making a spin at the rate of some 40 miles per hour near the stock yards the other evening his motor bronc suddenly decided to stop and Mr. Johnson being unable to comply with a similar resolution did not stop, but continued his journey partly thru the air and partly a Kelley slide. The result was a badly bruised face and other skinned places on his body. For awhile he was unconscious but was soon up and after finding no bones broken, was alright. The road was rough and the front wheel stuck in a rut causing the accident. Fortunately friends were near, who gave him "first aid."

New Use for Catalog

A Hereford-trapper and a most successful one too, has given the writer a hint as to the better use of the mail order catalog. In talking the other day about trapping skunks, he said the best thing that he had ever found to deceive these wise little animals was this: Take a leaf from the Mutgomery cattlelog, lay it carefully over the steel trap, set in a hole level with the surface of the ground, then spread a small amount of dirt over the paper. "It's the only use I have for them," he said. A skunk, he says, will not put his foot into an open or exposed trap, but will dab his foot right into one, if covered over with a leaf from a mail order catalog.

Black Company Sprucing Up

Keeping right up with the good feeling and better conditions, the E. B. Black Company are having their big store touched up with paint, the entire exterior being treated to a coat or two. This adds an air of cheerfulness to that end of the block and if all the others would follow this creditable example, they would be in line for congratulations.

The Amendments in Deaf Smith. Two of the amendments carried and one failed. The initiative carried by 65 to 47 votes; the sea wall proposition carried 73 to 33 votes; the salary raise lost by 33 to 77 votes.

From All Over the Panhandle

A building boom has struck the little town of Glazier, in Hemphill county. According to the reports in the Review last week, there are perhaps a hundred residences or barns under construction in that vicinity. In county court at Amarillo last week, A. J. Williams got judgment for $50 in his suit against the Amarillo Traction Co., for personal injuries. The contract for the new high school building, at Memphis, has been awarded to Fred Bone at Amarillo. M. S. Park, prominent citizen and county commissioner in Randall county, was hurt in Amarillo the other day when an auto struck his buggy. The Olney Enterprise tells us of two oil wells which have been brought in by the Archer Young County Oil Co. One of them has been producing 20 barrels per day, and it is believed the other one will do better. The discovery of the wells will undoubtedly lead to something more important in this line. Vernon's fast high school football team won over Mineral Wells, at Vernon, a few days ago, eliminating the latter team from the race for state high school championship. It was the first time Mineral Wells had been defeated this year. Lee and Ira Bishop, two boys living near Dalhart, captured a half grown wildcat the other day and are going to make a pet of it. It can already be safely handled, they say, and laps milk like a domesticated animal. W. O. Culbertson of Dalhart has shipped in 270 head of Oklahoma shoats and is disposing of them to his neighbor farmers. A. C. Bowers, pioneer settler of Floyd county and for several years a leading citizen of Floydada, died at his home near Selway, Mont., a short time ago. One son, Ned Bowers, now lives at Spur. The Kokernot ranch, consisting of 32,000 acres near Lubbock, was sold last week, for $10 per acre, to S. I. Johnson and Geo. M. Boles. A portion of this ranch lies in Yellowhouse Canyon, and is a valuable property for grazing purposes. Will Goffinett is moving from Memphis to Miami to take charge of a ranch there owned by his father and himself. The Postex cotton mills, at Post City have decided to take another 4000 bales of cotton fraized in Garza and adjoining counties, at prices from one-half to one cent higher than the market price.

During the summer months several boys in Tulia trapped three million flies, or 247 quarts for which they received 10 cents per quart. At McLean last week, the bankrupt stock of D. Bassel was sold to L. Jacobsen of Amarillo, who will put them in his retail store in the latter city. T. W. Petty, a good citizen of McLean and Democratic nominee for public weigher, died at his home one day the past week. He leaves a wife and two sons. It is said that the Wayland College at Plainview has recently sold $15,000 worth of town lots in their addition, the proceeds to be used to pay off certain indebtedness to the college. Carl Beebe, a Kansas wife slayer, who has been in the insane ward of the Kansas penitentiary for several months, was released the other day. He was a locomotive fireman, and shot and killed his wife after trying to affect a reconciliation with her. His wife was a daughter of John Cox of Dalhart. Edna Reich, recently convicted in Amarillo for theft of diamonds, has been declared of unsound mind by a jury of physicians of that city. She will be removed to an asylum. The Jewell hotel at Childress has been closed, except as a rooming house, leaving the Fagg the only first class hotel there doing a general hotel business.

