Boy Who Moved From Hereford Three Weeks Ago Has Bulbar Polio

Polio, which has already set a new black mark for the number of cases in one week and for the first half of a year in Texas, came a lot closer to Hereford this week...

The Craig family moved from Hereford to McLean, stopping in Tulla for a few days while the boy became ill, but the case was not diagnosed as polio at that time.

His condition was reported improved Saturday, but still serious. He is believed to have the bulbar type which is the fatal type of the disease.

Although Tulla doctors could not be certain, they said he probably contracted polio from an outside toilet. The boy's father, Jack Craig, worked as a body man in the Ford maintenance shop here before moving.

A total of 124 cases were reported in Texas in the week ending July 1. Thus far, 948 cases have been reported from 122 counties in the state this year.

Price Supports Revealed For 1950 Grain Sorghums

Secy. of Agriculture Charles F. Brannan announced a 1950 crop price support Friday of $1.87 per hundred-weight for grain sorghums...

At the same time, Brannan announced these 1950 price supports, 71 cents a bushel, rye, $1.28 a bushel; and barley, $1.10 a bushel.

Announcing the price supports under the 1949 Agricultural Act, Brannan made the following statement: "Producer prices for oats, barley, rye and grain sorghums have been protected by the support program during all the years since the war...

support for these crops, we took into consideration the feed value, price, demand and other relationship among these grains, and between these and corn, our major feed grain.

A spokesman for the agriculture department said that CCC still holds half of last year's crop even after the sale last week of 200,000 tons—or about 5,000,000 bushels—of milo maize to the government of India.

The Agriculture Department said the price support program on grain sorghums, oats, rye and barley will be conducted the same as last year.

State Vice-President Will Install Jaycee Officers

J. L. Pate, Jr., Amarillo, State Vice-President of the Texas Junior Chamber of Commerce, will install new officers of the Hereford Junior Chamber of Commerce Tuesday night in Hotel Jim Hill banquet room.

Emmanuel Edquist of the Amarillo Toastmasters Club is scheduled to speak. Following the buffet supper a dance will be held in the hotel ballroom.

New Jaycee officers will be Jerry Stoltz, president; Dick Lucas, vice-president; Directors, John Aiken, Ed Skypala, Bill Toward, Dick Barrett, Jim Terry and Darrell Blanton.

Hold-over directors, Ivan Block, Kenneth Coker, S. A. Juckworth, Leo Hellman, Harold Loerwald and Gerald Wilson will make up the rest of the board along with the outgoing president, Paul Conaway.

Pate attended Amarillo High school and West Texas State College, Canyon, Texas where he received a B. S. Degree in 1939 and a B. B. A. in 1950. He is presently affiliated with the Southwestern Drug Corporation, Amarillo, with the title of Credit Manager.

Pate has been a member of the Amarillo Jaycees for four years and has served on the Board of Directors for three years. He served that club as State Director for the year 1949-50 and has worked on such key committees as: Youth Welfare, Membership, Aviation and Universal Understanding. He was elected to the office of State Vice President at the organization's 32nd annual convention in Fort Worth on April 15, 1950.

The bad thing about the situation is the fact that it is going to get worse instead of better," declared Dr. L. B. Barnett, City and County Health officer. He pointed out that three doctors had been serving the area until recent months, whereas he said six doctors will serve the community in the next few months.

"The Skipper Surprised His Wife" Prevue Is For 4-H, CHD Members

All Deaf Smith County Home Demonstration club members and 4-H club girls are invited to attend the prevue of "The Skipper Surprised His Wife," courtesy of the Hereford Brand and Texas Theatre Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

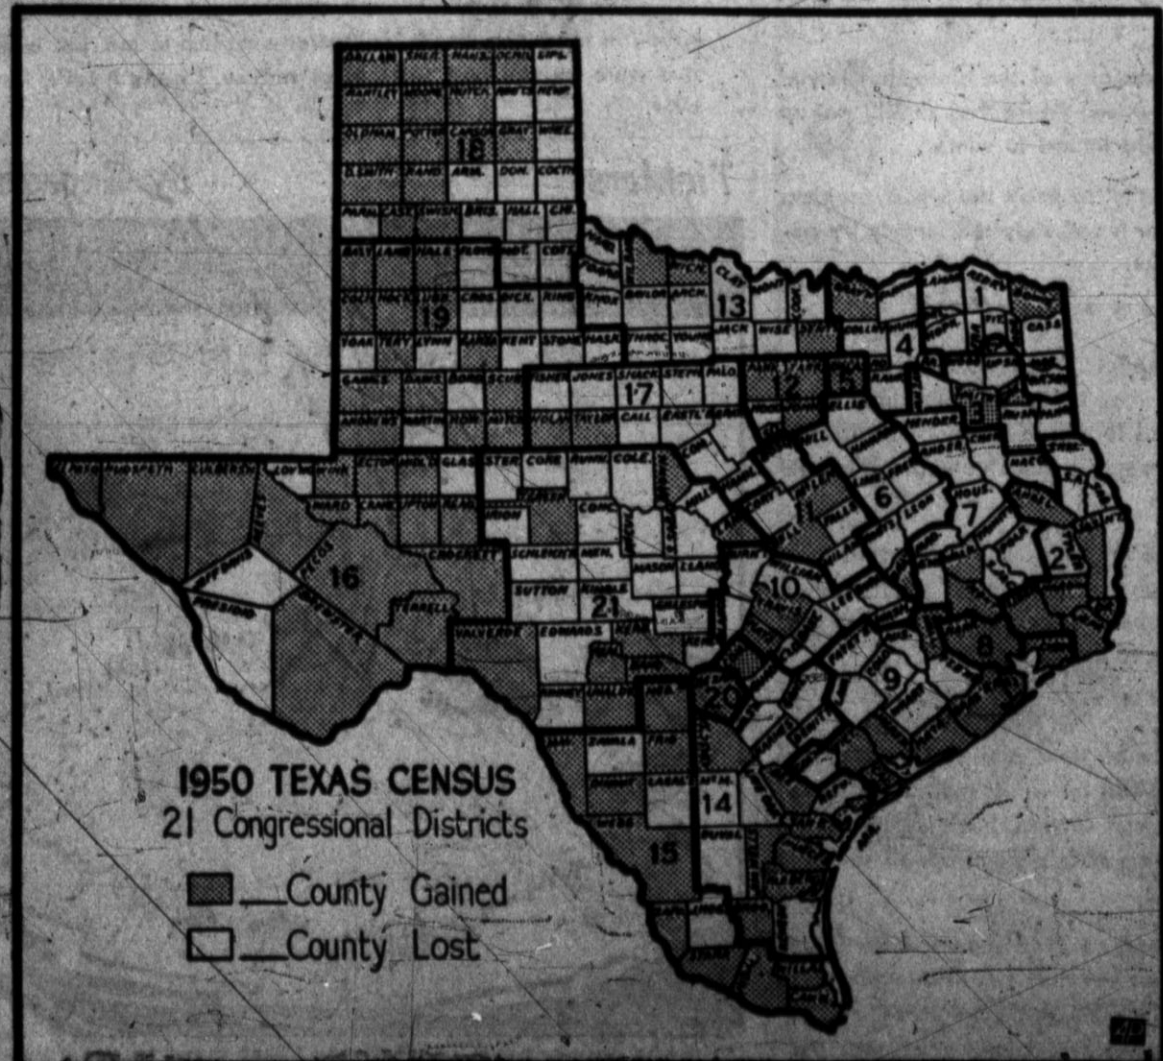

Tickets will be available in the Brand up to showtime. No tickets will be sold for this showing of the hilarious story of a Navy man who came home with a lot of new domestic ideas that are screamingly funny.

The prevue is being shown in appreciation for the work county Home Demonstration and 4-H clubs have done during the past year.

The show is a Battle of the Sexes, with love, laughs and the U. S. Navy caught in a melee of fun. A sterling supporting cast features Edward Arnold, Spring Byington, Leon Ames and Jan Sterling.

Arnold plays an admiral who rules the waves but not his wife Miss Byington, as the latter, is the typical "little woman" who can trim any man's sails. Leon Ames is the doctor who teaches Walker the facts of home life.

It will be good, and all 4-H girls and County Home Demonstration club members are urged to attend.

War Making Russia

It is very difficult for the average American to get accurate information upon vital issues in connection with world affairs. One of the puzzles is the war-making power of Soviet Russia. Estimates that we hear include over-exaggerated emphasis upon long-range bombers and highly-developed submarines, plus a tremendous army.

One of the most complete estimates yet made public comes from Comdr. William D. Greenhalgh, of the U. S. Navy, who says that Russia's power is by no means insuperable, even if we accept the unofficial estimate that the Russians have forty atomic bombs and can produce twenty-five more a year.

The Commander is a member of the faculty of the Industrial College of the Armed Forces and, one can conclude, in a position to know some of the facts that are available to military experts. As far as the limits of German conquest, he says, we know Russia and her potentials but beyond the occupation line, we know very little. "But the information," he continues, "keeps trickling in, and it's getting better and better."

If the United States does not relax in its industrial progress, the Commander is convinced that Russian leaders will not consider armed aggression a likely venture. He grants Russia's superiority in natural resources and manpower, but thinks that the Soviet Government is one of the country's weaknesses.

While present striking power is high, he reports that the Russian industrial capacity has only reached pre-war level and that this is not enough to maintain an armed effort. Moreover, lack of roads and railroads makes mobilization difficult and supply more so.

Looking into the Soviet's resources, the Commander finds vast resources in coal and iron but doubtful resources in oil. Despite the world's biggest manganese deposits the Soviet Union is deficient in copper, lead and molybdenum. Similarly, she is short on rubber, cotton and wool.

The naval officer says that Russia is the only country in the world whose heavy industry exceeds its light industry in size and adds that this means armaments. Moreover, since the Russians started after the war, the Soviet's armaments industry is the best dispersed in the world. Production in armaments is bigger than at the peak of the war, when the United States and Great Britain had to send so much to keep the Russian armies fighting.

Referring specifically to actual operative aircraft, the Commander ranks Russia first, with 19,000 on the line and a war production capacity of 60,000 a year. Of her 10,000 fighters, he said that half were jets. He estimated that she had only 400 long-range bombers comparable to our B-29's, while we have over 2,500 and are into production on much better and longer-range airplanes.

