

GOOD WOMAN PASSES AWAY

Mrs. W. C. Jones, of Robstown, Dies After Brief Illness

The following obituary, taken from the Robstown Reporter, will be of interest to the many friends of Mrs. Jones in this community, who are so deeply grieved to learn of her death. She was for several years a resident of Hereford and was universally loved. She had spent most of the summer here with her daughter, Mrs. O. G. Hill, and it was only in these brief months that the writer was privileged to know her—yet in that time she proved herself the tried, true friend, and the thoughtful, helpful, kindness of her sweet, unselfish life, will ever be a treasured memory.

The sorrowing relatives have the deepest sympathy of the entire community.

The many friends of Mrs. W. C. Jones were painfully shocked to learn of her almost sudden death last Tuesday night at 8 o'clock, which occurred at the Spohn Sanitarium. Mrs. Jones had only been ill about ten days and only her nearest neighbors knew of her illness, which at first did not seem to be of a serious nature. Sunday, last, she began growing worse, and consultation was immediately called in, with the result that an operation was the only chance to prolong life. This, Mrs. Jones willingly consented to have done as life seemed so sweet to her.

She was taken to the Spohn hospital Sunday night and the operation was performed Monday morning, which seemed to be a successful one. Mrs. Jones rested well and great hopes were entertained for her speedy recovery, but her strength was spent and at 8 o'clock Tuesday night, her spirit went home to the God who gave it.

Nettie Woodall was born in Mississippi, January 23, 1868. She moved with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jonathan Woodall, to Collins county when only three years of age, and resided there until she was sixteen, at which time she was united in marriage to W. C. Jones, then a practicing young lawyer of that county. They were married on July 1, 1883. Seven children came to bless this home, the oldest died at the age of four years.

Mrs. Jones was a member of the Methodist church when ten years of age, but in later years joined the Christian church, to which she always remained a faithful consecrated member.

All Robstown mourns the loss of this good woman, and the deepest sympathy of their many friends goes out to these grief-stricken friends.

They moved to Robstown in July, 1913, from McKinney, Texas. Mrs. Jones was an ardent member of the Rebecca Lodge, and was a Past Noble Grand, and at the time of her death was a faithful member of the Rebecca Lodge of Corpus Christi. She was also a faithful member of the Order of Eastern Star Lodge of Robstown, and at the time of her death was an officer in this Lodge.

As president of the Civic Club of this city, Mrs. Jones was a tireless worker, and had made some splendid plans for the betterment of the city, and expected to begin the fall work of the Club on the day she was taken ill.

As a friend and neighbor, a better one never lived than Mrs. W. C. Jones; always ready and willing to do what she could for any person. As a wife and mother, only the devotion of her dearly loved family can testify to this good woman's life.

She leaves a devoted husband, three sons and three daughters, an aged father, and two brothers and two grandchildren, to mourn her loss.

Not all of the children were present at the bedside, Mrs. Jewel Wright, of Silver City, N. M., not being able to arrive on time. Those present were Mrs. Goldie C. Hill and two children, of Hereford, Texas; Kent, Willie, W. C. Jr., and little Mary, all who live at home.

Euperal services were conducted from the Maxwell Dunne Undertaking Parlors in Corpus Christi, followed by interment at Rose Hill.

Rev. J. E. Morgan, pastor of the Methodist church of Robstown, and Rev. Gladney, of the Christian church, of Corpus Christi, conducted funeral services.

About 75 Robstown people were present at the funeral, some driving through in cars, others going on the train.

Gets Broken Leg

Mr. Sam Ward of this city, fell from his transfer wagon Monday of this week and broke his leg near the hip. He was driving down Main Street when someone called "whoa" to the horse. The horse stopped suddenly and the young man fell forward over the front of the wagon and striking the ground at the side of the horse. His face was cut and bruised, beside his fractured limb. Mr. Ward got the same limb fractured last February just a little below the place where it was fractured this time.

He has had the other limb broken three times within the last few years. So he has had his full share of broken legs.

He is resting well and improving as rapidly as could be expected.

Little Child Ill

Little Georgia, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Carr has been quite ill of tonsillitis, since Sunday, no improvement being evident as yet.

Booster vs. Knocker.

When the Creator had made all the good things, there was still some dirty work to do, so He made the beasts and reptiles and poisonous insects, and when He had finished, He had some scraps that were too bad to put into the Rattlesnake, the Hyena, the Scorpion, and the Skunk, so He put all these together, covered it with suspicion, wrapped it with jealousy, marked it with a yellow streak and called it a Knocker.

This product was so fearful to contemplate that He had to make something to counteract it, so He took a sunbeam and put in the heart of a child, the brain of a man, wrapped these in civic pride, covered it with brotherly love, gave it a mask of velvet, and a grasp of steel and called it a Booster; made him a lover of fields and flowers and manly sports, a believer in equality and justice, and ever since these two were, mortal man has had the privilege of choosing his associates.—Author unknown.

UNION VETERANS AT WASHINGTON

Remnants of the Hosts of '65 Pass In Review Before President Wilson

If, in the breast of any Washingtonian, the fires of patriotism had burned low, surely, the scene enacted in that historic city, on last week, when twenty thousand aged men, with trembling limbs and shaking voices—all that is left of that gallant company 200,000 strong who were reviewed by President Johnson, must have fanned the dying embers into active life.

As these men, whose early manhood's best years, were given to their country, marched down Pennsylvania Avenue with their old regimental flags and martial music, every heart was touched and many eyes were filled with tears. President Wilson wept and as each flag passed by, he reverently lifted his hat.

An immense flag, one hundred fifty feet long, was carried in the procession. Only four hours were required for the Grand Review of this year. Fifty years ago, it took two days, and though there will be other G. A. R. encampments this was the last Grand Review until after the great final roll-call.

The sentiments expressed by President Wilson in his welcome address on this occasion are worthy of a great president of a great people.

We give a part of this address below:

"It is a singular thing that men of a single generation should have seen what you have witnessed in the crowded years which you celebrate tonight. You took part, when you were young men, in a struggle, the meaning of which, I dare say, you thought would not be revealed during your lifetime, and yet more has happened in the making of this nation in your lifetime than ever has happened in the making of any other nation of a dozen generations.

