Chamber endorses proposal

Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce directors endorsed a proposed Hereford Rehabilitation Center during a regular monthly meeting Thursday evening.

The chamber board unanimously approved a resolution in support of the facility, which would treat persons placed on probation for substance abuse. The Community Supervision and Corrections Department of the 222nd Judicial District initiated the project and had previously made a presentation to the chamber board.

Deaf Smith County Commissioners voted Monday to send a letter of intent to Austin to make state officials aware that the county is interested in pursuing the project.

In other business Thursday, the chamber board heard committee progress reports and got an election update from Mike Carr, executive vice president.

Carr announced that the Leadership Hereford program will start Tuesday, Oct. 30, with 12 people going through a series of workshops on community involvement. He said there were still four openings for the classes. The last session of the industrial development seminars is scheduled Nov. 6, with 15 persons scheduled to receive graduation certificates.

The election of four new directors is scheduled in a mail ballot to C of C members in November. Six nominees have been placed on the ballots. Cal Mitts withdrew his name and David Hernandez has replaced him on the ballot. Other nominees are Bill Lyles, Lewis McDaniel, Burl Miller, James McDowell and Donna West.

Carr also reported the retail business committee is making plans for Christmas promotions. Directors attending the meeting were Doug Josseland, Rocky Lee, Scott Keeling, James McDowell, Ken McLain, Waldo Baxter, Diane Hoelscher and Carol Gerck.

Shirts offered to voters Saturday

County Clerk David Ruland, right, shows the special t-shirts his office will be giving away Saturday to Brand Publisher Speedy Nieman. The first 25 persons to vote Saturday at the clerk's office will receive one of the special t-shirts. Anyone wishing to vote early may do so, and the special Saturday vote is designed for persons unable to take off during the week.

Richards' poll: race is even with Williams

AUSTIN (AP) - Buoyed by a new opinion poll, Democratic Ann Richards says she's now in a dead heat with Republican Clayton Williams.

"It's not (that) the gap is narrowing; this race is even," Richards said Thursday. "There's no gap at all."

Williams, who on Wednesday had said he was "nervous," remains confident, aides said.

"Our candidate is upbeat," said Williams press secretary Gordon Hensley. "We believe and are confident in our (internal poll) numbers and the issues we're running on."

The campaigns responded to a survey released Thursday by The Eppstein Group of Fort Worth. That poll of 1,209 registered voters, taken Oct. 16-21, gave Richards and Williams 38 percent support each, with 24 percent undecided. The poll has a margin of error of three percentage points.

The same poll had shown Williams with a 13-point lead in August and followed by nine days a Gallup poll that had put Williams five percentage points ahead of Richards, at 45-40.

"One thing we're delighted with is that all the movement is down for Clayton Williams and up for me," Richards said during an appearance in Houston.

Campaigning in McAllen on Wednesday, Williams had acknowledged that the race was fluctuating as election day nears.

Williams said independent polls "are bouncing back and forth every day" but that his own campaign's surveys show him with a substantial lead. "I'm working hard, and ... it's a little bit like that Merle Haggard song: 'I'll just keep on working as long as these two hands are fit to use.'"

Democrats said they believe Williams has peaked after months of heavy television advertising.

"He's been on TV too long. Clearly, the voters have grown tired of his cowboy thing," said Chuck McDonald, a spokesman for Richards.

"He's probably suffering from overexposure and people are now beginning to see him and recognize him for the individual he is," added Attorney General Jim Mattox, who lost the Democratic nomination to Richards.

RICHARDS

Williams' spokesman rejected that theory, adding that Richards hasn't yet topped 40 percent in a poll.

"The Democrats are attempting to use this 'overexposure' spin as an excuse for her consistently poor performance in ballot tests against Clayton Williams," Hensley said.

"She's never broken 40 percent in any poll. She is the 'Typhoid Mary' of Texas politics - nobody seems to want to vote for her," he said.

In other political developments: Richards, appearing at Rice University with Kate Michelman, director of the National Abortion Rights Action League, said she believes that "no legislator, no congressman, no bureaucrat and certainly governor has a right to intervene with the decision a woman makes about whether to bear a child."

State Comptroller Bob Bullock, the Democratic candidate for lieutenant governor, sharply criticized GOP hopeful Rob Mosebacher for a TV commercial showing Bullock with a hand cupped behind his ear.

"Today, Mosebacher is making fun of me for being hard of hearing and being 61 years old. Who will he poke fun at tomorrow - people with visual impairments or perhaps a veteran who lost an arm or leg?" Bullock asked.

Responding, Mosebacher spokesman Mark Sanders said the Republican wasn't making fun of any impairment. "Bullock's infirmity is that he's been in Austin for 33 years and it's time for him to move on," Sanders said.

More US troops sent to Gulf

WASHINGTON (AP) - The Pentagon is sending additional troops to Saudi Arabia partly to counter a recent hardening of Iraq's defenses in occupied Kuwait, officials say.

Defense Secretary Dick Cheney said Thursday that more American GIs - possibly as many as 100,000 - will be shipped to the Saudi desert to join the 220,000 U.S. forces already in the Persian Gulf area following Iraq's invasion of Kuwait on Aug. 2.

He said no final decision has been made on which additional units will be sent.

Cheney and other officials said the troop addition does not signal a switch in U.S. policy from defending against a possible Iraqi invasion of Saudi Arabia to laying the groundwork for an offensive against Iraq.

Cheney said the extra troops, some of which may come from U.S. bases in Germany that are scheduled to close, will give U.S. military authorities more leverage in dealing with Iraq's huge army, which includes an estimated 3,500 tanks in Kuwait.

"Our decision to add forces results from Iraq's almost doubling of forces in Kuwait and southern Iraq from approximately 265,000 in early September to about 430,000 today," the Pentagon said in a statement released after Cheney disclosed the decision in television interviews.

Cheney also said the Pentagon was planning to send fresh troops to the Saudi desert to replace units due for rotation back to their home stations. He said final decisions were pending on which units to rotate and in what order.

Rich footing bigger tax bills

WASHINGTON (AP) - Drivers, smokers and drinkers are about to be socked to cut the federal deficit. But many wealthy Americans, especially those with big families, may feel they're being soaked.

