

Interest Rates Decline; Trend May Continue

By JAMES PELTZ
Associated Press Writer

Interest rates, stuck near record-high levels for two months, are declining on several fronts amid recent signals the economy could be slipping into recession and the Federal Reserve Board is making more money available. Many economists expect the trend to continue, and some are predicting rates will tumble even further as the economy continues its listless performance.

The Commerce Department planned today to release its figures on new factory orders for durable goods in August. The rate of orders for durable goods, items with a usefulness of three years or more, generally reflects the strength in the industrial sector.

Commerce sources said last week that preliminary figures for the current quarter indicate the gross national product — a measure of all goods and services exchanged — continued to fall after declining in the second three months of 1981. Some economists define an "official" recession as two consecutive quarters of declining GNP.

But William C. Freund, senior vice president and chief economist of the New York Stock Exchange said Monday the nation has entered another recession that will last through 1981, though it will be "mild and localized."

Several major banks lowered their prime lending rates one-half percentage point to 19.5 percent on Monday. Some last week had just reduced the rate to 20 percent from the 20.5 percent rate which prevailed since early July.

Although several major banks failed Monday to match the lower prime rate, several economists said they expected others to fall in line at 19.5 percent by week's end.

Many smaller banks did match the lower rate, and one, Southwest Bank of St. Louis, lowered its prime rate a full percentage point to 19 percent.

The last time the prime rate was in mid-May. The prime rate reached a record high of 21.5 percent last December. The prime rate is the quoted rate on a $1 million loan for 90 days. (See RATE, Page 2)

Near Fatal Collision

Martha Cervantez of Hereford escaped injury when her car was hit by a freight train at the intersection of Main Street and U.S. 60 Monday evening. Ms. Cervantez' vehicle stalled on the track, and she reportedly vacated the car just in time to avoid the train, which was eastbound. (Brand Photo by Bob Nigh).

Train Rams Stalled Auto; Driver Narrowly Escapes

A 35 year-old Hereford woman narrowly missed being killed Monday evening when her car stalled on the railroad tracks near the intersection of Main Street and U.S. 60 around 6:15 p.m. Martha Cervantez, of 900 S. Main, reportedly "just got out" of her vehicle before it was hit by an eastbound freight train after the car stalled on the tracks. The vehicle was demolished in the accident by the train, which pushed it some 150 feet down the side of the track.

According to investigator Pat Michales of the Hereford Police Department, the train was travelling about 45 miles per hour when it hit the vehicle. The only damage to the locomotive was a bent step.

According to Michales the engineer first saw the car on the track when he reached the Lee Street intersection, one block west of where the accident occurred. "He said he threw on the brake and hit the deck," Michales said of the engineer.

Ms. Cervantez' car apparently was on the tracks when the warning lights came on. The barrier came down behind her vehicle, blocking her retreat. She apparently saw the train coming when the vehicle stalled, and jumped out of the vehicle just in time.

Collision Kills Local Man; Services Slated Thursday

Services for Art Bentley, 73, of Hereford will be held at 2 p.m. Thursday at Rix Funeral Home with the Rev. Clarence Powell of Trinity Baptist Church officiating. Burial will follow at Restlawn Cemetery.

Bentley was killed in a head-on collision near the Black Community on Highway 60 around 7 a.m. Sunday

Bentley was pronounced dead at the scene of the accident 6.7 miles northeast of Friona by Parmer County Justice of the Peace Frances Euler. According to DPS trooper Steve Talkington Bentley was killed when his 1977 Plymouth collided head-on with a 1978 Pontiac driven by Robert Amador of Bovina.

Amador is in critical condition today at Northwest Texas Hospital in Amarillo after being transferred there Monday from Parmer County Community Hospital in Friona. According to the trooper Amador suffered a broken hip, crushed chest, and a compound fracture of the left leg in the accident.

Also injured in the accident were Bentley's wife, Ellen, 61, of Hereford, and his daughter, Barbara, 26, of Amarillo.

Mrs. Bentley was listed in stable condition Monday at the Friona hospital with facial lacerations and chest pains. Miss Bentley was listed in satisfactory condition with facial lacerations.

Talkington said the Bentley vehicle was traveling west on U.S. 60 and the Amador vehicle was eastbound. The trooper said the Amador vehicle was allegedly straddling the center stripe when the

Eight Nominated To C of C Board

Eight persons have been selected as nominees for election to the Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce board of directors, it was announced Monday by President Tom Burdett.

Nominees approved by the board are: Danny Boyer, John Fuston, Mary Herring, Dick Montgomery, Irene McKinster, Bobby Owen, Stanley Simmons and John Stagner.

C of C members will elect four directors to the board for three-year terms, beginning in January. The mail ballots will go out to members in about two weeks.

Active members in the chamber can nominate additional people by securing the signatures of 10 members and submitting the nomination to the chamber office.

Directors whose terms expire this year are Dr. Dennis Canon, Joan Coupe, Dr. Milton Adams and Earl Brookhart.

The eight nominees of the board represent a cross-section of the business community. Boyer is owner and manager of First Printing; Fuston is office manager of the U.S. Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation office; Mrs. Herring is a housewife and former Women's Division president; Montgomery is associated with Deaf Smith REC; Mrs. McKinster is employed at Hereford State Bank and another former Women's Division president; Owen is a partner in Summerfield Fertilizer; Simmons is owner and manager of Simmons Carpet Co., and Stagner is associated with Stagner-Orsborn Buick-Pontiac Co.

McPherson Returns from Conference; Appointed to State Advisory Board

With the objective of improving the recovery rate of stolen planes from the Hereford area, Sheriff Travis McPherson just returned from a week-long conference in Mexico City that dealt with the several problems including the trafficking of dangerous drugs and narcotics.

McPherson reported that the Mexican government, along with Interpol, are interested in helping the United States and Texan governments in curtailing the increase in drug trafficking.

"The people down there were really helpful. At first I was wondering if they were doing anything at their end, but now I can see that they are working just as hard as we are at trying to bring about a solution to this problem," McPherson said. "I was really impressed with their facilities. We got the chance to tour their federal prison and police academy. The requirements to get in there are tough, they have to be single and able to speak several foreign languages."

