Jury says Garcia guilty

Eight hours after closing arguments ended Thursday, Benjamin Garcia Jr, 21, was handed a 30-year sentence for the shooting death Henry Garcia last May 9.

TRLA claims GAO report inaccurate about Foundation

Congressman Larry Combest revealed this week that a General Accounting Office Report shows that Texas Rural Legal Aid has kept more than $500,000 in unspent federal funds in an alternative corporation it created, The Texas Rural Legal Foundation, Inc.

LSC should, in our view, examine the factors that indicate the identity of interests between these corporations..and consider the grantees and alternative corporations as single entities," states the GAO report. The GAO said that TRLA's comments allege that Legal Services Corporation approved the transfer of carryover funds under the thenexisting LSC fund balance policy. However, the GAO findings claim there was no evidence that LSC or TRLA viewed the transfer of funds to the Foundation as a means of complying with the LSC fund balance

Houston feels quake tremors thought someone was playing a joke

HOUSTON (AP) - As a powerful earthquake rocked central Mexico, several Houston skyscrapers more than 1,000 miles away were rattled by the subsequent tremors.

Ms. Davenport said she and other co-workers gathered in the hallway Thursday morning after hearing a creaking noise similar to that of a ship at sea.

Texas' population is growing older. Right now, the median age of Texas is about 28 years. By the year 2000, it will have climbed to more than 32 years. That has important implications for the state because an aging population imposes new and dif-ferent demands-such as increased health care needs.

On the other hand, the fastestgrowing age group in the next 15

SAT scores climb in Texas

AUSTIN (AP) - State education officials are pleased by a report that the average Scholastic Aptitude Test score in Texas climbed by 12 points this year.

Reacting to scores reported Thursday in The Dallas Morning News, Education Commissioner W.N. Kirby said, "We are delighted to see that Texas students' scores on the SAT are rising at an even faster rate than the national scores."

Nationwide, the average SAT score made its biggest leap since 1963 this year, according to the newspaper report on the unreleased

The combined national average score on the two-part test climbed nine points to a total of 906. The average math score was 475, up from 471 in 1984. The average verbal score was 431, up from 426 the previous year, according to the newspaper.

In Texas, the average math score was 459. The average verbal score in the state was 419. Both scores are six points above the 1984 State education officials look to the SAT scores as some measure of the effectiveness of recently enacted public school reforms. H. Ross Perot, chairman of the special committee that recommended the reforms, said, "There is a greater focus on learning in our schools today than there has been in the past." He said there is "every reason to be optimistic about where our scores will go" during the next five years.

Nationwide, scores bottomed out at 424 verbal and 466 math in 1980 and showed little change until last year when average math scores rose three points and verbal results gained a point.

Top score on the test is 800 for each of the two parts. About a million high school juniors and seniors took the test in the 1984-85 school year. Most selective colleges and universities use SAT results as part of their entrance criteria. Fred Moreno, a spokesman for The College Board in New York which sponsors the exam, refused to confirm the test scores. He said they would not be released officially until a Monday news conference. Texas Education Agency spokeswoman Terri Anderson said state officials have not received official notification of the scores, which have been distributed to some local school districts. The drop in nationwide SAT scores since 1963 has been often cited as strong evidence of the decline in public school quality. President Reagan last year set a goal of trying to wipe out half the 22-year SAT score decline by 1990. In 1963, the first year on which the College Board has the average SAT score, the combined SAT scores were 502 math and 478 verbal, or a combined 980.

PUC examiner recommends AT&T hike

AUSTIN (AP) - AT&T Communications is entitled to a $35.8 million rate hike, but not a penny more from basic long distance calls, according to a Public Utility Commission examiner.

The company, claiming severe losses in Texas, wants a $139 million increase, including a 2.2 percent hike in the price of intrastate long distance calls.