Commander Greenhalgh admits that Stalin has a bigger submarine fleet than Hitler — about 300 — but discounts the Russian vessels' ability as compared with our latest Snorkel types. He thinks that the chief weakness of Russian military power is lack of mobility, pointing out that with three times our area, Russia has one-third of our railway mileage and a small stock of cars, many of which are obsolete and slow.

Help Save America

Henry J. Taylor speaking on a safety program sponsored by General Motors on the radio one night the past week, asked the people to listen, for he had something to tell them. He said it was the job of every American to help save America, and he had a very important matter to discuss regarding the safety of our country.

On launching into the subject he declared there were 73 privately endowed colleges of our nation which do not require the student to study American history. He named many of them, and it was shocking to know that Northwestern, Harvard, Yale, Oberlin and probably three score more did not make it obligatory on the student to study the history of his own country. He said at the end of four years, the student is graduated and given a distinguished degree, graduating him in many subjects, but leaving out the all-important matter of knowing about the history of our land.

He named three exceptions however, and they included Amherst, Columbia and one other. He said a survey had been made among 1,600,000 students, and it was found that only 12 percent of them studied American history, and only six percent of graduate students had studied American history. Ninety of the educators surveyed agreed to the need of such study, but stated that only one out of every three state and private schools require it.

In these serious times, when the very foundation of our government is being undermined by subversive influences, the deep solemn need for young people to know how our country came into being and its development into the greatest nation on earth, is paramount to every other issue.

He said it was strange, indeed, that so many foolish notions are taught in our schools today but there is no time or attention paid to the very thing which vouchsafes the life of our land, and the happiness of its people.

For years, some thinking people have warned of the slow but sure spread of Communism over our land. Our revolutionary heroes are belittled, every valiant deed was made to look silly, morality, convention and spiritual values are relegated to a back seat and instead frothy, inspired chaff is dished up for the student to digest daily.

Fifteen years ago the Daughters of the American Revolution recognized Communist influence filtering through our land and issued sharp warnings. They were laughed at even by educators, caricatured in metropolitan papers, but were they wrong? Listen to the warnings from the pulpit and press today. Churchill has been telling the people for several years they will lose their freedom; Hoover has now come out warning that the American people must return to first things, citing the fate of those countries who were careless, and are now behind the iron curtain.

Wake up Americans, and guard your safety.

Use The A-Bomb?

Professor Arthur H. Compton, atomic physicist, expresses the opinion that it would have been unpardonable if the United States had not used the atomic bomb in the war against Japan.

The scientist thinks that we would have been traitors to mankind if we had not used the atomic weapons with tempered blows. While hoping and praying that atomic weapons will not be used again, Dr. Compton's remarks indicate that Western civilization must be able to utilize force in order to preserve itself from attack by barbaric aggressors.

There are a number of educators, preachers and moralists in the United States, who orate fervently about brotherly love but overlook the compulsion that rests upon civilized men to defend their faith, culture and civilization. To adopt a passive attitude in the face of an attack upon our way of life, is to aid and abet the enemies of civilization and, in essence, to be traitors to one's faith.

The Federal Government will never be able to economize so long as every congressman is judged by his ability to "bring home the bacon".

Faith in democracy is not to be found in those who think that the master minds of business should run a country for the benefit of business.

THE Washington Merry-Go-Round

By Drew Pearson

Tax Probe Reopened

LAST JUNE, after a huddle of lawyers in Birmingham, Ala., an important income-tax fraud case was sent back to the justice department in Washington where it was marked "Closed—No prosecution."

The case involved Joe Mitchell and Sam Ripps of Mobile who were alleged to have profited from the sale of jewelry to army post exchanges during the war and then cheated the government out of income taxes.

But the lawyers' huddle in Birmingham decided that there was no case against Mitchell and Ripps, and sent it back for "no prosecution."

Six months later, however, on December 16, 1949, this column published the whole story of the Ripps-Mitchell scandal, including the fact that they were defended in Birmingham by Ben Leader, former law partner of U.S. Attorney John Hill, the man who was supposed to prosecute them.

Just a few days before this story was published, John Hill telephoned the justice department from Birmingham warning that "Pearson had one of his investigators in Birmingham probing the Ripps-Mitchell case." Three days later, when the story was published, Hill issued a general denial.

However, the justice department, with some of the new facts disclosed by this column, reopened the Ripps-Mitchell case. And the two men were indicted in Mobile.

Unemployment Picture

The council of economic advisers has presented a significant, secret, three-page analysis of the country's economic problems to the President. Here in brief is what Truman's advisers told him:

1. The major problem facing the country today is the sharp rise in unemployment.

A) During the month of January, unemployment set a record post-war high with 4.5 million out of work—almost a million higher than the previous month. Unemployment is now at 7 per cent of the total labor force, as against only a little over 4 per cent one year ago.

B) The increase of a million in the ranks of the unemployed in a 10-day period is considerably more than would normally occur at this time of year.

2. Partly offsetting the poor unemployment picture is the high level of home construction, business loans and bank clearings. In addition, those people who are still employed have not received any appreciable pay cuts.

3. In general, the present situation, while warranting the closest study, is not as yet alarming.

4. The basic problem is one of expanding the U.S. economy fast enough to absorb the ever-increasing number of people available to work. During the year 1949, for example, the labor force increased by 1.33 million. Today's high level of unemployment is due to the failure of the economy to grow sufficiently during 1949.

5. The present economic situation calls for action along three major lines:

A) The development of a program to stimulate business investment, planning for large public-works expenditures and increased attention to local areas of severe unemployment.

B) Continued government spending in order to pour money into the economic stream (defense spending, social security, unemployment compensation, veterans benefits, etc.)

C) The rapid settlement of the coal strike before coal shortages send a chain reaction of unemployment throughout the nation.

He Didn't Know It Was Loaded!

Louisa's Letter

Dear Louisa:

I am 18 years of age and I'm in love with a man of 25. We went out together for four months but we had to break up on account of people talking too much about us. We both hated to leave each other but we thought it was best as that was the only way to keep everybody quiet.

He told me to try forgetting him completely but I just can't. It makes three and a half months since we parted and my thoughts keep coming back to him and I feel lost and lonely.

If I go to a dance and he happens to be there I never seem to have fun but he seems to enjoy himself wherever he goes. How can we get together again?
W.W.—Alberta, Can.

Answer:

I cannot understand why people should talk about you for going together if you were behaving yourselves. And even if they did talk? Why should you have to break up and try to forget if you loved each other?

I hate to cause you any more grief but from the last paragraph in your letter when you write that he seems to enjoy himself wherever he goes, it seems to me that he must have tired of going steady and decided that was the easiest way to end the affair.

Believe me, W.W., if a man is really in love with you, he is not going to let a few caty remarks make him give you up. So, reading between the lines, I think the wisest thing you can do is to try and forget him. Don't fool yourself that he is in love with you, for if he was nothing would keep him from trying to see you and at his age he would be talking marriage.

You did not say that your young man was single but I presume he is. But if he is a married man, I certainly have no sympathy for you. Any single girl who runs around with married men is not only looking for trouble but usually finds it and has only herself to blame.

LOUISA.

Dear Louisa:

I will soon be sixteen years old and mother thinks I am too young to talk to boys. All the other girls go out but I have to go with a girl. What can I do in a fix like this.

A. L. B.—Va.

Answer:

A girl is never too young to talk to boys. In fact I think parents make a grave mistake in not letting boys and girls have small parties and get together when they are young so they will get used to each other and not be carried away by the first smooth talker they meet when they are finally allowed to go with the other sex.

I do not think that parents should just turn their children loose to go where they please and with whom they please and stay with all hours. But I think they should know the boys their girls go out with, they should know where they are going and require them to be home at a reasonable hour. And, if they have given them the right home training, have told them the things they should know and how to distinguish between what is right and what is wrong, they will be able to allow them more freedom and know that they are safer than if they keep them in ignorance and try to protect them by keeping them shut in.

LOUISA.

Tater' Peelin's

By Roberta Campbell

The rollin' hills in southwestern South Dakota look like a real estate man's dream after last week's showers put a new green into the Western wheat grass and the short buffalo grass underneath.

There is little farmin' in this part of the state, but hayin' is gettin' underway and the stockmen figure they should put up a ton for each head of stock they intend to winter.

Government dams are helpin' to solve the water problem on the ranges but drinkin' water is still supplied largely by cisterns or water hauled from tanks.

There was nothin' new about sheep shearin' yesterday except we got quite a surprise when these big sheep only average about 12 pounds of wool to our average of 18 pounds this year—maybe West Texas sand is more valuable than we thought.

Where the flocks are large they are much pleased with nine pound fleece but just when we were feelin' pretty good we found that their wool brings better than 70c a pound to our 38c which doesn't give us much to brag about after all.

People who have lived here all their lives tell us that in 1907 after the country was opened for settlement that there was a claim shack on every quarter-section, but that most of them left in 1911 when the grass didn't green up all summer because it was so dry.

That summer and the blizzards of 1949 seem to have been their greatest extremes in weather but they say that in the 20's the grasshoppers came, in the 30's the Dust Bowl came, and in the 40's the Texans came and they don't know which was the worst.

The BOOTLEG Philosopher

Editor's note: The Bootleg Philosopher is off on an international topic again this week. We can say this for him, he seems to know as much about the international scene as he does about farming.

Dear editor:
I borrowed a copy of the Brand yesterday afternoon off my neighbor's tractor seat where he had left it to keep the seat from getting hot, while he went to the house for a drink of water, a thick newspaper is hard to get along without in these days of mechanized farmin, and went on into the pasture out of sight, don't mind my neighbor gettin' mad but it's better to have him mad in general than mad at me in particular, can't say as much for a mad woman though, she ain't good for nothin' and is dangerous besides, and sat down under my favorite tree and read where the experts in Washington are now worryin' about how they're gonna keep up Europe's purchasin' power after the Marshall Plan ends in 1952.

Now of course you might argue the experts could spend their time worryin' about my purchasin' power right now and wait until 1952 to worry about Europe's, but I'm perfectly willin' to give Europe the edge just so I'm included.

