Our President, Who Asks His Countrymen to Pray for Peace

President Woodrow Wilson, by proclamation, has appointed Sunday, October 4, a national day of prayer for peace in Europe and called upon all God fearing persons to gather in church on that day and petition Almighty God to heal again and restore once more concord among men and nations. The proclamation follows:

"Whereas, Great nations of the world have taken up arms against one another and war now draws millions of men into battle whom the counsel of statesmen have not been able to save from the terrible sacrifice; and, whereas, In this as in all things it is our privilege and duty to seek counsel and succor of Almighty God, humbling ourselves before him, confessing our weakness and our lack of any wisdom equal to these things; and,

"Whereas, It is the especial wish and longing of the people of the United States, in prayer and counsel and all friendliness, to serve the cause of peace,

"Therefore, I, Woodrow Wilson, President of the United States of America, do designate Sunday, the fourth day of October next, a day of prayer and supplication and do request all God fearing persons to repair on that day to their places of worship, there to unite their petitions to Almighty God, that, overruling the counsel of men, setting straight the things they cannot govern or alter, taking pity on the nations now in the throes of conflict, in his mercy and goodness showing a way where men can see none, he vouchsafe his children to heal again and restore once more that concord among men and nations without which there can be neither happiness nor true friendship nor any wholesome fruit of toil or thought in the world, praying also to this end that he forgive us our sins, our ignorance of his holy will, our willfulness any many errors, and lead us in the paths of obedience to places of vision and to thoughts and counsels that purge and make wise."

HEREFORD AT THE QUEEN CITY

White Faces Trail Thru Streets of Panhandle Town in Modern Way, Showing Colors

Monday was "Hereford Day" in Amarillo, the Queen City of the Plains. It is not known exactly the number of White Faces that trailed thru the streets of the Fair City, but there were so few left in Hereford that a stranger would have thought that everybody had gone to the "cotton patch."

Leaving Hereford by auto and by train, the Hereford crowd showed up at the proper hour. Those in their cars, with banners and flags flying, found Polk Street, the principal thoroughfare of that city, and quietly stole their way thru the city. Their presence attracted the attention of everyone and they were greeted with "welcomes" and "cheers."

A long line of cars left Hereford but all did not answer the call for the parade. As far as could be learned the following went up by the gas wagon route:

In car No. 1.—D. L. McDonald and family, and Mrs. Mooney; No. 2.—R. W. Baird, Fred Baird, Horace Baird, Clyde Baird; No. 3.—C. C. Ferguson and family.

No. 4.—Oscar Shore and family, and Mrs. Mooney; No. 5.—J. P. Snyder and family; No. 6.—Arch Collins, Forest Walker, R. T. Evans.

No. 7.—F. H. Oberthier and family; No. 8.—Leslie Neal, Mrs. E. W. Neal and daughter Mrs. S. B. Edwards; No. 9.—C. P. Arthur and wife, Chas. Jewell and wife.

No. 10.—R. N. Mounts and children; No. 11.—N. C. Vogele and W. W. Bennet; No. 12.—Lloyd Kerns and family, Mrs. Burns Higgins.

No. 13.—J. Frank Potts and family; No. 14.—J. C. Cummings and wife; No. 15.—W. F. Orr and wife; No. 16.—J. O. Lindsey and wife, Mrs. H. H. Stanley.

No. 17.—Earl Wilson, Ollie Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Shirley; No. 18.—Joo. L. Wilson and wife, Homer and Grace Wilson, Ruth Myrick.

There was also a large number who went down to the Fair City by the Pecos Valley route, leaving here on the early morning train. In the crowd at Amarillo, who went this way or some other way, were seen and counted the following:

A. H. Elliston and wife, A. W. Gregg, D. R. Cass, Oscar Vaughn, Jim Moseley, Orville Newell.

Mayor Knight, Attorneys Carl Gilliland and Ester, Miss Estes, Chas. Julian.

Geo. Burns and wife, J. H. Bowers and wife, Misses Letha and Clara Edwards, Chas. Sullivan and wife, Euel and Glenn Sullivan.

Mrs. Johnson, J. T. Wilkinson and wife, returning from Arkansas, Effie Lee Quinn, Robert Elliott and daughters, N'Anna and Edna.

Geo. W. Smith and wife, Mrs. T. N. Heifner, Floyd Elliston and wife, Clyde Beach, Jim Cox, Reece Hough and daughter, Grover Sanders.

Leonard Geodloe and wife, Lem Sawyers, all of Summerfield.

C. S. Garraison and son, and G. W. Lucas.

DEAF SMITH COUNTY EXHIBIT

Deaf Smith county exhibit at the Amarillo State Fair was the center of attraction during the entire time, but when the judges awarded to the exhibit the beautiful silver loving cup and the news was circulated, the fact brought hundreds of more visitors to the booth. While many Hereford people were active in getting the products together, due credit must be given D. L. McDonald, J. I. Walker and J. R. Stegall, who built the booth and displayed the products.

The booth was built in the exhibit hall, the walls being made of McDonald grown and baled alfalfa. Then the columns were decorated with grain heads of kafir, maize, feterita, and the stuff displayed to the best advantage. They certainly accomplished their purpose for the judges hung the highest award on the booth—the silver, gold lined loving cup.

The Amarillo News, that enterprising daily of the Fair City, has this to say about Hereford and the Deaf Smith county people and exhibit:

Hereford day proved great success and Deaf Smith county drew down silver loving cup for having best general farm display.

CUPS AWARDED.

Never has appreciation been keener than that shown by representatives of Deaf Smith, when the fact was made known that the county named had been awarded the big silver loving cup, for having the best general display over all, inclusive of dry and irrigated land, farm, orchard and garden products.

Nor was Deaf Smith alone in its rejoicing, for Crosby came first, receiving a silver cup for showing the best general farm exhibit from a strictly non-irrigated country. A second cup also went to Crosby county, which in addition to a number of blue and red ribbons rounded out a line of awards highly gratifying to all concerned.

Hall county came second in this special county exhibits from dry farming territory, while Randall county came third in the same class.

Each of these counties had numerous visitors at their booth during the time following the awards, and those in charge seemed well pleased that the judgments had been awarded as indicated.

HEREFORD DAY.

Hereford came up in a body yesterday, Monday, and the Deaf Smith booth was the scene of great activity from early until late, even the racing program making but little difference in the flow of visitors into that popular division of the exposition.

Many of these Hereford visitors arrived on the early train while still others came by automobile. It is stated that one hundred autos were here from Hereford yesterday.

the fair enterprise, and the management is proud of the friendship of this popular and rapidly developing irrigation center.

The Special Excursion to Hereford.

