Miss Madeline Bell . . . At Aikman School.

School's Bell . . .

By EARL MOSELEY
Staff Writer

Foundation is the word Miss Madeline Bell, fifth grade teacher at Aikman, used to describe the child's elementary school years.

"If that foundation is skipped over," she said, "you are going to have a shoddy building — always."

And the "building" is the child's mind in her case — the young mind that is individual in nature and personality. It is also a mind, she believes, that is now more restless in nature than in former times, but no less important.

Miss Bell has been teaching young minds in Hereford schools since 1924. She began in Central (the only elementary school here at that time) and transferred to Aikman when it was opened in 1956. But at the beginning 44 years ago, she was third grade teacher. Shortly afterward, she "seesawed" between teaching the fourth and fifth grades, then taught math and science in the fifth and sixth grades, until she became fifth grade teacher — which she has continued to teach. This age bracket has included mainly 10-year-olds.

She maintains that "all children cannot be treated alike. You can have the same fairness toward all the children, but simply because they are individuals in personalities they cannot be treated alike if they are to be reached academically." Her illustration was the parent who has more than one child — they find that each child is different in temperament and must be taken with a different approach. "A teacher has to be able to recognize the trouble spots with each child, they have to know who they are talking to."

Miss Bell could not estimate the number of children she has had in her classes — and obviously "reached" — in the past, only that the number would be somewhere in the thousands. Except for her first year of teaching, all of these children were products of Deaf Smith County families.

Principal at both Central and Aikman where she has taught for the past 21 years has been D. C. Martin. Martin described her as "a very dedicated teacher and one who certainly has the ability to reach every student and gain their respect."

This statement has been backed by school administrators, friends — and past and present students throughout the years.

RESTLESS CHILD

Her approach to the restless child is "to visit and just talk. I want to know, am I the one who is causing the problem? I don't want anyone to be afraid of me. I have found that a good conversation can help a child's feelings. This is true of new students in the class too."

And many times, she has discovered, the problem lies — unfortunately — with the child's parents.

Her teaching technique?

"I want your best," she asks of her students. "Your best is what I am satisfied with. Set a goal and reach it for yourself."

Miss Bell said that she believed that everyone must have a goal in life, "and I think he has to have the initiative to gain it, pride in what he is doing, and satisfaction out of that goal when he reaches it. And I believe that you can praise a child and gain a lot more from him than in driving him."

But she pointed out that "children as a whole are going to do pretty much what he wants to do. We must have curbs. There has to be discipline. And the individual child should not set a goal beyond the reach of his capabilities. When I make an assignment to the class, I realize that it won't end the same for each child. But even from the poorest I expect the best they can do."

Thereby lies the foundation for the child's mind. She maintained that students in the elementary education years cannot be neglected, that each teacher on a teamwork basis from start to finish has the responsibility toward seeing to it that nothing is overlooked in this educational process. Records indicate that reasons for junior high and high school dropouts throughout the nation have indirectly resulted from a lack of remedy in the trouble spots during elementary years — and high on this list is reading.

Miss Bell was asked her opinion on the changing of teachers by the students each semester:

"This is an old argument. But perhaps the student gets the best from each one," she replied. "Supposing the child should get a bad teacher in the beginning and continue with that teacher indefinitely. The child would then be ruined in the long run."

She said that she has absolutely no complaints toward the American educational system. "But like a pendulum, it swings from one thing to another. We (as teachers) can't afford to get excited with new programs because we know there will be something new soon, which might take its place. Maybe that is progress."

"OUGHT TO BE A TEACHER"

Miss Bell, who was born at Meridian in central Texas but graduated from high school at Hedley — and considers Hereford her home, became a teacher because "other members of my family and a sister (Tallie, who taught school in Hereford) were teachers and I guess I thought I ought to be. And I have spent my life at it."

Her first school was Alanreed — "when I was fresh out of high school." She taught the first grade that first year. She also went to college three years, at Clarendon Junior College and West Texas State College in Canyon. "I received both of my degrees at WTSC."

Miss Bell's sister was teaching in Hereford at the time of her start in Alanreed and wanted her to come here. And she did!

"Back in those days new teachers had to meet the board," she said. "At that time, I met E. B. Posey, H. A. Conkright and C. O. Newell. The next morning Superintendent C. H. Dillehey called and told me that I had been elected."

There were only two schools in Hereford then — Central (with an auditorium on top of the third floor) had grades one through seven and the high school (then in the old college building) had the other four grades, she said. There were only some 32 teachers on the faculty of both schools in 1924. At one time, she had 47 sixth graders in the same room (compared to the 28 she now has at Aikman.)

"I never thought about anything else but being a teacher." The tone of her voice held the dedication with which she has been credited so widely here. It appeared that she had reached the goal she had set out to attain — and perhaps her goal was set a little higher than many in her chosen profession.

With the knowledge that the elementary school child as a rule will spend more time in association with his teacher than members of their own families, she said, "A child is going to remember certain teachers. I know I remember one of my teachers — over all others — and I largely follow her example now. And in the beginning I thought she a te kids!"

But she assured that such was not the case. "She actually never did do a thing in the world. But she was respected. To me, she stood ten feet tall and always has."

Miss Bell, who felt from the beginning that she had a real story to tell for publication, had actually told the story believed by many others to be the "foundation" of the successful teacher. She concluded by saying, "There has to be a certain amount of respect for a teacher (by the student), if she is to lead them."

La Plata Junior High School will hold their annual Open House and present an operetta immediately prior to Public Schools Week in Texas, according to principal Jerry Don George.

George said that Open House will be conducted on Thursday night only. Beginning at 8 p. m. the Physical Education girls will present a special program. Afterward, all teachers will be in their rooms and a tour will be made of the school.

All parents have been invited to attend the "get-acquainted" session, George said, and that it will be concluded prior to the 7:30 curtain time of the operetta.

La Plata Mixed Choir will present "The Headless Horseman" by Douglas Moore. It is a one-act operetta based on "The Legend of Sleepy Hollow" by Washington Irving. "The Headless Horseman" is scheduled both Thursday and Friday nights.

The operetta setting is the Van Tassel farm house in Sleepy Hollow circa 1830, in the fall of the year one evening at sunset. As the curtain rises, Katrina Van Tassel (played by Caye Clearman) and her friends, the girls of Sleepy Hollow, are having a quilting party. But all is not happiness with Katrina. She must tearfully inform her friends that at a later party her father, Cornelius Van Tassel (Billy Bob Taylor), will announce her betrothal to schoolmaster Ichabod Crane (Cliff Herring).

Katrina explains that it is a tradition in the Van Tassel family for the eldest daughter to marry a schoolmaster or else be carried away by a ghost and never be heard from again.

To complicate matters, she and Brom Van Brunt — also known as Brom Bones (played by Randy Clements) — have been sweethearts since childhood.

Basis of the plot from this point is Brom Bones' responsibility to figure out a way to save Katrina from having to marry Ichabod Crane — or from being carried away by a ghost.

Other members of the cast are members of the mixed choir (as boys and girls of Sleepy Hollow) and small fry of the village school portrayed by La Plata seventh grade boys and girls choir members. Actor chosen for the role of the Headless Horseman will remain a mystery.

"The Headless Horseman" is directed by Mrs. Wesley Guiley. Choir accompanist is Carol Newton with Angela Grubbs serving as assistant accompanist.

George reminded all those who cannot visit La Plata for Open House or on the operetta nights that they are "welcome to visit anytime during Public School Week (or any other time), go into the classrooms and dine in the cafeteria."

Sears, Carmichael File For City Posts

With little more than a week to go before filing deadline, two prominent Hereford businessmen placed their names in contention for mayor and city commissioner, place 1, Thursday afternoon. James H. Sears, Jr. filed for the post of mayor while W. T. Carmichael will be running for city commissioner, Place 1. A third man, who was planning to file for Place 2, had not done so by press time Saturday, but it was believed that he would file before the deadline.

Jim Sears

Troys Carmichael

Deadline for filing for the vacancies of mayor, commissioner, Place 1 and commissioner, Place 2, is Friday at 5 p. m. Filing may be done between 8 a. m. and 5 p. m. any day this week.

Sears is seeking the post of mayor, which will be vacated by outgoing mayor Johnny Pool while Carmichael has filed for commissioner, Place 1. No one had filed for commissioner, Place 2 by press time Saturday.

Sears, born in Monahans, has been a resident of Hereford since 1939. He attended West Texas State University before serving two years in the Army, then ran a ranch in Montana for three years before coming back to Hereford. He presently is a vice president at the First National Bank here.

Carmichael, born in Delhi, Oklahoma, is seeking the position being vacated by Dick Barnard as commissioner, Place 1.

Having been a resident of Hereford since 1925, Carmichael graduated from Hereford High School and attended West Texas State University and Texas University. He farmed here for several years before becoming involved in the real estate business five years ago. He is president of the Rotary Club and has served in various other capacities of the organization.

He and his wife Ruby have one daughter, Merle, who is a student at the Texas Medical Branch in Galveston.

The remaining two commissioners are Roland Barton, who took Pool's place when Pool became mayor upon the resignation of Ray Cowsert last September, and Bartley Dowell.

Absentee voting for the city election will begin 20 days prior to the election and will end three days before the election, officials remind. The election will be held Tuesday, April 1st.

Holland Free On Bond

Taylor H. Holland Jr., charged in connection with the rifle slaying of his father on the courthouse square last Jan. 11, was released on bond Friday evening.

The $50,000 bond was set by 69th District Judge Archie McDonald after a 2½ hour writ of habeas corpus hearing.

Defense attorneys John Morrison of Amarillo and Bob Gibbons of Plainview based their petition on allegations that the state's case was not strong enough to deny Holland bond.

Taylor H. Holland was shot to death with one shot in the chest by a 22-caliber rifle as he was leaving the Deaf Smith County court house after he had visited his grandfather, Hubert Earl Holland, son of Holland Jr., who was being held on a burglary charge and for an investigation being absent without leave from the Army. Holland had tried to get his grandson released from jail, saying that he was being held without cause.

A trial date has not been set for Holland.

Father Egan Speaks Today

Father Daniel Egan of Graymoor Friars, author of the well known book "Junky Priest," will be the speaker this evening at 8 o'clock in St. Anthony's School auditorium.

The public is cordially invited to attend.

Father Egan has worked with drug addicts in Greenwich Village and with Congressional committees on narcotics.

Meningitis Death Reported

Funeral mass for Carlos Lopez, 12, a meningitis victim who died at 8:50 p. m. Friday, will be read at 11 a. m. Monday at St. Joseph's Mission with the Rev. John Broderick, pastor, officiating. Interment will be in St. Anthony's Cemetery under the direction of Gilliland Funeral Home.

A fifth grade student at Central Elementary School, Carlos is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lopez, 301 S. 25 Mile Ave. The boy became ill Wednesday but seemed better the next day and returned to school Thursday afternoon, stated Central Principal Ray Todd.

Dr. Noble Ballard, who treated the boy, said "there is no need to panic, because we think we have all the roots of contact covered." Parents of all students attending Central School have been contacted and anyone not in contact with the boy should have no concern.

However, Dr. Ballard said if there is some question of direct contact, it would be a safety measure to be examined.

Cultural surveys during periods of epidemic stage of the disease have shown that more than 90 per cent of the population harbor the meningococcal germ in the nasopharynx, either constantly or intermittently, but chance of contacting the disease is less than 5 per cent.

