

Around Town

Rating extra-special attention, Friday evening, especially among the young fry, was the moon eclipse. The night was clear and conditions were excellent. The eclipse became total at 5:53 was still total at 6:10 with only a fiery ring visible. Eight minutes later, the moon started emerging from the eclipse, the lower left side becoming brighter, while the other portion faded. The eclipse was still visible at 8 o'clock and officially ended at 9:03 P. M. The next eclipse of the moon is scheduled July 26.

Speaking of shows, Francis Hardwick just rushed in to announce that he will screen a complete news-documentary of events in Washington as Dwight D. Eisenhower took office. The Paramount short will run Sunday, Monday and Tuesday at the Star.

In addition to information on this page regarding the well-spacing regulations, a sample application blank will be found on Page 7 of this issue, sponsored by three pump companies to show farmers what information will be required at the meeting Monday night.

Add to the Shirley School honor roll: Sharon Flood, Mary Thompson, Judy Risler and Doris Willoughby. The quartet was omitted from the regular list — and weren't too happy.

Marshall Formby's appointment on the Texas Highway Commission came as a genuine surprise to most Hereford residents, and he took a lot of ribbing Friday and Saturday. He will take office, however, "without a lot of strings attached" and is the second Hereford man in recent years to secure state-wide recognition by appointment. The other is Jas. W. Witherspoon on the Texas A. and M. Board of regents.

A queer quirk regarding the appointment lies in the fact that The Brand, this issue of all others, printed the first editorial in several months scoring the commission for delay on the Canadian River bridge. News of Formby's appointment was released just after the section containing the editorial was printed and nicely folded. Too late to make any changes, and too late to make any changes, and too late to make any changes.

Vega Man Named County Attorney

J. Edward Line of Vega was Saturday named as County Attorney of Deaf Smith County to succeed Gib Howard, who resigned to enter private practice in Amarillo. The appointment was made at a special meeting Saturday afternoon. His salary was set at $3,600 a year, the same as that paid Howard.

The court also agreed to furnish Line with an office on the main floor of the courthouse, being the same floor which the office of clerk, judge and sheriff is located. He will assume his duties here Wednesday, Feb. 4, and will temporarily be located in the Commissioner's Court room. Mr. Line has been county attorney in Oldham county for the past two years. He will resign his post there to accept the appointment in Hereford. The commissioners were unanimous in naming him to the post.

George Heard Is Named President Of Rotary Club

George Heard was elected president of the Hereford Rotary club at their weekly meeting Friday. Those chosen to serve with Heard were: Bill Davis, Jr., vice-president; Earl Phillips, secretary; V. O. Hennen, treasurer; Henry Benson and Hugh Bookout, directors.

George McLean was guest speaker at the meeting. He told about the history of the Lions club. The officers will be installed the first Friday in July.

POINTING TO HEREFORD on the map is Marshall Formby, last Thursday named to the Texas Highway Commission by Gov. Allan Shivers. Formby will be the first High Plains man to ever hold the important post, which has charge of all state, federal and farm-to-market roads in Texas. The other two members are E. H. Thornton of Galveston and Fred J. Potts of Harlingen. Staff Photo.

Formby First High Plains Man To Fill Highway Post

Hereford stepped into the limelight this week when Gov. Allen Shivers Thursday night announced appointment of Marshall Formby as a member of the Texas Highway Commission. The appointment, although still subject to senate confirmation, was expected to be approved in the immediate future, and Formby will likely be sworn in on the post around Feb. 15.

Spend $100 Millions
The highway post, one of the most important appointive offices in the state, carries grave responsibilities. The commission, composed of only three men, controls the spending of around $100 million each year, including all state money and the designation of all federal funds allocated to the state for construction and improvements of federal roads in Texas. In addition, the commission designates all new roads in the state, including farm-to-market roads along with new construction.

Formby's appointment marks another innovation in state policies. He is the first man in Texas, west of Wichita Falls and north of U. S. Highway 80 to be appointed on the commission. The situation has long been a point of contention with residents of this section and previous efforts to secure representation of the commission have met with failure.

Formby was appointed for a six-year term. He succeeds Fred Wemple of Midland, and will serve with E. H. Thornton, Jr., of Galveston and Robt. J. Potts of Harlingen.

Here Since 1948
Formby came to Hereford in 1948 when Radio Station KPAN was established and, except for brief intervals, has resided here since. In addition to KPAN, he is also interested in the station at Floydada, and is a member of the Texas Bar Association. A long-time friend of Gov. Shivers, Formby has an exceptional background for handling the post of highway commissioner.

"I know that it is a tremendous job, and that the Commission has a job on its hands making the tax money go as far as possible, he said, "but I am humbled by the appointment and I shall give my best to the new job."

Formby has had ample training for the highway job. As County Judge of Dickens County from 1937 through 1940, he had considerable experience in getting roads for his part of the state. He served nearly four years with the Army engineers, going in service as a private while still in the State Senate. He came out of the Army Engineers, after spending 20 months in Europe, as a Captain.

Former Publisher
Formby, 41, is married to the former Sharleen Wells of Seale, Alabama. He is a graduate of Texas Tech, has a Master of Journalism degree from the University of Texas, and went to Baylor Law School. He has published (Continued On Page 2)

Father Gillis Clarifies Statement Regarding Spanish School Students

A misunderstanding which resulted in telephone calls and letters of protest directed at the Hereford Rural High School trustees and administrative officers of the school system was cleared Friday when Rev. R. F. Gillis, pastor of St. Joseph's Mission, issued the following statement:

"When I made the statement over KGNC Monday evening in reference to Spanish-speaking children not being welcome in school, I had in no way, any reference to the public schools. What I had reference to was the crowded conditions in the Parochial Schools at the time a separate school was being provided for the Spanish-speaking children. Also, there was not a sufficient number of teachers to take care of the situation. Again, most of the Spanish-speaking children were migratory, and it was felt that a school located in their midst could better serve them, with their own Spanish-speaking teachers."

"Again, I repeat that no reference was made to the public schools. I know of no instance where any child was refused admittance to the public school, or parochial school either."