While in Mexico City, McPherson visited with Commandant Ventura of Interpol about the use of their information and investigation abilities in the recovery of stolen airplanes.

"For the last five years we have had at least one plane a year stolen from this area," McPherson said. "And each of these were used in some sort of narcotics and drug trade. With their help, we should be able to find the planes faster and before they are wrecked."

Along with the visits and contacts made while in Mexico, McPherson gave a demonstration of forensic hypnosis.

"They were interested in learning the technique for possible use in their investigations," McPherson said. "General Durazo, the Chief of Police for Mexico City was fascinated by the demonstration and felt that it could be of great value for their own department."

After returning from Mexico City at the end of the week, McPherson was contacted that he had been appointed as a member of the Criminal Justice Advisory Board, a 21 member panel that advises the governor of Texas on judicial matters.

"I'm not real sure what all the duties of this board consist of," McPherson said, "but I consider it quite an honor for Speaker Clayton to nominate me for the position."

To Be Sworn in Friday

O'Connor Confirmed

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sandra Day O'Connor, confirmed by a unanimous Senate as the first woman justice on the Supreme Court, promises to be "very busy, very fast" after she is sworn in later this week.

There is no clear indication, however, how she will vote on social and constitutional issues that come before the court.

The 51-year-old Arizona appeals judge won a 99-0 endorsement in the Senate on Monday as the 102nd justice in the 191-year history of the nation's highest court. She will be youngest of the nine members.

Mrs. O'Connor will be sworn in for the lifetime appointment in ceremonies Friday in the Supreme Court building, and White House officials said President Reagan may attend.

"My hope is that 10 years from now, after I've been across the street and worked for a while, that they'll all feel glad for the wonderful vote they gave me today," a smiling Mrs. O'Connor said at an appearance on the Capitol steps with Vice President George Bush and Senate leaders.

Once installed on the court, which opens its 1981-82 term Oct. 5, "I'm going to get very busy, very fast," Mrs. O'Connor said.

Reagan hailed a "happy and historic day" and said in curtailing of drug and narcotic dealing in the state, McPherson also works with the program that was formerly called the Quad States Program. This operation in (See RETURN, Page 2)

Spraying Scheduled

Hereford City Manager Dudley Bayne has announced that the city will be spraying for mosquitoes just after dawn Wednesday. Bayne said the plane will spray for the pests, weather permitting.

Plea Issued For Blood Drive

Taking aim at a less than sparkling record over the past few months local blood chairman Pat Clark is issuing a plea to all Hereford residents to donate a pint of the life-giving fluid when the Coffee Memorial Blood Mobile visits town tomorrow.

"Hereford has fallen short of its goal for several months, and we need everyone to make a special effort," Mrs. Clark said. "It only takes about 15 minutes to give the gift of life."

The local replacement need this month is 100 pints. The replacement is figured at four pints for every one pint used by local residents in area hospitals. Hereford residents used 25 pints, thus bringing the needed replacement total to 100 pints.

The blood mobile will be at the community center Wednesday, but will be operating under new hours. Blood will be drawn from 4-6:30 p.m., a change from the old 3-6 p.m. time period.

Persons needing replacement pints donated include Dan Etheridge and Juanita Alejandre, 16 pints each; Maria Gonzales, 12 pints; Geneva Ivie, Martina Hernandez, Joseph Gergry, Russell Hodges, Frances Molina, and Arthur Blackburn, eight pints each; and Baby Girl Keenan and Jessie Hammock, four pints each.

Ann Landers

Night Shift In Trouble

DEAR ANN LANDERS: It's time someone brought out into the open one of the principal reasons for the shortage of nurses. There is no problem getting nurses to work days—it's the night shift that is in trouble.

I have worked the night shift for three years, and three nights a week are all I can handle. I hustle for eight hours, changing dressings, monitoring post-ops, keeping IV's going, giving shots and clean up messes you wouldn't believe. For this the hospital pays anywhere from $9 to $15 an hour.

In the mornings I drive home so bleary-eyed I pray the guardian angel will watch over me so I can make it safely and get the kids off to school.

While I'm at work my husband says he is lonely, so he feels he has the right to go to bars, drink, play shuffleboard and dance with pickups. At this point I don't need anonymous phone calls to tell me he is fooling around. Any wife who does her own laundry can smell another woman's perfume and makeup. I suggest that night-nursing be considered hazardous duty, as well as "inconvenient." I hope my marriage survives it - Flat-Foot Florence In Nebraska

DEAR FLAT-FOOT: It's not the job, Flo, it's the alley-cat tendencies of the man you married. With a prowler like that you'd be wise to work the day shift. Even then, he'd probably fool around, but it wouldn't be so easy.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: This letter is in response to your answer to the girl who had to share her baby-sitting money with her younger sister, who did not earn as much.

I'm sure this mother thinks she is doing the older girl a favor by teaching her to share, and the younger one, she figures, will feel equal to her sister even though Big Sis earns more money. Take it from me, that well-intentioned mother is harming them both.

I grew up the same way. Everything, even earned money, had to be split down the middle. Well, now 30 years later, "Little Sis" still thinks I should share everything I have with her. She has never learned to live on her husband's income and has become accustomed to the notion that it is MY responsibility to send her money when she is short - which is often.

I don't blame my sister, I blame my mother. She did this terrible thing to her. So tell that Mom in Hillside, Mich., to wake up and smell the bacon. Earned money is harder than the kind that is handed over.—Still Sharing In No Town Please, U.S.A.

DEAR U.S.A.: Your letter is required reading for all moms everywhere. Thanks for writing. (Are you listening, Hillside?)

DEAR ANN LANDERS: You missed something quite obvious when the woman complained about the person who honked the horn in front of her home every morning when she stopped by to pick up her neighbor for work.

Why in the name of common sense should it be necessary for a rider to need a daily honk? Surely a person who is being picked up as a favor ought to have the decency to be ready to step outside (or BE outside) when the driver appears. It should not be necessary to wake up the entire pea-pickin' neighborhood.—Behold Morphus

DEAR MORPH: Right you are. Sometimes we miss things because they ARE so obvious. Thanks for the neat catch.

