

MRS. DON DOLLE, 109 B Union, serves a cinnamon roll to her young guest, Marie Morris, two-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Morris. When she decided to make the rolls, Mrs. Dolle, a bride of two months, called her mother, Mrs. Ed Loerwald, for the recipe. Her mother's telephone number is, Mrs. Dolle says, her best recipe file. LET'S COOK SOMETHING!

Recent Bride, Mrs. Dolle, Calls Mother For Recipes

By Dale Stevens
Brand Foods Editor

One of Herford's summer brides, Mrs. Don Dolle, 109B Union, states that her best recipe file is the telephone. It consists of dialing the number of Mrs. Ed Loerwald and saying "Mother, how do you —?"

Another source of cooking methods is her husband, who is quite a good cook, according to his bride. His mother told him never, never to tell the girl he married that a dish "isn't like Mother cooked it," and he doesn't. What he does say, though, is "that isn't the way I'd cook it."

While Mrs. Dolle did not cook much while she was growing up, she finds that she absorbed many of her mother's methods of cooking. She also feels that her high school homemaking courses under Mrs. Frank Prowell and Mrs. J. J. Durham helped her a great deal in both cooking and serving.

In the two months she has been married, Mrs. Dolle has cooked mostly familiar foods and from recipes exchanged with her duplex neighbor, Mrs. Leroy Berend. She remarked that she had found the recent Brand recipe supplement very helpful.

She is beginning to use the cookbooks she received as wedding gifts. Among these are "What's Cookin'?" in Littlefield, prepared by Sacred Heart Catholic Church Altar Society and presented her at a Littlefield shower, "Favorite Recipes of Home Economics Teachers Desserts," a gift from Littlefield home economics teachers, and "Better Homes and Gardens Cookbook."

A favorite gift, presented by her aunt, Mrs. Gene Loerwald, is a looseleaf binder titled "My Best Recipes." Instructions recommend filing loose recipes in the envelope provided until they have been proved and then copying or pasting them on sheets of paper before filing in the correct sections.

Mrs. Dolle, who taught last year in Amarillo, is scheduled to teach fourth grade at Northwest Elementary School this fall. Her husband is with the Soil Conservation Service.

The recipes which follow are, admits Mrs. Dolle, strictly "plagiarism" except the meatloaf recipe, which she discovered for herself. She likes to prepare the meatloaf early in the morning for a hot lunch on busy days.

Hot Tuna Salad
Combine:
2 cups tuna
2 cups thinly sliced celery
1 cup toasted bread cubes
1/2 cup chopped nuts
1/2 t. salt
2 t. grated onion
1 cup mayonnaise
2 T. lemon juice
Pile lightly into baking dish and sprinkle with:
1/2 cup grated cheese
1 cup toasted bread cubes

Bake until bubbly, about 10-15 minutes, at 450 degrees. Serves 6.

Meatloaf
1 pound hamburger meat
Salt and pepper to taste
1 small onion
1 green pepper
7-8 crushed crackers
1 small can tomato sauce
1 egg

Combine together all ingredients, leaving half of the green pepper for the top. Knead well and place in casserole dish; top with remaining green pepper. Bake at 350 degrees for about an hour.

Sweet Pickles
Using any and all sizes of cucumbers, split and cut to uniform size, about 2-3 inches long and 1/2 inch thick. Place in jar and cover with brine (one cup salt to one gallon of water). Leave for five days.

Take out and wash in cold water. Replace in jar and cover with boiling water and alum, (size of walnut per two gallons of pickles). Let stand for 24 hours. Take out and wash in cold water. Replace in jar and cover with hot syrup, using the following proportions:

1 cup vinegar
Spice to taste
1 cup sugar
Let stand three days. Each morning pour off syrup, reheat, and replace. On third morning add one cup sugar to each quart of vinegar. Place in jars and seal. Be sure to split the pickles or they will shrivel.

