UWDSC enjoys big kickoff luncheon

By JOHN BROOKS
Managing Editor

Hereford's 1989-90 United Way campaign kicked off Thursday with a luncheon before a full house at the banquet room at the Hereford Community Center.

The campaign will begin Monday, and run for six weeks. "We Care Enough" is the theme for the campaign.

"I don't know how we're going to do, but we're going to try," said Dr. Trow Mims, the 1989-90 United Way of Deaf Smith County campaign chairman.

Boyd Foster, this year's UWDSC president, urged the crowd to become familiar with the 12 UWDSC agencies that help an estimated 10,000 persons in the county each year.

UWDSC Vice President Margaret Bell recounted all of the fundraising efforts in Hereford and Deaf Smith County each year, but pointed out how the UWDSC is the most important project of the year.

"We can give generously to a united fund to make the other drives less necessary," Bell said. "The United Way hasn't been as generous as it needs to be, but it makes a big impact on the agencies and clients."

Bell said the other drives and interests of those organizations are not in conflict with UWDSC. She said the YMCA's recent drive was for operational expenses, building improvements and other needs, while the UWDSC funds to the YMCA go to help give children scholarships to use the YMCA's programs and facilities.

She also told the crowd the Senior Citizens' current building pledge drive was a three-year effort, and the UWDSC funds going to the senior center were intended to be used for the center's meals programs and other activities, and not for the building fund.

of action a fair hearing," Bell said.

Marilyn Van Patton, the executive director of the Amarillo United Way, told the crowd that United Way "is at the heart of every good cause there is."

Van Patton told of how over 23,000 United Way campaigns are opening this month across the United States and how the federal government has turned to United Way to meet local needs.

"It's hard to make a connection sometimes between services in the community and the United Way, but it matters to so many people whether the United Way succeeds or fails," Van Patton said.

"We can do our job to make our little piece of the world right. You can show the people in the Panhandle, your friends and neighbors, that you really do care. Do you care? Do you care enough?"

Incinerator closing may force hike in garbage fees

By KAY PECK
Staff Writer

For nearly two decades the city incinerator has been an efficient and economical means of dealing with much of Hereford's solid waste. On Sept. 1, the incinerator was no more.

That's when the ban issued by the Texas Department of Health went into effect.

"The bottom line is, it's going to cost us more money," said City Manager Darwin McGill.

Burning of waste in the incinerator reduced the volume of refuse buried in the city landfill by 85 percent to 90 percent. With the incinerator, the landfill's life expectancy was 40 years. Now, the landfill will last only 6 to 10 years.

Landfill workers must now bury all new refuse every day. Burning once eliminated most of the health hazards from rodents and from the growth of micro-organisms in food waste. Now, material must be buried soon after it comes into the landfill to accomplish the same purpose.

McGill anticipates that the city will eventually need to add both equipment and personnel to deal with the increased work load. Right now it is difficult to estimate just how much more that will cost, since the city does not yet have a "history" of a landfill without the incinerator.

Although city residents should not see any immediate effect on their waste disposal fees that may not continue to be true.

"In all probability there will be a fee increase... perhaps even in the next budget year," McGill said.

City officials received notification last summer that Sept. 1 would be the effective date for enforcing the Environmental Protection Agency's regulation against open burning. From talking to representatives of the Texas Department of Health (the agency responsible for enforcing the EPA regulation) the city learned it could be subject to some hefty fines if it continued to use the incinerator after that date.

Hereford is one of only three cities in the state to use the "teepee" type incinerator. These incinerators were originally designed for use in saw mills. Other Texas communities with teepee incinerators are Dumas and Fort Stockton.

Officials from the Health Department admitted to McGill that the amount of material emitted by these incinerators into the atmosphere is not likely to cause a health hazard. This is especially true in rural areas (all three existing incinerators are in rural communities) where the environment is not already overburdened with hazardous emissions.

Landfills are lumped with hazardous waste in EPA regulations. A move is underway to separate the two, and, at one time, Hereford officials had hoped this would allow some future use of the local incinerator.

Cold and quiet

The incinerator which has helped process solid waste for the city of Hereford for nearly two decades is now at rest. As of Sept. 1, Environmental Protection Agency regulations forbid the use of this type of incinerator.

The latest communications with state health authorities indicate that the incinerator shut-down should be considered permanent because the incinerator doesn't burn hot enough. This allows the release of more material into the atmosphere than is permitted by the EPA.

War memorial dedication set

By JOHN BROOKS
Managing Editor

A dedication program for a plaque honoring the war dead from Deaf Smith County will be held at 11 a.m. Saturday on the second floor "porch" of the courthouse in Hereford.

The ceremony will be the climax of a project by Cameron Gulley, the son of the Hon. and Mrs. Wes Gulley of Hereford. Cameron has been working on the project for several months as his Eagle Scout project.

Cameron spent most of the last six months verifying the names of persons from Deaf Smith County in World War I, World War II, the Korean War and the Vietnam War. The names had not been kept in one central place, and couldn't be obtained from the government in one group. Instead, Gulley had to search through all sorts of records, meet with local veterans groups and local civic and government officials, to obtain and verify the names.

Gulley also had to obtain funds to cover the cost of the plaque, obtain permission to have the plaque placed in a suitable place in the courthouse, and have engraving and other work done on the plaque.

At Saturday's ceremony, The Hon. John T. Boyd, justice of the Texas Seventh Court of Appeals, will give the memorial dedication address. The Rev. Charles Threewit will give the invocation, and Steve Wright will lead the crowd in singing "God Bless America" and "The Star Spangled Banner." Helen Rose will read the memorial and names of honor, and Ray Jenkins will play "Taps." The colors will be posted and retired by the honor guard from the Hereford Squadron of the Civil Air Patrol. County Judge Tom Simons will be the master of ceremonies.

The benediction will be given by The Rev. James Corey.

Mattox jabs at Richards

AUSTIN (AP) - Texas Attorney General Jim Mattox says he's in no hurry to shed his "likely" designation as a gubernatorial contender and criticized Texas Treasurer Ann Richards, the only announced Democratic candidate in that race.

Mattox on Thursday declined to say when he would "officially" announce his candidacy for the Democratic Party primary in March, although he has made no secret of his plans to run for governor.

"I set up certain goals. I have largely accomplished them. When they are accomplished, I'll make my announcement," he said.

Mattox said he is required to file as a candidate before the Jan. 2 deadline, but not required to make any kind of formal announcement.

"I've already accomplished more without announcing than my opponents have with announcing and conducting full-scale campaigns," he said.

"I happen to have a job that requires me to spend a hell of a lot more time doing it than being able to take off for weeks at a time and go on publicity junkets and things," he said.

Mattox has criticized Ms. Richards for a weeklong, 367-mile cruise along the coast, saying the trip was designed to attract media coverage.

But Ms. Richards said her trip was to gain knowledge and draw attention to coastal issues.

In other political developments: State Sen. Chet Edwards, who has made government ethics a key issue in his bid for lieutenant governor, has reimbursed himself thousands of dollars from state and campaign funds for using a private airplane owned by a company in which he is a partner, it was reported Thursday.

Edwards has made the reimbursement payments despite a 1984 state ethics opinion that said such an arrangement would "create a substantial conflict of interest and violate the public trust," the Austin American-Statesman said.

Edwards, D-Duncanville, said he was unaware of the opinion from the now-defunct State Ethics Advisory Commission.

He also said he didn't make a profit from the reimbursements for use of the single-engine Cessna 210, which he pilots.

"I can tell you as a matter of fact we have not made money off the airplane. I have taken money out of my pocket to help pay for it," Edwards said.

But the campaign of his Democratic primary opponent, Comptroller Bob Bullock, charged that Edwards violated state disclosure rules and possibly converted campaign funds to his personal use.

- U.S. Rep. J.J. "Jake" Pickle, an Austin Democrat, said he will run for re-election and formally announce his plans Friday at a campaign party in Austin. Pickle is seeking his 14th term in Congress.

- Houston businessman Wes Gilbreath announced the formation of an exploratory committee for the purpose of seeking the Republican nomination to try and unseat Texas Land Commissioner Garry Mauro.

Gilbreath ran for the Republican nomination for U.S. Senate in 1985 and placed first in the primary but lost to former U.S. Rep. Beau Boulter in the runoff.

Colombians back off forces

BOGOTA, Colombia (AP) - President Virgilio Barco was dealt a setback in his war on drugs when public outrage forced him to back off from imposing military rule on two cities believed to be strongholds of cocaine traffickers.

Barco replaced the mayors of the cities with military officers on Thursday but rescinded the orders in the face of charges the action was unconstitutional and anti-democratic.

One person was killed and at least seven others were injured in violence nationwide, a day after an alleged money launderer was extradited to the United States.

