

Junior Livestock Show Starts

Nearly 400 animals and masses of boys and girls from a four-county area will start gathering at Deaf Smith County Bull Barn Thursday to open the two-day 15th annual Junior Livestock Show in Hereford.

Official judging will start Friday morning and continue throughout the day. Four H clubs and Future Farmers of America chapters will have their judging contests Saturday morning, with auction slated to begin at 1 p.m. Saturday.

Filing advance entries for the show were youths from Deaf Smith, Castro, Parmer and Oldham counties. When entries closed last week, they totaled 399 animals—about 150 more than last year—a new record.

For the first time in the history of the show, advance entries were required from the youngsters in the four counties invited to attend.

Another new feature of the huge show and sale this year is a building near the Bull Barn for the increased load of entries. All judging and the auction, however, will be held in the Bull Barn.

Deaf Smith County has 122 animals entered, Parmer County has entered 99, Castro County has 89 and Oldham County will have 88 entered.

All day Friday will be devoted to judging. Barrows will be judged at 8 a.m., lambs at 11 a.m. and steers at 2 p.m.

FFA and 4-H Club livestock judging teams will compete for honors Saturday morning in readiness for district contests. Deaf Smith County will enter

7 steers, 76 barrows and nine lambs; Hart will send five steers, 23 barrows and five lambs; Nazareth to send two steers, four barrows and ten lambs;

Friona has indicated it will enter 17 steers, 23 barrows and ten lambs; Vega is entering nine steers, 12 barrows and 35 lambs, while Boys Ranch will show 16 barrows and 16 lambs.

Each animal will be weighed and tagged upon arrival and will be assigned a stall or pen space. Animals will start arriving Thursday.

The annual show is sponsored by Hereford Rotary Club. Rotary club members have been assigned to various committees, and will be on hand all three days.

Auction of top animals will begin at 1 p.m. Saturday. Jack Howell of Dimmitt will be auctioneer. Only a limited number of animals will be sold at the auction.

Dr. M. V. Callihan, head of the department of veterinary medicine at Texas A&M College, will serve as show judge. Gerald McCaskill, president of Hereford Rotary Club, will be general chairman of the show, and department chairmen are Duwaine Walker, Homer Brumley and Charles Berry.

Committee assignments were made earlier this month.

Buyers' committee includes Owen Seamonds and R. G. Peeler, co-chairman, Henry Benson, J. W. Witherspoon, Leo Forrest, Henry Sears, V. O. Henne, Joel Hodges, Jim Bob Allison, Louis Woodford, Ed McLeary of Dimmitt, Raymond Thompson of Vega, Mal Stewart of Vega, Sloan Osborne of Friona, Frank Spring of Friona, B. O. McLean of Dimmitt, Otto Dinwiddie of Hart, Bill Dameron and Frank Bezner.

Awards committee is made up of J. W. "Lefty" Thomas, chairman, Hugh Clearman, Jess Robinson, Argen Draper and Alex Schroeter. Ring committee consists of Walter Johnson, chairman, and W. T. Carmichael.

Williams Resigns School Post; Kitchens Named AD

Bobby Williams, head football coach and athletic director at Hereford High School, announced his resignation this week. It will become effective at the end of the current school term.

W. H. "Cuby" Kitchens, head basketball coach, has been named athletic director by the board of trustees. The board currently is seeking a new head football coach.

No other coaches in the school system have submitted their resignations, despite repeated rumors, school superintendent Paul Stevens told the Brand.

Williams has served at Hereford High School for three years. During that time his teams won six, lost 22 and tied one. After a 2-8 record in 1958, the team was winless in ten outings in 1959, but came back strong to win four, lose four and tie one in 1960, including a win over Phillips after ten years of losing to the Blackhaws.

One of the players Williams coached here, Edwin Thomas, was twice named to the All-State team for class AAA players.

Hired Mar. 3, 1958, to replace Jack "Sleepy" Harris, Williams had been line coach at Phillips High School for seven years and six under Chesty Walker and one under Joe Means. He was a member of the Wellington coaching staff one year before going to Phillips.

Williams also played his high school ball at Phillips. He was

County Hires Appraisal Firm In Surprise Action Tuesday Night

In a special meeting Tuesday evening, Deaf Smith County Commissioners unanimously voted to retain a commercial property appraisal firm to study its property valuations.

Commissioner Donald Hicks made the motion and Commissioner J. T. Guinn seconded, with all the commissioners voting in favor of the motion.

The motion said, "That Deaf Smith County Commissioners Court enter into a contract with McMorries and Company to re-evaluate all real property, commercial, industrial and public utilities situated within the limits of Deaf Smith County, subject to a contract agreed upon between Deaf Smith County, and McMorries and Company."

McMorries and Company of Amarillo agreed to handle all the appraisal work for the county for $7400. The commissioners asked that Markham Waddill of the county tax office be allowed to work with the appraisers during their period of study. Waddill also will be responsible for keeping the valuations up to date after the study is completed.

The decision came as a surprise to most people and ended some discussion, both from within and from outside the court.

McMorries and Company was retained last fall to appraise property for the City of Hereford and the Hereford Rural High School District. The County Commission pointed out Tuesday night that its survey was being done independently of the other two taxing agencies, but that it hoped to work closely with them when possible.

The Commissioners Court issued the following statement after announcing its decision:

"After a thorough study of the tax equalization problem, we as a Court have unanimously agreed to employ McMorries and Company to evaluate all of the property in our County. McMorries agreed that our Mr.

Three File For School Board

Three candidates this week filed their candidacy for two Hereford Rural High School District board posts, it was announced by the school tax assessor-collector's office.

Announcing their candidacy for a place on the ballot were Donald L. Baugous, associated with a Hereford abstractor, Dr. W. E. Ballard, a local dentist, and Lab. E. Ballard, a county farmer. Baugous was first to file as he made application for a place on the ballot Monday. Filing Tuesday were Dr. Owen and Ballard.

Three-year terms as trustees will expire this year for Tom Robinson, board president, and W. P. Axe. Neither had filed intention for re-election Wednesday Morning.

Robinson and Axe each have served two three-year terms on the board. The school board is made up of seven members.

Last day for filing candidacy in the school tax collector's office is March 1.

The election will be held on April 1 at the school tax collector's office and at Dawn School. Polls will open at 8 a.m.

County Votes Down Proposal To Re-Align Its Precincts

A motion to obligate the county commission to re-district its precincts for more equitable representation was defeated by a 3-2 vote here Monday.

County Commissioners, meeting in special session after recessing last Monday, turned down the motion after some discussion from the floor. About 15 interested persons who were on hand for the meeting asked a number of questions after the vote had been taken.

Voting against the motion were County Commissioners Charles Sowell, Donald Hicks and J. T. Guinn. Those favoring the motion were Judge Don Zimmerman and Commissioner Otto Massie.

The motion was "to obligate Deaf Smith County to re-district itself more equitably during 1961 to provide more equal representation."

Upon being brought up by Judge Zimmerman, the motion's wording was questioned by Commissioner Sowell, who asked that the motion be read from the minutes.

After this, a discussion arose as to the meaning of the motion. Judge Zimmerman then restated the motion, which was seconded by Commissioner Massie. A vote then was called and the motion was defeated.

One spectator first asked each commissioner about how many qualified voters were in each precinct. Commissioner Sowell said he had 700-800 in Precinct One; Commissioner Massie said he had about 2700 in Precinct Two; Commissioner Guinn said he had about 150 in Precinct Three; and Commissioner Hicks said he had about 250 in Precinct Four.

