Nino honored with Bull Chip

Janie Nino, who has worked since last August behind the scenes to assist local efforts to support soldiers and their families serving in Operation Desert Shield and Operation Desert Storm, was honored this morning with the Honorary Bull Chip Award at the Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce Fun Breakfast at the Hereford Community Center.

Mrs. Nino was presented with the special Bull Chip plaque by Speedy Nieman, publisher of the Hereford Brand. It was the 65th awarded since June 1975.

Nieman detailed Nino's efforts over the past year, beginning with the formation of a local Operation Heart Shield chapter in Hereford. The chapter was a local support group for families of soldiers serving in all branches of the military who were serving in the Persian Gulf area. The group has met weekly since last fall to help meet the special needs of family members.

Mrs. Nino was also one of the main organizers of a special rally held in February in Hereford to salute the 72 soldiers from Deaf Smith County, and their families. The rally included the unveiling of a sign on the courthouse lawn and the presentation of special certificates to the families of the servicepeople.

Nino has also been active in the organizing of the rallies that have been held intermittently at Sugarland Mall to honor each of the returning soldiers who served in Operation Desert Storm. She has also helped organize and raise funds for the July 4th celebration planned in Hereford to honor all veterans.

Nino has been a leader in Hereford Camp Fire groups for several years, and has encouraged the members to write to soldiers stationed in Saudi Arabia to give them special, hometown, support. Through the efforts of the Camp Fire group, she helped organize several drives to send "care" packages to soldiers in the gulf.

She has also long been active in Big Brothers/Big Sisters and in her church.

Also highlighting the breakfast was a special plaque presentation to former Mayor Wes Fisher by Mike Carr, executive vice president of the chamber. Fun breakfast co-emcees John Stagner and Charlie Bell also presented Fisher with a "I Voted For Joe Kerr" t-shirt (Kerr received a write-in vote for mayor).

Carr commended Fisher for his 12 years of service at City Hall, including four years as commissioner and eight years as mayor. Carr said Fisher assisted the chamber on many projects, besides his many efforts as mayor.

The 11 candidates for the Miss Hereford Scholarship Pageant, to be held Saturday night at the Hereford High School auditorium, were introduced, as were four "special" contestants that were introduced by Tom Simons.

Breakfast-goers were also reminded that Friday is the deadline for entries in the Little Miss Hereford pageants, with four different categories for girls from pre-school through ninth grade.

Brookhart's On Main sponsored the breakfast, and gave away several gift certificates, art prints and other merchandise at the breakfast. Gina Alley, 1990 Miss Hereford, modeled several items available at the store in downtown Hereford.

Other announcements made at the breakfast included:

--The annual Rhinestone Roundup, benefitting the National Cowgirl Hall of Fame, will be held June 28-29 at the CHOF, with activities including the induction ceremony of four honorees on Friday and events Friday and Saturday nights;

--Entries are needed for the July 4th parade in Hereford;

--The Women's Division will sponsor Coffee Memorial Blood Center on June 26, 4-8 p.m. at the Community Center;

--The Kings Manor Founders Association will sponsor its annual barbecue on June 22, 6-8:30 p.m., at Kings Manor.

Nino awarded Honorary Bull Chip

Janie Nino, left, received the Honorary Bull Chip Award at this morning's chamber Fun Breakfast at the Hereford Community Center. Presenting Nino with the honor was Speedy Nieman, publisher of the Hereford Brand. Nino was honored for her work in the community, especially with support for Operation Desert Storm.

Klett outlines July 4th events

The general chairman of the Fourth of July Celebration in Hereford presented an overview of the day's activities to the Hereford Lions Club on Wednesday.

Wes Klett, who moved to Hereford in November after retiring from the U.S. Air Force, explained that plans for such a celebration began well before the war in the Persian Gulf region erupted in January. Klett stressed, however, that the celebration has since evolved to include veterans of all past conflicts, not just soldiers who participated in Operation Desert Storm.

As a special honor to those who served in Operation Desert Storm, a monument area is being built at the park at 15th and Ave. H. A cement slab has been poured, and a special monument will be erected. On July 4, members of the families of the 72 local soldiers who participated in the operation will plant trees in the area around the monument.

Klett said a parade will start the day's events at 10 a.m. There have already been commitments for about a half-dozen floats, and others are encouraged to enter by contacting Diane Beavers at HCR Real Estate at 364-4670 or the Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce at 364-3333. Children are especially encouraged to enter the parade.

The evening's festivities, all at Veterans Park, will begin with a picnic and free watermelon at 6:30 p.m. Families are encouraged to bring a picnic supper to the park. Entertainment will begin at 7:30 p.m. with several singers, including the Hereford Chamber Singers, scheduled to perform.

Bob Pardo, a retired USAF pilot who was recently honored for his heroic action in the Vietnam War, will be the keynote speaker. Pardo, a captain in 1967 flying an F-4 over Hanoi, likely saved the lives of the two-man crew of another plane that was in danger. Pardo, at the time, was severely reprimanded for his actions; two years ago, after a review of what he had done, he was awarded the Silver Star. Pardo is also the holder of the record for the longest dogfight in modern jet aircraft, about a 12 1/2 minutes. Klett said most modern dogfights take less than 90 seconds.

The evening will climax in a large fireworks display, the first public display in Hereford in many years. Klett said Western Pyrotechnics of Enid, Okla., the same company that produces the show in Amarillo, will put on the show here and will do basically the same show that draws huge crowds to Amarillo each year. The show will feature the igniting of about 24 devices per minute for 30 minutes.

Donations for the fireworks show are needed. Those who have contributed include the Hereford Lions club, which presented Klett with a $500 check Wednesday; First National Bank; Hereford State Bank; Bar G Feedyard; AzTx Cattle Co. and Champion Feeders. To help raise funds for the show, organizers are selling caps and t-shirts with the celebration's Honoring Hereford's Heroes logo. The apparel is for sale each Wednesday, Thursday and Saturday at Moore's Jack and Jill and Furr's Supermarket, and each Monday and Friday at First National Bank and Hereford State Bank.

City gets light shower Wednesday

Portions of the county received over two inches of rain that poured in the area Wednesday.

Hereford officially received .22 of an inch of rain from Wednesday evening's showers, but more rain was likely tonight and Friday in the area as a low pressure area moved into place in southeastern New Mexico. That is a prime location for rain production in the Texas Panhandle.

Over 2.5 inches of rain was reported in the area around eight to 10 miles west of Farmers Corner, about 20 miles north-northwest of Hereford. While most of the area only reported rain, at least one farmer had most of his crops wiped out by hail. The storm also spawned a tornado at about 4:45 p.m. Thursday, but the twister lifted back into the clouds without causing damage.

Other reports included .60 of an inch at Northwest Grain and at the state line 35 miles west of Hereford; .25 of an inch at Bootleg; and .20 of an inch at Dawn.

