County Delays Re-District Vote, Turns Down An Appraisal Motion

Vote on a motion which would obligate the county to re-district its precincts during 1961 was delayed a week by the Deaf Smith Commission during a long session Monday.

The proposal to re-district was just one of two "hot" issues thrown out near the end of the seven and a half hour meeting. The other was a motion to retain an outside appraisal firm to study possible valuation inequities. It was defeated 3-2.

Commissioner Otto Massie, about 6 p. m., made a motion to obligate the county to re-district itself during 1961. Judge Don Zimmerman pointed out that the state constitution allows counties to re-align its precinct boundaries following the national census.

Then invoking a little known right, Judge Zimmerman seconded the motion, stating that the county needed to re-district in order to provide equal representation.

After some discussion, Commissioners R. Donald Hicks and Charles Sowell asked that the matter be tabled until the following Monday.

Judge Zimmerman then made a motion that the county employ McMorris and Company of Amarillo "to make a study to determine whether any tax inequities do exist" in the county.

Commissioner Massie seconded the motion.

As a vote was asked, Commissioners Sowell, Hicks and J. T. Gunn voted "no" while Judge Zimmerman and Commissioner Massie voted "yes." About 6:30 p. m., the Commissioners voted to recess until 10 a. m. Monday, Jan. 16.

Most of the court's morning session was taken up with routine matters for the first of the year. They voted to pay a 11 county officials by annual salary, rather than by fee; approved all bonds and appointment of deputies and accepted a 11 officers' reports.

Re-appointed to the board of the Deaf Smith County Hospital were Ed Loerwald, Ira Scott and Dr. A. T. Mims. They were renamed to serve two-year terms, upon recommendation of the present board.

Grady Henley of Lubbock, with Southwest Decorators and Chamber of Commerce manager Bill Thompson talked with the court about needs for electrical wiring for the new barn being constructed in order to handle needs of shows or dismen.

The Rev. Clayton Watkins, pastor of the Summerfield Baptist Church, gave the invocation and the Rev. Orville Adkinson, pastor of the Westway Baptist Church, presented the welcome. The Rev. B. H. Baldwin, pastor of the Frio Baptist Church, closed the service with the benediction.

The annual drive started in the county Jan. 7 and will continue through Jan. 31. Heading the county campaign as drive director this year is Bruce Fink of Hereford, John D. Aikin of Hereford is chairman of the Deaf Smith County Chapter of the National Foundation.

Fink announced that a 15-minute film entitled "The Bridge Between," which shows progress of the National Foundation in its attack on polio, arthritis and birth defects, is still available to civic clubs and organizations in Hereford. Any group wanting to see the film should contact Fink by calling EM 4-1840.

The Mothers' March, which highlights the drive each year, will be conducted the last week of this month, by members of the Kappa Iota Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi Sorority. Date of the house-to-house campaign will be announced later, Fink said.

Set Bond For Firearms Theft

Bond for Zigmus Friemal, 20, of Vega was set at $500 Tuesday after he was charged with theft under $50 by the Deaf Smith County Sheriff's Department.

Friemal was charged in connection with the theft of five firearms from the possession of Mrs. J. E. Dyer over a period of time dating back to May, 1960, according to Deaf Smith County Sheriff Lowell Sharp.

The man was arrested Monday. Bond was set by County Judge Don Zimmerman, and the case is pending action in County Court.

Fight Honor Goes To Johnny Welty

Hereford Athletic Club boxers took four high school championships and three open division titles during its annual district Golden Gloves here Monday and Tuesday.

Plainview took four open division titles. Sportsmanship trophy, presented annually by the Hereford Board, this year was awarded to Johnny Welty of Hereford, winner of the 155 pound high school title.

Both nights were filled with crowd-pleasing bouts. As usual, Hereford high school heavyweight Roy Rogers had the spectators roaring as he bullied and battered his way to a repeat championship.

Rogers gave away ten pounds in his first fight but TKO'd Gary Pendergrast of Lamesa in 1:45 of the second round. He came back to win a decision over Bobby Pierce of Lamesa in the finals.

But the boy who packed the power was George Kirkland of Lamesa. Throwing punches de-

Around Town

After a six-day session of practice without outside competition, the Hereford Whitefaces basketball team has its first District 1-AAA contest Friday night. The Herd will tangle with the ever-dangerous Phillips Blackhawks in Phillips at 8 p. m., with the B game starting at 6:15 p. m. Hereford has a respectable 9-8 record against tough competition, while the Hawks are slightly below the .500 mark. Friday's game will be the first of eight district contests, all crucial. Dumas right now looks like the top contender to take the loop title.

We've had phone calls, rumors, all sorts of reports that we'd like to refute now about diphtheria cases being found in the county. As of 10:30 a. m. (Continued on Page 2)

Pair Charged In Theft Of Liquor

Two Hereford men were turned over to Castro County Sheriff's Department Monday afternoon after their arrest by Hereford Police on charge of theft over $50, a felony offense.

Arrested and charged were Nicanor Gonzales, 19, and Jimmy DeLuna, 19, both of Hereford. Arrests were made by Hereford police Capt. L. B. Bartlett.

The two men were charged in connection with the theft of alcoholic beverages from a wholesale truck parked at the La Posta Liquor store in Castro County Saturday night.

School Trustees Seek Judgments On Back Taxes

Hereford Rural High School District board Tuesday night asked Hereford attorney John D. Aikin to start legal proceedings to collect delinquent taxes on property where owners of property are unknown.

By filing suit against such unclaimed property within the school district, the trustees will seek judgments in order to place the properties on public auction.

Board financial secretary Fred Baird told Aikin and the trustees that delinquent taxes had mounted up to 25 years on at least one property within the district.

If liens are not filed against such properties, Baird said, delinquent taxes will continue to mount as property owners are unknown, Baird said he would help prepare a list of properties falling into that category.

In other business, the trustees accepted the resignations of Mrs. Margaret C. Barkley, ninth grade science teacher at Stanton Junior High, and Mrs. Wanda Thompson Knight, commercial teacher at Hereford High School. The resignations were accepted "with regrets." Mrs. Barkley plans to move to Anthony, N.M., and Mrs. Knight plans to go to Abilene.

Hired as replacements were Jene Williams, as commercial teacher at Hereford High, and Myrtle Ann McKinsey, who will graduate from West Texas State College this month, as science teacher at Hereford High. (Continued on Page 2)

James Witherspoon, chairman of the legislative committee of the Texas Sugar Beet Growers Association, left Hereford Wednesday to discuss sugar beet legislation with the new secretary of agriculture, Orville Freeman, on Thursday morning.

From Friday through Jan. 22, Witherspoon will be in Washington, D. C., calling on as many Congressmen and senators as possible in furthering legislative efforts of the Association.

Witherspoon will contact Freeman in Minneapolis, Minn., and plans to discuss transfer of sugar quotas from Cuba to the mainland before going to Washington for a nine-day stay.

He will be representing 26 various independent sugar beet associations in Texas and New Mexico when he contacts officials in the Department of Labor, Department of the Interior, House Agricultural Committee in addition to the one-day visit with Freeman.

Kiwanians, Hi School Win Glass Bowl Cage Groaners

BY WAIN MILLER BRAND SPORTS WRITER Yes sir, what it was was basketball! At least that is what everybody was told.

But some people just weren't quite sure as the Hereford Lions took on the Kiwanis Club in, pardon the expression, basketball action at the Whiteface gymnasium Tuesday night. The Hereford High School faculty entertained the Stanton Junior High teachers in the second hilarious event.

The Kiwanis club caged the Lions to get the evening started off with a few laughs by the score of 31-23. The high school teachers outtanced the Junior High staff to the tune of 30-23 in the second game.

A near-capacity crowd cheered the squads in the two games, the proceeds of which will be used to buy glass backboards for the high school gym, and the left-overs to be used to buy the officials some glasses.

Earl Stagner and Marvin Madison were assigned the unhealthy task of officiating during the games. Chick Hicks coached the victorious Kiwanians, while Reuben Knox and Jim Wilman tutored the Lions.

The boys used high school rules but, for obvious reasons, cut the quarters to only six minutes duration. They donned their own make-shift uniforms, as the Whitefaces didn't have any "men's" sized apparel.

The Lions jumped to a 4-2 lead with the first quarter only a minute gone, before their weary opponents called time. The Kiwanians were given quick refreshers from their portable oxygen bottle, and they were ready and rarin' to go another

Migrant Group Names Officers

Virgil Dodson of Hereford Monday night was re-elected chairman of the Hereford Committee on Migrant Ministry.

Holding its first annual meeting, the committee elected Les Combs as vice president and Vance Crume as secretary-treasurer. Officers for the past year were J. L. Marcum as secretary-treasurer and Vance Crume as vice president.

