"Media Day" here Wednesday.

Area newspaper, radio and television reporters had opportunities to learn about the industry, get pictures of beet harvesting and processing, and interview Holly and TSBGA officials at the Media Day program. The group went to the Nick Yosten farm west of town to see how the beets are harvested.

Bill Cleavinger, a Wildorado farmer and president of TSBGA, said last year's disastrous season--when $10 million worth of beets were left in the ground--did not affect this year's efforts. Both he and Dennis Printz, Holly ag manager, pointed to the teamwork between the company and growers as a key.

"We're seeing yields that are averaging more than 23 tons per acre and sugar content that is surpassing 14.5 percent," says Printz. If the good weather continues, this year's crop could be harvested by the end of November.

Last year, the temperature dropped to zero on Oct. 31 and cut the harvest short. The last time something like that happened was in 1969, pointed out Cleavinger.

Harvest is being conducted on a limited basis at this time, with

But history is on the Arkansas governor's side: no modern candidate has lost the election with as big a lead this close to Election Day - now just 19 days away.

The latest CBS-New York Times poll, published today, showed that Bush's attacks on Clinton's credibility weren't changing voters' minds. The poll gave Clinton 47 percent, Bush 34 percent and Ross Perot 10 percent in its survey of 854 registered voters. That's unchanged from a CBS-Times poll conducted 10 days ago. The poll had a margin of error of plus or minus 3 percentage points.

Perot's against-the-odds candidacy likely was derailed a bit by running mate James Stockdale's unsteady showing in the vice presidential contest, but even analysts who discount Perot as serious force in the race say tonight's more relaxed format could help the Texas businessman.

Clinton's task was to defend his lead without appearing too overconfident or cautious, and Democrats said they expected Bush to pick up where Vice President Dan Quayle left off Tuesday night: savaging Clinton's trustworthiness and casting the Democrat as an eager taxer.

'We assume that's what he will do, but it doesn't get you votes," said Clinton's communications director George Stephanopoulos. "You can't win an election simply by tearing your opponent down with smears and distortions. But Bush can't defend his record and he can't offer a vision for the future.'

Republicans and some other analysts praised Quayle's performance Tuesday night in Atlanta for landing repeated blows to Clinton on the credibility issue.

Homecoming royalty attendants named

Hereford's Homecoming king and queen will be crowned at the annual Homecoming pep rally on Friday afternoon at the HHS gym.

"The Movies" is the theme for homecoming, which will include the annual parade and, for the first time in about 26 years, a homecoming dance at the HHS gym following Friday's Randall vs. Hereford football game.

Seniors on the royal court include Emily Fuston, Tiffanie Dewbre and Melissa Celaya, queen candidates; and Joey Garcia, Eric Sims and Victor Diaz, king candidates. Class representatives serving as attendants on the court include freshmen Crystal Mercer and Marquise Brown; sophomores Brooke Bryant and Gregg Kalka; and juniors Rosie Davila and Hayden Andrews. The royalty will be crowned at the pep rally at 2:15 p.m. Friday.

Student Council will sponsor the annual parade after the pep rally. There will be no parade judging. The parade will feature the HHS and HJH bands, among other attractions.

The homecoming dance is open to current HHS students and exes. Boots may be worn, but the soles will be covered with duct tape.

Cutting back on coffee? Study shows caffeine has a significant impact on us

Gov. Ann Richards said the proposal "may be the single most important reform that the Board of Insurance has considered to make insurance more accessible and more affordable to the people of the state of Texas.'

The insurance industry criticized the board's decision. Jerry Johns of the Southwest Insurance Information Service, said the cost for the state to collect independent data would be expensive, and eventually passed on to the policyholders.

'This is the kind of needless effort that can result in higher insurance rates for every Texas driver," he

He also said a recent state audit found nothing wrong with the data the industry gave the Insurance Board.

