COMMERCIAL CHAMBER NAILS RUMORS TO CONTRARY

PROBLEM HEARD

Chicago Men Figuring on Line From Quanah to Tucumcari, N. M.

Due probably to the fact that a Hereford representative was unable to attend the recent Fort Worth meeting on the proposed West Texas railroad, an impression has apparently been spread among competing towns that Hereford does not want the railroad. This rumor was discussed at Monday's luncheon and just to get the matter straightened out in the minds of any doubting Thomases as to how Hereford stands on a railroad project a unanimous vote was adopted telling the world that Hereford wants any railroad that may be built in this general direction and instructing the railroad committee and secretary to keep close watch on the march of railroad events.

E. W. Harrison, chairman of the railroad committee of the Chamber of Commerce, remarked dryly: "I have said that I would give $5000 for a railroad from Tucumcari to Fort Worth. I will give any man a suit of clothes who can produce any proof that I have ever intimated that I did not want another railroad." With which this ridiculous gossip was disposed of.

Much activity has been displayed by T. J. Dimmitt, Quanah, Silverton and other towns the past few days in the investigations of a couple of Chicago

Grady Store Was Fired Thru Queer Gas Combustion

Last Saturday afternoon while the Fallwell and Locker Truck, containing six or seven barrels, was unloading some gasoline in the underground tank of L. M. Boney at Grady, N. M., the gasoline which was being drawn from a barrel on the truck into the tank, became ignited. The blaze was first noticed in the funnel just above the tank. The fire soon spread to Mr. Boney's large mercantile store which was soon a heap of ruins and almost a complete loss. The truck, containing several barrels of gas, was not damaged to a great extent as it was moved to a place of safety. The fire on it was extinguished by a little boy who seemed to be the only one who realized the danger of the burning truck with its several barrels of gasoline.

The supposition of the origin of the fire was static electricity, the air that day being heavily charged. Mr. Boney's building and stock carried some insurance.

LIGHT SNOW FALLS TUESDAY; FRUIT MAY BE DAMAGED

A cool wave descended upon this vicinity Monday and the Weather Man predicted frost for Tuesday morning. Instead, however, it clouded up during the night and Tuesday forenoon a very light snow was drifting downward.

Many gardens have been planted hereabouts and the fruit is in full bloom. Just what the change will do to growing things is problematical at this writing, but so far it is not believed to have been cold enough to kill the fruit.

GEO. E. BURNS HAS INTERESTING TRIP THRU NEW MEXICO

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. E. Burns and family reached home Friday night from an automobile trip to Deming, N. M., where they inspected their farm. They report fair conditions in the neighboring state and an interesting and instructive trip.

Interesting Data On Sulphur Park Given Inquirers

The Brand believes that the Sulphur Park Country Club now being organized is one of the finest things that could be conceived for the future development of Hereford. Many out-of-town inquiries are being received asking questions about this club and the grounds. The data being compiled is interesting, and is believed to be of real interest right here at home. Here are some of the facts:

Sulphur Park Country Club is on the waters of the Frio and Tierra Blanco creeks, four miles east of Hereford. This Club comprises two sections of land (1,250 acres) and has two miles of everlasting water running through the grounds where the sunny tribe in teeming millions gamble along the mossy banks. There are now a number of trees along the banks and on the 300 acres of subirrigated land trees can be grown in abundance. This club will have 400 members when the stock is all sold. The 400 shares are of the par value of $250.00 each, making $100,000.00. This will pay for the land and leave about $30,000.00 for improvements. Two hundred shares are already sold and fifty more will be sold at par and the remainder at an advance.

It is the intention of the directors to make this the ideal and most valuable club grounds in the state. Included in the membership now are people from a number of Panhandle towns, Plainview, Lubbock, Floydada, Lockney, Farwell, Clovis and San Jon, N. M., Bovina, Summersfield, Hereford, Umbarger, Amarillo, Clearendon, Groom, Panhandle, Pampa, and one prosperous oil man and rancher from Graham. A central club house and a number of private cottages will be built during the year. Swimming pools, bath houses and motor boats will be arranged as rapidly as possible. Golf links, tennis courts, polo and other out-door sports will be provided for.

So far as is known this club ground has the only sulphur spring in the Panhandle, hence the name.

This club was temporarily organized on April 12 and a general stockholders meeting and fish fry will be held in May to complete the organization.

It is also being considered by the directors to eventually have deer, antelope and buffalo, and when the trees are well grown to get pheasants and quail so that the children of the members can become familiar with the early inhabitants of the country and at the annual meetings of the stock holders they can feast on "fish and wild game."