Cherry Swirls
1 pkg. active dry yeast or 1 cake compressed yeast
1/2 cup water
1 cup milk, scalded

2 T. sugar
2 T. shortening
1 t. salt
3 1/2 cups sifted flour
1 egg

Soften yeast in warm water. Combine milk, sugar, shortening, and salt; cool to lukewarm. Add 1 cup flour; beat well. Beat in yeast and egg. Gradually add remaining flour to form soft dough, beating well. Cover and let rise in warm place until double in bulk (1 1/2-2 hours).

Turn out on lightly floured surface; roll out. Spread over rolled out dough 1/2 cup sugar, 1/4 cup melted butter, and 1 1/2 t. cinnamon. Roll lengthwise, seal edges, and cut in 1-inch slices. Place cut sides down in greased pan.

Combine 1 can drained cherries with 1/2 cup sugar and 1/4 cup flour. Heat until very thick. In center of each roll press a shallow depression large enough to hold about a teaspoon of cherries.

Cover and let rise until double in bulk (30-40 minutes). Bake in moderate (375 degrees) oven for 20-25 minutes. Remove from pans and swirl confectioners sugar icing around cherries.

Red Devil's Food Cake
1/2 cup shortening
1 1/2 cups sugar
1 t. salt
1 t. vanilla
1 1/3 cup cold water
1/2 cup cocoa
2 1/2 cups sifted cake flour
1 cup cold water
3 egg whites
1 1/2 t. soda
1 1/3 cup cold water
Stir shortening to soften. Gradually add 1 cup of the sugar, creaming together until light.

REP. ROGERS WRITES

Most Important Decisions Of Session Face Congress

TO THE PEOPLE OF THE 18th DISTRICT:

History will remember this first session of the 88th Congress for decisions it will make in the weeks to come. Up to now, Congress has not acted on any legislation of an unprecedented nature.

Measures enacted so far have, in the main, provided for the continuation (or abandonment) of programs established in past sessions, met the financial obligations of the government, taken care of the government's "housekeeping" responsibilities.

That pattern is changing. Now the focus of Congressional activity is on legislation of a momentous nature — legislation of such scope that decisions made will have a bearing on the Nation's very security and its economic well-being and on the future course of Federal-State relations and personal liberty.

The three most important pending legislative matters — and certainly there are many other vital matters of national importance — are the nuclear test ban treaty, tax code revision and a tax cut, and civil rights.

The test ban hearings are making daily headlines. The Senate, which constitutionally is the only body of Congress empowered to act in ratifying treaties, will explore the treaty provisions thoroughly.

Tax legislation has been the subject of prolonged hearings by the House Ways and Means Committee; a bill is likely to be submitted to the full House in a matter of days. Then the Senate will begin its own work on the tax bill.

Meanwhile, both houses of Congress are in the committee stage of considering civil rights legislation.

The Senate will dominate the coming Congressional ses-ma. It alone holds the power of "yes" or "no" over the test ban treaty. It will be in the spotlight also because Senate rules permit unlimited debate on measures reaching the floor. The debate may continue until each Senator has had his say. It can be cut off only by exercise of that rarely invoked Senate procedure called "cloture," by which two-thirds of the Senate must concur in a motion to end debate.

By contrast, debate is limited on the floor of the House. A major bill coming before the House is presented along with a "rule" adopted by the Rules Committee — a resolution (which the full House may either adopt, amend or reject) establishing in part the number of hours during which debate is to be permitted and whether or not amendments to the bill may be submitted during debate.

There can be no filibusters in the House; once a bill has reached the floor a decision on it cannot long be delayed.

The Senate, on the other hand, can devote weeks to debating the provisions of a bill. Oratory is more common to the Senate, once called "the world's most exclusive debating society," since its rules permit prolonged discussion. Now, it's anyone's guess as to what will happen in the Senate on the nuclear test ban treaty, the tax bill or civil rights.

