Brucellosis Control Testing Enters 'Mopping Up' Phase

City Talks Of Water Need, Paving, Sewers And Speed

The city's water supply now and in the future was the main topic of discussion at the regular City Commission held here Tuesday.

A report on the condition of the city's ten wells supplying water to Hereford customers was presented by Dudley Bayne, city manager.

Figures given in the report reflected a drop in the pumping levels as well as the number of gallons per minute wells are able to pump.

However, according to Bayne, the daily capacity of the present system is adequate to meet daily needs of the city.

He pointed out that heavy rains during the summer had kept consumption of water down to slightly more than 5,000,000 gallons per day.

Pumping capacity of the wells, he said, is rated at 7,700,000 per day with boosters able to pump double the amount.

Bayne stated that without the heavy rains during the summer, daily consumption in the city could have hit between six and seven million gallons causing a serious problem.

He reported that the city had put down four test wells during the spring and revealed plans to sink a deep test to the San Jose strata.

During the discussion, Bayne pointed out that several new subdivisions are expected to be developed in the near future as the city continues to grow.

With the new additions coming into the city limits, he declared, another booster station would have to be added, possibly in the northwest section.

Commissioners, during the discussion, emphasized the need in developing Hereford's water system.

They also agreed that continued testing for "favorable locations" was needed and the problem must be looked at Brucellosis testing in Deaf Smith County entered the mopping up stages as laboratory personnel estimated two more weeks would be needed to end the initial testing phase.

Dr. R. H. Miller Jr., heading the brucellosis control unit here, made the statement commenting that two more weeks would be needed "if cooperation continues."

The testing program, he continued, is running well within the time limit set by the state. Cooperation by cattlemen in the area is comparatively good.

"I am pleased with the result of the program here," stated Dr. Miller.

Results are well within the percentage required that will insure Deaf Smith County becoming modified, certified through the retesting program," he concluded.

The retesting program calls for disposing of infected cattle within a 10-day period. All cattle in the herd are then retested within a 30 to 60-day period.

If suspect animals are found in a herd, only the suspects are retested within the stated period. However, if the animal becomes a reactor, the whole herd will have to go through the testing procedure again.

It was estimated by T. L. Sporkman Jr., county brucellosis testing coordinator, that 10,000-12,000 head of cattle had been tested with 85 per cent of the county tested.

He pointed out that testing teams had reached the phase of the program where herds that had been missed for "one reason or another" will be picked up.

"Owners of herds which have not been tested", he urged, "should notify the testing lab at EM4-1085; Palmer Norton, EM4-3844, or me at EM4-2280."

Information needed when a herd is reported for testing, he stated, is its location, name of the owner and the approximate number of cattle to be tested.

Sporkman pointed out that testing of herds in Deaf Smith County has been running smoothly and called cooperation among cattlemen in the area.

Youth Charged After Shooting Saturday Night

An 18-year-old Latin-American youth was arraigned here Tuesday as charges of assault with intent to murder were filed in Justice of the Peace Court, C. B. Miles, presiding. Bond was set at $1500 as charges, alleging the offense were filed against Pablo Moreno, 411 W. Second.

Located in good condition at Deaf Smith County following a shooting incident at Deaf Smith County Bull Barn on Saturday is Jesus Guadalupe Ramirez, 18, 117 Ave. B.

Allegations against Moreno stated that he reportedly shot the Ramirez youth following an apparent disagreement about 10:45 p. m. Saturday.

Moreno is alleged to have fired three shots from a .22 cal. pistol. The first two shots, according to statements by both youths, missed with the third striking Ramirez in the lower right chest.

Following the incident, Ramirez was taken to Deaf Smith County Hospital by a friend. There he was given emergency treatment.

The shooting was reported to the Hereford Police Department by hospital employees working in the emergency room.

According to a statement given by Moreno, he is reported to have driven off following the incident.

He stated that he disposed of the weapon by throwing it into one of the sewer pits. Law enforcement officials have not yet located the pistol.

Moreno was arrested at the Deaf Smith County Sheriff's Office about 2:10 a. m. Sunday as he drove into the office and drove himself up.

He was turned over to Hereford Police Department. Charges against the youth were filed Tuesday with arraignment in Justice of the Peace Court.

ONE LAST SWIM of the SUMMER [?] proved the big temptation for Kay Seamonds, although her sister Mary Ellen tries to warn her that it's too frigid. Like many other area residents, Tuesday's change from cool to colder brought Kay unprepared. A senior at Hereford High School, Kay is the

Limited to the first 112 entries, the tournament gets underway Friday morning.

All journey entrants and their wives will be honored at a dinner in the Hereford Country Club on Thursday, beginning at 7:30 p. m.

Bob Giese of Amarillo, last year's Hereford Invitational champion, is expected to be on hand to defend his title. He will be battling linksters from throughout the Panhandle. Giese took a 5-stroke margin in medal play against Bob Lindsey last year to take the honors.

Lindsey recently copped the Hereford City Tournament title. Other invitational favorites include Jack Bowman of Clovis, Friona Invitational Champion; Roland Adams, former champ here; Bud Abbott of Borger, Ben Lane Jr. of Amarillo, another former winner here; Jim Harem of Borger, and many others, according to Posey.

Players will be paired in flights according to handicaps, since there will be no qualifying rounds. There will be 16 players in each flight in the match play event.

Match play gets underway Friday morning at 8:30 a. m. when the third, fourth, and fifth flights tee off shotgun style.

Championship, first, and second flights are slated to begin play Friday afternoon at 1:30 a. m. Semi-finals will follow the same schedule Saturday.

All competition will be on the match play basis, with the exception of the championship flight finals. Four championship flight finalists will compete in 36 holes of medal play Sunday to determine the winner.

$500 Bond Set As Man Charged With DWI Here

A $500 bond was set in County Court Judge H. C. Williams presiding, as driving while intoxicated, first offense, charges were filed Tuesday against Leonard J. Inkleberger.

Inkleberger, 36, 606 S. Main was arrested here late Sunday on Park Avenue at Avenue F by Hereford Police Department patrolmen. He entered a plea of not guilty in County Court as charges were filed.

All-School Play Parts Assigned

A group of retired and remarkable citizens who live in an "old folks home" forms the basis for Hereford High School's annual all-school play, "The Silver Whistle."

Slated for production Oct. 19-20, the play features a cast of ten. Director James Hinkley, Theban sponsor, assigned parts following try-outs last week.

