Woman Pleads Guilty To DWI After Accident

A Hereford woman was sentenced to three days in the County Jail and fined $100 plus court costs Tuesday in District Court, Judge H. C. Williams presiding, as she entered a plea of guilty to charges of driving while intoxicated, first offense.

Charges were filed against Edith Pellman Landers, 48, 215 Ave. A, early Tuesday. She was arrested on the charge after her automobile collided with another vehicle about 10:15 p. m. Monday.

The accident occurred at the intersection of U. S. Highway 60 and 25 Mile Ave. as the 1958 four-door sedan driven by the woman allegedly ran a red light, and collided with the other automobile.

Both automobiles were heavily damaged as the two vehicles collided nearly head-on following the right turn made by the woman. Mrs. Landers was headed south on 25 Mile Ave.

The second vehicle involved was driven by Bernard E. Robertson, 52, 125 Ave. C. According to the police report he was headed east on Highway 60.

Damage to the Landers automobile was placed at approximately $150 with approximately $200 worth of damage being done to the Robertson vehicle, according to the accident report.

Mrs. Landers was also ticketed for failure to heed a red traffic light and collision by an improper turn.

TWO HEREFORD POLICE officers were promoted as Marshall Padgett (left) was named chief of police and Pete Cole was promoted to police sergeant Padgett was named to the police chief post at the City Commission meeting held here Monday. He had been acting chief since the resignation of Henry Aycock. Cole was promoted to police sergeant by the new police chief Tuesday. (Staff Photo)

Around Town

Off and on, on and off. We've heard so many rumors the last 24 hours about the Sugar Act that we aren't sure of what is or isn't true. We do know that Hereford and the Panhandle are in better shape now than they have ever been. The legislation passed by both houses of Congress, favoring the development of new sugar beet refineries, has been taken care of and whether he will veto it if they are given some larger allocations, they probably will have to come from the domestic production increase. Otherwise, all the other countries will cry and send their lobbyists back to Congress again with hands outstretched. The rumors by Monday, before the President made his comments, were as to which sugar refining company was going to build a plant here. So far as we know, there aren't any commitments, but there are some companies interested in the area.

The Hereford American Legion baseball team will have its final games this weekend. The Redbirds were to host Canyon Wednesday in a four-

Marshall Padgett Named Hereford's Police Chief

Police Sergeant Marshall Padgett was promoted to chief of police as the City Commission meeting in regular session approved a recommendation naming him to the post. Padgett has been acting chief of police since the resignation of Henry Aycock in May.

In considering applications for chief of police, the commissioners commented that they preferred to fill the post with a qualified officer from the Hereford Department if possible.

Seven applications had been received by the City Manager Dudley Bayne and each was reviewed by the Commission. It was pointed out by Bayne that another had been received, but was later withdrawn.

The appointment of Padgett was recommended by the city manager following the review of all applications.

It was pointed out by Bayne that the acting police chief had been with the department since April, 1961. He was a former sergeant of detectives with the Amarillo Police Department, serving there for 12 years.

Among his qualifications, the officer listed various police training schools which he has attended.

Padgett was promoted to police sergeant in May of this year to fill a post created in the 1962 budget. In that position he served as second in command of the department until Aycock resigned.

The action taken approving the police officer for the post was taken following his interview with the commissioners. The approval was unanimous.

In other business, the Commission approved the city manager's request to advertise for bids for the construction of a new storm sewer from south of the railroad right-of-way to Tierra Blanca Creek.

Jaycees Announce Contest For Queen

Contest rules for the 1962 Harvest Queen contest to be held during the annual Harvest Festival, July 22-28, were outlined at the regular noon meeting Tuesday of the Hereford Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Contest rules are the same as a year ago, said Bruce Fink,

Final Harvest Festival Meet Set For Friday

Hereford's annual Harvest Festival is just around the corner, as evidenced by the announcement of the final report meeting of the Harvest Festival planning group.

Final meeting of the Harvest Festival Planning Board will be held Friday evening in the Western Wheel Inn, according to Festival chairman Oliver Streu. Included on the agenda will be reports from committee members in charge of each of the individual events. Those in charge of each event will either be on hand or send a representative to the final meet, Streu urged.

Included in the festival this year, which promises to be the largest ever, will be a air show, carnival, queen contest, appreciation dinner, farm and home show, rodeo, parade, and barbecue.

Date for the festival is July 22-28.

Baseball Field Lights Subject Of Friday Meet

All persons interested in helping launch a drive for lights for the high school baseball field have been invited to attend a planning meeting sponsored by the Ministerial Association.

Representatives of all civic clubs and special groups, as well as interested individuals, have been invited to attend the meeting slated for Friday at 8 p. m. in the basement of the Immanuel Lutheran Church.

A committee comprised of the Rev. Fred Beversdorf, the Rev. Gilbert Davis, and the Rev. Bill Ware has made initial plans for the drive. In a letter released by the Rev. Beversdorf, chairman of the committee, the Ministerial Association pointed out:

Some time ago an attempt was made to raise money for lights for the high school baseball field. The need for this project is still with us. The Ministerial Association is sponsoring a drive for lights for the high school baseball field.

president of the organization, with the exception that admission will be charged.

The contest is slated to be held in the Hereford High School Auditorium on Monday, July 23, at 7:30 p. m.

This week, the Jaycees are beginning a drive for sponsors for the contestants. Heading the drive is Dr. Dale Wynn with Ralph Starr and Dr. Joe Whitley as co-chairmen.

Club members will be contracting Hereford businessmen during the next two weeks. The sponsors' fee to cover expenses of the contests has been set at $15.

Those entering the contest for the title of Harvest Festival Queen must be between the ages of 14 and 21 years of age and they must be single.

