March Of Dimes Campaign Gets Underway On Saturday

The month-long New March Of Dimes Drive will begin in

Around Town

This should be a decisive year for Hereford. With all public facilities, such as schools, hospital, parks and community center, in good shape, this is the year to build Hereford. Already some new businesses are planning to enter the Hereford market and the industrial committee of the Chamber of Commerce is on the verge of attracting some major industries. This also could be the year that a sugar beet refinery is assured for the area.

Hereford Kiwanis Club is to meet at the Country Club on Thursday, Jan. 5, at 7:30 p.m. to install its new officers. During the meeting, the second annual "Workhorse Award" will be given to the Kiwanian who has shown the most outstanding service to his club during the past year. Bill Dameron won the first workhorse award.

Larry Summers is walking slowly this week after getting his back out of line. Seems he found out, to his sorrow and discomfort, that traveling caliche in his driveway is harder work than taking coats off hangers.

"Project: Abolition," a film dealing with Communist tactics in free countries, will be shown in the high school auditorium at 8 p.m. Tuesday, Jan. 10. The free show is being sponsored by the American Legion Post, which urges everyone to attend.

County Commissioners have detached Markham Waddill from the county tax office to work fulltime on property valuation. Miss Billie Lance, who previously worked at the Deaf Smith County Gin, has gone to work in the tax office.

The Commissioners also heard a report from County Judge Zimmerman about the way surplus food commodities are distributed in Swisher County. They took no action following the report.

It is a remote, but conceivable, possibility that the finals in the Dimmitt basketball tournament this weekend could have the Hereford varsity match ed

Deposits in Hereford banks and savings institutions continued in upward spirals during 1960, according to statements of conditions released this week. Total increase in two banks and two savings institutions amounted to $723,837.19. Deposits in the four combined for a new high in Deaf Smith County for a single year with a total of $17,936,858.61. Total deposits for 1959 were $17,023,021.42, and for 1958, $16,353,439.85.

Funeral Tuesday For Jim Bookout

Funeral services for James C. Bookout, 51, of 124 Ave. B, were conducted in the First Methodist Church of Hereford at 3 p.m. Tuesday, Jan. 3. The Rev. Herschel Thurston, pastor, conducted the services. Mr. Bookout died in his home at 9 a.m. Monday, Jan. 2, after a short illness. He was born March 2, 1909, in Sherman, and married Miss Opal Hayes Nov. 25, 1933, in Dalhart. They moved to Deaf Smith County in 1941 from Hartley. Mr. Bookout had been engaged in the real estate business for several years. He was a member of the First Methodist Church.

Hereford Police Adds Patrolman

James E. Neal, 24, 834 Blevins, this week joined Hereford Police Department as a patrolman. Neal has been a traffic officer with Amarillo Police Department since 1957. He and his wife, Coma Neal, have three children. Neal is a graduate of Amarillo High School, and is originally from Groom. His duties with Hereford Police Department became effective on Jan. 1.

Hereford Varsity, B Teams Enter Dimmitt Tournament

Two Hereford High School basketball teams, the varsity and the B squad, will play in the Dimmitt Invitational tournament Thursday, Friday and Saturday. The varsity will play in the first game at 6 p.m. will be Nazareth and Canyon. Hereford will play Friona at 7:20 p.m. Friday. Winners of the Dimmitt-Vega and Dimmitt B-Hereford B clashes will meet at 3:25 p.m. Saturday. Winners of the Nazareth-Canyon and Hereford-Friona games will play at 2:05 p.m. Saturday.

In the consolation bracket, first round losers in the Dimmitt-Vega and Dimmitt B-Hereford B will meet at 2:30 p.m. Friday. Losers in the Nazareth-Canyon and Friona-Hereford games will meet at 12:45 p.m. Saturday. The finals will be played at 8:50 p.m. Saturday. Consolation finals are slated for 6:15 p.m. Saturday. Dimmitt and Hereford are favored to meet in the tourney finals Saturday night. Hereford took an easy, 75-24, victory over Friona in its season opener. It also has two victories over Canyon and has split with Dimmitt in a home-and-home duel. The Hereford B team has two victories over the Dimmitt reserves this year and should advance into the second round against the Dimmitt varsity.

