ARMISTICE TO BE CELEBRATED ON FRIDAY

SCHOOL CHILDREN TO PRESENT ELABORATE AFFAIR

A LOCAL CHURCH

To be Scene of Program Prepared in Accord With Subject

Next Saturday, November 11, is national Armistice Day, but the pupils of the public school have prepared a splendid program appropriate for the occasion to be rendered on Friday afternoon at the Christian church, beginning at 2:30 o'clock. This excellent program has entailed a lot of hard work, is patriotic in every respect and well worth hearing, and it is hoped the people of Hereford and vicinity will turn out in godly numbers and demonstrate their respect for the occasion and their pride in their children by their attendance. The program follows:

- America..... Audience

Methodist Draw Chillicothe Pastor for Hereford

Rev. J. N. Lipscomb is the new pastor of the Methodist church of Hereford, according to press reports and also according to a card received from Rev. Beavers addressed to Judge Jno. P. Slaton. The Northwest Conference, in session this week, has been shifting the preachers about. Rev. Lipscomb is at present at Chillicothe, Texas, where he has made a splendid record. He has a wife and two children, it is understood. In his postal Rev. Beavers said: "Rev. J. N. Lipscomb is your pastor. He is a good one every way. Just what you want."

It is announced that Rev. Lipscomb will preach his first sermon here next Sunday morning. Rev. G. S. Hardy was returned by the Conference as presiding elder of this district, and Rev. G. R. Fort of Dimmitt and Rev. Florence Preston of Bovina were also sent back to their old charges. Rev. Beavers was confirmed in his new pastorate at Canyon.

JOHN BURCH HOME FROM MAYO BROS. IS MUCH IMPROVED

Mr. and Mrs. John Burch and daughter, Estelle, reached Hereford Tuesday morning from Mayo Brothers Sanitarium, Rochester, Minn. Mr. Burch comes home in much better health.

MR. AND MRS. JND. WILLIAMS TO TAKE HEALTH VACATION

Mr. and Mrs. John Williams were planning to take a vacation trip to El Paso in their car this week, leaving

Dallas News Has Nice Story About Our Irrigation

The Dallas News of November 4 carried a splendid story on Hereford's irrigation system written by Victor H. Schoffelmayer, Field Editor, who recently visited here and secured his data first hand. The article accompanied a splendid picture of a big irrigation ditch on the farm of Percy Welliver, south of town.

Mr. Schoffelmayer is the recognized expert farm writer in the state and his article was a fine tribute to the possibilities of irrigation in this district, as well as its past history and systematic growth. Incidentally, Mr. Welliver advised The Brand this week that he is now preparing to sink another irrigation well on the southwest quarter of his farm south of town. He has made a success of irrigation with his original well and intends to push his good fortune along with added water facilities hereafter. Mr. Welliver is a shrewd business man and probably the most successful farmer in the Hereford trade territory, and the fact that he is getting real results out of irrigation and is preparing to expand its activities is significant at this time.

Hereford Hi is Again Victor in Brilliant Game

Hereford High's snappy little football eleven won its fourth straight game of this season here last Friday afternoon when Farwell High was turned back to the tune of 25 to 6. As has been the case in all the games so far the Hereford team worked together in such fast and snappy fashion that they could not be stopped. Perhaps the feature of the game was a sixty yard pass and run for a touchdown by Ardis Russell in the fourth period. The other touchdowns were all made on straight football, short end rushes and line plunges. The first score came within five minutes of the opening, and the first half ended with the score of 19 to 0. In the third quarter a long Farwell punt across the goal line was touched by a Hereford man and an alert Farwell runner fell on the ball behind the line for Farwell's only score. Good teamwork, fine interference, getting away quickly, told the story of the difference in the two elevens. This makes four victories to date as follows: Hereford 19, Vega 18; Hereford 40, Friona 0; Hereford 13, Vega 0; Hereford 25, Farwell 6.

The team will have a real test on next Friday, when they entertain the strong and heavy Canyon High. This game should be a dandy and the boys will need the support of all football fans and cheer for them. The lineup last Friday was as follows: Onals Curroll, left end; Gene LeGrand, left tackle; B. Wade, left guard; Robert Boyd, center; Harold Hicks, right guard; George Connell, right tackle; Ardis Russell, right end; Clayton Woolery, quarter back; Thurmon Hines (Captain) left half back; Taylor Thurmond, right half back; A. Reed, full back. Touchdowns: Hines 2, Thurmond 1, Russell 1.

