Schultz says US has right to be in Gulf

HELSINKI, Finland (AP) — Secretary of State George P. Shultz said the United States does not intend to be drawn into the Persian Gulf war but is determined to defend its ships against Iranian attack.

"We are there in a non-confrontational way," he said Tuesday. "We and others have a right to unimpeded access to the international waterways, and we protect that right."

Shultz spoke to reporters on his flight from Washington. He was to rest in Helsinki and prepare for three days of talks in Moscow beginning on Thursday.

Shultz is holding monthly meetings with Foreign Minister Eduard A. Shevardnadze to prepare for the summit meeting in Moscow May 29-June 2.

He said the two sides had made "some modest progress" toward a treaty to reduce their strategic nuclear weapons arsenals by 30 to 50 percent.

"But it's tough going," Shultz said. President Reagan and General Secretary Mikhail S. Gorbachev are to sign the treaty at their fourth and probably final summit.

However, an official said Monday that 1,200 items of disagreement were in U.S. and Soviet drafts of the treaty. The official, who spoke on condition of anonymity, acknowledged that the treaty may not be ready.

Recognizing this, Shultz said the Moscow summit may be mostly a "very businesslike discussion of substantive issues across the board."

Shultz said he found it difficult to analyze Iran's motives in attacking ships in the Persian Gulf and firing on U.S. vessels and aircraft on Monday, given vastly superior U.S. firepower.

He said the Iranian mine that damaged the U.S. frigate Samuel B. Roberts in the central gulf last week, prompting the Navy's retaliatory raid on two Iranian oil platforms in the gulf on Monday, may have been laid "carelessly."

But while "it may be a mistake to attribute too much coherency of strategy to Iran," Shultz said, the mine was bound to hit almost any shallow draft ship that came along.

"From our standpoint, we're not wanting to be engaged in a confrontation with Iran," Shultz said. "We're not taking sides in the war" with Iraq.

"What we are doing," he said, "is asserting our right to self-defense when a country violates that right by putting mines in a place where it's known that our ships will go."

The navy sank or damaged six Iranian warships in Monday's warfare.

On another matter, Shultz said he had no information to link Israel to the "political assassination" of Khalil al-Wazir, a top official of the Palestine Liberation Organization and close associate of PLO chairman Yasser Arafat.

Al-Wazir, military commander of the PLO, was killed in his home in Tunisia by masked commandos Saturday. A Tunisian inquiry concluded Monday that Israel conducted the attack.

Israeli sources confirmed privately to The Associated Press that Israeli forces killed al-Wazir. The Israeli government has not confirmed this.

He said the United States had no knowledge of the attack "before it took place or since it has taken place."

At the same time, Shultz said "political assassination, in our book, is something to be condemned, and we said so."

Floridians recover after twister

MADISON Fla. (AP) — Residents began rebuilding their lives and towns today after Florida's worst tornado in two decades killed four people and left millions of dollars in damage. A college was ruined but its 2,000 students were spared.

"Thankfully, it happened when it did and not four or five hours later because the death toll would probably have been in the hundreds," said William H. McCoy, president of North Florida Community College.

The tornado struck at 4:30 a.m. Tuesday, tossing families out of bed while windows exploded and their homes collapsed on them. It left 18 people injured and a 12-mile-long, half-mile-wide path of destruction in which 17 homes were destroyed, authorities said.

Gov. Bob Martinez, after assessing the damage in a helicopter, declared a state of emergency, paving the way for state agencies to assist Madison County in cleanup efforts.

"I haven't seen one of these since one came through my hometown (Tampa) back in 1966 or 1967," the governor said. The tornado was Florida's worst since one crossed the state from Clearwater to Cape Kennedy in 1966, killing 11 and injuring 400 people.

Gordon Guthrie, director of the state's Division of Emergency Management, said his agency would complete a detailed damage assessment today, possibly leading to federal aid.

The tornado was one of four that struck Florida in stormy weather

Tuesday, destroying several homes elsewhere and heavily damaging others. Twisters also struck Colorado, North Carolina and California, although no major damage was reported.

In Madison, only rubble was left in some neighborhoods and the mobile home of two of those killed vanished from its lot, leaving only foundation blocks, authorities said.

"I woke up with a roaring sound and as soon as I woke up, the windows blew out on both sides of my bed, and the roof came down on top of me," said Mitchell May, who was pinned in the debris for three hours.

Twelve of the junior college's 14 major buildings were heavily damaged and at least three were destroyed, said McCoy, who estimated damage to the campus at between $20 million and $25 million.

Among the buildings destroyed was a new regional library, which had not yet opened, that was to serve the college and county public schools, and the campus chapel and a fine arts building.

State Insurance Commissioner Bill Gunter, who toured the area, said the campus buildings would be covered by a state insurance pool as well as with federal funds.

The four county residents killed included Lavelle and Robert McCullough, both in their 60s, whose bodies were found 100 yards from their vanished mobile home several miles northeast of town.