Rev. R. F. Gillis, St. Joseph Mission.
The original statement appeared in a tape recording made on the spot at the St. Joseph Mission, located in the labor camp south of Hereford. A roving KGNC reporter recorded the tape in a brief "question-answer" manner after Rev. Gillis was named Hereford's "Citizen of the Year" by the Lions Club. Father Gillis, answered on the tape, that the mission school was organized because the students were not welcome in Hereford schools.

Many people, apparently thinking that the public schools had refused admittance to Spanish-American students, telephoned the school and individual board members protesting the situation, according to Robert Veigel, board president. Most of the callers, they said, were anonymous.

Veigel and Carl McCaslin, in behalf of the school board, presented the situation to Rev. Gillis, who instantly clarified the situation and issued the above statement.

Well Spacing Law In Hands Of Local Group

Prospective irrigation well owners, beginning today, Feb. 1, will be required by law to secure approval on applications before they can dig an irrigation well. Wells already spudded and with equipment over the hole may be completed, along with cases where the hole has already been dug.

"Persons who only have a slush-pit, or have pipe located on the site, do not qualify, however," according to producers who attended a general meeting of the High Plains Water Conservation District in Lubbock last Thursday.

Chief object of the application law is to space wells in such a manner that they will not damage existing wells, it was pointed out. The new law covers the vast irrigation district in the Deaf Smith Castro-Parmer county area, along with other sections of the High Plains. Voluntary water conservation was inaugurated by people of this area to avoid state or federal controls, which they felt could easily be impractical or unreasonable.

Catch As Catch Can
"No definite procedure of actual spacing has been advanced as a set policy," said Gail Neal, local committee chairman. "It will probably vary with the location in question, depending on actual conditions of that area," he continued, pointing out that such was the reasoning in establishing county committeemen from numerous points over the county.

The county committee will be the most powerful factor in handling of well permits and problems arising from the new irrigation well regulations.

Such was the manner in which W. O. Fortenberry, chairman of the board of High Plains Water Conservation district answered most of the questions which arose at the Lubbock meeting of farmers, drillers, pump supply men and district officials. Approximately 200 persons attended the session, including a large delegation from the Hereford area.

Fortenberry added that the district officials would not enter any controversy regarding spacing unless it absolutely could not be settled by the county-committee.

Ten From Hereford
Attending the session from Hereford were all five members of the County Committee: Gail Neal, chairman; Kenneth Rudd, Paul Corbett, Frank Bezner, and Pete Carmichael. Others in the Hereford delegation were J. D. Kirkland, Paul Coneway, and Leroy Aven, pump company representatives; Cecil Massey and Grady Bowdry.

Application forms, general information for handling applications and other pertinent questions concerning the new regulations were reviewed by the group.

Annual Dimes March Total $2,693; Hope For $3,500

Hopes that the March of Dimes campaign for 1953 might run close to $3,500 were expressed here Saturday by W. B. Wilson, chairman, as campaign drew to a close. He reported $2,693.22 already collected.

Still to be included was the iron lung collection from over town, proceeds from coffee sales Saturday and from parking meters Saturday.

Proceeds Saturday morning were collected from the following divisions:

Mother's March	$1,309.86
JayCees (radio)	607.50
Mail Campaign (B&PW Club)	408.00
V. F. W.	10.00
School Collections	262.26
TOTAL	$2,693.22

Wilson said that several phases of the campaign dropped under normal this year. A total of 1,400 cards were mailed out in the campaign, but only 111 had been returned Saturday morning. Scrolls, sponsored by the Boy Scouts and (Continued on page 2)

County Clerk's Office Will Go On Cash Basis After February 1

Transactions in the office of County Clerk will go on a cash basis on Feb. 1, 1953, it was announced today by Ralph Smith, clerk. The action is a result of action of the Commissioners Court in their regular session Monday.

The move, according to Smith and members of the court, will save the county between $1,000 and $2,000 during the next 12 months.

Motion to switch the county to a cash basis was made by C. G.

Richardson, commissioner, who cited county savings in the sending out of bills and statements, savings on postage, etc., plus savings on the additional work involved in keeping records of various accounts. The motion was seconded by Clarence Morrison and was passed unanimously.

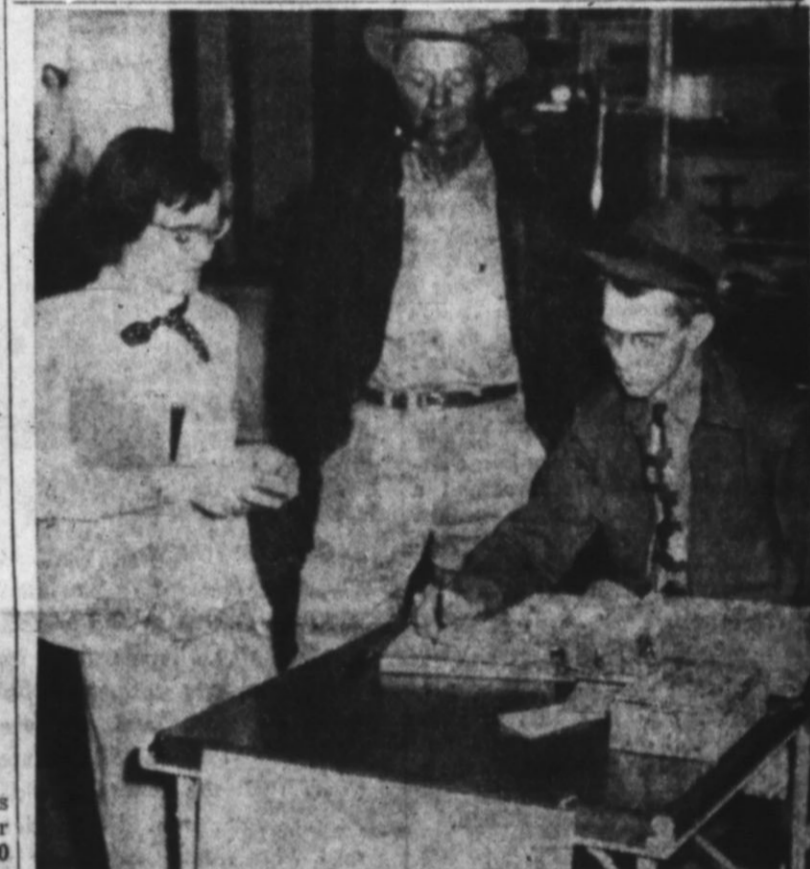

Filing fees will remain the same as in the past, Smith said, and are fixed by the state. Fees in this county are lower than in some other counties, however, according to Mr. Smith.