L'Allegra Observes Citizenship Day

Citizenship Day was observed at L'Allegra's opening luncheon meeting held recently in the home of Betty Martin, 206 Ranger.

Ms. Susie Woodford, of Hereford, was guest speaker. She lived in Iran for eight years, and gave an informative sketch of the cultural, religious, and political climate of that country.

To carry out the program's theme, yellow ribbons were tied around trees in the front yard and the front door. The members also wore small yellow ribbons.

In a short business meeting, conducted by Carmen Flood, president, members voted to purchase two student memberships from the Community Concert Association. The memberships will enable two deserving youths to attend the community concerts for the coming year.

Yearbooks were distributed and discussed by Karen Payne, vice-president.

Yearbooks Have Arrived

The 1980-81 Hereford High School Yearbooks have arrived. They will be distributed Wednesday, Sept. 23 in the high school auditorium from 5-7 p.m. Students must have proof of purchase.

I'll bet many of you think 4-H is all, "COWS & COOKIN'" for "younger" kids!

Well, I have news for YOU - It's not!

This year, the Deaf Smith County 4-H'ers are going in all directions doing all kinds of activities!

We have a Teen Leader's group which is planning such activities as a hay ride, community service at King's Manor, a Career Day, and the list goes on.

Ages 9-19 are involved in all facets of 4-H and we invite YOU to join. Just phone the Extension Office at 364-3573 and talk to Robby Vann or Penny Reinart.

Educational programs conducted by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service serve people of all ages regardless of socio-economic levels, race, color, sex, religion or national origin.

Constitution Week will be celebrated September 17th through 23rd. In the Panhandle of the Constitution of the United States, our Founding Fathers wrote their purpose, "to secure the blessings of liberty to themselves and their posterity." The Daughters of the American Revolution recommend teaching our youth the virtues of and a dedication to the preservation of our American heritage: faith in God; faith in our Country. Read your Constitution.

In parts of Prussia it was once believed good luck to see wind in the oat fields.

Local Artist Wins State Recognition

Suzy Wall, 817 Country Club Drive, was born and raised in Texas. Recently, she has been accepted to Texas Women's Western Arts, TWWA, an organization to promote western art. She is the 21st person in the state to be accepted into this organization. She makes the third person from Hereford to be chosen for this honor. The other two are Jean Lyles and Marion Goodin.

TWWA has a gallery at Granbury, Tex. and some of her work is on display there. She also has some pictures on display at the Frame Shop in Clovis, N.M.; also, at the Treasure Trove in Aurora, Colo. and in her studio here in Hereford.

Suzy has studied with such well known artists as Ben Konis, John Birdsong, Jean and Charles Lyles and has been to several workshops. She has won awards at the 1977 State Fair in Amarillo and at the Lubbock Fair. She has attended shows in New Mexico and Texas including the Westheimer in Houston.

Mrs. Wall is a member of the Hereford Fine Arts Association, Texas Fine Arts Association and the Southwest Arts Foundation.

She said that she is also involved in helping and encouraging new artists and interested in programs that promote and preserve the growth of art.

It is stated that her paintings reflect the love of country life and the Texas Cowboy. Her paintings are realistic portrayals of the beauties of the mountains and the plains of Texas.

The Consumer Alert

by Mark White
Attorney General

AUSTIN—We have all been annoyed from time to time with unsolicited mail we receive asking us to buy different kinds of merchandise. Although an inconvenience, it usually remains only an annoyance. However, occasionally, mail arrives which is not only annoying but obnoxious as well. Generally speaking these fall into the broad category of sexually oriented advertisements.

The Congress of the United States, in deciding whether to pass a statute aimed at protecting those who did not wish to receive such literature, found that such use of the mails constitutes a serious threat to the dignity and sanctity of the American home and subjects many persons to an unconscionable and unwarranted intrusion upon their fundamental personal right to privacy.

In response to this finding, the Congress passed the law regulating the mailing of sexually oriented advertisements.

As a result, any person or company which mails such advertisements must mark the envelope or cover of the mailing with the name and address of the mailer and a notice advising the recipient of the contents. This provision is included to prevent the shock of an unsuspecting recipient opening a sexually explicit solicitation.

If you find that your name somehow has been placed on this type of mailing list, the law has provided a means for you to have your name removed. Any person, on his own behalf or on the behalf of his children who are younger than 19 years of age and who reside at home, may file with the Postal Service a statement that he desires to receive no sexually oriented advertisements through the mail.

Anyone wishing to fill out such a statement must go to the Post Office in person. There are two forms which may be filled out, and each individual can decide whether to fill out one or both.

Form 2201 places the person's name on a list of individuals who do not wish to receive such advertisements. Any person or company which mails sexually oriented material must subscribe to this list. After a person's name has been on the list for 30 days, no advertiser may mail this type of advertisement to that person. This method effectively removes an individual's name from any such mailing lists.

ation, and that company or person is, then, prohibited from sending any such advertisements to the person making the complaint.

As indicated before, a person wishing to stop the mailing of sexually oriented advertisements to his address may fill out either one of the forms or both.

This statute is primarily aimed towards the obvious sexual advertisement. It specifically exempts material which "constitutes only a small and insignificant part of the whole of a single catalog, book, periodical, or other work the remainder of which is not primarily devoted to sexual matters."

According to the Postal Service, this law has been an effective tool in fighting this invasion of privacy.

However, if you have followed the procedures I have outlined and are still having a problem with this type of mail, a complaint should be made to the nearest postal inspector. Your local post office can provide you with his address, if an inspector is not located in your community.

Los Ciboleros Makes Preparations For Constitution Week Here

Los Ciboleros Chapter, National Society, Daughters of American Revolution, met for their first meeting of the club year in the Heritage Room of the library to review preparations for Constitution Week. Ruth Knox, Mary Williamson, and Patricia Robinson served as hostesses.