"Consumers in Texas just paid $2.4 million for a similar effort that indicated the data is accurate. They will now be forced to pay millions more to duplicate the effort which no doubt will prove the same thing," he

Weaver portrays "Vicente Pinzon"

In conjunction with the observance of the 500th anniversary of the discovery of America by Christopher Columbus, Joe Weaver, assistant director of Deaf Smith County Library, has been giving presentations portraying "Vicente Pinzon", captain of the Nina. He entertained members of La Madre Mia Study Club when they met recently in the home of Tricia Sims.

of the discovery of America by Christopher Columbus, La Madre a gift from the library. Mia Study Club heard an entertaining and informative program Thursday evening, Oct. 8, as Joe Weaver presented "Vicente Pinzon, captain of the Nina. The group met in the home of Tricia Sims.

Appearing in the costume of a 15th century mariner and speaking in the first person, Weaver, who is the assistant director of Deaf Smith County Library, delivered a monologue as one of Columbus' captains on the voyage of discovery. "Pinzon" related events leading up the historic landfall, including a sketch of Columbus' early life and selfeducation, his vision of finding a new route to the Indies, the eventual patronage of Ferdinand and Isabella and highlights of the voyage. Points were brought out about the discoverer's faith, perseverance and abilities as a sailor.

A question and answer period followed the monologue in which Weaver discussed the size of the ship and life on board, the results of the discovery and recent attacks on Columbus. He related that his interest in the voyage began with a visit to the Nina replica, and his presentation was embellished with posters, books, a model of the ship, and a "hands-on" display of items exclusive to the Old and New Worlds

Cornelius plans to attend Homecoming this year

By JAY PEDEN Sports Editor

As a football coach, Alan Cornelius hasn't been able to make many homecomings.

The 1973 graduate of Hereford High School will be there this year, though. He's in his first year as head coach of the Randall Raiders, Hereford's opponent for Homecoming Friday. T've always wanted to come back to homecoming, but not particularly in this manner," Cornelius said. "It's a big game for both, and we're glad were in a position to play.'

Cornelius, who came over from Class 3A Denver City, has been successful in his first year at the Raider helm. Randall is 4-1, with only a 28-20 loss at Lamesa between the Raiders and perfection.

He said he is proud of how his players have handled the coaching change. He gave some of the credit to some former Hereford coaches.

Wartes, Coach (Don) Cumpton, Coach (Larry) Dippel. Those guys had a lot of influence on me," he said.

Quite often, a school will schedule a weak team to be its Homecoming Caprock. opponent to try to assure a win, but Hereford doesn't have that in Cornelius and the Raiders. However, Cornelius is careful about what he says about the prospects of Homecoming being ruined.

We're glad we're in this situation, and we think we'll be competitive,"

That is understatement. His team-particularly the offense--has the talent to be more than just competitive. He's got quarterback Brandon Barker, the Class 4A Coverboy in Dave Campbell's Texas Football who threw for more than 2,000 yards last year. He threw for 316 yards in last year's 26-25 upset of Hereford.

In Cornelius' run-oriented system,

"That goes back to Coach (Larry) Barker is still a weapon to be feared, and Sims has the power. You'll see success through the year running the but so is powerful running back Travis Sims and quick running back Tim Cox. Both exceeded 100 yards in last week's 47-22 pasting of > "They've got a lot more balanced attack," Herd coach Danny Haney said. "They've got two great running backs in Sims and Cox: Cox has the speed to the right place. He's had a lot of them lined up in different positions all night.

That's what they want to do--run the ball--but they'll sure keep you off balance with the pass," Haney said.

"Sims is probably as good a running back as we've faced," he said. "Barker is as good as there is at releasing the ball, scrambling and getting the ball offense.

Randall's defense is not as good as the offense, but the offense is usually good enough to cover up for the defense's shortcomings.

The key for us is to develop some kind of ball-control, and score with that ball control. Not just make first downs, but score," Haney said. "(We need) to keep our defense off the field as much as we can.'

The Herd has more reasons than usual to up for a game. First, it's homecoming. Second, Randall won last year and played in the playoffs while the Herd stayed home.

"Hereford is picked to beat Randall by 20 points, according to the Harris Rating System.