Judge Zimmerman explained that La Plata, first county seat, was in the geographic center of the county with the county cut in four equal areas for precincts. "When the railroad went through the southeast part of the county, La Plata was abandoned and the county seat came to Hereford," he said.

Country Club Names Officers And Directors

Five directors and new officers were named Tuesday night in the first annual meeting of the Hereford Country Club. Bill Decker, president, was re-elected to head the group again in 1961.

Three of the retiring directors were also re-elected, including Henry Sears, Carl McCaskill and D. C. McWhorter; also named on the 15-man board were E. V. Gleaton and Howard Brown, succeeding Jas. W. Witherspoon and Robert Thompson. Russell Carver was re-elected as secretary-treasurer, and Owen Bybee was named vice president.

In a board meeting, following the general session, plans for a swimming pool were discussed and the board instructed the building committee to secure information and bids. The following committees were also named:

Hereford Seams Wildcats, 91-44 In District Tilt

Hereford had an easy time winning its second district contest in as many tries, whalloping Littlefield 91-44.

This left Hereford in a tie for first place as Dumas took a defensive battle from Phillips, 50-25.

A sparse crowd was on hand as the Wildcats went down on their home court Tuesday night. Littlefield has won just three games this season.

The outclassed Wildcats, with just seven players on its varsity squad, had one good quarter but couldn't contain the fast-shooting Whitefaces.

Jury Finds Man Guilty Of DWI

A jury of six found John C. Trotter, 51, of Hereford guilty to charge of driving while intoxicated, first offense, in a Deaf Smith County Court session Tuesday.

Trotter was fined $150 and court costs and sentenced to three days in County Jail after the verdict was announced.

Trotter, who defended himself as he made no request for an attorney, entered a plea of not guilty to the charge before the court. The fine and sentence were levied by the jury.

Presiding in court was County Judge Don Zimmerman.

their proposed $220,000 street improvement bond issue.

Streets which are being defended include Third Street east from Schley to Park Avenue and Union on the west side.

About 15 persons were on hand to present their views to the Commission.

Bill Waldrep acted as spokesman for those from Third Street, who wanted to keep the street as it is. The Commission recently had announced that its bond issue included $47,000 to widen Third Street ten feet on each side. The project would include resurfacing the brick street with hot mix.

Two persons from Union Avenue declared that their street, now brick-paved, did not need a new topping, which they contended would need more maintenance than the present brick.

"We've had brick on Third Street since 1929," Waldrep declared. "And it has served us well. If you put down asphalt, it will have to be repaired every two or three years."

The city has a ten-foot easement on each side of the street, which it proposed to use to widen the street. City manager Dudley Bayne and City Engineer Bill McMorries explained that the brick paving was put down on shallow sand base and that there no longer is any asphalt between the bricks to keep water from seeping into the base.

$100, Ten Days Given For DWI

Raoul Allen Martinez, 23, of Plainview Monday in Deaf Smith County Court was fined $100 plus court costs and sentenced to 10 days in County Jail after pleading guilty to charge of driving while intoxicated, first offense.

Martinez was arrested Saturday in the 300 block of Miles St. Making the arrest were Hereford police.

Presiding in court was County Judge Don Zimmerman. Martinez was turned over to county authorities following his arrest.

When the Commission was unable to agree with the residents as to how the situation should be handled, the matter was tabled for additional study.

WHILE DAN THOMAS grooms "Hotshot," a 1050-pound calf he will enter in the 15th Annual Junior Livestock Show in Hereford this week, "Tuffy," a real shaggy dog who's been needing a haircut for years, just keeps getting shaggier and shaggier. But Dan ignores Tuffy's pouting protest and keeps brushing his calf's coat to a radiant sheen. Many boys and girls in the surrounding area, like Dan, are getting their stock ready for the three-day show to be held in Deaf Smith County Bull Barn Thursday, Friday and Saturday. "Hotshot" will be entered in the heavyweight division of the calf show. Dan is the 13-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Thomas and is an eighth grader at Stanton Junior High. Tuffy belongs to Brenda Beasley, a junior at Hereford High School.

Waddill of our Tax office will work with his firm closely on all of this work.

"This is a better contract than has been offered us by any other firm, and is better for the county since our local man will be closely associated with this work in its entirety.

"This contract is in no way connected with any of the other taxing agencies in the County, however, it is the wish of the Deaf Smith County Commissioners' Court to be able to cooperate with any of the taxing agencies in the County on any matter when advisable and to be in the best interest of Deaf Smith County.

"This program is not for the purpose of raising taxes, but to equalize the taxes, that all owners will be paying on proportionate values.

"Due to past criticism, we would like it known that until recently, we have not had the opportunity to fully analyze all of the aspects of such a program, but, after having had time to carefully and thoroughly explore all aspects of the program, we feel it is in the best interest of all property owners that this program be undertaken. We would further like it known that we have not arbitrarily delayed this program but, until all of the details were worked out and understood, we felt we could not wisely act until this date.

"Since the law requires the Commissioners' Court to sit as its own Board of Equalization, independently of other agencies, your Commissioners' Court will sit as such Board and carefully review all values recommended by McMorries and Company before the final value is set."

Eleven players saw action for Hereford and all of them scored. Big Carl Miller topped all over the court to make his 23 points. Dennis Hodges hit for 12, Jerry Curtsinger got 10 and Charlie Thomas 11. Jerry Koller and Billy Thomson had 14 each for Littlefield while Bobby Barker tallied 10. Leading 3-2 early in the game, Hereford whipped in 17 straight points before Littlefield could tally again. Hereford had a more than comfortable 24-5 margin at the end of the first quarter.

A few changes were made for the second half by Hereford, but the Herd still poured in 22 points. Littlefield started finding the range and garnered 21, including nine by Thomson.

Hereford had a commanding 46-28 lead at the end of the first half. In the third quarter, Hereford stiffened its defenses to allow Littlefield just nine points. Miller, Ronnie Caster and Thomas scored all of Hereford's 18 points during the third stanza.

In the fourth quarter, Hereford coach, Coby Kitchens cleared the bench and the reserves started piling in the points. When the nets had stopped quivering, Hereford had tossed in 27 points. Only three of these came on free throws.

Hereford was hitting well from the field. The team made 21 of 40 field goals in the first half and 19 of 35 in the second for a total of 40 goals in 75 tries. On the other side of the ledger, Littlefield hit just 15 of 70 during the game.

Another spectator asked those against the re-districting to state why they did not feel it was the thing to do.

Commissioner Sowell said, "I think it needs more study than we have given it." Questioned further, he said he felt a "reasonable" period of time was needed and agreed that such a reasonable period "might take as long as ten years."

Judge Zimmerman interjected at that point, saying, "If inequalities exist, they existed last year and for several years and we need to do something about it." He complimented the Commissioners for working so well together on their many projects.

Commissioner Hicks said he had several reasons for opposing the move. "The precinct lines were set up many years and have served their purpose well and I see no reason to change," he said. "I have 700 sections of land, more or less, in my precinct to look after. The court has two from the city and two from rural areas, plus a judge from the city and the city can outvote the rural folks anytime," he said.

Commissioner Guinn said that rural people had lost their representation in counties which had re-districted. "If you brought the precincts into Hereford, some of the roads would be 55 miles long," he commented.

Commissioner Guinn also said the court had been badly misquoted about tax equalization and that the court had always stated that it favored equalization, but differed in the method of going about it.

One of the spectators, Dr. H. A. Cavness, said he felt all the people were most interested in the economic and efficient operation of the county.

