Soviets claim U.S. spy plane was in area

By RICK GLADSTONE
Associated Press Writer

A top Kremlin general said today a U.S. spy plane rendezvoused with a South Korean airliner that entered Soviet airspace on Washington's orders and ignored at least 120 warning shots before a Soviet warplane destroyed it with a missile.

"The plane obviously must have been flying toward Soviet airspace fulfilling a spy mission... Why did it proceed in no other place than the one with Soviet installations?" asked Marshal Nikolai V. Ogarkov, the Soviet military chief of staff.

In a rare news conference at the Soviet Foreign Ministry televised overseas, Ogarkov told foreign reporters that Soviet defense forces detected Korean Air Lines flight 007 flying side by side with an American RC-135 surveillance aircraft for 10 minutes near a sensitive Soviet military zone in the Sea of Japan, 310 miles off the jetliner's intended course.

On the warning shots, Ogarkov said Soviet pilots fired two sets of warning shots, including a series of "four bursts" totalling 120 rounds of tracer shells.

and why in any event the plane carrying 269 people, including 61 Americans, was shot down, Ogarkov replied: "The Soviet air forces made attempts to make it land but the plane evaded, altered course... All possibilities were exhausted and only then was the order given." He did not say why the plane couldn't be identified.

The elaborate Soviet response to world outrage over the destruction of the aircraft came as the Soviet Union faced a possible rebuke in the United Nations and increased retaliation elsewhere for the incident. All people aboard the jetliner are presumed dead.

They said searchers recovered several pieces of metal debris, apparently wreckage from the shattered jetliner.

UW workers begin drive at dinner Thursday

Stressing the slogan of "You're the Key in '83", the leaders and workers of the United Way of Deaf Smith County kicked off the 1983-84 fund drive Thursday night at a dinner in the Community Center.

The citizens know that the drive will be completed on time." The campaign ends Oct. 31.

The local budget is divided as follows: Big Brothers & Big Sisters, 11 percent; Boy Scouts 15, Camp Fire 18, Children's Rehabilitation Center 1, Epilepsy, 1.2, Family Services, 1, Red Cross 15, Salvation Army 2.5, Senior Citizens 10, YMCA 20, and local expenses 5.3

At United Way Kickoff

The United Way of Deaf Smith County launched its fund-raising campaign Thursday night when leaders and volunteer workers attended a kickoff dinner at the Community Center. Gary Baker of Amarillo, right, was guest speaker for the event. UW President Gene Ehler and drive chairman Janice Kelley are pictured with Baker. The drive for $125,000 for the participating agencies ends Oct. 31.

Standing in front of a detailed map, Ogarkov said the Soviet radar trackers determined that the RC-135 peeled off and flew back toward Alaska shortly before the jumbo jet entered Soviet airspace, leaving the commercial liner to proceed alone.

Earlier in Madrid, Secretary of State George P. Shultz called the Soviet act "shocking to the conscience of mankind."

State Sen. Bill Sarpalus and State Rep. Bob Simpson have committed to appearing with the caravan, and U.S. Rep. Kent Hance may be at the meeting, it was reported by Messer.

Other Demo leaders who will be in the caravan include Sandra Davis and Doug Seal, chairpersons for the 31st District; Mel Phillips, Randall County Demo chairman; and Mary Hazelwood, Potter County chairwoman.

The Demo representatives will discuss party politics in the Panhandle, and the elected officials will have an update on legislative activities. The group will go to Plainview for a banquet Saturday evening.

Due to heat, drought Wholesale food prices increase slightly

By SALLY JACOBSEN
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Wholesale prices, driven up by the first food price increase in four months, rose 0.4 percent in August, the government said today.

Food price hikes, largely the product of the summer's drought and heat wave, were posted for vegetables, poultry, eggs and pork. Food prices rose 0.4 percent, matching the overall gain.

Experts had been predicting that the devastating weather would send food prices up next year, but the speed with which the increases are being felt shows just how severe the drought and heat have been.

Even with the food price increases, however, many economists say that the Labor Department's wholesale price calculation for all of 1983 may rise at its slowest pace since the mid-1960s.

Indeed, prices for the first eight months of the year were flat. For the year ending in August, prices rose just 1.4 percent, their best 12-month showing since 1967. They had risen 3.7 percent in 1982.

Trashed Trailer

Fire destroyed this trailer, parked at the Griffin & Brand Sales Agency Inc. on West Highway 60, earlier today. The Hereford Fire Department was alerted to the scene at 9:45 a.m. and managed to finish its chore within an hour. Fire Marshal Jay Spain suspected an electrical problem prompted the blaze, which spread to a small building to the left of the trailer, causing some fire, smoke and water damage.

Economic development office created

AUSTIN (AP) — Gov. Mark White has announced creation of a "high-powered, rapid-response team" to mobilize efforts and influence in attracting new industry and investment to Texas.

White told a news conference Thursday the new Office of Economic Development would operate within the governor's office by reassignment of present employees.

He also said it would require no additional funds.

"This will provide a comprehensive, multifaceted effort that will link our educational institutions, our job training programs, our labor leaders, our private employers, and our state agencies, cities and counties, and financial and marketing institutions into a working

Saddle, money bag reported stolen

A saddle valued between $800 and $900 was stolen from Scott Swope sometime between August 27 and Thursday, Hereford police reported this morning.

The theft apparently occurred at 419 Ave. K, where Swope used to live prior to his recent move to 822 Ave. K.

Service Texaco, 800 W. First, had a money bag containing $300-4000 taken between 4:30 and 8:50 p.m. Thursday, police said.

More than $400 of damage and property loss was suffered Wednesday night by L.E. Flesher's car wash located at 605 E. Park Ave. Police reported nine cases of soft drinks were stolen while a pop machine and several locks were damaged.

There were also three incidents of minor theft and one apiece of disorderly conduct, juvenile problem, open door and simple assault. Police said there were two non-injury motor vehicle accidents.

Trio charged in hit & run death

SAN ANTONIO, Texas (AP) — An informant's tip led police to charge three people with capital murder in the death of a woman who was robbed of about $1, shot and then run over on a busy highway, a detective says.

Investigators initially believed Lavette Kirksey, 23, was the victim of a simple hit-and-run accident when her body was found sprawled on the highway early Sept. 1.

16 permits issued in August

There were 16 building permits for $96,800 issued by the City of Hereford in August, director Becky Reinart reported.

That brings the year's total to 90 permits for $1,065,784, she said. Last year at this time, there were 72 permits for $618,940. In August of 1982, there were 11 permits issued for $123,350.

broadcasts to Soviets

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Voice of America is jacking up the volume of its broadcasts to the Soviet Union in the wake of the downing of a South Korean jetliner that killed 61 Americans and 208 other people.

The plane incident "has been the lead story in all 42 languages on Voice of America," said Joe O'Connell, of the United States Information Agency, parent agency of VOA.

Not only that, but the number of transmitters aimed at the Soviet Union has been doubled — to as many as 24 at peak times — and the Russian language daily broadcasting schedule has gone from 16 to 17 hours, said VOA spokeswoman Rogene Waite.

The Soviet Union has admitted shooting down the plane, but said its pilots thought it was a spy plane flying over Soviet territory.