In Medellin, headquarters of the powerful Medellin cocaine cartel, two policemen were slightly injured when bombs placed under a table destroyed a fast-food restaurant in a busy pedestrian mall.

Classes at the National University of Bogota were suspended for the day after skirmishes broke out during a demonstration by about 500 students protesting U.S. aid to help Colombia fight its war on drugs.

The students shouted "Gringos go home" and burned an American flag. Groups of youths with white hoods on their heads flung firecrackers at police and two students were injured in scuffles.

Also in the capital, gunmen in a speeding car killed cattle rancher Jaime Castillo Franco and wounded his driver. Flying glass injured two bystanders, a woman and her daughter.

It was not known if the slaying was related to the government's anti-drug war, which began Aug. 18 when assassins believed to be paid by the cocaine traffickers killed the front-running presidential candidate, Sen. Luis Carlos Galan, a strong foe of drug dealing.

Under emergency measures imposed by Barco, authorities have seized millions of dollars in real estate and other property believed to belong to the drug lords. The president also revived Colombia's extradition treaty with the United States, where many of the leading traffickers face charges.

The first extradition took place on Wednesday when Eduardo Martinez Romero, an economist alleged to be the money launderer for the Medellin drug cartel, was flown to Atlanta. He will be tried on charges of laundering $27 million worth of illicit cocaine cash.

A Justice Department spokesman in Washington said Thursday that U.S. attorneys are preparing extradition requests for the 12 most-wanted Colombian drug traffickers.

Although the crackdown is believed to have practically paralyzed cocaine production, there is fear of more bombings and other terrorist attacks.

The drug lords have said they would rather die in Colombia than inside American prisons and have vowed to kill 10 judges for every drug suspect extradited.

On Thursday, more Americans were reported leaving. They included 20 families of employees of U.S.-based Occidental Petroleum Co., a source said on condition of anonymity. He said they left Wednesday night.

Three Americans playing on popular semi-pro basketball teams in Medellin also left, said Jaime Arenas, president of the Colombian Basketball Federation. "Unfortunately, we had to do this because of the violence affecting Colombia and in particular Medellin," he said.

Barco tried to step up pressure on the drug lords by replacing the mayors of two of the traffickers' strongholds, Puerto Boyaca and Pacho, with army officers.

But the move was met by a storm of protest. Civilians and politicians from all of Colombia's political parties accused the government of being anti-democratic and said the action was unconstitutional because it allowed the replacement of elected officials.

officer from Dallas, is pictured cutting the ribbon. Behind Neff is Marlee Payne-Shaw (marketing) and Vance Stein, executive vice president. To the right are Mayor Wes Fisher, Monte McDaniel, executive VP; Wayne Sims, local office manager; and Joe Rosol, another Dallas executive.

Today in history

By The Associated Press

Today is Friday, Sept. 8, the 251st day of 1989. There are 114 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:

Fifty years ago, on Sept. 8, 1939, President Franklin D. Roosevelt declared a "limited national emergency" in response to the outbreak of war in Europe.

On this date:

In 1565, a Spanish expedition established the first permanent European settlement in North America at what is now St. Augustine, Fla.

In 1664, the Dutch surrendered New Amsterdam to the British, who renamed it New York.

In 1889, Ohio Sen. Robert A. Taft, who came to be known as "Mr. Republican," was born in Cincinnati.

In 1892, an early version of the pledge of allegiance appeared in "The Youth's Companion."

In 1900, Galveston, Texas, was struck by a hurricane that killed about 6,000 people.

In 1920, New York-to-San Francisco air mail service was inaugurated.

In 1921, Margaret Gorman of Washington, D.C., was crowned the first Miss America in Atlantic City, N.J..

In 1930, the comic strip Blondie was first published.

In 1934, 134 people died in a fire aboard the liner Morro Castle off the New Jersey coast.

In 1935, Sen. Huey P. Long, the "Kingfish" of Louisiana politics, was shot and mortally wounded inside the state capitol in Baton Rouge. He died two days later.

In 1951, a peace treaty with Japan was signed by 48 other nations at a conference in San Francisco.

In 1962, the novel "The Old Man and the Sea," by Ernest Hemingway, was first published.

In 1974, President Gerald R. Ford granted an unconditional pardon to former President Richard M. Nixon for any federal crimes committed during his term of office.

In 1975, Boston's public schools began their court-ordered citywide busing program amid scattered incidents of violence.

In 1986, the first of five bombings over a ten-day period took place in Paris as an explosion rocked the ground floor of City Hall, killing one person and wounding 18 others.

Ten years ago: Cheryl Livingston of Mississippi was crowned Miss America 1980 in Atlantic City, N.J., in the last Miss America pageant hosted by Bert Parks, who was fired as master of ceremonies the following January.

Five years ago: Martina Navratilova battled from behind to defeat Chris Evert Lloyd and defend her women's singles crown at the U.S. Open Tennis Championships.

One year ago: Two nuclear-missile rocket motors were destroyed at an army ammunition plant in Karnack, Texas. They were the first U.S. weapons to be eliminated under an arms reduction treaty with the Soviet Union. National League president A. Bartlett Giamatti was named to succeed Peter Ueberroth as baseball commissioner.

Today's birthdays: Actress Hillary Brooke is 75. Comedian Sid Caesar is 67. The former secretary of Housing and Urban Development, Samuel R. Pierce Jr., is 67. Senator Wendell Ford, D-Ky., is 65. Senator Sam Nunn, D-Ga., is 51. Author Ann Beattie is 42.

Thought for today: "At almost any point in the world's history, people could have said that the world was in such terrible shape that it was immoral to bring children into it. I would not have liked to have had denied me the chance to live in these exciting times." - Coretta Scott King, civil rights activist (1927-).

Navy to tighten discipline at sea as a result of Iowa investigation

WASHINGTON (AP) - The Navy says it will tighten procedures on its ships, but that it's difficult to prevent the suicidal behavior officials believe caused the blast that killed 47 sailors aboard the USS Iowa.

A report on the April 19 explosion released Thursday by the Pentagon said "circumstantial evidence" indicated that gunner's mate Clayton M. Hartwig intentionally sparked the explosion.

The family of the 25-year-old sailor contends the Navy made him a scapegoat for its negligence.

More than 1,100 pages of evidence released with the report depicted Hartwig as an expert in explosives who had trouble making friends, had once attempted suicide and 11 days before the explosion said he might "become one of those little white headstones in Arlington National Cemetery any day."

The admirals investigating the explosion also found that Iowa officers were lax in instructing sailors on gunnery, and ordered that procedures be tightened before the 16-inch guns resume regular firing.

Firing of the guns has been suspended since the explosion, but were tested last month.

"As with any catastrophe, the immediate impulse is to take every possible step to prevent a recurrence," wrote Adm. Carlisle A.H. Trost, chief of Naval Operations and the Navy's top officer.

However, Trost said in a commentary, "it is virtually impossible to have established procedures to absolutely preclude disastrous results of such an individual choice."

Adm. Leon Edney, the vice chief of naval operations, said the Navy would not change its psychological screening procedures, saying the investigation found nothing to require a drastic change.

Investigators said Hartwig's alleged suicidal tendencies were not known to his superiors, only becoming apparent after interviews with acquaintances and family during the four-month investigation.

Kreig J. Brunsahan, a lawyer representing the Hartwig family, criticized the report.

"The Navy reached the conclusion that they must have a scapegoat in this matter to deflect attention away from their negligence, their incompetence and their indifference in the operation of the USS Iowa," Brunsahan said.

Rear Adm. Richard D. Milligan, who directed the investigation, told reporters how Hartwig stood next to the breach in the middle gun of turret No. 2, describing how he could have dropped a detonator between bags of gunpowder being loaded during firing exercises off Puerto Rico.

But because all those near Hartwig died, "we will never know with absolute certainty exactly what happened," Edney said.

The circumstances of the explosion are muddled further by "a number of major administrative and supervisory discrepancies on board the USS Iowa, as well as substantial and serious failures by senior USS Iowa personnel to properly discharge their responsibilities," Adm. Powell F. Carter, commander of the Atlantic Fleet, said in a letter released with the report.

Among the problems cited were a failure to fully train sailors on firing procedures. But Carter said those discrepancies were ruled out as a cause of the blast.

Milligan began investigating the possibility that the explosion was intentional after receiving a letter May 8 from Hartwig's sister, Kathy Kubicina, saying Hartwig meant to change the beneficiary of a $100,000 accidental death insurance policy from Kendall Truitt, an Iowa sailor, to his parents.

Truitt was once a close friend of Hartwig, but the friendship cooled after Truitt became involved with a woman, Milligan said.

Friends and acquaintances described Hartwig as "weird," "troubled" and "shy," saying "he had a hard time making friends," and "had very little self-esteem," according to the report.