All of the contestants are required to wear a bathing suit and a formal for the queen competition. As yet judges and the master of ceremonies for the show have not been selected, according to Fink. However, Charles Bell agreed to furnish the music for the contest.

The queen will be crowned by Mrs. Townsend Wade Douglas, formerly Judy Bradley, who was last year's queen.

The reigning queen and two princesses will participate in the week-long festivities during the Harvest Festival.

Firms wishing to sponsor contestants and girls who would like to enter the contest should contact Mrs. Bruce Fink, president of the Jaycees, at EM 4-2827.

IN MEET SATURDAY

Swimmers Take 6 Blue Ribbons

Hereford swimmers competing against Western Riviera Club of Amarillo in a dual swimming meet held here Saturday chalked up six first places, took second in seven events, won third in nine events and placed fourth in three divisions.

Only three of the Hereford Athletic Club's firsts were registered in the swimming events as Pat Cooper of Hereford tied with Lisa Clayton in the Girls 10 and Under Free Style and Steve McAndrews won the Boys 11 and 12 Year Old free style event.

In the girls 10 and under breast stroke competition, Beverly Taylor, who had placed third in the free style, out swam her teammate, Pat Cooper, for first place in the event.

Only a matter of hours seemed to stand in the way of a bigger domestic share of the United States sugar market as congress took time off to observe Independence Day.

Passed in rapid action by the House and Senate was a revised version of the Sugar Act giving a large increase of sugar beet production to domestic areas. But the displeasure of President John F. Kennedy caused the Senate to work for another compromise.

The action all started Saturday when the U. S. House of Representatives passed a compromise version of amendments to the Sugar Act. The House previously had passed another version, which was changed considerably by the Senate. A compromise committee worked out details and the House gave its approval shortly before the Sugar Act expired at midnight Saturday.

Monday, the Senate passed the measure by a vote of 54-12. However, President Kennedy, upon his return from Mexico, reportedly announced that he would veto the measure unless premium payment sugars, purchase agreements with Argentina, Peru and the Dominican Republic were allowed or increased.

The Senate started working Tuesday to smooth out the problem, but was not expected to be finished until Thursday after a one-day recess.

This is the first time since the Sugar Act was passed into law in 1934 that it has not been in effect. It was extended twice for short periods as the Texas Sugar Beet Growers Association of Hereford led a fight to have the law changed in favor of more domestic production.

The compromise bill would give domestic cane and sugar beet producers an additional 625,000 tons a year of the U. S. market.

Of the 9.7 million tons used annually in the United States, 5.8 million tons was allocated to domestic growers and 3.9 million tons to foreign producers.

The domestic portion of the bill would be in effect until Dec. 31, 1966, while the foreign allocation portion would expire on Dec. 31, 1964.

Of major importance to the Panhandle area is the provision that the domestic producers would be raised from 55 to about 60 per cent of the total demand. Domestic growers also would get 65 per cent of the annual growth factor resulting from increased demand and population. This is an increase of ten per cent over the 55 per cent which had been allowed.

Most important, however, is that 65,000 tons per year will be set aside to provide for beet production in areas that now have relatively small sugar beet productions. This would be enough to support at least one new sugar beet refinery each year for four years and might possibly be enough to support four mills in three years.

The Philippine Islands would be allocated 1.65 million tons a year from the foreign allotment to fulfill an old treaty obligation.

Stolen Vehicle Recovered Here

A stolen automobile was recovered here about 10 a. m. Sunday after a Hereford Police Department patrolman spotted and pursued the vehicle on U. S. Highway 60.

The pursuit began as Patrolman Pete Cole spotted the automobile being driven by two Latin-American youths. Cole turned his police car around and followed the youths.

