Boys Enjoy Camping Trip

The fortunate boys who are members of the Royal Ambassadors, an organization consisting of boys of the Baptist Church from eleven to fourteen years of age, enjoyed a jolly camping trip the latter part of last week. Chaperoned by their leader, Mrs. E. W. Allen, together with Mrs. Matt Gilliland and Mr. Allen, they were taken to the dairy swimming hole early Thursday afternoon. Here the boys enjoyed a delightful swim that gave zest to the bountiful supper cooked over a blazing campfire.

A variety of out-door sports sped the time merrily until bedtime when cots were spread in the open for a slumber party beneath a canopy of stars.

Next morning with the first hint of sunrise, each jolly camper made his own individual campfire and proceeded to cook his own breakfast.

The entire day was spent in the enjoyment of all the pleasures ingenious boys can devise, a late hour supper closing the festivities.

The party included: Oliver Ray, Ward Allen, Marlin, Newton and Jack Gilliland, George Connell, Junior Burns, Edgar Johnson, Tommy Bishop, Willie White, Alvin Turner, Van Bruner, Newton and Hugh Nicks and William Crawford, of Amarillo.

Guests at supper Thursday evening were, Mrs. W. H. Ray, Mrs. Sallie Crawford, of Amarillo, and Mrs. Ray's father, Mr. Allen.

Out-of-Town Visitor Honored

One of the pleasantest of the smaller parties of the week was given Wednesday evening by Miss Jewell Glibbreath in honor of Mr. Lloyd Rhodes, of Perot, Texas, who has been a guest in the Glibbreath home since Sunday.

The young people motored to the creek and after enjoying an exhilarating swim, lighted a fire over which weiners and marshmallows were roasted as a finale to a delicious picnic supper.

Enjoying the evening's pleasures were Misses Jewell Glibbreath, Donelda Sites, Marie Burns, Messrs. Lloyd Rhodes, Wallace Cox, Bruce Guthrie and Littrell Spratt.

Dinner at Boydston Home

On Tuesday, Mr. and Mrs. Boydston extended the hospitality of their country home south of town to a large party of neighbors and friends, who spent with them a most delightful day, one of whose pleasant features was an elaborate noonday dinner.

The long tables so attractively spread with such abundance of everything to tempt the appetite were most inviting and the informal serving of the delicious meal added to the pleasure it occasioned.

The guests remained until late afternoon, those present being: Mr. and Mrs. Beryl France, Mr. and Mrs. Lucas, Mr. and Mrs. Will Atkinson, Mrs. Pierce, Mrs. Casebolt, Misses Ethlyn Cockrell, Ruth Casebolt, Lois Brazil, Dena Kellar, Zephia Valentine, Messrs. Blayne Coyle and George McMahon.

Girls Attend Summer Camp

A number of Hereford girls are enjoying the delights of camp life this week at the Y. P. M. S. summer camp on the Upchurch ranch near Amarillo.

The camp is the property of the Northwest Texas Conference of the Methodist Church and every summer an outing together with an inspirational and instructive program is offered the girls of the church. Fishing, swimming, various forms of athletics and other diversions of special appeal to girls will furnish pleasurable physical recreation while an intellectual treat is offered in the program.

Misses G. A. F. Parker and Roy Stocking are chaperoning the party which is made up of Misses Mildred Cross, Annie Fitzhugh Parker, Lenis Anthony, Leona Haisell, Zoe Beavers, Gladys Beavers, Dollie Ward, Ruth Davis, Louise Ricketts, Gwendolyn Price, Josephine Stocking, Mary Llewellyn Parker and Jerome Stocking.

GARAGE DRIVE IN

A neatly painted sign, "GARAGE—Drive In"—can cover a multitude of mechanics.

There are good mechanics—then mechanics who are not so good.

It was upon the policy of efficient SERVICE that we built up our trade. If your car needs repairs or a mere adjustment—we have the first-class workmen here to do that job.

Tinkering with a high-class mechanism by untrained and unthinking workers has cost the motor owners of America a pretty figure.

You DON'T get that kind of service in this shop.

No matter what is wrong with your car—we can fix it.—Drive in!!

Verne Witherspoon and George Beams are now in charge of the Hereford Garage. They have put in a new stock of tires and tubes, have a large stock of accessories and are giving you pre-war prices.

THAT BIGGEST TRIP OF OURS

Every school boy knows that in the space of 365 days, a year, this jolly old earth of ours—jolly notwithstanding the efforts of trouble distillers to make it a hell—travels clear around the sun, keeping the good safe distance of ninety-three million miles from him. We all learned that at school and bother no more about it all our lives.

But just now the scientific fellows are worrying their heads over another question. While we travel all around him, the sun is at the same time shooting off in a straight line towards some point in space, leaving behind him a track four hundred million miles long and dragging the earth and other planets he governs, after him. The fact is, of course, no new, but what the scientists are now worrying about is—

"Where is the sun going? WHERE will that four hundred miles a year journey finally land him—and us?"

We should worry because they all agree that with all his speed, he can't reach Vega, the nearest universe system in his path, in less than two million years!

But, d'ye mind, the great sun Vega, which could swallow our sun and not notice it at all, is also traveling a bit himself. He is bound somewhere, too, and is in a great hurry about it, so that when our sun and earth reach the heavenly spot of his 1921 location, he may have gone clear beyond our sight, even with telescopes. Nothing sociable about old Vega.

Well, we're willing for the scientists to worry about such things. But they are interesting to hear about once in a while.

