District ASCS Man Urges Sign-Up For Wheat Program

Deaf Smith County farmers were urged Tuesday night at a meeting held in the Hereford Community to participate to the fullest in the new wheat program by Richard Alexander, ASCS field officer for this district.

Alexander told the assembled farmers that he believed the new program was good for the county because it would raise farm income, cut the carry-over from year to year and save the taxpayers money.

In explaining the program,

Alexander stressed that participation was voluntary, but farmers wishing to receive price support for crops must sign up before Dec. 1.

"It is not mandatory to take price support," he stated. "If you do want price support, you must sign up by the deadline."

A ten per cent cut in the acreage in production is mandatory and is reflected in acreage allotments given recently to farmers in the county.

However, under the new program, as much as 30 per cent of the allotment can be diverted from production on a voluntary basis. The land may be grazed until May 1, 1962, when wheat on diverted lands must be destroyed.

"When acreage is designated as diverted and measured, it is frozen," explained Alexander. "It cannot be changed. If a man does change his mind, the voluntarily diverted acreage will be released to him, but no wheat can be harvested from the land."

A farmer can harvest his full allotment if he decides to change his mind. However, wheat cannot be harvested from diverted lands even if the land has been released to the farmer.

"Released land," continued Alexander, "can be planted with other crops."

A wheat farmer can change his mind about how much he will divert even if he has signed his intent, he stated. The additional diverted land can be planted in wheat if it has not been measured and designated as diverted.

Alexander urged farmers attending to designate maize and volunteer wheat fields as diverted lands to insure enough additional land as insurance against hail or insects.

By putting these lands in the conservation programs, the farmers would have adequate additional land if they have to replant or part of the crop is destroyed.

Two Fined For DWI Offenses

Fines and court costs totaling almost $400 plus 13 days in the county jail were given here Monday to two out-of-county residents for driving while intoxicated, first offense, by County Judge Don Zimmerman.

Fined $200 and court costs plus 10 days in jail was a 36-year-old Negro man, Cleveland Redic of Vega. He was arrested at the intersection of Highway 385 and FM 1063 by Sgt. Roger Sosbee, Texas Highway Patrol.

Redic was picked up Saturday at 12:22 a.m.

The second man, Ernest Lee Calhoun, 41, Walker AFB, N. M., was arrested by Highway Patrolman Charles Skinner about four miles east of Hereford on Highway 60. He was picked up about 10 a.m. Saturday.

Calhoun's fine, including court costs, totaled $176.70. He also received three days in jail.

Both men were tried in County Court here Monday and pleaded guilty to the charges filed against them.

Around Town

"Merry Christmas" greetings will be ringing through the air soon, I know, because I got my 1932 desk calendars this week. And when calendars arrive, can New Year's be far behind?

Christmas is an immediate problem for members of the Trade Promotion Association, which will be meeting at 10 a.m. Thursday, Nov. 9, in the First National Bank community room. Dale Barkley will report on the Jaycees' decoration plans, Harold Kida will talk on the bicycle promotion, window decorations, parade and home decorations. Then everyone will talk about the

City Buys Land, Well; Ups Some City Speed Laws

The purchase of a 1.3 acre tract of land including a six-inch irrigation well was approved by the Hereford City Commission meeting in regular session here Monday night.

L. B. Russell offered to sell the land and the well in the northwest section of the city for $2500. Russell is developing a proposed sub-division in the area.

Approval of the purchase by the Commission adds additional water facilities to the city for future use. The land is adjacent to city property with an overhead water tank on it.

The purchase also gives the city an area in which to build a booster station in the future. The station and additional facilities when built will be constructed to fit in with the surrounding area.

New speed limits along U. S. 60, S. Main St. and U. S. 385 were also approved by the City Commission.

The speed limit on the south side of Highway 60 will be upped to 40 mph from Lawton east to Park Ave. Speed limits on both sides of the highway from Park Ave. to the city limits will be set at 45 mph.

Along S. Main from New York St. south to the city limits the new speed limit will be 40 mph. The new speed limit on U. S. 385 south from the intersection with Highway 60 will be set at 45 mph.

The new speed limits will not go into effect until signs are put up," warned Dudley Bayne, city manager. "These signs are now on order."

A bid from Panhandle Electric, Inc., Amarillo, was accepted for the installation of a 60-watt base station for the radio alarm alerting system.

The bid by the company for the transmitter, antenna and installation was $778. The Commission, at the previous meeting, accepted a bid by Plectron for 35 tone activated receivers and a tone generator.

In other business, the Commission granted the request of City Manager Bayne to advertise for bids for a new pickup of the Water Department and for 2,000 feet of six-inch water pipe and 2,000 feet of eight-inch

GOLD STAR AWARD winners for outstanding achievements in 4-H Club work are Sharon Bezner and Larry Minks. Presentation of the winners climaxed a three-hour County 4-H Achievement Banquet here Monday night. (Staff Photo)

Sharon Bezner and Larry Minks were announced Monday night as the 1961 Gold Star winners for their outstanding 4-H Club achievements.

Their selection highlighted a three-hour County 4-H Club Awards Banquet in the high school cafeteria. A crowd of more than 300 saw awards presented to more than 90 4-H'ers for various fields of activity.

Miss Bezner has been in 4-H Club work for six years. She is 18, a senior in Hereford High and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Bezner, who live 20 miles northwest of Hereford in the Ford Community.

Among her honors, Miss Bezner was winner of the County Dress Reveal in 1959, attended the state-wide Leadership Laboratory this summer, is serving as chairman of the County 4-H Council and was a member of the District Council during 1959 and 1960. She now is serving as president of her home club for the second time and is also acting as a junior leader.

Many of her achievements have been in clothing and public speaking. She placed first in county and district public speaking contests this year and won third place in the state contest during the annual 4-H Round-Up.

Larry Minks, 14, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Minks of Walcott. He is in the ninth grade at Stanton Junior High in Hereford and a member of the freshman football team. He is president of the Walcott Boys' 4-H Club.

With John Ferrin, Larry won the district competition and sixth in the state with a demonstration on beef cattle production.

During 1961, Larry has shown the grand champion steer in three top livestock shows, in addition to his Grand Champion at the annual Hereford Junior Livestock Show. He won at Odessa, Amarillo and, last month, had the grand champion at the State Fair of Texas.

His grand champion Herefords have sold for a total of more than $9,800, not including premiums and bonuses.

Larry also has been an All-Star baseball player with the Hereford Pony League.

Presentation of the Gold Star winners was made by Bill Gresham of Amarillo, district 4-H Club supervisor.

Mrs. Karroll Higgins presented the Danforth Foundation's "I Dare You" awards to LuAnne Higgins and Larry

VFW Poppy Day Slated Saturday

Hereford's Veterans of Foreign Wars Auxiliary will be on the streets Saturday, Nov. 11, for the sale of Buddy Poppies.