The committee was formed last year for the building of a social center for Latin-American residents living at the Labor Camp. The building was completed during the past summer.

Activities of the past year were reviewed at the Monday meeting, which was held in the First Christian Church of Hereford. (Continued on Page 2)

If you haven't seen it, go by and take a look at the fancy new, hinged flagpole on the courthouse lawn. The old pole fell down last summer. Commissioners also discussed the surplus foods commodity distribution program but took no action.

Judge Zimmerman reported on his meeting with the Hereford City Commission last week, requesting a new fire protection contract between the city and the county. He told the court that the city felt the present terms, under which the county pays a pro rata share of the city's fire department cost, were satisfactory. The county is charged a percentage of the department cost, determined by the ratio of city and county fire calls.

RUTHERFORD & CO.

The Hereford Brand, Hereford, Texas, January 12, 1961

BY JIMMIE GILBERTINE
The old saying about America's two greatest problems being "1. A place to park," and "2. How to lose weight," seem to have more than a wisecrack foundation. Current reports in the Wall Street Journal say that this new 900-calories-lad is grossing an average of $100 million a year, or more. It is fickle, though, having shifted overnight from the powdered concentrate to the pre-mixed dairy package. This is giving many retailers a first class headache, especially drug stores. From the merchandising standpoint, it is approached only by the Hula Hoop craze of some months back.

Hereford is no exception. The craze struck here and seems to have pretty well followed the national pattern—only perhaps on a higher percentage scale. They tell me a lot of old boys can hardly wait until they make the rounds on their golf carts and get back home to the calorie mix.

We will also be more than well represented on Cotton John's upcoming around the world tour, which starts the last of this month. Mr. and Mrs. Homer Newton and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Perritt will definitely be on the trip. I also hear that Mr. and Mrs. Norman Clevenger of Dimmitt have signed up for the 40-day tour. The Jack Bradleys are also planning a round-the-world tour, but with another group. Their departure date is in February.

This year we will also be well represented at the Kennedy-Johnson inauguration ceremonies at Washington. Among those planning to attend are Mr. and Mrs. James Witherspoon and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Benefield. I also hear that Louis Woodford is flirting with the idea, but hasn't yet made up his mind.

Several people have asked if the government pays this expense. So far as I can learn, they do not pay for the bail or any of the special receptions. The Democratic party puts the bite on hotels, cafes and other spots which benefit most of those who attend pay $25 or more to help offset the costs. The social part, anyway, is not a government expense.

From the sound of things, the Commissioners Court must have had quite a meeting Monday. Those who have been hoping for tax equalization in the next year or two were disappointed. For the first time, however, people do know where everyone stands—and that is worth something.

The situation represents a flaw in our democratic form of government. We are faced with an admitted inequity in tax evaluations—a right provided under the Constitution—and cannot do anything about it. The majority of the people do not even have an opportunity to vote on a majority of the commissioners, due to precinct variations from 700 to 7,000 in population—and the only ones who can call a balanced re-districting program are the commissioners, elected by the minority. Petitions have no official weight at all in this case.

I understand some of the boys are blaming the situation on the paper, and say they wish we would keep our mouths shut. If they will go along and endorse re-districting, or by some other method, let the majority vote, we will take the results and live with them. Until this is done, we definitely have a case of taxation without representation, and we honestly feel that it is the duty of the newspaper to keep on pointing out the truth of the condition so long as it exists. Situations of this type are the very reason our nation justifies its "freedom of the press"—and a newspaper which skirts this unpleasant duty is just as guilty as an official who votes against the dictates of his conscience, or the welfare of his community and the people involved.

Meanwhile, the whole situation speaks well for the honesty and lack of graft or corruption in county circles. Had there been anything questionable, it would have "come out" before now. Compared with Randall County and the present Beaumont investigations, we are fortunate indeed. Our inequities may amount to more dollars but, to say the least, they have been legalized by county and state laws.

Bill Wooley called in from Hub to say that they are having their fourth annual community sale on Jan. 19. Bill says that anyone who wants to buy or sell should be at the sale, which is a lulu. Proceeds from the commission on sales will be used to pay on the Hub Community House. Listings of items for sale can be made with any of the merchants or gins in the area. In a nutshell, it is a big community farm sale—and it is a good chance to cash in on equipment no longer needed—or to pick up some of those things you may need at a bargain. Remember: Jan. 19, at Hub.

The best I can figure it are only 353 days left until Christmas, and if none of your New Year resolutions have been broken, you are the exception rather than the rule.

And don't be lulled into a feeling of security by the present misleading weather. It is OK to have your winter suit cleaned. You'll sure need it again before the winter ends. Also, don't leave your overshoes where the dog can chew them up. We are going to have at least two spells.

How many old timers remember January 10, 1918, on account of the weather as well as the bills? Henry Sears says it got to 36-below in Plainview, where he lived at the time. Henry hastily adds that he was a "little shaver" and can't recall all of the details, but says it was really a rough one, killing cattle by the herd.

I am not predicting anything like this, but we really are due for some cold, wet days before the season closes.

STONE FOR A STRANGER
GOLDSBORO, N. C. — The inscription on the grave headstone reads, "A Stranger Who Wanted to Live in Goldsboro."

Beneath the stone lies Don Wilbur Calvert, a drifter with neither home nor relatives who kept coming back to Goldsboro.

Because he had no job, the only place he could find lodging was the Salvation Army. Even there shelter was limited to overnight stays. Last winter on one of his visits, Calvert, 89, collapsed and died.

The city provided a coffin and a grave. As his story spread, townspeople contributed small amounts of money which were deposited in a bank, and later used to buy a headstone for his grave.

James Monroe, fifth president of the United States, died in New York City on Independence Day in 1831.

Beef Cattle Short Course For Adults Here Next Week

A beef cattle short course for adult farmers will be held Jan. 16-20 under the sponsorship of the Hereford High School Vocational Agriculture Department, according to P. L. Stevens, Superintendent and Jess Robinson, teacher of vocational agriculture.

William M. Oliver, beef cattle specialist with the Vocational Agriculture Division of the Texas Education Agency and the Department of Animal Husbandry at Texas A&M College with headquarters at A&M College will be the instructor in the course. Oliver holds two degrees in Agricultural Education from Texas A&M College. Much of his college work in technical agriculture has been in the fields of Animal Husbandry, Range Management and Agronomy. As a Vocational Agriculture Teacher, he was very popular and has a wide and varied experience in training livestock and meat judging teams in the State and National FFA Judging Contests. Two of these teams won their respective contests in the National FFA judging contests. Oliver has worked closely with registered breeders, commercial cattlemen, and vocational agriculture students in the field of beef cattle production.

"Many beef cattle short courses in various parts of the state have been taught by Oliver and all have met with outstanding success," according to Walter Labay, area supervisor of vocational agriculture, Plainview.

The short course at Hereford High is scheduled to begin Jan. 16 at 7 p.m. in the vocational agriculture building. During the dates the short course is in progress, Oliver will be available to assist cattlemen with individual problems and to provide on-the-farm instruction, according to Jess Robinson.

Cattlemen interested in attending the short course should write or call the teacher of vocational agriculture, Jess Robinson or Wade Thompson. An entry fee of $2.00 will be charged. Beef Cattle Short Course Certificates are to be presented to each cattleman who attends all the training sessions.

Oliver states that the field of beef cattle production must take a close look at efficiency of production in the future. With land prices, feed, and taxes rising the producer is meeting more and more competition for the consumer dollar at the meat counter. From the economic view of the beef cattle business, there is every indication that in comparing the producer of yesterday and the producer of tomorrow, beef must be produced to see cheaper in order to be a profit making business. Oliver indicates that the beef cattle short course will deal with the methods of producing beef at a lower cost and the ways of producing the kind of beef that the housewife wants to buy. He also states that the course will include such very important fields as the meat type steer, selecting bulls and replacement heifers, proper range use, supplemental winter feeding and will be adapted to the wishes and interests of the farmers and ranchers enrolled.

CARD OF THANKS

We have not the words at our command to express the humble gratitude in our hearts to each and everyone for the many kind and thoughtful things that have been done for throughout the long hours of our anxieties and sorrows.

To the men of the Civil Air Patrol, the State Highway Patrol, from both Texas and New Mexico, all law enforcement officers of Texas and New Mexico, and the Air Force Personnel from the various Air Force Bases in Texas and New Mexico, we are deeply grateful for the concentrated efforts made in our behalf.

For the Magnificent floral offering, the memorial donations to Boys' Ranch, the food prepared by the ladies of our community and various other assistance given by them, and to those everywhere whose sympathies went out to us in these trying days, we are so very thankful.

Please forgive us if there are those who should have received personal cards of thanks and do not receive them. We do know some have been lost.