But with the shadow of a bitter civil rights showdown looming over every Senate action, I would say that the country is assured of a very thorough airing of all measures coming before it. Senate opponents of civil rights legislation, with an eye on the calendar, may attempt to forestall action on civil rights by prolonging debate on all controversial issues presented to the floor.

Those who expect Congress to be in session until the snow flies aren't going to be far wrong, I'd guess. It may happen that the first session won't end until the second session is ready to begin in January, and that this will be the first continuous Congress since World War II. Again, however, predicting coming events on Capitol Hill is like forecasting rain in the Texas Panhandle; you can find yourself all wet when you least expected it.

I don't look for the Aug. 28 civil rights "march" on Washington to have much impact on House or Senate consideration of civil rights legislation. It will be business as usual in my office.

While I believe the rank-and-file of those who are coming here to demonstrate believe their action may have an effect on the legislation, their leaders know better. The leaders, I believe, are simply giving their followers a chance to let off steam.

I doubt that the demonstration will produce more support for civil rights legislation that it otherwise would have; on the contrary, if the march gets out of hand, if violence occurs in the Capital, votes in the House and Senate will turn against civil rights legislation. While Congress is responsive to public opinion, it has a low regard for pressure tactics and threats.

AUSTIN HIGHLIGHTS

700 State Employees Get New Bosses With Change

By VERN SANFORD

Some 700 state employees scattered throughout Texas are getting a new set of bosses. Reason is the creation of the Texas Parks and Wildlife Commission on Aug. 23.

James M. Dellinger, Corpus Christi contractor; A. W. Mourmond, Johnson City ranch-attorney; and Chairman Will Odem, Austin geologist and engineer, make up the new three-man Parks and Wildlife Commission. They replace nine commissioners on the old Game and Fish Commission and six on the old Parks Board.

Many state employees, who wondered whom Gov. John Connally would select to head the infant agency, now are worrying whether they themselves will remain on the payroll.

About 72 of the employees are in the Parks Department; some are managers of the state's 525-plus parks system. Another 625 or so are in the field of game and fish. About 100 of these are in the Austin office — the rest out in the field.

Connally says the consolidation will eliminate some duplication of services and effort.

One thing the state is sure to save on is per diems and expenses for the commissioners. The $25 per diem plus travel, hotel and meals allotted the three new men should come to about one-fifth the amount spent in past years on 15 commissioners.

HIGHWAY PATROLMEN NEEDED

Col. Homer Garrison Jr., head of the Department of Public Safety, is looking for 100 additional highway patrolmen.

He asks applicants, aged 21 to 35, to contact him no later than Sept. 14. Recruits will start to school Nov. 15. Pay is $412 a month while in training, $453 on graduation.

Department will endeavor to assign the men to stations within 100 miles of their present homes.

HOPE TO CUT TRAFFIC DEATHS

Col. Garrison cast a gloomy eye at his crystal ball, and predicted a possible 31 traffic deaths in Texas over the three-day Labor Day weekend. But he hopes he is wrong!

"There is always a chance that the estimate can be proved too high," Garrison said. "If motorists will put forth a concerted effort to hold the line by driving within safe and legal limits, and remaining especially alert to the added dangers of holiday travel."

DPS has enlisted the aid of the Texas Safety Association, Texas Association of Broadcasters, Junior chambers of commerce, Texas Council of Safety Supervisors and the Texas Motor Transportation Association for a Labor Day "Operation Motocycle" — a concerted campaign to call attention to highway dangers.

SCHOOL LAND BOARD MEMBER NAMED

A Taylor attorney — Wilson H. Fox — has been appointed by Attorney General Waggoner Carr to take Carr's place on the School Land Board. Law specifying the change was passed at the attorney general's request.

Governor Connally and Land Commissioner Jerry Sadler will remain on the three-member board, which does a big, and complicated, business, leasing many thousands of acres of state-owned land each year.