The PUC staff had recommended an $81.4 overall hike for AT&T. Ms. Rhodes' report says AT&T should collect the $35.8 million increase through price hikes for several services, including a 50-cent charge for long distance directory assistance calls (after two free calls per month), a 50-cent surcharge for credit card calls (the current charge is 35 cents) and an overall $10.1 million hike in the price of outgoing WATS service.

Collapsed railroad bridge repaired

SAN ANTONIO, Texas (AP) - A railroad bridge that collapsed when a train bearing sulfuric acid derailed has been repaired and trains are rolling again, Southern Pacific officials say.

The derailment of 21 acid-bearing tankers sent at least 50,000 gallons of the toxic chemical into the Medina River below the bridge. The derailment occurred late Saturday, forcing the evacuation of about 300 people and causing a massive fish kill.

Doug Dupre, a Southern Pacific spokesman, said the first train rolled over the repaired track at 1:55 p.m. Thursday, four-and-a-half days after the derailment.

Dupre said the next task will be to pump the remaining sulfuric acid out of the damaged tanks, which still are lying on the river-

He said an earthen dike had been constructed around the tanks to contain any spillage.

Once the tanks are drained and removed, workers will have to scrape up all the residual dirt and topsoil in the affected area, Dupre

National² Federal officials reaffirm AIDS claim

WASHINGTON (AP) - Federal health officials, saying the chances of children contracting AIDS from schoolmates is "extremely small," are standing by their recommendation that most children with AIDS be allowed to attend school.

U.S. Public Health Service officials said Thursday that the federal Centers for Disease Control guidelines for school attendance, issued three weeks ago, are based upon careful study of AIDS children and Although this evidence indicates AIDS transmission in schools is unlikely, they said, decisions on school attendance lie with each community and, ultimately, each child's parents.

"If a child is normal in all other respects and infected with AIDS, that child can go to school," Dr. Walter R. Dowdle, director of the infectious diseases center at CDC, told a news briefing. "It's a very difficult disease to get," he continued. "The likelihood of it occurring (in school) is extremely small."

Dr. Anthony S. Fauci of the National Institutes of Health said studies of more than 300 youngsters in households where there is a child with the disease, acquired immune deficiency syndrome, have not turned up one case of the disease being passed to siblings.

Contact among children in these homes is much more intimate than in a school situation, with youngsters sleeping together, sharing cups and hugging, he added.

Dr. James O. Mason, the Department of Health and Human Services' acting assistant secretary for health, said some parents concerned about having children with AIDS attending class with their offspring are asking for absolute assurances "that don't exist in the

"The chance of getting AIDS from casual contact is like that of getting struck by lightning when you walk out of your house in the morning," Mason said. At the briefing, health experts also said the likelihood of getting AIDS through male-female sex is small, but possible. They recommended that heterosexuals avoid sex with those at high risk of contracting the deadly disease, as well as those who show signs of exposure to the virus suspected of causing the condition.

Teacher helped

DEAR ANN LANDERS: Our 15-year-old son attempted suicide several months ago. We were lucky to find him before the 70 or more pills he swallowed could do any physical damage. After a month in an adolescent care unit (and intensive therapy) his severe depression is lifting and we all have hope again.

The week after "Jason" returned to school, a letter appeared in your column (April 2 in the Manhattan Mercury, Kansas) about a 13-yearold suicide. The letter was written by a woman who had just returned from the girls' funeral, witnessed over 100 classmates attending, and wondered where these "friends" were when this child was alive. She also wondered what has happened to kindness in kids.

The reason for this letter is to tell you about a teacher in our local school who used that letter from your column to teach her students about kindness. She did this when Jason returned to her class, and I can't begin to express my feelings of gratitude for the help she gave our

When he was in the hospital, dozens of friends wrote letters and sent cards, trying to reassure him of their concern and love. His depression didn't allow him to accept their kindness then. But after the teacher lectured her class on kindness, based on the letter in your column, it was like a light went on in Jason's head.