County Committee Sets Monday Night As Date To Handle First Spacing Permits

In connection with the new irrigation well spacing law, which goes into effect today, the Deaf Smith County Committee will hold its first meeting Monday, Feb. 2, beginning at 8 o'clock in the county court room in Hereford; Gail Neal, chairman, said Saturday.

"It will be our purpose to dispose of all applications at this time," he declared. "This meeting was scheduled in an effort not to inconvenience any producer who plans a well in the immediate future, or at any time within the next two weeks."

The committee will probably meet each two weeks, he said. In addition to producers who wish to file or clear permits, the committee also invited well drillers pump representatives and other persons interested in learning more details to attend the session.

POLL TAX payments in Deaf Smith County were reported at 1,574 Saturday at noon, but Hereford Kiwanians sought to swell the figure with the above booth Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Jack Winget, left, is paying her poll tax while S. N. Thweatt waits his turn. Loyd Lovell is in charge of the booth. A total of 3,340 were paid last year to set an all-time record. Staff Photo.

L. H. Foster Is Service Officer

L. H. Foster, former county judge, was named as Service Officer of Deaf Smith County by the Commissioners court at their special meeting Saturday afternoon.

Foster succeeds Ralph Smith, who resigned the post to become county clerk. He was the only applicant for the job and the court was presented with his certificate of qualification, which he passed with a high rating of 85 in Lubbock. Mr. Foster will be paid $2,580 a year, the same salary which Mr. Smith drew on the post. His duties become effective Feb. 1.

The four commissioners were unanimous in their vote.

No dances were sponsored this year in the campaign. Declaring that the need is really urgent, Wilson said that any interested person could still donate or mail in the dime cards, and that they will go into the drive fund. However, he said that no extension will be made on other phases of the annual campaign.

Extension Class In Speech Correction To Be Taught Here

An extension class, "Speech Correction Methods for Classroom Teachers," was organized at Shirley School Thursday night with 26 members enrolling. The class will be taught by Dr. Crannell Tolliver, head of the speech department of West Texas State College, and is open to enrollment of any interested person.

The course may be taken for credit or as a non-credit course, and will accept enrollment as late as Feb. 12. The class will meet once each week at Shirley School, beginning at 7 o'clock each Thursday evening.

"A non-technical approach is to be followed in the course," Dr. Tolliver told the group, "helping teachers to understand causes of common speech defects, and to enable them to guide students in making adjustments in class." For these same reasons, he also recommended it for parents of young children.

Hiram A. Revels of Mississippi was the first negro in the U. S. Senate.

Around....

(Continued From Page 1) editorial was written, put into type and printed before we knew of his appointment — and we certainly didn't have Formby in mind. However, we do hope that he will be able to do something about completing the bridge. Such is life in the newspaper business.

The Stanley Vinsons had two big events in their family in the last few days. They are the new grandparents of a six pound boy, Ronald Barreon, born in El Paso weeks ago. He is the son of late and Mrs. R. B. Vinson. Then this week they received their daughter, Johnnie B. Vinson's, grade records from West Texas State college where she is a sophomore, and she made straight "A" reports in all of her 17 hours. So really you can't blame the Vinsons for being happy.

Argen Draper, county home demonstration agent will attend a week-long training course at West Texas State college next week. She will be studying home furnishings with emphasis on upholstering.

SENATE HAS DRAWING -- Senator Searcy Braswell of Houston draws a red capsule from a glass jar to find out if he will serve a two or four year term. He drew an even number, so his term will be for two years. Ordinarily a senator serves four years and half of the membership is elected every two years. Because of the drawing up of new senatorial districts all senators stood for re-election last year. Then the senators held a drawing at their session in Austin, Tex., Jan. 14 to determine who would serve two and who would serve four years. Whitefaces Win One, Drop One Past Week

By Shelby Whitfield

The Hereford Whitefaces played two thrillers last week, winning one from Friona 60-58 and dropping one to Dumas 49-47.

Last Tuesday night the Herd journeyed to Dumas and played terrific ball before losing by 2 points. The home court was the difference for the victors.

Dumas took an early lead and never relinquished it. They led after one quarter of play 11 to 7. The lead was increased to 24-18 at the half.

After the intermission Hereford came back fighting. The third quarter ended with the score tied 33-33. Raymond Dement scored 7 points in the third period, hitting three long set shots and a free throw.

The Whitefaces cause was hurt badly in the last quarter when Dement and Everett Allen fouled out. P. D. Fletcher starred for Dumas dumping in seven points in the waning minutes of the game. The final score was Dumas 49, Hereford 47.

Dement was high point man for Hereford scoring 15. He sank 6 field goals out of eight attempts from outside the circle near mid-court. Marshall Wilson, Joe Streun and Francis Boyd were next with 8 points each. Danny Berlie was tops for Dumas with 13 while Fletcher scored 11.

Friday night, the Whitefaces participated in the most hectic tilt ever witnessed by this correspondent. The game was played in Chief territory. It contained both good and bad officiating with the accent on the latter. A Hereford man left the court, charged with five fouls, actually having committed only four. Also two near costly mistakes by the time keeper shortened the lives of several Herd fans.

The Hereford team started well and led 16-10 as the second quarter began. Friona cut the lead to 23-24 at the half. The last 7 seconds of the first half ran out while the ball was not in play. Wilson was waiting for the official to put the ball in play when the clock ran out.

Fast breaking by Tommie Woodford and Allen ran the score up to 36-24 before Friona counted in the second half. But long shots by Derry Robbins and D. O. Robason cut the margin to 44-40 at the start of the last quarter.

Friona tied the score 51-51 in the final period but never went ahead. With five seconds left, Hereford led 60-47. Then Joe Streun committed a foul. "Baloney Joe" as Streun's teammates know him, knew it was his fourth but the scorer had charged him with an extra by mistake. A. Fangman, the fouled player made the first shot to make the score 60-58. He missed the second and Friona got the rebound. The clock was not started until after Robason missed the crisp shot and an attempt tip in was missed. Hereford controlled the ball and time ran out seconds later. Woodford was high point man

Scout Nominations Expected February 3

The date of February 3 is going to be a red letter one for scouting in the Hereford area.