The forecast was calling for a 60 percent chance of rain tonight and Friday, with a few of the storms expected to be severe.

'Reddy Teddy' coming Saturday

A new, huge, loveable bear will be in Hereford on Saturday to help teach area children an important safety message.

Kids love bears, from the Three Bears to Smokey the Bear to a bear they snuggle up to each night. The new bear they can learn to love and to learn from is Reddy Teddy, the new Texas EMS mascot.

Reddy Teddy will be at Sugarland Mall Saturday from 1 to 4 p.m. He'll answer questions, pose for photos with kids, and hand out coloring books that will help children learn and remember how to call for help in an emergency. The coloring books also help children learn preventative measures, such as obeying traffic signs and buckling up every time they ride in a car.

Reddy Teddy will give two programs on safety, at 1:30 p.m. and 3:30 p.m. An ambulance from Hereford EMS will also be at the mall so children may get a closer look at the vehicle that may seem frightening to them at times.

"The Hereford Emergency Medical Service made 962 calls in the past year, so our service is widely used in the community," said L.V. Watts, EMS director. "Those who work in Hereford EMS recognize that children don't always understand what is going on when an emergency happens. Families are stressed and excited and children may not know how to react."

The 12 full- and part-time emergency medical technicians and paramedics who work for Hereford EMS support the work Reddy Teddy is doing. They know firsthand how frightened children can be in emergency situations.

"By using Reddy Teddy, we can familiarize children with what can happen during an emergency, with the people and vehicle that will be involved, and children can also learn how they can help," said Gary Moore, DSGH administrator. "We at DSGH strongly urge that everyone bring their children to the mall for this visit."

Ceremony Saturday for three

The program will include a prayer

A special ceremony to welcome home three soldiers who served in Operation Desert Storm will be held Saturday at 2 p.m. at Sugarland Mall in Hereford.

Honored will be PFC Samuel Lopez, PFC Tommy Ramirez and Sgt. Edward Allen Skaggs. All three are in the Army.

The program will include a prayer by Rev. Samuel Lopez (the soldier's father); songs by Margie Morales, Sandra Davila and the First Spanish Assembly of God Church; a special rendition of "Voices That Care" by Operation Heart Shield, and a special salute from Camp Fire groups. Skaggs will also make a special presentation to the Chosro Camp Fire group.

Sphinx's foot hides ancient city

NAZLETT EL-SAMMEN, Egypt (AP) - Hidden beneath a tourist village at the foot of the Sphinx, Egyptologists have found the remains of a city belonging to the pyramid-building pharaohs.

"This discovery is much more important to Egyptology than all the gold in Tutankamun's tomb," said Zahi Hawass, antiquities director for the Giza pyramids and Sphinx.

"The objects from Tut's tomb are lovely to look at. But they don't tell anything about real life, what was going on at the time Tut was pharaoh. These ruins will reveal a lot about the pharaohs, the nobility and the common man."

For example, what kinds of houses did ancient Egyptians live in? What did they eat? How did society's levels coexist and differ?

Until now there have been few answers, because ancient cities and villages disappeared beneath changing civilizations.

Hawass predicted the ruins will unravel not only mysteries about the pyramid builders but those of the civilizations that followed at Giza Plateau, in the desert southwest of Cairo.

They include the Greeks, the Romans, perhaps Canaanites - civilizations described by early academics and travelers but rarely evidenced by artifacts.

Getting answers isn't going to be easy. The ruins lie beneath Nazlett el-Sammen, a community of 70,000 people whose livelihood comes mainly from selling tacky items to tourists.

Beginning 18 months ago, the ancient city slowly emerged as laborers dug up Nazlett's neighborhoods to install sewer lines financed by the U.S. Agency for International Development.

Besides giving villagers their first sewage system, the project will keep underground filth away from the Sphinx, which crouches between Nazlett and the pyramids.

As digging began, artifacts surfaced. Uncovered early were stones of what Egyptologists believe to be the Valley Temple of Pharaoh Cheops, whose Great Pyramid is the last survivor of the Seven Wonders of the Ancient World.

In August, a sprawling cemetery with tombs and remains of the pharaonic middle class was discovered a few miles behind the Sphinx. The find hinted at a sizeable city nearby.

Hawass, who announced discovery of the buried city last week, said it stretches two miles and is the largest ever found from the Old Kingdom. That era of iron-fisted pharaonic rule lasted almost 450 years, ending in 2134 B.C., and led to a chaotic 74 years called the first Intermediate Period.

Ruins of that time found under Nazlett verify legends that the ancient city was destroyed by a people's revolt against the pharaohs to begin the Intermediate Period.

Excavators found extensive areas of charred remains, a sign that buildings were burned. Given legendary accounts on papyri of such mayhem, Hawass had no doubt relics and records match.

Still to come, Hawass said, should be the city of the Canaanites, who lived in the area and worshiped their own god Baal 1,000 years after the pyramid-builders.

By the Greek period in Egypt - beginning with Alexander the Great in 332 B.C. and ending with Cleopatra's defeat by Roman forces in 31 B.C. - the Nazlett area was already a tourist center. Romans built an amphitheater in front of the Sphinx and staged plays about love and history.

Nazlett el-Sammen itself dates from the seventh century. It was named to honor Sheik Hammed el-Sammen, a Muslim who worshiped inside an ancient pyramid tomb.

Texans split on rights bill

WASHINGTON (AP) - Rep. Bill Sarpalius says he's convinced the 1991 civil rights bill "reaches toward the American dream" of equality for all.

But Rep. Charles Stenholm says he's afraid the bill, approved Wednesday by the House, would have a "chilling effect" on businesses across the country.

Stenholm, a member of the Democratic leadership, broke ranks with his party in a painful split Wednesday and voted against the bill. The Stamford legislator was joined by only one other Texas Democrat, fellow conservative Rep. Ralph Hall of Rockwall. The state's eight Republicans also voted it down.

Sarpalius was the only Democrat in the House who had voted against last year's bill to cast a vote for the 1991 version. He said the new legislation was "a giant step" toward equal treatment for women while protecting small businesses.

Although the bill passed the House by a vote of 273-158, it fell short of the margin needed to override a veto by President Bush, who has attacked the measure as a formula for racial quotas.

Sarpalius, however, said he decided to support the legislation because it specifies that quotas would be illegal.

"I spent a lot of time studying this bill before I cast the vote. I spoke with the president, businesses, business organizations and constituents in the district who would be affected," Sarpalius said. "The president tried to make the American people believe that it's a quota bill, but the language is very clear that it's not."

Sarpalius, of Amarillo, said he also decided to support the bill because businesses with 14 or fewer employees would be exempted from its provisions.

"I think that our ultimate goal is this country should be to have equality for all people, regardless of the color of their skin or their religious beliefs, or whether they're male or female, or whatever their national origin," Sarpalius said. "But it's got to be a delicate balance. ... The government can't come in and tell a business who to hire."