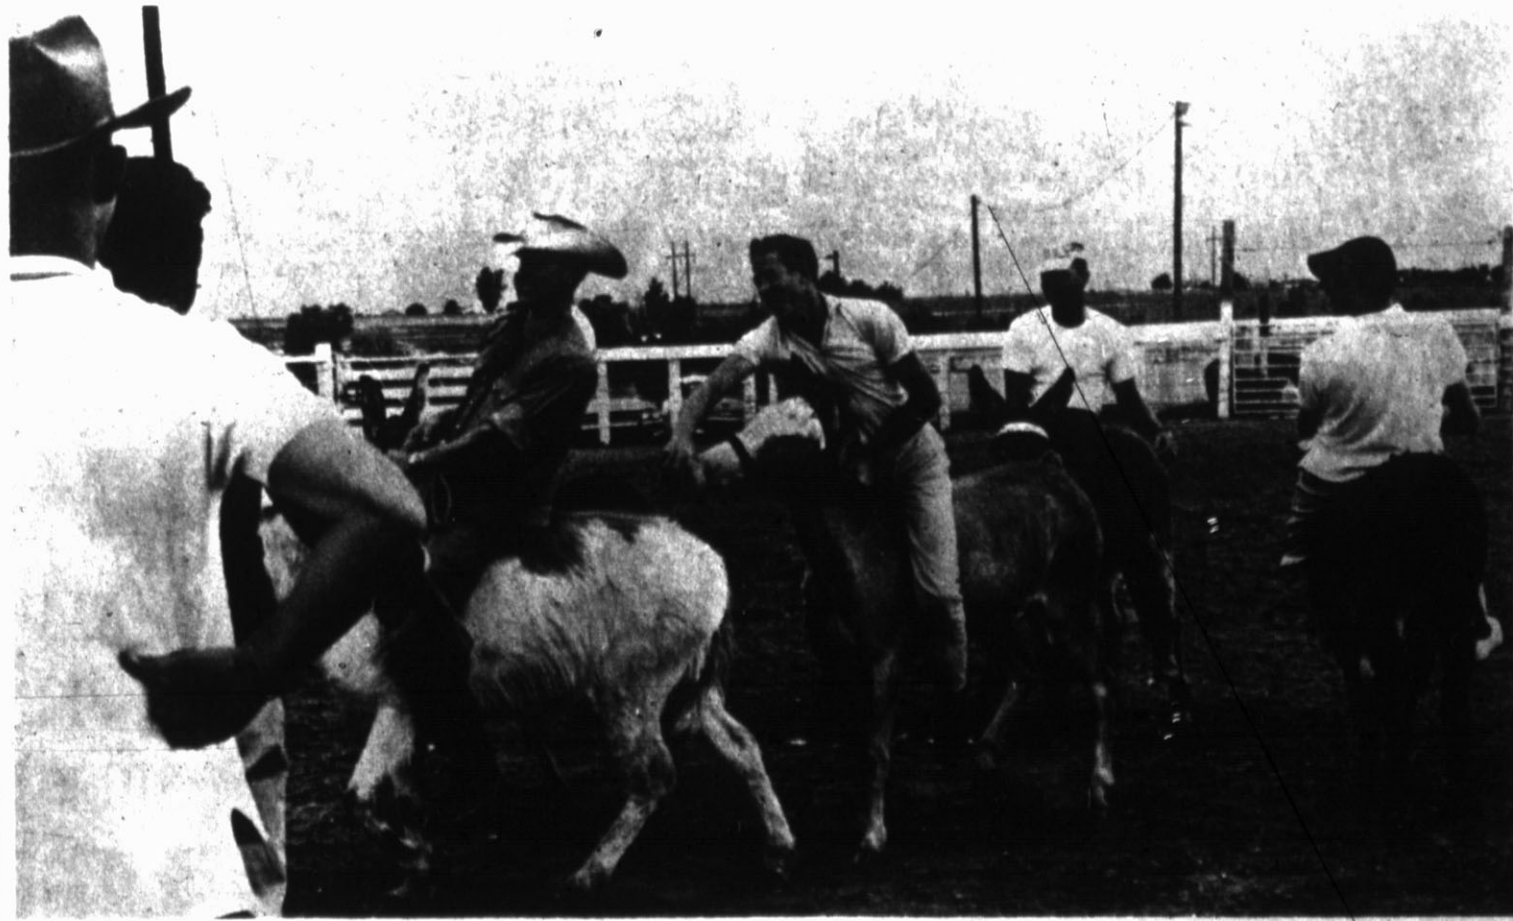

When the two teenagers discovered they were being followed by the patrolman, they parked the car in a crowded driveway of a local service station. Then jumped from the vehicle and ran toward the railroad tracks.

The two youths were reported to be between the ages of 13 years old and 15 years old.

The 1957 four-door hard top sedan, belonging to Johnny Northcutt, Belview, N. M., had been taken from the rear of the Hereford Municipal Swimming Pool.

Northcutt told officers that he had parked the car at the pool about 2:30 p. m. When he returned two hours later, the automobile was gone.

According to the investigation report, Northcutt had left the keys in the ignition of the vehicle.

Gwynne Owen, secretary; Joe Kerr, treasurer; Dick Barnard, director and outgoing president; and Russell Carver, director. Not shown are L. C. Thomas and the Rev. Herschel Thurston, directors.

Nazareth Falls To Hereford Hitters

A strong hitting attack defeated the Nazareth American Legion team there Sunday as the Hereford Redbirds won 10-7.

The victory kept Hereford in second place, tied with Childress, in the southern half of District 18 play.

Ronnie Duncan opened up for Hereford with a booming triple and John Buck doubled him in. After one strike-out, Eugene Green singled and Dan McDowell homered. Larry Coffman singled, went to second as Ken Loerwald walked and scored on Jim Haney's single before the side was retired.

Nazareth got one run in the last of the first, trailing 5-1. Dennis Gerber doubled and scored on Philip Brockman's single. With two on, Mickey Stevens struck out three to put out the fire in a hurry. Buck singled in the second for Hereford but the next three went down in order.

The Nazareth team picked up two more runs in the third after retiring Hereford with the aid of a double play. Philip Brockman got on by error and Venhaus was hit by the pitcher. A sacrifice bunt moved them around so they could score on an error.

That's the way it stayed until the top of the fifth when Green and McDowell hit back-to-back doubles to score one run.

Then Greg Venhaus poked one over the fence in the last of the fifth for Nazareth as Hereford led 6-4.

But Hereford pulled away again in the sixth, scoring two runs for an 8-4 margin. Stevens got on by error and Duncan singled. With two on and two out, Green struck out. But the catcher dropped the ball and Green got to first as the two runners scored. Green was cut down trying to get to second on the wild play but the runs had already come in.

Nazareth picked up three big runs in the sixth and trailed by just one, 8-7. Wethington was safe at first on an error and got to second as Dennis Gerber was safe on a fielder's choice that failed to get the runner at second. A ground ball moved both runners up and an error let two of them score. Another error permitted the third run in.

But Hereford got two big runs in the top of the seventh. Larry Coffman got on by error and took second on a wild pitch. He advanced as Loerwald singled and came in on a sacrifice fly by Haney. With two out, Duncan got on by error as Loerwald scored.

With two out in the last of the seventh, a walk and a single put Nazareth runners on base, but a fielder's choice worked to end the game.

Mickey Stevens pitched three and a third innings to get credit for the win before tiring. He allowed three runs on three hits, walked three and struck out seven. Jim Haney pitched three and a third, allowing four runs on one hit, while walking two and striking out two. Ken Loerwald pitched to the last two batters, allowing one hit.