"When my boy, Ray, was small he was subject to croup, and I was always alarmed at such times. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy proved far better than any other for this trouble. It always relieved him quickly. I am never without it in the house for I know it is a positive cure for croup," writes Mrs. W. R. McClain, Blairsville, Pa. For sale by all dealers.—Advertisement.

MORE CANADIAN TROOPS JOIN THE ALLIES

When these Canadian troops reached Plymouth they were given a great ovation. Presumably they are now on the firing line in Belgium or France.

holism can be practiced without losing for its practioner pretty much all that makes life worth the living for civilized human beings.

This broad and undeniable advance has gone hand in hand with the preaching of true temperance, which has as little to do with prohibition as it has to do with dipsomania. It is part of the same growth of refinement which has brought about a less brutal treatment of children, higher respect for women and a cleansing of profanity from people's tongues. For the truth is that the world does move forward despite the efforts of the reformers. Inch by inch, we move away from barbarism, but not one line or one inch can be gained artificially—by words printed on a piece of paper. Moral changes must come from within.

Nothing can stop the growth of real temperance. Unwise legislation may check it.—The Hearstone.

Burnt Offerings

The stock raisers of the United States have just recently gathered together the very choicest specimens of all the choice herds to exhibit them at the National Live Stock Show in Chicago. To this great exhibit was sent the fanciest of the fancy stock, the cattle with the bluest of pedigrees, the cattle with the greatest records of beef and dairy quality. Suddenly these "first fruits" were seized by federal officers, killed and buried in quicklime. This stupendous sacrifice represents a money loss of $2,500,000. It represents something much greater in human-disappointment, something much greater in the annihilation of generations of improved animals. It is without doubt the biggest and most spectacular burnt offering which the American cattle business ever made.

This great sacrifice was made because contagious disease was discovered in the prize herds, a disease for which no remedy was known, and a disease which must be fought radically to keep it localized.

The whole idea in ruthlessly sacrificing the prize cattle at Chicago's big show was to prevent the disease spreading to other herds throughout the country. This great sacrifice was made in order to localize the disease in the community in which it was acutely shown. The idea was to keep the disturbance from spreading.—Wichita Eagle.

Texas Ranks Eighth in Salt Production.

Grand Saline, Tex.—The United States Geological Survey has just issued a report showing the 1913 salt production of Texas. The yield that year was 49,774 tons, valued at $278,000 or an average of $5.59 per ton. Texas now ranks eighth with other states in quantity of salt produced and the quality of the product mined in this state compares favorably with that of any other state or country. Only two counties in Texas produce salt. They are Can Zandt and Anderson.

"What do you intend to do after you leave college?"
"Well, I haven't decided on anything definite for the first year, except to come back for the class reunion."

Hogs Help Farmers Diversify

"The recent action of R. O. Barron, of San Benito," says George S. Wehrwein, of the Extension Department of the University of Texas, "in helping the farmers of his community, shows what can be done in this cotton crisis towards ushering in the new era of diversified farming and especially livestock farming. Mr. Barron, on his own initiative, bought a carload of thoroughbred Duroc Jersey sows from Fort Worth. These were all bred before shipment and leased to farmers in the neighborhood. The lessee agrees to care for the sow and at the end of three months to return the sow and half of her young pigs to Mr. Barron, he keeping the other half of the litter for himself.