Bridal shower held for Engle

Cindy Engle was honored with a bridal shower Sunday, June 2, in the home of Wendel and Merle Clark. The honoree and Scott Felker plan to exchange wedding vows Saturday.

Welcoming guests with Miss Engle were her great aunt, Thelma Farris, Ronda Clark, and Merle Clark.

Kim Buckley and Helen Torres served refreshments of cookies, fresh fruit, nuts and punch. The table was adorned with a peach and ivory floral arrangement.

The shower honoree was presented a kitchen canister set by hostesses: Merle Clark, Ronda Clark, Gladys Merritt, Kim Buckley, Jan Metcalf, and Helen Torres.

Father's role important

A couple of decades ago, "Integrity Begins in the Home" was a popular slogan. Today, as much as ever, integrity of the family remains an essential element of the meaning of Father's Day and its traditional values.

Today's dads must interpret "integrity" in light of today's pervasive drug problem. It's no longer isolated in big cities, or confined to urban areas, but reaches into the smallest towns. Drugs are a challenge to the ingenuity of the most innovative of fathers.

A supportive family environment helps kids resist the lure of drugs. Kids who have a healthy sense of self-esteem and who know that they can confide in their parents are better able to resist peer pressure to use drugs.

It's also important to remember that the example set by parents can have a great influence on children's behavior. Kids have little tolerance for hypocrisy, or for the famous command, "Do as I say, not as I do." If dad uses drugs himself, he lacks the moral authority to tell his children

The U.S. Supreme Court has thrown out a $16 million libel case against 60 Minutes commentator Andy Rooney. Rooney was being sued by an Arizona manufacturer for saying that Rain-X, a wipe-on windshield product designed to repel rain, sleet and snow, "didn't work." The court has ruled such comments are protected by the First Amendment.

that using drugs is wrong or bad. And if dad needs a drink to "unwind" after a hard day at the office, he's (unintentionally) sending his kids the message that stress and bad feelings might go away if they take a drink or a drug.

"Clean and sober" should be the ideal to which dads aspire, for the good of themselves, for the good of their children, for the good of the community.

Social Security

"Employers are reminded that the only official document they should use to verify a person's Social Security number and employment authorization is the Social Security card," reported Jim Talbot, manager of the Amarillo Social Security office. If a person is not authorized to work, his or her card will be marked "Not Valid for Employment."

Employers are accepting, and in some cases requesting, a copy of the job seeker's original Social Security number form in lieu of a Social Security card as evidence of employment authorization. "Employers should note that this record is not acceptable evidence of employment eligibility under the Immigration Reform and Control Act and contains no information an employer could readily identify as authorizing employment," Talbot added.

A job applicant who has lost his or her Social Security card should apply for a replacement. Workers need to present at least one document as evidence of identity and complete Form SS-5 (Application for Social Security Card.) The replacement Social Security card should be received within two weeks of the date the Social Security office receives the completed application with the necessary proofs. In addition, at the time the person applies for a replacement card, the Social Security office can issue a receipt confirming that her or she has applied for a card. The job seeker can give this receipt to the employer and then has 21 days to present the Social Security card.

Employers or employees who need more information about obtaining a Social Security number should call any Social Security office. The Amarillo Social Security office is located at 3501-E W. 45th.

Hereford fighter going to Michigan

By JAY PEDEN
Sports Editor

Ismael Arroyos of the Hereford Boxing Club has been selected to compete in the 1991 National Junior Boxing Championships in Marquette, Mich. He is one of 12 fighters chosen for the tournament by the West Texas Boxing Association.

The single elimination tournament starts June 15 and lasts a week.

Arroyos, 16, is a sophomore at Hereford High School. He has been fighting for the Hereford club since 1990.

The Hereford Boxing Club is organized by Lou Serrano, the Chief Juvenile Probation Officer for Deaf Smith and Oldham Counties. The club originally was for boys who were on probation but now has been opened up to anyone. Arroyos is not on probation, Serrano said.

Besides boxing and carrying a B average, Serrano said, Arroyos holds a part-time job at Moore's Jack and Jill Supermarket.

"He's done everything you could ask him to," Serrano said.

Arroyos' boxing record is 8-4. In most of his wins, he said, his opponents have had to undergo a standing eight count. Twice, he's knocked an opponent out.

In his last fight a few weeks ago, he fought a man in Lubbock who was 22 years old and in the Army. "He lost on points, but he did really good," Serrano said.

The fighters who will be in Marquette will be mostly 17-18 years old. "I'll stand a little better chance (than against the 22-year-old)," Arroyos said. "But they'll be more experienced than me. I'll try to learn off them, so if I can go back next year, I'll be better."

The tournament is used to determine the international team, and draws from all over the nation. Serrano said he estimates that 350-400 boxers will be at the U.S. Olympic Education Center for the tournament.

"I imagine he's going to meet some pretty strong fighters," Serrano said. Arroyos will fight in the 147-pound weight class.

Arroyos' strategy going into the tournament is fairly simple.

"I'll try to do everything I've learned since I started," he said. "If I can finish him early I will; if I can't, I'll try to stay in and beat him to the punch."

Ed Hernandez, a coach from Lubbock who will be going along with Arroyo, uses a strategy where the boxer goes out and throws as many punches as possible in the first 45 seconds, Serrano said. This has the effect of a good first impression on the judges, who remember it when they write their scores at the end of the round.

Of course, the simplest strategy of all is for Arroyos to go with his best punch.

"My right," he said. "Set 'em up with my jab and knock 'em out with my right."

This tournament is one step in determining the U.S. Olympic team. Since he's relatively inexperienced, Arroyos' chances of making the 1992 Olympic team are not good, but if he does well in Marquette this year, it could put him on his way to the 1996 Olympics.

"If he wins two or three matches, we're hoping he'll be invited to a camp," Serrano said.

These camps, such as the Olympic Training Center in Lake Placid, N.Y., give young boxers the chance to spend a summer working with the best coaches and against the best competition.

At this early point in Arroyos' career, the idea of fighting professionally is still a dream—but who knows what could happen.

"Some of my dreams are coming true little by little," Arroyos said. "I never thought I'd get this far."

Although it seems appropriate to hold a boxing tournament in the state that's shaped like a boxing glove, Marquette is not in that part of the state; it's in the finger-shaped part that's separated from the rest of Michigan by Lake Michigan. Marquette is just across Lake Superior from Canada.

Serrano said the trip takes about 22-23 hours.

"I wish there were more guys from Hereford going," Arroyos said. "Usually when I go to tournaments, I go with other boxers. This time I'm

Intense look

Ismael Arroyos spars against Jaime Ruiz as he trains for the 1991 National Junior Boxing Championships, to be held June 13 in Marquette, Mich. by myself.