Members of the committee in charge of the sale are Mrs. J. L. Davis, Mrs. A. J. Ralston and Mrs. Doyce Nivens.

Mrs. Davis pointed out that more than half of the Buddy Poppy receipts are used for local veteran welfare work, regardless of whether the recipient is a member of the VFW or not.

Other portions of the fund are used for operation or expansion of the VFW national home for widows and orphans of veterans, for hospital or individual assistance of needy veterans and their dependents, and for rehabilitation, welfare and service

Narrow Escape For Two Boys On Track

A short-cut almost turned into a path of tragedy as two Latin American youths narrowly escaped death when hit by a freight train on a railroad bridge southwest of Hereford Saturday night.

Rogelio Valdez, 17, and Eulogio Valdez, 14, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Valdez, were on their way to a grocery store near the city limits when the accident occurred.

According to the youths, they were in the habit of using the bridge as a short-cut on their way to town. As they reached the middle of the long bridge, they spotted the Santa Fe freight approaching from the west.

Afraid to jump because of the high embankment, the two youths began running down the track. At the last moment Rogelio, the older of the two, shouted to jump. His cry came too late, however, as both boys were hit by the train.

Eulogio was grazed by the train as he started to jump, sending him tumbling down the 20-foot embankment. He received only minor scratches on his head and neck.

Following were the indictments returned: Fred Clark Jr., Plainview, second offense driving while intoxicated; Guadalupe Hinojosa, Hereford, statutory rape; Randall Follis and Charles Ray Houtchins, Dimmitt, burglary;

Rich Whitson, Hereford, swindle with worthless check; Pete Natal, Hereford, swindle with worthless check; and Thurmond Johnson, swindle with worthless check.

District Judge Harry Schultz was hearing guilty pleas in court here Wednesday.

During their meeting, Grand Jury members also made recommendations that local law offices not be turned into collection agencies on bad checks and that the public be more fully informed about the statutes in Texas in regard to bad checks.

Full information on the Texas hot check law, the Grand Jury's recommendations and a policy of local law officials will be carried in the Sunday Brand, Nov. 12.

Hereford Teams Win Honors In District FFA Contests

For the second straight year, the Hereford High School vocational agriculture department served as host for the annual Amarillo District FFA contest held here Tuesday.

Teams from the Hereford Future Farmers of America ranked first in two of the six events, and will represent the Amarillo District in the Area FFA Contest to be held in Plainview Nov. 18.

Hereford Future Farmers also rated a second place, as well as three thirds in the contests. There were 350 boys from 18 schools participating in the event.

In their first year of vocational agriculture, Earl Drager, Paul Drager, and Billy Conyers won first place in the junior farm skill contest. Demonstrating electrical wiring and application procedures, the boys rated over second place Dumas and third ranked Canyon.

Also representing the Amarillo District in area contests at Plainview will be Larry Hair, Edward Allison, and Alton Johnson, who rated first place in the farm radio event.

Full information on the Texas hot check law, the Grand Jury's recommendations and a policy of local law officials will be carried in the Sunday Brand, Nov. 12.

Hereford Faces Wildcats In Final Contest Friday Night

Final game of a successful season for Hereford is scheduled in Whiteface Field Friday night, as the Whitefaces close out against the dangerous Littlefield Wildcats.

Hereford has a 7-2 record this year, with two wins and one loss in district play. Littlefield is 5-3, with a 1-1 mark in the conference.

The Wildcats are a hot and cold team, with enough speed and manpower to break a game wide open in a matter of seconds. They manhandled strong Seminole, 28-6, in one of their outstanding efforts of the year.

Two weeks ago, the Wildcats pulled a strong finish out of their den and beat Phillips 19-14 with two last-minute touchdowns. The following week, the Cats were blasted 33-0 by the Dumas Demons in almost a preview of how Hereford would fare against the top-ranked Demons.

Littlefield was idle last week, but spent its time getting ready for Hereford. The Cats utilize a T formation, running the belly series much of the time. They also use a strong-side line for power plays and passes.

Boots Barker, a 170-pound quarterback, is considered a threat every time he has the ball, since he runs well and throws well.

Backing him up are the Estrada boys, Tony and Pete. Tony is a 190-pound fullback while Pete is a 164-pound halfback. Speedy Gary Schovajsa, 164-pound halfback, fills out the backfield with an abundance of speed and weight.

Littlefield's line also is big, just slightly smaller than Dumas'.

Probable starters on the Littlefield forward wall are: William Thompson, 151, and William Bankston, 159, ends; Johnny Basen, 185, and Buddy Price, 190, tackles; Keith King, 190, and Mike Steffey, 168, guards; and John Foley, 172, center.

About the only change on defense will be Jimmy Glover,

ROGELIO VALDEZ, 17, is placed on a stretcher after being hit by a train while crossing a trestle southwest of the city Saturday night. He and his 14-year-old brother, Eulogio, were struck while walking to town. First aid workers, trainmen and law officers made a ten-minute search before finding the boys at the foot of the railroad embankment.

BY JIMMIE GILLENTE
I keep reading and hearing about this "Tropic of Cancer" book, which is getting such a play in Amarillo. Since I haven't read the book, and since I am not familiar with any of the details, I figure that I certainly am obliged to put in my two cents worth.

In a nutshell, it looks to me as if the Amarillo sheriff is a publicity hound, and he is going to get his name in the paper — one way or another.

Have you read the Classifieds?

of the experience." He further brands the volume as dull and outdated as a 1933 bird's nest.

And I do wish he hadn't mentioned birds. I am being overwhelmed by soreheads who say that I am absolutely nuts in trying to protect our local pheasant population. Here's a good example of an unsigned letter:

"Listen, you knucklehead, haven't you heard that too many roosters are bad for fast pheasant increase? It's a known fact that they destroy nests as well as kill the young roosters. You're entitled to your own opinion, but I'd appreciate it if you would keep it to yourself, and quit trying to turn people against something that will help instead of hurt the pheasant population."

Another old boy who is a local businessman says that I am most dense and quite inconsistent. "First you point out how the business people made up money to plant the original pheasants, and now you recommend that the farmers not let them on the farms to shoot same," he declares. "If they put 'em out, why can't they shoot 'em?"

All of which is a bunch of poppycock. There are a few people who simply are not willing to wait a year or two, and let nature take its course. Now that we have some cover, our pheasant crop, for a time, has a chance to flourish. To me, hunting pheasant this year is like killing the hen that laid the golden eggs. I am all for an open season — but not until we have enough pheasant to justify one.