Letters to the Editor

To The Editor:

Thank you, Katherine Seewald, for your accurate perception of the trouble at W.T.S.U. I received two degrees from W.T. and did graduate work in five of the large universities. Before retirement, I taught 19 years in the school of business—18 of them in accounting. Therefore, I feel qualified to express my opinion. My views are those of the many here who dare not speak. We have a high class faculty of dedicated, professional scholars who have made this University what it is. They are hurt and angry to see it destroyed.

Change is inevitable, and the faculty can and will accept it. They ask for their input of ideas, since they are the ones with the knowledge. No one man can make intelligent Machiavellian decisions about all the areas of learning here. The administration says W.T. should be operated as a corporation. Heaven forbid that we turn out corporate raiders! Juggernaut tactics have driven the faculty to its first revolt against the administration.

I challenge Dr. Roach to publish his reorganization plan so the public can see how he is crowding departments in fewer buildings to save electricity and demolishing needed buildings. One department was moved, its $46,000 worth of equipment is sitting on the students' desks because there is no place to put it. It cannot be used because there are no electrical outlets in the room. But it saves electricity!

Why should nursing and agriculture be in the same department with a dean who is a biology teacher? He is a fine scholarly gentleman, but does he know anything about nursing or agriculture? Big is not better. My department head was an accounting teacher across the hall. We had many short exchanges of information. We knew our students personally and knew when to offer the different advanced courses. This saved money for W.T., and I know of no student who failed to get his degree on time because a needed course was not offered. Now this closeness is gone.

I want to make four recommendations:

First—Employ an independent firm of C.P.A.s to audit the records and publish truths. Did Pickets give us $600,000 cash or a much over-valued oil well? No one knows where that money is.

Second—Fire Dr. Roach. In 1986, 87% of the faculty voted a no confidence. Many asked him to resign. His answer was arrogance and vindictiveness. He fired teachers who disagreed with him. Many of our young teachers left us. Some are counting their years until retirement. He has lost the respect and confidence of the faculty.

He should publish his "master plan" for tearing down good buildings and building more. Why is he now asking for bids to demolish one good dormitory and planning to build another in three years? Old Main was built about 1914, but it is probably the best building on campus. It needs extensive repairs, but should a part of the $5 million be spent on a palatial office for Dr. Roach? Is it true your office will be two stories high? Does that save space and utility costs?

It's rumored that Roach spent about $60,000 on his office in another building and bought silver flatware so he would not have to eat with the same quality hardware he asks his faculty to use. Did you remove 14 department heads, cutting their salaries $1,000 each and give each of the present deans a $10,000 raise in salary? Where have you saved money?

Third—Rid us of T. Boone Pickets. He uses W.T. in two ways. His goal is to give the school to Amarillo or rename it with Amarillo's name. He uses W.T. as a ploy for personal aggrandizement. It is anathema to people here that he tacked his name onto the School of Business. A recent magazine published by the University had lengthy articles about Boone and Bea with three pictures of them. Self adulation usually backfires.

Fourth—Get rid of the rubber stamp Board of Regents. Their answer to the problems was to vote unanimously to support Roach and to extend his contract three years. The last three regents to be appointed were quoted in the Amarillo paper as to their views in combining W.T. and Amarillo College. They did not say no. That is sheer stupidity. A.C. is a good school. I have had many of their students in advanced accounting classes, and they were well prepared. I am sure their other departments are equally fine. Our purposes differ. A.C. can serve needs we cannot. I am glad they have the freedom to offer classes in poodle grooming and gift wrapping. They take care of needs we cannot.

This Board has made no effort to see the problem here. They have insulted the intelligence of the faculty. Their answer has been a juggernaut display of power.

W.T. is not just the present student body and faculty. It belongs to the thousands who have attended school here or supported us in any way.

I am asking all of you to help us. A cosmetic patch up won't work. I wish to publicly thank Sybil Harrington for the many millions she has given W.T. and the museum here. She has remained a gracious lady, loved and respected by all of us.

Help us to throw off our yoke so we can begin a constructive program to restore our honor.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor

Once again, we have seen proof of the type of people that make up our neighbors, friends, and fellow citizens of this wonderful community in which we are privileged to live.

The occasion that I speak is the Second Annual Casey Smith Memorial Exhibition Basketball Game between the Channel 10 Longrangers and the coaching staff of the Hereford Schools. Because of the continued support of the community for this project, and other continuous support of the sales of the book, other contributions to the scholarship fund, and memorial tributes made to the scholarship fund at the time of loss of loved ones, the scholarship continues to grow.

Again, this year, the Dorman Smith Family and the Hereford Key Club will be presenting a deserving Senior with a thousand-dollar scholarship, with the hope that soon, this will increase in the number of scholarships offered.

We would like to thank all who supported our project, to Channel 10 Longrangers, to those who gave items to be auctioned, and a special thanks to the large number of Hereford Coaches who participated, and the business people and all who purchased tickets and bid on the auction items.