Meningococcal infections are manifestations of a specific infectious disease characterized by infection to the upper respiratory tract, invasion of the bloodstream (meningococcal), and focal involvement of various sites.

Scandinavia Tour Mapped For Clark

Hereford Independent School District Superintendent Johnny Clark Jr., who has been selected as one of 30 school administrators throughout the United States by the American Association of School Administrators for a tour of the Scandinavian countries April 20 through May 12, has received his travel schedule.

Included with the travel schedule is an outline of the program under which Clark is to participate:

This program will give the participants an understanding of the philosophy, objectives and major problems of education in Norway, Sweden and Denmark. This will include an examination of the curriculum, standards of achievement, methods, organizational patterns and administrative techniques. Observations will include various levels of education. Special attention will be given to the New School in Sweden, where recent changes have been made in curriculum and teaching methods. In addition, there will be opportunities for participation in briefings on political, social, and economic conditions in Scandinavia.

The project originates with an overnight stay on April 20 in New York City where the administrators will be seen.

Heart Drive Is One Week Off

Ray Todd, chairman of the Heart Fund, reminds local residents of the change in date of the Heart Drive Sunday which had previously been scheduled for today. The drive will take place on March 2 due to a conflict with the scheduling of the Norman Luboff Choir to day by the Community Concert Association.

Heart Fund workers will conduct a door-to-door campaign throughout the city on Heart Sunday and when no one is found at home, workers will leave envelopes so that contributions may be mailed in.

February has been designated as Heart Fund Month, and will reach its climax with the March 2 Heart Sunday Drive.

Proceeds from the drive will go to support research, education and community service activities of the Texas Heart Association.

Local Program Builders Report on Youth, Crops

By EARL MOSELEY Staff Writer

Deaf Smith County Program Building Committee delved into a number of important projects Wednesday concerning the new county map, 4-H youth panel, estate planning, vegetable, crops and livestock, according to secretary Tom Harkey.

At the meeting, assistant County Home Demonstration Agent Mrs. Rita Huckert was elected reporter. Other equally important motions were passed.

Harkey, who is Coordinator of Special Services in the Hereford school system, and Mrs. Huckert pointed out that the purpose of this committee is to determine the problems in agriculture, homemaking and other interest areas of the people in Deaf Smith County and to decide what can be done about them. They analyze the situation and any existing programs, determine county-wide problems and their solutions, and coordinate and facilitate the work of sub-committees to establish priorities for program execution.

In the past, Program Building Committee is credited with the formation of Deaf Smith County Water Association, Harkey said.

Leo Forrest of Deaf Smith County Rural Electric Cooperative is chairman.

Family Living Committee with the aid of the Chamber of Commerce made a list of county landmarks for the new county map, rather than the names of farms and ranches. They agreed that the new system will be a greater service toward aiding the new and visiting people in the county toward locating destinations here, along with pinpointing the main highways and farm roads.

The committee reported that County Commissioners Court has agreed to defray the cost of the first 5,000 maps, which will also include pictures of Holly Sugar, feedlots, and the later reproduction of the new Wilson & Co. plant.

Scheduled date for the map to be turned over to the printer is March 1. Mrs. Betty Cope is in charge of this group.

4-H YOUTH PANEL

Mrs. Leo Witkowski, vice-chairman, reported that the Family Living Committee had found itself involved in a discussion of how the youth of the county could best benefit from their help. As a result of this discussion, Mrs. Claude McDougal contacted Rev. Fred Howard, vicar of St. Thomas Episcopal Church, and together they had organized a panel composed of Dr. Duffy McBrayer, physician; Imogene Anderson, high school teacher; and Bobby Reed, church youth worker.

Rev. Howard and the panel discussed 'Guiding Youth

Toward Good Citizenship' before 4-H leaders. Brought out was information that the only recreation available to local youth is to "drag" the city in automobiles, and patronize a local drive-in restaurant or pool hall. It was also revealed that the Community Center is only available for limited youth activity.

As a result, the panel agreed to supervised youth activities at the Community Center on one afternoon per week. Tuesday was agreed as the day.

In the planning stage is a Saturday afternoon "Sound-Off" session for teens, whereby the teens can attend and be involved in discussions, consultations and recreation.

It was announced that this panel is available for programs before civic and other interested groups. Those interested should contact Mrs. McDougal.

However, it was reported that only one parent was present for the original panel discussion. The panel feels that all local parents should take an active interest in the subject of youth activities and has solicited additional help in this matter.

ESTATE PLANNING

Mrs. Argen Draper, County Home Demonstration Agent, reported that the series of discussions at the Dawn Community Club had begun with a full house on Jan. 17 with Ed Garrett, Wayne Thomas and Tom Burdett, who discussed "Why Estate Planning" (Land Values).

Joel Hodges of the Hereford State Bank and Thomas, president of the District Bar Association, were scheduled there Friday night on the subject of "Importance of Wills," and a March 21 discussion of "Inventory Plan and the Need for Liquid Assets" with Thomas and Hodges. "The Tax Aspects of Estate Planning" by John Messinger, CPA, including a question and answer panel of a Chartered Life Underwriter (CLU), Trust Officer and program participants.

This committee was commended for their excellent work.

McBRIDE AND CLEARMAN

On the vegetable committee, County Agricultural Agent Juston McBride reported that the West Texas Vegetable Council has secured the services of Dr. Black of Texas A&M University to help in attaining a more effective vegetable marketing system.

McBride said that programs on Vegetable Marketing had been presented in Dimmitt and Hereford during the past month.

On the livestock committee, McBride told of a program on Livestock Health that was presented during this past month to livestock producers of Deaf Smith County. He also reported that a Beef Cattle Carcass Evaluation is scheduled for cattle breeders here in April.

On the crops committee, Hugh Clearman, president of WAC Seed Co., said that educational meetings for the sugar beet growers is scheduled this month. Also this month is a program on Farm Management.

Publication of a Crops Demonstration Handbook is scheduled for distribution here this week, Clearman pointed out.

He also reported that many farmers here are not taking advantage of the tours and demonstrations that have been provided for them, and felt that they would benefit greatly with their future participation.

MOTIONS CARRIED

Chairman of the Deaf Smith County Water Association will be included on the Program Building Committee "because of the importance of this phase of program building to our county." The water association will hereafter be included on the sub-committee list.

Rev. Don Davidson, who has been head of the Governor's Commission on Aging, will remain on the overall committee when his committee is deleted. Names added to the committee were Mrs. Leo Witkowski, representing Farmers Union; Sam Lesly, representing Panhandle Pork Producers; and Eddie Reinauer Jr., representing Air and Water Pollution.

Harkey said that "our committee is strictly dedicated to the proposition to 'help our community grow and do the best we can.' We would like very much to gain knowledge of other civic committees who are at work on various projects so that we could coordinate our activities and work at it as a team."

An executive meeting of the committee has been announced for April 9. The overall committee will meet on April 22.

Executive committee members are Forrest, Mrs. Witkowski, Harkey, Clearman, Mrs. Gene Cope, Colby Conkright, George Turrentine, and Thurman Atchley.

Overall committee members include Mrs. Bess Werner, Charles Hoover, Rev. Davidson, Elmo Hall, Marcus Latham, Steven Olson, Mrs. Larry Dobbs, Larry Dobbs, Gerald McCathern, Frank Bezner, Bill Walden, H. D. Fowler, Dudley Bayne, Frank Zinser, Bobby Viegel, Troys Carmichael, R. A. y Moore, Bobby Owens, Mrs. Will Walker, J. A. McAndrews, Dick Godwin, J. Boston, Mrs. Cope, Mrs. McDougal, Mrs. T. B. Thomas, and Mrs. Paul Corbett.

oriented for the trip.

Following a morning of orientation on April 21, Clark and the other administrators will depart via Scandinavian Airlines Jet. They will have a morning arrival at Copenhagen, Denmark, with an afternoon arrival at Bergen.

April 23-24 will include an orientation of the City of Bergen, a briefing on the organization of their rural schools, visits to observe school facilities, and sessions at Bergen University with faculty members and administrators.

On the twenty-fifth, he will leave for Oslo, Norway. There the administrators will have an opportunity to observe the role of the School Board and Consultative Committee along with the various types of schools. The following day, they will leave for Stockholm, Sweden. Along with becoming acquainted with the New School, they will observe teacher training at Pedagogiska Institute in Drottningholm.

Plans in the Stockholm area will consume five days. On May 5-6, a special program has been arranged at Lund to observe the cooperation between the University of Lund and public and private schools of all levels. A study of the administration of the elementary school system of Malmo will also be made.

The group will return to Copenhagen on May 7, where — along with school visits — opportunities are to be provided to visit Danish arts and crafts workshops and to participate in the cultural life of the city. A full day excursion will be made to North Zealand.

On the afternoon of May 12, Clark and the other administrators will leave Copenhagen and return to New York where they will land at John F. Kennedy International Airport.

ONLY ONE REGRET

Clark reported that his only regret in making the trip is that it will not be possible to take his wife with him. "This is the kind of a trip you will get only once in a lifetime," he said, "and I wish it were possible for her to go along too. I know we would have a wonderful time."

Paul C. Stevens of Rapid City, South Dakota, will be program director for the School Administrators' Study Mission. Stevens directed the first AASA Study Mission to the Soviet Union. Clark had been invited to participate in the Soviet Union trip in 1965, while he was still superintendent of Olton schools. However, he had to forego the honor at that time due to his transferring to Hereford as superintendent in the same year.

When Hereford Independent School District Board of Trustees learned that he had been invited for the Scandinavian tour, they voted unanimously for his acceptance. Cost of the trip is listed as $1,090 from New York.

The world's first "newspaper" was published by Julius Caesar. The Roman ruler had his record of public business posted daily in the Forum.