A $150 billion, five-year tax increase making its way through Congress would hit especially hard at high-income people. One new provision affecting the well-to-do is being criticized as nothing less than a tax on children.

It would phase out the tax saving from personal exemptions as family income rises above $150,000 a year. Losing that tax saving would have the effect of raising the marginal tax rate on those families - and the larger the family, the higher the rate.

Congressional analysts said the emerging bill would raise from 15.4 percent to 16.1 percent the portion of the federal tax burden paid by those with incomes over $200,000 a year. Their taxes would rise on the average by 6.3 percent. On the other hand, those with incomes under $20,000 would get a tax cut because of an increase in the earned-income credit for poor working families with children. Those with incomes between $20,000 and $200,000 would face tax increases in the range of 2 percent.

For most people with incomes under $50,000, the bill's only increases would come from consumer taxes.

Hightower loses tip of finger in mower

AUSTIN (AP) - A bandaged Jim Hightower will remember this re-election campaign as the one when he lost - lost a piece of his finger, that is.

The state agriculture commissioner had an accident with a lawn mower Saturday and cut off the tip of the ring finger on his left hand.

The Democrat initially tried to blame Republicans.

After a news conference Thursday, Hightower said, "I was pointing out the economic and environmental failures of the Bush administration and there was just too many of them for one finger," Hightower said.

But later, Hightower came clean.

He said he was rushing to mow his yard before sunset after a full day on the road campaigning.

"I tried to mow some flowers, so I could mow under those flowers," he said.

"I managed to put my finger under a lawn mower. If you'll check your manual and remember what your Mama said and what common sense tells us is don't do that."

"And now I can tell you from personal experience. Don't do that," he said.

Drill team ready for performance

The Hereford High School Drill Team kicks up its heels as part of the halftime show at last Friday's Hereford-Randall football game. The drill team, twirlers and Mighty Maroon

Band will be competing at the District Marching Contest on Saturday at Borger.

Time change is Sunday

Don't forget: the time change is this Sunday, and if you set your clocks back one hour before retiring Saturday night you'll likely get an extra hour's sleep Sunday morning.

Daylight Savings Time ends Sunday and most of the United States reverts back to standard time until the first Sunday in April.

You should move your clock back one hour before retiring Saturday night/Sunday morning so you will be on time for church and other activities Sunday and Monday.

The time change is part of the Uniform Time Act of 1966, since amended, which established Daylight Savings Time for the U.S. during the spring and summer months. It takes an hour of daylight from the morning and moves it to the evening.

Man arrested for theft

A man, 42, was arrested Thursday on theft charges. The man tried to steal a pair of brown work boots from a local department store and was apprehended by police while he was walking behind the store in the alley, police said.

Other reports included three 12-packs of beer taken from a local store; a box containing 300 shotgun shells, and a hunting vest, were stolen out of the bed of a pickup while it was parked at the Community Center; a youngster pointed a shotgun at another person and pulled the trigger, but the gun did not fire, and the gun was taken from the boy by another youth; and a girlfriend allegedly attacked her boyfriend and inflicted minor wounds to his chest and stomach, but no charges were filed.

Police issued 24 citations, a citation for allowing a dog to run loose was given, and two minors were cited for possession of alcohol.

Firefighters responded to a hopper fire at the Reinauer shed west of the city and a burr fire 17 miles north of Hereford.

Clear, warm forecast

Tonight, clear. Low in the lower 40s. South wind 5 to 10 mph.
Saturday, sunny with a high in the mid 70s. North wind 5 to 15 mph.
The extended forecast for Sunday through Tuesday is calling for continued fair weather. Highs will be in the 70s and lows in the 40s.
This morning's low at KPAN was 42 after a high Thursday of 78.

KINGSVILLE - Santiago Cantu says the sheriff's department has no authority to keep $17,223 found in Cantu's car, and he wants a judge to jail the sheriff.

EL PASO - Defense attorneys for a convicted rapist accused of killing six women and burying them in the desert won't have the benefit of a look at everything in prosecutors' criminal files when the case goes to trial.

AUSTIN - Buoyed by a new opinion poll, Democratic Ann Richards says she's now in a dead heat with Republican Clayton Williams.

Soviet Kazakhstan becomes 14th to declare sovereignty

MOSCOW (AP) - Kazakhstan has become the 14th of the 15 Soviet republics to declare sovereignty, defying the national legislature and banning nuclear tests on its territory in Central Asia, Soviet media reported.

Kazakhstan's parliament on Thursday declared sovereignty and ordered a halt to all nuclear testing on its territory, stretching from the Caspian Sea to the Chinese border, the independent Interfax news agency reported.

The action Thursday came after environmental activists claimed Kazakhstan's 15 million people suffer an elevated cancer rate and other health problems because it is the site of one of the country's main testing grounds for nuclear warheads.

The only republic that has not declared sovereignty from the central Soviet government is Kirgizia. The republic is a mountainous region in Central Asia with 4.2 million people, about half of whom are ethnic Kirgiz and predominately Moslem.

In Moldavia today, authorities in the republic bordering Romania planned to send police to the Gagauz region, where an ethnic minority has declared sovereignty and begun holding elections.

The Kirgiz parliament is debating the issue and is likely to take the step soon, the republic's most famous native son, writer and Presidential Council member Chingiz Aitmatov, said in an interview with The Associated Press on Tuesday.

Busloads of college-age volunteers were also headed for the area today. Konstantin Rabu, a member of the Moldavian People's Front, said in a telephone interview from the Moldavian capital of Kishinev that the volunteers were unarmed and would try to end the Gagauz independence drive peacefully.

The accelerating breakaway of the republics, which began with Lithuania's declaration of independence on March 11, has plunged the Soviet government into a constitutional crisis.

"We want to talk them out of this craziness," he said. President Mikhail S. Gorbachev made a telephone call to Moldavia's president, Mircea Snegur, to warn that "violence and confrontation are impermissible," the official news agency Tass said.

The national legislature passed legislation Wednesday saying its laws take precedence over decisions by parliaments in each republic. But the republics have shown no intention of complying.

Texas Longhorns on comeback trail

AUSTIN (AP) - By the turn of the century, the legendary Texas Longhorn was replaced by a fatter breed of cattle, but the sturdy animal is on the comeback trail.