Included in the Dimmitt tourney will be an eight-team girls' basketball bracket, featuring Nazareth, Canyon, Muleshoe, Vega and two teams each from Dimmitt and Friona. Dimmitt and Friona are favored to reach the finals in the girls' bracket.

This is scheduled to be the last action for Hereford until its debut in conference action on Friday, Jan. 13, when it goes to Phillips.

On Tuesday, Jan. 17, the

A $220,000 bond issue has been requested by the Hereford City Commission for an extensive paving and re-surfacing program in the city. Meeting Tuesday night, the Commissioners unanimously decided that the bond issue was a vital necessity in order to preserve existing paving and hard-surface a number of gaps. Date for the bond election will be decided later, after all necessary papers have been drawn up.

Included in the plans are: widening of Grand Avenue from 25 Mile Avenue to Avenue F. This portion of Grand Avenue is strip paved only and would be widened to 39 feet;

Union Avenue would have the present brick paving removed from Avenue B to Major Street and repaved with hot mix;

Intersections to be repaired include Avenue F and Union, Sunset and Plains and Avenue K;

Grand Avenue also would be paved on the north half from Avenue G to Avenue H;

Thirteenth Street from the Irving-Brevard alley to Brevard would be paved;

Parking lot at the Community Center would be paved;

Third Street would be widened to 50 feet from Schley east to Park Avenue with hot mix paving.

In addition to all these, a large number of streets in town would get a single seal-coat treatment and another large group would receive a double seal-coat treatment.

City Manager Dan Bayne expressed that most of the city streets needed seal-coating within three to five years after being constructed.

Nine Boxers In Borger Gloves

Nine Hereford boxers are scheduled to enter the Borger Golden Gloves Tournament, which began Wednesday night and will continue through Thursday and Saturday nights.

The tourney is one of the events which precede the annual Regional Golden Gloves Tournament in Amarillo. Hereford Golden Gloves Tournament will be held in Deaf Smith County Bull Barn on nights of Jan. 9-10.

Matches in the Borger meet will begin at 8 p.m. each night. Hereford boxers scheduled to enter include Donny Lesly, 145 pounds, Euel Perry, 175, Roy Rogers, heavyweight, Leon Vogler, 175, Johnny Welty, 155, Wa Dee Hudson, 135, Zeke Clements, 147, Ross Bond, 155, and Elmer Clements, 175.

Local boxers are coached by Don McNeese of Hereford.

County Request For New Fire Contract Denied

City Commissioners Tuesday night rejected any new proposal for a fire protection contract with Deaf Smith County. Appearing at the request of the County Commission, County Judge Don Zimmerman told the City Commission that the county felt a new contract might be desirable.

For the past four years, the city volunteer fire department has furnished fire protection outside the city under one-year contracts.

Since the first year, the county has paid a percentage of the cost of maintaining the city fire department. Cost has been approximately $4,000 per year. The county pays a portion of the salary of the fire marshal, depreciation on one truck and insurance costs, as well as other costs of the department.

The present contract is to expire Feb. 17. Zimmerman told the city officials that the county should not have to share cost of depreciation or insurance.

The county had not expressed any definite figure which it felt would be more satisfactory.

In other action, the city changed the zoning for 807 East Fourth Street from residential to D-restricted, which would allow local retail establishments. The change had been recommended by the city's zoning commission.

City manager Dudley Bayne said the new budget was being prepared and would be ready next month.

Federal Land Bank Lowers Its Interest Rates

Federal Land Bank of Houston board of directors has approved a reduction of half of one per cent in the interest rate which the bank will charge on its new loans effective Jan. 1, according to Woodrow Wilson, manager of the Federal Land Bank Association of Hereford.

Land Bank loans in this area are made and serviced through the Federal Land Bank Association of Hereford, which serves Deaf Smith County and the northeast quarter of Parker County. There are 325 loans in force for about $4,200,000 in this locality.