While the special excursion to Hereford was not as large as might have been, it can be, in every way, pronounced a success. The train arrived on schedule time and the visitors nearly thirty in number were taken in autos and given a trip around the big irrigation circle. They visited the McDonald farms north, the Wondeloff farm east the Hilcrest stock farm and big well south, and the other irrigated farms between and near. Every one expressed their wonderment at what they saw. Water and plenty of it, flowing as if by magic from the under ground rivers of water. The auto party was in charge of Mr. D. L. McDonald who with others answered the many questions regarding the wells, the water, the soil and the crops. They were interested in the big silos and the feeding pens of the McDonald and Edwards farms. After taking more than an hour to see the farms and the wells, all assembled at the beautiful lawn at the courthouse. This was in itself a show to every one. A lunch of sandwiches, relishes, hot coffee,

Our Father

JUDD MORTIMER LEWIS, in the Houston Post

Father, we kneel beneath Thy hand,
 Too small, too weak to understand
 The grandeur of Thy plans at all;
 But, oh, we hear the far faint call
 Of little ones—their fathers dead,
 Of mothers grieved, uncomfortable,
 Of men made, made in Thy image, God,
 Torn, mangled, trampled in the abed.
 And so we kneel to pray for peace.
 Our Father: let this warring cease!

Move king and czar and emperor
 to put an end to strife and war;
 Earth's streams are choked with mangled dead,
 Earth's orphaned ones cry out for bread.
 Wives weep for husbands, mothers—sons.
 Our Father, raise Thy helpless ones!
 Grant that we do not ask in vain!
 Come Thou across earth's field of slain
 With healing in Thy hands, and peace.
 Our Father, let earth's warring cease!

Our Father, through our tears which start—
 Our Father, from our anguished heart—
 Our Father, o'er the heaps of slain—
 Our Father, for the hearts in pain—
 Our Father, for the babes that cry,
 The helpless ones that starve and die,
 For Thy dear hands we reach and pray
 Oh, take this bitter cup away!
 For orphaned babes! For hearts that break!
 We ask it, God, for Jesus sake!

and ice water was served upon the green lawn under the shade of the trees. After the lunch all were free, most of the excursionists going back to the station where the return train was in waiting. The excursionists became so interested on the way to Hereford that even the train crew changed their official caps for their citizens caps and went on the auto trip.

Special Examinations For Teachers.

The State Superintendent, W. F. Doughty, has announced a special examination for teachers' certificates of the first and second grades on the date of October 16 and 17. Those who wish to take these examinations will govern themselves accordingly.

First Foot Ball Game.

Notice comes out in the Canyon News that the Normal Football Team will play the Hereford team next Monday at this place. It is supposed this item is correct, but no information has been brought to this office about the first game of the season.

Missionary From Brazil Makes Address.

Rev. H. J. McCall, a missionary for twenty-one years in Brazil, was here this week and made an address at the Presbyterian church. A fair size crowd was present and he made a most interesting talk about the conditions in South America.

R. R. Ware of Ufan, who has been here on a visit to his daughter, Mrs. Stobbs, was among the ones to visit the big wells Tuesday. Being from an irrigated country, he speaks with confidence when he says that irrigation at Hereford is sure to be a success and to make the country one of the most prosperous in the Southwest.

Among the number who attended the Fair in their cars, whose names do not appear in the official list, were: Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Beedle and daughter, Miss Gladys, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Cochell, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Cochell.

NEW TOWN OF "DAWN TEXAS"

Many Substantial Improvements—
 Is Surrounded By Some of the Best Farms and Farmers in the Panhandle.

"The dawn of a new day" is predicted for the newest city of the Plains. And what more fitting name could have been selected than the word of one syllable—DAWN. This new town, located some thirteen miles east of Hereford on the great transcontinental railroad, the Santa Fe, is just dawning, just coming to light. A visit there this week was a revelation even to one who has witnessed the rapid growth of many Southwestern towns.

Situated in the very heart of a great shallow water district and having for its purpose the development of an irrigation field, virgin in soil and resourceful in pure water, there is nothing that could prevent its own prosperity.

To make a beginning of the story, the writer found an easy seat in the big auto of W. E. Neal, who holds large interests both in the town and lands surrounding. His son, Leslie Neal, drove the car and in the party were also Mrs. Neal and daughter, Miss Lavina. We soon found ourselves at the nobby little 20-room hotel—Hotel Dawn, where we were met by Mrs. S. B. Edwards, who is acting hostess for the present. Mr. Edwards, also one of the founders of this city, waved us a "Howdy" and a "Goodbye" as his car wheeled into the street to leave for Hereford just at that moment.

There are evidences of prosperity and growth on every side at Dawn. The Santa Fe depot is a comfortable and attractive station; the new bungalow occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Chamness recently from the irrigation districts of Colorado; the substantial duplicate waterworks system for the Santa Fe; the oil station of the Magnolia Oil Company; the big pumping plant, with a capacity of some 1800 gallons per minute, the property of the Dawn Townsite (CONTINUED ON PAGE 4)

The Plains Two Hundred Thousand Years Old.

Prof. E. T. Troxell, of the faculty of Amhurst college, was here this week visiting Maple Wilson, who was a member of his club while students in Yale University.

Prof. Troxell has been spending the summer on Rock Creek, near Silverton, making excavations for fossils for Yale University, and was indeed very successful. He unearthed and shipped to the University three fine specimens of the three-toed horse (equine scott), which horse has been extinct for over 200,000 years.

Prof. Troxell says Rock Creek is a regular boneyard of extinct animals. About fifteen years ago W. L. Gidley, a farmer, first discovered the deposits. Two years ago Prof. Lull of Yale, Prof. Troxell and a party spent the summer on Rock Creek excavating fossils and found bones of elephants, camels, horses, tree sloths, etc., and sent several tons of bones east, which created much excitement among antiquarians.

Prof. Troxell this year was very fortunate, in that he discovered the entire fossils of the first horse in about four hours after beginning excavations, the second specimen in about two weeks and the third ten days later. They are possible the most complete specimens ever found, and he will receive $800 each or $2,400 for the three.

Mr. Troxell, while here Tuesday, saw the various fossils dug out of the sandpit in town by Mr. Irick and others, and stated that if possible he would come back next summer and work in this sandpit. He left Wednesday for East Texas to get the bones of an elephant.—Plainview News.

Proclamation For Clean Up and Fire Protection Day.

The Governor of Texas acting in concert with the other Governors has issued his proclamation strongly advocating a Fire Protection Day and has designated October 9th as a general clean up day and has urged and specially requested the owners of property to give personal attention to the removal of all rubbish from their premises and to see that heating appliances are in proper condition for winter use. He has requested that the Cities and Towns of Texas shall observe the day as "Texas Clean Up Day" in order to minimize as much as possible the fire loss within the State.

The Governor has also requested Teachers having the responsibility and care of children, especially in the public schools, should set apart the day for the inauguration of fire drills and such instruction as it is possible to give in regard to fire hazards. The simple methods of fire prevention, and that fire drills be made a permanent feature and practiced at intervals.