The meeting was called to order by Bruce Carter, regent. Opening ritual was led by Corene Smith, chaplain. Helen Rose, national defense leader, presented the essay written by Catherine Pagel, "My Commitment to My Country," winner of the National VFW contest "Voice of Democracy," in which she declared that the responsibility of the youth is to care for their country and by CAR-ING they must take action to accomplish their commitment.

Joy Vasek, chairman of constitution week committee, reported that the proclamation by Mayor Bartley Dowell has been signed designating Sept. 17-23 as Constitution Week. Patriotic materials have been given to the schools and libraries.

Radio stations and newspapers in the area have been contacted. A flag exhibit has been set up in the Deaf Smith County library.

Mary Williamson presented an informative study of the First Amendment of the United States Constitution and the modern mis-interpretation of the first amendment. The article "God's purpose for His church" by D. James Kennedy, was recommended to all members.

Other members present were Violet Reinauer, Kathryn Ruga, Leta Kaul, Frances Hennen, Mildred Elliott, Margaret Durham, Bea Barrett, Sue James, Anna Margaret Moss, and Lois Gilliland.

The next meeting is scheduled for Thursday, Oct. 15, 3:30 p.m. in the Deaf Smith County Museum, commemorating the Yorktown Bicentennial, Oct. 19, 1981.

A plumber is a "plumbing contractor," an electrician is an "electrical contractor" and hi-fi's are listed under Sound Systems and equipment.

Roaches are listed under Pest Control, exterminating and fumigating, a taco is under Mexican Food Products, a tailpipe under Mufflers and Exhaust Systems, and a pencil is under Advertising Specialists.

One of the most frustrating encounters in the Yellow Pages is trying to find a doctor, who is listed under Physicians, who are subdivided into M.D.s and D.O.s, who are also listed under Physicians and Surgeons, group, associate and corporate practice, and who aren't in anyway and whose phone is being answered by a doctor's answering service...See Physicians and Surgeons Exchange.

You should begin to worry about yourself when you begin to think like the Yellow pages. Recently, I wanted to call a flea market and caught myself just in time. Flea market would definitely not be under F, but probably under something like Swap Meets. I turned to the S's and read, "See Flea Market."

I don't know what the answer is with the growth of private enterprise and the need to consolidate them under a general heading. But just for kicks I turned to "Survival Kits" and was hit with, "See First Aid Supplies, Sporting Goods heading."

I know this. No one will ever convince me that when Alexander Graham Bell was sitting in his Boston boardinghouse March 10, 1876, with battery acid burning his leg and shouted his first frantic message into the transmitter, "Mr. Watson, come here. I want you!" it was the despair of looking under HELP in the Yellow Pages and finding, "See batteries: Dry cell, wholesale, retail, charging and maintenance," that did it.

Brunch Begins Club Year

El Llano Study Club held a brunch Saturday morning in the home of Kathy Johnson to open its new club year. A western theme was used with the hostesses wearing western costume. Hostesses assisting Mrs. Johnson were Diana Hoelscher, Delores Foster and Jane Coplen.

Helen Eades, president, conducted a short business meeting. Yearbooks were distributed and plans for the new year revealed. Mrs. Coplen was yearbook chairman.

Guests attending the meeting were Donna Jones,

Donna Warrick, Zula Arney and Diane Rowton.

Other members present were Jean Ballard, Roberta Caviness, Elizabeth Caesar, Jean Dowell, Opal Bookout, Leona Kimbell, Ursalee Jacobson, and Avis White.

The club's next meeting will be Oct. 19 at 8 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Hoelscher.

Joan Coupe Attends National Congress

Joan Coupe, owner of the Hereford Travel Agency, attended the 51st World Congress of The American Society of Travel Agents which convened Sept. 6-11, at Neal Blaisdell Arena in Honolulu, Hawaii.

Former President, Gerald R. Ford, flew to Honolulu to deliver the keynote address at the convention.

Approximately 10,000 delegates and support people were in attendance.

This was the first time it had met in Hawaii since 1960.

Those attending were treated to educational shows and to the largest trade show ever held in Hawaii, with more than 500 travel suppliers from more than 50 countries exhibiting new products and destinations in the convention center.

A pageant, entitled "The Rainbow Connection" kicked off the Congress at Neal Blaisdell Center Arena. The 45-minute presentation, featured a cast of some 600 dancers, and told the history of Hawaii through song and dance.

On the lighter side the delegates had opportunity to attend coffees, dinners and parties. In addition, a number of sporting events were planned such as a tennis tournament, a jogger's marathon, a golf tournament and a backgammon tournament.

More than 130 pre-and-post tours were set up and arranged to the outer islands, the South Pacific, Alaska, California, Mexico and Canada.

Ice Capades Schedule 6th Annual Show Sept. 24-27

Ice Capades, the hottest show on ice, continues to combine the finest skating talents with the most hilarious funny men for their all new iced musical revue, "LET'S CELEBRATE," opening Thursday, Sept. 24, through Sunday, Sept. 27 at the AMARILLO CIVIC CENTER for six performances.

Highlighting the barrage of comedy antics this year is the unpredictable Bob Mac & Company. Through the years, Mac has proven to be one of the Ice Capades sure fire hits and always guarantees to crack a smile.

Don Dunfield, better known as the "Diving Fool," will be on hand to demonstrate his world renowned trampoline act on ice. This routine must be seen in order to appreciate the many talents of this crazy fool.

Brad Doud is a welcome addition to this year's show as he surprises audiences with his sophistication and clumsiness, while Tommy Miller generates laughter posing as a sailor in the navy.

Kids of all ages will glow in amazement as they witness a mad professor transforming Raggedy Ann and Andy dolls into real live skaters. Yogi Bear, Fred Flintstone, Scooby-Doo, plus many more of television's most popular cartoon characters will add to the excitement of this never before performed experiment.

Audiences this year will be introduced to a brilliantly choreographed musical on ice, and headlining the array of skating stars in 1980 National Ladies Bronze Medalist Sandy Lenz, U.S. Silver Pair Medalists Gail Hamula and Frank Sweiding, and World Professional Silver Medalist Michael Tokar. Other talented performers include lovely Lori Benton and debonair Bill Tilghman.