"The nation in which you now live is not the nation for whose union you fought. You have seen many things which have made this nation one of the representative nations of the world with regard to the modern spirit of that world, and you have the satisfaction which I dare say few soldiers ever have had, of looking back upon a war absolutely unique in this, that instead of destroying, it healed; that, instead of making permanent division, it made a permanent union.

"This nation was, from the beginning, a spiritual enterprise, and you have seen the spirits of the two once divided sections of this country absolutely united.

"A war which seemed as if it had the seed of every kind of bitterness in it has seen a single generation put bitterness absolutely out of its heart, and you feel, as I am sure the men who fought against you feel, that you were comrades even then, though you did not know it, and that now you know you are comrades in a common love for a country which you are equally eager to serve.

"This is a miracle of the spirit, so far as national history is concerned. This is one of the very few wars in which, in one sense, everybody engaged may take pride. Some wars are to be regretted; some wars mar the annals of history; but some wars show that the spirit of man sometimes springs to great enterprises that are even greater than his own mind had conceived.

"You set the nation free for that great career of development, of unhampered development, which the world has witnessed since the civil war. But for my own part I would not be proud of the extraordinary

The Sanitary Removable Front Roll Door Hoosier

Yet, makers have experimented for ten years to produce it. Hoosier triumphs again with the only kitchen cabinet that has roll doors which are sanitary and removable.

No Partitions

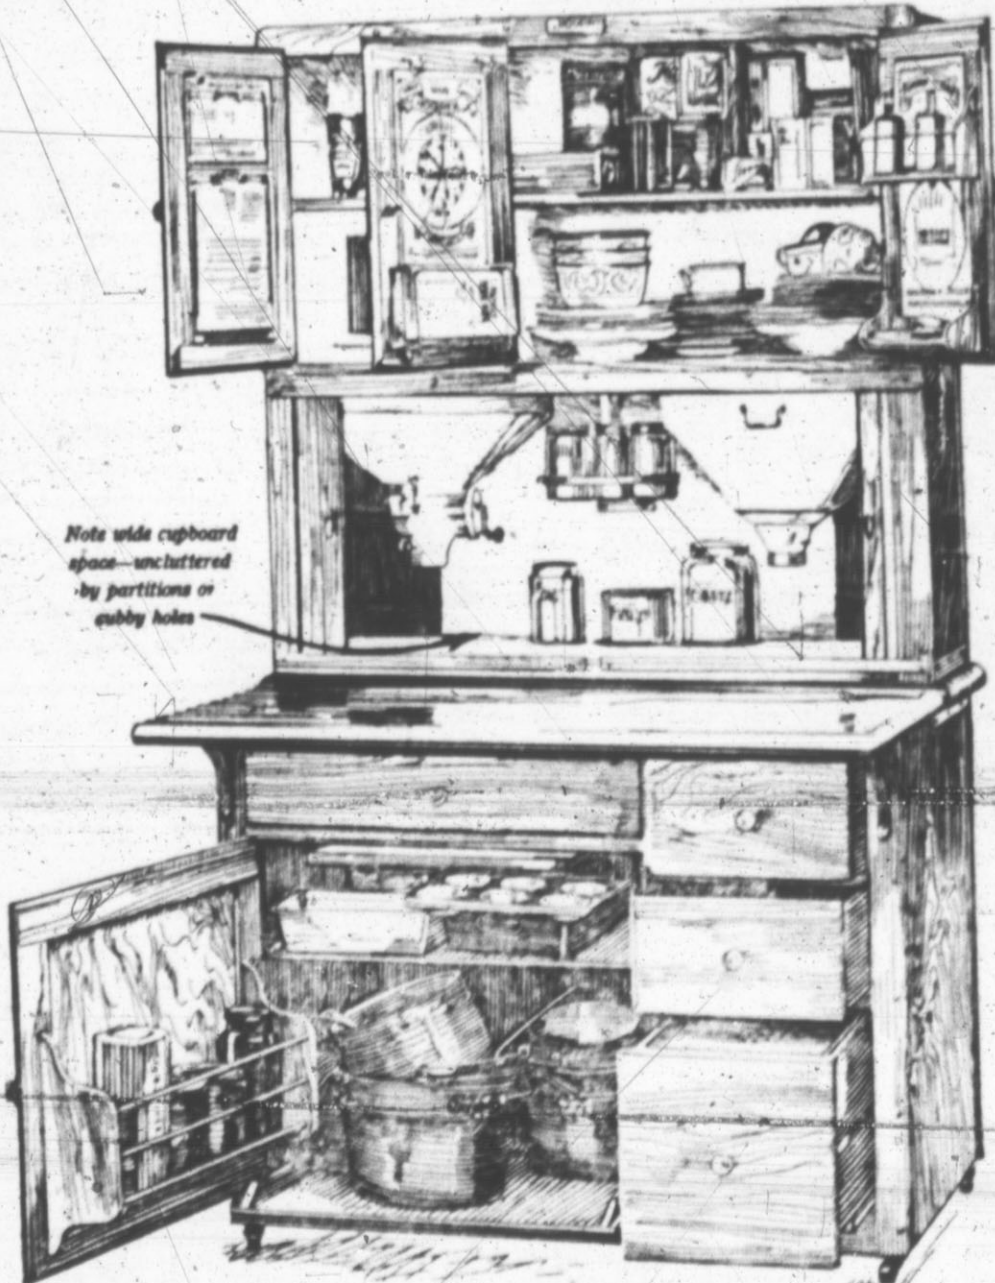

Note the entire absence of cubby holes or dirt breeding pockets. As on all Hoosier Cabinets the space on the cupboards is free of partitions. The doors slide in an ingeniously contrived channel which is open and easy to clean. A simple motion removes the doors and a whisk broom or cloth dusts out the channel completely. You will recognize all the other features that make the Hoosier Cabinet famous.

Rowland and Jones Reunion

The following clipping will be interesting to Miss Griffith's friends, in this county, giving, as it does, a glimpse of some of the good times she enjoyed during her trip this summer.

Miss Griffith's grandmother was a Rowland, born in Wales, and living there until she was the mother of five children, of whom Miss Griffith's mother is one.