"To bring about a change from a one-crop to a live-stock system of farming, community action is necessary, unless the farmer is so well fixed that he can finance the change himself. Bulletin 355 of the University of Texas on Cooperation in Agriculture, Marketing and Rural Credit, has some valuable suggestions for the farmers who are intending to go into the dairy or livestock industry. Where it is not possible for a farmer to own an expensive sire, the community may buy a thoroughbred. If two other communities will also buy thoroughbred sires of the same breed, they may exchange after every two years, and in that way get the benefit of six year's service without the danger of inbreeding. The bulletin describes the workings of successful breeders' association of Texas and other States. The Livestock Industry invites cooperation in the erection of silos and filling. This is true especially in the case of filling, for the machinery required is usually too expensive for one man to own. Sale through association, cow testing, creameries, tick eradication, and meat clubs are among the other types of cooperations described in the bulletin.

Most Profit in Hogs

Lincoln, Neb, Oct 28,—Reports to the Nebraska Agricultural College show that the North Platte State experimental farm, where about three carloads of hogs are raised each year for market, has shown a greater profit upon the investment in growing pork than in any other farm operation. Grain purchased at the market price has frequently shown a profit of 100 per cent by feeding to hogs either upon alfalfa pasture or with alfalfa hay fed in the racks to supplement the corn ration. Wheat and rye used as a winter pasture with alfalfa hay and a very small grain ration has proved a most economical method of wintering brood sows and approaches the cost of a full year pasture season.

Sick headache is nearly always caused by disorders of the stomach. Correct them and the periodic attacks of sick headache will disappear. Mrs. John Bishop of Roseville, Ohio, writes: "About a year ago I was troubled with indigestion and had sick headache that lasted for two or three days at a time. I doctored and tried a number of remedies but nothing helped me until during one of those sick spells a friend advised me to take Chamberlain's Tablets. This medicine relieved me in a short time." BRAND PUBLISHING CO.

Entered April 17, 1901, in the postoffice at Hereford, Texas, as Second-class mail matter. First number of the paper issued February 23, 1902, as the Hereford Reporter; first number of The Brand issued March 21, 1902.

Any erroneous statement affecting the character or reputation of any individual or firm which may appear in The Brand, will be gladly corrected upon being brought to the attention of the publishers.

It's a very peculiar situation when a merchant refuses to advertise in his own local paper and yet carries an ad in a paper in some other town in the same county. There is something really wrong with either the paper or the merchant; maybe both. Are the rates for advertising too high? The rates depend upon the circulation. The more the circulation, the higher the rates. If the merchant thinks the rates are too high, he should tell the local newspaper, but instead, he usually goes around knocking on the local paper, and winds up by saying: "There's nothing in this old paper anyhow but advertisements." And this advertising is often a good one from his competitor.

BUT WHEN a merchant asks a newspaper man too much for HIS goods, he usually buys them any way, because he does not want to offend him and is afraid he will lose some of his advertising. Or perhaps, he thinks deep down in his submarine conscience that he will even up with him when he takes some more advertising. Or perhaps, the newspaper person already owes the merchant and the merchant feels that the only way he will ever get his account paid is to take it up in ad-space. This is all wrong had the quicker the newspaper man and the merchant have a clear understanding about "space" and its value, the better each may be served.

IT IS often the case, that inexperienced merchants, especially those who have not studied the art and science of advertising, do not know what it costs to produce a page of displayed matter or a quarter page or even an inch. Not knowing the cost of production, how could he be judge of the selling price? Some merchants seem to think that it costs but little to produce a full page and that the modest prices asked by country papers is all velvet.

THE BRAND maintains a rate of 12½ cents per column inch for displayed advertising and 5 cents per line for local readers and want ads. The management knows this to be a fair and just charge. These rates are based upon an average circulation of 1434, made up from the number issued during the last six months preceding.

The Spread of Temperance

Those of us who believe that manners and morals show an upward trend are encouraged in that belief by noting the revolutionary change which has taken place in a comparatively short period, with respect to the general use of alcohol, that is to say, with respect to the spread of real temperance among the progressive peoples of the world, says the Richmond, Va., Times-Dispatch.

