Three Excel workers charged with making Tuesday bomb threat

Three Clovis men have been arrested, charged with calling in bomb threats to the Excel beef packing plant in Friona.

Daniel Ibarra, 23, Billy Ochoa, 24, and Ronald Towres, 25, all three employees at the Excel plant, were arrested on charges of calling in a bomb threat at 9:21 CDT on Tuesday.

Calls were traced by US West Telephone Company to a house at 1121 W. Ninth St. in Clovis.

Parmer County Sheriff Rex Williams said county officials have charged the men with making terroristic threats, a Class A misdemeanor. If convicted, each man could serve a year in county jail and pay a fine up to $2,000. Williams said the county would seek restitution of $50,000 lost time payments made by Excel on Tuesday.

The bomb threat was one of eight called in the past few weeks at Excel.

The company gives employees time off with pay for the remainder of the shift when a bomb threat is received; the company loses about $1,000 a minute on checking out bomb threats. The county is also out money because deputies are sent to the plant to help with crowd and traffic control.

Williams said several area telephone companies worked together to trace calls on Tuesday. The sheriff said records from GTE, West Texas Rural Telephone, Southwestern Bell, US West and Five Area Telephone Cooperative showed Ochoa called the Clovis number where Ibarra and Towres lived; the two men confessed to calling from Clovis and making the threat.

"I hope this will stop the situation, but we will continue to monitor the telephone calls into and out of Excel for some time to make sure," Williams said. "Excel is a good citizen. They are our top employer. They haven't deserved to be treated in this manner by unscrupulous employees."

The plant has treated previous threat in a low-key manner, because officials thought it was a ploy by workers to get paid time off. The threats were checked out each time by security workers.

County judge discusses office with HJH students

County Judge Tom Simons, third from right, talked to students in several Texas History classes on Thursday at Hereford Junior High. Here, he visits with Mark Balderaz, Jermyn Baker, John Hafliker, Erica Mondragon and Elizabeth Manchuca after a discussion in Carolyn Waters's history class. Students asked questions ranging from "Why be a county judge?" to one student's query as to whether a person who participated in anti-war activities could legally serve as president. Simons said that was out of his jurisdiction.

Fire prevention open house is planned Saturday

Stickers like these will be given away during an open house Saturday from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the Hereford Fire Station. Rides on antique fire engines, and other activities are planned.

Sports nostalgia: When I was sports editor on the Lamesa paper, the radio man and I would often go to out-of-town games together. One year, Lamesa was playing in a holiday basketball tournament at Denver City and the radio man had a company Christmas party he wanted to attend on the second night. He asked me to do the radio play-by-play broadcast and he'd try to arrive around halftime.

He showed me how to hook up for the broadcast from the gym, which seemed an easy task. The next night I was on the air and had a booster club officer with me in case I needed someone to talk with at halftime.

Everything seemed to go fine and I felt pretty good about my work in the first half. The radio man arrived and gave me the bad news--I had broadcast the entire time on a dead mike! The only good news was the dead air time was not my fault. The telephone company just forgot to plug us in. Luckily, I had the booster club fan to tell everyone what a great job I did!

While on the subject of radio, I remember an incident that happened when Lamesa was playing a basketball game at Midland. I was seated at the same table with the Lamesa radio duo, and the play-by-play man was getting irritated at what he thought was some bad officiating.

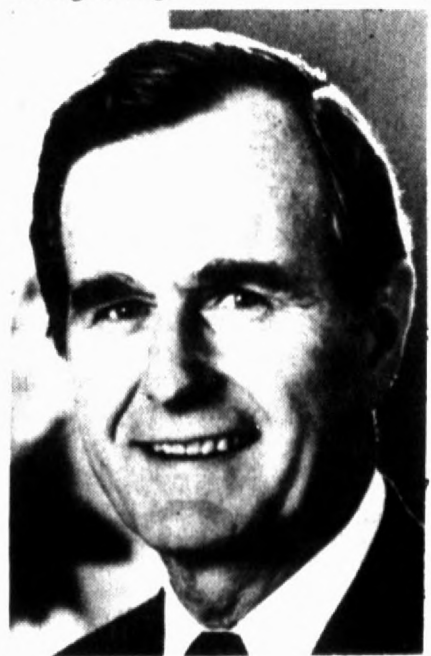

An out-of-bounds play occurred near the table and the radio man made a remark, loud enough for the official to hear, about the sorry officiating. The ref immediately blew his whistle and signalled a technical foul on the radio man, awarding Midland a free shot! It was the only time I ever saw that happen at a basketball game.

Bush compared to McCarthy on attacks

WASHINGTON (AP) - President Bush, ignoring charges that he's stooping to desperation tactics worthy of Joe McCarthy, has sharpened his attacks on Bill Clinton's activities as an anti-war protester.

Calling it a matter of "character, honesty and integrity," Bush insisted he isn't questioning Clinton's patriotism but rather his qualifications for making the "awesome decision" of sending Americans to die in combat.

Bush returned to Washington early today from a two-day campaign swing through Louisiana and Texas.

planning to fly later today to Ohio, another key battleground state.

