WOMAN AGENT TO AID WAR GARDENS

Commissioners Court Accedes To Request By The Chamber Of Commerce

WILL PROBABLY COME APRIL 1

To Organize The People For More War Gardens, And Will Teach Conservation

A woman trained in Home Economics, officially known as a Home Demonstration Agent, will report here about April 1, and begin an active campaign for the planting of War Gardens, the organization of Girls Canning Clubs, give demonstrations to the housewives in bread-making, preserving, etc.

This action was officially authorized by the County Commissioners at a special called meeting Monday afternoon, when Carl Gilliland, as representative of the Board of Directors of the Chamber of Commerce appeared before them, and urged such action. The Court appropriated a small sum for the next year to help the Government pay the lady's salary.

The need for such aid at this time has been emphasized of late by demands made upon the Chamber and local citizens that War Gardens work be pushed. The Directors entered into negotiations with the Extension Service of the A. & M. College, with the result that a proposition was received that the Service would furnish a trained and experienced woman for this work if the county would put up half her salary. The Directors accepted the proposition, but felt that the Chamber had so many demands made upon it for money of a character that could not be participated in by the Court it was the equitable thing for the Court to carry this expense, which the law allows it to do. The Court passed the motion unanimously, after the entire details of the work were gone over by Mr. Gilliland.

The Agent will be given an office in the Courthouse and local organizations will be requested to assist her in organization work and the Court and the special War Garden committee, headed by G. A. F. Parker and recently appointed for this work by the Food Administration. Every body realizes the importance of putting in more garden space this year of all years, but it takes the entire time of one person to push work if measurable results are to be obtained. If properly utilized, the efforts of this lady will undoubtedly be of untold benefit to the county as a whole, and The Brand earnestly hopes that the various county organizations will aid and assist her in every possible way.

INCOME TAX ADJUSTER

HERE MARCH 25 and 26

The Government Income Tax Man will be in Hereford March 25 and 26 to assist all those who may desire help in making out their income statement for the past year. Local bankers have been advised that Mr. Carter, representing the Internal Revenue Collector for this district, will be in Hereford on above dates. Mr. Carter may be found at one of the three banks.

MRS. ERIC ENIS ARRIVES

TO OCCUPY NEW RESIDENCE

Eric Enis, who is the manager of the new Zook irrigated farm eight miles north of Hereford, is planning to erect a modern $10,000 residence on the farm Mrs. Enis, who is a talented musician, arrived here last week.

W. E. NEAL'S BLOODED STRING OF HORSES CAPTURE HONORS

The string of blooded horses and mares belonging to W. E. Neal & Sons of Dawn have again cleaned up in the Show ring. At the Breeders & Feeders Show at Fort Worth last week the Neal string captured First and Reserve Champion on Stallions over three years of age; second on Two-year-old stallions; second on yearling stallions; second on mares over three years old; first, second and third on mares two years old; first and second on yearling mares, and carried of the Grand Champion ribbon for mares and Reserve Champion mares.

Nine head of stuff were shipped to Fort Worth, three stallions and six mares. The competition was the keenest in the Southwest and the results speak volumes for the class of stuff carried by the Neals.

This is the fourth Show made by the string, in which over 100 ribbons, and silver trophies have been won, besides numberless Percheron Medals.

J. H. Pitman left Thursday enroute to Winchester, Virginia, where he had been called on account of his father's illness. Virginia is Mr. Pitman's old home and which place he has not been for thirty years.

SUMMERFIELD TO GET NEW SCHOOL IF SCHOOL KIDDIES HAVE A VOTE

If the school children of Summerfield have anything to do with it, a new school house will surely be built in that thriving little community before many months pass.

The Summerfield people have waked up to the fact that they really need a new schoolhouse, and recently the children of the lower grades were given, as language work, the task of naming some reasons why the new house should be built. Here are some of the reasons given including the original spelling:

"We need a new school house because this one is mighty near fell. We ont to have a new house, and I shure wish we did."

Thelma McMinn, Grade 2.
"We can not bear, cause the windows rattle."

Lorené Atchley, Grade 2.
"We must have a new one, cause this one is offe."

"The maps and pictures blow off the walls when the wind blows."

Annabell Sawyer, Grade 2.
"We can not bear because the windows rattle so loud."

"We eat dust, sit in dust, and get dust in our eyes and ears. We brush off the dirt and it gets right back again. Our coats get covered as they hang on the nails."

Gladys Vance, Zella Walsler, Bernice Winkler and Lillian Sawyer, of Grades 3 and 4.
"The old house is about to come to pieces. The walls just rock."

"We breath so much dust we have sore throat all the time."

"A new building will make land a better price, and new people move here so fast we will need more room any way."

These were given by Bernard Robinson and Clifton Alexander, Grade 4.
J. E. Waldrip of Dimmitt and Judge Gough left Wednesday for Dallas where they will attend the Texas Cattle Raisers' Association.

FRED CAYLOR IS SOMEWHERE IN FRANCE

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. F. Caylor received a long looked for letter from their son Fred last Wednesday. Fred is a Second Lieutenant of the 478th Aero Squadron. The letter stated he had arrived safely in France, had a very pleasant trip over, but was very anxiously awaiting a line from home. He also stated that the whole country was on Rations, only get a limited amount each day.

W. R. STECKMAN HAS JOINED THE BRAND STAFF AS FOREMAN

The Brand takes great pleasure in announcing that it has secured the services of Mr. W. R. Steckman of Tucumcari, N. M., as Foreman, and expects from this time forward to give its patrons a better brand of neat, prompt service than ever before.

Mr. Steckman arrived in Hereford last Monday and immediately assumed the duties of his new position. He formerly resided in Missouri, where he was well known by Carl Cockrell, H. F. Guthrie, H. C. Bowsher and other Hereford citizens. For the past few years he has been connected with newspapers at Tucumcari, where he has an enviable reputation.

IMPORTANT

Vice Chairman A. M. Jones of the War Savings Stamp committee, has issued a call for a meeting of every member of the County Executive Committee, to be held at the office of Potts & Jones next Saturday forenoon, March 23rd, at 10:30 o'clock sharp.

Chairman Evans is absent for the time being, and the work is falling behind. This will never do. Deaf Smith county MUST keep "the record straight" and "go over the top" in this effort, as she has not failed to do in all patriotic drives to date.

Every member of this Committee is EXPECTED to attend this meeting; all others interested in having this county do its part are URGED to attend.

A MESSAGE TO TEXANS FROM U. S. FOOD ADMINISTRATOR

Our associates in the war are pleading monthly for more food supplies and they look wholly to America for succor. Our harvests yielded an abundance for all of our own demands, but the calls from overseas necessitate every saving of our part until next harvest, and also an enlarged harvest of food stuffs from every quarter of the country this year.