This was Miss Griffith's first visit to her childhood home and she had seen none of these people since she was two years old.

"The thirteenth annual reunion of the Rowland and Jones families was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harmon Lindner, near Stratford, O., on Thursday, Aug. 26: The day was an ideal one for such a gathering, and a grand good time was had by the ninety relatives present.

The morning was spent in shaking hands all round, renewing old acquaintances, as there were some present who had not met with us before.

At noon, dinner was served on the lawn. The table fairly groaned under the weight of good things, and was a pretty sight to see. Everybody enjoyed the eats, and were sorry that they couldn't eat more.

After dinner a short business meeting was held and officers for the following year were elected: President, Paul Rowland; vice president Humphrey Griffith, secretary, Nellie Crowl; treasurer, E. P. Thomas. During the afternoon we were entertained with a musical program by 2 young ladies' quartet. Short talks by Mr. Humphrey Griffith, Westerville, Mr. J. B. Jones, Granville; Miss Millicent Griffith, Dimmitt, Texas; and Mr. John Thomas, Trenton, Mo., were listened to with pleasure. They all spoke of being proud that they belonged to one or both of these sturdy Welch families. Mr. John Thomas, of Trenton, Mo., is the only member of the family now living born in Wales. Miss Millicent Griffith spoke of her work as superintendent of schools in Dimmitt, Texas, and invited us to meet at her home next year. We certainly were glad to have them with us, and hope they will come again.

Late in the day we separated, thanking Mr. and Mrs. Lindner and family for the lovely time they had shown us, and expressing the wish that we all might be permitted to meet again in 1916."

ABOUT PARROT COMMUNITY

The Brand's Correspondent Sends Interesting Budget of News Items About Parrot Folks

Frank Metcalf has returned from his northern trip and reports the corn crop of the northern states cut short by the early frosts.

The hum of the binders are again to be heard in some fields; others too wet to get into.

School at Parrot is progressing nicely. The teacher, Miss Sisk announces a box social to be held in the school house Saturday night, October 9th. Everybody come and bring someone with you, and tell them to bring a box filled and ready for the auctioneer to sell. Proceeds are for things needed in the school room.

T. W. Shepard has returned to Plainview, where he will take up his studies in Seth Ward College.

Miss Alva Metcalfe is improving after her recent illness. But on account of her impaired health it was necessary that she cancel her contract to teach this winter. She may go to Corpus Christi for the winter.

Al Bacus is at present in Blackwell, Oklahoma somewhat improved in health.

J. W. Hanlan and wife and Frank Shepard and wife visited Sunday afternoon at the Noble ranch.

A large crowd gathered at the home of Jacob Wagner last Friday night and enjoyed a few social hours as only a fun loving crowd can do. Refreshments, consisting of coffee and cake were served after which the guests departed, hoping to be allowed the privilege of enjoying another such evening with this estimable family.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hanlan and sons, Harold and Earl, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Shepard at supper Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Neely and sons, Charlton and Ned, and Irene Holzer spent Sunday evening at the Wagner home.

The wet weather has prevented farmers from harvesting the bountiful crop raised this year, and help is scarce.

A musical treat was given recently by Rob Neely and his Victrola, which was greatly enjoyed by those present. It is indeed a rare treat to be able to listen to the most noted singers and musicians of today reproduced as from life. Those present were B. F. Neely and family, Orie Renfro and family, J. W. Hanlan and family, Irene Holzer, Cotta Sisk and Alfred Grant.

Mr. A. G. Noble has done quite a bit of plowing with his new gasoline tractor engine and thinks it the very thing for such work.

Mrs. Pat Walker who was operated on recently in Dallas is still quite poorly and is not expected home for some time yet.

Mrs. James Boydston has entirely recovered from her recent illness.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hughes and children and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Robinson, of Hereford, visited at the Boydston home a few days last week.

A family from Tullia have moved into the house on the Barber-Hanlan section recently purchased by Mr. Crum, of Tullia.

Hazel Hacker was on the sick bed for a few days this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Burkhardt and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Bacus, of Nazareth, attended the party at Mr. Wagner's Friday night.

Coyotes are still in abundance in our vicinity, and hawks large enough to belong to the eagle family are very destructive.

"Not Guilty" the Plea of Hearin

James E. Hearin, under indictment for the murder of James McCaslin, gatekeeper at the Amarillo fair, has entered a plea of not guilty, and has employed counsel for his defense. He is still confined in the Potter county jail, and his trial is set for Oct. 21.

The Journalist's Creed

[By Walter Williams, Dean of Missouri University School of Journalism]

I believe in the profession of journalism.

I believe that the public journal is a public trust; that all connected with it are, to the full measure of their responsibility, trustees for the public; that acceptance of lesser service than the public service is betrayal of this trust.

I believe that clear thinking and clear statement, accuracy and fairness are fundamental to good journalism.

I believe that a journalist should write only what he holds in his heart to be true.

I believe that suppression of the news for any consideration other than the welfare of society is indefensible.

I believe that no one should write as a journalist what he would not say as a gentleman; that bribery by one's own pocketbook is as much to be avoided as bribery by the pocketbook of another; that individual responsibility may not be escaped by pleading another's instructions or another's dividends.

I believe that advertising, news and editorial columns should alike serve the best interests of the readers; that a single standard of helpful truth and cleanliness should prevail for all; that the supreme test of good journalism is the measure of its public service.

I believe that the journalism which succeeds best—and best deserves success—fears God and honors man; is stoutly independent, unmoved by pride of opinion or greed of power, constructive, tolerant, but never careless, self controlled, patient; always respectful of its readers, but always unafraid; is quickly indignant at injustice; is unswayed by the appeal of privilege or the clamor of the mob; seeks to give every man a chance and, as far as law and honest wage and recognition of human brotherhood can make it so, an equal chance; is profoundly patriotic, while sincerely promoting international good will and cementing world comradeship; is a journalism of humanity, of and for today's world.

WIRELESS TELEPHONE IS NOW A SUCCESS

J. E. FARNSWORTH SAYS THAT PRESENT WIRE SYSTEM WILL NOT BE SUPPLANTED.

IS A MARVELOUS INVENTION

Talk With Europe Possible, but for Conditions Brought About by Warfare.