Actually, Arroyos will be traveling with a few people. He'll leave June 13 along with Hernandez; Tony Mendoza, a coach from Hereford; and Mac McLinn, a boxer from Lubbock who is the Texas Golden Gloves champion in the 106 pound weight class.

The trip will cost Arroyos about $500, and Serrano is soliciting donations to cover the costs. Anyone interested in donating should call Serrano at the Juvenile Probation office, 364-1353.

French Open starts semis

PARIS (AP) — Three of the men's semifinalists at the French Open are seeking the glory of a first Grand Slam title. The fourth, Boris Becker, has his own powerful incentive — a return to the No. 1 world ranking.

Becker, winner of every Grand Slam event except this one, will replace Stefan Edberg as No. 1 if he beats Andre Agassi in a semifinal Friday matching two of the hardest hitters in tennis.

The other semifinal also pairs a German and an American — 12th-seeded Michael Stich against ninth-seeded Jim Courier, who upset Edberg on Wednesday.

Michael Chang, a loser to Becker in the quarterfinals, expects a bruising battle with Agassi.

"I'm not making any predictions," Chang said. "I'll just watch them slug it out."

Sluggests also were expected in the women's semifinals today, featuring three former champions and Gabriela Sabatini, who has the best record on the tour this year.

Sabatini was to face Monica Seles, the top seed and defending champion, in the first match, followed by Steffi

Graf against Arantxa Sanchez Vicario.

Graf and Sanchez Vicario did not lose a set in the first five rounds. Seles and Sabatini lost one each.

Becker, despite years of success dating back to his first Wimbledon title in 1985, has held the No. 1 spot in the ATP computer ranking for only a three-week period after his Australian Open championship in January.

Edberg recaptured the top spot after a thigh injury forced Becker to default a semifinal match in Brussels, Belgium.

"It's something that I can't really do anything about," Edberg said about the possible loss of his ranking. "My goal was to win here."

Agassi reached the finals of two Grand Slam tournaments last year, including the French Open, but has yet to capture a title. He has won the last three of his six career matches with Becker.

"Andre plays faster, closer to the line and usually hits harder than his opponent," Becker said. "But I hit hard as well."

Public Notice

Southwestern Bell Telephone Company (Company), in accordance with the rules of the Public Utility Commission of Texas (Commission), hereby gives notice of its intent to implement a new schedule of telephone rates in Texas for Directory Assistance Services, effective August 1, 1991, unless otherwise determined by the Commission. The Company has filed an application with the Commission to restructure and change the rates for Directory Assistance Service.

To help recover its costs, the Company is proposing to increase the rates for Directory Assistance calls from $0.30 to $0.40 per call (after the three-call allowance). Southwestern Bell is proposing that there be no change in the number of free Directory Assistance calls allowed each month (currently three) and that customers who qualify for exemption of Directory Assistance charges because of visual or physical handicaps continue to be exempt from these charges. The company also proposes to begin charging $.25 per call for Directory Assistance from pay telephones.

If approved by the Commission, this proposed rate change for Directory Assistance will increase the Company's annual revenues by $15.4 million, which is an increase of approximately one half of 1 percent in the Company's adjusted revenue for the twelve-month period ending December 1990. This proposed rate change would affect approximately 900,000 residence customers, approximately 155,000 business customers, approximately 500 private pay telephone owners and all customers who make Directory Assistance calls from public pay telephones.

Persons who wish to intervene or otherwise participate in these proceedings should notify the Commission as soon as possible. A request to intervene, participate, or for further information should be mailed to the Public Utility Commission of Texas, 7800 Shoal Creek Boulevard, Suite 400N, Austin, Texas 78757. Further information may also be obtained by calling the Public Utility Commission Public Information Office at (512) 458-0256 or (512) 458-0221 tele-typewriter for the deaf.

Jordan puts on clinic in rout of Lakers

CHICAGO (AP) - After two games, the Michael-Magic series has become the Magical Michael series. Michael Jordan staged a spectacular display of teamwork, passing, shooting and aerial artistry. Magic Johnson was stifled by Scottie Pippen's bump-and-grind defense. The Chicago Bulls relied on sensational shooting and re-awakened aggressiveness to even the best-of-7 NBA Finals at one game apiece Wednesday night with a 107-86 rout of the Los Angeles Lakers. "They attacked and we didn't attack," Johnson said.

"It was a game that you rarely see at this time of the season," Los Angeles' James Worthy said, "a game where nothing goes right for one team and everything perfect for the other." The Lakers will try to reverse that trend Friday night in the first of three games at Los Angeles. All they have to do is find a way to stop Jordan. The Bulls' star made only one of three shots in the first 20 minutes as he got his teammates involved. Then he buried his next 13 attempts, mostly jumpers, and finished with 33 points on 15-of-18 shooting.

Chicago, shaking off its opening-game nervousness, set an NBA Finals record by hitting 50 of 81 shots, a percentage of 61.7. The old mark of 61.5 was set by the Lakers against Boston on June 4, 1987. John Paxson made all eight of his shots and Horace Grant hit 10-of-13. Combined with Jordan, they connected on 33 of 39. The entire Los Angeles team hit only 30 of 73. Jordan, as usual, outdid everyone. "He can do the impossible, the unbelievable," said Jordan, who had only 14 points.

Even Jordan, himself the master of the miraculous, was impressed. With 7:46 left in the game, he made a layup that gave the Bulls their biggest lead, 97-71. It was no ordinary layup. He took a pass from Cliff Levingston in the lane and drove. Encountering the long arms of Laker forward Sam Perkins while in midair, Jordan shifted the ball from his right hand to his left as he was descending and laid it in off the backboard. "It's just one of those creative moves," Jordan said. "Sometimes I don't know what's going to happen."

He also succeeded on a more human level. He made excellent passes to set up easy inside baskets in the first half and hit normal mid-range jumpers. He finished with 13 assists and seven rebounds. Pippen and Horace Grant added 20 points each for the Bulls. Pippen also had 10 assists. In Chicago's 93-91 loss in Sunday's opener, his teammates watched as Jordan put on a one-man show, scoring 36 points. On Wednesday night, he made sure they established early the inside game that had been missing. "Once he gets going offensively, he can roll over teams," Chicago coach Phil Jackson said. "He did a great job getting everybody involved on the offensive end." James Worthy led Los Angeles with 24 points and Vlade Divac had 16. Johnson, who had a triple-double and was the key to the Lakers' opening victory, sank only four of his 13 shots and added 10 assists and seven rebounds. A stuff by Divac gave Los Angeles its last lead, 37-36, with 4:16 left in the first half. Jordan had just two points and three shots at that point. But he scored the Bulls' next four baskets in a span of 1:38, giving them a 44-40 lead. They led 48-43 at halftime, then made 17 of 20 shots to go ahead 86-69 after three quarters.