One woman told investigators that "Hartwig confided to her that he was unhappy aboard the ship because the other sailors made fun of him."

The names of those who spoke with investigators were blacked out.

Catastrophic care alternatives eyed

WASHINGTON (AP) - Senate tax-writers swamped by complaints from retirees are weighing whether to raise Social Security taxes on workers and their employers to help pay for Medicare catastrophic insurance for older Americans.

"You almost have a sense when you go home of being unwanted, unloved and unappreciated on this issue," Sen. Robert Packwood, R-Ore., said Thursday as the Senate Finance Committee began considering how to respond to the complaints.

The tax increase, which probably would be opposed by the Bush administration, is only one of several ideas the committee is considering.

The catastrophic insurance program, aimed at protecting retirees from being bankrupted by a catastrophic illness, has been under attack since it was enacted a year ago as an expansion of Medicare.

The program is financed by beneficiaries, and most of the complaints have come from higher-income retirees who contend they are bearing most of the cost of the program.

Other older Americans complain that they don't need the program - or its costs - because they have private insurance.

Under one proposal being considered, the maximum annual earnings on which the 1.45 percent Social Security hospitalization tax is imposed would be increased from $48,000 to $60,000. That would mean a $174-a-year tax increase for a worker making $60,000 or more and the same increase on the employer.

The hospitalization tax is withheld from paychecks as part of the Social Security tax.

The House Ways and Means Committee, which also has been hearing protests, has agreed to reduce the surtax that's the main financing source for the program, shift more of the cost to lower-income retirees and require the elderly to pay a greater share of their catastrophic expenses before they start collecting program benefits.

Finance Committee Chairman Sen. Lloyd Bentsen, D-Texas, and several colleagues said they would have no part of shifting more of the burden onto those with lower incomes.

"I will oppose any increase in the flat premium paid by retirees of modest means," said Bentsen, referring to the $4-a-month fee assessed all but the poorest Medicare beneficiaries.

The highest steady pressure ever produced in the laboratory is 25.5 million pounds per square inch-enough to cause a diamond to flow like a plastic.

Senate makes down payment on drug war

WASHINGTON (AP) - Congressional leaders are calling for accelerated action on the Bush administration's anti-drug bill, with the Senate already approving a $45 million down payment from lawmakers' own budgets to finance the fight.

"Let's begin to break the habit and begin to help those who need help," Sen. Pete Wilson, R-Calif., said as the Senate voted 83-8 on Thursday to cut its own mass mailing funds by $45 million and devote the money to drug programs.

It was the first move to funnel money into the war on drugs since President Bush on Tuesday night unveiled his $7.9 billion strategy that relies partly on such transfers to pay the bill.

The amendment was attached to a $2 billion legislative expenses bill that must be reconciled with a differing House-passed version.

Calls proliferated Thursday for speeded-up approval of the Bush administration drug bill, which is expected to reach the hopper in a week or two.

Senate Minority Leader Bob Dole, R-Kan., and House GOP Leader Bob Michel, R-Ill., emerged from a White House meeting and urged extraordinary steps to "emphasize the sense of urgency needed to bring about congressional action."

Senate Judiciary Chairman Joseph R. Biden Jr., D-Del., called for talks with the White House to set ground rules that would put the bill "on, to use Washington jargon, a fast track."

"Whether we accept this strategy in total or whether we add to this strategy, it's all going to have to happen in the next few weeks," Biden said as national drug policy director William Bennett arrived on Capitol Hill to sell the administration's plan.

However, Senate Majority Leader George Mitchell, D-Maine, and House Speaker Thomas Foley, D-Wash., have not said thus far whether they believe action on the bill should be accelerated.

Foley spokesman Jeff Biggs said the issue should be handled "as expeditiously as possible." Mitchell said through his office that speeded-up action was "under consideration."

The Bush blueprint would be financed partly by cutting $716 million in existing programs. Most of the money already is authorized for fighting drugs, but about $2 billion would represent fresh funds.

Aid to Andean nations in fighting the cocaine cartel, interdiction of drug shipments from South America, tougher treatment for offenders and new prisons are part of the plan, along with more education and treatment.

Democrats called for new revenue to finance the drug war when Bush announced his plan Tuesday, but party leaders later said there was no chance for approval in the face of the president's continuing opposition to a tax increase.

Bennett's initial tour of committees Thursday was smooth for the most part, with Democrats quick to praise the Bush blueprint.

Rep. William J. Hughes, D-N.J., chairman of the House Judiciary Committee's subcommittee on crime, told Bennett the plan was off to "a very, very good start."

"But his warm reception in the Senate was broken when Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., questioned him about the administration's continued refusal to ban American-made assault rifles.

The administration barred import of a number of the military-style weapons earlier this year, but it has not moved against domestic weapons.

Kennedy said recent seizures in Colombian drug raids show "half of the guns that are used locally are being manufactured here in the United States of America."

Camp Fire to sponsor Backyard Round-Up

All boys and girls, ages K-5 through high school, and their parents are invited to attend Backyard Roundup-Camp Fire Style from 1-4 p.m. Saturday at the Camp Fire Lodge, 903 14th St.

During the festivities, parents will have the opportunity to view new Camp Fire program material, tour the Camp Fire Lodge, observe various club members work on projects and meet the board of directors.

For the youth, carnival games will be featured, prizes awarded and refreshments served.

The purpose of Camp Fire is to provide, through a program of informal education, opportunities for youth to realize their potential and to function effectively as caring, self-directed individuals, responsible to themselves and others; and, as an organization, to seek to improve those conditions in society which affect youth.

What is Camp Fire?

-Camp Fire is a national coed youth agency serving boys and girls from kindergarten through high school.

-It's a movement that has met the changing needs of young people since its founding in 1910.

-It's an organization that helps kids develop self-reliance and self-confidence and helps them make the right choices in today's world.

-Camp Fire works to prevent problems with kids. As a nation, it is less expensive and more effective to build a kid than to repair one.

-Camp Fire works to make the world a better place to live. Camp Fire may not solve the problems of the world, but it's helping to raise the kids who will.

Why do kids need your help?

-Young people need to know how to plan, make decisions, solve problems and take responsibility. Camp Fire provides the opportunity to learn these vital skills.

-Boys and girls need to have friends, learn new skills and receive recognition for their achievements. They need to have fun, too. Camp Fire helps meet all those needs.

-Community service and good citizenship are important traditions in this country. Camp Fire kids see these traditions in action and learn that their personal involvement can make a difference.

-More than ever, today's youth need initiative and self-reliance to get along in the world. Camp Fire encourages these qualities in its members.

-Kids need to know that adults are interested in them. For some kids, Camp Fire is the only place they can find adults who really care about them.

Explaining program

Camp Fire leader, Lynda Herrin, at left, looks on as Camp Fire Leaders Association President Rose Mary Barrett explains the new program for Camp Fire this year. Listening about the organization are Cheryl and Denise Herrin. Other Camp Fire information will be presented during the Backyard Roundup-Camp Fire Style set from 1-4 p.m. Saturday at the Camp Fire Lodge, 903 14th St. All prospective members and their parents are invited to attend the event which will feature a variety of games. Refreshments will also be served.

Public invited to "Share Pilot Tea"

Members of the Pilot Club of Hereford, Inc. are hosting a "Share Pilot Tea" from 3-4 p.m. Sunday at the Hereford Community Center.

The public is invited to attend the event which is being held in conjunction with the organization's fifth anniversary. The local club began in August, 1985. Pilot members will be on hand to explain the purpose of the club.

Pilot International is a classified, civic-service organization with 20,000 executive and professional members in more than 600 clubs in nine countries. It was founded in Macon, Ga. in 1921.

The Pilot International foundation was established in 1975 to award project grants to clubs as well as scholarships to students forwarding the foundation's goal of full citizenship for handicapped people.

There are currently 40 members in the local Pilot Club. Linda Minchew serves as president; Peggie Fox, president-elect; Sue Hyer, recording secretary; Mary Harris, corresponding secretary; and Anna Solomon, treasurer.

Local directors include Wanda Cobb, Kim Leonard and Lou Lafever.

Business meetings for the local club are set the second Tuesday of each month with the program meetings scheduled the fourth Tuesday. The public is invited to all program meetings which began at 7 a.m. with breakfast held in the Community Center banquet room. The meal is catered by Chad Fitzgerald.

Ann Landers

DEAR ANN LANDERS: May I respond to "Bewildered in Glencoe" who wanted to know why women settle for men who are liars, loafers, cheats and freeloaders? It's because mothers raise their daughters with the notion that they are only half a person until some man comes along and makes them whole. In other words, females are conditioned at birth to believe that half a man, even if he is a jerk, is better than no man at all.

Let's face it, Ann, women are their own worst enemies. They dote on their sons and compete with their daughters.