Dallas.—The success of the experiment by which the voice was recently projected without the use of wires, across the continent and afterwards from Washington to Honolulu, does not mean that the telephone wire system of the United States will be supplanted, explains Vice President J. E. Farnsworth of The Southwestern Telegraph & Telephone company in Dallas.

"Instead," he says, "the net work of wires which go to make the present universal telephone system will be supplemented by the installation of this marvelous wireless equipment, devised by Bell telephone engineers, by which hitherto impassable barriers to the interchange of intelligence by direct conversation, may be surmounted. Telephone subscribers may soon see the day when they can call up friends who may be passengers on ships at sea. It is said that but for disturbed conditions in Europe we would even now be talking to England or Germany. It is not even beyond the bounds of possibility that the mayor of New York may call the governor general of Hong Kong with the remarkable question: "How are you tomorrow?"

"It has been demonstrated that the voice may be carried over land telephone wires and be automatically passed through wireless telephone transmitters and be sung across oceans, deserts or mountain barriers.

Results Not Surprising. "The results of these wireless experiments," continued Mr. Farnsworth, "has not been surprising. Telephone officials generally knew that John J. Carty, chief engineer of the American Telephone & Telegraph company, was perfecting a method by which he hoped to span the oceans without the connecting link of a cable. Since he accomplished the task of establishing a physical wire circuit which would carry the voice from New York to San Francisco, it seemed as if any dream might come true with reference to the telephone.

Twenty years ago real long distance talking, as we know it today, seemed beyond the realm of the imagination. Last January the transcontinental lines were opened. Now we have transmission of sound through 5,000 miles without the use of wires and half of the distance was over land where all sorts of atmospheric conditions prevailed. It seems as if the limit in an age of marvelous accomplishment has been reached.

President Vail's Tribute to Inventor of Wireless.

New York.—In tribute to the recent accomplishment of telephone engineers who have perfected a method for wireless communication by spoken word, and in explanation of the probable uses of the wireless telephone, President T. N. Vail of the American Telephone & Telegraph company, has issued the following statement:

"I do not think it better to express my views in regard to wireless telephone than to quote the telegram which I have just sent to Mr. Carty, chief engineer for the company, with reference to what he has brought about. Here it is:

"Carty, I want to congratulate you on this climax in the way of achievements, the greatest in inter-communication the world has ever seen. To you and to the wonderful staff created by you the world owes a debt. To throw your voice directly, without aid of wires, from Washington to Hawaii, nearly five thousand miles, a greater distance than from New York to Paris, Berlin, Vienna or Petrograd, and greater than between Seattle and Tokio of Yokohama, was wonderful; but to send the recognized voice, part way over the wires and part through the air, was still more wonderful, and was the demonstration of the chiefest use that will probably attach to the wireless as amplifying and supplementing, not substituting the wire system and bring into communication ships, islands and places which could not otherwise be reached. Your work has brought us one long step nearer to our ideal—"A Universal System."

"As you will see from this," continued Mr. Vail, "it is clear that wireless will never substitute or supplant the wire systems but will greatly amplify and extend their usefulness. It is humanitarian rather than commercial but it is useful in that it makes conversation possible between places and moving objects that could not be connected by wire. As with wireless telegraphy, it will probably be dependable enough except as outlined above."

HEREFORD, TEXAS

Jones Bros. and Wilson's Shows Hereford Wednesday, Oct. 20

Unlike any other show ever presented, is Jones Bros. and Wilson's Trained Wild Animal Show, embracing the idea used by Hagenback's Wonder Zoo, which has had such a successful run at the Olympia in London this past winter, combined with a number of high class European Aerial, Acrobatic and Equine performances staged under canvas on the style of an American circus. Two rings, an elevated stage, and a large steel arena will be used for the presentation of these performances.

The performances will run to trained animal acts, both wild and domestic, including Peter Taylor and his 352,000 group of performing lions. This is said to be the largest and most sensational act of its kind before the public today. Miss Mabel and her blue ribbon winning high school horses. This daring horse woman has been a prime favorite at the Circus Shuman in Berlin, Germany, the past winter, and her horses are marvels both as to performances and perfect specimens of horse flesh.

Miss Zira, the girl with the leopards, a dainty bit of French femininity, whose fearless performance with eight of these ferocious beasts has duplicated her European success here in one season.

Mr. Frank Leonard's troop of educated Shetland ponies will be the delight of the children, and interesting to grown ups; 25 of these handsome Scotlands present drills and difficult military maneuvers with all the precision and skill of trained soldiers.

Herr Schilling's trained Bears are another European importation. Herr Schilling comes highly recommended by the press of Europe and the performances of his huge Siberian Grizzly bears range from comedy to sensationalism.

All the above acts are interwoven in a program with high class acrobatic and aerial performances, introducing 20 funny clowns. Two performances daily, afternoon at 2 o'clock, evening at 8.

Model 43

You Meet no Other Car Like It

In Model 43 the Olds Motor Works achieved what no other manufacturer has yet attempted. The car is unique, original, strikingly different from any other automobile under $1,500 to $2,000.

In increasing the wheelbase to 120 inches an increase in price would logically be expected, but the manufacturers have so arranged production and so provided for the purchase of materials that we can offer the car at $190.00 less than the preceding model.

Price of Model 43 $1,095 f.o.b. Lansing, Mich.

Demonstrations by appointment.

The Hereford Brand

B. F. GUTHRIE, Editor

Entered April 17, 1901, in the postoffice at Hereford, Texas, as Second-class mail matter. First number of the paper issued February 28, 1901, as the Hereford Reporter; first number of The Brand issued March 21, 1902.

Subscription Price $1.00 Per Year, Strictly in Advance

Any erroneous statement affecting the character or reputation of any individual or firm which may appear in The Brand, will be gladly corrected upon being brought to the attention of the publisher.

Our neighboring town of Childress put on a style show last week with living models.

Hereford puts on one every Sunday afternoon when the weather is favorable and with real live models, too.

An exchange makes the interesting statement that one of its citizens has gone to a well-known health resort for the benefit of the waters.