May God bless and take care of each and everyone of you from this day forward in our prayer.

was developed for all of the Great Plains states. This program will help overcome severe climatic variations which periodically produce widespread soil erosion during seasons of high winds and frequent periods of extreme drought.

"Since we have had more than normal rainfall in the past two years, now is the time to prepare farms and ranches for the next drought," Newman said. "Ranch improvement, residue management and structural practices will help keep that raindrop where it falls and prevent erosion."

Applications can be made at the local Soil Conservation Service office for participation in this program, added Newman. At the present time 87 applications have been received.

ATTEND FUNERAL

Mrs. Clell Best and daughter, Lynelle, of Amarillo were in Hereford last week, where they attended funeral services for Jim Bookout. They also visited in the home of old family friends, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Owens and family.

44 Farms And Ranches In County Conservation Plan

The Great Plains Conservation Program has been available to farmers and ranchers in the Tierra Blanca Soil Conservation District since January of 1957. This program enables farmers and ranchers to develop a complete conservation plan and receive maximum federal cost share in carrying out conservation practices, reports Don F. Newman of the local Soil Conservation Service office.

The Great Plains Conservation Program runs for a minimum of three years and a maximum of 10 years, and will work in conjunction with other government programs.

There are 44 Deaf Smith County farms and ranches in the Great Plains Conservation Program, covering 82,385 acres and obligating $98,943 of federal cost share at the present time. These 44 Great Plains contracts are complete, sound conservation plans being applied over a short number of years which will result in treating the participants farm and ranch for protection and improvement.

This program does not interfere with regular farming and ranching operations, Newman said.

Cost share may be earned for establishing such conservation practices as drilling and casing livestock wells, installing water storage tanks and pipelines for livestock water, constructing earthen dams or pits, fences, terraces, diversions and waterways, range pitting or chiseling, range seeding and tree plantings for windbreaks or wildlife.

Practices that have been completed through the Great Plains Program since January, 1957, are 75,000 acres of proper range use, 10,000 acres of conservation cropping systems, 8,000 acres of crop residue use and stubble mulching, 1,000 acres of range seeding, 1,000 acres of range pitting and chiseling, 10 wells have been drilled, and five pipelines for livestock water and 6 water storage tanks have been installed.

Five earthen dams, three miles of diversion terraces, three waterways and 8 1/2 miles of fences have been constructed. There are 70 miles of terraces scheduled in Great Plains contracts to be constructed during the next two years.

FRIO NEWS

Mrs. Hodges Is Shower Honoree

BY MRS. OWEN ANDREWS
A wedding shower honoring Mrs. Johnnie Hodges was given at the Frio Baptist Church Wednesday afternoon at 3 p. m. Hostesses for the occasion were Mesdames Carlton Dobbins, E. M. Green, B. H. Baldwin, Robert Dobbins, Steve Glenn and Owen Andrews.

The bride's chosen colors of pink and white were used in decorations for the refreshment table, which was laid with a white damask cloth, covered with white net. The centerpiece, which was a large white bell with small pink and white flowers and bird decorations, was tied with white ribbon. White spiral candles in crystal holders were on each side of the centerpiece. The refreshments were pink fruit punch, served in crystal cup and plate service, and rosebud decorated cake squares. Miss Patsy Green registered 100 guests and she and Mrs. Glenn served refreshments.

Others attending the shower were the honoree's mother, Mrs. L. B. Worthan, her mother-in-law, Mrs. Al Hodges, Mrs. James Dobbins, Mrs. F. L. Sparman Jr., Mrs. Jim Brooks, Mrs. Earnest Harder, Mrs. Joe Scott, Mrs. Betty Jo Shepperd, Mrs. Edgar Vinson, Mrs. Frank Robbins, Miss Alma Andrews, and the honoree.

Mr. and Mrs. Owen Andrews spent Thursday night visiting Mr. and Mrs. S. B. McLallen at Quanah. The McLallens operate the J. Lee Department Store there, having moved early in December from Odessa. The Andrews visited an aunt, Mrs. Lennie Nunally, at Childress, and with Mrs. Lonnie Leach and Miss Inez Leach, at Wellington on Friday.

Visiting the Earl Harkins Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Alton Chiddix, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Chiddix, Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Smith and sons, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Yerby and children, all of Plainview. Mr. and Mrs. Gene Welch visited the Harkins and other visitors Sunday afternoon.

Quite a large number of Frio folk attended the ground breaking ceremony of the Westway Baptist Church Sunday afternoon.