"Probably the largest hurdle we have is convincing old-time cattle raisers they need to change," Bill Anthony, president of the International Texas Longhorn Association, said at the group's first annual meeting.

Anthony, an Ardmore, Okla. rancher, started raising Longhorns 25 years ago and has fallen in love with the breed.

"They are extremely intelligent. You can make housepets out them if you want," he said.

But it's not their intelligence that is putting them back on the market.

"The bottom line is the Longhorn has qualities consumers want on their dinner plates and the qualities many ranchers are seeking to develop in their livestock," said Mike Moeller, deputy state agriculture commissioner.

Moeller said Longhorn beef yields a greater percentage of lean beef than any other breed.

For cattlemen, Longhorns are a low-maintenance, genetic gold mine.

Descended from Spanish cattle brought here centuries ago, the Longhorn has adapted to severe climates, can forage on poor quality grass, is resistant to several diseases and produces rich milk.

When bred with other breeds, the Longhorns cut down on the number of calving problems, Moeller said.

"It's just a matter of educating consumer and cattlemen," said Carrol Shores, a rancher near Cameron who has about 100 head of pure Longhorns.

Also there is the mystique of raising an animal that essentially created the cowboy and made America a country of beefeaters.

"When you have something that has been for so many years of historical greatness, it's hard not to be fond of Texas Longhorn cattle," Anthony said.

A Longhorn cow could fight two wolves, do without water for two or three days, and eat brush and prickly pear.

During the 25 years after the Civil War, an estimated 10 million Texas Longhorns were driven north and west from Texas.

And another good thing about the Longhorns is that they come in all colors, Anthony said.

"You're hardly ever going to find two of them alike. It's like Christmas every calving season," he said.

NOBLE CLAUDELL SIKES Oct. 24, 1990

Former Hereford resident, Noble Claudell Sikes, 77, of Portales, N.M., died Wednesday, Oct. 24, 1990, at Lubbock Methodist Hospital. Among his survivors is a sister, Wilma Pierce of Hereford.

Services will be at 10 a.m. Saturday in the Third and Kilgore Church of Christ with Dan Rouse, minister, and Barney Blue officiating. Burial will be in the Portales Cemetery by Wheeler Mortuary.

Mr. Sikes was born in Rowden and moved to Hereford in 1928. He graduated from Hereford High School in 1931 and attended Texas A&M three years before moving to the shipyards.

He was a U.S. Navy veteran of World War II. After his discharge in 1946, he moved to Portales, where he farmed and taught a veterans' agricultural course. He later worked for what is now the ASCS in Lubbock.

He married Leona May Shedeck in 1948 and they lived in Portales. He opened Sikes Pipe and Irrigation Supply in 1961, which he later sold to Gifford Hill Western. In the early 1970s, he opened Chaparral Irrigation and sold it in 1978. He raised cattle and was inducted into the Cattle Breeder's Hall of Fame in 1981. In 1990, he was honored for his efforts in soil conservation, particularly for his cellular system of grazing and extensive terracing.

He was a member of Third and Kilgore Church of Christ and was a strong supporter of the Church of Christ Student Center at Eastern New Mexico and the New Mexico Children's Home.

He was preceded in death by his parents, N.P. and Emma Sikes and a sister, Joy.

Survivors include his wife, Judy of the home; two sons, Robert Harry Sikes of Portales and Jimmy Sikes of Lubbock; two daughters, Lenna Rolan of Portales and Belinda Jo Sikes of Lubbock; five brothers, N.P. Sikes Jr. of Midland, Jack Sikes of Culbertson, Neb., Bobby Sikes and Barry Sikes, both of Valley Center, Calif., and Don Sikes of LaGrange; five sisters, Wilma Pierce of Hereford, Moy Dudley of Portland, Ore., Belinda Blue of Portales, Billie Tabor of Liberal, Kan. and Kathryn Cox of Gallup, N.M.; and two grandchildren.

The family request memorials be to New Mexico Christian Children's Home or the Church of Christ Student Center, ENMU.

Sinnacher works on project

Kent Sinnacher, left, and Jerry Warren of the Whiteface Kiwanis Club work on the triangle park at U.S. Highway 60 and East Park Ave. in Hereford recently. Sinnacher, a member of Boy Scout Troop 51, is working on the park as part of his Eagle Scout project and has enlisted the assistance of the club and many businesses and other persons to plant bluebonnets and do other landscaping at the park.

Math and science take prominence; survey targets hot job prospects

DALLAS (AP) - Math and science will take on new prominence as emerging professions in the 1990s concentrate more heavily on high-tech skills, a new study reveals.

A Texas Innovation Information Network System study released this week shows jobs for laser nurses, robotics workers, telecommunications specialists and artificial intelligence technicians will flourish through 2000.

The two-year study, commissioned by the Texas Department of Commerce, identified the emerging professions to help prepare the state's educational institutions and businesses, said study director Dan Morrison.

Morrison, who is TIINS associate director, said in the 1990s the state's high schools, technical institutes and colleges will face the additional challenge of making math and science palatable to more students.

"It's going to put more pressure on the whole educational system to find a way to encourage junior high school students to become oriented to science and math," he said.

"Science and math is the key to all these jobs. If you skip high school algebra, you are out of the game," he said.

Most of the jobs in the TIINS study have a strong foundation in technology, Morrison said.

"I think there will be an ongoing change in the way people think about technology," he said. "Technological change is going to become just an accepted fact of life and people will adapt to it and constantly be in a learning mode.

"We are basically being dragged, kicking and screaming, into a brave new world and Texas is going to be right on the cutting edge because of its strong and very large business sector," he said.

Most of the 50 jobs pinpointed by the study don't require a four-year college degree.

"These are jobs that are available to today's high school graduates with as little as 12 months of additional training," Morrison said. "That's terrific news for high school people."

The study also forecasts a change in vocational education.

"There is going to be less and less demand for auto body mechanics and others that you traditionally think of as vocational technical graduates... as more and more identify with computers, lasers, robotics and artificial intelligence systems," Morrison said.

The increasing emphasis on technology coupled with advances in many fields means that many workers already on the job may have to update their knowledge and skills.