As I understand the problem, we got to keep up Europe's purchasin' power in order to have continued good business in this country, and while I don't want to disturb the international scene, don't want to horn in on Europe's racket, but couldn't I help business out too by havin' my purchasin' power increased? I ain't sayin' I can help it as much as Europe, but I believe I can do it quicker as there ain't no ocean between me and the goal.

Right now I can think of two or three dozen major items I could use, which are within town in the stores ready to be sold, provided the government would stimulate my purchasin' power.

SUNDAY'S CURRENT QUESTION:

Answers On Similarity Of Wars Different

They refer to the Korean war as the "screwy war" just like they called World War II the "phony war" in its early days. Do you think the "screwy war" is the start of World War III?

Roy Oswald—I don't look for a war unless Russia takes Iraq or Iran. They are short of oil—or at least, that's what they claim—and they need the oil in order to have a war. If they take those countries, I believe we'll have a war.

Mrs. Wilma Carnahan—Having three sons, I am inclined to be afraid of it. We surely hope not. I think we have had enough wars, for our generation at least.

Jesse Stanford—Well, I doubt it. I think it's kind of a testing situation now, but I don't believe it will lead to a third world war. I think we have made up our mind to be firm. They are just testing us out to see what we'll do.

Mrs. Urlin Streu—I don't feel like it's the start of another war. However, it's rather difficult to know what Russia is going to do. I think that Russia is just waiting for us to get into it a little deeper. I don't feel like it is the start of another war, at least, I hope not, because I have a son in draft age.

G. P. Owen, Jr.—No, I don't think it is.

Dr. W. F. Graham—I think the shooting has started and it's only a few months until we'll be at total war. If it isn't a few months, it will be just a year or two. If this situation now "blows" over, something else will come up.

Mrs. Leora Robinson—It looks very much like it to me.

Mrs. C. R. Lady—Well, it could be. I haven't studied the situation too much, but it looks pretty serious to me. I'm afraid it is more serious than some of us realize. I hope it isn't, however.

Farmers Have Tough Time Getting Row Crops Started

By Wilma Marie Moore
Rains this week have amounted to nearly three inches. Because of the rains falling fast and hard many fields have washed; thus more replanting for row crops will have to be done.

Early Tuesday evening marked the beginning of one way to celebrate the Fourth of July. People from all over this community gathered to the Daniel Community House to bring their own eats picnic.

Food was spread buffet style so each person could help himself to what he pleased. After eating, games were played and then fireworks for the kiddies were displayed, however, the grown-ups enjoyed them, too.

Last, but not least, everyone ate ice cream and cake. Then the guests departed with that feeling of an evening well spent.

Those attending the picnic were: Mr. and Mrs. Joe Gill, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Campbell, Mr. Byron Campbell and children, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Shugart and Carolyn of Canyon, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Myers, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Higgins, and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Higgins.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Matthews, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. White and Jane, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Tooley and children, Mr. and Mrs. Winston Evans and nephews, Kenney and Wilbur Evans of Albuquerque, N. M., Mrs. J. T. McClain, Kathryn and Alice, Darleen, Billy and Horald Moore, and hostesses: Mrs. Byron Campbell, Joyce and Wilma Moore.

Mrs. Byron Campbell and Mrs. Jack Higgins attended a shower in Canyon last Tuesday honoring Mrs. O. J. Bales.

Visitors in the Bob Axe home Sunday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Al Frye and children from Wyche.

Wilbur and Kenney Evans of Albuquerque have spent the past two weeks in the home of their aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Winston Evans.

Miss Joyce Moore is spending a few days in Canyon with a cousin, Carolyn Shugart, formerly of this community, while Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Shugart are attending the funeral of Mrs. Shugart's cousin Joe Hudgins.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Myers, Mrs. W. R. Moore, Wilma Moore and T. J. Carter were visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Don Bartlowe in Amarillo, Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Johnson and son, Tommy Wayne, from Lella Lake were week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Selvalley last week. Mrs. Johnson is Mrs. Selvalley's sister.

Callers on Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Myers Wednesday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Ceell Roark of Wildorado.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Smith and Treva Ray, were visitors in the J. T. McClain home Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Selvalley and children, and T. J. Carter visited with Cody Yangell and Mrs. A. E. Vandell of North Hereford Tuesday night.

Lyndal McGee of the Progressive Community was a caller in the W. R. Moore home Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Byron Campbell were visitors of her mother, Mrs. Bob Bowling in Canyon Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Neil Downing and children were visitors in the Toy Price home Tuesday. Mrs.

Downing is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Price.

Pajo Dura State Park was the meeting place for the Ed Peacock's family reunion last weekend. Twenty-five people attended and they are as follows: Mrs. May Ingle, Altus, Okla.; Luther Peacock, Otho Peacock, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Mitchell and family, all of House, N. M.; Mrs. Tom Clark of Parish, Florida; Mr. and Mrs. Travis Peacock and children, Travis, Don, and Virginia, Vernon; Mrs. Lena Cocker of Nevada, Texas; Mrs. Mack Cocker and three children from Houston; Mr. and Mrs. Horace House of Pampa; and Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Goodner of Oklahoma City.

Remaining a few days after the reunion were Mrs. Ed Peacock, Mrs. Tom Clark, Mrs. Mack Cocker, and Mrs. Lena Cocker.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Fraley of Shafter, California visited in the home of Mrs. Fraley's aunt, Mrs. Ed Peacock on Thursday.

Fish Scramble Is Scheduled Today

A "fish scramble" will be held Sunday afternoon at the Hereford Municipal Swimming Pool, according to Bud Brady, manager. There is no age limit on entrance. Anyone who is interested may register at the pool beginning at 1 o'clock. A 25-cent entry fee will be charged.

At 1:30 a large gold fish will be turned loose in the pool and 30 minutes will be allowed for the scramble, Brady said. A season pass will be awarded the person who catches the fish. Ample protection will be furnished the contestants, Brady said. One life guard wearing a diving helmet will be at the bottom of the pool watching to see that no one is knocked under. This is the first such event staged at the local pool, according to the manager, but it took a pool full of youngsters just 20 minutes to catch the fish in a scramble staged recently at Lubbock. The public is invited to watch the scramble, and the pool will be opened for the regular swimming session at 2 o'clock.

HOSPITAL

A reduction on the hospital payroll will naturally result in a loss of hospital service and will result in general complaining. Mathies continued. He also offered his resignation as manager, but the board refused to take action.

Representing the county at the meeting were: L. H. Poser, judge; Troy Moore, John Morris and J. T. Quinn, commissioners. Board members present were: T. H. Saigler, Jr., Colby Conkright, Millard Nobles and Ray Cowser. Dr. H. H. Cooke, Dr. R. R. Wills, and Dr. L. B. Barnett were also present and took part in the discussion.

COMMISSIONERS

Garbage Disposal Garbage must be in fly-proof, water-tight containers and kept closed at all times.

The City Health officer or his authorized agent may inspect any and all things offered for sale and can check any place or building at any time. Anything he has condemned must be disposed of and not sold. Similar fines can also be made for violating the last several sections. The ordinance was deemed an emergency and becomes effective immediately. The ordinance on the self service gas station says it has come to the attention of the City Commission that the construction of self service gasoline stations is contemplated to be erected within the corporate limits of the city.

Fire Hazard

After investigation, the City Commission finds that self service gasoline stations and automatic nozzles for the discharge of gasoline without the personal attendance of an employee constitutes a fire hazard and a menace to the health and property of the citizens of Hereford. Therefore, the Commission passed the ordinance saying it is unlawful for anyone to dispense gasoline in any way except by a hose personally attended by an employee or owner. A fine up to $200 can be made against violators.

Funeral Services Are Held For A. C. Trout

Funeral services were held Friday afternoon in the Dimmitt Church of Christ for A. C. Trout, 72. Mr. Trout died Wednesday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock while working.

Church of Christ Minister, W. C. Whanett, officiated at the services. Mr. Trout had been a member of the Dimmitt church for many years. He moved there in 1930 from Kent County.

He was born August 25, 1877 at Jacksboro, Texas and later moved from there to Kent County.

Two brothers, Milt Trout of Coolidge, Ariz. and Isaac Trout of Dimmitt, survive.

Burial was in Dimmitt Cemetery. Gilliland Funeral Home officiated.

North Hereford Club Meets In Koelzer Home

North Hereford Home Demonstration Club met Thursday afternoon with Mrs. M. H. Koelzer.

After roll call Mrs. H. E. Pettyjohn gave the council report. The program for the afternoon was a discussion of "Wills" given by Attorney Bruce Miller followed by a series of questions and answers. The next meeting will be in the form of a covered dish luncheon in the home of Mrs. Fred Saltzman on July 20.

Those present were Mesdames: Dudley Rutherford, Tony Hoffman, Otto Olson, Frank Brinkman, Fred Saltzman, Fred Barrett, Paul Hoff and the hostess, Mrs. Gertrude Neill assisted the hostess in serving refreshments.

Robinson Crusoe Party Given by Jolly Teens The Jolly Teen Horizon Club had a party the afternoon and night of July 4. The carefully planned party was in the form of a Robinson Crusoe picnic hunt in Veteran's Park. Each initiation was in the form of a map which led the club member and her guest to the picnic grounds of Veteran's Park. There they were all divided into two groups and given a list of eight items to hunt, one of which was "something alive to be brought back alive." The group which brought back a live field mouse won the prize. Each group was then given a map of hidden treasure. On following these, they found their picnic supper in three sturdy pirate chests hidden along the creek. After supper they had a display of fireworks. The members attending the picnic hunt were Betty Culpepper, Margaret Phillips, Gerry Patterson, Marion Jo Wilson, Nelda Guy Lawrence, and Bobbie Jean Drury. Their guests were Dorothy Veigel, Virginia Fogle, Charles Whitehead, Tommy Still, Charlie Russel, Louis LeGrand, Forrest Ricketts, Robert Miller and Buryl G. Fleh. Also attending were Mr. and Mrs. Guy Lawrence and Mr. and Mrs. Urllin Streu. Mrs. Streu is the advisor of the club.