On that date the nominating committee of the Deaf Smith County District Committee will report on nominations for chairman, vice chairman and member at large. The nominees will be subject to election by members of the district committee.

The committeemen are S. O. Wilson, chairman; Bob Wear and Ellis Coombes.

Jimmy Allred is the present district chairman. In the hands of the district officers will be the scouting program for the next year in this district.

for the Whitefaces. He counted 21. Allen was close behind with 20. Robbins led Friona with 19.

Hereford made 40 per cent of their shots from the field, hitting 23 of 58 tries. Friona made 27 per cent sinking 20 of 74 attempts. Hereford made 14 of 26 free throws or 54 per cent while Friona made 13 of 34 or 53 per cent.

Wayne Starks boys meet Canyon in their first conference game Tuesday night in the Hereford gym. Game time is approximately 8 o'clock following the preliminary "B" team game.

A Tribute - - To Our School Teachers!

Today, as no time before in history, the school teacher is recognized as the builder of tomorrow's America! With juvenile delinquency increasing apace, and foreign ideologies creeping into our school books, it is high time that glowing tribute was paid to these patient men and women who instruct our young. Let's remember that teachers are human beings, not machines. Let's give them the support and confidence they so richly deserve. Let's attend P-T-A meetings and contribute something more than children. This community is fortunate in having such fine schools and outstanding educators. We applaud their work and their good American achievements!

By JIMMIE GILLENTE

(Ed. Note: We really lucked into this one. Marshall Formby accepted the challenge before he became famous and got appointed on the state highway commission. This is his first appearance in print following the appointment—and it was written just before the announcement. If Formby turns out to be as good a highway commissioner as he is a columnist, Texas is indeed in order for congratulations. He did a swell job.)

BY MARSHALL FORMBY
Owner of Radio Station KPAN

I accept the challenge to write this Bull column if Jimmie Gillentine will give twenty bucks to the March of Dimes. After all, he gave a five-minute news cast last Sunday over KPAN and we forked up twenty dollars for the drive. By the way he gave a pretty good newscast, too.

Since today's columnist has been out of the newspaper field for about five years, the writing here might not be up to its regular high caliber. But we do believe that it will be as readable as one merchant's writing we know of here in town. . . . We speak of Colonel Streu. One day, when one of the linotype workers at the Brand was threatening to quit anyway, Jimmie handed him Streu's Diary to set. That did it. The Linotype worker walked off the job right then and there, asked for his final check and was gone. . . . Actually, we don't think Streu's stuff is that bad. We are just passing the facts on to you as they happened.

Did your wife get one of those little metal tags the other day with her name on it, which entitles her to buy this and that on the credit at a certain new Amarillo store? If she did not, you are lucky. Lots of women over the Panhandle got these credit tags—they look like an army or navy dog tag—and of course, this new store to the north of us would like to have hundreds of women coming in to start charge accounts.

One thing we know and that is that the husbands were not consulted. They are the ones who will have to dig up the money around the 10th of the month to pay for the damages caused by those credit tags.

Charge accounts are all right, but they have wrecked many a budget and many reputations, credit reputations we are speaking of, of men who formerly had the name of being "good" pay.

It is good to know that Hereford is about to soon boast of enough medical doctors to take care of our population. When and if some of our local docs get back from special schooling, the staff at the clinic will be such that Hereford will yield to no town or city in Texas, even twice our size. There have been times in recent years when we were down to two or three doctors, which is not enough. Doctors get tired, too, you know. Maybe someday the AMA will yield a little and let the medical school start turning out more doctors, enough to take care of the Texas patients. We are proud of our Hereford doctors, but there is one thing that we would like for them to get straight in the public's mind. That's about the price of penicillin shots. . . . We are not accusing, we are not fussing, we are not passing judgment. But we keep hearing that Hereford doctors are charging $5 for a penicillin shot. It is a well-known fact that an ordinary shot of penicillin now costs a doctor about 19 or 20 cents. So we can't believe that Hereford doctors are charging $5 for a 19-cent shot of penicillin. But we keep hearing it. It is hard to believe, and we would like to hear the truth. We think the public is entitled to know.

Gib Howard has quit as county attorney and is moving to Amarillo to engage in the private practice of law. Gib thought a long time before he made this move. A lawyer doesn't like to keep moving around. Someday he has to get settled. Gib thinks he will be set for the remainder of his life now at Amarillo practicing law. One of the main things that figured into Gib's moving and resigning the county attorneyship was money—those pay checks that keep him and his family going. No county officials get rich. It is doubtful if they earn what they should.

Editor Ernest Joiner of the Ralls Banner, who is one of these young editors who keeps everybody buying his paper to see what the heck he will say or who he will jump on next, has written quite a piece about the salaries of Crosby county officials. He gave them the dickens because they didn't raise their salaries in Crosby county the other day. Ernest says boys at just any job in town get more money than their county officials. . . . Course, Ernest is pretty plain spoken. In the old days he would have been horse-whipped several times. But he does lay the truth on the line.

But there must be an answer somewhere as to what county and state officials should receive for their pay. It has always been hard for me to understand how Texans justified the pay they give the members of the Texas Legislature. The boys don't make enough during a session to pay for their campaign the summer before. Added to this is the fact that they have to live in Austin during a session and that comes high. That $10 a day won't even pay living expenses.

This Columnist had occasion recently to visit with a gentleman who lives in a city several hundred miles away from here, but who used to live at Clovis for a spell. He kept telling us how friendly the folks in Hereford are.