Ellen hits Hong Kong

HONG KONG (AP) — Typhoon Ellen killed at least six people and injured 180 others as it battered Hong Kong today with winds up to 140 miles an hour, spawning deadly mudslides and tearing freighers from their moorings.

By mid-afternoon, the storm's center had moved past the British colony of 5 million people, leaving communications and public services paralyzed as it moved toward China's southern coastal province of Guangdong.

Houston man sentenced to die for 'bathtub killing' of elderly woman

HOUSTON (AP) — A Houston man who prosecutors called "a self-perpetuating crime machine" has been sentenced to die by injection for the murder of an elderly woman he strangled and left in her bathtub.

Jurors took only 27 minutes Thursday to decide that Edward A. Ellis of Houston should be executed.

Ellis, 29, who was convicted of capital murder Wednesday, faced either life in prison or death.

According to testimony in the trial, Ellis broke into the west Houston apartment of Bertie Eakens, 74, handcuffed her and strangled her with a pillowcase and a pair of nylon stockings.

Mrs. Eakens' body was found in her bathtub March 1. She was the third elderly woman killed and left in a bathtub in a west Houston home in three days. Police have said they believe the killings were not related. Defense attorney Francisco Reyes told jurors his client came to them begging for mercy.

"You decide whether he goes to a pine box or to a metal box up in Huntsville," Reyes said. He told the panel during final arguments that the proper way to remove Ellis from society, now that jurors had decided to do so, was to "put him away for life. Don't kill him."

But prosecutor Eric Hagstette called Ellis a "self-perpetuating crime machine" and told jurors the defendant already had forfeited several chances to give up crime.

Ellis, who had been a maintenance worker at Mrs. Eakens' apartment building, has been arrested nine times and charged with 15 crimes in his adult life, court records show.

Head prosecutor Dick Bax asked jurors to return a death penalty and told them not to lose "one minute of sleep."

"You could not have done anything to prevent what Eddy Ellis has done," Bax said. "He set his own fate."

Ellis, linked to the slaying through an anonymous tip to police, was arrested in San Antonio March 7 after a car chase with officers there.

Witnesses testified in the trial that Ellis had been seen driving a yellow Cadillac similar to the one stolen from Mrs. Eakens. Her car, recovered two weeks after her body was found, was burned and left under a freeway overpass in San Antonio.

LUBBOCK, Texas (AP) — A Buddy Holly look-alike competition and a 1950s dance contest will be the final notes in a two-week long tribute to the rock 'n' roll star who grew up in this West Texas town.

Buddy Holly's widow, Maria Elena Holly, will unveil a plaque on the Buddy Holly statue on Saturday afternoon, prior to the evening competitions. This fifth annual celebration, held in honor of the singer's Sept. 7 birthday, was highlighted by a Buddy Holly memorial concert last Saturday headlined by Marshall Crenshaw.

Holly, whose hits "Peggy Sue," "Early in the Morning" and "Heart-beat" rocketed to the top of the charts in the late 1950s, was killed at age 22 in a single-engine plane crash Feb. 3, 1959 near Clear Lake, Iowa.

Recording stars Richie Valens, 21, and J.P. Richardson, 24, were also killed in the crash. The Mason City (Iowa) Globe-Gazette reported at the time that other members of Holly's group boarded a bus for Fargo, N.D., but the star singer flew in order to

Texas may be second most populous state by year 2000

By T. LEE HUGHES
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Texas' population will grow by more than 6.5 million between 1980 and 2000, propelling the state from the third to the second most populous in the nation, according to the U.S. Census Bureau projections.

The bureau projections, released this week, show that more than half the increase will be the result of people moving in from outside Texas.

"It doesn't surprise me, and I don't think it's going to surprise anybody here," said Bonnie Young, coordinator of the data management program in the Texas governor's office, referring to the projections.

Ms. Young, who developed population projections for the Texas 2000 Commission, said she anticipated high migration from outside the state continues a trend that began in the 1970s.

"The 1970s was a drastic change for Texas in its pattern of growth," Ms. Young said in a telephone interview from Austin. "Up to that time, over 90 percent of our growth had been just due to natural increase of the population — (the rate of) births over deaths."

"And in the 70s, over 50 percent of our growth was due to immigration," she said.

The Census Bureau projected that Texas' population would jump from 14.2 million in 1980 to 17.4 million in 1990 and then to 20.7 million in 2000.

Of the 6.5 million population increase during the two decades, a little over 3.5 million will represent net migration from outside the state, the bureau projected.

California, which will experience a projected population increase of nearly 7 million, is expected to remain the nation's most populous state, with more than 30.6 million people by the year 2000, the Census Bureau said.

Texas is projected to take over second place from New York, which will drop to fourth, the bureau said. Florida, with an increase of more than 7 million, will move from seventh most populous to third, it said.

The bureau's projected increase for Texas is slightly less than the projection developed by the staff of the Texas 2000 Commission, appointed in 1981 by then Gov. William Clements to study the growth potential and problems of Texas through the remainder of the century.

Ms. Young said the staff developed a range of projections based on various circumstances, but that the migration projection was for an increase of about 8 million persons to about 22 million.

However, that projection was made before 1980 census figures were available, and that likely accounts for the difference in the two projections, she said.

In its final report in 1982, the commission said that "we have accepted population growth and changes in the Texas economy as driving forces that will to a large degree influence Texas' future."

"This is the land that's still kind of growing — the South, Southwest, the whole Sunbelt thing," said Ms. Young.

Businesses are attracted to the state by its lack of a corporate or personal income tax, "which of course draws a lot of people," she said.

And, she said, "it has a good climate. It's not New York, where you have to spend so much money every year for heating fuel."

She said that in general, she felt the large immigration from outside the state was viewed in Texas "as a boon."

But "there are a lot of people who feel it's a mixed blessing" because they are starting to see that "there are problems with this fast growing population," she said.

"When the majority of your growth is natural increase (from births), you have time to develop services and infrastructure to go along with that," she said.

"When you're getting a large influx of population due to immigration, all of a sudden you wake up and you say, 'look at the highways, they're falling apart, or what about schools, or what about human services.'"

"That's a problem that you get with high growth due to immigration."

No agreement on airline strike

HOUSTON (AP) — Talks between representatives of Continental Airlines and a striking machinists' union have been recessed indefinitely, officials said.

Airline and union officials met for 4 1/2 hours Thursday with a federal mediator, but failed for the fourth time to reach an agreement to end the almost four-week walkout, federal mediator Robert Brown said in a statement.

Brown and Continental spokesman Bruce Hicks declined further comment on Thursday's talks.

The parties also met, without success, three times in August.

The International Association of Machinists and Aerospace Workers struck the nation's 8th-largest airline Aug. 12 in a dispute over wages and work rules.

The machinists rejected Continental's offer to raise mechanics' pay from $13.45 to $16 an hour.

The airline, which is operating at 99 percent of its schedule despite the strike, recently has discussed cost-reduction proposals with employee groups, Hicks said.

Airline officials have met with employee groups, including the Air Line Pilots Association, to discuss proposals for reducing costs.

"We are not going to go into the details of what they are," Hicks said. He declined to say whether the airline was considering pay cuts, although he observed that labor accounts for 35 percent of Continental's costs.

edged downward 0.2 percent after tumbling 1.2 percent. Heating oil prices rose 0.5 percent after falling 0.7 percent.