In the southern states particularly, we need the farmer to realize that if he can increase his production of corn and meat, and wherever possible some wheat, as well as his production of cotton, he will not only be increasing our national supply of food, but will render the south self-sustaining in foodstuffs; he will be feeding his own family and help; he will have enormously relieved our transportation burden next year, so that the products of the northern farmer can go for export to our associates in the war.

I realize keenly that with the decrease in labor, due to the draft for industrial and war purposes, the farmer is greatly handicapped, yet a little extra effort and a little extra endeavor on the part of each and every one of us is a service and a sacrifice no less than we are asking from our boys in the trenches.

Even in the south, our railway system is overtaxed in handling our Army and our war materials, and the transportation of foodstuffs and cotton to the consuming centers and to the Allies has become one of the most difficult problems that we have to confront.

There is of necessity a decrease in our agricultural labor. If the people of our towns and villages who have the opportunity to do so can undertake the cultivation of gardens in their extra hours, we will have materially contributed to the total labor employed to increase our production. For these reasons, as never before, every town or village that has a scrap of available land for cultivation, should patriotically resolve to make the family unit as nearly self-supporting as possible.

No possible production of war gardens or of poultry should be allowed to go unfruitful. Many families by this means can contribute to our total food supply; will add to the productive labor powers of the nation, and will all contribute to greatly relieve our transportation from the tax that is placed upon it.

ORGANIZED PRODUCTION

Amarillo, Texas, March 18, 1918
The Panhandle food and feed production campaign was started in earnest today when the executive committee met with the county chairmen of the forty-four counties in northwest Texas. The attendance was large, only a few of the counties not being represented. The organization as presently made up of an executive committee of five members appointed by the Buyers' and Sellers' convention, a chairman in each county and a county committee of one member from each precinct. There are four sub-committees as follows: Finance, Judge J. D. Hatfield of Farwell, chairman; labor, Dr. Cunningham of Amarillo, chairman; seed, Allan Early of Amarillo, chairman; and publicity, F. R. Lamson, Canadian, chairman.

The purpose of the campaign is to increase the production of kafir, milo, and other sorghum grains this year. The weather conditions are very unfavorable for wheat and to make up for the shortage in wheat these grains will be produced more extensively. They are splendid substitutes for wheat.

The great problems to be met in this campaign for increase of production of the sorghum grains are the financing of the greater acreage and supplying labor. The seed supply is satisfactory in most localities. Dr. Cunningham proposes that the people in the towns be given the chance to volunteer their assistance in cultivating and harvesting the crops. Judge Hatfield is strongly for taking the local banker into the campaign to help finance the farm operations.

The meeting was attended by substantial business men, farmers, and professional men interested in producing food to help win the war and at the same time build the country. It was noticeable that the Panhandle press was strongly represented in the meeting.

RECEIPTS WANTED

In days of old, before the present generation began to rely on machinery almost entirely, our grandmothers used to make a delicious bread called Corn Lightbread. It was light, inexpensive, wholesome, and appetizing. What has become of this old kitchen art, practiced by the frugal housewives of years ago? Who knows the secret? Why not apply this almost forgotten recipe to the present War situation and teach our women folk how to utilize corn meal in bread making in a way to appeal to our appetites? The Brand will be glad to receive and print any recipes contributed by anyone for the making of this "Corn light bread."

CROUCH RESIGNS AS CITY CLERK TO GO WITH LOCAL BANK

J. E. Crouch, who has been City Clerk for the past two years, and recently announced as a candidate for County and District clerk, has accepted a position with the First State Bank & Trust Company as Teller, effective April 1, 1918, and has not only resigned his city office but withdrawn from the county race as well.

Mr. Crouch makes this triple announcement in the following words: "To The Voters of Deaf Smith County: Having accepted a position with the First State Bank & Trust Company, I have decided to withdraw from the race for County and District Clerk for Deaf Smith County.

To those who have pledged me their support I take this opportunity to express my very grateful acknowledgment of their kindness and good will.
Respectfully,
J. E. CROUCH."

Mr. Crouch has served the City ably and efficiently as City Clerk, and his place will be hard to fill. This vacancy will be one of the first things to be considered by the new City Commission, who will be elected April 2.

The withdrawal of Mr. Crouch leaves only two candidates in the race for County and District Clerk, Messrs. A. O. Thompson who seeks re-election, and J. S. Jones.

Seven lots of five Holstein cows, five individual cows, a bull, and fourteen head of young stuff, purchased by D. L. McDonald on his recent trip north as representative of The Hereford Dairy Association, were expected to reach Hereford Friday and be distributed to owners over this territory. The three cars containing this latest addition to Hereford's live stock assets were between Kansas City and Hereford Thursday.

Mr. McDonald returned to the city last Sunday and Monday held a meeting of those interested in five cows or more. As a result of this meeting the following gentlemen agreed to take five cows each: Leo N. Wolfe, T. T. McDemmitt, Orville McKinley, C. Rinton, Y. P. Gately, E. R. Geiss, Spring Lake, and E. L. Bepko. Leo N. Wolfe was selected to keep the fine registered Holstein bull purchased on the trip, as he seemed to have the best location and facilities for this work. It was determined to unload the stock at the depot platform upon arrival and put them in some handy nearby barn until they could be "fixed" and afterwards to parade them down Main street so that local people may see what a real Holstein is. The seven men will act as a committee of the whole to partition the cows into seven pens, as nearly equally distributed as possible, and then draw for the pen each is to get.

This will leave five cows to be sold to individuals, and Mr. McDonald already has applications on file for this number. In addition, Mr. McDonald retained fourteen head for his own use.

The delegate stated at the meeting Monday that the cows were nearly all between three and six years old, some springers in the lot, and all very fine graded milkers. Mr. McDonald became an enthusiast over the dairy question wide away, and stated that the farmers of Wisconsin were financially independent through their success from cows and were lending money on their own hook. He intends to erect a model Wisconsin Dairy barn on his home farm this fall and purchase additional thoroughbred Holsteins to put in it.

The outcome of this venture is a source of congratulation to all interested in this vital adjunct to our agricultural and live stock development, and the Dairy industry appears to be securely and permanently cradled in to the local development system.

THIRD MONDAY DREW BIG CROWD; TRADING FIGURES HIT HIGH MARK

The monthly Trades Day for March dawned bright and clear, for a wonder, last Monday, and a large crowd of buyers and sellers assembled as a consequence. Hereforders both in January and February, the Weather Man has interfered to a large extent with the success of the new enterprise, but no one could have asked for a prettier day than Monday, March 18.