Performances are scheduled for 7:30 PM Thursday through Saturday with 2 PM matinees on Saturday and Sunday. A late afternoon show will be given at 6 PM Sunday. Special prices are available for youths and senior citizens at 2 PM on Saturday and 6 PM on Sunday. Tickets are now on sale at the Amarillo Civic Center Box Office and Sears. For further ticket information call the Civic Center Box Office (806) 378-3096.

Cabbiness, Howell Lead Girls

Cross Country Harriers First at Borger Meet

Led by senior George Arroyos, the Hereford Whiteface Cross Country team garnered the first place trophy at Saturday's Borger Invitational.

Arroyos, one of two seniors on the team, completed the three mile course in a time of 14:38 to finish second individually. Helping in the team scoring were Fernando Carrasco, who finished fourth with a time of 14:57, Edward Flores, with a 10th place finish in 15:42, Gary Blevins at 15:56 in 13th place, Chris Kalich in 19th, with a time of 16:20 and Eliso Rameriz finished in 24th with time of 16:48.

The HHS girls finished second to a tough Tulla team with a total of 55 points. Sophomore Dana Cabbiness and senior Kellie Howell led the team with 7th and 9th place finishes. Cabbiness made the two mile circuit in 13:22 while Howell turned in a time of 13:35.

Other girls to help out in the team scoring were Olga Alaniz with a time of 13:42 in 13th, Yolanda Alaniz in 20th with a time of 14:26, Deborah Rogers in 21st with a time of 14:36, Linda Sermino finished in 23rd with time of 14:49 and Allyson Thomas finished the course in 14:52 for 24th place. The two junior varsity teams also ran, with the girls taking the second place trophy with a total of 32 points. Molly Keating, a freshman from La Plata took fourth with a time of 14:33. Others on the team included

Patricia Salazar in 7th, Roxane Gamez in 9th, Michelle Osborne in 10th, Cheri Barker in 13th, Cindy Morgan, from La Plata, in 14th, Dede Dobbins in 19th and Lori Walterscheid in 20th.

The boys JV team had Greg Palmer finish in 25th with a time of 19:01 and Clay Osborne turned in a time of 18:51 for 23rd.

Coach Martha Emerson announced that both teams ran extremely well and the first place was a new experience for the boys.

"It really fired the whole team up and got them excited about the ability that they have, Emerson said. "Now they know that they are capable of winning and I feel that they can if they want too."

Next week the teams will be in the Plainview Invitational. The boys will have the services of Cesar Valdez, who should be ready for varsity competition according to Coach Emerson.

Top Finishers

The Hereford Whiteface harriers captured their initial first place trophy last weekend as they had the lowest point total of the competition of the Borger Invitational. Leading the

Girls Take Second

The girls cross country team came away with the second place trophy Saturday as they scored 55 points in the Borger Invitational Cross Country Meet. Running on the varsity

In 22-10 Loss to Clovis

Big Play Hurts Shorthorns

The big play kept the Hereford Sophomore football team from continuing their unbeaten streak last Saturday evening as the Clovis 10th graders edged the Shorthorns 22-10.

Coach Bobby Lantelme reported that the team played good enough to win except for the occasional breakdown in the defensive secondary. It was those two times that allowed the Clovis team to recover from some stingy Shorthorn defense that had pinned them deep in their own territory.

"Our kicking teams did an excellent job all evening," Lantelme said. "They gave us our first score after we punted and caused them to fumble in their endzone for a safety."

The Hereford defense then took over and kept the Clovis team contained the rest of the first quarter to give Hereford the lead after one period of 2-0.

In the second period, early season mistakes started to plague the Hereford team as they allowed the first of two long passes by Clovis, a 55 yard bomb, that set up the Wildcat's first score. On the ensuing kickoff, Hereford fumbled on the first play of their series and allowed Clovis to take possession deep in Hereford's end of the field and score to lead at halftime 15-2.

The third quarter wasn't much better for the Shorthorns as the Wildcats completed another long pass early in the quarter to set up their final TD which brought the score to 22-2.

From the middle of the third quarter on through, the Shorthorns held the New Mexico visitors completely as the Hereford defense controlled the game.

In the fourth quarter the Shorthorn offense got untracked as quarterback Craig Jones released a touchdown toss to Keith Bridwell that narrowed the deficit to 22-8. Ted Rameriz then took a pitch around the right side to make the two point conversion and bring the score to its final tally of 22-10.

This Thursday the Shorthorns will be playing the Muleshoe Junior Varsity at Whiteface Field with the Hereford JV's set to play immediately following the first contest.

Trojans New No. 1 Team

By HERSCHEL NISSENSON AP Sports Writer

For the third week in a row college football has a new No. 1 team.

The Trojans of Southern California replaced Notre Dame at the top of The Associated Press poll today, setting up a 1-2 shootout with runnerup Oklahoma on Saturday in Los Angeles.

Michigan, the preseason leader, was bumped from the top after losing to Wisconsin on Sept. 12. And the Wolverines in turn bounced Notre Dame out by trouncing the Irish 25-7 this past weekend.

That opened the way for Southern Cal and Oklahoma, last week's No. 2-3 teams, to move up. USC, a 21-0 winner over Indiana, received 46 of 65 first-place votes and 1,258 of a possible 1,300 points from a nationwide panel of sports writers and sportscasters.

Oklahoma, idle over the weekend, received 15 first-place ballots and 1,203 points. The Sooners return to action against Southern Cal Saturday afternoon in the Los Angeles Coliseum.

Meanwhile, Notre Dame skidded from first place to 13th, while Michigan climbed back into the Top 10, jumping from 11th to seventh. The Wolverines also received a first-place ballot.

Georgia's defending national champions were defeated by Clemson 13-3, ending a 15-game winning streak, and fell from fourth to 17th, while Clemson made the Top Twenty for the first time this season.

Penn State, idle last weekend, rose from fifth to third with two first-place votes and 1,092 points, while Texas, a 23-10 victor over North Texas State, jumped from sixth to fourth with one first-place vote and 1,038 points.