Fox is a former district attorney and state representative for Burnet and Williamson counties.

from Dallas and now executive director of the Legislative Council, and his assistant, John T. Potter, of Austin.

POPULATION VS ORGANIZATION

Theory that a large population produces a greater volume of business activity than a small population is not 100 per cent true.

This is revealed by the University of Texas' Population Research Center. It surveyed 30 Texas cities for the 20 year period — 1940 to 1960.

Cities surveyed were Alpine, Angleton, Aspermont, Boerne, Borger, Brackettville, Burnet, Cotulla, Del Rio, Denton, Eastland, Grapevine, Hillsboro, Humble, Italy, Killeen, McKinney, Menard, Merkel, Olney, Paris, Port Lavaca, Runge, Rusk, San Diego, Seagraves, Seymour, Somerville, Van Alstyne and Winnsboro.

Nine of these — Brackettville, Eastland, Hillsboro, Italy, Menard, Rusk, Seagraves, Somerville and Van Alstyne — had a population decline.

Runge, Italy and McKinney all saw a decrease in the number of business organizations. Brackettville and Hillsboro were the only ones that had a decrease in the number of governmental organizations.

Only city that had a decrease in the number of organizations, but grew in population, was Runge.

San Diego was the only place that failed to produce additional volunteer associations.

In general, the survey proved that businesses and other organizations multiply even when population growth does not occur. Smaller cities usually support a greater number of organizations per 1,000 population than do the big cities.

HIGH SCHOOL DROPOUT

The growing problem of high school dropouts will be the topic of the annual meeting of the Texas State Committee on Public Education in Austin on Sept. 22.

President of the committee, Mrs. Helen J. Bechtel of Corpus Christi, is inviting all interested persons to attend the one-day session. No registration fee will be charged.

Governor Connally has estimated the state rate of dropouts for the next five years as 325,000.

OIL ALLOWABLE CUT

Producing ability of Texas oil wells was cut by some 28,517 barrels a day when the Railroad Commission reduced the daily oil allowable from 28.5 per cent in August to 28 per cent for September.

Most of the major oil companies wasted more of a cut. But independent producers succeeded in getting the commission to hold production near the August allowable.

Commissioner Ernest Thompson of Amarillo returned to his office after a long illness and attended the hearing.

U-H REGENTS NAMED

Governor Connally named three University of Houston graduates to the nine-member board of regents for the U. of H., which will join the state college and university system in September.

Alumni-regents are Jack Valenti and A. J. Farfel, both of Houston, and George S. Hawn of Corpus Christi.

Other appointees include James T. Duke of Johnson City and Edward Daniel Manion of Beaumont. Also Col. William B. Bates, James A. Elkins Jr., Corbin J. Robertson and Mrs.

Hereford High Whiteface Band In Practice Sessions

The Hereford Brand

The Hereford Brand, Hereford, Texas, Thurs., August 22, 1963
SECTION TWO

IN THE BARITONE section of the band, students practice a passage of the music while other band members rest. The band this year will be one of the biggest in school history with some 124 participating. Marching sessions to practice for the half-time activities at the first football game of the season against Tulia here, Sept. 6, began this week.

ONCE MORE HIGHLY POLISHED trombones are glistening as musicians begin practice sessions. After a long summer vacation, students are again preparing for the school year which will begin with the half time activities during the season's first football game against Tulia on Sept. 6.

BAND DIRECTOR, Ben Gallehon, instructs students as the band learns new numbers for the coming school year. Practice sessions began three weeks ago with 124 students participating. Freshmen are included as members of the band this year.

THE PERCUSSION section of the Whiteface Band practices drum rolls as the group prepares for the coming school year. Practice sessions for the band are being held each weekday at 7 p.m. except Wednesday. Marching practice began this week.