Ann Landers

DEAR ANN LANDERS: I'm writing to voice my opinion on two controversial issues: teenage sex and pregnancy. What I want to know is why are so many teenage girls ruining their lives by having sex with a guy who probably won't be around long?

My best friend is pregnant. She is only 15 years old. She lost her virginity a year ago. Another good friend also lost her virginity at 14 and became pregnant. A third friend is three weeks late and scared to death that she is pregnant. She has no idea who the father might be.

Why don't these girls who are sexually active and getting pregnant realize how foolish they are? The guys who pressure them to have sex are just using them. They get what they want and are on their way at the first sign of trouble. These good-time Charlies never give a thought to using protection because they seem to think it's the girl's responsibility to take care of herself.

What I want to say to every teenage girl is this: If you haven't had sex, DON'T. It's a bad scene once you cross that line and your life will never be the same. If you are already having sex make certain that the guy cares enough about you to take precautions. If he refuses tell him to get lost. He's selfish and inconsiderate.—Holding Out in San Antonio

DEAR SAN AN: Thank you for a letter that will surely be read by a few million teenagers, boys as well as girls. Your message is powerful and you said it a lot better than I could. Are you listening, out there? She's talking to you.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: A very nice man was a good friend to me over several years. There was never anything sexual between us. He was like a brother. I rarely saw him, but we talked on the phone occasionally. Every once in a while he would stop by to see my children.

When I had spinal meningitis he came to the hospital to see me. He very thoughtfully checked on my children from time to time. A couple months before I became ill he married. Because I was sick for so long, I never got around to meeting his wife.

To show my appreciation, I wanted to give them something special for a wedding present. I decided to make a quilt.

I worked for hours on it, put in every stitch by hand. That quilt would sell for at least $400. When it was finished I gift-wrapped it up and sent it to "Mr. and Mrs...."

A week later I received the quilt back with a nasty letter from his wife. She wrote: "I do not appreciate packages sent to my husband. I hope you will never contact him again."

That note made me physically sick. I put the quilt on my closet shelf and can't bring myself to look at it.

Was I wrong to send this gift? I thought I was doing a very nice thing. Please reply in the paper and sign me—heartsick in Galveston.

DEAR GAL: Your friend's wife must have felt threatened. Apparently she is terrible insecure. Her behavior was inexcusably cruel.

Stay away from that couple. In time they may offer an olive branch, but I'd be mighty cautious in accepting it.

How much do you know about pot, cocaine, LSD, PCP, crack, speed and downers? Think you can handle them? For up-to-the minute information on drugs, write for Ann Landers' newly revised booklet, "The Lowdown on Dope." Send $3 plus a self-addressed, stamped No. 10 envelope (45 cents postage) to Ann Landers, P.O. Box 11562, Chicago, Ill. 60611-0562.

Family film to be shown Thursday

"Savannah Smiles" is the family film to be presented free of charge at 7 p.m. Thursday in the Deaf Smith County Library Heritage Room.

This is a heart-warming movie about a six-year-old girl who suddenly becomes the traveling companion of two crazy criminals. Neglected by her preoccupied parents, Savannah stows away in the back seat of the duo's get-away car. It's constant fun and excitement as the two criminals try to return Savannah safely home with the cops hot on their trail.

HOUSEHOLD SOLUTIONS

NEW YORK (AP) — Some practical solutions from Family Circle magazine to make common household chores easier:

— Refrigerating Bananas: To keep bananas from turning black in the refrigerator, put them into a white (not transparent) plastic bag and store in the crisper drawer. Days later the skins will be as yellow as the first day.

— Slide Renewer: The "zip" on a swing-set slide can be renewed with spray starch. Cover the slide with a generous coating, wipe with a paper towel, then watch as the youngsters come speeding down.

— Fat Free: To separate fat from soup stock, pour the stock into a jar, screw the lid on and store upside-down in the refrigerator. The fat will solidify at the bottom of the jar, allowing you to easily pour out the soup.

Doctor recommends television education

By the time the average child finishes high school, he or she will have spent 15,000 hours in front of the television set, compared with 11,000 hours spent in the classroom. Many doctors believe excessive television viewing by children reinforces destructive behaviors such as alcohol abuse, obesity, violence and sexual maladjustment. Stephen W. Ponder, M.D., Kempner Fellow, Pediatrics, at The University of Texas Medical Branch at Galveston (UTMB) says pediatricians and other health professionals should identify families at risk and provide guidance toward proper television viewing.

In an article published in the March issue of Texas Medicine, Dr. Ponder concludes that future physicians should be trained to understand the impact of television on the health and well being of children. He indicates that most medical school have no such training in the curriculum.

"The only activity that occupies more of a child's time is sleep," Dr. Ponder says. He calls television a pervasive force in society and says because most children get their first exposure to the world through television, their view of the world could be distorted.