SMU upholds image as country-club school

DALLAS (AP) — While the University of Texas at Arlington is facing a crisis in student housing, Southern Methodist University is accommodating some of its students in facilities that feature free coffee, maid service, a pool and a free drink at "happy hour."

About 75 SMU students are upholding the Dallas school's reputation as a "country club" school. As a temporary measure, the school has put the students in a Dallas hotel while their dormitory is being renovated.

SMU housing director Eugene Ward said the displaced students should be back in their dorm by the beginning of October. The cost of housing the students at the Twin Sixties Inn is about $10,000 a week, according to hotel general manager Jody Johnson.

Ward said the university is spending a little more than twice as much to house the students as they are paying the school. He said the temporary measure is "a hassle for us and for the students."

"The first three weeks have been great," said SMU sophomore Charles Slack. "With wake up calls, free papers and coffee each morning, it's not a bad way to start the school year."

"You'd never see anything like this except at SMU," said Ben Smith, a junior. "Where else would you find a dorm where you can enjoy happy hour, take a dip in the pool and then call room service?"

At the nearby University of Texas at Arlington, the housing shortage is a different story.

UTA's growth, which has made it the state's fifth largest school, has created a housing shortage that is forcing prospective students to enroll elsewhere, officials said.

"She never carried those receipts. But they thought she did."

Summey said Ms. Kirksey's car was forced to the side of the road by a second car carrying the three people, who demanded she give them the bank bag containing the receipts.

When she told them she didn't have the receipts, Ms. Kirksey was forced to hand over the contents of her purse — about $1 — and then was shot in the thigh with a .22-caliber pistol, he said.

She managed to flee, despite further gunfire, but wrecked her car and then was hit by another vehicle as she attempted to cross the road, he said.

"We don't think they (the trio) were the ones who ran over the girl," Summey said.

I doubt whoever did it even knows what he did." Susan Marie Lyles, 29, Michael Anthony Edgett, 25, and Mark Thompson, 17, were being held at the Bexar County jail today on $100,000 bond set by Night Magistrate Quon Lew.

Ms. Lyles used to work at Godfather's Pizza restaurant, but Summey said he did not know if the two women ever worked together.

The medical examiner's office ruled that Ms. Kirksey died from being struck by the vehicle, not the gunshot wound.

The three people were charged with capital murder "because of cause and effect," Summey said.

"They shot her and, as a result, she was killed," he said. "We believe they staked out the (pizza) place and knew what they were looking for."

Gromyko claimed the United States ordered the South Korean Boeing 747 to violate Soviet airspace and said his country's defense forces were justified in shooting the plane down.

His statement reflected Moscow's assertions that the plane incident was engineered by the United States to spread anti-Soviet hatred.

U.S. officials at the Madrid conference said Thursday that the United States and most NATO allies have agreed in principle to ban air travel to and from the Soviet Union for two weeks to protest the Soviet action.

In Washington, President Reagan on Thursday decreed that Aeroflot must close its U.S. ticket offices and he ordered Aeroflot employees to leave the country. Aeroflot has booking offices in New York and Washington, though its flights have been banned in this country since the December 1981 imposition of martial law in Soviet-backed Poland.

The Civil Aeronautics Board also approved Reagan's request to prohibit U.S. airlines from having any commercial relationship with the Soviet carrier, which claims to be the world's largest.

Signs of an alcoholic

DEAR ANN LANDERS: You did a great job of listing the characteristics of a compulsive gambler. Now will you please list the characteristics of an alcoholic?—Up North

ALCOHOLIC — HOW CAN YOU TELL?

1. Do you need a drink at a definite time every day?
2. Do you prefer to drink alone?
3. In the morning do you crave "a hair of the dog that bit you?"
4. Is your drinking hurting your family in any way?
5. Do you take a drink

when you feel yourself getting the shakes?

6. Is your drinking damaging your reputation?
7. Do you lose time from work because of your drinking?
8. Has drinking made you inconsiderate of your family's welfare?
9. Have you, since drinking, become jealous or suspicious of your spouse?
10. Have your initiative and perseverance decreased?
11. Do you drink to relieve anxiety?
12. Has your drinking made you more sensitive?

13. Is it endangering your health?
14. Do you show marked moodiness as a result of your drinking?
15. Has your drinking made you harder to get along with?
16. Is it making your home life unhappy?

17. Is it jeopardizing your job, hurting your business or career?
18. Has it made you irritable?
19. Is drinking affecting your peace of mind?

If you can answer "No" to everyone of these questions, and if a member of your family agrees that your answers are correct, your drinking is under control—at least for the present.

Every "Yes" answer is a red light, which means there could be trouble ahead.

How about some guidance?—A And L. In Williamstown, Mass.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: My husband and I are both 28. We are professional people, having worked hard and long to obtain our credentials. Our careers are flourishing. Problem: We want a family (two children), but not right now.

DEAR A AND L: According to Dr. Ernest Hook, who wrote on this subject for the Journal of the American Medical Assn., both women and men reach the peak of their fertility at about age 25. When the woman is 35, chances of producing a defective child are 5 to every 1,000 births. If she waits until she is 45, the risk jumps to 50 per 1,000 births.

Hereford slightly favored tonight

By BOB NIGH
MANAGING EDITOR

The Hereford Whitefaces are slight favorites tonight as they play host to the Canyon Eagles at Whiteface Field, but Herd head coach Jerry Taylor hasn't slept a better rest couple of nights as a result.

For some reason, Taylor's dreams of a second HHS win in as many tries have been interrupted by the forms of giant birds swooping down out of the late-summer sky to steal a spindly-legged calf which is still trying to balance itself after its recent birth.

Those sharp-clawed Eagles casting a shadow of doubt over the Hereford fieldhouse include 231-pound tackle John McDaniel, 215-pound defensive end Bryan Cartwright, 208-pound tailback-linebacker Terry Nix, and 165-pound quarterback-cornerback Ron Bostick.

"Those four are very good football players," Taylor said of the quartet.

Both Nix and McDaniel start both offensively and defensively for Canyon coach Houston Powell. And, Bostick plays a lot of defense in subbing for weak side cornerback Dale Holligan.

"Bostick is very fast, handles the ball well on fakes, and likes to run the ball on the option play," Taylor said. "he is also probably their best secondary player even though he doesn't start. He plays run support well, and is pretty fair on pass coverage."

The Eagles are coming off a 13-7 loss to Tascosa in their opener a week ago, and Taylor looks for Nix to be out to change that trend tonight.

One of four locals win

Hereford's football teams could manage only a single win in four tries Thursday as three junior high squads took to the field, and the White Junior Varsity hosted Amarillo Caprock at Whiteface Field.

The White JV battled the Longhorns to a 0-0 standstill for one half, but the visitors broke away for a 14-0 victory in the last 24 minutes of play.

Meanwhile, La Plata's frosh claimed a 20-12 win over Pampa, while the Maverick 8th graders dropped an 8-6 decision to Canyon Purple on the road, and the Stanton 8th graders wound up knotted with Canyon White in a 28-28 contest at the La Plata field. Chris Urbanczyk, Mark Artho and Randy Berryman each scored once for the Mav frosh, with Todd Shire adding a two-point PAT.