"More and more people are going to have to go back and get retraining," Morrison said. "There will be new skills in the service sector and there will be a shift of skills in established industries like manufacturing."

One area already impacted by the lag between worker knowledge and existing technology is the health care field.

"The overriding concern of the health care industry is that there are not enough qualified people to fill job openings that require an understanding of current technologies," the study said, citing as examples nurses and health care technicians.

Other findings of the study are:
- As businesses increasingly look to automation, more technicians and specialists will be needed to operate and manage computer networks, telecommunications and hardware.

- Developments in agriculture will give rise to new opportunities in agriculture engineering, aquaculture, crop protection and production, sanitation and research.

- The manufacturing, design and engineering fields will increasingly demand technicians skilled in computer-based technologies, robotics, artificial intelligence, artificial vision and computer-aided design.

- The demand for specialists in environmental testing, waste recycling, asbestos removal and alternate fuel analysis will increase.

- Development in laser and electro-optics technologies will give rise to the need for laser specialists and fiber-optic maintenance technicians.

The study was based on surveys and interviews of private-sector personnel at 300 companies, along with focus group research.

Founded by the Legislature in 1987, TIINS is a non-profit information clearinghouse to provide research data to companies and scientists around the country.

S&L high roller gambled too much

DALLAS (AP) - Donald Ray Dixon never profited from his misappropriation of Vernon Savings & Loan funds, in fact he invested $13 million into the thrift and has a $5 million personal debt in the wake of its failure, Dixon's defense lawyer says.

Defense attorney William Ravkind's statements came after prosecution portrayed Dixon as a highflying Texan who had pleasure in his mind more than supervising his S&L's affairs.

The federal fraud trial, one of the most prominent prosecutions in the nationwide cleanup of the savings & loan crisis, began Thursday with the government claiming Dixon used Vernon Savings Association funds for prostitutes, beach houses, a yacht and other expensive entertainment.

"In these instances, Vernon paid for the toys of Mr. Dixon. The bottom line is Don Dixon didn't pay for these toys," said Robert E. Hauberg, a U.S. Justice Department attorney.

But Ravkind said investigators have pressured witnesses into accusing Dixon of masterminding a conspiracy.

Ravkind urged the jury not to believe testimony from several former Vernon officers and employees who have entered into plea agreements with the government rather than face prosecution.

"They (the expected witnesses) thought the scapegoat wanted a scapegoat. The scapegoat they wanted was Don Dixon," Ravkind said. "They knew if the government couldn't have him, who was next in line? Them."

He said that many of Vernon's financial problems were caused by government deregulation.

Museum toured by club

The Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum in Canyon was toured Oct. 21 by members of the Valeda Study Club. Of special interest was the exhibit of paintings and sculpture by regional artists.

Following a tour of the galleries, the group adjourned to Braum's Ice Cream Parlor where President Della Hutchins conducted a brief business meeting. Plans were finalized for the club's trip to see the "Nutcracker" in Amarillo in December.

Those making the trip were Hutchins, Juanita Brown, Ruth Fish, Norma Walden, Joyce Ritter and Betty Gilbert.

Tips on how to hook fish

Hooked on fishing? If your goal were to catch every kind of fish there is, you'd really have your work cut out for you.

Scientists have named and described about 21,000 kinds of fish. Each year they discover new species, so the total keeps increasing.

Ever drive by a mountain lake and just wish you had a boat handy so you could go fishing? Now you can keep a fishing boat in your car at all times—an inflatable fishing boat, that is.

If you're interested in getting to where the really big ones lurk, Sea Eagle motormount boats and sport boats can get you to fishing spots other fishermen only dream about—out of the way bass ponds, remote mountain lakes, scenic inland bays.

When rigged with floorboards, motormount and fishing seat, these boats become real fishing machines that can give you years of safe, stable fishing fun.

The boats are lightweight, rugged and reliable. Simple to inflate and assemble, Sea Eagle boats are easily stowable in your trunk or up on your cartop.

Harriers head for 1-4A meet

Born to run

Netters reach 1-4A semis

The Hereford Whiteface tennis team reached the semifinals of the Region 1-4A Tournament in Lubbock with a pair of wins Thursday.

The Herd knocked off Burkburnett, 11-7, in the first round and ripped Snyder, 15-3, in the quarterfinals.

Against Burkburnett, the Herd girls picked up seven wins while the boys gained four wins.

In girls singles, Brenna Reinauer beat Amy Schumacher, 6-1, 6-0; Gina Alley beat Tracy Schumacher, 6-3, 7-6 (7-5); Robyn Sublett lost to Stephanie Spain, 2-6, 6-4, 6-4; Trisha Munoz beat Melissa McLaughlin, 5-7, 6-0, 6-0; Trisha Teel beat Marian George, 6-1, 2-6, 6-1, and Bri Reinauer beat Tina Jans, 6-2, 6-1.

In girls doubles, Brenna Reinauer and Alley lost to Amy Schumacher and Spain, 6-4, 7-6 (7-3); Munoz and Sublett beat Tracy Schumacher and McLaughlin, 7-5, 6-2, and Teel and Bri Reinauer beat George and Jans, 6-3, 3-6, 6-3.

In boys singles, Randy Robbins lost to Chris New, 6-2, 6-1; Greg Coplen lost to Art Beasley, 6-1, 6-1; Torey Sellers lost to Shane White, 7-6

The Hereford Whiteface and Lady Whiteface cross country teams will compete in the District 1-4A Meet beginning at 10 a.m. Saturday at Thompson Park in Amarillo.

Coach Martha Emerson said the meet will be a different experience for the runners with only six teams competing.

"Everybody's been running at meets where there were as many as 200 runners in each division and now there's only going to be about 35 or 40," Emerson said. "That's got to make some kind of a difference just because there won't be so much bumping around at the start."

Emerson said the Thompson Park course should be conducive to some of the best times of the season from the Herd harriers.

"That course is flat," she said, "so the times should be a little faster on it. The times run by other districts that held their meets at Thompson Park look pretty good. I think the runners will like it all right."

In the team races, Emerson said Borger should be the class of the field for both boys and girls while the second regional berth in both divisions could be a close race.

"The Borger coach said he has some girls that have really paid the price," she said. "They worked out all summer and were ready to compete this year. They have got to be considered the favorites."