Alcohol use is one example of maladaptive behavior reinforced on television, Dr. Ponder says. Often, television shows alcohol use as a social facilitator, a tool for crisis management and a method of escape from reality and fails to show any negative consequences as a result of drinking.

Childhood obesity, the most common form of malnutrition in the United States, can also be related to excessive television viewing, he says. Data obtained from the National Health Examination survey of more than 11,000 children, indicate that for each hourly increase in viewing time, there is a two percent increase in the prevalence of obesity. "Obesity should always trigger inquiries about television viewing," Dr. Ponder says.

Unhealthy behavior in children is attributed also to exposure to television violence. Dr. Ponder says excessive exposure to violence on television leads to subsequent violent acts and aggressive feelings in children desensitizes children to acts of aggression by others.

"Television does affect health behaviors of children," Dr. Ponder says. Pediatricians should incorporate anticipatory guidance for television viewing into well-child visits starting no later than the four-year visit. He offers the following suggestions to parents:

- Watch television with the child and discuss the program and commercial content.
- Restrict overall TV viewing.
- Be aware of what the child watches.
- Limit the amount of snack foods allowed during viewing.

Rangers beat Indians, 3-0

Guzman hurls shutout

By CHUCK MELVIN
 AP Sports Writer

CLEVELAND (AP) — Instead of letting the flu get him down, Jose Guzman used the cold weather in Cleveland Stadium to his advantage.

"I threw the fastball inside, because when it's cold, it's hard for hitters to hit the inside fastball," the Texas right-hander said Tuesday night after he threw six shutout innings in the Rangers' 3-0 victory over the Indians.

With temperatures in the upper 30s, Guzman, 2-1, allowed four singles, walked one and struck out three before tiring after six innings.

Rookie Jose Cecena gave up two hits in 2 1-3 innings and Mitch Williams retired the final two hitters for his fifth save, giving the Rangers their second shutout of the year.

"I was feeling a little bit weak and just tried to go as far as I could," Guzman said. "I figured I didn't want to go farther and mess up everything I'd done."

The Indians, whose five-game winning streak ended, were not overly impressed with Guzman's work.

"It was lucky. We hit a lot of balls hard but they went right at people," said Scott Bailes, 1-1, who pitched his second complete game but became the first Cleveland starter to lose this season. "There are times when you're going to get shut out."

Bailes wasn't overwhelmed by his own work, either.

"I was getting behind in the count a lot," he said. "I was 3-0 on a lot of hitters. I really can't afford to do that. I only gave up three runs, but I never really felt like I was in control."

The Rangers scored twice in the first on a two-out, bases-loaded single by Larry Parrish after the inning was extended on a sloppy play by Cleveland second baseman Julio Franco. Franco misjudged a high pop-up by Pete Incaviglia that wound up falling into short right for a double.

"The ball was foul when it started," Franco said. "I broke one way and it just kept tailing and tailing. It's just one of those things."

The double sent Jerry Browne to third, and Pete O'Brien walked to load the bases for Parrish, who grounded a single to center for his only hit of the night.

"When you're hitting .080, 1-for-4 looks pretty good," Parrish said. "I didn't exactly drill it, but I hit it where nobody was."

Cecil Espy doubled, stole third and scored on Browne's single in the second for the Rangers' third run. It marked the first time this year the Indians have trailed by three runs.

They threatened to score off Guzman only once, when Franco walked and Willie Upshaw singled with one out in the sixth. Pat Tabler then hit a one-hopper that Guzman knocked down and threw to first for the second out. Joe Carter grounded out to end the inning.

"I felt we'd have beat him if Tabby's ball would have gone through," said Cleveland manager Doc Edwards. "Guzman helped his own cause there. He just threw his glove down and got it."

Guzman, whose ERA dropped to 1.57, hasn't allowed an earned run in his last 15 innings.

The shutout was the first against the Indians since Seattle's Mike Morgan blanked them 7-0 last Sept. 8. The loss was only their second in the last 13 games.

HOMESTEAD EXEMPTIONS

CAN LOWER THE PROPERTY TAXES ON YOUR HOME

A homestead exemption lowers the property taxes on your home by lowering its taxable value. For example, if your home is valued at $50,000 and you receive a $5,000 homestead exemption, your home will be taxed as if it were worth only $45,000.

You qualify for a homestead exemption if you owned your home on January 1 and used it as your primary residence on January 1. It doesn't matter whether your home is a house, a condominium or a mobile home.

Exemptions are available to all homeowners to lower their school taxes. Additional exemptions are available to homeowners who are disabled or age 65 and over. Other exemptions may be offered to homeowners by school districts, counties, cities, and special districts. All taxing units offer exemptions to disabled veterans.

LAND PRODUCTIVITY VALUATION

MAY LOWER THE PROPERTY TAXES ON YOUR FARM, RANCH OR TIMBERLAND

Texas law provides farmers and ranchers with a way to lower their property taxes, known as productivity valuation.

If you qualify, your agricultural land will be taxed on its capacity to produce crops, livestock, or timber, instead of its value on the real estate market. Productivity valuation can lower the taxable value of your land, and lower your property taxes as a result.