In a speech to Republican contributors in Houston that was beamed to other fund-raising sites around the country, Bush escalated his attack on Clinton's anti-war protests, which first raised Wednesday night on a televised call-in program.

Questioning Clinton's judgment in participating in anti-war demonstrations in London at the height of the Vietnam War more than two decades ago, Bush said it wasn't an issue of an American's right to protest but the fact that Clinton had exercised that right on foreign soil.

"I can't understand someone mobilizing demonstrations in a foreign country when poor kids, drafted out of the ghettos, are dying in a far-away land," Bush said to loud applause from the Republican faithful.

Clinton, meanwhile, told reporters that Bush's attacks were an act of desperation that showed his opponent had "sunk to a new low." He said he didn't see a distinction between protesting in the United States or overseas.

The Democratic presidential candidate said that while he was a student at Oxford University he and other Americans demonstrated against the war at the American Embassy in London. He also said he had helped organize a "teach-in" at the University of London.

"I was opposed to the war and was an outspoken opponent of the war," Clinton said. "Everybody knows that."

Other prominent Democrats rushed to Clinton's defense.

New Jersey Sen. Bill Bradley said Bush's tactic "is called McCarthyism." And Sen. John Kerry, D-Mass., a Vietnam veteran, said: "It is a sad day when the president of the United States is willing to sully another man's reputation and challenge his patriotism to get elected."

While Bush has chosen to focus on the Vietnam War in the closing days of his re-election campaign, he took a more conciliatory approach in his 1988 inaugural address.

"That war began in earnest a quarter of a century ago; and surely the statute of limitations has been reached," Bush said then about Vietnam.

But on Thursday, Bush told the Houston fund-raising crowd that he wanted to repeat the comments he'd made on CNN's "Larry King Live" program "because I feel so strongly about it."

"When we elect a president of the United States, we are electing someone who at any time may have to deal with the awesome decision of sending someone else's young son or daughter, American men and women, to battle," Bush said.

"The president that we entrust with these decisions must have character, honesty and integrity."

CLINTON

In his television appearance, Bush had also said that Clinton needed to level with the American people about his draft record and a trip he made to Moscow while an Oxford student.

Clinton, then 23, took a 40-day trip by himself through the Netherlands, Denmark, Norway, Sweden, Finland, the Soviet Union and Czechoslovakia in late 1969 and early 1970, according to his campaign.

He arrived in Moscow on New Year's Eve and stayed for about a week, the campaign said. Clinton said Thursday he "mostly was just a tourist" in Moscow, and that he didn't talk to any government officials.

Congress passes bill on Meredith

WASHINGTON (AP) - A project to reduce salt pollution at Lake Meredith, the drinking water source for nearly a million Texans, now goes before President Bush.

It's unclear, however, whether Bush will sign the water reclamation legislation. Several advisers, including Interior Secretary Manuel Lujan, have urged him to veto it.

The Senate on Thursday approved a measure to reduce the salt pollution.

In one of the final actions of the 102nd Congress, the Senate passed an omnibus water reclamation bill that included the Panhandle lake project pushed by Sen. Lloyd Bentsen since 1988.

"I am pleased Congress has now completed action on it," said Bentsen, D-Texas.

Unless the situation is remedied, the naturally occurring salt in Lake Meredith could eventually render its water useless for human consumption.

Eleven cities depend on Lake Meredith for drinking water: Lubbock, Amarillo, Plainview, Pampa, Borger, Levelland, Lamesa, Brownfield, Slaton, Tahoka and O'Donnell.

Studies show that 70 percent of salt entering the lake originates in a shallow brine aquifer in New Mexico. The aquifer is under artesian pressure and is leaking into the Canadian River, which feeds Lake Meredith.

Salt levels already exceed Environmental Protection Agency and state health standards, said John Williams, general manager of the Canadian River Municipal Water Authority.

The legislation authorizes the Bureau of Reclamation to pay for design preparation and construction management, which is an estimated to be one-third of the total $9 million project.

The state and water authority will pay the remaining two-thirds, for construction, operation and maintenance of the facility to be built near Logan, N.M. downstream from the Ute Dam.

The project involves drilling wells into the brine artesian aquifer and pumping out water to relieve the pressure and keep the aquifer's briny water from flowing into the river.

Candidates sharpening skills for debate

WASHINGTON (AP) - President Bush and Arkansas Gov. Bill Clinton come to the debate stage with mixed reviews for past performances. Ross Perot comes as a loose cannon.

"Wouldn't it be nice to be the iceman so you never make a mistake?" Bush asked during his first 1988 debate with Democrat Michael Dukakis in a backhanded tribute to Dukakis' presumed superior debating skills.

But history shows mistakes abound in such a pressure-cooker environment. And sometimes the best that can be hoped for is just to get through unscathed.

Some mannerisms of the debaters facing off Sunday night for the first of three debates are well-known.

Bush can wave his arms too much and can seem strident and inarticulate; Clinton can drone on with long-winded, multipart answers, and can seem irritable and evasive.