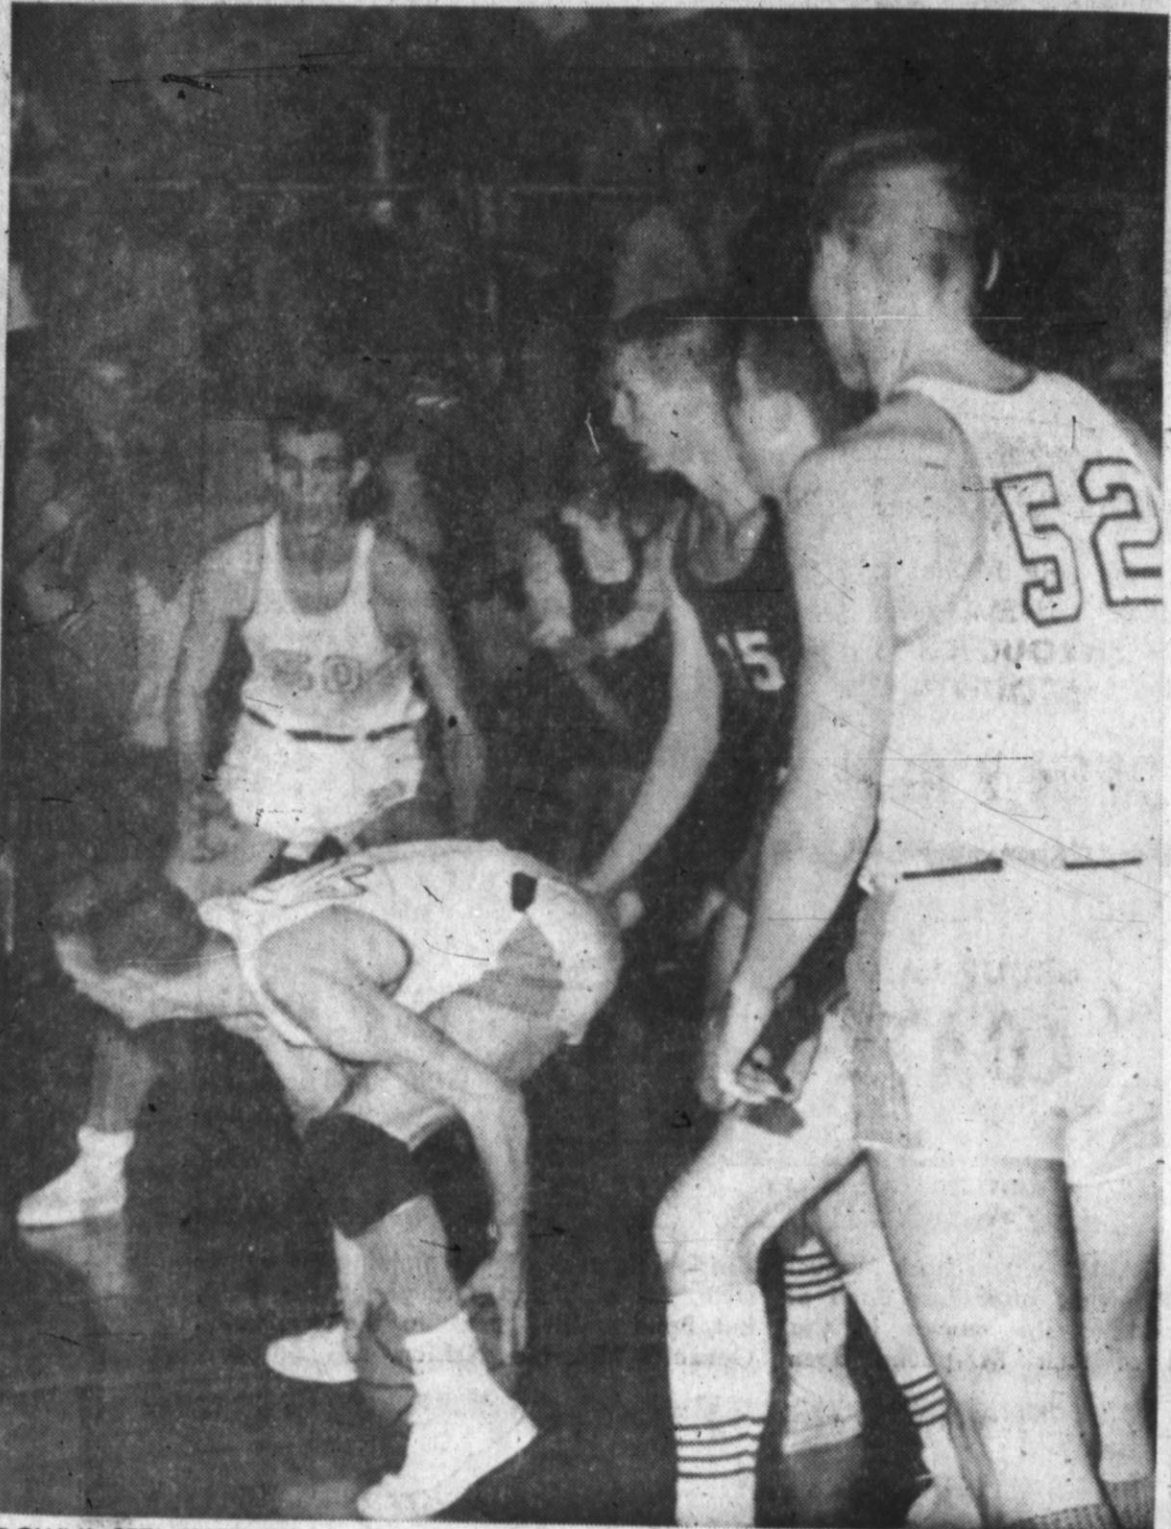

The Quanah paper carried the story last Thursday of the funeral service at the Methodist Church there for Mrs. Sarah Ann Campsey on Wednesday. She died in Amarillo on Monday after having suffered a fall the week before. Mrs. Campsey was the sister of Mrs. B. M. Sudduth, who with Mr. Sudduth had left here on Friday, Dec. 30, to spend the winter in Arizona. The Sudduths had recently sold their home here to Henry and James Dobbins.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dobbins are doing quite a bit of work on the house where the Sudduths lived, sheetrocking, textoning and painting. Mr. and Mrs. James Dobbins will move into the house vacated by the Henry Dobbins, both families planning to get moved this week.

Bradley Burrus of Canyon ate Sunday dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Andrews and Hal. Misses Bonnie Sparman and Linda Stephan visited the Weldon Stephan family Friday and Saturday and attended the basketball tournament at Dimmitt both nights.

Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Stephan, Jill and Rhonda, had Sunday dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Self.

Lloyd Shultz and Walker Paris underwent spinal operations last week at the Deaf Smith County hospital. A neurosurgeon from Hawaii did the surgery. Both are progressing satisfactorily.

DOWN! SET! HIKE! Ronnie Caster seemed to have his sports mixed up Saturday night as he tried to control a runaway basketball. He got this one, but Dimmitt got enough free throws in the final moments to win its own championship tournament, 57-50. Carl Miller and Thomas Coffman (50 and 52) couldn't help out. No. 15 for Dimmitt is Jim Ratcliff. (Staff Photo)

Boys', Girls' Basketball Teams In Stratford Meet

BY MRS. R. L. PINNELL

The Adrian Matadors basketball teams, boys and girls, entered the Stratford Invitational Tournament last weekend, leaving on Thursday morning.

The girls met and lost to Hedley, 51-21, with Donna Brownlee scoring ten points and Cox of Hedley making 35. This put the girls in the consolation bracket to meet Channing Friday morning. They won 46-34 with Donna Brownlee and Coralee Fortenberry scoring 14 points each and Karen Marple looping in 24 for Channing.

They met Dalhart in the consolation finals and lost 39-24 with Donna Brownlee again high with 16 and Thompson making 19 for Dalhart.

The boys met Stratford B team Thursday afternoon and won 56-34. Bill Gudgell was top scorer with 17 and Dwane Pittman of Stratford got 9. On Friday morning, the boys met Hedley and lost 56-40. High point players were Bill Gudgell with 14 and Hedley's Rowland and Maddox with 13 each.

The boys met Hartley on Friday night and lost 51-36. Bill Gudgell again was top scorer with 11 points and Hartley's Thompson, Skalsky and Green each scored 12.

Bill Gudgell made the All-Tournament team and was presented an individual trophy. The boys' team was presented a beautiful trophy for sportsmanship, selected by the coaches, officials and the schools. It will be a fine addition to the trophy case.

CUT OPERATING COSTS IN HALF with a JENSEN

With a Jensen you spend only about one-half as much on your operating costs as on other makes

Yes... it only costs about half as much to operate a JENSEN as it does other makes because all JENSEN systems are counter-balanced. This adds longer life to sub-surface equipment and saves on servicing, too!

The JENSEN model pictured here is one of 17 sizes. Thus you can select the exact JENSEN to economically fit your well depth and water requirements.

The enemies of time are procrastination, sometime excusing our inaction and regretting. The enemies of energy are frustration, irritation, impatience, and worry.

I've always thought that two time savers are children and tomorrow.

Arneal Scott and Virgil Dodson have proved to be time savers for us. We are grateful for these two, for helping with programs this week. Arneal will give the program to the Hereford Garden Club on Conservation. Virgil Dodson made a talk to the West Hereford Home Demonstration Club on "How a Bill Becomes a Law."

One of Virgil's recent accomplishments in the Toastmasters Club is that this week he is the possessor of the Speaker of Distinction. This trophy is furnished by Pioneer Natural Gas Company and Virgil earned it on his talk Nuts To Irritation. Virgil doesn't ordinarily make humorous talks. Our congratulations on this nice recognition.

The theme for 1961 Program of Work of the Texas Home Demonstration Association is "Facing The Challenge of Today's Tasks."

"And now, abideth faith, hope, charity these three, but the greatest of these is charity," we read in I Corinthians 13. This verse, one of the most important in the Bible, seems to be forgotten in the world.

Look around you and try to find people in whose life love is the most important thing. You won't find very many. Some people will tell you that they don't have time for love, that it is something for dreamers and poets. Others will explain to you in a very sensible way that you cannot pay for your house or your car with love. And what became of love in the decadent movies we get to see and in the many crimes and suicides?

Why don't we, young people, try to build up a better world with love; love for our friends, our families, our countries, our studies, and love for God?

Perhaps you are one of the persons who believes that it is possible to have a successful life without love, and perhaps you succeed pretty well in it. But you cannot live without God, and God is love. "Prairie Sage," Palo Duro High, Amarillo.

A Tribute To The Coaches' Wives

Hereford High School football coaches have received much praise, as well as a little blame, during the season just past. Little has been said, however, about the "Power" behind them — the coaches' wives.

The following article was written in tribute to the coach's wife, by Dr. Rhea H. Williams, athletic director of the University Interscholastic League. It is now offered as a tribute to the wives of the Hereford High School coaches.

"As the end of the football season approaches, there is one group of individuals that we seldom hear about who should be signally honored. That group consists of the wives of the football coaches. No single group contributes as much to our athletic program as the 'little woman' who sits quietly behind the scenes. She deserves a special tribute for her many services 'beyond the call of duty.'"

"The coach's wife is a 'mother confessor.' After each game she listens to her husband pour out words of glee or sorrow, depending upon whether his team won or lost. She is the one who keeps the proper balance by encouraging words and smiles. Many a coach has been consoled by the words of a loving wife to the effect, 'So what! We lost tonight, but it's only a ball game and we still have each other.'"

"The wife must endure the stony silence, the moody and pessimistic periods, and yea, the optimistic, boisterous, and happy moments of the coach. She must be similar to a chameleon and change her conduct to fit the situation; encouraging and sympathetic when the coach loses; calm and happy when the coach wins. She must be patient, understanding, cooperative and long-suffering."

GOLDEN RULE

"The coach's wife is the pretty woman who sits in the stands and bites her lips to keep control of herself when the person behind her says 'How dumb can a coach be to do such a thing.' She has to listen to abuse in many ways from spectators about her husband-coach and, God bless her, she conducts herself in such a way that it reminds us of the Golden Rule. 'Do unto others as you would have them do unto you.'

"Her tears are concealed, her feelings suppressed, as she listens to a few loud-mouthed morons assail her husband's abilities as a coach. In many ways, the wife hears more and bears more than the husband, as he is usually too far removed from the stands to hear the derogatory remarks."

"The assistant coach, without pay from the school, is the coach's wife. She answers the coach's mail, the telephone at all hours of the night, prepares meals for the extra people who are always 'dropping in,' and serves as a special consultant in psychological and sociological problems for her husband, members of the teams, and her family. After the game she always has coffee and sandwiches available for the 'drop ins.' If the team wins, many come, and she has to prepare more food; if they lose, very few come, and the coach's family has to eat sandwiches for a week.