TOURIST CARS OF EVERY KNOWN MAKE PASS THRU HERE

The tourist automobile travel thru Hereford is principally west at this time of the year. The Auto Utility Station procured the names of the make of cars and the state they were from in the past ten days, of 143 west bound and 22 east bound. This represents only a small part of the travel thru Hereford. Cars of twenty-five different makes and from states as far east as New Hampshire, north from Minnesota and west from California, were in

PROGRAM IS READY FOR RED CROSS

TENTATIVE OUTLINE IS FULL OF MUSICAL SUGGESTION

ROLL CALL LATER

Drive for Annual Memberships to Begin Monday, Nov. 13

Plans for the big Red Cross Rally Day program, to be held at the Christian Church next Sunday night, beginning promptly at 7:30 p. m., are about completed. The musical section of the program, under the direction of Miss Mattie Swisher, has been worked out in detail. The two speakers who will deliver prepared six-minute talks have not yet been announced but have been notified and will have their oratorical shotguns loaded for bear. It is whispered that a special representative of the Red Cross from St. Louis may reach here in time for the meeting, but that is uncertain at this moment.

The program sounds enticing and musical. The occasion promises to be one long to be remembered in Hereford. There will be no collection. The executive committee asks The Brand to again call the attention of the pastors of the city to the meeting and ask their hearty cooperation.

The city has been divided into districts and picked workers in each division will take the field next Monday and work for the success of the Annual Roll Call. These committeemen will be named between now and Monday by the executive committee. The tentative program for next Sunday night, subject to alteration as occasion may require, follows:

- Program
- America
 - Invocation
 - Opening Remarks
 - Band or Orchestra
 - Chorus..... United Choir
 - Red Cross Work in Peace Times
 - Solo..... Mrs. Mountz
 - Reading..... Miss Swift
 - Ladies Chorus..... Miss Swisher
 - Solo..... Miss Swisher
 - "The Other Fifty Cents"..... Glee Club
 - Band
 - Star Spangled Banner..... Glee Club

Poultry Association Backed by Commercial Club

Assurances of moral and financial support were given the Hereford Poultry Association by the Hereford Chamber of Commerce at Monday's luncheon at the Stockmen's Cafe. An outline of the needs of the coming Show, December 4-5, were given at the luncheon and the organization will be backed to the limit in making the Show a success.

The Show will be held in the Stock Pavilion, and the officers of the association will begin active committee work this week looking toward the erection of coops and other necessary details. It is hoped to secure the services of Walter Burton of Arlington, Texas, as judge, a man with a national reputation. He will judge the Amarillo Show immediately following the Hereford exhibition and efforts are now being made to secure his services here.

DISTRICT COURT'S HOPPER GRINDING AWAY ON TUESDAY

Hereford's Pioneer Work Teaching Bible in Schools is Model For Growing State Sentiment

The fact that Hereford has been a pioneer in Texas in the matter of teaching the Bible in the public schools is now beginning to be recognized, and frequent requests for information about the course are received here. Hereford schools have now been teaching the Bible as part of the regular course for five years and Miss Mattie Swisher has perfected and is using a manual course of study that is beginning to be in demand. The original manual originated with the Moody Bible School.

Tuesday G. A. E. Parker, president of the school board, received a letter from th Hon. Ben F. Looney of Greenville, former attorney general of Texas, complimenting Hereford on the manual and asking where he could secure a supply so that they can be placed in the hands of all teachers and interested parties at Greenville.

It is understood that Mr. Looney is one of a number of prominent men now working on a plan to make the teaching of the Bible in the public schools compulsory, by legislative enactment.

Mrs. Witherspoon Signally Honored By Her Friends

An expression of love and friendship from a number of the old friends of the honoree, Mrs. Fannie Witherspoon, who has been visiting in Hereford for the past two months, was the luncheon on last Friday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Black. The spacious and hospitable Black home was an ideal place for such a gathering.

Although the worst storm of the season raged outside, the cheery interior, with its blazing open fire and profusion of flowers, together with the warm greeting of its mistress, created an atmosphere in keeping with the spirit of the occasion. As, in every reunion of old friends there is something of sorrow mingling with the joy, and hallowed memories play their part, yet there was so much of interest, so many wonderful changes to mark the passage of the years, so many mirth provoking incidents recalled of the early days of the town and county—these as well as matters of a more personal nature, furnished topics in unstinted measure for conversation and made the day all too short.

The luncheon was Hereford's culinary art at its best, and was served in a cafeteria. From the beautifully decorated table in the dining room, which contained the abundant menu, the guests found their way to small tables scattered throughout the receiving rooms. Mrs. Black was assisted in the preparation and serving of the luncheon by the hostesses of the day. About forty-five enjoyed the hospitality of the occasion.