This hopeful and wholesome change has kept pace with the spread of the local option system, under which each community deals with the liquor problem as it sees fit, and according to its own requirements and exigencies. It has demonstrably not received any assistance, but rather been retarded by the prohibitive effort which attempt the impossible task of changing habits to accord with views of others than those possessed of them.

Men not yet old have seen this changed attitude towards liquor. At the time of the Civil War, for instance, it was not considered such a great disgrace for a gentleman to drink himself into intoxication as it is today. At the beginning of the last century universal opinion did not hold that a man who abused liquor had any particular cause to be ashamed of himself, but rather that a man of spirit and standing should drink himself under the table every night after dinner, or, at least as often as opportunity offered.

Today a gentleman ceases to possess that precious title if he be what is called a "hard drinker." He loses caste by an iron law which no man is strong enough to break. Col. Roosevelt proved this new attitude towards liquor very forcibly when he haled into court a man who had said that he was a very large consumer of alcoholic stimulants. Not so very long ago the accusation would not have been made, because it would not have carried any obloquy with it.

The spread of true temperance is just as notable among manual workers as in any other class of our population. The beer can is by no means so indispensable an adjunct to the midday meal as it was a comparatively few years ago, or as it still is in those parts of Europe from which our population is so largely drawn. In all classes of society a man loses caste, the priceless good opinion of his fellows, if he is an habitual or even an occasional drunkard. It is only in the very dregs of our population that alco-

Mr. and Mrs. John Holliver of Big Square, a fine community in the southwest part of Castro county, were in Hereford last Monday doing some shopping and attending to other business matters. While here, they thought to make some purchases of furniture, and when she visited the big place of E. B. Black Co. she was much surprised. "I had no idea that the Panhandle had such a store as this. I did not expect to see two large buildings crowded with such fine house furnishings. It is useless for the people in this community to go elsewhere, when there is such a stock from which to select," she said.

The Game Law

The open season for duck shooting began on October 15th. This will last until February 1, and allows only the shooting of waterfowl, but does not include jacksnipe.

November 1 opened the quail season.

Below is given the law in brief: Deer season opens November 1, closes January 1; limit three bucks for season; unlawful to kill does and fawns.

Turkey season opens November 1 and closes April 1; limit three turkeys for season.

Quail and dove season opens Nov. 1, and closes Feb. 1; limit twenty-five birds in any one day.

Prairie chicken season is closed absolutely until 1917.

Rabbits, possums, coons and bear are not protected. Squirrels are protected in only two counties—Liberty and Montgomery.

You may ship or transport to your home such game as you have lawfully killed by making proper affidavit.

You must not buy or sell any wild game or birds at any time.

You may kill hawks, crows, buzzards, owls, English Sparrows, rice-birds and blackbirds at any time.

You must not hunt game or game birds at night with lantern, hunting lamp or any other light.

A resident license is required of party shooting in county outside of the one in which he lives.

Amount of the license is $1.75. License is good only from September 1 to September 1 of the following year.

Non-residents, unless a bona-fide inhabitant of and resident citizen of this State for six months past, must take out a non-resident license of $15 per season.

Three days' consecutive kill of ducks, 25 per day, total 75 ducks, may be shipped or transported on train when party killing same accompanies shipment and has made the required affidavit during the season, October 15 to February 1.

Possession at any time of the year during which game birds are protected shall be prima facie evidence of the guilt of the person in possession thereof.

A day's bag must not contain more than twenty-five birds, either mixed or of one kind.

Dr. Presly of the firm of Drs. Presly and Swearingin, specialists, Roswell, N. M., will be in Hereford at Dr. W. A. Price's office on the 12, 13 and 14 of each month to do eye, ear, nose and throat practice and to fit glasses. 11tf

OCCUPATION OF MALINES BY THE GERMANS*Dairy Farming a Science

Articles Written by Men Who Know

Number 2

There is a yearly increasing demand for dairy products, and no present probability of the supply overtaking it. With quality butter at seventy-five cents per pound in some of the larger cities at certain times during 1913 and at fifty cents per pound in many others, an opportunity to have an income every month, and every day of the month, instead of once a year, is before every farmer who owns a dairy cow. Dairy farming is exacting and requires cleanliness, painstaking and attention to the business side, but the returns are not necessarily affected by droughts, insect pests, or plant diseases. If, in addition to the work that is part of dairying, the farmer will collect for each quart of milk or cream and each pound of butter fat or butter as he sells them and pay his debts at the time he incurs them, there ought to be a deposit mounting steadily in the bank every month instead of a mortgage to be faced when the cotton is sold.