In Canyon, the La Plata 8th graders dropped a heartbreaker when Canyon got a safety near the end of the game to notch an 8-6 decision. Michael Phibbs and Derrell Page combined for the Mavs' only score on a 60-yard run in the third period. Phibbs raced 10 yards on the play before lateraling the ball to Page, who completed the run to the Eagle end zone from mid-field.

A bad snap on a punt near the end of the game gave the Eagles two points, and the win however. Details of the Stanton tie with Canyon White were unavailable at press time today.

A bad snap on a punt near the end of the game gave the Eagles two points, and the win however. Details of the Stanton tie with Canyon White were unavailable at press time today.

Only a junior, Nix is described by the Hereford mentor as "the best player on the Canyon team."

"He is a head hunter from his linebacker position...he fills the gaps very quickly and likes to hit," Taylor continued.

While not stingy Herd runners defensively, Nix is apparently adept at dishing out some licks of his own from the tailback position in the Canyon offense.

"He is very big and strong, and hard to bring down," Taylor said. "He is a second effort-type back."

Meanwhile, Taylor and the Herd coaching staff saw "a lot of improvement" by the Whitefaces in their 27-8 win over Pampa from their showing against Clovis in a scrimmage two weeks ago.

"Our offensive line improved considerably from the Clovis scrimmage," Taylor said. "And, our defensive secondary is coming of age."

The Herd's offensive line did suffer a setback in the win in Pampa last week, however, with senior right tackle Mark Lytal suffering a knee injury which will probably keep him out of the lineup against the Eagles tonight.

Taylor was unsure who would replace Lytal, but said that either junior Wayne Allison or junior Lee Brockman would be inserted into the lineup.

"Hopefully, Wayne can step in there and do the job," Taylor confessed. "Since Lee starts at linebacker for us, we'd rather have Wayne in there offensively."

With the exception of Lytal, Taylor said that he will probably use the same lineup which started against the Harvesters. The only other change will be in the punting department, where Sammy Suarez will take over temporarily for Mike Scott.

"We're going to look at Sammy punting the ball and see if we can get a little more distance and longer hang time," Taylor explained. Scott, the starting quarterback for the Herd, punted four times against Pampa, averaging 35.5 yards per effort.

Despite the convincing win over the Harvesters, Taylor said the Whitefaces still must improve in several areas.

"Our downfield blocking by our tight end and wide receivers must improve if we are to move the ball well," the coach said. "And, our running backs need to execute their fakes better, while our receivers are still dropping some passes."

Defensively, Taylor feels that the key to beating the Eagles is to "play aggressively, and have excellent defensive end play" in order to stop Bostick on the option play and control Nix as well.

"We also are going to have to get great pursuit from our noseguard and defensive tackles, and gang tackle the Canyon runners when we can," Taylor added.

Kickoff is set for 7:30 tonight at Whiteface Stadium. It's been five years since the Eagles defeated the Herd, the last win a 10-0 decision in 1978. The Herd took slim 14-13 and 18-16 wins in 1979 and 1980 before coasting to a 27-0 win in 1981 and a 31-8 decision last year.

Taylor hopes that trend continues tonight as the Whitefaces complete non-district action. Hereford opens District 3-6A play in Lubbock against the Lubbock High Westerners next week.

Vikings fall 48-17

Interceptions key to 49ers' romp

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Interceptions helped decide the game, including one that wasn't caught.

The San Francisco 49ers intercepted five passes and wreaked havoc on the Minnesota passing game all night. But 49ers quarterback Joe Montana said one of his passes should have been intercepted on the first series of the game and that made the difference when it wasn't caught.

"That was the breaking point. When they didn't intercept that pass in the end zone. Things turned our way after that," said Montana, who threw a career-high four touchdowns passes in the first half and combined with his defensive secondary to lead a 48-17 blitz of the Vikings Thursday night. It was the most points scored against the Vikings since 1963.

It was safety John Turner standing in the end zone with the ball bouncing off his hands on that play. Montana was laying on the ground, wincing in pain from a groin injury. But the ball hit the turf and Ray Wershing kicked a 38-yard field goal.

The Vikings failed to move the ball and a rejuvenated Montana threw a 21-yard touchdown pass to Dwight Clark on the next series and the 49ers had a 10-0 lead.

Minnesota came back with a touchdown on a 1-yard run by Ted Brown but Wershing added another field goal and San Francisco was up 13-7 after one period.

"The injury bothered me but after the field goal the adrenalin was flowing and you don't think about it," Montana said.

Then came the fateful second period.

"What happened? It's tough to say," said Montana, who completed 17 of 24 passes for 216 yards. "When the momentum starts going one way, it's tough to stop."

It was impossible for the Vikings to stop Thursday. A little more than four minutes into the second period, San Francisco had put three touchdowns on the board and added another for good measure five minutes later.

For more information, phone Bette Jean Gallagher at 276-5319.

A fumble of a handoff between Viking quarterback Tommy Kramer and running back Darrin Nelson with 19 seconds left in the first period set up the first touchdown. Safety Dwight Hicks recovered on the Minnesota 21 and six plays later Montana threw his second touchdown pass of the game, to Earl Cooper, 2 yards over the middle.

Twenty-three seconds later, the 49ers struck again. San Francisco cornerback Eric Wright intercepted his first of three passes and ran unobstructed 60 yards into the end zone.

Dotson nails 17th, though

Pitcher not pleased with effort

CHICAGO (AP) — Chicago White Sox pitcher Rich Dotson is a hard man to please.

Even though he gave up only four hits in eight innings Thursday night, he wasn't happy with his performance in Chicago's 8-5 victory over the California Angels.

"I don't like what went on and I don't like getting behind the hitters," said Dotson, 17-10. "I didn't have the location I would have liked. I was not pleased with my performance."

Chicago Manager Tony LaRussa agreed and said the right-hander was having trouble right from the first inning.

"I thought he struggled most of the game," LaRussa said. "He was rushing at times."

In the only other American League game Thursday, New York downed Milwaukee 6-5. Dotson said that despite a strong offensive effort — including consecutive home runs by Harold Baines and Greg Luzinski during a five-run third inning — the main reason Chicago won was because of several sharp defensive plays.

"I gave them the opportunity to get a lot of runs, but we had some great defensive plays," he said.

One of those plays came from center fielder Rudy Law, who made a diving catch of a sharply hit line drive by Fred Lynn. Another came from first baseman Greg Walker, who robbed a sure hit from Bobby Clark with a leaping grab of another liner.

Dotson walked five and struck out two in seven-plus innings of work. He departed in the top of the eighth after yielding a walk and a double.

For his part, California Manager John McNamara had little to say about the game, except to admit that his injury-plagued team has been suffering most of the season.

"Have you followed us this season?" he said. "Then you know how many players we've had on the disabled list. I think that speaks for itself."

However, McNamara brightened when asked about the brief comeback his team staged in the eighth inning, when it chased Dotson and managed to score four runs on four doubles.

"This ballclub doesn't quit," he said.

Chicago scored twice in the first inning when Baines, who had doubled, and Luzinski, who had walked, scored on Ron Kittle's single.