The discussion lasted from 11 a.m. until about 12:20 p.m. Three interested persons were present for the afternoon session and talked briefly with the court about the defeated motion.

In other action, Commissioners talked with Cecil Wilkins about his work as county veterans' service officer. His request for an increase in salary was tabled.

The group also talked with T. E. Seigler, manager of Deaf Smith County Hospital, about hospital operations. They went over the operating statements and complimented Seigler upon his work in bringing the hospital to a break-even point during the past six months after it had lost money for the past two years.

They read a letter from Mrs. LeRoy K. Williamson asking that the court not re-district its precincts. The letter is to be attached to the minutes.

The court also set up a $300 fund for aid and materials for the county home demonstration agent and the county agricultural agent, jointly.

Commissioners and the county judge each paid $2 to make up the county's dues for the Panhandle Association of County Judges and Commissioners, rather than taking the money from county funds. They decided to attend the Association's meeting in Amarillo on March 14 if possible.

Charge for use of county maintainers for private work was raised from $8 to $10 per hour, with all other equipment charges to remain the same.

The group also rescinded its earlier motion to post a surety bond in lieu of its Social Security payments, substituting time deposits in an equal amount in a local banking institution.

It discussed a maintenance contract for the courthouse elevator, at a cost of about $86 per month, but postponed its decision pending further study.

Commissioners also voted to accept the park property in Veterans Park; if it were offered to be turned back to the county. This would include the property from a line east and Western National Livestock Show in Denver, Colo., last year, and shook the cattle industry to its roots. Jack placed second in the carload lot of junior bull calves and Bill was second in the carload lot of senior bull calves. But they drew the top prices in the show. Dameron sold a half interest in one of his bulls to Roy Turner of Oklahoma for $15,000, then sold 15 calves to Mrs. Ethel W. Bird and Son of Midland for $25,000. Jack sold 16 bulls, keeping a half interest in two of them, to the Diamond A Cattle Company of New Mexico for $32,000. Individually, they had the highest selling pens of calves in the show, which attracted a record crowd of 30,000 visitors on Sunday alone. Needless to say, both of these 'boys' boosted the slogan that Hereford, Texas, is the cattle capital of the world and made a lot of friends for our cattle industry.

Kitchens, 33, has been head basketball coach at Hereford since 1955. He has built Hereford into a state basketball power and last summer was chosen to coach one of the All-Star cage squads for the annual Texas High School Coaches Clinic.

He was graduated from Childress High School in 1946 after lettering three years in basketball and two years in football and track.

He attended West Texas State College on a basketball scholarship and was chosen to the All-Border Conference cage squad in 1950. He was graduated in 1951 with a B. S. degree. Coaching success came early as he directed the White Deer basketball team to a district title in the 1951-52 season.

After serving from 1952-54 in the U. S. Navy, Kitchens was basketball coach and assistant football coach at Groom one year.

He came to Hereford in 1955 and started his re-building program. His teams won district and regional titles during the 1957-58 and 1958-59 seasons and tied for the district championship for the 1959-60 season.

In 1958 the Whitefaces lost in the first round of the state play-offs. In 1959 the Herd captured the fans' fancy with its speed and desire as it battled into the finals, only to lose to a towering squad from Smiley of Houston.

Kitchens also served with Joe Smith as coach of the Hereford High baseball team last season as it won the district title.

Money Is Difficulty In State Legislature

BY VERN SANFORD
AUSTIN — Texas' 57th Legislature began on a note that's likely to continue for some time — difficulty over money. Many House members felt their colleagues had made an awkward start in an awkward situation when they voted themselves salary raises as the first item of business. House voted 97 to 45 to put into effect the $4,800 a year legislative salaries made possible when the people approved a constitutional amendment last November. Objectors were quick to point ed themselves salary raises as the first item of business. House voted 97 to 45 to put into effect the $4,800 a year legislative salaries made possible when the people approved a constitutional amendment last November. Objectors were quick to point out that (1) the state general revenue fund was at that moment $85,249,951 in the red and (2) many lawmakers campaigned on an "economy in government" platform. Rep. Raymond Bartram of New Braunfels said he felt the people would rather legislators take care of teacher salary raises and medical assistance for the aged before spending extra money on themselves. H. B. 1, the legislative salary and expense bill, would divert some $2,600,000 from the cigarette tax and drivers license funds. Money had to be "found," since the general revenue fund, as fast as it comes in, has to be used to pay the state's "hot checks."

Down the road are even more fireworks as the legislature searches for $200,000,000-plus to take care of the wants of other state agencies and services. Farmers and teachers have one of their own in one of the most important of state offices.

Rep. James Turman or Gober was elected Speaker of the House by a vote of 83-to-66. Rep. Wade Spilman of McAllen, whose support was largely from conservative House members, was the losing candidate. Turman and his family operate a 103-acre farm in Fannin County. He is a former grade school teacher and worked his way to a doctor of philosophy degree in education. For a time he was assistant to the president of Texas Women's University at Denton.

As Speaker, Turman's first big job is appointing House committees, due to go into action about January 23. By his selections, he can influence to a considerable degree how certain legislation will be handled. Sen. Ray Roberts of McKinney is president pro tempore of the Senate for the present session. His job, largely honorary, is to preside over the Senate in the absence of the lieutenant governor. Also, he is second in line of succession to the governorship. By tradition, during each president pro temp's term, the governor and lieutenant governor leave the state so the senate president can serve as "governor for a day."

Senator Roberts, a World War II Naval hero, is a farmer and realtor. Texas Legislative Council, an influential joint House-Senate study group, will offer a mass of proposals for new legislation. Among recommendations: 1. Some streamlining, but not a wholesale re-writing of the state constitution. This will be a disappointment to groups working for steps toward a new constitutional convention. 2. Limitations on the annexation powers of cities and towns. 3. Increased facilities for juvenile guidance and care, including a home for dependent Negro children, facilities for mentally ill juveniles and regional training centers for delinquent youths. 4. Higher minimum coverage requirements for automobile insurance. Present minimum is $5,000. A raise to $10,000 or $20,000 was suggested. Another study group, a special Senate committee, recommends removal of some of the restrictions on investment of the permanent school fund. It suggests investments in corporate securities and real estate mortgages, guaranteed by the federal government. Commission on Higher Edu-

Former Resident Dies In Canyon

L. (Dick) Culpepper passed away in Canyon, Jan. 13 at his home, 2518 5th Ave. He was a former Hereford resident. Mr. Culpepper was born Sept. 6, 1897 in Asland, Aba. He married Ethel Manlison in 1918 in Amarillo. They moved to Canyon in 1957 from Hereford. He belonged to the First Baptist Church in Canyon. Services were held at 2 p.m., Monday, Jan. 16 at the First Baptist Church in Canyon. The Rev. Strauss Atkinson, pastor, officiated. Burial was in Llano Cemetery in Amarillo. Surviving were his wife, Ethel; one daughter, Mrs. Robina Roberts of Albuquerque, N. M.; one son, Thomas Edger Culpepper of Canyon; four sisters, Mrs. Hady Smith of Mineral Wells, Mrs. Bessie Gennys of Amarillo, Mrs. Iva Cline of Amarillo, Mrs. Exa Crowson of Pampa; and four grandchildren.

Education does not favor making Del Mar College in Corpus Christi a senior college. Commission has agreed to study requests for senior college status and state support for Pan American College at Edinburg and San Angelo College. On Del Mar, the Commission will make its negative recommendation to the Legislature which will have the final say. In the past, the Legislature has approved more such requests than the Commission.