Webster states case with homers

By JOHN KREISER
AP Sports Writer
Lenny Webster is determined to make it impossible for the Minnesota Twins to get rid of him. Webster, a 26-year-old rookie catcher, homered Wednesday night for the second straight game since being recalled from the minors to help the Twins to their fifth straight victory, 4-3 over the Baltimore Orioles. Webster hit .400 in spring training, but was sent to Triple-A Portland when Minnesota kept starter Brian Harper and Junior Ortiz, a veteran backup. He hit just one homer in 144 at-bats at Portland, but was recalled on Saturday when Ortiz was disabled. Webster homered against Kansas City in his season debut on Sunday, then hit a two-run shot in the fifth inning on Wednesday. "I don't know what the organization is thinking," said Webster, who was batting just .208 at Portland.

"But coming out of spring training I thought this was my year. I felt I was ready." Manager Tom Kelly agrees that Webster can play in the majors, but doesn't know what to do with him. "He's done outstanding at this level every time he's been up," Kelly said. When Ortiz is ready to come off the disabled list, Webster figures the Twins will have to make a difficult choice. Mike Pagliarulo singled to start the fifth and Webster followed with his home run off Jose Mesa (4-6), giving Minnesota a 2-0 lead. The Twins scored twice more in the sixth on Shane Mack's RBI single and first baseman Randy Milligan's throwing error. Kevin Tapani (3-6) allowed seven hits and one run in 7 2-3 innings. Rick Aguilera survived ninth-inning home runs by Randy Milligan and David Segui for his 13th save.

Athletics 6, Brewers 4
Dave Henderson hit his major league-leading 13th home run, a three-run shot, and Dave Stewart continued his mastery over Milwaukee despite control problems. Henderson gave Oakland a 3-1 lead in the first inning with his two-out homer off Chris Bosio (4-6). Stewart, now 11-3 lifetime against the Brewers, allowed just two hits in 5 1-3 innings, but walked five and threw a run-scoring wild pitch in the sixth inning, then left after Greg Vaughn followed with a two-run homer that made it 5-4.

Blue Jays 4, Yankees 1
David Wells, pitching despite a sore neck, won his seventh consecutive decision against the Yankees, allowing four hits in eight innings. Wells (7-4) allowed two hits in the first inning, then retired 17 straight batters before Jesse Barfield's double in the seventh.

Jeff Johnson (0-1) allowed nine hits and four runs, two earned, in his major league debut. Tigers 7, Mariners 1
Detroit ended a seven-game losing streak as Cecil Fielder's tie-breaking three-run homer keyed a five-run third inning. The Tigers broke a 1-1 tie when Rich DeLucia (5-3) opened the third by walking Lou Whitaker and Alan Trammell. Fielder followed with his 11th homer. Jerry Don Gleaton (3-1) pitched 4 1-3 innings of one-hit shutout relief to get the win. Angels 7, Red Sox 2
Lance Parrish and Dave Parker ended home run droughts with two-run shots. Dave Winfield added a two-run double in the fifth inning, moving him past Willie McCovey into 22nd place on the all-time RBI list with 1,556. Kirk McCaskill (6-5) scattered seven hits and two runs in seven innings. Mike Gardiner (1-1) was the loser. Indians 2, White Sox 1

Rookie Mark Lewis snapped an 0-for-15 slump with a pinch-hit double in the eighth inning and scored the winning run on Mike Huff's bloop single. Shawn Hillegas (1-0) got the win with two hitless innings in relief of Eric King. Lewis led off the eighth with his double off rookie Ramon Garcia (0-1) and later scored on Huff's hit off Donn Pall. Royals 3, Rangers 2
George Brett's tie-breaking RBI double in the eighth helped Kansas City send slumping Texas to its sixth loss in seven games. Kirk Gibson drew a one-out walk from Kevin Brown (4-5) and Brett, batting just .209, then hit a line drive over the head of left fielder Kevin Reimer. Brett later scored on Mike Macfarlane's single.

Reds clobber Mets, Gooden

By DICK BRINSTER
AP Sports Writer
It would figure that New York Mets ace Dwight Gooden would know why he's being shelled with alarming regularity. But the reason is as evasive as the fastball and curve were during the first seven seasons Gooden terrorized National League hitters while establishing the best winning percentage in the history of baseball. "Today I thought I had good stuff," Gooden said after the Cincinnati Reds rocked him for seven runs and 11 hits while beating the Mets 11-10 Wednesday night. Gooden (5-5) finished four innings and never retired a batter in the fifth. It's the fourth consecutive game in which he's allowed at least five earned runs. The 26-year-old right-hander has failed to last seven innings in any outing during that span, allowing 42 hits and 23 earned runs in 22 1-3 innings. Those numbers are shocking considering his 119-46 career record, the best ever for a major league pitcher with more than 100 decisions.

Pirates 7, Giants 3
Jeff King's three-run homer triggered a five-run first inning and Bob Walk won for the third time in Pittsburgh's last five games. Jose Lind had a two-run single in the second. San Francisco ended a season high-tying three-game winning streak as Kelly Downs (2-4) lasted only two-thirds of an inning. Walk (3-0) allowed three runs, two earned, two hits, struck out two and walked two in six innings.

Dodgers 2, Cardinals 0
Ramon Martinez pitched a four-hitter and slump-ridden Brett Butler had the key hit for Los Angeles. Butler, mired in a 2-for-23 slide, tripled to lead off the game against Bryn Smith (4-4) and scored on a double play grounder by Chris Gwynn. Juan Samuel added his sixth homer in the fourth. Martinez (9-2) cruised to his eighth career shutout and third this season to tie San Francisco's Bud Black for the league lead. Martinez struck out four and walked three.

Padres 3, Cubs 0
Tony Fernandez hit a rare home run and Dennis Rasmussen outdueled Mike Bielecki with a seven-hitter. The Padres have not allowed an earned run in the last 26 innings, while Rasmussen (2-0) - who got his fourth career shutout and first since June 26, the date of his last complete game - has not allowed a run in 19 innings. Fernandez's first-inning homer at Wrigley Field, his second of the year, was his 42nd in 4,156 at-bats. Bielecki (7-3) gave up five hits in seven innings. Expos 8, Astros 2

Delino DeShields had four straight hits - including a two-run homer - and four RBIs, and Dennis Martinez pitched well. Martinez (7-4) allowed eight hits, struck out seven and walked two in 8 2-3 innings to beat Jimmy Jones (4-3).

Phillies 12, Braves 11
Rookie Brian Hunter's second error in two innings allowed Philadelphia's Dickie Thon to score from first base in the 12th. The Braves tied it 10-10 in the 11th when Hunter hit his first major league home run, a two-run shot off Darrel Akerfelds (2-1). Thon opened the 12th with a single off Jeff Parrett (0-2) and scored when first baseman Hunter threw away Rod Booker's sacrifice bunt.