Perot, although he hasn't had any recent debate experience, can sometimes appear thin-skinned and prickly when confronted with questions he doesn't like at forums such as news conference.

Bush and Clinton have had their share of uncomfortable moments, as well as a few political triumphs, in past debates.

Debate experts said Bush came across as shrill and patronizing in his 1984 vice presidential debate with Democrat Geraldine Ferraro; although some of the same analysts said he did, too.

In a 1980 presidential debate in Nashua, N.H., Bush was clearly outfoxed by Ronald Reagan, whose "I paid for this microphone" line became more memorable than anything either candidate said on the issues.

In his first debate with Dukakis in 1988, Bush made a narrow escape

after suggesting women seeking abortions - as well as the physicians who perform them - should be held criminally liable under anti-abortion laws.

Sensing that the comment would backfire if it wasn't retracted, Bush's campaign chief James A. Baker III came out early the next morning to say Bush misspoke and didn't really think such women should be prosecuted.

Bush's greatest debate success came from a blunder by his opponent: Dukakis' flat response in the second 1988 debate to a hypothetical question on whether he would support the death penalty for someone who would rape and kill his wife, Kitty.

"No, I don't," Dukakis replied without emotion.

Dukakis was done in by his own "iceman" image. Bush, by contrast, looked less mechanical, more human.

Perot debated at the Naval Academy in the early 1950s and schoolmates said he was a standout.

Buddy Holly taking a licking on stamps

LUBBOCK, Texas (AP) - Move over Elvis and make room for Lubbock rock 'n' roll star Buddy Holly on that next envelope.

The U.S. Postal Service Thursday announced a commemorative stamp booklet to be released next June that includes rock music legends Holly, Elvis Presley, Bill Haley and Ritchie Valens.

"Buddy could do everything Elvis did and a little bit more. He just didn't have the time," said Larry Holley, 67, Buddy's older brother who still lives in Lubbock. "But Buddy thought a lot of Elvis."

Larry and Travis Holley, 65, received a framed enlargement of the stamp showing Buddy in his famous horn-rimmed glasses holding a guitar from U.S. Rep. Larry Combest, R-Lubbock, during a press conference Thursday.

"It's great for Lubbock and it's great for the Holley family to get this honor," said Travis Holley. "We are grateful. Buddy would be tickled to know he had a stamp with his picture on it."

Holly recorded 88 songs and earned two gold records before he died at the age of 22 in a small plane crash in 1959 near Clear Lake, Iowa. Fellow rock stars Valens and J.P. "The Big Bopper" Richardson also died in the accident.

Among Holly's most notable tunes were "Peggy Sue" and "That'll be the Day."

A country music stamp booklet to be issued next August will include Bob Wills, the "King of Western Swing," from Turkey.

Eddie McConnell of Plainview, who has helped push for a stamp commemorating Wills, also attended the press conference.

"Bob Wills' music could make any person dance," said McConnell, a personal friend of the musician who died in 1975.

Wills, who is still remembered in Turkey each year, was known for creating Western Swing, an eclectic combination of black blues, Dixieland jazz and hillbilly music in the 1930s and 1940s.

Travis Holley said the stamp of his brother is a great likeness.