Visiting the Floyd McGee family the past week were Norma Lee Goodkin from Maud, Okla. who came Monday, and Mr. and Mrs. Bud Godin from Malsvild, Oklahoma, who came Friday. They left yesterday.

Cultural HD Club Meets With Mrs. Raymond Palmer

By Mrs. R. C. Childers Associated Press Staff

A birthday celebration for Darla Sue Hill was held in the home of her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Corbitt last Sunday. Those attending were Mrs. Corbitt's mother, Mrs. N. A. Greer and sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon King from McLean; another sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Clements and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Payne and Michael Greer from Littlefield; and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Benson and sons, Tony, John and Bruce of Hereford. Mrs. Corbitt's daughter, Paula Beth, went home with Darla Sue to spend several weeks.

Bryan Snowder, from the Goodfellow Air Force Base at San Angelo, visited in the home of his sister, Mrs. Bob Wear, this week. Mr. Snowder is an aviator cadet.

The onion harvest is in full swing on the Jack Renfro place. Mr. Renfro has about 50 acres of onions.

Mr. Glen Tap from Farmersville was a visitor in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Palmer Monday afternoon. Mr. Tap is an old friend of the family. It has been 13 years since they had visited together.

Mrs. Wayne Johnson has returned from Plainview where she has been staying with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Hal Inman. Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Adams of Spur visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Palmer Monday. Mrs. Adams is Mr. Palmer's sister.

Donald Ray Palmer, son of Mrs. E. D. Palmer of Amarillo, is spending the week with the Raymond Palmers this week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Barclay visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Simpson in the Jumbo community Monday. Mrs. Simpson has been confined to her bed until Dr. Barnett returns and can determine her trouble. Joan Witherspoon is staying with her. Mr. M. L. Simpson, father of Mr. Simpson, went home from the hospital Wednesday. He will have to remain in bed for six weeks. Mr. Simpson was stricken with a heart attack two weeks ago and has been confined to the hospital since.

A picnic supper was held in the yard of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Adams the evening of July the Fourth. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Howard Gault and Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Hobson.

The potato harvest will be held up on account of the rain Tuesday night. E. L. Adams had planned to start Monday, but he isn't sure whether he will be able to or not.

Play Central Plains All-Star Game Here

All-Stars from the four Northern Central Plains League teams will engage the Southern All-Stars on the Veteran's Park diamond Wednesday night at 8:30.

Hereford Manager Glenn Anderson will pilot the southern team with ball players from Tulsa, Hart, Nazareth and Hereford on his team. They will face Manager Jim Halliburton of Vega and players from Vega, Canyon, Vigo Park and Umbarger.

Four players are to be named from each league team and the managers will choose their pitchers.

Stan Barrett, Raymond Lueb, Conrad Clark and Wendell E. Adine are expected to be the Hereford players in the line-up, plus John Renner as a pitcher.

An all-star team will also be picked from the entire league to play Paquach in the next few weeks.

Mrs. Emma Rettman and son, Orin Rettman, from Edinburg have been visiting in the home of Mr. C. A. Rettman and family recently.

Hereford Scouts Return From Jamboree Trip Today

Five Boy Scouts of Hereford were a part of the great National Jamboree, Boy Scouts of America, which opened Friday, June 30, at Valley Forge, Pa. More than 47,000 Scouts from all parts of America and 22 foreign countries were among the assemblage of the great opening convocation which had as a setting the site of General George Washington's Continental Army in the winter of 1777. President Harry S. Truman, who is also Honorary President of the Boy Scouts of America, delivered the opening address of the Jamboree. President Truman told the American boys that the youth of the Communist Countries are being forced into aggression. He said the American boys should not pay back hate with more hate, but spread the spirit of brotherhood.

One of the great pastimes of the Scouts is trading and swapping with brother Scouts such items as neckerchief slides, horn toads, insignia, porcupine quills and other types of objects.

The Kwahadi Indian group of Amarillo, which is a part of the Llano Estacado Council delegation have been featured in two evening pageants and programs and have become well known in the entire camp.

The Religious service on Sunday was an experience that will always be remembered by the Scouts attending the Jamboree. It was a huge gathering which was participated in by a Protestant minister, Catholic priest, Jewish rabbi, and a leader of the Church of Jesus Christ of the Latter Day Saints (Mormons). While the service was in progress from somewhere in the darkness an anonymous voice spelled out through loudspeakers the lessons of the convocation.

"In some parts of the world, men still are persecuted for their religious beliefs, and even somewhere in our land there is bigotry and misunderstanding.

"Freedom must be fought for continuously, and you Scouts must be leaders in that fight."

"Another great day of the Jamboree was the big 4th of July program with General 'Ike' Eisenhower participating and giving the address of the evening.

Following the closing of the Jamboree ceremony on Thursday, July 6, the Llano Estacado Boy Scouts departed the next morning for New York City where they spent the day sightseeing. They left New York City, making a trip to Niagara Falls, after which they will return home through Chicago and will arrive in Amarillo Sunday evening, July 9 at 8 o'clock at the Santa Fe depot.

Get 2.4 Inches Of Rain In Four Days

By Mrs. N. A. Brown
Brand Correspondent
Everyone in our community is rejoicing over the good rains which we received in the month of July so far. Saturday, July 1 we received .67 inch; Monday, July 3 we received .33; and July 5 we received 1.40 inches.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Northcutt and children visited in Hereford Saturday and attended the show in Hereford Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Thweatt were dinner guests Saturday at Mr. and Mrs. Walter Thompson. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Thompson were supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Thweatt at a local cafe Saturday evening and later attended the wrestling matches in Hereford Saturday night.

Mr. Dan Guseman who has been ill in Deaf Smith County Hospital is improving at this writing and was to have returned home Monday night. We all wish Dan a speedy recovery.

Mr. N. A. Brown and sons, Floyd and Ernest, made a business trip to Texarkana, Arkansas Thursday. They returned home Saturday with two loads of lumber.

Mrs. N. A. Brown and Mr. and Mrs. Eldred Brown attended the 25th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Lucian Madole at their home in the Hollens, N. M. community. Sunday evening, punch and cake were served to about 75 guests.

Mrs. Cecil Northcutt of Clovis is out looking after their farming interests in our community.

Bob Wear Speaks To Tulia Kiwanis

The rights, privileges, and liberties which we enjoy, as a very important part of our heritage, are just a dream for the majority of the people of this earth. We have in our possession the treasures for which millions of other people seek.

"The way of life which we know and love was first conceived in the minds of freedom-loving people, and is described in the following lines from the Declaration of Independence: 'We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain inalienable rights, that among these are Life, Liberty, and the pursuit of Happiness. That to secure these rights, governments are instituted among men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed.' These are just words, but they state our concept of life. It is our responsibility to preserve and pass on to posterity this priceless heritage," said Bob Wear in his address to the Tulia Kiwanis Club last week.

Mr. Wear continued, "The inalienable rights of the people are our rights, yours and mine, and we must guard them with diligence and use them wisely. In the first amendment to our National Constitution we have a statement of the fundamental human rights: 'Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press; or the right of the people peaceably to assemble, and to petition the Government for a redress of grievances. Each time we go to church service, read a newspaper, express our views, meet with friends and neighbors in public assembly, listen to the radio, or petition our government for reparation of a wrong we exercise our inalienable rights."

The speaker concluded, "We must be wise, alert, and courageous in opposing communism and socialism. We must keep the church and state separate. The church must remain free from state control, and the public money must remain free from church use. We must strengthen the home, the basic unit of our way of life, and we must maintain high moral and spiritual standards. We dare not do less."

Celebrate Fourth Of July With Fire Works, Picnic

The Sadie Lee Oliver 4-H club met last Thursday at the home of Mrs. J. C. Morrison with Patry Townsend, president, in charge. Lillian Drager gave a demonstration on Table Setting. Mary Lynn Morrison was hostess for the afternoon and had prepared cup cakes and punch for those present.

Members present included Ann and Gayle Wagoner, Lillian Drager, Patry Townsend, and Mary Lynn Morrison. Leaders present were Mrs. J. C. Morrison and Mrs. Abraham Drager. Sandra Townsend was a guest.

Larry Kaul left Friday morning for Hiawatha, Kansas to visit his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stoner and other relatives there. He will also visit his paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kaul at Sabetha, Kansas. This is Larry's first train trip alone. He has accompanied his mother on train trips a number of times. He plans to be gone two weeks.

This community celebrated the Fourth of July with a picnic supper and display of fireworks Tuesday night at the Merlin Kaul home. About 65 attended the affair which was held on the spacious lawn of the Kaul home. There was lots to eat including all the home made ice cream everyone could eat. According to Kelly Gray, "It's the best display of fireworks I've ever seen and," continued Kells. "I've never seen a bunch of boys have such a good time."

Those present included the families of Merlin Kaul, Kelly Gray, Johnnie Townsend, Elmer Combs, Billy Jackson, Harold Head, A. A. Head, Roy Lee Wilson, Joe Landers, Robert Boyd, J. C. Morrison of this community; Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Thomas, and children of Post, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Duckworth, Roger and Janis, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Williams, Beverly and Jerry, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Merritt and son, R. M. Gunn, Robert and Albert Schroeder, all of Hereford; B. B. Northcutt, Jimmy and Woodrow, and Don and Tracy Keeling.

Parts of this community have received rainfall four nights during the past week, bringing a total of more than two inches. The slow fall of the last rain, together with cool, cloudy weather has brought up some of the feed which several had thought they would have to replant.

The Westway Home Demonstration Club will meet next Wednesday in the home of Mrs. S. A. Duckworth at Hereford. After a covered dish luncheon, the ladies will be guests at the Texas Theater.

Mrs. Merin Kaul, who attends WTSC at Canyon this summer, reports having a visit with F. W. (Spec) Dodson last Friday. Mr. Dodson and his wife

Joan Riffey YWA Meets With Evelyn Tucker

The Joan Riffey Y.W.A. met Thursday night for its regular weekly meeting in the home of Evelyn Tucker.

Nora Jo McLallen, president, presided over the business meeting. After different topics of business were discussed, plans were made for a social July 20. The program on missions was brought up by Florence Goldston and Ernestine Owens of Houston.