Jack Fortenberry, who lives out in the great northwest beyond Walcott and Sims, was telling me that the rattlesnake crop this season was small. Jack wasn't unhappy, mind you, but he says he cannot figure out why they are so prolific some years, then scarce in others. I suggested that they may have been curbed by the "wet cycle," but Jake thinks not — and I'll string along with him on this particular subject.

Jo Buckmaster was reading the Brand editorial about better behaved teenagers, and says that a group from her church completely turned tables by going around the neighborhood and passing out treats to the inhabitants.

"The youngsters were disappointed when we first told them," she says, "but they came back all smiles, reporting that they never had so much fun in their lives. Several have asked if they could do the same thing come Christmas."

Remember Mr. and Mrs. James Haney? They now live near Burlington, Okla., where the tornado recently hit. Mrs. Haney says it was about 1 1/2 miles from their place and that she watched it all of the time. She says it was a black, lazy cloud — not a funnel. She adds that her own family did not even go to the storm cellar, and that she is most elated it did not come their way, because they would have been completely fooled by its appearance.

Hereford broke into print away off down in Corpus Christi the other day, and got cited as a town which does a good police job. The "Caller-Times" quotes the October issue of Southwestern Law, Page 51:

"The little town of Hereford, Texas, population 8,000, operating only three police cars, filed 42 DWI cases and got 42 convictions."

The item further suggested that the Corpus cops visit Hereford and find out how such a little town can file more DWI's than Corpus Christi, and get 100 percent convictions.

The answer is easy, of course, we just naturally have a lot of drunks.

Which reminds me of a story about a drunk who staggered up to his car, fumbled with the door handle extensively, and finally got inside. He was approached by an officer, who asked:

"You don't plan to drive in this condition, do you?" "Shore!" replied the drunk, "you don't think I'm in any shape to be walking, do you?"

I always feel sorry for the people who had to draw and write the Christmas cards in July and August, but it seems that a lot of other people are getting in the same position.

I hear that Monk Johnson, Pick Harman and Irving Alexander attended market in Amarillo last Sunday during the cold wave and, among other things, bought straw hats for next year. I had often suspected this in regard to some of the models women wear, but not men's hats. However, there were a few models this past summer which made a fellow wonder.

I figure the Whitefaces will bounce back against Littlefield Friday. Littlefield is no pushover, but I figure we are due to win. All in all, the Hereford team has stacked up a most enviable record, especially when you consider that Dumas is ranked as the No. 1 AAAA team in Texas — and has a good chance to win the state title. I am really proud of those kids and our coaching staff. They sure have stacked up a good season.

Annual Staff Sells Bargain

Want a bargain? Lasting through the month of November only, "The 1961 Round-Up" is on sale for only one-half price. No well-equipped high school student should go without one.

Packed full of fond memories, a little tradition, and even a few laughs, the "Round-up" is the diary of events occurring throughout the year at Hereford High School.

From the time schoolhouse doors open to receive 475 reluctantly smiling students in September, until the wee-small hours of the morning following the Senior Party after graduation, yearbook staff members are on the job preparing the cherished annual. Described at various times as a duty, honor, pleasure, task, job, headache, and reward, the responsibility of preparing an annual for Hereford High School falls on the shoulders of ten students.

Sponsoring the yearbook staff is Mrs. Viola Chisolm. She has sponsored the "Round-up" for the past four years. Editor for the 1962 edition is Nancy Edwards, a senior this year. She worked as assistant editor last year. Besides being responsible for proofing all copy and preparing various pages, she is in charge of the art work for this year's edition.

Selected as assistant editor was Jan Story. She is responsible for checking all copy, and editing various sections of the annual along with Nancy. Connie Kent is business manager for the "Round-Up" this year and is in charge of annual sales.

Heading the sports department is Troy Don Moore. Joe Mack Hale, David Dowell, and Dick Combs work on sports copy, as well as preparing their own special pages in the yearbook. Linda Martin and Judy Wiman are at work on their

Thespians Study Make-Up In Preparation For Play

In preparation for the upcoming All-School play, Thespian members attended a special meeting last Thursday night to study make-up techniques. Four speech majors at West Texas State College demonstrated techniques of various types of facial make-up for stage productions, including type a which will appear in "The Diary of Anne Frank."

Originally slated for the last of November, the Thespian Troupe has postponed the production until Dec. 14-15 due to schedule conflicts, according to director James Hinkle.

Jonna Lee Blocker and Gary Wertenberger, both former members of the troupe, were present.

Seniors Plan Buffet Supper

A buffet supper sponsored by the senior class of Hereford High School will be held on Friday, Nov. 10, in the high school cafeteria from 5:30 to 8 p.m. This supper will enable the seniors' favorite little miss, Judy Means, to represent Hereford High School as Annual Queen.

Featured will be a choice of either fried chicken or fried shrimp with side dishes of vegetables and dessert. This should assure some mouth-watering, at least.

Following the supper will be a bake sale. The delectable items (such as coconut-cream pies, German chocolate cake, and homemade apple pie) will be made by the senior girls. And some senior girls can cook, too! If they can't, their mothers will come to the rescue.

Children and adults are welcomed equally, so bring the youngsters. The tickets can be purchased from any senior, and (Continued on page 3)

College Exams Given Seniors

College entrance examinations are now being given to the seniors of Hereford High School who are planning to go to college.

The S. A. T. test is a Scholastic Aptitude Test administered by the college entrance examination board for more than 500 colleges.

The tests are given at designated testing centers, the nearest one being Amarillo. Tests are given during the months of December, January, March, and August.

Representative of the colleges requiring the S. A. T. tests are Texas University, Texas Tech, Baylor University, S. M. U., and many other colleges.

Other colleges will require the American College Test which will be administered at West Texas State, Amarillo College, and many other centers in Texas during the months of November, February, and April.

Some of the colleges requiring the A. C. T. tests are: Abilene Christian College, Lubbock Christian College, Hardin-Simmons University, McMurry College, and West Texas State. These tests are very beneficial when making applications for college, but do not solely determine acceptance or refusal of the college. In other words, a poor grade on these tests does not necessarily mean a student will not be accepted, but every student is encouraged to do his best. The most important factor will be the student's scholastic achievements in high school.

CROP Harvest Another 'Bumper'

The Christian Rural Overseas Program (CROP) had another successful money raising night this year. As is customary, it was held in a church basement, this year being the fellowship hall of the First Methodist Church of Hereford.

Every year on Halloween, junior high and high school students all over the United States come together to go out from home to home to collect money for CROP to send to needy people overseas.

There was a large turnout of students who collected for CROP. Approximately 300 were present!

The program started at 7:30 p.m. as Dick Plank, president of CROP called the meeting to order. Suzanne Langley then gave the prayer which was to be presented on the radio the following morning.

After the opening, the students divided into groups and canvassed parts of town. From then until 9:30 p.m. students were out collecting for CROP. The count of money made Tuesday night was $1,225, with more coming in later.