Now therefore I, Wm. M. Knight, Mayor of Hereford, appreciating the practical wisdom of the movement inaugurated by all of these Governors and in deference to the suggestions of our own Governor, do hereby request and urge the people of this community to make special effort from now to the 10th of October to rid their premises of all rubbish and combustible trash and to set apart the 9th of October as a special "Fire Prevention Day" on which to examine all chimneys and flues and heating apparatus and to see that the same are safe for winter use, and to remove and dispose of all rubbish and combustible refuse not previously disposed of. Won't you help to lessen this awful fire waste in Texas.

Q.—When inquiry is made of the Watchman, "What of the night," what is meant by the reply, "The morning cometh, and also the night" (Isaiah 20:11,12)?

Answer.—For six thousand years "darkness has covered the earth and gross darkness the people" in general, but the morning of the new dispensation cometh in which that true light shall lighten every man that cometh into the world. Preceding the new day, however, must come a dark night of trouble to prepare the world to appreciate the blessings God has in store for them. The trouble will be brought on by their own selfishness, so apparent in all walks of life today. Rich and poor alike are "looking out for number one." When the night shall have cleared away then "the knowledge of the glory of God shall fill the whole earth as the waters cover the sea" (Habakkuk 2:14). "The Sun of righteousness (Christ) shall arise with healing in his beams" (Malachi 4:2) and "Then shall the righteous (Christ and His glorified Church) shine forth as the sun in the kingdom of their Father" (Matthew 13:43). "Awake, O earth! the day is dawning; He comes whose right it is to reign."

Q.—Can the God who commanded the slaying of the Amalekites be just? (F. D.)

Answer.—The difficulty is with the foundation laid by the creeds of the "dark ages" which we have reverently worshipped because we supposed that they directly represented and interpreted the Scriptures. To have the right understanding we need to go to the very bottom of the subject and to call attention to the fact that those who demur against the justice of the slaughter of the Amalekites, men, women and children accept as a fact something much more atrocious, and often glory in it. They had only a moment of suffering. Our creeds still teach that God has somewhere a great furnace called hell, large enough to contain the entire human family of thousands of millions; that He made this before He made man, and that all except the few saints are to spend eternity there. As children of Adam, the Amalekites all came under the death sentence and the Israelites were merely the executioners. As a matter of fact the destroying of that nation by the sword of the Israelites caused far less pain and suffering than if a plague had been permitted to come upon them for their destruction. Famine and pestilence have ravaged the world and caused a hundred times the distress connected with the sudden death by the sword, and all must admit that God had as much power to stop the Israelites from slaughtering the Amalekites as to stop some of the plagues and famines which have swept away much larger numbers in other families of our race. For the race to continue longer in life was to sink lower in sin and thus to have the more difficulty in rising to perfection of character and life in their resurrection. Thus their destruction was an evidence not only of God's wisdom and power but also of His love.

Q.—What does it mean when the Bible says there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth? Please explain in full. (S. W. S.)

Answer.—An explanation of this expression as it occurs in the parable of the wheat and the tares (Matthew 13:24-30, 36-43) will suffice to explain it as used on several other occasions. The Son of Man had sowed good seed in his field but the enemy Satan, later would arise, imitation wheat. They always expect some tares in each crop in the eastern countries, but in this case there were unusual quantities, so much that the hired man could not pull them up. When the harvest would come they would separate the tares from the wheat and burn them as usual that there would be no danger of scattering the seed. The story was used by our Lord to represent the condition of the Christian church for the last eighteen hundred years. There have been many imitation Christians made by the doctrines scattered by the adversary. All true Christians have been drawn of the Father (John 6:44) by the power of love; never by fear. God hath not given us the spirit of fear, but "of love and of a sound mind" (Timothy 1:7). True, many whom God has drawn have believed false doctrines, but it was not the untruth that drew them. This fear which God refused to use is the very means that has suited Satan for drawing his converts, a fear of eternal torment. "In a time of trouble at the end of the age their true character will be revealed, and they will be destroyed as tares, will cease to be tares. The weeping and gnashing of teeth prove that these nominal Christians are not destroyed as individuals, else they could not weep. The cause for their anguish will be the realization that the saintly ones with whom they have been associated have inherited the promises and they themselves are left out. Later they will learn of the message of the kingdom, of how the glorified Lord and saints are to bless all the families of the earth with a restoration to the conditions enjoyed by Adam before his sin. Then their tears will be dried. "He shall wipe away tears from all faces" (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:4).

Studying Water Supply

University Station, Sept. 30.—Charles Lawrence Baker, recently employed by the University Bureau of Economic Geology and Technology, has begun a detailed study of the water sources of Hale county, Texas. It is the intention of the Bureau to make this study typical, and rather a model for subsequent studies of that character. The Hale county water situation is interesting in the extreme. Enormous wells pumping from one to two thousand gallons of water per minute dot the plains, and irrigate field after field of growing crops. The study will include all the data available concerning all the wells of the district, a study of the topography, the geology, and other things having a direct bearing upon the water resources of the district. The appropriation made by the last legislature for this department of the work of the Bureau became available the first of September. Dr. Phillips, head of the Bureau, declares that water is by all odds the most important mineral in the state, which sounds like a joke to the layman, but is a mere statement of fact to the scientist, as water is classed as a mineral.

Got Plenty of Back Numbers.

A week or two ago, the manager advertised for certain back numbers of the Brand, stating that the first one to phone in or to send in the desired copies would be given credit for six months' subscription for each copy. Those who were lucky in having the numbers and first notifying this office were: Mrs. J. B. Phillips, R. E. Cook, Rev. G. W. Keiry of Colorado, Mrs. M. J. Nelson of Lampasas. Each one will receive credit for the numbers sent, according to the needs of the office, two numbers each being required.

How To Give Quinine To Children.

FERRILINE is the trade-mark name given to an improved Quinine. It is Tasteless Syrup, pleasant to take and does not disturb the stomach. Children take it and never know it is Quinine. Also especially adapted to adults who cannot take ordinary Quinine. Does not nauseate nor cause nervousness nor ringing in the head. Try it the next time you need Quinine for any purpose. Ask for 2-ounce original package. The name FERRILINE is blown in bottle. 25 cents.

He was forced to suspend publication of his paper for the present, the Herald taking over his legal and advertising contracts during the intermission. In fact the Herald of last week intimates that the papers will consolidate, leaving the Carson county capital with one paper again—which seems to us a wise plan.

British Giant Lost in Germany. London.—The United States diplomatic consular service now has added to its multifarious other duties that of finding a British giant who is at large somewhere in Germany. A circus agency which booked the Briton for a German tour last spring, informed Consul General Skinner it should be easy to locate Teddy Bobs, as the giant is known perfectly because "he is rather a conspicuous figure, being eight feet tall and having a lame left leg."