Refreshments were served to the following: Nancy Cagle, Mollie Bettis, Glennys Goldston, Dona Airhart, Donna Jean Stagner, Reba Dones, Inez Tucker, Jane Welch, Florence Goldston, Ernestine Owens, Mrs. Wayne Williams, Mrs. Francis Graham, counselor; and the hostesses, Evelyn Tucker and Nora Jo McLallen.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Pierce and children, Randy and Becky, were visitors in the Marlin Pierce and Merlin Kaul homes the first of the week. They have been on vacation to several points including Kansas City and St. Louis, Mo. and Chicago, Illinois. They went through the Ozarks to Dallas and Abilene and from there back home. They report lots of rain everywhere they had been.

Mrs. Joe Wagoner is visiting this week in Tucumcari, N. M. in the home of her sister, Mrs. Van Colthrop. Her daughters, Ann and Gayle, are staying with Mrs. C. A. Saulcy.

WSCS Program Is On Jewish State At Fellowship

The Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist Church met Wednesday at 1 o'clock for the regular monthly fellowship luncheon at the church. Hostesses were Mesdames: Wayne Edwards, Paul Conaway, and John Ball.

Following the luncheon the group gathered in Ward Hall where a program on the theme, "The Jew and the New State of Israel" was presented. Mrs. G. W. Edwards, vice-president, presided.

Mrs. Don Davidson gave the devotional lesson on the subject, "Up to the mountains of the Lord." Mrs. I. H. Spratt told something of "Israel" and explained that through the refugee work done by the Christian churches and institutions, many Jews have acquired a feeling of security.

In discussing "An Age-Old Quest" Mrs. Ed Warren said that the first president of Israel has explained that the Jewish people would never produce either the money or the energy required to build up a wasteland and make it habitable, unless that land was Palestine.

Mrs. Homer Brumley told of the Jewish persecutions both preceding and following World War II, in a talk on the "Growth of the Idea of the Jewish Homeland." She pointed out that only after the pacifistic Jews became militant and proved their ability to fight, did the state of Israel become a reality in the summer of 1948.

In conclusion the topic, "What Is It To Us?" was discussed by Mrs. C. B. Williams. "The plight of the Jews may seem far removed from us, but we know now that we have all been affected by what has happened to them," she said. Mrs. Williams also gave the concluding prayer.

Birthday Dinner Held For Jeff Gilbreath

The children of Jeff Gilbreath honored him at a birthday affair given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Gilbreath in Dimmitt Monday night. A fried chicken supper and all the trimmings was arranged for the annual occasion.

Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Rhodes and children, Loyd Henry, Brownie, Robert and Jeff, of Tucuman, N. M.; Mr. and Mrs. Lisle Woodford and son Billy, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Gilbreath, Jr. and Royce, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Posey, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Gilbreath and Mrs. J. E. Kirby and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Petersen and son Gary of Lubbock, Mrs. Wagoner of Dimmitt, the honoree and the hosts.

ACTIVE MISS—The newest note in playboys this summer is a cotton boat shirt with a wide monk's cowl collar. The loose comfortable shirt is a favorite with the gals whose summers are filled with active sports.

Judy Price Celebrates Birthday With Friends

Judy Price, who was six years old Wednesday, celebrated her birthday with a party given by her mother, Mrs. Leroy Price, at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Beach.

Indoor games and party fun were enjoyed and toys were presented each youngster as a favor. Refreshments of birthday cake and ice cream were served to Beverley Ann Boyer, Lois Bosley, Judy Hoff, Coretta Gollehon, Norma Jean Gollehon, Camella Ann Anderson, Harold Anderson, Patsy and Bill Price, and the honoree.

Mothers attending were Mrs. Cecil Boyer, Mrs. R. C. Anderson, Mrs. Gerald Gollehon, Mrs. H. M. Beach, the grandmother, and the hosts.

Honor Rickey Roberts With Birthday Party

Two year old Rickey Roberts celebrated his birthday at a party given by his mother, Mrs. James N. Roberts, Monday afternoon. Tiny tot games were played and favors were plastic baskets filled with jelly beans and balloons.

Children enjoying the party were: Ronnie and Lee McMurry, Jr., Virginia and Dennis Warren, Mary Luck, Jake, and Barbara Tiesel, Patsy and Butch Howard, Mary and Ronnie Downey, Stephen Nelson, Coretta and Norma Jean Gollehon, Jack and Rickey Lucas, Beverley Roberts and the honoree.

Two Unusual Corn Bread Recipes Are 'Southern'

When it comes to cornbread, this finist of breads is well worth making and eating. There are two schools of thought as to how to make it, the water bread and the milk bread. Then there is the buttermilk method, but any housewife knows that it has to be good regardless of the method followed. Today's recipes include two unusual corn breads—Spoon Bread, more southern than fried chicken, and Corn Zephyrs, which gives a lowly bread some party airs. Both are good.

Mrs. Carl Perrin has worked these recipes out to a point where they always turn out just right. Try them and see for yourself.

Let's Cook Something

Spoon Bread

- 1/2 cups milk
  - 2 tablespoons butter
  - 1 teaspoon salt
  - 3/4 cup cornmeal
  - 3 eggs, separated
- Heat milk to scalding, add butter and salt and slowly stir in the cornmeal. Cook for one minute, stirring constantly; remove from heat and allow to partially cool. Stir cornmeal mixture into well beaten egg yolks, fold in stiffly beaten egg whites and pour into a greased four-cup casserole. Bake in a 375° F oven 35 or 40 minutes. Serve from baking dish with plenty of butter.

Corn Zephyrs

- 1 cup white cornmeal
- 1 tablespoon shortening
- 4 cups boiling water

Boy View Study Club Meets In Mathers Home

Members of the Bay View Study Club held a business session in the home of the president, Mrs. Paul Mathers, at 10 o'clock Thursday morning. The short session was attended by Mesdames: D. H. Alexander, Phillip Barkley, Lee Benefield, Henry Benson, H. G. Conkright, Howard Gault, E. W. Harrison, A. M. Jones, J. W. Kirby, J. P. Slaton, J. W. Spradley and the hostess.

1 teaspoon salt
4 egg whites

Combine meal and shortening and pour over them the four cups of boiling water. Add salt and allow the cornmeal to cook in double-boiler for 30 minutes, stirring frequently. Let cool, stirring frequently. Whip the four egg whites with a pinch of salt until stiff and fold them lightly into the cornmeal mixture. Drop the batter from a spoon onto a greased baking sheet and bake in a 350° F oven for about 30 minutes. Serve piping hot.

Sometimes Mrs. Perrin uses the egg yolks in this recipe too. They should be added to the batter before folding in the whites, and should be baked in a 425° F oven for 20 to 25 minutes.

Helen Ann Pitman, accompanied by Jean Wilson of Wichita Falls, left about three weeks ago for a national sorority meeting in Mackinaw, Michigan. They were there a week. They then went into Canada and visited in Ottawa and Toronto. They came back by Niagara Falls, New York, Washington, D. C., and in other cities and points of interest. Helen Ann was to arrive back in Hereford sometime this week end.

Mrs. Brown and Miss Frances Brown of St. Petersburg, Florida have been visiting with Miss Helen Francis Streu and Miss Bobbie Nance in Amarillo. The four of them came to Hereford to spend the Fourth with the Urlin Streu family.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Redwine went to Oklahoma City Friday, June 30 where Mr. Redwine saw a skin specialist. Their son, Clyde Ray, stayed with the J. B. Snead, Jr. family while they were away. Mr. and Mrs. Redwine returned to Hereford last Wednesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Jackson, parents of Mr. Clinton Jackson, spent a few days last week in Austin visiting three daughters.

Visiting the J. B. Snead, Jr. family July 4 were Mr. Snead's parents of Littlefield and an aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Snead of Lubbock.

Johnny Albright, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Albright, and Mark Matthews, spent the 4th with Johnny Albright's sisters, Bernadette Albright and Mrs. Harry Hill, in Roswell.

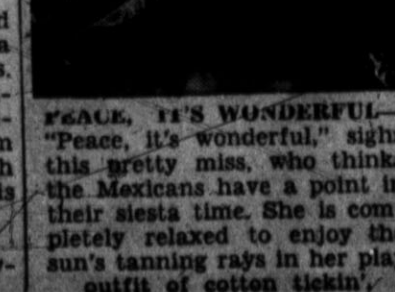

Mr. and Mrs. John Albright and Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Banner and children spent the evening of the Fourth in the Wyche Community visiting Mr. and Mrs. Albright's son, W. J., and his family. Among other interesting things which they did, they had a big display of fireworks.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Essley spent the Fourth in El Paso visiting Mr. and Mrs. Hal Bruner.

Leaving Saturday for several weeks' vacation in the mountains near Santa Fe were Mr. and Mrs. Ben Sudduth.

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Barnard spent the 4th of July in Pampa with Mrs. Barnard's mother, Mrs. Mattie Crutchfield. Their daughters, Denise and Kay Ruth, returned to Hereford with them after a two weeks' visit with their grandmother. Kay Ruth is now visiting in Chama, N. M.

 T. J. Graves purchased for the Hereford Public School the Murchison house, just across the street on the north from the school grounds. The purchase was made in view of the fact that they had about 70 more pupils enrolled than the year before and needed more space. The building was to be remodeled and "fitted" up for a school room for the first and second grades.

the Hereford Brand during July, 1905: How few people stop to think of the work a watch has to do each day to keep the time! Its little pulse beats 18,000 times every hour of (432,000 each day. The engineer oils his locomotive every hour or two—the ranchman oils his windmill every few days—in fact, sewing machines, threshers and all machinery ought to be oiled quite often. Yet, there are people who will carry their watches for years without having them cleaned or oiled and expect the little machines to go on ticking at their usual 18,000 per hour rate. Time keeping is the work of the watch and clock, but they must be in good condition to do their work. If your watch or clock is not doing as it should, bring it to me and I will tell you what is wrong.—John B. Vannoy, Optician and Jeweler.

The excursion train on two different days carried large numbers of Hereford people to the Canyon City reunion; so many went that the Hereford streets were somewhat deserted on those days. On the first day nearly 200 tickets were sold and about 100 the last day.