It will be a four-story granite building with 147,205 square feet. Cost is to be $2,076,102. It will be known as State Office Building No. 2 and will house the Game and Fish Commission, State Board of Plumbing Examiners and some other agencies now scattered over Austin. This is one of six buildings in the current program to create a unified government center, clustered around the State Capitol. Already in use are State Office Building No. 1, the State Courts Building and the Texas Employment Commission Building. Archives Building is to be finished soon, and a new Insurance Building is due to start this year.

State Game and Fish Commission has voted to set up a system of five regional and 29 district offices to improve operation of its field service. Reorganization plan was recommended by the Texas Research League, a privately financed organization to study operation of governmental agencies. District offices will be at Amarillo, Beaumont, Bryan, Houston, Victoria, San Antonio, Edinburg, Corpus Christi, Lubbock, El Paso, Wichita Falls, Midland, Fort Worth, Temple, Brownwood, Kerrville, Dallas, Texarkana, Palestine and Lufkin.

Eighth Graders Win Tournament

BY WAIN MILLER
BRAND SPORTS WRITER

Climaxing a very busy weekend, the Stanton Dogie Eighth Graders took a two-point decision over Brownfield to claim first place honors in the annual Littlefield Tourney held last Friday and Saturday. The Dogies worked in three games Saturday, two at Littlefield and one here, on top of one played here Thursday night and another at Littlefield Friday night.

Stanton edged out the Brownfield eighth graders 34-32 Saturday night in the tournament finals. They had bested Coronado and Levella and advanced to the finals. Frank Cain and Gary Roberson earned spots on the all-tournament team named Saturday.

The Dogies downed Coronado Junior High of Plainview 40-27 in the first round of the tourney. Frank Cain netted 14 as Robert Strange canned 10 to lead the Dogie scoring. Gary Don Roberson totaled six while Johnnie Dowd and Lynn Cook each scored five for Stanton.

Returning to Littlefield Saturday morning, Cain and Strange again led Stanton as they overpowered Levelland 37-16. Cain totaled 12 as Strange added 10.

As if the Dogies hadn't had enough basketball, they returned to Hereford Saturday afternoon to host the Marshall Kittens from Clovis. Stanton allowed their visitors only two field goals as they notched up a 28-12 victory over the Kittens.

In the finals back at Littlefield Saturday night, the tired Dogie quintet lagged 8-6 at the end of the first quarter. Johnnie Dowd scored three, Roberson two, and Lynn Cook one in the first period.

Pure determination prevailed as Stanton racked up 14 points in the second quarter to command a 20-12 lead at the half. Robert Strange led with six markers. Johnnie Dowd and Lynn Cook scored three each as Cain added a field goal.

Dowd netted five of Stanton's ten points in the third quarter as they Dogies held a 30-23 title. The now-winded Dogies only managed four points in the final round but contained Brownfield to win 34-32.

The Dogies now boast 13 wins and two tournament first place trophies this season. They have racked up 492 points during their first 15 games and are opposed by only 350 points and two four-point losses. They have since defeated Marshall and Estacado, the only two teams to defeat Stanton this year.

THE HEREFORD BRAND -- THE SUNDAY BRAND
A. B. C. REPORTS — FACTS AS A BASIC MEASURE OF ADVERTISED VALUE

BY JIMMIE GILBERTINE

Politics in this country are a lot like the weather. Things sure can change fast. No one was more surprised than I to hear that the Commissioners Court had gone into contract with an evaluations firm as the first step in an equalization program. Certainly, this is something our area has needed for a long time; since 1956, to be exact. Many people probably do not fully understand the situation. It all started when the City of Hereford made a survey in 1955, and the county adopted the city figures - but failed to extend the equalization ratios into other parts of the county. As a result approximately 60 percent of all county and state taxes collected in Deaf Smith County are now coming out of the city limits of Hereford. Meanwhile, other evaluations - inside and outside of the city limits - have become completely unbalanced, ranging on actual real estates sales from 1 percent up to 89 percent of the true value.

some taxes will be lowered and some will be raised. None, however, should be alarming or out of line. The general idea is to "equalize" and not particularly to "raise." When they get a total value, the commissioners will apply the percentage needed to meet their budgeted requirements. Most of all, though, it is mighty nice to see the measure pass on a unanimous vote on the part of all commissioners. This could be even more important than the tax equalization program. To say the least, it is hard to get very far when everyone on the team is pulling in a different direction. Another thing, this step should put a slow down on the proposed re-districting plan, which is causing so much of an uproar. Certainly, the re-districting plan is equitable in that it would provide representation for the average tax payer. On the other hand, our old precinct system has served the county well - and until the evaluations got out of line no one was particularly unhappy. In view of recent developments, it will probably die a natural death; at least, there is no urgent need to make any radical change unless one comes on a state level, and this is possible chiefly because every one of the 254 counties is in somewhat of a mess on taxes. Jim Witherspoon is back from Washington, and seems to feel pretty good over possibilities of shifting some of the sugar quota back into the United States. Recently our group published a booklet on the subject of beet sugar production in this county, and it is more interesting. In 1960, the country imported $507 million worth of sugar; other imports cited were: beef, $208 million; cattle, $65 million; pork, $110 million; oils, $171 million; tobacco, $115 million; wool, $95 million; fruits, $83 million; vegetables, etc., $73 million; grains $61 million; cotton, $22 million.

When these boys get the refinery built maybe we should turn them loose on grain and cattle. I thought we had a tremendous surplus already. It seems to me that we should be exporting, rather than importing. I was reading that Al Jolson's favorite story centers around a wolfish young man who entered a New York hotel lobby and fell into conversation with an attractive young lady. Finally, he went over and registered, signing, "Mr. So and So, and wife." Next day clerk handed him a bill for more than $400. "What's the idea?" screamed the young man, "I only checked into this hotel yesterday." "I know," answered the clerk in genteel terms, "but your wife has been here for 15 days." Pack London, one of Buffalo Lake's most loyal fishing enthusiasts, says he doesn't know how the 1960 fish planings will turn out. He figures many of the fish were caught before they had a chance to grow too much. However, he is hoping for the best. Bill McCarver was telling that things are pretty quiet in the sheriff's department, and this is one place where they truly appreciate a dull season.

Senior Class Personalities

"My favorite hobby is working on my car," says Kay Packard. Kay is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Packard. She was born on Aug. 27, 1943 in Amherst, Texas.

Kay says her biggest disappointment is her car, because it won't ever start (especially at dinner).

After graduation Kay plans to attend Lubbock Christian College. She chooses this particular college because "That's where Carolyn, Sharon, and Nancy are going."

Kay's favorite pastime is being with R. W. The song she likes best is "Gonna Love My Life Away." Her favorite day of the week is Thursday.

Hereford High School is a pretty good school as far as schools go.

Kay would like to live to be 20. She thinks going steady is alright if it's with the right person. The best advice Kay has ever received was from Sharon Farmer and it was to stop running off into bar ditches.

Taking things as they come is Kay's secret of success. The thing that makes her angry is her car.

Kay's favorite pet is a dog. I have a dog named Little Joe and he's real cute. Her favorite food is fish and her favorite color is red because she has a red sweater that she got for Christmas.

Kay's favorite kind of cars are Chevrolets that start real good because hers doesn't and she gets tired of peddling.

The only advice H. S. Fuller can offer underclassmen is to stay out of the office. H. S. is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Fuller of Dawn. He was born on Oct. 18, 1942, in Amarillo.

