SIGHTS, FACES SEEN

All ex-residents of Red River county are urged to attend the annual reunion to be held July 1 from 10 a.m. until 5 p.m. just north of the swimming pool in McKenzie State park, Lubbock. Bring a basket lunch.

Don Veigel is in the Northwest Texas hospital following an eye operation performed last Friday. He plans to be there 10 days.

Lawrence Shaddix, OPS specialist in the consumer goods branch, will be in Hereford on Tuesday afternoon, June 26. He will be available to local businessmen by stopping at the Chamber of Commerce office.

Hereford Jaycees and their wives will travel to McLean on Friday for the installation of officers there. The installation of the new local Jaycee officers has been postponed until June 29 because both L. V. Whitley, of Lubbock, state Jaycee president, and Gene McDonald of Borger, regional vice-president, will be at McLean and both men are to be invited for the local installation. McDonald will conduct the installation and Paul Conaway will be the master of ceremonies.

R. E. Williamson Funeral Today At First Baptist

Funeral services will be held today for Robert Elsworth Williamson at 3:30 p.m. at the First Baptist church with Rev. H. V. Fields in charge. Burial will be in West Park cemetery under the direction of the Gilliland Funeral home. Williamson died at the Deaf Smith County Hospital June 19 following a long illness. Born in Richardson County, Neb. November 23, 1868, Williamson married Miss Anna M. Fiedler at Hawatha, Kans. in 1891. Williamson came to Texas in December 1950.

He is survived by his wife, four daughters: Mrs. Florena Robertson, Denver; Grace F. Adams, Hereford; Nell Olsen, Hollywood; and Lahoma Rucker Mizion, Kans., eight grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren.

Mrs. L. J. Hoan and children Bobby and Patsy Carlton of Wichita, Kans. visited in the home of her sister, Mrs. Charles Dye, Tuesday through Thursday. They also visited with Mrs. Sam Ramey.

Visiting this week in the Lowell Sharp home is Mrs. Sharp's sister, Patricia Robinson of Panhandle.

Hereford Cannery Seeking Beef for Federal Packing

The availability of beef during the summer months may well determine the fate of a government packing contract for the Hereford Canning company, according to Manager

Worth Ware. Ware told The Brand this week that he is at present engaged in negotiations with the government for supplying them with canned boneless beef.

The main stumbling block is that cattle for government contracts must be utility grade cattle or better. As there are no cattle on pasture and none on the feed lots, utility grade cattle for packing is unavailable. The local firm is one of nine packers in the Panhandle qualified to pack government beef.

If a million pounds of beef could be obtained, Ware commented, he could can it in 30 days using a single shift working a 40-hour week.

This is the first contract negotiations entered into by the local company with the government, Ware said. If the cattle are available in the fall, a contract will be forthcoming then.

On the vegetable side of the local cannery's problems, Ware said the late season will delay opening of the plant until the middle of July, when he will handle the potato and green bean crop (the best pack for the Hereford cannery), black-eyed peas, and lima beans as they are harvested.

At present, government regulations on the use of tin have cut available tin for canning purposes to 75%. The can manufacturers have further lowered the government's revised figure to 65% for a reduced can availability.

If crops are favorable, Ware will employ from 35 to 75 people in the local plant.

County Seeks Bids on Bridge Construction

The county commission announced in today's issue of The Brand that bids will be accepted up until 9 a.m. Monday, July 9 for the construction of a 50-foot span steel bridge across the Tierra Blanca creek 12 miles southwest of Hereford.

Included in the -contracted work will be also the re-inforcing and bracing the old abutments of the span, which was washed out during the recent heavy rains.

A set of plans for the proposed span are now on file in the office of the county judge in the Deaf Smith county courthouse.

Worker Killed In Elevator Accident Monday

Robert M. Snell, 18, was fatally injured in an elevator accident Monday at about 4:30 p.m. on the Byron Gist place 23 miles north of Hereford.

Snell, whose home is in Bethlehem, Pa., had only been in Deaf Smith county for a short time.

The Gilliland Funeral home is preparing the remains to Bethlehem for funeral services and burial.

Surviving is the youth's mother, Mrs. Edna Snell and one sister.

Attending National Lions Convention At Atlantic City

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Cowsett and Mrs. Guy Lawrence left Hereford by auto Wednesday a.m. to attend the Lions International convention in Atlantic City, N. J. June 24-27. Cowsett is president of the Hereford Lions Club.

Donna Cowsett accompanied her parents.

In addition to attending the convention the group will stop in New York, Washington, D. C., St. Louis, Philadelphia, Annapolis, and Nashville. They plan to return to Hereford around the first of July.

OIL DRILLING IS BUMORED AT GUSEMAN'S

Rumors of impending oil-drilling operations on the C. T. Guseman property were being circulated in Hereford this week.

The rumors received no official confirmation from Guseman when asked about the possibility of drilling on his land.

A large share of Guseman's property is leased to A. W. Cherry and Ish McKnight.