Pitt went from seventh to fifth with 976 points following a 38-7 rout of Cincinnati and UCLA vaulted from ninth to sixth with 912 points after trimming Wisconsin 31-13.

The Second Ten consists of Brigham Young, Mississippi State, Notre Dame, Miami of Florida, Nebraska, Washington, Georgia, Arizona State, Clemson and Southern Methodist. This week also marks the first 1981 appearance for SMU, which walloped Grambling State 59-27.

The Top Twenty teams in The Associated Press college football poll, with first-place votes in parentheses, season's record and total points. Points based on 20-19-18-17-16-15-14-13-12-11-10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1:

YMCA Football Underway

The Y.M.C.A. of Hereford began its flag football program last Saturday with the 3rd and 4th grade teams playing in the morning and the 5th and 6th grade teams competing in the afternoon.

In the younger age group, or the NFL, the Rams squeaked by the Cowboys by a score of 6-0. In the second game the Cardinals smashed the Packers by the tally of 18-7. The 10:30 game had the Lions and Bears fight to a 6-6 tie.

The AFL, or 5th and 6th graders, had the Steelers slip by the Dolphins 6-0, and the Colts and Browns tie at 6-6. In the last two games, the Charges used some strong defensive plays to obliterate the Jets 32-7, and the Oilers pounded the Raiders 20-0.

Today the 1st and 2nd graders begin their round robin schedule with the Whitefaces playing the Cougars at the field next to Northwest Primary School.

On Thursday, the youngsters play two contests, with the Mustangs playing the Longhorns at Northwest and the Razorbacks going against the Red Raiders at the field west of La Plata Junior High.

Weldon Knabe, executive director of the Y.M.C.A. asks that the parents of the kids playing at the La Plata field park in the stadium parking lot to avoid congestion due to the junior high games being played on the field northwest of La Plata.

All of the games involving the 1st and 2nd grades will be played on Tuesday and Thursday at 5:30.

African Boycott of '84 Games Not Expected

By GEOFFREY MILLER
 AP Sports Writer
 BADEN-BADEN, West Germany (AP) — "We expect between 10,000 and 11,000 athletes in Los Angeles for the Olympic Games in 1984," said Juan Antonio Samaranch, president of the International Olympic Committee (IOC).

"We never know what is going to happen in the world, but I do not think we will have any boycotts," he added.
 Samaranch, preparing to preside over the Olympic Congress in Baden-Baden this week, brushed aside fears of an African boycott following the American tour by the South African Spr-ingboks rugby team.

 "I am in close contact with the National Olympic Committees (NOCs) throughout Africa, and not a single one has suggested boycotting the Los Angeles Games," he told a news conference.
 The 60-year-old president, former Spanish ambassador in Moscow, was equally optimistic about the Olympic Games of the future.

 "Many NOCs are asking us about conditions for staging the Olympic Games in 1992," Samaranch said.
 Following the congress, the IOC will meet to choose the host cities for 1988. Nagoya in Japan and Seoul in South Korea are rival candidates for the Summer Games.

 Dangers of an African boycott of Los Angeles appeared to recede after a meeting between Samaranch and Abraham Ordia, president of the often militant Supreme Council for Sport in Africa.
 Ordia was the man who master-minded the African walkout of the Montreal Games in 1976, when New Zealand had sent a rugby team to tour South Africa.

 After talking with Samaranch, Ordia said in an interview the Supreme Council was deeply concerned about the Springboks' games in the United States, but was "restrained" by the clearly expressed opposition to the tour by the IOC and the U.S. Olympic Committee.

 Ordia said his position would be reviewed at the end of the year.
 Meanwhile, Samaranch addressed a gathering of delegates from the NOCs, which now number 149, and went out of his way to praise the USOC and its president, Bill Staley, for the stance they had taken against the Springboks' games.

 "We were completely overgenerous," said Col. F. Don Miller, executive director of the USOC.
 While the Africans in Baden-Baden appeared to be softening over the Springboks, the political Organization of African Unity was reported threatening a boycott by African athletes of all events involving Americans.

Reports from Moscow have hinted at Soviet moves to have the Games moved from Los Angeles because of the Springboks' tour. But Samaranch said the Russians had indicated nothing of this sort to him.

The congress opens Wednesday, bringing together the IOC, the NOCs and the 26 international federations responsible for running the Olympic sports.
 The congress is due to last five days and is expected to concentrate on the problems of athletes' eligibility and the distribution of television revenue. The IOC, which alone has the power to make decisions, goes into session next week.

Pennant Race Stays Tight In American League East

By BARRY WILNER AP Sports Writer
 Ralph Houk is having trouble playing the ever-prouble game of pennant-race scoreboard. But his Boston Red Sox are having very few problems playing baseball, and that might make Houk's scoreboard watching unnecessary.
 The Red Sox stayed a half-game behind the first-place

Detroit Tigers in the tight American League East second half race Monday night with a 9-3 romp over the Milwaukee Brewers, who dropped 1 1/2 games off the pace. The victory was Boston's seventh in the last eight games, all at home. The Red Sox are 24-16 in the second season.
 "I keep looking at the scoreboard and I don't really know who to root for, Detroit or Baltimore," said Houk, who saw the Tigers beating the Orioles 5-1 on the Fenway Park scoreboard. "But you can be sure I'll be pulling for the Orioles tomorrow."

 Houk didn't need to do much managing Monday. He just turned Dave Stapleton, Jim Rice, Jerry Remy, Carl Yastrzemski, Carney Lansford, Tony Perez and Rick Miller loose and each had two hits in Boston's 14-hit attack. Stapleton slammed a homer in the five-run fifth inning and added a single, while knocking in four runs.

 The Yankees, who already have qualified for the playoffs by winning the first-half race, had their second-half hopes set back a bit by Rick Waits, who blanked them 5-0.
 Elsewhere, it was Minnesota 7, Kansas City 2 and California 6, Chicago 3. The Oakland A's game at Toronto was rained out.