Southwestern Bell Telephone Company (Company), in accordance with the rules of the Public Utility Commission of Texas (Commission), hereby gives notice of the Company's intent to implement a new schedule of telephone rates in Texas for residence Custom Calling Services, effective August 1, 1991, unless otherwise determined by the Commission. The Company has filed an application with the Commission to restructure and change the rates for certain residence Custom Calling Services.

The Custom Calling Services affected by the Company's application are optional telephone service arrangements that provide the following features: Call Waiting, Call Forwarding, Three Way Calling, Speed Calling 8 and Speed Calling 30.

The Company's proposal would increase the monthly rate for the individual Call Waiting feature from $2.10 to $3.10 for residence customers. Also, the rates for certain combinations of Custom Calling Features (Call Waiting, Call Forwarding, Three-Way Calling and Speed Calling-8) would increase or decrease depending upon the combination of features. In addition, the company proposes to obsolete the optional Custom Calling Service feature Speed Calling 30 for residence customers except for existing customers at their existing locations. Following are the feature combinations and their current and proposed rates.

One Feature Per Line	Current	Proposed

**Southwestern Bell's application proposes to obsolete residence Speed Calling 30 except for existing customers at their existing locations.

Most of the Company's residence customers in Texas who subscribe to one or more of the Custom Calling Service features will be affected by the proposed rate restructuring. It is expected that the proposed rate restructuring of Custom Calling Services will increase the Company's annual revenues by $15.9 million, which is an increase of approximately one half of 1 percent in the Company's adjusted revenue for the twelve-month period ending December 1990. The restructuring will result in an increase in the Custom Calling Services rates for approximately 2.5 million residence customers and rate decreases for approximately 15,000 residence customers. Also, the obsolescence of the optional feature Speed Calling 30 will affect approximately 156,000 residence customers.

Persons who wish to intervene or otherwise participate in these proceedings should notify the commission as soon as possible. A request to intervene, participate, or for further information should be mailed to the Public Utility Commission of Texas, 7800 Shoal Creek Boulevard, Suite 400N, Austin, Texas 78757. # UIL hands down suspensions, probations

AUSTIN (AP) - Brownsville Porter has been suspended from all activities sponsored by the University Interscholastic League for failing to respond to directives from the UIL state executive committee.

The decision Wednesday to suspend Porter from academic, as well as athletic contests, is so rare that UIL officials could recall vaguely only one other such action.

The committee said it was suspending Porter because school officials had failed to report on allegations that a soccer official had been verbally and physically abused at a March 9 junior varsity soccer match.

The committee also cited Porter's failure to submit by last Saturday a plan ordered in March to instruct teachers about student eligibility rules.

The suspension will not be lifted until the school has turned in all requested materials to the satisfaction of the UIL staff, and the committee meets to reconsider its penalty.

"This is the first time we've had a school flagrantly not respond to the executive committee," said committee chairman Bob Caster, school superintendent at Palestine.

In another case, the committee voted unanimously that Fort Worth Brewer High School had violated UIL rules by holding off-season football practices before school.

The UIL penalized the school, head coach Ben Davis and two assistant coaches.

The committee also instructed Dallas Carter to forfeit by June 15 its 1988 Class 5A state football championship trophy, along with as many individual player medals as possible.

Davis, a coach for 23 years, was suspended for Brewer's first home football game next season. He also was placed on probation for the 1991-92 school year and received a public reprimand.

Defensive coordinator James Roller was suspended for the second home game, placed on probation for 1991-92 and received a public reprimand.

Assistant freshman coach Terry Massey was placed on probation for 1991-92, received a public reprimand and also was suspended for the second home varsity game, which means he could not fulfill his job of scouting other teams that weekend.

The school was placed on probation for a year, publicly reprimanded and instructed to devise a plan for informing its coaches of UIL rules.

Bill Farney, UIL athletic director, visited the Brewer campus April 10, after the league office had received an anonymous allegation that coaches and players were working out before school in the middle school gymnasium.

Farney's memorandum on his visit stated that he found nine players and two coaches engaging in supervised passing drills.

Davis said the drills were voluntary, and coaches were not instructing players. He was not there for Farney's visit but said he had been all other days since the workouts started March 25.

He also said it was not the first time for the passing drills.

"I thought it was OK," Davis said.

In other action, the UIL executive committee:

- Suspended Brownsville Hanna soccer coach Juan Garcia for the first four games of next season for verbally abusing a soccer official. Garcia also received a public reprimand and one year probation. The school received one year probation and a public reprimand and was told to develop a plan for avoiding similar situations in the future.

- Placed Austin McCallum on probation for one year in baseball and assessed a public reprimand as a result of a fan physically and verbally abusing an umpire after an April 19 game. The school was required to submit a plan by Aug. 1 to avoid such incidents.
- Publicly reprimanded San Antonio Brackenridge baseball coach Billy Cox for using an ineligible player, which resulted in Brackenridge forfeiting all of its district games.
- Placed Clarksville, in Northeast Texas, on probation for 1991-92 and publicly reprimanded the school for allowing a basketball player to take physical education third period, in addition to a sixth period athletics class, and to practice basketball during both periods.

State baseball tourney features best pitchers

AUSTIN (AP) - Two of the finest pitchers in Texas high school baseball will be matched in the first-round of the University Interscholastic League tournament.

Games got underway today in the tournament, which pits Keller against Klein Oak tonight.

Keller (33-3) has the most victories of any team in the tournament, and is led by right-hander Trey Moore, who has a 15-0 pitching record and 0.95 ERA.

Moore, who has committed to Texas A&M, also is hitting .411 and leads his team with 39 RBIs.

Klein Oak (23-6) counters with left-hander Justin Thompson, who was selected by Detroit as the 32nd pick in Monday's major league draft.

Thompson has a 12-3 record and 0.90 ERA. He leads the Panthers in hitting with a .434 average.

The Class 5A division also includes League City Clear Lake (26-6) and San Antonio Clark (23-6).

Of the 20 teams competing in the five divisions this year, only three played in the 1990 tournament.

Robstown, runner-up in Class 4A; D'Hanis, runner-up in Class A; and Schulenburg, a semifinalist in 2A, are the only returnees.

Robstown, in its fourth trip to the tournament, is led by 1990 all-tournament catcher Robert Cervantes. The Cotton Pickers (25-6) battle Crowley (28-7) in the first round, while West Orange-Stark (31-3) takes on West Mesquite (24-8).

In 3A, a champion will emerge from newcomers Falfurrias (26-2), Buna (20-7), Fredericksburg (28-3) and Queen City (28-1). Queen City has won 21 straight, while Fredericksburg has a 19-game winning streak.

China Spring (23-2) heads the cast of 2A entrants with two previous state championships, in 1987 and 1989, and an 18-game winning streak this season.

Bo Adams, a 1990 all-tournament choice and a Texas Longhorn football recruit, leads Schulenburg (24-4) with a .385 average.