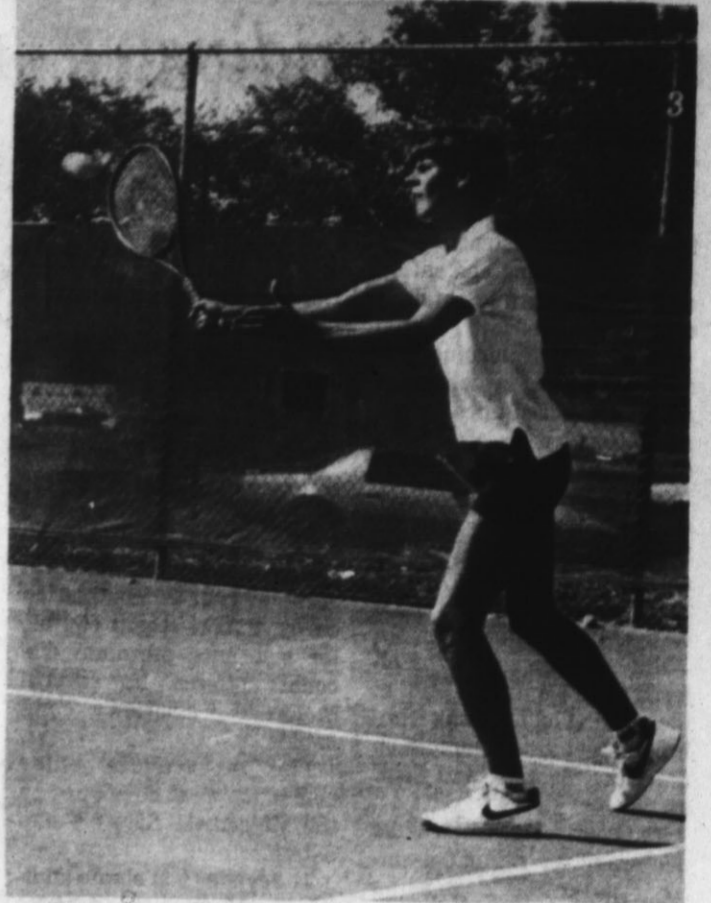

With Kittle on first and Walker on third, Chicago pulled a double steal with Walker scoring and Kittle taking third on a wild throw by California catcher Bob Boone.

The Angels scored their first run in the third when Rod Carew walked and later scored on a single by Doug DeCinces.

But the Sox added five runs in the third inning when Carlton Fisk led off with a single and scored when Baines belted his 14th homer of the season into the bullpen in center. Luzinski followed with his 28th home run, also to center.

The blasts chased losing pitcher Mike Witt, 7-12, and brought in Steve Brown, who walked Walker. Vance Law followed with an RBI double and scored on Scott Fletcher's single.

The Angels closed within 8-5 with four runs in the eighth. Gary Pettis led off with a walk and scored on a double by Rod Carew. Guy Hoffman then replaced Dotson and got an out before DeCinces and Lynn doubled. Brian Downing then doubled off Dennis Lamp for the game's final run.

Braves manage wild win

By DAVE GOLDBERG AP Sports Writer

For the Atlanta Braves, the victory was a little like a scraggly fish. It wasn't pretty, but they sure weren't about to throw it back.

The Braves, who open a crucial three-game series tonight in Los Angeles, stayed two games behind the National League West-leading Dodgers Thursday night by outlasting the San Francisco Giants 12-9.

Atlanta did it after handing the Giants six unearned runs in the first inning and trailing 7-3 after two. They got clutch relief pitching from Gene Garber and mounted a 20-hit attack that included two home runs and four RBI by Dale Murphy and five hits and three RBI by Rafael Ramirez.

"At this time of year, all games are important," Brave Manager Joe Torre said after a game that left him exhausted and drained in the locker room. "But there's no question this win tonight was big. It was important because we came from behind to win after losing a tough one Wednesday night."

The Atlanta-San Francisco game took three hours, 28 minutes, meaning that the Braves knew early they would have win to keep pace with the Dodgers, who topped the Cincinnati Reds 5-2. Bob Welch won his sixth straight game and Mike Marshall had a three-run homer to lead Los Angeles.

In the only other National League game, Houston stayed seven games off the pace by edging San Diego 3-2 in 10 innings.

The Braves, who dropped a 2-1 decision in San Francisco Wednesday night, got off well Thursday as Murphy cracked a three-run homer. But the Giants came back with their six unearned runs in the bottom of the inning as errors by Glenn Hubbard and Chris Chambliss opened the gates.

The Giants picked up another in the second, but the Braves came back with four in the third, two on a homer by Claudell Washington, to tie it at 7-7. Garber, 3-4, shut off a Giant rally that tied it at 9-9 after six, then Murphy blasted a solo home run with two out in the seventh off loser Greg Minton, 6-10, to put the Braves ahead for good.

That left Torre to think about going to Los Angeles, where Phil Niekro will face Alejandro Pena tonight.

"We always talk about winning one game at a time, but we've got to go into Los Angeles thinking sweep," Torre said.

Motorcycle riding safety course set

West Texas State University will offer instruction in motorcycle riding and safety needed for riders to obtain a motorcycle license.

The WTSU Returning Student Program, which coordinates non-credit continuing education, will offer the course beginning Tuesday. In-class instruction will be available from 7 to 9 p.m. on Sept. 13 and 15 and Tuesday and Thursday, Sept. 20 and 22, in Room 112 of Old Main on the WTSU campus.

Riding sessions will be offered from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. at the parking lot of Frank Kimbrough Memorial Stadium on Saturday, Sept. 17 and Sept. 24.

The course will teach skills necessary for riding in traffic, including a session devoted to advanced riding.

Participants must be at least 16 years of age and must have completed an in-class driver's education program. Parental consent must be given for participants younger than 18.

Students will be provided with helmets, and several motorcycles also will be available for the Saturday sessions.

Sharon Jones of Borger will be among the instructors for the course.

Cost is $60 per person. Graduates of the course will receive course completion cards, making them eligible for insurance premium discounts offered by several motorcycle insurance companies.

The motorcycle rider course has been developed by the Motorcycle Safety Foundation.

To register and obtain additional information, persons may contact Jane Kerr at the WTSU Returning Student Program.

Auditions Scheduled

Auditions for Hereford Chamber Singers will be held Sunday at 3 p.m. in the Hereford High School choir room. All interested persons are invited to audition. No

Malt shop theme used for opening party

Toujours Amis Study Club began its club year this week with a party. Members were invited to spend an evening at L & J's Malt Shop, circa 1953.

The "guests" were picked up by bus and taken to the "malt shop," which was located on the patio of Jan Petree's home. There they ordered hamburgers, fries, and sundaes from the menu.

Music from the 1950s was played during the meal and guests enjoyed looking through each others' high school annuals.

After the meal, the guests took part in a hoola-hoop contest, a bubblegum blowing contest and a game of "Name That Tune." Various prizes were awarded, with Melissa Richardson being selected by the judges as "Best Dressed." She was presented a pair of bobby sox.

After yearbooks for the coming year were distributed, members boarded the bus and were driven back to their bus stop.

The yearbook committee, consisting of Ms. Petree, Marsha Winget, Diana White, Rhonda Long, Charlotte Tyler, Rhonda Nieman and Shannon Hagar, served as hostesses for the event.