"We can run with them the first three runners, but their fourth, fifth and sixth runners can outrun ours."

Emerson added that second place for the girls should come down to Hereford and Canyon Randall.

"I think it will be a two-team race for second place," she said. "I don't think anybody can catch Borger."

"I try not to underestimate Randall because they sneaked up on us at district last year. We should be able to beat them if we'll run what we're capable of."

"They have one girl, Mandi Bentley, that's been out for three weeks with a stress fracture. She may be able to run, but I don't know what kind of shape she'd be in."

Among the other teams in the field, Emerson said there are some good individuals, but no teams with the depth needed to get out of district.

"Pampa has one or two good runners, but they don't have a whole team of good ones. Caprock has one real good one that will be up close to the top five, but their other four are pretty far back in the pack."

"Borger, Hereford and Randall are the three top teams."

In the race for the girls individual title, Emerson said Hereford's Teresa Castillo should be able to defend the title she won last year. Castillo has won for of six meets she has run in with on second-place finish and a third. Castillo posted her best time (12 minutes, six seconds) in winning the Hereford meet and has consistently been around the 12:30 mark.

"Nobody in the district has beaten her," Emerson said, "so she ought to be the favorite."

One more time

Lori Sanders of the Hereford Lady Whitefaces gets into a spike during a recent match. The Herd will face Dumas for the third time this season in a one-match district playoff at 4 p.m. Saturday.

Spikers ready for third Dumas clash

The Hereford Lady Whitefaces will be in a familiar position Saturday when they face the Dumas Demonettes at 4 p.m. at the Caprock Activity Center in Amarillo in a one-match playoff to determine District 1-4A playoff seedings.

The Herd (18-6, ranked No. 4 in Class 4A) and Dumas (22-4, ranked No. 3) finished as district co-champions at 9-1 after both won in two games on the other team's home floor. The same situation forced a playoff after the 1989 season.

Despite all the similarities, Lady Whiteface coach Brenda Reeh there is little resemblance between the two Hereford teams after losing eight seniors from last year.

"This bunch started the year with very little varsity experience," she said. "But they are really hard workers. They kept fighting all season and really showed improvement."

Reeh said the key for the Herd will be to take advantage of individual matchups at the net.

"We're going to try to key in on individual Dumas players and beat them," she said. "Dumas may not be as tough mentally as they were last year (in winning a second state title) and we've got to take advantage of that and gain the momentum."

"Every team in the playoffs is good, so we have to be able to get the ball to whichever hitter gets hot as much as possible. And we also have to be able to adjust and go with different strategies."

Reeh added that the teams' contrasting styles will also dictate how the match goes.

"Dumas pretty much plays their top six and they all play every position. We're a little more specialized and rotate people in and out."

"They also are more of a power type team while we try to mix it up with our attack. It should make things interesting."

Off to the races

Stacy Sanders takes off down the sideline with a fumble return during Thursday's game with Pampa. The play helped set up a Herd touchdown.

Herd JV, sophomores score convincing wins

The four Hereford Whiteface varsity football teams were all at home Thursday to host opponents from four different schools.

The Herd junior varsity rolled to its fifth straight win with a 41-20 decision over Dumas while the sophomore team stymied Amarillo Palo Duro, 27-6. In freshman games, the Hereford Maroon team was blanked 38-0 by Borger while Pampa edged the White squad, 20-12.

Herd JV 41, Dumas 20

Hereford amassed 662 total offensive yards in the game, but the Dumas run-and-shoot attack came up with 336 to keep the game closer than the score indicated.

The Herd defense stopped the Demons on downs five times inside the 25-yard line in the game and came up with three turnovers.

Petey Colvin led the Herd with 245 yards and four touchdowns while Shawn Fogo added 178 yards. Chad Sandoval completed the only two passes he attempted for 47 yards and a touchdown.

The defense got the game's first points when Jason Tatarevich intercepted a pass from Dumas' Paul Legg and returned it 55 yards for the score. Tatarevich also intercepted a conversion pass following a Demon touchdown and knocked down five passes in the endzone to help thwart Dumas drives.

Dumas cut the lead to 7-6 following a Hereford mistake, taking over on the Herd 34 after a bad punt snap. The Demons struck quickly, covering the distance in two plays with the score coming on an 18-yard pass from Legg to Brian Fleming.

Hereford responded with a six-play drive that culminated in Colvin's 31-yard scoring run to lead 13-6 at the end of the first quarter.

After the defense stopped two Dumas possessions inside the Herd 20, the offense drove 81 yards in nine plays with Fogo picking up 73 yards on seven runs. Colvin finished the job off with a 4-yard run.

Dumas came back with another quick strike as Legg hit Carlos Arenivar for a 62-yard touchdown on the first play after the kickoff.

Hereford upped the score to 20-12 with a 23-yard run from Colvin, but the Demons needed only three plays to put the ball inside the Herd 1. The defense rose again, stopping Dumas on four plays from that point to preserve the lead going into halftime.

The Herd posted the only score in the third quarter on Colvin's 20-yard run. The play was set up when Kevin Kelso pulled in a pass from Sandoval for 36 yards.

Hereford added its final touchdown with a five-play drive that ended with Sandoval hitting Matthew Reiter on 11 yards out for the score to give Hereford a comfortable 41-12 lead.

Dumas put the final points with a quick five-play march to Smiley Carbajal's 11-yard scoring run.

Herd Sophs 27, Palo Duro 6
Hereford controlled the game throughout, taking a 27-0 lead before Palo Duro could get on the board in the fourth quarter.

Quarterback Jake Head put the Herd in front on a keeper in the first quarter.

Head hooked up with Leonard Martinez for a 25-yard scoring toss in the second quarter and Joey Garcia added a 32-yard touchdown run. Hereford took a 20-0 lead into halftime after Richard Wilbanks took a conversion pass from Head.

Wilbanks moved to quarterback for the entire second half after Head went out with an injury and directed a drive that ended with Quincy Curtis crossing the goal line.

The Dons finally got on the board when Hereford fumbled at the Herd 15 to set up Billy Mason's touchdown.

Borger 38, Frosh Maroon 0
Borger opened a 20-0 lead in the first half and added three more touchdowns in the second for the win.

Borger kept the Herd offense under wraps the entire game, allowing only two first downs.