That may be a typographical error on Harris' part, though. Hereford is ranked 73rd in Class 4A with a Harris power rating of 175. Randall is ranked 92nd with a rating of 171. Harris usually picks a spread which is approximately equal to the difference between the two teams' ratings, which in this case is four points. Sometimes Harris adjusts for the home team, but not as much as 16

Hereford (4-2) is no longer the highest ranked team in District 1-4A. Pampa got its first win of the season Friday in Dumas and vaulted to 57th with a rating of 180. Dumas (2-4) is ranked 84th with a rating of 172.

Both Pampa and Dumas are picked to win big this week. Pampa is 29point favorite against Caprock in Amarillo. Dumas is favored by 14 at Borger (0-6) and Caprock (2-4) bring up the rear in Class 4A. Out of 173 teams, Caprock is 156th and Borger is 161st. Caprock's rating is 153; Borger's is 150.

Undefeated Plainview is now ranked seventh in 4A with a 194

SWC commissioner Jacoby announces he'll step down

Garza among Players of the Week

Ramiro Garza was honored along with three others as a player of the week. Linemen Garza and Craig Hiltbrunner got the award on offense, while tackle Steven Blea and cornerback Cody Powell has led the Southwest Conference through some of the most difficult will step down as commissioner effective June 30.

were honored for their defensive work.

The announcement Wednesday followed widespread speculation that he would retire at a Nov. 5 meeting with university presidents.

Jacoby, 65, who may continue to serve the SWC as a consultant, said he won't have a role in selecting his successor. He succeeded Cliff Speegle in 1982.

Jacoby, the league's fourth commissioner, presided during 42 of the SWC's 60 national championships in 13 sports.

But much of his tenure was marked by struggle. During the late 1980s, seven of nine men's athletic departments had football or basketball programs on probation for NCAA rules violations.

"The Southwest Conference has made significant and meaningful adjustments and improvements during the past 10 years," Jacoby said.

"The conference is on the verge of moving to a higher level of respect and competition, provided there is total commitment and unified effort of working together by all member institutions.

A native of Logan, Ohio, Jacoby earned degrees from Ohio State and the University of Wisconsin-Madison. He has served as chair of the National Letter of Intent Program for the longest span in history, beginning in 1973 and continuing through his resignation next year.