National Anthems of Warring Nations of Europe

Germany's the Watch on the Rhine.

A voice resounds like thunder peal,
Mid clashing waves and clang of steel;

The Rhine, the Rhine, the German Rhine.

Who guards today my stream divine?

CHORUS.

Dear fatherland, no danger thine;
Firm stand thy sons to watch the Rhine!

They stand a hundred thousand strong,

Quick to avenge their country's wrong;

With filial love their bosoms swell,
They'll guard the sacred land mark well.

The dead of a heroic race

From heaven look down and meet their gaze;

They swear with dauntless heart,
"O Rhine

Be German as this breast of mine

"White flows one drop of German blood,

Or sword remains to guard thy flood,

While rifle rests in patriot hand—
No foe shall tread thy sacred strand;

"Our oath resounds, the river flows,
In golden light our banner glows;

Our hearts will guard thy stream divine,

The Rhine, the Rhine, the German Rhine!"

Russian National Anthem.

Lord, God, protect the Czar! Pow'ful and mighty,

May he in glory, in glory reign.

CHORUS.

Lord, God, protect the Czar! Pow'ful and mighty,

May he in glory, in glory reign.

He is our guiding star, great in peace and war,

Our faith's true protector, long live the Czar.

CHORUS.

He is our guiding star, great in peace and war,

Our faith's true protector, God save the Czar.

England's God Save the King.

God save our gracious King,
Long live our noble King,

God save the King!
Send him victorious,
Happy and glorious,
Long to reign over us,
God save the King!

O, Lord, our God, arise,
Scatter his enemies,
And make them fall!

Confound their politics,

Frustrate their knavish tricks;
On Thee our hearts we fix,
God save us all!

Thy choicest gifts in store,
On him be pleased to pour,
Long may he reign,

May he defend our laws,
And ever give us cause,
To sing with heart and voice,
God save the King!

France—The Marseillaise.

Ye sons of freedom, wake to glory!

Hark! Hark! What myriads bid you rise!

Your children, wives and grandsires hoary,

Behold their tears and hear their cries.

Shall hateful tyrants, mischief breeding,
With hireling hosts, a ruffian band,
Affright and desolate the land,
While peace and liberty lie bleeding?

To arms! To arms, ye brave!

The avenging sword—unsheath:
March on! March on! All hearts resolved

On victory or death.

Now, now the dangerous storm is rolling,

Which treacherous kings, confederate, raise

The dogs of war, let loose, are howling,

And lo! our fields and cities blaze;
And shall we basely view the ruin,
While lawless force, with guilty stride

Spreads desolation far and wide,
With crimes and blood his hands imbruing

With luxury and pride surrounded,
The vile, insatiate despots dare,
Their thirst of power and gold unbounded,

To meet and vend the night and day

Like beasts of burden would they load us,

Like gods would bid their slaves adore.

But man is man, and who is more?

Then, shall they longer lash and goad us?

O Liberty! can man resign thee?

Once having felt thy generous flame?

Can dungeons, bolts or bars confine thee?

Or whips thy noble spirit tame?

Too long the world has wept, bewailing

That falsehood's dagger tyrants wield,

But freedom is our sword and shield,
And all their arts are unavailing.

To arms! To arms, ye brave!

The avenging sword—unsheath;
March on! March on! All hearts resolved

On victory or death.

Owing to a delay in the delivery of the full-floating rear axles the Hercules demonstrator will not be here for a short time. The Lamberts, who manufacture this car, are experienced automobile men who manufacture the "Lambert" a high-grade car. Seeing the need of an up to date automobile at a moderate price, they have incorporated a million and a half dollar company (not a share sold to outside parties) to make their Hercules. Their factory contains fourteen acres of floor space and is being rapidly put in shape so that they can eventually manufacture the entire car in their own plant. It

Heavy Millet Crop.

Perhaps the champion millet crop of the Panhandle will have to be accredited to John Higgins, whose farm is a few miles north of Hereford. He had in 175 acres and baled 256 tons, after giving a few loads to his neighbors and allowing the preachers of the community to haul off what they wanted. This is nearly one and one half tons to the acre. At the current price of millet hay, $10.00, this 175 acres of good Plains land brought Mr. Higgins the gross sum of $2,560.00 or about $14.65 per acre.

The Fouché Entertainment.

The entertainment given at the court house last night by J. Frank Fouché was well attended. He is a splendid reader and gave a variety of character sketches in his program. His delineation of male characters was good, but he was rather disappointing in female voice representation. As a whole, however, his program was first class and the Baptist ladies are to be congratulated upon bringing such a high-class entertainment to Hereford.

YOU'LL LIKE HEREFORD!

HEREFORD will want to wear her picnic clothes all the time since she won the beautiful Loving Cup at the Amarillo State Fair.

"SWEEPSTAKES goes to Hereford," was the message received here on Monday. Yes, Hereford has won before and should not be so stick up as to now withdraw from further competition. She may still find others in her class.

"SUNSHINE, soil and water," won at the great Panhandle Fair this year, and it will win every year for the farmers around Hereford. How would this do for a new slogan: "Sunshine, Soil and Water Will Win." If you like it, use it. If it fits your mouth, try it.

THIS is to certify that a number of awful good citizens have not yet cut their weeds. The Mayor is crying with tears in his eyes because some do not respond to his gentle official call for a Clean Up. "How long, O Catiline, wilt thou flaunt your weeds before us?"

THERE ARE OTHERS.

The Hereford Brand very justly criticizes those of its exchanges that are using "Magazine supplements," calling attention to the 220 inches of advertising in these supplements, which at regular advertising rates is worth from $30 to $45 a week. There is no question but that these supplements tend to cheapen a paper's advertising, and should not be used at all. However, the Brand should remove a "beam" from its own eye—for it cheapens its space and muffs its looks by printing the "free" plate of Radford and Lewis (the Budweiser twins).—Editor Adams in Plainview News.

Editor Adams thinks he has discovered something. You know the story about the woodman who fired a hundred shots at a squirrel and found finally he was only firing at a louse in his eye lashes. Well? You see a lot of country newspapers have been firing at Pete and have shot up all of their ammunition. Now, they are falling back on the old charge that Radford and Lewis are the Budweiser Twins, and all without any proof. "Keep the record straight;" it may hurt sometimes and be hard to do. Let's be good "but wiser."

Woodmen, Notice!

The nights are longer—come out to the lodge meetings—Second and fourth Saturday night. Next meeting night Oct. 10. Be sure to come.

POOR LEDA GOODBIN.

A storielle in verse, in three chapters, by Allenhurst—Written especially for the Brand.