When mothers stop idolizing their sons and give a small fraction of that adoration to their daughters, we will see a new and more equitable social order and a healthier, less sexist society. Sign me -- A Star Witness in Delta, Colo.

DEAR STAR: There is more than a germ of truth in what you have written. The women's movement, however, has done a great deal to elevate women and give them equal opportunities. We've come a long way, but we still have a long way to go.

Thanks for focusing on an issue that needs more light and less heat.

DEAR READERS: Recently an English student inquired about the meaning of the expression "independent as a hog on ice." I said I didn't know, but I was sure some of my readers would come to the rescue.

Letters from people who did know arrived by the bushelbasket, and thousands of other readers wanted to know about other sayings. Here's what my week has been like:

DEAR ANN LANDERS: I'm sending you a book by Charles Earl Funk titled "A Hog on Ice and Other Curious Expressions." You will see that it says, "The facts are that a hog on a smooth, icy surface cannot move about in a normal manner. The pads on his feet offer no resistance to slippery or smooth icy surfaces. His feet slide out from under him and his legs either spread out or are driven under him and he usually has to be dragged off to a firm footing." You'll note, also, Ann, that the rest of the saying is, if he can't stand up, he will lay down."

It follows then, that when someone says, "He is about as independent as a hog on ice," it means that he is cocky and stubborn and will neither acknowledge nor accept help no matter how much he needs it. -- Detroit

From Tallahassee: After you find out about that hog on ice, Ann, will you ask your readers what it means when a person says, "Butter wouldn't melt in his mouth"? Does it mean he is cold, duplicitous, phony or what? -- F.L.J.

Hayward, Calif.: All my life I have heard people say, snug as a bug in a rug. It seems to me that a bug in a rug would be most uncomfortable since a rug is not its natural habitat, and the bug would be in a great danger of being squashed. Who makes up these senseless sayings, anyway? -- A.R.

Philadelphia: Where did that expression: "the whole nine yards" originate? Lately I hear it wherever I go. For example: Question: How was the wedding? Answer: Great! They had fabulous food, an open bar, the whole nine yards. -- J.H.

Burlington, Vt.: It bothers me when I hear someone from the Midwest say, "She's as sappy as a maple tree in April." People around these parts know that maple trees are their sappiest in March.

It's Ann again, dear readers. You'll notice that I have not responded to these questions and I don't plan to, but you can bet your bippy I'll get a load of opinions in the next few weeks. Write on!

Frosh White take PD; JV, ninth Maroon win

By SAM W. WALLER
Sports Editor

The Hereford Whiteface freshmen White mounted a 64-yard drive lasting nearly five minutes in the fourth quarter to score the winning touchdown Thursday in their 14-12 win over Palo Duro Blue at the South Field.

In other games involving Hereford teams the junior varsity posted a 20-14 win at Tascosa, the sophomores lost at Palo Duro, 38-0, and the freshmen Maroon beat Palo Duro White, 18-6.

Tailback Petey Colvin scored all of Hereford's points on touchdown runs of seven and five yards and added a two-point conversion after the first score. Colvin finished the day with 79 yards on 23 carries.

In the first high school competition for both teams, Palo Duro opened up by reaching the midfield stripe before quarterback Clark Sims fumbled the ball away.

Hereford appeared ready to take the early lead, moving to the Palo Duro 20-yard line, but fumbled back to the Dons. The two teams combined for nine fumbles for the game, seven coming on the snap of the ball, and each lost three.

Palo Duro made the Herd pay for the mistake as halfback Anthony Johnson took a pitchout 75 yards for a score on the very next play.

Hereford started the next effort on a good note with quarterback Chad Sandoval hitting wide receiver Ronnie Gomez for 31 yards on the first play. The drive stalled at the Don 40, however, and the Herd was forced to punt. Sandoval got off a 33-yarder in his only kick of the day, pinning Palo Duro on the 7-yard line.

Hereford got another break when Sims fumbled at the 25, but gave the ball right back on the next play.

Inexperience continued to show on the Dons' ensuing possession. On fourth down and five at its own 30, Palo Duro lined up to punt, but the snap was way beyond David Oages' reach and rolled to the 8-yard line. Oages, the Dons' center, scooped the ball up and eluded five Whitefaces before being knocked out-of-bounds near the 35, two feet short of a first down. The Dons did not attempt another punt during the game.

Hereford covered the distance in seven plays with Colvin going over from the 7 to tie the score. Colvin added the conversion, giving the Herd an 8-6 lead.

The advantage lasted exactly 29 seconds, though, as Cassius Williams went 49 yards down to the Herd 12. Sims took it in from there on a quarterback sneak to make the score 12-8, Palo Duro.

The teams spent most of the second half exchanging fumbles and missed fourth-down conversions before the Dons started a drive that looked to put the game away.

Palo Duro stalled at the Herd 31 and lost the ball on downs at the 36 with 7:25 remaining in the game.

The winning drive began rather inauspiciously as the Herd was penalized five yards before getting a play off. From there, the Herd managed to eat up 4:50 in 12 plays.

Sandoval gained five yards on a keeper on fourth and two at the Don 37 to keep the drive going. COLVIN covered the last 21 yards in three plays for the score, including 13 yards on third and 13 to set up his 5-yard touchdown with 2:35 left.

Palo Duro had one last chance an almost made the most of it. On fourth and six at the 33, the Herd defense stopped Chris Brackens for what looked like a loss, but he was able to pitch the ball back to Sims, who gained five yards before being downed. Hereford then fell on the ball three times to run out the clock.

Sandoval finished with 106 yards passing, hitting on five of eight attempts. Colvin rushed for 73 yards on 23 carries and both Herd scores. Four receivers got their hands on the ball with Jason Paetzold catching two for 15 yards, Gomez one for 31, Nathan Henderson one for 43 and Coplen one for 17.

Herd JV 20, Tascosa JV 14

Quarterback Max Mungia passed for 150 yards, including five completions to wide receiver Louis Mungia for 105 yards and two scores, to pace the Herd JV to a 20-14 win over the Rebels at Tascosa High.

The Mungias hooked up for touchdowns in each of the first two quarters to give the Herd a 12-0 lead at halftime.

Tailback Larry Brown raised the lead in the third when he scored on a 17-yard run. Max Mungia hit Amado Lopez, who made a one-handed grab in the corner of the endzone for the conversion.

Tascosa mounted a comeback during a third quarter that "lasted forever" according to JV coaches Stan Carter and Ron Young.

"We ran 28 offensive plays in the first half," Carter said, "and 48 in the second. Our guys got pretty tired there at the end."

"We moved the ball well," he added, "but we had some trouble with penalties. They killed a couple of drives for us."

Young said the defensive effort was sustained throughout the contest, but the 91-degree heat began to wear on the Herd towards the end.

"Overall we played real well," he said. "They got both of their touchdowns on long runs in the second half when everybody was just worn out."

Tascosa had a third long run that would have tied the score, and afforded the Rebels a chance to win with the conversion, called back on a penalty in the last three minutes.

Max Mungia finished the day with 12 completions in 16 tries for 150 yards and two touchdowns. Brown rushed 32 times for 154 yards and the winning score.

Comin' through

Freshman White tailback Petey Colvin crosses the goal line during Thursday's 14-12 win over Palo Duro Blue. Colvin ran for 73 yards and scored all 14 points for Hereford.

"We were lucky to win," Carter said. "But everybody played hard. The offensive line didn't let them lay a glove on Max all day and opened some big holes for Larry. PD sophs 38, Herd sophs 0"

Don running back George Daniels scored four times to lead Palo Duro past Hereford at Palo Duro.

Daniels scored on runs of 5 and 25 yards in the first quarter, 5 yards in the second and 20 yards in the fourth. Marlow Becker ran 50 yards for a third-quarter score and ran for two conversions and passed to Jerry Ringo for a third.

Herd 9th Maroon 18, PD White 6
Herd fullback Quincy Curtis scored twice to lead the freshmen Maroon team to an 18-6 win at Palo Duro.

Curtis scored touchdowns in each of the first two quarters and quarterback Richard Sanderson went the distance on a bootleg in the fourth quarter.

Dowis worries Wyoming

By The Associated Press

When Wyoming faces Air Force in college football this weekend, one of the smallest players on the field will be one of the biggest problems for the Cowboys.

"He has the ability to juke people in the open field," Wyoming coach Paul Roach said of Dee Dowis, the Falcons' one-man air-and-ground attack.

Dowis, a 153-pound quarterback who hardly looks like a football player, is coming off one of the greatest one-man performances in college football history - including 249 yards rushing and six touchdowns.

That spectacular show left San Diego State in the dust last week during the Air Force's 52-36 annihilation.