He negotiated the initial contract with Raycom Sports for SWC

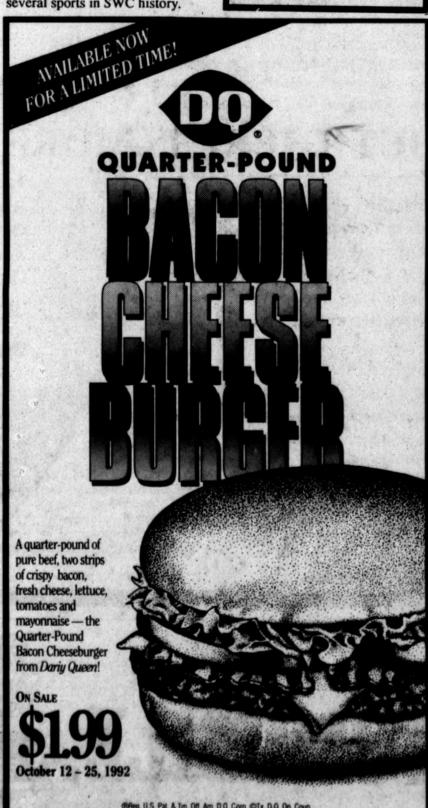

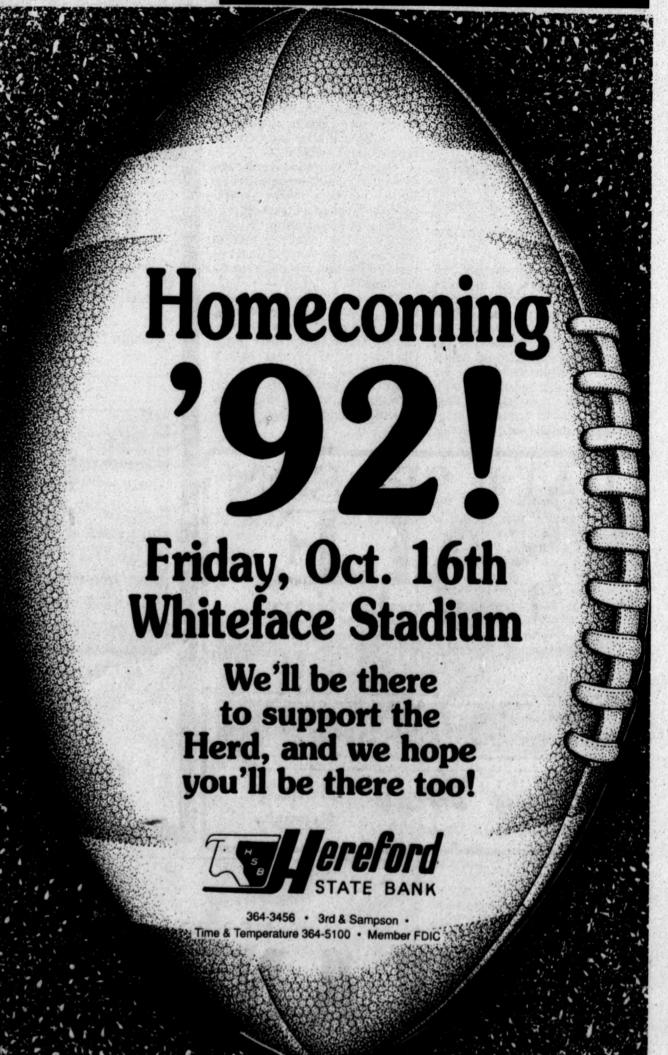

DALLAS (AP) - Fred Jacoby, who football and basketball syndication in 1984, helped seal a pact with Raycom and Home Sports Entertaintimes in its 78-year history, says he ment in 1989 to produce the greatest exposure and television revenue in several sports in SWC history.

9th inning miracle sends Braves to World Series comparison is with the great ones. Nothing less gives this its due.

There weren't even any words for awhile, only primal screams and hysterical jumps on one side, blank stares and open mouths on the other.

Atlanta's 3-2 pennant-winning victory over Pittsburgh in Game 7 of the NL playoffs Wednesday night was what the wonder of baseball is all about: How a team can go from choker to champion in one swing of

"I've never been part of something that went from down there to up here so quick," Braves left fielder Ron Gant said. "I was hyperventilating. I thought I was going to have a heart attack. I never dreamed of anything like this."

Neither did the Pirates. No

They led 2-1 with two outs in the ninth inning, one measly little out from their first World Series since 1979. They were about to become were broken, finished, kaput. Well, not quite.

Francisco Cabrera, a 26-year-old catcher from the Dominican Republic whose major league season in 1992 consisted of 10 pinch-hit at-bats, whited out those history books before the ink had dried. He drove a single to left with the bases loaded, and Sid Bream's slide past catcher Mike LaValliere's tag gave Atlanta its second straight pennant and sent the Pirates to their record-tying third playoff loss in three years.

Bobby Thomson. Bill Mazeroski.

some on the names in the club Cabrera has joined. Who would have believed it?

"I'm still in shock," Pirates only the eighth team to overcome a manager Jim Leyland said about a 3-1 postseason deficit. The Braves half-hour after it ended. "I felt like the game was ours."

Not quite. It's the Braves who will play Toronto in the first international World Series. Tom Glavine will start for the Braves, probably against Jack Morris, when the Series opens Saturday night in Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium.

Pittsburgh led 2-0 against John Smoltz on Orlando Merced's sacrifice fly in the first and Andy Van Slyke's RBI single in the sixth. Doug Drabek had a five-hitter going into the ninth, escaping a bases-loaded, no-outs jam

ATLANTA (AP) - The only nightmare could have been this cruel. Carlton Fisk. Kirk Gibson. Those are in the sixth and a two-on jam in the seventh.