Mrs. Witherspoon and her husband the late Judge C. G. Witherspoon, were among the earliest, most influential and honored citizens of the county. They erected the first home in the old county seat, La Plata, and the first residence in Hereford. Judge Witherspoon held various positions of trust in the county, and was one of its most substantial business men. He and his family were active in every enterprise for the welfare of the county, whether of a religious, educational, or business nature. Since the death of her husband Mrs. Witherspoon has resided in Waxahachie, Texas, but every two years she has made a visit to this, her old home, and renewed the friendships of the past with her old friends who are legion; who are gladdened by her coming and sorrow at her going.

VEGA PEOPLE ARE VISITED BY RELATIVES FROM COAST

Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Bristow left Hereford Monday morning for Astec, N. Mex. Mr. and Mrs. Bristow have been visiting in the home of Mrs. J. T. Owen of Vega, Texas. Mesdames Owen and Bristow are sisters. Mrs. Owen and son, J. G. Owen, editor of the Vega Sentinel, accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Bristow from Vega to Hereford. Mr. and Mrs. Bristow live in Portland, Oregon and are enroute from the east to their home.

G. W. WILSON TOOK 5 BALES COTTON TO THE TULIA GIN

G. W. Wilson, from nine miles east of Hereford, passed thru Tuesday afternoon with two wagon loads of cotton. Mr. Wilson is going to Tulia for the purpose of having his cotton ginned. He had about five bales on this trip, of the Mebane variety.

MEETING OF SOUTH WEST TRAIL CALLED AT AMARILLO

A. Iten, Pioneer Castro Citizen, is Called to Reward

Dimmitt, Nov. 7.—Mrs. Fred Galle received a wire from relatives in Chicago Tuesday morning stating that her father, Mr. A. Iten, was very low. Mrs. Galle and her youngest son, Eugene, left on the first train Wednesday morning for his bedside, reaching there only a few hours before his death.

Mr. Iten passed away at six o'clock Friday evening at the Swedish Hospital in Chicago. He had been ill for the past two months and went to Chicago for special treatment about six weeks ago. Good reports were received of his condition until a few days ago when he became very ill. The very best physicians were called in but none were able to relieve him.

Mr. Iten has been a resident of Castro County for something like sixteen years and has many good friends here who will regret very much to learn of his death. We pray the richest of God's blessings upon the brokenhearted relatives in this time of sadness and trouble.

Nice Weather Follows Winds and Rain on Saturday

Terrific wind and dust storms last Friday and Saturday made life miserable for local people. Weather reports indicate that the wind was the tail-end of bad storms in Oklahoma and of sleet and snow storms in Colorado and New Mexico. The wind and dust Saturday morning was suddenly followed by a drop in temperature about nine o'clock and a slow drizzling rain that fell until just before noon, when it cleared up beautifully. The weather has been crisp and clear since then, with no moisture.

BARNHART FAMILY ENCOUNTER BLIZZARD IN NEW MEX.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Barnhart and daughter, Miss Mabel, reached Hereford Sunday night from El Paso, Texas, Hot Springs, and other points southwest in New Mexico. On their return trip they encountered a genuine blizzard near Vaughn, N. Mex., at an elevation of more than 6,000 feet.

SMALL DAUGHTER MR. AND MRS. HENRY REEDY IS DEAD

The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Reedy passed away at the Hereford Sanitarium Sunday morning at about 11 o'clock. She was past three years old, and had been ill for some time. The funeral services were held at the Black Funeral Parlors Monday morning at 10:00. Interment at the City Cemetery. Rev. J. R. Sharp officiating.

CANADIAN COUPLE SPEND DAY VISITING WITH A SON

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Harris spent Sunday with their son, G. A. Harris, and family. Mr. and Mrs. Harris are from Canadian, Texas. Mr. Harris is an old employee of the Santa Fe, having served as section foreman for more than 20 years.

OWNER OF KELSO RANCH SPENDS TWO DAYS IN HEREFORD

C. H. Early, owner of the Kelso Ranch, reached Hereford last Saturday and made an inspection of his holdings Saturday and Sunday. Mr. Early left Hereford Monday morning for his home

VERY LIGHT BALLOTING ON TUESDAY

VERY LITTLE INTEREST IN GENERAL ELECTION IN CITY

ALL "UP IN AIR"

Conflicting Instructions Ball Up Officials. Up to The Courts

Complete returns from Boxes 1, 2 and 3 Tuesday night showed the following: Mayfield 210, Peddy 169; Owen P. Smith 151 for county attorney, F. T. Roloson 143; J. H. Wilson for Justice of the Peace 219, W. B. Parmer 107. The vote was very light, less than fifty per cent of the primary strength being shown.