The Auction Sale at eleven o'clock in the morning, and again in the afternoon, was well attended and a large assortment of farm machinery, live stock, household goods, etc., was offered for sale and disposed of. Some very fine exhibits of live stock were shown in the yard for judging. Jim Sautter was awarded the prize for the best Hereford cattle shown, the award being made by Judges Ray Jowel and C. O. Norton, and received a $5 trade check from Sullivan Bros. in consequence. Other prizes awarded were not obtained by the Brand prior to going to press. The cash drawing in the afternoon resulted in Ed Bots receiving the first $500 gold piece, W. E. Hillman, second, $300, and W. A. Noffaker third, $200.

JAKE WILLIAMS, 14 YEARS OLD, LOSES FOOT IN ACCIDENT

Little Jake Williams, the fourteen-year-old son of Jim Williams of Hereford, will be a cripple for life as the result of a most unfortunate accident last Wednesday. The little fellow was on his father's ranch in New Mexico, riding an engine when his foot slipped and his left foot was caught in a cog wheel. His foot was severely mangled and he was rushed to Hereford at once, where Dr. Gilbert amputated three-fourths of the foot, removing all the toes with the exception of the big toe. At last accounts he was bearing up cheerfully and bravely under the shock.

H. C. MYRICK WILL MOVE TO SHERMAN

It is with regret that The Brand has learned that H. C. Myrick and family will leave here the latter part of the week and move to Sherman. Mr. Myrick has been a resident of Hereford since 1905 and was for years a leading merchant. Recently he has been connected with the firm of Garrison Bros. Hardware Company.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Myrick have many friends and acquaintances in this section, who will regret very much to lose them, but will wish them every happiness and prosperity in their new surroundings.

The Monthly Third Monday Trades Day is growing in popularity and attendance, and seems to be firmly established. The Committee, composed of R. T. Evans, chairman; Forrest Walker, vice chairman; Luther Hough, Edgar Bots and Charlie Sullivan, having the matter in charge, are much encouraged, and will plan early for the success of the April Trades Day, which falls on Monday the 15th.

J. E. CROUCH HAS PURCHASED THE E. E. WILSON RESIDENCE
J. E. Crouch purchased the E. E. Wilson residence last week which he now occupies. Mr. Wilson has an apartment in the Mrs. W. H. Edwards residence if present. He states that he is undecided as to whether he will build or snatch a home from someone else.

All in all he was an upright Christian character in the truest sense. He leaves a wife, three small children, and a brother of Tishomingo, Okla., all of which were with him during his last hours. Funeral services were conducted by his pastor, Rev. Potts, at Bovina cemetery Tuesday afternoon amid a large congregation of friends. To the bereaved relatives we join with their friends in expressing our sympathy in this dark hour.

SCHOOL CHILDREN IN RED CROSS WORK

"Young America" has many times been used as a term of reproach and derision for certain qualities and manners manifested by our people, and fear expressed for the future of America—but we believe "Young America" will rise to the needs of the Nation as their parents and grand parents have in the past. Our school work is a matter of the greatest importance. Since the work began and the numbers have been increased by the seventh grade nearly fourteen hundred dressings have

DEATH OF MRS. VENERABLE

Mrs. Sarah H. Venerable, born near Knoxville, Tenn., 50 years ago, passed to her reward in the home prepared for prepared people Thursday morning, March 14, 1918, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. B. Davis in South Herford.

Although not in robust health, she was only sick a few days, with a complication of ailments which she had been burdened with for several years.

The passing away of this gentle, faithful life saddened the hearts of her many friends in Herford, who loved her and esteemed her highly. She always proved her self easily equal if not superior wherever she was placed, and never fell below the demand of responsibility placed upon her. She lived the teachings of the Holy Book, and lived in modesty and simplicity a life of unselfish service, leaving a rich heritage of a life well spent to her children, grandchildren, and friends.

I do not think she wants us to be sad except in so far as we cannot help in the missing of her, she had faith to believe that "God is overlord,

"And as life is to the living

"So death is to the dead."

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. J. E. McClurkin and Rev. W. H. Terry, at the Methodist church, after which her body was laid away in the City cemetery. Nothing could more fittingly express the esteem and regard in which she was held by the neighbors and friends than the final tribute which was paid to her with the beautiful floral offerings.

A genuine message of heartfelt sympathy is extended to the bereaved ones.

Mrs. Venerable is survived by a son who lives in St. Louis, Mo., Mrs. W. B. Davis of Herford, a sister in Knoxville, Tenn., and six grandchildren. The son and sister were unable to be here for the funeral.

Swift & Company Publicity

At a recent hearing of the Federal Trade Commission there was introduced correspondence taken from the private files of Swift & Company which showed that the Company had been considering for some time an educational advertising campaign.

The need for this publicity has been apparent to us for several years. The gross misrepresentation to which we have recently been subjected has convinced us that we should no longer delay in putting before the public the basic facts of our business, relying on the fair-mindedness of the American people.

The feeling against the American packer is based largely on the belief that the income and well-being of the producer and consumer are adversely affected by the packers' operations, resulting in unreasonably large profits.

Swift & Company's net profit is reasonable, and represents an insignificant factor in the cost of living.

For the fiscal year 1917 the total sales and net profit of Swift & Company were as follows:

Sales

$875,000,000.

Profits

$34,650,000.

This is equivalent to a $3,465. profit on a business of $87,500.

If Swift & Company had made no profit at all, the cattle raiser would have received only one-eighth of a cent per pound more for his cattle, or the consumer would have saved only one-quarter of a cent per pound on dressed beef.

SOCIETY AND CLUBS

MRS. P. W. PRICE, Phone 28.

Mrs. L. R. Bradley says she is an authority on the sensation of surprises. She had the greatest one of her life on last Friday night, the evening of her birthday.

Early Friday morning she received a message to come to the ranch on business, where she was detained until 8:30 p. m.; arriving at home she walked into her front door with a bucket of butterilk in one hand and a dozen eggs in the other, there to be received by Mrs. J. W. Hicks and then very ceremoniously introduced by Mrs. R. N. Mounts to a receiving line of intimate friends and officers of the Eastern Star, of which order Mrs. Bradley is the worthy matron. Those in the line were Mr. Alex Thompson, patron, Mesdames L. Shore, Carter, Alex Thompson, Misses Belle Woodburn, Jessie Morris, Mrs. L. A. Shore and Misses Lola and Bruce Bradley ushered the guests into rooms prepared for them. There little Misses Veda Hicks and Florence Shore distributed the score cards for about twenty tables. The rooms were fragrant from a profusion of red and white carnations.

To add to the enjoyment of the evening the following numbers were charmingly contributed:
Vocal—Miss Elsie Pittman.
Vocal—Miss Jane Greig.
Reading—Miss McClurkin.
Vocal—Miss Chamness.
Music on virola was enjoyed during the evening.

Mrs. Bradley was indebted to her daughters for this pleasant occasion. At a late hour refreshments of brick lee cream and angel food cake was served, after which the guests reluctantly took their leave, wishing Mrs. Bradley many happy returns of the day.