CHRISTIAN REVIVAL GROWING IN DAILY MEETINGS

The revival services being conducted at the Christian church are attracting a great deal of attention and are growing in interest and attendance from day to day. Dr. J. T. McKissick, president of the Midland College, is conducting the services and is fast making friends and converts by his masterly presentation of his subject and the illustrative powers of the stories he tells to bring home his points.

FORMER EMPLOYEE ATTENDS FUNERAL OF R. N. MOUNTS

George Fain, an old time friend and employe of R. N. Mounts, left Hereford Monday morning for his home at Memphis, Texas. Mr. Fain formerly was employed on the Mounts ranch and remained at that place for fifteen years. He left Hereford about two years ago.

MIDLAND MAN TELLS JOKES AT LUNCHEON

REVIVALIST PLEASING WITH HUMOR AND OPTIMISM

PROMOTER BUSY

Usual Good Crowd in Transaction of Business Matters

Another dandy good crowd turned out to the regular weekly luncheon at the Stockmen's Cafe this week. Chairman McDonald presided. The program was wound up by a witty and interesting talk from the Rev. J. T. McKissick, president of Midland College, who is conducting a revival here at present. Rev. McKissick shot a string of humorous stories at his hearers that caused one laugh after another, and through them all ran the thought cooperation and optimism is the keynote to community success. "I hate to associate with a fellow whose face is long enough to eat oats out of a churn," summed up the speaker.

The impression that has been spread abroad, apparently by competing towns that Hereford is lukewarm about the proposed West Texas railroad was nulled with a resolution declaring this city's hat in the ring for any railroad that can be obtained. A request from the Panhandle-Plains Chamber of Commerce for financial aid in fighting proposed increases in grain rates was referred to the proper committee. Another proposition from the same body for aid in putting over the Palo Duro Park proposition was deferred until next week for action. Committee reports on the South West Trail, Plainview meeting in May and Chautauque were heard.

Next Monday the dinner will be held at the City Cafe, and arrangements are under way to obtain an out-of-town speaker for the occasion.

R. N. MOUNTS LAID TO REST BY SORROWING MULTITUDE

A great outpouring of friends and acquaintances Sunday afternoon for the funeral ceremonies of the late R. N. Mounts attested the esteem in which he was held in the community and the grief occasioned by his loss. It was one of the largest funeral processions ever held in this vicinity. Cars filled the streets for blocks in every direction about the Baptist church. Rev. J. E. McClurkin spoke feelingly and impressively. The floral offerings were beautiful and in great profusion. The body was laid to rest in the City Cemetery about four o'clock Sunday afternoon.

SANTA FE OFFICIALS STOP OFF HERE FOR VISIT

Santa Fe officials spent Monday evening in Hereford, arriving at about 6 p. m. on a bridge and inspection trip. The personnel was made up of F. J. McKie, Division Supt., J. B. Briscoe, Asst. Supt., E. M. Roush, bridge building foreman, W. H. Wyman, civil engineer, E. McConnell, roadmaster.

Bovina Inventor Meeting Success With New Patent

Henry Hastings and Carl Cockrell of Hereford are highly elated over information just received from O. C. Schlenker of Bovina, who is now in Kansas City, regarding the outlook for the Schlenker Tire Carrier and Changer, an invention of great financial promise and in which these gentlemen are interested. Besides Messrs. Schlenker, Hastings and Cockrell, Al Berggren of Farwell holds an interest in this invention by Mr. Schlenker.

The device is said to be the simplest and most practical yet discovered for expanding and contracting split rims. It is making a hit with every mechanic and engineer who sees it. Mr. Schlenker went to Kansas City to have patterns made, and will probably go on to Indianapolis, Ind., where foundry facilities are easily obtainable.

The company hopes to soon produce the invention in quantities, and at a cost of around $12.50 to $15.00 each to customers. A patent was granted in the United States on October 11, 1921, and patents have also been so far obtained from Canada and Australia.

Knights Templar Easter Services Very Impressive

One of the most beautiful and impressive sights that Hereford has witnessed in years was the gathering of the Knights Templar on Easter morning. Thirty-two strong, the Sir Knights marched from the Masonic Hall with military precision to the Presbyterian Church, where they listened to an inspiring sermon by the Rev. J. R. Sharp.

The Knights were in full dress uniform, were matched in height in the line of march, answered their officers' commands like trained veterans, and made an imposing impression as they filed into the church and took their places in a body. Geo. P. Garrison, ranking local officer, was in command, assisted by Henry Wilkinson, also an officer.