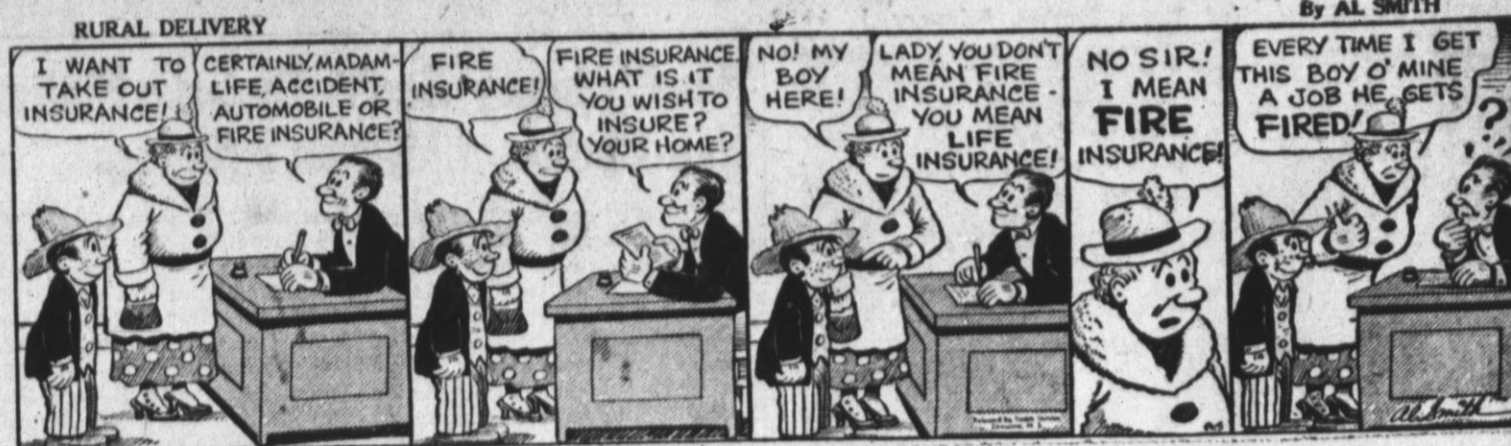

"I went to Hereford with some Clovis riders to take part in a parade for one of your celebrations," he told me. "I didn't know anyone there, but after the parade was over I strolled down the streets and visited with the folks there. Everywhere, people talked to me and greeted me. They acted like I was one of them. I have never forgotten how friendly those folks were and I wish you would tell them sometime that they are the most friendly people in the world."

That's what the man said, and I have passed his words on to you. Personally, I think he is 100 per cent correct.

Most of the streets in Hereford are wide enough, but it would be wise if the City fathers started thinking now of the time when Hereford will be much larger, as it will be. The reason cities are so crowded now and the reason downtown stores are losing out in some of the larger cities is because the folks who planned the city years ago had no vision. It's easier to buy right-of-way and widen streets now, than it will be in future years. Hereford is far ahead of most cities its size, and it has more beautiful homes with pretty lawns than any place in West Texas. If you don't think so, compare it with other towns you know. But some long-range planning is in order, and we hope that the city dads don't forget.

In a few months, there will be even more talk about TV. . . . Many folks wonder what effect TV has on a town, on the theatres, on the newspapers, on radio. All we know is what has occurred up to now in other towns and cities where TV stations entered the field. For a few weeks, folks go crazy about TV. They read little, listen to radio very little, especially at night. They stop going to so many shows. But soon they get choosy in their programs. They get selective. They watch TV a little less, they radio more, they read more and start back to the moving picture theatres. TV becomes just another entertainment medium; a good one, but just another one. For certain sports, conventions, inaugurations, special events and some comedy, TV can't be beat. But it has not in other towns or cities replaced the radio, nor the newspaper, nor the theatre.

This columnist traveled several thousand miles during 1952 to get these above facts. We have talked to a lot of people, read a lot and observed a lot. The above is the final conclusion. TV is fine, but it replaces nothing.

Highlights and Sidelights FROM Your State CAPITOL

AUSTIN, Tex.—Maybe you don't realize it, but as a taxpayer you have 40,000 employees.

Those people are state workers. And it looks like you are going to increase their salaries. All depends on the legislature.

A bill to hike the pay of state workers has been introduced by the Austin delegation: Representatives Obie Jones, Pearce Johnson and C. L. Sandahl Jr. and Senator Johnnie B. Rogers.

If it passes, the measure will give "temporary emergency" wage boosts of 15 per cent on all state salaries up to $3,600 per year and 15 per cent on the first $3,900 of higher salaries.

Robert B. Baldwin, Shivers' budget director, proposed a job by job, cost-of-living increase, on an equalized basis.

In his opening message to the legislature, Governor Shivers asked that an increase in workers' pay be included in the budget bill, but that can not become effective until September 1 when the fiscal year begins. Hence the emergency legislation.

It is Edward Clark, Austin attorney, who bosses the legislature, says Leslie Velie, writing in the February Reader's Digest. Velie charges that some of the state's most important laws are written in Clark's office and in his capacity as lobbyist for Herman Brown of the firm of Brown & Root.

Velie says Clark has and uses the power to tell potential political candidates "not to bother" to run, and that he can tell the lawmakers "what they should bother with."

In reply to all this, Clark snapped that Velie's story was a "false, foul, and infamous smear." He added that he was "shocked and surprised" that the Digest would print a story so "very definitely off-color and completely untrue."

The source for the story, Clark believes, is a "well known local radio propagandist who has been working closely with the radical wing of the labor movement."

Another to take the issue with Velie was Ruben Senterfitt, speaker of the house, who said he considered the Texas legislature "the most independent body of people I know."

A number of bills going into the hopper for legislative consideration are familiar—they had been introduced at previous sessions.

One of these is the so-called fair-trade bill. This time its author is Representative Lamar Zively of Temple. The measure would prohibit advertising or selling of goods below cost.

Proponents of this bill argue that it would prevent a big merchant's running a one out of business by ruinous sales. Opponents contend that the public benefits when such sales permit purchases at bargain prices. This is one bill that will affect the women, who do about 80 per cent of the buying nowadays.

Also familiar was a bill to legalize race track betting in Texas. The author of this one, Representative Ed Sheridan of San Antonio, declared it would raise many millions of dollars in tax revenue.

More money will be needed for a variety of items, some of which were listed above. Also, funds will be required to give increased pay to members of the legislature themselves, if a bill introduced by Representative Charles Murphy of Houston is successful.

Murphy's bill would give the lawmakers $25 per day during the first 120 days of the legislative session and $5 per day thereafter. The solons now receive $10 per day for the first 120 days and $5 per day thereafter.