Foundation Marks First Anniversary

A man who has been instrumental in the welding and production of two Kentucky symphonic dramas, Paul Hadley of Frankfort, Ky., will be the special guest speaker at the first anniversary meeting of the Texas Panhandle Heritage Foundation to be held on Sunday, July 8.

The open meeting, to be held in the Branding Iron Theatre of the Fine Arts Building at West Texas State College in Canyon, will begin at 3 p.m. Following the general meeting there will be a board of directors session at the theatre.

Hadley, who presently is assistant to the Commissioner of the Department of Commerce and a state consultant to the tourist and travel industry in Kentucky, acted as an advisor to two of Kentucky's most successful symphonic dramas, "The Stephen Foster Story," which will open its summer season this week, and "The Book of Job."

A graduate of Ithica College, Ithica, N.Y., Hadley has done additional graduate work at Cornell, Columbia and the University of Louisville.

As immediate past chairman of the Kentucky Chamber of Commerce Tourist Committee, Hadley is currently serving as a consultant to the Department of Commerce of West Virginia.

"Mr. Hadley has had over 25 years of experience with tourism and the outdoor theatre," Mrs. Ples Harper of Canyon, president of the Heritage Foundation stated.

"Not only will he bring a wealth of experience to us in our task of building the amphitheatre in Palo Duro State Park for the production of our symphonic drama, but he will bring us both enthusiasm and understanding for our project," she continued.

"That Mr. Hadley is held in high regard by the state of Kentucky is hard to deny. He is beset by offers in his state alone to assist in the development of travel and tourist projects."

The fund raising drive for the Heritage Foundation project is currently underway in 11 area towns and cities.

Redbirds Defeat Amarillo Dusters

Hereford's American Legion Redbirds dropped the Amarillo Dusters 6-4 here Saturday in a practice game. Hereford picked up all its runs in the first two innings and then played a tough defensive game to win.

The Redbirds jumped on Amarillo hurler Larry Jasper for four quick runs and chased him off the mound. They tapped his relief Bob Pitts for another run in the first and one in the second before the Amarillo team settled down. Four of Hereford's seven hits were for extra bases.

Mike Ranspot made his first mound start of the year and looked good for five innings. He started off by walking lead-off batter Don Howell in the first but got the next three out.

Ronnie Duncan drew a walk to start the last of the first inning. With one out, three walks pushed in a run and Jasper was relieved. But Larry Coffman doubled into center field and Ken Loerwald sent a twister down the right field line for a triple before the side was retired.

Jasper was hit by the pitcher in the second and scored on three walks.

Hereford picked up its last run in the second as Ronnie Duncan doubled and scored on an error. Amarillo loaded the bases in the third but couldn't score. The Dusters also put two runners on in the fourth and one in the fifth. Hereford loaded the bases in the fifth, but was unable to get another run.

In the top of the sixth the Dusters picked up three runs. A single, a walk and interference loaded the bases. Another walk pushed in a run and Ranspot was relieved by Frank Cain. A fielder's choice and a walk drove in the other two runs before the side was retired.

Ranspot pitched five innings and got credit for the victory. The lefthander allowed four runs on three hits, walked nine and struck out three. Frank Cain pitched the last two innings, giving up no runs, no hits, while walking two and striking out two.

Jasper was charged with the loss after working one-third of an inning. He gave up four runs on no hits, walked four and struck out none. Bob Pitts worked the rest of the game in relief. He allowed two runs on seven hits, walked none and struck out six.

Larry Coffman slammed out two doubles and a single to lead the Hereford hitters. Ronnie Duncan got a double and a single in two trips up.

Jno. H. Patton

There has been much disturbance throughout the land about the decision of the Supreme Court in the New York School Prayer Case. I think it would be well for all people in this country to read the decision very carefully and to digest it. Many take the position that it was for the preservation of complete separation of Church and State. Others argue that it was encroachment upon the States' rights, that it was anti-religious, and that the decision was more unconstitutional than the New York law and practice involved.

The familiar cry of "impeach the Supreme Court" has come from many quarters. Of course, this means impeachment of the men themselves and not the Court. If this suggestion was followed on each occasion that a decision is handed down that was controversial, there would probably be a continuing impeachment proceeding, which would accomplish nothing insofar as correcting any possible defect in the government's structure of this country. The fact is that our forefathers recognized the shortcomings of men and established a government of law, as opposed to a government by man. They envisioned a representative form of government in which the will of the governed would be adhered to in accordance with laws adopted under rules of parliamentary procedure designed to protect the rights of all.

The Constitution has withstood many onslaughts through the ages, and in my humble opinion, will continue to support a government of free men in this great country. I have said before, and I here repeat, that if there is any one major defect in the structure which could be the Achilles' heel, it is the unlimited power of the Supreme Court on the question of constitutionality of statutes adopted by the legislative branch of the government. Several years ago, I wrote a newsletter on this subject in which I related the story that occurred early in our Republic that brought into focus the problem that could prove to be the major difficulty in our philosophy of political science.