Bill Brown portrays the industrious Mr. Erwerter, who promises to restore youth to the home's aging inhabitants. His suggestion creates small-scale chaos at the home, and the stage is set for the hilarious proceedings which follow.

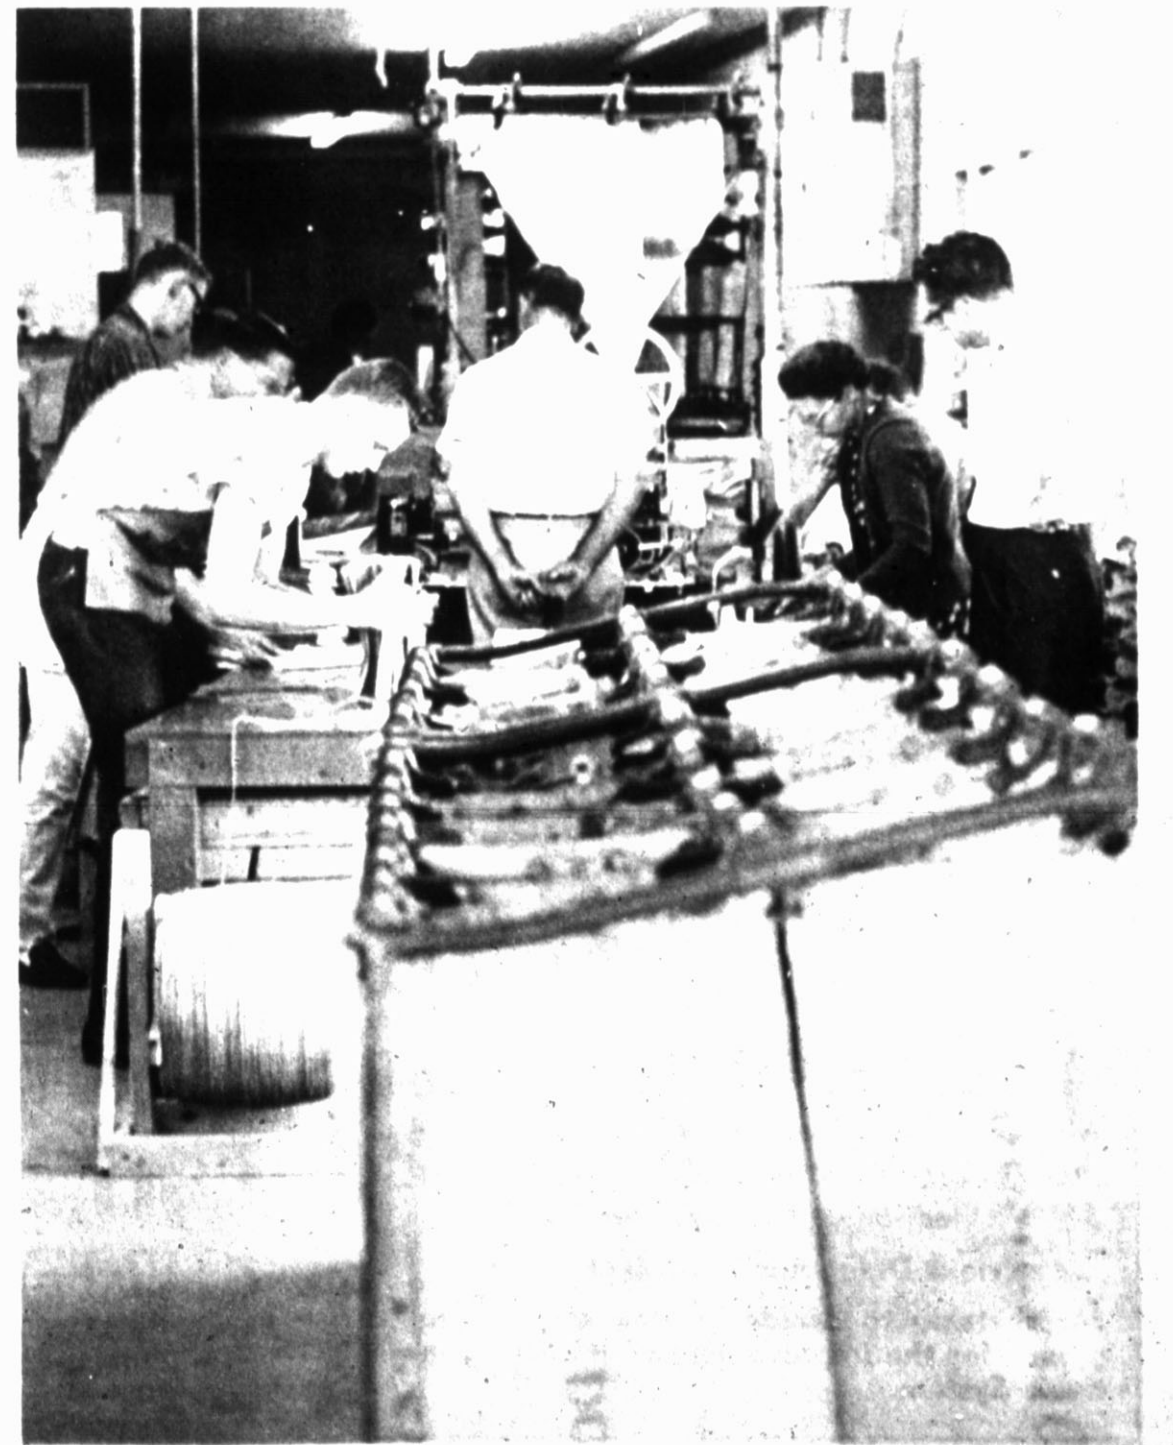

Other members of the cast are Helen Davis as Miss Tripp, Shari Jo Carmichael as Mrs. Manner, John Pavlicek as Mr. Bebee, Jimmy Weathers as the Rev. Watson, Heather Gordon as Mrs. Sampler, Rozi Rush as Miss Hoadly, Caroline Brumley as Mrs. Cross, Jay Boynton as Mr. Cherry, and Lewis Barnett as Emmet.

Cast members are currently in rehearsal for the production, which is slated Friday and Saturday, Oct. 19-20, in the Hereford High School auditorium.

Hereford Man Fined, Sentenced On DWI Charge

Otto L. Massie, 66, 405 E. Fifth, was fined $100 plus court costs and sentenced to three days in the County Jail as he entered a plea of guilty to driving while intoxicated, first offense, in Deaf Smith County Court, Judge H. C. Williams presiding.