No sooner is one set of state officials inaugurated than the political forecasters in Austin begin speculating about who is going to run in the next election.

Last week some of the experts thought they saw in Lieutenant Governor Ben Ramsey's speech indications that he will be a candidate for governor next time.

There has also been speculation that Attorney General John Ben Sheppard might seek the chief executive's place. Another mentioned as a likely candidate is Land Commissioner Bascom Giles.

Those three, or any two of them, would make it a brisk race. Ramsey, by the way, set a record when he received 2,001,709 votes for the office he now holds. That's more votes than any Texas candidate received before—for any office.

There is a surplus in the Confederate pension fund of $4 million, and the amount is growing every year. There are now only two Confederate veterans left in Texas: Thomas Riddle, 106, who lives at the Confederate home here; and Walter W. Williams, 110, who lives on a farm near Franklin. The state also contributes to the support of 535 widows of Confederate veterans.

The legislature can, if it so desires, free the surplus in the Confederate pension fund for other use.

Even before the legislators hit town, the streets of Austin are crowded with cars, particularly around and near the capitol.

Now comes a proposal from R. C. Lanning, chairman of the State Board of Control, that the state-owned half-block of vacant land between the capitol and the Governor's mansion be leased for a parking lot.

It will accommodate 220 cars, he says, and can be made ready for $4,500.

Lanning figures it will rent for $151 a month and net the state over $6,000 in a very short time.

Another way to get more money for the state would be to put a tax on natural gas compressors, says Representative Dolph Briscoe of Uvalde.

So, he introduced a bill to levy that kind of a tax, which he feels will bring in $60 million per year. Briscoe's proposition is to assess $60 per year for each horsepower of capacity of each compressor used to move natural gas in pipelines. The great bulk of the tax would be paid by people outside of Texas who use Texas gas, the bill's author said.

Revenue would be doled out this way: $24 million a year for highway construction; $15 million per year for public schools; $15 million per year for city streets; and $6 million per year for building dams in the water conservation program.

Representative Stanley Banks of San Antonio has introduced a bill to regulate optometry. It would prevent those who sell glasses from advertising their services, capabilities or prices and keep any doctor or firm from examining the eyes free.

Optometrists who believe in informing the public are opposing this bill.

SHORT SNORTS: A bill calling for the holding of a presidential primary, such as is done in numerous other states, is now in committee. Resolutions have been introduced proposing constitutional amendments to provide four-year terms for constitutional state officials and pay increases up to 100 per cent. An administration-sponsored proposal has been introduced to provide a $200 million water conservation program, through state assistance based on a tax on the right to use surface waters. Among the big bills pending is one to raise the pay of each school teacher $600 a year. Another bill calls for congressional redistricting. It avoids the confusion that was created during the last session by simply designating Harris county as the 22nd Congressional district. Harris county would get the extra congressman anyway because of its big increase in population.

Said one legislator to another "Maybe two can live as cheaply as one—but not as quietly."

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Mitchell, Sue and Ronda Beth of Olton were guests over the week-end in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Nunley.

Mr. and Mrs. Reese Dawson arrived home Wednesday from Fort Bragg, N. C. Mr. Dawson received his discharge from the Army on Saturday. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Dawson, went to Fort Bragg after them.

Breakfasts Puffs And Cakes Are Ideal For Quick Meals

Due to a typographical error the recipes for Breakfast puffs and Breakfast Cake in the Sunday Brand for January 25, were incorrect. We reprint them today in full with measurements complete.

Mrs. O. L. Click uses both of these recipes often and both family and guests request their repetition. Children love the breakfast puffs and they are appropriate for children's parties or picnic spreads.

Breakfast Puffs

5 level tablespoons butter
1/2 cup sugar
1 egg
1 1/2 cups flour
2 1/4 teaspoons baking powder
1/4 teaspoon nutmeg
1/2 cup sweet milk
Cream shortening and add sugar and blend in egg yolk. Sift flour, baking powder and nutmeg together and add alternately with milk to creamed mixture. Fold in egg white beaten stiff. Fill muffin pans 3/4 full and bake in 350F pre-heated oven.

Breakfast Cake

1 teaspoon baking powder
1/4 teaspoon salt
2 eggs
1 cup sifted flour
1 cup sugar
1 teaspoon vanilla
1/2 cup hot milk
1 teaspoon butter
Sift flour, baking powder and salt together 3 times. Beat eggs well and beat in sugar and vanilla. Melt butter in hot milk; but do not boil, and add alternately with dry ingredients to the egg mixture. Pour in a greased 10 inch pan and bake in a 350F oven 25 minutes. (Do not overcook).

Topping

Cream 1/4 cup butter, 2/3 cup brown sugar and 2 tablespoons of cream together, add a pinch of salt, 1/2 cup nut meats or coconut and mix well. When coffee cake is done, spread this mixture on top and brown in broiler oven. (Do not over-brown). Serve hot from the oven.

PACIFIC FLEET (FITNC)—Serving aboard the destroyer USS Samuel N. Moore is John H. Gamble, fireman, DSN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Austin N. Gamble of Hereford, Texas, and husband of Mrs. Lucille Gamble of 1111 North Taylor, Amarillo.

Gamble entered the Naval service in Jan., 1950 and received recruit training at the U. S. Naval Training Center, San Diego, Calif. The Moore participated last week in the largest cruiser-destroyer training exercise in the Pacific since World War II.

For two weeks, she was one of 26 ships and numerous supporting aircraft, comprising the operating task force engaged in realistic exercise and maneuvers off the California coast.

Employing newly developed techniques of air-defense, anti-submarine warfare, gunnery and convoy maneuvering, the training exercises were conducted to keep the men and ships in a high state of combat readiness required by modern warfare.

HAPPENINGS * * EVENTS FROM Northwest Hereford

By Mrs. R. C. Childers

Due to the bad weather the second regular meeting of the Cultural Home - Demonstration club was not held. A meeting was called by Argen Draper for Saturday afternoon at the R. E. A. Kitchen.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Barclay and sons returned Wednesday from Tucson, Arizona where they have been visiting the S. J. Barclays parents of C. S. Barclay.

