Jim Lipscomb, the boy scout of the postal service, is always prepared. Billie Smith walked up to the Postmaster the other morning during coffee hour at Close's and half-jokingly asked Jim for an air mail stamp. "Where's your nickel?" Lipscomb demanded, not cracking a smile. Bill, not to be outdone, solemnly produced the nickel; whereupon Jim fished out his wallet and, from an assortment of stamps, produced a 5-cent airmail. That's better than curb service.

The Presbyterian Guild, raising more funds for the new church, will sponsor a Rummage Sale at Cogdell Motor Company Saturday. Persons who wish to donate clothing or other articles to the sale may leave them at the church, or call Mrs. Will Graham, telephone 170-J, for pick-up service. The sale will open early—and stay late.

All the wheat growers are trying to beat the box car shortage, and some of them are succeeding. Two men who've found a solution: Austin Rose and Arthur Legg, who are trucking wheat to Roaring Springs where the Quannah, Acme and Pacific Railway, the short road with the long name, seems to have plenty of box cars. At that point, the wheat is loaded on box cars and shipped to Wichita, Kansas, for terminal storage.

The box car shortage is everywhere, apparently, but on the Q. A. & P. the line that starts at Quannah and winds up at Floydada, a few miles short of its "Pacific" destination. The Paducah Post last week passed out passes to officials of the "Q" for speedy movement of a wheat crop five times as large as in 1946. Three hundred and eight cars had been shipped out of Paducah up to Wednesday.

Resume Play on Monday in Muni Softball League

The Municipal Softball League will resume play Monday night after a two-week holiday for harvest.

Dawn still holds a commanding lead in the loop, with six wins, only one loss. The Hereford Firemen are in second place, with 5 games won, 2 lost. American Legion, Summerfield, and VFW are all tied for third place with four wins, three losses.

High School is in sixth position, Sunday School seventh, and the luckless Lions in the cellar.

Monday's game will pit Summerfield against Sunday School. Tuesday night, Dawn is scheduled to meet High School. Wednesday night, the Firemen play the Lions, and Thursday night, American Legion tangles with VFW.

None of the games are likely to alter the standings materially, with the exception of the Thursday night game when the two Veterans teams get together.

The Standings: Dawn 6-1-597, Firemen 5-2-714, American Legion 4-3-571, Summerfield 4-3-571, VFW 4-3-571, High School 3-4-428, Sunday School 2-5-285, Lions 0-7-000

No Deaths Mar Fourth of July Week end Here

At times no news is good news... even for a newspaper. Not a single traffic accident injury or fatality was reported in the Hereford area during the long Fourth of July weekend.

Despite the fact that highways leading into Hereford were jammed with traffic during the three-day holiday, with long lines of wheat trucks adding to the congestion, local officers and highway patrolmen said this week that not a single accident was reported.

YOUNGSTER INJURED BY FIRECRACKER EXPLOSION

Tragedy was narrowly averted when a "bomb" firecracker exploded into the eye of nine-year-old Sammie Lou McLallen at her home, 917 E. Third, Friday, July 4. Sammie is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. B. McLallen.

The accident occurred when a playmate placed a lighted firecracker in the opposite end of a pipe swing through which Sammie was looking. The explosion packed powder and rust from the firework and paper, dirt and an elm seed from the pipe into the child's right eye.

Though the eye was badly powdered, the injury will not be permanent.

The only highway crash in the area occurred on Highway 66 at Vega, Saturday night when a man, woman, and child were killed in a collision with a truck.

Mr. and Mrs. Laudon Strickel of Port Neches were killed instantly and their son fatally injured in the Vega crash. The boy, Toby Derald, 15, died at Northwest Texas Hospital in Amarillo a few hours after the accident. Pat Strickel, 18, suffered minor injuries.

The Strickel automobile, headed east on Highway 66 seven miles west of Vega, collided head on with a wheat truck at about 7:30 p.m. Saturday. The truck driver was not injured.

The nation's death toll over the weekend, however, spiraled to 638, with some injuries expected to send it still higher.

Traffic accidents accounted for 375 deaths. Seven were killed by fire works, 187 drowned, and 169 were killed in miscellaneous holiday accidents.

Deaf Smith county's holiday record remained clean, however. Highway patrolmen and county and city officers, relaxing after a vigilant weekend, were relieved and pleased over the absence of trouble.

This area, in the middle of history's biggest wheat harvest, had little time for celebrating. It was a quiet Fourth of July.

Missing Dog Brings Reward Offer From Parents of Invalid Youngster

One tourist passing through Hereford recently apparently decided to take up permanent residence here, much to the consternation of his fellow travelers.

"Taffy," a collie dog pictured here with his nine-year-old invalid playmate, is believed to be in or near Hereford since his escape about three weeks ago from the back of the automobile in which he was riding.

The dog belongs to Mr. and Mrs. John Kastell, Gary, Indiana. According to a letter received this week by G. D. Steakley, "Taffy" either jumped or fell from the turtle back of the Kastell car when they stopped at the Steakley service station on Highway 66 about June 15.

Taffy-colored with small ears that "flap down," the lost dog was wearing a leather collar with the name "Taffy" scratched on it when he was last seen by the Kastells.

Mrs. Kastell said in her letter that "Taffy" was the constant companion of her daughter who has been in bed two years with

CHIEF JUSTICE

The U. S. Senate Tuesday finally confirmed the nomination of Marvin Jones (above) as Chief Justice of the U. S. Court of Claims in Washington. The former Panhandle Congressman was already a member of the court, to which he was appointed by President Roosevelt in 1940. Jones served as Congressman from Texas 18th District for two decades before accepting the appointment to the Federal bench.

Funeral Services Are Held Here for Roberson Infant

Phillip Wayne Roberson, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Dean Roberson, died Sunday at the Lubbock Sanitarium, five minutes after being admitted for treatment of a rare blood ailment.

The baby was born last Wednesday, July 2, at the Deaf Smith County Hospital, and had been in an incubator and under oxygen since birth. The child was rushed to Lubbock Sunday by E. B. Black ambulance in a futile attempt to save his life.

Funeral services were conducted Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock at the First Baptist Church in Hereford, with Rev. Harold Hicks, visiting pastor from Little Rock, Arkansas, officiating. Interment was in West Park cemetery.

Surviving are the parents, a sister, Betty Jean, a brother, Jerry Dean, and grandmother, Mrs. J. B. Roberson of Lubbock.

BOB WEAR TO TEMPLE

Bob Wear, minister of the local Church of Christ, left this morning (Thursday) for Temple, Texas. He will be in Temple ten days as the guest speaker in a series of meetings to be conducted by the Sparta Church of Christ. His family will remain in Hereford.

Monday's Dollar Day Brought Record Crowd

Monday was the biggest Dollar Day in Hereford since local merchants started the monthly feature early this year.

A big wheat harvest, and a large array of "hot" Dollar Day bargains offered by local stores combined to make this month's Dollar Day a whopper. Streets and stores were thronged with shoppers all day Monday, and participating merchants all reported banner sales.

"First Monday" in every month is featured by Hereford merchants as Dollar Day. The event has been steadily increasing in popularity since it was inaugurated early this spring.

The owners are offering a reward for information leading to the finding of the collie. Anyone knowing of his whereabouts is asked to notify G. D. Steakley at Steakley and Sons Service Station.

Amarillo JayCee Officers Will Attend Meeting

Plans are being made this week to organize a Junior Chamber of Commerce in Hereford.

The movement to organize a local JayCee chapter is headed by J. F. Kelly.

A meeting has been called for tomorrow night (Friday) at 8 o'clock at the county courtroom, when C. T. Davis, president of the Amarillo Junior Chamber of Commerce, and a delegation of members from the Amarillo organization, will come to Hereford to explain the organization and function of the Jaycee organizations.

All young men in the Hereford area who are interested, or think they might be interested, in a local Jaycee organization are invited to attend, Kelly said.

Membership will not be restricted to Hereford business men. Representatives from all communities in the Hereford area are invited to attend the meeting and join the organization if it is formed.

Twenty-five to fifty fellows are expected to attend the meeting here, Kelly said.