The decision in the case of Marbury vs. Madison, which was rendered by Chief Justice John Marshall at the time Thomas Jefferson was President of the United States, set the precedent that the Supreme Court had the power to declare the Acts of Congress unconstitutional. John Marshall was President Adams' Secretary of State. President Adams was defeated by Thomas Jefferson in the December 3, 1800, election. As a lame duck Administration, attempts were made to fill all open offices with followers of Adams and Marshall before Jefferson took over. President Adams appointed John Marshall to the No. 1 post, that is, the Chief Justice of the United States Supreme Court. He appointed many others, including a man named Marbury to the office of Justice of the Peace. Marshall, in the confusion of closing out the Administration, failed to issue a commission to Marbury. Hence, Marbury filed suit against James Madison, who had been appointed Secretary of State by Jefferson. The suit was filed in the Supreme Court, although there was serious question about the jurisdiction of the Court. The usual procedure would have been to dismiss the case for want of jurisdiction, however, John Marshall resorted to the Judiciary Act of 1789, which was an Act to control the procedures in Federal Courts. He indicated that, although the Supreme Court could not hear the Marbury case under constitutional restrictions, there were provisions in the Judiciary Act, a statute passed by Congress, that would permit the Supreme Court to hear the case. He then proceeded to hold that because the Judiciary Act was in conflict with the Constitution, such Act was unconstitutional and void.

This action on the part of John Marshall has been interpreted as a master stroke of a devoted advocate to centralized government. It created the doctrine that the Supreme Court had the power to declare Acts of Congress unconstitutional, a power which was bitterly opposed by Jefferson's followers. It is interesting to note that John Marshall served on the Court for 35 years, yet never again declared an Act of Congress unconstitutional.

All of this simply means that whatever Act is passed by the Congress, or a State Legislature, the Supreme Court has the power to declare unconstitutional. Should a corrective Act be passed, the Supreme Court has the power to declare that Act unconstitutional. The question is not as to the probability of a Supreme Court ever doing this, but we must admit the presence of the possibility. Under the circumstances, I have long supported the contention that the Constitution should be amended so that the elected representatives of the people might have the same power to overrule a decision of the Supreme Court declaring a statute unconstitutional as the legislative branch has to override a veto of the President.

On January 3, 1961, I introduced H. J. Res. 70 proposing an amendment to the Constitution, the pertinent part of which reads as follows: "Section 1. The Congress shall have power, by statute passed by two-thirds of each House of Congress, to limit the authority of courts of the United States to determine that statutes of the United States or of any State are repugnant to the Constitution of the United States."

Should the time come that this amendment is approved, any controversy as to a situation such as the decision in the New York Prayer Case, could be promptly argued and debated on the Floor of Congress, and such action taken as may be warranted by the true facts. It has been my feeling that this would provide a proper means of true representative government.

Girls are working in at least three of 11 main areas of the summer program. Most of the girls were about half through with their summer projects before the Thursday meeting.

Projects ranged over a wide realm of the homemaker's duties, including care and guidance of children, consumer buying, family and social relationships, health and safety, home improvement, home management, home and personal finance, laundering, personal care and improvement, food provision, and selection, care, and renovation of clothing.

Girls exhibit work completed in home projects.

Some 97 high school and junior high girls displayed work completed on their home summer projects in homemaking at the annual achievement day program and luncheon in the high school auditorium Thursday.

All working for credit in high school homemaking, the girls each reviewed their projects and the work they are doing during the program.

The annual achievement day program is held in order that the homemaker students may show and tell what they are doing. Mothers of the students were on hand for the program and covered dish luncheon which followed.

Each of the girls participating in the summer home project program must give an oral report during the meeting and later submit a written report on her activities in order to receive credit for the project.

EXPERIMENTING UPTOWN
NEW YORK — David Ross, an off-Broadway stalwart, is joining the trend uptown of experimental theatricals.

Since 1954, Ross has operated a small showcase of East Fourth Street, concentrating primarily on revivals of Chekhov and Ibsen.

He and his wife have purchased a former church and are converting the structure into a 299-seat theater at a cost of $150,000. The structure, on West 55th street, is near the new Lincoln Center for the Performing Arts.

Ross is still undecided about whether to continue operations also at the old location.

NUMBER ONE POTATOES are all that is left after the first of the 1962 Hereford potato crop is processed. The first loads were hauled to a processing shed here Wednesday as harvesting operations began. According to USDA inspectors, the crop is good this year. A shed employee stated that this year's crop is better than expected after heavy rains soaked the fields and hail damaged some of the plants. Red Sox Ease By Tribe Friday 9-8

Kenny Justice effectively scattered three hits as the Red Sox edged out the Indians Friday night in Pony League baseball action. A trio of Indian hurlers allowed just four hits for the winners.

Felix Albiar drew a walk in the first to open for the Indians. He scored on a passed ball, a stolen base and an error.

But the Red Sox took advantage of walks to add up five runs in the first. With one out, the Sox used seven walks, eight stolen bases and a single by Olen Nelson to score.

In the second, the Indians went down in order. But Kenny Justice scored for the Red Sox on a fielder's choice, a stolen base and a ground ball.

The Indians had their big inning in the third, tying the score 6-6. Gary Payne walked and Alex Guerrero doubled. That was followed by another walk, an error and a triple by Doug Watson and another error.

In the bottom of the third, the Red Sox went down on three strike-outs. The Indians got in front 8-6 in the fourth.

Mike Watts got on by fielder's choice and Clinton Wilson walked. Both scored on an error.

Trailing by two, the Red Sox got one back in the last of the fourth as Wynn Buck singled, stole two bases and came in on a ground ball.

The Indians went down in order in the fifth and the Red Sox tied the score again 8-8 as Nelson walked, moved to third on two more walks and came in on a wild pitch.

Bill Watts singled for the Indians in the sixth, but was left stranded.

Then the Red Sox scored the winning run in the last of the sixth as Mike Moore singled and scored on a stolen base and two errors. Two more Red Sox were left on base.

One Indian got on by error in the seventh, but the side was reared on two infield grounders to finish the game.