Dowis' 249 yards rushing, in just 13 carries, was the fifth-best single-game total in Western Athletic Conference history and the most ever for a quarterback. He had more yards on the ground last week than any other team in the conference.

His six touchdowns and 36 points set WAC records and, according to the NCAA, represented the highest scoring performance ever by a major-college quarterback.

With the ubiquitous Dowis running the Air Force show, Roach faces a dilemma defending the Falcons' triple-option wishbone in Sunday night's game at the Air Force Academy.

"If you gang up on Dowis, the fullback or the pitch will take you out," Roach said. "But he's the primary focus. If we let him loose a few times, we had better be able to score 40 points ourselves."

The Wyoming-Air Force game will cap an extra-long weekend of college football that began Thursday night with Washington State's 46-41 defeat of Brigham Young.

Saturday's games involving the Top Ten have No. 3 Miami, Fla., at Wisconsin, Northern Illinois at No. 4 Nebraska, Pacific at No. 5 Auburn, Tennessee at No. 6 UCLA, Baylor at No. 8 Oklahoma, Colorado State at No. 9 Colorado and No. 10 Clemson at No. 16 Florida State.

The rest of the Top 25 schedule includes Virginia at No. 12 Penn State, No. 14 Syracuse at Temple, No. 15 Texas A&M at Washington, No. 17 West Virginia at Maryland, Mississippi State at No. 18 Southern Mississippi, No. 20 Arizona at Texas Tech, No. 23 Pittsburgh at Boston College, and Georgia Tech at No. 25 North Carolina State.

Miami makes its debut with a new coach and a new quarterback. Dennis Erickson has replaced Jimmy Johnson, who left to coach the NFL's Dallas Cowboys.

Meanwhile, Craig Erickson has succeeded Steve Walsh at quarterback. Walsh also left for the Cowboys. Erickson, no relation to the coach, played nearly two quarters in Miami's 23-3 victory over Wisconsin last year, completing just five of 17 passes for 57 yards and an interception.

"The offense never really clicked, and I didn't make the plays," Erickson said. "Mentally, I wasn't prepared for the game."

Nebraska opens its season against Northern Illinois, 1-0 after beating Fullerton State 26-17. The Cornhuskers have lost 12 starters from last year's Big Eight championship team, including seven on defense.

"I know Nebraska has lost a lot of good players off their team last year," Northern Illinois coach Jerry Pettibone said, "but Nebraska's one of the programs in the country that has so much continuity in it, players being developed up through the program, that they don't rebuild, they just reload."

Tennis, CC seasons start

Hereford Whiteface cross country and tennis teams join the Hereford High athletic parade Saturday as they begin competition.

The netters will travel to Pampa for a District 1-4A match with the Harvesters while the harriers will run at Brownfield.

First-year tennis coach Luis Zavala said his team will be expected to continue the two-year string of district championships.

"Our girls are going to be tough," he said. "They have a lot of experience and got in a lot of tournaments this summer."

"The boys will be a little green -- we're playing two freshmen -- but they should do well. I'm really excited to have the chance to work with these kids."

In a match Tuesday with Tascosa, the girls pulled out a 5-4 win. Kristie Allison, Brenna Reinauer, Gina Alley and Trisha Munoz won in singles play and Allison and Reinauer clinched the match with a win in doubles.

The boys team had a tough go against the Rebels, being swept in singles and having only Greg Coplen and Torry Sellers' doubles win to show for the day.

Zavala said he expects to take eight players on each team to Pampa.

"Only the top six singles and three doubles teams count in the standings," he said, "but most coaches like to get as many players as much competition as they can."

The cross country team returns four lettermen for both boys and girls.

Coach Martha Emerson took the team to a practice meet in Clovis, N.M. last week and was pleased with the results.

Teresa Castillo finished first in the girls' two-mile race while Tim Stagner was fastest over three miles for the boys.

The girls team has finished first in district and region and fourth at state each of the past two years while the boys were second in district last year behind state champ Randall.

"We've really got a good bunch out this year," Emerson said. "The heat has hurt us some in our training, but we should be in good shape when it cools off."

Emerson said she expects to run varsity and JV teams for both boys and girls at each of the Herd's eight meets this season.

Orioles sweep Texas, 8-3, 9-6; now 1 1-2 games back of Jays

By KEN RAPPOPORT
AP Sports Writer

The Baltimore Orioles continue to make things hot for Nolan Ryan, and warm for the Toronto Blue Jays as well.

With a doubleheader sweep over the Texas Rangers by 8-3 and 9-6 scores Thursday night, the Orioles continued their mastery of Ryan and at the same time moved closer to Toronto in the sizzling American League East race.

"That's what we had to do tonight, win both," Orioles manager Frank Robinson said after Baltimore moved within 1 1/2 games of Toronto.

En route to the sweep, the Orioles beat Ryan for the third time in three meetings this year and are 9-0 against baseball's all-time strikeout leader in their last 12 meetings.

"They've had my number," Ryan said.

Meanwhile, the Blue Jays pounded the Cleveland Indians 12-4 for their ninth victory in 10 games.

Elsewhere, the Milwaukee Brewers beat the California Angels 7-1 and the New York Yankees defeated the Seattle Mariners 6-4.

Mike Devereaux and Steve Finley were the big offensive guns for the Orioles Thursday night. Both went 5-for-10 in the doubleheader with Devereaux getting six RBIs and Finley keying a five-run second in the nightcap with a two-run triple.

Devereaux had a career-high five RBIs to lead Baltimore in the first game.

The first game featured a bizarre twist. The Orioles struck out 16 times, a club record, with Phil Bradley going down five times.

The Orioles have been chasing the Blue Jays since falling out of first place on Sept. 1. Baltimore had held the top spot for 98 consecutive days.

Blue Jays 12, Indians 4

George Bell hit a three-run double and Lloyd Moseby had three hits, including a leadoff home run.

John Cerutti, 11-8, gave up two runs on five hits in five innings. Tom Candiotti, 12-8, lasted only 1 1-3 innings, giving up five runs on six hits as the Indians lost for the sixth time in seven outings.

The contest was held up for 1 hour, 33 minutes in the fifth inning with the Blue Jays holding a 9-0 lead.

Brewers 7, Angels 1

Tom Filer held California to four hits and an unearned run in eight innings and Glenn Braggs collected three hits, including a homer.

The Brewers simplified Filer's job by breaking out for five runs before he had to make his first pitch. Milwaukee jumped Mike Witt, 8-13, for six hits in the first inning.

Filer, 6-3, struck out two and walked one before Tony Fossas pitched the ninth, completing a combined five-hitter.

Yankees 6, Mariners 4

Don Mattingly's two-run single keyed a six-run rally in the eighth inning.

The Mariners held a 3-0 lead before the Yankees rallied in the eighth for their winning runs. Mattingly's hit with two out broke a 3-3 tie and Steve Balboni followed with a sacrifice fly for the Yankees' sixth run.

Rich Gossage, 1-0, pitched one-third of an inning in the seventh to earn his first American League win since Oct. 1, 1983.

Reliever Mike Schooler, 1-6, was the loser.

NL East race heats up

By BEN WALKER
AP Baseball Writer

Starting today, the National League pennant races might take shape. Then again, they could be more tangled than ever in a few days.

"There will be a full house, that's all I can tell you. It should be a heck of a weekend," Chicago Cubs manager Don Zimmer said.

The Cubs, holding a 1 1/2-game lead over St. Louis in the NL East, opened a three-game series against the Cardinals at Wrigley Field this afternoon.

Montreal, trailing by three games, faces Philadelphia this weekend. The New York Mets, 3 1/2 games behind, play Pittsburgh.

"Anything can happen. Any one of four teams can win," Zimmer said.

San Francisco has more control in the NL West. The Giants lead Houston and San Diego by seven games each, and begin a three-game series tonight at the Astrodome.

Chicago increased its lead by beating Philadelphia 6-2 Wednesday night while the Mets routed St. Louis 13-1.

In other games, Pittsburgh defeated Montreal 7-4, San Francisco downed Atlanta 7-5, Houston edged San Diego 2-1 and Los Angeles beat Cincinnati 8-2.

Zimmer gave outfielders Andre Dawson and Jerome Walton a rest and their replacements, Doug Dascenzo and Marvell Wynne, each homered.

Wynne hit his first home run since being acquired from San Diego for a 1-0 lead in the second inning. Dascenzo's first major-league homer made it 3-0 in the third.

Mike Bielecki, 15-6, gave up five hits and two runs in 5 2-3 innings. Ken Howell, 11-11, allowed four runs on five hits in three innings.

Mets 13, Cardinals 1

Gregg Jefferies hit two homers and two doubles and drove in five runs.

Jefferies doubled in the first, hit a two-run homer in the third, doubled in the fourth and hit a three-run homer in the fifth.

