TUESDAYS—TWICE-A-WEEK—FRIDAYS

21st YEAR, NO. 34.

HEREFORD, DEAF SMITH COUNTY, TEXAS, FRIDAY, JULY 8, 1921.

CAMP HOUSE IS BIG HIT WHEN TRIED

ACCOMMODATED FULL HOUSE EVERY NIGHT SINCE OPENED

WOOD IS NEEDED

Residents Having Brush and Old Trees Asked to Donate Same

The new Tourist Camp Grounds at Hereford are filling a long-felt want very acceptably, and the comments of the road parties who stop in at night are highly gratifying to the members of the Chamber of Commerce, who planned and executed the venture.

One rainy night during the current week no less than eight automobiles parties availed themselves of the protection and comfort of the new house. All tourists interviewed to date state that the camp is the best one they have run across in many moons.

Electric lights and telephone service are to be installed as soon as possible. The telephone company is seeking for a wire connection with the building without stringing another line, and it is hoped the difficulty will be overcome within the next few days.

The question of installing a brick oven has been discussed. An old camper who used the house the other night told W. F. West that such an expensive oven was unnecessary and showed a zinc home-made outfit that served all such purposes at a fraction of the cost. Similar stoves will probably be made to serve here.

The next most pressing addition to the camp is screens. Flies are bad around such places, and it is hoped to have the new house screened before long.

The wood problem is also embarrassing, although the appeal in the Brand last issue has already brought several notices of brush and trees available. Anyone having such waste material that can be utilized in keeping the camp fires burning will confer a great favor by telephoning such information to number 54, the Chamber of Commerce headquarters.

U. S. Veterinary Expert Will Aid Local Stockmen

Dr. G. F. Flaherty, who has charge of the work of hog cholera eradication in Texas for the Animal Husbandry Bureau, United States Department of Agriculture, with headquarters at Fort Worth, spent a short time in Hereford Thursday.

Dr. Flaherty had been over to Farwell where he aided County Judge James D. Hamlin in solving troubles with his registered pigs. Judge Hamlin did not have cholera in his herd, but his pigs were not doing as well as they might. Judge Hamlin brought Dr. Flaherty to Hereford in his car Thursday, where he caught a service car to Amarillo.

Dr. Flaherty will come back to Deaf Smith county, probably next week, and do some preventative vaccination work among hog men. He also has a proposition to put up to the Hereford breeders' association relative to the government "Accredited Herd Work" which, boiled down, means that where a herd owner allows the government to test the animals for tuberculosis, the herd is recognized and advertised by the government as an Accredited Herd, free from disease.