China Spring and Schulenburg play in the semifinals.

Van Horn (19-3) and Elkhart (23-5), which played in the 1979 tournament, round out the field in 2A.

D'Hanis (21-4) returns after a second-place finish in Class A last season, with all-tournament players Ryan Rothe and Modesto Rodriguez pitching and playing in the infield.

Rothe is 9-2 on the mound and hits .500 as the Cowboys' shortstop, while Rodriguez is 5-0 and is a .283 hitter at second base.

Valley Mills (17-2), which won a title in its only other trip to state in 1983, will join Clyde Eula (14-4) and Gunter (20-5) as the remaining Class A entries.

Ann Landers

DEAR ANN LANDERS: Today I attended the funeral of a friend who was kept alive on life support for several months. Too bad they didn't let him go peacefully. Hospital beds in intensive care cost over $2,000 a day. A month in such a unit could run $60,000. All the attending physicians agreed that he had no chance of recovery.

A year ago, I delivered the eulogy for a wonderful woman. "Myrtle" died peacefully, without life support. Her family found the enclosed Ann Landers column, dated 1971, in Myrtle's Bible. Across the top she wrote, "Dear Children: This is my sincere wish, too."

Please print it again to help others who must make a similar decision.-- Pastor Roger Ose, Augsburg Lutheran Church, Minneapolis

DEAR PASTOR OSE: Thank you for asking. Here it is:

Dear Ann: The letter from the children of the 90-year-old who fell out of bed at the nursing home and broke her hip prompted me to write a letter of instructions to my sons. Please publish it and encourage your readers to write similar letters to their children. God bless you.-- Sensible and Realistic

"Dear Sons: This is not a request. It is an order. I have tried to live with dignity and I want to die the same way. Should I become old and ill and unable to make a rational decision, you are instructed to give the physician orders not to attempt to prolong my life by using extraordinary measures. I want no surgery, no cobalt, no blood transfusions and no intravenous feedings. Please see that I get plenty of medication and sedatives. This letter will relieve you of the burden of making the decision because I have made it. My thanks and my love, Mother."

DEAR READERS: And now, for those interested, a new type of living will is available from Harvard Medical School's Health Letter. It's the "Medical Directive" and is sure to cover most of the questions you may have about living wills.

The Medical Directive lists 12 standard medical procedures or treatments, ranging from pain medication to cardiopulmonary resuscitation. For each situation there is a place for you to indicate whether you would want medical intervention which might prolong your life.

This Medical Directive includes a proxy form so you can designate someone you trust to make these difficult decisions when you can no longer do so yourself. It also includes a form enabling you to become an organ donor.

When you and two witnesses sign and date the Medical Directive, it provides legal support for your doctors to carry out your intentions. Check with your attorney general's office to see if the Medical Directive is considered a legal document in your state.

Because this form is new, your doctor may not be familiar with it. Bring it to your next appointment and discuss it. After the Directive has been completed and signed, your doctor should have a copy. You also should give a copy to the person to whom you expect to be closest should you become ill.

If you want a copy of this form, send a long, self-addressed, stamped business-size envelope to: Harvard Health -- Medical Directive, P.O. Box 380, Boston, Mass. 02117. The cost: two for $5, or five copies for $10. This could be the most important investment you've ever made.

An alcohol problem? How can you help yourself or someone you love? "Alcoholism: How to Recognize It, How to Deal With It, How to Conquer It" will give you the answers. Send a self-addressed, long, business-size envelope and a check or money order for $3.65 (this includes postage and handling) to: Alcohol, c/o Ann Landers, P.O. Box 11562, Chicago, Ill. 60611-0562. (In Canada, send $4.45.)

Country western music concert set Saturday

The Magic Plains Arts Council in co-operation with the National Park Service will conduct its 1991 benefit fundraiser by presenting Rex Allen, Jr. in a Country-Western music concert Saturday, June 8, at the Lake Meredith Amphitheater.

Proceeds from the 8 p.m. show are earmarked for the Arts Council's general fund, supporting cultural, arts, and entertainment projects in the Tri-City area. "This is the fifth season of the summer Lyceum series held at the amphitheater. Each year the season begins with a Nashville Country and Western star.

Last year over 1,000 people enjoyed the Becky Hobbs concert," said Tambre Lupkin, president of the Arts Council. Other events scheduled this year in the series include July 4-7 cowboy weekend with Red Stegall and the Adobe Walls Indian Dancers Summer Ceremonials Aug. 1-3. The beautiful lakeside view, cool evenings, and Panhandle sunsets are an added attraction for the shows.

Allen, son of the famous singing cowboy of the 1940s and 50s, Rex Allen, has been acclaimed as having one of the most versatile and sensational voices in country music today. He is backed by his band, Arizona.

"The nicest comments, and one we often receive," says Allen, "is when an avid rock and roll fan walks up to one of us after a concert and says something like, 'I never enjoyed country music until I saw your show.'"

Allen's brand of country music has been shaped over the course of a successful and varied career, both on stage and in the recording studio.

Allen quickly established himself as a talent to be reckoned with as he turned out a string of Top 40 hits such as "Lonely Street", "No, No, No", "Two Less Lonely People", "Can You Hear Those Pioneers", "Drink it Down, Lady", "Cup of Tea", "It's Over", "Dream on Texas Ladies", and a host of others.

Allen's "Arizona" was soon adopted as the official son of that state.

Success has brought with it recognition and national media exposure. He was named "Most Promising Male Vocalist" by the fan-voted Music City News Awards, and won Country Music Magazine's coveted "Bullet Award" as "New Entertainer of the Year".

Among his long list of television credits is a stint as co-host, with Jim Stafford, of 52 episodes of the highly rated "Nashville of the Road".

In all, Allen has had 25 Top 40 hits since 1973.

Advance general admission tickets for the show, offered at considerable savings over the "at-door" price, are available by calling 273-2800. This year a special "family" ticket is also available that will admit as many persons to the show as the holder wishes. The "family" ticket is available only in advance.

Little Miss entry forms available

Entries are being accepted through Friday for the annual Little Miss Hereford Pageant to be held June 15 at the Hereford High School auditorium.

Entry forms for the pageant are available at the Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce office at Seventh and Main in Hereford. Entry fee for the pageant is $5, and is open to girls from four years old through the ninth grade.

Pageant divisions include Cutest Miss, pre-school and Kindergarten; Miss Petite, first, second and third graders; Little Princess, fourth, fifth and sixth graders; and Junior Miss Hereford, seventh eighth and ninth graders. First place winners from previous years may not enter the same division.

There will be no talent competition, and the only clothing restriction is that clothing should be in good taste. Flowers will not be provided for girls to carry, but contestants may carry flowers or other accessories if desired.

All contestants will be required to attend a rehearsal on June 14.