Pampa 20, Frosh White 12
Pampa jumped out to a 14-0 advantage early in the second quarter before Hereford responded with a pair of touchdowns to make the halftime score 14-12.

Rowdy Cates got the Herd on the board when he returned the kickoff following Pampa's second score 87 yards for a touchdown.

The Herd defense set up the next score when safety Stacy Sanders scooped up a fumble and ran it back 43 yards to the Pampa 17. Jeremy Blair then hit Josh Torres over the middle for a 15-yard touchdown.

The second half saw every snap take place on Hereford's side of the 50-yard line as three Herd turnovers gave Pampa good field position. The Herd defense stopped the Harvesters on downs three straight possessions inside the 20, but the Harvesters were able to put the ball in the endzone on fourth down the next time they were close.

NETTERS

(7-3), 7-6 (7-3); Jamie Kapka beat Brian Fox, 6-3, 6-2; Eric Cortez beat Mike Wagler, 6-2, 4-6, 6-2, and Donny Perales lost to Jerron Longford, 6-4, 7-5.

In boys doubles, Robbins and Coplen lost to New and Beasley, 6-4, 6-4; Sellers and Cortez beat White and McClain, 6-3, 6-4, and Kapka and Perales beat Fox and Wagler, 6-7 (12-14) 6-3, 6-2.

Against Snyder, the Herd boys swept their six singles matches in straight sets.

Robbins beat Marcus Best, 6-3, 6-2; Coplen beat Kevin McMillan, 6-1, 6-1; Sellers beat Damon Kennedy, 6-0, 6-4; Kapka beat Jason Warren, 6-2, 6-1; Cortez beat Michael Hess, 6-4, 6-2, and Perales beat Chris Gayle, 7-5, 6-3.

HARRIERS

Emerson added that the real race could be for the last two of five individual berths for region.

"Teresa and two Borger girls I think are going to be in the top five," she said. "And I think the next three or four places are going to be just really tough. The Bentley girl has been to region and state and she's sitting close to No. 5. Brandie Webb is up there, Lisa (Zepeda) ran as well as she did last week and there's another Borger girl sitting right there. And the Caprock girl's good.

"If Caprock and Randall feel their teams can't make it, those two girls are going to be out for everything they can get to try and be in the top five. Those top six or seven places are going to be tough."

In the boys division, Emerson said the Herd will run a full team for the first time in three weeks.

"We will run Jack Borden, Jerry Gallegos, Raymon Lopez, Chris Hart and Armando Garza plus we'll move up Eric Davis and Chancy Bainum. They've worked out all year long and they'll give it their best shot. We haven't run real well the last couple of weeks, but I think they'll compete."

In boys doubles, Robbins and Coplen lost to Best and McMillan, 4-6, 6-2, 6-4; Sellers and Cortez beat Kennedy and Kiron Kemp, 6-0, 6-2, and Kapka and Perales beat Hess and Warren, 6-2, 1-6, 6-1.

In girls singles, Brenna Reinauer beat Kathy Ogburn, 6-0, 6-0; Alley beat Gayle Henderson, 6-1, 6-0; Sublett lost to Leslie Sandoval, 7-5, 6-3; Munoz beat Rachel Wilson, 6-2, 6-2; Teel beat Robin Cave, 6-3, 6-4, and Bri Reinauer beat Christina Gouzales, 6-3, 6-1.

In girls doubles, Brenna Reinauer and Alley lost to Henderson and Wilson, 6-4, 6-3; Munoz and Sublett beat Ogburn and Cave, 6-4, 6-3, and Teel and Bri Reinauer beat Sandoval and Gonzales, 6-1, 7-6 (7-5).

With Borger the clear favorite, Emerson said Amarillo Caprock is in good position to place second in the team race.

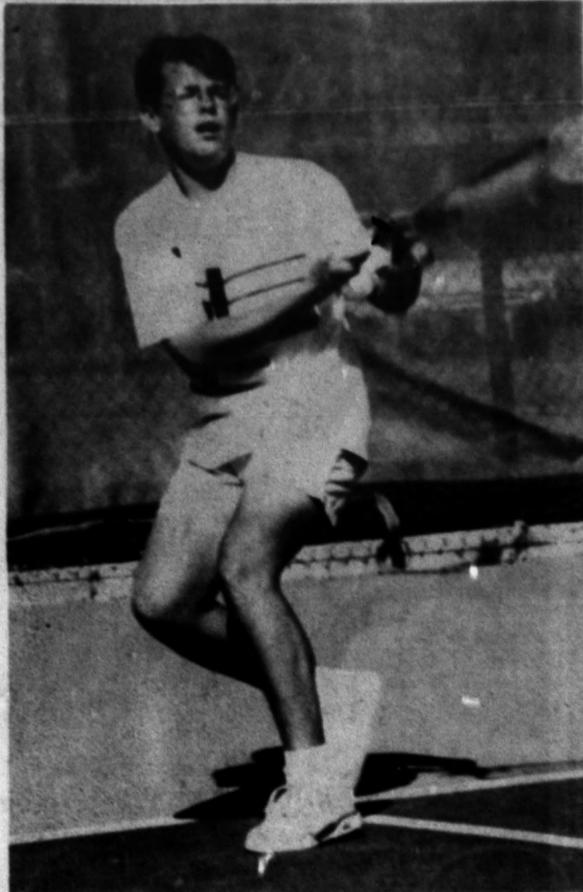

"The Borger boys are probably going to win the district and Caprock is probably sitting second. Caprock looks pretty good, but the Borger boys look real good just like their girls do."

Emerson added that the Herd does have a chance of getting a regional representative in Borden.

"Jack is capable of being in the top five if he'll run. There are two Borger guys that have outrun him, but he's pretty close to one when he runs a good race. I think he's determined to be in the top five. He's just going to have to get in their and run.

"He catches a cramp in the side every once in a while like he did last Saturday. But I think if he cramps this week he won't decide to forget it and come back tomorrow because there won't be a tomorrow. I think he'll run well.

He ran a 17:14 at Lubbock, and if he can do that on that course he's capable of running under 17 minutes on the Amarillo course."

Ann Landers

DEAR ANN LANDERS: I am a 38-year-old woman who has read your column since grade school. You have given comfort and guidance, and how I need help.