MRS. MARSHALL IS BACK FROM VISIT TO KANSAS POINTS

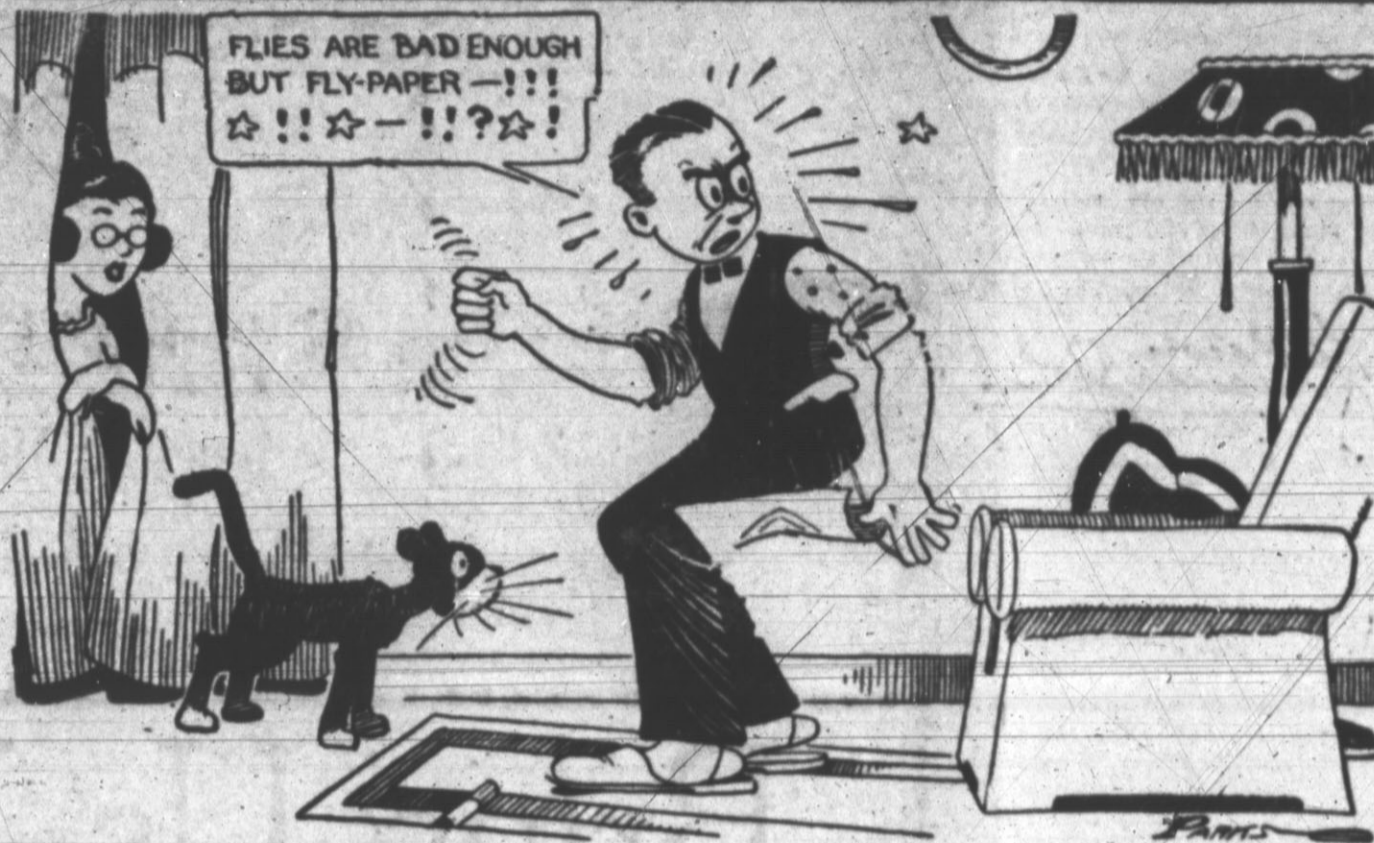

Mrs. J. S. Marshall and sister, Mrs. Henry Best, of Woodward, Okla., arrived in Hereford Wednesday morning.

Mrs. Marshall and son, Harold, left here about a month ago for Kansas City and Shelbina, Kansas. She stopped at Woodward and her sister came back with her for a visit here. Harold has remained with his aunt, Mrs. C. W. Copenhaver, at Shelbina.

FARMERSVILLE MEN ARE VISITING ELLISTON AND FISHING

L. L. Miller and J. F. Lovell of Farmersville, Texas, arrived in Hereford Wednesday. They are visiting their old friend, A. H. Elliston, prospecting, fishing and giving the country a general "once over."

MIDSUMMER MADNESS

Sulphur Park is Growing in Popular Estimation

Sulphur Park Club Grounds of Hereford has a reputation as a fishing and camping site that is astonishingly widespread. Even local people do not seem to appreciate the wide publicity this Deaf Smith county resort has received and the cosmopolitan character of the crowds that gather along the banks of the Tierra Blanca every summer.

The fact that the Abo Pass highway passes through Hereford also goes a long way toward advertising the town, and brings a lot of tourists through here who hear of the Sulphur Park grounds and stop off to fish and camp. The combination is a wonderful advertising asset for the community.

People from everywhere visit the Park. This week, for instance, there were families camped there from Boston, Mass., Berkeley, Calif., and El Paso, Texas. The California party consisted of Mr. and Mrs. Van Bostick, and El Paso was represented by J. R. Eagle and wife. Mr. Eagle is an egg and poultry commission man. Mr. Bostick is a representative of the International Distributing Company.

Band Concert is Set for Thursday Here's Program

Regular band practice was held at the Courthouse Thursday night in preparation for the public concert to be given on Thursday night, July 14. Another practice will be held Monday night.