A number of the younger business men in Hereford have expressed interest in the organization, and an effort will be made to get out a good attendance at the initial meeting.

C. T. Davis, president of the Amarillo Jaycees, informed Kelly by telephone yesterday afternoon that he would be accompanied by Darrell Grundy, director in the State Junior Chamber of Commerce; and County Attorney Ray Snodgrass and Arlie Hudson, both directors in the Amarillo chapter.

Davis said that other members of the Amarillo Jaycees might also attend the meeting.

The Amarillo group has offered to sponsor the organization of a Junior Chamber of Commerce in Hereford.

Davis and his fellow members will explain the details of organization and function of the Junior Chambers of Commerce, and will outline the work now being done by the Amarillo Jaycees.

Castro Farmer Slugged; Car Is Stolen

Claude P. Hamilton, Castro county farmer, is still in Deaf Smith County hospital this week recovering from head injuries sustained, he told officers, when he was attacked and slugged by two youngsters employed on his farm 15 miles south of Hereford last Thursday morning.

Hamilton identified his attackers as Lawrence Horner, 16, and Marlene Caviness, 14, both of Wichita, Kansas. The youngsters left the country Thursday morning in Hamilton's car, a 1947 Ford, and were apprehended in Wichita, Kansas, by officers early this week. The car was recovered at Wichita Falls, Texas.

Hamilton said he had hired the boy and girl to help him move.

COMBINES ROLL ACROSS COUNTY AND WHEAT GOES ON GROUND

Work Underway On 11th Street Water Mains

Three County Offices Moving To New Quarters

First step toward starting construction on the $390,000 city improvement program was taken this week by the Hereford City Commission when a notice to bidders to submit bids for construction of a 200,000 gallon overhead water storage tank was issued.

No Wheat Thefts In Deaf Smith... Yet

In spite of the large amount of wheat piled on the ground all over the county, not a single wheat theft has been reported to local officers so far, Sheriff J. C. Reese said yesterday.

Officers here have been asked to be on the look-out for wheat thieves who have hijacked a considerable quantity of ground-stored wheat at Floydada, Tulsa, Clovis, Bellview, N.M., and other points, Reese said, but no local growers have reported any losses in this county.

"If there's been any wheat stolen, nobody's missed it yet," he reported.

Harvest 90 Percent Over At Mid-Week

Wheat harvest in this county was nearly 90 per cent complete at mid-week as farmers wound up one of the fastest, and by far the biggest, harvest in the history of the county.

The Deaf Smith county average yield will run close to 20 bushels per acre, J. A. Pitman, Hereford elevator operator and wheat grower, estimated yesterday.

With planted acreage in this county estimated at between 430,000 and 450,000 acres in wheat, the county yield is nearing the staggering total of nine million bushels.

Combines, in short supply as harvest opened, poured into the area last week, and aided by perfect weather, harvesters rolled in the grain in record time.

Wheat growers got another shot in the arm at mid-week as prices climbed to $1.99 per bushel on the Hereford market yesterday.

The biggest headache for growers and elevator men alike, was the continued drastic shortage of box cars. Elevators in the county, with nearly three million bushels of storage, have been filled, for the most part, since the first few days of harvest. Only a handful of cars have been made available at the Santa Fe yards here.

Elevator operators hooted at local Santa Fe estimates that 200 cars of wheat had been loaded out of Hereford by Wednesday afternoon, 250 from the Hereford-Dawn-Summerfield terminals.

Complaints among elevator men that not more than 120 cars had been shipped, and of that number, half were gondolas.

With elevators and all available farm storage loaded with grain, and piles of wheat rising on the ground all over the county, growers have been utilizing a fleet of trucks in the area for harvest to ship grain to terminal elevators all over the wheat belt.

An estimated 200 trucks daily have been leaving Hereford loaded with grain, some to points as far away as Port Worth and Wichita, Kansas. Long lines of trucks have headed into Amarillo, where some of the terminal elevators were still accepting wheat.

Farm storage, which pre-harvest estimates placed at less than half a million bushels, has jumped to probably twice that figure as farmers rushed construction on small granaries, and utilized every manner of available building to shelter grain.

Still hundreds of thousands of bushels of wheat are piled on the ground in all sections of the county.

No official figures on the total yield in the county are available, and probably none will be for months. Best estimates, from experienced observers, however, place the total crop in the neighborhood of nine million bushels.

Three County Offices Moving To New Quarters

Three county offices are in the process of moving at the courthouse this week.

The County Welfare Office and Red Cross office moved Monday into newly remodeled quarters in the former Commissioners Court room on the second (main) floor of the Courthouse.

The Commissioners Court will shortly take over the office now occupied by the County Agent, and the County Agent's office will be moved to the ground floor of the courthouse in the space formerly occupied by the Welfare office.

Mrs. Dyalitha Bradley, Welfare Administrator and Executive Secretary of the Deaf Smith County Red Cross chapter, was celebrating Monday over shifting her offices from the basement to the main floor of the courthouse after thirteen and a half years in the old quarters.

The old Commissioners Court room has been re-modeled and partitioned to provide a private office for Mrs. Bradley, an office for her secretary, and a small waiting room.

Warnings Issued to Farmers By Agricultural Department

Two urgent warnings to farmers were issued here this week through the County Agent's office. One, from the United States Department of Agriculture, urged caution in the use of plant insecticides marketed under the name of Chlorinated Camphene. "Chlorinated Camphene is toxic," the Department bulletin advised, "and is absorbed through the skin in the dry form and from solutions. Avoid inhaling dust and mist from sprays, or getting them in the eyes. Avoid any unnecessary skin contact. Keep away from feed and food products. Keep clothing free from residue."

The warning was distributed by Charles A. Kling Jr., associate extension entomologist, Texas A. & M., who said that insecticides called "toxaphene," "phenatox," and "3956" are all known as chlorinated camphene and are in wide use.

Recommended antidote for poisoning from the insecticides: "Use emetic by dissolving 15 grams (one-half ounce) of table salt in glass of warm water, or 1 to 3 teaspoonful of powdered mustard in glass of warm water. Repeat until vomit fluid is clear. Call a doctor at once."
For external use, wash thoroughly with soap and water. The department cautioned against using the insecticides on animals.

The second warning, issued by several manufacturers and the Louisiana Liquefied Petroleum Gas Commission, concerned danger of using anhydrous ammonia as a fertilizer with flame cultivation equipment, and storage in Liquefied Petroleum Gas equipment.
The highly volatile ammonia attacks brass fittings on the tanks, is dangerous to use and dangerous to persons using it, the warnings indicate.

A check of local L-P gas distributors and farm agencies, however, reveals no instance of the use of the anhydrous ammonia fertilizer in this area. Local butane distributors advise that none of their equipment is being used for this purpose, and farm agencies believe that none of the fertilizer is currently in use here.

(USDA) — Cotton and some grains dropped sharply last week, and easy spots appeared in livestock and vegetables, according to the Production and Marketing Administration, U. S. Department of Agriculture. Other southwest products sold steady to strong.

Volume movement of the new crop punctured recently ballooning sorghum markets, and prices collapsed to levels 70 to 80 cents per hundred pounds lower last week. Quotation at Fort Worth and Galveston Thursday stood at $2.67 for No. 2 milo. White corn gained 22 cents, to reach $2.83 per bushel, and yellow corn dropped six cents, to sell at $2.29. Other grains changed very little from a week earlier.

Rice trade reported offers for sale after June 30 at prices far above former callings. Rains delayed prairie hay harvest in the southwest and damaged alfalfa in the Central West. Peanut markets saw light trading, but new crop prospects continue good. Oilseed meals climbed higher, but milfeeds dropped, and other feeds remained fairly steady. Good staple 12-months Texas wools sold at 47 to 55-cents per pound.

Spot cotton markets quoted $2.50 to $2.75 per bale lower prices last week. A little more activity left trading still on a small scale. High and medium grade cotton continued in demand. Most cotton areas enjoyed favorable growing conditions.