"As assistant coach, she listens to her husband go over all his plays, both defensively and offensively; and after the game, when the lights are out at home, the game is replayed by the coach to an attentive listener: his wife."

HOUSEHOLD DUTIES

"Besides these many duties as the coach's 'right-hand man,' she is the mother of his family and must run the household duties, look after the health and welfare of the children, serve as P. T. A. home room mother, teach a Sunday School Class, and perform numerous other duties at home and in the community. She is the one who gives the coach his poise, confidence, hope, balance, and her love is an inspiration that overcomes all obstacles. The coach guides boys into correct ways of thinking, living and doing in athletic events largely through the influence of two women—his mother and his wife.

"My hat is off to the wife of the coach. Her many contributions to the athletic program has, in general, been overlooked by all, with the exception of her husband, the coach. This writer knows from personal experience how much a coach's wife means to her husband during the strains, tensions and irritations of a strenuous football season.

"We men usually take those things for granted on the part of our wives, but let's all make a point to let her know how much we appreciate her contributions."

Regardless of whether or not you coaches tell her how much you appreciate her, she will continue to do the same things for you in the years to come because she is a woman and she loves you. Thank God for women who become coaches' wives—without them, coaching would often be a dreary and forlorn adventure."

Senior Class Personalities

"My pastime is Joyce Ann," says Wendell "Willy" Wilson, whose pet peeve is loud-mouthed people. Wendell gets mad at someone with "an enormous capacity for my Millers."

He doesn't have any favorite teachers; he just thinks that these at H.H.S. are the best in the world.

Wendell is crazy about hunting geese and he plans to enter the University of Texas after graduation. His advice to lowerclassmen is to "play it cool and have a ball cause it won't last long." His opinion of going steady is it is okay if you can get away with it.

Some of Wendell's favorites are as follows: food, steak; color, blue; car, Oldsmobile; movie, "South Pacific"; book, "Rogue"; song, "Apache."

Getting up in the morning is Nancy Green's pet peeve. She plans to attend Lubbock Christian College after graduation.

Her opinion of H. H. S. is that she'll be glad to get out, "if I ever do." Her advice to lowerclassmen is to not fool your time away and to study hard. She has never had any big disappointments because she is not easily disappointed and when asked what her secret ambition was she said "if I felt it wouldn't be a secret anymore." Her hobby is sewing and some of her other favorites are food, shrimp; movie, "A Summer Place"; song, "On the Wings of a Dove"; and her favorite teacher is Miss Wall.

Jimmy Collier's secret ambition is to become a baseball player and his biggest disappointment was when he could not play basketball.

His hobby is collecting guns and his pastime is going hunting. Jimmy's most embarrassing moment was when he had to get up and give a report in class and his pants were ripped. His advice to lowerclassmen is to study hard and be smart in English.

Jimmy gets very mad at girls who curse. Some of his favorites are food, steak; movie, "Red River"; song, "Baby Sitting Boogie." His favorite teacher is Alvin Smith, simply because he is a nice person.

TEACHER OF THE WEEK

Keeping Up With Children Is Quite Time-Consuming

"I pass an awful lot of time keeping up with my kids," muses Mrs. Viola Chisholm, who teaches art and English III at Hereford High School.

Mrs. Chisholm has three children, Lynn, aged 10; Greg, 7; and Valerie, 5. Valerie was one of the HHS mascots last year. Mrs. Chisholm graduated from H. H. S. and after that she graduated from Texas Women's University. After coming back to Hereford, she decided to teach because she wanted to be in a school environment and she liked to work with young people.

As a hobby, Mrs. Chisholm enjoys most crafts. "It's something that allows me to use my imagination and lets me work with my hands," she explains. When asked her opinion of H. H. S., Mrs. Chisholm states: "I will be very delighted to have my children attend Hereford High School and I couldn't put it any clearer than that. I think that Hereford, like any other school, has its faults, but I think we have fewer complaints than any other high school I know anything about." "It irritates me to death to have anybody run down his school, because each of us is our school and a school's never any better than we let it be," is the answer Mrs. Chisholm gave when she was asked her pet peeve.

Whitefaces Ease By Canyon, 79-52

Hereford had a relatively easy time in dropping Canyon Saturday afternoon, moving into the finals of the Dimmitt Invitational.

The young Eagles battled point for point during the opening minutes. But with Hereford ahead 8-7, the Whitefaces steamed ahead with 11 straight points and a decisive 19-7 margin at the end of the first quarter.

Canyon rallied with 19 points in the second quarter while Hereford was chalking up just 15. The Eagles trailed just eight points, 34-26, at the end of the first half of play.

Jackie Oldham, Charlie Burrus and Carl Miller caught fire during the third period, making points in bunches. With a 54-35 margin, Canyon notched in six quick points in 58 seconds as the Hereford lead was cut to 54-41. Seven free throws and nine field goals gave Hereford a brilliant 25-point finish. Canyon could muster just two field goals and seven free throws during the same period while falling further behind.

Four Whitefaces scored in double figures during the game. Carl Miller led the field with 23, while Dennis Hodges had 16, Charlie Burrus 13 and Jackie Oldham 12. Jim Glenn had 12 for Canyon, while Bob Begert and Richard Green got 11 each. It was a rough and rugged game all the way as 23 fouls were called on Hereford and 18 on the Eagles. Charlie Thomas and Ronnie Caster both fouled out for Hereford, while Ron Harris was out via fouls for Canyon.

Basketball Personalities

Charles "Hopalong" Burrus is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Tony Burrus of Rt. 1, Canyon. This 18-year-old senior center on the Whitefaces entertains the secret ambition of playing professional basketball.

If he can make a team, he plans to play baseball after graduation. He enjoys all sports and considers them his hobby.

His most unusual pastime is "hunting with Carol." He also likes to watch television in his spare time. Charles thinks going steady is all right, if it's with the right person.

"Try hard in all your subjects and be friendly with your teachers," he advises underclassmen. "H. H. S. is a real great school and it's got some real great teachers and subjects. I have enjoyed coming to this school for the last nine years."

He definitely does not like homework. His other pet peeve is "when somebody tries to butt in on my business."

Going Steady

Since we no longer depend on love at first sight, but realize that we grow into love, dating and going steady become stages in the development of love feelings, to be followed by the engagement stage and then marriage itself.

But dating and going steady are not only important in the development of our relationship with the opposite sex. They are relationships in our development as people. Our best chance for a happy marriage is to participate in a lot of group dating such as parties, church groups, and others, especially during the junior high years. In senior high group dating activity continues but couples begin to "pair off" and go to and from parties with other couples, or "double dating." Gradually as one grows in self-confidence and one's ability to be a good companion, one is ready for single dating.

Hereford High... Three Years Ago

Three years ago a blond-haired freshman girl, who is now a senior, had to put gum on the end of her nose while walking down the hall because she was chewing gum in class.

The All-School Play was entitled, "The Remarkable Incident at Carson Corners."

Stunt Night presented four lovely candidates from each class for annual queen, Jo Ann Fowlkes was crowned annual queen for the senior class. The other candidates were Eugenia Alexander from the junior class, Barbara Jacobs from the sophomore class, and Deanna Kriegshauser from the freshman class.

"Banquet Time," presented by the Junior Class, won first prize. Hi-Y's version of "The Adventures of Ting-a-Ling" won second and "A Modern Band" took third place. The basketball team was named "District 3-AAA Champs!"

The band made many historic trips that year.

The P. E. girls learned to play football while gazing at tall and handsome Coach Rookie Rogers.

Admire Your Neighbor, But Still Be Yourself

BY CHARLENE SHOEMAKER
You are
What you are.
You are unlike Others, not a
Carbon copy.
Admire your Neighbor, but do
Not envy her, nor Aspire to be as
She is.
For she, too, is An individual.

Another YOU.

So from my own

Miss Guess Who

Miss Guess Who this week is 17 years old, 5'2" tall and a junior.