This time, he couldn't dodge the tomahawks in the Chop Shop. Terry Pendleton, just 1 for 21 left-handed in the series, opened the ninth with a double down the right field line. The crowd sensed the chance for something big.

David Justice hit a grounder to second baseman Jose Lind, who made just six errors all season. This time, Lind couldn't handle it, and Justice reached on the error as Pendleton

"Chico makes that play 10 out of 10 times," Leyland said. "He's a Gold Glove fielder, but what can you

Only that Drabek clearly was pitching on fumes. He walked Bream, loading the bases, and was pulled after 129 pitches on three days' rest. "Drabek pitched his heart out," said Smoltz, the Most Valuable Player of the series. In came Stan Belinda, who passes for the Pirates' closer. He blew six of 24 save chances during the season; the Pirates' bullpen blew 20 chances

He started out by retiring Gant barely. Gant hit a drive that Barry Bonds caught in front of the fence in left as Pendleton tagged and scored. That made it 2-1.

'I tell you what. When we had the bases loaded and Ronnie's fly drove in that one run, there was still some doubt," Bream said.

And that doubt remained for a little bit. Belinda walked Damon Berryhill, and the chanting, chopping fans went into a frenzy. Brian Hunter, batting for Rafael Belliard, popped to Lind in short right, and now there was one out to go. Up came Cabrera, batting for pitcher Jeff Reardon.

"I was on my knees praying," reliever Marvin Freeman remembered. "I was saying, 'Please, Francisco, please. Don't wait until tomorrow. We can't wait."

Belinda fell behind 2-0 on Cabrera. The tension was incalculable.

Cabrera drove a single into left field. Justice scored. Bream rounded third. In came the throw from Bonds. Bream slid to the foul side of La Valliere's tag. The call by umpire Randy Marsh:

"I made the pitch I wanted to make and he got me," Belinda said. "I gave it the best I had. It was a fastball down a little bit. Hopefully I'll have a chance to do it over again."

Jays bring World Series to Canada

TORONTO (AP) - The World Series is coming to Canada. The monkey that clung to the Toronto Blue Jays' back is leaving.

An international cast of stars led by Roberto Alomar and Juan Guzman brought the ultimate battle of America's national pastime outside the United States for the first time in its 90-year history.

And after seven years in which three AL East titles led to no World Series visits, the Blue Jays finally shed the stigma of big-game losers.

They did it by shelling Oakland's pitchers for 13 hits and beating the Athletics 9-2 Wednesday to win the AL playoffs, four games to two.

The Border War begins Saturday night in Atlanta, then comes to Toronto for Game 3 next Tuesday.

"The people here wanted a World Series, and we gave it to them," Alomar said. "I wasn't here when people said we choked, we choked, we choked. Everybody said we would choke at the end, but we didn't."

Alomar, from Puerto Rico, was the series MVP. He went 11 for 26 and drove in Toronto's final run in the eighth inning Wednesday. His 20 hits in consecutive playoff series is an AL record. Guzman, from the Dominican Republic, allowed just one run and five hits in seven innings as he won on three days rest.

Devon White, born in Jamaica, set the tone by leading off the bottom of the first with a lazy fly ball down the left field line that Rickey Henderson dropped for a two-base error. White scored on Joe Carter's homer, giving

Toronto a 2-0 lead in the first. Candy Maldonado, another native of Puerto Rico, added a three-run homer that made the score 6-0 in the

And another Canadian import -Cito Gaston, the much-maligned, mild-mannered manager from Texas - became the first black manager to reach the World Series.

'We took our shots, but they did what they had to to be champions," Oakland manager Tony La Russa said. "The better team won. They did more things right than we did."

La Russa's team will have a new look next season as he faces the prospect of losing some of his 15 potential free agents.

The Jays, the team with the reputation of being chokers, breathed easier when Carter homered off Mike Moore, who had been 5-1 in SkyDome before losing both his playoff starts. The windpipes widened still more in the third when Alomar singled and stole second.