(CHAP. 1)

Fred Grant, out on his big vacation hunt,
Was madly chasing a wild-turkey flock
Across a thickly brambled wood, when he,
Unwittingly, fell o'er a large cliff-rock;
Fair Leda Goodbin passing, in her car,
Along the road which ran near the cascade,
Was frightened by the young man's piteous groans,
And hastened to his side, to give him aid.

The man, unconscious, stunned and almost dead,
Was murmur'ing wildly, as if in a dream;
The brave girl, equal to the arduous task,
Lifted and dragged him into her machine.
She took him to her home—her father's house,
Stood by his bedside—left him ne'er alone—
She nursed him back to consciousness and health,
Till he was well enough to be sent home.

Before he left he'd gazed into her eyes,
And read that secret there, sacred, hoar-grown;
And she, responsive to the sacred law,
Had likewise read the heart that knew her own.
And though it was their first taste of true love,
And opportunities to speak but few,
Clandestinely purloined in "ma's" absence,
No words were necessary—they both knew.

For when the destined man and woman meet,
The secret needs no language to unfold,
Except that universal tongue all read—
That sacred, living language of the Soul:
Fate brings to us that boon: that First Love Dream,
Naught in this world so sweet has e'er been known,
O, how it thrills one's heart to feel—to know:
The heart one craves, likewise longs for one's own.

Although it was not mentioned, he well knew,
When last he pressed her hand to go away,
Whatever might befall, if life remained,
He'd come to claim her as his wife some day.
And she, likewise, was conscious of his love,
It thrilled her whole soul when he touched her hand;
She knew that, whether he came back or not,
This world would hold, for her, no other man.

Vacation past, Fred was in school once more,
And working hard—with all his might and main—
That he might finish up his course that term,
And go to seek his dear cliff-girl again.
And, some weeks later Leda, also, went
Away to college in another state;
(Her sister Dell was there when Fred got hurt),
And this was Leda's year to graduate.

And those two lovers, though far, far apart,
Together dwelt, in spirit, day by day,
And Fancy's eye, and Hope's sweet music held
Love's spirit-dream in glad ecstatic sway.
He thought of her who'd given back his life,
And with his life her love, the double gift;
Her thoughts dwelt on that bloodless face of him
Whom she found lying dead at the Big Cliff!

BRITISH WOUNDED ARRIVE AT FOLKSTONE

Two wounded soldiers of a Highland regiment sent back to England for treatment, photographed on their arrival at Folkstone.

New Town of "Dawn, Texas"

Company, and the big sheds of the Dawn Lumber Company, all present a showing of remarkable prosperity. The Hotel has every modern convenience and would be a credit to a town of several thousand people.

Preparations are being made to erect a number of homes on the townsite. House wells are being drilled now. The first ones to be erected will be the seven room house for W. E. Neal and family, and a five room bungalow for H. R. Neal and family. The latter will move to Dawn soon and will have charge of the stock and farming enterprises. Just off the townsite, north, a stock farm for raising registered percheron horses exclusively will be established. This too, will be under the management of H. R. Neal. On the farm will be built a substantial farm bungalow of four rooms and outside conveniences, and a horse barn to measure 36 by 60 feet, with a large storage capacity and a number of stalls. Each house will have a supply of water from wells.

In this connection, it must be said to the credit of these people who are recently from Illinois, that they are not doing anything by halves; every improvement is of the most substantial sort. Altogether, the Illinois people, including others besides the Neals, own some six thousand acres of the land adjoining and near to Dawn, a large part of it being between Dawn and Hereford. This body of land is as fertile as nature could make it and as pretty as ever anyone desired to see. Though Dawn is thirteen miles from Hereford, the street lights of the latter may be easily seen, the country is thus so level.

It is the purpose to develop this section of country under the magic touch of irrigation. There are already tributary to Dawn, eight big irrigation wells and the crops raised this year would be a revelation even to the rich corn farmers of Illinois. They must be seen to be appreciated. These farms are being put under an advance stage of cultivation. Besides the Neal lands of three sections, there are the three and one-half sections of land, property of C. J. Borden and son, Leslie F. Borden. One farm has been developed, having two hundred acres under cultivation with a big irrigation well, house, barns, silo. This silo has recently been filled and a large force of men are filling the 400-ton silo on the Neal farm this week. Mr. Borden will put in one more well, possibly two, for next season and develop land accordingly.

On the W. E. Neal farm of 960 acres one mile west of Dawn, besides the sky-scraper silo, 42 feet high, a big and substantial barn 30 by 50 feet has been built, and some 150 or 200 feet of cattle sheds and adjoining feed lots will be built. The farm house will be a 7-room structure with all modern conveniences. With the trees and other things to be added, this will be one of the "show places" of the Dawn community. The house is located on the highest point of land in that section.

It was here that we found W. E. Neal in overalls superintending the filling of the biggest silo in the Panhandle. Two row binders and a broadcaster were furnishing all the feedstuff that a half dozen wagons could haul to the cutter which was being driven by a big gas tractor. The silo was being filled with a mixture of kafir and sorghum, fine and juicy. Mr. Neal will feed this silage to a bunch of some 200 heifers, which will form the basis of a Hereford White Face cattle farm.

There are other irrigation developed farms in that part of Deaf Smith county that should be mentioned as they form a sort of irrigation community. The Harding interests with two big wells, the Tom I Seeds farm with a good well, the Pollet & Welliver farm with its good improvements and irrigation well, and the Green irrigated farm to the north of Dawn. It is almost certain that four more wells will be installed by spring and as other irrigationists come in, this will make one of the most prosperous communities in Texas. It is the purpose to raise high-priced products, such as grapes and cherries on some of the smaller tracts near Dawn. Farming combined with stock raising, both cattle and fine horses, will be the principal industries

The addition of farmers in the community will make the new town of Dawn grow. It will not be long before a supply store will be put in, and then a bank. A petition for a post office has been filed, naming Miss Grace Hines as the first post master.

In closing this article, justice would not be given that community by not saying that every irrigated and well-tilled farm in that section has made extra good crops this year. Every one who visits the farms comes away filled with enthusiasm, and if you will visit them, you, too, will have your wonder eyes opened.

Why not have your pictures taken by one who is permanently located in your own town. If you do not want to bring the children to the studio, just phone 162. 1t

 The evils of too many churches can be minimized by co-operation. The social and economic life of a rural community are respectively units and cannot be successfully divided by denominational lines and the churches can only occupy this important field by co-operation and co-ordination.
 The efficient country church will definitely serve its community by leading in all worthy efforts at community building, uniting the people in all co-operative endeavors for the general welfare of the community and in arousing a real love for country life and loyalty to the country home, and these results can only be successfully accomplished by the united effort of the press, the school, the church and organized farmers.

THE CHURCH AS A SOCIAL CENTER

A Broader Sphere for Religion. New Field for the Rural Church.

(By Peter Radford.)