CLASS PARTY

To the hospitality of Mrs. A. C. Elliott, one of the prettiest and most enjoyable children's parties of the week was due. The home was thrown open on Saturday evening to the boys of the Triangle class of the Christian Sunday School who were hosts of the evening to the girls of Class No. 8.

A delightful program of entertainment included a variety of games; prominent among them being the ever popular "Forty-two," whose dainty score cards showing the class emblem, the triangle, in white and gold, and tied with yellow ribbon, suggested the Easter tide.

St. Patrick was also remembered in a badge contest where the players tried their skill in tearing from paper a likeness of the pig that played in the fable. According to an established precedent in socials held by these classes, something to "help with the war" must be part of the program, and six hundred gun wipers were turned in at the Red Cross rooms as a result of the evening's fun.

Refreshments consisting of cake with delicious blanc mange, was served. Enjoying the occasion were: Baker Womble, Davis Elliott, Bernice Walker, John and Britan Robinson, Bruce and Gwynne Guthrie, Dr. Aubrey Cox, Julia Roberts, Floyd Wilson and Lucille Mergert.

The Bay View Club

Mrs. Geo. Garrison was hostess to the Bay View Club on last Thursday, with Mrs. C. E. Harrison as leader. The following interesting program was given:

- Roll Call—Your favorite musical instrument and why.
- The Story of the Orchestral Instruments—Mrs. McLean.
- The beginning of the opera in America—Mrs. Tandy.
- Edison records:
- Sextette from Lucia Donizetti.
- Norma Overture—DeHilli.
- A Perfect Day—Carrie Jacobs' band.
- William Tell Overture—Rossini.
- The Rosary—Nevin.
- Charmant Oiseau—David.

It was the pleasure of the Club to welcome into its membership recently Mesdames C. C. Chenoweth, Arch Collins, R. T. Evans, J. R. Stubbs, and Joseph Hawkins. With the admittance of new members, comes a new inspiration, a desire to put forth our very best efforts. Dainty refreshments were served.

Last Thursday evening the Wesley Bible Class of the Methodist church was delightfully entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dunlap. About forty-five of the class members were present. Miscellaneous games had been prepared by the social committee and all proved to be very interesting. Dainty refreshments were served. Mrs. Dunlap proved herself to be a perfect hostess and the only thing which could have made the evening more pleasant was the presence of Mr. Dunlap, he having been called away unexpectedly.

STAR THEATRE

FRIDAY, MARCH 22nd

"THE PLANTER" in seven parts with TYRONE POWER. The author of "The Planter" is Herman Whitaker. Far from Broadway—away down in Southern Mexico where rubber trees grow thick and bon constrictors coil in the shades of the jungle, hundreds of thousands of men and women live and die whose fate receives less attention than does the death of a sparrow in a city street. You will see Southern Mexico jungle at its wildest with the natives of the country gathering rubber. Native villages as they are conducted under the stockade system with white overseers. A raging fire that destroys an entire native village in the heart of the rubber country. It cost $250,000 to produce "The Planter" "The Planter" is one of the most elaborate productions ever produced.

ADMISSION: 10c and 35c

CITATION ON APPLICATION

THE STATE OF TEXAS.

To the Sheriff or any Constable of Deaf Smith County, Greeting:

You are hereby commanded to cause to be published once each week for a period of ten days before the return day hereof, in a newspaper of general circulation, which has been continuously and regularly published for a period of not less than one year in said Deaf Smith County, a copy of the following notice:

To all persons interested in the Estate of Leta A. Hawkins, deceased, D. W. Hawkins has filed in the County Court of Deaf Smith County an application for the Probate of the last Will and Testament of said Mrs. Leta A. Hawkins, deceased, filed with said application, and for Letters Testamentary which will be heard at the next term of said Court, commencing on the first Monday in April, A. D. 1918.

the same being the first day of April, A. D. 1918, at the Court House thereof, in Hereford, at which time all persons interested in said Estate may appear and contest said application, should they desire to do so.

Herein fail not, but have you before said Court on the first day of the next term thereof, showing you have executed the same.

Given under my hand and the seal of said Court, at office in Hereford, this 13th day of March, 1918.

Lovers of the succulent cabbage properly fermented can now indulge their appetites without suspicion of dishonesty. There is no longer any kraut. "Liberty cabbage" takes its place.

STAR THEATRE

The cost of production of "The Planter" new Mutual special production, was in excess of $250,000. The first scenario called for 2,000 scenes. It involved the services of more than 200 men and women. "The Planter" will be seen at The Star Theatre Friday night, March 22nd.

Tyrone Power, the star; Heleu Reame Bateman, leading woman; E. Lamar Johnstone, George R. O'Dell and Louie FitzRoy, who have been hard at work on the play in southern Mexico, have returned to Pasadena, Cal., where the finishing touches are being added.

One of the unusual features of this production is that the climax is sustained for two reels. The producers have been compelled to cut down hard, because the Herman Whitaker novel, from which "The Planter" was dramatized, is a mass of action.

Margery Wilson, Triangle player, starring in "The Flames of Chance", which will be shown at the Star Theatre on Monday night, March 25th, tells the following story. Her director handed her a pencil on which was printed in gold letters "Dixon's Cabinet No. 23." Margery suggested that the wording be changed to "President Wilson's Cabinet No. 23" and that the pencil be sent to the Kaiser with a request that he use it to sign his name to an abdication document.

Plenty of real Western atmosphere is shown in "Revenge," the Metro picture of Edward Moffitt's novel, "Hearts Steadfast", starring the favorite star, Edith Storey, which will be presented at the STAR Theatre on Tuesday, March 26th.

In "vengeance," which was produced at the West Coast studios, the athletic star returns to the "Western" type of role in which she first became famous as a screen star of the first rank. She is seen to excellent advantage in her favorite type of role.

Otto Lederer, one of the best known character actors in photoplay and who has taken prominent parts in a number of Vitaphone features, including "The Flaming Omen" and "Dead Shot Baker," is seen as General Gordon in "When Men are Tempted," the Greater Vitaphone Blue Ribbon Feature, which will be the attraction in the Star Theatre on Thursday, March 28. In this strong drama of love, loyalty and intrigue, Mary Anderson and Alfred Whitman have the leading role and in the cast are R. Bradford and S. E. Jennings. Mr. Lederer, who began his stage career in Vienna, where he appeared in opera, entered photoplay after coming to this country and quickly forged to the front.

J. S. MITCHELL AND FAMILY

MOVE TO WICHITA FALLS

J. S. Mitchell, who has been a resident of Hereford for the past two years, has moved to Wichita Falls, where he will reside in future. Mr. Mitchell and family left Hereford on Thursday morning. The Mitchells leave a large circle of friends and acquaintances, who regret the necessity which caused the separation.