The students working at the tables played an important part in dividing the town and keeping track of the money brought in. Those working with the money were as follows: Kathy Boston, Troy Don Moore, and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Plank. Students dividing the town were as follows: Mickey Bonasio, Suzanne Langley and Connie Kent.

Groups completed their job, came back and asked for more over and over again until there were no streets left to assign. The spirit and enthusiasm vibrated from the group.

After Dumas Setback

Fiery Hereford Hosts 'Cats

It's not always easy to climb back in the saddle after a nasty fall, but that's the task facing the Herd this week as they make final preparations to host the Wildcats in Whiteface Stadium Friday night.

Going after their eighth win of the season, the "Faces should play before a sellout crowd in their last game if the weatherman keeps his promise for mild temperatures under clear Autumn skies.

The Herd suffered a crushing defeat at the hands of the powerful Dumas Demons last week that brought tears from students, players, and spectators as well. This setback brought to an end the hopes and dreams of Hereford fans for a clean district slate, but still has not eliminated the Herd from district contention.

Although the chances seem unlikely, the Demons could lose their remaining two games with Phillips and Levelland. This together with a Whiteface victory over the Wildcats would put the gold football in the Whiteface trophy case.

If the Demons only drop one of the contests it could throw the district in a deadlock. The

Honor Society Members Initiated

Monday, Oct. 30, the National Honor Society presented its new members during assembly. Troy Don Moore, president of the society, presided. The points for membership were given in the following short speech: Scholarship — Donna Rogers; Character — Lavonne Thompson; Leadership — Judy Fowlkes; and Service — Suzanne Langley.

The new members were welcomed by assistant principal Bill Phillips. The new members then repeated the oath after Miss Mackey, sponsor of the society. Then they were presented their membership cards by Kathryn McClain as Martha Ponder read their names. Bill Miller gave the benediction.

Guests at the initiation were parents of the new members and Mrs. Roy Calvert, last year's N.H.S. sponsor.

This year the society is planning to sell candy to raise money for the scholarship. It presents to one of the senior members each year.

either unhurried adults or other students. Americans are supposed to spend less time waiting in line than citizens of any other country, but with a little thought, we can recall untold hours spent wasted in this process.

Getting to a national level of time wasting, for example, take our local post office. It has been my observation that roughly three out of every four of my fellow school students who buy stamps, are obsessed with the delusion that never again in their lives will they be called upon to purchase another stamp.

Although they buy pencils by the dozen, note-book paper in the dollar-sized packages, and ball-point pens in packages of ten or 12, students are still insistent on buying stamps in odd numbers — like three, seven, or 25.

Stamps, as everybody should know, come in blocks of a hundred, ten by ten, and odd numbers mean that the postal clerk must tear the perforations both vertically and horizontally to give the customer the number of stamps he demands. I know one clerk with an artistic bent, who likes to tear in patterns. The other day I saw him make a fancy block "H" out of a batch of 36. It was impressive. (Continued on page 5)

Seniors So Sad Sing Sad Song

"Ya know, to hear the seniors talking these days, it appears that the administration at HHS is the stingiest, hard-headed, slowest, crudest, lyingest, most stubborn and outlandish bunch of humans ever invented.

Why the very idea! Here it is nearly the middle of November, and the seniors ain't even got their senior rings, yet, as of last Friday.

And the poor teachers, all they hear these days is "When are we gonna get our rings?" Some seniors have proposed a national holiday for the day whenever the precious things arrive, if and when they finally get here.

And then there are those filthy rumors going around that they have been here for a long time, with one story dating their arrival back as far as the day students enrolled!

But then there is Mr. Kenneth Hart, the D. E. teacher, who advises seniors to settle down and forecasts, "You seniors will get your rings pretty soon — about the last of April!" POOR MISTREATED SENIORS!

Daniel Calls Conference To Study Tourist Decline

BY VERN SANFORD
What happened to the million tourists who did not come to Texas this year?
That question faces a state-wide conference of "Texans for Tourists" called for Nov. 28, in Austin, by Gov. Price Daniel.
Since 1957, the number of tourists coming to Texas has steadily declined. Governor Daniel always has felt that Texas should match the advertising programs of other states.
Nationally, tourism is the third largest industry. In Texas, it ranks 13th.
Texas voters amended the constitution in 1958 to allow state money to be spent to attract tourists. But two sessions of the Legislature have declined to appropriate the money.
Charged with responsibility of promoting tourism in Texas is the State Highway Department.
The upcoming all-day session is designed to build grassroots support for legislation to finance a program of advertising.

Safe Highways
An increase in highway fatalities this year, after a 26 per cent decline in past years, disturbs the state's chief policeman, Col. Homer Garrison Jr. of the Department of Public Safety.

Present statistics indicate the number of deaths in 1961 will be 20 to 25 more than the 2,254 of 1960. So Colonel Garrison has sent out word for his men to redouble their efforts to remove the unsafe and reckless drivers from the highways.

Program includes more use of radar equipment to check speeds, especially the new type which requires only one high-way patrolman per car. It also includes more stopping of drivers to make sure they hold drivers licenses.

Tougher enforcement policy will be followed by Governor Daniel's annual Christmas traffic safety drive starting with Safety Sunday — December 10. Governor Daniel urged pastors to remind their members of their personal and moral obligation to drive carefully.

Camping Out
More and more people are using the state park system for overnight camping.
Bill M. Collins, executive director of the State Parks Board, reported that 398,419 persons registered for overnight camp facilities in Texas parks during the fiscal year which ended on Aug. 31. This is far above the 297,418 of the previous year.
Attracting the greatest number were the rugged canyons of Garner State Park. Gain there was 70 per cent, or an increase to 138,951 from 99,731 during 1961. Palo Duro Canyon and Huntsville State Parks also showed substantial gains in campers.

Water Changes
Personnel of the important State Board of Water Engineers has undergone a shake-up.
Governor Daniel has moved Chairman Durwood Manford to the State Board of Insurance, which is troubled by several legislative investigations. Manford, a former speaker of the House of Representatives, can be expected to work on Board-Legislature relations.

To replace Manford, Daniel chose as chairman of the Board of Water Engineers Joe D. Carter of Sherman. He moved him from his present job as executive director of the Texas Water Development Board, the state water lending agency.

Carter has been in state water work since 1952. He has served as legal counsel for the Texas Water Resources Committee; legal examiner of the Board of Water Engineers; and as the first executive secretary of the Water Development Board. He is an attorney and a former representative and senator.

H. A. Beckwith of Eagle Pass was named to the Board of Water Engineers. He previously served 10 years on the board. Since 1958 he has been its chief topographic engineer. R. M. Dixon of Dallas leaves the board.