H. S.'s hobby is riding horses and that is also his pastime. H. S. doesn't have any particular most embarrassing moment. He says he's embarrassed all the time.

After graduation he plans to go to college at West Texas; that is, if he gets out of high school.

He thinks Hereford High School is the best high school in Hereford. When asked what he did in his spare time, he said, "What spare time?"

He thinks going steady is alright if you can't get out of it. The job he would like to hold is President of the United States. H. S. would like to live to be pretty old so he can live it up. He thinks you get out of something what you put into it. His HIGH-KICKING Joe Brooks looks as though he punted a basketball for a goal, but he really did shoot with his hands. Ben Golehon is in foreground, watching and wishing (wishing he were somewhere else). Homemakers Plan Meal

In order to solicit cooperation for the annual chili supper, Hereford High School home economics girls have been going in pairs this week to the local civic clubs.

Suzanne Langley, LuAnn Higgins, Terry Anderson, Nancy Edwards, Merry Kay Pruitt, Sharon Hill, Patsy Loerwald, and Judy Brady have been participating in this phase of the campaign to raise funds through the supper, for the American Field Service Program.

The supper will be served in the high school cafeteria, Friday, Jan. 27, from 5 p.m. until 8 p.m. which will be just preceding the basketball game between the Hereford Whitefaces and the Levelland Lobos. In addition to chili and all the trimmings, which have been served in the past, this year tuna fish and homemade pie also will be available to those who attend.

Aptitude Tests Will Be Given

College aptitude tests will be given at West Texas State College Feb. 25 for high school seniors of the area who expect to enter college following graduation.

Deadline for applications for the test is Feb. 4, when they must be received in Waco by the state director for the testing program. Applications must be sent to Alton Lee, registrar at Baylor University, who is state director.

Scores on the tests are now required for admission to West Texas State and more than 500 other colleges and universities. Students of the Panhandle area may take the test at WT, even

My Funniest Incident

BY JUDY SMITH

"All right, places everyone!" piped the voice of a little second grade girl. By the dirty looks she was receiving from everyone, especially the director, it was plain to see she was trying to take over the show and her efforts were very unappreciated.

The family, including Grandma and Grandpa, was all sitting out in the audience waiting for the big moment. Here was their little girl who was going to be in an honest-to-goodness play. She had worked hard enough at it, that was for sure. Everytime there was a rehearsal she was right there telling them all how to do it.

Here was the big moment! The curtain was opening and there, standing on the edge of the stage, all decked out in her cowgirl costume was Miss "know it all." The show was going along just as she had planned when - entrance, one small boy who, when giving his lines, accidentally knocked off "Director" Judy's hat. Now she just knew he was trying to attract all the attention and she thought, "I'll show him who's the star of this show!"

Very casually she reached over, grabbed his hat, threw it on the floor, and stomped on it. (The family went a little farther down in their seats). Well, this settled everyone down and the play went on as usual. All at once one small boy

Whiteface Whims

If at first you don't succeed, you're like most other people.

A troubled man went to a psychiatrist. "You've got to quit smoking," the head-shrinker told him. "Would that help me?" asked the patient. "No," answered the doctor, "but you're burning my couch."

About the time a man is cured of swearing, it's time to make up another income tax report.

Groom: "What has my beloved been doing today?" Bride: "I filled the salt shaker."

Groom: "That took all day?" Bride: "It certainly did - it isn't easy getting salt through those little holes."

Beatnik to bank teller: "Sound not the alarm, For I carry a bomb. Make nary a hoot, Not even a hiccup. Just slip me the loot, For this is a stick-up!"