The plea was entered for Massie by his attorney Friday afternoon. Judgment in the case was returned by Judge Williams Tuesday morning.

SEPTEMBER EDITION of Texas Co-op Power rolled off the Southwest Offset, Inc., presses here during the past weekend. The monthly publication of the Texas Electric Cooperatives includes 177,000 copies which go all over the nation. It took three days to print and prepare for mailing. Over 600 mail bags were used as the publication becomes the largest single mailing out of Deaf Smith County. Many of the copies were trucked to Austin for mailing from the central office. The publication will mean an additional estimated $1,000 revenue monthly for the local Post Office.

Krueger Moves Capitol To El Campo For A Day

By Vern Sanford
Senator Culp Krueger of El Campo, a newspaper publisher and radio station owner, is planning to "put the big pot in the little one" — sure-enough when he becomes governor-for-a-day on Sept. 8.

Krueger not only is inviting all his friends and neighbors to help him celebrate the event at El Campo, but he is bringing a lot of state officials to show his hometown folks how government works.

At least a dozen state boards will have their September meetings in El Campo. For example, the State Highway Commission will be on hand to explain why by-pass loop highways are good for small towns.

Theme of the state agency meetings and exhibits will be "Program of Progress for the Small Towns of Texas."

Senator Krueger's aim is to show that rural districts like his can be, and are being, helped by the state government.

He has drawn fire from a colleague, Sen. Doyle Willis of Fort Worth, for having a lot of state officials and employees make the trek to El Campo for the day. But he's going ahead with his plans, and many state agencies are cooperating.

WHAT'S AN INDUSTRY?
School Land Board is going to have to decide before long what the Legislature meant when it said state-owned islands and submerged lands along the inland waters of Texas could be leased by the Land Board for "industrial purposes."

For example, Port Aransas wants to lease some state land for a city airport. Is that an "industrial" use?

Land Commissioner Jerry Sadler, chairman of the board, thinks it is. He wants to give a liberal interpretation to the term.

A study of the law by the Attorney General's department has provided no judicial interpretations by Texas courts of the term "industrial." But they can take their choice from courts of other states. There the interpretations range from "manufacturing only" to one case where the courts held that rice farming was an industrial activity.

CONVENTION TIME
Democratic and Republican leaders are busy planning their state party conventions to be held on September 18. Republicans meet in Fort Worth, Democrats meet in El Paso.

For the first time in many years careful attention is being paid to the party platforms.

Two big endorsements given to John Connally, the Democratic nominee for governor, hinge on what the platform says. The State AFL-CIO and Political Association of Spanish-Speaking Organizations both want to make sure the platform is not in opposition to some of their hoped for legislation before their endorsements take effect.

Because many Texans remain undecided, both parties hope to gain votes by what they say in their platforms. But the problem is the same as usual. They have to keep the friends they now have, while trying to attract new ones.

So, the careful, slow and re-mandering process of democracy goes on and on.

SEWER PLANT GRANTS
A total of $3,200,000 in Federal grants to 46 Texas cities to improve their sewage disposal plants will be parceled out by the State Health Department and the Texas Water Pollution Control Board early this month.

Legislators headed by Rep. Charles Ballman of Borger are trying to find out what new laws are needed to stop such things. They have found that it is not a violation of criminal law to ignore Railroad Commission regulations by taking oil from under a neighbor's lease. It is merely a civil offense for which the state can try to collect $1,000 a day for each day of violation.

Investments are now advised by a group of leading bankers and investment experts. The Chase Manhattan Bank of New York is hired to advise on investments. Income from investments was almost $17,000,000 this year — enough to pay the retirement benefits to the 13,000 teachers or their survivors who are collecting from the fund. This year, 1,229 more retired. The teacher retirement fund is larger than either the permanent school fund or the university permanent fund.

SLANT HOLES AND LOOP HOLES
Atty. Gen. Will Wilson says that in many cases present laws against false swearing on official documents "will not support prosecution," due to their weaknesses.

Wilson's conclusions were reached as a result of investigation of East Texas slant-hole drilling. In some cases, he says, false affidavits came from as many as four different expert sources to the effect that crooked wells actually were straight.

The Attorney General says that definite proof of the false swearing offense is difficult because the notary public who signed the oath often is an employee of the accused person.

"JUST SUPPOSIN'"
Most popular game today, among employees under the Capitol dome, is "just supposin'" what would happen if Texans elect a Republican governor.

Would it mean filling appointive state offices and boards with Republicans and giving the GOP preponderance in state government?

Most "political experts" warn that the Cox bid in November must be taken seriously. Decision to "ride the fence" until after the November election is being heard more frequently. This, from long-time employees as well as some members of the Senate and House who are popular back home but who also are being realistic about the strength of the Cox following in their home-districts.

Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson can't always go back to teaching school. J. W. Edgar, Texas Commissioner of Education, has presented him with a lifetime certificate to teach in either elementary or high school.

Johnson started teaching grade school in Cotulla, and later taught high school at Houston.

SPECIAL SESSION TALKED
Gov. Price Daniel has agreed to discuss the possibility of a special session of the legislature with the head of a House committee investigating slanted oil wells.

Rep. Charles Ballman of Borger, chairman of the House General Investigating Committee, has asked the Governor for a conference to discuss a possible special session.

However, the governor pointed out to Ballman that he already has authorized the Railroad Commission to use additional available funds from present appropriations to continue the commission's work in the slant-hole probe.

Other state officials gave little support to the House committee's request for a special session.

W. J. Murray, Railroad Commission Chairman, said "if we tried to pass any new laws now we wouldn't know where the loopholes are."

Atty. Gen. Will Wilson said he would have to confer with

NEW CAR INSURANCE PLAN
Sen. Grady Hazlewood of Amarillo, whose heckling led the State Board of Insurance to abandon the safe driving plan of auto insurance, says he will try next year to pass a new law on the subject.

He wants the board to take insurance company profits into account in setting insurance rates.

Presently, the Board takes losses and expenses into account, then allows the companies five per cent for taxes and profits.

COMMISSION CRITICIZED
Rep. James Cotten of Weatherford, who is likely to head the House Appropriations Committee for a second term starting next year, is gunning for the Commission on Higher Education.

He thinks it is playing politics by recommending the creation of so many new state colleges.