Underground Home Viewed On YHT Four

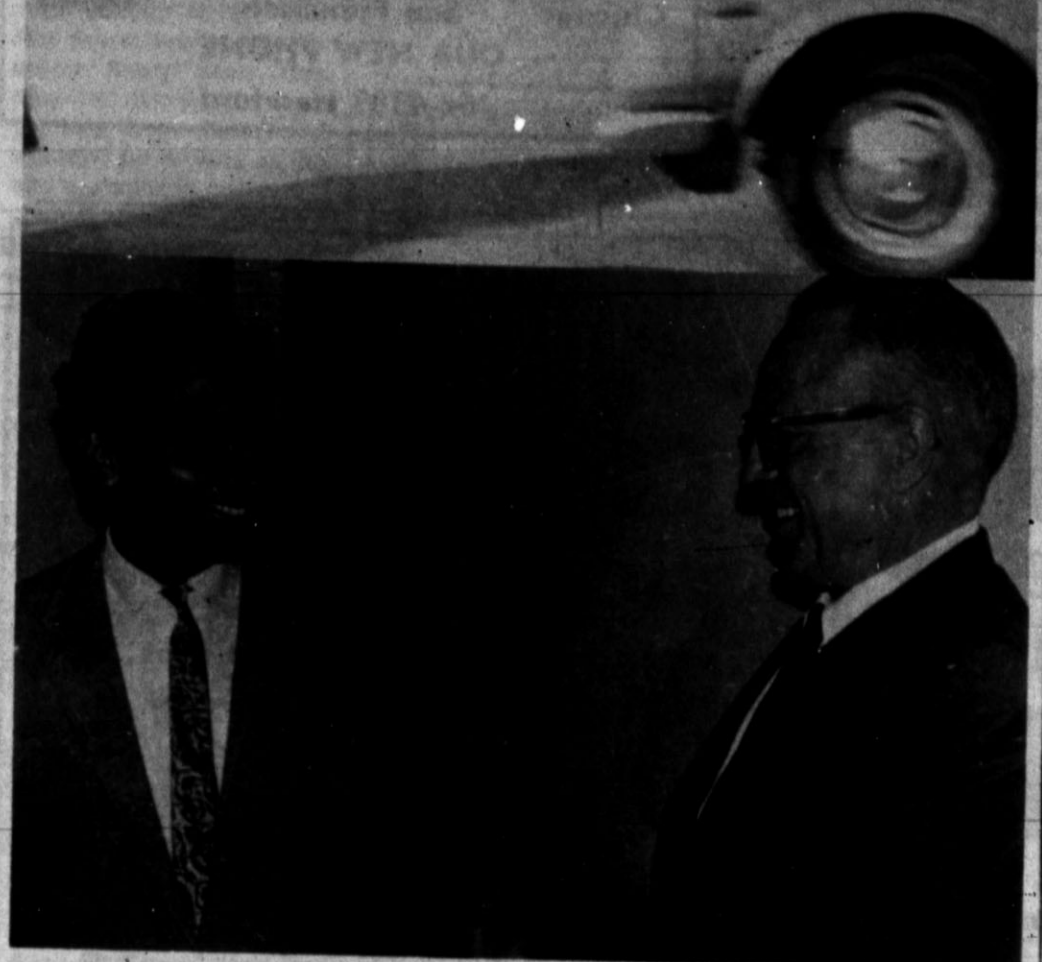

Tour of an underground home in Plainview was made by Young Homemakers of Texas and guests Saturday, after the group had lunch at a Plainview restaurant.

Guests were Mrs. Roger Munn of Lubbock, Mrs. Mike Ranspot and Charles Weatherford. Members who made the trip were Mmes. Weatherford, Charles Minchew, Larry Dobbs, Leland Shelton and Dorman Duggan.

Next meeting of the YHT will be at 7:30 p. m. March 4 in the Ray Watson home, 73 Country Club Drive. The Watsons are parents of Mrs. Connie Urbanczyk, who is program chairman. Mmes. Carlton Richardson and Weatherford will serve refreshments.

While they reported on the general unrest there, including demonstrations, it was in advance of wire service bulletins published throughout the United States concerning a number of killings in these two cities. However, an additional report was received at press time from the Jacksons, dated Feb. 17 (Monday). It contains first-hand accounts of the action there.)

Clinton and Jerry Jackson wrote:

PASSENGER TIRE GUARANTEE

GUARANTEE AGAINST FAILURE
Penney's guarantees every Foremost® tire against all failures in use — this guarantee lasts for the entire guarantee period stated for each tire. If the tire fails during the guarantee period, return it with your guarantee certificate and Penney's will, at its option: (1) repair the tire, (2) replace it with a new tire, or (3) give you an immediate refund. If we replace the tire during the free replacement period, there is no charge; if we replace the tire after the free replacement period, you pay 50% or 25% less than the current selling price of the tire including the Federal Excise Tax (see guarantee against failure chart for details).

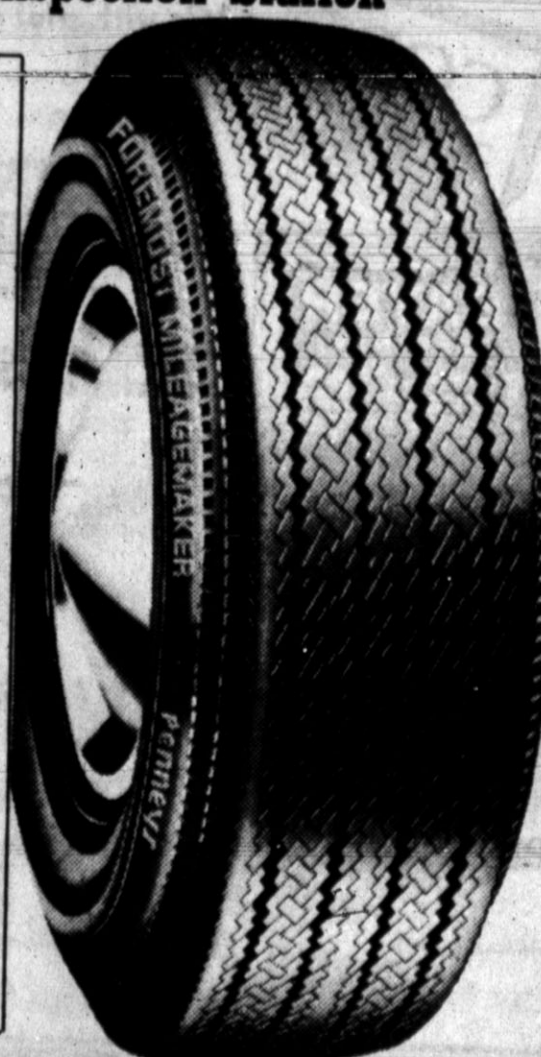

GUARANTEE AGAINST TREAD WEAROUT

Penney's guarantees every Foremost® tire (except the 72 series) against tread wearout for the entire guarantee period. You benefit as follows: if your tire wears out during the first half of the guarantee period, return it with your guarantee certificate and Penney's will replace your tire with a new tire (the charge for this will be 50% of the current selling price including Federal Excise Tax); if your tire wears out during the second half, the charge will be 75% of the current selling price including Federal Excise Tax.

These guarantees do not apply to commercial use of tires.

Here's how your guarantee against failure works:

Entire guarantee period	24 months
Free replacement period	1-12 months
50% off period	13-18 months
25% off period	19-24 months

Spring Sports Kick Off Soon

Spring will get an early injection in the arm during the next couple of weeks when action picks up for five spring sports.

The volleyball team, under Daisy Huntsinger, opened their season slightly earlier than most of the other spring events, by clipping the Littlefield teams recently. Their next encounter of the season will be Friday when they travel to Phillips for a 6:30 p.m. game.

Facing a 20-game regular season schedule, the baseball team gets initiated for the 1969 season March 1 when they journey to Lubbock to face the Estacado High team in a doubleheader. The following Monday, March 3, they will go to Amarillo to square off against the top-notch Palo Duro Dons in a 4 p.m. contest.

Golf team members, after having their first tournament of the season cancelled, opened the 69 campaign with the annual Andrews Invitational Golf Tournament, last weekend. Results of that meet were not available at press time Saturday.

Cinders will begin getting their annual workouts at Littlefield on March 1, when the Whiteface tracksters attend a meet there. Also scheduled at the present time for the cindersmen are meets at Dumas on March 8; Levelland, March 15; and then the Hereford Invitational on March 22.

Organized for the first time at the high school was the tennis team, under Glenda Whisnaut. They will also receive their first dose of competitive tennis March 1 when they go to Borger for a match. Other matches have not as yet been placed on a definite date.

Brito Named By Monsanto

St. Louis—Monsanto Company's Agricultural Division has announced the appointment of Anthony A. Brito as manager of the Monsanto Agricultural Center (MAC) in Friona.

The Friona area is a major market for Monsanto's anhydrous ammonia and other fertilizer products.

Brito, a native of Clovis, N.M., joined Monsanto in 1966 as a salesman for the Friona MAC. For six years prior to joining Monsanto he was a salesman for the former Hub Fertilizer Co. Brito, his wife and children reside in Bovina.

As deadline for filing for the city commission approaches, we have had some activity at city hall. Jim Sears, son of former mayor Henry Sears, has filed for the post of mayor and Troys Carmichael has filed for a place on the city commission.

Don Baugous was expected to file sometime Saturday or early next week.

Mayor Johnny Pool has declined to run for re-election to that post and Dick Barnard and D. C. Kinsey have stated their intentions to retire from the commission.

Remaining commissioners are Bartley Dowell and Roland Barton. Dowell is an accountant with Brown, Graham and Glover and Barton is a stockholder and general manager of the local Shurgo liquid feed business.

The men filing for the city posts have been active in civic, church and governmental affairs in Hereford and should be well qualified to handle the jobs.

Of course, there is one week remaining before the filing deadline (Friday, February 28, 5 p.m.) and there is a possibility that some others will announce.

Also coming up soon will be election of three trustees for the Hereford Independent School Board. Hugh Clearman and O. W. Parris have filed for re-election to the board, but the third member whose term expired this year, W. H. (Bill) Gentry has declined to run for another term. Bill tells us that he has enjoyed his years of service on the board but feels that it's time for someone else to serve.

Deadline for filing is Thursday, March 6 with the election to be held on April 5.

Toastmasters Advance Plans

Plans were completed by the Hereford Toastmasters Club at their Thursday night mee in Jones Restaurant for the area speech contest to be held here in April.

Tryouts for local contestants began with Ken Rudd receiving Best Speaker award, Hardy Benson best table topic speaker, Stan Knox most improved speaker award, and Bob Lohr best evaluator.

Guest speaker was Rev. C. W. Allen, pastor of St. John Baptist Church.

On the coming Thursday night a Speak-Out Night is planned by the Toastmasters. They invite anyone wishing to participate to contact club president Bob Lohr prior to Thursday noon.

Well, to make a long story short, Mrs. Mary Martin, 119 Beach St. has been receiving a number of telephone calls concerning the letter. She did not write it, and I cannot tell you who did until Mrs. Martin identifies herself. So, your compliments, or comments, will have to wait until we find out which Mrs. Martin wrote the letter. We try to keep all letters

Program After Lunch For Farm-Ranch Club

Lunch at the Caison House began a meeting Thursday afternoon for Farm and Ranch Club, with Mrs. G. V. Hall as hostess. After the meal members went to the Community Center for a program.

Mrs. J. V. Perrin was the speaker on Culture of Roses. She advised getting a good rose to begin, feeding it every 30 days and using insecticide when needed to keep it free from insects.

She said soil in this area needs iron added to prevent rose leaves from turning yellow.

A contest game on roses was played, with Mrs. Paul Rudd winner of the prize, a potted tea rose.

Other members present were Mmes. W. B. Nunley, Jack Weaver, W. W. Gilbreath, Joun Hill and C. T. Douglas. Mrs. Melvin Henderson was welcomed as a guest.

Report Not Acceptable

Citizens in small communities throughout the state are up in arms over portions of the report coming from the Governor's Committee on Public School Education...

Earth and others. Hale County also would be adversely affected by the ruling.

Realizing that the larger school systems can offer more to students as far as curriculum goes, we wonder if the Governor's Committee...

In the event legislation is passed to this effect, the students from Walcott Common School District would be transported into Hereford...

Our own representative, Bill Clayton of Springlake, has voiced his opposition to this portion of the Governor's Committee report...

But we probably have fewer problems here than others in the area. Many counties in the Panhandle have a number of little communities with schools that have much less than the 2600 daily attendance...

We believe the other lawmakers in Austin will do well to weigh all the ramifications of the situation before acting. If anything is done, we would think that it should be directed towards moving more of our citizens towards the smaller rural communities...

Meditate or Move Out

CHEER, CHEER for old Notre Dame — or, to be more specific, for its president, the Rev. Theodore M. Hesburgh.

general public for what is happening in higher education today.

Father Hesburgh declared that "somewhere a stand must be made" against campus riots and then explained how that stand will be made at the Catholic university.