Card of Thanks

We wish to express our thanks to our many friends and neighbors for the many kindnesses and shows of sympathy during the late sickness and death of our husband and brother.

Mrs. Gessie Higgins
W. S. Higgins

Every now and then we read where some sage declares men are superior to women, and we believe it until we get home.

The Government is today the greatest employer of labor in the United States, not considering railroad employees. In normal times approximately 400,000 civilians are employed, and in the last year the number has increased to 600,000. In comparison one steel corporation employs 300,000 men, and one railroad 250,000.

Just a Word About An Oil Stove

Did you know that you can save from $40.00 to $50.00 every year by using a NEW PERFECTION OIL STOVE, besides eliminating entirely all soot, dirt, etc. You may think the above is an exaggeration but just stop and figure a minute. Any coal stove will use $5.00 or more per month in fuel, while the fuel bill on a NEW PERFECTION STOVE will run from 75c to $1.50 per month. You can figure this for yourself. But in buying an oil stove you must be very careful that you get a New Perfection. If you buy another you will be disappointed.

Better see us as we handle no other kind.

RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, It has pleased God to remove from our midst, by death, our beloved friend and Brother, Reverend G. A. Farkis, who for several years has been prominent and active in the ranks of Odd Fellowship, maintaining a character unimpaired, and a reputation above reproach under all circumstances.

THEREFORE, Be It Resolved by Hereford Lodge No. 476, I. O. O. F., That in the death of Brother G. A. Farkis we have sustained the loss of a brother whose fellowship it was an honor and a pleasure to enjoy, upon whose lips Friendship, Love and Truth were not meaningless words but the Rule and Guide of his life; whose life was the compass that gave him safe passage over that river and entry into the Eternal Haven of Rest; that we bear grateful testimony to his many virtues, to his unquestioned probity and stainless life; that we offer to his bereaved family and mourning friends, over whom sorrow has hung her sable mantle, our heartfelt condolence; and pray that the God of Mercy and Love may bring speedy relief to their burdened hearts and inspire them with the consolation that Hope in the future and Faith in God give even in the shadow of the Tomb.

War Savings Societies sink submarines without the hot air brand of patriot. Our Texas boys are doing across soon. A dead Boche is a "good Indian" and a Thrift Stamp gives an American Sammie five pot shots at him.

The boys cover there, and get along without the hot air brand of patriot. You are Sam, but they must have cartridges. Thrift Stamp buys five. When you buy War Savings Stamps, you are not contributing. You are lending your money at four per cent interest compounded quarterly.

TRUE SERVICE

Minimum first cost and minimum per mile operating cost are the essential most sought after in the selection of a high-grade motor car.

It is universally conceded that Dodge Brothers motor car has established a new standard of motor car value.

And as for maintenance cost, it is literally true that gasoline, oil and tires are practically the only expense. In normal service the parts rarely have to be renewed.

Dodge Brothers have chosen to build into their car those qualities which have made it practically immune from the need of service on the part of the dealer or the factory, except such service as may be caused by the owner's abuse or neglect of the car or by normal wear after long use.

Thus the purchaser pays for the car only, and pays for service only when needed.

Before a Dodge Brothers car is shipped from the factory every precaution is taken by over four hundred inspectors of individual parts, unit assemblies, and finally the car, complete, to insure that all material and workmanship is up to the required standard and to make certain that the car is in proper running condition.

We, as dealers, also test each car received by us, to make sure that it is in the same condition as when it left the factory.

Therefore, after we deliver the car to our customer, in good running order, service rendered by us is properly chargeable in accordance with the ninety days Standard Warranty of the National Commerce under which Dodge Brothers cars are sold.

Warranty

(Standard Warranty of the National Automobile Chamber of Commerce Under which all Dodge Brothers Motor Cars are sold.)

We guarantee each motor vehicle manufactured by us, whether passenger car or commercial vehicle, to be free from defects in material and workmanship under normal use and service, our obligation under this warranty being limited to making good at our factory any part or parts thereof which shall, within ninety (90) days after delivery of such vehicle to the original purchaser, be returned to us with transportation charges prepaid, and which our examination shall disclose to our satisfaction to have been thus defective; this warranty being expressed in lieu of all other warranties expressed or implied and of all other obligations or liabilities on our part, and we neither assume nor authorize any other person to assume for us any other liability in connection with the sale of our vehicles.

This warranty shall not apply to any vehicle which shall have been repaired or altered outside of our factory in any way so as, in our judgment, to affect its stability or reliability, nor which has been subject to misuse, negligence or accident, nor to any commercial vehicle made by us which shall have been operated at a speed exceeding the factory rated speed or loaded beyond the factory rated load capacity.

We make no warranty whatsoever in respect to tires, fenders, lighting apparatus, horns, or other signaling devices, starting devices, generators, batteries, speedometers or other accessories, inasmuch as they are usually warranted respectively by their manufacturers.

THE COMMISSIONERS' COURT has passed an order appropriating a small sum annually for part of the salary of a Home Demonstration Agent for Deaf Smith county.

The members of the Court are to be congratulated upon this timely, worthy and patriotic step. Uncle Sam is calling upon us to push the War Garden of 1918; to put every available foot of space into garden stuff that can be canned, or dried or preserved; to feed ourselves, and in addition, help feed our allies.

"What is everybody's business is nobody's business," and were the matter left to local citizens alone very little tangible, concrete result would be obtained. The principal good we can derive from this lady's efforts will not perhaps be from the technical knowledge she may or may not bring to the work, but through the fact that upon her will center the responsibility of organization, of getting us all to keep thinking about our duty in this crisis, in constantly keeping the matter before our consciousness. She will do this, because she will have nothing else to do, will make it her daily duty and give to it her best thought and effort. None of the rest of us have the time or incentive she will have to make this the paramount thing immediately in front of us.

And in this connection, let us remember that this Agent can not accomplish much without our cooperation, and kindly help. Whatever you may think about the benefits she can bring to us, at least give her the benefit of the doubt; bury your personal beliefs and convictions about the benefits of the work, and if you can't help then get out of the way in silence and give her a decent chance to show how she can help us. Destructive criticism is the most merciless and unnecessary thing in the world.

This is not the time to allow our personal opinions and prejudices to interfere with the war work the Government is demanding of us. If we are out of harmony in any part of Uncle Sam's program the best thing to do, it seems to us, is to step aside and allow the other fellow to try to make up for our default.

Three carloads of Holstein Dairy cows will arrive this week and be planted in this vicinity. Another fine step in the right direction.

Then we have a special committee on a County Fair at work, another on the encouragement of the small stock farmer, another on ways and means of pushing the irrigation development of this section, another is getting ready to study the pure bred Hereford expansion question, another is working on the highway problem; the Trades Day has been firmly established, etc.

All of the above items being the result of the work of the Chamber of Commerce. The officers of that organization are not talking much, but are working silently, systematically and directly to the point in the gradual development of the agricultural and live stock interests of this section.