In making the announcement, Hal Weatherford, president of the Houston bank, said the board also authorized a reduction.

A LARGE PICTURE of the original Deaf Smith County courthouse was presented Tuesday to the County. The C. R. Smith family presented the picture. The building was moved from La Plata to Hereford when the county seal was changed, was moved in 1910 to the north side of Fourth Street when the new courthouse was built and now serves as a Catholic church building at the Labor Camp. County Judge Don Zimmerman accepted the presentation. (Staff Photo)

Bowling's Rapid Growing Pains How Can I? Lead To A Nation-Wide Circuit

By BARNEY PEYSER
KANSAS CITY (AP) — Tossing six strikes in a row on the bowling alley isn't too unusual, but when you collect $40,000 for doing it — that's another story. The feat was accomplished on a television show by Frank Clause of Old Forge, Pa. It put the ancient art of kegling into the big money spotlight of sport. Contestants on the show are given nine throws and are paid off if they hit six consecutive strikes.

Bowling has come a long way since the first Egyptian kegler threw a stone at a stick. The transition from the corner pool hall category to the plush bowling palaces of today has been taking place for several years. Parallel with the increase in participation is the growth of commercial bowling establishments. From four and six alley houses frequently by cigar smoking males, they have become huge, gaily decorated, well-lighted sports emporiums. They even provide, in many cases, baby sitting service and playrooms, so mama can bowl at her leisure. Many modern establishments have up to 40 or more alleys on a single floor. The American Bowling Congress, governing body of the game, has always pointed with pride that bowling ranked near the top as a participant sport. But that's where it stopped. Millions of men carted their paraphernalia once or twice a week to the bowling alley, rolled in a league, went home and forgot it until the next trip. Today they watch with interest what the stars are doing in far-off places.

troit, Birmingham and Miami. About 300 top bowlers were on a draft list and all that remains is for the sponsoring cities to sign up their choices. It is planned to build bowling stadiums with comfortable seats in horseshoe order, and scoreboards to show exactly what is happening. The big question is possible attendance. Will people pay $2 or $3 for tickets to see bowlers they formerly watched free? They will "without a doubt," says Commissioner Charles, who is busy lining things up for the new look in bowling.

Q. How can I make freshly-laundered slip covers fit more smoothly when replaced on furniture?
A. Replace the covers while they are still slightly damp. They'll smooth out and fit better than if ironed. Only the ruffles and pleats need a bit of touching up. Put a towel between the cover and furniture when you're pressing the edges of a freshly-laundered slip cover.
Q. How can I make the slicing of butter or margarine into neat squares much easier?
A. Fold the paper in which the butter comes over the blade of a knife, and cut with this. It will make a smooth slice and the butter will not cling or stick to the knife.
Q. How can I prepare my thread for easier and more efficient quilting?
A. Immerse an entire spool of your thread in hot paraffin, and let remain about five minutes. This will wax all the thread on the spool, and, since the thread will not then knot, you can make a better job of your quilting.

Red China Selling Art At Cut Rate

BY ROY ESSOYAN
ADVANCE HONG KONG (AP) — The Chinese Communists are trying to cash in on 2,000 years of Chinese art. It's good propaganda and it provides much-needed foreign exchange.

Through outlets in Hong Kong and other neutral points, the Communists are selling — at bargain basement prices — reproductions of ancient masterpieces, paintings, sketches and woodcuts as well as clay and porcelain figures and pottery.

Quality is Good
You can buy a contemporary woodcut for the equivalent of 10 American cents. Reproductions of thousand-year-old masterpieces sell for as much as $300.

Connoisseurs here say the quality of the reproductions of ancient masterpieces is excellent.

The contemporary works are painstaking but uninspired. Most of them are mass-produced and carry a propaganda message.

Ancient and modern masterpieces are reproduced by a Chinese woodblock process that dates back 400 years. Some 300 blocks are used for the average reproduction. A large classical painting may need as many as 1,000 woodblocks. One 10-foot long scroll took three years to complete.