Other members attending were Nena Veazey, Marilyn Leasure, Robbi Ames, Cindy Black, Leisa Lewis, Teri Morgan, Susan Sublett, Sharon Hodges, Pam Perrin, Beverley Lambert, Lori Hall, Karen Keeling, Laurie Owens, Katy Timmons, Marcia Boyer, and Ms. Richardson.

Arguello aims to 'play music'

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — Alexis Arguello intends to "play the music" tonight in a bid to make boxing history in his rematch with Aaron Pryor for the World Boxing Association junior welterweight championship.

But if the former three-time world champion is to set the tempo he probably will have to survive a rock-and-roll first round.

"He's my type of guy as a fighter," said Emanuel Steward, who took over as Pryor's trainer Aug. 20. "I love a thoroughbred, guys who will leave it all in the ring."

Pryor likes to get out of the gate fast, swarming over an opponent from the opening bell.

The champion almost overwhelmed Arguello in the first round when Arguello first attempted to become the only man to win titles in four weight classes last Nov. 12 at the Orange Bowl in Miami.

and was very much in the fight when Pryor battered him into submission with a lightning barrage in the 14th round.

"Pryor is special," said Arguello, 31. "He has his own style, his own personality. He's unpredictable. With Pryor you never know what to expect."

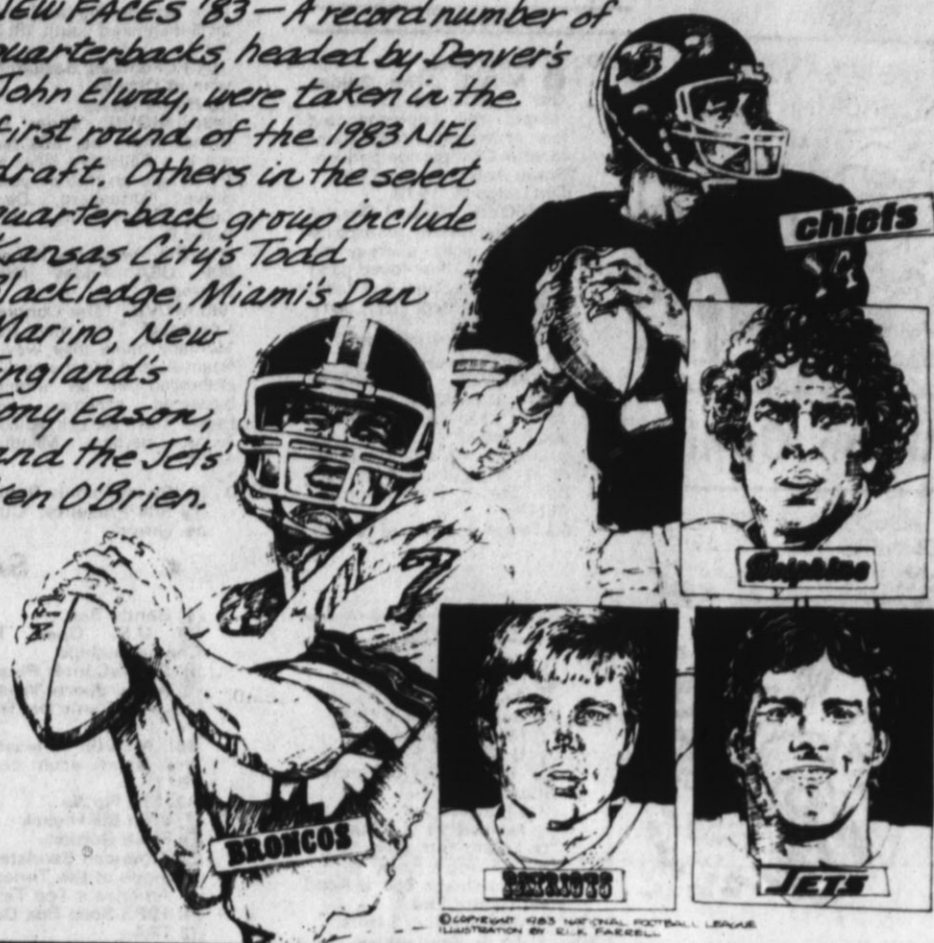

Pryor has been a study in confidence, but says, "I don't underestimate Arguello. He's coming for it. He's coming for his pride."

Arguello, who lives in King's Bay, Fla., is a native of Nicaragua. But because he has criticized the government of his native country no mention of his or Pryor's names can be printed or broadcast there.

The scheduled 15-round fight at a 13,000-seat outdoor arena at Caesars Palace is scheduled to start between 7:45 p.m. and 8 p.m., PDT. It will be seen live on closed-circuit, cable and pay-per-view television.

Lendl rips Wilander; Arias topples Noah

NEW YORK (AP) — Ivan Lendl's methodical march through the United States Open Tennis Championship clearly is becoming more difficult.

Through his first four victories in this richest of all Grand Slam tournaments, Lendl lost just one service game. In Thursday's quarterfinals, however, Sweden's Mats Wilander broke the cool Czech's booming serves three different times.

It hardly mattered, of course, since the second-seeded Lendl continued to destroy his side of the draw with a 6-4, 6-4, 7-6 wipeout of No. 5 Wilander.

That thrust him into Saturday's semifinals against underdog Jimmy Arias, the No. 9 seed who staged a major upset by eliminating fourth-seeded Yannick Noah of France, 7-6, 4-6, 6-3, 1-6, 7-5.

It was the second straight five-set marathon for Arias. That is not Lendl's style. The next set he loses in this tournament will be the first set he loses. Until Wilander, no one has even threatened to win one from Ivan the Wonderful.

Wilander appreciated the fact that he had given Lendl a tougher match than anyone else in the tournament. "I think I'm the closest one to take a set from him and I'm satisfied with that," he said.

Arias, who turned 19 last month, became the youngest semifinalist in the Open era, which began in 1968. He played a memorable match filled with spectacular, often acrobatic shots, against Noah, the French Open champion. The way it started, though, it seemed like it would be a quick exit for the kid from Grand Island, N.Y..

Noah won the first three games of the first set, taking 12 of the match's first 13 points. Arias, who said before the match that he did not think he could beat Noah, was up against textbook tennis.

"The whole first set, he was on top of his game, holding service at love," said Arias. "I thought to myself that I had no chance in this match."

With the score 5-2, Arias staged a comeback and forced a tiebreaker. Then, trailing 4-1, he reeled off six straight points to win the set that had seemed lost.

They split the next two sets and when Noah won the first three games of the fourth set, Arias prepared himself for his second straight five-set match.

"In the fourth set, when I was down 3-0, I threw it away to run him," he said. "I acknowledged we were going to play a fifth set. If he hit the ball too far away, I didn't give it a 100 percent shot running after it. I was going for the corners to keep him running. He doesn't get too tired, but it saved me."

In the fifth set, both players held service until the last game when Arias broke Noah to win the set and the match.

As his prize, Arias gets to play Lendl next. How will he handle the assignment?

"Please," he said, "let me be happy one night."

Red Raiders may still be a year away

AIR FORCE ACADEMY, Colo. (AP) — Few teams in the nation have engaged in such an extensive redshirting program as Texas Tech, which held out 19 players in 1981 and 32 last season.

The object of redshirting is to stockpile talent, giving players, especially freshmen who aren't likely to help you right away, an extra year of eligibility, thus providing more depth and upgrading the overall talent of the squad in the future — usually at the expense of the present.