A. H. Elliston and family left by private conveyance for Canyon City where they camped during the reunion.

A matter of local interest which was being discussed was that the city make provision for a public park. Hereford had grown in the past five years from a mere village, with only a few houses, to a prosperous city of 2,000 people. It was suggested that Hereford purchase the lake, with adjacent lands, in the north part of town and beautify it with a splendid grove and other prerequisites for a first-class park. The lake could be constantly replenished, when necessary, by means of windmills; besides affording a resort

TEXANS In Washington

WASHINGTON, (AP) — A Texan told a congressional committee, last week that Mexicans are plenty good at dam and irrigation canal construction.

The witness was R. R. (Dick) Rubottom of Corsicana, chief of the Mexican affairs division of the State Department.

He appeared at a House Foreign Affairs Committee hearing in support of a bill by Rep. Lloyd Bentsen of McAllen. It would give the International Boundary Commission authority to acquire land to make other expenditures in the relocation of roads, power lines and other utilities in connection with the Falcon dam project on the Rio Grande.

Rep. Omar Burlison of Anson, a member of the committee, questioned Rubottom about progress on the $90,000,000 (M) development, located downstream from Laredo.

The witness replied that a contract should be let soon for actual construction to begin on the international dam. He said the U. S. is to put up the dollar costs required in procurement of such supplies as the equipment in the hydroelectric generating feature of the dam. The Mexicans are to furnish pesos in connection with the earthen and masonry barrier to be erected across the river.

Burlison then voiced the concern that others privately had expressed as to whether the Mexicans could be relied on in such an enterprise as the Falcon dam.

"Yes, sir," replied Rubottom. "I am happy to say that they have been scrupulously living up to their part of the agreement."

"And, you're very proficient at such undertakings as construction of dams and irrigation systems. They have built a great number, and are among the foremost nations of the world in this regard."

Texas' silver-haired Tom Connally, easily the most colorful member of the Senate, is the delight of spectators who throng the galleries.

No matter what the subject, he can be counted on frequently to arise and throw in some observations to help or harass a colleague who has the floor. Senator Tydings (D-Md.) was speaking for the military aid program and comparing the devastation of the South after the Civil War to post-World War Two Europe when Connally interrupted him.

"Let me say to the Senator from Maryland, with reference to what happened to the Confederate soldiers at the end of the War between the States, that my father was a soldier in the war, but that he never owned a slave, and he was not fighting for slavery," declared the Texas Senator.

Tydings: "Certainly not."

"He came out of the war with his farm completely in ruin," continued Connally, beginning to warm up to his topic.

"He came back and with his own hands, dug a subsistence out of the earth. Here the Senator bent his elbow, flexed his fingers and pawed the dignified senatorial air. But it took him years, of course, to build back to where it would have been except for the ravages and horrors of the war."

"So the Senator's description and comparison of what has happened are most striking, and I congratulate him for keeping those things within the view of our people."

Brig. General Paul L. Wakefield, director of selective service in Texas, was here for a national conference of such state officials when the Korean war flared.

Disclosing he had received word from home that the crisis precipitated a rush on Texas local boards, he observed:

"This would be a normal reaction in Texas in as much as Texans take more than a casual interest in wars where a people's freedom is involved."

He noted that the obligation to register under the selective service act falls on a boy reaching 18, although there is no liability for service until he reaches 19. The place of registration may be learned by inquiry at the courthouse, city hall, post office or local newspaper.

General Wakefield warned college and university students, as well as other registrants, that they should notify their respec-

Congressional officials are busy now editing and bringing up to date the big biographical directory that gives the background on every person who has served in either the House or Senate since the founding of the United States.

The last such volume covered the period 1774 to 1927. Directories are issued each year, but they contain only the list of the members of the current congress.

Changes to be made in the forthcoming book will include some editing on the sketch concerning David Crockett.

The Daughters of the Republic of Texas sent word that a couple of errors occur in the present sketch on the hero of the Alamo.

It says that he was one of a band of 140 men who fought in the San Antonio mission, whereas the figure should be 186. It also says Crockett's "remains are supposed to be buried in an unmarked grave in that vicinity, whereas information now on hand here is to the effect that bodies of Crockett and the others were burned."

Crockett was born Aug. 17, 1786

in Tennessee and commanded a battalion of mounted riflemen under General Andrew Jackson in the Creek campaign in 1813 and 1814. He was a member of the Tennessee House of Representatives in 1821-23; served in Congress as a Tennessee Democratic representative from March 4, 1827 to March 3, 1831; served as Whig from 1831 to 1835, then went to Texas after an unsuccessful fight for reelection to Congress.

The President has signed into law a bill to permit the legal entry into this country of the widow and child of a Texas soldier who was drowned May 23, 1949 at Umbarger Lake, near Amarillo.

Data presented to the house Judiciary committee and made public when it recommended passage of the bill disclosed that Private Billy J. Knight of Littlefield was married by a Catholic priest in 1947 while he was serving in Germany.

The wife was formerly Ellinger Pitterlich, Czechoslovakian. On Sept. 11, 1948 a daughter, Dorothea Knight, was born.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Knight of Littlefield, parents of the deceased soldier, have been sending food, money and clothing to the mother and child in Munich. The Justice Department reported that they had even sold their home and moved to a less desirable residence in order to be of greater aid.

The Workers 4-H Club met at the home of Mary Dafer, Tuesday, June 27, at 2:30 p. m. Mrs. Bill Hargette gave a demonstration on simple flower arrangement for the table. Refreshments were served to Colleen, Jan and Carolyn Cooke, Jeanne Palmer, Patsy Childers, Billy and Glenda Hargette, Nora Dean Aiken, Mrs. Bill Hargette, Mrs. R. N. Cooke and the hostess.

Borden and Company of Amarillo entertained their milk producers at the Jim Hill Hotel Wednesday night, June 28. Dinner was served and speeches made by Borden officials. Those attending from this vicinity were R. N. Cooke, M. G. Caywood, R. C. Childers and Raymon Childers, Jr.

Mrs. J. H. Babcock and son, J. H. Babcock, Jr. and daughter, Sweeie, were overnight visitors in the R. C. Childers home Wednesday. They left Thursday morning for their home in Kermit.

Mrs. R. C. Childers, Raymon Jr. and Patricia were Amarillo shoppers Thursday. They also visited Mrs. Childers' father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Johnson, and brother and wife and new daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John Johnson of Pampa.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Farmer and family moved from the Jack Renfro place into Hereford Wednesday. Mrs. Farmer is a member of the Cultural Home Demonstration Club. Davine Farmer is a member of the Workers 4-H Club.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Renfro have returned from Atus, Okla. where he has been harvesting potatoes. Mr. Renfro says he will start harvesting onions on his farm Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Grady Parsons were honored Sunday with a visit from her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Patterson and Neida from Lubbock.

Mrs. Wayne Johnson is staying with her sister-in-law, Mrs. A. H. Inman of Plainview, who recently had a major operation.

Mrs. Don Little, Home Economics teacher in Hereford High School, visited in the R. N. Cooke home Friday afternoon. Sue Cooke is helping her mother redecorate their home for her summer project in Home Economics.

A letter from A. S. Higgins of Texline says they have had some rain, too. They had a two-year-old heifer drown in a draw after a rain last week.

Mr. C. S. Barclay made a business trip to Amarillo Saturday afternoon.

One-half an inch of rain fell in this vicinity Saturday night. The rain was heavier to the south and west. It was just right for the crops.

Mrs. John McNeill of Canyon spent the week end with her daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hager at Black. Mrs. McNeill is Mrs. R. C. Childers' aunt. The Childers were visitors in the Hager home Sunday, and Mrs. McNeill came home with them.

Mr. E. O. Parsons, father of Grady Parsons, passed away Saturday night. His death was a great shock to the family. He died of a heart attack. Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at 3:00 at the Avenue Baptist Church.

Mr. Cordel McNeill of Canyon was a dinner guest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Raymon Chil-

Because . . . When Mrs. Housewife reaches for a loaf of bread or any other kind of food that comes from flour she selects that which is most pleasing to the palates of her family. When she comes across that which does not please her she immediately rejects it as inferior merchandise and refuses to buy it. So it goes from the housewife to the grocer to the baker then to the miller and finally to the grain elevator who must be extra careful in the wheat they buy. That is why we know the above varieties bring the best prices and are the most acceptable.

COMANCHE

Originated in Kansas from a cross of Ora and Tenmarq — 5 years old—high yields in all tests—suitable for all of winter wheat territory in Oklahoma and Texas—excellent in quality—fairly good straw—good test weight—proving popular with growers who have tried it.

WESTAR

Developed for the Panhandle region of Texas—from a cross of Kantel and Hard Federation with Tenmarq—similar to Comanche but higher in yield in the Panhandle—highly resistant to leaf rust but susceptible to stem rust—excellent bread making properties—extremely popular with Plains wheat growers.

WICHITA

Early—from an Early Blackhull cross with Tenmarq—made by Kansas—similar to Early Blackhull—better straw—higher yields—superior in milling and baking—approved for Texas Plains not for Oklahoma as Triumph has out-yielded it in most tests—Popular with growers from Amarillo south and southeast.

wheat acreage allotments and provides that the 1951 wheat acreage allotments for any county shall not be reduced below the 1950 allotments for the county by more than the percentage by which the national acreage allotment for 1951 is reduced, plus five per cent. Whatever extra acreage may be necessary to provide this minimum county allotment is to be in addition to the national acreage allotment. It is expected that this provision will apply principally in the newer wheat growing sections in the Great Plains area, and that probably not more than fifty counties in all will be affected. It takes the place of what is known as the Summer Fallow Amendment which was contained in Public Law 272 of the 81st Congress, which was passed last year.

Section VII of the bill restores the penalty of fifty per cent of the support price on all wheat marketed above quotas when marketing quotas are in effect. This provision has been in the law for years but was inadvertently eliminated in the Agricultural Act of 1949. This merely restores the old provision.

This penalty will not be in effect for the years 1950 and 1951, because there have been no marketing quotas announced, however, in future years, if marketing quotas are fixed the penalty becomes the rule.