While in Tucson the Barclays visited the famous city of Nogales, Mexico, hoping to get their small son Larry a pair of hand tooled boots, but were unable to find a size that small.

Mrs. M. Henderson was also a guest in the S. J. Barclay home while the C. S. Barclays were there. She had been in California visiting relatives there, and was on her way to Paris, Texas, to be with her daughter Mrs. Harold Baize who is to submit to surgery. Mrs. Henderson is a former resident of Hereford, and Mr. and Mrs. Baize are also former residents of the Jumbo Community.

Mrs. Irvin Roberson was ill with the flu last week. Others over the community are still having the flu. But are hoping that it is about to run its course.

Due to illness Mrs. M. W. Sumner has been unable to submit to surgery as was planned. It is hoped that she will be able to go within the next few days. She will be in the Northwest Texas Hospital in Amarillo.

Phones are being installed in this vicinity this week. Bill Hampton and his helper was installing phones in the P. S. Corbett, Earl DeHart and R. C. Childers homes Thursday. Corbett is having two phones installed on his farm. The second one is being installed in the house used for farm hands. Mr. Hampton says that phone service won't be completed for about two months.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Telchik played Canasta in the W. E. Holcomb home Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Hilliard from Jones County, are new residents of this community. They are neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Hargis and family.

Mrs. L. A. Gurley and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gurley of Roswell, N. M. were visitors in the W. E. Holcomb home recently.

Mrs. C. S. Barclay and sons and Mrs. R. C. Childers were callers in the Irvin Roberson home Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. R. C. Childers and Mrs. C. S. Barclay called in the F. G. Witherspoon home to inquire about Mrs. Bill Simpson who was reported to be in the local hospital, but upon arrival in the Witherspoon home, found Mrs. Simpson dismissed and preparing to go home. Mrs. Simpson is the former Nina Hartman a former resident of this community.

Mrs. Simpson is scheduled to have a tonsilectomy the middle of the week if her health permits.

The wheat in this vicinity is beginning to grow and green up since the recent snow fall of last week.

Farmers are irrigating potato land, others are fertilizing and getting ready to irrigate, in preparation for spring planting.

FOIBLES

By Kent Snare

This may be looking way down the road ahead and around a miscellaneous bend or two, but to me, the White Sox-Senator barter of Eddie Robinson for Ferris Fain, which has just been consummated, portends more of the same to come. Fain, while he has been American League batting champion the past two laps, is a powder puff type of hitter who won't reach, leave alone rattle, the palings in spacious Comiskey Park. He amassed a 327 poling average in '52 but he drove in only 59 tallies and stroked only 2 round trippers. William Edward Robinson, the other tradee, only averaged 296, but he put 104 runs on the right side and he swatted 22 homers, which is, in itself, a run accounted for, and in comparison, over a third of the number which Mr. Fain, the champ, was personally responsible for, by every manner and means at his disposal, including managerial concurrence. Altho, for my pittance, one of the reasons that Mr. Fain hit the road has been the largesse extended to him to win the batting title, since the parent A's could see nothing else in sight available to win. Mr. Fain, in turn, probably brought the change of scenery on, when he tried to charge Mr. Mack and Co. extra for his accomplishments. And the A's have never been lauded for overpaying their help. They got the services of one Robert Moses Grove for 3 terms for a 100-G's, which is a bargain at any time and under the present rate of exchange would bring three that for his kind of pitching. Frank Lane, of the Chicago's, avers that Fain is just the man to fit their present needs and for years to come at the gateway, but he quite evidently misplaces the fact that in '52 the Pale Hose, at their composite and trying best, only batted in 560 runs over the entire season and the long gone Robinson, with his 104, contributed almost a fifth of that total, on his own. The American League, in their combined team efforts, could only show 4 hitters, over the full run, who drove in more than 100 runs, those being: Doby, Indians, 105; Robinson, 104; Rosen, Indians, likewise and Zernial of the benefitting A's, an even century. How Lane, Edwards, et al, figure to cut their club's run getting potential by 10% in one fell swoop, by swapping off one chattel, and continue to prosper and please the paying throng, beats me. If that is the thinking, to ride with Fain, I'll wager that Mr. Paul Richards doesn't concur, too, and all he has to do is win with the Sox. To further hazard, my guess is, that Mr. Fain will wind up in the friendly confines of the Stadium, where even a few of his pop flies will float over the barrier and where, his very adroit fielding may very possibly take up the slack of the rookie left side of the infield that the Yanks may be forced to employ this season or in the very impending future, at the latest. There is no assurance that the ailing Rizzuto will be back at his shortstopping stand and if Stengel can come up with a lusty hitting third sacker, Gil McDougald, may replace the 267 hitting Billy Martin at the midway. The belligerent Martin probably will serve as the shortstop or the

Fancy and Plain Westway Group Hears Talk On Color Schemes

The topic of discussion for the Westway Home Demonstration club Wednesday afternoon was color schemes and principles of color. The discussion was led by Mrs. G. C. Merritt Sr. She emphasized the importance of keeping one color predominant. Mrs. Kenneth Rudd was hostess for the meeting. Mrs. Paul Rudd was elected federation representative and committee reports were given and approved during the business session which was presided over by Mrs. P. B. Sowell. The next meeting of the group will be on February 11 at the home of Mrs. Harold Rudd. Those present were: Mesdames Abraham Drager, G. C. Merritt, R. L. Wilson, Paul Rudd, Harold Rudd, Bert Garrison, B. B. Northcutt, Floyd Walton, P. B. Sowell, C. A. Sauley, Johnnie Townsend, a visitor Mrs. Carl Smyth and the hostess.

VFW Auxiliary Lists Three New Members Jan. 28

Three new members were welcomed at a meeting of the VFW Auxiliary Wednesday night at the club house. Jo Hardy, Eloise Link and Joyce Morris were the new members. Mrs. Harold Loerwald and Mrs. Laverh McMinn served as hostesses for the meeting. Members of the group sanded the tables and chairs at the club house following the business meeting. Congressional salaries are subject to income taxes.