DURING A PRACTICE SESSION in the band hall two cornetists of Hereford High Band concentrate on new music. Practice sessions for the band began three weeks ago with all rehearsals used for learning new scores. Marching sessions began this week on the old football field. The cornet players are Jimmy Huckert (left) and David Nafgar.

Deedee's Doodlings

By Deedee Thomas
Last week, as some of you noticed, my column didn't appear in the newspaper, but I had just returned from my grandmother's home in Post. It took me longer than Monday morning to collect news. I will try not to let Mondays slip up on me again. My sister and cousin, Deborah and Sandi, drove down to Post with me, but we came back with John Bob Drake.

If you haven't looked at the old calendar on the wall, there are just seven more days until school starts. I don't know about you people, but I'm ready for it to start this year. I guess the senior year is pretty exciting. The Red Cross Gray Ladies had their monthly luncheon Wednesday, Aug. 14, at the Western Wheel Inn. The Junior Gray Ladies who attended the luncheon were Audri Miller, Kathleen Kuper, Patricia Maxwell, Belinda Vines, Fanelda Williams, Sandra Green, and Diedra Thomas. The girls received certificates certifying that they had completed 22 hours of volunteer work.

I, as everyone else in Hereford, want to wish Sharon Tinnin all the luck in the world for the Miss Wheatheart of the Nation contest to be held in Perryton, Saturday, Aug. 24. She and her mother, Mrs. Dale Tinnin, are leaving for Perryton Friday. I know Sharon is going to put her best foot forward.

Kaki Barnard and Kathy Boston returned to Plainview Friday, Aug. 16, from Austin where they had been on FHA business. They spent Friday night with Kathy's sister and her husband. Mr. and Mrs. John Estes. Kaki returned to Hereford Saturday, but Kathy remained until Monday, Aug. 19.

Judy Wiman and family also went to Plainview over the weekend to visit relatives. The Wiman's returned to Hereford Sunday, Aug. 18.

Phyllis and Rita Williams spent the weekend in Lovington, N. M., with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. (Coach) Williams. The business trip turned into a pleasure trip.

Merle Carmichael, why don't you show off that new addition in your family? I'm very anxious to meet your new sister. Sharl Jo Carmichael must be having a lot of fun in Minnesota where she is visiting her brother. I will give you a more fully detailed story when she gets home.

Doris Parsons also has a new sister, Tuule Lehti, of Salo, Finland. She is a cousin of Mari Niinisti, the exchange student who stayed with the Parsons family two years ago.

JoElla McGee spent the past week in Red River, N. M. I can just imagine how much fun she had for that is the most beautiful country in the world to me. I crave its snow in the winter. There is a lot of difference in the scenery below the ski lift that the McGees rode in the summer than in the winter.

Last Thursday, Aug. 8, Suzanne Seigler had a get-acquainted party at her home. Anneliese Kovacs helped Suzanne prepare for the party. She had this party for the friends she met while she was at drama school at West Texas. Those who attended the party were Delbert Colinne, Sandra Talzein, Bill Hankins, Pat Haynes, Shiril Scott, Scott Johnson, all of Amarillo; Warren Cain and Clayburn of Canyon; Pat Ludman of Muleshoe; Patricia and Rebecca Maxwell brought their cousins, Kay Maxwell and Joyce Reatherford of Sherman; Hadie Bailey, a new girl in Hereford from Boise, Ida.; Lawrence Warner, Barbara Clemens, Jim Owen, Gordon Golden, Linda Boardman, Linda Carter, David Grubbs, and Anneliese Kovacs. The driveway and back porch were scrubbed and coated with dance wax. The outside was lighted with Japanese lanterns and decorated with various colors of crepe paper streamers.

Steve Seigler and James Proffitt spent part of last week in Red River, N. M. They went up Sunday, Aug. 11, and came back to Hereford Friday, Aug. 16. I didn't ask the boys what they actually did, but I heard they had more fun than anyone can imagine.