For cotton growers: It looks as if the cotton acreage allotment for 1951 will be the same as it was for 1950. I make this statement because of a reported estimate from the Department of Agriculture. The estimated carry-over as of August 1, 1950 will be seven million bales and the estimated harvest is 10 million bales. This total of 17 million bales is within the estimated marketing quota of 17 million. To give you some idea of how they arrived at this figure I quote the following figures: By using the domestic and export consumption and adding 30 per cent of this total the Department arrives at the marketing quota figure.

The Bill H. R. 8969 is not a perfect bill, nor did the sub-committee on cotton report it as such, but after six months of conference, discussion, arguments, and sometimes heatedly, the sub-committee reported this bill to the full committee on June 28th and it was unanimously approved. I personally attended several of the sub-committee meetings and listened to the many pro's and con's and on every problem, and even though I was not a member of the sub-committee nor a member of the Agriculture Committee at that time, I was allowed to ask some questions and present some of the problems of my District. My main suggestion was that I felt that the State Committee and the County Committee should have unlimited discretion within their respective States and the Counties. This bill gives to the State and the County more home rule than any cotton bill ever written has given.

The State Committee is allowed to retain as much as 10 per cent of the total acreage in the State for adjustments in County allotments for trends, for abnormal conditions, for incomplete or inaccurate basic county cotton data, and, upon proper showing by the county committee, that they have inequitable county allotments, and for new farms, small farms, and for farms adversely affected by abnormal conditions (for example drought) and for adjustments by the county committees who do not have enough reserve to sufficiently provide for equitable farm allotments.

The County Committee can withhold 15 per cent of their County allotment for distribution for the same reason as given to the State and I repeat, they can obtain from the State additional acreage if their 15 per cent reserve is insufficient to provide equitable farm allotments.

Now this bill sets up a three year temporary program for the years 1951, 1952, and 1953. At the end of the three years the cotton allotment will start on a straight history basis. This is fundamentally the rules of the Cotton Bill and today I am sending out to all of the F.M.A. County Committees copies of H. R. 8969 for their study. Texas, as well as the other states, will get her proportionate share of the National allotment and as I have stated, it will probably be the same allotment that we got in 1950. It is up to the State Committee and the County Committee to iron out their own local problems and I think it a wonderful idea to deal with these problems at home rather than be told what to do from the Capital at Washington, D. C. You must bear, this in mind, with the State allotment and with the reserves withheld by the State and the County committees, that if cotton acreage is given to one it must be taken away from someone else, but I feel that we at home can iron out our difficulties practicing the Golden Rule and be much better off rather than be dictated to by bureaucrats in Washington.

Maim Street by Ralph Stein

Davis whose residence, names and addresses are unknown to plaintiff and his attorney, Defendant, Greeting:

You are hereby commanded to appear before the Honorable District Court of Deaf Smith County at the Court House hereof, in Hereford, Texas, at or before 10 o'clock A. AGRICULTURAL WEED-NO-MORE
A Proven Ester Formulation of 2,4-D

The new miracle chemical 2,4-D in Agricultural Weed-No-More, brings you the practical, low-cost way to kill weeds in growing small grains.
Spraying Agricultural Weed-No-More on young corn is faster than cultivating, kills weeds right up to the corn plants, makes row-planting practical.
On pastures, fence rows, ditch banks, and grassed waterways, Agricultural Weed-No-More kills many weeds, spots and all.
Agricultural Weed-No-More goes on fast—covers 7 to 15 acres per hour. It goes far, too—mix to 2 plants in only 5 gallons of water treats 1 acre! Apply it by the new low-galloonage method developed and proved by Sherwin-Williams Research. Use a simple, low-cost rig that you or any local shop can quickly assemble.

AGRICULTURAL WEED-NO-MORE
Costs less per acre because it controls weeds more effectively!
Agricultural authorities have found that the ester forms of 2,4-D used in Agricultural Weed-No-More penetrate weed leaves within 5 minutes, do not wash off, mix easily with water, won't clog or corrode spray equipment, and are harmless to stock. Agricultural Weed-No-More has been proved on more than 500,000 acres.

SUMMARY: HAP-ATLA CALLS HIS CAPTAINS TOGETHER FOR FINAL INSTRUCTIONS; THIS ATTACK MUST SUCCEED! WITH THE DAWN COMES THE HUGE RAM FROM ITS HIDING PLACE AMONG THE TREES. STRAIGHT FOR THE MAIN GATE IT GOES, LURCHING AND RUMBLING!

SLOWLY IT MOVES, ITS CREW SHOUTING LOUDLY TO KEEP UP THEIR COURAGE. FOR THE SILENCE OF THE CASTLE IS MORE OMINOUS THAN A THREAT.

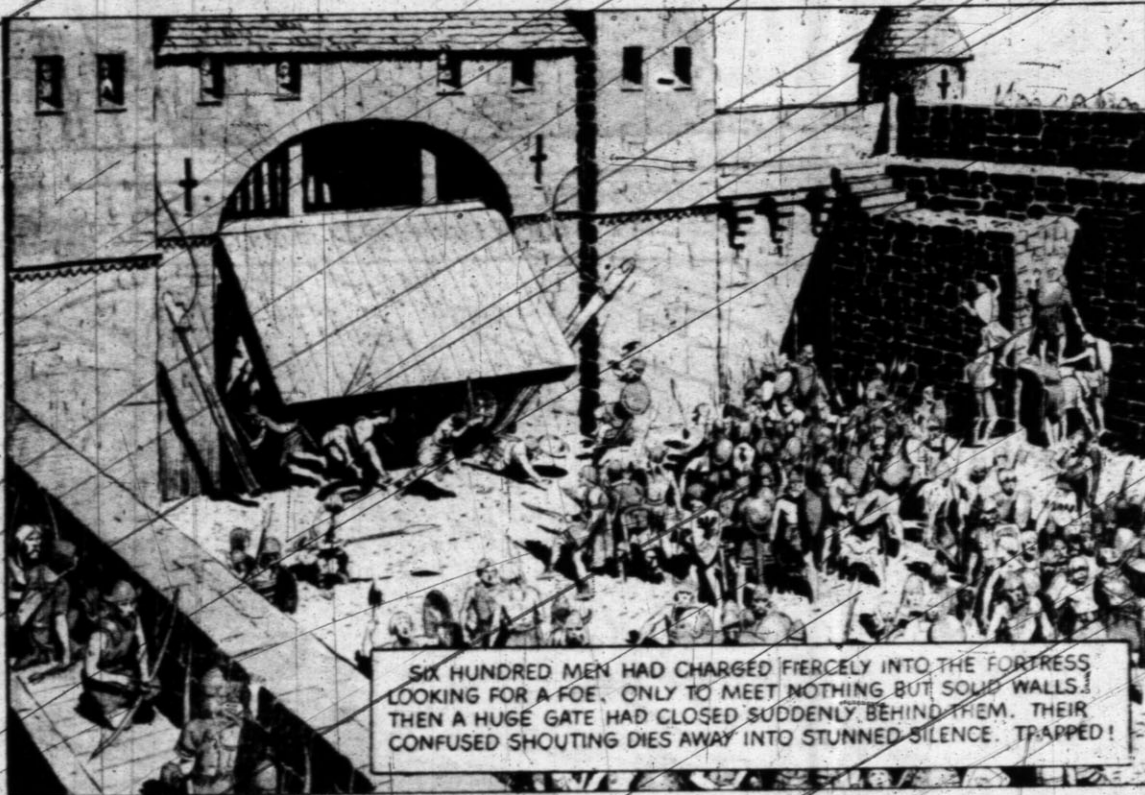

FOR A FULL HOUR THE GREAT RAM SWINGS AGAINST THE GATES. THEN A SPLINTERING CRASH. A YELL OF TRIUMPH AND HAP-ATLA SENDS THREE HUNDRED WARRIORS AT THE BREACH.

THE RAM IS PULLED BACK, THE ATTACKERS RUSH IN. NO SOUND OF CONFLICT IS HEARD BUT HAP-ATLA TAKES NO CHANCES. THREE HUNDRED MORE OF HIS BEST RACE FORWARD.

HE IS ABOUT TO ORDER THE FINAL ASSAULT WHEN A HORRIBLE THING HAPPENS... BEYOND THE SHATTERED GATES A DOOR CLOSSES AND THE CASTLE SEEMS TO CROUCH GRIM AND SILENT LIKE A MONSTER THAT HAS SWALLOWED SIX HUNDRED MEN!

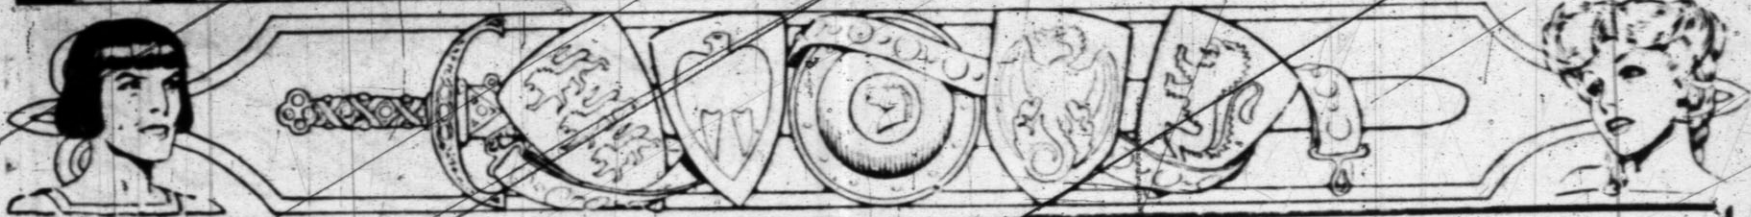

SIX HUNDRED MEN HAD CHARGED FIERCELY INTO THE FORTRESS LOOKING FOR A FOE, ONLY TO MEET NOTHING BUT SOLID WALLS. THEN A HUGE GATE HAD CLOSED SUDDENLY BEHIND THEM. THEIR CONFUSED SHOUTING DIES AWAY INTO STUNNED SILENCE. TRAPPED!

FROM HIGH IN THE WALL A PLEASANT VOICE SPEAKS:—"BASKETS WILL BE LOWERED, PLACE YOUR WEAPONS IN THEM. OUR ARCHERS WILL SLAY ANYONE WHO REMAINS ARMED!"