Earth Tremor in Hereford Vicinity Wednesday Noon

An earth tremor, lasting about three seconds, was reported in the Hereford vicinity between 12:36 and 12:38 Wednesday afternoon.

Location of the tremor, using reported observations only as a basis, would pin-point the spot somewhere between Hereford and Amarillo, probably closer to Hereford, according to Aaron Stern, observer-briefed for the U.S. Weather Department at the Amarillo air terminal.

The quake was felt as far east as Amarillo and as far west as Bovina, according to telephone queries reaching the Amarillo air terminal.

Stern, who was contacted by The Brand shortly after the tremor was felt here, said according to reports, the quake was felt more plainly in the southwest section of Amarillo. He used that information in spotting the approximate location of the tremor.

Shortly after the quake, the telephone at The Brand office began ringing with residents asking whether the shaking of their houses was due to an explosion or an earth tremor.

Stern discounted the possibility of a blast for two reasons: if the tremor had been caused by an explosion, it would have to have been a "terrific" explosion to have been felt as far east as Amarillo and as far west as Bovina and people would have been calling in to report the blast rather than asking about the tremor of the earth; secondly, Stern surmised that if it had been an explosion (such as an atomic blast in New Mexico) it would have been felt by persons to the west of where the tremor was reported. Also, he said that in the case of an explosion, people would have felt the concussion of the air rather than the trembling of the earth.

The exact location of the quake can only be guessed because a seismograph would be needed to give an intelligent location for the quake. The nearest seismographs are located around Denver, in New Orleans, and at St. Louis.

During the time of the tremor, the barometric pressure at the Amarillo air terminal remained constant, but at the time of the quake, the needle wavered a slight bit, Stern reported.

As far as can be determined, this is the first quake in this area to have been reported.

No reports of the quake had come in from Canyon or Dimmitt, Stern said, but one person did call in from Bovina and one from Friona.

Evidently the quake was felt far more in Hereford than anywhere else. The Brand received more than 20 calls within a half-hour after the tremor. Here are some of the comments from persons in Hereford:

R. A. Fullwood—Mrs. Fullwood was sitting on the front porch at the time, heard dishes rattle in the kitchen, one glass fell out of the china closet.

Mrs. E. S. Ireland—the family was eating lunch when they felt the table shake after hearing a rumble. Heard a report of the tremor over KGNC news-cast by Wes Izzard.

Bess Moore—Was sitting on a stool in her Vogue shop when the floor started to quiver and the show windows at the front of the shop started to squeak.

Mrs. Roy Hershey—Thought that her kitchen stove was going to fall over when it started shaking from the tremor. She thought a train was going by, but her husband said it made too much of a rumble to be a train.

Mrs. J. A. Pitman—Shook the dishes in her kitchen cabinets. She first thought the refrigerator door had come open.

Chairs in the Pitman home started shaking at the time of the quake.

The Hereford Motor company secretary called The Brand office and said the walls of the building shook during the tremor.

Earl Prather—was seated in a chair and thought a gust of wind had hit the chair and moved it.

Mrs. Troy Womble—The Womble house shook. She was at the dinner table at the time, and it felt as though someone had set off a dynamite blast.

The residents on the northern part of "B" street felt the earth tremor but heard no noise. Joe Bill Wills and Jay Crutchfield were in the Crutchfield home when the place began to shake and the chandeliers started swaying from the tremor.

Blackie Rainey—was seated at the dinner table when the house started to shake, chairs shook. Tremor felt for about five seconds.

Mrs. Lyle Woodford—Shook the entire three wings of the Woodford place on B street while the Woodfords were eating lunch. Tremors lasted several seconds.

First Wheat Delivered On Monday by Earl Cole

Despite the fact that the 1951 wheat harvest is still two weeks in the future, Earl Cole delivered the first load of wheat here Monday afternoon, shortly after 5 o'clock. The wheat tested 61.1 and ran 14-15 moisture content. He reported an average of 35 bushels on the early cutting, but was unable to continue on the 200-acre tract after delivering two loads.

Delivery of the first load of wheat came as a surprise to elevator men and producers alike, most of them having anticipated the first delivery around June 25. Mr. Cole produced the wheat on his place just south of the old prison camp, south of Hereford. Pitman Grain company reported that first load premiums will be announced later. The wheat was stored for loan.

Prospects for the 1951 crop, although far below normal, were pegged higher than in previous reports by elevator men this week. The estimate for this county was generally set at around 250,000 bushels, due to startling improvement in many fields, most of which are small tracts. This figure runs near five percent (or one-twentieth) of a normal crop for the county average of four to five million bushels.

Estimates placed the 1951 yield at probably twice of that in 1950, however, when barely enough wheat was produced to reseed the county. Early drought took part of the crop this year, but most of the loss was attributed to insects, especially in the irrigation area.

Producing tracts in 1951, although generally small in acreage, are expected to run fairly good yields and are scattered over the territory. Castro county prospects were slightly better than Deaf Smith, while Parmer county was expected to run almost parallel to this county in production.