Kenny Justice went all the way to pick up the win. He allowed three hits, struck out six and walked ten. Mike Watts pitched two-thirds of an inning, allowing five runs on one hit while striking out one and walking seven. Alex Guerrero worked two and a third innings. He allowed one run on no hits, struck out five and walked one. Felix Albiar, making his first mound appearance of the year, worked the last three innings. He gave up three runs on three hits, struck out six and walked four. He was charged with the loss.

Your hatred hurts you.

For every action there is a reaction. If we love we are loved. If we give we are given. When we learn this and believe it we have learned God's plan for us.

No man can live alone. He needs his neighbor. God told us this many times, "Love thy neighbor as thyself." God also told us who our neighbor was... everyone, even our enemy.

It is hard for us to accept this unless we realize that our hatred hurts us. Hatred drives out love. That is why God told us to love one another. The more we love the closer we come to God who is perfect love. Truly we are our brother's keeper.

State Owned Islands, Lands Now Available For Leasing

By Vern Sanford
State-owned islands along the coast, and submerged lands in inland waters, now are available for lease for industrial purposes.

Leasing for industry was authorized last year by the Legislature. First step in the program was for Gov. Price Daniel to select the men to serve on a committee to advise the School Land Board on leasing procedures.

Daniel now has named J. Chrys Dougherty of Austin, an attorney, and Dr. Armstrong Price of Corpus Christi as the advisors.

Procedure is this — a person who wants to lease state land must first apply to the city government, if the land lies in a city limit, or to the county commissioners court. They publish notices and have public hearings. If they recommend the lease the three-man School Land Board then can consider it and set the amount of rent to be paid.

First application was from Port Aransas, which wants to lease part of Mustang Island for an airport.

SCHOOL BUS BARGAINS
Prices of school buses are falling.

State Board of Control, which buys buses for all the school districts on sealed bids, found that the price of 72-passenger buses has fallen by about $1,200 this spring.

May purchases averaged $5,430, while the 1961 average was $6,618. Same sort of declines were noted in prices of smaller buses.

LEASES GO UP

But there was a note on higher prices, too.

For many years, the University of Texas lands in West Texas have been leased for oil and gas with only one-eighth royalty reserved for the University of Texas and Texas A & M College, which share in the proceeds.

This year, the royalty was raised to one-sixth, and only 9 of 101 tracts offered for lease were passed over by the oil company bidders who bought them at an auction sale. Cash bonuses averaged $38.64 an acre. This is lower than at some sales in the past. But if they find oil or gas, the University fund will get more of it due to the higher royalty fees.

IMPACT STILL DRY
That long-expected "oasis" in West Texas will stay dry awhile longer.

It is the town of Impact, in the edge of bone-dry Abilene, which incorporated and voted itself wet in 1961.

Atty. Gen. Will Wilson and the City of Abilene brought suit to declare the incorporation invalid. But District Judge J. R. Black held that the incorporation had been validated by the Legislature. It was done in a validating act passed mainly for the City of Plano, which just happened to apply to Impact, also.

However, State Liquor Administrator Coke Stevenson Jr. announced that he will not grant a package store permit which has been pending for months. He'll wait to see what the higher courts say about Judge Black's ruling, since the case will be carried to the Texas Supreme Court.

So there won't be any legal liquor in Taylor County for many more months.

TEXTBOOK STORM
The special House of Representatives committee which had some stormy hearings wound up its business with an internal storm.

Rep. W. T. Dungan of McKinney held the final hearing all by himself in Dallas. Other four members boycotted the meeting, then voted to expunge it from the record.

Each member will write his own report to the House on the procedures by which textbooks are selected.

During its stormy life, committee heard one member called a "card carrying communist" by a lady in Amarillo. He filed suit against her, and apparently the folks back home didn't believe her, because he won re-nomination.

PARKS FOLDER
An attractive new folder describing for tourists the facilities and location of state parks is being made available by the State Parks Board.

A fishing scene at Lake Brownwood State Park is the colorful cover for the booklet.

RETIRED JUDGES
The judicial retirement system was designed so judges could leave the bench for a few years of rest before their deaths.

Statistics just worked up on the operation of the system by State Auditor C. H. Cavness reveals that there are 219 district and appellate judges paying into the retirement fund, and 31 who are on retirement. During the last state fiscal year, five retired judges died and 11 retired. Of 62 judges who have retired, 31 had died as of the date of the audit.

But the retirement system may not have succeeded in keeping judges on the bench. During the year, 10 left the bench without retiring, to go into private law practices.

LEGAL RULINGS
Atty. Gen. Will Wilson answered a variety of questions this week.

He told Education Commissioner J. W. Edgar that it is not legal for a school district to buy gasoline and oil from a consignee who is a member of the school board, even if he got the contract as low bidder on sealed bids.

He told County Atty. John Lawton of Denton that Jim George, who won the Democratic nomination for two justice of the peace seats, can't hold them both, and that he vacated the office he held when he became a candidate for the other place. George's name cannot appear on the general election ballot for both jobs.

He told County Atty. Bill F. Griffin Jr. of Center that trucks owned by a farm corporation and used exclusively for hauling poultry and farm products are entitled to the half-price farm license fee.

He told County Atty. Mack Wallace of Athens that members of the national guard are not exempt from ad valorem taxes levied against their property for road purposes. The exemption for militia members is from the "road tax" of $3 per man which used to be levied against those who did not put in a day's work a year on the county roads.

MORE OIL SUITS
More and more lawsuits are being filed out of the East Texas Field crooked hole investigation.

Latest was a $13,000,000 suit filed by the attorney general against operators of a lease which he contends had been produced through a crooked hole since 1949.

There had been indications that the "deviation" practices whereby wells wound up under somebody else's property had been going on quite awhile. But this is the first indication that it was happening that far back.