The Board of Water Engineers is the state's water administrative and planning board. It decides who can take water from Texas streams. It also has worked out a master plan for meeting the needs of the state for municipal and industrial water for the year 1980.

More Tax Laws?
City officials had their annual meeting, and heard Governor Daniel give support to their main thesis — that cities need new sources of revenue if they are to handle the growing problems caused by Texans moving to town.

Most likely avenue is the movement to have the state abandon the property tax, so it can be used exclusively for city and school purposes. The State and Local Tax Study Commission created by the Legislature in 1959 is specifically directed to report on this possibility.

Speaker James A. Turman filled two vacancies on that study group. He named Reps. Charles L. Sandahl of Austin and Charles N. Wilson of Trinity to work with senators and citizens who have been named to it by Governor Daniel and former Lieut. Gov. Ben Ramsey.

In addition to reporting on the idea of state abandonment of the ad valorem tax, now bringing in about $40,000,000 a year, the commission will report on whether other new tax sources should be granted to cities which need them.

Most startling tax news came from James McGrew, research director for the Texas Research

League. He said it is a very close question whether the new sales tax will produce enough state revenue in the two years starting Sept. 1, 1963, to keep the state's books in the black. The big factor — steady and heavy growth of public schools and colleges.

High Head Count
Enrollments in the 19 colleges and universities operated by the state government rose sharply this year — about 11 per cent.
Total head count at the 19 schools this fall was 100,982. This compares with 91,960 a year ago and 52,568 only 10 years ago.

Addition of the University of Houston to the list of state-supported colleges in 1963 will give the state school total a big jump. Its 11,860 enrollment this fall makes it the second largest in the state, second only to the University of Texas' 20,396.
Texas Tech at Lubbock has become the third largest with 10,212 enrolled.

Colleges and universities that are not state-supported showed a smaller gain than the state schools — from 59,096 to 60,924. One factor in the change was the move of Midwestern University at Wichita Falls into the state-supported group.

Fastest-growing college is Arlington State. It had 1,318 students 10 years ago and now has 8,318 to rank it fifth largest. Right behind is Texas A & M, which has 8,835 students this fall.

More Time
The State Board of Insurance urged all insurance companies to extend by 60 days the 90-day period allowed under Texas standard policies for filing proofs of loss on Hurricane Carla.

While it was not an order, it is fairly certain the industry will obey the Board's suggestion voluntarily.

Legislative investigation was completed on the claim-paying practices arising out of Carla. Rep. Charles Ballman of Borger, chairman of the House Investigating Committee, suggested strongly that some legislation should result.

Legislators were particularly critical of the fact that the Texas policy carries the word "hurricane" on the front, but also carries an endorsement which limits the coverage some-

Don't...

I was late in getting back to school from my lunch hour. Perhaps it's asking too much of people to buy a hundred stamps at a time, but the least they could do is compromise and buy ten at a time, thus requiring the clerk to make just one tear and let it go at that. There is no telling how many millions of hours annually on a national scale could be saved.

Then another place where teen-agers lose valuable time is in the grocery store. Many students are imposed upon by their mothers to "pick up a few things at the store." Often there is, at the fruit and vegetable counters anyway, a perpetual bottleneck.

For instance, several days ago, when I was starting to weigh some vegetables, one economically-minded woman beat me to the scale. The sign read "5 lbs. Potatoes for 33 cents" and she took it to mean just that. The woman piled the potatoes on the scale; the indicator stopped at 4 lbs. 13 oz., so accordingly, she added another spud. It now registered 5 lbs. 4 oz. Discarding this one, she substituted a smaller one — 14 lbs. 14 1/2 oz.

By this time, not only I, but seven other customers were chafing to get our onions and cabbage weighed. Now, in an effort to hit it right on the nose, the woman started working in combinations — substituting two big for three medium sized ones; putting in seven small and taking out one huge and two mediums. My contention is that much of this could be stopped by making mandatory the use of an adjustable scale that registers the exact price for any odd poundage. While we are on the subject of food, I have another suggestion: that on the subject of lunch counters and snack-bars, I am aware that nothing could reduce the endless variety of sandwiches and beverages served, nor induce the students to make up their minds quicker. I do believe, however, that the lunch-hour traffic could be speeded up 20 per cent by the elimination of the toasted sandwich. If people have toast for breakfast, they can darn well have their tuna or lettuce and mayonnaise on cold bread for lunch.

Turning now to finance, (and who doesn't eventually?) and to banks in particular, I propose that anyone who walks into a bank carrying a little canvas bag be promptly seized by two special attendants and led forcibly to a window and teller specializing in receiving funds from store clerks, filling station operators, and all such people obviously going to deposit a sum comprising of 16 tens, 31 fives, 83 ones, $16.50 in halves, $18.75 in quarters, $4.70 in dimes, $3.35 in nickels, and 94 pennies.

Keep the ordinary tellers' windows for ordinary customers who are dealing in nice, clean, well-rounded sums of money, and I believe there will be fewer people keeping their cash in mattresses. As for those canvas-bag depositors, supply them with some chairs and magazines and let them wait on other canvas-bag depositors.

And finally, I would like a word with parents of boys under 12 who happen to be unusually tall for their age. For the benefit of hurried high school movie-goers, consider the following situation. Twelve is the dividing line on movie tickets, and when the ticket girl meets the demand for an "under-12 ticket" from a boy who could obviously play center on the University of Texas basketball team, the ensuing battle goes somewhat like this.
"Hey, bud, whadda ya tryin' to pull? Yer over twelve!"
"I ain't!"
"Ya are!"
"I ain't either!"

All the customers waiting restlessly in line are not exactly appreciative of either the overly-big youngster or his parents. So, to me the solution would appear to be to give the gland-happy boy a copy of his birth certificate and insist that he carry it at all times.
Being especially observant of lines, the other Saturday morning, very early, I noticed a long line of high school students in front of a record store waiting for it to open. There was to be a tremendous sale on records after a week-long advertising campaign.
Presently, I saw a little man trying to shove his way to the head of the line. He was successful until he got to one of the star athletes of the school, who was second in line. The boy looked indignantly at the little man, then admonishing him, carried him by the nape of the neck to the end of the line, and returned to his position.

A second time the little man tried to get to the head of the line, and was carried back a second time. The third time the big senior athlete started to tow him back to the rear, the

Fine Five For 'Small Riot' Early Sunday

A "small riot" at a local cafe early Sunday morning led to the fining of five Negro men here for disturbance Monday in Justice of the Peace Court, Judge C. B. Miles presiding.
Also held in connection with the disturbance caused by the disagreement between the men was a 16-year-old Negro youth.
During the fight a window of the cafe was broken out by pistol fire, according to Ed Roberson, deputy sheriff, investigating officer. Also assisting in the arrests was deputy Kenneth Maxwell.