If your land has never received productivity valuation, you must apply to the appraisal district by April 30 to get tax benefits for 1988. You can choose from two types of productivity valuation.

If your land already receives open-space or timber (1-d-1) valuation, you don't need to reapply unless the chief appraiser requires you to. But remember, you must apply every year for ag-use (1-d) valuation.

For more information and application forms, contact the appraisal district office at the address shown below:

PROPERTY TAX RENDITIONS

HELP YOU PROTECT YOUR RIGHTS AS A TAXPAYER

A rendition is a report to the appraisal district that lists all the taxable property you own or control on January 1, 1988. You may also give your opinion of the property's value, if you wish.

You must file a rendition if you own tangible personal property used to produce income—such as the machinery and equipment used by a business.

The appraisal district may require any taxpayer to file a rendition by sending the taxpayer a written notice and a rendition form.

You may want to file a rendition, even if you aren't required to file, to preserve some of your rights as a taxpayer:

- You put your correct mailing address on record so your tax bills will go to the right address. If your bill is mailed to the wrong address, the law still holds you responsible for paying your taxes on time or paying extra charges for late payments.
- You can put your own opinion of your property's value on record.

Brenham pitcher wins record 35th straight game

BRENHAM, Texas (AP) — Jon Peters allowed six hits and struck out nine as he pitched Brenham to a 12-2 victory over Waller in a District 10-4A baseball game Tuesday night that stretched his consecutive career high school record to 35 wins without a loss over three seasons.

Peters established a new national high school record a week earlier in a one-hit victory over Conroe Oak Ridge.

Peters is 7-0 this season with 89 strikeouts in 47 innings. He has allowed only 4 earned runs all season for Brenham, the two-time defending state champions of Class 4A. The Cubs, who have been ranked No. 1 all season, improved their record to 21-3.

Both runs against Peters came on a 2-run home-run he gave up in the first inning.

Peters was 1-for-4 at the plate during the game. He drove in a run with a third-inning triple.

In the 84 World Series played, the American League has won 49 and the National League has taken 35.

The Minnesota Twins drew 29 walks in the 1987 World Series to only 13 for the St. Louis Cardinals.

You're Cooking Now

BY GAYE B. KELLY
Staff Writer

The skill of cooking means many things to many people, but Shari Gerke gives it a new twist: she loves to read cookbooks.

"I know people may find it strange, but I can spend an entire Sunday afternoon reading my cookbooks. It's one of my hobbies," laughed the green-eyed lady with auburn hair.

Married to Mike Gerke, Shari can't devote quite as much time to such a unique hobby since the arrival of Darren, now seven months old. "I enjoy taking walks with Darren and I also enjoy cross stitch, tile painting, and painting with oils and acrylics," she said. "I even play golf occasionally, but that is the extent of my athletics."

The family, members of St. Anthony's Catholic Church, has resided in Herford for the past two years. Gerke did work for Property Enterprises but now stays home at 147 Ironwood to take care of Darren. Husband Mike is employed by Excel Corp. in Friona as a maintenance and engineering manager. Both were raised in Missouri.

"I was raised on a farm near Boon-vile, Mo., and Mike grew up on a farm about 13 miles away. We dated in high school and then married a short six or seven years later," she laughed. "We've been married 3 1/2 years."

Gerke attended Southwest Missouri State University in Springfield, Mo., and majored in nursing. "I got through the hard subjects, like chemistry, then decided I didn't like a hospital environment. So I changed my major to finance and general business," she said.

The couple left Missouri for Dodge City, Kans., then moved to Plainview, Texas, and eventually, Herford. "We were struck by how friendly Herford is. People here made us feel welcome and at home right away, which is important since we have no family in the area," she said.

Having been raised on a farm, the Gerkes' favorite types of food include fruits and meats. "We ate a lot of pork back in Missouri and we still enjoy it," she said. "One of my favorite recipes is for Pork Chops Gratinier because it is so easy and can be made in the same pan."

Taught by her mother to cook,

Gerke admits that Mike was the better cook when they married. "He has taught me a lot about cooking. He cooks outside all the time; we barbecue almost everything."

Gerke, who loves spicy foods, enjoys entertaining friends with snack-type dishes. "It's a real treat to me when I can make appetizers and desserts. We don't snack and I hate chocolate, so I never make these types of food for the family."

Gerke's recipes, including Pork Chops Gratinier, follow:

PARTY MEATBALLS

- 2 lbs. ground beef
- 1 c. corn flake crumbs
- 1/2 c. dry parsley flakes
- 3/4 tsp. garlic powder
- 3 Tbsp. instant minced onion
- 4 eggs
- 3 Tbsp. soy sauce
- 1/2 tsp. pepper
- 1/3 c. catsup

Combine all ingredients, pack into firm balls and place in a 9x13" baking dish. Top with sauce, which follows.