Most of the contemporary art glorifies life under the Communists, industry, agriculture and water conservation are important themes and the workers are usually shown smiling, laughing or cheering.

Even art that predates the Communist revolution is made to serve Communist purposes.

Pre-revolutionary paintings most widely circulated today usually depict ragged Chinese peasants with woe-begone expressions. The captions explain that these are typical of life "under the reactionary rule before liberation."

Even the masterpieces are made to serve communism. Crabs were a favorite theme of Chi Pai-Shih, who is regarded as one of the top exponents of traditional Chinese painting. A Communist catalogue of his works says Chi liked to paint crabs because they walk sideways, "like the devious ways of China's reactionary rulers."

Factory Art
Most of the reproductions are produced in cultural factories or collectives. Few professional artists work alone, at home, and printers studies the art work to be reproduced. The artists trade the required number of copies, and the engravers and printers make the blocks and reproduce the painting.

The wood-block system is used because it is considered particularly adaptable to the brush strokes typical of Chinese art.

Leonard Homel, a bowling alley proprietor from Culver City, Calif., is president of the league. J. Curtis Sanford, wealthy Dallas real estate operator, is a vice president and Dick Charles, also Dallas, recently was appointed commissioner.

The league would be represented by a dozen teams. Cities include Los Angeles, Fort Worth, Dallas, San Antonio, Kansas City, Omaha, Minneapolis-St. Paul, Chicago, New York, Detroit, Birmingham and Miami. About 300 top bowlers were on a draft list and all that remains is for the sponsoring cities to sign up their choices. It is planned to build bowling stadiums with comfortable seats in horseshoe order, and scoreboards to show exactly what is happening.

The big question is possible attendance. Will people pay $2 or $3 for tickets to see bowlers they formerly watched free? They will "without a doubt," says Commissioner Charles, who is busy lining things up for the new look in bowling.

Immerse an entire spool of your thread in hot paraffin, and let remain about five minutes. This will wax all the thread on the spool, and, since the thread will not then knot, you can make a better job of your quilting.

The armadillo, which feeds on insects, may eat 40,000 ants at a sitting.

Immerse an entire spool of your thread in hot paraffin, and let remain about five minutes. This will wax all the thread on the spool, and, since the thread will not then knot, you can make a better job of your quilting.

Korean Girl's Diary Hits Japanese Best Seller List

TOKYO (AP) — The diary of a 10-year-old Korean orphan girl who wrote of the tragedy that stalked her family in a Japanese coal mining town has become a best seller. "Nanchan" (Second Brother) has also been made into a hit movie, a stage play and radio drama, and has outsold the Japanese translation of "The Diary of Anne Frank." Seven years ago, Sueko Yasumoto, now 17, began to write her story. But not until a year ago was it published by the Kobunsha Co. after gathering dust for many years. More than a half million copies have been snapped up. The diary centers around Sueko's brother, Takaichi, the third of four children of immigrant parents who came to Japan's southern island of Kyushu from the Kusan area of Korea. The mother died when Sueko was three, the father when she was 10. The older brother fell ill of overwork in a distant coal mine and an older sister had to take work away from home as a servant for $4 a month. Seven weeks after the father's death Sueko wrote: "My dream is a reunion of my sisters and brothers. How happy I would be if we could live together again even in a pigsty." The diary, written in a plaintive juvenile style, tells of the harsh life Sueko and her remaining brother had to face alone. But it is filled with the warmth of friends who tried to help a Japanese school teacher who provided Sueko pocket money on a school excursion, a principal's wife who gave her a dress and a classmate who invited her to a birthday party and gave her gifts. Sueko, like Anne Frank, never lost her spirit of compassion. When a savage typhoon struck Japan in 1953 she sorrowed for the thousands who died or lost homes. "Compared with these people we are very fortunate to still have a house... even if our food is mostly barley." The closing lines were almost prophetic. She said that although times were hard, "I do believe a bright light will shine upon us four some day." It did. Royalties from selling "Nanchan" sales have made it possible for Sueko to build a small two-storyed house in Kobe where the older brother and sister have rejoined the two younger children.