We are anxiously waiting to learn whether or not the waters have been benefitted.

William Hillstrom, poet and murderer, who was sentenced to be shot Oct. 16th, has been reprieved.

We're sorry for the Utah poet, and are thankful for his reprieve, but it isn't the first time people have felt like shooting a poet even before he committed murder.

The Clovis Journal came out last week with a big 24 page special edition that is a credit to that town and to the enterprise and business ability of the editor. They have set a standard for special editions that will be hard to excel. Both from the literary and mechanical sides it is a work of art.

The business men of Portales are apparently little troubled about the inroads of the mail order houses as they're employing similar tactics to those of those much talked of institutions, and letting people know that in Portales there are men who have the goods and want to sell them. The Portales News carried more well-gotten-up convincing advertising last week than is often found in papers of towns twice its size.

E. B. Lewis, of Hedley, was in Clarendon the past week on business, and called at the News office and left us a nice order for printed matter.—Clarendon News.

Another instance where the home printer was passed up. There was no excuse for this act, for we know full well that the printing office at Hedley is properly equipped to turn out most any class of work at prices to compete with those of Clarendon. Then how does a man expect his home paper to continue to talk for his home country, when work, the means by which the newspaper makes a living is sent out to other points to be printed. A poor principle of citizenship.—Memphis Democrat.

Over at Hereford the other day its citizens voted to fully equip a new school building. At the same election they voted to discontinue the Farm Demonstration work. The proper thing that they should have done would have been to vote bonds to equip the school building with an agricultural department and promote the farm demonstration work to its full worth. Perhaps the farmers of the Hereford country are expert farmers, and do not necessarily need the assistance of a farm demonstrator. If that be the case, then equip the school with agricultural tools and invite the farmers to come to the school and inject some of their knowledge into the young men that they may be better prepared for such work after their schooling has finished.—Memphis Democrat.

Judge R. Walker Hall, of the Court of Civil Appeals, Amarillo, is being boosted by many newspapers and other voters in this section of Texas to make the race for Justice of the Court of Criminal Appeals. The News feels quite sure that Mr. Hall would fill the position with honor to himself and his state, and hopes he may be induced to enter the contest—in which event our mite would be contributed toward his election. In this connection, however, it is a little interesting to note that some of those most urgent in their requests that he make the race were a short while ago predicting dire calamities for the political career of Walker Hall an account of the fact that he advocated the reelection of the former Court of Civil Appeals, who were antis, over the present Court, who are pros. Times do change.—Clarendon News.

The Brand's present management arrived on the scene too late to be informed in regard to the little matter of history referred to by the News, but it did get here in time to form the acquaintance of Judge R. Walker Hall, and it sure wants to put itself on record as being for Judge Hall first, last, and all the time.

There is absolutely no question as to his eminent fitness for the place from the standpoint of qualifications and experience and as to that much more important consideration, the man himself, it will take a mighty big man to measure up to the standard of Judge Hall. He is, first of all, a gentleman of the old school, dignified and courteous, then, he is the jovial, cordial, and interested friend with a smile that's a genuine tonic and germ destroyer, and again he is a living, positive, aggressive, moral force that is magnetic.

Here's to Judge Hall and may he be the winner.

BUFFALO BILL EDITION

The Amarillo Daily Panhandle, true to its well known habit of push and enterprise, got out a regular Buffalo Bill Edition on the occasion of that distinguished gentleman's appearance there last Saturday.

In it were several interviews from W. F. Cody himself as well as short accounts of some of his achievements in the days when he was wrestling the west from the Red Man.

The Panhandle people are getting out a good paper, and doing their full share to develop this country and attract settlers.

BOYS SHOULD LEARN TRADE

There is a potent lesson in the reason given by a Kansas judge for sentencing three young men to Leavenworth prison a few days ago. He sends them there, so he says, not for punishment, but to equip them for life by compelling them to learn a trade. He says they have had no adequate preparation for citizenship; were unable to do anything but common labor; that had they been familiar with some trade they would not have been tramping over the country and have drifted into crime. Be that as it may, it is a graphic lesson for parents. A father who leaves his boy nothing except the ability to earn an honest living and the right attitude toward work as the only legitimate means of getting a living has left him a royal heritage, while the parent whose child is dependent upon money, that is the product of some one's else's earning capacity has suffered a handicap for which nothing can compensate.

God pity the parent who is willing to let his boy secure his preparation for life in a penal institution, and thrice pity the boy who is allowed to think that to use money which he does not earn is to be either a thief or a beggar.

Millionaire Chocolate Maker Dead

William H. Baker, known far and wide, for his chocolate products, died, last Tuesday, at his home in Winchester, Va. He had been for years at the head of one of the largest wholesale grocery houses in the country. Starting on a small scale, and with limited resources, by industry enterprise, and business ability, he became a king in his line. He established the big Baker plant in Red Hook, N. Y., into which he put his life principle of honest values and superior products, and though competition came aplenty, Baker's Chocolate is a household word.

William H. Baker furnishes a striking example of the success which follows taking hold of the present, near-at-hand opportunity. Born in Winchester, he lived there all of his life, finding his chance in his immediate surroundings, while others were seeking wider fields with more alluring prospects, and he reaped richly because of his integrity and industry. He is known not for the fortune which he had amassed, but for the excellency of his products.

In his death the country lost a really great man, great because of his genuine usefulness to the world not alone in a material way, but in his splendid example of worthy ends attained by worthy living.

Rev. R. E. L. Farmer accompanied his cousin, little Miss Lona Hacker to Miami Monday, returned Wednesday. The Hacker family are moving to Miami where, Mr. Hacker has already gone and where he is employed as a baker. The rest of the family will go this week.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Johnson of Independence, Mo., spent last week here with Mr. Johnson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Johnson.

They were enroute from an extended trip through the west having visited Denver, Salt Lake City and the expositions.

John Hildebrand his daughter and son, of Trenon, Mo., are visiting the family of E. Renfro, in South Hereford. They are returning from a visit to the expositions and took this opportunity of making a visit here. Mr. Hildebrand is a brother-in-law of Mrs. Renfro.