SAUCE

- 1 lb. can jellied cranberry sauce
 - 1 1/2 oz. bottle chili sauce
 - 3 Tbsp. brown sugar
 - 3 Tbsp. lemon juice
- Cook ingredients in saucepan over moderate heat, stirring until melted and smooth. Pour over meatballs and bake uncovered for 30 minutes at 375 degrees or until done. Makes about 80 small meatballs in sauce.

CRAB RANGOON

- 1 egg
 - 8 oz. box cream cheese
 - 1 - 4 1/2 oz. can of crab meat
 - squeeze of lemon
 - small wonton wraps
- Mix together cream cheese, crab, and lemon. Spoon mixture onto wonton wraps, fold up corners and seal with beaten egg. Deep fry for 3 minutes.

PORK CHOPS GRATINIER

- 6-8 pork chops
 - 1 lb. fresh mushrooms
 - white wine, 1/2 to 3/4 c.
 - lemon juice, about 2 Tbsp.
 - 1/2 c. heavy cream
 - dash nutmeg
 - 8 oz. Swiss cheese, grated
- Brown chops in butter. Placed cooked chops on oven-proof platter. Sauté mushrooms in butter and pork drippings; cook 5-10 minutes, spread over chops.

To drippings add wine, lemon juice, cream and nutmeg. Heat through and pour sauce over chops and mushrooms. Top with Swiss cheese.

Place in 500 degree oven for 5 minutes to melt and brown cheese. Garnish with lemon slices and parsley.

PECAN TARTS

- 1 stick margarine
 - 1-3 oz. pkg. cream cheese
 - 1 1/4 c. sifted flour
- Mix together. Make small balls, press into small (bite-size) tart tins and shape with thumb into crusts. Add filling:

FILLING

- 3/4 c. brown sugar
- 1 Tbsp. melted butter
- 1/4 tsp. vanilla
- 1/8 tsp. salt
- 1 Tbsp. dark syrup
- 3/4 c. chopped pecans
- 1 egg, slightly beaten

Mix all ingredients for filling together. Fill crust with filling; bake at 350 degrees for 15 minutes, reduce oven temperature to 250 degrees and bake 10 more minutes.

Remove from pans as soon as possible and place on plate to cool.

- Sift together:
- 2 c. sifted flour
 - 2 tsp. sugar
 - 3 tsp. baking powder
 - 1 tsp. salt
- Cut in finely, with pastry blender: 1/3 c. shortening
- Stir in, just until blended: 1 c. milk
- Spread dough into greased pan. Dot with butter. Bake at 450 degrees for 12-15 minutes; top with berries and whipped topping.

Man given 30 days
Kitten killed in microwave

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A man was sentenced to 30 days in jail for killing his wife's kitten by cooking it in a microwave oven.
 George Jimenez, 26, of suburban Atwater, pleaded no contest to one count of cruelty to animals in the Sept. 16 death of the cat.
 He was in a drunken rage when he killed the animal because his wife went to a movie with a female friend, authorities said.
 In addition to the jail term, Jimenez was ordered Monday to either pay a $150 fine or spend another five additional days in jail and was placed on two years' probation.
 During the probation, Jimenez must undergo counseling and is forbidden to harass his wife, said Deputy City Attorney Katherine MacKenzie.

Nominations for Pioneer Woman of the Plains needed

The 60th Pioneer Round-Up, scheduled for Saturday, May 21, in Plainview, will, for the 29th year, honor a pioneer woman of this area.
 Deadline for nominations for the "Pioneer Woman of the Plains" has been set for May 6, according to Charlotte Malone, chairman of the program committee. The Plainview Business and Professional Women's Club is the sponsoring organization of the Pioneer Round-Up.
 Entry blanks for the "Pioneer Woman of the Plains" have been mailed to civic clubs, women's clubs and organizations in Plainview and surrounding areas. Individuals may also submit names to be considered for this honor. All entries must be signed by the organization or individual who is submitting the letter of nomination and must state whether or not she would be able to attend the Round-Up, if selected. The nominee must have been a pioneer resident of the High Plains and be at least 80 years of age. Of most importance, this woman should be one of the early settlers to make her home on the Plains and have a true "pioneer" spirit. A short biography of the nominee must be submitted, including her outstanding contributions to the home, church, community and general welfare of her fellowman.

A group of judges will select the winner based on information submitted. The number of times a person is nominated will have no effect on the selection of the honoree. All entries must be postmarked no later than May 6. Entry blanks and additional information may be obtained by contacting Mrs. Malone, 293-3635 or 293-7481.
 Announcement of the "Pioneer Woman of the Plains" will be made at the evening activities of the 60th Pioneer Round-Up during the program beginning at 8 p.m. at the Ollie Liner Center.
 Pat Ray, president of the Plainview BPW Club, said other events of this year's Round-Up include the reception beginning at 10 a.m., honoring all pioneers; parade at 2:30 p.m.; the supper beginning at 6 p.m.; the program at 8 p.m. and the square dance following at 9 p.m., all in the Ollie Liner Center on the south edge of Plainview on Highway 87.