Wockenfuss drove in two runs with an RBI single in the fourth and a sacrifice fly in the sixth.
 Orioles starter Scott McGregor entered the game with an 11-2 lifetime record against the Tigers. He has a 7-2 record at home this season, with both losses against Detroit.
 It was the third straight win for the Tigers after five consecutive losses to open their current road trip.

Rangers 4, Mariners 1
 Danny Darwin threw a three-hitter, striking out seven. Texas built a 3-0 lead in the fourth on single by Bump Wills, Mickey Rivers and Buddy Bell and Pat Putnam's double, and added its final run in the eighth on Al Oliver's RBI single.
Indians 5, Yankees 0
 Rick Waits pitched a six-hitter and Rick Manning had two hits, stole three bases and scored twice for Cleveland. Mike Fischlin contributed a two-run double in the fifth inning.
 "I haven't pitched a decent game since the strike," said Waits, who had a 1-5 record with a 9.44 earned run average in the second season before Monday's game.
Twins 7, Royals 2
 Rookie shortstop Ron Washington, who carried a .205 average into the game, had three hits and two RBI and scored twice as Minnesota moved within 2 1/2 games of the first-place Royals in the West.

 John Castino added a two-run triple and Dave Engle a two-run double for the Twins. Minnesota starter Al Williams, 6-8, gave up 10 hits, struck out five and walking four.
Angels 6, White Sox 3
 Joe Ferguson's two-run single in the second inning paced the victory, which saw Don Baylor hit his 116th homer as an Angel, setting a team record. California broke a six-game losing streak with the victory, only the Angels' second in the last 16 games.

Touchdown Tony Leads Pokes Past Pats

By BRUCE LOWITT
 AP Sports Writer
 FOXBORO, Mass. (AP) — Step aside, Earl. Touchdown Tony is on the loose — and so are the rest of the Dallas Cowboys.

preceding the Cowboys' opening touchdown (Danny White's 28-yard pass to leaping Butch Johnson) and three in the final quarter, two of them leading to Rafael Septien field goals.
 The Patriots also fumbled the ball away three times. One was harmless. But a second one, coming the instant Andy Johnson had caught a pass at the Dallas 2-yard line, cost them a shot at a go-ahead touchdown or tying field goal just before halftime. And the third, by Roland James on a Dallas punt, paved the way to White's other touchdown pass, a 1-yarder on a rollout to a wide-open Billy Joe DuPree midway in the third period, the score that put the Cowboys on top 24-21.

third.
 New England will now have to face the Pittsburgh Steelers, who erupted on Sunday for a 38-10 victory against the New York Jets, the American Conference's other 0-3 team (Washington is the only one in the National Conference).

"Casey At The Bat," in this case, was Expos outfielder Andre Dawson, and Monday night he rewrote the classic Ernest L. Thayer poem slightly by not striking out.
 In the National League's longest game this year, Dawson's grounder in the 17th. inning scored Rodney Scott from third, giving Montreal a 1-0 victory over the Philadelphia Phillies.

Welsh allowed just one runner to reach second base in pitching only his second shutout. The 26-year-old rookie southpaw, acquired in a pre-season deal with the New York Yankees, walked four and struck out three.

So what? he says.
 "Leading the league in rushing is fine (he has 423 yards now), but going into the 16th game is when it'll mean something. Right now it means nothing. That's no goal of mine, to lead the NFL in rushing. I just want to be consistent, game in and game out," he says.
 Which is what he has been, more so this season than any other.
 Which in turn is why the Cowboys are 3-0 three games into the season, and one reason why the New England Patriots, who had hoped to break out of an early-season slump, lost 35-21 Monday night and are 0-3.
 Dorsett's 132 yards and 129 yards in his first two games were merely a prelude to the 162 yards he amassed against the Patriots, 75 of them on a second-quarter touchdown run. His total was 54 yards more than the entire New England ground game managed...and the Patriots had three more carries than Dorsett's 19.
 "Offensively, we're off to a tremendous start. In the past, we haven't had the running game going as well as we have this year," Dorsett said, neglecting to mention that in the past he hasn't shown up in training camp in midseason form, as he did this year. "But defensively, we're not where we should be."
 Defensively, the Cowboys pretty much closed down the New England rushing attack (Mosi Tatupu had 63 of their 108 yards). But they permitted Matt Cavanaugh, starting in place of erratic Steve Grogan, plenty of time to search out and find receivers.
 Unfortunately for the Pats, four times he found Dallas receivers for interceptions — one in the first period

The victory allowed the Expos to keep pace with St. Louis in the race for the National League East's second-season title. The Cardinals, who blanked the Chicago Cubs 2-0 in an afternoon game, lead the Expos by 1 1/2 games. The New York Mets, who beat Pittsburgh 4-3 in 13 innings, trail by 2 1/2 games.
 Through 10 innings, Steve Carlton of the Phillies and Ray Burris of Montreal were locked in a pitchers' duel. Carlton, who yielded just three hits, fanned 12 to become the NL's all-time strikeout leader with 3,128, replacing Hall of Famer Bob Gibson. Burris also gave up just three hits.
 With one out in the 17th, Scott singled and stole second. Reliever Jerry Reed then walked Warren Cromartie and Terry Francona to load the bases.
 Dawson followed with a hard grounder to third baseman Mike Schmidt, whose throw to home narrowly missed getting Scott.
 In the night's only other NL game, San Diego blanked Cincinnati 6-0.

Sports Briefs

Cardinals 2, Cubs 0
 Joaquin Andujar and Bruce Sutter combined on a three-hit shutout that helped St. Louis rebound from three straight losses at New York.
 Andujar left after he pulled a hamstring muscle in his right leg while batting in the ninth, and Sutter pitched a hitless final inning for his 23rd save.
 Darrell Porter and Keith Hernandez each drove in a run for the Cardinals.
Mets 4, Pirates 3
 Mark Lee, Pittsburgh's fifth pitcher, let loose a wild pitch in the 13th inning that allowed John Stearns to score New York's winning run, extending the Mets winning streak to four games.
 With one out, Lee walked Stearns, and Ron Gardenhire's single sent the Mets catcher to third. With a 0-2 count on rookie Brian Giles, Lee threw a low and outside pitch that catcher Tony Pena was unable to handle.
 Lee Mazzilli drove in a pair of New York runs, one with a single in the eighth that gave the Mets a 3-1 lead. Pittsburgh rebounded with two runs in the top of the ninth on a single by Mike Easler and Johnny Ray's sacrifice fly.
 Jason Thompson homered for the Pirates in the second.