Commission has urged that four colleges be taken into the state system. Legislature accepted two of them, added two more on its own, and has two more requests pending.

NEW YORK — Saturday is the new favorite opening date for Broadway shows.

Traditionally, Thursday night has been the most popular for openings.

SONGWRITERS TRY AGAIN TO 'COME ON STRONG'
NEW YORK — Sammy Cahn and James Van Heusen, the songwriting team that has twice won Hollywood Oscars for movie themes, have composed a title song for the upcoming Broadway stage comedy, "Come on Strong."

The melody is to provide background for a second-act scene in which a film starlet displays her dancing skill. Cahn and Van Heusen won the 1957 music Oscar for "All the Way," repeated in 1959 with "High Hopes."

By Audni Miller
Greetings and salutations to you, kind readers! You know, of course, that school has begun — and with a bang! Just a word to last year's seniors: We who are still serving time in good ol' Hereford High are quite aware that you are driving around and around the building while we are in classes. Believe me, we fully realize that you don't have to begin college on Aug. 30! And really now, you don't know what a real swingin' time you're missin' — seriously.

On Tuesday night, Aug. 28, there was a dance at the Community Center for all junior high students. This was the last dance that the seventh graders could attend with their upperclassmen! And several spectators have said that the eighth graders' twistin' was really sharp! Tryouts for the All-School Play, "The Silver Whistle" were held on Wednesday and Thursday of last week. Director James Hinkley is quite happy about the new source of dramatic talent that has invaded H. S. this year.

Hinkley has assigned the following roles: Erventer will be in the person of Bill Brown, with blonde Helen Davis acting as Miss Tripp; Caroline Brumley, a senior, has the part of the semi-invalid Mrs. Gross; Rozi Rush is rehearsing for the role of intoxicated Miss Hoadley.

Mr. Cherry is portrayed by none other than Jay Boynton; John Pavlicek acts as sweet little ol' Mr. Beebe-while Shari Jo Carmichael interprets the character of old Mrs. Hamner. Our new exchange student, Heather Gordon, does a delightful version of Mrs. Sampler.

Emmet is played by Lewis Barnett and Jimmy Weathers acts as the Reverend Watson. The cast is quite an enthusiastic group as are the crew chairman: Gerry Bybee, who is in charge of lights; LaReece Asker, the dependable script holder; Carolyn Aven, a junior, head of the property crew; Cynthia Seed, chairman of the make-up detail; publicity chairman, Dianne Wilson; set construction supervisors, Pat Smith and Cliff Corley; and seniors Jenny Holt and Kay Seamands, who are in charge of the box office.

With this winning cast and crew, "The Silver Whistle" promises to be one of the most appealing and enjoyable plays ever presented at Hereford High. So, keep these dates in mind — Friday, Oct. 19, and Saturday, Oct. 20 — for evenings of delightful entertainment.

Sandra Vaught recently returned from Big "D" where she had "lots and lots of fun!" She visited in the home of her cousin, the Rev. and Mrs. Robert L. Davis.

Sandra participated in the youth activities of the First Methodist Church of Terrell, Tex. She met many, many friendly teenagers — and she is corresponding with one in particular!! Way to go there, Sandra!

Jimmy Weathers says he had a "blast" water-skiing on Lake Brownwood — just ask him about his really "impressive" sunburn!

Shari Jo Carmichael spent the weekend of the 26th in Lazbuddie with her cousins, Jim and Mac Brown. While there she met "lots of nice kids" as well as some of the Muleshoe football boys. The Muleshoe football team, by the way, is quite excited about playing our mighty Herd.

The '62-'63 Roundup Staff were guests of Jan Story at a watermelon party on Monday, Aug. 27. An atmosphere of secrecy prevailed as staff members Connie Kent, Dick Combs, David Block, Ronnie Duncan, Linda Loerwald, Barbara Langley, Judy Wiman, Linda Martin, Dave Dowell, and Jan Story "hatched" plans for the coming year.

Sorry, everyone, but due to unavoidable circumstances the '63 Roundups have not arrived yet! Your patience is requested by everyone on the staff.

NOTICE
The Commissioners' Court of Deaf Smith County, Texas, has set the date of September 10, 1962, at 1:30 o'clock P.M. as the time for hearing the 1963 Budget. The hearing will be held in the Commissioners' Courtroom, in the Courthouse, Hereford, Texas. The public is invited.

staff.
Karl Cary, who has been working at Owens and Hollingsworth this past summer, returned to his home in Vernon on Aug. 31 — much to Judy Kreisshauser's sorrow.

Did you know that the younger members of the Hereford Country Club have recently formed an organization of their own? Well, they have — and it's known as "Sigma Rho." Meetings are conducted every other Sunday afternoon out at the Club.

There are approximately 50 members between the ages of 14 and 21; sponsors are elected to serve for two months at a time. At the present time, the club sponsors are the Foster Hill Jrs. and the Ivan Blocks.

Dances are held once a month. The most recent one was last Friday night — it was especially for those who will be college freshmen this fall. Decorations followed that theme, with pennants from almost every college on display.

Members turned out in their finery to dance to the music of the Gados. We dare not forget to mention the food, which was served buffet style.

Congratulations and best wishes for continuing success to this new organization.

Speaking of dances — there was a real rockin' one at the Community Center Saturday night. It was a School Spirit Dance sponsored by the cheerleaders and twirlers of Hereford High School.

The dance featured decorations of maroon and white streamers strung along the ceiling and hung from the light fixtures. The walls were literally covered with footballs revealing the boys' names and numbers. The cheerleaders' pom-poms and megaphones were strikingly arranged on the platform at the east end of the room with a great big schedule to the right of the platform.

During the intermission, punch was served. Here's saying "thank you" to our fine cheerleaders and twirlers for a great dance.

A reliable source has furnished this information: The Casler boys have taken up twirling! That's right — Allen and Mack were seen twirling in their own front yard at 101 Texas. What next? It's only fitting and proper to wish the brothers success and good fortune in this, their new venture.

The Tri-Hi-Y executive council met recently to organize a program of work for the club year. Attending the planning session were Jan Story, president; Susie Higgins, vice-president; Janis Higgins, secretary; Sandra Vaught, reporter, and Ann Gentry, social chairman.

And still another Coke party — Kaki Barnard and Deedee Thomas were hostesses for this particular one at the Barnard residence on Monday, Aug. 27. Those who sipped and dipped and gossiped were Kathy Boston, Royce Ann Gililand, Ruth Ann Allison, Sheri and Gloria Damron, and Kay Coffman. In order to clarify the "sipping and dipping" I shall state that Cokes, potato chips, and a variety of dips were served as refreshments.