MYSTERY WHERE THERE IS NO MYSTERY

One of the curious things about men who have things to sell, from the man who has a good, eatable currant bun on his counters, to him who has a $20,000 machine on the market, is that many of them look on advertising as something mysteriously. Indeed, there are some who hedge it about with so much mysticism that they soon engender incredulity and therefore do not advertise at all. Such men are their own worst enemies.

But where do you find a READER of

Uncle John's Poem

RACIAL WARS

Since God, in His wisdom, created the entity known as "Man," the tribes have been co-related, the white, the black and the tan. No effort at segregation has proven to be success—and yet their amalgamation has furnished profound distress. In the struggle to be the fittest, I need not mention the race, that, since the dawn of creation, has taken the foremost place.

Endowed with a God-like vision, to compass the land and sea, what soul would repel his decision to make all mankind free?

But, jealousy, envy, hatred,—these are the devil's tools, to strike to the heart of angels,—to rage in the brain of fools. When you sharpen the spear of malice with the grind of a beastly lust, you are growing fruit for the gallows, as racial antipathy must. Let man, regardless of color, remember his fated place.

For God respects no persons, not even a color or race. And when every man does his duty, as all of God's children can, the soul will abound in beauty, and God will take care of man.

For every man

advertisements who looks upon them as mysteries? Nowhere. The great mass of people who read newspapers and magazines, look on advertisements with much the same spirit that they do on the news, reading features, editorials and stories.

The trouble with that man who has something to sell and who considers advertising as something mysterious, is that he has an entirely wrong view of the subject. There can be no mystery in an industry—advertising—whose greatest power comes from playing in the open.

Lies and misrepresentation in advertising are splendid routes to the poor house. It is easily proved that it is far—FAR AWAY—more profitable to tell the truth every time in an advertisement.

No great education is needed to prove the truth of the effectiveness of advertising. If the man who is in doubt about it, or who looks on advertising as a mystery, will make up his mind to give 10 hours of his life—ONLY TEN HOURS—to a reading study of its value, he will get all the education he needs.

Read one book by an expert on the subject and your eyes will be opened—WIDE.

$10,392.54 MORE FOR EXTENSION WORK

College Station, Texas.—According to the last census the rural population of Texas has outgrown that of the state of Pennsylvania, which held first place among the states according to the 1910 census, and Texas will receive $10,392.54 more from the Federal government under the Smith-Lever Law to be expended through the A. & M. College of Texas the next biennium beginning September 1, for home and farm demonstration work, according to information received by President W. B. Bissell from Washington last week.

During the past decade Pennsylvania ranked first and received a slightly larger proportion of the Smith-Lever fund than Texas received. But as a result of the 1920 census Texas will receive $4,858.85 more for 1921-22 and $5,533.69 more for the year of 1922-23 or a total of $10,392.54 more than the state would have received under the census figures of 1910.

THRIFT

Thrift, the power to save, which means self-restraint, is mainly important, not because it means wealth in the end, not because it enables you to make others work while you watch or play, but it gives you peace of mind. Without peace of mind, no one can do his best work or lead a life really worth while.

The lives of millions have been ruined because they never reached a point where they really owned themselves.

If you are working today for the money that you must pay out on Saturday, you are not your own owner.

To save money is to pay off the mortgage on yourself, and that ought to be worth while.

The man who succeeds is the man who thinks he can. Success comes in CANS; failures in CANT'S.

A HEREFORD INTERVIEW

Mrs. McCord Tells Her Experience.
The following brief account of an interview with a Hereford woman four years ago, and its sequel, will be read with keen interest by every citizen.

Mrs. J. B. McCord, 602 W. 2nd St., Hereford, says: "I used Doan's Kidney Pills a couple years ago, getting them at the Betts-Clark Drug Co. and they proved perfectly satisfactory in every way. I had been bothered at that time with my kidneys being weak. My back gave me the most trouble for it ached all the time. My kidneys were also irregular in action. I have had but very little trouble since Doan's Kidney Pills cured the attack at that time. I gladly advise anyone suffering from kidney complaint to use Doan's." (Statement given November 16, 1915.)

On May 3, 1919, Mrs. McCord said: "Since recommending Doan's Kidney Pills before I have used them occasionally. Doan's have never failed to give satisfactory results. This has increased my faith in this remedy and I praise them just as highly today as I did when I first endorsed them." 60c. at all dealers. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

The First Shall be Last
 If the woman who hesitates is lost, what about the woman who shimmies?

 —Mrs. Arthur Thompson and son, Arthur, Jr., left Hereford Friday morning for Emporia, Kansas. Mrs. Thompson will visit in the home of her mother, Mrs. L. Short.

Notice
 As it is the time of the year for sickness and slow fevers, I ask the people of Hereford to be very careful to keep their premises cleaned up and not to put rubbish out in tin tubs and cans that breed germs and flies. It has been called to my attention that there are some who are putting whole fish and fish and chicken offals in cans to decay and create a horrible stench.

Little Need of Service
 A powerful influence in attracting buyers to the OilPull is its rare need for service.
 A tractor that is working in the field instead of lying idle in the repair shop is the one that is making profits for its owner.
 The OilPull is in service continually—not in need of service. It is ready to go any minute of the day, summer and winter, and will keep going steadily hour after hour with a minimum need of attention.
 It is designed for uncommon strength in every part—it is built to endure the hardest kind of farm work for years. Frame, wheels and in fact every detail of every unit are made better and stronger than would seem necessary at first thought.
 It is this extra strength and quality coupled with many advantages in design that has made it easily possible for the OilPull to excel in tractor performance, durability and small need of service.
 There is a choice of four sizes—12-30, 16-30, 20-40 and 30-60 H. P.—a size for every farm.