EFFICIENCY STUDY
Request for an efficiency study of the Texas Railroad Commission won approval from the executive committee of the Texas Research League. So that big agency will be looked into thoroughly.

Oilmen had complained in the past that there was too much red tape about Railroad Commission operations.

Chairman William J. Murray Jr. had defended his agency on that point, saying that many requirements have had to be added to make sure oil was produced legally and properly.

Anyway, the organizational experts of the Research League will look the Commission over, and advise next spring what legislative changes might be made to make it work better.

SALES BETTER
Total retail sales in Texas in May rose to 3 per cent above the April level, after the UT Bureau of Business Research made its seasonal adjustments.

Durable goods sales were up 7 per cent and auto sales were up 16 per cent above April and 24 per cent above May of 1961.

Furniture and household appliances apparently reflected a bumper crop of weddings. They usually rise about 14 per cent in May over April. This year they rose 22 per cent.

Farm implements, hardware and building materials all contributed to the May boom in business.

Nationally, there was a 1 per cent decline in retail sales compared to the Texas rise of 3 per cent.

Issuance of building permits in urban areas showed a 2 per cent increase over May, 1961, and 14 per cent over April.

Foundation Adds New Staff Member

Barry Love joined the Staff at the High Plains Research Foundation at Halfway on Sunday July 1, as assistant agronomist, a new position created by the Board of Trustees this year.

Love received his associate of science degree at Murray State Agricultural College, Tishomingo, Okla., in June, 1958 where he was the top honor student in his class. His degree was in animal nutrition.

He received his Bachelor of Science Degree in Agriculture at Oklahoma State University, Stillwater in August, 1960. His work at Oklahoma State included animal husbandry, agronomy, chemistry and biological sciences. Love was awarded a Master of Science Degree at the University of Illinois in Animal Science in June of 1962.

Prior to completing his college training, Love worked on his father's farm at Colera, Okla. He had worked for two years in an aircraft factory in Dallas and spent three years in the U. S. Army. A portion of his Army service was in Germany.

Dr. Earl H. Collister, director of the Foundation, is announcing Love's selection for the position stated, "Love has the training and background to qualify him for the research work he will be assigned at the Foundation."

BARRY LOVE
New Staff Member

One of his assignments will be the development of the new grass-legume program at Halfway on correlating both dryland and irrigated projects. Dr. Collister continued. This new program is designed to find a better dryland legume; a grass selection program of variety testing and breeding for the High and South Plains to secure a high protein grass, easily eradicated, that will rebuild the soil humus.

Tests at the Foundation indicate a need for a restoration of the ability of soil to provide better aeration for crops and more easily absorb water. A rotation system in farming is needed to make more effective use of rainfall as well as greater irrigation efficiency. Water conservation is considered one of the most important research projects at the Foundation.

Using cattle for income on these grasses will provide the income needed and at the same time the soil is being rebuilt. Mr. Love's experience and training in these fields will be valuable, according to the Foundation director.

Dr. Collister stated that assistant agronomist will also assist in crop research, and the soybean and sesame breeding work. He will also eventually have the responsibility for off station testing of these research projects throughout the High Plains from Perryton, and Guymon, to Lovelland and Muleshoe. His assistance will fill an economic need for this area.

OLD-TIME LEMONADE in frosty glasses, served with sprigs of mint and slices of fresh strawberries, makes the outdoor meal complete for the Fourth of July. (Staff Photo)

LET'S COOK SOMETHING!

Outdoor Meal Ideal For Fourth Of July

Thick slices of fully cooked ham, kept moist by gentle heat over coals in the outdoor grill, and brushed with a glaze made of 1/2 cup of syrup from spiced crab apples, heated with 1 cup brown sugar, are left over the coals for 10 to 15 minutes for a tantalizing brown. Crab apples, in the remaining glaze, and hominy, cooked in sour cream, make excellent grill partners for the ham slices.

Crunchy Wheat Sticks make an excellent accompaniment for the ham slices. Grease and pre-heat corn-stick pans in hot oven (400 degrees). Combine 2 well-beaten eggs, 1/4 cup sugar, 2/3 cup milk and 1/3 cup salad oil or melted shortening. Sift together 1 and 1/3 cups sifted enriched flour, 4 teaspoons baking powder, and 3/4 teaspoon salt; mix in 2/3 cup granular wheat cereal.

Add the liquid mixture to the dry ingredients all at once; stir just to mix. Fill hot pans 3/4 full, or pour into greased 9 x 9 x 2 inch pan.

Bake in a hot oven (400 degrees) about 20 minutes. Makes 1 dozen sticks. Good to eat, hot or cold.

A simple salad, to please most anyone, is called Gingham Salad. Coarsely-chopped spinach (1/3 pound) 2 cups, tossed together with 2 cups shredded cabbage and 1 pint of cottage cheese, and seasoned with salt, is served on lettuce with French dressing. Serves six.

55 French Dressing is prepared by mixing together the dry ingredients: 1/2 cup sugar, 1 teaspoon paprika, 1 teaspoon salt and 1 teaspoon garlic salt (optional). Add the dry mixture to the liquid mixture made of 3/4 cup vinegar, 1 cup tomato soup, 1 cup salad oil and 1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce. Beat well.

Apricot Nectar Cake, a favorite recipe of Mrs. John A. Smith, member of the Ford Home Demonstration Club of Hereford, is easy to prepare, delicious, and will become a favorite. Place any yellow cake mix in a mixing bowl. Add 3/4 cup of apricot nectar, 3/4 cup Wesson oil, 1 package of lemon Jello, and 1 teaspoon vanilla. Beat well. Add 4 well-beaten egg whites last and bake in a tube pan at 300 degrees for 50 to 60 minutes.