Most producers anticipated beginning harvest within a two week period. A few indicated 10 days and some estimates ran to three weeks. The 1951 crop, as a whole, was aptly summed up by a lucky wheat farmer with a small acreage. He took one look at his field, estimated 30 bushels to the acre, thought of the high price, and said: "It's going to be short, but sweet."

Secret Government Work is Routine for Lottie M. Bengé

dictation a day and the rest of the time was spent transcribing. During the war crimes trials, dictation was taken from interpreters. There are still many things (Continued on page 3)

Some of the world's best-kept secrets have been written in the shorthand notebook of Lottie M. Bengé, former Hereford resident now serving with the Army Air Force as a court reporter in Weisbaden, Germany.

Among those "best-kept" secrets are accounts of negotiations with different countries of the world and some coverage of the Nuremberg war crimes trials, all verbatim dictation.

Miss Bengé, who now calls San Bernardino, Calif. her home, has been connected with the Air Force overseas for two years. She has been in government employ for seven years and just signed on for another two years in Europe before she left the continent for a two-month interim leave.

At the present time, she is visiting in the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Albracht, who live southeast of Hereford. Miss Bengé and Mrs. Albracht went to school together in Hereford before the Bengés moved to California in 1936.

Miss Bengé is to report to New York City June 26 for shipment overseas. How and when she will leave is "top secret". Upon her return to the continent, she will be under General Dwight D. Eisenhower's command in Paris.

Being on the "inside" for so many top-secret international events gives Miss Bengé an extremely cautious manner. Many of the questions put to her by this writer were shunted off with "I'd better not talk about that."

"Walking Blood Bank" Seeking 500 Registrants

Plans for a concentrated drive to type at least 500 Deaf Smith county for a "walking blood bank" were announced this week by Fred Baird, chairman of the Deaf Smith county chapter of the American Red Cross.

Jim Kirby has been named chairman of the undertaking. Purpose of the program is to prepare a file of blood donors and their blood types for the Deaf Smith county hospital to be used in event of accident or state of emergency.

Final details of the typing program were worked out at a meeting held Wednesday night. Time for the typing and other information on the program will appear in Sunday's Brand.

A written plan for the overall typing program was submitted by the local Red Cross chapter, approved by the county medical society and the county health officer. It listed the Deaf Smith County hospital as the sponsor of the program and the Red Cross chapter as the cooperating agency.

Those having their blood typed during the drive will have their blood information on file at the hospital. They will also be given a card for their wallet showing the same information as the hospital records.

"This will not only benefit the blood bank, it will benefit the donor also," Mrs. Dyalthis Brady, Red Cross executive secretary reminded residents. "In the event of injury or any other emergency," she continued, "the information on the wallet card may help save the life of the bearer if he is in immediate need of a blood transfusion."

When the typing program is completed, Red Cross volunteers will prepare a new blood type file. The old file is rapidly losing its value, Mrs. Brady said, because of its age. So many of the persons listed on the file have moved away and those who are still here are being asked repeatedly in the event of a need for blood donations.

This is the first time the Red Cross has cooperated with a drive for blood typing. Mrs. Brady said. Previously, organizations were typed en masse. That was true in the case of the Hereford volunteer firemen and the Knights of Columbus.

Anyone entering into the blood-typing program for subsequent blood donations cannot charge for their donation. That is classed as a "service to humanity," Mrs. Brady stated.

Final plans for the program were made Wednesday night by the following committee members who met at the hospital: Dr. L. B. Barnett, O. Z. Golden, T. E. Seisler, Howard Gault, Mrs. Cecil Williams, Fred Baird, Dyalthis Brady, and Jim Kirby.

from the war trials that are "top secret". Miss Bengel used that explanation in demurring further clarification of her duties as a court reporter during the trials.

She did relate, however, that one time she took dictation through the day. At the end of the day, she had three shorthand notebooks of notes that took two weeks to re-type, check, mark legal points, and prepare on legal-sized paper.

As to life as a government civilian employee in Germany, Miss Bengel listed many aspects which merited her approval. The U.S. Government furnishes billets free of charge for the workers and food costs about $1.40 per day. When she came home on her leave, the government paid travel expenses plus $9 per diem.

The German people have rallied extremely well during the last two years, Miss Bengel said. They have rebuilt and come back to reclaim their war-ravaged land like a "bed of ants." The Germans are glad the Americans are there, in her opinion. They look up to the Americans and now welcome them into their shops.

To show the conscientiousness Miss Bengel displays in the execution of her official duties, she even refuses to read a newspaper while working on government affairs. That, she explained, is to keep official business separated from what she reads or what she hears.

With her new duties in Paris will come the added responsibility of dealing with information that is completely "classified". The government is strict as far as preventing information leaks, she said. In spite of the concentrated efforts by the government to keep its secrets, there is still a lot of saboteurs.

Miss Bengel related that while in Weisbaden, she happened into Ralph Jennings, a Hereford boy who is an air crewman with the Air Force in Germany. Germany and Europe is nice, the former Hereford resident told this writer, when you first go overseas. When you get used to the country—the newness and thrill wears off.