It has been decided to hold the public concerts on the north side of the courthouse hereafter. It is believed that this will help in doing away with the trouble experienced heretofore with the wind on the south side. Professor Brothers gives out the following program for the concert July 14th:

- March—Washington Post—Sousa
- Rag—Swanee—Johnson
- Song—Whispering—Schonberger
- Overture—The Sky Pilot—Laurens
- Trombone Drag—Trombone Blues—Jewell
- Mexican Waltz—Youthful Fancies—Dell 'Oro
- Song—My Sahara Rose—Clark and Donaldson
- March—Loyal Americans—King

WHAT DO YOU KNOW ABOUT PUZZLE OF FROG EPIDEMICS?

Where do frogs come from following a rainy spell, and whither do they wander?

That's a question that has been bothering local philosophers of late, while they sat around under convenient awnings and counted the little raindrops.

A dispatch from Panhandle, Texas, this week stated that after a hard rain there millions of small frogs, thumb-nail size and up, suddenly appeared in that burg in such vast numbers that the cars killed them by the hundreds in driving through the streets. Incidentally, added the dispatch, those frogs were all in a hurry, apparently, and all headed one way out of town. In an hour or so they were all gone.

Puzzle: how did they arrive and where were they bound for? E. B. Posey says that he has actually seen small perch wiggling in the streets of Hereford, following a hard rain!

A motion has been made that a convention of Old Timers be called, threads in this puzzling natural phenomena be woven together, and the world enlightened as to the why and the wherefore of this frog problem. Do we hear a second?

NEWLIN BANKER IS PLEASED WITH NEW CAMPING GROUNDS

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Whitacre and baby of Newlin, Texas, and Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Elliott and Mrs. A. H. Thornton, of Memphis, Texas, arrived in Hereford Sunday for a fishing vacation on the Tierra Blanca. Mrs. Elliott is a daughter of Mrs. Thornton. Mrs. Elliott and Mrs. Whitacre are sisters.

Mr. Whitacre is a third owner in the Economy Mattress Company of Hereford and is also cashier of the Farmers State Bank at Newlin.

On the night of the Fourth of July the party took shelter in Hereford's new Tourist Camp house from the heavy rainfall. Mr. Whitacre declares that the new house is the best of the kind to be found between this point and Wichita, Kansas, and says he has heard similar comments from other tourists.

Halsell to Speak At the Luncheon On Monday Next

The regular weekly luncheon of the business men will be held at the Stockmen's Cafe on next Monday at 12:00 noon. H. H. Halsell will speak for not to exceed fifteen minutes on his idea of what Hereford needs, from the standpoint of a new comer here. Other matters of interest are on the program.

These luncheons are open to all, whether members of the Chamber of Commerce or not, who bear a respectable reputation and have the price of their own dinner in their clothes or in the bank. If the price is lacking, come anyhow, and the amount will be rustled.

First Picture of Dempsey's Victory Over Carpentier

DEAF SMITH COUNTY'S FIRST COURTHOUSE IS NEW CATHOLIC CHURCH

$14,000 TO BE SPENT IN REMODELING OLD BUILDING. TO BE CALLED ST. ANTHONY'S CATHOLIC CHURCH

WHEN RAT JOWELL WAS SHERIFF

The Old Courthouse was Moved From LaPlatta and Rebuilt on Present Courthouse Site. Not Enough Men in County at Times to Secure a Jury. Jurors Brought Own Bedding and Swapped Yarns

The Society of the Atonement, a Catholic organization with headquarters in New York, who control the work of the church in this district, this week begun the work of remodeling the church building, the structure just across the street from the courthouse and which was Deaf Smith county's original temple of justice.

Approximately $14,000 will be spent by the Society in converting the old land mark into a modern Catholic church, to be known officially as "St. Anthony's Catholic Church." The Rev. Fr. Salvator, S. A., is the Priest in charge.

Contractor J. F. Cunningham and Foreman W. T. Miller, both of Amarillo, have charge of the construction crew. The reconstructed building will be of Mission design, with metal roof. The old spire has been removed. The building will be stuccoed outside and plastered inside. A large foyer one story high will front the west, and the basement will measure 30x22. Furnace heat will be used.

The Priory, to the east of the main building, will be connected to the church by a Colster (connecting porch) in Mission design, 40x5 feet.