Dave Winfield was walked intentionally, and Alomar scored on John Olerud's ground-rule double. Maldonado then drove his three-run shot 424 feet to clear the right-center field fence.

Toronto built its seventh run in the fifth on singles by Olerud and Maldonado, a sacrifice bunt by Kelly Gruber and a sacrifice fly by Pat

Getting an early lead "made all the difference," said Guzman, who could pitch without fear of making one mistake that would cost Toronto the game. Terry Steinbach got Oakland's first hit leading off the fifth, and the A's got their first run on consecutive singles by Ruben Sierra, Harold Baines and Mark McGwire, making the score 7-1 in the sixth.

While Toronto starters Jack Morris and David Cone struggled in Games 4 and 5 while pitching on three days rest, Guzman showed no signs of fatigue after his 7-5 win in Game 3 on Saturday.

"I felt great. I felt great the whole time," said Guzman, who won both his playoff starts. "My slider, my changeup, everything was fine. I feel even better than last time."

He struck out eight and walked two before being replaced by reliever Duane Ward in the eighth.

The A's nicked Ward for a run on a double by Baines, Oakland's leading playoff hitter with 11 hits in 25 at-bats, and Steinbach's single.

But the Blue Jays finished with a flourish, scoring twice in the eighth on a walk to Borders, Manuel Lee's double, White's sacrifice fly and Alomar's single.

With runners at first and second and two outs in the ninth against Tom Henke, Sierra hit a high popup near the line in medium left field. Maldonado clutched it, was hugged by Lee, and the celebration was on.

"Homecoming is always a big game," Haney said. "It has been our tradition to play hard. Our tradition has carried us through the years, and I expect no less for this game.

"A lot of these players played on that team last year," he said. "I don't know about revenge, but they understand the bitterness of that particular defeat. We're going to do our best to make sure that doesn't happen again."

Injury report: Three Whitefaces were injured in Friday's win in Borger, but two of them should play.

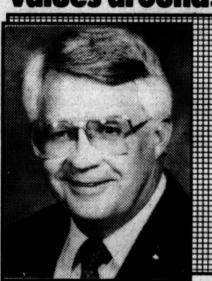

Linebacker Eric Sims and receiver Jason Tatarevich were hurt in the game but worked out this week and should play, Haney said. Sims stretched his Achilles tendon. Tatarevich hurt his ankle on one leg and his knee on the other leg, both on one play.

Tandemback Chris Brummett strained his knee and is doubtful for Friday. He should be at full speed for next week, Haney said.

Players of the Week: There are four varsity players of the week this week. On defense, it's Steven Blea and Cody Powell. With Hereford defending a six-point lead Friday in Borger, Blea had a sack on the Bulldogs' second-to-last chance to score, and Powell had an interception to foil their last chance. Powell also made a touchdown-saving tackle on a punt return.

On offense, linemen Ramiro Garza and Craig Hiltbrunner both graded out at more than 90 percent, and both had double-figures in pancake blocks.

look at Kansas City's offense to convince Dallas coach Jimmy Johnson that savvy and speed needed to be added to the Cowboys secondary. Quickly.

Which is why swift and hard-hitting Thomas Everett will be starting at safety for the Cowboys on Sunday when the Chiefs come calling in Texas Stadium.

The Chiefs burned Philadelphia Sunday with three long touchdown passes in a 24-17 victory over the Eagles. The Cowboys were impressed when they saw the tapes.

"Dave Krieg has a much stronger arm than I thought he had," Johnson said. He has a flair for the game." While Kansas City's primary attack is a crushing ground game, Johnson doesn't want the Cowboys to get so run conscious they fall asleep deep like the Eagles.

"They kill you with play action," said Everett, who played at Pittsburgh this month for a fifth round draft pick. "They pound you, pound you then hit with the bomb. The offense makes life tough on the safeties." Everett replaces Ray Horton, who returned an intercepted pass 15 yards for a touchdown last week in a 27-0 victory over Seattle, at strong safety. Johnson likes Horton because not many running backs get through his tackles.

Horton had started 50 consecutive games for the Cowboys.