The social duty of the rural church is as much a part of its obligations as its spiritual side. In expressing its social interest the modern rural church does not hesitate to claim that it is expressing a true religious instinct and the old-time idea that the social instincts should be starved while the spiritual nature was over-fed with solid theological food, is fast giving way to a broader interpretation of the functions of true religion. We take our place in the succession of those who have sought to make the world a fit habitation for the children of man when we seek to study and understand the social duty of the rural church. community it serves; it must build character; develop thought and increase the efficiency of human life. It must serve the social, business and intellectual as well as the spiritual and moral side of life. If religion does not make a man more capable, more useful and more just, what good is it? We want a practical religion, one we can live by and farm by as well as the by.

Fewer and Better Churches.

Blessed is that rural community which has but one place of worship. While competition is the life of trade, it is death to the rural church and moral starvation to the community. Petty sectarianism is a scourge that blights the life, and church prejudice saps the vitality of many communities. An over-church community is a crime against religion, a serious handicap to society and a useless tax upon agriculture.

While denominations are essential and church pride commendable, the high teaching of universal christianity must prevail if the rural church is to fulfill its mission to agriculture. We frequently have three or four churches in a community which is not able to adequately support one. Small congregations attend services once a month and all fail to perform the religious functions of the community. The division of religious forces and the breaking into fragments of moral effort is oftentimes little less than a calamity and defeats the very purpose

TO THE PUBLIC:

On June 30, 1913, there were 15,283.57 miles of railroad in Texas. Very little has been added since that time. They have 69,259 employes at work every day in the year. These railroads have a capitalization (stocks and bonds) of $31,615 per mile. Their value for taxing purposes as found by the State Tax Board is $31,150.00 per mile. They are really worth more. The total cost of construction up to June 30, 1913, averaged $39,975 per mile as shown by Table No. 10, page 397 Annual Report Railroad Commission, 1913.

The capitalization of railroads in other countries and the United States as a whole, per mile of road, is as follows:

England	$269,496	Spain	$88,368
Belgium	169,023	Japan	84,301
France	143,435	Russia	83,496
Brazil	142,080	Holland	82,796
Italy	124,116	Servia	72,373
Austria	120,311	Hungary	73,373
Switzerland	117,953	United States	63,944
Germany	119,666	Texas	31,615

The capitalization of railroads in the United States is less than in any of the above named countries, and in Texas it is a little less than half as much as the average for the United States.

The bonds of the Texas roads amount to only $23,212.00 per mile. As a rule, no dividends are ever paid on railroad stocks in Texas, and therefore the amount of stocks is without influence so far as the financial condition of the roads is concerned. The interest on the bonds, however, must be paid in order to keep the roads out of bankruptcy, and as such interest is supposed to be paid out of the earnings, the public is interested in knowing that the bonds do not exceed the value of the roads—in other words, that they are not watered. We are glad to be able to state, positively, that there are no watered bonds on Texas railroads. And the same is true as to stocks, taking the roads of the state as a whole.

It costs an immense amount of money to operate the 15,283 miles of railroad in this state, and as you pay the same, in freight and passenger fares, you, of course, are vitally interested in knowing whether the roads are collecting enough or more than is necessary.

The Annual Report of the Railroad Commission of Texas shows that for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, the railroads of Texas lacked $3,282,493.51 of collecting enough to pay their operating and necessary charges and expenses. For the year ending June 30, 1913, they lacked $1,601,378.31 of collecting enough, and while the figures for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1914, are not all available, enough is known to make certain that the railroads of this state will have a net deficit or loss of about Eight Million Dollars.

In arriving at these deficits, or losses, no account is taken of the permanent improvements and betterments. These, if considered, would add to the deficits, or shortages.

Thus it is plainly to be seen, and must be acknowledged by all fair-minded men, that the railroads of Texas are confronted by a serious and dangerous situation. Indeed, some of them have been unable to escape Federal Court receiverships, and none of them have the funds urgently needed, and which the interests of the public require.

Every railroad in Texas now in the hands of and operated by, receivers, was valued, and the amount of the stocks and bonds thereof approved and limited by the Railroad Commission under the Texas Stock and Bond Law. Therefore, it is certain, over-capitalization is not the cause of their financial distress.

We think it is due you, who pay the bills and need the service of the railroads, to show the above and actual condition of the properties devoted to your use.

We beg to assure you that we are doing our very best to give you good service.

We respectfully and earnestly ask, and desire, your help and assistance in keeping down and preventing all useless and unjust expenses and charges against the railroads. We do this for the reason that you pay the expenses, and suffer the loss of service necessarily resulting when the expenses and fixed charges exceed the income of the roads. You therefore have a direct interest in the matter.

We respectfully submit that it is but fair and just that the railroads be permitted to earn what the law says they are entitled to,—a fair return on the value of the property devoted to your use.

Nothing more is asked nor expected.

Respectfully,
General Managers Texas Railroads

Movement and Sales of Cattle.

A large number of Panhandle cattle went into the Kansas City market last week. Though the market was a little off, 17 head of Hereford raised White Faces brought the highest price ever paid for beef cattle except for show stuff. These cattle were raised by R. N. Mounts and sold to Missouri feeders and finishers two years ago. They weighed an average of 1,395 pounds and they were so good that they had their picture "took" in the Kansas City Yards.

The shipments of cattle from the Hereford territory were made by the following:

Was Touched.

While A. P. Murchison, cashier of the First State Bank, J. T. Wilkinson, another capitalist, and Geo. E. Burns, druggist, all from Hereford were "rubbering" at the strange sight at A. M. last Monday, were "touched," each one losing all the loose change they had in their pockets, the amount varying. The cashier, however, knowing the convenience of a check book, which he always carries in his pistol pocket, lost only that article. The light fingered gentleman, no doubt, thought it was a bite.

Fifteen Pounds in One Hill.

So far H. L. Rice has won the blue ribbon on raising sweet potatoes, finding one hill in his patch that had only three potatoes, but the three weighed fifteen pounds. As evidence, he brought the three still hanging to the roots, and remarks that he had another hill that would have beat that, but he had no means of proving that all of the potatoes came from one hill.

Sudan Grass Seeds Often Impure.

You had better ask about the Sudan grass seed you are buying, especially if you are paying a high price. If the seed contains the "blackhul" variety, you are bit. There should be nothing but the pure "creamhul" variety, and no Johnson grass, if you get what you pay for. There are few fields that are not badly mixed with both Johnson grass and the blackhul variety.