The Knights were very appreciative of Rev. Sharp's sermon and adopted a rising vote of thanks for the splendid talk he delivered. The solemnity of the occasion, the splendid discipline and appearance of the Knights, and the reverence evidenced on such a sacred occasion but bore out the viewpoint of the general public regarding the lofty and worth-while teachings of the ancient Order. Members participating in the ceremonies Sunday were: George P. Garrison, Henry Wilkinson, C. R. Barber, G. M. Suggs, E. F. Connel, W. E. Dunlap, J. A. Pitman, Edgar Ramey of Dimmitt, E. A. Johnson, D. H. Wilkinson, M. B. McLean, A. Herbst, Jas. E. Black, Fred Oberthier, Jr., H. L. Broadwell, A. Lawrence, G. A. Lewis, J. G. Hastings, H. B. Webb, F. R. Metcalf, C. C. Acker, H. D. Reed, C. P. Cockrell, Geo. L. Muse, C. F. Hastings of Bovina, E. B. Black, Roy M. Stocking, W. E. Dameron, John McLean, E. D. Fox, A. O. Thompson, J. A. Buckner.

CLOVIS SENIORS SHOW GOOD PLAY TO SMALL CROWD

The Clovis Seniors presented a play "The Adventures of Grandpa" to a Hereford audience at the Hardwick Theatre last Friday night. Due to the fact that the offering had not been extensively advertised only a small crowd witnessed the play, which was excellent in every particular and deserving of much more interest and patronage.

BANKERS BENEFIT ASS'N, HOME LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, FORMED HERE

T. K. WILSON AGENCY INAUGURATES NEW IDEA WITH SANCTION OF LOCAL BANKERS, KEEPS MONEY AT HOME

LOCAL BANKS WILL HANDLE FUNDS

And Supply Officers and Directors for New Concern. Plan To Incorporate About August 1, After Minimum of 200 Members Join. Plans Appear Good

A new era in home life insurance protection was inaugurated in Hereford Monday morning with the formal launching of the "Bankers Benefit Association of Hereford, Texas," promoted by the T. K. Wilson Insurance Agency and sanctioned by the three banking institutions of the city.

Mr. Wilson has been working on this plan for some weeks, has all formalities and legalities perfected, and Monday morning called a meeting, attended by E. B. Posey of the First National, Henry Wilkinson of the First State Bank & Trust Co., and Carl Gilliland, attorney for the new company, when final agreements were reached and Mr. Wilson was given the word "Go!" The salient features of the new life insurance company are:

A membership of 1,000; policies to bear face value of $2,000 each; membership fee and mortuary fund $15.00; annual dues 50¢ per thousand; officers and directors to be selected from the personnel of the three banks of Hereford; the secretary's work to be always vested in the T. K. Wilson Insurance Agency; a mortuary fund of between $10,000 and $20,000 to always be on

Seniors Working Hard on Play For Thursday, Apr. 20

The Seniors of Hereford High School who are working on the play "The Hoodoo" for Thursday matinee and night, April 20, are being drilled by Miss Nellie Farmer for the annual event. The play is a farce in three acts, very complete in every particular and advance information on it is very flattering.

A matinee will be given Thursday afternoon at 2:30, principally to allow the school children to see the play, and the performance will be repeated at night. Both performances will be given at the Hardwick Theatre. A detailed cast of characters and synopsis is given on another page of this issue of The Brand.

OPERETTA WILL BE GIVEN BY PUPILS IN CENTRAL SCHOOL

"Picnic Day in the Woods," an operetta for children, will be staged at the Central school building on May 5, at 8:00 p. m., under the direction of Miss Mattie Swisher. Songs used during the year will be rated in the operetta for grades one, two and three.

The operetta will be divided into three scenes: (1) walk to the Grove; (2) arrival at the Grove; (3) the return home. The play is a pretty one for the little folks and much interest is being evidenced by the pupils in its presentation.

deposit right here at home; spot cash in hand upon death of a member, even if an epidemic hits the country; age limits between twelve and fifty years; medical examination required.

The company is to be incorporated upon receipt of 200 applications for membership and August 1 has been fixed as the date of the closing up of this preliminary campaign.

Upon the death of the first member an assessment of $10 will be made. Four deaths can then occur without another assessment. The three banks will share equally in the cash mortuary funds always maintained for instant payment of death claims.

Mr. Wilson stated that it was not the intention to supplant the present Hereford Benefit Associations, but that it was felt there was a field for all these concerns.