The Labor Day Dance at the Community Center was really a roarin' success. Everyone enjoyed dancing to the rhythm of the Sparkies, one of the most popular dance bands in the area. The rompin', stompin' time was from 8:00 to 11:30 Monday night.

Incidentally, the Checkmates will be here to play for your dancing enjoyment on Saturday night, Sept. 8. You're all familiar with this "much-in-demand" band, so come on out and dance, dance, dance! That's at the Community Center on Sept. 8.

Now the annual trek to college has begun — Kay Lemons left last Sunday to attend business school in Oklahoma City and Sharon Hill is in Seguin, Tex., preparing to study at Texas Lutheran College there.

Waldon Scott and Curtis Crowell returned on Sept. 1 from a Baptist youth retreat held at Glorieta, N. M. Before returning to our fair city they toured the Garden of the Gods and other scenic points in Colorado.

As the writer of this column, I have been severely reprimanded by the inestimably important members of the coaching staff because I have failed to give due mention to the Whiteface football team. For this failure I humbly apologize; I shall try to redeem myself. Rah! Rah! Whitefaces!

Just so that you will be in the know when the first football game of the season rolls around on Sept. 14, here is a list of all the boys' and their numbers: Ends: David Dowell number 85, Eugene Green number 88, Joe Don Edelman number 82, Lynn Cook number 80, Dick Lookingbill number 87, and Danny Loerwald number 85.

Tackles: Bill Steele number 75, Neal Laeb number 73, David Stevens, number 78, Alfred Davis number 66, Dan Taylor number 70, Dick Rogers, number 78, Stan Sigman number 70, and Steve Seigler number 77.

Guards: J. Carter number 60, Jimmy Kassahn number 65, John Kovacs number 68, Joe Self number 64, Larry Duncan number 66, Charles Brownlow number 64, and Gayland Ward number 68.

Centers: Manuel Pacheco number 50, Eddie Johnson number 55, and George Muse number 52.

Quarterbacks: Austin Hodges number 10, Jimmy Higgins number 11, and Frank Cain number 20.

Halfbacks: Charles Kelly number 15, Arnold Powell number 40, Gary McKee number 48, Danny Thomas number 44, Gary Stagner number 13, and Jerry McCaslin number 48.

Fullbacks: Jim Haney number 25, Ronnie Duncan number 22, and Larry Minks number 30.

Just remember to look at the label on the back of each uniform and you can tell which player is in which pile when — now isn't that logical?

Head coach Jack Meredith remarked that, "our desire to have a good team is as great as last year." The coaches all agree that the boys are concentrating hard on their assigned plays and playing positions.

The Herd travels to Pampa Thursday, Sept. 6, for a scrimmage — go get 'em, team!

Sandra Inman To Wed David Michael McNeely

The Whitefaces have really "got that spirit" which will enable them to have a successful season.

Everyone is well aware of the fact that we have the most capable coaches on our staff — Coaches Meredith, Todd, Brooks, and Williams certainly deserve our utmost respect and co-operation for the tremendous job they are accomplishing, and the generous contribution they are making to the betterment of Hereford High School.

So here's a hearty wish for a most successful season to the coaches and their 1962 edition of the Hereford Whitefaces! WE'RE WITH YA, TEAM—SO FIGHT! FIGHT! FIGHT!

Mr. and Mrs. Burke Inman, 416 Star Street, Hereford, are announcing the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Sandra, to David Michael McNeely of Bryan, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Gordon McNeely.

The wedding ceremony will be read at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, Sunday, Sept. 9, in the bride-elect's home.

Miss Inman attended Lubbock Christian College for two years and is a senior at the University of Texas in Austin.

The Basic Side

IT'S that time again... the time that challenges anew an army of vigorous American youth to the task of preparation in basic education that will equip them with know-how for their tomorrows. Here young minds fresh from their bowl of wheaties, assemble for classroom and playground training. Dear Teacher, responsibility lies heavy on your shoulders. Don't forget that along with reading and writing and arithmetic—lessons in how to live God's way are needed. Teachers and students alike have God to honor and your country to save right there in your classrooms. Always remember, "A word fitly spoken is like apples of gold in pictures of silver." Proverbs 25:11. Blending of the academic with the spiritual lessons of Jesus, the greatest teacher, offers a moral and spiritual constitution possessing all the qualities basic in life.

REP. ROGERS WRITES

Unilateral Disarmament By U. S. Is Not Possible

TO THE PEOPLE OF THE 18TH DISTRICT:

There can never be unilateral disarmament by this country. Anyone advocating such a policy is either mentally unbalanced or seeking the overthrow of our government. I know of no Member of Congress who would give a second thought to a suggestion of unilateral disarmament.

They would consider such a suggestion completely and utterly silly. Hence, since the affirmative action of the Congress is required before any such action could be taken, it is a foregone conclusion that the fuzzy-headed thinking of a few unrealistic dreamers is not going to have the slightest weight.

Documentary proof of this lies in the fact that Congress has just recently passed the largest defense authorization and appropriation bills in our peacetime history. Other outlays have been made in the space program, which will soon become our first line of defense.

This means that 60 cents out of every tax dollar going to the Federal government is closely and directly identified with the defense of this country in refining old weapons of war and in building new ones. Add to these figures the costs of past wars for which we are still paying, and we find that approximately 75 cents of every Federal tax dollar is directly associated with "war."

This should prove to the most skeptical that the United States of America is not seeking war but is ready, able and willing to take on any country or group of countries that thinks we are soft. It would do any of these countries well to look at the facts before listening to the talk of some soft-heads. This country has never lowered its guard, nor will it so long as there are aggressors in this world who preach peace and practice conflict.

Man has long looked upon multilateral disarmament of the major powers as the best method of securing the peace of the world. This has been a major concern of every civilization since the Stone Age. It has been the subject of conferences between sovereign powers since the beginning of time. To date, no satisfactory solution has been found, although the conferences and discussions continue.

As each new weapon of war has come into being, the problem has become more complex. The advent of nuclear power increased the problems and complexities many thousandfold. It made necessary a complete re-evaluation of the studies, the research, the coordination of activities and the preparation for management of participation in international negotiations on the subject.

In short, it created a situation where the slightest lack of knowledge from a technological or scientific standpoint could spell disaster.