A dairy farmer cannot expect to be successful when he carries on his business at guess. He prospers only as he knows exactly; so the scales, the thermometer, the Babcock tester, and the separator must not be all the tools of his business; the day book and the ledger must also be included. And the foundation of success must be an unwavering policy of selling honest products for the money, and of fulfilling every contract.

The following article is taken from the Exall Farm Book. Every farmer whether he thinks he knows all about dairying and general farming or not should have this book. Read this article carefully.

Texas once led the world in cattle production, but the coming of the railroads, rendering her great areas accessible to the plow, has ended the day of the wild "beef critter." The building of silos, of which about 3,000 were sold in Texas last year, announces the coming of a new era—that of the dairy cow. And it is not hard to believe that Texas, with the long growing season and short, mild winters, will lead the world in the production, as in the old days it led the world in the production of beef cattle.

DAIRYING CAN BE A MOST PROFITABLE BUSINESS.

It is surprising, in some ways, that dairying is practically an unknown thing in Texas, where everything seems to favor it. Dairying has been one of the principal factors in the making of Wisconsin, Minnesota, Illinois, Kansas and other States, and it should be remembered that this industry builds land values as well as bank deposits. Banking in the dairy-farming states is altogether a different proposition from Texas banking; there the farmers are the creditors of the bank, through being stock holders and depositors, and here the farmers are borrowers, when they are able to show collateral upon which a banker is justified in making a loan. There the difficulty in banking is placing the loans; here it is to accommodate safely the legion of borrowers. We hear a great deal about cheap money and long time loans for the Texas farmer; when the proposition is worked out, much of this money will come from the dairy-farming States, and the interest on the long time loans will go there.

Texas should not only pass Wisconsin; it should pass all of the dairy-farming States together. It cannot do this while impoverishing itself, land and people, to grow cotton at one-third of a bale per acre, and buying corn to maintain the horse power to operate its farms. The Texas farmer will have to get over the idea that cotton is the only money crop worth while; he can make cotton more a money crop than it is now by making it one of several money crops and in this dairy-farming should more and more have a place.

HOW TO CURE A CHRONIC COUGH

Told in the Following Letter by a Jackson Man Who Knows from Experience. His Word is Good.

Jackson, Miss.—"I am a carpenter, and the grippe left me not only with a chronic cough, but I was run-down, worn out and weak. I took all kinds of cough syrups but they did me no good. I finally got so weak I was not able to do a day's work, and coughed so much I was alarmed about my condition. One evening I read about Vinol and decided to try it. Before I had taken a quarter of a bottle I felt better, and after taking two bottles my cough is entirely cured, all the bad symptoms have disappeared and I have gained new vim and energy."

—JOHN L. DENNIS, 711 Lynch Street, Jackson, Miss.

The reason Vinol is so successful in such cases is because the active medicinal principles of cod liver oil contained in Vinol rebuilds wasting tissues and supplies strength and vigor to the nerves and muscles while the tonic iron and wine assist the red corpuscles of the blood to absorb oxygen and distribute it through the system, thus restoring health and strength to the weakened, diseased organs of the body.

If Vinol fails to help you, we return your money.

George and Eve Messenger attended a Hallowe'en party at their sisters home, Mrs. B. P. Abbot, at Bovina.

Messers Hunter and Doye delivered calves in Bovina Saturday.

Carl Porth went to Kansas City on a stock train and while there will visit his brothers who live in Kansas.