Eggs held firm last week, and even advanced slightly in some areas. Better qualities found especially good demand. Current receipts brought mostly 37 1/2 to 38 1/2 cents per dozen at Ft. Worth, 39 to 42 at Denver, and 38 1/2 with rots candled out at Dallas. High quality graded eggs sold quite a bit higher. Poultry held steady.

Shipping point prices of Texas tomatoes about held their own last week. U. S. No. 1 six by six and larger sizes loaded at $2.00 to $2.15 in East Texas, and $2.35 to $2.50 in North Texas. Watermelons and peppers weakened at New Orleans, Denver, and Kansas City, as shipments increased. Oklahoma corn went lower at Kansas City.

Most cattle sold about steady last week, but Oklahoma City paid 25 to 50 cents higher prices, while cows and bulls went lower at Houston, as did calves, bulls, and low grade cows and heifers at Denver. Common to medium cows bulked at around $12 to $15 at most places, and canner to cutter grades $8 to $12. Common to medium stocker steers and yearlings brought $13 to $16 at Houston, while medium and good kinds moved at $16 to $20 at Fort Worth, and $16.50 to $18.50 at Wichita.

Texas hog markets held about steady for the week, but other southwest terminals dropped around 50 cents, more or less. Closing bulk of good and choice butcher hogs brought $24.75 to $25 at Fort Worth, San Antonio's late-week top was $24.50, Oklahoma City and Wichita $24.75, and Denver $25.25.

Most sheep and lamb markets held fully steady, and some classes gained up to 50 cents, but slaughter and feeder yearlings dropped $1.00 or more at Fort Worth. San Antonio bought medium to good fat yearlings at $14 to $16.25, while Fort Worth paid $13.50 to $17 for shorn lots. Denver took shorn lambs at $18.50 to $21.

Missionaries to Speak on Congo At Baptist Church

Speaking on their twelve years in the African Congo, Mrs. Beulah MacMillan Amie and Miss Ruth Amanda Johnson, members of the Berean Mission Personnel, are scheduled to appear at the local First Baptist church Wednesday afternoon, July 16, at 3:00 p.m.

Mrs. Amie is an aunt of Mrs. Hugh Witherspoon of Hereford. Miss Johnson has been Mrs. Amie's companion in Africa.

The missionaries will be in Hereford under the sponsorship of the Woman's Missionary Union of the Baptist church. President of the union is Mrs. George Graham.

With the responsibility of training the house boys and supervising the mission school, Miss Johnson taught many of the subjects which appear in the curriculum of American schools according to a letter from C. Reuben Lindquist, president of Berean Mission Personnel.

Mrs. Amie taught Bible and was in charge of the language department, reducing the language to writing and translating a number of songs and textbooks as well as preparing a grammar in the Kilega dialect.

She also was head of the mission dispensary work for some time before a registered nurse appeared on the field. She is the author of a pamphlet concerning the people with whom she worked called "As the African Sees Himself... And as God Sees Him."

The public is invited to hear Mrs. Amie and Miss Johnson according to Mrs. Avon Vick, church secretary.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Kinsey and his sister, Mrs. Lake Dishman, returned Tuesday from Hedley, where they had been at the bedside of their father, C. L. Kinsey, 73, since Sunday. They were called to Hedley late Saturday by the serious illness of Mr. Kinsey whose condition is reported today as fair.

Visiting in Hereford last weekend were Mr. and Mrs. Hugh A. White of Dallas. Hugh is attending school at SMU.

from the Castro farm, which he had sold recently. He said they had been employed there for two or three weeks, according to officers.

Hamilton was found bleeding from cuts about the head by Don Park of Hereford at about 10 o'clock Thursday morning. Park told officers he had gone to the farm to repair some granaries.

He encountered Horner and the girl, and asked about Hamilton's whereabouts. They told him he (Hamilton) was not there. Going on to the granaries, Park found Hamilton, and returned to town to summon a doctor.

When he returned to the farm, the boy, girl, and car had disappeared.

Hamilton was brought to the Deaf Smith Hospital where he was treated for concussion. Hamilton had little to say about the incident, Sheriff Reese said. The case was turned over to Castro county officers.

Officers reported at mid-week that they did not know whether or not the two youngsters would be extradited from Kansas to face trial in Castro county.

Miss Carol Lohofoner, student at Texas Technological College, Lubbock, spent the weekend in Hereford. She was the guest of Paul Dishman in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lake Dishman. Paul will return to Texas Tech in the fall.

JayCee Rodeo at Littlefield Set For July 25-27

LITTLEFIELD, July 7.—One of the most colorful rodeos to be staged in West Texas this summer will be the annual big-time Littlefield Jaycee western show, set for July 25-26-27.

The four-show rodeo will be directed by the veteran Howard Brown of Dublin, for five years superintendent of the Gene Autry World's Championship Rodeo Association. The stock will be furnished by the famous Autry & Colbert ranch at Dublin.

Added attractions of the big western show this year will be a mammoth street parade on the opening day of the rodeo, street dances each night, and the cow-girl sponsor contest.

Some of the specialty acts will feature Don and Virginia Wilcox of Tulsa, Okla., performing trick and fancy roping; Gene McLaughlin of Fort Worth, a veteran trick rider who has appeared at such shows as Madison Square Garden, the Boston Garden and others; Ruth Miriam, one of the leading trick riders of the country; Roy Seward, who will stage his famous Calgary rope act and Alec Alexander, clever and resourceful colored bull fighter and clown.

The Littlefield Jaycee Rodeo, approved by the Rodeo Cowboys Association of America, is posting prize money totaling $2,000.

Forgeries and Hot Checks Plague Officers, Merchants

A wave of forgeries and hot checks which has hit the local sheriff's office in recent days brought a plea from Sheriff J. C. Reese this week to local merchants to "know your endorsers and check signatures."

Several forged checks have turned up, and a number of checks have been returned marked "no account."

In many cases merchants have been unable to offer satisfactory identification of the person passing the checks.

15 Year Old ...

girl's mother brought her newlywed daughter... and the telltale letter... to the office of Sheriff J. C. Reese Tuesday afternoon.

The couple were married last Saturday by Justice of the Peace Andy Thomas, after a local man, friend of the bride-groom, had sworn to an affidavit saying that the bride was 18 years of age. Her mother, who should know, insists that she's only 15.

Warrants are being prepared for the arrest of both men... the bride-groom and "best man," one charged with bigamy, the other either with "false swearing" or perjury.

Names of all parties are being withheld pending arrest. Sheriff Reese said that the new husband had apparently left town, but that a search was being undertaken.

The girl- bride told officers that she had known the man only a couple of weeks before they were married. She could give no information regarding his employment, or his whereabouts, past or present.

Reese said the man was apparently a transient laborer, and had been in Hereford only a short time. The letter from the Ballinger wife indicated that he had left home only a short time ago.

Mr. Draper, a California newspaperman, has been planning the trip for several months as a graduation present for his grandson Fred.

Hereford Baseball Team Will Meet Portales Sunday

The Hereford VFW entry in the Western Panhandle Baseball association will meet the Portales (N.M.) team on the local diamond next Sunday afternoon. Game time is 2:30 p.m.

The Hereford hard-batters are now leading the Western Association with four wins, only one loss. The VFW entry has defeated Portales once before this season, 14 to 12, in a slug-fest at Portales.

Also numbered among their victims are both the Clovis Blue Jays and the Clovis Black-Jacks and the Friona Cardinals. The only defeat suffered by the local nine so far in league play was at the hands of the Dora (N.M.) team.

County Wheat ...

Wheat in the immediate Hereford area, and in the area north of Dawn, was apparently the poorest in the county. Hard hit by green bugs, the yield fell below pre-harvest estimates.

However, in the vast dry-land section in the western part of the county, many heavy yields have been reported, and the average yield for the entire county is believed to be about 20 bushels per acre.

Sheriff J. C. Reese reports what he claims is one of the fastest recoveries of a stolen car on record.

Tuesday afternoon, C. U. Gleaton, proprietor of Ike's Cafe, Studebaker had been taken from in front of the cafe within the last 30 minutes.

Two minutes later, Deputy Sheriff Neal Young discovered the car parked on Main Street. Both Gleaton and the officers are still wondering how it got there.