Cut It Out

Solemnly knit your brow, stroke your beard and assume an attitude of profound thought, then grimly grasp the scalping scalpel in your tried and trusted right hand and without fear or falter part the hair-side growth and make the incision with professional ceremony.

Cutting through the outer integument, subcuticle and periosteum trephine, right down to the gray matter.

Now slowly and skillfully raise the flap and there, exposed to your gaze, and rebelling at your intrusion lies the militant matter.

Right here your determination asserts itself and you securely seize and forever remove the erroneous idea that we cannot give you the finest garments, the choicest fabrics and the best satisfaction at reasonable prices. Orr's Tailor Shop.

Notice

We wish to thank our many customers for their patronage and to assure them that we appreciate their confidence.

To those who haven't found it convenient to give us a trial we wish to say that we would like to number them among our customers.

We are now gathering family washing all over the city of Hereford on Monday and delivering same on Wednesday in time to be sprinkled Wednesday night and then ironed Thursday morning. To the best of our information this has never been done so extensively in this city in so few hours time.

We can gather your family washing later in the week—Tuesday, Wednesday or Thursday, and get it back promptly. Of course we do shirt and collar work for at least the first four days of the week and sometimes on the fifth. We have the latest machinery for giving the domestic finish, without the old fashioned shine, to shirts and collars, and we are turning them out finely finished.

The number of our "dinner pails" is increasing and will continue to increase as you give us more business. These "dinner pails" are filled by the different business houses, hotels and boarding houses of Hereford, so when you send us business you also benefit yourselves. Then inasmuch, as we will do your washing and ironing as cheap or cheaper than you can do the work at home, you will certainly both make and save money by sending us your business.

We have the latest machinery that will wash, wring and iron your clothes by STEAM with much less wear than by washboard, ordinary wringer and sad iron. It is impossible to burn or scorch your goods with steam, while coal, gasoline or electric heat will do so.

We invite the public, especially the ladies, to visit us and inspect our plant at any and all times.

Phone 246 and our auto will be at your service.

Just Little Things

The little, common things of life—
A kindly word, a little trust,
A friendly smile amidst the strife
That crushes souls into the dust;

Or music for a weary heart—

But, ah, the sweetness they impart!

An interesting meeting of the C. W. B. M. was held Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. B. Dameron. The regular program was devoted exclusively to reports and talks pertaining to the Los Angeles Convention. Mrs. J. E. Ferguson and Miss Beulah Wright gave most helpful and interesting talks, not only on the C. W. B. M. work, but upon many other lines of church work made prominent at the convention. Both these ladies were privileged to attend the convention, and spoke from the viewpoint of the master minds of the church, making their talks not only rich in information, but in inspiration as well.

A social hour followed, in which several musical and literary numbers were given, including readings by Mrs. Chas. Pratt and Avis Wilson, and a solo by Mrs. Baird. Refreshments of sandwiches, chocolate and cake, were served by the hostess, assisted by Mesdames Wheeler and C. R. Smith.

The S. W. P. Club met Friday, October 1st, with Mrs. R. E. Dixon as hostess. The leader, Mrs. Pat Thompson being absent, Mrs. Bob Higgins took charge of the devotional lesson, which was the study of Bible questions, fifteen being studied at each lesson—twelve hundred in all. Plans were discussed for the winter months, a circulating library being organized. Mrs. Ewell Read was elected librarian.

After the business was dispensed with, the guests were ushered into the dining room, where a delicious luncheon, consisting of chicken à la King, candied potatoes, giblet gravy, tomatoes, French dressing, fresh peaches, whipped cream, cake and tea, was served.

The next meeting will be October 15, with Mrs. Kirkman, as hostess, and Mrs. Dixon, leader.

Family Reunion

The country home of Mr. J. A. Hasser, northeast of town, has been the scene of many delightful festivities, during the past two weeks, in honor of the home-coming of several of the children, whose homes are now in distant states, and particularly for Mr. Henry Hasser, who has just returned from Currie, Minnesota, with his bride, a former, popular young lady of that city. They are making an extensive honeymoon trip, coming here, from Roswell, where they spent several days. Besides these are Mr. and Mrs. Datzman and sons, Richard and Robert, of Kentland, Indiana; Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Weller and children, and Mr. and Mrs. Aloysius Hasser, of Bay City, Michigan.

The party is being largely entertained as they have a wide circle of friends here. They, with Miss Lora Hasser, went to Clovis, Tuesday, and enjoyed the fair and the circus.

The hospitality of the home of Dr. and Mrs. H. D. Rucker, about fourteen miles northwest of town, was extended to several friends on Thursday, in honor of the resident ministers of Hereford. After an exhilarating motor trip, the party reached the inviting home and were warmly welcomed by Mr. and Mrs. Rucker. Dinner was served at the noon hour and just such a dinner as hungry men most enjoy—all the substantial and—all the delicacies. Chicken formed the piece de resistance, as is usual when preachers are to be served, and vegetables, salads, pickles and all the good things found in

Mr. and Mrs. Rucker have traveled extensively in Europe, and their home contains many interesting souvenirs, the history of which helped to make an hour pass most pleasantly. Before starting for a tour of the large well-kept ranch, Mr. J. I. Walker gave an original and unique toast to the host, and Rev. Crutchfield gave some enjoyable readings from a book of poems which he is the author. After inspecting the excellent barns and out buildings, all freshly painted and a fine new tenant house, they were privileged—and it was a privilege—to see the fine herd of Herefords owned by Mr. Rucker.

Those who shared the pleasures of this delightful outing, were Dr. G. A. Faris, Rev. Crutchfield of Chicago, Rev. W. M. Baker, Rev. R. E. L. Farmer, Rev. J. R. Henson, Rev. O. E. Schmidt, Henry Wilkinson, J. I. Walker and B. F. Guthrie.

Home Economic Club

The Home Economic Club met Monday, Oct. 4th, at 4:30 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. W. G. Ross. The attendance, though not large is encouraging. The following officers were elected: Miss Lora Kibbe, president; Miss Charlotte Mooney, vice president; Miss Ruby Williams secretary, and Maud Smith, press reporter. Much enthusiasm was exhibited by the girls, and the work of the coming months was discussed.

The next meeting will be Wednesday, October 13, at Mrs. U. G. Ross's residence. All girls cordially invited to attend.