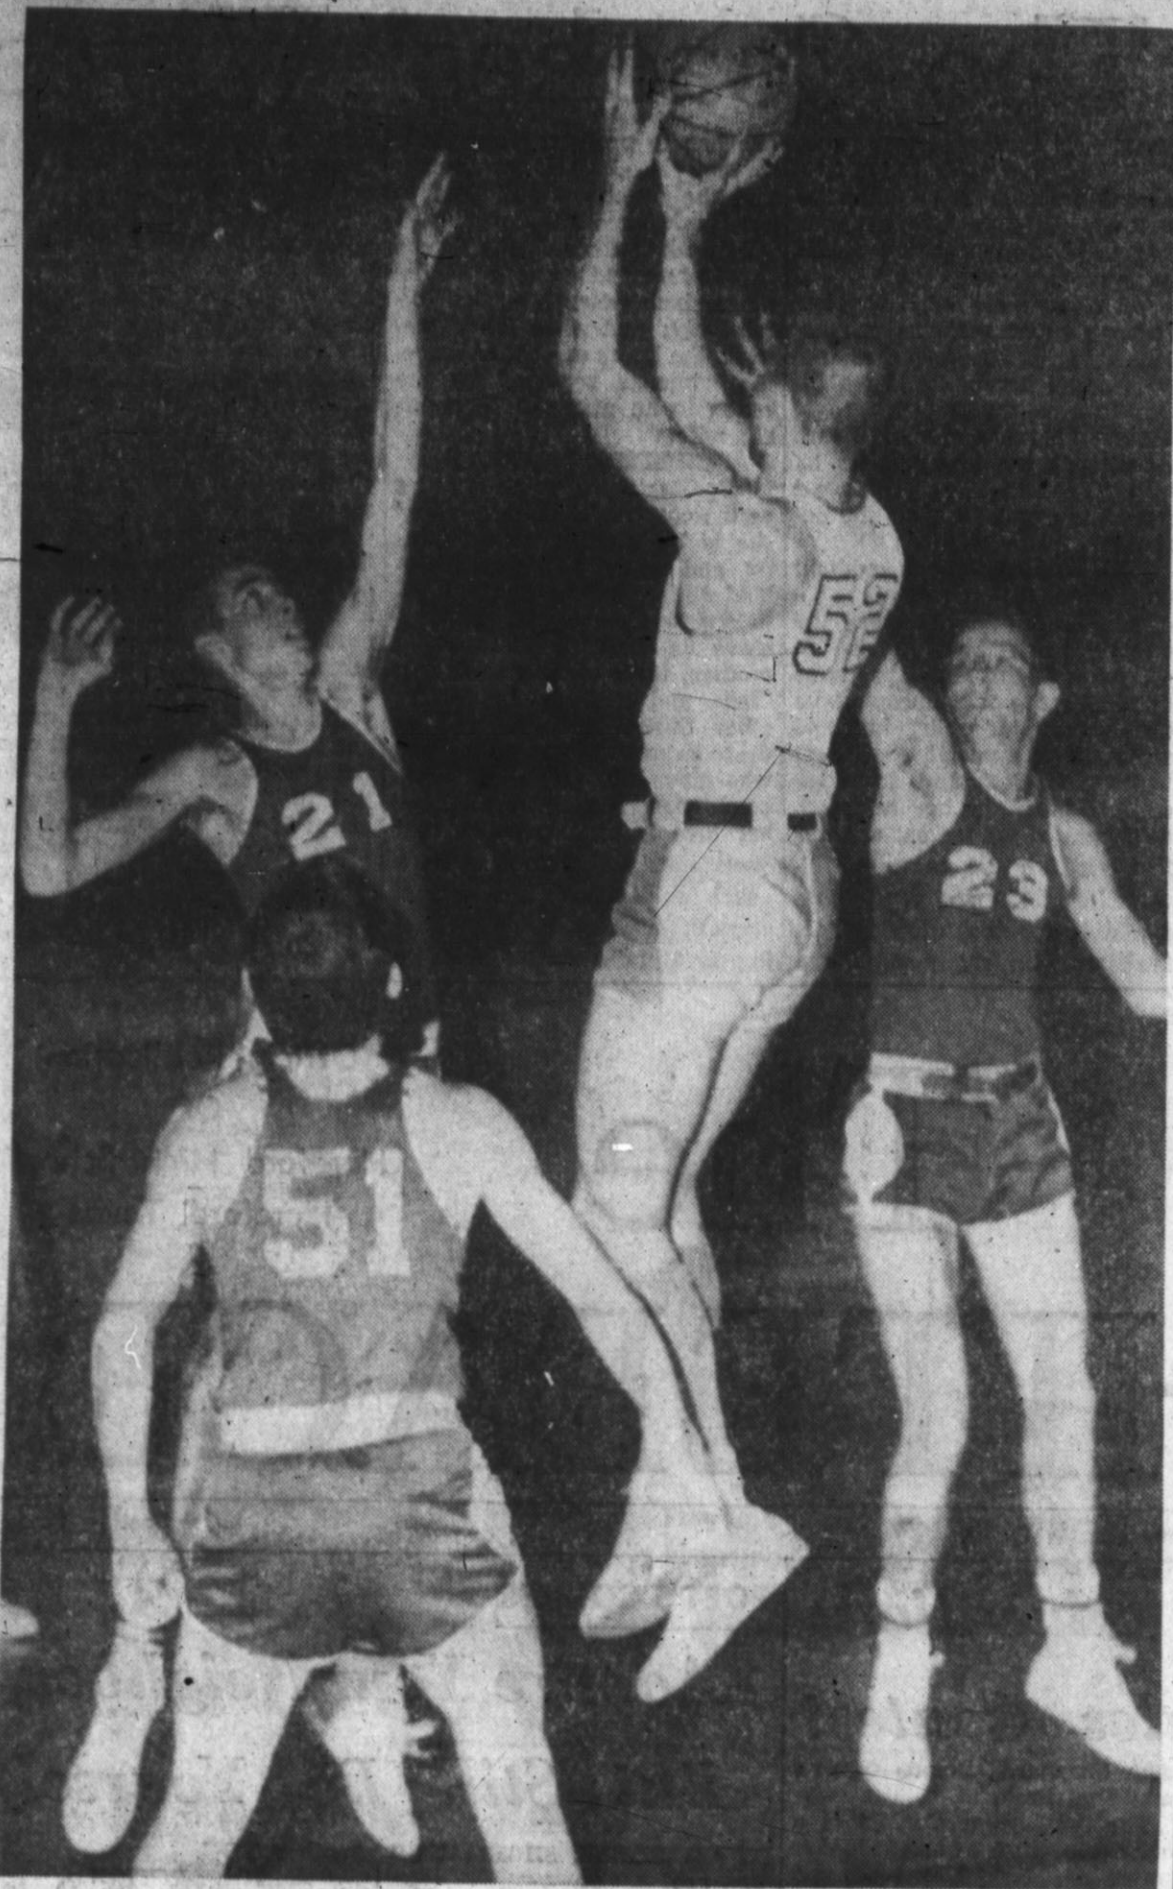

Among her many nicknames are Lynn and I.B.M. The best advice she ever received was from her mother when she told her not to talk with her mouth full.

Miss Guess Who says her secret of success is her many friends. Her biggest disappointment is that a certain boy hasn't asked her for a date and her opinion of going steady is, "It has its place."

When asked her opinion of homework and H.H.S., she replied, "Homework is lousy and H. H. S. could be a lot friendlier." Miss Guess Who would like to live to be 99 years, 11 months, and 25 days old.

She says her pet peeve is people who try to be what they are not. Her advice to the sophomores is "never get bored."

Last week's Miss Guess Who was Dianne Clearman, and this week's will be told next week.

REP. WALTER ROGERS WRITES:

Bills In The Hopper

TO THE PEOPLE OF THE 18TH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT:

The first days of the Congress always find a good number of measures being introduced. With 437 Members of the House of Representatives, if each Member introduced one bill and these bills were divided evenly among the legislative committees of the House, each committee would have approximately 22 measures upon which to hold hearings.

If each hearing required one week for the presentation of testimony, five months would be required in this process alone. The fact is that there will be a good many more bills introduced in the House than one by each Member. During the last term of Congress, 13,304 bills were introduced. In addition to this there were 647 resolutions, 808 joint resolutions and 747 concurrent resolutions — a total of 15,506 measures.

Some of the bills that I have introduced in the new Congress were introduced during previous Congresses. One bill that I have introduced each year that I have been in Washington will be known this year as H.R. 153. It is a bill to increase the personal income tax exemption of a taxpayer and his spouse from $600 each to $1000, and increase the personal income exemption for a dependent from $600 to $800. However, the bill this year suggests that this exemption be $1000. In view of the number of dependents that I have had, some of the Members of Congress referred to this measure as a private bill for the benefit of Walter Rogers.

However, each year that passes makes this argument less effective. Jean and I have one less dependent this year than last. Our oldest son, John, has graduated from college and is now an ensign in the U. S. Navy on a tour of duty on the West Coast. Since our 6 children are so close together in age, each year will see a lessening of dependents on our income tax form. I can certainly speak from experience when I say that a $600 exemption for a child is not realistic. Hence, I shall continue to press for passage of this measure. I have introduced 2 bills designed to provide a solution to the dilemma faced by farmers in our area who desire to grow sugar beets. One of these measures, H. R. 148, would provide for an increase in the amount of sugar produced by domestic producers; for domestic production. Under the present law, this production is limited to 55% of domestic demand. My bill would increase this limitation from 55% to 65%.