I hate controversy and find myself bending over backwards to avoid trouble. I have learned it requires much less energy in the long run to keep quiet when dealing with my parents. I am a gutless wonder. I am hoping you will print this letter and that they will read it. I am ashamed to admit I don't have the nerve to say this to their faces.

My parents think nothing of asking how much money my husband and I are making, how much rent we pay and how much our furniture cost.

They also keep asking personal questions about how we are getting along, although there has never been any indication that we are having trouble.

I see here two basic problems. No. 1, they've always wanted to control their children's lives. No. 2, they attach too much importance to money and what it can buy.

My parents are no longer on speaking terms with my brother because they wouldn't stop pumping him for information about his finances and his personal life. Finally, he told them, "Good-bye and good luck."

I should tell you that aside from their nosiness they are very kind and loving people, but I am really fed up—Their Daughter Not Their Child

DEAR DAUGHTER: Don't wait until the Fourth of July to make your Declaration of Independence. The very next time they ask a question that you consider inappropriate simply say, "MYOB." If your parents aren't readers of this column, they may not know that MYOB means Mind Your Own Business, in which case, explain it to them.

Consider the fact that perhaps they treat you like a child because you have permitted it. When you are secure enough to let them know in a no-nonsense way that you are a grown woman and expect to be treated like one, they will respect you wishes.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: I'm asking for your advice about a problem that I'm sure affects thousands of people.

My mother is 97. She is mentally alert, pays her bills, writes checks, ect. but I think she is soft in the head when it comes to her gullibility for mail-order schemes that offer huge prizes.

Every day it seems, she gets a seductive letter from some TV personality saying, "You may already have won $1,000,000." She ignores the small print and hidden "if" clauses.

The dear woman orders a new magazine, a bunch of bulbs or some piece of junk almost every day. She waits week after week for the money she has been "promised." All she gets is more envelopes with more order forms and more empty promises.

These merchandising schemes are victimizing thousands of old folks. Ann, what can we do to stem this tide of legal fakery?—Boiling in Oregon

DEAR OREGON: Those sleazy operators have cleverly avoided prosecution because they know exactly how far they can go and stay within the law.

Unless you can persuade your mother not to send for anything until she checks with you, I see no solution.

Lonesome? Take charge of your life and turn it around. Write for Ann Landers' new booklet, "How to Make Friends and Stop Being Lonely."

Send a self-addressed, long, business-size envelope and a check or money order for $4.15 (this includes postage and handling) to: Friends, c/o Ann Landers, P.O. Box 11562, Chicago, Ill. 60611-0562. (In Canada, send $5.05.)

LOS ANGELES (AP) - Actor Edward Woodward is returning to television after a heart attack and exhaustion associated with working on the old show "The Equalizer."

When he quit two years ago, Woodward said he wouldn't be back in another TV series, but he says he got restless and liked the role offered him in the new CBS show "Over My Dead Body."

"I did not want to do another television series, but it had nothing to with the heart attack, although that was a terrifying experience," Woodward said recently.

CLASSIFIEDS

Call Janey Allmon at the Hereford Brand, 364-2030, or come by 313 N. Lee to place your classified advertising. We reach thousands everyday!

CLASSIFIED ADS

Classified advertising rates are based on 14 cents a word for first insertion ($2.80 minimum), and 10 cents for second publication and thereafter. Rates below are based on consecutive issues, no copy change, straight word ads.

TIMES	RATE	MIN
1 day per word	.14	2.80
2 days per word	.24	4.80
3 days per word	.34	8.80
4 days per word	.44	8.80
5 days per word	.54	10.80

If you run ads in five consecutive issues with NO changes, you get the same ad in the Reach 4 More free. The regular charge for that ad would be $3.80.

CLASSIFIED DISPLAY

Classified display rates apply to all other ads not set in solid word lines those with captions, bold or larger type, special paragraphing, all capital letters. Rates are $3.95 per column inch; $3.25 an inch for consecutive additional insertions.

LEGALS

Ad rates for legal notices are same as for classified display.

ERRORS

Every effort is made to avoid errors in word ads and legal notices. Advertisers should call attention to any errors immediately after the first insertion. We will not be responsible for more than one incorrect insertion. In case of errors by the publishers, an additional insertion will be published.

LEGAL NOTICES

The Commissioners Court of Deaf Smith County will open proposals for painting of specified areas of trim on the Courthouse of Deaf Smith County at 9 AM on November 2nd, 1990 in the Commissioners' Courtroom. Specifications may be obtained at the County Auditor's Office at 242 E. 3rd Street, Hereford, Texas. The Commissioners reserve the right to reject any and all proposals. Fri & Sat

TO ALL INTERESTED PERSONS AND PARTIES:

You are hereby notified of the opportunity for written public comment concerning the Construction Permit Application No. C-18812 by Amarillo Redi-Mix Company to construct a concrete batching plant in Hereford, Deaf Smith County, Texas. The proposed location is approximately 2 1/2 miles W. of intersection of 15th & Progressive Rd. This facility proposes to emit the following air contaminants: cement dust and sand and gravel dust. Before a permit can be issued for this facility, all emission sources must demonstrate compliance with all Rules and Regulations of the Texas Air Control Board and all applicable Federal Regulations. This includes the application of "best available control technology" to each emission source and compliance with all ambient air quality standards.

A copy of all materials submitted by the applicant is available for public inspection at the Texas Air Control Board Regional Office at Region 2; Gerald Hudson, P.E., Director; Briercroft South #1; 5302 South Avenue Q; Lubbock, Tx, 79412, (806)744-0090, and at the Texas Air Control Board, 6330 Highway 290 East, Austin, Texas 78723. All interested persons may inspect these materials and submit written comments to the Executive Director of the Texas Air Control Board. Any person who may be affected by emissions of air contaminants from the proposed facility may request a contested case hearing from the Board on the construction permit application pursuant to Section 3.271(c) of the Texas Clean Air Act. All comments and hearing requests must be received in writing by November 25, 1990. All written comments submitted to the Executive Director shall be considered in determining whether to issue or not issue the permit. All comments will be made available for public inspection at the Texas Air Control Board office in Austin.