"No one wants the forces of law on this or any other campus," he said, "but if some necessitate it, a last and dismal alternative to anarchy and mob tyranny, let them shoulder the blame instead of receiving the sympathy of a community they would hold at bay."

The students will then be asked for their identity cards. If they refuse to hand over the cards or if the demonstration continues for five more minutes, the students will be expelled on the spot.

Father Hesburgh has correctly defined the immediate problem, we believe, and he has announced measures that seem likely to solve it. There is indeed a growing revulsion at the increasing use of mob violence and storm-trooper tactics by those who are bent on destroying colleges.

In his letter, Father Hesburgh warned that we are about to witness a revolution on the part of legislatures, state and national, benefactors, parents, alumni and the

But the anger and disgust of the public are not directed only at the tiny minority of purported students who have substituted "force for rational persuasion" to coerce the community. These, at least, are adolescents and subject to the usual fits and fantasies that sometimes afflict that age.

The greater part of the public's displeasure is caused by the failure of many of the adults of the college communities, the administrators who let a few hundred bullies disrupt the education of thousands, the faculty members who troop along at the heels of the young tantrumthrowers, aping their manner, their garb and their contempt for reason.

The adults, at least, are old enough to know better. The adults should know the difference between freedom and anarchy. If not, they are clearly not suited for the positions they hold.

There are few Americans who demand the regimentation of the academic community. No one is suggesting that students be lashed into class by campus cossacks. But millions wonder why one or two percent of a college's population are able to terrorize not only the vast majority of the students but also the officials responsible for maintaining the college as an institution of learning.

It is time that other college administrators faced that responsibility as Father Hesburgh has clearly done. If they are incapable of doing their job, there is little doubt that those who support education will find replacements who will do it.

Consumer Protection Troubles President

By BERT MILLS

WASHINGTON, D. C. — Consumer protection was an issue that troubled President Nixon during his campaign, and now he has stubbed his toe in his first effort to revamp the consumer setup he inherited.

The Democrats invented the idea of making political capital out of having a central office to receive complaints from consumers. President Lyndon B. Johnson made a bid for the housewife vote soon after he took office five years ago by appointing a Special Assistant to the President for Consumer Affairs.

The job went to Mrs. Esther Peterson, then the highest-ranking woman in government as Assistant Secretary of Labor. She devoted only part-time to her role as champion of consumers, continuing to hold her post at the Labor Department. Eventually, LBJ soured on Mrs. Peterson and brought in Miss Betty Furness as a replacement who would add glamour to the consumer operation.

Miss Furness devoted full time to the consumer post. She was an effective advocate of consumer legislation on Capitol Hill, and by the time the Johnson Administration ended it could claim credit for enacting more than 20 consumer protection laws. Examples included truth-in-packaging, truth-in-lending, and meat inspection.

Unquestionably, Miss Furness was a political asset to the Democratic party. Probably she would have continued in her job if Hubert Humphrey had been elected President. With Nixon elected, she departed last January 20.

Nixon Preaches Self-Reliance

During the campaign, Nixon avoided going out on any limb on the consumer issue. He talked in generalities, such as "The consumer must be protected, but he must also be trained and encouraged to protect himself."

But Nixon did not commit himself to have a consumer aide on his staff, nor to continue the office which Miss Furness had built up to a staff of 30 and an annual budget of $420,000. There were rumors the consumer office would be downgraded, and several staff members left to take other jobs.

When Nixon moved, it was in the direction of a study. He appointed a home economist with a solid background in the testing of consumer products to make a 90-day survey of all government activities in behalf of the consumer. His choice was Miss Willie Mae Rogers, Director of the Good Housekeeping Institute, whose Seal of Approval on products is familiar to most shoppers.

Because Miss Rogers was to serve only temporarily, she was not asked to give up her magazine job. She was to receive expenses only for her government service, as do many other people loaned to the government for temporary work. The White House could see no conflict of interest because Miss Rogers' role was to examine, evaluate, and recommend.

Job Lasts 4 Days

However, White House reporters gave Miss Rogers a rough time when she was introduced at a press conference. They persisted in suggesting that her private role would interfere with public performance. Miss Rogers was obviously surprised and See MAIN STREET Page 7

THE BOOTLEG —Philosopher

Editor's note: The Bootleg Philosopher on his Johnson farm this week contemplates better planning for his farm this year, but then backs off.

Dear editor:

"The trouble with you," an agricultural expert told me the other day, "is you don't plan your farming operations far enough in advance," and I was thinking about this, wondering if a man sleeps better not knowing what he's going to do the next morning than he does knowing he's got to get up and start digging post holes. When I picked up a newspaper I'd been saving for emergencies and before I even sit down my eye caught a headline: New York City Draws Up Master Plan For Next 10 Years.

Now there's planning, I said, ten years in advance, maybe that's what I need after all for this Johnson grass farm, and sat down to read the article.

According to it, New York has prepared a 300,000-word plan to be printed in six volumes outlining what it needs to do to keep from choking to death on metropolitan civilization.

I won't go into detail, some of the ideas sounded all right, like elimination of all crime, all poverty, all traffic congestion, all slums, all transportation problems, all pollution, etc., but the clincher was how the city's going to swing it, as the report estimated it will cost 50 billion dollars over the next 10 years.

"Most of the 50 billion dollars," the report added as an afterthought, "must come from the Federal government." New York, you must remember, like a lot of other cities and this Johnson farm, is mostly financially bled.

I got to thinking about this and decided, by George, that agricultural expert is right, I'd better get to planning myself before New York plans Washington out of most of its money.

Furthermore, you know if New York wants 50 billion from Washington, it won't be long before Los Angeles and Philadelphia and Chicago and Detroit and all the other 22 major cities in the U.S. put in their claims, saying, look, we're just as civilized and busted as Yew York, and for the 22, at 50 billion apiece, that'd come to 1100 billion, or, in round numbers, $1,100,000,000,000, which I think is pronounced 1 trillion, 110 billion.

This of course leaves out the natural bandwagon claims from Hereford, Dimmitt and Friona, and all the other thousands of smaller cities and towns in the United States which certainly would want in on the proceeds from planning.

The competition is too stiff. I've dropped my own planning. I tell you, there's something to be said for waking up in the morning not knowing what you're going to do.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

THE WRAITH OF THE BIG THICKET — Because he committed a crime against a white man, an Alabama-Coushatta Indian was "sentenced" to roam the piney woods of Polk and Tyler Counties for more than 40 years!

In 1894, Jacob Avant, a Confederate soldier, came home on leave to visit his family at Bear Creek, a community then located near the East Texas Indian reservation. A band of Confederate deserters camped in the nearby woods somehow decided that Avant had been sent to spy on them. They prevailed on an Alabama-Coushatta brave named Jesse to kill him.

Jesse slipped into the Avant cabin one night, discovered the soldier in bed and attempted to crush his skull. He missed and broke the leg of Avant's wife instead. The Indian was arrested and sent to prison.

After serving his sentence, his tribe refused to let him return home. On penalty of death, he was ordered to live alone in the Big Thicket and never enter the reservation. And for more than 40 years, Jesse did just that — camping in a different spot each night and often begging food from farmers. His eventual fate has never been determined.

IT HAPPENED IN TEXAS — For many years, the children of a Galveston family rode to and from school each day in their private railroad car.

In 1915, W. B. Scott, president of Southern Pacific Railroad's Texas and Louisiana line, built a 14-room mansion on Galveston Island overlooking the bay. As a convenience, he had a spur track built from the S. P. Galveston-Houston main line to a tiny station at the estate's entrance. He named it Surf.

Because he wanted his children to attend school in Houston rather than in Galveston, Scott had a private railroad car pick them up each morning at the estate, deliver them to Houston and return them home in the evening.

FOOTNOTE TO HISTORY — Of the eight prison camps maintained by the Confederacy to house captured U. S. soldiers and sailors during the Civil War, two were in Texas.

Camp Groce, outside of Hempstead in Waller County, was a small stockade which housed only a few hundred prisoners of war. However, Camp Ford, near Tyler, was a large installation that incarcerated more than 6,000 captured soldiers between July, 1863, and May, 1865.

On last Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock the Farmers' Institute was called to order by the chairman, W. H. Rayzor, after which commenced one of the most interesting meetings yet held. There was a large number of both farmers and businessmen present and the discussions which followed were filled with the greatest enthusiasm. The primary purpose of the meeting was to effect a permanent organization by adopting constitution and by-laws and electing officers.

50 YEARS AGO — 1919

At a meeting of the Hereford Park Board Tuesday night, Mayor W. H. Knight, chairman, designated Monday, March 3rd, as Tree Planting Day. More trees should be planted every year and better care taken of the trees we now have. Hereford has the reputation of having more beautiful trees than any city on the Plains and we should make good on this reputation. Trees not only add beauty to the community but also dollars. Every tree in the Hereford country is a living asset and should be treated as such.

Russell, has reported to the Army Air Forces Basic Flying School at Courtland, Ala., for the third phase of his pilot training. L. B., who has been in the service for two years, held the rank of first lieutenant in the Army ground forces before volunteering for flight training. Mexico and the Central American countries were discussed for the Lone Star Study Club Tuesday afternoon. The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Leo Forrest with Mrs. Earl Phillips as co-hostess.

15 YEARS AGO — 1954

Funeral services for George L. Muse, 80, who had made his home in Deaf Smith County since 1892, are scheduled at 2 p. m. in the First Christian Church. Starting out as a homesteader and cattle feeder, Mr. Muse enlarged his activities until he became a rancher, was president of the First National Bank from 1917 until 1938, and was head of the National Farm Loan Association in Hereford from 1938 until 1950, when he retired. One of Hereford's most beloved and respected school teachers, Junior High School principal H. V. Stanton, died Monday at Deaf Smith County Hospital after an illness which had kept him confined for several weeks.

10 YEARS AGO — 1959

Hereford City Commission approved a budget of $514,820 in a public hearing in the City Manager's office Monday. Only two persons were present to hear the budget reading for the coming fiscal year. Believed to be implicated in the burglary and robbery of the Star Theatre last week, 17 and 21-year-old boys were scheduled to be returned to Hereford from Rockport, Ill. They and two other Hereford youths were charged with burglary. The four were believed to have taken more than $750 in cash from the theatre sometime Wednesday night or Thursday morning. Starting Saturday at the Star: "The Ten Commandments."

shaken by the grilling she received.

Then the flak began to fall on Capitol Hill, and not only from Democrats. It was revealed that a House subcommittee had been secretly investigating Good Housekeeping Institute, before it was known that its Director was to receive an appointment from the President.

The White House tried to rescue the situation by arranging for Miss Rogers to take a leave of absence from the magazine and give up her salary. By this time Miss Rogers had had it. She said 'no' and withdrew from the post she had received only 4 days earlier.

That leaves President Nixon back where he started. Now he is expected to forget about the study and simply name a successor to Miss Furness. The champions of consumerism are delighted with this turn of events.

Speaking Of Hobbies, Says Agent, People Are Mine

Truer words were never spoken than those of a black-eyed gentle speaking woman who is going on her 23rd year as Deaf Smith county Home Demonstration Agent, when she deftly remarked, "people are my hobby."

Mrs. Argen Draper, who loves everyone and everything around her, was very modest when asked about her many and varied accomplishments in this area.