A pie supper was given at the Rhea school house Friday night to raise funds for a library. Judge J. D. Hamlin of Farwell was there and acted as auctioneer. Instead of selling the pies the girls were covered with a sheet and put under the hammer. This was very amusing as it proved to the boys that maybe the girls when not under disguise might be a little deceiving.

A Hallowe'en party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Hunter. The "spooks" were there with their grinning teeth showing when the guests began to arrive. After finding out they were harmless the guests proceeded to the house where their future was revealed to them. The evening was spent in playing games of different kinds. In the wet small hours of the morning the guests took their departure, voting their host a very charming entertainer.

Don't Forget Book Return Day.

If the idea of returning all borrowed books has not taken hold of you, kindly and, if you please, remember that Wednesday, Nov. 25, the day before Thanksgiving, has been decided to be "Book Return Day." The object of such a day is entirely worthy. So many good books are lost to their rightful owners that some general move should be made to restore them to their ownership. Let's Hereford set the example; begin this year to return all borrowed books. Look through your piles of books and book shelves, music racks, gather up, and then on the day before Thanksgiving, if you wish to feel really thankful and to make some one else feel more thankful, return all the books. 2t

Saved Girl's Life

"I want to tell you what wonderful benefit I have received from the use of Thedford's Black-Draught," writes Mrs. Sylvanija Woods, of Clifton Mills, Ky.

"It certainly has no equal for la grippe, bad colds, liver and stomach troubles. I firmly believe Black-Draught saved my little girl's life. When she had the measles, they went in on her, but one good dose of Thedford's Black-Draught made them break out, and she has had no more trouble. I shall never be without in my home." For constipation, indigestion, headache, dizziness, malaria, chills and fever, biliousness, and all similar ailments, Thedford's Black-Draught has proved itself a safe, reliable, gentle and valuable remedy.

If you suffer in any of these complaints, try Black-Draught. It is a medicine of known merit. Seventy-five years of splendid success proves its value. Good for young and old. For sale everywhere. Price 25 cents.

Q.—What is the meaning of Isa. 51:16, "And I have put my words in thy mouth, and I have covered thee in the shadow of my hand, that I may plant the heavens, and lay the foundations of the earth, and say unto Zion, Thou art my people?" (A. K.)

Answer.—This text is a blessed assurance of the Lord's presence and favor with His faithful people. In the ninth verse the command of the Lord has gone forth that His arm, Jesus, should awaken in the strength of the ancient days when miracles were worked for the carrying of His people, Israel, through the difficulties that surround them in their journeys to the promised land. In the succeeding verses He recites still further of the wonders of His power, preparing our minds for the assurance of the sixteenth verse that He has been with the Church giving them His word of Truth. So far as idle speculations have been avoided, the Word of the Lord has been in their mouth and will not need to be retracted. More blessed still is the assurance that though our enemies that be against us be many and powerful, still we rest in absolute security under the protection of His mighty hand. The power which created this Universe protects the humble Christian as he daily seeks to please the Lord and thus brings upon himself the scorn of the world and the anger of Satan and His fallen hosts. There is a purpose to be accomplished. The hand of God is to be our covering until the spiritual heavens are firmly established—until the last member of the Church has made his calling and election sure. But there is one more thing to be accomplished yet before the hand will be removed. Foundations must be laid for the new earth wherein dwell eth righteousness. This also is part of the church's work.

Q.—From my reading it seems to me that the Jews had some sort of an idea of the Kingdom. What was their thought? (J. H.)

Answer.—We find that the Jews did have as the mainspring of their religious and political system the thought that they were to be the representatives of God in the world of blessing the world in general—that He had called them out first, in advance of other nations, that He might use them as His holy nation under the Messiah, and through them communicate a blessing to the world. This thought had its foundation in the divine promise to Father Abraham—"In thee and in thy seed shall all the families of the earth be blessed." As the seed of Abraham they expected the fulfillment of that promise and took the various trials and difficulties, captivities, etc., that came upon them as a nation as so much of divine instructions preparing them for the divine service, when Messiah should come. Nor is there a word in either the Old or the New Testament to contradict this. They had the right thought. In harmony with this our Lord preached only to Israel, and instructed the apostles, "Go not into the way of the gentiles, and into the city of the Samaritans enter ye not: for I am not sent except to the lost sheep of the house of Israel." It is because "He came to His own and His own received Him not" (John 1:11, 12) that, after calling out the Israelites indeed, he turned to the gentiles. In the resurrection, the faithful of the Jews up to John the Baptist will be seen in the earthly phase of the kingdom.