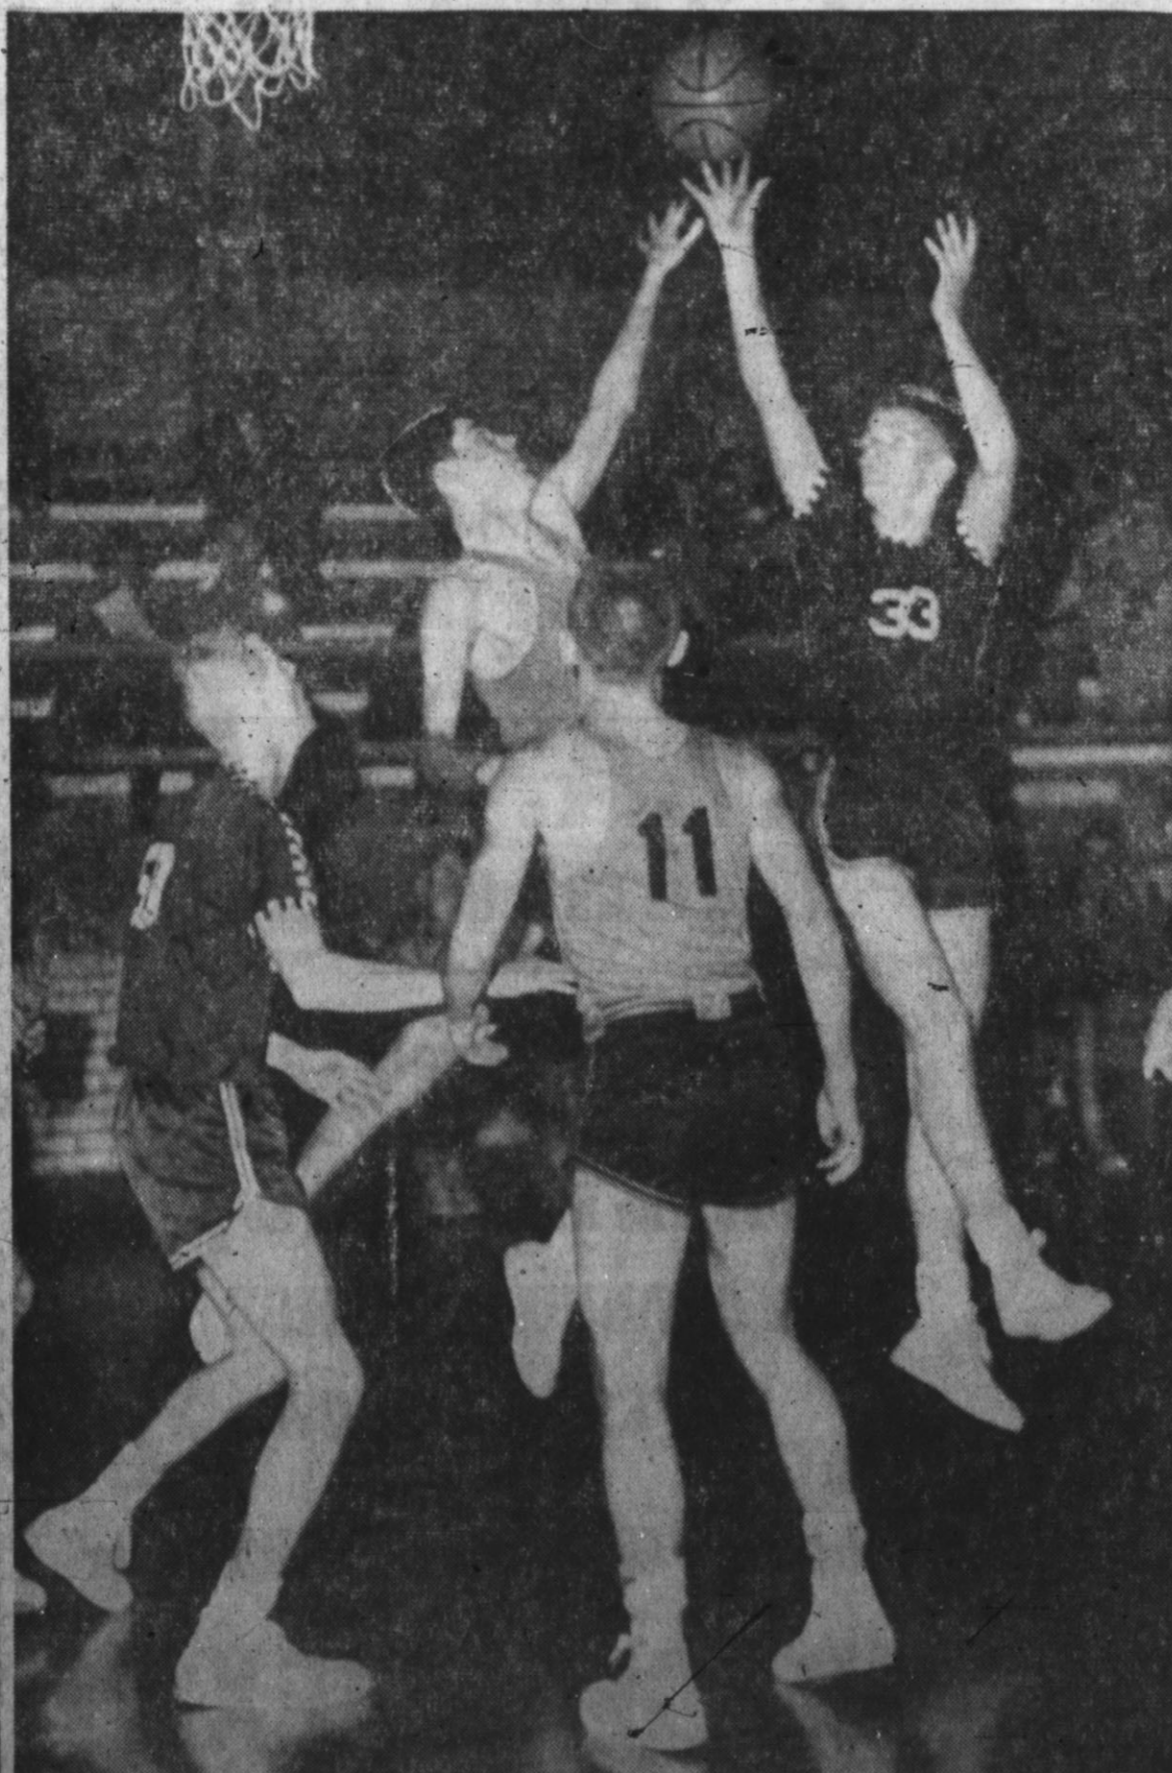

Student to professor, "Why didn't I make 100 on the history exam?"

Professor: "Your answer to the question, 'Why did the pioneers go into the wilderness' was interesting, but incorrect."

Dedicated to the teachers of H. H. S.:

The more you study, the more you know. The more you know, the more you can forget.

Cheating In Class Hurts A Cheater

Cheating is an illegal procedure carried on by many high school students. The students who deserve the good grades sometimes receive the low grades while the students who cheat get the high grades.

Some students don't want to study because they have no interest in studying. They only want the grades so that they can pass. The students who study to make good grades don't get the full benefit of them because someone copies from them. In that case both persons are cheated - the one who cheated and the person from whom he copied.

When a person starts cheating he hurts himself. The cheating continues and he gets to the point where he can't do anything for himself. He depends on someone for all of the answers to the tests. Some of them even get to the point where they depend on other students to get their daily assignments for them. A student needs to stop and consider before he cheats.

When you have to take make-up tests by yourself you either have to know the answers to the test or flunk it.

Cheating is increasing in huge numbers. Each of us must learn to depend on ourselves and make our own decisions.

Clubicity

Suzanne Langley was nominated to run for district Tri-Hi-Y Chaplain when the Hereford High School chapter met in its regular meeting Wednesday, Jan. 11, in the high school auditorium. Pictures were made for the high school annual and the entire membership voted to attend the district conference in Big Springs, March 16-18.

Mrs. Jo Steele presented, "I'm Glad I'm a Girl," a program on charm, to the Tri-Hi-Y girls at the regular night meeting, Thursday, Jan. 12, in the high school library.

The Hereford High chapter of Hi-Y nominated Walker Par

Basketball Personalities

Virgil Strange is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Strange who reside at 203 Bennett. He was born Aug. 21, 1944 here in Hereford. Virgil is sixteen years old and a junior in Hereford High School.

He has been playing basketball since he was in the sixth grade and is not a member of the B team. His and the team's biggest disappointment of the season was their loss to the Dimmitt varsity in the Dimmitt Tournament. This was only their second loss of the season.

His biggest thrill was winning the Silverton Tournament earlier this season, which was a varsity tournament and quite an accomplishment for the B team.

Virgil plans to attend college at the University of Texas after he graduates from high school. He advises all underclassmen to study enough to pass and have all the fun you can. His opinion of H. H. S. is that it will do until something better comes along.

Stuck-up people are not among the favorites of Virgil; in fact they are his pet peeve. One thing that he would like to do very much is make a lot of money when he gets into the business world.

Youth Peace Corps

Do you think that as an American youth you could make an effective force for aid and understanding abroad? John F. Kennedy has suggested a plan for forming a Youth Peace Corps in the United States.

In describing the plan he stated that "the skilled American personnel could accomplish wonders building good will, building the peace. I (John F. Kennedy) therefore propose that our inadequate efforts in this area be supplemented by a 'peace corps' of talented young men willing and able to serve their country in this fashion for three years as an alternative to peacetime Selective Service. . . . We cannot discontinue training our young men as soldiers of war but we also need them as ambassadors of peace."

The corps would be voluntary and volunteers would be sought among talented women as well as men. The U. S. is full of young people eager to serve the cause of peace in the most useful way. Many college students have proposed such an organization, offering a pool of many talents that would work miracles in underdeveloped countries.

Through this type of work the young people could help to overcome the efforts of Mr. Khrushchev's missionaries, who are dedicated to undermining the freedom we know today.

Many people say that the youth of today cannot do much to promote peace and that the U. S. needs professional diplomats to combat the Russian revolutionaries. If you would like to prepare for a career of this nature you would have the fullest support of President-elect John F. Kennedy. Bills proposing it will be dropped into the "hopper" this month.

The questions concerning this proposal will be would American young people be able to conduct themselves abroad as anything more than tourists? Do they actually have the skills to help new lands which have big problems in agriculture, industry, and education? And, do they have the courage to accept vast differences in diet, housing and medical care, or the maturity to accept vast differences in culture?

People in underdeveloped lands will get to know and understand us much better as they watch average American young people who are ready and eager to know them.

Question Of The Week

What is your opinion of the "Whiteface" this year?

Shirley Voyles -- The staff has done a great job of having more information for us to read. I have enjoyed reading it very much.

Barbara Pulliam -- I have really enjoyed reading the "Whiteface." It is so much better than last year. I am glad it is put out every week instead of every other week.

Linda Reed -- I sure do enjoy reading the "Whiteface" this year. The changes were for the better. Keep up the good work. It's wonderful.

Delores Price -- The "Whiteface" has been very interesting this year. I don't see where anyone has any room to gripe about it.

Paul Hoff -- I think that the "Whiteface" has brought all of the students closer to what has been going on around school. Keep up the good work and you will have lots more readers next year.

Terry Teaschner -- I think the "Whiteface" is better for far than last year. The staff has done a wonderful job and I hope it keeps up the good work.