Born and reared on a farm in Collingsworth County, Argen Draper came to Hereford in 1947 from Canadian. The wife of Tom Draper, she and her husband live on a farm seven miles south of town where Mr. Draper is engaged in farming.

Mrs. Draper beams when speaking of just about anything, but no one can miss the distinct sparkle that comes into her eyes when she speaks of her husband and her home. "I enjoy helping around the farm in any way I can," says Argen, "and especially if it concerns my husband." With a grin, she said, "I guess you can say I tolerate Tom's coon hunting."

Her weekly column, HD Chatter, has been enjoyed by many readers of The Brand for many years. Again very modest when questioned about it, she calls it her "feeble little column." "My land," says she, "I struggle with that thing and I'm certainly no writer, but I enjoy it and as long as it helps anyone, I'm glad to do it."

Argen was active in 4-H when she was a girl and her interest in home economics began at Wellington High School. After graduating, she began working on her bachelor of science degree in home economics at Texas Tech in Lubbock, which she didn't receive until 10 years later. During those depression years she took time out to teach school at Kesler, near Wellington, where she taught all grades.

After receiving her degree from Tech, where she had been an assistant in the clothing department, she served as home management supervisor for Farmers Home Administration in Tahoka and Levelland for two years. She then became home demonstration agent for Hemphill County from 1942-46.

Continuing her education, she received her degree of science degree in 1964 at Texas Woman's University at Denton. She is working on her doctorate in management which she plans to complete in 1971.

"I can honestly say 1968 was my year," she said smiling, "because of my awards that I am so proud of." She was one of eight people awarded the Texas Superior Service Award by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service and she was recognized by the Hereford Chapter of Young Homemakers for outstanding contributions. Personalities of the South is another award of which she is very proud.

Mrs. Draper is a charter member of the County Home Demonstration Agents Association of Texas and earned the Distinguished Service Award in 1967. The same year she was named "Citizen of the Year" by the Hereford Lions Club.

She is a member of the American Home Economics Association, Texas Home Economics Association, Texas Agricultural Workers Assn., Texas Safety Council, past president of the American Legion Auxiliary, co-chairman of District 1 of Epsilon Sigma Phi, a past matron of the Order of Eastern Star and a member of Phi Upsilon Omicron, an honorary fraternity.

She is a member of the Church of Christ.

Mrs. Draper dispenses her home economics information mostly through speaking to various organizations throughout Deaf Smith County. She works with 11 home demonstration clubs totaling 175 members. There are seven 4-H Clubs with which she works indirectly.

"The Extension program has changed from tangibles to intangibles," says Mrs. Draper, "as a great deal of the work now is done with management and leadership development. One of her pet projects she takes pride in is her Home Management Correspondence Courses entitled "Make Your Money Behave." There are six lessons in the series.

Under her guidance the three rural communities, Dawn, Ford and Bippus are having planned programs for community improvement and a few of the numerous HD Club projects she is directing are Girl's Town, Veteran's Hospital, packages for Vietnam and a 4-H scholarship.

Mrs. Draper has a very handsome antique desk in her office, which she is proud of. It is only one of a collection of several different desks, all antiques. She loves to go antique hunting and says she would like to be a collector of oak furniture. She enjoys refinishing assorted pieces, which corresponds with her work.

"AFTER BEING WITH the Extension Service for 25 years," says brown-eyed Argen Draper, "people are my hobby." —Staff Photo

U. S. Policy Is Club Topic

General discussion of the topic, American Foreign Affairs, was stimulated by Mrs. Colby Conkright's presentation at the meeting of Bay View Study Club Thursday afternoon. Mrs. W. S. Kerr was hostess in her home.

Mrs. Conkright quoted Dr. Fred Hadsel of the State Department, who spoke in Canyon last year, to the effect that the past 40 years have seen no major shift in American foreign policy due to a change in administration; differences have been only in mood and atmosphere.

She said a continuing complaint is heard that "you can't budge the State Department, no matter how the people feel or what attitude the president takes on a matter of policy". She also spoke of President Nixon's recent appointment of William P. Rogers as Secretary of State, and of other men well respected in the national capital to sub-cabinet posts and as presidential advisors.

All these statements were the basis for round-table comment by members.

Announcement was made of a change in plans for the next club meeting, which will be at 3 p.m. March 6 in the home of Mrs. Bruce Burney.

Members present included Mrs. R. B. Miller, Ansel McDowell, Francis Hardwick, Howard Gault, W. J. Gilliland, Juston McBride, Carl Perrin, Cal Swanson, Herman Ford and Earnest Langley.

Gift Aids Toy-Making Project of H. D. Club

First-hand acquaintance with a resident of Abilene State School gave members of Messenger Home Demonstration Club an interest in the needs of children there, and launched them into a project which promises to be one of their most rewarding.

The nine women who make up the club, residents in the far western part of Deaf Smith County, are making stuffed animals, rag dolls and pillows to be sent to the school, where washable toys are in demand. They plan work sessions together, and also work separately on the toys.

A gift this week solved one of their biggest problems, stuffing for the toys. Dolly Textiles plant here, of which Herschel Black is manager, gave the clubwomen five big sacks of dacron fibers which will be enough for dozens of dolls and animals.

But the size of the gift poses another problem; now they need more material to make toys to use all the stuffing. Scraps of washable new cloth, small hand towels and washcloths are the materials they want.

If any Hereford residents will help supply them, they may telephone Mrs. J. E. Sorrells, the club member who lives nearest to town, and she will call for them. "And if it's necessary I'll bring a truck", she laughs. The gift from Dolly Textiles required a pickup to haul away.

Other members of Messenger Club are Mrs. Bill Page, the young president; Mmes. S. N. Thweatt, Elmer Northcutt, N. A. Brown, Bob Hammock, Gene Bradley, George Bumpass and H. D. Buse.

Mrs. Hammock's son, David, recently entered the Abilene school and turned club members' attention to it. In previous years the club has worked with older residents in service projects. One continuing project is assistance to a hospitalized member, Mrs. Floyd Brown, with visits and other acts of friendship.

LOTS OF STUFFING — Five big sacks of dacron fibers, a gift from Dolly Textiles, fill the pickup which women of Messenger Home Demonstration Club drove to the textiles firm's plant. The gift material will be used to stuff washable toys and pillows which the club women are making to send to children in the Abilene State School. Mrs. Bill Page, left, club president, stand with Wayne Milam, representative of Dolly Textiles, Mrs. S. N. Thweatt of the club and Mrs. Page's small daughter, Lisa.

Dinner Given In Gay Decor

Service projects have emptied their club treasury, women of Hereford Study Club told their dinner guests Thursday evening, so they entertained with a "hard times" party in the home of Mrs.

Social Meeting Held Thursday In Needle Club

An informal social meeting was held by Mothers Needle Club in the home of Mrs. Earl Cole Thursday afternoon, when members spent an hour in casual conversation. Plans were made for an all-day quilting and covered dish luncheon March 20 in Mrs. A. H. Cook's home.

Refreshments were served to Mmes. Haskell Benson, Luther Ellis, Adam Flowers, W. T. Gunstenson, A. T. Jones, C. N. McClure, Ralph Paul, Nell Auten, Annie Springer, Jewel Awtry and Cook.

Bride-to-Be Honored With Shower, Dinner

Miss Jane Stoker of Wilson, bride-elect of Larry Hill of Hereford, was complimented with a shower Saturday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Lonnie Lumsden at Wilson, and a dinner Thursday evening in Lubbock, where she is a student in Texas Tech.

Mrs. Elmer Kimball, mother of the prospective bridegroom, was a guest at both parties, as was Mrs. W.T. Stoker of Wilson, the honoree's mother.

Colors Miss Stoker has chosen for her April wedding, blue and olive green, were used to decorate the refreshment table at the shower.

Mrs. Charles Bishop of Lubbock and Mrs. Bill Smith of Post, who will be attendants of the bride, assisted in serving.

At the dinner in the Gold Room of Hemphill-Wells, the centerpiece was an arrangement of yarn-and-burlap flowers in the blue and green shades, which the hostesses gave to the honoree.

Guests included Mmes. Roy Kahlich, Roger Blakney, David Stallings, Bill Lumsden, Sam Gatk and Miss Pat Standefer.

Garland Solomon, Co-hostesses were Mmes. Labry Ballard, Shirley Garrison and Richard Winget.

Husbands of members were guests at the annual dinner, which was served from tables covered with newspapers and decorated with figures dressed in out-of-style, tattered clothing. Flowers were arranged in tin cans and some of the food was served from the pots in which it was cooked.

High score in the games of party bridge which followed, was a can of beef stew, won by Merlin Kaul.

In addition to the host couples, those present were Messrs. and Mmes. Ray Conaway, Baxter London, Noble Howard, Bill Gentry, T.E. Braddy, N. D. Bartlett, Ed Wilson, Maurice Tannahill & Arthur Stoy and Miss Gladys Setliff.

Contrary to common belief, rabbits and hares are not the same animal. Rabbits are born blind, naked and in a covered nest. Hares are born with eyes open, fully furred, in above-ground depressions and generally move away from the birth point within the first 24 hours.

Dinner Theme Is 'Hard Times'

Balloons and giant Mexican paper flowers decorated the Community Room at First National Bank Thursday evening in a colorful setting for a dinner given by La Madre Mia Study Club. Husbands of members were guests.

Mmes. David Honea, John E. Smith, Ben Scott and Ron Zimmerman formed the hostess committee. They put clusters of balloons in the center of the room with paper streamers extending to the tables. A large centerpiece on the buffet table and bouquets around the room were made of the paper flowers, all in shades of fuchsia and pink. Tables were lighted by pink candles.

After the covered dish dinner, guests played dummy bridge. High score awards went to Mrs. Lynton Allred and Eugene Sparks, consolation prizes to Mrs. Wayne Lady and Walker Parris.

Couples present were the Herschel Blacks, Bobby Owens, Harvey Penner, Don Walsers, Ray Don Kings, Dean Herrings, James Gentry, Charles Fries, Waldo Baxters, Allreds, Honeas, Ladys, Parris and Scotts.

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP) — The Kentucky Department of Mental Health reports that 100 of the state's 120 counties now have community mental health-mental retardation services available.

Clark Invited To DECA Meet

Hereford School Superintendent and Mrs. Johnny Clark Jr. will attend the 23rd annual Distributive Education Clubs of America Banquet at the Statler-Hilton Hotel in Dallas scheduled for March 8.

The Clarks were invited by Norris D. Young, State Advisor of DECA, Texas Association, in Austin.

Tower Reopens On March 6

Tower Drive-In Theatre on West U. S. 60 is set to re-open on weekends Thursday, March 6, with a triple feature of "North To Alaska," "McLintock," and "The Sons of Katie Elder" all in color starring John Wayne.

Local theatre manager Francis Hardwick reported that this is the beginning of the Tower's twentieth season in Hereford and he plans to "make a Chinese New Year celebration out of it — complete with fireworks and fortune cookies."

Asked about Chinese New Year, Hardwick replied that it was a holiday that can be celebrated at any time.

ACTIVE AT 89 — Mrs. J. M. Ashlock, who celebrated her 89th birthday Thursday, poses in a dress she made last week, sitting at the piano which she still plays, beneath a picture she painted. She took up painting, only one of many hobbies, at the age of 70.

Mrs. Ashlock Honoree On Her 89th Birthday

Mrs. J. M. Ashlock, 202 Fir, was honoree at a family gathering on her 89th birthday Thursday. Mrs. Ashlock returned to make her home in Hereford last June after 27 years' residence in Concord, Calif.