Fine and costs for each of the men was $44.50. Fined were R. B. Booker, 42, 131 Bennett St.; James Harper, 38, Hereford; Charlie Johnson, Hereford; Kenneth Cloud, 131 Bennett St.; and Marcel Cloud, Colorado City.

Behind...

(Continued from page 1) Martha, why did you and your car look like Dickie's car Halloween night, what with the egg and tomato and all?

How do you like egg shampoo, Toni Parker?

David Dowell, did you ever get your watch out of hook? Pretty expensive water, right David?

Mrs. Williams, I hear that you just love your homeroom these days, and Mr. Young, you had best watch that fifth period physics class when it takes a test.

Anybody know how those electrical spoils got on Main Street last week?

Doris Gene Andrews, tell us how you acquired the name "Little Egypt."

Bobby Hernandez, how come cigars make you sick? Maybe you're too young, right?

What's the matter Ruth Ann and Kathy, did you have to be the last ones out of class for lunch?

What happened to the sinks in biology, and also, could you biology students explain what happened to the carrots you are supposed to be dissecting?

Mr. Hudson wants to know who has been throwing erasers in his homeroom.

Audni Miller, we really enjoy your "school spirit" scarf, even if it does clash. By the way, why the diaper bag at school?

We are sorry to report that "Beat" had pneumonia, but we hope he has a speedy recovery.

Bill, mind telling us again why you, Grady, Ike, and Ted were late Wednesday?

Sandra Vaught, who have you been doing those cute curtsies to lately?

Grady Persons apparently has a way to steal brownies in the cafeteria. How about it, Grady?

David Highers would you like for all those who might be concerned to know that he is a candidate for "Most Handsome" this year.

Saamy Mr. Hinkley, what did you say happened to your house last week, and just who were those three "innocent" girls that you think had a hand in decorating your house and car. Too bad that the tissue paper clashed, though.

Kay Seamounts, Shari Jo Carmichael, and Audni Miller, we may as well warn you that those little threatening notes to certain teachers won't help your plane geometry grades a whole lot.

Randy Dowell, John Bob Drake, and "Carl George" McCaslin, where did you get all those little oval things that hens lay on Halloween?

Nancy Edwards, who came to see you last week in the rain? Mack Casler, do you really write the Lubbock Avalanche Journal each week? If so, the Whiteface staff needs some advice.

Bill Miller, where did that lipstick come from that was so noticeable on your white shirt last week?

Kaye Nell wants to know if angels get kicked out of heaven. If anyone knows, let her know so she won't have to worry any more.

Who was the person with the artistic hand that installed the new "Sr. 62" sign on the incinerator?

We are curious to know who the five girls were that got caught in the act of decorating Mr. Gollehon's house by no less than Mrs. Gollehon. (Say girls, you wouldn't know anything about Mr. Hinkley's car wrapping job and the tissue paper lawn of Coach Brooks, now would you?)

Mickey Stevens, we understand that you think it's pretty convenient to have a girlfriend who lives in the country.

Jimmy Weathers, why did you go to the grocery store with a skirt on? Jerry Moss, you might tell us why the freshmen are pushing you around. Say Stan, what's this you've been reading these days?

Janie McBroom, don't you think that you should take better care of your trombone?

And Dianna, what is this we hear about you and Jimmy?

Suzi Woodford, why did all those boys in plane geometry try to quit school? Was it because that wild hairdo you donned last week?

Billy S., we hear that you

(Continued from page 1) Since joining District 1-AAA in 1956, Hereford has won only three district tilts, with two coming this season. The Herd's only other conference victory came in 1960 when they downed Phillips by 25-14.

Win or lose against Littlefield, the Whitefaces have advanced from the dark corners of the district football cellar to take the spotlight in district contention this season.

By no means licked, the Whitefaces will be going after Littlefield with fiery eyes after their bitter loss to Dumas. TRAMPLE LITTLEFIELD BIG HERD!

The Da-Kon-Ya Camp Fire Group recently elected officers for the year.

The officers elected were: Kay Dirks, president; Mary Lynn Gibson, vice - president; Ila Jean Brinkman, secretary; Sherian Selver, treasurer; Julliana Gomez, group captain.

The Wa Cun Ya Group of the Camp Fire Girls gave a Halloween party for their sponsoring group, Woman's Division of St. Thomas Episcopal Church, and their mothers.

Patricia Hill, president of the group, gave the Indian name and its meaning.

Mrs. John Gooch presented to the sponsors a box of clothes collected for an Indian mission.

After the girls sang "Make New Friends" and the "Camp Fire Low Song," two - folk dances, Queen Mary and The Igloo, were presented with music provided by Martha Kate Aikin, Lannie Buck and Camella Pavlicek.

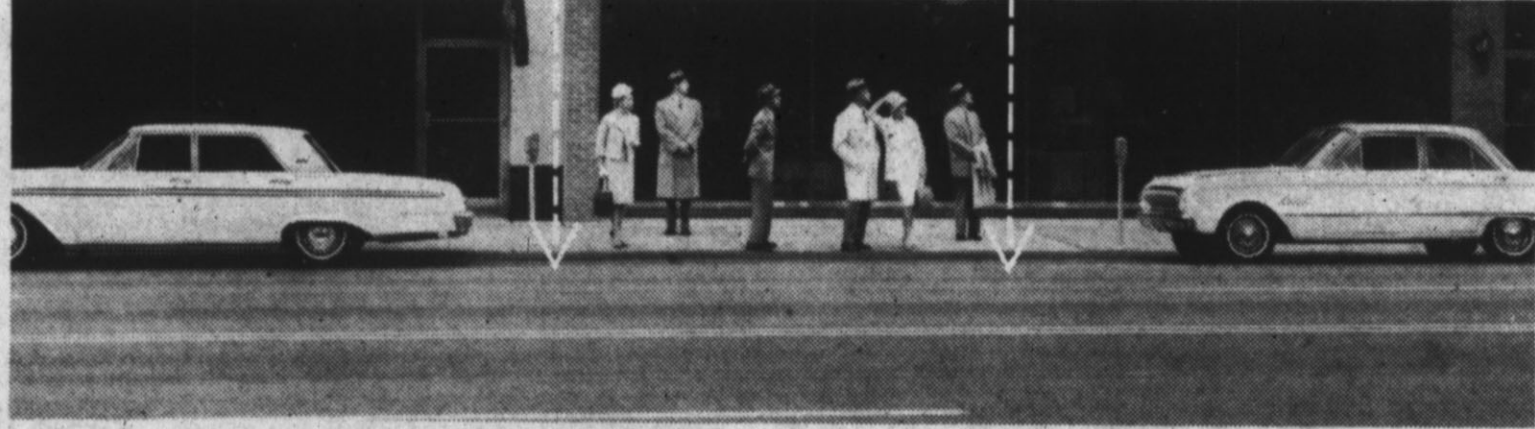

The guests, who were served orange punch, cookies and candy, were: Mrs. W. W. Buck, Lannie Buck, Mrs. Bruce Miller, Pamela Miller, Sharon Robinson, Mrs. John Aikin, Martha Kate Aikin, Camella Pavlicek, Peggy Drummond, Mrs. H. A. Cavness, Cindy Cavness, Mrs. Foster Hill, Patricia Hill, Margaret Phipps, Mrs. Mark Woodall, Susie Woodall, Mary Sue Gooch, and Mrs. John Gooch.