This would mean an increase in domestic quotas of approximately 900,000 tons of sugar. Translated to sugar beet acres, this would mean an additional production of approximately 360,000 acres. The other measure concerning the sugar law is H. R. 149, which is a bill to amend the Sugar Act of 1948 to provide that future increases in sugar quotas will be allocated to domestic beet producers in a manner which will assure new growers the fair share of such increase. If we are successful in obtaining passage of these two measures, the door will be opened for a fair and proper expansion of sugar beet production in our area.

I have also introduced a measure to provide for the appointment of an additional District Judge for the Northern District of Texas. Our present Federal Judges have been doing an outstanding job in handling the tremendous case load that has fallen upon them. The creation of additional judgeships is long overdue. Our own Judge Joe Dooley in Amarillo has done an almost impossible task in meeting the demands upon him. This burden must be relieved if proper dispatch of business in the judicial system is to be had in the proper protection of the rights of American citizens.

Two bills that I have introduced have to do with the perennial water problem. One of these is a bill to extend and expand the saline water conversion program to speed up development of practical means for the economical production of fresh water from sea or other saline waters. Success in this field would be the greatest contributions to peace in our time. The other bill relating to water has to do with the recognition of the authority of the States relating to the control, appropriation, use or distribution of water within their boundaries. As you know, streams are no respecters of State boundaries, and this has created some most serious conflicts between Federal and State laws. My bill has to do primarily with the protection of States' Rights in the water field.

Two measures which I have introduced propose amendments to the Constitution. One of these is H. J. Res. 69 which proposes an amendment to the Constitution with respect to the admission of new States as sovereign States of the U. S. The proposal that a new State be admitted to the Union would require

2/3 of both Houses of Congress or an application of the legislatures of 2/3 of the several States.

Once such proposal is made as required, the admission of the proposed State would not be valid or effective until ratified, the admission of the proposed State would not be valid or effective until ratified by the legislatures of 3/4 of the several States or by conventions in 3/4 thereof as may be required by the Congress. The other proposed amendment to the Constitution is contained in H. J. Res. 70. This proposal would authorize the Congress to limit the power of the Courts of the U. S. to determine that statutes of the U. S. or of any State are repugnant to the Constitution of the U. S. The exercise of the authority by Congress would require a 2/3 vote of each House of Congress. Few people realize the full extent of the power of the Supreme Court. The Supreme Court has the power to declare a statute of the U. S. or any State unconstitutional.

Any effort by the U. S. Congress or by the legislature of any of the several States to rewrite the law could meet the same fate. Hence, the Supreme Court has the power to nullify the law on any subject. It is my feeling that this power is too absolute and that there should be, under proper procedural limitations, the right to appeal to the Congress of the U. S. which is made up of the duly-elected Representatives of the people.

Another joint resolution, to-wit, H. J. Res. 68, provides for an extensive study to be conducted as to ways and means of expanding and modernizing the Foreign Service activities of the U. S. Several of us feel that the representation of this country in foreign lands could be better accomplished if provision could be made to assist young people from many areas of this country, especially in the smaller towns, in entering the enshroud our State Department would be good for this country not only at home but in many areas abroad.

miles between lubrications

30,000 is the most famous number of the year. It's every '61 Ford owner's license to save. How can Ford do it? Conventional chassis lubrication fittings have been replaced with metal plugs that help protect each lubrication point against abrasive mud, dirt and dust. And then, for only about $4 and about 20 minutes your Ford is ready for another 30,000! This is just one of the many ways the '61 Ford is built to take care of itself. Your Ford Dealer can show you more.

HERE'S HOW THE '61 FORD TAKES CARE OF ITSELF

Lubricates itself—You'll normally go 30,000 miles between chassis lubrications (which cost only about $4.00 and take about 20 minutes) because Ford has replaced conventional grease fittings with a sealed-in lubrication system.

Cleans its own oil—You'll go 4,000 miles between oil changes because Ford's Full-Flow oil filter gives you filtration through fibers... trapping more dirt than any other type of filter made.

Adjusts its own brakes—New Truck Size brakes adjust themselves—automatically.

Guards its own muffler—Ford mufflers are double-wrapped and aluminumized to last three times as long as ordinary mufflers.

Protects its own body—All vital underbody parts are specially processed to resist rust and corrosion, even to galvanizing the body panels beneath the doors.

Takes care of its own finish—Just wash and clean Ford's new Diamond Lustrite Finish and it continues to glisten like new. It never needs waxing.

Only FORD is beautifully built to take care of itself

On Saturday, Jan. 21, Hereford will become the site of the annual Livestock Judging Contest.

Both 4-H and F. F. A boys will participate. Invitations and rules for the contest were mailed to 91 F. F. A. Chapters throughout Area I. This is the first year that the contest has been open to the entire area.

The Hereford contest is the first to take place in the area. The top three teams will receive banners.

Something new this year is that all four members of the team can participate and the scores of the top three will be used in scoring.

Until this year the three team members had to be stated while the fourth was the alternate.

AUSTIN HIGHLIGHTS

Motorists To See Red At Hiway Construction Sites

BY VERN SANFORD
AUSTIN—Texas motorists soon will be "seeing red" when they approach highway construction projects.

State Highway Department announced that the signalmen who direct traffic around construction projects will start wearing fluorescent red, nylon vests and waving flags of the same bright material. Use of the new material has been adopted as an additional safety measure since it will be more visible, day and night. At night, flares will be used also.

Same signals will be used by the flagmen. Flag-holding arm fully extended horizontally means "stop." Movement of the flagman's free arm means "Proceed."

Texans have until January 31 to pay the poll tax that will enable them to vote in 1961 elections. Despite 1961's being an off-year, a major election will be held this year. U. S. Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson ended his 12-year career in the Senate by submitting his resignation to Gov. Price Daniel on the opening day of Congress.

Daniel appointed Will A. M. Blakley of Dallas to serve until a successor is elected this spring. A special election to fill the office for the remainder of the term will be held April 4. If no candidate receives a majority in the first election, a run-off will be held from 30 to 40 days later.

In the last special senatorial election in April, 1957, there were 23 candidates. Same sort of crowded field is expected this year with enough activity to give every poll tax payer his $1.75 worth.

Tuesday, January 17, Gov. Price Daniel and Lt. Gov. Ben Ramsey will be inaugurated. Since it is a third term for Governor Daniel and a sixth for Lieutenant Governor Ramsey, it will be "one of the simplest inaugurations in years," according to the Governor's office. No parade is planned. Former Dist. Judge Thomas C. Ferguson of Burnet has been named chairman of the State Insurance Board by Governor Daniel. Ferguson succeeds another

B Team Falls To Coffey And Crew

BY WAIN MILLER
BRAND SPORTS WRITER

The Hereford Bees advanced to the semi-finals in the annual Dimmitt Tournament to find themselves pitted against the mighty Dimmitt Bobcat varsity squad Saturday afternoon. The Herd was overpowered by the Bobcats by the score of 82-54. Dimmitt advanced to the finals Saturday night and downed the Hereford varsity by the score of 57-59.

Dimmitt's Junior Coffey led the Bobcats offensively as he ripped the cords for 32 points. Jerry Curtisinger led the Herd with 14 points, while Lynton Allred sank 11.

Curtisinger and Virgil Strange claimed a majority of the rebounds for the Herd, but they had their hands full trying to control the evasive Junior Coffey.

Mack Cansler and Lynton Allred played an outstanding defensive game, and moved the ball well for the Whitefaces. Coffey shuffled in eight points for the Bobcats to give them an 8-0 lead with only 1:40 elapsed in the first quarter, while Kelton Cates added another field goal to make it 10-0.

Virgil Strange finally broke the ice for the Herd with a free throw. Mack Cansler sank the Herd's first field goal to make it 10-3 with 5:20 remaining in the first quarter. Curtisinger tossed in four, while Lynton Allred and Mack Cansler both sank two-pointers during the last five minutes. Hereford entered the second quarter trailing by only six points as the score was 19-13.

Randy Dowell hit a pair of field goals, while Strange, Allred, and Cansler all made two points in the second quarter. Virgil Strange tossed in a free throw with two seconds left in the first half to make the score 39-24. Michael Calvert and Junior Coffey, each netted eight points to tack nine points on to the Bobcat stronghold in the second quarter.

The Dimmitt quintet poured on more of the same in the third quarter to set the score at 63-33 entering the final round. Jerry Curtisinger added six and Lynton Allred four for the tiring Herd during the quarter. The Bobcat's starting five was replaced late in the third quarter. Coffey netted a total of 14 points in the period before being replaced.

Hereford netted 16 points in the final round. Jerry Curtisinger, and Strange scored four apiece, as Mickey Stevens and Allred hit for three each. Randy Dowell scored one from the corner with 2:10 remaining before fouling out in the fourth quarter.