West Texas Dairymen to Reorganize Dairy Products Association July 17

LUBBOCK, July 5.—Dairymen from West Texas and Eastern New Mexico will reorganize the West Texas Branch, Texas Dairy Products association at a meeting place which has not been designated, but will probably be on the Texas Technological College campus, according to L. G. Harmon, professor of dairy manufactures.
Plant operators from all branches of the dairy manufactures industry, including butter, cheese, market milk and ice cream, are expected to attend. Meetings of the West Texas branch were discontinued when transportation grew critical during the war. Members are drawn from a wide area, including the Texas Panhandle, Big Spring, Vernon, El Paso and Eastern New Mexico.
Tech cooperates with the organization and the industry in providing counsel in quality control, Harmon said. Prof. K. M. Renner, head of the college dairy manufactures department, is also chairman of the state quality control committee. Harmon is in charge of the West Texas dairy products analysis laboratory at the college.

Prairie Dog Goes To Church . . . But Gets Days Mixed

Maybe Friday seemed like Sunday to him.
Or maybe, he was just a member of a church-going family.
Probably, the noise of firecrackers frightened him. Whatever, the reason, a prairie dog found his way Friday morning, July 4, into the library of the First Baptist church.
"Uncle George" McLean, janitor at the church, declared that while working Friday, he heard a scratching noise behind him and turned to find the full-grown animal scampering about the room.
The prairie dog had entered the basement door of the church and climbed two flights of stairs to the main floor.
"Uncle George" complained that he had "quite a time" getting the rodent out of church with the little animal insisting upon playing "hide-and-seek" through the building.
Mrs. Monroe Horton and children, Joyce and Jimmie, of Montrose, Colorado are visiting her sisters, Mrs. Elmer Patterson and Mrs. L. R. Blevins.
Bill Stephens of Littlefield spent the July 4th weekend here with his mother, Mrs. Seale Stephens.

Pantex Surplus Sales Shifted to Amarillo Field

AMARILLO, (Sp)—With the closing of the Pantex Customer Service Center July 1, surplus property located in the Panhandle area hereafter will be disposed by the location sales division of War Assets Administration at Amarillo Army Air Base, it was announced today by regional WAA officials.
The Service Center, which has been maintained at Pantex Ordnance Plant by the WAA for the past several months, has been discontinued because of current economy measures which brought about reduction of operating personnel.
E. A. Carl, field representative of the location sales division, will assemble personal property from the Pampa and Dalhart Air Fields as well as the Hereford and McLean former prisoner of war camps, at the Amarillo Air Base.

A clearance sale of these materials is planned at the Amarillo field during the first part of August.

WAA Offers Storage Buildings In Cash-Carry Sale at Dalhart

DALHART, July 7. — Employing red tape slashing tactics to surplus real property in a revolutionary move to afford additional storage facilities to West Texas agriculturists, War Assets Administration will market approximately 100 Dalhart Army Air Field buildings by the "spot bid" method here July 15.

The one-day, cash and carry type sale will be the first time the WAA real property office has offered buildings "over the counter" to the public. As each building is announced for sale over a loud speaker system, bidders will turn in their offers on informal bid cards, and winning bids will be named as fast as the offers can be compared. No priorities will be observed at the sale, and successful buyers will be enabled to start removal of their buildings immediately following the awards.

"At this sale we hope to solve some emergency problems for West Texans in need of buildings and storage space for this season's wheat crop through elimination of the customary sealed bid procedure," said Jack Cowart, chief of the urban and rural branch, non-industrial real property division, who will conduct the sale for the Grand Prairie office. He stressed that individual farmers, businessmen and others will have equal opportunity to buy.

In the Dalhart offering will be a cold storage plant complete with operating equipment, barracks, supply rooms, kennels, repair shops, latrines, gas and fire stations, administration, recreation and storage buildings. Besides grain storage, many of the frame structures may be adapted for use as bins, poultry houses, stock barns, or converted into living quarters.

Most of the buildings will be offered singly, Cowart said. In many cases, he pointed out, they can be moved from the site intact or section by section for re-assembly. The sale is part of a program for clearing the camp grounds for return of the field to private users.

The public is invited to make inspection of all sale property daily from July 3 to July 14. Complete instructions for bidding and a listing by number of the buildings offered will be available at the field during the period. The sale will commence at 9 a.m. July 15. Successful bidders or their authorized representatives are required to be present to complete payment for purchases.

The Dalhart field is located three miles southwest of Dalhart on highway 54.

BY MRS. MERLIN KAUL

The hot, dry weather of the past two weeks has been ideal harvest weather. Many farmers have completed their combining and plowing has started.

The Tom Clays have been enjoying a visit from their children. Those visiting in the Clay home the past two weeks include Mr. and Mrs. Ned B. Craig and Donna Gay of Lubbock, Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Howell and Dawn of Lubbock, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Glascock of El Paso, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Clay and Tom of Hereford. Also guests were Captain and Mrs. Damon Boyles and son of Lawton, Oklahoma, friends of the Clays.

Gerald Eurich, brother of Rev. Aaron Eurich, is working during harvest for A. A. Head. Rev. Wayne Eurich of Plainview worked a couple days last week and visited Gerald. Rev. Aaron Eurich spent the weekend in the Head home.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Gunn of Hereford and Mr. and Mrs. L. H. McMurray and sons of Hereford and Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Little, Jr. were dinner guests of Mrs. Grace Little.

Guests last week in the Roy Lee Wilson home included Mr. and Mrs. Arch Petty of Abilene. Mr. Petty is a brother of Mrs. Wilson.

and son of near Flagler, Colorado were guests a few days last week in the home of their daughter, Mrs. N. G. Thomas.

Mr. and Mrs. Q. N. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Nate Thomas, and the Art Lewis family at Hereford attended the Rodeo at Amarillo the Fourth.

A whirlwind at the Q. N. Lewis home last Wednesday took the top off a chicken house, blew it into the clothesline, whirled it into the garden, then picked it up again and left it in the flower garden. Who says whirlwinds are harmless?

Several ladies from here attended the bridal shower and tea for Mrs. E. H. Little, Jr. at the home of Mrs. Cawthon Bryant at Hereford last Wednesday afternoon.

Harvest casualty—Mrs. Elmer Combs, going to town in the Combs truck Wednesday morning, ran into a loaded wheat truck which had stopped abruptly in front of her. She suffered no injuries, the wheat truck and driver were uninjured, but the Combs truck was badly damaged.

Amarillo Social Security And Old Age Insurance Office Ten Years Old

Completion of ten years of public service in the local operation of the Federal old-age and survivors program is marked this month by the Amarillo office of the Social Security Administration, John R. Sanderson, manager, said today.

Established by the Social Security Act of 1935, the program originally was confined to benefits for qualified wage earners who had reached age 65 and retired from employment in industry and commerce. In 1939, an amendment to the Act added survivors' insurance to the system.

The first 106 local offices were established in various parts of the country in 1936, and by 1939, 327 field offices were functioning. Today, there are 462 offices throughout the nation to give every person access to the free information and services necessary to the program's operation.

The Amarillo office was opened in July 1937 in the Oliver-

Eagle Building and moved in 1929 to its present location in The New Post Office Building.

It is the local field office of the Social Security Administration that processes claims for benefits under the old-age survivors insurance program. The field office gives all information and assistance needed by workers in employment covered by the Social Security Act in preserving their insurance rights so that they will be able to receive the full benefits they have earned. The specific duties of the local office include also the issuance of new and duplicate social security account cards and assistance to workers in checking on their accounts and getting the accounts put straight where errors have been made.

The steady growth of the old-age and survivors insurance system is reflected in the year-by-year increase in the number of living workers who have ac-

Names of Seven Rainbow Girls Added to List

The names of seven members of the Hereford chapter of the Order of the Rainbow, all officers of the chapter, were omitted from the list of girls winning "A" and "B" certificates at the Grand Assembly in Dallas published in last week's Brand.