Jerry Moore sacrificed the present when he arrived at Tech in 1981. A former assistant at Nebraska, where redshirting was a way of life, Moore immediately began building for the future.

His first team was a dismal 1-9-1, but last year the Red Raiders climbed to 4-7 and lost heartbreakers to Washington and SMU, which were ranked No. 1 and No. 2 in the country at the time.

Although Tech has been highly regarded by most pre-season prognosticators this year, Moore believes his team may still be a year away from reaping the full benefits of redshirting.

"We really expect our red-shirt program to begin paying dividends next year and the year after that," said Moore. "I think we're a year away from being a pretty good football team."

The Red Raiders figure to get a good reading about the quality of this year's team when they open the 1983 campaign at Air Force on Saturday in a regionally televised game. Kickoff is at 1:20 p.m. MDT.

The Falcons, 8-5 last year including upsets over Brigham Young and Notre Dame and a Hall of Fame Bowl victory over Vanderbilt, kicked off their season last week with a convincing 34-13 romp over Colorado State.

"I'm impressed with how hard Air Force plays," said Moore. "They play with a high intensity level, and they don't seem to make mistakes.

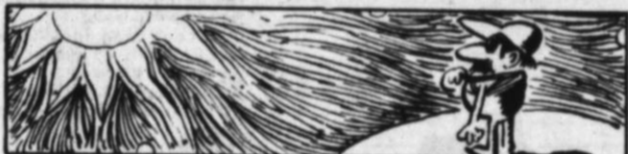

They look to me to be a lot like what SMU was last year. I think Air Force would be right at the top of our league (Southwest Conference)."

Tech is 0-2 in its season openers under Moore. "We haven't played well in either of our openers, but maybe it's been a case of just opening against good teams," said Moore.

The Raiders operate out of the I-formation, with I-back

Robert Lewis expected to see a lot of action. Quarterback Jim Hart is a rollout specialist. Air Force, meanwhile, is one of the nation's most potent wishbone teams, with quarterback Marty Louthan and fullback John Kershner keying the attack.

In the first meeting ever between the two teams last year, Tech rallied for a 31-30 victory in Lubbock.

NBC's 'Godfather' muscles CBS out of first place

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The Corleone crime family helped NBC muscle CBS out of its four-week hold on first place in the Nielsen ratings, as "The Godfather" miniseries grabbed three places in the television Top 10 for the week ended Sept. 4.

Crafted from the feature films "The Godfather" and "The Godfather Part Two" with added footage not shown in the movies, the gangster saga lifted NBC out of the previous week's third-place finish and helped give it a wide margin of victory over second-place CBS. ABC was third.

A pair of crime-fighting brothers, CBS' "Simon & Simon," won the highest rating of the week. The third part of "The Godfather" was second, with part two in fifth place and part four coming in ninth.

The opening chapter of the miniseries aired on Sunday, Aug. 28, and tied for 11th place in the ratings for the previous week.

NBC won first place with a network average of 13.5 in the A.C. Nielsen Co. ratings. The networks say this means that in an average prime-time minute 13.5 percent of the television homes were tuned to NBC. CBS had an average of 12.8, and ABC had 11.3.

Another gang of good guys, NBC's "The A-Team," took fourth place. Altogether, NBC had nine shows in the Top 20.

Here are the Top 20 programs:

1. "Simon & Simon," CBS, a rating of 20.3 or 16.9 million households.
2. Movie—"The Godfather" Part III, NBC, 18.7 or 15.5 million.
3. "Magnum, P.I.," CBS, 18.5 or 15.4 million.
4. "The A-Team," NBC, 18.0 or 14.9 million.
5. Movie—"The Godfather" Part II, NBC, 16.5 or 13.7 million.
6. "Three's Company," ABC, 16.2 or 13.4 million.

7. "The Fall Guy," ABC, 15.9 or 13.2 million.
8. "Miss Teen-USA," CBS, 15.8 or 13.1 million.
9. Movie—"The Godfather" Part IV, NBC, 15.5 or 12.9 million.
10. "Newhart," CBS, 15.1 or 12.5 million.
11. "60 Minutes," CBS, 14.9 or 12.4 million.
11. Tie—"Two Marriages," ABC, 14.9 or 12.4 million.
13. "St. Elsewhere," NBC, 14.6 or 12.1 million.
14. "9 to 5," ABC, 14.5 or 12.0 million.

15. "20-20," ABC, 14.2 or 11.8 million.
16. "Facts of Life," NBC, 14.1 or 11.7 million.
17. "Knight Rider," NBC, 13.8 or 11.4 million.
17. Tie—"M-A-S-H," CBS, 13.8 or 11.4 million.
19. Movie—"Deadly Treasure of the Piranha," NBC, 13.5 or 11.2 million.
19. Tie—"Family Ties," NBC, 13.5 or 11.2 million.

Rodriguez receives award

Armando Rodriguez of 618 Stanton, a Hereford High School graduate, has been awarded a Texas Achievement Award from The University of Texas at Austin.

The awards are granted to selected Texas freshmen who are high-achieving minority and/or culturally disadvantaged students. The competitive selection is based not only on high school performance and entrance examinations, but also on considerations such as participation in extra-curricular activities and part-time work.

The scholarship is an award of $1,500 per academic year for a maximum of five years of undergraduate work.

14. Card of Thanks

CARD OF THANKS
We wish to express our deep gratitude to the many friends for their visits, food, flowers and words of comfort in the loss of our sister. To Rev. Kirby and the staff at Westgate Nursing Home for the care and love that was given Maggie the last 11 years of her life. We wish to thank Dr. Perales and the nurses at the hospital for their concern and care during her brief stay at the hospital. May God bless and keep each of you. The Cocanoughers

WHO AM I?
My college was Northeastern. But I've got honorary degrees from others, including Villanova, Seton Hall and Xavier. My career has taken me from Washington to New York. I've been a public figure for years.
ANSWER: Larry O'Brien, commissioner of the National Basketball Association. He was Kennedy and Johnson.

GREENWOOD BAPTIST CHURCH
Greenwood Baptist Church will begin a six-week Sunday school campaign at 9:45 a.m. Sunday. All are invited to attend.
The new pastor, the Rev. Stephen Forcade, will be directing the classes along the theme, "God...working in me...and my family...through the church...to reach the lost...before he returns."
The campaign will culminate in a five-day revival beginning Oct. 12.

FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH
The new fall term, including the "School for Christian Living" begins on Sunday with an orientation-reception at 9:30 a.m. in the Fellowship Hall. On Sunday evening, from 6 to 7:30 p.m., "New Covenant Bible Study" begins.
Youth choir starts rehearsals at 4:30 p.m. Sunday and children's choirs begin this week, with the exception of Cherub Choir, which will start Oct. 4.
On Saturday, Sept. 17, the youth of the church will sponsor a free car wash as a fund raiser. The youth will enlist sponsors to pledge a certain amount per each car that the entire group washes on that day.