FOOTBALL
LOS ANGELES (AP) — Federal Judge Harry Pregerson took under submission the motion by the National Football League to move a retrial of the suit of the Los Angeles Coliseum Commission and Oakland Raiders against the league away from Los Angeles.
 Attorney Frank Rothman, speaking for the NFL, said it would be impossible to select an impartial jury in Los Angeles. The Coliseum Commission and the Raiders sued the NFL over the league's refusal to allow the team to move to Los Angeles from Oakland.

BASEBALL
NEW YORK (AP) — Rookie third baseman Hubie Brooks of the New York Mets was named National League Player of the Week and Baltimore's Eddie Murray was the award to earn American League honors for two consecutive weeks. Both players batted .500 for the week.
 Brooks was 12-for-24 for the week ending Sunday, including a double, triple and home run.

LEGAL NOTICES PUBLIC NOTICE ON REGISTERING LIVESTOCK BRANDS

THE attorney general is reminding every citizen who has registered a brand prior to Aug. 30, 1981 that citizens must re-register each brand with the county clerk within six months in order to protect their right to it. If everyone follows the registration schedule set out by the law, county clerks will have a correct, revised set of records every ten years, and there should be no dispute about the correct ownership of livestock.

To register or re-register marks and brands, the livestock owner may obtain forms either by mail or in person from his or her county clerk's office. There will be blank spaces on the form in which to describe the mark or brand and the location on the animal where the brand is recorded.

The forms should then be mailed or delivered in person to the county clerk, who will keep the forms in an indexed bound volume or on microfilm for easy reference.

Study Shows Men Fear Buying Jewelry

DALLAS (AP) — It had to be perfect. Just right. After all, a gift of jewelry was special — more so than just about anything else.

So, Mike Barlerin, after agonizing over what would most please his lady friend, selected an expensive pendant at an exclusive New York department store.

"You know, I don't think she's ever taken it out of her drawer," he said. "I really bombed with that one. And it bothers me still."

Barlerin, senior vice president of marketing for Zale Corporation, says he's living proof of what was discovered during a recent motivational study done by the jewelry company: Men panic when it comes to buying jewelry for women.

"Jewelry is one of the most emotionally risky purchases a man can make because of the trappings surrounding it," Barlerin said. "Many times it's a gift of commitment. There is often love involved."

Because so much emotion surrounds the selection of the gift, he said, men insist that it be "perfect."

"Men will sit and mull over a gift for hours with anxiety written all over their faces. They agonize over the piece. It's absolutely essential to them that it be just right," Barlerin says.

The study, based on taped interviews with 60 jewelry customers, showed that most men don't trust their judgment when it comes to picking out a piece of jewelry.

"Above all, men are petrified that the woman won't like it. That she will reject it, thereby rejecting them" because the man's choice is a barometer of his taste, judgment and financial status, Barlerin said.

"We found that men questioned their taste. They usually are not as familiar with style and don't know what the woman will want," Barlerin said. "And most men can't judge jewelry quality."

Most men don't frequent jewelry stores and have little working knowledge about the price of jewelry, Barlerin said.

"They look for a long time, then when they find something and get very excited about it they often can't afford it. That's embarrassing."

Despite the fact that many men work up a sweat searching for the "perfect" piece, their tribulation often is paid for many times over with a simple gasp of surprise or twinkle of delight in the eyes of a loved one.

"Men can make themselves a hero overnight by buying the right piece," said Larry Tanner, the company's senior vice president of merchandise.

"Jewelry still can really impress a girl and there are ways men can alleviate some of the anxiety surrounding the purchase," he says.

Tanner suggested that men trust their own judgment and what they know about the woman.

"When I was a salesman, men would come in looking for something and always say, 'I just don't know what she wants.' But when I started asking questions I was amazed at how much these guys knew about their wives or girlfriends," Tanner said.

"Most men, if they are attentive to the women, can get to know their taste levels and satisfy them quite easily," he said. "If they would just trust the knowledge they have."

Men should keep in mind what a woman does for a living, the kind of clothes she wears, her hairstyle and if she is a nail-biter, Tanner said.

"A housewife would want something she could wear a lot and a working girl may enjoy more variety," he said. "If her hair is long, you wouldn't buy tiny earrings or if she hides her hands you wouldn't want an expensive ring."

If he isn't sure what to buy, stick to traditional jewelry, Tanner said.

"Stay with no-risk purchases like gold hoop earrings, gold-stud earrings, diamond earrings or pendants, pearls, simple pins or simple rings," Tanner said.

Men worried about their taste in jewelry should look for simplicity and quality associated with the "classics," he said.

Lack of Funds Locks Information

HOUSTON (AP) — A lack of money is keeping researchers from learning the secrets of efficient synthetic fuel production they believe are locked in a half million pages of Nazi documents.

Dr. Kurt Irgolic says that for the past three years, he has been unable to get money to translate, abstract and index the material.

"We asked the Department of Energy for $300,000 a year for three years to complete the project," Irgolic said in a telephone interview. "We haven't got that kind of money yet."

That request was made in 1978. Since then, Irgolic said, the German Document Retrieval Program has gone on at a reduced level.

The Dallas-based Hillcrest Foundation, which Irgolic said funds studies in a variety of areas, donated $40,000. Nonetheless, the Austrian-born chemist said he had to let his last full-time employee go recently.

The team, which at one time had 12 workers, was gathering and analyzing records of the synthetic fuel program in Nazi Germany. The Germans produced about 130 million barrels of synthetic fuel from coal between 1938 and 1945, Irgolic said.

His aim eventually is to include the indices and abstracts in the Department of Energy's computer base in Oak Ridge, Tenn., where scientists and engineers will have ready access to them.