Medicine Is A Woman's Career

BY JOHN H. LANNAN

BOSTON — Medicine, according to the physician daughter of Canada's Governor General, is one of the fields open to women in which they really do have equal opportunities with men.

Dr. Therese Vanier (pronounced "vahn-yay"), a girl brought up in Canadian diplomatic circles at home and abroad, chose the field because "I just thought I'd like to do it."

"Medicine is a good career for a woman," says the stately, prematurely grey doctor, "provided a girl knows what she wants. You've got to realize it's going to take most of your energy for the next five or six years, though."

...And marriage and medicine do mix, she says. "I've known lots of girls who married during their training, but they were the exception. You've got to be tough to do it, both mentally and physically."

Dr. Vanier, now 37, didn't try to mix them. She took a one-way path, entering medical school at the University of Paris. Then, she transferred to Cambridge University in England where she was one of the first women ever awarded a degree at a Cambridge convocation. Other women had won degrees there but they were not awarded at all-university convocations.

She took her medical residency in pediatrics, choosing the field because:

"I get a great kick out of working with children. They're very amusing little personalities and they put up no false front. Besides, there's an optimistic side to it. An old boss of mine used to say that no matter what you do, 90 per cent of the children you treat are going to get better anyway."

Now at Boston City Hospital after service in English institutions, she's taking a year of special work in hematology (blood studies).

Jack Johnson was called into the air search Monday for the four airman who lost their lives in New Mexico sand dunes Southwest of Fort Sumner last Wednesday. He was a close friend of D. C. Looney ofovina, one of the occupants of the plane.

Dr. Vanier lives at the hospital: "It's much easier that way, especially if I want to work in the evening as I often do."

Her day starts at 8:30 a. m., rather than the 9:30 a. m. customary in England where she was attached to the Great Oymond Street Hospital, a children's institution.

Dr. Vanier says she has no desire to go into private practice. "I'm too used to hospitals. I'd probably forget to send out bills or something and end up in bankruptcy court."

The doctor, the only daughter of Maj. Gen. and Mrs. George Vanier, has four brothers.

One is a Trappist monk in Canada; another is an artist in France; a third is studying philosophy in Portugal and the youngest is at the University of Ottawa.

"It's nice having them spread around so," Dr. Vanier says, "especially if you like to travel as I do."

REP. WALTER ROGERS' WRITES:

Purpose Of Rules Committee

TO THE PEOPLE OF THE 18TH DISTRICT:

This Newsletter will be a brief history of the root of the Rules Committee of the House of Representatives, its purposes, and the need for its continuation as presently constituted. Some would destroy the Rules Committee, others would change its personnel and procedures; while others would undertake to purge certain Members of that Committee with whom they disagree.

Hence, in view of the publicity on this subject, I felt that the people ought to know the true facts involved.

The House of Representatives operates through committees. These are called Standing Committees and are listed in the Rules of the House. These Committees could be called the permanent committees. Other committees are Select Committees and Conference Committees, but these are temporary in nature and have no permanent standing.

Each of these Standing Committees has jurisdiction over specifically documented subject matter in legislation. The bills introduced in the Congress by the Members on different subject matters are assigned by the Speaker to the respective committee, having jurisdiction of that subject matter.

These bills are considered by that committee and, if approved, are referred to the House of Representatives with the recommendation that the bill become law. However, instead of going directly to the House of Representatives, these bills must first pass through the Rules Committee and obtain approval by that Committee for hearing before the House of Representatives. In other words, most bills are not considered by the House of Representatives unless they pass through the Rules Committee. The Rules Committee presently consists of 12 Members—8 Democrats and 4 Republicans. If all Members are present and voting, a bill, in order to receive approval to be debated before the House, must receive at least 7 votes.

If a bill receives only 6 votes for it and there are 6 against it, the motion to report the bill fails. During recent years on several highly controversial measures, the division in the Rules Committee has been a tie of 6 and 6. This meant that the highly controversial legislation could not receive a rule to be debated before the House. This is what is causing the big hue and cry to change the Rules Committee or the Rules of the House.