FIRST UNITED METHODIST CHURCH
Teachers in the Sunday School at First United Methodist Church will be honorees on Roundup Sunday, in a worship service featuring special music at 10:55 a.m. and at a Family Night supper at 6:30 p.m.
A consecration service for the teachers will be a part of the morning worship, when five choirs will perform under direction of Jeff Wakeley, minister of music.
The Sanctuary Choir and Youth Singers will be heard in the anthem, "Crown Him With Many Crowns," accompanied by the Brass Experience, comprised of Ray Jenkins, Robert Cox and Christy Burford, trumpets; Chris Crowley, French horn; and Becky Ruland and Kelly Priest, trombones.
Carol and Sunshine Choirs, made up of elementary school children, will sing "With Music I Will Praise Him" accompanied by Tina Langehennig, pianist. The Ladies Handbell Choir will play the introit, "Fanfare" by Mary McCleary.
Music and other entertainment will be on program for the supper, with the Sunday School teachers again as honorees. Barbecue and beans will be served, and those who attend will bring other dishes to complete the meal. Kathy and Troy Don Moore, chairmen of Family Life, are making the arrangements.
Temple Abney is the Sunday School superintendent and Bera Boyd is chairman of the Commission on Education. Coordinators are Cherry McWhorter, children's division; Mark Landrum, youth; and Aileen Montgomery, adult division.
Wilma Clark is Sunday School secretary; Grayce Gray, secretary of the children's division; Eloise McDougal, literature secretary; and Caudie Ola Brown, Joe Hamilton, L.J. Clark, Sharon and Julius Bodner, office assistants.
A contest between classes in the Sunday School will begin Sunday, closing Nov. 13 when losers will entertain the winners. Points will be given for attendance and class projects.

GREENWOOD BAPTIST CHURCH
There will be a meal after the service, beginning at 12:30 p.m. Then at 2 p.m. a service of testimony and remembrance is planned.
Everyone is invited to attend the services on Sunday and join in the 40th anniversary celebration, according to the Rev. Jim Hickman, pastor.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH
Davis served as pastor of the First Baptist Church in Hereford from Dec. 1, 1960 to July 1, 1967. He has also pastored churches in Brownwood, Cisco, Seagraves, San Jose, Calif., and Amarillo, has served as an area missionary and has made seven mission trips to Brazil.
He has held many denominational positions and has participated in a number of crusades, both in the U.S. and abroad.
Davis graduated from Howard Payne College and Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary. He is married and has two married children.
During the morning service, members of Dawn Baptist Church will also be dedicating 14 new faceted windows which were installed in the church auditorium in June.

MATTIX
The accusation was made in July by lawyer Thomas McDade of the Fulbright & Jaworski law firm. McDade said Mattox became angry over a personal matter and threatened to use the power of the state to put the Houston law firm out of the public bond business.
Mattox has strongly denied making any such threat. "I never threatened anyone. I warned them what their own conduct would bring about," he said Thursday.
However, Mattox would not acknowledge to news reporters the existence of any tape recordings, which were referred to in a letter he wrote on Wednesday authorizing their release. The letter was published Thursday by The Dallas Times Herald.

DAWN BAPTIST CHURCH
Members of Dawn Baptist Church will celebrate the church's 40th anniversary on Sunday. The Rev. B.L. Davis, who is director of missions for the Amarillo Baptist Association, will be speaking during the morning service at 10:30 a.m.
Davis graduated from the First Baptist Church in Hereford from Dec. 1, 1960 to July 1, 1967. He has also pastored churches in Brownwood, Cisco, Seagraves, San Jose, Calif., and Amarillo, has served as an area missionary and has made seven mission trips to Brazil.

CHURCH OF THE NAZARENE
A group from Hereford Church of the Nazarene will be going to Amarillo Saturday evening to hear Dave Stanley, stepbrother of the late Elvis Presley.
Stanley will be speaking at Amarillo First Church of the Nazarene, located at 1924 S. Polk, at 7:30 p.m. Saturday. A bus will leave from the local church at 6 p.m. that day. Interested persons are invited to attend.

CHURCH OF THE NAZARENE
The contents of these tapes will conclusively establish the falsity of any testimony before the grand jury that I threatened to "put the law firm of Fulbright & Jaworski out of the bond business," Mattox said in the letter, according to the Times Herald.
The letter was addressed to Robert O. Smith, Mitchell's personal attorney. Mitchell apparently had personal possession of the recording.
After testifying for about 15 minutes, Mattox told reporters that the grand jury

Probe to continue next week with more witnesses

AUSTIN (AP) — Attorney General Jim Mattox has now testified three times before a Travis County grand jury that has been investigating him for the past two months, but the probe is not over yet.
District Attorney Ronnie Earle said it will continue next week with more witnesses. He said he hopes the matter can be wrapped up by the end of the month, when the grand jury's term expires.
So far 20 people have been summoned before the secret panel, including some called more than once.
Mattox, making his third appearance on Thursday, was ordered to produce a tape recording of a key telephone conversation, which grand jurors sought apparently in hopes it could shed light on an accusation that Mattox threatened a law firm.
The accusation was made in July by lawyer Thomas McDade of the Fulbright & Jaworski law firm. McDade said Mattox became angry over a personal matter and threatened to use the power of the state to put the Houston law firm out of the public bond business.
Mattox has strongly denied making any such threat. "I never threatened anyone. I warned them what their own conduct would bring about," he said Thursday.

Rev. B.L. Davis

DEAR DR. LAMB — As the saying goes, "If you want to find out what's wrong with a man, ask his wife." My husband has a health problem. He smokes too much and sleeps too much. He smokes about two packs of cigarettes a day.
We both get up at the same time to go to work and he is home a few hours before 1 a.m. By 8 p.m. he is sound asleep.
He is overweight and gets depressed about his weight. Diets are out because he can't follow them. His eating habits are terrible.
At one time he was in excellent physical condition. He would work out, lift weights and play sports. That was only three years ago. He is only 24 and I fear he is becoming an old man before his time.
I have been dieting as an incentive for him but it hasn't helped. Is there anything that can be done?

DEAR DR. LAMB — Many exercise bikes can be set at different resistances which affects how much work you actually do. I can't give you a rule that will apply to all indoor bikes, but you may be able to convert from a standard outdoor bike to your bike on the basis of data that comes with your own bike.
Remember that it takes twice as many calories to walk as to ride a bike the same mile, and it takes three times as much energy to jog the same mile. You can assign a relative value of 1, 2 and 3 for biking, walking and jogging respectively.
If your exercise bike is set to give you the same resistance you would have with outdoor biking and you biked 20 miles a day, it would be similar to walking 10 miles a day. And it is easier on your joints.

DEAR READER — There is a lot that can be done — the problem is getting him to do it. That is true of many people. It is not knowing what you should or should not do but the motivation to do something about it.
You might point out to him that statistics from the American Cancer Society show that smokers who smoke 40 or more cigarettes a day are five and a half times as likely to have heart disease or drop dead as nonsmokers.
Being overweight is frequently associated with an increase in cholesterol and blood pressure, the other two major risk factors associated with heart attacks and strokes.
Your husband needs to take a positive attitude toward his health. Plan an exercise program you can do

Our blessings that have come to pass,
We tend to disregard;
Because we see the greenest grass
In someone else's yard.
The magic thing we call success
Eludes us, come what may;
And thus it seems that happiness
Will never come our way.
However, through the Church we find
That there's no need to roam,
For happiness and peace of mind
Are always close to home.
So, don't go searching all around,
And some day you'll agree:
The greenest grass of all is found
Wherever you may be!