A Hereford man in the Seattle postoffice recently overheard a native voicing his disapproval of the raise of one cent in postal rates on account of the war. The sentiment of the man from Hereford on the subject is here with reproduced:

ANSWER TO A KICKER
Does the penny raise on a postage stamp

Strike you like a blast?
You'll never miss it down the trail
When you size it up at last.

"Twill help the boys to bear the flag
Across Atlantic brine.
"Till they can sink the last U. boat
That ploughs the German Rhine.

When you have licked a three-cent stamp
Don't scratch your head and frown,
You're helping Uncle Sam to lick the wearer of a crown.

Before you've licked a billion stamps
The Hunns will be made wiser,
Peace will reign above the throne
Where the stamp helped lick the kizer.

CURTIS ANNOUNCES FOR COUNTY COMMISSIONER

The Brand is authorized to announce the candidacy of I. W. Curtis for County Commissioner, Precinct Number One.

Mr. Curtis has been a resident of this county for the past ten years, and is well and favorably known by a large circle of friends and acquaintances. He states that he has no other motive in seeking the office other than that his neighbors and friends urged him to make the race, and he feels that if his candidacy is demanded he should endeavor to do his duty as a citizen.

The Brand takes pleasure in presenting the name of Mr. Curtis to the voters of his precinct.

The Kaiser grins every time someone buys a non-essential instead of a Thrift Stamp. Give the old duffer a green persimmon taste by investing in a little sticker.

THE KAISER'S PRAYER

W. B. Farmer of Hereford, whose son is a member of the crew of the U. S. S. "Pennsylvania", is in receipt of a copy of "The Ditty Box," a monthly publication printed on the battleship for the amusement and instruction of the crews of the vessels composing the Atlantic fleet. The following poem on the Kaiser is printed in "The Ditty Box" and The Brand reprints it, thinking it may be of interest to local readers:

Communication from the Junior to the Senior Prussian partner.
Mine Gott, will you be mine partner?
You don't know who I am;
I am der German Kaiser,
Der Emperor Bill I am

You know I ripped dem Belgians,
Mit bullets filled Russians fall,
Und I'll rip France and Italy
Und blow up Jonny Bull.

Und foe dem other nations
I do not give a tam,
If you will be mine partner
Ve'll rip dot Uncle Sam.

You know I got dem submarines
All Europe knows dot well,
But Ellison got a patent now
Not shake them all to hell.

Now Gott, if you will do dis
I got you'll always love,
Did I'll be superior of de earth
Vile you can rule above.

But Gott, if you refuse dis,
Tomorrow night at seven
I call my Zeppelins all out
I'll make some war on heaven.

I wouldn't ask dis of you Gott,
But it can be plably seen
Dot when Ellison push dot button
I got to submarine.

twenty-one days on the wheel, that is, he received twenty-one days' field punishment No. 1, or "crucifixion," as Tommy terms it.

This consists of being spread-eagled on the wheel of a limber two hours a day for twenty-one days, regardless of the weather. During this period, your rations consist of bully beef, biscuits and water.

A few months later I met this sentry and he confided to me that since being "crucified," he had never failed to pass the word down the trench when so ordered. In view of the offense, the above punishment was very light, in that failing to pass the word down a trench may mean the loss of many lives, and the spoiling of some important enterprise in No Man's Land.

CHAPTER VI.

"Back of the Line."

Our tour in the front-line trench lasted four days, and then we were relieved by the — brigade.

Going down the communication trench we were in a merry mood, although we were cold and wet, and every bone in our bodies ached, all makes a lot of difference whether you are "going in" or "going out."

At the end of the communication trench, limbers were waiting on the road for us. I thought we were going to ride back to rest billets, but soon found out that the only time an infantryman rides is when he is wounded and is bound for the base or hospital. These limbers carried our reserve ammunition and rations. Our march to rest billets was thoroughly enjoyed by me. It seemed as if I were on furlough, and was leaving behind everything that was disagreeable and horrible. Every recruit feels this way after being relieved from the trenches.

We marched eight miles and then halted in front of a French estaminet. The captain gave the order to turn out on each side of the road and wait his return. Pretty soon he came back and told B company to occupy billets 117, 118 and 119. Billet 117 was an old stable which had previously been occupied by cows. About four feet in front of the entrance was a huge manure pile, and the odor from it was anything but pleasant. Using my flashlight I stumbled through the door. Just before entering I observed a white sign reading: "Sitting 50, lying 20," but, at the time, its significance did not strike me. Next morning I asked the sergeant major what it meant. He nonchalantly answered: "That's some of the work of the R. A. M. C. (Royal Army Medical Corps). It simply means that in case of an attack, this billet will accommodate fifty wounded who are able to sit up and take notice, or twenty stretcher cases."

It was not long after this that I was one of the "20 lying."

I soon hit the hay and was fast asleep, even my friends the "cooties" failed to disturb me.

The next morning at about six o'clock I was awakened by the lance corporal of our section, informing me that I had been detailed as mess orderly, and to report to the cook and give him a hand. I helped him make the fire, carry water from an old well, and fry the bacon. Lids of dixies are used to cook the bacon in. After breakfast was cooked, I carried a dixie of hot tea and the lid full of bacon to our section, and told the corporal that breakfast was ready. He looked at me in contempt, and then shouted, "Breakfast up, come and get it!" I immediately got wise to the trench parlance, and never again informed that "Breakfast was served."

It didn't take long for the Tommies to answer this call. Half-dressed, they lined up with their canteens and I dished out the tea. Each Tommy carried in his hand a thick slice of bread which had been issued with the rations the night before. Then I had the pleasure of seeing them dig into the bacon with their dirty fingers. The allowance was one slice per man. The late ones received very small slices. As each Tommy got his share he immediately disappeared into the billet. Pretty soon about fifteen of them made a rush to the cookhouse, each carrying a huge slice of bread. These slices they dipped into the bacon grease which was stewing over the fire. The last man invariably lost out. I was the last man.

After breakfast our section carried their equipment into a field adjoining the billet and got busy removing the trench mud therefrom, because at 8:45 a. m. they had to fall in for inspection and parade, and we betide the man who was unshaven, or had mud on his uniform. Cleanliness is next to godliness in the British army, and Old Pepper must have been personally acquainted with St. Peter.

Our drill consisted of close-order formation, which lasted until noon. During this time we had two ten-minute breaks for rest, and no sooner the word, "Fall out for ten minutes," was given than each Tommy got out a fag and lighted it.