In preparing drinks for the meal, small glasses of tomato and orange juice, served from a tray filled with a bed of crushed ice, make fine appetizers.

Old-time-Lemonade, served in frosty glasses, is the crowning touch for the meal. Fresh green mint sprigs add to the attractiveness of the drink. Combine 1 cup sugar and 1 cup water in a saucepan. Heat, stirring constantly, until the sugar dissolves, then bring to a full rolling boil. Cool; store in the refrigerator.

For each serving, combine 3 to 4 tablespoons of the syrup with 1 1/2 tablespoons lemon juice (fresh, frozen or canned) and 1 cup water. Pour into ice-filled glasses. Trim with strawberry slices if desired.

Pink Lemonade can be fixed in a jiffy with frozen pink lemonade concentrate. Pour into ice-filled glasses.

White Sox Defeat Red Sox Monday

White Sox scored a run, or two or three, in every inning Monday night to defeat the Red Sox 11-6.

Red Sox took a 2-0 lead in the first as Wynn Buck walked and stole two bases. He came in as Mike Moore singled. Moore then stole two bases and scored on an error.

Chester West scored a single run for the White Sox in the last half of the first stanza as he walked, stole second, went to third on a wild pitch and came in on a passed ball.

In the last of the second, the White Sox tied the score 2-2 as Greg Johnson got on by fielder's choice, was pushed to third on two walks and scampered home on a passed ball.

In the top of the third, the Red Sox again went in front 3-2 as Moore walked, stole two bases and tallied on Kenny Justice's single.

But the White Sox got the lead and kept it in the last of the third, scoring three runs for a 5-3 edge. West walked, Steve Hodges singled and advanced on an error. Jim Allison walked to load the bases and Bill Price singled in two runs. Greg Johnson's sacrifice fly scored Allison from third.

Chester West scored again for the White Sox in the fourth, after drawing another walk. A stolen base put him in position to score on Allison's double.

In the first of the fifth Gene Drummond doubled. He attempted to steal third and the throw from the catcher got by the third sacker as Drummond came on in.

But the White Sox kept pecking away as they marked up two more runs in the bottom of the fifth. Greg Johnson got on by fielder's choice, took second on a passed ball, stole third and was safe at home on an error by the catcher. Johnson Benfield walked, stole second and went to third as a fielder's choice and a hit batter loaded the bases. Gene Duvall singled him in from there.

In the last of the sixth, the White Sox picked up three more runs on five walks, two passed balls and a balk.

The Red Sox got their last two runs in the seventh. Gene Drummond and Mike Moore singled back-to-back with an error allowing Drummond to score. Justice doubled in Moore. But a double play from Allison to West to Hodges kept the Reds from getting any closer.

Jimmy Allison pitched seven innings for the victory. He allowed six runs while scattering seven hits. He struck out 12 and walked eight.

Kenny Justice worked four and a third innings for the Reds, taking the loss. He gave up eight runs on four hits, struck out two and walked ten. Gene Drummond pitched the last one and two-thirds innings. He allowed three runs, no hits, walked five and struck out three.

Three Red Sox batters accounted for all their hits. Drummond got a single and a double in four trips. Mike Moore got three singles in three times up and Kenny Justice got a single and a double in four times at bat. The White Sox got just four hits, scattered among four different players.

Bayne requested action on the project saying that erosion from the recent heavy rains along the present open ditch is endangering the city's 1,000,000 gallon underground storage facility at the McKinley Street Station.

Needed for the project will be 600 feet of 72-inch pipe, according to Bayne.

The problem has been caused by the widening of U. S. Highway 60. Drained from the highway has been channeled into the ditch.

According to Bayne funds originally set aside in the 1962 budget for the expansion of the sanitary sewer system can

Giants - Dodgers In 7-7 Standoff

Little League baseball fans were treated to another thriller Monday night as the Giants and the Dodgers played to a 7-7 tie.

A two-run rally for the Dodgers in the top of the sixth tied the game.

The Dodgers got one runner to third on an error and two steals in the first but left him stranded.

Three hits gave the Giants a pair of runs in the last of the first. Ren Lee opened with a single. With two outs, Sidney Shaw and Roger Beasley each hit doubles to drive in the runs.

It was then time for the Dodgers to take a 3-2 lead as they picked up a trio of runs in the second. Ralph Loerwald and Doug Banner each singled, Bill Russell walked and Steve Coker was hit by the pitcher to drive in one run. An error allowed the other two runs.

In the last of the third, the Giants knotted the score 3-all. Roger Beasley got on by fielder's choice and was doubled in by Russell Phillips.

As the top of the fifth rolled around, the Dodgers took advantage of a dropped infield fly to score a pair of runs. Brad Johnson was hit by the pitcher and Bryan Knox singled with Loerwald safe on an error. Doug Banner's high pop-up was ruled an infield fly, but it was dropped and before the dust had cleared, the Dodgers had moved into a 5-3 lead.

Four hits by the Giants in the last of the fifth gave them four runs and a temporary 7-5 lead over their opponents. Dean Riddle got on by error and, with one out, Roger Beasley singled and Russell Phillips tripled. With two out, Jackie Meredith slashed a single, Tommy Stoy drew a walk while trying to bunt and Ren Lee singled. In the top of the sixth, the Dodgers tied the score again. Brad Johnson walked and Bryan Knox was safe on an error. Joe West drew a walk and a sacrifice fly brought in the tying run. A walk and an error put runners on second and third for the Giants in the last of the sixth, but they were unable to score.

Leading hitter of the game was Russell Phillips with a double and a triple in four times up. Phillips and Sidney Shaw both worked on the mound for the Giants. Doug Banner hurled the entire game for the Dodgers.