The church will contain a Choir Loft, with steps leading up, and the seating capacity will be between 400 and 500. While the work of reconstruction is going forward the regular church services will be held at the Sisters Chapel, on Twenty-Five Mile Avenue.

The Old Courthouse
This old building being modernized was the first county courthouse and was originally erected at La Platta in the summer of 1891. The county was organized October 3, 1890. It originally cost about $10,000. In 1898 the railroad was built through Hereford and the county seat was moved from La Platta. This old building was torn down and the lumber transported to Hereford, where it was rebuilt, somewhat smaller than the first model. Joe Service was the contractor who moved the building and re-erected it. Incidentally, Judge Dean was County Judge at that time and Rat Jowell was sheriff.

The Brand is indebted to Judge L. Gough, R. J. Kibbe, W. S. Higgins, and J. C. Womble for these historical facts. Mr. Womble says that the old courthouse has been the scene of many stirring trials. It often took every man in the county to secure a jury and then in some cases the trials had to be postponed owing to lack of men. He says everybody attended court in those days, and everybody brought their dogs with them. The jurymen brought their own bedding and slept on the floor of the courthouse. Court terms meant a general old-fashioned community meeting and a good time all around. Many a hard yarn was spun in the corridors of that old building while the veniremen filled about, waiting for the call to jury service.

The old land marks around Hereford are slowly disappearing, some by fire, some by the march of progress in making room for more modern structures and others, like the old courthouse, retiring within a shell of stucco and plaster.

Fox Hunt Planned For Gilliland at Caldwell, Texas

Carl Gilliland left Hereford for Bay City, Texas, Thursday morning to attend court. Enroute he will stop at Caldwell, Texas, to visit an old friend, R. S. Bowers. The two were college buddies back in Tennessee, about twenty years ago. Mr. Bowers has planned to pull off a fox hunt for Mr. Gilliland's benefit the morning he arrives. The train arrives about 3:00 a. m. Dogs, horses, etc., are all primed and ready for the visitor's arrival.

GIRL SCOUTS NOW HAVE REAL OFFICE THANKS TO COURT

Hereford's Girl Scouts now have a regular official headquarters. Miss Jessie Sisk, Scout Master, announces that the County Commissioners have granted the Girls the use of a room at the Courthouse, opposite the Ladies' Rest Room, where they may keep their records and hold their meetings.

The action of the Court is very much appreciated by the members of the Scouts.

TWO INCHES RAIN FOR HEREFORD SO FAR MONTH JULY

There has been a total of two inches of rainfall in the city of Hereford so far in July. One and three-tenths fell July 4 and seven-tenths on July 5. It has been clouding up and spitting ever since, and it is reported that portions of Castro county received a heavy downpour Thursday afternoon.

The work of the harvest has been considerably retarded, but the crews are back at work now and making wheat while the sun tries to shine.

A TIP TO OUR FOLKS

It is hard work to get folks in most communities to pass the news along to the editor of the home paper. S. A. Mellen, of the Plymouth, Wis., Reporter, tried an unusual slant the other day to stimulate "contribs." Here it is:

HAS ANYONE
Died ..... Had a fire
Eloped ..... Had a baby
Divorced ..... Had a party
Left town ..... Sold a farm
Embezzled ..... Been Arrested
Come to town .....
Had twins or colic .....
Sold a cow or lost an auto .....
Stolen a dog—or his friend's wife .....
Committed suicide—or murder .....
Fallen from an airplane .....
Fallen into a well .....
Fallen into a legacy? .....
Well, then,
THAT'S NEWS
So phone or mail it to
"THE REPORTER"
We make your troubles known.

The newspaper is the best community asset there is. It is the thing that makes for the solidarity of its population; it advertises the town and its interests elsewhere; it boosts the town in a variety of ways and never stops. And then it provides news interest and entertainment for great numbers of the people of the community.

If the people of a town care anything about greater and greater results of their property and interests through this medium of publicity, it is up to them to help the publisher make a constantly better paper.

If you have news, as outlined above by Brother Mellen, give it to us!

A LESSON FROM NATURE

There was a time when it was considered worth while to be decently

FASTER! FASTER!

Oh, the country's full of automobiles—they're increasin' every day. . . . When I hear their toots, and honks, and squeals, I reckon they've come to stay. From the thunderin' truck to the pussy-foot Liz, the country's entirely filled. It's only by luck, and watchin' my biz, I ain't long ago been killed!