FORCES THE MOUNTIE TO BAIL OUT!

SWING THIS CRATE AROUND,
LIFTER, AND LET ME HAVE
ONE LAST SHOT AT THAT COP!

CAN'T DO IT, LUKE...
WE HAVE TO HEAD
FOR THAT LAKE!

T-T THAT LAKE IS TOO
SMALL FOR THIS HEAVY
PLANE... WE'LL OVER-
SHOOT AND CRASH!

OH, YES? WELL, YOU TAKE OVER THEN,
FLY BOY, AND MAKE THE SMACK-UP
GENTLE 'CAUSE YOU'LL BE ALONE IN THE COCKPIT... LUKE AND I ARE GOING TO GET AS FAR AFT AS WE CAN!

GOOD GRIEF! MY FLAMING
THE JEWEL THIEVES' PLANE!

THE CRASH SHOWED THE DRY WOODS
WITH GAS!.. I'M SURROUNDED BY FIRE!

GRANDMA by CHAS. KUHN-

AS TH' COWBOY REACHED FOR HIS SIX-GUN -

AH, FAIR LADY, I SEE YOU DON'T RECOGNIZE ME!! LAST SUMMER I KNOCKED AT YOUR DOOR -

AND TH' MEMORY OF TASTY SANDWICHES, TH' AROMA OF YOUR DELICIOUS COFFEE, THAT WONDERFUL PIE AND CHOCOLATE CAKE, HAVE STAYED WITH ME EVER SINCE -

I'VE BEEN COUNTING TH' DAYS TILL I COULD ENJOY YOUR HOSPITALITY AND PARTAKE OF YOUR UNEXCELLED COOKING AGAIN -

WELL, I DO PRIDE MYSELF ON MY COOKING, AN' - JUST SIT DOWN ON TH' STEPS A FEW MOMENTS -

NO ONE CAN EVER SAY THEY WERE TURNED AWAY HUNGRY FROM GRANDMA'S DOOR! HERE YOU ARE!

THE NEXT DAY

I'M GLAD YOU DROPPED OVER, GRANDMA--- JUST A MINUTE, TILL I ANSWER TH' DOOR -

AH, FAIR LADY--- I SEE YOU DON'T RECOGNIZE ME!! LAST SUMMER I KNOCKED AT YOUR DOOR, AN' THE---

-MEMORY O' THOSE TASTY SANDWICHES, TH' AROMA OF YOUR DELICIOUS COFFEE -

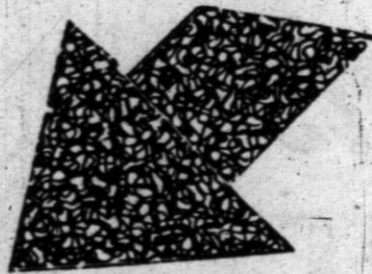

WHERE HAVE I HEARD THAT LINE BEFORE?

THAT WONDERFUL PIE AN' CHOCOLATE CAKE -

YOU SLICK-TONGUED HUMBUG!!!

JOHNNY HAZARD by FRANK ROBBIN

LAND SAKES, SON, CAN'T POUT AROUND HERE TILL THE DISC COMES BACK! GO ON OVER AND BE SOCIABLE TO OUR GUESTS! PROBABLY DYIN' OF CURIOSITY... MIGHT BE NICE TO ENLIGHTEN THEM AS TO WHAT THIS IS ABOUT!

AFTER JOHNNY IS CHECKMATED BY AUNT TIZZIE'S REVOLVER, HER NEPHEW PETER PIPER, IS LEFT FREE TO REMOTE-CONTROL THE FLYING DISC! THE DISC LANDS ON THE MAINLAND WHERE A TRAINED CREW STANDS BY TO LOAD HER AND SEND HER BACK... MEANWHILE...

B-BUT, AUNT TIZ... THIS OPERATION IS STRICTLY TOP SECRET!

NOW, PETEY, WE'VE NOTHING TO KEEP SECRET FROM THESE PEOPLE... SIDES, THEY MAY THINK I'M A CRIMINAL!

H-HI! PRETTY NICE DAY... HUH?!

'LO, PETEY... WHAT'S NEW ON THE GUIDED MISSILE FRONT? OR IS THAT QUESTION OUT OF BOUNDS COMING FROM A FOREIGN POWER?!

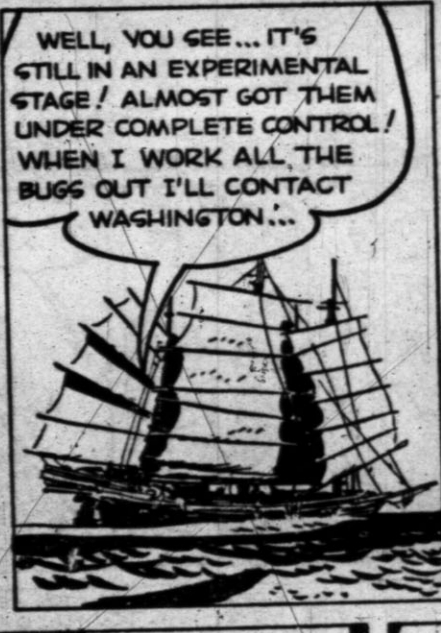

GEE, MR. HAZARD... I-I... CAME OVER TO APOLOGIZE... BUT YOU'RE MAKING IT AWFUL TOUGH...

THERE, THERE, PETEY BOY... DON'T MIND HAZARD! UNDER THAT GRUFF FACADE BEATS A HEART... OF STONE!

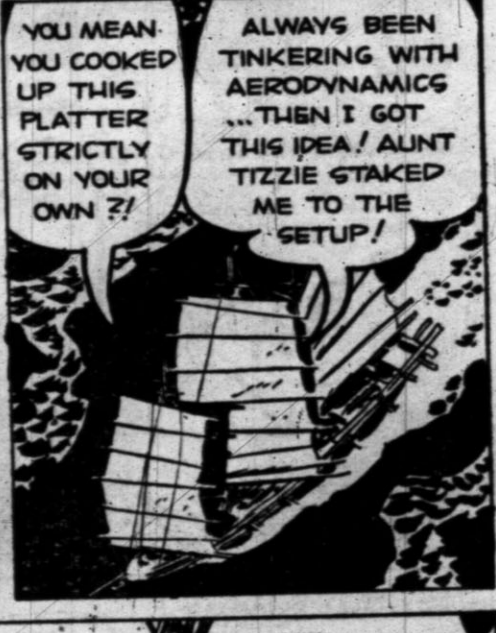

SEEING YOU HERE, MISS FLAME, MAKES MAKING FRIENDS EASIER! O-OH... I DIDN'T MEAN QUITE T-THAT... 'LEAST N-NOT THAT WAY!

NEEDN'T APOLOGIZE, PETE... THE BARONESS FLAME ALWAYS STARTS LITTLE FIRES BURNING WHEREVER SHE GOES... BUT LET'S GET DOWN TO CAGES, PAL. WHAT'S THE SCORE ON THE GAUCERS?!

WELL, YOU SEE... IT'S STILL IN AN EXPERIMENTAL STAGE! ALMOST GOT THEM UNDER COMPLETE CONTROL! WHEN I WORK ALL THE BUGS OUT I'LL CONTACT WASHINGTON...

YOU MEAN YOU COOKED UP THIS PLATTER STRICTLY ON YOUR OWN?!

ALWAYS BEEN TINKERING WITH AERODYNAMICS... THEN I GOT THIS IDEA! AUNT TIZZIE STAKED ME TO THE SETUP!

SPEAKING OF YOUR AUNT TIZZIE... WHY DID SHE SHOO ME AWAY SO ER... ABRUPTLY... WHEN I GOT INTO YOUR CONTROL ROOM?

OH, SHE'S SORT OF OLD-FASHIONED! FEELS SOMEONE MIGHT STEAL OUR SECRET... THAT'S WHY THIS JUNK COVER-UP ON THE CHINA SEAS! I THINK IT'S KINDA SILLY... BUT YOU KNOW AUNT TIZ!

YEAH, PETEY, I'M GETTING TO! BUT SUPPOSE YOU TELL ME WHAT KIND OF CARGO YOUR DISCS CARRY?!

WELL, YOU'RE RIGHT. THEY WERE DESIGNED AS CARGO CARRIERS, BUT RIGHT NOW ALL THEY TOTE IS... BALLAST!

OOPS... SORRY... GOT TO GO! LOOKS LIKE I'VE GOT ONE HOMING! S'LONG!

S'LONG... HMMM... I'LL BET YOU A BOTTOM DOLLAR THAT PETEY'S BALLAST IS... LOADED!

THE MAGICIAN

BY LEE FALK & PHIL DAVIS

AS THE MYSTERIOUS GHOST WHALE DRIVES AT THE ARGOS, JUST MISSING ITS STERN...

GHOST WHALE! --LOOK! IT GLOWS!

IT'S TRYING TO RAM US! GOOD THE SKIPPER TURNED US--JUST IN TIME!

THIS'LL SINK 'ER! SHE'S COMIN' BACK!

CAN'T MISS AT THIS DISTANCE. FIRE!

THE SHELL HITS-- AND BOUNCES OFF THE WHALE! AT THE SAME MOMENT THE WHALE HITS, SHAKING THE YACHT!

THE GHOST WHALE DISAPPEARS INTO THE DARK SEA, LEAVING THE ARGOS ADRIFT...

IT'S GONE! DID WE KILL IT?

STRANGE--I DON'T THINK THE SHELL EVEN FAZED IT!

OUR PROPELLER'S SMASHED. I DON'T KNOW IF WE CAN REPAIR IT.

SUDDENLY, THE GLOWING PIRATES APPEAR FROM NOWHERE, AS IF RISING FROM THE DEEP--A FRIGHTENED ARGOS SAILOR SEES THEM, AND SHOUTS THE ALARM...

IN A MOMENT, THEY ARE SWARMING ALL OVER THE YACHT. HOPELESSLY OUTNUMBERED, THE ARGOS CREW TRIES TO FIGHT BACK--WHERE HAVE THESE PIRATES COME FROM?