Local bankers all expressed themselves as highly pleased with the new plan. It gives adequate protection, insures prompt payment of claims, is as safe as any old-line insurance company in the world, and keeps the money right here at home. The banks and the Wilson Agency are named to perpetually handle the affairs of the company for the reason that individuals in the banks and the Agency may die, or leave here, but the business concerns themselves will go on indefinitely, even if all the present officers pass out. It will also aid in keeping out of the new company the petty jealousies and bickerings that come up in the conduct of most home insurance concerns.

Mr. Wilson stated Monday that he had placed a half million dollars locally in life insurance during the past four years and that only one death claim had been paid in that time. Those who have examined the plan in detail pronounce it the loftiest and most sensible life insurance proposition ever presented here and predict a popular support throughout all this section.

The new company will present the facts about the proposition in Friday's Brand. Watch for it.

High Grain Rates Threatened From Panhandle-Plains

The Hereford Chamber of Commerce is advised by the Panhandle-Plains Chamber of Commerce at Amarillo that a group of Kansas City grain dealers have filed complaint with the Interstate Commerce Commission alleging discrimination in rates on grain and grain products from Panhandle points.

The statement is made that the railroads will contend for the Kansas City basis of rates to Galveston, which will mean an increase of 12½¢ per hundred on wheat and 11½¢ on kafir and maize in freight rates from this territory in future, if the contention is allowed. Panhandle towns are called upon to contribute to a fund to fight this proposed increase.

The matter was discussed at Monday's luncheon and is now being investigated by the Hereford Chamber of Commerce.

REV. J. E. MCCLURK IN NOW RESIDENT OF SHAMROCK, TEX.

The Rev. J. E. McClurkin, former pastor of the First Baptist Church of Hereford, going from here to Kingfisher, Okla., is now pastor of the church at Shamrock, Texas. Rev. McClurkin was called to Hereford last Sunday to conduct the funeral services for the late R. N. Mounts. He also preached morning and night at the church to large crowds.

WHERE ADVERTISING IS PROPERLY FORBIDDEN

The Forest Service of the Department of Agriculture has done well to prohibit the painting of advertisements on the rocks of the seventeen national forests of California, and to order stopped the erection of advertisements on trees. Besides being unightly such advertisements are useless, nay, worse than useless; they create resentment instead of interest. The bill board at best is an appeal to the primitive mind; certainly it should not be permitted to destroy the beauty of the country.

If the department having stopped the advertising of outside products within the forests will now begin to advertise the forests and national parks where they should be advertised, in the newspapers, Washington will take a step forward in modern business conduct that indicates an intelligence sadly lacking up to date, Mr. Lester to the contrary notwithstanding.

THE DAWN OF CHRISTIANITY

The wireless telephone will soon sound the death knell of religious intolerance, and will bring more good to the world than any force wrested from nature since time began, and the ministers who really think and are in intelligent contact with the men and women of the world, have suddenly come to see that it is not so much the churches, as the things the churches stand for and the manner of their interpretation, that is going to count. When sermons are broadcasted from coast to coast, the people will soon come to sense the true from the false in religious leadership and to know where may best be found christianity. No longer may the narrow minded parson stand as the law and the prophets infusing misleading doctrine into simple minds under the shadow of the cloth. Too many creeds have suffered because of the misinterpretation by little men dealing with the biggest of subjects. Today the ministers' congregation is the country, and soon it will be the world. When this happens the dawn of a real Christianity will have broken and a harmony between man and his Maker develop to the glory of God and the blessing of His Creatures.

And now we get from C. F. More modest than the costume of the British and American flapper, seems to be the verdiet. It appears that, falling from the hat, a wide brimmed creation, fell yard after yard of rich black lace, completely concealing the noted figure of the snake charmer and reaching to the ankles. Only one shoulder was visible and on this was glued a single red rose to harmonize with a rose on the hat.

"The lesson," said the snake charmer, "is one of simplicity. A step from my bath, put on my hat and I am completely and comfortably dressed." Seemingly, the war with all its suffering, has not left France without her imagination and her daring, to say nothing of her passion to lead the world down the wildest avenues of dress construction. Longchamps has vied with Ostend for years in the matter of daring female attire, but the suggestion that a costume confined solely to a hat would meet the approval of professional reformers was beyond the wildest stretch of imagination even among the French a year ago. The world does move.

THE ROMANCE OF AGRICULTURE

Eugene Grace, President of the Bethlehem Steel Corporation, one of the later millionaires created by Schwab just as Carnegie put Schwab into the millionaire class, reports that the steel industry is sound, with business improving and with indications pointing to a steady growth. What a change in a decade. Before the vision of the elder Morgan molded for the business world the picture of a co-ordinated trade, the three or four hundred steel plants were in a chaotic state. The bold stroke of the iron hand of finance started the industry along the line of amazing accomplishment. The people were staggered at the results. They had not even thought of an industry in terms of the billion. The fluid shook their heads. It was admitted that behind the great issue of common stock there was not an asset worthy of the name. The plants had to be replaced every year or two, and the industry seemed to rest on a shifting sand. But time, and energy, backed by the sterling character and ability of men like Schwab, soon turned nebulous assets into a basis for sound credits, and today the steel industry is regarded almost as the unflinching barometer of the world's trade.