Wild flowers have been known to bloom in the Arctic—even at the edge of glaciers.

Mall-walk popular form of exercise

A few years ago, Michael Jackson had us all doing the moonwalk. Now, times have changed and another kind of walk—the "mall walk" is trendy and physically beneficial.

Across the nation, shopping malls are filled with health conscious walkers who are strutting the length of each arcade of shops, according to a report by the JCPenClub Newsline, a newsletter published by the J.C. Penney Co. It's a fun, engaging, and easy way to exercise—especially for the over-50 set, explains the newsletter.

Julius Bodner, manager of the J.C. Penney store at Sugarland Mall, reports that Hereford is no exception to the mall-walk trend. He says a regular group of walkers can be seen each morning, about 8 to 9 a.m. making the mall walk locally.

Walking is the easiest, most natural aerobic exercise. There is no training involved and all we need to do is perfect our technique and speed up the pace a little to reap the rewards, reports Newsline.

Walking burns calories. An average-size person who walks along at three miles per hour burns 72 calories a mile. The faster you walk, the more calories you burn.

"Fifty Plus" magazine reports just nine miles of walking per week noticeably lowers the risk of heart attack. In addition to being a healthy aerobic exercise, walking stretches and tones muscles. The mall walk is popular, explains Newsline, because the mall offers all the comfort and surrounding to make your exercise easy, safe and enjoyable.

First, you will be in a safe environment that is large enough to let you really cover some distance. Secondly, the temperature is always at a comfortable level, making it a good place to exercise no matter what the season. And best of all, you won't be bored. There will be faces to see and many windows along your path filled with items to admire.

To get the most from your mall walk, Newsline advises to use a controlled rather than a long stride. Walk with your head high and your back straight. Don't wiggle those hips too much. Swing your arms in an arc from your shoulders.

Since mid-century, major changes have taken place in Latin America's population at large and in its labor force in particular, according to the Inter-American Development Bank. They include a virtual stabilization of the agricultural work force, a large increase of women in the labor force, the rising educational attainment of workers in general and the emerging deceleration of labor force expansion due to falling birth rates.

Second straight win for Braves

Sutter, Atlanta beat Houston, 5-4

HOUSTON (AP) — Bruce Sutter is back in the win column after being sidelined with shoulder problems and three operations. With some help from veteran catcher-infielder Ted Simmons, Sutter pitched the Atlanta Braves to a 5-4 come-from-behind victory over the Houston Astros Tuesday night. It was his first major league victory since May 15, 1986.

Sutter, who won the National League Cy Young Award and also won four National League Fireman of the Year awards (1979, 1981, 1982, 1984) has been sidelined since May 28, 1986.

"I hope I can stay healthy. I made some good pitches tonight," said Sutter. "I'm happier because we won." "He can still pitch. He has been an outstanding competitor since I've known him," said Astros manager Hal Lanier. "He wants to give it another shot."

The victory was the second in a row for the Braves after dropping their first 10 games.

Simmons, who entered the game with only four at bats with no hits in the season, drove in four runs with a bases-loaded walk in the third inning, and a three-run homerun in the eighth inning off Astros starter and loser Jim Deshaies (1-1).

"It felt good to hit the homerun. It was a 3-2 situation, and he didn't want to walk me," said Simmons. "I just wanted to be aggressive and stay under control. He threw me one where I could hit it."

"With Simmons, you have to throw a good fastball," said Deshaies. "I tried to muscle up on the pitch and left it out over the plate."

The Braves took a 2-0 third-inning lead on a RBI single by Albert Hall, scoring Paul Runge and the walk to Simmons.

The Astros cut the lead 2-1 in the fourth inning on the sixth homer of the season by Glenn Davis, who is tied for the league lead with six homeruns and leads the league with 17 RBIs.

After two outs in the sixth inning, the Astros took a 3-2 lead off Braves starter Pete Smith on singles by Bill Dorian, Davis a walk to Kevin Bass and a single to right field by Alan Ashby scoring Dorian and Davis.

The lead held until the eighth inning when Ron Roenicke reached first base on an error and Dale Murphy singled setting up Simmons' game-winning homerun.

"It was an outstanding job by Sutter. He is still my closer," said Braves manager Chuck Tanner. "And Simmons is good for this ball club. I'm happy for him and Sutter."

The Astros closed out the scoring with a run in the eighth inning off Sutor on a triple by Billy Hatcher and a single by Davis before left-hander Paul Assenmacher entered the game to get the last five outs and recorded the first save of the year.

Mavericks score 'psychological' win over Rockets

By MICHAEL A. LUTZ
 AP Sports Writer

HOUSTON (AP) — The Dallas Mavericks may already have scored some psychological playoff points against the Houston Rockets.

"It's going to help our confidence here in the playoffs to know we can win if we play the Rockets," Rolando Blackman said.