Q.—We sometimes read of a "fighting Christian." Will a real Christian ever fight, or will he, rather, be submissive under all circumstances?

Answer.—Every organ of the human mind is useful, if it be properly directed and controlled. Combativeness, the fighting quality, might at first be supposed to be inimical, even antagonistic, to the proper Christian development—a hindrance and blemish. But this is not the correct thought. The man or woman who does not possess this quality of combativeness to some degree will be unsuccessful in heavenly, spiritual matters, as well as in earthly ones. From the Lord pronounces special blessings upon the meek, the peacemakers, the peace-lovers, and He calls His people "sheep," and thus implies that they must not be ravenous, nor vicious. But, on the other hand, the Lord's call to His people for a separateness of life and opposition to the world, the flesh and the devil implies resistant and fighting qualities of mind. He who possesses none of this quality can evidently never be a victor in the "good fight." The thought of Christian warfare as a continual battle against adverse influences is everywhere prominent in the Scriptures. Our Lord Jesus is styled the "Captain of our Salvation." And the Apostle speaks of His followers as "good soldiers of Jesus Christ," who "fight the good fight," and thus come off "conquerors and more than conquerors," through Him that loved us and bought us with His precious blood." The fight of the Christian, therefore, is principally against the evil in himself. The love which he must have in order to be a Christian is exercised toward his enemies. "But I say unto you, Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you and pray for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you." (Matthew 5:44.)

The street-car conductor examined the transfer thoughtfully, and said meekly, "This transfer expired an hour ago."

Q.—Is death the natural destiny of man, and after the Resurrection, will men still be subject to death? (Constant Reader.)

Answer.—It is not the Divine purpose to perpetuate evil as an active principle in any part of the universe. Eternal life is conditional upon obedience. The lower animals as immoral are naturally subject to death, but through disobedience death entered the circle of the human family (Romans 5:12; 1 Corinthians 15:21). Death was mercifully introduced to destroy sin and imperfection, and it would have been complete destruction, as with the lower animals (not preservation in torment), but through Christ's ransom sacrifice it became a sleep, because there will be an awakening. In the Resurrection, if any, after being brought to a full knowledge of both good and evil, persist in an evil course, such will die a second time, and have no subsequent resurrection. Then when all sin has been destroyed, death itself will cease, because the whole universe will then be clean.

Q.—What can we know respecting evil spirits—fallen angels? (J. M. L.)

Answer.—We can know what God has been pleased to reveal on the subject in His Word, for "these things are written for our admonition (our instruction) upon whom the ends of the world (age) are come." (1 Corinthians 10:11.) The Apostle Peter tells us of these fallen angels, who now masquerade as our dead friends and claim that they are now more alive than they ever were. They have intimate knowledge of mankind, as well as ability to read our very thoughts, and hence have no difficulty whatever in impersonating the dead, with all the peculiarities by which they were known to their friends. These angels, according to St. Jude, "God hath reserved in everlasting chains under darkness until the judgment (trial, testing) of the great days (verse 6)—until the end of this age. This time, it seems from the Scriptures, is now upon us. While God has, for a considerable time, shielded mankind from their debasing influence, "He will bring to pass His act, His strange act," by releasing these restraints, and permitting them to operate along lines of hypnotism and suggestion, breaking down the human will,—as a test to themselves, peradventure some of them may have repented; and as a lesson to angels and men of the lengths to which depravity would go if not restrained of God. Upon the wreck and ruin of this reign of evil, Messiah's kingdom will be established and demoniacal power destroyed.