This letter isn't written in the best English, so please change what is necessary if you use it. I just wanted you to know that your column helps so many people and it can teach, too.-A GRATEFUL MOTHER

DEAR GRATEFUL MOTHER: Your English is just fine. I didn't have to change a word. Thank you for writing a most sensitive and thoughtful letter.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: Please give your opinion concerning protocol for the wedding of a child of divorced parents.

My former husband and I had an unpleasant divorce when our daughter was very young. I received custody of the children. It took no great effort. My husband did not ly after the divorce, which was no little going for him.

absentee father. When I needed help during times of crisis, he always had arr excuse not to be there.

Our daughter's wedding is approaching and her father suddenly has surfaced and says he wants to give the bride away and be a part of the festivities. "After all, I AM the girl's father," he said, "and I have supported her all these years."

I had planned on having my brother do the honors. He has been a great help to me and I feel he deserves it.

In my opinion, it doesn't seem right for my husband to be in the limelight after so many years of pain and neglect. What do you say?-QUANDARY IN THE U.S.

DEAR U.S.: What does your daughter say? It's her wedding. Another factor to be considered: Is your ex-husband paying for the wedding? If he is, the man has something want them. (He married immediate- of a case. If he is NOT, he has very

West Texas State lost its season opener to Abilene Christian 35-28, and defeated Angelo State 12-10 last week. Louisiana Tech lost to

TCU suspends Kenneth Davis, five other football players

FORT WORTH, Texas (AP) -Heisman Trophy candidate Kenneth Davis and five other Texas Christian University football players have been suspended from the team because of possible violation of NCAA rules, it was reported today.

The suspensions came after some players admitted at a team meeting held late Thursday night that had taken illegal payments.

Head football coach Jim Wacker identified the others suspended in addition to the star running back as defensive players Egypt Allen, Gearld Taylor, Gary Spann, Marvin Foster and Darron Turner. Taylor is a junior and the others are seniors.

Television Station KXAS reported that the suspensions were in effect for only Saturday's game against Kansas State University, but the Fort Worth Star-Telegram quoted Davis as telling them he was "off the Wacker and other TCU officials could not be reached immediately to determine the extent of the suspen-

"It's the toughest decision I've ever had to make in my lifetime," Wacker said of the suspensions.

"I really feel for the six people involved more than anything else. They are six great young men," Wacker added.

"They are some of our best football players, some of our finest people, Wacker said of the players.

Wacker said he and TCU Athletic Director Frank Windegger had not been aware of the payments. The coach said he was reporting the matter to the NCAA and the Southwest Conference before taking any other action.

Wacker said the payments have been made "within the last year" from unnamed alumni.

Davis, a leading contender for the Heisman Trophy, which is given annually to the nation's top college football player, said Wacker dismissed the six from the team Thursday.

"He Wacker) told me we were off the team," Davis said. "I'll just have to wait until the sun comes up in the morning."

A tearful Davis would not discuss the particulars of the incident.

"It hurts," he said. "That's all I know to say. I had no idea this would lead to something this serious. My brothers and sisters tell me the sun will rise tomorrow, but I don't know how I can go out and face the public.

"This is something that is going to come out," Davis said. "I'm not ready to talk about it right now, but I don't think a lot of mud should be slung because of it. I've just got to think about things before I can talk about it."

Former HHS gridder at Tech gets praise from line coach

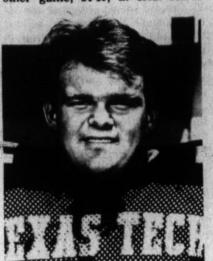

Aubrey Richburg, a former standout Whiteface gridder, drew special praise for his performance in the comeback Texas Tech victory over Tulsa last week.

"He was blocking on their linebackers and his quickness gave them fits," said offensive line coach Clovis Hale. "Aubrey has a knack for blocking...he does the things you can't teach."

The Red Raiders put their unbeaten record on the line Saturday against North Texas State. Kickoff is 7 p.m. at Jones Stadium in Lubbock with a crowd of 35,000 to 40,000 expected for the game.