It is the cause of the caustic and bitter criticism that has been directed against Congressman Howard Smith of Virginia and Congressman William Colmer of Mississippi—unfair and unjust criticism, in my opinion, but nevertheless, criticism that is forming the basis of the battle against the Rules Committee.

The Rules Committee came into existence in 1789 as a Select Committee. It became a Standing Committee in 1880 and has had that status since. In 1858 the Speaker of the House was made a Member of the Rules Committee. This situation existed until 1910, at which time a prohibition against the Speaker serving on the Committee was adopted. However, this prohibition was done away with in 1946. The Speaker has not served on the Committee although some Members have proposed that such a rule be adopted. In the opinion of the writer, the Rules Committee, as presently constituted, is necessary for the proper dispatch of the business of the House of Representatives.

It cannot and does not thwart the majority rule of the House. There are 4 ways of bringing a bill before the House of Representatives. The 1st is through the Rules Committee; the 2nd is by a suspension of the rules which requires a 2/3 majority; the 3rd is by a discharge petition which, if signed by a majority of the House of Representatives, will discharge the Committee in which the bill is pending and make the bill a privileged matter before the House; the 4th method would be by following the usual procedures under the rules of the House on Calendar Wednesday. Calendar Wednesday is usually dispensed with because of the press of other business. This is usually done by unanimous consent, but if an objection is interposed, a 2/3 vote on the motion can dispense with Calendar Wednesday.

The United States is a great country, but a large country with many varied and diversified interests. The National Congress is supposed to be representative of all of those several interests. It is supposed to pass laws that are fair and just to all of the people. Just as there must be laws for all of the people to live by fairness and justice to each other, the law-making body itself must have rules and regulations in order to properly conduct its business.

That is the primary reason for the Committee on Rules in the 1st place, its jurisdiction including the "a" the rules, joint rules and order of business of the House.

Good government requires a sharp division of opinion, sound presentation and expression of all facets of the problem or issue involved and a thorough screening of the proposed final result. This is the process that has made this country great, that has made it strong and will keep it strong.

Any policy or process of permitting a simple majority to shove through any and all kinds of laws on emotional dictates or other pressures would soon result in the destruction of any government. There is no doubt that the Rules Committee has on occasion created frustration in the minds of those who would like to see their pet bill or project sail through unopposed.

But it must be remembered that the present sharp division of the Rules Committee constitutes an excellent safeguard against impractical or inadvisable success by advocates of any extreme philosophy. It assures consideration for the will of the minority, whichever party that might be. The secret of good government is the balance that is struck in the final product of law after full, complete and exhaustive consideration and debate of the issues and problems involved. Some call it compromise; others call it the area of agreement between the many sides represented. But to me it is the balance that insures the justice guaranteed under our Constitution to all individuals.

The Rules Committee in the House of Representatives, as presently constituted is, in my opinion, the balance wheel that can preserve the good health of our government.

each crumb

... is precious but who among us needs the whole loaf?
Bread is vital but perhaps we should NOT live only to eat.
We are invited to break the bread as Jesus broke it and the Great Baker stored the earth with plenty for all. Woe be it to the selfish hand who holds the knife and cuts the slices thin. We are told to beware of him who withholds corn, for the people shall curse him. Our body is of the earth and must be fed from the earth.
But the soul is of Heaven and must be fed with Heavenly bread. Then let us worship in church this week and pray to God to, "Give us this day our daily bread."

Expansion Program Is Announced By Company

"To keep electrically ahead of the continuing growth of its 5,000 square mile service area, Southwestern Public Service Company will invest more than $22,000,000 in construction and new equipment in 1961," it has been announced by A. R. Watson, executive vice president and general manager of the electric light and power company.

Watson added that the company's five year construction and improvement budget anticipates a new equipment investment of $117,000,000 between now and 1965. He also pointed out that the $117,000,000 expansion figure equals the total amount that the company had invested in plant and equipment less than 10 years ago, and adds up to more than 45 per cent of the present day investment in plant and equipment of nearly $260,000,000.