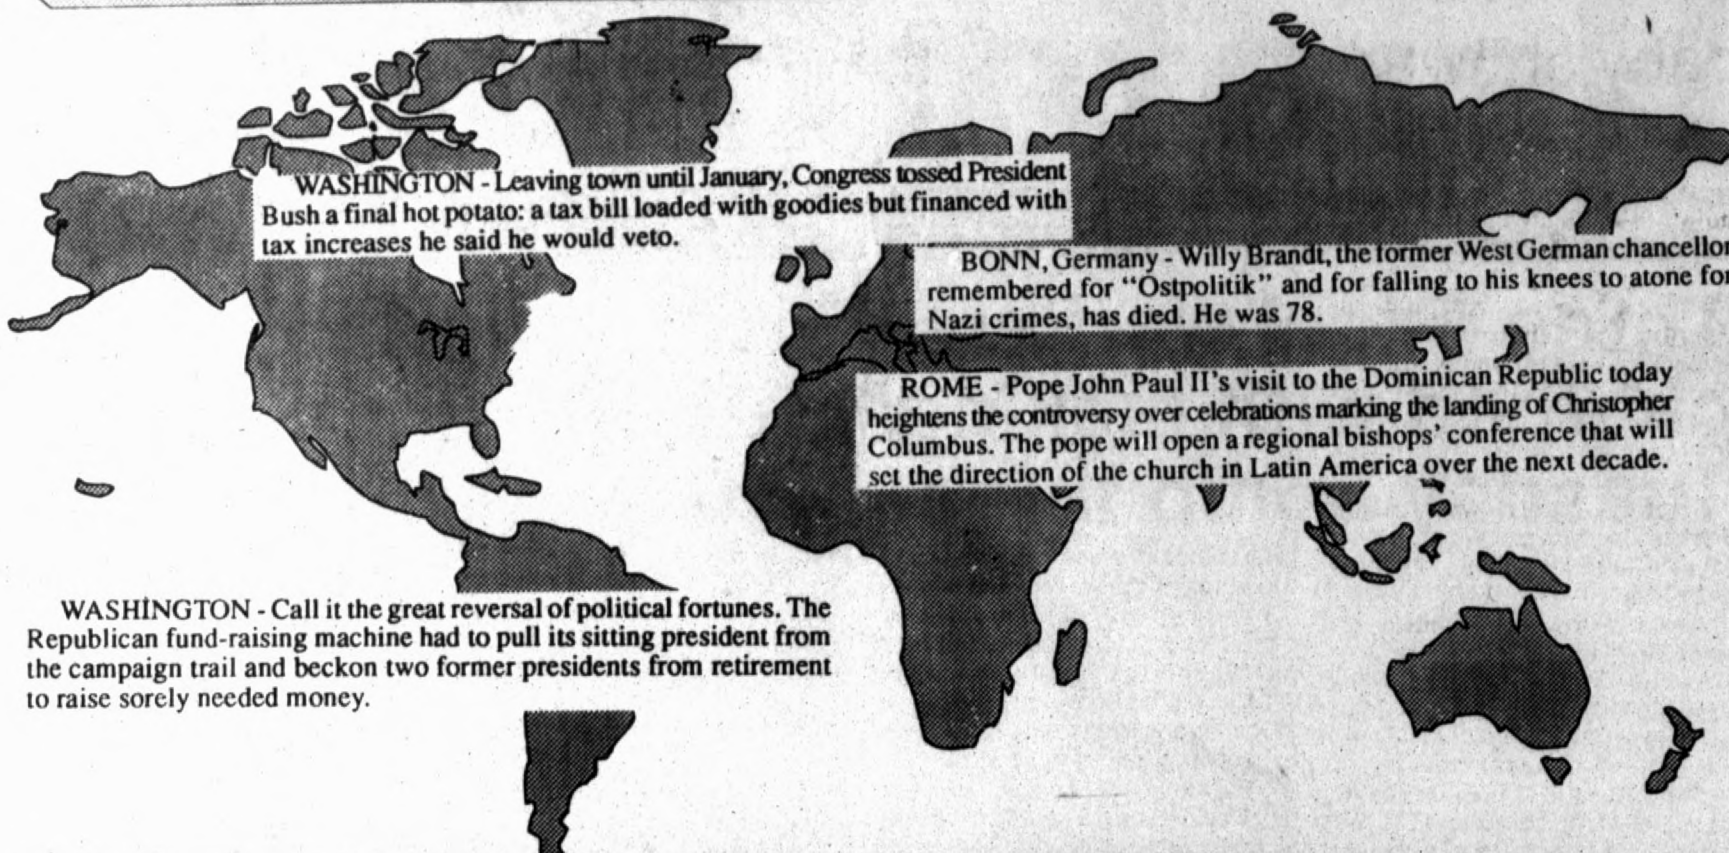

"Buddy was a good looking guy," he said. "The stamp shows that."

Combest, who hosted the press conference in front of a memorial statue of Holly erected in 1980, helped push for the stamp in a letter to the Citizens' Stamp Advisory Committee in January.

"Buddy Holly has helped put this city on the map," Combest said. "When you tell people you are from Lubbock, they say, 'Oh yeah, that's where Buddy Holly is from.' That's still true today."

"He wanted recognition for his music more than anything, more than money," said Larry Holley, who used to work at the post office in Lubbock. "He sure has got it."

Bill Griggs, who founded the Buddy Holly Memorial Society in 1975, said the stamp was a long time coming.

WASHINGTON - Leaving town until January, Congress tossed President Bush a final hot potato: a tax bill loaded with goodies but financed with tax increases he said he would veto.

NEW YORK - Asthma rates in children ages 1 to 14 doubled and even tripled over 20 years in a new study, and researchers speculate that the trend toward tightly sealed, energy-efficient homes may have played a role.

BONN, Germany - Willy Brandt, the former West German chancellor remembered for "Ostpolitik" and for falling to his knees to atone for Nazi crimes, has died. He was 78.

ROME - Pope John Paul II's visit to the Dominican Republic today heightens the controversy over celebrations marking the landing of Christopher Columbus. The pope will open a regional bishops' conference that will set the direction of the church in Latin America over the next decade.

WASHINGTON - Call it the great reversal of political fortunes. The Republican fund-raising machine had to pull its sitting president from the campaign trail and beckon two former presidents from retirement to raise sorely needed money.

Senate passes energy bill

WASHINGTON (AP) - The biggest package of energy reforms to clear Congress in a decade awaits President Bush's signature. But it reflects hundreds of hours of give-and-take and avoids some of the toughest questions: whether to impose energy taxes, allow new oil drilling or demand better auto fuel efficiency.

While the bill approved by the Senate on Thursday was praised widely for promoting energy conservation and for touching on myriad energy programs, some of the most controversial measures were absent.