TALK BY WIRELESS TO HONOLULU, H. I.

A CONVERSATION TRANSMITTED OVER DISTANCE OF FORTY-SIX HUNDRED MILES.

SECOND SUCCESSFUL TEST

Came After Talk Without Aid of Wires From the Atlantic to the Pacific.

New York.—The human voice has bridged the North American continent and without the use of wires. Intelligible sound has been projected through the ether and words spoken in an ordinary tone in New York have reached waiting ears at San Francisco. Beyond all this the official announcement has been made that the distance between Washington and Honolulu, four thousand six hundred miles, has been annihilated by the wireless telephone as perfected by J. J. Carty, chief engineer for the American Telephone & Telegraph company. Telephone communication between New York and any of the great capitals of Europe and even across the Pacific ocean from Seattle to Tokio is now altogether possible, depending upon the installation of apparatus.

The same engineers to whom credit for this achievement in the art of communicating intelligence by electricity, has been accorded, at the same time have announced another wonderful discovery. In the experiment by which the voice was carried between New York and San Francisco, words passed by land wires between New York and Arlington, Va., and from there, as if projected from the loose ends of the copper strands, were sent into the air to be wafted across the plains and valleys, the towering peaks of giant mountain ranges and the deserts, to be picked up again by the slender antennae of the wireless tower at Mare Island navy yard and carried to the waiting ear at a telephone receiver.

This strongly indicates the possibility by which people living inland may call friends who happen to be passengers on ships at sea, as voices are carried over present land lines to some central station along the coast, and there automatically passed into a radio transmitter and projected over the ocean to a moving object and finally to the one who may be designated to receive the message sent by such wonderful ways.

Considerable Time.

Engineers of the American Telephone & Telegraph company have been engaged, during a considerable time, in perfecting the wireless telephone. To make possible the accomplishment recently recorded, it was necessary, it is stated, to apply radically new ideas to the generally accepted theories of wireless telegraphy. At first temporary towers at Mentauk Point, L. I., and Wilmington, Del., served the purpose. Afterwards the government loaned its wireless towers at Arlington, near Washington, and at Mare Island, near San Francisco, to the work. Panama and points in Cuba were also brought into the experiment. The wireless station at Pearl Harbor, Hawaii, was also equipped with necessary telephone apparatus. Obstacles after obstacle were finally overcome.

Seated in his office in New York, J. J. Carty, chief engineer of the Telephone & Telegraph company, who authorized the experimental work, spoke the first words to travel, part by wire and part by wireless, to San Francisco. He called J. J. Carty, under whose direction the work was done and who was waiting on the Pacific coast, to participate in the final test.

"Hello, Carty," the talk started, "this is Mr. Vail."

Even Mr. Carty was surprised, so clearly and distinctly did the words reach him.

"This is fine," he exclaimed, "this is wonderful."

Army and Navy Take Part.

Representatives of the United States government, of the army and the navy, joined in the demonstration, talking across the continent without the use of wires. Words spoken in this way were repeated back by the transcontinental land telephone lines, opened last January, and the proof was conclusive. Secretary of the Navy Daniels, who had loaned government equipment to the prosecution of the experiment, issued a formal statement, announcing the achievement and placing the government's stamp of appreciation upon the marvelous accomplishment.

Talked to Panama Aug. 27.

Vallejo, Cal.—Wireless telephone communication between Washington, D. C., and the Panama canal, a distance of 2,100 miles, was established Aug. 27, but public announcement was withheld until the greater goal—transcontinental communication—could be reached. This statement was made by Chief Engineer John J. Carty after the conversation in the wireless tower at the Mare Island navy yard with Theodore N. Vail, president, who was speaking from New York.

Revigorating to the Pale and Sickly
The Old Standard general strengthening tonic, GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC, drives out Malaria, enriches the blood, and builds up the system. A true tonic. For adults and children. 50c.

Can You Beat This?

Mr. R. G. Sisk, one of Hereford's good citizens that combines home-gardening as a side line with other business, brought to this office last week a parsnip that weighed twelve pounds, also a parsnip that measured over three feet from tip to tip, and was big in circumference as well.

If this country will raise such beets without half trying, what will it do in the sugar beet line when these irrigated farms get to raising sugar beets, and there is a half million dollar factory right here in Hereford, and this irrigated land is worth $200 per acre?

A pipe dream you say? Well, such things have happened in Colorado, where conditions are not so favorable as here.

Wheat Growers Attention

All farmers wanting "Miracle Wheat" can get it through H. B. Webb local distributor who will take your order for immediate delivery. This wonderful wheat has been thoroughly tested on the Plains and in Okla. and has proven a great producer and is hardy, and on account of its heavy stooling is not easily blown out or frozen out, standing the cold weather well making it very valuable for winter pasture.

BETTER CONSTRUCTION AT LOWER COST

STUDY THESE CUTS

Why Interlocking Tile is so Widely Used

For many years the public—you—has needed a building material that would be better than anything heretofore in use, and at the same time be within the reach of all in cost.

Interlocking Tile is being used from New England to the Pacific Slope, from the Great Lakes to the Gulf of Mexico, because it is filling this demand. In Texas every section is using this material for every class of building, it being more especially adapted to our climate than any other.

Nothing can compare with a material that builds fireproof walls that are cooler in summer, warmer in winter, stronger and more rigid, and at the same time cheaper than brick. Interlocking Tile does this.

Just why these apparently impossible, "too-good-to-be-true" things are so is fully explained in our literature, government reports, etc. Write for this data and information now, even if you do not intend to build until later. You will be well repaid.

Tuberculosis Among Alaskan Indians Has Been Laid at the Door of the "Paleface."

The great prevalence of all forms of tuberculosis among the Alaskan Indians, as proved by a report by Dr. Emil Krullish, is explained by the Journal of the American Medical Association as follows:

"Tuberculosis is a comparatively new infection among Indians, bestowed upon them by the benevolent paleface along with firewater and certain other blessings of civilization. Among these blessings must probably be counted scarlet fever, measles, influenza, whooping cough and diphtheria. Not yet possessing the racial immunity which it takes many generations to acquire, the poor Indian suffers from them in greater degree than does the white, and more frequently dies of them. Then there are the overcrowding and the unsanitary conditions prevailing in most of the homes of tuberculosis sufferers; while at least this much good arises from their misfortune that after the disease is well developed in them its progress (unless they are well cared for) is rapid, and death removes what would otherwise remain a menacing focus of infection."