After spending all these year away from Texas and Hereford,

Both Sons of E. J. Youngs Now Re-Entering Military Service

Both sons of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Young, 129 Avenue "E", are in the service. Neal Young was recalled to active duty November 3 and is now stationed on Okinawa. His wife, Betty, and two children, Jimmie and Cathy Sue, are living in their trailer home at the residence of Neal's parents while he is away.

Sgt. 1/c James N. Young E.R. 18368834 363 Ord. Ammo. Co. APO No. 331 % Postmaster, San Francisco, California.

Edward Young requested active duty and was recalled on March 1. He has been assigned permanent shore duty and works in the gunnery school staff office.

John E. Young, YNT3 3587015 U.S. Naval School Gunnery & Torpedo School Staff. Naval Station, San Diego 36, California.

Prior to re-entering the service, both Neal and Edward were associated with their father in carpentering.

Pvt. Edwin A. Plummer, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. Plummer of Hereford has completed his AF basic airman indoctrination course at Lackland Air Force Base, the "Gateway to the Air Force".

Miss Bengel was happy to return and renew old acquaintances. The greatest thrill of her visit—outside of seeing old friends once again—was seeing how vastly different the Hereford of 1951 is from what she knew when she left here in 1936.

She admitted that she hardly recognized the place.—W.W.K.

Hereford Man in Three-Car Accident

A Hereford man, Jimmy Holbert, suffered minor injuries in a three-car collision in Amarillo Friday.

Highway patrolmen said Holbert collided with the rear end of a car driven by Bud Oliphant. Oliphant's car then was in a collision with a car driven by Mrs. John D. Roberts. The accident occurred about seven miles from Amarillo on the Canyon highway. All cars were traveling south.

Three Hereford Residents in Car Accident

Three Hereford residents were injured Friday in a three-car collision four miles southeast of Lubbock.

John E. Walton, 49, a farmer of Hereford route 3, suffered a broken leg and lacerations. His wife suffered lacerations, while their 7-month-old daughter suffered a broken leg and severe lacerations.

All members of the Walton family however, later were reported in satisfactory condition at a Lubbock hospital.

The Walton auto was being driven northwest when it was sideswiped by a car attempting to pass a third automobile on the highway.

Week-end visitors in the Lowell Sharp home were her two nieces, Robin and Winifred Ann Robinson, of Amarillo.

Father's Day Parties, Visiting Highlights Frio Social Activity

By Mrs. Owen Andrews
Father's Day was observed by family gatherings in several homes in the community. The W. H. Thompsons had 65 persons in their home Sunday. Their children here for the occasion included: Mr. and Mrs. Otha Snow and children and Mrs. Charles Gregg and Jerry, all of Oklahoma City; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Stary and sons of Yukon, Okla.; the J. B. Thompsons of Hereford; and the children who live at home, Gladys, Oma Ruth, Twana and La-Von. They were expecting their son Melton and his family from California to arrive in time for the reunion. However, he had not gotten here by Sunday night. He and his family and Charles Gregg were the only missing children and "in-laws" of the family of 10 children, three son-in-laws, two daughters-in-law, and eleven grand children.
Other relatives and friends who called at the Thompson home Sunday were: Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Ballard; Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Pennington and children of Dimmitt; Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Fisher and family of Amarillo; Mesdames M. B. Odom, Raymond Odom, Hiram Odom, and their families; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Cole and family; and Mrs. Eval Odom, all of south of Dimmitt; the Leonard Irwin family; Clark Dobbs, Tommy Irwin, and Miss Barbara Godman.
Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Sparkman, of Amarillo came Saturday to spend the week with their son, T. L. Sparkman and Mrs. Sparkman. On Sunday after church the G. W. Sparkmans, Mr. and Mrs. Owen Andrews and family, and Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Sparkman, Jr. and children went to Palo Duro park to spread lunch and enjoy the scenery. James Dobbs, Leonard Schmidt, and Theo Lamb accompanied them. The T. L. Sparkmans, Sr., then took Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Sparkman back to their home at Amarillo. The Amarillo Times recently carried a story and picture about the meeting of G. W. Sparkman, who is 84 years old, with his brother, W. G. Sparkman, 97, of Joshua. The brothers had not seen nor heard of each other in 33 years, and each had supposed the other dead. G. W. Sparkman is still active and holds a job as yard man at the St. Anthony's hospital in Amarillo.
Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Simpson and Nellie Jo visited Mrs. Simpson's parents, the Roberts, at Wellington during the week end. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. John Simpson, who visited their daughter, daughter, Mrs. Leon Roberts, and family at Wellington.
Father's Day was observed at the Leo Renfro home with Mr. Edd Curtisinger as guest of honor. It was also a birthday celebration for Mr. Curtisinger. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Curtisinger Jr. and sons; Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Strange and family; Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Calloway and family; Mrs. S. L. Calloway, all of Hereford; Mr. and Mrs. Bud Curtisinger and family, at Springlake; Austin Mobley, Don Mobley, Lee Alderson, and the Lee Renfro family.
Mr. and Mrs. Olin Parris went to Lubbock to visit their parents, the Parris and Parker families and her sister, Mrs. David Yandell and family, at Tahoka. Walker Parris, who has been visiting the relatives in the Lubbock vicinity for the past ten days, came back with his parents. The Parris were surprised to find that at Tahoka, the Yandells haven't had enough rain to plant a crop. David only had enough moisture to plant thirty acres—and we thought it rained all over the world!
Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Dodson and children, Dolores, Nile and Mary Jo of San Bernardino, Calif. spent Saturday night at the home of Mrs. Dodson's aunt, Mrs. H. D. Robbins and family. They also attended church Sunday and visited with friends in the community. The Dodsons, who were enroute to Tennessee to visit their parents and other relatives, lived in this community in 1945 and '46.
Mrs. H. M. Mobley and E. Nelle spent Sunday at Floydada with Mrs. Mobley's sister, Mrs. Claude Price and family.
Mrs. W. H. Thompson enjoyed a visit from her brother, Herbert Odum, from Orange, Calif., on Saturday at the Thompson home.
Taking dinner with the Leonard Irwins on Thursday were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Thompkins and children of Norman, Okla.; and Mr. and Mrs. Luther Dowdy and children of Tulsa.
Mr. and Mrs. Buck Jones and children and Yancy Jones all of Decatur, Ill. were visiting the Irwins the first of the week.
Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Simpson were in Plainview Thursday, on business.
Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pennington and children of Dimmitt spent Saturday night with the Leonard Irwins.
W. H. Andrews, A. T. Jones and Geo. Jones were in Altus, Okla. Sunday and also stopped at Childress to visit A. T. Jones' brother, Clarence. They report that excessive rains in the Oklahoma potato raising area are severely damaging the crop. Farmers are attempting difficult early potato digging.
Billy Warrick, 15 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Velma Warrick of Wellington, is spending several days with his grandparents, the J. E. Warricks.
Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hall of Wellington are spending a few days with their son, Leo Hall and family.
Mr. and Mrs. Elza Warrick and children were near Fort Worth last week end, attending a family reunion of his relatives.
Mrs. Sears of Wellington is visiting the J. E. Warricks.
Visiting the H. E. Lindleys during the week end were Mr. and Mrs. Geor. Lindley of Amarillo. The Jack Shirleys and Sam Lindleys took Father's Day dinner with their parents, the Lindleys.