Patsy Slagle, worthy advisor; Cecelia Guseman, worthy associate advisor; Barbara Burney, Charity; Marian Longbottom, Hope; Linnea French, Faith; Elaine Thompson, Recorder; and Mary Jo Mathis, Treasurer; were among the 31 members of the local chapter who were awarded certificates for proficiency in work of the order at the Grand Assembly.

The Hereford Assembly had the largest group of any assembly in the state to win these certificates at the Grand Assembly. All but two of the group attending passed the examinations, and Mrs. A. L. Manjeet, Mother Advisor of the local chapter, reports that these two girls had prepared their work but failed to take the examination.

accumulated wage credits toward possible benefits. In the first year—1937—this figure stood at 328,000,000 persons; by 1940 it had increased to 44,800,000; by 1943 to 65,700,000; and 1945 to 73,200,000.

As in all parts of the nation, comparatively few retired wage earners in the Amarillo area qualified for benefits in 1940, the first year in which they were payable. By the end of 1946, however, a total of 1628 men, women, and children in this area were receiving earned retirement or survivors benefits each month that total $25,343.22.

Nationally, the old-age and survivors insurance program has grown from approximately 100,000 beneficiaries in 1940 to a total of more than 1,800,000 beneficiaries who are receiving more than $33,000,000 in benefits every month.

Good news for spud growers: the price of $3.50 quoted in the story on page 1, section 2 of this issue of The Brand was written a bit too soon. The market, f.o.b. Hereford, was at $3.75 per hundred for U.S. No. 1 Reds yesterday. There's gold in those potato hills, partner.

Silver Linings and Otherwise: F. W. Lindekuegel, harvest worker, of Brady, Nebraska, dropped a roll of bills containing $730 at the First National Bank the other morning... and had it returned within a minute by an honest finder. Mrs. J. C. Gafford of Brownfield, whose husband is also working in the harvest here, wasn't so lucky. She lost her purse, containing checks and about $100 in cash, somewhere downtown in Hereford Monday... got it back a few hours later, with the checks, but minus the cash.

city property in the north central part of town.

The program will include extension of city water mains and fire protection to all sections of town.

Construction is now underway on one short extension of water mains, and has recently been completed on another, materials for which were ordered several months ago.

A 6-inch main has been laid along Highway 60 from Sears and Teter elevator to Elm Courts, giving needed fire protection to that section of town; and construction is now in progress on three blocks on 6-inch main along 11th Street from Avenue G to Avenue J. The new water main will replace a 2-inch line which is now serving more than 40 connections, Mayor Dameron said, with more users waiting for service.

These projects, the Mayor pointed out, were planned long before the $112,000 bond issue for water works improvement was voted, and are not a part of that program. Material for these extensions, ordered a year ago, has recently been delivered.

The city engineers are working as rapidly as possible on plans and specifications for other city improvement projects included in the $391,000 bond issues voted this spring, and bids for construction on these projects will be let as rapidly as possible. A great deal of detail work is required before bids can be advertised, Dameron pointed out. The city's engineers, Parkhill Smith and Cooper of Lubbock, are working up construction plans for all projects.

The engineers are currently completing plans for the paving of 10th Street, between Highway 51 and Highway 60, for the State Highway Department, in an effort to speed state action on the project.

Bids will be let as soon as possible on the remainder of the water works extension project, and on the $96,000 sewer system project, Dameron said. A part of these projects will have to be completed before work can be done on the 100-block street paving program, and construction will depend on the availability of critical materials.

Engineers still hope to get the stars will be playing under the lights tonight and tomorrow night. Admission: Free!

Streu's Diary
 July 9, 1947

DEAR DIARY:

The glorious Fourth has come and gone—with fireworks—which are prohibited within the city limits—it says. I don't mind fireworks—in fact I like them—with-in reason, but the next smart kid that drops a couple in my lap while I am entertaining guests in my own back yard had better run like the dickens because I have a shotgun loaded with salt that will take all the fun out of such pranks—and I am still mad enough to use it. I still think that people who sell fireworks should be ashamed of themselves.

Which reminds me—there are going to be some more fireworks if the people who gave the cold checks don't come in and pick them up. They have all been notified, and those remaining Saturday will go in the window!

The canning season is rapidly approaching and we are prepared with all kinds of canning aids—pressure cookers, cold pack canners, tin cans and sealers, fruit jars, jolly glasses, fruit jar fillers, jar holders, lifters and wrenches, all kind of jar lids and caps and rings, preserving kettles, peach papers, paring knives, and a host of other items.

Vacation time and picnic time is here, too, and again Streu's are ready with outdoor grills and charcoal—long handled forks, thermos jugs, metal ice boxes (beverage coolers), air mattresses, sleeping bags, flashlights, trout reels and lines and flies—lots of bass fishing equipment, Coleman lanterns and so on indefinitely. Oh, yes, we have plenty of paper plates and cups.

Coming soon—more camp cots, nails, bolts, wrenches, Cynogas ant killer, files, angel cake pans, and a bit of everything.

Last week I advertised our belt lacing service—and was called down twice after work and three times on Sunday to lace belts—this is NOT a 24 hour service—only from 7:30 A. M. to 6:00 P. M. week days. Sorry if I gave the wrong impression.

STREU.

1947 Spud Harvest May Prove Bonanza For Deaf Smith Potato Growers

Hereford Nine Wins Comedy of Errors From Clovis Blue Jays in Loop Game Here Sunday

EDITOR'S NOTE: Here's a graphic play-by-play description of last Sunday's Western Panhandle Association game between the Hereford VFW nine and the Clovis Blue Jays by that old maestro of the diamond, Homer Fox. The Hereford baseballers now have a record of four victories, one loss, in league play.

After dropping their first game of the season Sunday, June 29, to Dora, N.M., behind some fancy 5-hit elbowing by Stan Barrett, the Hereford VFW baseball team crossed bats with the Clovis Blue Jays Sunday on the home grounds in a listless sort of game with a lot of good and bad plays, and I mean plenty of good sunshine, Hereford winning by a score of 9 to 8.

Glenn Anderson started the chinking for Hereford and allowed one hit and struck out three men in the first frame. Hereford started to work on Clovis pitching in the first. Sargee, first man up, flew out to left; Tup Loerwald slammed a single to right field and the ball went away from right fielder and up went to third; Barrett walked; Stengel was safe on a bobble third and Loerwald scored. H. Loerwald flew out to left, Luebs got away from first and Barrett and Stengel scored. Robertson was out to left, 3 runs, 1 hit, one walk and three errors.

Clovis came back in their half of the second to score one run on no hits, 2 walks, one wild pitch and one error.

One single by Sargee in the second was all Hereford could do. After Reed was out third to first, Anderson struck out the next two men. He threw his arm at the last batter on the third strike and because he couldn't throw left handed he walked out. Not bad for an old Paratrooper though. Seven strike outs and one hit in the three innings he pitched.

The last of the fourth Hereford staged a rally that meant the ball game. Winkler led off with a triple into center field, and scored on a wild pitch. Sargee singled for his second hit of the game. Tup Loerwald crammed a double down left field foul line for his second hit of the game, and Stan Barrett came up with a triple that scored Sargee and Loerwald. That was all for Carson, the Clovis pitcher. He was replaced by Stratton. Bud Stengel singled for his second lick of the game and scored Barrett. Stratton whiffed the next two men up, walked Robertson and struck out Groom for the third out—4 runs, 5 hits and the score is Hereford 9, Clovis 4.

Winkler was bearing down in the fifth, one, two, three with two strike outs. Stratton came back and mowed-scared them both with a double.

Oil Stove Explosion Burns Home

Fire caused by the explosion of an oil cook stove completely destroyed the Jim Cross home twelve miles southwest of Hereford in the Summerfield community early Friday morning, July 4.

No serious injuries were reported, although Mr. and Mrs. Cross and a hired man, O. B. Webb, suffered minor burns.

The explosion took place at approximately 4:45 a.m. Mr. Cross had lit the stove and stepped outside a minute. He returned to the kitchen just as the kerosene blew up.

Yelling for Mrs. Cross and Mr. Webb to "get out of the house" and thinking that they had done so, Mr. Cross fled from the burning building closing the door behind him. Outside, he found that both were still inside, the latter apparently asleep upstairs.