For a number of years, activities and research with relation to disarmament negotiations had been carried out in our government in a rather loose and uncoordinated manner. This method of operation had apparently been satisfactory prior to the coming of nuclear power and hence was continued.

However, in the past several years the lack of some basic scientific and technological information on the part of some high officials in this country, due primarily to the uncoordinated efforts of the several agencies and divisions charged with this responsibility, created some very dangerous pitfalls. It was these near-tragic experiences that shocked our government into recognizing the need for absolute coordination of all of our facilities in further negotiating on this age-old issue.

Thus came into being the Arms Control and Disarmament Act, which is an act designed for the purpose of coordinating all phases of these activities under one head, in order to avoid any possibility of breaches in security clearance, research and development and all other sensitive areas including scientific and technological activities.

The primary purpose of the agency created by this act is to provide the essential scientific, economic, political, military, psychological and technological information upon which realistic arms control and disarmament policy must be based. It does not have the power in any degree to bind this country in the field of disarmament or otherwise contrary to the Constitution and laws of this nation.

In order to doubly assure that there would be no misunderstanding in this particular, several of us in the Congress prepared an amendment and secured its adoption. This amendment specifically spelled out a prohibition against disarmament or arms limitation not approved by the Congress in accordance with the Constitution.

Hence, anyone reviewing all of the facts, even the fuzzy-heads, can readily see that the United States of America is continuing the motto "Don't Tread on Me" and is fully capable of enforcing the warning.

LET'S COOK SOMETHING!

Cookies Are 'Hand-to-mouth' Food

Cookies may be termed "hand-to-mouth" foods. They come in different categories such as filled cookies, refrigerator cookies, pressed cookies, rolled cookies, bar cookies, drop cookies and may be described as crunchy, chewy, tender, or delicate. They are fun to bake, to serve, to eat. Their fragrance carries the aroma of friendliness, understanding, partnership, and the giving and take of good companionship.

Cookie, a diminutive of the Dutch work, "koek", meaning cake, are a welcome food when little children come home from school in the afternoons, hungry, and needing extra nourishment for several more hours of play and study before bedtime.

FIESTA COOKIES

A family cookie, reserved through several generations for fiestas and special occasions, is a Fiesta Cookie. It has a different texture and flavor, and is not too sweet.

2 1/2 cups sifted flour
4 teaspoons baking powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 cup melted lard
1 cup sugar
1 cup cornmeal
1 egg, beaten

Sift flour, measure, and sift again with the baking powder and salt. Melt lard, and while it is hot, stir in the cornmeal and sugar. Cool. Add unbeaten egg and flour to the cornmeal and lard mixture. Roll into small balls and flatten onto a baking sheet. A small amount of milk (1 or 2 tablespoons) may be necessary to make the dough stick together. Bake until the rims of the cookies are lightly browned. Makes 7 1/2 dozen cookies. Bake 10 minutes at 400 degrees.

SUSPIROS

Suspiros are delicious sponge drops — but be sure to plan to make use of the dozen egg whites (in an angel food cake, perhaps).

The recipe makes six dozen cookies. Bake for 10 minutes at 350 degrees.

2 1/2 cups sifted powdered sugar
12 egg yolks

Beat the egg yolks until stiff and lemon-colored. Add sugar slowly and fold into the egg yolks. Drop by spoonfuls on a baking sheet covered with waxed paper. Suspiros should be spongy when pressed with the finger tips.

BOHEMIAN YEAST COOKIES

Bohemian yeast cookies are a dainty, unusual coffee "go-with". The recipe makes 4 dozen cookies. Bake at 375 degrees for 10 minutes.

1 package of granular yeast
1/4 cup warm water
3 cups sifted flour
3/4 teaspoon salt
1 cup butter or margarine
2 egg yolks
2/3 cup sour cream
1 teaspoon vanilla
Confectioner's sugar or cinnamon

Sprinkle the yeast over warm (110 degrees) water to soak. Sift together the flour and salt. Cut in the butter until the mixture resembles meal. Combine the eggs, cream and vanilla. Add the softened yeast. Add to the flour mixture; blend until all the flour is moistened. Shape into a ball, cover; refrigerate for several hours.

Sprinkle rolling pin cover or canvas with confectioner's sugar. Roll one-fourth of the dough into a rectangle as thin as pie crust. Cut into long strips two inches wide.

FILLING

2 cups seedless raisins
1/2 cup water
1/4 cup sugar
2 tablespoons lemon juice
1/2 cup chopped nuts

For filling, put raisins through the food chopper, using a fine blade. Add water, sugar and lemon juice; cook until thick, stirring constantly. Cool; add nuts. Spread in a thin layer over the dough strips. Cut strips in 2 x 4 inch rectangles. Roll each like a jelly roll. Place cut side down on a greased baking sheet. Repeat, rolling out one-fourth of dough at a time. Bake. Roll hot cookies in confectioner's sugar, or sprinkle with cinnamon and confectioner's sugar. Variation: Substitute dates for raisins.

FATTIGMAND

Fattigmand is a Norwegian deep-fat fried cookie. The recipe makes 10 dozen cookies. Fry at 350 degrees for about one-half minute.

3 eggs, beaten
3 tablespoons cream
3 tablespoons sugar
1 1/2 tablespoons butter, or margarine
1 tablespoon lemon juice
1/2 teaspoon ground cardamom seed
1/4 teaspoon salt

4 1/2 to 5 cups sifted-flour
Mix together the eggs, cream, and sugar. Stir in the butter, and two cups of flour. Mix well. Stir in more flour to make a stiff dough. Wrap in waxed paper and chill at least one hour. Remove one-fourth of the dough at a time, and roll out on a lightly floured board or pastry cloth until paper thin. Cut into two inch diamonds. Cut a slit in the center of each and pull one corner through. Fry in deep fat until delicately brown, about one-half minute. Dust with powdered sugar before serving.

APPLE FUDGE SQUARES

(A chewy cookie that has excellent keeping qualities.) The recipe makes 16 2-inch squares. Use pan size: 8 x 8 x 2 inches. Bake at 350 degrees for 35 to 40 minutes.

2 (one ounce) squares unsweetened chocolate
1/2 cup shortening
1 cup sugar
2 eggs, well beaten
2/3 cup applesauce
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 cup sifted flour
1/2 teaspoon baking powder

1/4 teaspoon baking soda
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup chopped pecans
Melt together the chocolate and the shortening. Blend in the sugar, eggs, applesauce and vanilla. Sift together the flour, baking powder, soda and salt; stir into the chocolate mixture. Stir in the nuts. Spread in a greased 8 x 8 x 2 inch pan. Bake.