Although the Herd put up a good showing against the Bobcats, they just couldn't contain the 6-11 senior by the name of Junior Coffey. The Dimmitt squad outdistanced Hereford by the final score of 82-54.

Seeking more vigorous action, the protesting Protestants appealed to the State Board.

Texas Supreme Court is considering three related cases involving whether a certain gas drilling process steps on neighboring property owners' toes.

Also at issue is whether the decision can be made in the Courts or by the Railroad Commission.

In all three suits, Delhi-Taylor Oil Corporation charges that operators using the sandfracturing process in drilling are removing gas from beyond the limits of their lease. In sand fracturing, acids and liquids are forced into the ground to open crevices to permit escape of the gas.

SHORT SNORTS - Bexar County (San Antonio) Dist. Atty. Charles Lieck, Jr. has taken issue with the State Liquor Control Board on its new regulations governing private clubs. In a letter to the Liquor Board, Lieck was particularly critical of the regulation that permits board agents or peace officers to inspect a private club without a search warrant.

Threading Yarn Avoid difficulty of threading a needle with heavy yarn by rolling a few of the fibers at one side of the yarn to a point, instead of trying to roll the end. Insert the small portion of yarn into the needle eye, after which the main strand can be pulled through.

Little Theatre Slates Western

A bad man plays cupid in the first Western to be presented by Amarillo Little Theatre Feb. 14.

"The Bad Man," which ran almost a year on Broadway, will be directed by Charles Whittington. Whittington, who heads the ALT Dramateen program, recently starred in the ALT version of "The Man Who Came To Dinner."

Whittington chose to direct "The Bad Man" to add variety to Amarillo's community theater season. Plays previously offered this year have included a musical and a courtroom drama.

Of "The Bad Man" Whittington believes "it is one of the few Westerns to be acclaimed as top theater. Hollywood has turned out some presentable Westerns, but the successful Western on Broadway is rare."

The Bad Man of the play is Pancho Lopez, a modern Pancho Villa or bandit from south of the border, who involves himself in a love triangle. Lopez first approaches the Gilbert Jones ranch near the Texas border to steal cattle. However, he meets the beautiful Lucia, wife of the neighbor in a rancher, and decides to steal a her too.

Lucia is already married to the wrong man, Morgan Pell. Lopez discovers that Lucia and Gilbert are in love with each other and have been for years.

With the gentleman bandit's gesture, Lopez gives Lucia up to Gilbert. In addition, he not only returns the cattle he has stolen.

Little Theatre Slates Western

A bad man plays cupid in the first Western to be presented by Amarillo Little Theatre Feb. 14.

"The Bad Man," which ran almost a year on Broadway, will be directed by Charles Whittington. Whittington, who heads the ALT Dramateen program, recently starred in the ALT version of "The Man Who Came To Dinner."

Whittington chose to direct "The Bad Man" to add variety to Amarillo's community theater season. Plays previously offered this year have included a musical and a courtroom drama.

Of "The Bad Man" Whittington believes "it is one of the few Westerns to be acclaimed as top theater. Hollywood has turned out some presentable Westerns, but the successful Western on Broadway is rare."

The Bad Man of the play is Pancho Lopez, a modern Pancho Villa or bandit from south of the border, who involves himself in a love triangle. Lopez first approaches the Gilbert Jones ranch near the Texas border to steal cattle. However, he meets the beautiful Lucia, wife of the neighbor in a rancher, and decides to steal a her too.

Lucia is already married to the wrong man, Morgan Pell. Lopez discovers that Lucia and Gilbert are in love with each other and have been for years.

With the gentleman bandit's gesture, Lopez gives Lucia up to Gilbert. In addition, he not only returns the cattle he has stolen.

What's The Weather?

This is a New Year and only God knows how much of good or bad will blow our way. The weather vane knows no difference between the points of the compass. Her job is to look straight ahead into whatever winds that blow... and the more severe the wind pressure the greater her accuracy. That's our lesson. God also tries us by pushing strong winds into our face, by laying blocks in our path and by shoving temptations before us. Then let us face up to His test. This way He finds out those who love Him; those who seek Heaven; and those who support His Church. Like the weather bird... resign your will to God.

Dimmitt Wins 57-50 Title Game From Herd

BY WAIN MILLER
BRAND SPORTS WRITER
The Dimmitt Bobcats handed the Hereford Whitefaces a 57-50 ticket to second place in the finals of the Dimmitt Annual Tourney played Saturday night. After the Whitefaces trailed by as little as three points late in the fourth quarter, the Bobcats pulled away to win before an overflow crowd at the Dimmitt gymnasium. Hereford earned the right to compete in the finals after defeating Friona 72-36 and downing the Canyon Eagles 79-52 Saturday afternoon. Dimmitt defeated Vega and then downed the Hereford Bees to enter the finals against the Whitefaces. Whitefaces Dennis Hodges and Carl Miller were named as members of the all-tournament quintet for their outstanding efforts during the three-day meet. Other members included Junior Coffey and Michael Calvert, both of Dimmitt, and Wayne Rutherford of Canyon. Carl Miller tipped in a rebound to set the score at 48-51 with 2:15 remaining in the final round. This set the screaming crowd on its feet in an exciting finish which has become standard in Hereford-Dimmitt clashes. Hereford led 2-0, 8-6, and 25-23 during the game. The score was tied up at 4, 6, 25, and 31. Neither team gained more than a ten-point lead during the tense duel. The over-anxious Whitefaces were charged with fouls in the last few seconds and Dimmitt made good six straight free throws to give them their final seven-point lead. Hereford's Charlie Thomas played an outstanding game, both on defense and offense, as he ripped the cords for 15 points. Carl Miller accounted for 14 of the Herd's points. Big Junior Coffey racked up 26 points for the victors. Carl Miller opened up the game's scoring with a two-pointer with 40 seconds gone. Jim Ratcliff tied it up with one minute elapsed. Coffey sank a field goal and then Thomas quickly tied it up with 6:30 remaining in the first quarter. Charles Burrus and Dennis Hodges canned two points each to give the Herd an 8-6 advantage with five minutes left. Coffey netted six fast points and Kelton Cates scored two before Thomas broke through to score a lay-up on Hereford's behalf. Coffey converted two free throws as the Herd lagged 16-10 at the end of the first quarter. The Whitefaces made up for three points of their deficit during the second quarter of play. Hodges canned one with 6:30 left in the first half. Coffey made three points, and then Thomas scored a pair of field goals in quick succession. Coffey crammed in a lay-up on a fast break before Miller and Hodges added two-pointers with 1:05 remaining. Cates sank a long one from the corner making it 23-20 at the half. After a musical interlude on behalf of the March of Dimes featuring the cha-cha-cha girls and the Dimmitt Glamorettes, a twirling group, the Whitefaces came back to lead with the score at 25-23 and tie the score up at 31-all during the fast-moving third quarter. Charlie Thomas opened up the third stanza by scoring a field goal, and then making good two free throws to claim the 25-23 lead for Hereford with 6:40 remaining. Coffey tied it up only ten seconds later, and Dimmitt went on to regain a four point advantage before Miller sank one from underneath the basket with 4:56 left. Jim Ratcliff sank a bonus shot for the Bobcats before Jackie Oldham tossed in a two-pointer from the corner. Coffey made good a free shot, and then the Herd's Carl Miller tied it up with one for charity

With one second left, Calvert launched a shot from mid-court to make it 43-33 at the close of the third quarter. Sparked by Thomas Coffman and Carl Miller's outstanding job of claiming the rebounds for the Herd, the Faces staged a brisk come-back in the fourth and final round. Thomas popped the net with only 30 seconds gone in the final period. Calvert hit a long two-pointer for Dimmitt. Hodges scored three points and Miller tipped in a rebound to make the score 40-47 with 4:31 left in the game. Ronnie Caster plunked in four straight charity tosses for the Whitefaces. Coffman tipped in a rebound with 3:12 to go making it 46-49. Ratcliff claimed two free shots, but Miller tipped in another rebound setting the score at 48-51 with only 2:10 to go.

Junior Coffey was awarded two free shots which he made good with 1:26 left as Dennis Hodges left the game by way of the foul route. Caster converted two more free throws and the score stood 50-52 with 1:31. Kent Hance tossed in two free shots to make it 54-50. Dimmitt began to stall, as Hereford tried desperately to gain control of the ball with only seconds remaining. Following a mad scramble for the ball at mid-court, Cates was finally awarded a n o t h e r bonus shot for Dimmitt with 43 seconds to be played and Hereford trailing 50-55. Kent Hance and Gene Bradley made unsuccessful attempts from the free throw line before Ratcliff made good his two charities from the foul line to set the final score at 57-50.