ATTEND OKLAHOMA WEDDING

Attending the wedding of Miss Ann Caraway and Joë Don Cummings in the Stratford, Okla., Church of Christ on Sunday, Aug. 18, were the bride's grandmother, Mrs. W. P. Caraway, her uncle and his family, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Caraway and Robert Caraway of Dawn, and Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Axe and Miss Louise Axe of Erio. Robert Caraway was an usher at the wedding.

FOUR PERSONS NARROWLY escaped death as two vehicles collided at the intersection of U. S. Highways 60 and 385 shortly after 11 a.m. Thursday. A Friona woman, Mrs. Faye Ellen Wilson, 55, 707 Prospect, was seriously injured, but her condition is reported to be good. The accident occurred as the 1962 model sedan, driven by Terri Lynn Wilson, 14, made a left turn in front of the pickup. Neither the driver of the pickup, Charles W. Smith 62, nor D. A. Gregory, Route 4, a passenger, were injured. Damages to both vehicles were heavy. (Staff Photo)

ATTEND ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Clayton, and Mrs. M. T. Rutter recently returned from a trip to Colorado Springs, Colo., where they attended the 25th anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Stafford.

OFF THE Shelf

BY H. A. TUCK

Vacation reading time, while limited and spasmodic, included two interesting novels, Path For Our Valor by Thomas Doullis and The Six-Eleven by Al Morgan.

One is a first novel and well-done as Doullis develops his characters well and tells an interesting story.

Doullis relates the story of three soldiers who are paratroopers in a peacetime commando guerrilla force.

Barrett Clark, PFC, ran away from his rich Philadelphia family with his young bride to look for and lose himself in the exhausting physical and emotional experience of becoming a paratrooper.

Sergeant Gus Damianos is a tough trooper of more than 15 years, who finds release and freedom in free-falling from an airplane.

Captain Kimard J. Moll-henny, who has always lived strictly by the book, suddenly finds his entire and carefully disciplined existence shaken by unexpected events.

Doullis chronicles the rigorous training and discipline maintained by the jumpers. As soldiers, they are a tightly-knit team, contemptuous of the "straight-legs" who don't jump. But as individuals, each of them suffers from his private thoughts as he lines up for the endless wait before the jumpmaster shoves them out the door of the aircraft.

The climax for these men comes during Operation Razor-blade, a dangerous war game that ends in horrible death and disaster.

The Six-Eleven tells of a climax of a different type. This novel tells of the commuters who ride the Six Eleven train to and from Ledgerock Acres. The author early tells the reader that the train is going to be involved in a grinding crash during a fog on a particular evening.

Then he builds his characters toward this one moment, when their lives will change. For some the day has been filled with frustrations, for others, it has marked a turning point in their lives.

Very little can be said in a review of this book without revealing the individual stories and the end, so we'll just suggest that this is just another novel, better than some and certainly worse than others.

Both books are available from the Deaf Smith County Library.

WEEKEND TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. McCracken visited in Decatur this weekend with Mrs. McCracken's cousin, Mrs. F. W. Burton, and her family. They also attended the wedding of Miss Janice Berry and James Conkright on Saturday night in Gainesville.

"I PRESS FORWARD"

... to a high calling in Christ. For I know, "out of the lowest depths there is a path to the loftiest heights." This man's challenge is higher ground... to blaze his way to God. His highest moral intent is to go Heavenward. God had a purpose in his road-block. Maybe there is one before you. God doesn't make it easy for us to be good. But He gave Jacob a ladder and he climbed to Princehood with God. From way down, a man can climb way up when his purpose is lofty. The church will help every man in his climb if he truly seeks higher ground. You are what you want to be — good or bad; of God or of the devil. Then seek good this week... go to church.

By Dale Stevens
Last Monday night Dan True showed a picture of a Kansas dust storm for some reason or other. So many memories of my dust bowl childhood around Lubbock and Lamesa swarmed over me as I looked at that picture.