CARROT COOKIES

Carrot cookies are a bright yellow color, golden brown at the edges. The cookie is delicate in flavor, not too sweet. Recipe makes 7 to 8 "dollar" size cookies. Bake at 375 degrees for 12 minutes.

1 cup cooked, mashed carrots
2 cups sifted flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
2 teaspoons baking powder
1 cup shortening
3/4 cup sugar
1 egg
1 teaspoon vanilla
1/2 teaspoon lemon extract

Wash, scrape, slice, and cook until tender five medium-sized carrots. Drain, mash and cool. There should be one cup of mashed carrots. Sift flour, measure, and sift again with the salt and baking powder. Cream the shortening and sugar together; add unbeaten egg and mix well. Add flour and carrots alternately, mixing well after each addition. Add flavorings and beat until smooth. Drop by teaspoonfuls on a greased baking sheet and flatten with a fork dipped in cold water. Bake about 12 minutes.

until the cookies are dry across the edges. Remove from the baking sheets and cool on a wire rack. Cookies may be used plain, or iced lightly with a powdered sugar-orange frosting.

Here's how Gas heat COOLS your home!

Cooling with a Gas flame combines four simple laws of nature. The ARKLA-SERVEL Sun Valley* GAS air conditioner employs them to produce the finest air conditioning science has yet devised!

First, BOILING, as in a percolator, moves the liquid refrigerant to the top of the unit in the form of vapor. Secondly, CONDENSATION, as on a glass of cold water, occurs, converting the vapor back to liquid. Next, EVAPORATION provides the chilling effect, just as blowing upon your hand, when wet, makes it feel cool. Last, is the ABSORPTION of the vapor by a salt solution called lithium bromide, in the same manner as table salt absorbs liquids. The liquid then returns to the "percolator" to start the cycle over again.

This is why an ARKLA-SERVEL Sun Valley* GAS air conditioner has no moving parts to wear out or break down, and why it 1) has a life expectancy of three-to-four times that of an ordinary air conditioner, 2) does not lose its efficiency with age, 3) operates with a minimum of service or repair, and 4) maintains its low operating cost throughout the life of the unit.

All these reasons add up to LOWEST OWNER-SHIP COST... and make ARKLA-SERVEL Gas air conditioning truly the wisest investment you'll ever make for your home.

Accident Causes Heavy Damage To Auto, Pickup

Heavy damage to two vehicles resulted as a light pickup truck slid into the rear of an automobile at the intersection of Park Ave. and U. S. Highway 385 about noon Sunday. Neither of the drivers was injured in the accident. The pickup was being driven by William Glenn Nelson Sr. 48, 511 Ave. J.

Driver of the 1957 model sedan was Dicky Eugene Wright, 20, 641 N. Osage, Amarillo. The automobile belonged to Don Elliott, 606 N. 25 Miles Ave. Damage to the automobile was placed at $400 with damage to the 1961 model pickup estimated at $300. The accident occurred as Nelson, a volunteer fireman, was on his way to answer a fire call. Wright had stopped at a red light and the intersection and was waiting for it to change. Both were headed west. Nelson was unable to stop his vehicle on the rain-slick pavement in time to avoid the collision, according to the Hereford Police Department report.

'Company of Compassion' Seeks Members

Officers in the Hereford "Company of Compassion" are making a final effort here to reach its goal of 100 members. Mrs. Raymond Higginbotham, chairman, said that Deaf Smith County needs less than 30 persons to reach its goal. The "Company of Compassion" is the result of talks made here last month by Hilliard Griffin, executive director of World Literacy Evangelism, Inc., which sponsors the "each one teach one" drive to eliminate illiteracy in the world.

The Hereford group, through its pledges, would sponsor a worker for one year to work overseas in teaching others to read and, in turn, teach others what they have learned. The method was first used by Dr. Frank C. Laubach, who is originator and sponsor of the World Literacy Evangelism work.

Mrs. Higginbotham said those who are interested in joining the Hereford "Company of Compassion" may contact her or others on the local committee: Mrs. Carl Perrin, secretary; Mrs. Ronald Fuhrmann, publicity director; Don Moore and Herb Boardman, members.

Floyd Cole, 1962 winner of the Ford Farm Efficiency Award in grain sorghum production, will be honored with a dinner in the Hereford Community Center at 7 p. m. Thursday, Sept. 6. The invitational affair will be highlighted by the presentation of a $2000 check to a non-profit educational project in Texas of Cole's choosing.

We had a most interesting visit Wednesday morning with Howard C. Tuttle, coordinator of the Ford Farm Efficiency Award Program committee, from Birmingham, Mich. His only previous experience in Texas was in Wichita Falls during World War II and he was amazed with the farming production and vitality of Deaf Smith County. His secretary asked that he try to find out how this county got its name, so we provided him with the story, along with Chamber of Commerce material to take back to Michigan.

Hereford's Whitefaces will play a scrimmage with Pampa there at 5 p. m. Thursday, Sept. 6, the last before opening at Canyon next week. And it's the general consensus that Clovis made only one extra point, not two, in the scrimmage here last week, which would make the score 19-13 for Clovis. However, Hereford's starters outscored the Clovis varsity 2-1.

The Church Bowling League will get underway at 8 p. m. Friday at Sunset Lanes. Included are men's teams from the First Baptist, First Methodist, Avenue Baptist and Immanuel Lutheran. A women's church bowling league will be formed Friday night if enough interested women show up.

All former residents of Cook County are invited to attend a reunion in Amarillo Sunday, Sept. 9, starting at 10 a. m. Those attending are to bring a basket lunch, with drinks to be served by the Association. The reunion will be held in the Pleasant Valley American Legion Hall, East Hastings and North Mirror.

The month-long brucellosis control testing program began here in mid-August with the ultimate goal of certification of Deaf Smith County as a modified certified control area.

For certification, not more than one per cent of the county cattle population or five per cent of the herds may be infected.

To conduct the test here, a six-man federal-state team was assigned to work the area. A laboratory to test blood samples was set up in the Little Bull Barn.

During the paving program, curb and gutters would also be extended along the entire length of the street. Estimated cost of the project was placed at $29,923.