Frank Viola, 3-4, got more runs than the Mets had provided him in his first seven starts. He also got his first major league RBI.

Howard Johnson hit his 33rd home run, connecting against Ted Power, 6-7. Pedro Guerrero hit his 13th homer for the Cardinals.

Pirates 7, Expos 4

Pinch hitter Jeff King's checked-swing roller went for a tie-breaking triple and he continued home on right fielder Mike Aldrete's error in the eighth inning.

Barry Bonds led off with a double against John Candelaria, 0-1, and King ended a 2-for-23 slump with a grounder past first base. The Pirates scored an insurance run in the ninth on Candelaria's throwing error.

Bob Walk, 12-10, got the victory and Bill Landrum pitched two innings for his 23rd save.

Giants 7, Braves 5

At Atlanta, Kevin Mitchell hit his 42nd home run and San Francisco rallied to beat the Braves.

Will Clark's two-run triple pulled the Giants into a 4-all tie in the seventh. Pinch hitter Chris Speier doubled home the go-ahead run in the eighth and scored on Brett Butler's single.

Mitchell homered in the ninth.

Steve Bedrosian, 3-6, got the victory. Mike Stanton lost his first decision of the season.

Astros 2, Padres 1

At San Diego, Ken Caminiti hit a two-run single in the third inning and Jim Clancy allowed four hits in seven innings as Houston stopped the Padres' six-game winning streak.

Clancy, 7-11, beat San Diego for the fourth time this season. Dave Smith got his 24th save in 28 chances.

Bruce Hurst, 13-10, lost despite allowing just three hits in six innings.

Dodgers 8, Reds 2

Fernando Valenzuela pitched a six-hitter and Los Angeles ended

Tom Browning's eight-game winning streak.

Valenzuela, 10-12, walked four and struck out five in his third complete game in 28 starts. Browning, 15-11, gave up seven runs on 11 hits in three innings.

Eddie Murray and Willie Randolph each homered and got three hits. Eric Davis hit his 29th home run for the Reds.

Tech gets sponsor

LUBBOCK (AP) - A bank will become the first corporate sponsor of a Southwest Conference football game Saturday when the Arizona Wildcats visit Texas Tech.

NCNB Texas is paying $15,000 to have its name linked with the game on billboards, banners inside Jones Stadium and on radio and TV ads, Tech marketing director Dick Murray said.

Other companies will pay $12,000 or $15,000 to sponsor the other five home games, depending on the projected attendance, Murray said, adding that Tech decided to jump on the sports-sponsorship bandwagon.

"I think we're starting to see more of it in all kinds of ways - from drag racing to Hands Across America, which I think Coke sponsored," Murray said. "The most famous example is the Olympics."

Instead of going toward scholarships or the university's general fund, sponsorship money will be used to advertise the games to try to boost attendance, Murray said.

"Say in a 30-second spot we'll spend the first 26 seconds urging people to go to the game and then the last four seconds we'll say, 'Brought to you by the sponsor,'" he said.

Frosh White take PD; JV, ninth Maroon win

By SAM W. WALLER
Sports Editor

The Hereford Whitefreshmen White mounted a 64-yard drive lasting nearly five minutes in the fourth quarter to score the winning touchdown Thursday in their 14-12 win over Palo Duro Blue at the South Field.

In other games involving Hereford teams the junior varsity posted a 20-14 win at Tascosa, the sophomores lost at Palo Duro, 38-0, and the freshmen Maroon beat Palo Duro White, 18-6.

Tailback Petey Colvin scored all of Hereford's points on touchdown runs of seven and five yards and added a two-point conversion after the first score. Colvin finished the day with 79 yards on 23 carries.

In the first high school competition for both teams, Palo Duro opened up by reaching the midfield stripe before quarterback Clark Sims fumbled the ball away.

Hereford appeared ready to take the early lead, moving to the Palo Duro 20-yard line, but fumbled back to the Dons. The two teams combined for nine fumbles for the game, seven coming on the snap of the ball, and each lost three.

Palo Duro made the Herd pay for the mistake as halfback Anthony Johnson took a pitchout 75 yards for a score on the very next play.

Hereford started the next effort on a good note with quarterback Chad Sandoval hitting wide receiver Ronnie Gomez for 31 yards on the first play. The drive stalled at the Don 40, however, and the Herd was forced to punt. Sandoval got off a 33-yarder in his only kick of the day, pinning Palo Duro on the 7-yard line.

Hereford got another break when Sims fumbled at the 25, but gave the ball right back on the next play.

Inexperience continued to show on the Dons' ensuing possession. On fourth down and five at its own 30, Palo Duro lined up to punt, but the snap was way beyond David Oages' reach and rolled to the 8-yard line. Oages, the Dons' center, scooped the ball up and eluded five Whitefaces before being knocked out-of-bounds near the 35, two feet short of a first down. The Dons did not attempt another punt during the game.

Hereford covered the distance in seven plays with Colvin going over from the 7 to tie the score. Colvin added the conversion, giving the Herd an 8-6 lead.

The advantage lasted exactly 29 seconds, though, as Cassius Williams went 49 yards down to the Herd 12. Sims took it in from there on a quarterback sneak to make the score 12-8, Palo Duro.

The teams spent most of the second half exchanging fumbles and missed fourth-down conversions before the Dons started a drive that looked to put the game away.

Palo Duro stalled at the Herd 31 and lost the ball on downs at the 36 with 7:25 remaining in the game.

The winning drive began rather inauspiciously as the Herd was penalized five yards before getting a play off. From there, the Herd managed to eat up 4:50 in 12 plays.

Sandoval gained five yards on a keeper on fourth and two at the Don 37 to keep the drive going. COLVIN covered the last 21 yards in three plays for the score, including 13 yards on third and 13 to set up his 5-yard touchdown with 2:35 left.

Palo Duro had one last chance an almost made the most of it. On fourth and six at the 33, the Herd defense stopped Chris Brackens for what looked like a loss, but he was able to pitch the ball back to Sims, who gained five yards before being downed. Hereford then fell on the ball three times to run out the clock.

Sandoval finished with 106 yards passing, hitting on five of eight attempts. Colvin rushed for 73 yards on 23 carries and both Herd scores. Four receivers got their hands on the ball with Jason Paetzold catching two for 15 yards, Gomez one for 31, Nathan Henderson one for 43 and Coplen one for 17.

Herd JV 20, Tascosa JV 14

Quarterback Max Mungia passed for 150 yards, including five completions to wide receiver Louis Mungia for 105 yards and two scores, to pace the Herd JV to a 20-14 win over the Rebels at Tascosa High.

The Mungias hooked up for touchdowns in each of the first two quarters to give the Herd a 12-0 lead at halftime.

Tailback Larry Brown raised the lead in the third when he scored on a 17-yard run. Max Mungia hit Amado Lopez, who made a one-handed grab in the corner of the endzone for the conversion.

Tascosa mounted a comeback during a third quarter that "lasted forever" according to JV coaches Stan Carter and Ron Young.

"We ran 28 offensive plays in the first half," Carter said, "and 48 in the second. Our guys got pretty tired there at the end."

"We moved the ball well," he added, "but we had some trouble with penalties. They killed a couple of drives for us."

Young said the defensive effort was sustained throughout the contest, but the 91-degree heat began to wear on the Herd towards the end.

"Overall we played real well," he said. "They got both of their touchdowns on long runs in the second half when everybody was just worn out."

Tascosa had a third long run that would have tied the score, and afforded the Rebels a chance to win with the conversion, called back on a penalty in the last three minutes.

Max Mungia finished the day with 12 completions in 16 tries for 150 yards and two touchdowns. Brown rushed 32 times for 154 yards and the winning score.

Comin' through

Freshman White tailback Petey Colvin crosses the goal line during Thursday's 14-12 win over Palo Duro Blue. Colvin ran for 73 yards and scored all 14 points for Hereford.

"We were lucky to win," Carter said. "But everybody played hard. The offensive line didn't let them lay a glove on Max all day and opened some big holes for Larry."

Don running back George Daniels scored four times to lead Palo Duro past Hereford at Palo Duro.

Daniels scored on runs of 5 and 25 yards in the first quarter, 5 yards in the second and 20 yards in the fourth. Marlow Becker ran 50 yards for a third-quarter score and ran for two conversions and passed to Jerry Ringo for a third.

Herd 9th Maroon 18, PD White 6
Herd fullback Quincy Curtis scored twice to lead the freshmen Maroon team to an 18-6 win at Palo Duro.

Curtis scored touchdowns in each of the first two quarters and quarterback Richard Sanderson went the distance on a bootleg in the fourth quarter.

Dowis worries Wyoming

By The Associated Press

When Wyoming faces Air Force in college football this weekend, one of the smallest players on the field will be one of the biggest problems for the Cowboys.