My parents tell me that on the Sunday afternoon I was born there was such a dust storm that the doctor could hardly find his way to the farmhouse five miles from downtown Lubbock. The day the one that history books call the worst turned day into blackest night, we were driving down 19th Street in Lubbock, and I remember that I was standing in the back seat. That storm really made a lasting impression on all who were in it.

Later when things got really rough in the dustbowl-depression-hit Panhandle, we were living in Lamesa. Mother decided that she could make some money selling Watkins Products. During that summer we drove out frequently into the countryside around Lamesa. To the north and west where the land had been broken only a short time, it was particularly vicious.

One afternoon we passed a car stuck in a sand drift on the road. Another car was attempting to pull it out. Several hours later we came back the same way. Evidently the people had given up and gone to town for a wrecker. But the car's wheels were now clear and it was standing on hard, bare ground. Wind had shifted the sand completely away.

Women Bowlers Meet Monday

The Hereford Women Bowlers' Association met in the First National Bank Monday night, Aug. 19. President Donna Smith read the roll call, followed by the treasurer's report.

Last year's rules were discussed and some changes were made. Each member will be required to pay only $1, instead of the former $1.50, as her dues. The dues pay for the city association expenses. In the future, each team captain must be notified of future meetings in writing. Each team must be represented at every meeting.

Delegates to the Texas Women's Bowling Association Convention were selected. Hereford's association will send Donna Smith and Alice Lueb. The number of representatives depends on the size of each individual club. The convention will be held in Midland on Friday, April 3, 1964.

The president selected members to serve on the tournament committee. Those chosen were Norma Coffey (chairman), Maxine Lewis, Judy Chaky, and Wreathel Green.

The budget committee will consist of the treasurers of each individual team and the city association treasurer, Margaret Byer, who will serve as chairman.

Opal Roberson was nominated as parliamentarian, to replace Jane Kirby.

Part Of Vacation Spent Taking Sewing Course

By Argen Depper
Last week I took five days annual leave and took a sewing course that I have been wanting to have for a long time. It was simply fine and the very best thing about it was that the person who taught it is about 80 year old. I will say "about" as who knows for sure about a woman's age.

The sewing course is a philosophy of construction. Cutting to fit and sewing for perfection. Some of these principles have been incorporated in the sewing you have already had as I have had teaching in this method from our extension specialists. Many of the principles are now used by major pattern companies.

The course started at 9:30 a.m. and lasted until 5:30 p.m. There were three hours of lecture, work periods, and assignments for work at night, but to me this was a very fine vacation.

Today nearly 40 per cent of all Texans derive their income wholly or in part from farming and ranching or connected businesses. These businesses supply the production needs of farmers and process and distribute agricultural products. Too, in farm economy dollars turn over four times before the money leaves the county. In industry dollars spent are spent once.

When have you been down by the Hereford Grain Corporation? There is a lovely flower garden in a very small spot in front of the office. Some very pretty fall flowers.

A recent call to the office on what makes a cake crumb on top. There are two main reasons. Too much flour and the oven too hot when the cake is put in.

How many of you have heard complaints about detergent problems in sewage systems? Several states are taking action against excess foaming or sudsing in sewage systems. The finger of blame seems to be pointing at high sudsing detergents. Chemists are working on efficient detergent formulas. We will likely see and hear more about the matter any day now.

You will be glad to hear that Doris Mahaffey Starkey, a former agent, will be teaching home-making in the Moorland, Okla., schools this term. Moorland is about 18 miles from Woodward. Doris is so pleased with the work and the department and it seems that she has already gone to work.

Too, Loyce Avant Sullivan and her husband, Pat, have moved to Canyon where Pat will be teaching at West Texas State University. Jeanette Faulkner-Hadaway was at Texas Woman's University last week taking the sewing course.