Fags are issued every Sunday morning, and you generally get between twenty and forty. The brand generally issued is the "Woodbine." Sometimes we are lucky and get "Goldflakes," "Players" or "Red Hussars." Occasionally an issue of "Life Rays" comes along. Then the older Tommies immediately get busy on the recruits and trade these for "Woodlines" or "Goldflakes." A recruit only has to be stuck once in this manner, and then he ceases to be a recruit. There is a reason. Tommy is a great cigarette smoker. He smokes under all conditions, except when unconscious or when he is reconnoitering in No Man's Land at night. Then, for obvious reasons, he does not care to have a lighted cigarette in his mouth.

Stretcher bearers carry fags for wounded Tommies. When a stretcher bearer arrives alongside of a Tommy who has been hit the following conversation usually takes place: Stretcher bearer—"Want a fag? Where are you hit?" Tommy looks up and answers, "Yes. In the leg."

After dismissal from parade, we returned to our billets and I had to get busy immediately with the dinner issue. Dinner consisted of stew made from fresh beef, a couple of spuds, bully beef, Maconochie rations and water—plenty of water. There is great competition among the men to spear with their forks the two lonely potatoes.

After dinner I tried to wash out the dixie with cold water and a rag, and learned another maxim of the trenches—"It can't be done." I slyly watched one of the older men from another section, and was horrified to see him throw into his dixie four or five double handfuls of mud. Then he poured in some water, and with his hands scoured the dixie inside and out. I thought he was taking an awful risk. Supposing the cook should have seen him! After half an hour of unsuccessful efforts I returned my dixie to the cook shack, being careful to put on the cover, and returned to the billet. Pretty soon the cook poked his head in the door and shouted: "Hey, Yank, come out here and clean your dixie!" I protested that I had wasted a half-hour on it already, and had used up my only remaining shirt in the attempt. With a look of disdain he exclaimed: "Blow me, your shirt! Why didn't you use mud?"

Without a word in reply I got busy with the mud, and soon my dixie was bright and shining.

Most of the afternoon was spent by the men writing letters home. I used my spare time to chop wood for the cook and go with the quartermaster to draw coal. I got back just in time to issue our third meal, which consisted of hot tea. I rinsed out my dixie and returned it to the cookhouse, and went back to the billet with an exhilarated feeling that my day's labor was done. I had fallen asleep on the straw when once again the cook appeared in the door of the billet with: "Blime me, you Yanks are lazy. Who is—a-goin' to draw the water for the mornin' tea? Do you think I'm a-goin' to? Well, I'm not," and he left. I filled the dixie with water from an old squeaking well, and once again lay down in the straw.

CHAPTER VII.

Rations.

Just dozing off, Mr. Lance Corporal butted in.

In Tommy's eyes a lance corporal is one degree below a private. In the corporal's eyes he is one degree above a general.

He ordered me to go with him and help him draw the next day's rations, also told me to take my waterproof.

Every evening from each platoon or machine-gun section, a lance corporal and private go to the quartermaster sergeant at the company stores and draw rations for the following day.

The "quarter," as the quartermaster sergeant is called, receives daily from the orderly room (captain's office) a slip showing the number of men entitled to rations, so there is no chance of putting anything over on him. Many arguments take place between the "quarter" and the platoon noncom, but the former always wins out. Tommy says the "quarter" got his job because he was a burglar in civil life.

Then I spread the waterproof sheet on the ground, while the quartermaster's batman dipped the rations on it. The corporal was smoking a fag. I carried the rations back to the billet. The corporal was still smoking a fag. How I envied him. But when the issue commenced my envy died, and I realized that the first requisite of a non-commissioned officer on active service is diplomacy. There were 10 men in our section, and they soon formed a semicircle around us after the corporal had called out: "Rations up."

The quartermaster sergeant had given a slip to the corporal on which was written a list of the rations. Sitting on the floor, using a wooden-box as a table, the issue commenced. On the left of the corporal the rations were piled. They consisted of the following:

Six loaves of fresh bread, each loaf of a different size, perhaps one out of the six being as flat as a pancake, the result of an army service corps man placing a box of bully beef on it during transportation.

Resting Back of the Lines.

Three tins of jam, one apple and the other two plums.

Seventeen Bermuda onions, all different sizes.

A piece of cheese in the shape of a wedge.

Two one-pound tins of butter.

A handful of raisins.

A tin of biscuits, or as Tommy calls them "jaw breakers."

A bottle of mustard pickles.

The "bully beef" spuds, condensed milk, fresh meat, bacon and "Maconochie rations" (a can filled with meat, vegetables and gravy water) had been turned over to the company cook to make a stew for next day's dinner. He POINTS ON PEANUT PLANTING: Prepared for Texas Food and Food Production Campaign by R. H. Curridge, State Agricultural Department.

It is pretty generally agreed that owing to the high food value of the peanut for man or beast, as well as its adaptability to a wide range of climatic and soil conditions in Texas, few crops promise so profitable returns the coming season. A few suggestions as to handling the crop may prove helpful to new growers.

It were better, of course, that the land should have been flat broken in the fall, so that the turned-under litter might be well rotted ahead of spring preparation of the ground. This should start with deep wide furrows, about three feet apart, using for the purpose a large solid sweep or small middlebuster. Bed on these furrows, both sides, with one-horse turning plow, set as deep as the furrows, being careful to leave no unbroken ground next to the lay-off furrows. If the land is foul with grass and weed seeds, and if vegetation has started, the first crop will be de-stayed by the foregoing procedure. If not ready to plant, or if grower desires to "lay for" another start of grass and weeds, the section-harrow may be run across the ridges, to hold moisture. When ready to plant, get part of the ridges with twenty-four inch sweep set flat, running again with the same sweep in the same place, being sure the second time, to get a little below the general surface, and especially if west of a thirty-five inch average annual rainfall. If the ridges are crossed with the section harrow it may be possible, by using two horses, to get below the surface and then some, with a single sweep-furrow. Follow the sweep with the planter. If acid phosphate is used, put in first furrow, and mix with narrow shovel, set deeper than the fertilizer. Give clean cultivation. Any grass left in the row will come out, roots and all, with the goobers, causing decided damage to the quality of the hay. Gradually work abroad, but not very high bed to the plants. As good a crop of peanuts as was ever grown upon the East Texas farm of the writer, was handled as above, and the land was not broken the previous fall. We have for several years been planting cotton in six foot rows, with peanuts between. We do not get nearly or quite as large per acre yield of goobers from wide rows, but we do get more than half a crop for the latter. For instance, as nearly as may be estimated, if the crop would be forty bushels per acre in close rows, we would get, say, twenty-five bushels per acre in wide rows. We have never tried cotton in five-foot rows with peanuts between, but believe that the yield of both cotton and peanuts will be relatively larger. The peanut market last season, was more suitable than the cotton market, and acre-for-acre, made as much money. We shall have something to say a little later about harvesting, threshing and selling. A new publication issued by the United States Health Service is the 250-page book, "Prevention of Disease and Care of the Sick," with a supplement on first-aid work. The book has 200 illustrations, and covers subjects relating to disease prevention, care and treatment of sick persons, and emergency measures in the treatment of accidental injuries. Constructive criticism will be welcomed by every government department; destructive fault-finding has no place in the American scheme of war. Unless you know that you can better existing conditions, can the fault-finding and back up your government.