'Horton has played well and is still a key player for us in the nickel situations," Johnson said. Horton took his demotion without rancor but still seemed puzzled. "I guess he (Johnson) saw something he wanted changed," Horton said. "I haven't been missing many tackles." Everett, who starred at Baylor, is known as a deadly tackler. "I feel like I've proven myself in IRVING (AP) - It took just one before the Cowboys got him earlier this league," said the 27-year-old Everett. "I've always had the ability to ignite something with my teammates. I did it at Baylor and at Pittsburgh. I plan on doing it for the Cowboys.' Johnson said Thomas "is a big hitter with a lot of on-the-field tremendous range.' Thomas won the Jim Thorpe Award his senior season as the awareness. He's-smart and he has nation's top defensive back. Everett is small for a strong safety, 5-9, 183-pounds, but started 73 of 77 games at Pittsburgh.

"He plays hurt," said secondary coach Dave Campo. "He's a football player. We think he'll make a big impact."

Johnson certainly hopes so. Particularly on Sunday against those big Kansas City running backs and the deep threat that Krieg poses. The Cowboys, 4-1, and Chiefs 4-2, meet at noon Sunday.

Progressive dinner held

Members of Nouvelle Ami Study Club met Thursday, Oct. 8, for a progressive dinner.

Appetizers were served by Kim Wilcox and consisted of several vegetables, party mix and dip. The main dish of lasagna, breadsticks and salad was served by Laurie Paetzold, and dessert of cheesecake and coffee was served by Kim Rogers in her

Following the meal, the regular business meeting was attended by 19 members and three guests. Plans were discussed for the November meeting and members decided that the club will decorate a Christmas tree to be raffled in December.

The club also made plans for its Christmas party to be held at the Cowgirl Hall of Fame and Western Heritage Center.

Rowland cited as top speaker

Jigger Rowland was named as best topic speaker when the Hereford Toastmasters met Oct. 8 at the Ranch House. Best evaluator was President Suzanne Finch and best speaker was Dave Kimmel. Chosen as best general evaluator was Rick Jackson.

Kimmel spoke on "Office Productivity" which was evaluated by Finch, and Dr. M.C. Adams spoke on "The Pledge" with Bob Lohr as evaluator.

Topic speakers included Joe Don Cummings, Liane Poell, Rowland and Clint Savoini.

Margaret Del Toro was topicmaster; Cummings, timer; Rowland, "ah" counter; Poell, grammarian; Savoini, wordmaster; and the word of the day was "prodigious." Toastmaster was Joe Weaver.

Clark Andrews led the pledge and Rowland gave the invocation. Finch presided over the business session when the parliamentary practice session was held.

Welcomed as guests were Triny Perez and Adolfo Del Toro.

read another letter about teachers in your column. If you are fair, you'll print this one. It's time the other side was heard from.

Here's how it is in Long Island, where I live. Teachers are treated like gold. The teachers union is extremely powerful. The average salary is $45,000, but many teachers make $60,000 to $70,000 a year, plus every benefit you can imagine, including two personal weeks off a year in addition to the regular vacations. Administrators do even better. The head of our school district makes $110,000 a year, plus benefits.

We are forever being told how excellent our schools are, but when the results of a nationwide survey were released, our children did no better than the national average. Teachers here are given extra compensation for every additional thing they do, such as organizing clubs. There are aides for all duties like lunchroom supervision or hall monitoring. Parents shower our teachers with beautiful gifts at Christmas time and at the end of the school year to "show their apprecia-

This has been a difficult year economically for Long Island with so many people losing their jobs, yet the teachers in our community received a 7 1/2 percent pay increase. Teachers' salaries come out of our property taxes. My house is an average threebedroom split level, and my taxes are

DEAR ANN LANDERS: I just $5,000 a year. It is not unusual for people to pay up to $8,000 a year in property taxes. Before the rest of the country follows our lead, they had better take a second look. High salaries do not guarantee better results. I'll sign my letter with a sad truth, -- Education is Making Us Poor in Long Island

> DEAR POOR IN LONG ISLAND: Granted, the Long Island teachers are among the better paid in the country, but I don't begrudge them a dime of it. This nation's most valuable resource is its children. It is essential that we pay our teachers well and not lose them to better-paying jobs. America's future depends on it.