It isn't so long sence the country road was the safest place we knew. . . . Old Dobbin smiled with his pie-faced load, where the sweet wild-roses grew. But now we sliver in dire alarm, as we prod our faithful 'dunk—And we jump the fence, from bodily harm, at the sound of the devilish honk.

I used to love to gather the flowers that garnished the old rail fence, when lovers lane was a matter of hours, and the perfume stole my sense. . . . But gosh, here lately, the flowers is dead, from the weight of the horrid dust, where the dam road hog with the bullet head must beat the record or bust!

For Uncle John's

thoughtful of other people—decently courteous to individuals we knew as well as to individuals in the mass that we didn't know.

Today, the fashion appears to be careless of everybody else's feelings but our own and indignant of others who do not treat us as we refuse to treat them. Exhibitions of selfishness are common and "get there" regardless of the other fellow, by force if necessary, is the rule, especially among the young. One sex is as bad as the other, with exceptions of course.

In certain parts there is a wild bee, with a wild Latin name which we won't try to repeat, but which is familiar as the "bramble bee." After the farmer has sheared off the heads of brambles along comes the velvety "bramble" bee. She picks a likely stalk, digs out the pith down, to the first knot, which stops her progress. Then she fills this tube clear to the top with cells, one at a time, placing a little honey in each cell and depositing an egg with the honey.

The egg in the cell at the bottom is laid first—and you'd expect it to hatch first. But the only way out to the free air is through all the other cells. If the baby bee busted through she'd of course kill all the unhatched bees. So the amateur naturalist figures that nature reverses herself in this case, hatching the last bee laid first, and the first bee laid last.

Wrong! The first egg laid hatches first. The baby bee down there at the bottom of the tube at once attacks the wax wall above her and bores a hole through it to the cell overhead. Instantly she sees her baby sister or brother lying still asleep in its cocoon. Does she brutally tear through that cocoon in a wild, ruthless dash for the sunlight above?

She does not, my son! She just calmly returns to her own cell, which is dark and without food, and stays there hours, sometimes a whole day, until she hears her sister moving about above. Then she joins the other and they bore through to the next cell. If that cocoon is still unhatched, they wait again. And so on to the top.

Here is a lesson in courtesy from Mother Nature herself. Boys and girls, nature is the most truthful teacher in the world. Don't forget that.

Should a bridegroom in Korea stay in the house of his bride's family for more than three days after the wedding he must live there for an entire year.

Home building is coming back to a price at which no family can afford to pay rent. Prices are down as low as actual cost production, based upon the readjusted wage scale, will permit.

NEW RULES FOR INTERSTATE SHIPMENT OF LIVE STOCK

Regulations governing the interstate movement of live stock, which became effective on and after July 1, 1921, and which supersede previous regulations on this subject, have been published by the United States Department of Agriculture. For purposes of identification these regulations are designated as B. A. I. (Bureau of Animal Industry) Order 273. The regulations published in the circular prescribe for the inspection, disinfection, certification, treatment, handling, and method and manner of delivery and shipment of live stock which is subject to interstate commerce. The enforcement of the regulations is assigned to the Secretary of Agriculture by acts of Congress. Their purpose is to control the interstate shipment of live stock, and prevent the spread of disease.

Included in the publication are acts of Congress relating to this subject, general provisions, and regulations to prevent the spread of the following diseases: Splenetic, southern, or Texas fever in cattle; scabies in cattle and sheep; dourine in horses and asses; hog cholera and swine plague; and tuberculosis in cattle.

All men know a few things, but no one knows less than the other fellow.

The threatening storm clouds of the Fourth of July did not daunt the bravery of the crowd of picnickers who gathered in the Dimmitt neighborhood to celebrate their nation's birthday.
The cars loaded with good things, deposited the gay participants at the lake about four o'clock, where a delightful swim was enjoyed.
Then the supper was spread. And such a supper!! Old Mother Earth almost groaned with the weight thereof.
Ice cream and cake completed the bountiful spread.
Hasty preparations were then made for leaving, as the storm which had threatened all afternoon was about to come.