The Army Recruiting Station at El Paso is in receipt of instructions from the Adjutant General reopening railway operating and maintenance regiments and urging that recruiting for those organizations be rushed. This is indicative of the rapid growth and near completion of Uncle Sam's transportation system in France. Engineer Regiments were the first forces of the United States to leave for France on our entrance into the War, to prepare for the American troops, and our transportation system in France is considered one of the most remarkable accomplishments of history. In addition, French railways that were badly depleted and in many cases destroyed have been rebuilt and improved by American railway men. Applicants accepted for these railway regiments will be sent for a brief period of training to camps in New York and New Jersey in order that they may be sent overseas with the least possible delay when needed.

ELECTRICITY IN THE ANDES
Highest Transmission Line in the World Located in Peru

On the top of the Andes Mountains in Peru the General Electric Company of Schenectady, N. Y., is building the highest electric power line in the world. Starting at Bella Vista, at an elevation of 12,000 ft. It crosses the continental divide at an elevation of 16,000 ft. near Ticlio, which is the highest railroad station in the world. On the west coast of Peru there are several rapid streams, among them the Rio Rimac, which has its source near the top of the continental divide, about 100 miles inland from Callao, where it empties into the Pacific. On its way to the ocean the Rio Rimac passes through Casapalca, where the Backus & Johnston Company have a large copper smelter. Some years ago this company constructed a small hydroelectric plant of 300 kw. at a point a short distance above Casapalca, and when, four years later, they decided to double the capacity of the smelter and install copper converters (which of course meant more power), it was decided to develop water power at Bella Vista, five miles below Casapalca. In the wet season, or for nine months of the year, sufficient water is available to develop 2250 kw., but during the dry season (June to September) there is only one-third of this amount. The dam was built of concrete and the intake made of two compartments so arranged that one of them at a time can be shut off and cleaned without interfering with the operation of the system. This feature is very important, because of the fact that between 400 and 500 tons of slag is dumped into the river from the blast furnaces at Casapalca every 24 hours. The canal, which is about one mile in length, is cut in solid rock and is entirely open except for one tunnel 500 feet long at the intake end. The power house is located at Bella Vista (meaning beautiful view), on the Central railroad of Peru. Its dimensions are 100 ft. by 35 ft., and the equipment consists of three-phase 60-cycle horizontal alternators, each rated 750 kw. The generators are direct-connected to impulse waterwheels working under a head of 250 feet, and are fitted with direct connected exciters. The switchboard consists of two generators and two transformer panels. The transformers are of the three-phase, water-cooled type, and are of the same capacity as the generators. They are operated in multiple and transform the voltage from 2000 to 10,000. The transmission line is supported by 25,000-volt porcelain insulators mounted on iron pipe poles spaced 150 ft. apart. Most of the material for these lines, as well as that for the dam and canal, was carried by llama and mules. The equipment of the substation at Casapalca consists of two 450-kw., 10,000-to-440-volt, air-cooled transformers, and two 500-kw., 10,000 to 2000-volt water-cooled transformers. Adjoining the substation is the old power house, the equipment of which consists of two 150-kw., 440-volt, three-phase alternators belted to Pelton waterwheels working under a head of 150 ft. and arranged for parallel operation with the Bella Vista plant. Over in England they have sentenced a man to prison for derogatory remarks about the United States. It's very humiliating to have to be taught the first principles of loyalty to a friend and ally, but we will have to endure it. Drives Out Malaria, Builds Up System The Old Standard general strengthening tonic, GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC, drives out Malaria, enriches the blood, and builds up the system. NOTICE: Concerning Food Administrator HOOVER and the HOOVER Electric Sweeper

SOME PATRIOTIC AMERICANS have criticized The Hoover Suction Sweeper Company, for calling their Electric Suction-Sweeper the "HOOVER". They have been charged with naming it after Food Administrator Herbert C. Hoover, to profiteer on his publicity.

WE WISH ALL TO KNOW that The Hoover Electric Suction Sweeper

is the oldest successful vacuum cleaner for nearly a decade has been known as the Hoover and was so named for this company's founders, manufacturers under the firm title of Hoover since the 70's.

THAT THE GREAT Food conserver, Herbert C. Hoover, and the great Work conserver, THE HOOVER COMBINED ELECTRIC CARPET SWEEPER and VACUUM CLEANER, should named alike is a coincidence.

WE WILL GLADLY DEMONSTRATE THE HOOVER

NOTICE TO CAR OWNERS

The present unsettled condition of the world has demanded so much of the Automobile industry that the Manufacturers and Jobbers have been forced to put their business on a C. O. D. or cash basis. This forces the Garage men to pay cash for all supplies. This being the case we, the undersigned, insist that all accounts be paid not later than the 10th of each month. With your co-operation we can continue our service without going on cash basis like most garages over the country. The people of Hereford and the surrounding country should be patriotic and not to waste gasoline that they cannot pay for. Water with ice in it should never be used for drinking purposes

Your physician will tell you that. With an Automatic refrigerator you get a built-in porcelain-lined water cooler. It forms part of the wall next to the ice, and requires no extra ice.

In other words, refrigerating both your food and water, your ice does double duty.

If you use bottled water you get an extra holder which is a patented article and can be used only by manufacturers of the Automatic.

The water cooler is lined with snow-white genuine porcelain and there is always a refreshing drink of cold water if you have an Automatic, the refrigerator that has everything good, plus.

Step L and look at this cooler when close by—and ask for an interesting booklet on the proper preservation of foods, etc.

WANTED-AMERICANS!

There are 90,000,000 of us in the United States—all in the family of our own Uncle Sam.

And Uncle Sam needs money—your money—everybody's money. He doesn't ask you to give it to him; he wants to borrow and pay you interest for it.

Maybe you didn't have $50 or $100 to lend him in Liberty Bonds, but surely you have 25 cents. If we, all of us, buy one thrift stamp—just one stamp apiece—that is $22,500,000, and if everyone of us buys $4.12 worth—25 cents worth from time to time for sixteen times—that's $370,800,000.

Your pin money does help. Doesn't it?

We don't know how much money you have—how much—how little. It doesn't matter, anyway. For it is getting to a point that every man—every woman—every boy—every girl—must make the business of helping win this war—the most important thing on earth.

Like the Liberty Bonds, the war savings certificates bear 4% interest. On January 1, 1923 each certificate will be worth $5. These stamps are exchangeable at face value plus accumulated interest at any time between now and January 1, 1923.

You can buy from your mail carrier or at the Post Office. Buy your first one today.