First bulletins from over the state Tuesday night showed Mayfield leading Peddy by 30,000, with only a fifty per cent vote being polled.

Voting in the two city boxes Tuesday in the general election was light and nothing to compare with the heavy rush to the polls during the recent primaries. All indications pointed to about a third vote in volume as compared with the first and second primaries. But the ticket was so large and cumbersome that the election officials said it would be a slow job tabulating them and returns would be late coming in at night. Mayfield's name did not go on the ticket in Deaf Smith county, as they were held to the last minute Monday night.

Conflicting instructions at that time and distributed to the country voting boxes. The conflicting instructions given county officials from different sources caused a lot of confusion and just what the real law is in the case may never be known. Monday night Judge Megert received two telegrams, one from C. W. Payne, acting secretary of state, and the other from the attorneys handling the Mayfield case, instructing him to put the name on the ballots. Even if these instructions were right it was too late to print the tickets and distribute them to the country boxes. Tuesday morning Judge Megert received a wire from Luther Nickels, representing Peddy, giving an opposite view of the situation. The three telegrams in full follow:

"Austin, Tex., 3:37 p. m. Nov. 6. County Judge Deaf Smith Co., Hereford, Texas. All injunctions every character dissolved and supreme court has refused application for mandamus. Advice of attorney general's department is that this completely settles the question and that it is your duty to immediately print and distribute ballots bearing Mayfield's name. C. W. Payne, Acting Secretary of State. 7:25 p. m."

"El Worth, Tex., 5:27 p. m. Nov. 6. County Judge, Deaf Smith Co., Hereford, Texas. The Supreme court of the state of Texas by its decision requires the name of Earle B. Mayfield to be placed at the head of the democratic party for United States Senator. McLean, Scott & McLean. 7:25 p. m."

"Dallas, Tex., Nov. 6. Hereford, Texas. This notifies you that Corcoran and Groesbeck injunctions are in full force. Mayfield's name on any ballot is illegal. Supreme court did not pass on application for writ of error. McLean and Payne telegrams false and unauthorized. Violations of injunctions will be prosecuted and election contested. Luther Nickels"

SUMMERFIELD
 Summerfield was on the map last Tuesday night when our teachers and pupils staged a Hallowe'en carnival. It was something new under the sun to many of us and was entertaining, educational and helpful, as the children learned how to make and arrange booths, and to decorate, and dress themselves in their lovely crepe paper dresses. The numbers rendered by the little Foster sisters of Hereford were greatly enjoyed. Also those by Miss Davis's pupils of Tierra Blanco school. And the boy's pig became very famous in his different values and missions. His first cost was $3.50, paid by the boys. Then they sold tickets to the amount of $75, and No. 128 drew the pig. Jesse Caldwell holding this number. He then gave it to be sold to the highest bidder and the proceeds to be given to Mrs. Townsend, a little woman who is crippled and lives with her sister in this community and is much loved by all, there being $21.00 given for this. Then Mr. Red Pig was given to the sewing girls, so guess he will be converted into a sewing machine. We understand there were 24 hens, 6 lbs. of butter and 3 doz. eggs donated by the patrons, which are to be sold and the proceeds used for athletic equipment.

The singing class went to Friona Sunday afternoon and report plenty of good singing, as well as car trouble on the road but all made the round trip all right.

W. J. McMinn and wife attended the Fifth Sunday meeting at Tulla and report a great meeting. There was a large attendance from all parts of the association, and Bro. E. E. Dawson and his great church entertained all guests royally. Some of our preacher boys from Wayland College of Plainview were present, being pastors of churches in this association. They gave glowing reports of the school and its large number of students this year.

W. P. McMinn visited his daughter, Mrs. Ward, of South Hereford, Monday night.

 A delightful Hallowe'en party was given Tuesday evening by Mrs. C. O. Norton. The rooms were spookily decorated with big black cats, witches and owls. The pumpkins vied with each other in giving a wierd touch to the decorations. The silent ghostly figures fitted thruout the rooms and about the yard, fairly making one's flesh creep. Forty-two and various games afforded much merriment. One unique feature was the big chicken fry out in the yard where the chicken was served hot with bread, coffee and punch, followed by pie. "Vice is a monster of so frightful mien, To be hated needs but to be seen."

But seen too oft, familiar with its face, We first endure, then pity, then embrace."

Grace Ferguson, of the Senior Class, spent the week-end with Virginia Laird on the Laird ranch in Castro County.

The program for the Chapel exercises on Thursday morning was in the hands of the 9th grade. The entertainment was unique, and greatly enjoyed by the teachers as well as the student body.