The art of weaving by tying knots probably began in the 1200's by Arabians but it wasn't called macramé until about the 1400's. That's an Arabic or Turkish word meaning fringe.

Auxiliary holds meeting

The Ladies Auxiliary to Veterans of Foreign Wars Post #4818 met in regular session recently with Betty Boggs presiding.

The meeting was opened with minutes read and approved. Treasurers report was given and bills presented and paid. Correspondence was read and filed.

Erma Loving installed the two remaining officers who were absent at the previous meeting.

Argen Draper was presented a 25 year membership pin. Mabel Yocum received a 15 year pin.

The next meeting will be Monday, July 1. Secret pals will be revealed and new names drawn. Members who wish to participate need to attend the meeting.

After the meeting, members were served a ham supper. VFW members present were Tony Irlbeck and Robert Baum. Auxiliary members present were Betty Boggs, Leone Baum, Darleen Carroll, Argen Draper, Jo Irlbeck, Erma Loving, Essie Martin, Erma Murphey, Terry Rhyme, Sadie Shaw, Ruth Stethem, Doris Wilson, Linda Maeder and Marie Goheen.

On July 18, 1940, the Democratic national convention in Chicago nominated President Franklin D. Roosevelt for an unprecedented third term in office.

Local residents participate in cook-off

Give chocolate dessert for Father's Day

NEW YORK (AP) - Dad deserves more than a new tie or a pair of socks on Father's Day. Treat him to a special chocolate dessert!

Double Decker Pie is an easy dessert that the kids can make, with mom's help. The crust is made in the microwave, and the filling chills in the refrigerator. The recipe is provided by Hershey's Cocoa.

Picnic season can bring bouts with bad bacteria

Spring and summer are seasons for picnics and cookouts, but also a peak time for food-borne illness.

"Food-borne illness is a big problem during hot, hazy days because bacteria thrive in temperatures above 60 degrees," said Dr. Peggy Van Laanen, nutritionist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. More than 25 million cases of food poisoning are reported each year.

Such illnesses can be prevented, Van Laanen said, by taking proper precautions when food is prepared, stored or transported.

She offered these tips for preparing and packing food safely for outings:

Keep everything that touches food clean. Stop and wash utensils, bowls and counter tops—everything that touches food—between working and each dish. To avoid cross-contamination, never handle raw foods and cooked foods together. When eating outdoors, using disposables is a good idea.

Use a fork, not your hand to mix meat, macaroni, egg, tuna or green salad. Your hands continually pick up germs that get into fingernails and skin creases. Only vigorous washing with hot, soapy water prepares hands to safely deal with food.

Cook meat, poultry and seafood thoroughly to kill bacteria.

Refrigerate foods prepared the night before. Store perishables—meat, poultry or fish sandwiches, hard-boiled eggs—in the refrigerator until time to leave on your picnic.

Give the ice chest a good washing. Use baking soda to eliminate odors.

Use an ice chest to keep foods cold while traveling to the picnic area. Don't pack the chest too full; use enough ice to maintain a temperature of 40 degrees or below. Use shallow containers so food will stay chilled throughout. Keep the cooler in the shade, never in a hot car.

If bags are used to pack food, use only new, clean ones. Bags that have been used to carry groceries can pass insects or bacteria to foods. Wet or stained bags carry germs.

"When planning the menu, remember some foods are safer to take along than others," Van Laanen said. "Certain 'red flag' foods that need special care are moist, protein-containing foods such as dairy products, meats, eggs, poultry and sea food. Fried chicken and hard-boiled or deviled eggs are two foods that pick up bacteria quite easily. Cream pies and custards also may be difficult to transport safely.

Good choices for outings are meat, fish and poultry in cans that can be opened and eaten immediately, she said.

Another good standby is peanut butter. Nuts, dried fruits and cereal mixtures, hard cheese and crackers also are good choices.

Fresh fruits and vegetables go well at any picnic, Van Laanen said. But be sure to wash them thoroughly before packing to remove any contaminants.

"For outings, carry only what you plan on eating," she said. "Leftovers can be tricky. Eat as soon as possible upon arrival and never leave food out for more than two hours."

Hints from Heloise

Q. I need help. Several years ago, I put the adhesive film for window tint on a storm door. Now I would like to remove it.

Some of the tint will peel off leaving a residue on the glass, while in other places the film will not release. How can I remove this? — Jean Chisum, Stinnett, Texas

A. The tint film consists of two layers — the top or tint layer and the adhesive layer. The tint layer will usually peel off easily, but it's the adhesive layer underneath that is time-consuming and tedious to remove.

To tackle the job, you will need a razor blade that is set into a handle, lots of soapy water, elbow grease and patience.

Remove the tint layer by wetting the film well with the soapy water. While it is still wet, carefully peel away the top layer.

What's left is the adhesive layer, which takes more time to remove. This is where the razor blade, soapy water and elbow grease are especially needed. (There are solvents available on the market to do this job, but they don't seem to do as good a job.)

When all of the adhesive has been removed, clean the window with one of my favorite earth-friendly cleaners, vinegar. Good luck! — Heloise

DIRTY FINGERNAILS

Q. I despise wearing gloves while gardening but hate trying to remove the soil from under my fingernails afterwards.

I vaguely remember a solution for my problem in a column some time ago. Could you repeat this information? — Debra E., Lake Wales, Fla.

A. I'd be happy to! Right before you begin gardening, rub a bar of soap over the tops of your fingernails, then dig your fingernails into it. This prevents the dirt from getting under your nails. — Heloise

Ask Dr. Lamb

DEAR DR. LAMB: I am a 71-year-old male and I recently had my enlarged prostate removed. If there is any change in my sex life, it is for the better — no less than once every third day. Should I need to supplement my ability to perform adequately in the future, what would the dangers be in taking testosterone, assuming, of course, that it was prescribed by a doctor?

The prostate gland is quite small before puberty. When the male starts producing increased amounts of testosterone, the prostate enlarges. Testosterone plays a major role in causing an enlarged prostate. Some medical treatments to reduce the size of the prostate depend on preventing the stimulation of the prostate with testosterone — a form of reversible medical castration. And yes, that results in temporary impotence.

In addition, there is the increased risk of prostate cancer from taking testosterone. Castration or medicines to neutralize testosterone are useful in controlling prostate cancer. Taking testosterone would not be a good idea. It could also raise your total cholesterol and increase your risk of heart attacks. Finally, it might not improve your sex life at that point either.

DEAR READER: Keep in mind that

Imagine a life insurance policy that protects your family's future in more than one way. Suppose it also protected you from the financial consequences of long term health care while you're living, without reducing the life insurance benefit.

That's the policy our independent agency recommends for many customers thinking about retirement. It's called the Total Protection Plan from the CNA Insurance Companies, one of several we represent. It's the first policy that pays the full cash value or death benefit of your life insurance even after you receive long term care benefits.