"He has the ability to juke people in the open field," Wyoming coach Paul Roach said of Dee Dowis, the Falcons' one-man air-and-ground attack.

Dowis, a 153-pound quarterback who hardly looks like a football player, is coming off one of the greatest one-man performances in college football history - including 249 yards rushing and six touchdowns.

That spectacular show left San Diego State in the dust last week during the Air Force's 52-36 annihilation.

Dowis' 249 yards rushing, in just 13 carries, was the fifth-best single-game total in Western Athletic Conference history and the most ever for a quarterback. He had more yards on the ground last week than any other team in the conference.

His six touchdowns and 36 points set WAC records and, according to the NCAA, represented the highest scoring performance ever by a major-college quarterback.

With the ubiquitous Dowis running the Air Force show, Roach faces a dilemma defending the Falcons' triple-option wishbone in Sunday night's game at the Air Force Academy.

"If you gang up on Dowis, the fallback or the pitch will take you out," Roach said. "But he's the primary focus. If we let him loose a few times, we had better be able to score 40 points ourselves."

The Wyoming-Air Force game will cap an extra-long weekend of college football that began Thursday night with Washington State's 46-41 defeat of Brigham Young.

Saturday's games involving the Top Ten have No. 3 Miami, Fla., at Wisconsin, Northern Illinois at No. 4 Nebraska, Pacific at No. 5 Auburn, Tennessee at No. 6 UCLA, Baylor at No. 8 Oklahoma, Colorado State at No. 9 Colorado and No. 10 Clemson at No. 16 Florida State.

The rest of the Top 25 schedule includes Virginia at No. 12 Penn State, No. 14 Syracuse at Temple, No. 15 Texas A&M at Washington, No. 17 West Virginia at Maryland, Mississippi State at No. 18 Southern Mississippi, No. 20 Arizona at Texas Tech, No. 23 Pittsburgh at Boston College, and Georgia Tech at No. 25 North Carolina State.

Miami makes its debut with a new coach and a new quarterback. Dennis Erickson has replaced Jimmy Johnson, who left to coach the NFL's Dallas Cowboys.

Meanwhile, Craig Erickson has succeeded Steve Walsh at quarter-

back. Walsh also left for the Cowboys. Erickson, no relation to the coach, played nearly two quarters in Miami's 23-3 victory over Wisconsin last year, completing just five of 17 passes for 57 yards and an interception.

"The offense never really clicked, and I didn't make the plays," Erickson said. "Mentally, I wasn't prepared for the game."

Nebraska opens its season against Northern Illinois, 1-0 after beating Fullerton State 26-17. The Cornhuskers have lost 12 starters from last year's Big Eight championship team, including seven on defense.

"I know Nebraska has lost a lot of good players off their team last year," Northern Illinois coach Jerry Pettibone said, "but Nebraska's one of the programs in the country that has so much continuity in it, players being developed up through the program, that they don't rebuild, they just reload."

Tennis, CC seasons start

Hereford Whiteface cross country and tennis teams join the Hereford High athletic parade Saturday as they begin competition.

The netters will travel to Pampa for a District 1-4A match with the Harvesters while the harriers will run at Brownfield.

First-year tennis coach Luis Zavala said his team will be expected to continue the two-year string of district championships.

"Our girls are going to be tough," he said. "They have a lot of experience and got in a lot of tournaments this summer."

"The boys will be a little green -- we're playing two freshmen -- but they should do well. I'm really excited to have the chance to work with these kids."

In a match Tuesday with Tascosa, the girls pulled out a 5-4 win. Kristie Allison, Brenna Reinauer, Gina Alley and Trisha Munoz won in singles play and Allison and Reinauer clinched the match with a win in doubles.

The boys team had a tough go against the Rebels, being swept in singles and having only Greg Coplen and Torry Sellers' doubles win to show for the day.

Zavala said he expects to take eight players on each team to Pampa.

"Only the top six singles and three doubles teams count in the standings," he said, "but most coaches like to get as many players as much competition as they can."

The cross country team returns four lettermen for both boys and girls.

Coach Martha Emerson took the team to a practice meet in Clovis, N.M. last week and was pleased with the results.

Teresa Castillo finished first in the girls' two-mile race while Tim Stagner was fastest over three miles for the boys.

The girls team has finished first in district and region and fourth at state each of the past two years while the boys were second in district last year behind state champ Randall.

"We've really got a good bunch out this year," Emerson said. "The heat has hurt us some in our training, but we should be in good shape when it cools off."

Emerson said she expects to run varsity and JV teams for both boys and girls at each of the Herd's eight meets this season.

Orioles sweep Texas, 8-3, 9-6; now 1 1-2 games back of Jays

By KEN RAPPOPORT
AP Sports Writer

The Baltimore Orioles continue to make things hot for Nolan Ryan, and warm for the Toronto Blue Jays as well.

With a doubleheader sweep over the Texas Rangers by 8-3 and 9-6 scores Thursday night, the Orioles continued their mastery of Ryan and at the same time moved closer to Toronto in the sizzling American League East race.

"That's what we had to do tonight, win both," Orioles manager Frank Robinson said after Baltimore moved within 1 1/2 games of Toronto.

En route to the sweep, the Orioles beat Ryan for the third time in three meetings this year and are 9-0 against baseball's all-time strikeout leader in their last 12 meetings.

"They've had my number," Ryan said.

Meanwhile, the Blue Jays pounded the Cleveland Indians 12-4 for their ninth victory in 10 games.

Elsewhere, the Milwaukee Brewers beat the California Angels 7-1 and the New York Yankees defeated the Seattle Mariners 6-4.

Mike Devereaux and Steve Finley were the big offensive guns for the Orioles Thursday night. Both went 5-for-10 in the doubleheader with Devereaux getting six RBIs and Finley keying a five-run second in the nightcap with a two-run triple.

Devereaux had a career-high five RBIs to lead Baltimore in the first game.

The first game featured a bizarre twist. The Orioles struck out 16 times, a club record, with Phil Bradley going down five times.

The Orioles have been chasing the Blue Jays since falling out of first place on Sept. 1. Baltimore had held the top spot for 98 consecutive days.

Blue Jays 12, Indians 4

George Bell hit a three-run double and Lloyd Moseby had three hits, including a leadoff home run.

John Cerutti, 11-8, gave up two runs on five hits in five innings. Tom Candiotti, 12-8, lasted only 1-3 innings, giving up five runs on six hits as the Indians lost for the sixth time in seven outings.

The contest was held up for 1 hour, 33 minutes in the fifth inning with the Blue Jays holding a 9-0 lead.

Brewers 7, Angels 1

Tom Filer held California to four hits and an unearned run in eight innings and Glenn Braggs collected three hits, including a homer.

The Brewers simplified Filer's job by breaking out for five runs before he had to make his first pitch. Milwaukee jumped Mike Witt, 8-13, for six hits in the first inning.

Filer, 6-3, struck out two and walked one before Tony Fossas pitched the ninth, completing a combined five-hitter.

Yankees 6, Mariners 4

Don Mattingly's two-run single keyed a six-run rally in the eighth inning.

The Mariners held a 3-0 lead before the Yankees rallied in the eighth for their winning runs. Mattingly's hit with two out broke a 3-3 tie and Steve Balboni followed with a sacrifice fly for the Yankees' sixth run.

Rich Gossage, 1-0, pitched one-third of an inning in the seventh to earn his first American League win since Oct. 1, 1983.

Reliever Mike Schooler, 1-6, was the loser.

NL East race heats up

By BEN WALKER
AP Baseball Writer

Starting today, the National League pennant races might take shape. Then again, they could be more tangled than ever in a few days.

"There will be a full house, that's all I can tell you. It should be a heck of a weekend," Chicago Cubs manager Don Zimmer said.

The Cubs, holding a 1 1/2-game lead over St. Louis in the NL East, opened a three-game series against the Cardinals at Wrigley Field this afternoon.

Montreal, trailing by three games, faces Philadelphia this weekend. The New York Mets, 3 1/2 games behind, play Pittsburgh.

"Anything can happen. Any one of four teams can win," Zimmer said.

San Francisco has more control in the NL West. The Giants lead Houston and San Diego by seven games each, and begin a three-game series tonight at the Astrodome.

Chicago increased its lead by beating Philadelphia 6-2 Wednesday night while the Mets routed St. Louis 13-1.

In other games, Pittsburgh defeated Montreal 7-4, San Francisco downed Atlanta 7-5, Houston edged San Diego 2-1 and Los Angeles beat Cincinnati 8-2.

Zimmer gave outfielders Andre Dawson and Jerome Walton a rest and their replacements, Doug Dasenczo and Marvell Wynne, each homered.

Wynne hit his first home run since being acquired from San Diego for a 1-0 lead in the second inning. Dasenczo's first major-league homer made it 3-0 in the third.