July 4, 1921.
Wheat harvest is the order of the day in Cleo community at present. Will take almost another week to get the crop all cut, even if the weather is favorable for pushing the headers, as there are so many green spots in the wheat fields, caused by the drouth killing so much of it and the recent rains greening it up. The crop is ripening very unevenly, causing much delay in getting the harvest done. Some crops have been threshed with fairly good yields, but we think the general average will be light.

O. M. Burch went to Hereford today after lumber to build a new granary.
Mack Johnson has his new thresher at work and is doing nicely with it.

Why Is the OilPull Oil Cooled?

You may ask—"Why is not the OilPull cooled with water as are all other tractors?" or "Why do the makers of the OilPull go to the extra trouble and expense of equipping it for oil cooling when they could more easily equip it for water cooling and thereby sell it for a lower price?"

Twenty thousand OilPull owners can answer these questions from the depth of years of experience, for they have witnessed the troubles experienced by neighbors who own water cooled tractors and they KNOW the satisfaction that comes from owning an OilPull with its "trouble-free" oil cooling system.

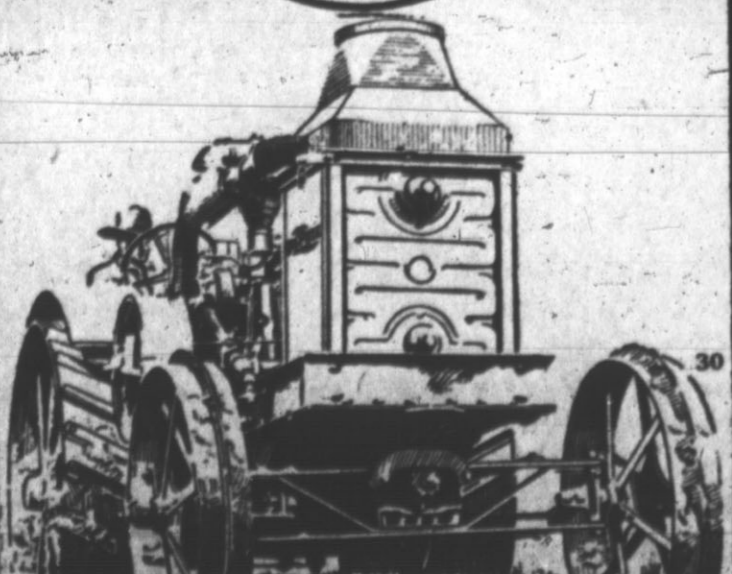

Water boils easily—evaporates quickly—requires frequent replacement—freezes—must be drained—produces sediment and rust which clogs and deteriorates the circulating system.

The oil in the OilPull cooling system will not boil on the hottest day nor freeze in the coldest weather—no evaporating—no constant refilling—no draining—no sediment—no rust—no power-consuming fan. The harder the OilPull works, the cooler it runs.

Oil cooling is but one of many OilPull proved features. And there are four sizes—12-20, 16-30, 20-40, and 30-60 H. P. Ask for literature.

HOOSIER Saves Steps

The floor plan below shows a model kitchen arrangement, with the HOOSIER logically located as the center of the working area. In such a kitchen your HOOSIER will save you the greatest possible number of steps and will be at its best in making your kitchen work a delight.

HOOSIER Helps You All Day Long

IT IS NOT just a mealtime helper—but a real step-saver. The HOOSIER has been developed and perfected over a period of 22 years, with the sole idea of making woman's work easier.

That is why the central section of HOOSIER is so open and unobstructed—giving plenty of elbow room and doing away with those corners and partitions which serve no useful purpose.

Experience has proved over and over again that this uncluttered work space is the only logical arrangement to make work not only easier—but easiest. Yet HOOSIER is the only cabinet which provides this extra large, extra convenient working space.

Every detail of HOOSIER construction and design has been thought out just as carefully as this. Because of this inherent superiority, HOOSIER is today America's favorite kitchen convenience, reducing the work and increasing the leisure of two million American housewives.

Come in and let us show you our complete line of HOOSIER Fore-plain Tables and Cabinets—$12.50 to $75.00
Five dollars delivers one in your home—then $2.50 weekly.

Our big July Sale is moving off fine. Every Rug and every article of Furniture is being sold at Extra Low Prices. We can serve you better than anyone on earth and we are satisfied with small profits.