There were no energy taxes, although economists widely agreed it would be by far the best way to curb consumption. There was no suggestion to open new lands to drilling, though oil companies said it was the only way to spur domestic production. And there was nothing to make cars run farther on a gallon of fuel, though transportation gobbles up more oil than any other activity.

These measures were jettisoned early - or in the case of energy taxes, not even considered. They were deemed "killer issues" that threatened to doom the prospects of any energy bill getting to Bush.

"This bill is more important for what's not in it than for what's in it," said Daniel Becker, a lobbyist for one of the bill's harshest critics, the Sierra Club.

The success of the energy bill, said Sen. Bennett Johnston, D-La., was that "we brought together ... the many conflicting interests" that traditionally had kept a comprehensive energy package from becoming law.

Oil industry executives bemoaned the refusal of Congress to allow expanded drilling on federal lands and U.S. coastlines.

Bush facing congressional hot potato

WASHINGTON (AP) - Bickering right to the end, Congress closed up shop until January. But not before tossing President Bush a final hot potato: a tax bill loaded with goodies and financed with tax increases he opposes.

The president has declined to say whether he would veto the bill, some parts of which he proposed. But Senate Republican leader Bob Dole of Kansas told colleagues: "The bottom line is the president will not sign this bill."

The bill was approved by the Senate on Thursday on a 67-22 vote. It was backed by 44 Democrats and 23 Republicans - nearly two-thirds of the GOP members who voted. The measure had cleared the House on Tuesday, 208-202.

The bill would raise taxes by about $27 billion over the next five years and selectively reduce taxes and increase spending for social programs by the same amount.

It includes expanded Individual Retirement Accounts and a series of tax breaks for investors and businesses that create jobs in 50 "enterprise zones" in blighted rural and urban areas.

Before adjourning for the year Thursday night, the Senate also passed and sent to Bush legislation: -Making armed hijacking of an automobile a federal crime punishable by up to life in prison.

-Revamping energy policy aimed at slowing the growth in U.S. dependence on foreign oil through conservation, increased development and use of natural gas and making it easier to build and operate new nuclear power plants.

-Authorizing water projects in 17 Western states, including diverting some water from California growers to protect wildlife, protecting the Grand Canyon from erosion and completing a project to bring more water to central Utah.

-Raising the ceiling on FHA-insured mortgages from $124,875 to $151,725 in the nation's highest-cost real estate markets and increasing the government's role in removing toxic, lead-based paint in homes.

The House was scheduled to meet in "pro forma" session today, but leaders in both parties have said it will adjourn, too, with no more action on legislation this year.

Anyone listening to the Senate on Thursday would have had no trouble remembering this is election season. Several Democrats heatedly criticized Bush for raising questions about Democratic nominee Bill Clinton's trip to Moscow during the Vietnam War, when Clinton was a student at Oxford University.

"This is a president who last December said he would do 'whatever it takes' to win re-election," said Sen. Bill Bradley, D-N.J., who, like Clinton, was a Rhodes Scholar at Oxford and visited Moscow.

"Impugning the patriotism of the Democratic nominee for the presidency falls into the 'whatever it takes' category," Bradley said.

Sen. Ted Stevens, R-Alaska, said it was inappropriate for Clinton to protest U.S. involvement in the war while overseas.

"I'm part of the president's generation. I believe our generation wants some answers," he said.

The tax bill, which grew out of the April riots in Los Angeles, includes nearly $12 billion worth of tax incentives and social spending to help the poor.

It picked up scores of other tax breaks targeted for one group or another. The most popular would make tax-deductible IRAs available to single people with incomes up to $75,000 and couples up to $100,000. Income limits now are $35,000 and

Dimmitt's city council will consider company aid

The Dimmitt City Council is considering the issuance of $6 million in certificates of obligation to help finance two industries proposing to locate there, it was reported Thursday in the Castro County News.

The two prospects are both food processing businesses. One produces bulk products and the other produces convenience foods. Mayor Wayne Collins said a written commitment has been given by one and an oral commitment by the other, dependent on financing through the Economic Development Commission.

The city commission will hold a public hearing at its Oct. 19 meeting to determine if citizens will support efforts to attract the two prospects. The mayor said repayment of the certificates will not increase taxes. Money for repayment would come from rent, utility fees or lease-purchase payments from the companies.

The convenience food company plans to employ 50 people in its start-up phase and expects to expand to 250 employees. It would make an investment of up to $12 million with $4 million to be financed locally.

The bulk processor eventually may employ more than 250, with an investment of $8 million, including $2 million from the city.

The Dimmitt newspaper article reported that Perryton and Borger are also being considered for one of the plants. Collins said the economic development group started work on one project about three months ago.

Land purchased for a proposed prison site alongside US-385 south of Dimmitt is one possible site for the convenience food company. The company wants about 10 acres for its facility.

4-H Week being observed

National 4-H week is currently running this week. This is a time for 4-H to be recognized all over the country for the projects and work it does with youth. In Texas alone, over 446,000 youth are involved in 4-H. This represents 11.1 percent of all youth between the ages of five and nineteen.