The Raiders scored with 11 seconds left to take a 21-17 win over Tulsa last Saturday. Tech had to come from behind in the season opener to score a close 32-31 win over New Mexico. This is only the second meeting ever between Tech and North Texas. The Eagles won the other game, 34-19, in 1952. North

In the game between the White junior varsity and Clovis, the visiting Clovis team held a 7-0 lead in the first quarter and a 20-0 halftime lead in defeating Hereford 20-7.

Hereford scored its touchdown in the fourth quarter when John Washington ran one yard for the score. Joe Cera kicked the extra point.

Coach T.R. Sartor said the White junior varsity had good offensive efforts from James Hernandez and Chris Bullard, and good defensive efforts from Chris Bullard, Russell Brownlow, Lee Young, and Johnny Beltram.

Texas scared No. 8 Oklahoma State last week before losing 10-9.

Richburg, 6-1, 250, is a junior twoyear letterman. He started as a defensive end for the Raiders and moved to offensive guard last year. With the new flexbone offense, Richburg moved to a starting tackle position to take advantage of his quickness and blocking skills.

Richburg, the son of JoAnn and Jerry Richburg of Hereford, was the Class 5A All-South Plains Player of the Year in 1981 when he helped lead the Whitefaces to a 13-1 record and a berth in the state semifinals. The Herd lost a 10-7 game to eventual state champion Lake Highlands. The Whitefaces were 26-8 during Richburg's three years.

Teams in the National Football League drew identical totals of 24,056 yards for both offensive and defensive penalties in 1984.

La Plata 8th grade wins, 9th grade battles to tie

La Plata Junior High School's eighth grade football team got on the winning track Thursday by edging Friona 8-6, and La Plata's ninth grade football team tied Amarillo Bowie 18-18.

The eighth grade team has a 1-1 season record and will play at home next Thursday against Gattis at 6 p.m. The ninth grade team, which is 0-1-1, plays Gattis at 4:30 p.m. in a home contest.

James Hillwig of La Plata scored with a 19-yard touchdown pass reception from Robert Cavin in the first quarter of the eighth grade game.

Brian Wagner scored the two-point conversion to give La Plata an 8-0 lead. Those points turned out to be enough as the La Plata defense allowed Friona to score only a second quarter touchdown, and no extra points.

Coach Tommy Bowling said, "It was a good effort by the whole team. There was a lot of improvement by the whole team, especially the defensive and offensive line of Steve Tucker, Charlie Romero, Danny Berumen, Kyle Vanlandingham, Charles Dauster and John Cornelius. "Brian Wagner played a very good game on defense and ran hard on of-

The La Plata ninth grade football team held a 12-6 halftime lead over Amarillo Bowie in the contest that ended in an 18-18 tie. Bowie held a 6-0 lead after the first quarter.

Later in the second period, Clint Cotten caught a 20-yard pass from Jason Scott for a 12-0 lead. That scoring march went 60 yards.

In the third quarter, La Plata drove 65 yards for a touchdown, with Jason Scott scoring on a one-yard quarterback sneak.

Coach Ed Coplen said his outstanding defensive players were Joe Medrano, Clint Cotten and Chad Maupin, and that his outstanding defensive players were Jerry Jiminez, Frankie Murillo, and Jason

Stanton 9th grade loses grid defensive battle 2-0

Defense was the name of the game for both teams in a ninth grade football contest Thursday between Stanton Junior High School of Hereford and Sam Houston Junior High School of Amarillo.

Each team shut out the other's offensive team for the entire game, but the difference in the game was a safety scored by Sam Houston Junior High School in the fourth quarter for a 2-0 victory over Stanton.

"Our defense played real well. Our offense didn't take advantage of some excellent opportunities," said Coach James Salinas.

"On the safety, we had held them on fourth down at our one-foot line and we just couldn't move the ball out. They stunted and got the safety," he adds.

Next Thursday, the Stanton ninth grade football team plays at Marshall at 4:30 p.m. The Stanton eighth grade team, which did not have a game this week, will also play at Marshall, a 6 p.m. Thursday.