Blackman had just given his confidence a big boost Tuesday night by scoring 27 points and helping the Mavericks hold off the Rockets 104-96.

"The key is we solidified our defense, our rebounding and our shooting," Blackman said. "This was the Mavericks team you saw a month ago."

As late as March 15, the Mavericks held a 5 1-2 game division lead but a recent slump has them struggling to challenge Denver for the division crown.

Tuesday night's victory ended a three-game road losing streak.

"We felt the pressure was on us for us to respond to the challenge," forward Roy Tarpley said. "This is the time of year when the good teams respond and that's what we did."

"We looked at this game as if it had playoff atmosphere."

Dallas almost blew an 11-point 81-70 lead in the fourth quarter when Houston outscored the Mavericks 12-2 to trail by only 83-82 with 7:33 left in the game.

Instead of folding, the Mavericks ran off a charge of their own, including a pair of steals by Tarpley and Blackman, to hold off the Rockets.

Tarpley took his steal all the way to the basket and Blackman passed off to Mark Aguirre for a layup in Dallas' winning charge.

"It's frustrating when you're down by 11 points, come back and then two turnovers change the whole game around," Rockets guard Robert Reid said. "We stopped our own fast breaks."

Houston's Rodney McCray committed both turnovers.

"My two turnovers caused a landslide," said Houston's Rodney McCray, responsible for both of the turnovers. "They were bad passes on my part."

Blackman said he was filling his role on the team with his 27-point performance. "I'm supposed to score and that's the way I assert myself," Blackman said. "We were just trying to play good Maverick basketball and good defense."

The Mavericks had lost eight of their last nine games on the road and the victory was a good sign for Coach John MacLeod.

Akeem Olajuwon scored 33 points against the Mavericks and led his team with nine rebounds.

Dallas had three players with double digit rebounds including Sam Perkins and Aguirre with 12 each and Tarpley with 10.

"This is the signal that we have a lot more character," Mavericks Coach John MacLeod said. "Tonight we performed well in every phase of the game."

"We have a very good club and our guys responded. Had we not won, our chances of winning the division title would have diminished."

The Rockets couldn't match the Dallas defense.

Great Texas Trash-Off

On Saturday, over 20,000 Texans will show their spirit of volunteerism by cleaning an estimated 2,400 miles of highway. "The Great Texas Trash-Off", which employs the efforts of over 1,000 Adopt-A-Highway groups, is part of the tough-talking Don't Mess With Texas program.

Texans plan nation's trash cleanup

More than 20,000 volunteers will comb 2,400 miles of Texas right-of-way, bar ditches and culverts Saturday in the largest trash cleanup in the nation.

The third annual "Great Texas Trash-Off," sponsored by the State Department of Highways and Public Transportation, employs the efforts of 1,200 Adopt-A-Highway groups across the state. During last year's Trash-Off, 16,843 volunteers cleaned up 2,484 miles of highway, collecting 1,633,720 gallons of trash.

"This year's Trash-Off will involve 5,200 more volunteers and 7,600 more bags of trash," said Don Clark, director of the highway department's travel and information division.

"Our first priority is to get the bottles out of the bluebonnets. By combining the energy of all the Adopt-A-Highway groups, we aim to remind Texans that trash belongs to a trash can-not along our highways. It's unsightly, unsafe, and an expense Texas taxpayers should not have to bear."

The highway department began an aggressive war against litter in 1985 with the tough-talking DON'T MESS WITH TEXAS program. The first of its kind in the U.S. to speak directly to "habitual" litterers, DON'T MESS WITH TEXAS is credited with a 54 percent reduction in trash on Texas highways in just two years.

For the second year, volunteers in community affiliates of Keep Texas Beautiful, the Texas Conservation Foundation, the General Land Office and the Lower Colorado River Authority will join forces with the highway department to clean Texas beaches, lakes, and city streets and parks.

Most Eastern Airlines' jets found safe

WASHINGTON (AP) — Federal inspectors have examined almost all of Eastern Airlines' 267 jets and found most in compliance with safety rules, but say they will continue ramp inspections and look at many of the aircraft again.

The FAA said the 508 inspections at airports around the country have covered all but 11 of Eastern's planes and found 43 cases in which jets had to be taken out of service to correct problems. In 33 of the cases flights were delayed as a result, the agency said.

FAA spokesman Bob Buckhorn said Tuesday he could not predict precisely when the plane-by-plane inspections would conclude. He said they would continue even after each of Eastern's jets is examined at least once, possibly another several weeks.

The FAA last week said it wanted to conclude the review of Eastern and analyze its findings within 30 days. Meanwhile, in a similar inspection at Continental Airlines, which like Eastern is owned by Texas Air Corp., FAA inspectors found one plane out of 15 examined in the first 24 hours that needed to be taken out of service. One of the Continental jet's engines was found to be damaged from a "foreign object," Buckhorn said, adding that it is conceivable that the airline might have taken the plane from service even if no FAA inspector were present.