Three Local Students in Summer School

ABILENE—Three people from Hereford are among the 1,005 students enrolled at Hardin-Simons university for the first term of the summer semester. Classes began May 31 and will end July 7.
The students from Hereford are E. B. Posey, Jr., L. B. Russell, and Audrey Lott Hood. Dr. Robert A. Collins, director of the university summer school announced that approximately 300 of the registrants are working on their master degrees. A total of 328 veterans—more than in either the fall or spring semesters—are enrolled.
The second summer term will begin July 10, he said. The summer school schedule calls for two long terms of six weeks each and one short one of three weeks. Courses are being offered in 21 different fields of study, and special schools for band and choir will be held.
Posey and Russell are both graduate students at the university.
Miss Hood, a sophomore, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Hood. She is a member of the a cappella choir and the Rodeo club.
Georgia Ray Elliston, who has been attending college at Keene, and Evelyn Elliston, who attended school at Ft. Worth, are home visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Elliston for the summer.

THESE TWO VIEWS show the damage done to the Joe Brorman farm six miles northeast of Hereford by a twister that hit Friday night at about 6:30 p.m. The windmill was knocked over by a 14x20-foot section of an alfalfa barn roof which flew 150 feet to hit the windmill.

Small Twister Unroofs Barn, Topples Windmill

A twister struck Friday at about 6:30 p.m. on the Joe Brorman place six miles northeast of Hereford, ripping off part of an alfalfa barn roof and knocking down a windmill.

The tornado accompanied the storm that hit Hereford late Friday afternoon. At the time the tornado hit, the Brormans were in their basement. During the time they were in the basement, they heard a crash. When they surveyed the damage, they found a 14x20-foot section of the roof blown 150 feet against the windmill, knocking that down.

The storm came from the northwest and blew the alfalfa barn roof southeast into the windmill.

Summerfield Wins Third, Downs Magnolia Nine, 8-4

Summerfield took its third straight Hereford Softball league victory Monday night by downing a fighting Magnolia Oiler crew in the first game of a doubleheader at Veterans Memorial park by an 8-4 count.

Dawn overtook C & R Cleaners—Jiggs in the nightcap by a 7-1 margin. This was the second win for Dawn as against one loss and the third loss for the Cleaners as against one win.

In the first contest, Summerfield took their eight runs on 11 hits and were guilty of eight miscues.

Magnolia drew first blood in the contest when Carl Brown, Oiler centerfielder drew a pass and took second on an error by the Summerfield first-sacker. He scored on Ed Morris' fly to left which the left fielder bobbed to let in the first run. The losers added one more in their half of the second stanza using a hit and two errors. They added another in the sixth on triples by Milton Newman and Hurler Logan Bars. The final tally for Magnolia came in the top of the seventh on a four-bagger banged out by Catcher Darwood Towns.