Judy Rowland -- I think there are too many interviews and feature stories.

 A close examination of the physical characteristics of the Texas Panhandle is made in an article by Fred Rathjen, instructor in history at West Texas State College.
 The article, "Physiography of the Texas Panhandle," appears in the January issue of the Southwestern Historical Quarterly, published by the Texas State Historical Association.
 Rathjen, who joined the WT faculty in 1956, returned to the campus last fall after a leave of absence of study toward his doctorate at the University of Texas.
 His article describes the terrain and topography of the region, its soils, and weather phenomena, along with the geology and grasses. —West Texas State College "Prairie" though they plan to attend college elsewhere in the Southwest.

 Applications may be obtained from the principal's office and are mailed to Waco. The state director sends a list of eligible students to all colleges in the state which are testing centers.
 One other testing date in the spring has been set for April 22. Application deadline for that date is April 1.

 seemed to have forgotten where he was supposed to go. Now this is all right with the audience because, after all, he was only a second grader, but not for Judy!
 Giving him a kick with the toe of her foot she set him straight on where he was supposed to go. The rest of the play met with Judy's approval and it ended without further incident except that the family left very suddenly.

 ris as a candidate for District Hi-Y vice-president, at their regular meeting, Wednesday, Jan. 11, in the high school study hall. Each member voted to attend the district conference, March 16-18, in Big Spring.
 Ways to raise money were discussed and the club picture was made for the high school yearbook. Both groups, Hi-y and Tri-Hi-Y, traveled to Abilene, Tex., Saturday, Jan. 14, to attend the Area Convention. Delegates were Ronnie Botkin, Ken Walsler, Diane Clearman, and Sue Daniel.
 Belgium celebrates its Independence Day on July 21.

He likes all kinds of food. His favorite girl is Linda and his favorite color is blue. The movie he likes best is Strangers When We Met. His favorite song is "Last Date."

Gary Tannabill has a secret ambition to get into politics. Gary is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Tannabill. He was born Oct. 16, 1943 in Hereford. Gary is chairman of the Junior Red Cross Council. He is a member of Hi-Y, which he serves as secretary. He was also chosen as secretary of the senior class.

After graduating from high school, Gary plans to attend college. He would like to go to Massachusetts Institute of Technology. A job he would like to hold later in life is that of a research chemist.

Gary advises all underclassmen to make good grades in their sophomore year. He thinks H. H. S. is a friendly school. In his spare time he gets lessons and does club work. Gary works at radio station K P A-N and enjoys his work very much.

Gary's opinion of going steady is "It's for the birds and bees." He would like to live to be old enough to know every thing there is to be known.

Physics is his favorite subject because it explains how things work. He chooses Miss Wall as his favorite teacher because she is a lot of fun.

When asked what was the best advice he has ever had, Gary said, "I have never had any good advice."

Gary's favorite food is steak and potatoes, and the color he likes best is blue. "Wonderland by Night" would be his pick of the songs and "Around the World

In 80 Days as the movie.

The most embarrassing moment Paula Moore has had was when Miss Wall caught her with the English test. Paula is the daughter of Mrs. Bess Moore. She was born on July 31, 1942, in Hereford.

In her spare time Paula reads and rides around. The best advice she has ever received was "Turn the wheels."

Paula is a member of Tri-Hi-Y. She was Football Queen and is treasurer of the senior class.

Paula leaves this advice to all underclassmen "Have fun while you're here if you don't get caught." After graduating from high school, Paula plans to attend college. She would like to go to Eastern New Mexico University.

Paula's secret of success is to live each day as it comes. The entertainment she likes best is dancing and her pet peeve is unfriendly people.

Some of her favorites are: food, steak; color, green; song, "On the Wings of a Dove," and day of the week, Thursday.

Paula's favorite teacher is Miss Wall. The only superstition she has is black cats.

...Keep Plodding

That's the spirit of the turtle. But he must not be kept from the race if there is to be a winner. God planned so wisely in setting us in a world of competition. No one runs his best without a competitor. We raise better corn when our neighbor tries to outdo us. Every church is better because of the church across the way. Catholics work harder and are more devout because Protestantism appeared. The Jewish polity strives, with all of us, toward a better society under God. God wants progress from all. Sometimes the faithful plodder, like the turtle, is a greater inspiration than one with more ability. May our pastor and our church grow into greater forces for good because of the faithful attendance and support of every member. May we keep plodding in wholesome competition.

You in The Church
The Church in You
— form a combination for good. Every man, woman and child needs the influence of the church. So, come let us go into the house of the Lord. Let us support her program of service to humanity, be a faithful worker, a daily bible reader and attend services regularly.

The Editors,
The Hereford Brand,
Hereford, Texas
Gentlemen:

The Hereford Brand has printed one side of the redistricting dispute prominently. Apparently, the best way for the rural side to be presented to the whole county is by letter writing citizens. Of course, it is seldom that a letter is given the prominence of an editorial or headlined article.

The government of the United States of America may not be perfect, but it is the best form of government on this earth. It is a representative form of government but is set up in such a way that the minority also is protected.

The editors of The Hereford Brand apparently do not approve of the United States Senate. A Senator from Utah (for example) represents no where near the number of people as does a senator from New York. Yet this system helps to protect the interests of the minority from Utah so that they are not run over by the majority from New York.

Now, for the local form of government: Two commissioners and the county judge are men from the City of Hereford and they can outvote the two commissioners from the rural areas anytime they can get together on an issue.

A meeting for the purpose of discussing the redistricting of the precincts was called to meet at the Walcott School last Saturday night. This was an open meeting. Did the Hereford Brand send a representative to this meeting to hear the rural side of this question?

At this meeting, there were people from the Walcott area who invited Judge Zimmerman to ride over a local dirt road. They say that one can tell where the precinct boundaries are by riding over this road blindfolded, the inference being that the maintenance is better in the precinct represented by a rural man. The minority group's answer to the suggestion that this situation could be changed by complaining to their commissioner is that they do complain, but that the majority's interest (since the commissioner's job is a paid political one) is given the commissioner's attention.

The minority group (the rural constituents) need to have their interests protected from the possible selfish interests of the majority which is already represented 3 to 2 on the Commissioners Court of Deaf Smith County.

The county judge is the presiding officer of the Commissioners Court. I was under the impression that he could vote in case of a tie vote. It turns out that he is also a commissioner at large with the full rights of the other commissioners. Is this another case of legislation by the judicial branch of government such as we have recently seen in decisions of the Supreme Court of the United States?

REP. WALTER ROGERS WRITES:

New Man To Wear Cloak Of Responsibility Jan. 20

TO THE PEOPLE OF THE 18TH DISTRICT:
INAUGURATION
 On Friday, Jan. 20, at 12 noon, a ceremony will take place in front of the Capitol Building of the United States. This ceremony will be the inauguration of John Fitzgerald Kennedy as President of the United States of America and Lyndon Baines Johnson as Vice President of the United States of America.

It will be the 43rd ceremony of its kind in the history of this country. This ceremony will evidence in a few short seconds the shift of responsibility that has never been equalled in the history of mankind.

The cloak of responsibility as Chief Executive of the democratic processes in the government of 180-plus million people will be lifted from the shoulders of the oldest man ever to serve as President of the United States, and draped around the shoulders of the youngest man ever to be inaugurated as President of the United States.

The new President will be sworn in to serve for the Constitutional term of four years. When this is done, the people of the United States should close ranks behind him and put up a unified front to the rest of the world. The next four years will undoubtedly see great divergence of opinion on matters concerning foreign policy. But, whatever the personal feeling of any American, we must never allow ourselves to be so split as to jeopardize the welfare and the best interests of this country in meeting challenges from foreign sources.