Looking at the national picture in the electric light and power industry, Watson pointed out that, contrary to a number of "scare" rumors that were prevalent during 1960, the United States had added more electric generating capability this last year than had Russia.

"We frequently heard during 1960, usually from advocates of socialized government power, that Russia was overtaking the United States in the generation of electric power. The fact of the matter is that the United States has more than 2 1/2 times as much generating capability as Russia, and we increased our lead in 1960," he said.

Electric service took another giant stride in 1960 to bulwark its claim as the biggest bargain in the family budget. Southwestern's average rate for a residential kilowatt-hour dropped to 2.96 cents in 1960, as compared to 3.05 cents in 1959. The reduction in the last 10 years in the average cost of a residential kilowatt-hour to a Southwestern customer is 21.49 per cent. Only 1.3 cents of each dollar spent by American families goes for electric service, less than the ladies spend for cosmetics.

"Our customers naturally find their bills for electric service higher than they were 10 years ago, because they are using, on the average, 117 per cent more electric service than they did in 1951. A major factor in this increased use, in addition to the many services electricity performs, has been the fact that the unit cost has lowered in the face of increasing prices for everything else, including the things we must use to make the power," Watson pointed out.

Southwestern, along with 10 other investor-owned electric companies in Texas, continues its research activities in atomic energy, through the program of the Texas Atomic Energy Research Foundation.

"Present day atomic plants don't come close to the economy of the modern fuel-powered generating stations we are using in our area. What's more, we have the advantage of a plentiful, although not inexhaustible, natural gas fuel supply. This gives us the opportunity for fusion research in atomic power which offers the possibility that ordinary sea water, which is certainly inexhaustible, would provide the fuel for electric generation," Watson said.

The nation's investor-owned electric companies paid nearly 2 1/2-billion dollars in federal, state and local taxes in 1960. In Southwestern's case, more than 24 cents of every dollar taken in is paid out in taxes.

"It is fortunate that the electric industry continued to grow in 1960, especially in the face of slowdowns in other business fields. The increased tax payments by the electric industry—more than 160-million dollars more than in 1959—helped strengthen our nation's defenses and contribute to other governmental services," Watson concluded.

ONE PROJECT in Southwestern Public Service Company's $22,000,000 improved program for 1961 will be continued work on Nichols Station, northeast of Amarillo. The generating capability of the plant is being doubled.

Farmers Must Prepare Social Security Return

This is the time for local farmers to prepare their social security tax return for reporting their employees for 1960, Hal Geldon, Manager of the Amarillo Social Security Office, has announced.
He added: "Farm wages are reported on a yearly basis. The report covering employees who worked in 1960 must be filed with the Director of Internal Revenue during January 1961."
The report must be filed for any employee who was paid $150 or more in cash wages during the year; or any individual who worked on 20 or more days in 1960 for cash wages figured on a time basis (for instance, by the hour, day, week, etc.) regardless of the total earnings for the year.
It is important that the employee's correct social security number be shown on the report, Geldon said.
There was a sharp increase in the number and quality of reports filed by area farmers last year. Geldon advised that correct and complete reporting helps guarantee that the employee receives full social security credit for the work he has done.

Tempest puts safety-minded performance in a gas-saving 4!
(Range of horsepower choices from 110 to 155)

Take a Tempest out on the highway and put it through its paces. This car is a whiz at moving into fast-stepping company on an expressway. Takes you from a standing start to a safe operating speed in seconds... gets you up a steep hill in high gear.

Run the Tempest over the roughest road you can find. It rides like the big ones because it's balanced! The engine's up front—the transmission's in the rear. And it's got independent suspension at all four wheels. Tires dig in firm on curves and turns. Full 15-inch wheels make car look big. Tires last. Brakes run cooler.

Before it hit the market, Tempest had 3,000,000 miles of testing by engineers, pro drivers and a team of teenagers. Its reliability checked out 100%. Owners have rolled up millions more. The only kick is the one it puts back in driving. Try it!