Tuberculosis was one of the chief causes of the dying out of the Indians all over North America.

Two Famous Names.

"Thomas Atkins" is a newcomer compared with "Jack Tar" of the senior service. "Jack Tar" as a nickname for a sailor is first recorded in 1786, but sailors were known as "tars" for more than a hundred years before that. The name already appears in literature in the latter half of the seventeenth century. "Tar" may be short for "tarpaulin." Sailors were called "tarpaulins" early in the seventeenth century. Tarpaulin, of course, is canvas tarred to make it waterproof, and the sailors' hat made of that material, something like a sou'-wester, was called a tarpaulin. However that may be, British sailors have been "honest tars," "jolly tars" and "gallant tars" for 200 years. There is more steel and oil about a modern battleship than tarry rope, perhaps, but probably Jack will remain Jack Tar for another hundred years yet.—Manchester Guardian.

First English Newspaper.

The first newspaper printed in the English language, with its old English type and its quaint account of events in foreign countries, was a pamphlet issued in 1621. Its title, "Corrant or Nevves from Italie, Germanie, France, and other places," is as curious as its contents. For many years it had been supposed that no copy of the Corrant was in existence, but recently a copy of this interesting document was discovered.

Bully Engaged.

"That boy of mine is mighty resourceful," said the proud father. "He makes a terrible racket," replied the man next door. "Yes. He has the whooping cough." "But he couldn't cough all the time." "No. That's why I had to give him my automobile horn to play with."

OUR PUBLIC FORUM

R. C. Duff
On Cotton As Contraband.

Hon. R. C. Duff, one of the highest authorities on International law in the nation and one of the most capable citizens in the United States, when asked to investigate the exporting of cotton and interpret the laws of nations on this subject for the American plowman, said in part:

"Article 28 of the Declaration of London reads as follows: 'The following may not be declared contraband of war: (1) raw cotton, wool, silk, etc.' Great Britain is not only a signatory of the Declaration of London, but in fact called the conference and insisted upon the inclusion of raw cotton on the list of absolute non-contraband. Under this declaration, which was subscribed to by all the maritime nations, we have a right absolutely to ship cotton, not only to neutral ports of Europe, but to Germany and Austria themselves. Humanity shudders at the thought of the death of the splendid Americans who went down on the Lusitania, but humanity would have more cause for shuddering if it could have presented to it in some similarly striking and dramatic way the woe, sorrow and suffering that will be occasioned to multiplied thousands of men, women and children in the Southern states as a result of cotton being forced down to starvation prices.

The reason why cotton does not command 18 or 20 cents per pound is simply because Great Britain has a naval strangle hold on our shipments and, therefore, on the world supply. England sends her ships of war out into the open seas, captures American cotton, no matter to whom the same may be destined, carries it into British ports, sets up prize courts of her own nomination, which prize courts, of course, are operating in her favor and which, under such circumstances, after whatever delay they elect to impose, assess the damages of the American shipper at whatever price they see fit and then, after having by such process 'bought' our cotton, she avails herself of the extraordinary high prices existing on the continent of Europe, produced in part by her diversion of our shipments, to resell it at a profit. The American shipper has no recourse except to the government. The acts of Great Britain referred to, according to the well-recognized principle of International law constitute war against the United States.

This grievance is now of many months standing and the South is about to bring to market another great crop of cotton. Under such circumstances one would expect that our government, without prompting, would know perfectly well how to deal with acts on the part of the British government, amounting to warfare against our trade and country.

It is not necessary for us to resort to war against Great Britain in retaliation. A simple, adequate and obvious remedy would be for the president to advise Great Britain that unless she respects the law of nations as regards our foreign commerce, he will call on Congress to adopt a resolution forbidding the exportation of arms and munitions of war to foreign countries.

CALOMEL WHEN BILIOUS? NO! STOP MAKES YOU SICK AND SALIVATE!

"Dodson's Liver Tone" Is Harmless To Clean Your Sluggish Liver and Bowels.

Ugh! Calomel makes you sick. It's horrible! Take a dose of the dangerous drug tonight and tomorrow you may lose a day's work. Calomel is mercury or quicksilver which causes necrosis of the bones. Calomel, when it comes into contact with sour bile crashes into it, breaking it up. This is when you feel that awful nausea and cramping. If you are sluggish and "all knocked out," if your liver is torpid and bowels constipated or you have headache, dizziness, coated tongue, if breath is bad or stomach sour, just try a spoonful of harmless Dodson's Liver Tone tonight on my guarantee.

Here's my guarantee—Go to any drug store and get a 50 cent bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't straighten you right up and make you feel fine and vigorous, I want you to go back to the store and get your money. Dodson's Liver Tone is destroying the sale of calomel because it is real liver medicine; entirely vegetable, therefore it can't salivate or make you sick. I guarantee that one spoonful of Dodson's Liver Tone will put your sluggish liver to work and clean your bowels of that sour bile and constipated waste which is clogging your system and making you feel miserable. I guarantee that a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone will keep your entire family feeling fine for months. Give it to your children. It is harmless; doesn't gripes and they like its pleasant taste.

In Iceland

MOST of us are inclined to associate Iceland with the Eskimo and the reindeer. That is what makes the news of a shipment of Texaco Oils to Reikjavik, Iceland, interesting.

This shipment included a quantity of Texaco Motor Oil, showing how far the automobile has gone to the very rim of civilization, and giving some idea of the extent of Texaco Service.

We are told that Icelanders are careful buyers. They have to be, for it is a long time between boats, and should any mechanical trouble arise, they would have a serious wait for parts or repairs.

That is why they buy Texaco Motor Oil and other lubricants to keep their engines in top-notch condition, and as free from wear as possible.

These same qualities will aid in the efficient operation of your automobile, tractor, ice machine, separator, or any other kind of machine.

The Texaco Agent in your town is ready to serve you.