Ashlock sews, knits, crochets, cooks and plays her piano, and rides an exercise bicycle to keep in good trim physically. She began painting when she was 70 years of age, and has painted many pictures for gifts to relatives and friends.

Spangler Says Texas Dusty

Bob Spangler of Spangler's Diamonds Ltd. in Sugarland, Texas, has been quoted in the February issue of Jeweler's Circular-Keystone, a national monthly trade magazine published in Philadelphia, Pa.

Title of the story is "Jewelers Tell Why They Like 'The Mall', Comfort And Safety Are Big Incentives," a survey of jeweler's opinions across the nation.

The copy read: "Not only does Bob Spangler think malls are the only way to go, but he adds that the environment control aspect keeps half of West Texas from blowing through my store."

Helping celebrate her birthday were her sister, Mrs. Etta Cowan, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Curtsinger, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Cornelius, Mrs. Elsie Russell; her grandchildren, Virginia Curtsinger, Gayle Cornelius, Buy Cornelius Jr., and Wanda Underwood; and great-grandchildren, Alan, Steven, Warren, Debbit, Gary and Donnie Cornelius and Brian Underwood.

Mrs. Walden To Teach

MAGNOLIA, Ark. — Nanette McMinn Walden, daughter of Mr. W. P. McMinn of Summerfield, is doing her supervised student teaching during the spring semester, according to Dr. Frank Irwin, chairman of the Division of Education at Southern State.

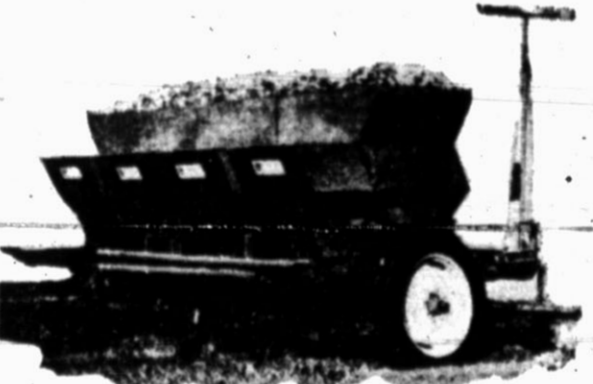

Mrs. Walden, a graduate of Hereford High School, is doing her supervised teaching in business and English at Waldo High School in Waldo, Ark.

At Southern State, she is a senior majoring in business education and is a member of the Tri-C Club, Lambda Sigma Alpha, and is one of the students at Southern State named to Who's Who in American College and Universities.

She is the wife of Robert J. Walden of Dallas.

Local Potato Men Have Meet

Agreement was reportedly reached between potato producers and shippers concerning the proposal presented by a committee composed of 3 shippers and 3 growers at a Wednesday night meeting in First National Bank Community Room. Meeting was held to find a solution to some of the marketing problems in the potato industry. Agreement was to a proposal that the shipper will buy from the grower on a daily basis.

The proposal will be presented to growers in the area for their consideration, the committee reported.

Serving on the committee are George Jones, Wes Fisher, John Seiver, Raymond Higginbotham, Charles Schlabach, and Hicks Roberson.

Moisture West Totals Half City Amount

Western Deaf Smith County (in the Walcott School area) received about half as much snow — and about half the moisture — as was received in Hereford.

Jim Monroe, who appeared before County Commissioners Court during its last session to ask that Deaf Smith and other Panhandle counties join together in an effort for disaster relief aid due to the dryness, reported that he had received slightly less than .20 in moisture after the snow had melted.

Monroe lives 35 miles from Hereford. He has described his area as the driest part of Deaf Smith County.

He pointed out that Gov. David Cargo has already declared the adjoining New Mexico counties on the Texas state line as disaster areas. The county commissioners here are in the process of working out details with other adjoining Texas counties so that efforts can be coordinated between them toward presenting their cases to Gov. Preston Smith.

Hereford received approximately 3 inches of snow which registered .40 in moisture. Unusual for this area, it was described as a wet snow with more than the normal amount of drainage.

Engineer Explains Problems

Approximately 50 people, including local government officials and members of seven task force committees of the Chamber of Commerce were on hand Thursday to hear Ralph W. Douglas, design engineer of migrant housing, as he explained the costs and problems of starting a project here for housing migratory farm worker.

Douglas, who works with municipal governments on projects such as these, explained a plan through Farm Home Administration that would make a federal grant for one-half the cost for a housing project to serve labor families.

He told of projects started in other communities and said that the plan would require approximately $20,000 to be raised locally to get a program started.

Charles Cosper... new wildlife manager

Wildlife Officer Stationed Here

Charles Cosper, former Clarendon resident, has been commissioned game management officer for Deaf Smith, Castro and Parmer Counties by the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department.

Born in Paducah, Cosper attended high school and college at Clarendon before moving to Canadian where he worked as a dairy produce distributor for about six years.

Cosper went to work with the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department in September of last year, attending one semester at Texas A&M required for the job. Work at the school included about 25 hours of which 15 were regular college hours. Laws pertaining to parks and wildlife management were also part of the courses.

He and his wife Nedra have three children, Pam, 10; Ken, four; and Vickie, five. They live at 118 Lake St.

His office will be in the court house.

Deadline For License Tags Draws Near

Residents of Deaf Smith County are reminded that the deadline for buying their license tags is April 1.

Friday morning, there had been a total of 1,560 tags sold, according to tax assessor-collector Nell Miller.

Mrs. Miller added that there were approximately 15,300 sold last year.

Tags are required to be on vehicles by midnight of March 31.

Luboff Choir Here Today

Norman Luboff will conduct his nationally-famous choir in a concert at the high school auditorium this afternoon beginning at 2:30, for holders of Hereford Community Concert Association membership cards.

The concert program will be chosen from the choir's wide repertory of popular, religious, standard, spiritual and folk songs. No single admissions will be available; only holders of CCA cards will be admitted to the concert, which is this season's featured attraction for members.

Look Who's New

Mr. and Mrs. Marcelino R. Salazar Jr. are the parents of a son born Feb. 22. He weighed three pounds.

FOLLOWED DIRECTIONS HELENA, Mont. (AP) — A car carrying four occupants and reportedly travelling between 90 and 100 miles per hour crashed into a hamburger place on the north side of town.

It went through the stools and counter of a customer service area, through a large cooler and a six-inch inside wall, across the kitchen and out the north wall.

The place is owned by Martin Nelson and is called "Zip In and Out."

Peking Man was a contemporary of apelike Java Man; both lived about 500,000 year ago. The skull on beetle-browed, chinless Peking Man resembled Java Man's, but had room for a slightly larger brain. Peking Man apparently used fire and made crude implements of stone and deer antlers.

T. L. Sparkman and Tommy Sparkman took cattle to the Houston show, leaving last Sunday. They expected to be there all week, returning during this weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark Andrews took her mother, Mrs. E. B. Berryman, and aunt, Mrs. Clalia Jones of Amarillo, to Wellington on Tuesday for a few days visit with their other relatives. The Andrews returned home that night.

Royce Waldrip came home from the Amarillo hospital where he has been the past several days and was doing well. He was expected to be back in school, probably next week.

Legal Notice

PUBLIC HEARING NOTICE
Southwest Feed Yards, Inc., P. O. Box 573, Hereford, Texas 79045, has applied to the Texas Water Quality Board for a permit relating to waste disposal from its cattle feedlot facility. Southwest Feed Yards, Inc., proposes to retain any waste in a holding pond on company property for the irrigation of grass or other crops. This feedlot will be located approximately four miles northeast of the City of Hereford, Deaf Smith County, Texas and approximately 2,000 feet north of U. S. Highway 90. If any overflow occurs from the holding pond it will flow through a dry creek into Tierra Blanca Creek, thence into Prairie Dog Fork of the Red River. A public hearing on this application will be held in the Auditorium on the Fourth Floor of the Diamond Shamrock Oil and Gas Corporation, First National Bank Building, Amarillo, Texas at 10:00 A. M. on March 25, 1969 to determine the conditions, if any, under which the permit may be granted. Additional data will be developed at the hearing, but further technical information concerning any specific aspect of the discharge, if available can be obtained by writing the Texas Water Quality Board, 1108 Lavaca Street, Austin, Texas 78701. Issued this 19th day of February, 1969.

Mrs. Jackie Andrews was undergoing tests at Deaf Smith County Hospital this week. She expected to be home by the weekend.

The Weldon Stephens moved into their new house at the end of last week. It is located on F. M. 1055, about a mile and half south of Frio Church.

The house which the Stephens have vacated is one of the landmarks of the area, being the home of the W. B.

Green pioneer family. Miss Laura Hamner wrote of teaching the first Frio school term about 1903 in the building on the corner of Green's place, built by subscription and volunteer help of the neighborhood. She mentioned Mr. Green as being superintendent of the Sunday School which she promoted at the beginning of Frio as a community and center of worship. The Greens lived there until about 1928, when they sold out to the Robbins family.

Mrs. Stephan (Betty Robbins) was born and reared in this house, so it was with some sentimental feelings she moved out last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Craig Parris, Ft. Worth, spent the weekend visiting his brother, Olin Parris and Mrs. Parris, Hereford.

The Charles Sells spent the weekend visiting his grandparents, the W. H. Andertons, of Tuttle, Okla.

Mr. and Mrs. Billy Warwick, Eugene and Raymond spent the weekend visiting Billy's sister, Mrs. Miles Powell, and other relatives at Odessa.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Manion and family spent Sunday visiting her mother, Mrs. Mary Blankenship at Hobbs, N. M.

Cherie Mason, 14-year-old daughter of the Gary Masons, was doing fine this week following an appendectomy on Friday night at Deaf Smith County Hospital. She comes home on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Kerri Struve visited her folks, the Sells, at Lubbock during the weekend. The Sells formerly lived at Easter and ran the store until moving to Lubbock recently.

Mrs. George Parker's two sisters, Mrs. Dovie Isbell, Tahoka, and Mrs. Flora Wallace, Ardmore, have been visiting her for several days. They have spent some time together at the David Yandell and Olin Parris homes, also.

Sgt. and Mrs. Dennis L. Francis married recently

Newlywed Pair Lives In Denver

Sgt. and Mrs. Dennis Lloyd Francis are at home in Denver after a trip which followed their recent marriage here in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harley Jones. Mrs. Francis is the former Cynthia Lynn Ellerd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oyd Ellerd, Route 4.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Francis of Hayward, Calif., is an Air Force sergeant stationed at Denver.

The bride's father gave her in marriage as Ernest Wade, justice of the peace, officiated for the ceremony. Mrs. Jones was matron of honor and Alvin Loyd best man.

White lace over pink was worn by the bride, a street-length dress with Peter Pan collar, large buttons down the front and pink cuffs. Her blush veil was made of four net layers decorated with tiny bows. Her corsage was an orchid.

A reception in the Jones home was held after the ceremony. Misses Debbie and Deena Wright and Debbie Hawes served punch and the wedding cake, which was ornamented in orchid and pastel yellow and topped with bride-and-groom figurines.

Orchid and yellow roses decorated the table, which had a lace cloth over orchid and a single white taper at either end.

The bride, who has been employed in Denver, was graduated from Hereford High School in 1965. The bridegroom attended Chabot College, Fremont, Calif., after graduation from Tenneson High School.

ty Bull Barn Monday at noon. This year the honoree is being chosen by an impartial committee from nominees of the various clubs.