Mr. Cross rushed back into the house, and all three escaped after an unsuccessful attempt to drag the blazing stove outside.

Mrs. Cross, most seriously injured, suffered burns on the shoulders, neck and back, and had her hair badly burned. Mr. Cross and Mr. Webb both had injuries of the throat and eyes, and the former had a burned right arm.

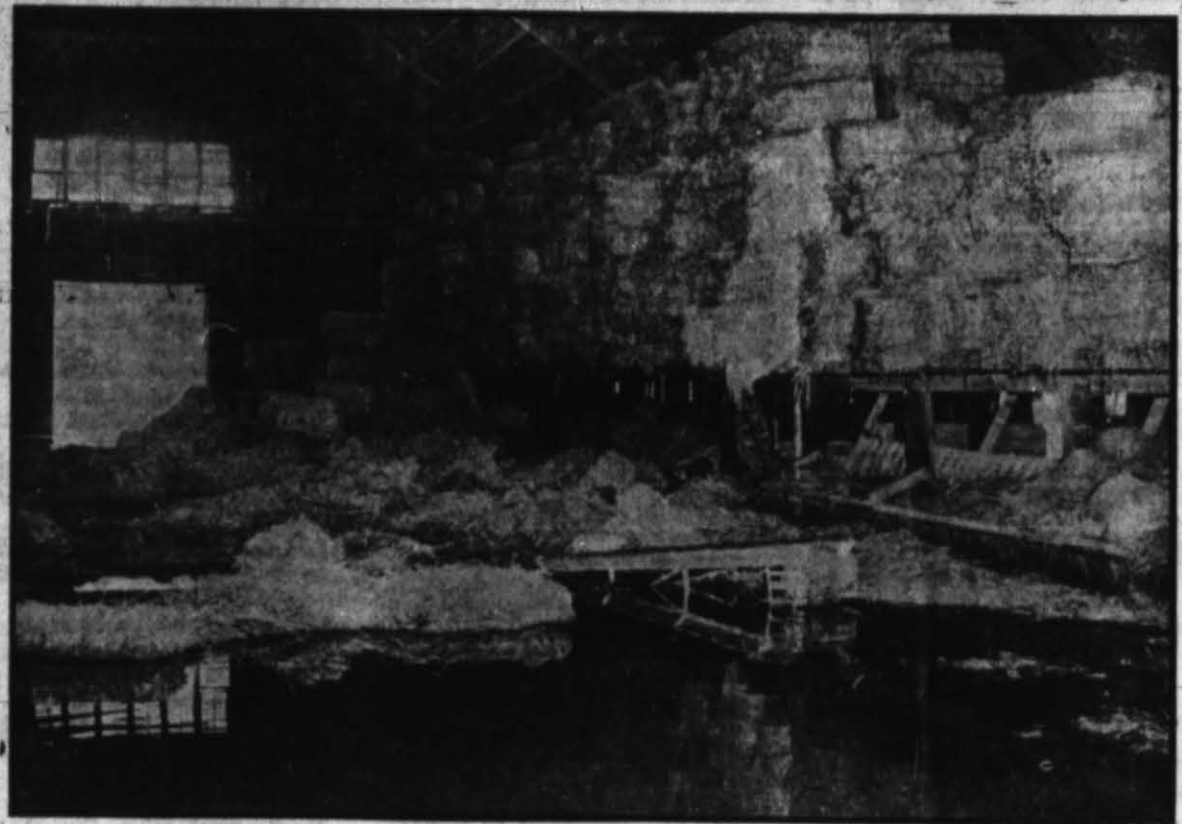

The six-room two-story house and nearby windmill were burned to the ground. The place belonged to James W. Witherspoon, Hereford.

Mr. and Mrs. Cross lost all their clothing and household goods in the flames. Friends in Hereford and Summerfield began a collection of gifts of clothing, money and furniture to aid the Crosses last Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Cross had just recently returned home from a Lubbock hospital where she had undergone a surgical operation.

Mrs. Lisle Woodford and Mrs. J. M. Posey returned Thursday from Dallas where Mrs. Woodford received treatment at the W. B. Carroll Clinic.

Hay Joins the Ranks of Flood Casualties

And hay wasn't the only flood casualty. Thousands of acres of potatoes in Missouri and Iowa were destroyed by the rampaging Missouri River and its tributaries, and the spud surplus shifted overnight to a shortage... with a consequent boost in demand and price. Extent of the flood is indicated in the above NEA photo... six feet of water in a barn full of hay on a Bethel, Kansas, farm.

Prices High, Demand Steady Harvest Near

A potato harvest which may turn into a bonanza for local growers is about to start in this county.

A top price of $3.50 per hundred was being quoted on the local market this week for U. S. No. 1 Reds. White potatoes were being quoted at $3.00.

Local processors were rapidly preparing for the start of harvest, with some spuds already appearing. One processor began operations at Dawn early this week, though most of the spuds being handled there were from the Spring Lake area.

Harvest should be well underway in another week or ten days.

Although the local spud crop is somewhat later than last year, quality is good and yields promise to be high, and more important, the market is wide open.

An unusually early harvest on the east coast, flood damage in Missouri and Idaho, and a Fourth of July freeze in Idaho and Oregon which is delaying the crop in that section, all have combined to give West Texas spuds the best market break in history.

Local processors and growers are betting now that there will be no major break on spuds before August, if then. The Department of Agriculture, which a few weeks ago had more spuds than it could digest or market, is now optimistically looking forward to going out of the potato business, as far as the current season is concerned.

The government support price on spuds is $2.25 per hundred for U. S. No. 1's in this area. Agriculture Department forecasts now indicate that government marketing specialists see little likelihood of the potato market dropping below the price support level.

Deaf Smith county growers, with nearly 4,000 acres in potatoes, are sitting on top of the world. Although the acreage is sharply reduced under the government's quota program from last year's record 5,500, a big crop of spuds is being produced.

While the average will be materially less, one grower is optimistically setting his yield at 200 sacks per acre.

Spud Market Undergoes Rapid Changes; Flood May Relieve Ag Department of Buyer's Role

No Shortage of Reefers for Spud Hauling Seen

Rail transportation, which has been the big pinch for the wheat harvest this year, isn't expected to hamper the potato harvest. Hereford spud growers are apparently getting all the breaks this year—so far.

Refrigerator cars, which handle the potato shipments, are expected to be plentiful by the time the spuds start rolling here this summer. The big California crops, which draw the reefers to the West Coast, are winding up their shipping season just in.

The U. S. potato market has undergone some rapid changes since a month ago, when Secretary of Agriculture Clinton Anderson was defending his department against heavy attacks in Congress concerning the destruction of several thousand bushels of un-marketable potatoes from the early Alabama crop.

Missouri River valley floods which have wiped out large acreages of potatoes, and a July freeze in Idaho and Oregon which will delay the crop in that section, has created a sudden strong demand for potatoes which, a few weeks before, had glutted the market.

Until this week, the Department of Agriculture had been looking forward to another big surplus of spuds, such as the one which knocked the bottom out of the potato market in mid-harvest last year and caused the dumping of millions of bushels of un-wanted spuds on the government market at support prices.

The break in the market caught Deaf Smith growers in mid-harvest last year on July 16, when the price, which had slithered down from a $3.00 per hundred, top, suddenly plunged below $2.25 support price offered by the government and precipitated a near-riot in Hereford as growers rushed for box-cars to un-load their perishable product on the supported market.

Last month in a message to Congress, Secretary Anderson was defending the price support program on potatoes, under attack by Congressman August H. Anderson of Minnesota. The attack was brought on by the destruction of 7500 bushels of potatoes, purchased at support levels, in Alabama.

Although the Government had moved, after last year's debacle, to set up controls to lower the 1947 quotas, the country was faced with another big surplus early this year. The early surplus in the southeast this spring was 28,500 bushels.