Mrs. Leon Coffin, CL 4-646; Miss Evelyn Bell, EM 4-622; and Mrs. Francis Parker, EM 4-226, have pressure cookers for sale. Mrs. Ruth Rogers has second hand fruit jars for sale.

Mrs. Roy Neaves is always having a good idea. This time it is on a variation of water-melon preserves. It makes a good conserve and I think it will add variety to your pantry.

WATERMELON CONSERVE
by Mrs. Roy Neaves
Rind of 1/2 medium sized melon
Cut in 1/2 inch cubes
Add: 5 cups sugar
2 quarts of water
1 teaspoon alum
Set in refrigerator overnight
Measure the above and add commercial pectin according to the directions.
Add: 1 tablespoon instant lemon crystals
1 tablespoon elder vinegar
Boil until tender and clear.
Makes approximately 4 pints.

A quick way of making dill pickles has been developed by the U. S. Department of Agriculture food specialists. This fresh-pack method changes cucumbers into crisp, tangy pickles without requiring the usual 3 to 6 week fermentation period. Flavor of the dills is excellent though slightly different from fermented dills.

Scientists in USDA's Agricultural Research Service, who have been studying home preservation methods for pickling fruits and vegetables, find that adequate processing in a boiling-water bath destroys spoilage microorganisms and inactive enzymes that cause off-flavors. This finding led to the development of the new pickling method.

Here's how you can make 7 quarts of dill pickles (packed 7 to 10 per jar).

Fresh-Pack Dill Pickles
17 to 18 pounds cucumbers, 3 to 5 inches long
About 2 gallons 5-percent brine (1/2 cup pure granulated salt per gallon of water)
6 cups vinegar
1/2 cup salt, pure granulated
1/2 cup sugar
9 cups water
2 tablespoons whole mixed pickling spice
Whole mustard seed, 2 teaspoons per quart jar or, Garlic, if desired, 2 cloves per quart

Dill plant (fresh or dried), 3 heads per quart jar or, Dill seed, 1 tablespoon per quart jar

Wash cucumbers thoroughly with vegetable brush. Drain. Cover with 5-percent brine (1/2 cup salt per gallon of water). Let set overnight. Drain. Combine vinegar, salt, sugar, water, and mixed pickling spices tied in a clean, thin, white cloth; heat to boiling. Pack cucumbers into clean hot, quart jars. Add mustard seed, dill heads or seed, and garlic to each jar; cover with boiling brine to within 1/2 inch of top of jar. Adjust jar lids.

Process in boiling water for 25 minutes. (This is for altitudes less than 1,000 feet above sea level. To adjust, add 1 minute per 1,000 feet above this altitude.) Count processing time as soon as hot jars are placed into the actively boiling water. Remove the jars and complete seals if necessary. Set jars upright, several inches apart, on a wire rack to cool.

The week on Aug. 26 is vacation time for part of the extension staff. The office will be closed part time so please call Friday if you need canning bulletins or anything else from the office. Yearbooks will be ready to deliver so I will be calling on club presidents to get the yearbooks to them.

Frank Farmer Injured Sunday In Auto Crash

Frank Farmer, a former Hereford resident, was seriously injured in a two-car collision near Lamesa on Sunday. He was reported to be in serious condition at Methodist Hospital in Lubbock.

Farmer, 43, had lived in Hereford for the past five years until his recent transfer to Midland by Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. Farmer's wife and daughter are still living in Hereford.

The accident occurred about 6:30 p.m. as the former Hereford resident swerved his automobile to avoid hitting another vehicle turning left off of State Highway 137 about nine miles north of Lamesa.

As he swerved, his automobile collided with a third vehicle driven by Eugene Morrison, 51, of Dimmitt. Morrison and his wife were listed in satisfactory condition at Medical Arts Hospital in Lamesa.

The vehicle Farmer swerved to miss was not actually involved in the highway accident.