A PLAQUE will be presented by the Hereford Brand to the woman selected, as she is introduced at the luncheon. Members of all 11 Home Demonstration Clubs of the county will be hostesses, and have invited a number of county officials and other friends to whom they wish to show appreciation for assistance in the H. D. program here.

Listed alphabetically, the Woman of the Year nominees begin with Mrs. Dean Bryant of the Young Homemakers Club. She is beginning her second term as president and has been a member seven years. Mother of five children aged 2 to 13, Mrs. Bryant's life centers in her home.

She is using information gleaned from H. D. programs in furnishing a new home and improving the yard. The Bryants enjoy family recreation allied to the hunting, fishing and camping trips which are Bryant's hobby. Mrs. Bryant has worked with 4-H Club, Campfire Girls and P-TO groups as well as her H. D. Club.

CHAIRMAN of Deaf Smith County H. D. Council this year, Mrs. James G. Gandy has been nominated by Cultural H. D. Club as Woman of the Year. She has a record of 25 years of club membership and has held almost all offices in her club and the County Council.

As a 4-H Club leader five years, she sent three girls to state contests in sewing, and won a trip to a state leaders course. She has four children, a daughter still at home and three children married, and four grandchildren.

MRS. J. D. GILBERT Jr. is Progressive Club's nominee. She has served in numerous offices and committee posts in her club and the council, attended district meetings and workshops. As a farm wife, she practices skills learned in club by growing and canning food, refurbishing and decorating her home as needed, sewing for herself and daughters.

She was a member of the County Program Building Committee three years, is active in her church, has worked with the ASCS, United Fund, Red Cross, Christian Rural Overseas Program and March of Dimes, and assisted in Little League and Campfire Girl programs when her children were active in those groups.

SATISFYING participation in service projects of her club is high on Mrs. Richard Golden's list of rewards to be found in H. D. Club work. She is president of the club for a second term this year, and previously worked in other offices and committees.

She is a member of Dawn Community Council and a board member of Deaf Smith County Red Cross Chapter. With her children, she farms 160 acres of land in addition to the 640-acre home place which her husband manages. She was a girls' 4-H Club leader two years and works with young people in her church.

MRS. ELMER NORTHCUTT, nominee of Messenger Club, lives on a farm 30 miles west of Hereford and has been in the club for 20 years. The Northcuts also operate a ranch in New Mexico and she keeps up two households, spending part of each week on the ranch.

She has held all club offices and been council representative eight years, has attended state and district workshops and was a delegate from the county to the THDA convention last year. Her family includes a daughter, a son and a nephew whom the Northcuts reared and regard as a son.

MRS. CARL SCHROEDER is West Hereford Club's choice as Woman of the Year. She has been an H.D. Club member since she was a young housewife, living on a farm during the depression years, and says she has learned from her club lessons useful then and still useful now that the Schroeders are retired.

She has attended THDA meetings and looks forward to the 1969 meeting next September, as well as to the district convention and workshops. She was a 4-H Club leader during the 1950's, is very active in her church and has been a Cub Scout helper.

A YOUNG RANCH wife and mother, Mrs. Wayne Sifford is Bippus Club's nominee. She lives 54 miles northwest of Hereford on the Bridwell Ranch where her husband is foreman. They have a son, five years old.

An outstanding 4-H Club girl when she was growing up, she has a collection of ribbons and medals won then. She was a member of Young Homemakers of Texas and Jayceettes in Vega before moving to the ranch. This is her second year as president of Bippus Club; she missed only one County Council meeting in 1968, because of bad weather.

NOMINEE FOR the Ford H. D. Club is Mrs. John A. Smith. She has been active in club work for 10 years holding offices as secretary, reporter, treasurer, council delegate and president. She has also worked on the re-

Beckman-Vance Vows Exchanged In Church

Mr. and Mrs. Tyler John Vance are at home in Canyon after their recent marriage in St. Anthony's Catholic Church here. Mrs. Vance is the former Miss Dolores Renee Beckman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis C. Beckman, 244 Elm.

Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Vance, 135 Beach. He is a freshman student at West Texas State University, Canyon, and is employed in Amarillo.

The Rev. John Van der Kuil officiated for the nuptial mass. Bouquets of chrysanthemums decorated the side altars of the church.

Wedding music was by Edward Dziuk Jr., who sang Whither Thou Goest, Ave Maria, and More.

Miss Michelle Beckman was her sister's maid of honor and Rodney Gohsen served as best man. Jeffrie Massie, a cousin of the bride, and Charles C. St. John III ushered guests to their pews.

Her father gave the bride in marriage. She was dressed in cream tulle, a street-length frock fashioned on slender lines with standing collar, long sleeves, and ornamental buttons down the front.

Her headpiece was a Dior bow of matching lace and taffeta, and she carried a prayer book with two small white orchids tied with ribbon streamers.

Sky blue ribbed crepe made the bridesmaid's dress, cut on straight lines with a tucked yoke trimmed in lace.

Medical men and women sat quietly through smokeless discussions. But as soon as there was a break for meals or refreshments out came the cigarettes and pipes.

and long sleeves. Her flower was a single white rose. She wore a blue taffeta bow on her hair.

A reception was held in the Beckman home after the wedding. The bridegroom's sister, Miss Mary Ann Vance, served the wedding cake while Miss Shery Lynn Philipp of Amarillo, the bride's cousin ladled punch. Miss Sheryl Philipp of Amarillo registered guests, who included from out of town, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Ellis of Friona, Mrs. Stanley Philipp and Mr. Ed Rogers of Amarillo, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Marrs, Michael Waugh, Michael McFarlin, Ronald L. Yandel III and Peter C. De Negro, all of Canyon.

The bride has been attending Hereford High School as a senior student and was employed in the Chamber of Commerce office here.

Up The Steep Staircase
Did you recently lift something heavy or awkward?

It is common knowledge that a strain on the spine results in back pain. When such a strain occurs, the spinal structure has been altered.

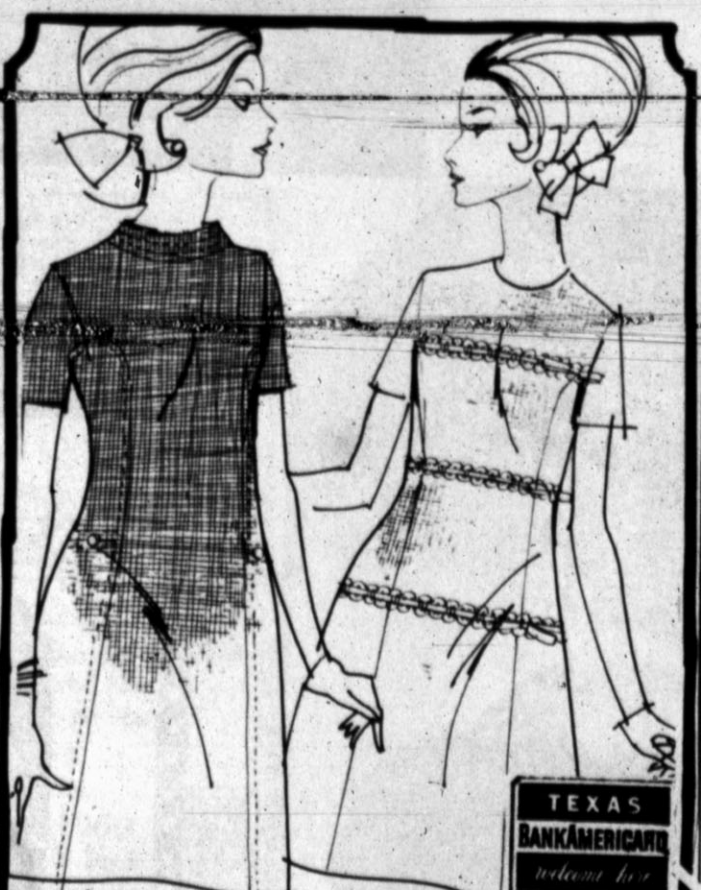

A chiropractor is well trained in the structure and function of the spinal column. He is able to apply natural corrective techniques to eliminate back pain and return your body to normal strength.

If you feel pain in your back, it is wise to consult a chiropractor immediately. Do so before the pain becomes more severe. This will decrease the chance of a more serious condition developing. It will also help you get quicker, longer-lasting freedom from pain.

Be careful of what you lift! Should pain occur,

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Acker to mark 50th anniversary

Florida was an Ice Age "winter resort" for man, mammoths and mastodons thousands of years before Miami and Palm Beach existed.

Open House to Honor Parents' Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Acker of Canyon, former longtime residents of Castro County, will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary at open house in the Nazareth Community Hall from 2 to 5 p. m. next Sunday, March 2.

The couple's children and their families, including Mr. and Mrs. John Warren, Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Walterscheid of Hereford, will be hosts for the open house, to which all relatives and friends are invited. A mass for their intention will be celebrated at St. Ann's Church, Canyon, at 6 p. m. Wednesday.

Other hosts next Sunday will be Messrs. and Meses. Joe Gidden and Charles Acker of Canyon, Lawrence Acker and Gerald Acker of Nazareth, James Acker of Tulsa, Albert Schoenbarger of Happy, Franklin Heinrich of Slaton, Robert Acker of Dumas, Charles Dick of Gurnee, Ill., and Mrs. Bernice Brewer of Plainview.

In addition to their children, Mr. and Mrs. Acker have 45 grandchildren.

They were married Feb. 26, 1919 in St. Mary's Church at Groom. Mrs. Acker is the former Katie Paetzold of Groom. They farmed in the Nazareth area before retiring in 1964, when they moved to Canyon.

NEW DELHI — She was wearing a white coat and a stethoscope, and a look of concern and efficiency. That is how neighbors saw her as the doctor went up the three flights of stairs to an apartment in a residential block.

Then somebody suddenly remembered having seen the third-floor-apartment family to out a little while before and wondered whom the doctor had come to see. They followed her and saw her examining the door lock with a hairpin.

The police later described the 19-year-old "doctor" as a notorious burglar.

The crowning feature of a woman's loveliness, say members of India's Toda tribe, is the hair on her face. The more facial hair, the more attractive the woman by their beauty standards, reports National Geographic.

Family Boasts Twins

By SUE COLEMAN
Women's Editor

Twin daughters are the unusual members of the Terry Bloxom family, pretty blonde four-year-olds named Terri Lee and Tammi Dee. Their mother was elected last week as next president of the Newcomers Club here.

THE FAMILY came to Hereford in August from Plainview, where both parents lived practically all their lives, and the twins were born. Bloxom is manager of First Supply Company and the family is living in the Thunderbird Apartments. Mrs. Bloxom is the former Sharon Neel, who grew up in Plainview and attended school there from first grade to graduation. She studied in a school of hair design afterward and worked a year in Plainview as a hairdresser. Now she gives her time first to her family, but is employed two days a week at a beauty shop here. That arrangement, Sharon Bloxom says, is ideal for her because "it gives the girls a chance to be with someone else part of the time, and gives me a better opportunity to meet people and get acquainted in Hereford than I would have otherwise."

AS THE TWINS grow up she enjoys their efforts to "help" her with the housework and is especially pleased that they share her interest in cooking. That is her favorite phase of homemaking and she is always eager to try new recipes. It's more fun when the girls join her in the kitchen, she says.