Last year a surplus of more than 100 million bushels of potatoes was disposed of by the government, much of it at token prices. Eleven million bushels were fed to livestock. Three million bushels went to the school (Continued on Page 8)

The Bootleg Philosopher

Dear Editor:

I'll admit I ain't too well posted on world history, the same as you and Wes Lizard of the Globe-News, and we all got our shortcomings, but I been readin a good many papers which have been blowin up in the fence corner pretty regular lately and it seems to me the world appears to be in bad shape.

That is, too many things is in an upheavil. For example: Greece is in an upheavil. Spain is in an upheavil. Labor is in an upheavil. The Mississippi is in an upheavil. John L. Lewis is in an upheavil. Henry Sears, J. A. Pittman, Alton Fraser, and John Santa Fe is all in an upheavil over the boxcar shortage, and the wheat farmers likewise.

China is in an upheavil. Aviation is in an upheavil. Diplomacy is in an upheavil.

Prices is in an upheavil, principally up.

My wife's is in an upheavil. In fact, I don't know of a single thing that ain't in a sort of turmoiled condition, outside of me, as I make it a point to avoid gettin upset, particularly in hot weather. My method is to get out of earshot of my wife and the bill collectors by hidin in the tall weeds out at the corner of the west forty where I've been meditatinn lately, and the thought has come to me that maybe times ain't so abnormal now after all. Maybe the world has been in an upheavil ever since it started. I ain't no authority on world history, like I say, but has there ever been a time when the world didn't seem to be on the brink of something or other?

My contention is that times is normal, upheavils has been breakin out for hundreds of years, and the politicians and newspapers has been thryin on one orisa after another, but things seem to hold together and survive. Greece fell in ancient times. Rome fell. France fell no later than six years ago. I myself have gone busted no less than fourteen times. But ain't Greece, France, Rome and me still around and still wantin to borrow money? Times is normal. Yours faithfully, J. A.

Joe Palooka and Superman to Enter School Classes

DENTON, July 6—Joe Palooka and Superman are going to school. And they aren't hidden behind history texts or under Johnny's English books, either. For comic books are now taking their place on the shelves of elementary schools throughout the nation as important instruments in progressive education, according to Dr. Lavda Ratliff of the North Texas State College education faculty. A study in the use of comics in the classroom is being made this summer by students in Dr. Ratliff's education class. Since children bring "funnies" into their classrooms anyway, teachers have decided to make comics work for, instead of against, education. Dr. Ratliff says. Now clever instructors are going to make LIT Abner and Terry and the Pirates and their associates help teach reading, history, geography, art, language, and science. A modern counterpart of fairy tales, the comic strip supplies drama and action to classroom work. For instance, a comic-strip character may venture to the Amazon. After allowing students to enjoy the adventure of the story, a teacher may help point out the geographic position of the Amazon, its size and surroundings. Historic associations may be introduced in the discussion, and students will remember more and have a better perspective than they would have attained from reading the same data from a textbook. Mrs. Ernest Wade and daughter Betty Jean, left Monday for Los Angeles, California where they will visit friends and relatives for three weeks. MASONIC BULLETIN Hereford Lodge 548. B. L. CAGLE WARMS FEET OVER MAUNA LOA Baptist Pastor Sees Famous Hawaiian Islands Volcano

In a letter to The Brand received this week, Rev. R. H. Cagle, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Hereford, writes from Honolulu, T.H., of a visit to Mauna Loa, the island's most famous volcano, and encloses a clipping from the Honolulu Star-Bulletin of the same date describing renewed activity in the Mauna Loa crater.

Rev. Cagle is on a two-months tour of the Hawaiian Islands, where he is conducting a series of meetings. His visit to the islands is being financed and sponsored by the Hereford church.

His letter follows:
HONOLULU, T.H., July 1—I returned by Hawaiian airlines from Hilo today. Just yesterday I was gazing at Mauna Loa and Mauna

Kaa on the big island (Hawaii). We warmed ourselves on steam emitted by the Kilauea crater on the northeastern slope of Mauna Loa. The sulphur banks with steam rising constantly are a sight to behold.

We warmed ourselves over the holes in these banks with rocks so hot under our feet we could feel them through our shoes. The enclosed clipping is from the Honolulu Star-Bulletin dated June 30.

(The clipping reported: "Mauna Loa is getting restless, scientists revealed today. The volcano's behaviour may presage surface activity this year. Mauna Loa which has averaged an eruption every four and a half years, last erupted in March 1942, thus making it a year late with its display of pyrotechnics. However, the volcano has been known to remain quiet for as long as nine years.")

There is widespread rejoicing. Rev. Cagle's letter continues, over the vote in the House of Representatives in Washington to admit Hawaii as the 49th state. The papers are full of the news over here.

We leave tomorrow for the Garden Isle, Kalaui (pronounced Cow-Eye), said to be the most beautiful, and it is the island on which James Gilliland of Hereford spent three and a half years before his death on a mission to Okinawa. I am to be on Kaula through Sunday, July 6. After that all of my meetings will be here in Honolulu. We will return to Hereford July 22 by United Airlines and TWA. Yours truly,

R. H. CAGLE

Protest 'Imported' Models

Chicago fashion models didn't like it a bit when the National Women's Exposition planned to "import" the nation's "Ten Best-Dressed Women"—chosen by a jury of New Yorkers—to serve as mannequins at the Exposition, so they carried their protest to the public, right through the Loop.

THERE'S A Blue Ribbon ON THE OLD FAMILY TREE

1st AWARD

Great-GREAT-GREAT Grandpaw (at least in spirit) was a "long-horn." The old pioneer was a forerunner to be proud of. But according to some history books, he was good for little more than "hides and tallow."

BUT today, the bull that roams the plains is a BLUE RIBBON WINNER all over the world.

We have so much confidence in the cattle industry—and all other industries we serve—that we are investing 35 million dollars in a building program. This expansion program in the area we serve will bring more dependable electric service to industry, and better living—electrically—to everyone!

Teaching Your CHILD

(Note: This article on Teaching Your Child Religion was prepared for The Child Study Club by Mrs. D. C. Kinsey.)

Parents and teachers have a double problem in teaching a child religion; to give each child a wholesome, intelligent pride in his own heritages, and at the same time to teach him that the more intensely we care for our own religious forms, the more we should respect the convictions and try to understand the practices of others. The need for such understanding is seen in the story of the Protestant child who went to church with her little Catholic friend and waited outside while her friend went in for confession. The kindly priest, seeing her, asked if she wanted to come in for confession too—"No, she replied, I am a Presbyterian and we don't sin."

One of the first truths we need to teach children is that while we reverence the same God, there are many ways to worship Him. As they grow older some understanding of the various faiths in America, especially the three largest religious groups, Jewish, Catholic and Protestant, should be given.

Few realize what the western civilization owes to the Jewish people. They were the first to believe that there is only one God and they were the first to set aside one day in the week for rest and worship. Moses gave to them the Ten Commandments and through their leaders was taught the basic ideas of democratic worship in which all people share. Children should be taught that Jesus was a Jew and though we do not agree with all their teachings and observances, we can appreciate their religion.

Children who are not Catholic will be interested to learn the meaning of the Mass and other religious services of the Catholic Church. The many Christian denominations are confusing but a very small child can understand that however great the variations, all give allegiance to one God.

The first teachings of Protestantism should begin with the Pilgrim Fathers. Their heroic journey to a strange land that they might be free to worship as they pleased laid the foundation for the many denominations and the American ideal of democracy, and as the child gradu-

Seek to Form Naval Reserve Unit at Clovis

CLOVIS, July 5—Male residents of communities in Eastern New Mexico and West Texas, within a 50-mile radius of Clovis, are being invited to attend a mass meeting to be held July 15th at 7:30 p.m. in the Clovis High School auditorium for the purpose of discussing the establishment here of an active Naval Reserve Unit.

A committee of Clovisites, made up of Bud Cagle, chair-

Sqdn. has been able to pile up such a fine record; that of flying seven hundred and twenty five hours while in Japan with only eight aircraft. This is an unparalleled record in our post war Armed Forces effort. This mission consisted of bombing, gunnery, perfection of electronics, and strategic and tactical concepts of the B-29. Coordination with P-80, P-47, P-51 and A-26 units stationed in Japan was accomplished on maximum efforts over the entire Pacific area including Guam, Iwo Jima, Saipan, Tinian, Okinawa, and Korea. Landing at Tucson on 1 July, Col. Jack J. Catton, the Squadron Commander, is going to reward Corp. Williams with plenty of time off to relax after his efforts.

man; Raymond Rive, Dee Spivey, Horace Hudson, and Wesley Quinn has been formed to assist in creating a roster of men who are interested in such a unit.