Two detectives recognized the owner as a burglary suspect they'd been looking for and arrested him, too.

Arnold Palmer, a two - time Insurance City Open winner, finished this year's tournament at Hartford, Conn., with a pair of 73s to tie for 30th position. He began with 68-67.

An all-new Ford...
Galaxie and Falcon

Some cars have new names... this name will have a new car!

The name is familiar...the Ford Fairlane 500. The car itself is totally new...so new you'll see nothing else like it this year. It is one of Ford's milestone designs...and will be as influential in its way as the first mass-produced car (a Ford Model T), the first popular station wagon (a Ford Wagon), the first four-passenger luxury car (a Ford Thunderbird), the world's most successful compact (a Ford Falcon).

Right between Galaxie and Falcon in size and in price, the 1962 Ford Fairlane 500 is just the right car for just about everybody: you have never been able to buy anything so right before.

Big in room, ride and performance, it is still priced under most compacts. It nurses a nickel as though it never expected to see another. It moves like a rabbit on roller skates.

Twice-a-year maintenance Service is reduced to a minimum—30,000 miles on many items, twice a year on the rest. You go 30,000 miles between major lubrications, 6,000 miles between oil changes and minor lubrications. You don't have to touch the engine coolant-antifreeze for two years—or 30,000 miles—at a time. Brakes adjust themselves.

New unitized body a foot shorter outside... full-size inside

All-new economy Eight from world's V-8 leader

The hand that honed the Thunderbird... and sped the Falcon to all-time Economy Run honors... turned to a new problem here, the world's first economy V-8. Made possible by new Ford foundry methods, the new Challenger V-8 is as strong as iron—and a lot lighter than iron's ever been before. As lively as you'd like... thrifter than you'd expect a V-8 to be... it's a natural powerplant for America's first eat-your-cake-and-have-it-car.

Faith

You In The Church
The Church In You
—form a combination for good. Every man, woman and child needs the influence of the church. So, come let us go into the house of the Lord. Let us support her program of service to humanity, be a faithful worker, a daily bible reader and attend services regularly.

Son of man, whenever I doubt of life, I think of Thee." So wrote George Matheson in his blindness.
Whenever you and I doubt either God or man, we would do well to think of Jesus. His cross is a symbol of what God is and what we may become. The proud Roman at the foot of the cross said, "This man was the son of God."
Jesus was supremely a man of faith. He had great faith in both God and man. We have faith in God largely because we must have Him. We are not sufficient unto ourselves. Do you have faith? Life becomes a radiant thing for people of faith, since they see so much deeper into the secrets of life. The universe opens its heart to eyes of faith; closed doors swing ajar when faithful steps approach; loving spirits smile their welcome to trustworthy souls; latent powers blossom in the presence of fidelity; young children and wise old age give themselves with abandon to those who offer confidence. God waits to share His blessings on men who can be trusted. Of the Pilgrims of yesterday, guided by the Divine, it was said, "They were men of faith and very sure of God." Are you sure of God?

Annual...

At the beginning of the year, each person on the staff is assigned certain departments to prepare. They are responsible for arranging pictures, preparing copy and captions, and drawing make-up sheets for their assigned organization.

All annual staff members help in the Annual Queen race, "Stunt Night," and the "Koo-bray" Awards Assembly. Every member sells yearbook subscriptions, and draws posters for the various events sponsored by the staff.

Although photography is done professionally by Angel Studios, annual staff members are responsible for arranging all pictures, and aiding in the planning of composition.

Staff members, as well as the sponsor Mrs. Chisolm, literally "scout town" to find a location suitable for various pictures to be used.

"I nearly got stopped one afternoon while driving down an alley hunting a pretty backyard for a picture," admits Mrs. Chisolm.

Planning where and how to take the hundreds of pictures, as well as making arrangements to have the pictures taken is one of the hardest tasks for the annual staff.

"I guess one of our biggest problems is to get variety in pictures," states Mrs. Chisolm, "and to use as many different people in them as possible."

"This is hard because we usually have to pose our pictures." Another headache is arranging the pictures of class members without having repetition in the layouts, continued Mrs. Chisolm.

In the spring, the annual staff plans the entire annual for the following year. They must plan the over-all theme, select a cover depicting the theme, and decide the approximate number of pages the book will contain.

"The Round - Up" has deadlines to meet in September, December, January, and February for submitting copy to the publisher.

If past records mean anything, the "Round - Up" for this year is destined to be even better than ever. The Hereford High School yearbook is entered in the National School Yearbook Association each year, where it is critiqued and rated.

In 1958, the "Round - Up" received a "C" rating in the judging. In 1959 it advanced to a "B," and was judged "B-plus" in 1960. The staff expected an even better rating for the '61 edition, but ratings for the book have not been received yet.

As mentioned, the student pays only "half-price" for the Round - Up. Each copy of the 1961 "Round-Up" costs exactly $3.67 to produce. Students are charged only $4 per copy.

The other money for the yearbook comes from the Annual Queen race, and "Stunt Night" profits. "We have tried to keep the cost of the yearbook down," states Mrs. Chisolm. "As long as we have such a success with the Annual Queen race and Stunt Night, we will not sell ads," she says. The staff feels that local businessmen had rather contribute to these events than to be called upon to buy ads in the annual, as many other towns do.

Selection and presentation of the "Round - Up" personalities is one of the highlights of the year at Hereford High. Yearbook personalities are presented in the annual "Koo-bray" awards assembly.

Class favorites and other personalities will be presented in this assembly Dec. 15, sponsored by the annual staff and the Student Council.

Mrs. Chisolm states, "Nobody knows who any of these personalities are except the principal and myself, but everyone tries to find out."

The two usually manage to keep the personalities a secret, however, until the names are announced during the program.

For the annual staff, the biggest event of the year comes with the presentation of "The Round - Up" shortly before school is out.

"We try our best to keep it a secret," say staff members, "and everyone else tries his best to get it out of us when the annuals arrive."

Lots of complaints were voiced around the campus last year when the staff told students that the yearbooks would be late arriving, because they had mis-ed their deadline (which was true) but the annuals were passed out on time to everyone's delight and surprise.