After a slow start, the winners brought around two in the last of the third, two in the fourth, and four in the bottom of the sixth.

Dawn got off to a fast start in the second contest, taking a four-run advantage in their top half of the first. They added two in the second and the last in the top of the seventh. The winners got only six bingles off Jerry Drennan and the losers hit four safeties off McBroom and Darrell Janssen. The mound staff for the Dawn nine gave up seven free passes, while Drennan allowed only three walks.

C & R—Jiggs made its only tally of the game in the bottom of the first with two walks and two hits.

Curtis, Estes in Mat Title Finals

A new Southwestern States Junior Heavyweight mat chamption stepped into the Bull barn ring Saturday night in an odd elimination affair to win a chance for the shot at his own title.

The situation put Frankie Hill Murdock, "Waxahachie Sandman", on the spot. For Murdock is the latest grappler to wear the Southwestern States crown, having wrestled it from the head of Boys Ranch Foreman Dory Funk Wednesday night at Lubbock.

Murdock lost a non-title bout Saturday night to George Curtis, Mississippi mauler, to put Curtis one man away from a shot at the crown.

Balk Estes, Oklahoma cruncher, finished off Jack O'Reilly in the first event of the evening to put himself on a par with Curtis.

The winner of the Curtis-Estes go Saturday night, June 23, will probably be the man to step into the ring here on June 30 to knock off Murdock's new headpiece as top grappler of the field in the Southwest States Junior Heavyweight class.

Unless more wrestlers are added to the elimination, the Estes-Curtis melee will be the main event of Saturday night's card, held together by good supporting bouts.

But back to the battle—Estes and Jack O'Reilly put on a good match for the faithful in the first event of the evening. O'Reilly, the man from "Down Under", fell victim to Estes' favorite demobilizer, the "alligator clutch" to lose the first fall to the Oklahoman in 17 minutes.

Estes came back 13 minutes later to do the same thing with the self-same "alligator clutch" to clinch a shot at the next-to-last man on the heap.

Buick's newest engine—the F-263 Fireball—gives this year's SPECIAL the highest power in SPECIAL history

Remember—only BUICK has a FIREBALL ENGINE

We get a chuckle, sometimes, over all the fuss that's being made about "new engines."

You'll note that the key feature of their design in every case is the valve-in-head principle—whether these engines are already in production or still in the dream stage.

Fact is, it takes this design to get the most from "high compression"—and how high you can go depends upon the available fuel. Using this design, wartime aircraft engines operated on 100 octane gasoline.

It also takes this design to get the more-miles-per-gallon which folks like in an automobile.

So what gives us a chuckle is this: No other type of engine has ever been used in a Buick—which means that Buick owners, all along, have trick word. It describes what happens in this engine. Inrushing fuel rolls into a swirling ball of gasoline vapor compacted around the spark plug. And when the fat spark sets it off, a cyclone of power lets go.

When you come to check the field you'll find that there's a sweet freedom from roughness to this engine's operation—tracing to the fact that the whole mechanism itself is engineered smooth, and the further fact that every Fireball Engine gets a Micropolse balancing after assembly.

Of course, a Fireball Engine, being a valve-in-head, keeps pace with high-test fuel, when it comes to "high compression."

But what's more important in the present state of the world is this: A Fireball Engine is designed to handle the not-so-high-test fuel we may be getting in the not-too-distant future.

So, if you want to sample all that's fine in motorcar engines, your Buick dealer is the man to see. Come in soon, and find out what the rest of the world has been missing.

been getting a lot of things that others have just "discovered." But that's not all. They get something more—vastly more—because today's Fireball Engine has one standout feature found in no other automobile. That name "Fireball" isn't just a

FACTS ABOUT MONEY!

THE WORD "MONEY"

Shortly after the Gallic invasion of Rome, roughly about 300 B. C., Lucius Furius built a temple to Jupiter Moneta and to this temple was attached the first Roman mint. The silver-pieces coined in this mint were called "moneta" and hence our present-day "money."

If you even so much as think it is warm around Hereford, then you should go to Dallas. In comparison, the weather in this country is sheer comfort—even if you wear an overcoat.

Last week-end I attended the 72nd annual meeting of the Texas Press Association in Dallas and I never realized a place could be so unbearably hot. Lots of air conditioning, of course, but the minute you stepped out the heat was terrible. Big event of the press meeting was General MacArthur's appearance at the Saturday morning breakfast. The General was most gracious. He said that he did not attend the breakfast to make a speech, but that he would like to shake hands with each person in the association. He did, too, despite the fact there were about 500 present—and he found time to chat amiably. Mrs. MacArthur and little Arthur MacArthur also attended the breakfast and generously handed out autographs to all who asked.

All in all, the Old Soldier made a big hit with the press crowd. The very fact that he took time to be courteous and generous seemed to impress most of the editors and publishers. However, you almost had to be in Dallas to appreciate the situation.