> DEAR ANN LANDERS: Your word has been law in our house ever since you started writing your column, so I am turning to you now because I need to know if I am right about this.

I am holding in my hand a very hurtful letter from my late husband's daughter by his first wife. I'll call the girl "Jennifer," although that is not her real name. She writes: "What kind of a person are you anyway? I saw you take the ring off my dead father's finger before they closed the casket. I was absolutely shocked that you would be so greedy. That dear man wore that ring for so many years. It 0562.

was like a part of him, and I wanted it to be buried with him, but no, you had other ideas. Your selfishness will surely land you in a place you won't enjoy much."

Yes, Ann, I did slip the ring off my deceased husband's finger before they closed the casket. Was I wrong to do that? Burying a person wearing jewelry has never made any sense to me. I loved the look of that ring on his hand and I want to keep it always. I'm sad that my stepdaughter thought removing it was an act of greed. May I have your thoughts on this, Ann? Should I respond to Jennifer?--Tears in Springfield

DEAR FRIEND: I agree that it makes no sense to bury a person with jewelry on. You did the right thing when you removed your deceased husband's ring and no one should criticize you for it. Put that unfortunate letter behind you and let this be the last of it. No response is necessary.

Protect

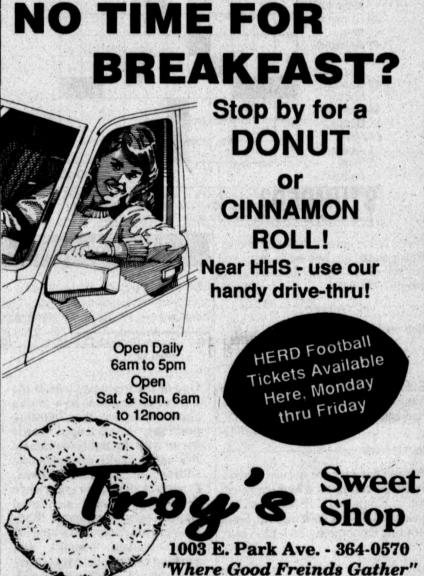

America's children are fully immunized by the time they enter school, more than 25 percent of preschoolers are not fully immunized when protection is most crucial.

Immunizations protect against major childhood diseases such as polio, measles, and whooping cough. No other public health measure, besides perhaps, safe water, has had such an effect on reducing disease as vaccines. In fact, for every dollar spent on immunizations, $10 is saved in future health care costs.

However, the nation's low immunization rate has led to outbreaks of disease. In 1989, there was a more than 400 percent increase in the number of measles cases in the U.S. Although recently, there has been some improvement in our immunization efforts, many children are still not receiving adequate doses at the recommended times.

Vote for the candidate of your choice in each race by completing the arrow beside the candidate's name. You may cast a straight-party vote (that is, cast a vote for all the nominees of one party) by completing the arrow beside the name of the party of your choice. If you cast a straight-party vote for all the nominees of one party and also cast a vote for an opponent of one of that party's nominees, your vote for the opponent will be counted as well as your vote for all the other nominees of the party for which the straight-party vote was cast. You may vote for a write-in candidate by writing in the name of the candidate on the line provided and completing the arrow provided to the right of the line. To Vote, Complete The Arrow Pointing To Your Choice Like This:

(Vote por el candidato de su preferencia en cada carrera completando la flecha de negro a la derecha del nombre del candidato. Usted podra votar por todos los candidatos de un solo partido político (es decir, votar por todos los candidatos nombrados del mismo partido político) completando la flecha de negro a la derecha del nombre de dicho partido político. Si usted vota por un solo partido político ("straight-ticket") y tambien vota por el contrincante de uno de los candidatos de dicho partido político su voto por el contrincante tanto como su voto por todos los demas candidatos del partido político de su preferencia