The romance of steel excites the imagination more than do the tales of Hans Anderson, but it will be nothing as compared with the romance of agriculture when some great organizing genius shows his head to lead the farmers to their promised land. Agricultural organization is more complex, of course, because where there were only a few hundred steel plants there are six and one-half million farms, but the financial returns will be correspondingly great and far more lasting when organization is perfected. The business problems are almost identical, the co-ordination of production of selling and of distribution. The Farm Bureau and the agricultural bloc are the two first signs of the times. Upon that foundation is bound to be built the emancipation of the farmer from a life of drudgery and a worldwide industry that will benefit all mankind.

HEREFORD IS AFTER WEST TEXAS R. R.

railroad builders now in this territory. Last Tuesday Secretary R. M. Fielder of the Tulla Chamber of Commerce, accompanied by Foster Klaus, E. G. Barks and C. I. Cooper, all of Tulla, passed through Hereford after having escorted these railroad men to Tucumcari over a proposed route running from Quanah to the New Mexico city, via Silvertown, Tulla, Dhamitt, Friona and Grady. The Chicago men held a meeting with Castro county citizens, also made definite proposals which have not yet been fully accepted. It is understood. Monday of this week a delegation of Castro county citizens left to attend a meeting on this proposed route at Crown, Texas.

There appear to be a half dozen proposed routes for this road; different towns are lining up to protect their own interests. There is the usual milling around when a railroad is proposed. Meanwhile Hereford's hat is in the ring if a railroad is to be built and when the dust cloud clears away will be found rarin' to go. The Quanah Tribune-Chief carries the following story about the personnel and proposals of the Chicago promoters now in this territory:

"On Tuesday the T.-C. man met C. H. Powell and E. J. Noonan of Chicago, who were accompanied by John Sharp, president of the First National Bank of Turkey.

"Mr. Powell two years ago became interested in the Amarillo oil field, and after visiting the South Plains noticed the great need of its people for a direct railroad outlet to the Gulf. It seemed to him that a railroad developing the coal beds of New Mexico, and handling the traffic between Los Angeles and the Gulf would be sure of an immense through freight as well as creating lots of business along its route.

"Plains people that he mentioned this subject to became enthused over the prospect, and Mr. Powell decided upon going into the project and examining its feasibility. He secured the services of the engineering firm of Wallace & Noonan of Chicago, who have an international reputation, and had a horseback survey made over the line west of Quanah.

"Besides securing data as to the proposed railroad bed, exhaustive information had to be gained about the country, and when the T.-C. man began to look over the mass of typewritten stuff, facts and figures, secured during the past two year, he concluded that this preliminary work must have cost Mr. Powell easily $20,000.

"He had employed high class help. John Findley Wallace, is the former chief engineer and vice president and general manager of the Illinois Central railroad; had been chief engineer of the Panama Canal; consultant to the president of the C. & N. W. on the new

Overdrafts—

Banks object to paying overdrafts, even though the party overdrawing is good for same.

The Treasury Department and Banking Department have control of all banks, both National and State, and rule that officers of banks do not have the right to pay checks for a larger amount than the maker may have on deposit.

So, while we wish to accommodate our customers whenever possible, we earnestly ask them to guard against this practice. When you overdraw your account you borrow someone else's money without their consent and without security.

A. & M. GIVES COURSE TO COUNTY AGENTS

College Station, Texas, April.—A special course to prepare prospective county agents for the examination that is now required of all applicants for positions by an enactment of the Thirty-Sixth legislature which names representatives of the A. & M. faculty as a board of examiners, will be given during the summer of the A. & M. College of Texas.

The course will last six weeks, beginning on July 24 and continuing until September 2. In this time the men will be given intensive training in animal husbandry and livestock sanitation, and dairy husbandry to acquaint them with the latest knowledge of value to the livestock industry of the state and enable them to meet any new problems that may arise. A study in agricultural engineering, agronomy and horticulture will acquaint them with the latest developments of science for field work. They will study a course in the history of extension work and become acquainted with the problems of extension administration. And finally, as a course for fitting them in the best manner to disseminate the information, they will be given instruction in extemporaneous speaking.