Bids on sewer line construction were also accepted by the Commission with the city accepting the low bid. Bidding low was Foran Construction Co. of Amarillo with a bid of $1649-50.

Other companies bidding on the 1043 feet of ditching were Brodie Construction Co., $1803-75, and Jordan Construction Co., $1895.50, both of Amarillo.

It was pointed out to commissioners that bids were high due to the fact that the sewer line extension called for a deep ditch reaching a maximum depth of 10 feet.

The line extension is to serve a subdivision being developed between Avenues A and C and 13th and 14th Streets.

Included in the contract will be ditching and construction of manholes. The city is to furnish pipe for the project.

Commissioners denied a request by Santa Fe for increasing the speed limit for trains through the city.

The railroad company proposed that speed limits be upped from the city limits west to the Lawton Street crossing to 45 mph. Speed for the cab through the remainder of town would be set at 30 mph.

With the request denied, speed limits will remain at 30 mph through the city.

Commissioners gave final approval to a zoning request by Mrs. Will S Kerr by okaying a recommended change from "A" residential to "C" multi-family by the Zoning Commission.

The property is located in the 1100 block of Park Avenue. It is reported that a Lubbock construction concern plans to build a luxury apartment building at the site.

Also appearing at the Commission were members of the Veterans Park Board. They informed the commissioners that

OFF THE Shelf

BY H. A. TUCK

Our reading over the Labor Day weekend encompassed three small books. Strangely enough, all three were enjoyable reading, which is a higher percentage than we usually get.

The first book, Walk Together, Talk Together by Katharine T. Kinkead, was borrowed from Margaret Ann Durham and the high school homemaking department.

It is about the American Field Service student exchange program. From our own experiences with the exchange students in Hereford, we felt a close relationship to this book.

But the author also covered a lot of ground that was unfamiliar to us. For example, we didn't know the history of the American Field Service or how the exchange student program had started. Mrs. Kinkead made several visits to the AFS headquarters in New York, there learning something about how the students are selected and placed, the operation of an "Unhappiness Department" to smooth out the rough spots that occasionally appear when several thousand students are placed in an equal number of American homes this year.

For example, the AFS has found that Indonesians are happier in homes with large families. Just getting the students to America and back is a tremendous problem in itself (the AFS could be considered the world's largest travel agency from the number of overseas arrangements it handles each year).

Mrs. Kinkead also explains the program whereby American students are sent to foreign countries either for a summer or for a semester of study.

Much too brief for those interested in the program, Walk Together, Talk Together still crams a lot of information and humor into a well-written package.

A delightfully done non-fiction book is My Samoan Chief by Fay G. Calkins. The author's chance meeting in the Library of Congress with three Samoans eventually led her to marry one of the young men and depart for a strange new life in Samoa.

Once there, she was dismayed to learn that "share the wealth" is the rule in Samoa. Relatives are expected to be free with food, housing or anything else that may be necessary or desirable. As a young bride, she found that she had inherited seven fully-grown sons.

And guests at the frequent feasts brought baskets to carry off entire cakes or pigs.

Even more distressing to her Puritan background was the fact that no one seemed to worry about money. Fay worked hard to establish a credit union, a cooperative store, a cooperative trade association. All of these enterprises, unfortunately, were vulnerable to the Samoan notions of profit and loss.

Even paying workers on the plantation hacked out of the rain forest proved to be a fatiguing task. Raising children according to the precepts of Dr. Spock was equally unsuccessful.

Fay Calkins' story of her life in Samoa is light and humorous, while giving an insight into the background and heritage of the happy Samoans. In My Samoan Chief, she admits that she got a lot more than she bargained for when she married the handsome young man in Washington.

Humor with a different kind of twist came through in the third book, Let's Go For Broke by Mary Lasswell.

The Texas-born author adds to her long list of successful books with this small volume. For those of you who have read Mary Lasswell's earlier books, the characters are familiar. For me, it was a new experience and a happy one.

Mrs. Feeley, Miss Tinkham and Mrs. Rasmussen sell their beloved Ark in San Diego after feeling the encroachments of civilization came pushed too far into their world.

By accident, they acquire a huge Charles Addams-type house. The house has no lights, no gas, no electricity, but the girls really buckle down. Even the fact that they are stone-broke doesn't deter them from gathering in a penniless Mexican woman.

What they lack in assets they offset through imagination. They tie up traffic for an hour on the freeway by selling antiques, pies and piggeons from a splendid old hearse.

They rent the hearse, and a couple of people, to a movie company, create prized ornaments from almost nothing, prove that their beloved new addition, N. Carnation, is an American by marriage and make ardent admirers of three electric company employees.

Amid all their frantic activities, they eat wonderful meals created by Mrs. Rasmussen and described in such detail as to send the reader into a frenzy of frustration. With ... and without ... meals, the group drink prodigious amounts of beer. And, as the jacket blurb says, "Has anyone besides Mary Lasswell ever made beer sound so much better than champagne?"

With a lot of detail, and much happiness, Mary Lasswell has created a real adult fairy tale, where true values of honesty, integrity and hard work are triumphant. In her latest book, Let's Go For Broke, she proves it again.

My Samoan Chief and Let's Go For Broke are available from the Deaf Smith County library.

County Agent Has Information On Peace Corps

Volunteers with farm backgrounds, rural youth, or vocational training in Agriculture, as well as those with more advanced agricultural training, are being requested through the Peace Corps for service in the Dominican Republic, Senegal, Niger and Morocco, says Lefty Thomas, Agricultural Extension Agent for Deaf Smith County.

Selection for Peace Corps Volunteers to serve in these areas will begin soon. In the Dominican Republic, those selected will be assigned to community development work, rural youth work, livestock improvement, conservation and as Cooperative Assistants. Those assigned to Senegal, Niger and Morocco will work in Agricultural Extension, soil conservation, pasture improvement, irrigation, and livestock and dairy improvement. Training for these projects will begin this fall.

Peace Corps projects in these countries present the opportunity for American farmers or people with agricultural backgrounds and training to engage in general extension work, youth activities, and specialized areas in new and challenging surroundings.

The Peace Corps provides all expenses for persons who are accepted for service. This includes transportation, housing, clothing, food, medical care, and incidentals. Volunteers also receive $75 per month for each month's service, or a total of $1800 after two years' service.

All persons in Deaf Smith County interested in applying for Peace Corps service in the above-mentioned areas should contact County Agent at his office, immediately at EM4-3611 or third floor of the courthouse.