This event will be heralded throughout the free world and watched with great interest in the Communist areas. It will mark the beginning of a new regime under the greatest government ever conceived by the mind of man. It will be watched by the free world because of their desire to continue to look to this country for leadership. It will be viewed with great interest by the Communists in all parts of the world with the hope of possibly detecting some weakness which can be exploited.

People from all over the nation will come and for several days before and after the short ceremony which will make Private Citizen Eisenhower out of President Eisenhower, and President Kennedy out of Senator Kennedy, there will be many celebrations and ceremonies and the Nation's Capital will be crowded to overflowing. Already, the tickets to all of the ceremonies have been exhausted, hotel rooms have been sold out for months for a radius of fifty miles around Washington; the transportation facilities both within the city and moving in and out of the city will be sorely taxed to meet the demands.

The Inaugural Ceremony itself will be viewed by thousands. But many more thousands who would like to view it will be disappointed. There will just simply not be enough room to accommodate all of those who want to attend. One of the reasons for this is the fact that this ceremony is held at the East Front of the Capitol. The site of the Capitol was chosen by George Washington.

It was determined at that time that the Capitol should face the confluence of the Potomac and Anacostia Rivers. Across from the East Front of the Capitol is the Library of Congress and the Supreme Court Building. The East Front is flanked by the House Office Buildings and the Senate Office Buildings. Although there is a large space within the confines of these buildings, it would be difficult, if not impossible, to view that place where the President will be sworn except from a limited area.

It has been my feeling that if the ceremonies were held on the west side of the Capitol, which is that portion of the Capitol viewed from downtown Washington and the side of the Capitol on which the White House is located, many more people could be accommodated. For instance, there is a Mall extending from the Capitol Building itself for many blocks to the Washington Monument and on to the Lincoln Memorial. The west side of the Capitol is by far the most beautiful side and many, many people have thought that it was the front of the Capitol because of its imposing beauty. The Inaugural Ceremony, if held on that side of the Capitol, could be so arranged that thousands more people could witness it in person.

Some people ask why the front of the Capitol was so arranged that it faces away from the city of Washington proper and the White House. There are several stories in answer to this query, but the one that has appeared to me to be most plausible is the following.

It seems that at the time it was determined to face the Capitol toward the confluence of the Potomac and Anacostia Rivers, some land grabbers who had inside information immediately moved in and bought up all of the land between the river fronts and the Capitol Building and boosted the price so high that it was almost prohibitive. In retaliation, the people moved into that area between the back of the Capitol and the White

OFF THE Shelf

BY H. A. TUCK

Mother of the Maid by Emily Badham Cox and Frances Warfield is a delightfully different story in the non-fiction class. Emily Badham's ambition to enter the Miss America contest was nipped in the bud. But the ambition came alive again when her beautiful daughter was mentioned as a possible candidate for the Miss Maid of Cotton contest.

Emmy was a freshman at Sweet Briar, a tall blonde with brown eyes and a luscious figure. But she hadn't the slightest interest in entering any beauty contest.

Emmy, however, reckoned without the calculating schemes her mother planned out.

Emily, now known as "Pank," starts her trek through the county, state and Cotton Belt with her daughter in tow. The entire drive to the national contest is complicated by Emmy's startling succession of beaux and an incredible bevy of messes and mix-ups.

House, much of which was semi-swampland. This was filled and made usable. It is in this area that the business district of the city of Washington is presently located, as well as many government buildings, including the Smithsonian Institution, Treasury, Department of Justice, The Archives, Labor Department, Department of Commerce, Post Office Department, etc.

In any event, I do hope that any of you who visit Washington will not fail to view Washington from the west side of the Capitol, preferably inside of the building. Looking down the Mall to the Washington and Lincoln memorials, you will view one of the most beautiful scenes in your experience.

WALTER ROGERS
 MEMBER OF CONGRESS
 18TH DISTRICT OF TEXAS
 VISITORS

Several Panhandles were in Washington this week, and it was a real pleasure to visit with all of them: Mr. and Mrs. James Witherspoon of Hereford, Mr. H. C. Preslar of Childress, and Mr. Frank Storm and Mr. and Mrs. Marion Bruce of Amarillo.

For example, Emmy once appears on stage for a contest rehearsal in flat-heeled shoes. . . because she wants to be shorter than her undersized Marine boyfriend.

The longer the pair go in the eliminations, the more complicated and expensive it becomes. Pank's husband, Tom, is the picture of patience and forbearance as he looks after his South Carolina tree farm and pays the bills that come flooding in from New York and lesser fashion centers.

Women should enjoy this book, since the authors take pains to describe each formal gown, each costume and each designer. Such awe-inspiring names as Mr. John, Davidow, Ceil Chapman, John Jack appear with startling frequency and Tom just chops down another tree or two.

He even plants cotton in front of the family home so Emmy can talk about being raised on a cotton plantation.

Pank enlists cotton moguls from one end of the country to the other, but half the time Emmy doesn't appear on schedule to impress them with her charm and beauty. She's flown to Harvard to be with another boy friend or to Vermont for skiing. It takes all Pank's skill to have her on hand for the contests.

The higher they climb, the more Pank learns. She runs into the professional chaperons, the paid publicity directors, the hard-soled business managers.

With innocent gusto, Pank just forges ahead, ultimately reaching the Maid of Cotton Finals and more throat-cutting than she had ever imagined.

Pank learns in a hurry what is involved in such an undertaking.

This isn't just the story of a beauty contest entrant and her mother. It also is a warm, humorous story of a family that is close and happy.

It includes such hilarious incidents as when a visiting minister came downstairs and suddenly was confronted by a small horse; he retreated and found the maid holding his newly-ironed surplice high in front of her, singing out, "Make way fo' the Arch-angel's shimmy." Next morning he came to breakfast gingerly carried a flower-bedeked skunk that had been left behind by Christmas carolers.

Mother of the Maid will appeal to almost any reader who wants to spend a few hours being entertained, but it should Sheathing — Sub Floors — Roof Decking . . . these three important structural features of your home should be built with Kiln Dried, SPIB Grade-Marked Texas Yellow Pine.

The Forest Products Laboratory, U. S. Texas Yellow Pine gives this extra assurance with superior strength and nail holding power which means MAXIMUM STRENGTH!

Tests also show that standard thickness sheathing of this fine lumber provides as much insulation as five times as much brick or twelve times as much stone. This means HEATING AND AIR CONDITIONING SAVINGS. Sub Flooring and Roof Decking of Texas Yellow Pine also supply proportionate strength and insulation . . . for a home of true, lasting value.

Each responsible lumber manufacturer listed assures you that every piece of framing lumber of 2" nominal thickness or smaller, stamped with the SPIB Grade-Mark and his mill number, has been properly manufactured—Kiln Dried—inspected and graded under strict Southern Pine Inspection Bureau standards.

BY MRS. R. L. PINNELL
The first and second grades, taught by Mrs. F. A. Kromer, easily stole the show Monday night when they brought the program at the Parent-Teacher Association meeting for January.

The children presented a choral playlet entitled "The Three Bears." The program was narrated by four voices, spoken by Bobby Harwood, Donnell Benefield, Du de Speed and Bruce Kromer. Mamma Bear was played by Sherry Beavers, Papa Bear by Joel Brownlee, "Wee" Bear by Joe Perrin and Goldlocks by Mary Anne Glass.