When the General arrived Friday afternoon the crowd viewing the parade was estimated at 400,000. People were frantic—almost to the point of being a mob. Despite the sweltering heat, they lined the sidewalk for hours before the parade arrived. Many fainted and I am certainly surprised that quite a few were not trampled and killed. When the General and his party entered the hotel, they were swamped. The MacArthur party was ever accompanied by a delegation of around 40 policemen and quite a few army men in uniform. Paper and confetti literally rained from the buildings. Fortunately, a rain hit Dallas Friday night and the debris had been washed away by morning.

This also brings up an interesting point. Our convention was in the Baker Hotel, which fronted on main, the parade street. Shortly after the parade the delegates returned to their room, some to make phone calls. There were no telephone books. It evolved that the management had collected every single telephone book in the hotel prior to the parade. The confusion was so great that some of them were not returned until Saturday morning. The management said that experience had taught them that the books would be torn up—at best. Other times they were said to have been thrown out the windows as complete books, and they weigh close to three pounds.

I couldn't help but wonder about little Arthur. He is fine looking, courteous little fellow, and he seemed to accept the fanfare without a bit of trouble. It is bound to leave a mark on him, however. I couldn't help but worry how he would feel in years to come. Certainly, he will never be received with an equal ovation in Dallas and other large cities. I presume he is being trained to combat this influence—but I still say it is a heck of a way to bring up a kid. I mentioned this thought to several friends, and of them said that they somehow had the same feeling during his appearance at the press meeting.

The MacArthurs were truly the big event of the meeting, although several talented speakers appeared on the program. Two different speakers stressed the importance of appealing to women readers. One, Jean Mooney of National Enterprise Association, Cleveland, Ohio, said: "Women own 70 per cent of the entire wealth of the United States. Women spend 80 percent of the earned annual wealth of the United States. Women inherit 70 percent of the insurance in this nation, and now own 40 percent of the bonds in the country."

Another speaker skipped the statistics, but brought the point home forcefully when he said: "When you are born, do people ask about you? No. They say, 'How is the mother.' "When you get married, do they worry about you? No. They say, 'Isn't she a beautiful bride?" "When you die, they say, 'I wonder how much the old seal-away left her?'"

I also saw a lot of old friends at the meeting. Ben Ezzell, former news editor of The Brand was there with his wife, Nan. Ben took a lions share of contest prizes for papers in towns under 2,500. The Ezzells are doing a swell job in Canadian and if you haven't heard from them in a long time, they now have four children. Sam Halloway, editor and publisher of Deport, Texas, looked me up to say "Hello" and to send his regards to Audrey Thompson. He said he wouldn't embarrass me by asking me to speak to Alex, but to send his warmest regards to Audrey. It seems that Sam once upon a time courted Audrey back around Deport and he talked about old times, buggy rides and the like. However, his own wife came up before he got far along—and he immediately changed the subject, which proved to me that he was a highly intelligent man.

Elmer Wheeler, the "Fa' Boy" also made quite a talk—and he didn't once mention yogurt. I was truly proud of Elmer. His story is much funnier when told than as it appears in his columns and his book. He is really serious about dieting, though. He says that each pound overweight a man has on becoming 45 years of age will shorten his life by one year. Most of the boys were carrying around bay windows, and the talk caused some alarm. I am sure, however, that there will be just as many bulging midriffs at the 73rd annual meeting next June.

Dr. Humphrey Lee, president of Southern Methodist University, was another forceful speaker. Dr. Lee said he didn't worry about labor and he didn't worry about capitalists. He said the United States should watch the big group of white collar workers. He traced the downfall of nations, Germany, Italy and back through the ages, to discontent on the part of this group. He gave several reasons. He says they think on a high plane, but cannot reach the level of capitalists—which breeds discontent; furthermore, that they have the ability to carry out a revolt better than any other class. The theory was new to me and it resulted in considerable comment throughout intermissions between sessions.

Getting back in the groove a convention is usually a tough job, but not this time. I was

That the universe and man are evolved and governed by God and not matter is emphasized in the Lesson-Sermon titled "Is the Universe, Including Man, Evolved by Atomic Force?" to be read in all churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, June 24. In the Revelation of St. John is found this verse, which is the Golden Text: "We give thee thanks, O Lord God Almighty, which are, and wast, art to come; because thou hast taken to the thy great power, and hast reigned" (Revelation 11:17).

From the Bible will be read, "The Lord hath prepared his throne in the heavens; and his kingdom, ruleth over all" (Psalms 103:19).

In the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" Mary Baker Eddy has this to say on the subject: "The notion of a material universe is utterly opposed to the theory of man as evolved from Mind. Such fundamental errors send falsity into all human doctrines and conclusions, and do not accord infinitely to Deity" (page 545).