WINTER GARDEN PVM is a tried and proved protein-vitamin-mineral supplement for self-feeding beef cattle, dairy cattle, sheep, goats, and hogs. It is based on the results of five years of feeding and blood tests with a wide range of Texas forages and ingredient combinations. Golden Wedding Anniversary Open House Is Attended By 150 Guests

One hundred and fifty guests attended the golden wedding anniversary open house held by Mr. and Mrs. George S. Parker at their home in Dawn Sunday. All of their nine children and their families were present as long-time friends called between the hours of 2:30 and 5 in the afternoon to extend congratulations and best wishes. The couple was honored at a dinner at Hotel Jim Hill at noon with members of the immediate family attending.

The couple was married January 25, 1903 in Alva, Oklahoma and came to Texas in 1908. They can contribute many stories of pioneer days in the Texas Panhandle for they have lived in several counties since that time. He was a farmer and has some stories of his own which reflect the changes in 50 years time—stories of the struggle with the elements and the soil, drought and black northers, and the rearing of a large family. He is now 68 and she is 66.

In 1951 he gave up farming and purchased the Independent Oil Company in Dawn where the family moved and now make their home.

Mrs. Ed Mosley Is Honored By Local W.M.U. Group

Mrs. Ed Mosley was honored at a special meeting of the Woman's Missionary Union of the Baptist Church Wednesday afternoon for twenty years of service as secretary of the W. M. U. She cannot remember missing a single meeting of the organization during that time.

The secretary's office not only requires keeping the minutes of each meeting but in filing reports of committees of various departments. If just the minutes recorded were laid page to page they would extend over many miles.

Mrs. Mosley has also served as leader in the Beginner's department of the Sunday School since 1935 and is a member of the Bethany Class.

Mrs. Carroll Whiteside, president of the W. M. U., gave a tribute of appreciation to Mrs. Mosley for her outstanding service and Mrs. George Graham presented her with a gift of luggage. She was also presented with an aluminum serving tray and a lovely corsage for the day.

Special music was presented by David Goldston, vocalist, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Bob Lawrence.

Mrs. E. P. Mead of Amarillo told of a two-months trip made to the Holy Land in 1939, mentioning visits to Mount Calvary, The Dead Sea and Christ's tomb as highlights.

Refreshments were served after the program from a table laid with lace over red and centered with red and white flowers arranged in a Madonna container. At the base of the arrangement was placed a white Bible, opened and marked for scriptural reading. Between 70 and 75 guests attended the special session.

New England Series Ended By Lone Star

Completing programs on the New England states, the second lesson was presented Tuesday afternoon at a meeting of the Lone Star Study Club held in the home of Mrs. Robert Thompson.

Mrs. Robert Lingenfelter discussed "The Proper Bostonians" describing the Bostonian and the city in words of the author who says: "The Proper Bostonian is an institution in himself. Whether or not it is true as the saying goes—that you can tell a Proper Bostonian male by his waistcoat and a Proper Bostonian female by her hat—it is true that the proper Bostonian prefers to keep things as grandfather had them. This has so affected his own city that Boston, the fifth largest city in the United States, has come to be known as a most provincial city—and a city to be avoided by all except sightseers."

Mrs. Robert Thompson reviewed "Village Greens of New England" by Louise Andrews Kent. "The Village Greens of New England are a memorial to the courage, vision and self sacrifice of men and women who have and need no other monument," she said.

Members of the club attending the meeting were Mesdames Roger Corbett, V. E. Dodson, Jim Higgins, Berry Jacobsen, John Jacobsen Jr., C. D. Kelton, Joe Kendall, Robert Lingenfelter, Vivian Major, Earl Springer, L. L. Womble and the hostess.

W. Dale Pearson, minister, read the double ring ceremony as the couple and their attendants stood before the altar bedecked with white chrysanthemums, gladioli and stock backed by palms and candelabra bearing lighted tapers. White satin bows and lighted tapers marked pews.

Miss Yvonne Cavendar and Wayne Hinds, vocalists, sang duet arrangements of "Always" and "Because" with a choral background. The traditional wedding marches were used.

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a chapel length gown of white taffeta styled with fitted bodice, Peter Pan collar with seed pearl trim, long fitted sleeves and full skirt. Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Godwin

Godwins Observe 57th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Godwin celebrated their fifty-seventh wedding anniversary with a gathering of relatives for a covered dish luncheon at noon. The celebration was in marked contrast to the one held on their golden wedding anniversary when open house was held for scores of relatives and friends, for Mr. Godwin, who has been confined to a wheel chair for the past year, is not able to be up long at a time.

It was a double wedding which took place in Dexter, Texas on January 26, 1896 for her brother, George Burns, formerly of Hereford, and Miss Sallie Higgins were married at the same time and the brides were dressed exactly alike.

The couple went to housekeeping near Whitesboro and 5 years later moved to Van Zandt County where they lived three years. In 1905 they moved to Deaf Smith County where he was employed on the J. D. Thompson ranch about 22 miles north of Hereford. His health failed and they had to quit the farm so he went to Dallas to learn to be a barber. They built a little home in the east part of town and later, decided that he didn't want to be a barber after all, he went back to the carpenter trade and served as a straw boss with a Santa Fe bridge gang for several years. In 1912 he was injured in a fall and spent several months in a Santa Fe hospital.

It was then that a Hereford physician persuaded Mrs. Godwin to finish one room in their home in white and get a hospital bed in order that the "country surgery

Miss Nancy Bursey attended her sister as maid of honor, and Mrs. Ella Mae Childers, sister of the bridegroom, was honor matron. They wore jade green taffeta dresses made with fitted bodices and bouffant skirts. Their halo hats had short tulle veils and both carried colonial bouquets of red carnations.

The bride's mother wore a sheer rose crepe dress with navy accessories and a corsage of pink roses. Mrs. Parsons wore a navy crepe dress with white accessories and a corsage of white rosebuds.

Following the wedding a reception honored the couple in the Bursey home. The refreshments table was laid with lace over green satin and centered with a candleabrum encircled with alternating bouquets of red and pink roses.

After a wedding trip the couple plan to make their home in Amarillo at 4231 West 16th. St. For traveling the bride wore a charcoal gray suit with green and mauve accessories and the white orchid from the wedding bouquet as a corsage.

Mrs. Parsons was graduated from Amarillo High School, Amarillo Junior College and West Texas State College, Canyon, where she was elected to Who's Who among students in American Colleges and Universities.