Sales for the 1962 edition of the "Round - Up" began last week, and will continue until the end of November. Students may pay $2. now and the balance later on in the year, or may pay the entire price of only $4 now.
Either way, it's a bargain!

REP. WALTER ROGERS WRITES

Russians Must Be Confused About Changing Opinions

TO THE PEOPLE OF THE 18TH DISTRICT:

The Russian people must be completely confused by the recent turn of events. Since they are not allowed to speak out and to demand explanations, I wonder what is going on in their minds. It is possible to close the mouth of a human being by duress or otherwise, but it is impossible to stop the thinking machinery of a human being unless you physically destroy the individual.

Despite the suppression to which the average Russian has been subjected, he must be presently asking himself, "Who and how much can I believe?" He has been told that the names of Karl Marx, Lenin, and Stalin were synonymous with Communism. He was first told that the name Trotsky was associated equally with Lenin. You will recall that Trotsky met his end by violence in Mexico. Historians have differed as to why, but they have not differed as to the fact that it was at the hands of the Communists that he died.

During the life of Stalin, he was the lord and master of all the Russians and the satellites. Much has been written about the manner in which he wielded his power and his trials and tribulations in maintaining that power. Nevertheless, after his death in 1953, which was questioned in many circles as to its cause, his body was entombed beside that of Lenin.

They laid side by side in a tomb in front of the Kremlin wall, adjacent to the vast Red Square. The faithful from all the Russias made their pilgrimage to this tomb to view the remains of these two Communists, encased in glass, preserved in some sort of gaseous substance with a faint orange tinge: Lenin with his arms by his sides and his fists clenched, and a stern look on his face; Stalin, to the contrary, with his hands folded across his chest, a faint smile beneath his heavy mustache, his entire body completely relaxed, a picture of serenity—a picture completely contrary to the real Stalin of blood purge fame who has now been denounced and condemned by his fellow travellers, those who no doubt feared during the living days of Stalin that this fate might be visited upon them at any moment.

Why were the Russian people led to believe for more than seven years after his death that Stalin should be revered and worshipped? Had Stalin so entrenched himself with power in depth that it required this length of time to unshackle the stranglehold that he had gained? Surely the Russians must be thinking silently, "If Khrushchev was associated with Stalin and his group, as he was, surely he knew the truth about this man. Why did he withhold this information from us these many years? Why has he stood atop the tomb holding the body of Stalin and praised this man to the vast crowds gathered in Red Square on so many occasions?"

Speaking of the thoughts that must be passing through the minds of Russians, it would be interesting to know what Mr. Khrushchev is thinking. Surely he must be reviewing in his own mind the fate of Trotsky, the fate of Beria, the fate of Malenkov, Bulganin, Molotov, and last but not least, Stalin. He must be convinced that Communism will not permit even the dead to rest in peace. He undoubtedly knows what is in store for him. His prime objective is to delay that end as long as possible.

Khrushchev is thinking. Surely he must be reviewing in his own mind the fate of Trotsky,

North Hereford Club Studies Good Posture

A program on good posture and its relation to good health was presented to members of the North Hereford Home Demonstration club on Thursday Nov. 2, in the home of Mrs. A. A. Hare.

In answer to roll call, members stated "how they practiced good postures and the exercises used to develop good posture." Mrs. Belle Williams read an article, written by the movie star Bette Davis, who told how she transformed herself from the trim movie star that she is, into the dumpy "Mom Hurley" of MGM. Miss Davis said that carriage and stance are as important as characterization, makeup or costume in the portrayal of a role. These traits are vital to every woman who wishes to create an illusion of beauty.

The program continued with Mrs. Martha Finch reading the article, "We won't outgrow good posture if practiced while young."

Mrs. Zelda Kendrick, vice president, conducted the meeting in the absence of the president, Mrs. Marie Ward. Mrs. A. A. Hare read the council report.

Mrs. Otto Olson will be hostess to the group at the next meeting on Nov. 16 at the Bull Barn. Members present were Mesdames A. A. Hare, C. L. Whitehead, Belle Williams, R. A. Full-wood, Mary Bodkin, Mary Gooch, Zelda Kendrick, Lena Olson, Otto Massie, O. C. Williams, Martha Finch, Dorothy Klein, Johnny Welborn and Miss Roberta Campbell.

Baker Brothers To Lead Week's Revival Service

The Baker Brothers will lead a week-long revival at the First Baptist Church in Hereford. The meeting will start Sunday, Nov. 12, and continue through Nov. 19.

Morning services will start with coffee and doughnuts at 6:30 a.m., with the preaching service beginning at 7 a.m. Evening services will be at 7:30 p.m., according to the Rev. Herschel Thurston, pastor.

Bo Baker, the preacher, was a member of the now-famous Youth Revival Movement while still a student at Baylor. He was pastor of churches for 16 years in Texas, including ten years as pastor of the Birchman Avenue Baptist Church, Fort Worth.

Dick Baker, the singer, is a composer, as well as a vocalist and pianist. One of his songs, "Longing For Jesus" has been translated into five languages. He was a member of the Billy Graham team during the New York City Crusade.

A nursery will be available during all services.

Football Contest Standings

It has been a long hard battle, but O. C. Curtsinger has finally caught up with Mrs. Pat Voyles in the Brand Football Contest. Each of the two has picked 120 of the 160 games thus far this season.

Only two more weeks remain in the contest, with cash prizes going to weekly winners. High point man at the close of the season will earn tickets to see the New Year's Day Cotton Bowl classic.

First Showing IMPERIAL OF 1962

IMPERIAL LE BARON FOUR-DOOR SOUTHAMPTON

A forthright challenge to everyone who plans to buy a luxury car this year

In a few days, you will receive a personal invitation to drive a 1962 Imperial. Not the usual vague "see your dealer" . . . but a specific challenge to compare your own car with the best Imperial we've ever built.

At your convenience, a dealer in your area will deliver a 1962 Imperial to you . . . for a thorough comparison-tour that you conduct by yourself.

We believe anyone planning to invest from five to seven thousand dollars in an automobile is entitled to the unembroidered facts right from the car itself.

Naturally, our dealers explain the advantages of torsion-bar suspension . . . tell you how the alternator supplies current even while the engine idles . . . quote engineering data on the superior performance of our new transmission . . . and answer any other question you ask about Imperial.

But you can find out only so much about Imperial by mere listening. To give the facts substance and meaning you must drive and compare.

So, when our invitation arrives, take us up on it. It obligates you not at all. And whether you eventually buy an Imperial or not, you'll never forget that once you drove a car which handled and accelerated and thrilled as a great car is supposed to.

R.S.V.P. Even though our invitation may somehow miss you, an Imperial comparison-tour may easily be arranged by writing on your letterhead to: General Manager, Imperial Division, 12200 East Jefferson, Detroit, Michigan.