CONG. WALTER ROGERS SAYS

Controls Face Stiff Fight in House; Rogers Discusses Lobby

Lobbying: A number of inquiries have come into my office lately about different organizations seeking donations to help influence the passage or defeat of legislation. This is not a new game; it is as old as the hills. Several of these inquiries have asked my advice as to whether or not contributions should be made to these organizations. There are a great number of organizations in most state capitals, and especially is that true here in Washington, that hold themselves out as being for or against some particular special legislation or bill. Many of these organizations seek donations by personal contact, mail and sometimes by radio and newspaper advertising. It is most difficult to separate the good from the bad, and I would certainly not advise anyone to contribute to anything which they do not understand and in which they do not have the utmost confidence. If you receive requests from any source for donations to these fancy named organizations, you owe it to yourself to find out who the people are behind the organization, what their purpose is, and what service they can render you. Frankly, I do not pay any attention to these so-called lobbying or semi-lobbying organizations. I am interested in what the people of my district think; and expect to continue to follow that policy. I am sure that most of the other congressmen feel the same as I do and are not going to be misled by any such activities. There are many fine business, farm, civic, religious and other types of organizations that render many services to their members, and these organizations also advise their members of pending legislation that might affect them. This is a fine service and a great help to the members. This type of organization is to be commended for the fine work it is doing in building and helping the communities and the State. However, there are many, fly by night organizations that use high-sounding names that are probably sincere in what they are doing but they are certainly ineffective, and "money thrown into those channels is wasted by the taxpayers. If any of you have any questions about pending legislation, all you have to do is write me and I will certainly furnish you with as much information as is available. Please do not permit yourself to be enticed into making donations that are unnecessary, and then find out too late that you have been taken.

Tidelands: You will of course be interested to know that the legislation for the return of the tidelands is beginning to progress, as I told you it would in a previous news letter. This should develop faster within the next few weeks, and unless something unforeseen takes place, it is my opinion that we will have the tidelands recovered by the end of this year.

Controls: The extension of the controls under the Defense Production Act of 1950 appears to be in line for a good fight on the House Floor. Most of the members of congress, who are fully aware of the dangers of inflation, are dissatisfied with the manner in which the allocation and control program has been administered, and many have told me that if we are to have a continuation of the recent experiences with these bureaucratic directives, it is their opinion that it would be better to abolish the whole program and start over. It looks like a nip and tuck battle at the present time; however, I am afraid that many who do not believe in controls as a fundamental proposition will vote to extend controls. This group will not vote to enlarge the controls or extend them for any great period of time. I do not believe that the proposition to license businesses would get any appreciable support in this congress. Certainly I am not going to vote to license all business and let them be controlled from a central focal point in Washington. That would be regimentation of the worst kind and would place in the hands of a few bureaucrats life and death over every small business in this country. I have already served notice on the powers that be that I am unqualifiedly opposed to any such program and will fight it to the finish.

St. Lawrence Seaway: Ground work is being laid to bring tremendous pressure to pass the St. Lawrence Seaway project legislation. This piece of legislation involves expenditure of approximately 800 million dollars of American money, and incidentally is being sponsored and pushed by several economy minded Republicans who are going to meet themselves coming back if they get this bill to the floor. One of the funny things here is that, a lot of these people talk economy when it is in someone else's district but when some expenditure involving several hundred million dollars turns up in their district, it immediately becomes a defense project and all question of economy is forgotten. I can tell you though that the strong force of Jeffersonian Democrats in this Congress will not be fooled by these tactics. These pork barrel projects, whether in democratic or republican territory, are going to find rough sledding.

Visitors: Visitors from the district this week were Tom McFarland of Hereford, and David Roberson of Dawn.

Wedding Held For Dimmitt Couple Saturday

The marriage of Miss Joe Wesson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Wesson, and W. E. Kirkpatrick, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Kirkpatrick, all of Dimmitt, has been announced here. Vows were exchanged in the home of the bride's parents on Saturday, June 9, with the Rev. Earl Landroop, pastor of the Dimmitt Baptist Church, officiating.

Mrs. Elizabeth Huckaby gave the wedding music and accompanied Don Nelson who sang "Through the Years" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Miss Sharon Ann Wesson attended her sister. She wore a pink embroidered organdy made ballerina style and carried a bouquet of burgundy roses tied with pink satin streamers. S. W.

At the reception which followed the ceremony the serving table was arranged with pink and burgundy roses. Mrs. Bob McLean poured punch and Mrs. J. W. Peoples presided at the wedding cake.

evening, the afore-mentioned Murdock came into the ring as holder of the junior heavy title for the second time. He was destined to end up as the man at the end of "elimination row" instead of Dory Funk, whom he put to sleep at Lubbock with his dreaded "python."

Murdock worked cautiously with Curtis, who gave the Waxahachie warrior a good battle. The bout went 28 minutes to its one hour time limit before Curtis flattened the bearded bomber with an abdominal stretch.

Along about the end of the match, with only five minutes to go, in fact, Murdock began to polish off the Mississippian with body slams into the ring-posts. With Curtis high off the mat, the new champ went in for another slam when he ran into Referee Jack Carter, knocking himself off balance. Curtis landed on top of Murdock, taking the second fall with a body press in 23 minutes. The elimination tourney has one week to run, with the winner facing the title-holder. The title bout will end the summer wrestling activities of the Hereford Lions Club.