4-H's goal is to create a learning environment for youth that is stimulating to the development of life skills. This is done in competency-developing skills and knowledge; coping-dealing with stress; and contributory - learning to help others. 4-H offers projects in Social Sciences - Public Speaking, Citizenship, etc.; Biological Sciences-Safety, Food & Nutrition, Animal Science, etc.; Physical Science-Energy, Computers, etc.; and Arts and Humanities - Clothing, etc.

4-H is an excellent opportunity for youth people to develop skills today that they will use tomorrow. Give 4-H a try. Call 364-3573 for more information on 4-H.

Educational programs conducted by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service serve people of all ages regardless of socioeconomic level, race, color, sex, religion, handicap or national origin.

Microwave facts given

The microwave industry is growing by leaps and bounds:

-More than 80 percent of U.S. households now have microwave ovens.

-by the year 2000, an estimated 50 percent of households will have two or more microwave ovens - one in the kitchen and one in the family room.

-More than 60 percent of businesses in this country now have microwave ovens.

-The microwaveable food market - now some $2.5 billion - is growing at a rate of 36 percent a year.

-Microwave foods requiring no refrigeration - called shelf-stable - account for 45 percent of the microwaveable food market.

A new poster shows the months when pollens from trees, weeds and grasses are most prevalent in each geographic region.

There's a better way to protect your business.

Fear of a big liability suit makes some business owners behave too conservatively. As an independent insurance agency, our job is to help relieve this fear.

One solution is the commercial catastrophe liability umbrella policy from the CNA Insurance Companies. This policy gives you high-limit protection that begins where your normal coverage stops.

This is one example of the many kinds of coverage we can find at CNA and the other major insurance companies we represent. The range is complete. So is the protection of the business clients we serve. Contact us for a better way to protect your business.

DEAR ANN LANDERS:

Congratulations on that column about Barbara Noel's book, "You Must Be Dreaming," how courageous of Poseidon Press to publish it. Her experience resonates with what I have heard too often in my 40 years as a psychiatrist and psychoanalyst.

Surveys indicate that 10 percent of therapists have sex with patients. This is outrageous and must be stopped. Your readers can make some important changes by writing to their state legislators and insisting that sex with patients should be considered a felony, like rape. Then, instead of professionals taking care of their own, the district attorney's office would be in charge and there would be no more protection by the American Psychiatric Association, hospital staffs and state licensing boards.--John A. Lindon, M.D., Ph.D., past president, Southern California Psychoanalytic Institute, professor, U.C.L.A. School of Medicine, Los Angeles, Calif.

DEAR DR. LINDON: You will be pleased to know, as I was, that the column about Barbara Noel produced some extremely positive results. Here's a letter from Joseph English, president of the American Psychiatric Association:

DEAR ANN: We applaud your efforts to protect psychiatric patients from exploitation and to inform the public that doctor/patient sex is ALWAYS wrong. It is important that your readers know how strongly we share your concerns and outrage. The APA will not tolerate this behavior from its members. We have learned from this incident how important it is to publicize these violations more widely and have taken action to do so.--Joseph English, M.D., president, American Psychiatric Association

DEAR DR. ENGLISH: Thanks for being so totally upfront. My readers will appreciate that enormously. Read on for more on this subject:

DEAR ANN LANDERS: Thank you for having the courage to review the book "You Must Be Dreaming" by Barbara Noel, the woman who claims she was raped by her psychiatrist. I started reading your column as a college student in the '60s and still read it every day. You've been a wonderful influence in my life and here you are--still teaching me about truth and justice and courage.--Sue Miller, Fairport, N.Y.

DEAR SUE: Your kind words were especially welcome after this one:

DEAR ANN LANDERS: Stick to giving advice and lay off the book reviews. I have never read such filth in my life. I hid the paper from the kids.--Boise, Idaho

From Oregon: I found the psychiatric profession's disinterest, denial and cover-up more disturbing than what happened to Barbara Noel. The same thing happened to my cousin few years ago. She was raped by her dentist. Apparently, it isn't only psychiatrists.--Joy S.

WOLCOTT, Conn.: Your indignation and anger came through loud and clear. For too long, the medical professional has "taken care of its own." Thanks for taking care of your readers.--Ann L. Graveline

CORVALLIS, ORE.: Thanks for using your power to cross the moats, scale the walls and strike the wicked in their inner sanctums. Keep it up! Michael Gray

Hereford junior varsity slaughters Borger, 61-0

Fumble-forcer

Hereford's Eric Ross (67) puts a hit on the Borger quarterback, forcing a fumble during the Hereford junior varsity's 61-0 win Thursday at Whiteface Stadium. Ross, a lineman, scored earlier on an interception return. In the background is Hereford's Russ Watts (33).

Hereford's junior varsity football extended its perfect record in impressive fashion, beating up on Borger 61-0 Thursday in Whiteface Stadium. It was the only high school football game Thursday.

Offensive coach Craig Yenzer said he was pleased with the whole effort. "They had such an emotional game last week. I was worried about a letdown, but they came out and played hard."