Greyhounds take on East Central Oklahoma Saturday will try to rebound from a 25-14 loss to Southwestern Oklahoma State in its 1985 football season opener when the Greyhounds host East Central Oklahoma University Saturday in Portales, N.M., at 7:30 p.m.

Last season, ENMU trailed East Central Oklahoma 46-14 with four minutes left in the third quarter, but rallied to defeat East Central 50-46.

ENMU scored a touchdown with nearly two minutes left in the third quarter in that contest, and then crossd the goal line four times in the fourth quarter to edge East Central.

East Central Oklahoma has an 6-1-1 record after battling to a 17-17 tie with Howard Payne University, and losing 5-2 to Texas Lutheran. East Central committed 12 turnovers in the Texas Lutheran game, including seven interceptions. Texas

Lutheran had eight turnovers. In last week's loss to Southwestern Eastern New Mexico University Oklahoma State, Eastern New Mexico struggled with its ground game, gaining just 21 yards in 22 attempts.

In the passing game, ENMU had 248 yards in 15 completions out of 41

ENMU will be without its starting quarterbac,k Herman Evans for four to six weeks. Evans suffered a fractured fibula last week, and offensive lineman Kevin Barker suffered a knee injury that will keep him out of the lineup for the rest of the season.

ENMU leads the all-time series against East Central Oklahoma 4-3. In addition to last year's 50-46 win over East Central, the Greyhounds defeated East Central 42-14 in 1974, 21-20 in 1976, and 14-7 in 1977.

East Central Oklahoma's last win over ENMU was 36-22 in 1975. The two schools played a pair of games in the 1940s, with East Central winning 27-0 in 1948 and 13-12 in 1949.

Adult education programs at Hereford High School are currently being planned for Tuesday and Thursday sessions from 7 until 9:45 p.m. The four classes to be offered are ESL, English-Second Language; ABE, basic skills learned in first through eighth grades; GED, skills needed for the General Education Diploma which is the equivalent to a high school diploma; and Citizenship for those preparing for United States naturalization.

Students may register at any time during the year since most of the instruction is individualized. All necessary materials are supplied at no charge to participants.

For additional information on the programs, contact Kenneth Helms, coordinator of Hereford School's adult education programs, 364-5112.

FEDERAL TAXES

Some states do better than others

(Source: The Tax Foundation)

Not every part of America benefits equally from what it pays Uncle Sam. New Jerseyans, for example, paid almost $1,000 more per capita in federal taxes last year than they got back in U.S. funding in their state. On the other side of the coin, New Mexicans each got back $2,000 more than they paid.

BIBLE

That night the Lord stood beside Paul and said, "Don't worry, Paul; just as you have told the people about me here in Jerusalem, so you must also in Rome."

The next morning some 40 or more of the Jews got together and bound themselves by a curse neither to eat or drink until they had killed Paul! Then they went to the chief priests and elders and told them what they had done. "Ask the commander to bring Paul back to the Council again," they requested. "Pretend you want to ask a few more questions. We will kill him on the way."

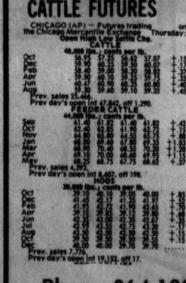

came to the armory and told Paul. Paul called one of the officers and said, "Take this boy to the commander. He has something important to tell him." So the officer did, explaining, "Paul, the prisoner,

But Paul's nephew got wind of their plan and called me over and asked me to bring this young man to you to tell you something." The commander took the boy by the hand, and leading him aside asked, "What is it you want to tell me, lad?" "Tomorrow," he told him, "The Jews are going to ask you to bring Paul before the Council again, pretending they was to get some more information. But don't do it! There are more than 40 men hiding along the road ready to jump him and kill him. They have bound themselves under a curse to neither eat nor drink till he is dead. They are out there now, expecting you to agree to their request." "Don't let a soul know you told me this," the commander warned the boy as he left. Acts 23:11-22