She laughingly disclaims status as an authority on whether two babies at a time are more difficult to care for, because both grandmothers of her daughters lived in the same town and she had all the assistance she needed when they were smaller. Now she believes it is an advantage to have twins, who play together and "take care of each other."

Outdoor sports of almost any kind interest Mrs. Bloxom, who shares her husband's liking for baseball — he likes to work with such programs as Little Leagues for boys.

She enjoys swimming but admits that she hasn't been brave enough to try water skiing.

BOWLING IS another sport the tiny brunette likes although she says she is "strictly an amateur there." Handicrafts of all sorts appeal to her and she can be happy with something to read, but says there isn't much time for either of those pursuits just now.

The Bloxoms attend First Baptist Church. Sharon has been a member of a Beta Sigma Phi group, but asked to be placed on the inactive list last year, again for lack of time.

She is enthusiastic about the Newcomers Club, which was organized last fall for women who have lived in Hereford less than two years. It is a good place to make friendships, she says, and for women who are new in the city and have few contacts to make acquaintances, it offers a chance to find congenial friends immediately.

New officers whom she heads were elected at a tea last week in the home of Mrs. Bill Barkley, who served as the organization's first president and is ending a six-

Library Book Collection Is CWF Project

Collection of books to be sent to the library of Jarvis Christian College will be a project of the Christian Women's Fellowship of First Christian Church, members decided at their February luncheon in the church dining room Wednesday.

A request for the books, to build up the school's library, was received by the local CWF from the state organization. Members will seek donations of books, fiction or non-fiction, from other residents of Hereford.

Hostess group for the luncheon was the Joyce Wiley group. Mrs. Albert Cherry, president, was in charge of business.

The program was directed by Mrs. S. O. Wilson, assisted by members who presented humorous skits on the subject, "What Do You Represent? The devotional speaker was Mrs. Bert Brown.

Ailing Friends Remembered In Club Meeting

Message were sent to two members who are hospitalized, Mrs. C. L. Whitehead and Mrs. Mary Bodkin, from others in North Hereford Home Demonstration Club who attended a meeting Thursday in the home of Mrs. Viola Williams.

A card was also sent to Sandra Woody, a Girlstown resident whom the club is sponsoring, who is ill with measles.

The program was given by the County H. D. Agent, Argen Draper, who discussed colors and their effect on people, and the choice of becoming color for costumes and for home decoration.

Present were Meses. Roger Williams, Paul Hoff, Velma Salvino, W. J. Lueb and Miss Roberta Campbell.

Club Is Informed of Pre-School Activities

Pre-school training for children of migrant families, in a program which Hereford schools are pioneering this year, was explained to Callopien Club members at a meeting Thursday by Naomi Hopson, consultant in elementary education for public schools here.

Mrs. C. J. Crump was hostess for the meeting at her home, 102 N. Texas. Mrs. Hopson was a guest speaker.

She is enthusiastic about results of the new program, saying that it enables children to enter first grade the next year with confidence and ability to learn equal to those from homes with more advantages. In addition to training in language, the children receive love, rest, nourishment, clothing if needed, and their health problems are cared for.

The speaker said the kindergartens are housed in attractive pre-fab buildings, costing, with furnishings and teaching materials, around $2,000 each. Enrollment is limited to 20 students per building and they attend school all day. Mrs. Hopson said Hereford is two or three years ahead of most schools month term. Officers are changed often to promote wider acquaintance by giving all members the chance to be active in the club.

Thanks Written For Red Cross Volunteer Aid

Letters of thanks for material sent from Deaf Smith County Red Cross Chapter were read to Red Cross Volunteers at their monthly luncheon in Ward's Restaurant Thursday afternoon. Members present reported a total of 180 hours of volunteer service the past month.

Thank-you notes came from the VA hospital at Temple for robes and spreads, from the Third Amphibious Marines for Christmas ditty bags and from Beaumont General Hospital at El Paso for booklets sent by Red Cross Youth groups here.

It was announced that Kenneth Intfeld, disaster services representative from the National Red Cross, visited in Hereford Wednesday and was to conduct a class on emergency assistance in disasters, Saturday at Amarillo.

Ideas for providing more services to shut-in residents of the city were discussed.

ADDING INSULT TO INJURY

KALISPELL, Mont. (AP) — A nighttime burglary of Koford's Jewelry on Main Street resulted in the theft of only one item from the display.

Owner Ed Koford reported an antique wedding band valued at about $50 was taken. But the window the thief broke to enter the case cost him more than $100 to replace.

Geographic Society says. Teachers corrected schoolwork with red ink, just as many instructors do today.

Mt. Sinai Has Special Today

"My Cup Runneth Over" is the title of the special program to be presented today at the Mt. Sinai Baptist Church, 302 Knight.

The 3 o'clock program is being presented by the Women's Missionary Society and refreshments will be served following the program, reports Mrs. Charley Brady, president.

Future Farmers Celebrate National FFA Week Here

Over 40,000 boys in 910 Future Farmers of America chapters across the state celebrated National FFA Week, Feb. 15-22, in honor of George Washington, America's first scientific farmer.

FFA Week was designated for the purpose of presenting various articles explaining work done in the organization.

During the past year, many members of the Hereford FFA Chapter received recognition on the District, Area and State levels and nearly 100 per cent participated in the livestock shows that were held in the area recently.

Lesly Earns Academy Honor

LXINGTON, MO. — Cadet Thomas Luther Lesly, son of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Lesly of Rt. 4, Hereford, has earned academic honors for the grading period of the first semester at Wentworth Military Academy.

Lt. Col. Cordell Thomas, dean, has announced that Lesly has earned superior grades to qualify for the dean's Special Distinction List.

Cadets who earn academic honors during the specified grading periods at Wentworth are accorded extra privileges and are permitted to wear the Scholastic Bar on their uniform.

organization he must enroll in a vocational agriculture class and receive instructions in farm crops livestock, poultry, farm mechanics, parliamentary procedure, and current farm problems.

FFA was organized on a national level during 1928 and in Texas in 1929. It was born of a great need to assist deserving students become established in their farming projects, to promote and stimulate agriculture leadership to develop public interest in vocational agriculture and to provide prizes and awards for students achieving distinction in various phases of agriculture.

The organization is a non-profit, non-political farm youth program with voluntary membership. It constitutes one of the most efficient agricultural teaching devices that has been discovered up to the present time. It is 100 per cent American in its outlook, has no outside affiliation, and there is no secrecy in connection with any of its activities.

It is organized vocational education on farm youth level. Improved agriculture, better local communities, a more satisfying home life, and more efficient farmer-citizens are emerging as a result of the boys' experiences.

H.D. CHATTER
Now Is Time For Cherries
By Mrs. Argen Draper
Home Demonstration Agent

Ever since George Washington welded a hatchet on his father's cherry trees cherries have been a tradition in February. Different kinds of cherries are available in frozen and canned state.

CHERRIES ARE sweet or sour, light red, dark red or white.

Read the label and choose cherries for the dish you plan to prepare, advises Gwe-ndolynne Clyatt, Extension consumer-marketing specialist, Texas A&M University.

Labels should tell if cherries are "red sour" or red tart; "red sweet" or "light sweet."

Mrs. Clyatt adds that the label should tell if the cherries are pitted or have pits, and are packed in water, cherry juice, light or heavy syrup. Some canned or frozen cherries have spices or other flavorings added.

THE EXECUTIVE Committee of the Program Building Committee had a very interesting meeting Wednesday morning. There are some good programs in the planning stage.

The third meeting of the Dawn Community Club on Estate Planning will be a month from now. In fact,
March 21 at the Dawn Community House.

FROM AN EVALUATION
meeting I attended on the Home Management Home Study Course, it seems our work is going very well. We have worked out an evaluation form and all of you enrolled will be asked to give your opinion.

NEXT WEEK'S WORK:
MONDAY: Appreciation
luncheon at noon. All club members and their families are invited. The Woman of the Year will be named.

TUESDAY: Young Homemakers will meet at 10 a.
m. in the home of Mrs. Huey
Lowrie - Program on Color;
West Hereford Home Demostration Club, 2:30.

WEDNESDAY: Ford
Home Demonstration Club,
2:30

THURSDAY: Foods Training, 1:15.

FRIDAY: Cultural Home
Demonstration Club 2:30.

The Sunday Brand, Hereford, Texas, Sunday, February 23, 1969

PRETORIA, South Africa (AP) - The National Parks Board plans to take no action against an elephant which trampled a car with two tourists inside in Kruger National Park. The pachyderm was not being held responsible, a board spokesman said, and besides it would be "extremely difficult" to find it among the parks more than 6,000 elephants. The tourists were not injured.

Use Of Color Chart Learned

Color charts were given to members of Young Homemakers Home Demonstration Club after a talk on Colors For You at a recent meeting in Mrs. James Hill's home. Each member will use the chart to plan a wardrobe color scheme to be discussed at another meeting soon.

Argen Draper, County H.D. Agent, was the speaker. Mrs. Freedy Cooper demonstrated the correct method of putting new invisible "zip" fastenings in a dress.

Mrs. Bill Barber and Mrs. Dennis Farley were guests welcomed by the club members.

YES! THIS 7-PIECE COOKWARE SET ABSOLUTELY FREE

Just for the courtesy of an interview... you must be either buying your own home or own your own home... between ages of 21-70, thinking of either painting, insulating or re-siding your home you are now living in. Brick homes not eligible.

TEFLON DU POINT APPROVED FINISH

Read about this unique offer...

We are now introducing a new all-vinyl siding called T-Lok in your area. We are so enthusiastic over how T-Lok can beautify your home and give it new added protection plus, all the other remarkable features of this practically indestructible siding, that we want you to know more about it.

This is the siding you've probably heard so much about. It's made from B. F. Goodrich Company's GEON that never needs painting because it's solid vinyl throughout. Once applied it eliminates costly repairs and maintenance. And best of all, it pays for itself in the savings you enjoy year after year. So, if you are tired of expensive repairs, high fuel bills, and constant painting costs, find out how you can really benefit with T-Lok. Mail the Coupon below now. This offer is limited.

JUST WHAT DID YOU SEE INSIDE THE ABANDONED MINE, DAN?

FOOTPRINTS! THEY WERE MADE BY SOMEONE'S BARE FEET AND THEY WERE MADE RECENTLY!

PERHAPS SOME INDIAN WANDERED INTO THE SAME OPENING YOU HAPPENED TO FIND!

NO! THOSE TRACKS CAME FROM THE OTHER DIRECTION!

COME ON! I'LL SHOW YOU!

NO, DAN! STAY OUT OF THERE!

DON'T YOU WANT TO SEE—

DAN, THIS SHAFT ISN'T SHORED! YOU WERE LUCKY TO ESCAPE ONE SLIDE! NO MATTER WHAT'S INSIDE, IT ISN'T SAFE TO GO BACK!

THAT NIGHT... BUT IT'S TRUE! THOSE FOOTPRINTS WERE REAL AND RECENT!

DAN, IF YOU DID LOCATE A MINE THE SPANIARDS DUG OVER A CENTURY AGO, I DON'T SEE HOW YOU COULD HAVE FOUND FRESH TRACKS!

NEXT MORNING... I-I KNOW MY UNCLE WARNED ME NOT TO GO BACK IN HERE, BUT I MUST FIND OUT WHO IS RIGHT— HE OR I!

I'M RIGHT! — BUT WHO MADE THESE TRACKS AND WHERE WILL THEY LEAD ME?