"Our offensive line continues to improve, and of course, Chris Vallejo--I can't say enough about his hard running. I'm just real pleased with the team effort offensively."

The JV is perfect so far this season: 6-0.

"The 6-0 record is important to them," Yenzer said. "I see it in their eyes: the determination. They want to keep the undefeated season going."

Vallejo scored Hereford's first two touchdowns. The first was a four-yard run. The second was on fourth down at the Borger one, and he bounced off a tackler at the line of scrimmage.

Carlos Cintra, an exchange student from Brazil, kicked both extra points. Cintra hit 7-of-9 extra point kicks on the evening.

Hereford broke the game open with two second-quarter touchdown passes from Stacey Sanders to Hayden Andrews. The first one was a 52-yard bomb. The second one was

JV netters fall to Canyon

Hereford's junior varsity tennis team played Canyon Thursday in Hereford. Hereford won eight of the 24 matches played.

"JV didn't play too bad considering for some of them it was their first 'serious' match ever," coach Natalie Sims said. "We're all excited because we finally have a JV team. No more individuals or PE classes. This team can and is going to improve 100 percent. Playing Canyon kind of opened my eyes and let me know where we are on some things."

The varsity tennis team, 3-0 in district, will try to make it 4-0 when they host Caprock at 9 a.m. Saturday at Whiteface Courts.

(See JV NETTERS, Page 6)

HJH spikers take three of four at Canyon

Hereford Junior High volleyball teams took three of four matches from Canyon Thursday in Canyon.

The eighth grade A team won 17-15, 16-14. Danielle Cornelius and Cassie Abney each had four kills in the first game, and Cornelius served for nine points with five aces. In the second game Abney had five points with four aces.

The eighth grade B team won 15-6, 15-9 as Shawna Lindsey had four kills. Raquel Villareal served for nine points (four aces) in the first game, and Tracey Schultz served for seven points (three aces) in the second.

The seventh grade A team won 14-16, 15-9, 15-4 as Julie Rampley served for 19 points in the match. The B team lost, though, 1-15, 15-6, 15-11. Hereford got five service points from Sarah Wright in the first game and five from Staci Betzen in the third.

The HJH volleyball teams host Dumas Monday. Action starts at 5 p.m. in the HJH gym.

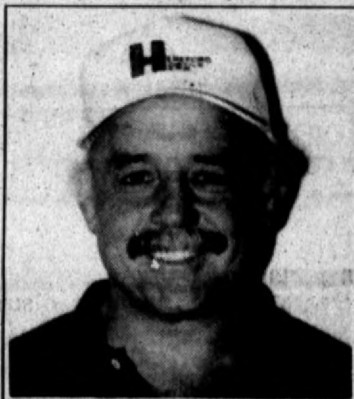

In other volleyball action, Hereford's ninth grade B team beat Sanford-Fritch 15-3, 15-5. Lyndsi Ames served for six points in the first game, then topped that with 12 points in the second game.

Cone pitches Jays to win

TORONTO (AP) - David Cone raised his cap to the cheers of hard-to-entice Toronto fans as he strode off the field. The new kid in town was the biggest hit around.

A few minutes later, the game ended and he ran back out. The slightly-built star hugged towering Tom Henke, who had saved Cone's 3-1 victory that tied the AL playoffs with Oakland at one game each Thursday night.

The mutual love affair between the pitcher and the people is raging. It may cool if he grabs big free-agent bucks elsewhere, but at least Toronto fans will have wonderful memories and, perhaps, a world championship.

Cone was sensational, allowing the A's one run and five hits in eight innings.

Unless one team wins the next three games in Oakland, Blue Jay boosters will have another chance to roar for Cone in next Wednesday night's sixth game.

"What was going through my mind (as he left the game) was the Toronto fans and the enthusiasm," Cone said.

He has more than lived up to the Blue Jays' expectations since they obtained him from the New York Mets on Aug. 27 to get them where they had never been - the World Series - despite three previous playoff appearances.

In his last seven games, Cone has an 0.93 earned run average, allowing five earned runs and 29 hits in 48 1-3 innings. He struck out six, walked three and kept the A's off balance with fastballs and sliders.

"We saw a lot of funny-looking swings from our guys that you don't normally see," A's manager Tony La Russa said. "He was outstanding."

Cone got all the support he needed when Kelly Gruber, coming off the worst of his six full big-league seasons, lined a two-run homer over the left field wall in the fifth.

FOOTBALL

a remarkable 25-yarder. The Borger defensive back tipped the ball straight up, but appeared to not know where the ball went. Andrews knew; he gathered it in at the one-yard line and stepped backwards for a touchdown. Hereford led 27-0 at halftime.

Vallejo scored again, on a six-yarder early in the third quarter, and he was through playing tailback for the night. Many players got to play tailback. In fact, many players got to play many positions. Vallejo, for example, finished the game on the defensive line.

Hereford's next touchdown was bloopster show material. Borger's quarterback was grabbed from behind by Russ Watts. His arms were pinned to his sides, and the ball was in both hands. He then seemed to take a page out of the sandlot playbook and tossed the ball up for grabs. Hereford lineman Eric Ross grabbed it--technically an interception--and rumbled 20-yards into the end zone.