The committee has been informed that if 200 enlisted men and 13 officers can be enrolled, assignment of a unit to Clovis is almost assured. If a unit is assigned to the city, the Navy will let local contractors for the building of an armory which will be equipped for the training of reservists in numerous trades.

The mass meeting is for the purpose of outlining the advantages to the individual of Naval Reserve training, and Navy representatives will be on hand to answer questions in an open-forum session.

Men over 17 years of age, veteran and non-veteran alike, are eligible for membership in the Naval Reserve.

Several Hereford Naval Reservists have already become members of the naval reserve units in Amarillo.

At present prices of cotton and cottonseed, no grower can afford to lose one-bale-out-of-seven which cotton insects normally steal.

Lightning rods do protect buildings, but only when the connections to the ground are good.

During the month of May, almost 13,000 farm workers were placed by the Texas A. and M. College Extension Service farm labor program.

Chlordane, a new insecticide, is reported to be ten times more powerful than DDT against certain insects.

Supplies of oilseed cake and meal available for feed from now through September are expected to be about the same as a year ago.

The average American is drinking less milk this year than last, due in part to the fact that he is spending more for other goods and foods which were still scarce last year.

Billie Williams Back from 35-Day Mission in Japan

Corporal Billie Williams, Communications specialist from Hereford, has just returned to the United States after a 35 day trip to Japan on maneuvers with the 65th Bomb Sqdn. of the 43rd Bomb Group stationed at Tucson, Arizona. This squadron of B-29 aircraft was chosen for this assignment because of its superlative record in the 8th Air Force during a five months training period beginning 1 January 1947. It is mainly due to Corporal Williams' efforts as well as his fellow workers that the 65th ally learns the meaning of the story his individual freedom will assert itself to the point of choosing his church and his doctrine of faith. True religion has no place for bitterness or rivalry between denominations. Explain to the child that he can have a part in all denominations through his adherence to the one of his choice. Teach him the place of your church in the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ of America and tell him how the many churches cooperate.

Teach the child the stories of the Saints and heroes of The Bible as they have been taught to you, encourage him to visit Synagogues and churches of other faiths. Invite children of other faiths into your home for children are interested in what can be seen, and in religion they are concerned in worship, rather than in questions of belief. Most children choose the religion of their parents, but if given an understandable background for their choice, they will do so with more intelligent loyalty and with sympathetic appreciation of the ways in which others worship.

Judge and Mrs. D. E. McGehee and daughter Dorothy of Leveland have returned to their home after a short stay with her sister, Mrs. Ben Sudduth.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Gunther and son Mike of Lubbock were in Hereford Sunday. They were guests of her father, Carl Frye, and other relatives.

Executives Are Named for South Plains Fair

LUBBOCK, June 28—Two experienced men will head the general livestock and agricultural departments of the Thirtieth Annual Panhandle South Plains Fair, September 29 through October 1. Homer D. Grant, Fair Association president, expects the 1947 fair to be the greatest ever held.

Grant announced the recent appointments of Jason O. Gordon of Lubbock as general livestock superintendent, and L. H. McElroy, Terry County agent, as superintendent of the agricultural department.

Last year, as a temporary measure, Gordon headed both departments, but this year the fair returns to the prewar policy of having separate superintendents for the two departments.

Gordon, former Lubbock county agent, has served the fair in an official capacity since 1934, when he was superintendent of individual exhibits. McElroy was first concerned with the fair in 1937, also as superintendent of individual exhibits. He served in the same capacity last year.

Division superintendents announced by Gordon and McElroy to assist them in their respective departments are:

Ollie Limer of Farwell, Parmer county agent, dual purpose cattle division; W. B. Griffin of Tahoka, Lynn county agent, swine division; Leroy Colgan, assistant Lubbock county agent, junior agricultural and livestock division; A. L. Hartzog, Floyd county agent, county exhibits; D. W. Sherrill, Lubbock county agent, Lubbock county community exhibits; N. J. Robnett, Lubbock Senior High School vocational agriculture instructor, individual exhibits; and L. M. Hargrave, associate professor of agricultural education at Texas Technological College, vocational agriculture division.

Grant also disclosed that fat pig divisions will be eliminated from competition in the fair. Competition will be confined to breeding classes. Prizes will be posted for Durocs, Poland Chinas, Spotted Poland Chinas, Hampshires, Chester Whites and Berkshire.

ed 'em down for Clovis in their half of the fifth.

Clovis scored one more in the sixth on a walk, a wild pitch and an error, making the score 9 to 5 Hereford.

Stratton set 'em down in order with two strike outs.

No soap for Clovis in the seventh. Less soap for Hereford in the 7th.

In the eighth Clovis came up with blood in their eye, they just had six left handed hitters—Lewis was hit by a pitched ball, McKinney tripled, Little struck out, Johnson singled into right field and the flat head let it through him for two extra bases. Barrett took over the pitching and Winkler went to third.

Strack hit a hard ball through short. Curson singled and with three runs across on three hits, Barrett sharpened up his old curve ball and struck out the next two men. Clovis 8, Hereford 9.

With two men out in their half of the eighth, Barrett got his second hit of the game, but

Tied Up

This is the way watchman Stanley Glad, 85, found himself after three gunmen broke into the Chicago cleaning plant where he worked: trussed by colorful neckties, and suspended from an overhead hanger-bar. Near his head you can see the plant's watchdog, which just watched while the gunmen broke open one safe and made off with two others in the establishment's delivery truck.

time for local growers to catch the refrigerator cars on the rebound.

Local spud processors are anticipating no difficulty at all in getting shipping space for the early spud crop here. Box cars, which are scarce as hen's teeth, aren't required, and reefers needed to ship the highly perishable spuds should be in good supply.

lunch program. Ten and a half million bushels were exported... a loss. Potatoes for export were million bushels were exported, at prices as low as four cents per hundred pounds.

About 30 million bushels of the surplus went to starch mills and distillers for beverage and industrial alcohol. Still some 22 million bushels of spuds were wasted, Anderson estimated, from the 1946 crop.

Potatoes May Be Used as Feed for Dairy Cattle

COLLEGE STATION, July 5.—Folks all over are asking about the practice of using potatoes as feed for dairy cows.

Extension dairymen at Texas A. and M. College are telling them that spuds are satisfactory in a dairy ration if fed in limited amounts, as a substitute for grain or other feed.

Sometimes, say the dairymen, cows may choke on the potatoes, but this can be remedied if the dairy farmer will slice or chop the vegetables before feeding. Potatoes are not the most tasty feed a cow can get, and she needs to become accustomed to them gradually. Feeding too large amounts of potatoes may cause scours.

When fed at the rate of 24 to 40 pounds per head daily, the spuds are a good substitute for corn silage, the dairymen say. Even at that, the animals will probably lose their appetite for the vegetable after several months.

Heavy Rains Test Terraces Built in West Texas

COLLEGE STATION, June 30.—Heavy May rains, measuring up to 9 inches in some sections, provided a real test for new terraces built by West Texas farmers.

Most of the terraces stood the water well. In Coke County, J. R. Emmons, county agricultural agent, reports that a few lessons were learned when poorly built terraces broke under the heavy rainfall.

Of the terraces built with the county rig in cooperation with the Soil Conservation Service, only two gave way, and one of them was on a farm where the terracing system had not been completed.

Shelton Halney, Flomot farmer, has a "syrup pan" system that catches water from about 700 acres. After the rains, Halney told County Agent Emmons that the terraces held perfectly; each later ridge was full of water. He figures that the rainfall he saved with his terraces will make a lot of difference next July when the weather turns hot and dry.

Mrs. Sallie Garner of Mineral Wells is visiting with her niece, Mrs. Ida Ricketts, and other relatives in Hereford.