Potash Beds in Texas

University Station, Sept. 30.—With a match famine threatening, and the available supply of potash running short, due to the great European war now in progress, of peculiar interest is the indication of a supply of potash in Texas set forth in the report of J. A. Udden, geologist of the Bureau of Economic Geology of the University of Texas. The work known as Scientific Series No. 28 describes in detail the deepest well in Texas, located at Spur, Dickens county, and deduces many interesting facts from the stratification thus revealed at the enormous depth of 5,000 feet. Touching the potash prospect, Dr. Udden, in the guarded language of the scientist, says: "What may eventually be the most important economic result of this boring is that it has proved the existence in the dolomite beds of a stratum or horizon from which comes a water sufficiently rich in potash to hold out inducement to prospective search for this mineral."

THERE'S NO SENSE IN TAKING CALOMEL

Dodson's Liver Tone will fix up your liver safely and won't "knock you out" a day. A man feels very little like working and a child don't want to go to school when bilious or constipated. If you try calomel to cure you, the chances are that you will be so weakened by its after-effects that you will be laid up for two or three days more. So we say "Don't take Calomel!" You can get a perfect remedy to take the place of Calomel at Betts & Clark that is guaranteed to relieve constipation and live up the liver just as quickly as calomel, but without any of the bad after-effects of calomel. The name of this medicine is Dodson's Liver Tone. It is a pleasant tasting vegetable tonic that mildly stimulates the liver and causes it to work just right without any danger of salivation. If it doesn't fully satisfy you, you may have your money back from the store where you bought Dodson's.

THE STATE OF TEXAS.

To the Sheriff or any Constable of Deaf Smith county—GREETING: You are hereby commanded, that you summon, by making Publication of this Citation in some newspaper published in the county of Deaf Smith, if there be a newspaper published therein, but if not, then in any newspaper published in the 69th judicial district; but if there be no newspaper published in said judicial district, then in a newspaper published in the nearest district to said 69th judicial district, for four weeks previous to the return day hereof, J. W. Crudginton; F. M. Trugbber and J. P. Norvell, if living, if not the unknown heirs of said J. W. Crudginton, F. M. Trugbber and J. P. Norvell, whose residence is unknown, to be and appear before the Hon. District Court, at the next regular term thereof, to be holden in the county of Deaf Smith at the Court House thereof, in Hereford on the second day of November, A. D., 1914, then and there to answer a Petition filed in said Court, on the 29th day of June, A. D., 1914, in a suit numbered on the docket of said Court No. 823, wherein Lettie E. Dollinger is plaintiff and J. W. Crudginton, F. M. Trugbber and J. P. Norvell are defendants. The nature of the plaintiff's demand being as follows, to wit:

Plaintiff states for his cause of action that plaintiff is the owner in fee simple of the following described real estate, to wit: All of Section No. 39, Block No. 8, Certificate 39, Abstract 267, containing 640 acres of land, all situated in the county of Deaf Smith in the State of Texas. Plaintiff further states that the defendants and each of them claim and assert title to said real estate and that the claims of the said defendants in and to said real estate are adverse and prejudicial to the title and interest of plaintiff in and to said real estate. Wherefore plaintiff prays the Court to try, ascertain and determine the estate, title and interest of plaintiff and the defendants in and to the real estate hereinbefore described, and by its judgment to adjudge, determine, settle, quiet and define the respective right, title, interest and estate of plaintiff and defendants in and to said real estate hereinbefore described.

And plaintiff further prays that if the Court finds that the plaintiff is the sole owner of said real estate that an order and decree be entered of record forever barring and precluding the defendants and each of them, as well as all persons claiming by or through, or under said defendants or each of them from hereafter setting up any title or claim to said property, and for all other proper order or orders and relief in and about the title to said premises hereinbefore described. Plaintiff further says that personal service cannot be made of the defendants herein.

J. H. BOWEN, Plaintiff's Attorney.

HEREIN FAIL NOT and have you before said Court, on the said first day of the next term thereof, this writ, with your endorsement thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Given under my hand and seal of said Court, at office in Hereford, this, the First day of September, A. D., 1914.

STOMACH TROUBLE FOR FIVE YEARS

Majority of Friends Thought Mr. Hughes Would Die, But One Helped Him to Recovery.

Pomeroyton, Ky.—In interesting advices from this place, Mr. A. J. Hughes writes as follows: "I was down with stomach trouble for five (5) years, and would have sick headache so bad, at times, that I thought surely I would die. I tried different treatments, but they did not seem to do me any good. I got so bad, I could not eat or sleep, and all my friends, except one, thought I would die. He advised me to try Thedford's Black-Draught, and quit taking other medicines. I decided to take his advice, although I did not have any confidence in it. I have now been taking Black-Draught for three months, and it has cured me—haven't had those awful sick headaches since I began using it. I am so thankful for what Black-Draught has done for me. Thedford's Black-Draught has been found a very valuable medicine for derangements of the stomach and liver. It is composed of pure, vegetable herbs, contains no dangerous ingredients, and acts gently, yet surely. It can be freely used by young and old, and should be kept in every family chest. Get a package today. Only a quarter."

SCENES AMID THE RUINS OF LOUVAIN

These photographs, just received from Europe, give some idea of the appearance of Louvain after the destruction of that once beautiful Belgian city by the Germans. The main picture shows the students' quarter and the inset a glimpse of the Place de la Concorde, where were many hotels and cafes.

AMERICAN VOLUNTEERS FOR FRENCH ARMY

American residents of Paris, who have organized a volunteer regiment to fight in the French army, are here seen in the Place de l'Opera en route to their drilling place and carrying the Stars and Stripes.

Special War Offer to Our Readers

We have just secured the rights to offer the NEW WAR BOOK

“EUROPEAN WAR AT A GLANCE”

And a Year's Subscription to Woman's World and THE HEREFORD BRAND, all three for $1.25

WAR, with its hideous loss of life and property, teeming graveyards, orphaned children, famine, plague and untold human suffering, coming from the clear sky of peace, is the subject of world-wide comment and wonder.

DO YOU KNOW

Why the war is being fought; What started it; Why Austria declared war; Why Russia interfered; Why Germany joined with Austria; Why France and England aided Russia; Why Belgium was made the "goat."

THE TRUTH ABOUT

The reasons behind the war; The causes of international hatred; The history of the conflicting nations; The location of navies, troops and fortifications; the strength of the Powers; the size of their armies and navies; the different religions; the per centage of illiteracy.

THIS WOULD'S WAR

Its cost to humanity; The issues at stake; America's untold opportunity; Prophecy of experts on the outcome; Its effect on the future; the probable results ? ? ? ? ?

Fill out this blank and enclose with check or money to the Brand

Enclosed find $1.25 for which send me the Brand for one year and a full year's subscription to Woman's World, together with the NEW WAR BOOK—EUROPEAN WAR AT A GLANCE, to this address

GONE UP IN SMOKE

One-half of your coal—and it did you no good. Hard luck that. But there is a way to fix it. Here's how:

That stove of yours has seen its best days. You need a new one. You know it—but you have let things drift along.