Borger kept turning over the football, and Hereford couldn't help but score. Ross forced a fumble on Borger's next series and Joey Rodriguez recovered it, leading to a 20-yard scoring run by Cameron Betzen.

Johnny Zambrano ran two yards for a touchdown on the first play of the fourth quarter. Finally Michael Marquez ran eight yards for a touchdown which was set up by a Sanders interception (he caught it, he didn't throw it).

In junior high action, the seventh grade Maroon teams lost a pair of close ones to Valleyview.

The A team fell 26-24. Hereford got a pair of touchdowns from Tate Head, and one from Joey Rodriguez which was set up by a 60-yard reverse run by Bryant McNutt. Late in the game, Valleyview took a safety on purpose so they could free-kick instead of punting. Hereford had time for one play but a fumble stopped the comeback.

Coach Charlie Garza said the offense got good work from Jeremy Urbanczyk and John Hagliger, who hooked on several short passes.

The B team fell 8-6. Freddie Flores found Jay Wilson for a 40-yard touchdown pass in the second half, but the run for two points was stopped just short. It would have tied the game.

Facts About The BIBLE BY JOHN LEHTI

A PROMISE KEPT

GOD PROMISED ABRAHAM, AND THROUGH HIM ALL ISRAEL, A LAND OF THEIR OWN. THIS LAND WAS TO BE CANAAN. THE IDEA OF THIS PROMISE WAS VERY IMPORTANT IN THE OLD TESTAMENT. THE COVENANT GOD MADE IMPLIES CANAAN WAS ASSIGNED TO THE ISRAELITES AS THEIR OWN COUNTRY. DURING THEIR FORTY YEARS OF WANDERING IN THE WILDERNESS TWELVE MEN WERE APPOINTED BY MOSES TO SEARCH OUT THE TERRITORY THAT HAD TO BE CONQUERED. JOSHUA AND CALEB BEING PART OF THE GROUP. TEN OF THE MEN CAME BACK TO MOSES AND REPORTED THE LAND WAS INHABITED BY GIANTS. THIS WAS THEIR FEAR TALKING. YES, THEY AGREED, IT WAS A GOOD COUNTRY WITH FIGS, DATES, AND CLUSTERS OF GRAPES SO LARGE IT TOOK SEVERAL MEN TO CARRY JUST ONE BUNCH BETWEEN THEM ON A POLE, BUT THE PEOPLE OF CANAAN, BESIDES BEING HUGE, WERE VIOLENT. "WE WILL NEVER BE ABLE TO WIN AGAINST THEM," THEY TOLD MOSES! JOSHUA AND CALEB SPOKE DIFFERENTLY. THEY MADE A THOROUGH EXAMINATION OF ALL THAT COULD BE EVALUATED! THEY WERE CONFIDENT OF CONQUEST, FIRM IN THE RECOMMENDATION THAT ACTION SHOULD BE STARTED. THEY WERE OBEDIENT TO THE DEMANDS GOD HAD MADE ON THEM, AND LATER, BECAUSE OF THEIR LOYALTY, THEY WERE THE ONLY OLDER ISRAELITES ALLOWED TO ENTER THE PROMISED LAND WITH THE YOUNGER GENERATIONS. ALL OF THE OTHERS WHO HAD COME OUT OF THE LAND OF EGYPT DIED DURING THEIR FORTY YEAR SOJOURN IN THE DESERT. GOD ORDAINED THAT ONLY THE ADHERENTS TO HIS SPIRITUAL COMMANDS WOULD REJOICE IN THIS LAND OF MILK AND HONEY.

We bring buyers and sellers together in the CLASSIFIEDS

Make extra money the easy way by selling what you don't want to someone who does want it just by placing an ad

Every day, thousands of people read the Hereford Brand classified section, looking for something to buy! There's no better way to sell those odds and ends that you no longer have any use for. And everybody's happy. You make money and enjoy a little less clutter around the house, and the buyer is pleased, too. Place your ad today.

ANOTHER SUCCESSFUL BUSINESS STORY

"Everybody Already Knows My Store And What I Carry."

Sound Familiar?

Advertising is news about the marketplace, if you don't advertise, you're telling consumers there's no news from your store. But your competition is fighting for the public's interest with regular ads; if you want to keep your share of the market, you need to be in the same arena, bidding for the business. You need to advertise in the newspaper. Plus, people move out of the area and new people move in. Advertise to bring new customers into the store. Sell your store and your service through newspaper advertising.

NOT CONVINCED?

Newspaper advertising is unlike any other media choice. You're reaching a friendly, receptive audience with your advertising message. So receptive that they pay to have the paper delivered to their home. No wonder consumers consider newspapers the most believable advertising medium.

Newspaper advertising can help your business. It can increase sales and in a competitive market, it can give your business and edge over the other guy.

Don't tempt fate. Join the many successful businesses who know what works for them and what doesn't. Advertise in the newspaper and get results.