Hints from Heloise

Dear Readers: Have you received a page torn from a newspaper with a full-page advertisement and a yellow stick-it note attached that says, "(your name), try this, it works!" and it's signed with some scribbled initial that is illegible?

If you have and wondered which one of your so-called friends sent you this, wonder no more. This is a clever advertising scam, and no friend sent it to you! In my August "Speaker of the House" column in Good Housekeeping magazine, I mentioned this misleading and upsetting advertising and I asked readers to let me know if they too were as disturbed by this as I was.

Thousands let me know! Some said, "I too thought this was from a friend or relative who was implying I needed to lose weight." "I couldn't figure out who would be so cruel to send this to me." "I just knew it was from my ex mother- or sister-in-law!" (Many of the newspaper ads are on a new weight-loss program, others on vitalizing health cures.)

Most heartbreaking were the letters like this one: "My mother died two years ago and I couldn't believe her friends would still be sending notes to her and my poor father is completely undone thinking her friends don't know she is gone."

What can you do to help stop this? Let me know if you have received one or more of these tear sheets. If you still have its envelope, please send it to me. I will pass each and every one of them on to the Better Business Bureau and the Federal Trade Commission. They are looking into this matter.

You can help me and the countless others who feel that this form of advertising is disgusting. Your response will help save others from being hurt or con-ned.

My address is Heloise, P.O. Box 795000, San Antonio, TX 78279. — Heloise

The Commissioners Court of Deaf Smith County will open proposals for a "Fax Machine" aka Facsimile transceiver at 9 AM on November 12, 1990 at the Courthouse. Please quote a plain paper and thermal paper machine. The Commissioners reserve the right to reject any and all proposals.

The Deaf Smith County Commissioners will receive proposals for a "Septic Tank Inspector" for the County at 9 AM November 12, 1990 at the Commissioners' Courtroom in the Courthouse. Persons interested in making the proposal need to be state certified or willing to train to become certified. For detailed information on the position contact the County Auditor at 364-2221 or 242 E. 3rd Street, Hereford, Texas. The Commissioners reserve the right to reject any and all proposals.

KENNETH SHORE

Shore recital set Sunday

Kenneth Shore, graduate student at West Texas State University, will hold his graduate recital on Sunday, Oct. 28, at 7 p.m. in the Mary Moody Northern Recital Hall on the campus of West Texas State University.

The concert repertoire will include music from the Renaissance to 20th century. The Chamber Singers from West Texas State University will be featured in a Bach Cantata and part of a Mozart Mass. They will also sing choral selections from Mendelssohn, Schumann, Britten, Pinkham, and Nystet.

Slated in the concert will be a group of eight Dumas High School students singing a group of madrigals such as "Amor Vittorioso," "The Silver Swan," and "All Joy and Mirth."

Shore is the son of Bill and Mary Lou Shore of Hereford.

All friends and family are invited to attend.

Teach your kids

Your child's first introduction to the world of finance may be through an allowance or a paper route. Experience shows that the earlier young people learn about money, the more likely they'll be good financial planners as adults.

Parents should be aware that the New York Stock Exchange can provide their children's schools with materials designed to teach junior and senior high school students about the stock market and economics. These materials help make these subjects interesting and also assist students with their personal career planning.

The materials include "You and the Investment World," a lively, illustrated 50-page study guide for students. The accompanying guide for teachers, "Taking Stock in the Future," provides overhead transparencies, classroom activities and student projects.

A 16-minute video, "The One Man Band That Went To Wall Street," combines animation with classroom-tested instruction, facilitating the teaching of fundamental economic concepts.

For a free leaflet on the series, write to the NYSE, Educational Services, Box P, 11 Wall Street, New York, NY 10005.

Shirley Temple, as a child star, wore exactly 56 curls in her hair. The curls were set by her mother who thus made sure of their exact number.

Facts About The BIBLE BY JOHN LEHTI

HER NAME HAS BECOME PART OF OUR LANGUAGE—JEZEBEL!

IT HAS BEEN A CUSTOM, IN MODERN TIMES, WHEN A WOMAN ATTRACTS AND SEEMS TO EXERT UNDUE INFLUENCE OVER A MAN, OR MANY MEN, FOR PEOPLE TO CALL HER A JEZEBEL. HOWEVER, NO MODERN COUNTERPART COULD EVER COMPETE WITH THE ORIGINAL JEZEBEL FOR DOWNRIGHT EVIL AND MURDEROUS ACTS! BORN A PHOENICIAN PRINCESS, DAUGHTER OF KING ETHBAAL, SHE MARRIED KING AHAB OF ISRAEL (CIRCA 865 B.C.) AND, IN SHORT ORDER, COMPLETELY DOMINATED THIS WEAK-WILLED RULER. ONCE AHAB WAS UNDER HER CONTROL, JEZEBEL IMMEDIATELY SET ABOUT DESTROYING ISRAEL'S RELIGION AND REPLACING IT WITH THE WORSHIP OF BAAL AND ASTARTE, PHOENICIAN DIETIES OF HER HOMETLAND....

...SHE INSTALLED, IN THE PALACE, AND SUPPORTED, NINE HUNDRED PRIESTS OF THIS HEATHEN RELIGION AND, IN TURN, HUNTED DOWN THE PRIESTS OF ISRAEL AND SLAUGHTERED THEM WHERE EVER SHE COULD! LOUNGING IN ORIENTAL LUXURY IN THE PALACE, SHE DIRECTED THE POLICIES OF THE KINGDOM, WHILE AHAB SAT WEEKLY BY HER SIDE, NEVER DARING TO DISPUTE HER. HER SCHEMINGS, HER CRUELITIES, AND HER PASSION FOR BLOOD-SPELLING ARE RECORDED IN THE BOOK OF 1 KINGS. ONLY ELIJAH, THE GREAT PROPHET, STOOD UP AGAINST THIS WICKED QUEEN AND FOUGHT HER EVIL INFLUENCE AT EVERY TURN. HER OWN DEATH AND DESTRUCTION WAS PREDICTED BY THE PROPHET AND TOOK PLACE EXACTLY AS HE PROPHESED IT WOULD! (1 KINGS 9:30-37)

NEXT WEEK: HE HAD TO REBUILD THE WALLS TO REBUILD A NATION!