Meanwhile, you have been losing HALF of every hod of coal you have put in it. Of course, you knew it, but you did not think of it that way. You know that half of every lump is gas. Fail to burn that gas and it is like throwing into the ditch half of every dollar you spend in coal.

Rather extravagant? Yes? The ordinary stove made of a lot of separate castings leaks air. They leak air at the wrong place. Places you can not control.

RESULT—the best part of your coal—the 14,000 cubic feet of common illuminating gas that is in the average ton of $3.00 soft coal—goes up the flue unburned.

You have lost it. It has gone up in smoke.

Save that gas—mix it properly with air and you have the hottest kind of a blue flame. But there is only one way to do this—

Buy the only heater that is made tight—holds tight—stays tight.

Cole's Original Hot Blast Heater

It leaks no air. This is the heater that mixes the gas and air and gives you all the heat in the coal.

This is the heater that burns any kind of coal and makes a ton of $3.00 soft coal do the work of $8.00 hard coal in a high priced base burner.

This is the heater that is a joy and comfort to the housewife. It makes no dirt or smoke in the house.

This is the heater that saves labor—fix it in the morning and at night and FORGET IT THE REST OF THE TIME.

This is the heater that gives a steady, constant heat from soft coal or lignite. This is the heater that will hold its fire untouched for a day and a half.

This is the heater we sell you under a guarantee that is as "good as old wheat at the mill." Burns soft coal, lignite, slack, hard coal or wood.

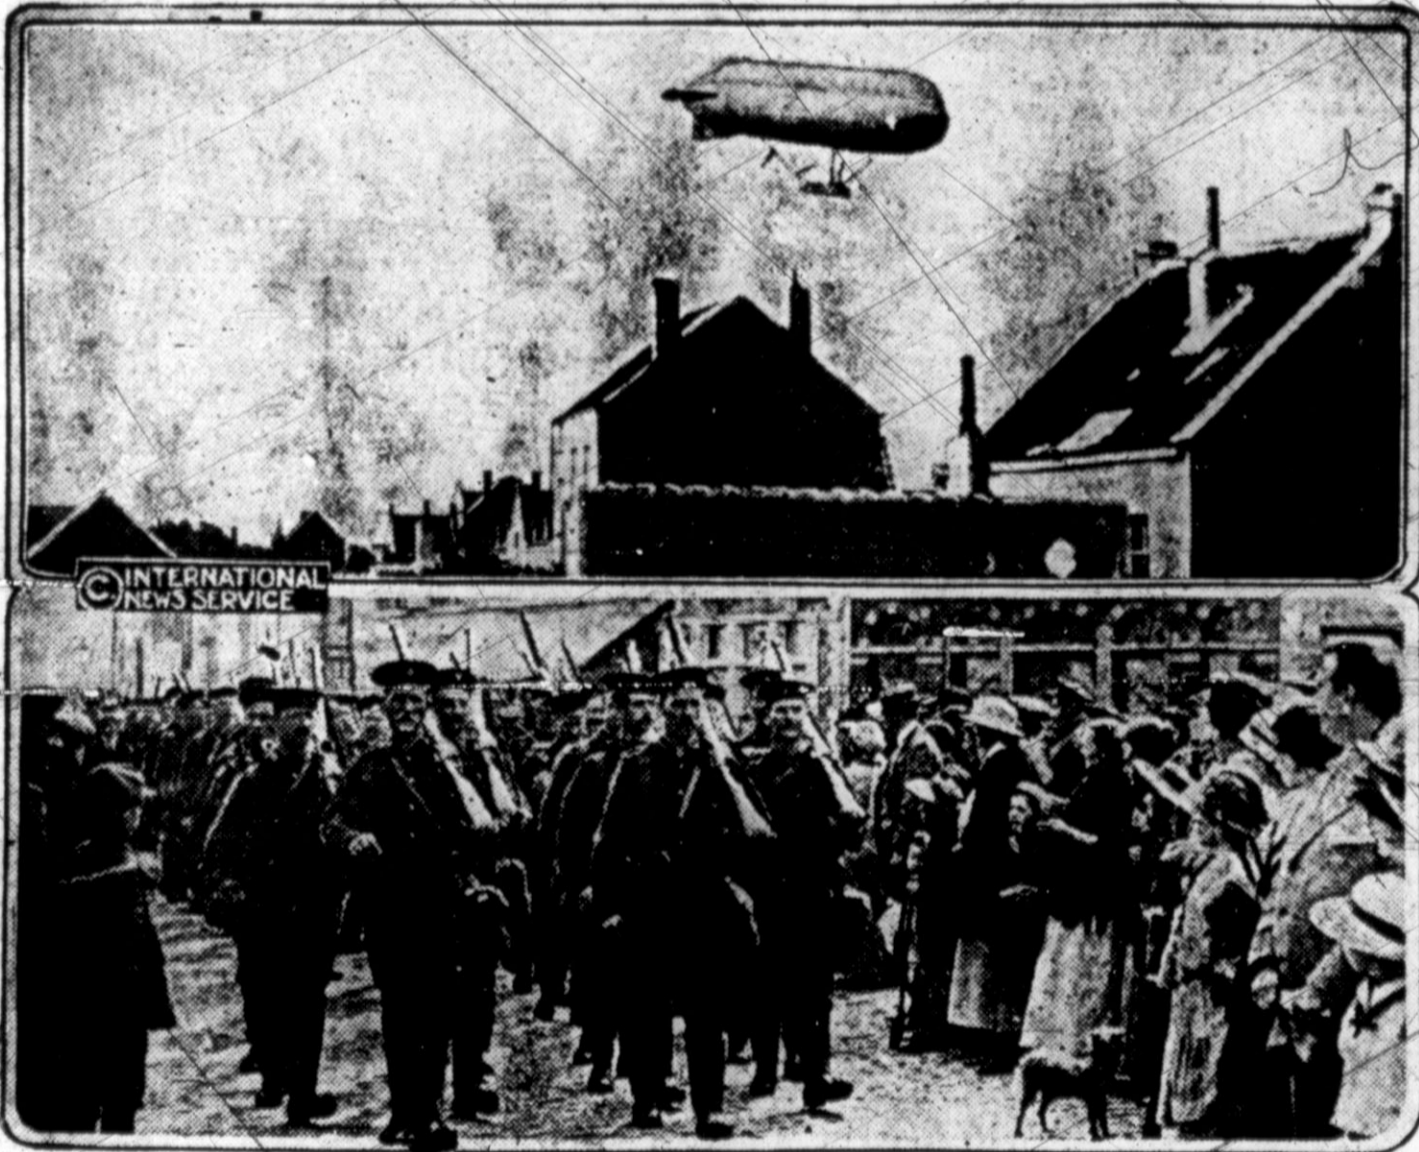

It is just the kind of a heater you want. Come in and see it.

See the name "Cole's" on the feed door of each stove. None genuine without it