On Friday afternoon at 2:30 at the Christian Church the Central and High Schools will give an Armistice Day program. Elsewhere in the paper the program will be found. We are giving the program down town instead of the High School Auditorium that it may be more convenient for the people of Hereford to attend. Be on time, as the first number on the program by the two hundred fifty boys and girls will be well worth hearing.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Donald entertained at dinner on Sunday, Misses Allen, Keiper, Read and Griffith, Mrs. E. B. Ezell and Mr. Travis Dameron, their daughter, Emma Jean's teachers.

The Hereford Hi football team will play the Canyon High School team on next Friday p. m.

A lost opportunity never finds its way back.—Ex.

There is but one remedy for our national ills—education. Knowledge and inspiration are essential to citizenship. The schools of America must save America.

But we must not be content with merely imparting knowledge. American citizenship should mean patriotism, and patriotism is not of the intellect alone; it is very largely of the spirit and of the heart. It cannot be taught by a mere discussion of principles. Religion is of the spirit; so is patriotism.

Mold is a plant belonging to the group of non-green plants known as fungi. Other fungi related to molds are mildew, mushrooms, spadstools and shelf fungi.

We have not failed in life, until we are dead.

We are told to always take a pleasant thought to bed with us, because we build character while we are asleep. Our dominant thought when we fall asleep will work in our brain during the night, and we will awaken in the morning cheerful, strong, resolute, to win out during the day; or depressed, weak, negative, hopeless, according to the nature of the thought we took with us to sleep.

The Giraffe

Rarest of all wild animals in captivity is the giraffe. The reason for this is, that their delicate temperament makes them very hard to import, the ocean voyage and likelihood of inclement weather resulting in a tempestuous voyage, adds greatly to the hazard of transporting. The intrinsic value of a giraffe cannot be estimated at its first cost, for the expense of transporting them from their native haunts in Abyssinia to the changed climatic conditions of America is far more important as an item of expense than their first cost in capturing them.

Within a comparatively few years, herds of giraffes ran wild on the plains of Abyssinia. Now the discovery of a herd is an occasion of great excitement among the natives, for they have learned how anxious American showmen are to possess these rare animals and to what pains and expense they will go to secure them. These animals in America are valued from $15,000 to $20,000 each.

A giraffe hunting expedition is a great undertaking financially and always presents possibilities of failure, and making it a doubtful venture at all times.

The method employed in capturing a herd of giraffes is unique. A two-sided corral—long fences converging at a point—is erected in the vicinity of where a herd is known to be grazing. Several thousand natives are employed to form a semi-circle around the browsing herd, and then the white men get behind the animals and start to drive them into the corral. When any of them attempt to break through the lines the natives drive them back by brandishing their spears, waving blankets and uttering unearthly yells. Thus the semi-circle is gradually narrowed until the giraffes are driven into the corral. Then they are with great difficulty made captive, and the work of transferring them to ships is also a very great task.

Arriving at their new homes, the animals first suffer greatly from homesickness, and many die before they become accustomed to their new surroundings. Those that pass through this stage soon learn to know and become fond of their keepers, and eat American food products without requiring imported forage. Giraffes once acclimated, eat hay meal, and are very fond of mulberry leaves. They eagerly drink milk in preference to water. They are tractable and cause little annoyance in caring for them. Except in rare cases they make no sound. With good luck in handling, they live long, and their loss is most often occasioned by indigestion or an accident to the long necks which mark them so distinctively as the strangest of animals. Fleet of foot and docile in captivity, they are easily frightened, and in conflict put up a furious battle with the hoofs as their only weapon of defense or attack. Their eyes are intelligent and expressive and their walk is unlike any other animal known.

How Are You Fixed In The Stove Line?

The winter months are approaching. Just remember, the Old Standard Round Oak makes you proud to own one, and saves you coal. We have something new on display in the Range line. Would be very glad to have you look our line over.

Garrison Bros.

What Makes CLINKERS?

When dirt gets into coal the glass in the dirt melts and runs down into the ashes and when it cools it forms clinkers. Any coal will clinker if dirt gets into it—hence the importance of keeping it out. We store our coal in a good house with concrete floors. Try our Sunnyside-Colorado Lump. You will like it.

We have it on hand. Phone 388.

EVERBRITE RADIANT HEATER

No need to worry about a coal shortage. The Everbrite is unlike any oil burning heater you have ever seen. It takes the kerosene and transforms it into a gas-vapor, which mixed with more than 90 percent of air, passes into the burner and burns like natural gas. It is odorless, smokeless and sootless.