Mike Bielecki, 15-6, gave up five hits and two runs in 5 2-3 innings. Ken Howell, 11-11, allowed four runs on five hits in three innings.

Mets 13, Cardinals 1

Gregg Jefferies hit two homers and two doubles and drove in five runs.

Jefferies doubled in the first, hit a two-run homer in the third, doubled in the fourth and hit a three-run homer in the fifth.

Frank Viola, 3-4, got more runs than the Mets had provided him in his first seven starts. He also got his first major league RBI.

Howard Johnson hit his 33rd home run, connecting against Ted Power, 6-7. Pedro Guerrero hit his 13th homer for the Cardinals.

Pirates 7, Expos 4
Pinch hitter Jeff King's checked-swing roller went for a tie-breaking triple and he continued home on right fielder Mike Aldrete's error in the eighth inning.

Barry Bonds led off with a double against John Candelaria, 0-1, and King ended a 2-for-23 slump with a grounder past first base. The Pirates scored an insurance run in the ninth on Candelaria's throwing error.

Bob Walk, 12-10, got the victory and Bill Landrum pitched two innings for his 23rd save.

Giants 7, Braves 5
At Atlanta, Kevin Mitchell hit his 42nd home run and San Francisco rallied to beat the Braves.

Will Clark's two-run triple pulled the Giants into a 4-all tie in the seventh. Pinch hitter Chris Speier doubled home the go-ahead run in the eighth and scored on Brett Butler's single.

Mitchell homered in the ninth.

Steve Bedrosian, 3-6, got the victory. Mike Stanton lost his first decision of the season.

Astros 2, Padres 1

At San Diego, Ken Caminiti hit a two-run single in the third inning and Jim Clancy allowed four hits in seven innings as Houston stopped the Padres' six-game winning streak.

Clancy, 7-11, beat San Diego for the fourth time this season. Dave Smith got his 24th save in 28 chances.

Bruce Hurst, 13-10, lost despite allowing just three hits in six innings.

Dodgers 8, Reds 2
Fernando Valenzuela pitched a six-hitter and Los Angeles ended

Tom Browning's eight-game winning streak.

Valenzuela, 10-12, walked four and struck out five in his third complete game in 28 starts. Browning, 15-11, gave up seven runs on 11 hits in three innings.

Eddie Murray and Willie Randolph each homered and got three hits. Eric Davis hit his 29th home run for the Reds.

Tech gets sponsor

LUBBOCK (AP) - A bank will become the first corporate sponsor of a Southwest Conference football game Saturday when the Arizona Wildcats visit Texas Tech.

NCNB Texas is paying $15,000 to have its name linked with the game on billboards, banners inside Jones Stadium and on radio and TV ads, Tech marketing director Dick Murray said.

Other companies will pay $12,000 or $15,000 to sponsor the other five home games, depending on the projected attendance, Murray said, adding that Tech decided to jump on the sports-sponsorship bandwagon.

"I think we're starting to see more of it in all kinds of ways - from drag racing to Hands Across America, which I think Coke sponsored," Murray said. "The most famous example is the Olympics."

Instead of going toward scholarships or the university's general fund, sponsorship money will be used to advertise the games to try to boost attendance, Murray said.

"Say in a 30-second spot we'll spend the first 26 seconds urging people to go to the game and then the last four seconds we'll say, 'Brought to you by the sponsor,'" he said.

Church News

SAN JOSE CATHOLIC CHURCH
San Jose Catholic Church will hold sign-ups for the sixth season of Renew on Sunday at the church.

The theme for Renew this year is "Evangelization." This Sunday, each person will be asked to line up around the church, hold hands and pray together at the appointed time.

The group will circle the church facing outward, looking toward the neighborhood and the community of Hereford in welcome.

Each person will receive a sheet of paper explaining what is happening, the opening prayer and theme, the opening song, and a tear-off section to sign up for various parts of Renew.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

"The Place of Children in Worship" is the title of Dr. Jim Cory's sermon for the regular 10:30 a.m. Sunday worship service. The scripture is Mark 10:13-16. Installation of Sunday school teachers will also be conducted Sunday.

Sunday evening, Sept. 10, the junior and senior high fellowship will meet from 6-7:30 p.m. Junior high youth will meet at the church and then will go to Jan Metcalf's home for supper and a program before returning to the church at 7:30 p.m. Senior high youth will meet for supper at the church and are asked to bring $1. The get-acquainted and planning time will be led by Jim Cory and Scott Simpson. The Larry Malamens will be cooking a fajita supper.

On Wednesday, the children's K-6 choir will meet from 4-5 p.m. and the adult choir will meet at 7:30 p.m.

AVENUE BAPTIST CHURCH

The Great Challenge Fellowship Dinner is planned at 6 p.m. Sunday at the Community Center. All church members are encouraged to attend and bring a covered dish. A nursery will be provided.

The deacon election is set for Sunday with voting being conducted during the morning worship service.

The Men's Breakfast is planned at 7 a.m. Sunday, Sept. 17, at the Ranch House. Also, on that day the baby/child dedication is planned at 10:55 during the morning worship service.

Girls in Action (girls in first through sixth grades) will meet Monday. The girls will learn about missionaries and will have the opportunity to make new friends.

Rev. Larry Cothrin, pastor, invites the public to all services at the church located at 130 N. 25 Mile Ave.

IMMANUEL LUTHERAN CHURCH

Rally Day is planned for the church Sunday school this Sunday. Everyone is invited to attend at 10 a.m.

During the morning worship service Sunday, the children will present a banner processional. The sermon, based on Luke 15:1-10, is entitled "Which Man Has One Hundred Sheep."

WESLEY UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

Sunday school for all ages begins at 10 a.m. each Sunday; the morning worship service, 11; the evening worship service, 7; and choir practice, 6 p.m. A special children's sermon is held each Sunday.

The administrative board meeting is set for 8 p.m. Sunday.

The Wesley United Methodist Men's Breakfast is set for 9 a.m. Sunday and the Wesley United Methodist Women's business meeting is scheduled at 7 p.m. Sept. 13.

The choir has acquired new hymnals purchased with donations for memorials.

Uncrushed aluminum cans are being accepted at the church or the parsonage. Also, donations of meal tickets from the Sirloin Stockade is a current money-raising project of the church.

FIRST UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

Youth activities of the fall will begin in First United Methodist Church Sunday, and all those of senior and junior high ages are urged to meet for an all-youth snack supper at 6 p.m. in the fellowship hall.

This will be followed by separate programs of the youth fellowship beginning at 7:30 p.m. The Senior High Handbell Choir will meet at 5 p.m. to get rehearsals started for a new season and all who are interested are invited.

Youth classes in the Sunday School also invite visitors and prospective members to join them at 9:45 a.m.

A new director of youth ministries, Jo Linker, has lately come to the church and will be working with teachers and leaders of young UMC members, planning new programs and offering new ideas.

A picnic from 2-4 p.m. Saturday will get the graded choir program for children of First UMC off to a lively start. Children interested in the choirs and their parents are invited to the pavilion in Veterans Memorial Park for the event.

Hamburgers and hot dogs will be served and there will be games and crafts for entertainment while the girls and boys enroll.

Times of the choir rehearsals this fall have been announced by Steve Sobczak, director of music as follows: Carol Choir, Monday, 4 p.m.; Cherub Choir, Tuesday, 3:30 p.m.; Sunshine Choir, Wednesday, 4 p.m.

The church van will be available this year to pick up children whose parents cannot bring them to rehearsals. Arrangements for this service will also be made at the picnic.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

Week of Prayer for State Missions is planned Sept. 10-17. Special events for State Missions include: prayer meeting and program, Sept. 11, 7 p.m.; Loyal Baptist Women State Mission program, Sept. 13, 11 a.m.; and program and prayer meeting, Sept. 14, 9:30 a.m.

First Baptist Church Music and Missions Kick-Off is planned from 6-7:45 p.m. Wednesday for children four years of age through the sixth grade.

TEMPLE BAPTIST CHURCH

Dr. Douglas Watson will be speaking at 11 a.m. Sunday at the church. The public is invited to attend. Dr. Watson and his family have just returned from living in Nigeria for a year.

A State Mission program is planned at 7 p.m. Wednesday.

FIRST CHURCH CHURCH OF THE NAZARENE

The Spanish Singles meeting will be held at 8 p.m. every Friday at Blue Water Gardens Apartments starting Sept. 22. It will be taught by James Gamez.

The Children's Choir will start Sept. 20 and will be under the direction of Kathy Douglas.

The new teen pastor is Bruce Menefee.

Communion will be held at 8:30 a.m. and 10 a.m. Sunday.

The word bicycle is a combination of a Latin and a Greek root: "bis" is Latin for twice, and "kylos" is Greek for circle.
